Boll Weevil Control Is Subject Of County Farmers Meet Tuesday

A small group of farmers from Hall County met at the Community Center Tuesday night to discuss the county boll weevil problem and lay plans for combating the destructive cotton insect this summer and early fall.

At the meeting was Entomologist Fred Parker, State Agriculture Department, who stated that this year's State Boll Weevil Disappearance program is very similar to last year's program.

One of the more important changes will be the employment of two scouts to work the cotton fields in Hall County from mid July until the conclusion of the spray program. Their job will be to check all members' fields, taking boll weevil counts and reporting these counts to the State Agriculture Department and the farmers concerned.

Hot spots will be noted and special attention will be focused on these particular areas. Mr. Parker also explained that a more restrictive rule will be imposed on the aerial applicators concerning operation and procedures.

Board members elected for this year to represent their communities include: James Alvin McAnear, Jr., Wayne Stephens and Doug Burgess.

Methodists To Have Lay Witness Mission

The First United Methodist Church has scheduled a Lay Witness Mission program here for May 1, 2 and 3. Bob Fowler has announced.

A Lay Witness Mission is a time when people from outside the community come in to share on a weekend their witness with the local congregation, Fowler explained.

Some thirty-five to forty people from the immediate area including the cities of Abilene, Ralls, Lorenzo, Post and others will be in Memphis to share their witness.

Dr. Dwayne Lynch of Ralls will serve as the coordinator for the Lay Witness Mission in Memphis. He has served in the capacity for a number of Missions successfully. His leadership is valued highly and the church is fortunate to have him as the coordinator, Fowler stated.

Preparations have been going on for some time for this Mission here, Fowler said. "We believe that it will afford every person in our community an experience where one's relationship to Christ is enriched."

The Mission program will open with an all Church covered dish dinner Friday evening, May 1 at 6:30. Following this, there will be a time of sharing in small groups.

On Saturday there will be coffee at 10 a. m. for all adults and youth, including a hot dog party for the children in the park. At noon, the men will have lunch at the Deville Restaurant; the women will have a salad luncheon at the church and the young people will eat at the park.

On Saturday evening there will be another all church dinner beginning at 6:30, followed by small time of sharing after that.

Sunday morning at 9:45 a. m. various visiting people will teach all the Church School classes in the church. The worship service will be conducted by those who visit during the weekend and Dwayne Lynch will be the main speaker of the hour.

Sunday evening the church will gather for worship at 7 p. m. for a time of sharing after the visiting witnesses have departed for home.

Local committees have been set up and chairmen named for the occasion, with Sherron Lee serving as general chairman.

Committee chairmen include:

Pauline Wynn, housing; Lorraine Tarver, food; Lester Campbell, attendance; Harold Smith, visitation; Peggy Becker, coffee hostess; Herb Evans, welcome; Jack Martin and Larry McQueen, transportation; Bob Fowler, publicity; Johnnie Hutcherson, correspondence; Jack and Janet Montgomery, prayer; Mildred Stephens, literature; Annette Boswell, follow-up.

Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Mr. Musgrove died Sunday night in the Clarendon Nursing Home. Born Sept. 17, 1888, in Olen, Mo., Alfred L. Musgrove was united in marriage to Beatrice Steele March 24, 1907, at Okemah, Okla. They moved to Memphis in 1932 and had resided in Clarendon for the past two years.

Mr. Musgrove was a member of the Travis Baptist Church and was a retired carpenter.

One son, Fred, preceded him in death.

He is survived by his wife, Beatrice of Clarendon; three sons, T. C. of Ft. Worth, G. A. of Creede, Colo., and Alfred L. Jr. of Amarillo; seven daughters, Mrs. Lillian Peters of Clarendon, Mrs. J. L. Atwood of Bentonville, Ark., Mrs. Richard Hinkle of Amarillo, Mrs. Raymond Pounds of Tulsa, Okla., Mrs. James R. McKibben of England, Mrs. Connie L. Dromgoole of Clarendon, Mrs. Bonnie Calahan of Rogers, Ark.; 33 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren; his stepmother, Mrs. Leona Musgrove of Okemah, Okla.; and one brother and one sister.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Saturday. All Memphis-Amarillo circuits were in service by mid-afternoon.

Emergency calls from Memphis were handled through Vernon, Lee said.

Due to the extensive damage throughout the area, long distance circuits were still overloaded through Sunday.

Telephone service to the areas in Clarendon hit by the tornado will be restored as rapidly as possible, Lee said.

WEDNESDAY FIRE—Late yesterday afternoon, Memphis firemen were called to put out a roaring fire at the O. T. Hook house two blocks west of the fire station. A two-story garage and apartment were gutted by the blaze which sent flames high into the air and caught the back portion of the Hook home. Firemen got the fire under control without other structures in the block igniting. Damage was extensive.

Clyde McMurry Is New MHS Coach

The Memphis School Board met Monday night, after interviewing four coaches Sunday, offered the head football coaching position to Thomas Clyde McMurry, 31, of Whitewright.

Coach McMurry, a graduate of Texas Christian University of Ft. Worth, has been head football coach and athletic director of the Whitewright Schools for the past three years and has a 25-4-1 record at the Class A school.

Coach McMurry is married, and his wife's name is Janet. They have two children, Tom 4 and Susan 2.

McMurry is replacing Coach Bert Glascock, who has accepted the coaching position at Ranger High School, as head coach of the Memphis Cyclone. Glascock had a 17-23-1 record during his four years at Memphis.

Clyde McMurry played quarterback for the Decatur High School team. After graduating from high school, he received his B. S. degree from T.C.U. in 1962. He later completed his Masters Degree work at North Texas State University.

Although he did not play football at T.C.U., due to his small size, he studied football and attended all the Hornfrog workout sessions.

He served as an assistant coach at Alice from 1962 to 1965. In 1966 he was junior varsity coach of the Killeen High School team. He went to Whitewright as athletic director and football coach in 1967.

Supt. C. L. Chambliss of Memphis said Coach McMurry will join the Memphis faculty as soon as he is released from his duties with the Whitewright School District.

EDITORIAL

We're For Our Senior Senator!

The Primary Elections are coming up the first Saturday in May, and one of the really important issues to be decided is the Democratic choice for the 6-year U. S. Senate seat. Our State is now represented by two Senators, one a Democrat, and the other a Republican.

Senator Ralph Yarborough is the senior senator from Texas and is seeking his third full term as senator from this state. He served a partial term, which gives him additional seniority over other senators from other states.

Voters of this state will be asked to choose between Senator Yargorough and Lloyd Bentsen in the Democratic Primary. The big daily newspapers of the state are predicting a "slight" victory for Yargorough in the Democratic Primary quoting such figures as 52 per cent for Yargorough and 48 per cent for Bentsen.

Will the election be that close? If it is, we predict the conservative minded dailies will then predict a Republican victory for George Bush in the General Election next November against Senator Yargorough.

As we see it, the conservative, wealthy, Establishment in Texas wants to unseat Senator Yargorough because he does not walk in the broad way along with other political selections of the Establishment. Senator Yargorough has never compromised or sacrificed his dedication to principles to represent the people of this state, rather than special interest groups.

As a matter of record, and as a matter of fact, Senator Yargorough of Texas is one of the quietest but more influential members of the United States Senate. He works hard at the job, and exercises a substantial amount of power in it. He is a member of the powerful appropriations committee and has been for five years, he is chairman of the Senate's labor and public welfare subcommittee, and is the senior Democrat on the post office committee (having given up the chairmanship to take the chair of the labor and welfare committee. He is also a member of the Senate subcommittees on health (of which he is chairman) and agricultural appropriations.

When you consider how you are going to vote, ask which of the senator candidates have been interested in rural Texas and the problems of the farmers, small businessmen, the elderly, the pensioners, and the wage earner. If Senator Yargorough has achieved positions of considerable influence in the United States, it is perhaps because he has worked harder at the job than some of his peers.

We mentioned before, the big dailies of this state want to see Senator Yargorough unseated from his post. Yet, this newspaper, a small weekly, is joining with the ever growing list of other smaller publications, weekly, bi-weekly and small dailies, urging citizens to elect this man who is the voice of the common people of Texas.

Look at the facts. Senator Yargorough faces wealthy conservative Lloyd Bentsen, candidate of the Establishment, in the May primary; and if he gets past this hurdle, the threat of a conservative Democrat-Republican coalition behind Republican George Bush in November. Yargorough seems undismayed, and has come out battling as usual.

The Senator doesn't have now, and never has had, unlimited finances to campaign for a political office. Candidates who will represent the common people, usually never do have. Candidates who represent special interest groups usually do have adequate financing, even to the point of having plush TV coverage.

It was once said by an old hand of political campaigns, that when a candidate viciously attacks his opponent, he is trying to distract the voters from closely examining his qualifications by trying to plant a seed of doubt in their minds against his opponent. It is sad but sometimes true that this strategy does work at times.

We feel Senator Yargorough has been a far more able Senator in the past than he's often been given credit for at home. He is appreciated by citizens from other states far more than he is in his home state of Texas. We are seeing the Pro-Yargorough forces battling the Anti-Yargorough forces, slugging it out. Lost, or at least obscure, is the remarkable record of the hard-working, dedicated and sincere Senior Senator from Texas.

Senator Yargorough has visited our county and our communities more than any U. S. Senator in the history of our state. When he's here, he greets all alike, openly discusses issues and clearly states his philosophy.

We've got to admire him, his hard work, and his unswerving dedication to his principles. We're going to vote for him again, both times this year.

Heatly Probe Produces Mouse

It was Plutarch who originally spoke about a mountain laboring and bringing forth a mouse.

Over the past three months in Texas, Federal grand juries in San Antonio and Lubbock mountainously labored and didn't even come up with one rodent—a task thrust upon them in what generally is believed to be a political side skirmish.

Reference is to an investigation into charges that friends of veteran State Rep. W. S. Heatly violated a spate of "civil rights" laws, in which, by the way, there was no racial angle. The probe was based on reports that some residents of the legislative district didn't cotton to ambitions of Heatly's opponents to unseat the longtime chairman of the House Appropriations committee and said so. Long, drawn-out — and expensive, to the taxpayers — sessions of grand juries in both the Alamo City and here failed to substantiate cries of illegality.

Political buffs over Texas were fascinated by the unprecedented spectacle of the Federal government poking its nose into a purely State matter and into a party primary, to boot. So they voiced suspicions that the investigation was politically inspired. Noting that it all began under the tutelage of a Republican Federal District Attorney, Seagal Wheatley, in San Antonio, comment ran that the probe was prompted by State GOP leaders to discredit a prominent State Democratic official in a crucial election year. Later, the word was spread that the whole thing originated in Washington, where a former State Democratic officeholder who switched to the Republican party — assistant Attorney General Will Wilson, of Dallas — heads up such matters.

Whether either of the stories is true, in whole or in part, nobody knows. The fact remains, however, that the San Antonio grand jury did not come up with anything after its long, drawn-out probe and that the ball then was tossed to a new grand jury here. After several days of sessioning on the subject, interrupted by recesses, the result was the same in Lubbock as it was in San Antonio. Nobody found reason for indictment of anybody supposedly "violating the civil rights" of Heatly's opponents. Leon Williams, a Quannah Democrat, and Zack Fisher, a Memphis Republican.

Regardless of the origin of the double-jointed investigation, a good many Texans were surprised that the Federal camel attempted to crawl under a tent in purely a State matter. Further, it was difficult to understand why the whole business began in San Antonio — scarcely a citadel of political purity — when Federal grand juries meet regularly in points much closer to Heatly's nine-county 80th District, specifically Lubbock, Amarillo and Wichita Falls. It didn't smell like roses from the very beginning.

Representative Heatly's post as Appropriations chairman of the House is one of great power. It also is one in which its holder can and often does make powerful enemies of individuals and groups to whose efforts to grab off State monies he has to say "no". Thus the moves against him invited even more than the usual amount of suspicion.

than any other legislator in modern Texas history.

Of more import than the personal ambitions of the individuals involved is the fact that the Federal Government buffrogged into the matter. While all it managed to accomplish was a waste of time and money, the Government's action at the very least indicates that proponents of more and more Federal authority will continue to attempt added domination in purely local affairs.

Since State government in Texas is fully able to look after its own business in this area, we think gratuitous Federal intervention has nothing to recommend it.

Farmers Home Adm. Interested In Rural Housing

Administrator James V. Smith of the Farmers Home Administration said in a prepared statement:

"This Administration has a National objective of building some 3 million rural homes with public assistance within the next decade. To achieve this we need new concepts in rural home building and new administrative procedures so we can commit more of our agency's resources to the private builders for housing development projects and other types of industrialized rural home building. Our aim is to triple last year's record this coming year."

Farmers Home Administration has been authorized to issue conditional commitments on single-family dwellings in the open country and rural communities up to 5,500 population. The program is designed to encourage the construction of rehabilitation of single-family dwellings in rural areas for sale to low and moderate income families.

Representative Bob Price of Texas recently spoke out strongly in favor of the rural housing provisions in the 1969 housing bill. "Through its rural housing program," Representative Price said, "the Farmers Home Administration has been making substantial inroads on this problem, and it is vital that this activity not only be continued but accelerated."

Information and applications may be obtained from the Hall County Farmers Home Administration office at 517a Main Street, Memphis, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Culture Club Enjoys Program On Music Wed.

The Woman's Culture Club had its April 15 meeting at the home of Mrs. A. W. Howard.

Following the invocation by Mrs. Irene Bradley, a business session was held by the president, Mrs. Jeanette Irons.

Mrs. Robert Moss, chairman, then introduced the program, "Music In The Church." The first musical number was the prelude by Mrs. David May.

The "Earliest Forms of Church Music" was explained and demonstrated by Mrs. L. G. Rasco. She stated among the very earliest forms of church music was the voice, used to worship God in creation. The music was unaccompanied — A capella voices — with the focal point being the Catholic Church.

There were several schools of music, an important one being the Roman, with Palestrina as the Dean and choir master of the Church of Rome, where he wrote "The Mass", which helped to bring about a reform in Italian church music.

What the early church did for music was during the one thousand years following the birth of Christ. The art, poetry, and music of the world were closely connected with the efforts of the church to bring the nations of Europe from pagan to Christian religion. In France and England the first hymns were metrical versions of the Psalms in English.

Later in the eighteenth century came the composition of hymns by Wesley and his followers with a new poetic material which resulted in hymn tunes of greater warmth and feeling and for better in melody and harmony. Hymnology has held a notable place in the history of American music.

The different forms of church music were the cantata, chorale, mass, motet, plain song, requiem and spiritual.

Mrs. Rasco concluded by playing several hymns at the piano.

A violin solo, "The Holy City" was given by Mrs. Clifford Farmer with Mrs. May as accompanist. Mrs. Baisden and Dempsey ended the program with the hymn, "At Calvary."

Refreshments were served to the following members: Misses Estelle McClath, Sybil Gurley, Alma Bruce; Meses Bert Glascock, Jim Lange, Grover Moss, Theodore Swift, Alvin Pysatt, Frank Ellis, Jeanette Irons, Robert Moss, Clifford Farmer, Ward Gurley, Irene Bradley, J. G. Rasco, David May, L. A. Stilwell, J. D. Baisden and Dempsey and hostess, Mrs. Howard.

Jean Clement, Dr. J. B. Carter Marry In Austin

The marriage of Mrs. Jean Foxhall Clement and James Byars Carter, M. D., was solemnized in Austin Saturday, April 4, in the Church of the Good Shepherd.

The Rev. Russel C. Sanders of Fort Worth, brother-in-law of the bride, performed the ceremony before the families of the couple and a few friends.

An informal reception was held in the new home of Dr. and Mrs. Carter following the ceremony.

Mrs. Carter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Foxhall of Memphis. She has lived in Austin for the last three years, where she attended the University of Texas graduate school.

Dr. Carter formerly lived in San Angelo. He was graduated from the University of Texas School of Medicine at Galveston. He served his internship in California and his residency at the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota. He has lived in Austin since completing his military service with the Air Force.

The couple will make their home in Austin, where Dr. Carter is associated with a clinic.

Methodist WSCS Continues Study At Monday Meet

The Alpha Circle of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First United Methodist Church met Monday, April 20, at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. W. V. Coursey with Mrs. Mary Lou Erwin as cohostess.

Mrs. M. G. Tarver, the circle chairman, presided over the meeting.

Mrs. F. W. Foxhall gave a report of the Pampa District Women's Society meeting held recently in Phillips. She stated that four Conference officers who had attended a program planning meeting sponsored by the Board of Missions, gave reports. Key Words were developed, unity and inter-relatedness.

Mrs. J. J. McDaniel introduced the continuation of the "Inner Life" study by Harry Pottoff.

Mrs. W. J. McMaster gave an interesting review of Chapter 4, titled, "How and Where Faith Grows." She stated that the Christian image of the wholesome life is one of growing faith, hope, and love creating an inner and outer life harmoniously related. Life is potential for meaning but what it comes to mean to us depends on the visions, values, and decisions we bring to it.

Mrs. M. G. Tarver discussed Chapters 5 and 6 with insight and understanding. They were titled "A Life of Continual Renewal" and "The Disciplines of Believing." She stated that we encounter people going anywhere instead of going somewhere, needing to discover a life of continual renewal.

The most important beliefs come out of the heart of experience. Fosdick says that one comes to see that to grow is to outgrow, which is often reached by way of creative questioning. It is quite important to accept and practice disciplines of the Christian Life. Mrs. Tarver led the group in the closing prayer.

Those present, other than the ones already mentioned, to whom the hostesses served delicious refreshments were Meses. J. P. Montgomery, Bess Crump, Myrtis Phelan, R. S. Greene, Lee Brown, and one guest, Mrs. R. T. Tiner.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

BY VERN SANFORD

Can you toss that fishing lure exactly where you want it... and let it gently drop on the water... every time you make a cast?

Well, if you can, then you're a master caster. But you're one angler in a million, because it isn't easy to do.

How do master casters get that way? Just as in all other sports it's achieved by practice. Then more practice and more and more practice.

Give that little rubber casting plug a good workout day after day and week after week and you too can be proficient in the gentle art of casting, or perhaps we should say the art of gentle casting — for that's even more difficult.

Problem, of course, is finding the time to practice. If you're really interested you'll set aside the time, even if it's only 10 or 15 minutes a day.

Consistency is the real secret and determination to master the art is essential. You just gotta take the time, whatever the weather... be it hot or cold, dry or wet... and stay with it. Don't let rain or sleet or snow deter you.

One of the best master casters in Texas is Bill Carter of Dallas.

Bill is a tackle representative for such firms as Zebeo (rods and reels), Evans (lures), Newton (lines) and Roadrunner (lures).

How did he learn the art? Bill tells me that he started flipping a plastic plug down the aisles of the stores he called on when he first began peddling outdoors merchandise. "It gave me something to do while waiting to talk to tackle buyers," said Bill.

Naturally the narrow confines of a store is not recommended as the place to practice casting. But it did one thing for Bill, it taught him to cast carefully — that's for sure.

Actually it made Bill one of the best trick casters in Texas. He can flip the ashes off your cigarette at 10 paces. He can drop a lure in a tin cup at 20 paces.

One of his favorite tricks is his black-light demonstration of casting in the dark. Others in his repertoire include the flip-cast, the bow-and-arrow cast, and the mother-in-law cast. And he does it all so easy and so well that he will amaze you with his accuracy — whether in the home, in the store, or on the water.

Drivers Warned Of Improper Use As 'Head Rests'

AUSTIN — Of the many safety features incorporated in late model automobiles, apparently the most misunderstood and misused is the head restraint.

According to the Texas Safety Association, people seem to have got off on the wrong foot by thinking of the safety device as "head rests."

TSA General Manager Lloyd F. Palmer, releasing the results of a recent informal visual survey, warned motorists, "Head restraints are not built or designed to use as a pillow."

"They are designed to prevent the head and neck from being thrown backward during rear-end collisions to minimize whiplash-caused injuries. In order to do this," Palmer continued, "head restraints should be adjusted so that they are centered at the back of the head — not at the neck."

Slow-motion studies of rear-end crash situations show that the driver can be thrown backward in as much as a 90 degree angle, causing severe injury. The head restraint, when adjusted properly, can reduce such injuries, commonly called whiplash.

The Texas Safety Association says the recent survey showed a large proportion of Texas motorists are leaving the head restraints adjusted where it would strike the back of the neck if a rear-end collision were to occur. Leaving the restraint in that position, said the statewide safety group, could result in a major injury. The head restraints became standard equipment on 1969 model automobiles.

Bro. Ted Chapman To Fill Pulpit At Lakeview Church

Rev. Ted Chapman will fill the pulpit at the Lakeview Baptist Church Sunday, April 25, according to an announcement this week by Raymond Moore and Clyde Reed, trustees.

Gene Hinton Dies At Casper, Wyo.

Gene Hinton, 42, of Casper, Wyo., died suddenly of a heart attack Friday night. He was the son of Annie Boone Hinton and Bert Hinton of Ralls, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinton and Boone Adams of Floydada, Tex., flew via TWA to Casper to attend the funeral.

He was a nephew of Mrs. Bryan Adams of Memphis. He leaves five children and his wife of the home in Casper.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Peters of Fort Worth were here Tuesday and Wednesday to attend funeral services for Mr. Peter's grandfather, A. L. Musgrave. While here they also visited with Mrs. Peter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhubert F. Wynn and Kim and Susan Elliott visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wynn of Lubbock Tuesday and attended the Bob Hope show.

Dallas fired a first-grade teacher for spanking a pupil with a ruler without first apprising the pupil of his constitutional right to misbehave.

Citizens Are Warned About Severe Sunburn

AUSTIN — Each year in Texas as a large number of persons are hospitalized as a result of severe sunburn.

The Texas Safety Association warns that overexposure to the sun can result in painful first, second and even third degree burns.

Sunburn usually is a minor problem that does not require hospitalization, says the statewide safety group, but the possibility of a severe and dangerous burn is very high.

The safety association says the best rule to follow to prevent sunburn is to get used to the sun gradually. Start with only a few minutes at a time, increasing your exposure to the sun a little more each day.

The group warns too that sunburn can occur on a cloudy day since it is the ultra-violet rays of the sun that cause the dangers.

TSA also says sun-worshippers should use a sun tan lotion to help screen out the sun's burning rays. If a bad burn occurs, the Texas Safety Association says "See a physician. Get proper medical treatment and advice."

Memphis Work Unit Installs More Terracing

The Memphis Work Unit has another good year installing terraces, according to the Frisbie of the Soil Conservation Service.

At the Great Plains and the Great Plains farms were used in constructing these terraces.

There have been approximately 100 feet of parallel terraces constructed in Hall County in the Turkey community.

Lee Vardy, John Deaver, and I. D. Mullin, Hubert and Winfred House.

The Memphis community terraces were built on farms of the Williams, Mack Richards, Beasley, Joyce Webster, "Gip" McMurry, Ace Gail and Allen Dunbar.

Parallel terraces were also constructed on farm of Linton Lale Garden of the Lakeview Community.

In the present time a terrace is being constructed on Cowan farm of Parnell.

Small terracing is the modern terrace land. These terraces, according to Frisbie, keep rows to a minimum. Any desiring information on terraces should contact the Conservation Service in Memphis.

Mrs. McCauley reported that the unit now has 106 members, including seven junior members. The president announced that all paper work on Nikki McCauley, applicant nominated for the Division IV scholarship, had been sent in.

Mrs. Gregory read a letter of thanks from a girl for whom the unit helped purchase a sewing machine; another letter of thanks from the TOPS Club for use of the Legion Home was also read. The president reported briefly on the district convention held in Amarillo and announced that Mrs. Webster had been elected president of 18th District.

The call for the Division IV convention to be held May 2-3 in Big Spring was read. Mrs. Gregory noted that Girls State will be held June 16-26 at Texas Lutheran College in Seguin and $140 has already been sent in for two delegates' registration.

Final plans for the leadership training school slated Saturday, April 25, were made. Do you put a higher price on an Olds than we do?

Our own surveys indicate that quite a few people think an Olds costs a lot more than it really does. Result? Many people buy an ordinary car and end up with a lot less car and value for their money.

It's so unnecessary, too, because Oldsmobile has many models that are priced right down with so-called low-priced cars. See your Olds dealer. He'll prove that you're closer to Olds than you think.

Cutlass 5: The sporty Olds—one of nine Olds models priced under $2995—right down with a lot of low-priced names. But Cutlass really widens the value gap with standard features like these: Regular-gas Rocket V-8 □ Nylon-blend loop-pile carpeting □ Foam-padded seats □ Deluxe steering wheel □ Bias-belted tires □ Door side-guard beams □ Recessed windshield wipers □ Hidden radio antenna.

Girl Scout Council Collects Trading Stamps

By BYRON BALDWIN

Willie Mae and I visited down the Stamford and Breckenridge of the state a few days ago found a lot of nice people in parts. We had only been in one hour and went out lunch. We were 12 or 15 ft. the entrance to the eating and some very friendly man to us and held the door open for us and we were in and he was cordial. I think he belonged the Exchange Club who were at a meeting in the dining After we were seated, Willie wondered why this man was polite and I told her I guessed was because she looked smart as going to bring the program for their luncheon. That we met the Philpots, former presidents of Memphis, coming of the cafe and also met a son of Mary Lee Fields. Drove to Breckenridge and stopped the "Marina" to eat (which is Hubbard Lake, a pretty good lake now, 14 miles long and bridge across it is one mile long.) While we were eating, Coy Odom of Portales, N. M., over to the table and spoke to us. He and his son-in-law were sitting at this lake. They had left 26 that morning. They have had a lot more rain that part of Texas. Grass and are lying down resting too and fat to move around. More being broken out around Breckenridge for feed farming as are now using irrigation water of Lake Hubbard. Tock a of a new bank building there Breckenridge one morning and first one I met was Glenda Logan (old timer R. B. Giddaughter) a niece of Clara Beckett. Glenda's husband is large Logan, Breckenridge High School Coach. Two of the directors of this new bank are former Memphis residents, Dr. Edwin Hall and Chauncey Thompson. could see about the same characters there that you see in the coffee rooms of the banks here, cattlemen, preachers, automobile dealers, merchants, bankers, speculators and retired men. Had a coffee cup visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller of Austin, visiting here with Jack's mother, Mrs. Art Miller, then on to Amarillo to visit the Stinsmans. Jack and I have the same birthday, June 3, but I believe he is holding his age better than I. Jack was a graduate of MHS in 1942. His wife, SuzBeth, a graduate of 1963 from MHS. They have David, age 5, and Craig, now 2 months old. Jack had roamed around for many years as a bachelor and I asked SuzBeth a personal question, "if she had everything under control" and she replied, "How could I with Jack and the two boys voting against me". I guess she is one of the ladies that has learned to pack baby beds and everything in the station wagon to go.

Visited with Jewel Alexander Ferrel of Casper, Wyoming, the past week here seeing after property she has here. Pearl was an MHS graduate and the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Alexander. Visiting in Heritage Hall a few days ago was Gary Clyde Messer, son of Mrs. Helen Nash Messer and the late Clyde Messer of Bakersfield, Calif. He had just finished basic training at Lackland AFB in San Antonio and was on his way home to Bakersfield to be married April 18 to Miss Juanita Mickle of Susanville, Calif. Gary will be in Germany for 3 years and his wife will join him in 2 months. He is the grandson of Mrs. R. V. Messer and nephew of Nell Messer and Mrs. Phaeton Alexander. His brother, Robert Messer, is now making his home here with Mr. and Mrs. Phaeton Alexander and is a junior in Memphis High School. He liked Heritage Hall very much.

New people here in Memphis visiting Heritage Hall were Mrs. Jimmy Inghram and Mrs. Sandi Ivy. These people are from Louisiana and their husbands are working for the mobil home factory. They were very much surprised that Heritage Hall would have so much on display.

Mr. P. F. Mirgle of Stratford stopped here to relax after driving from Eagle Nest, N. M. He has retired from Ft. Worth and is now fishing in New Mexico and Possum Kingdom. In regard to Heritage Hall, he says, "This is a great idea, I am coming back." Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Ponder of Hillsboro were visiting in Heritage Hall. Paul is the son of Mrs. Matt Ponder and a graduate of Lakeview High School in 1962.

Paul is now a member of the Highway Patrol stationed at Hillsboro. Paul's wife is the former Jone Ward and a graduate of MHS in 1963. She was also a member of the Memphis High School Band for five years. I asked Paul if he attended the rock or pot convention over near Lubbock and he said he did along with Tommie Tucker and Pressley Thomson, both former Memphis residents. Paul talked like they had rock, pot, and sand over there and the big sandstorm was a great help to the patrol boys. Paul and Jone liked Heritage Hall very much and were coming back and look it over again. It has been suggested by some one that we name The Panty Hose the "Zoo Hose" as they cover ten little pigs, two calves and two hippos.

We had anniversary card from Edwin and Florence Gilliam Sunday morning reminding us of our 53rd anniversary. They are both still very alert, and I bet they were smart and alert babies.

Neal Thompson of San Francisco, Calif., and Joan Thompson of Dallas visited relatives and friends in Memphis the past weekend. Neal has been with the U. S. Steel Co. for several years and was on his way to Pittsburg, Pa., for a company meeting. Joan has been with an insurance company located in the Meadows building in Dallas. Their mother and father were the late Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson of Clarendon, formerly Memphis was their home town.

Lafayette Pounds former Hall County boy, now of Amarillo visiting around the square with old friends. He graduated at Lodge High School before the name was changed to Plaska in 1917. He left Memphis in 1946. He used to be a good baseball player and he told me about his grandson Billy, son of David Pounds now of Oaj, Calif. He is 13 years old, weighs 187 pounds and is a real baseball player. Sounds like in 8 more years he will be a man.

Our hearts were saddened by death, injuries and destruction in our neighboring towns, and our sympathy goes out to them. It happened in the best part of the world, "The Golden Spread" where friends and neighbors have love in their hearts for their fellowman. We had a good many volunteers from Hall County go to Clarendon to render services as they could. I saw Alvin Yarbrough of Plainview in our local hospital who was in the storm and he looked like he had been in a washing machine with it turned on the way it beat him up; but he is fortunate to be alive.

People are very grateful to all who helped in this disaster. Wish we could name all who helped but it is impossible, but we do know that when the alarm was given our fire boys led by Mayor and Fire Chief Kenneth Dale were on their way. The telephone boys were on their way to Silverton right after the storm hit and it takes a lot of man hours and work for them after a storm to get the telephone back to you for a "Hello" and "Good Bye". The nurses and doctors will continue to minister to them.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to try to express my thanks to all those who have been so kind and thoughtful to me during my long illness and stay in the hospital. I shall never forget each kindness and each prayer or each visit; the beautiful flowers and cards. God bless you all. I am so happy to be at my home and invite my friends to visit me or call at any time.

Branigans Enjoy Vacation Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Elmont Branigan, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. T. Branigan of Hollis, recently enjoyed a vacation trip to Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee.

They first went to Martin, Tennessee to visit Mr. Branigan's sister, Mrs. John B. Freeman, who accompanied them on the Natches Pilgrimage.

Mrs. Branigan said the trip was most interesting and they enjoyed seeing the many beautiful southern homes that were open for the tour.

Cyclone Band Is Given Division II

The Memphis Cyclone Band competed in UIL Region Contest at Dimmitt Wednesday and received a Division II rating in concert and Division III rating in sight-reading.

Band Director Glen Thompson said he felt the Band did well considering the circumstances.

"Our sight reading music was very difficult, and we were without Tommy Greene, our French horn soloist," Director Thompson said.

The Director said that when Tommy Greene came down with the Chicken Pox just before the contest, he transposed the solo to bass clef and gave the solo to Timmy Fowler on baritone to play. "Timmy did a beautiful job with the difficult solo," Thompson said.

Some of the judges comments included: "Nice solos... this band shows good training, hard work, a well rehearsed group."

The band was criticized for articulation and intonation.

All three concert judges awarded Division II ratings in concert.

Other judges comments: "nice looking band, good full sound on opening... this band gets some very good sounds and good blend most of the time."

About the sightreading music, Thompson said the number was written to be played fast, with a lot of syncopation. "We got lost at a repeat sign so I had to stop during the number," Thompson said. This reduces your grade by one classification in sightreading.

The band will be honored at a

Band Banquet on May 2 at which time the new officers will be named and the John Phillip Sousa award will be presented. Twirler and drum major tryouts will be held at 9 a.m. on May 16.

HUNDLEY—Despite a muscle injury, Mark Hundley will compete in the 440-yd. dash at Regional this weekend. Mark, a junior, is a promising quarter miler.

Changes in Cattle Marketing Outlined

Would you like to know more about cattle marketing in the Southern States? There have been many important changes in the nation's beef cattle industry in recent years, reports County Agent W. B. Hooser, and some of the dramatic have been in the South.

For example, he notes, from 1948 through 1968, cattle numbers in the South increased 50.3 percent compared with a national increase of 41 percent. Receipts from beef cattle in the South in 1966 accounted for 20.3 percent of the cash farm income or a sizable $2.4 billion. Beef consumption, the county agent notes, has followed the national trend which stood at 105.9 pounds per capita in 1967.

Other changes have occurred in marketing and marketing methods, processing and in recent years cattle feeding. Texas and Oklahoma have made the most dramatic changes in cattle feeding with large feedlots dominating the picture.

Prehistoric Stegosaurus, which weighed 6½ tons, had a brain weighing only 2½ ounces.

Control for Aphids on Roses, Iris and Other Ornamental Plants

Roses and many other ornamental plants are attacked by aphids. Large numbers of aphids feeding on a plant can greatly mar its beauty, prevent growth and cause its death.

Aphids, commonly known as plant lice, are soft-bodied, pear-shaped insects and are usually 1/25 to 1/8 of an inch long. These insects vary in color from light yellow to green or black.

Through their short, stout beak aphids suck plant juices from the plants greatly devastating them. The leaves of plants on which aphids are feeding become curled, cupped or distorted. When the flower buds or roses fail to develop properly the aphids are feeding on the growing tips and flower buds of the plants.

Many species of aphids excrete a colorless, sticky honeydew which attracts ants. This honeydew may be a medium for the growth of black fungus or sooty mold which may cause further damage to the plant.

Aphids can be controlled by treating the affected plants with sevin, diazinon, cygon, lindane, malathion, cinotine sulfate, or with a new granular systemic disulfoton. Disulfoton is being marketed under various trade names. Read and follow directions on the label carefully when using insecticides.

Further information on control of pest attacking ornamental plants is available at your county agricultural agents office.
