Memphis To Drop To UIL Class A

According to a letter received this morning from the University Interscholastic League by Supt. of Schools C. L. Chambliss, the Memphis Public Schools will compete in Class A, dropping down a classification from Class AA due to the rising of enrollment standards in the lower classification.

Memphis will rejoin the membership of District 2-A and will play a five-game district schedule with Clarendon, Claude, McLean, Silvertown and Wheeler. Superintendent Chambliss said that the letter stated that the enrollment bracket for Class A classification has been set by U.I.L. from 120-229.

Memphis and Iowa Park will drop out of District 2-AA, leaving the remaining six teams of Electra, Childress, Shamrock, Wellington, Seymour and Quannah in this district for the next two years. Memphis will compete in District 2-A for the 1970-71 and the 1971-72 school years.

The dropping of one classification will effect all U.I.L. competition including band, athletics and literary.

Memphis is the smallest school in enrollment in District 2-AA, while Iowa Park is the largest school. Iowa Park is moving up to Class AAA after this year.

In dropping back to District 2-A, Memphis will renew long time rivalry with Clarendon and with McLean, Claude, Wheeler and Silvertown have been moved into District 2-A since Memphis left the district four years ago to step up into Class AA.

ASCS Requests Record Of Cotton Production

The Hall County ASC Committee has been requested to obtain records of actual production on individual farms for the years 1966, 1967, and 1968, Lynn L. McKown, Office Manager announced today.

Every cotton producer is vitally interested in the yields established for his farm since program benefits and costs are directly affected. Therefore, it is imperative that yields be correctly established in a fair and equitable manner.

The obtaining of actual cotton production is not a plan to establish proven yields for every farm in Hall County. It is designed to assist ASC Committeemen in establishing equitable projected yields. Some farmers cannot prove a fair yield for their farms due to conditions beyond their control, however, the production information will assist committeemen in establishing comparable yields for those farms.

The request for cotton production records requires a Ginner's Certification of Cotton Ginned in 1966, 1967, and 1968. All gins have been supplied forms and can assist farmers in their preparation.

To maintain our schedule on 1970 Cotton Allotment work we will need cotton production records on the earliest date possible, but not later than October 31, 1969. There will be a joint meeting of all ASC Committeemen on November 5, 1969 to establish preliminary projected cotton yields for 1970, McKown stated.

Rep. Bill Heatly Receives Honor At Prison Rodeo

HUNTSVILLE (Special) — The Texas Department of Corrections honored Representative Bill Heatly of Paducah at the Prison Rodeo at Huntsville on Sunday, Oct. 12, for his long service to Texas and for his undivided interest in the Texas Penal System.

Heatly has been chairman of the House Appropriations Committee for five sessions of the Legislature and therefore, has been influential in securing funds for the operation of the vast Texas prison system.

Since Heatly has been chairman of the Appropriations Committee, rapid progress has been made in modern concepts of prison management, which emphasizes education together with fair and firm discipline and constructive work for the prisoners.

"The prison system has developed from seven small and poorly equipped factories in 1963, to nineteen modern plants in which 1,428 inmates receive training in the latest methods of manufacturing," Heatly said. "The prisoners produce nearly all of the food and fiber consumed by the prison system and produce mattresses, bricks, mops, textiles, license plates, soap, detergent, furniture and other products in their modern factories. Through the efforts of the prison system, all of state government operates more economically because other state agencies are provided materials that would otherwise have to be purchased at as much higher prices, and in the process, prisoners receive training which permits them to go out into the free world and earn an honest living.

Memphis-Quanah Game Feature Here Fri.

The Memphis Cyclone and the Quanah Indians will meet in a 2-AA contest at Cyclone Stadium Friday night, with kickoff at 8 p. m.

This year's contest between Memphis and Quanah will see the Cyclone favored going into the game as they stand 1-4 while Quanah is 0-5.

The Indians and the Cyclone both victims of Childress and Shamrock, in earlier district action last week, Quanah lost 39-0 to Shamrock, while Memphis lost 19-0 to Childress.

Memphis is described as one of the fastest teams Memphis will see this season and next to Clarendon the fastest team the local fans have played so far this season.

It is not known whether the Cyclone Senior Quarterback James Wells will be ready for action in Memphis. He missed the week game last week due to a shoulder injury.

The Indians have a fine sophomore quarterback in Marvin Wells who came into do a good job against the Indians' attack.

Quanah has a powerful fullback in Ricky Prater, No. 40, and hard running senior Larry Graham (170), a year starter. No. 38 Sammy Jones, the wingback, is fast and a good pass receiver.

The Indians line on offense and defense is large. Guard Fant at 190 and Tackle Garner at 200 are especially good blockers.

The Cyclone Boosters were told by local scouts Tuesday night the Indians like to run power and trap plays up the middle. Their quarterbacks are good passers and they have good receivers in No. 12 McDonald, the split end, and WE Nicholas.

The Indians were obviously down last week against Shamrock, after losing the 20-14 opener against Childress. Shamrock took advantage of four of Quanah's mistakes to put 28 points on the scoreboard.

The Cyclone on the other hand, saw hopes of a respectable showing vanish as Childress' on-the-mark passing ran up the score.

Coach Bert Glascock said, "after seeing the film, our boys didn't play that badly against Childress. We were ready for this game, but pin point passing just took the starch out of us."

"After viewing the film, I was pleased even in defeat with the play of the younger members of the team playing in their first games," Coach Glascock said. Glen Miller, Terry Wynn, Larry Moss and Roger Kehr were doing the finest job they could, he said.

Several boys have missed workouts this week due to sickness and injury. Lewis Davis received a shoulder injury in the Childress game.

Mayor Of Estelline Cites City Problems

Editor's Note: The following report was issued this week by Mayor Walker, mayor of Estelline. It explains the problems the City Council faces. Walker offers solutions in solving the city's problems.

Mayor of Estelline and the City Council are responsible for the entire City Council.

I want to thank each of you who have previously donated money to the city to help to do some of the work around the city and some side streets.

Some of the City Council members have spent personal money for the city.

kind of work. We will be lucky to have the funds to improve the streets. But we are going to do the best we can, but it will take time.

Some of you may wonder what the city does with the taxes we collect.

So, for your information, every tax dollar the city collects, sixty cents (60c) goes into a sinking fund to pay for the bonds that mature each year plus interest for a debt created many years ago by the voters here at that time for the pavement around the city square. So, out of the tax dollar collected, the city only gets 40c.

And, to you who may not know, a balance of $21,000 is still unpaid, and this balance plus interest has to be paid in full by 1979. This is one reason the city is in short of funds.

Another reason for the short-

Where Does The Money Go!

Hall County and Memphis have been fortunate the past several years in that our bank assets and total deposits have shown increases, despite the huge outlay of cash which leaves our county each year.

Have you ever stopped to think how much money goes out of our area? And we're not just referring to any type of trade-at-home idea, although this is part of it.

Whenever we send our college students to school, each one takes about $20,000 out of our economy in four years, when you consider transportation, money spent on entertainment, clothing, and everything that goes with the average college life.

Every time we pay for a new car, this money or almost all of it, goes to the northern states where they build all the cars. Whenever a farmer buys a piece of equipment, this money leaves the county. Whenever you buy merchandise of almost any kind, local stores send a lot of money out-of-town to pay for the items, and trucking lines take their big share for hauling fees.

Then there are state and federal taxes to be paid by the individual, and by business firms. This is a huge chunk of money leaving our area.

We build new buildings and this money is taken from our area by the contractors and builders. If local workers are employed, then some of this money stays at home, helping the local economy.

Now stop and think how much money comes into our county from out-of-county sources. Except for the money travelers on our highways leave here and the money coming in for agriculture commodities and what out-of-county shoppers we have, this is our only source of income.

So far, our banks' deposits have been able to show an increase. Our high school graduates are still going away to college in goodly numbers. We have a few less business establishments than we did 10 or 15 years ago.

We hear now that despite some improvement in farm income last year, prices received by farmers in 1968 still were 4 percent lower than such prices more than 20 years ago, the House Agriculture Committee has reported.

When you have more money leaving the county than coming into the county, you have what is known as a declining economy. If you want the economy of Hall County to grow, then plan to spend as much of your income with Hall County merchants and dealers. In this way you can help keep part of the money at home and do your part to bolster the economy.

Crop Reports Needed From Farmers!

During the last half of October some 35,000 Texas farmers and ranchers will receive a crop questionnaire from Cary Palmer, state statistician for the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Austin. This is a joint endeavor of the Texas Department of Agriculture and the Statistical Reporting Service, United States Department of Agriculture, to provide a program of county estimates for Texas.

There are 254 counties in Texas, and each farmer in each county is an important part of the state's agriculture. Reports are needed from farmers receiving questionnaires to provide accurate estimates for Texas Crops.

We urge each farmer to fill out his questionnaire and return it promptly in the self-addressed envelope to the Agricultural Statistician. This will do much to provide the accurate data needed for the State of Texas.

County data bulletins for 1968 are now available by writing the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, Box 70, Austin, or by writing John C. White, Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, P. O. Drawer BB, Capitol Station, Austin, Tex.

What Other Editors Say

To Our Colleagues!
The Journal has explained a few times in print and numerous times in personal letters that we cannot publish poems. Once a newspaper does that, it gets into trouble, and is likely to be deluged with more poems which are far superior, in the opinion of the author, to the one that got published.

Another well established policy is that we have no well established policy about anything. So, we are here below printing a short jingle, which is anonymous and is particularly appropriate for this time of year, when young people are going off to college.

"When I was a student I was quiet.
I didn't protest; I didn't riot.
I wasn't unwashed; I wasn't obscene.
I made no demands of prey or dean.
I sat no sit-in; I heckled no speaker.
I broke not a window—few students were meeker.
I'm forced to admit with some hesitation.
All I got out of school was a: education."
— The Belton Journal

Not So Funny Now
Twenty-nine students who were among the 50 suspended for disrupting an ROTC review at the University of Kansas last spring have appealed for reinstatement. One student was deemed to have been treated unfairly and his penalty was set aside.

The penalties of three other students were modified to disciplinary probation.
And 25 appeals were rejected by the board of disciplinary appeals.

It was lots of fun last May to raise hell on the campus, to march around and fling bricks and shout curses at the chancellor, to thwart the ROTC and disgrace Kansas University.

It had in it a few little drops of nobility because, associated with the students' dislike of the war in Vietnam was a slap at the military and the cheap-rate rioters undoubtedly felt their acts were justified.

But the University of Kansas has some old fashioned folks at the helm of things and after the rioting students had had their fun, it came time to face the music.

The students were suspended and then expelled and put off the campus. The board of disciplinary appeals reviewed the situation and found that the 25 students who wanted back in school had forfeited their claim to be a student of the great state supported institution at Lawrence, Kansas.

The 25 students now find that Kansas University isn't such a bad school after all. Maybe they can go somewhere else and maybe they can't. But people of their type are simple not welcome anywhere, anywhere.
The mood of Kansas, since that shameful episode of last spring, has been one of unwavering sternness. The students who played with fire got burned. They can now stay burned.

Neal Hindman To Attend TSTA Oct. Convention

Neal Hindman of Memphis will be an official voting delegate at the 91st annual state convention of the Texas State Teachers association Oct. 23-25 in San Antonio.

Hindman is one of the 1,288 certified members of the 1969 House of Delegates, which will meet on the last day of the convention to discuss and act on proposed amendments to the TSTA constitution, new policies, recommendations of standing committees, and other business.

The official delegates are elected from the 419 TSTA local associations throughout the state and certified by districts on the basis of one delegate per 100 members or fraction of 100. Every local association in the state is entitled to at least one official delegate.

With total membership in TSTA expected to hit a record 124,000 this year, attendance at the convention will probably total about 8,000. Featured speakers include Gov. Preston Smith, Sam M. Lambert, executive secretary of the National Education Association; and Charles D. Holleyman, superintendent of schools at Mustang, Okla.

Garland Fielding of Dallas visited here over the weekend with his mother, Mrs. S. W. Fielding.

Dr. and Mrs. Braswell Locker of Brownwood visited here Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lindsey and Pamela.

Principle is an opinion that has stood the test of time.

Banks Gain In Providing Loans For Agriculture

AUSTIN — Exceptional gains registered in 1968 maintained the leadership of Texas banks among lenders providing credit and other financial services to the state's farmers and ranchers, according to Derrell Henry of Odessa, President of the Texas Bankers Assn. Based on the 28th annual farm lending summary of the American Bankers Assn. Agricultural Committee, Mr. Henry said that as 1969 opened, Texas banks were aiding farm and ranch customers with $886,220,000 in loans. Included in this total were $722,237,000 in production and other types of loans not secured by real estate, a gain of 10 percent over the previous year and of 47 percent since 1964; also $163,988,000 in mortgage loans, up 16 percent for the year and 71 percent since 1964.

At the same time, $476,865,000 in farm real estate loans was held by Federal Land Banks, an 8 percent annual gain; $610,406,000 by life insurance companies, plus 4 percent; $667,000,000 by individuals and others, plus 7 percent; and $13,658,000 by the Farmers Home Administration, a 6 percent decline from the preceding year.

"These figures assembled by the American Bankers Association are the result of a trend long familiar to Texas Bankers," Mr. Henry said. "All of us, big city and small town banker alike, recognize that agriculture requires big capital investments and operating funds. In light of the ABA figures, I think it is self evident that Texas banks are working to serve the needs of our growing farm and ranch economy."

Lose 10 lbs. in 10 days on Grapefruit Diet

DIET OF THE STARS
HOLLYWOOD, CALIF. (Special) — This is the revolutionary grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, plants and offices throughout the U. S.

Because this diet really works. We have testimonials reporting on its success. If you follow it exactly, you should lose 10 pounds in 10 days. No weight loss in the first four days but you will suddenly drop 5 pounds on the 5th day. Thereafter lose one pound a day until the 10th day. Then you will lose 1 and a half pounds every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all, there will be no hunger pangs. Revised and enlarged, this diet lets you stuff yourself with formerly "forbidden" foods, such as steaks trimmed with fat, roast or fried chicken, gravies, mayonnaise, lobster swimming in butter, bacon fats, sausages and scrambled eggs and still lose weight. The secret behind this "quick weight loss" diet is simple. Fat does not form fat. And the grapefruit juice in this diet acts as a catalyst (the "trigger"), to start the fat burning process. You stuff yourself on the permitted food listed in the diet plan, and still lose unsightly fat and excess body fluids. A copy of this startling successful diet can be obtained by sending $2 to

OUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Seed for Small Grain Crops Should be Selected Now
It is time to start thinking about the small grain varieties to be planted this fall and the sources of seed, reminds county agent W. B. Hooser.

Many factors enter into the selection of a variety. For a given area several varieties are often planted so that a choice can be made to suit the individual farm conditions.

Among the factors to be considered in making the final selection of a variety include whether irrigation will be available, soil requirements, whether the crop will be used for grazing or for grain production or for resistance to diseases is also very important consideration. Resistance to insects should also be considered. Lodging and shattering resistance are also very important under some conditions, says the county agent.

Information on suggested varieties of small grain crops for the area are available at the county agent's office.

Science Research In The News

A Report on New Products and Process in Everyday Living

The Newest Wrinkle in Fabrics

Cast fabric is a new kind of cloth developed by chemist Carl Heinrich Krauch and his research team at Badische Anilin & Soda-Fabrik, a West German chemical company. The process for making the new cloth was reported in Chemical and Engineering News, the weekly publication of the American Chemical Society.

The process marks the beginning on a new era for the world's chemical companies, fiber producers, and textile mills and could change the entire textile industry.

The radically new technique side - steps spinning and weaving, the most expensive part of development of further technical cloth - making operations, and is very economical. The new material is made by a process called the monomer - to - fabric route, in which a porous cloth is formed directly from a mixture of chemicals.

The new technology carries economic advantage that could shift the fortunes and profits of many companies. This year manufacturer-ers of man - made fibers will sell $3.3 billion worth of threads and fibers to textile mills, which, in turn, will sell $22.5 billion worth of cloth products to the public.

Attempts to get around the textile mills' weaving operations began with the introduction several years ago of nonwoven products, such as paper disposables and foam materials made of urethane and vinyl plastics. The new method shrinks the traditional four steps in cloth production, chemicals - to - fiber - to - yard - to - fabric, down to simply chemicals - to - fabric.

Most likely to lose business because of the new process are mills that weave fibers and yarn into cloth and manufacturers that make the fibers and yarns. Small companies, foreign competitors, and diversity - seeking related industries are expected to cash in on the breakthrough.

None of the major textile manufacturers admits to any current research in this area. Others appear skeptical that this technology could ever become commercial on the basis that the process is too radical in terms of the established methods of the textile industry. But, with respect to production economics, a chemical - to - fabric route appears to represent the ideal. "It's the most direct process conceivable for making fabrics" states an industry spokesman.

The textile markets for fabric cast from chemicals appear extensive. "These markets might include industrial fabrics such as work clothes and coverings, institutional fabrics such as restaurant tablecloths, home furnishings such as upholstery and drapes, and some apparel fabrics."

There is one snag in the fabric, however, its low resistance to stretching and tearing. But the journal points out: "Improving the strength properties of cast fabrics is a technological problem, to be sure, but it is only a technological problem. The economic incentives appear powerful enough to compel many companies to try to solve this problem."

the season is about here off the air conditioner from the heat, put the sweater away and roll up your sleeves and quit all this stuff about your grass and mowing. You can cut it. Then it is water to it to make it grow and you can get water so you can get it and tall to you can mow. That is the regular summer program and glad it is not winter but hope we get the water that will make the grass that pretty and green of its color.

Anyway, the English think very peculiar people when we in our tea to make it and then put sugar in to it sweet.

My relatives here and in the Hall recently were Mr. Mrs. Clenton Adair. Mrs. Adair is the former Charlotte daughter of Mr. and Mrs. of Los Angeles, Calif. First thing Charlotte asked was the old Gold Medal her daddy used to beat in her days. Charlotte left for California in 1930 and a lot of water has run under the bridge since then. She was in a class with Gayle Greene, Fleming and Cearly Reed. I could tell when Mack greeted Charlotte that she was one of Mack's cousins. Charlotte has two children and two grandchildren. Jet R., brother, has two children, one boy and one girl, and he is in Los Angeles and has been working for several years for Century Fox. I asked her to give me a statement to visit here after all those years since I left Memphis. This is her reply, "It has been 39 years since I left Memphis and it was so nice to see so many relatives and friends, pictures and mementos in the museum. It was wonderful memory seeing my old bass drum because I was the greatest booster The Gold Band had. In fact he could not go to the rehearsals without me. I should be happy to help you in the good work. Memories should be preserved. Like all grandmothers, she has pictures in her billfold — Jet R. looked fat and healthy and would say fat and sassy!"

I got a welcome letter a few days ago with a nice check for $100 from Pearl Hague who is working for a construction company in Grand Prairie. I guess my first for mail address is B B Shots. Now I know the movie stars feel when they get fan mail. It kind of makes you up, but something else makes you up and lets the wind out of you. Thanks Pearl.

Mrs. Alice Eddins of Estabrook off a few days ago and to homecoming of the Mansfield High School, where she graduated in the early 1900's. All of the graduates of this class attending homecoming, as Bert and I were the only two in this class. Now Mrs. Alice Eddins and Dr. Bert Ball of Fort Worth. Alice reported a good time.

I was by the community building two or three weeks ago on Sunday afternoon, lots of cars and lots of commotion and in checking inside found they were having a reunion of the Montgomery tribes. They told me there were about 125 present, but looked like over 200 to me! A lot of old faces popped up I had known in earlier days. Jesse Reed, who married one of Uncle Sam Montgomery's girls, and Lee Wattenverge who married Mr. and Mrs. Besse Reed's daughter, a lot of water and sand has passed since I had last seen them. I think Uncle Sam Montgomery's tribe was leading in attendance and population. Paul Montgomery is a part of this tribe and I believe he and his boys will keep in the lead of keeping the Montgomery name going. In checking up I had sold merchandise to five generations of this tribe in past years.

J. B. Skinner, mayor of Lakeview, visiting in Heritage Hall with his friend Robert H. Foreman, now of Las Cruces, N. M. Robert worked with J. B. in 1920 and early '30 when he left Hall County. Came back in 1937 and married Murelene McCravery, daughter of Tom McCravery. Have one daughter 21 and one son 31. Said his dad shod horses all around for 75 cents in the early days. Robert is a cousin of Mary and Thrasher Foreman, former residents of Hall County.

Jude Gable visited Heritage Hall and brought in branding irons and also had an old bread wrapper Purdy bread 5 cents loaf. C. W. Durham in Heritage Hall and brought in a collection of early day newspapers. C. W. was operator of a C. E. Stone Store here several years ago and he left Memphis he carried one of our beauty queens with him, Gussie Gerlach, daughter of Wm. Gerlach. C. W. and Gussie are now living in Midland.

Mrs. Fred Clark of Lorenzo visited Heritage Hall. Many of you will remember Red as being in business here several years.

Pinkey Cagle, graduate of MHS 1915, in Heritage Hall last week. His statement was: "There is a lot more to this than I ever thought you would have." He is now living in Reseda, Calif.

Mrs. Earl Briscoe, with her three sisters, visited in Heritage Hall. She was Julia Green and sisters, Nancy Mae, Martha and Johnnie. Mrs. Briscoe now living in Dallas and the other sisters in Amarillo. They were daughters of John Green, who first arrived in Hall County in 1902. They are granddaughters of the late Zach Adams.

When you go out to Postex Mills and see all the sheets they are making, your first thought is what will they do with all those sheets. Then you have a second thought, there are probably ten thousand sheets on beds in Hall County last night, they all have a change and that would make 20 thousand and then some in reserve and in stores that would make about 25 thousand sheets in Hall County last night. Dallas and Houston would have about one and a half million each on their beds so in Texas alone we would have about ten million sheets last night and with 50 states we would total about 500 million sheets in the U. S. and then being about seven and a half feet long, if you were on the moon and the fire alarm went off you could tie one to your bed post and each tied to the other I think you could escape down to earth on that many sheets. We are going to wear some of them out so Jim you better keep those machines going as we do not want a shortage of sheets. This is guess work, but hard to prove that it is wrong or right either!

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Higher Cotton Yields Are Obtained With Recommended Cultural Practices

Recommended cultural practices during the growing season can put more cotton in your trailer this fall, reminds County Agent W. B. Hooser.

Efficient machine harvesting of cotton is affected by field conditions at harvest time, and when they are near perfect, a properly adjusted machine can be expected to harvest around 95 percent of the cotton in the field.

Here are suggestions from the county agent which should make mechanical harvesting easier and more efficient.

Obstructions in any field in which a mechanical harvester is to be used should be removed. Smooth fields should be maintained.

pleasure to see the many interesting displays in your museum. Best wishes for continued success. — Mary Isabell Bugbee, of California.

"It gave me great pleasure to go through the Hall County Heritage Museum which seems to me an outstanding example of what a few dedicated people can do to preserve their loved heritage." Mrs. Tom Bugbee of Amarillo, the former Anne Craven.

ed, if practical, for most efficient machinery use. Turnrows should be wide and smooth for easy turning of machinery and to eliminate "bobbing" of the picker head at harvest time.

Nitrogen applied at the right time and proper rate will aid growth and maturity, but late application during the fruiting season should be avoided. A plant population of three to four plants per foot of row space results in higher harvested yield and more efficient machine picking.

Grass and weeds should be controlled to decrease picker losses and to increase yields and more efficient machine picking.

Grass and weeds should be controlled to decrease picker losses and to increase yields. Good insect control is necessary for developing a uniform field of well formed plants with evenly distributed bolls on the stalks. Properly maintained row shape will allow lower bolls to be harvested with less trash.

While it may be a bit early to think about harvesting, the county agent reminds that it is never too early to do the things which can increase yields and income from cotton at harvest time.

Good Range Management Calls For Long-Range Planning

Many things can be done to alleviate shortage of range forage from drought. Some steps can be taken immediately, points out County Agent W. B. Hooser, while others can be taken as inurance against the next drought period.

Drought, he notes, is no stranger to the southwest but many livestock men base their operations on the longtime average of the exceptionally good rainfall years.

The first step to follow in a drought situation is the reduction of grazing pressure on rangeland. This can be accomplished by calling the low and non-producers from a herd. This practice reduces the grazing pressure, and offers an opportunity to improve the productive capability of the herd. Many times total production is greater after the low producers are removed, says Hooser.

During a prolonged drought, supplemental feeding becomes necessary in order to keep a breeding herd intact. This might best be done by putting the herd in dry lot or in a small tract rather than letting the whole range be damaged. Supplemental pastures can help furnish needed grazing in critical periods, explains the county agent.

Preventive steps include maintaining reserve forage. A well planned and executed deferred-rotation grazing program can provide one good source of reserve forage. An emergency feed supply should be also maintained. It's best to buy when feedstuffs are abundant and prices are most favorable.

Act now to overcome present drought problems and make plans for those ahead, advises Hooser.

Pro football will receive $34.7 million from two TV networks this season for broadcasting rights. That's $93,000 for every yard gained.

The seismic recorder left on the moon by Apollo 11 has reported 14 disturbances. That's strange, for TV film failed to show even one college campus on the moon.

Childress Bobcats Use Aerials To Bombard Cyclone 59-6

With a phenomenal display of accurate passing and catching of the football, the Childress Bobcats bombed the Memphis Cyclone 59-6 Friday night.

The first half passing of QB John Baker into the arms of Kevin Wood, Fred Wright, David Lane, Benny Land, and David Hickman for 200 yards, four touchdowns and setting up opportunities for touchdowns was disastrous to the home team, which was doing a creditable job of stopping the Bobcats ground game.

Baker's passing percentage the first half, eight completions on 10 attempts for 200 yards tells the whole story of the 42 to 6 lead the Bobcats experienced at halftime. Added to this was a 22-yd. pass interference penalty against the Cyclone. Most of these passes occurred on third down and long yardage situations.

The Bobcats drew first blood on a 35-yd. TD pass from Baker to End David Lane on a third down, seven needed just after the opening kickoff. Van Bearden place kicked the PAT and the score was 7-0.

A third down and eight situation, from the Memphis 40, was the staging for Childress' second aerial bomb, this time from Baker to Kevin Wood. Bearden kicked the PAT and it was 14-0.

A 20-yd. pass from Baker to Benny Land set up the third TD on the Memphis 6-yd. line. FB Dickie Nations rammed across on a second down from the five to score. Bearden kicked the PAT.

A Memphis fumble which Childress recovered on the home 30 set up the next score, but it was Baker to Fred Wright pass that put more points on the board. Bearden kicked the PAT.

Contributing to the Bobcats next score was a pass interference penalty which gave Childress the ball on the home 1-yd. line. On the second down, Ricky McIntyre scored. Bearden kicked the point after touchdown. The score was 35-0.

At this point, the Cyclone offense made its first, first down, as TB Ronnie McFalls and FB Carol Thompson rammed for the necessary yardage. The drive was short lived however so the Cyclone punted and the Bobcats took over on their own 29.

The passing combination of QB Baker to HB Wood worked twice and the Bobcats scored again. Bearden kicked the PAT and the score was 42-0.

Memphis took the kickoff and marched down the field to score, mounting their first scoring offensive since the third period of the Clarendon game.

Getting the drive going were two fine carries by FB McFalls high stepped his way for 11 yards to the Childress 37 and another first down. Then, McFalls broke loose around the left and raced 30 yards before being downed from behind by Childress defender on the 7.

FB Thompson cracked through for four yards to the Childress 3, on the first down, but was met at the line of scrimmage on the second down. Then, TB McFalls faked inside and went outside and carried over the goal line unopposed for the six points. A QB pass run option play for two points saw Merle Kilpatrick dive for the goal line only to come up a little short.

Childress starting Tackle Van Bearden, received a broken knee on the extra point try, and was removed from the field by ambulance. Before the injury, he had kicked six for six extra points and been an outstanding offensive and defensive player for the Bobcats.

The half ended shortly thereafter. It was late in the third period before the Cyclone got a drive moving, while the Cyclone defense bottled up Childress' offense. Taking the ball on the home 44, TB McFalls made 11 yards to the Childress 45. Then a 5-yard gain and a 15-yard penalty against Childress gave Memphis the ball on the Bobcats 25.

But, Memphis was caught holding, and 15 yards were stepped off. After this, QB Kilpatrick got loose for an 8-yd. gain. On the third down, a Kilpatrick pass went incomplete, and on the fourth down, a fake punt netted only 4 yards with Kilpatrick carrying.

Childress took over the ball, was held and punted to the home 20. Two good carries by TB McFalls made another first down to the home 50. But here, disaster struck again when a fumble developed which Childress recovered.

The Cyclone defense gave up one yard in three plays, but on the fourth down, FB Nations rolled for 18 yards and a first down to the home 11. The 179-lb. fullback crashed for 10 more yards on the next play. Then, Dale Inman took the ball over from the one-yd. line. Wood kicked the PAT.

Fred Wright fielded a punt and returned it to the Memphis 18, setting up the Bobcats next score. Nations scored from the 12-yd. line and Wood kicked the PAT.

The Bobcats final score of the night came on a 25-yd. field goal by Kevin Wood, making the score 59-6.

In the final effort of the night for Memphis, the Cyclone made two first downs, one by virtue of a 9-yd. pass from Reserve QB John Carman to WB Mark Hundley.

Farmers Asked Assist With Important Survey

Annual survey, the basis for official crop production estimates for Texas and each of its counties will soon be underway. Agent W. B. Hooser said that this is an important survey because the information gathered is used for many purposes. Farmers and ranchers in each county will be among the first in Texas receiving a questionnaire, he adds. Those who receive the questionnaire are urged to complete it as soon as possible and return it to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, Box 70, Austin, Texas 78767. Accuracy in reporting the questionnaire is essential. The survey is a joint responsibility of the Texas Department of Agriculture and the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Statistical Reporting Service. Cary D. Hooser, state statistician in charge of the office, will be mailing the questionnaires. A county agent noted that the data bulletins for 1968 are available from state stations or from the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Provisions Of New Gun Law Defined By IRS Official

DALLAS — The Gun Control Act of 1968 was passed by Congress to help Federal, State and local law enforcement officials in their fight against crime and violence. Carl Booth, IRS Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Chief Special Investigator for Texas said today, adding that it was in no way intended to hinder the activities of hunters and sportsmen. As an example, Mr. Booth said hunters and sportsmen can purchase ammunition in any state, and likewise can carry their own firearms across a state line as long as they are not convicted felons, or under indictment for a felony; fugitives from justice; unlawful users of drugs; or mental incompetents. Further, Mr. Booth said hunters, sportsmen, competitive shooters, or anyone legally using a gun in a state other than his home state can acquire another firearm if his rifle or shotgun is lost, stolen, or becomes inoperative. He said the law requires only that the buyer in these circumstances make out an affidavit for the dealer's records, and provide the dealer with the title of the chief law enforcement officer in the locality where he lives.

CARD OF THANKS
When I learned I would not lose my eyesight, I began counting my blessings and found that the greatest of these is friends. Truly, the courage and comfort of friends — the cards, gifts, telephone calls and personal visits — made my recovery from surgery much more endurable than it otherwise would have been. My sincere thanks to all of you.

Mayor—

(Continued from Page 1) age of funds is unpaid back taxes, taxes unpaid by a number of you, some as far back as 20 years. I think some of you could and should make some effort to start paying your back taxes, if only in small monthly payments. You no doubt like our city in which you live, and some have lived here for many years. Why not help your city? Now, I want to say a few words to the elders who live here and draw old age benefit checks monthly. (Please do not take me wrong for I am for you 100 percent in every respect.) However, I have been informed by the welfare office in Memphis, if the city files a delinquent tax suit against your property, you can take this notice you receive to the welfare office and they will add to your present monthly check, additional money to pay only our back taxes each month. Please give this a serious thought and if you do this, I believe you will do this much for your home town.

Respectfully,
Lance Walker, Mayor

ducts were furnished to other state agencies by the prison system during the 1969 fiscal year. Heatly said, "The Texas Department of Corrections now stands foremost among all states of the nation in modern housing and facilities. Through the wise appropriation of money, the inadequate, antiquated and dilapidated structures have been replaced by modern facilities which can be pointed to with pride by all Texans. The farming operations involve 95,000 acres and the prison system now has 16,000 swine, 12,000 dairy and beef cattle, and 100,000 chickens and turkeys. Money from the sales of these products is returned to the state for financing other agencies of state government."

"The emphasis during the last ten years has been on development of skills to train both the minds and bodies of inmates so that they can return to a normal, free society. Prisoners who come to the prison system as illiterate are given training to permit them to compete for jobs once they are released," Heatly continued. "Texans can be proud of the accomplishments made in prison management in Texas and this could only be done through sufficient appropriations by the Legislature."

The scales of justice might well be called the trial balance.

SOCIAL SECURITY NEWS

Q. On the 19th of last month I was severely injured in an automobile accident. My back was broken and I have severe facial injuries that will require plastic surgery. Someone told me that I ought to apply for social security disability benefits. How do I go about that?

A. If it appears that you will be disabled for work for 12 months or more, you should get in touch with your social security office right away. Disability benefits do not begin until after a waiting period of 6 months. But, by applying now, a lot of the steps can be taken beforehand... securing your medical records, checking your earnings report, and making the decision on your eligibility. It may be that you have a wife and children who will be eligible for dependents' benefits. Claims should also be filed for them.

Q. I'm going to be 65 in a few months but will go right on working just as I am now. Is there any reason why I should put in my claim for social security benefits?

A. Yes, indeed there is. Medicare benefits are payable at 65 and after whether or not you are retired. But your Medicare doctor bill insurance can begin on the first day of the month you are 65 only if you sign up in one of the three months before the month of your 65th birthday. If you wait until your birthday month... or later... your coverage will be delayed one to three months. Whether you plan to retire at 65 or continue to work after 65, visit your social security office two or three months before your birthday.

That ban against women baseball umpires is understandable. When a woman shouts "out," you'd better get out — fast.

Memphis Junior Teams To Play Games Against Childress Teams Tonight

The Memphis Jr. Varsity team travels to Childress tonight while the Jr. High Whirlwind teams play host to Childress 7th and 8th graders at Cyclone Stadium.

All three teams lost games to Shamrock last Thursday. The Jr. Varsity score was 0-36, the 8th grade score was 42-22 and the 7th grade score was 24-14.

Scoring for the 7th graders were Jimmy Melton and Joe Serina scoring a two-point conversion. Eighth graders scoring were Jim Dixon, Paul Ruiz and Mark Bradshaw. Bradshaw added 4 more points on conversions.

Coach George Berry said the games with Childress tonight will be real tough ones. "We hope our boys will give a good account in desire and effort," he said.

Coach Lacy Remarks
Junior Varsity Coach Denzil Lacy was disappointed with the outcome of the Shamrock game.

Behind 8-0 just before the half, Shamrock intercepted a pass and went for a touchdown. "We made two mistakes and Shamrock had us 14-0 at halftime," he said.

"When we get behind the boys give up hope and don't play well, then we get beat bad," he said. The outstanding boy on the field for us was Paul Fowler who from his linebacker position made tackles all over the field. "Paul is a real competitor," the coach said. "Our team lacks complete players," Lacy said. "We have fair size and speed except assignments real good in practice but when we play another we concede defeat too easily."

"A winning team comes from positive support from everyone concerned with the team. If it is expected to win every game, the boys play and are encouraged to give 100 per cent then our chances are better."

Those interested in joining club are asked to bring a cash dish.

Games will be played and include Dominoes, cards, chess and others.

Those attending are asked to bring card tables and dominoes.

Lakeview Young Homemakers To Have Supper Oct.

Those interested in joining club are asked to bring a cash dish.
