Western Alfalfa To Have Open House Tomorrow

Final plans were completed early this week for the Open House celebration of the Panhandle Division of Western Alfalfa Corporation complex in Memphis. The company has invited citizens of Memphis and a wide area to visit the facility from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m. Friday, April 17.

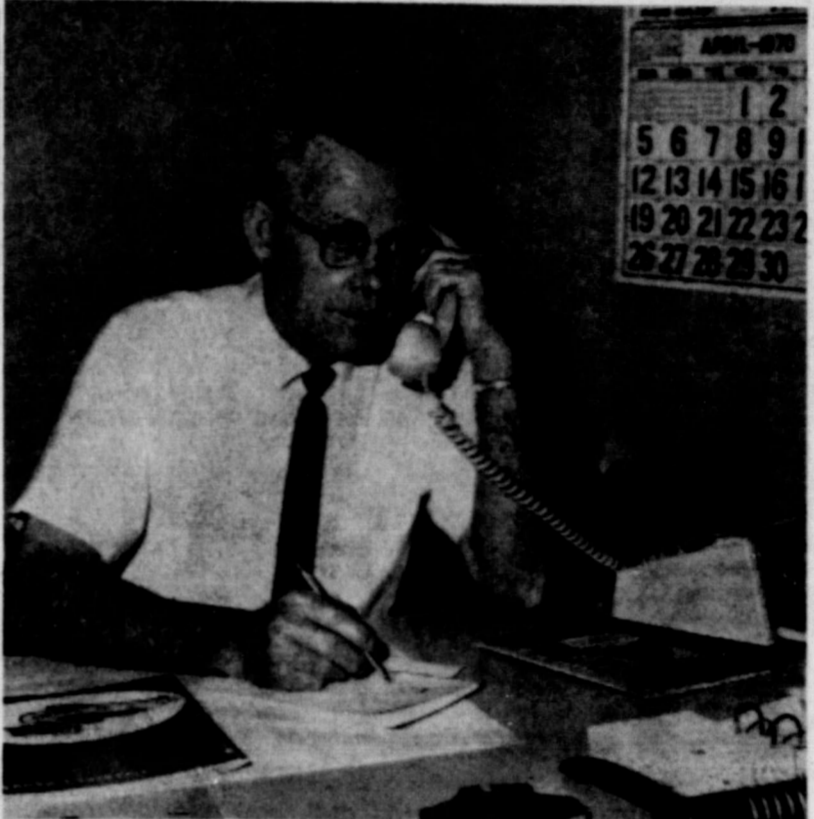

The site of the event is the old Oil Mill property, located in southeast Memphis, adjoining U. S. Highway 287.

O. G. (Hap) Kensinger, general manager; Bill Whitten, office manager; and J. V. (Vic) Fahrenbruck, general field manager of Panhandle Division, announced that refreshments will be served. Also free door prizes will be given away during the hours of the Open House.

On display will be several pieces of special-built equipment which will be used in harvesting and processing of alfalfa. Visitors will see cutters, stackers, loaders, grinders, trucks and other items. Also to be seen is the recently completed long scale platform, located west of the office building. This will enable the company to weigh long semi-trailer trucks.

Several officials of Western Alfalfa Corp. had made plans to be in Memphis for the grand opening of the Memphis facility. Headquarters of the company is Kansas City, Mo. A telephone call late Wednesday afternoon to the local office cancelled the trip. An important meeting had been scheduled and the men will not be in Memphis at the Open House.

The company's operation will get underway with the cutting of the first alfalfa crop in this area.

Lakeview Tennis Sponsor Barney Bevers commented that Durrett is playing better than he has ever seen her. "She is playing more aggressive and hitting all

Directors of the First National Bank of Memphis and other local investors purchased the interest of Vincent Kickerillo, Jack I. Davis, and other non-local stockholders in the seventy-two-year-old institution, Thursday, April 9.

Immediately after completion of the purchase, a director's meeting was held at which Ben Parks was elected president of the bank, and Hauby Dean and Bill Bradley were elected to the Board of Directors.

A letter of resignation had been received by the Board of Directors from Davis on April 8. In submitting the resignation, Mr. Davis said, "I have enjoyed the association and business relationship with each of you and I sincerely hope that the Bank continues to progress and serve the community."

Parks, the newly elected president, has been connected with the bank for eighteen years as a vice president. Dean has also been associated with the bank as a vice president.

Bradley is a well-known rancher and registered Angus breeder. "I believe that complete local ownership of the bank will enable us to better serve this community and area," Parks said, "and we invite our friends and customers to join with us as we work for continued growth and improved service."

The Board of Directors is composed of M. C. Allen, Jr., Bill J. Bradley, Charles Brown, W. H. Dean, John M. Deaver, T. H. Deaver, Sr., E. N. Foxhall, A. L. Gailley, Roy L. Gresham, O. L. Helm, L. E. Hughes, Joe Montgomery, Ben Parks and Dr. H. R. Stevenson.

County Clerk Ruby Goodnight reminded voters this week that absentee voting has begun.

Closing Of Park Starts Monday For Repair Work

The Memphis City Park will be closed to the public on Monday, April 20, and will remain closed for several days, it was announced this week.

The closing was ordered by the City Council at a recent meeting after the decision was reached to make needed improvements and do general repairing over the entire area.

Aldermen in charge of the park are J. O. Dixon and Johnny Farnsworth. The work will be under the supervision of Johnny Hancock.

It was explained that the City Park is being used by the general public in every increasing numbers. Due to the type of work to be done, and the element of danger to members of families who might be using the facilities, it will be closed for a limited time.

As announced last week, all motorcyclist have been notified to use only the designated cycle riding area in the City Park or existing roadways. A special area in the southeast part of the park will be available for individuals who take part in the sport of motorcycling.

Cyclone Band To Go To Contest Wed.

The Memphis Cyclone Band is going hard to prepare for the XVI U.L.L. Concert and Reading Contest to be held in Dimmitt next Wednesday, April 22.

Director of Bands at Texas University, Dean Killian, will lead the Memphis musicians from 3 until 6 p. m. yesterday.

Director Glen Thompson said the schedule at the U.L.L. has the Memphis Band starting early Wednesday morning and that it has been decided the organization will spend the night in Dimmitt in order to be ready for the contest.

This gives us the advantage of being able to have an hour-long session on the stage in Dimmitt, the night before the contest, Director Thompson said. The Band hasn't had an overnight trip since the Six Flags Over Texas trip two years ago," Director Thompson said.

The Memphis school administration approved the trip when the time the band would appear on the schedule was received here, Supt. C. L. Chambless said that the local group would have had to leave at 4:30 a. m. in order to arrive in Dimmitt in time to eat and be ready to perform.

Last fall, the local band ran into travel time difficulty while going to the U.L.L. Marching Contest in Lubbock and arrived late. This, plus other things, resulted in a Div. II rating.

"We want to give our band every advantage we can, and the over-night lodging and the opportunity to practice on the stage could make a big difference in the outcome at the contest," Supt. Chambless said.

Can Cancer Be Controlled?

The American people have responded many, many times to appeals for financial help to research many different kinds of diseases and a percentage of contributions have gone into actual research which has brought about some progress in the continuing process of finding new and better medication or vaccine to treat or prevent terminal ailments.

The American Cancer Society this week is conducting a fund raising campaign and is seeking contributions to carry on the work of the organization.

The Society reports that it has been warned that the leveling off of government expenditures for cancer research is placing a heavy demand on the Society for increased research support. The Society reports: "After the tremendous scientific triumph attained when men walked on the moon many people asked a pointed question—Why can't the same resource be devoted to finding a cancer cure?"

A cure for cancer is so far beyond the scientific information available, however, while scientific data to put a man on the moon has been available for several years, even before the project was undertaken about a decade ago. With the respect to cancer, much of the scientific information is still to be discovered and unraveled. The innermost secrets of life processes are involved. Much has already been found and that's why one of three cancer patients is now being saved. The doctors tell us that with present knowledge it could be one of two saved if the cancer is diagnosed in time and properly treated.

The American Cancer Society repeatedly points out that cancer is no longer an automatic death sentence. It is, in fact, one of the most curable of the major diseases.

The American Cancer Society is doing much in leading the effort of preventing cancer by urging the wearing of protective clothing during periods of long exposure to the sun and in the avoidance of cigarettes. The society is waging a war to close the "communications gap" sending its messages of sense and safety but too many are not listening, or if they are, are caught in the "action gap." Half of the job is to act on the knowledge given us, but the saving of our lives begins with us.

About four million persons in this country wait for science to solve the riddle of why human cells go wild and kill the host that nurtures them. These four million Americans plus another million who already know they have the disease are asking, "Will research find the answers in time to save my life?"

When cancer is diagnosed in its earliest stages, the chance of effective control is a possibility. Donations to the American Cancer Society will help continue the programs of the society.

What Other Editors Say

Not daytime TV!

If hindsight could replace foresight, a lot of things might be done differently... perhaps. But perhaps not.

Editor Cecil Waggoner in The Claude News speculates on this interesting supposition.

"The past is prologue," says Waggoner. "Just suppose the Wright Brothers had seen on film the bombing of Britain, Germany, or Hiroshima! Do you imagine that they would have struck a match to their little box kite?"

"Or what if Marconi had been forced to watch an hour of television?"

Since it didn't happen that way, we'll never know. But scientists have seldom been deterred from perfecting fearful inventions. The men and women who worked feverishly, for example, on the "Manhattan Project" to perfect an atomic bomb during the days of World War II had a very clear idea of what kind of destruction their weapon might bring about.

So even if the Wright brothers had had foreknowledge from their "little box kite," we suspect that they'd have gone right along trying to make the thing fly.

Marconi and Television pose a tougher question, however. That might have depended on what time of day Marconi had to spend the hour watching. If old Marconi had been shown a typical hour of daytime TV, he might very well have chucked his radio tubes in the nearest ash can.

After all, some things could be just too horrible to contemplate, even for the maddest of mad scientists!

Strike Problems

The nationwide truck strike was supposed to have been averted when the Teamsters Union and the trucking industry got together on a package deal which raised truck driver wages to $4 an hour and 12 cents a mile for driving.

However, this didn't solve the problem.

Thousands of truck drivers across the country have begun walking off their job in major cities of the country and this despite the promise of the teamsters Union that the wage settlement was satisfactory.

Apparently these truck drivers on the wildcat strikes believe that all they need to do is strike and they will get what they want, no matter how much it is.

And why shouldn't they feel this way? The reason we have so many strikes is that the strikers always win concessions. They may not win all they ask for, but they always get more money, more benefits, shorter hours or other concessions and the employer always winds up either raising prices for what he sells, or he merges or he sells out or he goes broke.

The way things are rigged nowadays, it is impossible for a company to successfully fight a strike because the cards are stacked in favor of the unions.

Wildcat strikes can be resisted, but an industry wide union has all the top cards. The laws protect the unions. The law allows union strikers to destroy property, assault other workers and take over streets and sidewalks. If the company attempts to use the same tactics, it is called illegal and prompt punishment results.

The famous Kroehler strike resulted in a successful resistance by this plumbing fixture manufacturer over an eight year period to stay in business despite a strike. All this was to no avail. The strikers went into federal court and won an incredible judgement that compelled the Kroehler company to pay back wages to all of the strikers for all the time they were on the picket line for the entire eight years. This was the straw that budgeoned this company and virtually killed it off.

If a strike is always successful and always legal, we can look for more of the same. What does an employee or a union have to lose? The National Labor Relations Board, supposedly set up to arbitrate labor disputes, has from the beginning been an arm, a tool of labor, thus it is two against one in any sort of dispute.

Employees have the right to work or not work for a company. But surely the company has the right to try and replace striking employees without being bombed out of business.

Production Potential Of Hall County Is Being Challenged To Increase

An all-out effort to increase agricultural income in Texas by $1 billion by the end of the 1976 crop year has been announced by Dr. John E. Hutchison, director, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, reports County Agent W. B. Hooser. The program objective is to further develop the tremendous potential for agricultural income in Hall County and for the other counties of the state.

The slogan for the program, "3.76 in '76", is significant for it marks the centennial year of Texas A&M University, the state's land grant university. Too, the agricultural income of Texas is now approximately $2.76 billion and the $1 billion increase would achieve the 3.76 figure.

The program is specifically planned to close the gap between average and potential yields of all important agricultural commodities produced in Hall County and will utilize improved marketing practices, Hooser says. Too, the program is designed to increase both the gross and net income of producers.

The County Program Building Committee will set long range and annual goals based on the knowledge and experience of local farmers and ranchers, Hooser said. These will be attainable, he added, if producers will follow the coordinated application of improved practices already proved by research and Extension demonstrations. The practices have been outlined by Extension guides prepared by Extension specialists and other resource people for each economically important agricultural enterprise in the county. Improved marketing practices will receive emphasis equal to production in the program effort, Hooser said.

The County USDA Rural Development Committee, composed of representatives of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service, Farmers Home Administration, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, U. S. Forest Service and Rural Electrification Administration, have pledged their services to the County Program Building Committee in helping Hall County reach its goal by 1976.

The county agent sees the program as a rewarding challenge to agricultural producers and as a stimulant to the entire economy of Hall County.

Census Forms To Be Circulated On Public School Kindergarten

The Memphis Public Schools are taking another census concerning children who will be at least 5 years and 5 months old on or before Sept. 1, 1970, but who are not eligible to begin first grade next year.

The census is being taken to determine the number of children eligible to enter a public kindergarten which will begin during 1970-71 school year, Supt. C. L. Chambless announced this week.

Parents of these children will be asked to complete a census blank by listing all children ages one through five living in their household.

Children qualified to attend the public kindergarten program are those who come from a family whose annual income is $3,000 or less or one who is considered educationally handicapped due to language barriers, physically handicapped, family background, mental retardation or socially unadjusted.

Supt. Chambless said that due to the nature of the questionnaires, all information collected will be kept in strict confidence. The Public Schools wish those filling out the census blanks to circle the categories they think their child would qualify for to be eligible to attend the kindergarten. A letter accompanying the census questionnaires explains the questions contained: Language barrier is those children of Latin origin whose family speaks Spanish or children who are unable to speak or understand the English language.

Physical handicapped is any child who cannot function normally with children of his own age group because of a physical handicap.

Family background covers any child whose parents (or those who the child lives with) cannot provide the educational environment necessary for him to enter school on an equal educational level with other children in the community; or any child who is emotionally unstable because of family problems such as divorce, death in the family, etc., to the extent that this instability would hinder him educationally.

Mental retardation is any child with a history of mental retardation and socially unadjusted is any child that cannot function successfully with other children.

Supt. Chambless said as most citizens are aware, 1970-71 begins the implementation of the kindergarten program into the public schools of Texas. The public education laws of Texas specify these who will attend.

awards ceremony next Jan. 10 in Amarillo.

Miss Rapp, a 5-11 sophomore from Estelline became the first Queen in 7 years to score more than 500 points when she hit the mark of 520 this past season.

CHERRI RAPP

Just A Sophomore— Cherri Rapp Of Hutcherson Flying Queens May Be All-Around Greatest

PLAINVIEW — The awards speak for themselves. Most Valuable Player at the National AAU Tournament, All-American, Most Valuable Player in the Amarillo National Invitational, All-National Girls Basketball League and the leading scorer and rebounder for the famed Hutcherson Flying Queens of Wayland Baptist College.

Those honors were all earned by former Estelline cage star Cherri Rapp who has just completed her second season as a Flying Queen and very well may already be the greatest all-round player in women's basketball today.

Cherri, a 5-11 sophomore forward, shredded the nets for 520 points this past season, becoming the first Queen in 17 years to break the 500 barrier in one year. She averaged 15.8 points per game and led the team in rebounds.

She hit 205 of 434 field goals attempted for a solid 47.2 percent and clicked on 110 of 178 from the line for 61.8 percent.

Cherri was also known for her abilities as a playmaker, passer and team leader.

Cherri scored more than 20 points seven times during the year, her high game 26 points against Temple Junior College. She was in double figures in all but four of the Queens' 33 games, hitting nine each time.

She tallied 15 points against Raytown Pipers as the Queens won the NGBL title on Mar. 7. A week later, she pitched in 25 as the team defeated Midwestern College of Denison, Iowa for their third straight Iowa Invitational crown. Seven days later, she had 18 points as the Queens again defeated Midwestern for the Amarillo title, the equivalent of a national college championship. She finished the tourney with 51 points in three games.

Two weeks later, she came off the bench to spark an 11th hour rally as the Queens returned to the throne room of the National AAU Tournament for the first time in nine years by beating Ouachita Baptist of Arkadelphia, Ark., 58-53 in Gallup, N. M. The Queens finished the season with a 29-4 record, best since 1960-61.

In the four games of the national tourney, Cherri scored 60 points. The event was also highlighted by her selection to the NGBL All-League team and being named All-American and MVP of the tournament.

She now has 629 points in two years as a Queen and should move into 10th place on the list of all-time scorers early next season. If she maintains her scoring output at more than 500 points for the next two years, she has a chance to be the No. 1 or No. 2 scorer in the entire history of the Queens.

A Math major, Cherri has a 3.86 average.

She is the 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rapp of Estelline.

TOPS Officers Explain Purpose Of Organization

Members of the Memphis TOPS met Monday, April 13, at 322 S. 6th Street.

Roll call was answered with 10 TOPS, four gainers and one turtle.

Officers were installed for the coming year.

For the information of interested persons, TOPS officers have released the following information pertaining to the purpose of TOPS:

"The purpose of TOPS is primarily to help all over weight who are sincerely interested in losing pounds sensibly. It is based on the principle of group therapy, getting together those who have a common problem and discussing it frankly without fear of being laughed at or misunderstood.

"The members of a chapter compete with one another in a friendly fashion while attaining their ideal weight and maintaining that weight. The success and enthusiasm of the group provides encouragement and incentive to those individuals who lack the will power to accomplish their goal alone.

Music for the wedding was provided by Phillip Sitton, organist, and Charles Helmer, soloist.

Audrey Tribble Is Elected Gamma Kappa President

Miss Judy Denny of Childress was awarded the annual grant-in-aid by members of Gamma Kappa Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society at a seated tea honoring future and retired teachers of the four county area.

Miss Denny, daughter of William L. Denny, plans to attend Clarendon Junior College and West Texas State University, majoring in English.

Others honored at the tea were Mmes. Bill Hill, Jack Davis, R. R. Crawley and Cliff Leggett of Wellington; Mmes. John Gilliam, Verge Johnson and Nathan Cox and Misses Lee Ann Palmer, Beth Waldrop and Katrina Messer of Clarendon.

From Childress, guests in addition to Miss Denny were Mrs. Mary Kate Holland, sponsor of Future Teachers Assn., and Misses Lida Carmack, Pat Sotherman and Martha Fite. Guests from Memphis were Misses Rita Graham and Florence Crutchfield.

Mrs. Lois Ratliff, librarian at Wellington High School, reviewed the book "Be My Guest" by Conrad Hilton who attributed his success to the teaching of his father to "work, work, work, then play" and to his mother who taught him to "pray about it, boy, pray about it." He was a product of prayer and work. Mrs. Ratliff advised the future teachers that no better formula could be found for success in their chosen profession. She concluded her review with Conrad Hilton's prayer.

In the business meeting, officers for the next biennium were elected. Mrs. Audrey Tribble of Memphis was elected president; Miss Alma Bruce of Memphis, first vice president; Miss Edgar Mae Mongole of Clarendon, second vice president; Mrs. Edna Smith of Childress, recording secretary; Miss Mabel Mongole of Clarendon, corresponding secretary; Miss Ethel Hillhouse of Memphis, treasurer; and Mrs. L. Delphians Hear Prog. On Drugs, Alcoholism April 7

The Delphian Club met on Tuesday, April 7, at the Big O Restaurant with Mrs. John Deaver, II and Mrs. Robert Clark as hostesses.

Mrs. Frank A. Finch, president, presided over the business meeting and gave the delegates report from the Santa Rosa District convention. She reported Delphian Club had received several awards among them were 1st on Crafts, second on Creative Homemaking, second on Literature and Drama, first on the outstanding program on Mental Health, and in the Arts and Crafts Display a first and second place on oil paintings by Mrs. Eddie Wecker and 3rd place on a Christmas decoration of eight reindeer, made from chicken wish bones and the sleigh of turkey breast.

Mrs. Bill Combs introduced the program, "Public Affairs, Footprints of Temptation" and the quotation, "The solution of the world's problems begins in our own hearts."

As the devotion for the day members joined Mrs. Mildred Stephens in reading the Club Collect.

"Alcoholism — Problems and Progress," said Mrs. Clark, "The word Alcohol is derived from the Arabic 'al kohl' originally a fine powder used for staining the eyelids. Late Stone Age beer mugs have established the fact that some use of fermented beverages existed in the Neolithic period, ancient had a large number of wines; alcoholic beverages are produced from grains, fruits, honey and many other substances."

"Alcoholism is any use of alcoholic beverages that cause any damage to the individual or society or both. It is now recognized as a disease and as the body becomes more tolerant of alcohol the more it requires. It disrupts family, the church, the school, in addition to what the loss to the individual may be. You don't cure alcoholics any more than you cure tuberculosis but you may arrest it. Alcoholics Anonymous seems to be the best treatment for alcoholics at this time," Mrs. Clark continued.

"Drugs, The Use and Abuse" was the topic assigned to Mrs. Joe Bob Browning. She said, "How does this concern each one of us Delphians — first what are narcotic drugs? Generally people think of opium, heroin, morphine, cocaine, and paregoric. These and other opiates are obtained from the juice or seeds of poppies. Opiates are often used as pain killers added to this list are the newer synthetics such as demerol, dolophene, and talwin."

"What is narcotic addiction? It does not take many doses for one to get 'hooked' on it and then it takes larger and larger doses for one to get the desired effect. Public Health Service shows there are 60,000 known addicts with most of them being from New York state. Recent figures show more than one-half of them are under 30 years of age. A sick person can be treated and cured but there is no real assurance he will not return to it, as 80 per cent have gone back," Mrs. Browning said.

"Keep communication to the youth of our area, encourage students to confide in parents, teachers, and older friends and to discuss the drug problem. So many feel defensive if the subject of drugs comes up they should find someone in whom they can confide. There appears to be a decline in LSD usage as a result of publicized reports of possible adverse potentiation and psychological biological hazards. It is impossible to eliminate or legislate away all possibilities. There are many film strips, lecture programs available for programs and these should be developed and invite the youth of our town to share in these observations," Mrs. Browning concluded.

Members present were Mmes. Finch, Combs, Robert L. Duncan, A. Anisman, J. L. Barnes, Jack B. Boone, Browning, K. E. Dale, L. F. Jones, Lynn McKown, Jim McMurry, Sim Reeves, Clyde Smith, Stephens, one new member, Mrs. Emil Schattel and the hostesses.

On Sunday, April 19, Delphian Club members and friends will meet at the Community Center and go to Canyon for a tour of the Kilgore Research Center, Panhandle Plains Historical Museum, and the Art Museum. Meeting time is 12:45 p. m. with departure scheduled for 1 o'clock.

Miller-McMinn Nuptial Rites Read In Pretty Church Service In Denton

James Ulysses McMinn of Denton, formerly of Estelline, and his bride, who was Miss Sally Lynn Miller of Dallas, are making their home at 910 Eagle Drive, Denton, following their marriage March 21 and a wedding trip to Runaway Bay.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Mildred McMinn and the late Mr. McMinn and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller of Dallas.

The Rev. James William Morgan, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, read the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p. m. in the church sanctuary in Denton before an arrangement of pastel spring flowers and candelabra holding lighted tapers.

Miss Lynette Hoover of Estelline was soloist for the wedding music and the traditional processional and recessional was played by the church organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie and organza fashioned with empire waistline and high neckline accented with embroidered appliques. A pattern of applique descended the gown front in a panel from shoulder to hemline. The billowy, Tom Jones sheaves of organza were self bonded at the wrist, and her chapel train was of organza.

Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion was secured by a coil of bows and petals enhanced with seed pearls and she carried a cascade of white spring flowers interspersed with pink sweetheart rosebuds atop a white satin Bible.

Mrs. Waince Hughes was matron of honor and Mrs. Peggy Lee was bridesmaid. They wore identical sleeveless gowns of baby blue crepe styled with empire waist lines trimmed with lace and ribbons. They carried colonial bouquets of spring flowers.

Little Miss Brenda Stephens, cousin of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a dress identical to the other attendants. John Finch, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Candles were lighted by Brion Stephens, cousin of the bridegroom.

Evaristo Reyer of Rock Springs was best man and Burl Bumpas of Estelline was groomsmen. Ushers were Danny Miller of Dallas, brother of the bride, and Earl Stephen of Grapevine.

Mrs. Miller, mother of the bride, wore a suit of aqua brocade satin and Mrs. McMinn wore a blue knit suit. Both mothers wore corsages of gardenias.

Reception

Guests were received in the Flynn Hall of the church and registered by Mrs. Degon Lucas.

Assisting in reception duties were Misses Mary Johnson, Linda Killer and Yvonne Mitinger.

The bride's table was covered with a white next cloth over an underskirt of white satin and centered with an arrangement of pastel spring flowers and tapers. Silver arrangements were used. The three tiered wedding cake, all white, was decorated with doves, bells and roses and held a bridal couple on top. Miss Mary Johnson and Mrs. Ann Finch presided at the table.

The bride is a student at North Texas State University majoring in library services and will receive her BA degree in August. She is a member of the Alpha Beta Alpha.

The bridegroom is a junior student at NTSU and is a reservist in the U. S. Navy. He is employed with Texas Instruments.

Mrs. McMinn entertained in El Chico restaurant with the rehearsal dinner honoring her son and his fiancée. Flowers and candles of all colors decorated the T-shaped tables.

BYRON BALDWIN

Wants a Cracker", I remember when I was a pretty small child I would hear this nearly any day from a neighbor's dog and it came from their pet and have forgotten that name. We still have a parrot that really talks and is an old bird in our midst. He was born 42 years ago and was a very old bird when a very old man, by the late Mr. and Mrs. Newman with whom I lived until they both passed away. Now Ira Hammond has a dog which will have another year in June. Ira says he does not like talking and every night time he says "Goodnight" to the bird and thought I let you know he is still alive. (His name is Sherron Lee, Mrs. Marie and Mrs. Mackie Allen Heritage Hall last week the 2nd grade Brownie There were eleven girls in the class and they enjoyed the time they were the age that enjoyed seeing the Buffalo two headed calf and Toes" the wolf.

more of the good old days boys were "mischievous" juvenile delinquent. This was told to me for the truth. was a time when you did the baptismal places in the but had to go to a park, ravine and this particular preacher went down to the for and measured for his for baptizing and would stick-up a cane pole with his handkerchief tied on it Saturday afternoon he would know the exact spot for him to baptize on Sunday. Well Saturday night came and some mischievous boy moved the pole over close to a jump-off in the river and when the preacher came out to the pole he put up off he went in this jump-off of the river. Well, it liked to have drowned the preacher but that was not juvenile delinquency. It was just a mischievous boy who did that!

It looks like one strike is not over until another one starts. The most popular strike was the one where the women were carrying placards wanting equal rights! I started thinking on that subject and it seems that is already over done. Nowadays, women have social security cards, they spend about 90 per cent of the money, they vote, they wear pants, they smoke, they drink, and have their own cars. I think about all they can think of now is that they think men should have the babies in place of women, but I do not think they will change God's law in regard to this.

I passed Sug Lemon's store a few days ago and saw about a dozen heavy cardboard boxes in the window and with good size printing on the box saying "Virtue" and the amazing thing to me the factory was in California, where all of that smog and stuff is. So after reading the definition of that word and looking on the box I have about decided this "Virtue" furniture must be made from the heart of those big trees and the "Virtue" has not been exposed.

After ten years of service on the City Council, an alderman from Ward 3, Gayle Greene, has retired and I guess with full retirement pay. Thanks for those headaches you had at this job as I know there is a lot more to serving on those free jobs than a lot of us know trying to keep down expenses and still trying to make the city a more attractive place and make more people want to live here. Rayford Hutcherson is the new alderman following Gayle and he will soon have the harness on and assuming his responsibilities. He is young and full of vim and vigor and will get the job done.

Seeing the picture of Crump and Billie Ferrel's Hog operation it looks like they should be sanitary and I want to see them sometime. Anyway, this made me think of back in the 30's. I was on the city council and at that time we had a good many cows and hogs in city limits. I remember one council meeting we had when Dr. C. Z. Stidham was city health doctor when some one brought up some complaints that they had some unsanitary hog pens and they thought Dr. Stidham should see about them. Dr. Stidham sat there a few minutes and out it came, "who in the ... ever heard of a sanitary hog pen?" I guess he was right as it was pretty hard to keep them from being pretty messy with that water, slop and mud, and other ingredients of a hog pen. All agreed to drop the matter.

I am looking for an aquarium to be opened up here almost any time now. I heard J. M. Ferrel say that while he was taking a little rest down at Possum Kingdom lake that the ladies caught 150 fish in that short a time. So he must be saving them for the Aquarium.

Some one gave out the information that we had in the United States a lawyer for about 650 people and 3 million laws to try to keep the ten commandments. Cordy Finger Wilson of California, but former resident of Hall County, left a picture of some of the early day cowboys on the Shoe Bar Ranch. The following are identified: Hank Smith, Peter Finger, Murt Ferrel, Tom Cope, Buddie Durham, Jack Owens, Jack Woods, Honey, Willie Cope and Frank Finch. We think the picture was made in the early 1890's.

I have heard a lot of different kind of lawsuits, but this one I read in the daily paper a few days ago, and I had to read it over several times to believe it. It stated that a woman in San Francisco, Calif., was suing the city for damages of over a million dollars. She claims in the suit that she was riding the trolley on "Knob Hill" and it jumped the track and threw her over against all the people and consequently it had over-sexed her and had caused her over the million dollar damage to her character. I don't know how this law suit came out, but if she wins the case, San Francisco better build some more Knob Hills and trolleys as they could have another rush like the "Gold Rush" days. People would be piling in there in throngs probably for the purpose of getting bumped around on the trolley so they could sue the city for a million dollars!

It has been said that women are smarter than men, but there is one thing against this and that is you never see a man with shirt buttoned down the back.

Hangover cure.

Nobody likes a sloppy range. Especially if it's a result of hangover heat. After all, heat that hangs on after your range is turned off isn't your fault. But you have to clean up after it.

However, gas ranges turn on and off instantly. No heat's left over to scorch your food, burn your pans or cause food to boil over.

Buy a new gas range, sure-cure for hangover heat.

Applications For New Coach Being Viewed By Board

The Memphis ISD trustees reorganized the board and elected Lawrence Kennon as president of the board and Morris Davis as secretary of the board.

Meeting in regular April session Monday night, the board began screening a large panel of applicants for the position of head football coach of Memphis Public Schools.

The exact number of applications for the position varies from day to day but the response from the coaching fraternity has been encouraging. Members of the school board are seriously studying the applications and hope to have interviews as soon as possible. The board expressed hope that a selection and contract agreement could be arrived at this month to allow the new coach opportunity to move into the position before school is out this May.

The board approved the employment of Larry Combest at state schedule salary to replace Bert Glascock as classroom teacher on temporary assignment until a new coach can assume the duties. The board approved members of the Equalization Board which will meet on Thursday, May 7. These include A.L. (Ace) Gailey, C. J. Wynn and James Chappell.

The board also began investigating the possibility of collection of delinquent taxes. The board voted to change the meeting times from 7:30 p. m. to 8 p. m. on the second Monday of each month, beginning Monday, May 11.

The board approved a panel of eight to serve as the District's Citizens Vocational Education Committee. Members include Morris Davis, chairman of Golden Spread Irrigation Co.; Don Ferrel of Hall County Farm Supply; James Brown of Postex Hall Plant; M. C. Allen, Jr., of Memphis Compress Co.; Charles Pomplin of Statesman Homes; Mrs. Bill G. Kesterson, Hall County Hospital; Mayor Kenneth Dale of the City of Memphis and Mrs. M. E. McNally, her wife. After some discussion, the School Board decided to use the same policy next year concerning paying for student activity meals as has been employed this year. This discussion was made necessary as Memphis moves into a new district and classification. The board accepted the reports and approved the paying of the bills before adjourning.

achieving his lifetime desire to become a rancher and a breeder of registered Herefords.

As a boy, Scrivner was very active in 4-H club work. He won several trips to Chicago for his outstanding leadership achievements. He is an adult leader in 4-H at the present time.

Scrivner started his ranching career on a 4,869-acre ranch, 10 miles east of Turkey, just as the drought of the 1950's started. He realized that grass was his main crop and his registered Herefords were a by-product. He started out with a light stock rate and grazing management plan that included plans for drought. His grazing land made a rapid recovery when the drought broke.

In 1959 Scrivner decided that he was tired of farming cotton and decided to plant 359 acres of rolling hill back to grass. The 420 acres of cropland he has left are used for supplemental grazing for his cattle.

Scrivner became Hall County SWCD cooperater in 1950 and developed a conservation plan. Following the drought, he wanted to improve his ranch as much as possible before the next inevitable drought. The Great Plains Conservation Program offered a way so Scrivner signed a 10-year contract which was completed Dec. 31, 1969.

Scrivner was elected district director in 1958 and has been active ever since. Not only was he busy in his local district, but from 1963 through 1967 he was a State Director of the Association of SWCD. He served as chairman of the association's most active GPCP committee at a time the program was just getting started. He was also a member of the most important watershed committee.

Scrivner has been very influential on a district and state basis in getting conservation applied by others. He has spent a great deal of his time meeting with ASCS committees assisting in developing county programs and enduring type practices that would lead to better conservation farming and ranching.

As a result of applying 14 different conservation practices to his ranch, Scrivner has improved some pastures from poor to good and excellent condition. Where it once took 40 to 50 acres per cow, it now takes 20 to 25 acres. Cross fencing and livestock water is resulting in an even distribution of grazing. Management of livestock has become easier and profits have increased.

Hirakud Dam in India is 15 1/2 miles long.
