Sen. Yarborough Speaks To Over 100 In Turkey

Over 100 people were on hand Friday afternoon, Aug. 22, to meet with Texas Senior Senator Ralph Yarborough in the school cafeteria in Turkey. After shaking hands with everyone present, coffee, punch and cookies were served by the ladies. Red, white and blue color scheme was used with a blue flower centerpiece, surrounded by red, white and blue candles topped by small United States flags. The table was covered with a white linen cloth and sterling appointments were used. The senator was introduced by Precinct 8 chairman Elmer Lacy. Senator Yarborough was met north of town by several carloads of Turkey citizens and escorted into town with Deputy Sheriff Clyde Rogers and the Turkey fire truck leading the parade. After making a short talk on the present high interest rates, the senator opened the meeting for questions and suggestions from the floor. He discussed the farm program and said he would support Rep. Bob Poage's farm bill which he felt was a good bill. He said that 18 of the 19 major farm organizations were supporting Rep. Poage's bill. He said he was opposed to the agricultural plan that would take out of production 74 million acres of land. He felt this would kill the family-type farms and would also mean the death of many small rural towns. Leaving Turkey the senator was escorted to the Midway Theatre by a group of Turkey citizens where a large "Welcome" (Continued on Page 10)

Spraying For Boll Weevils To Start Sept. 3 In County

Rainfall Measures 5.5 Inches During Week

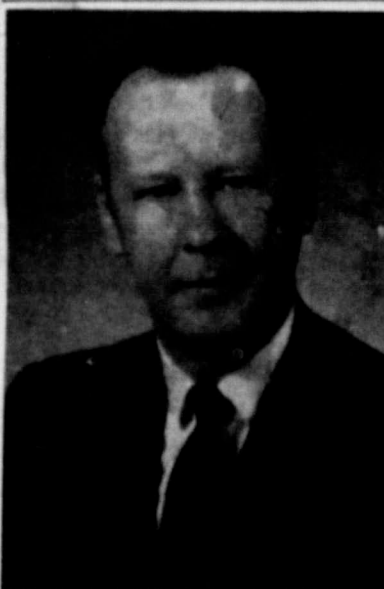

Although rainfall over Hall County has been spotted, rainfall last weekend and this week have at least given most areas one and a half inches. In an area east and south of Memphis, a total of over 8 inches has been reported, with six inches of it coming in one rain. Flying over this area Wednesday it was noted that Bryant Lake east of Memphis has extended its boundaries to flood cotton fields. Water was standing behind terrace lines in most of the fields east of Newlin. Rainfall south of Red River was spotted with Turkey areas reporting about one and a half inches for the week.

Also, the Plaska area is still in need of more rainfall as about one to one and a half has been reported in that area. Here in Memphis, Rayford Hutcherson, official weather observer, reported the week's total rainfall at 5.55 inches, the heaviest one-week total this year. The weather remains cool and cloudy this week. The Brice and Lesley areas have received from 2 to 5 inches of rainfall since last Thursday but amounts vary. Rainfall fell in strips throughout the area.

A bid has been let to the Wellington Flying Service by the Texas Dept. of Agriculture and the Hall County Insect Control Assn. for application of boll weevil insecticide in the Boll Weevil Diapause Control Program in Hall County. This program is scheduled to commence Sept. 3, 1969. All farmers of Hall County and some bordering neighbors are eligible to participate in this program. All that will be necessary is membership in the Hall County Insect Control Assn. which requires a fee of $5.00 per year. This year ends Oct. 14. Office space has been acquired directly across the street east of the First National Bank, next door to the Fisher Red River Ins. Agency office. Mrs. A. C. Sams, association secretary, will be available at the office during working hours. The contract calls for application of 16 oz. of Malathion (Ultra Low Volume) at five day intervals, weather permitting. The first application will be made Wednesday, Sept. 3, 1969. Any farmer who wishes to have his cotton sprayed should report to the Association office and give Mrs. Sams the exact acres involved, the exact location of these acres and a check for 78 cents per acre—the check being made payable to the Hall County Insect Control Assn. This must be done not later than 5 p. m., Monday, Sept. 1, 1969. Applications for having cotton sprayed Sept. 3 cannot be taken after this time because applicators must lay out spray patterns and plan very carefully. Land involved will be scattered over most of Hall County. Farmers may participate in as many applications as desired or until the money allotted to the Association by the Texas Agriculture Dept. has been exhausted, should this occur. Mr. Emory Bouring III, State Area Entomologist, advises that a farmer should plan on at least four applications. This program is not compulsory. The farmer may participate in any one or in all of the scheduled applications. After each application is completed, Fred Parker, Texas Agriculture Dept. Entomologist, along with two other field men, will spot check the fields for proper application and also the effectiveness (Continued on Page 10)

Three Scrimmages To Be Held Here

Highlighting sporting activities in Memphis this weekend are three football scrimmages sessions. Local fans are invited to watch all three at Cyclone Stadium. Coach Bert Glascock announced that the Electra Tigers and Bradford-Fritch teams will scrimmage Thursday at 7 p. m. in Cyclone Stadium (tonight). Electra is a District 2-AA foe of the Cyclone as these two teams will meet in Memphis on Oct. 31. The second scrimmage set for 7 p. m. Friday, Aug. 29, has the White Falls Rider going against Bradford. This scrimmage will be followed immediately, at 8 p. m., by the Memphis Cyclone and the Spearhead-Lynx scrimmage. Coach Glascock said this scrimmage will be conducted the same as the one last year. The purpose of these scrimmages is to look at as many boys as possible in different positions helping coaches assess potential of their players. "Workouts this week showed some improvement," Coach Glascock said. This is partially due to the weather. "We had more new recruits to come out this week," the coach said. The coach said that several of the boys have been doing outstanding work in practice sessions. He named: Ronald Bradshaw, E. L. Kirkland, Cornelius Timmons, Terry Wynn, Billy Gilmore, Charles Carroll, Max McQueen, Russell Smith, Merle Kilpatrick, Carol Bland, Ronnie Me-

Lakeview Citizens To Decide On Sales Tax

Lakeview residents were reminded of the Municipal Sales Tax election for the City of Lakeview to be held on Tuesday, September 9, 1969, at the City Hall in Lakeview. Absentee balloting in this election began on Wednesday, Aug. 20, and will continue through the 4th day preceding the date of the election, begin Friday, Sept. 5, at the City Hall in Lakeview. The ballot to be voted asks the voter to decide either for or against the adoption of a one percent local sales and use tax within the city of Lakeview. If voters approve the municipal sales tax for Lakeview, then a one percent tax above the state tax would be collected in retail outlets and sent in to the State of Texas. The State then keeps two per cent of this additional tax for handling charges and mails the remainder, 98 per cent, back to the City of Lakeview. City Secretary J. C. Stepp reported that if the tax is voted by citizens of Lakeview then the money would be used to clean up and improve the town such as hauling trash, repairs on streets, moving lots, purchase of tractor and mower, and other necessary improvements. Polls in this section will open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. on Sept. 9, with Dessie Davenport as presiding judge and Mrs. W. C. Hignight as alternate presiding judge for this election.

EDITORIAL

'A Good Deed Never Goes Unpunished' . . .

Clara Booth Luce, wife of the late publisher of Life and Time Magazines had a favorite expression concerning good deeds that just about covers the field, "a good deed never goes unpunished."

The Holy Bible teaches many aspects of charity, the virtue of being charitable and even what good deeds should be done and the way to do them. The passage, "It is better to give, than receive" is proven true time and time again through the walk of life.

We were reading the other day where officials of the U. S. Internal revenue Service had purchased a pony for a little girl who had written in to ask that her father's taxes be allowed to go unpaid for a week so he would buy her a pony. The letter was so touching, the IRS official made up $100 to buy the pony for the little girl and had the pony delivered. The unusual gift was highly publicized by the press and now, IRS officials are receiving more requests for ponies than you can imagine.

When Jacqueline Kennedy was visiting in Greece as First Lady, she received thousands of letters pleading for financial assistance. One letter contained the frantic plea for a poor rice farmer's daughter in southern Greece. The nine-year-old child had a serious heart defect which required immediate surgery of a nature too delicate to be undertaken in Greece. The doctors said a trip to America was her only chance.

The American embassy was requested to check, the military attache had her examined by military specialists, and then sent an immediate report to the White House, corroborating the Greek report.

Within two weeks the Greek child, accompanied by her father, was picked up by an Air Force cargo plane and brought to Walter Reed Hospital . . . and President Kennedy's father picked up the tab for everything. The operation was more complex and costly than anticipated but the child underwent a miraculous recovery. She and her father stayed in America several more weeks before returning home. They returned to Greece laden with presents—and everyone thought it was the end of a perfect fairy tale.

But Clara Booth Luce's favorite expression held true to form. Reports began to come from Greece. The father had been closed upon by his creditors who believed wild rumors that the rich Kennedys had presented him with a fortune as a parting gift. After all, the Kennedys could take care of the entire village. The Greek press began to berate the "stinginess" of the Kennedys and the Americans toward a poor Greek farmer and his daughter. It grew to such proportions that the Kennedys overnight became dastardly villains. The village had expected to become an adjunct of Fort Knox.

Possibly mankind will never advance to the point where a gift is received with gratitude and all good deeds are not despised. It is worth note, however, that gifts of a monetary value are never really received with gratitude, but are usually received with indifference, while gifts of service, kindness, and or oneself, are long remembered and cherished in the mind and heart. It is only natural that no one wants to be considered charity, regardless of his or her status in life.

What Other Editors Say

Naked truth is out

In today's literary market nothing sells like sex. For example, Philip Roth's "Portnoy's Complaint" and Jacqueline Susann's "The Love Machine" have topped the best seller lists for months. Both books are stuffed full of sex scenes.

Literary merit apparently has little to do with success. Or else how do you explain the hefty sales of a novel called "Naked Came the Stranger," which was conceived as a hoax and pieced together by a platoon of newspapermen? Obviously it isn't style that sells the book cover to cover bedroom scenes.

The image of the novelist slaving away in a garret to write the great American novel is passe. The trick now is to write a steamy potboiler just this side of the pornography laws and wait for the money to roll in.

About Advertising

Retailers, those close to the cash register and thus in a position to know what advertising really sells week after week over the long haul, consistently invest more of their advertising money in newspaper space than in all other media combined.

National Retail Merchants Association shows that department stores across the country invest 85 per cent of their ad dollars in newspaper, 6 per cent in direct mail and only 9 per cent in broadcast media. Advertising investments for grocery stores show that 48 per cent is spent in newspapers, 2 per cent in direct mail, 5 per cent in radio and 7 per cent on TV.

Those closest to the cash register, those who measure direct results, rely on newspaper advertising.

Now if you merchants will just line up over there by the door we'll process your ad orders as fast as we can.

A cooperative venture between Texas Christian University, Texas Woman's University in Denton and the Fort Worth Public Schools, the special program is one of approximately 50 functioning throughout the United States and in Puerto Rico.

Provided for under the Higher Education Act of 1965, the Teacher Corps is designed "to strengthen the educational opportunities available to children in areas of low-income families and to encourage colleges and universities to broaden their programs of teacher preparation." At the same time, the program attracts and trains teachers who "will be committed to continue teaching in schools where children are economically and culturally deprived."

The TCU-TWU based program is set up for students of junior standing who wish to complete college degrees while earning teaching certificates. To be of two-year duration, the project calls for interns to work in seven different Fort Worth elementary schools during the morning and take college classes in the afternoon at either TCU or TWU.

After two successful years of Teacher Corps work, participants complete requirements and earn the Bachelor of Science in Education degree and Texas teacher certification.

Eighty shooters were in the matches, and Tucker's four-man team from the Texas Department of Public Safety won the team trophy, which was only a few points below the national record. The record is 2346 X 155. Tucker's team shot a score of 2346 X 115.

Jerry Jackson of the U. S. Border Patrol, won the high marksman match with a score of 1473 X 72. He is last year's national record holder and national champion. Patrolman Tucker shot a score of 1464 X 65. Third place went to Reeves Jungkind, Department of Public Safety firearms training specialist, who shot 1461 X 70.

Shooters and teams from Mississippi, Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas were entered in the matches.

Tucker was winner of the High

Cotton Insects

By W. B. Hooser
County Agent

Heavy boll weevil damage (80 to 90 percent square damage) was observed in fields in Hall County. However, some fields in the county were found to have square damage of 10 to 40 percent punctured squares. Boll weevils are considerably lighter than at this time last year; however, boll weevils are causing heavy amounts of boll damage in fields where squares are difficult to find.

Fleahoppers continue to cause some damage where the fruit set is light. Fleahopper counts in some fields in Hall County are ranging from 20 to 50 fleahoppers per 100 terminals.

Bollworms continue to cause much damage to Hall County cotton. Control measures are being carried out against bollworms.

Grasshoppers are causing damage to cotton along fence rows near pasture land.

The largest infestations of cotton insects still remain near overwintering quarters, especially boll weevils.

For control recommendations, refer to L-508 (1969), "Texas Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects in the High Plains, Rolling Plains and Trans-Pecos Areas of Texas". Copies of this guide may be obtained at the office of the County Agricultural Agent.

NMMI QUARTERBACK TONY POUNDS

Tony Pounds To Quarterback NMMI Bronco In Its Pursuit Of Bowl Bid

According to a Cronco Sports release received here this week from New Mexico Military Institute, Memphis' Tony Pounds will carry the Bronco offense for the 1970 season as the key element of a strong Bronco squad.

Pounds, the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Pounds, has a tremendous responsibility for a junior college eleven that is pointing to a bowl bid, the news release states.

In his second year with the team he takes over from Rossell's Dwight Burns, who last year set a number of passing records for NMMI.

Head Coach Marshall Brown is high on Pounds although he recognizes that at 170 lbs. the former Cyclone quarterback is light for junior college football.

Soil Testing Investment Pays Spectacularly

The period September 7-13 will be observed as "Soil Testing Week" throughout Hall County. County Agricultural Agent, W. B. Hooser, urges that every farmer in Hall County have his soil tested so that recommendations for applying the right amount of fertilizer this year might be made.

"Perhaps," said the county agent, "no other single investment puts as much money in the pocketbook as the $2 investment in a soil test."

H. A. Hodges, chairman of the Hall County Program Building Committee, said yesterday that a group would help as many as possible to get their soil tested before the time arrives for planting small grains this fall.

The intense program of soil testing is under way now in all counties of the Texas Rolling Plains, as part of the massive Rolling Plains Economic Program (R-PEP).

County Agent, W. B. Hooser says, "A soil test is the basis of a profitable fertilizer program. The Rolling Plains history of proper fertilization is this: for each $1 invested in fertilizer, the farmer may expect the resulting increase in yields to get him $2 at the market."

Farmers are asked to leave their soil samples at the Hall County Courthouse where mailing forms and information blanks are available at the county agent's office. The secretary is in the office on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Combs accompanied them to Illinois last week, returning to Memphis Monday night.

Mr. C. W. Kinslow has as a house guest her aunt, Mrs. R. D. Vining of Richmond, Va. Mrs. Vining had been visiting in San Diego, Calif., with relatives and is en route home. She plans to be here about two weeks.

Modern Water Systems Are Spreading Throughout Rural Areas Of Texas

The age-old problem of scarce and unfit water supply is giving way to the growth of modern, city-style water and sewer systems in small towns and farm areas of Texas.

Hall County has partially solved its local domestic water problem by the formation of two water supply associations. The first one, Lakeview Water Supply Corporation, was formed in 1963, and Brice-Leasley was formed in 1968. Both systems are operating as planned and are meeting their financial obligations on schedule officials of Farmers Home Administration announce.

A third association may soon be formed, FHA announces. The steering committee for the Great Plains Water Supply Corporation, under the supervision of the Red River Authority of Texas met Friday at 1:30 p. m. to determine if a loan can be made to service the rural communities of Harold Chapel, Estelline, Turkey, and rural residents near Memphis. Water is to be furnished from the Greenbelt Lake.

At this meeting the feasibility of this association was discussed, but final decision will not be made until after several meetings are held in the separate areas involved.

Madera Valley System
The opening Aug. 19 of the Madera Valley water system, linking eight small communities in Reeves County south of Pecos, will mark the 500th water system completed in Texas' Rural Water Facilities (Poage - Aiken) Program. Development is carried on by local governments and nonprofit corporations, with financing through the Farmers Home Administration, a U. S. Dept. of Agriculture agency. Texas leads the nation in the program, with 5,000 projects built or approved in the nation to date.

The first system in Texas was Valley Farm. Four hundred homes, farms, and other establishments will be served. The new system ends their dependence on water hauled from points such as Pecos and Balmorhea—only towns in the area previously equipped with water systems.

The Madera Valley System was built with a $571,000 FHA insured loan to the nonprofit Madera Valley Water Supply Corp. With its completion, the advantage of modern water services now has been brought to 250,000 rural Texans in the past 10 years.

Seek Wisdom

"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask God who gives to all men and generously and without reproaching, and it will be given him." —James 1:5

A child reaches out for wisdom with the discovery that a word has meaning. A man has wisdom when he realizes that he has much to learn. The lessons of life are never ended, for every experience is somehow different from anything we have known before.

If you would live a life of wisdom, have faith. Live to learn, ask guidance, and you will learn to live a life that is full and generous.

Revised Motor Vehicle Inspection Act To Have 12-Month Sticker Period

Part 5 of 5 Parts
AUSTIN—The most sweeping changes ever to be made in the State's Motor Vehicle Inspection Act will become effective Sept. 1, according to Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Speir said the amended act, recently adopted by the Texas Legislature, will place Texas on a 12 month inspection period. The measure increases the inspection fee from $1.75 to $2.00, and moves the location of the inspection sticker from the right of the windshield to the left. It also adds exhaust emission systems on 1968 or later vehicles, and exhaust systems on all vehicles, to the list of items to be inspected.

Speir said that all vehicles subject to inspection must be taken to an approved motor vehicle inspection station between Sept. 1, 1969, and April 15, 1970. Upon satisfactory completion of the inspection procedure, the mechanic-inspector will remove the old sticker and affix the new one.

"The new stickers will expire 12 months from the date of inspection, and will contain a large

We want to say a special thank you to all the nurses for their kindness and understanding toward helping a small one of ours. number tab showing the month of inspection," Speir noted. "For example, a sticker issued in September will contain a number nine, and will expire on the last day of September, 1970. A sticker issued in January will contain the number one and will expire at the end of January, 1971," he added.

The DPS director urged all motorists to have their cars inspected early to get ready for fall and winter driving, and to avoid long lines which may develop in April as the deadline draws near.

In addition to the new items to be inspected, inspection stations will check brakes, lighting equipment, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, and front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment on the vehicle. The inspection also includes steering and wheels and rims.

Miss Allen, Mr. May Are Wed Fri., Aug. 22, In Crosbyton

Miss Nancy Carol Allen became the bride of David Dewayne May in vows solemnized at 7:30 p. m. Friday, Aug. 22, in the First Baptist Church at Crosbyton.

Rev. Ernest Stewart, pastor, read the double ring ceremony before a nuptial space decorated with an arched votive candelabra entwined with greenery and flanked by brass urns of white daisies and spiral candelabra with cascading lemon leaves. Completing the scene was a satin covered kneeling bench and bow pew markers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allen of Rt. 2, Crosbyton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton May of Route 1, Estelline.

Miss Ann Ivy of Crosbyton played the traditional processional and recessional and an organ solo, "A Time For Us". Stanley Nixon of Crosbyton read I Corinthians: 13 and Thomas Williams of Kermit sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Love I Come To Thee".

The Bride

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length A-line gown styled by her mother of white majestic cloth featuring cap sleeves, stand-up collar and a center panel of daisy lace. The panel hem and inverted pleat were edged in organza trim. The inverted pleat fell gracefully to the floor to form the chapel length train. The top of the train was accented by a satin bow with floor-length streamers. Her bridal bouquet was of white daisies and she carried out the tradition of "something old (Grandmother McClure's first wedding band); something new, her bride's Bible, a gift of her parents and dressed by her aunt, Mrs. F. B. Norman of Abilene; something borrowed (pearl earrings from Mrs. Robert Moss, aunt of the bride, of Memphis and her veil belonging to Mrs. John Taylor, a cousin, made by Mrs. Lorna Aitken, great-aunt of the bride) and something blue", a blue garter, a gift of the bride's parents.

Attendants

Junior bridesmaid was Miss Susan Allen of Crosbyton, sister of the bride; bridesmaid was Miss Janie Allen of Crosbyton, also a sister of the bride; and bridesmaids were Mrs. Royce Mitchell of Memphis and Mrs. Glenn Carter of Portales, N. M., both sisters of the groom. Maid of honor was Miss Judy Allen of Arlington, sister of the bride. Flower girl was Miss Amy Jones of Floydada, cousin of the bride. The attendants wore long gowns fashioned after that of the bride. They wore floor-length A-line gowns of yellow majestic cloth featuring cap sleeves and an inverted pleat in the back falling from a fabric bow. They wore daisy headpieces, white short gloves, a gift of the bride, and white shoes. Their bouquets were of yellow daisies.

For a wedding trip to Dallas, James Merrell of Memphis served as best man and Glen Carter, brother-in-law of the groom, of Portales, N. M., Bobby Ward of Memphis, Dak Ward of Memphis and Donnie May, brother of the groom, of Estelline were groomsmen. Master Doug McClure, cousin of the bride, of Ralls was ring bearer.

Ushers were Robert M. Moss of Muleshoe, cousin of the bride, John "Skipper" Murdock of Memphis and Dell Graham of Plainview.

Mrs. Allen chose for her daughter's wedding a pink Alaskine slightly A-line dress with a semi-fitting cardigan jacket. She completed her attire with pink peau de soie shoes and a pink rosette hat. Mrs. May wore a rose shantung shift with pink accessories. Their corsages were of white feathered carnations.

Reception

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlor.

The bride's table was covered with a white lace trimmed cloth. Table appointments were crystal and silver. Centering the table was a votive candelabra with the bride's bouquet beneath. The bridesmaid's bouquets decorated the piano. Guests were served wedding cake and punch.

Those assisting with the reception were: Miss Nancy Kesler of Abilene and Mrs. James Merrell of Memphis. Piano music was provided by Mrs. J. E. Peggram of Plainview. Gary Ward of Memphis and Tammy McClure, cousin of the bride, of Plainview passed out rice bags.

economics in Memphis High School. A member of the Young Homemakers of Texas and the Woman's Culture Club, she is advisor to the Future Homemakers of America, Memphis Chapter.

Mr. May is a graduate of Estelline High School and attended Clarendon Junior College. He served in the U. S. Army returning in November from a tour of duty in Vietnam. May is presently engaged in farming near Estelline.

Miss Carol Sue Mitchell Becomes Bride Of James D. Roberts In Phillips

The First Baptist Church of Phillips was the scene of the recent wedding of Miss Carol Sue Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Mitchell of Phillips and James Denny Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roberts of Abilene and grandson of Mrs. T. B. Roberts of Abilene and Mrs. C. D. Danny of Memphis.

The Rev. Kenneth E. Jones, pastor of the First Christian Church, read the double ring ceremony in the sanctuary decorated with baskets of white gladioli and pompoms.

Mrs. Max Sherman of Amarillo played traditional wedding music. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of candlelight peau de soie styled with batteau neckline encrusted with Alencon lace, elbow-length sleeves, Empire bodice and controlled A-line skirt. A chapel length train fell from the back waistline.

Her tiered shoulder length veil of candlelight silk illusion was attached to a coil of organza petals accented with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of gardenias, stephanotis and gold pom poms with ribbon streamers.

Miss Margaret Elder of Dallas was maid of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Jimmy Jones of Tucumcari, N. M., and Miss Sandy Smith of Dallas. They wore floor length gowns of mimosa chiffon, styled with Victorian necklines, Empire waistlines and long sleeves. Each carried a cascade bouquet of majestic daisies and greenery with gold ribbon streamers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mitchell wore a dusty pink silk and wool dress with bone accessories. Mrs. Roberts, mother of the groom, wore a mint green knit suit with bone accessories. Both wore corsages of Mission Dolores orchids.

After the ceremony, guests were received in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. W. J. Goodwin. The bride's colors of

You... And Only You... Can Lower Insurance Rates...

At a time when Congress is debating the improvement of its gun control law and curbing violence in America, Congressional committees are conducting public hearings and discussions on automobile insurance and the impact of auto accidents thereto.

The impact on the public in the gun and violence control discussions seems to be far more effective, from the millions of letters Congressmen and Senators receive from their constituents, while in comparison very little mail from the public comes in relating to the slaughter on the highways and the streets of America due to auto accidents. What can be done to awaken the people of America as to the responsibility of each individual in eradicating the 53,000 deaths and 3 million injuries annually, at a total economic cost of 12 billion dollars?

Very few people realize, and they must be taught to realize, that the above statistics can be lowered only by less accidents on the highways. Beginning with 1961, 25,000 American boys have been killed in Viet Nam, while during the same eight year period, 400,000 Americans have been killed and over 20 million have been injured by motor vehicle accidents on U. S. highways and streets. Fifty per cent of the auto deaths are persons under 30 years of age—our youth, our most precious asset.

Testimony reveals that in the past ten years auto insurance companies as a group took in $44 billion in premiums and paid out over $45 billion, and that auto accidents are increasing in number although billions are being spent to build safer dual and divided highways.

How can these accidents be curtailed?

1. All segments of our society should be fully committed to the reduction of the slaughter on our highways through safe vehicles, safe highways and by safe drivers.
2. Parents must make their 17- to 25-year old understand that death by automobile is the number one cause for that age group. Further, for that reason the family auto insurance premium is almost doubled because of their driving habits. The majority of youth drivers must suffer for the bad driving habits of the other youth drivers.
3. Thus, the youth—through existing youth organizations or special local youth auto safety organizations throughout America—should devote themselves to safe driving and urge all youth to join in youth crusades for safe driving to save lives, injuries and dollars.
4. Also, there should be mothers' crusade for safe driving to save the lives of their children.
5. Law enforcement officers and administrators should enforce traffic laws strictly and justly so that the unfit, unqualified and repeated-offender drivers may be removed from the highways until they could prove their fitness to drive.
6. Every driver must be thoroughly and constantly indoctrinated to the fact that full attention to driving his auto is the safest way of avoiding an auto accident, and each driver should be taught to avoid bad driving habits that cause the unnecessary slaughter on the highways.
7. Every driver must be made to realize that when he has an accident or commits a traffic violation, he may lose his preferred insurance premium rating, thus necessitating paying higher premiums in the future and possibly cancellation of auto insurance. If all drivers knew this, they would drive as carefully as if police cars were following them.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

Q—I was billed for additional income taxes. Can I pay this off in installments?

A—Full payment is due by the date stated on the bill. There is no provision in the law for paying these taxes on an installment basis.

Q—I lost my refund check and filled out a form for a new one over a month ago. What is holding it up?

A—Before another refund check can be issued, a thorough search must be made of Treasury records, the Post Office and other sources to see if the missing check can be located. When this search is completed another check can be issued.

Q—When my father died I inherited the sports car he had. If I sell it, will I have to pay income tax on what it brings?

A—Probably not. There would be no Federal income tax to pay on the sale of the car unless it has increased in value during the time you owned it.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Some Insecticides Are Not Recommended For Home Garden Use

Most home gardens in Hall County are off to a good start. But insect control may be required some time during the growing season to keep them healthy and producing at maximum, says County Agent W. B. Hooser.

He reminds home gardeners that not all insecticides are recommended for home garden use. Therefore, gardeners should learn to identify insects and the chemical which best controls them. Poor insect control may result in the use of the wrong insecticide and perhaps a bigger problem could come from insecticide residues on the treated vegetables.

The Food and Drug Administration has set restrictions on the use of insecticides applied to edible crops. Observance of these restrictions protects the consumer from the harmful residues, explains the county agent.

Information on controlling insects in the home garden and a list of the insecticides which are widely used and generally available are included in L-642, "Control of Insects in the Home Garden". Copies are available at the county Extension Office.

The county agent suggests that gardens be checked frequently for insect infestations, and if they are found, that control measures be applied before the situation gets out-of-hand.

Spraying

(Continued from Page 1) of the kill. They also check the aerial equipment, the material being placed in the planes and the quantity remaining in the planes when they return from application. The State Entomologist has the first and last say on the operation and application schedule of the entire operation.

The following men have attended the past two meetings of the HICGA and can answer questions on this program:

Plaska — Billy Hancock, J. J. McDaniel, A. C. Sams.

Lakeview — Jack Cheatam, Larry Lewis, Joe Durham.

Lesley — Q. N. Clark, B. P. Watson, Jack Montgomery, Joe Berry.

Memphis — J. Robert Hanvey, Clyde Collins, Robert Moss.

Newlin — Roy Gresham, Geo. Helm.

Estelline — Jimmy Gibson, Jerrel Rapp, Elem Orcutt.

Parnell — Harold Burk.

Brice — Doug Burgess.
