Voter Apathy Is Seen In Primaries

Texas citizens were apathetic about the 1970 primaries as less than 1.5 million persons went to the polls of the State's 4.1 million qualified voters, the lowest percentage figure in the history of this state.

Here in Hall County a few over 1300 in the Democratic primary and 28 voted in the Republican primary out of the county's 2,820 registered voters. This was less than half, approximately 47 percent of the voters.

In Texas, 36.6 per cent of the voters went to the polls, figures indicate.

Ferrel, Jr., Johnny Farnsworth, John Fowler, Orville Goodpasture, Gayle Greene, Johnny Tarrell, Henry Hays, R. C. Lemons, L. L. Memphis Lads Capture Fire Poster Awards

Two Memphis grade school students, Gregg Lee and Jeff Smith, qualified with their fire prevention posters to go to the State Firemen Association contest at the area convention in Amarillo Saturday.

Fire Chief Kenneth Dale said that he was real proud of the two young Memphis lads for doing so well in the area contest with their posters.

During Fire Prevention Week, Memphis students enter fire posters for judging by the Memphis Fire Department. Six winners are selected and the local department enters these six posters in the Panhandle Firemen Association Meeting. First three places in each division in the Panhandle contest qualified to go to the state contest. Memphis had two of the six places at Amarillo.

Gregg Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherron T. Lee of Memphis and his poster took first place in the intermediate division.

Jeff Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Smith of Memphis and his fire prevention poster won second place in the junior division Hall County voters were principally interested in four races, all close, at the polls Saturday. One of these races was for U. S. Senator as Ralph Yarborough and Lloyd Bentsen almost split Hall County's vote.

Senator Yarborough polled 643 votes in Hall County to lead Bentsen by 25 votes as Bentsen polled 618 votes. In the state wide race Bentsen won the election with 803,441 to Yarborough's 714,692.

Another race which created considerable interest is the State Representative race which saw Hall County voters give Leon Williams of Quannah 650 votes and Rep. W. S. (Bill) Healy's 589 votes. Rep. Healy won the election over the nine-county district.

The latest figures available in this race gave Healy 6,786 votes to Williams' 5,527. Healy carried five of the nine counties. An earlier report listed Healy as carrying Cottle 841 to 253, Knox 943 to 451, Hardeman 639 to 547, Foard 822 to 270, and Wilbarger 1,027 to 906.

Williams carried Hall County by 61 votes, Dickens 648 to 602, Motley 357 to 237, and Childress 1,026 to 945.

Two County races also saw voting figures close as Mrs. Ruby Goodnight received 680 votes to Mr. P. S. (Mary) Johnson's 626 votes in District and County Clerk's race.

In the Lakeview precinct, in the race for commissioner, V. C. (Zipp) Durrett received 111 votes to Mack Cofer's 86 votes.

A box tabulation of the Democratic Primary of contested races appears on an inside page of this issue of the Democrat.

EDITORIAL Concern Over Birds Is Seen!

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has issued a warning to citizens of Texas that only four species of birds remain unprotected by either State or Federal laws. These are starlings, English sparrows, crows and ravens. Some of these may be protected by city ordinances, which prevent the use of firearms within the city limits.

A new generation of youngsters have in their hands BB guns given to them by their parents as gifts. These guns are capable of killing all types of birds, especially those found in populated areas of the communities.

Recent State legislation gave protection to 11 additional Texas bird species which formerly were unprotected. They are buzzards (or vultures), ricebirds, roadrunners (chaparral), goshawks, Cooper's hawk, sharp-shinned hawk, jays, sapsuckers, woodpeckers, shrikes and great horned owls.

All North American species of hawks and falcons are protected and may be taken and possessed under permit only. Permits are restricted to operations of governmentally operated zoos, scientific study, by graduate students majoring in the wildlife field and for propagation purposes.

The Parks and Wildlife Department is not empowered to issue permits allowing the use of any North American species of hawk or falcon in the sport of falconry.

Our citizens should familiarize their young sons and daughters with the kinds and types of birds they can hunt legally with their BB guns or pellet guns. Let's protect our beautiful birds.

Startling Forecast of the Future!

A lot of discussion has been generated about the economy of this nation, what with the rising costs, strikes for high wages, higher interest rates, etc.

The government has been moving to alleviate and supplement the fixed income pensioners, to curb the price spiral and to handle the ever increasing demands of special interest industries existing solely on government contracts.

Demands upon the pocket books of citizens is growing to such an extent that the whole nation is turning from ideology to materialism.

Now comes an almost terrifying forecast of the future made by Robert L. Childress of the University of Southern California, in the alumni publication. Dr. Childress is a professor of business analysis at USC and has forecast where we're heading at the present rate of inflation.

He predicts that today's $30,000 home will be worth $625,000 in the year 2000 (30 years off), along with other comparable increases in cost.

The price of a dozen eggs which cost 23 cents in 1940 and 65 cents today, will rise to $5.10 per dozen.

A pound of shortening will cost $2.35; a pound of coffee will be $5.85; two loaves of bread will sell for $4.20; a gallon of milk $7.50; and a pound of bacon will be $5.85.

This isn't all, either. Haircuts will cost $22.50 in the year 2000 while permanents will go at $125. A pair of men's shoes will sell for $375 and other prices will be similar.

Some economists are predicting that the inflationary spiral is slowing down and that by wintertime this year, prices will start dropping. If this occurs, the nation will be in a recession or depression, whichever terminology is appropriate.

An editorial writer in Orlando, Fla., spoke of the basic difference between the younger generation and the older generation.

"A mother, whose almost-nineteen daughter left for the company of 'beautiful people', recently remarked that her daughter had something she had missed in her time."

"She leaves with the utmost confidence that she will not starve, that she will always have a place to sleep. If I ever had thoughts of such wandering, fear and remembrance of depression years brought me to reality," she remarked.

The Florida writer theorized that this is a basic cause of so many conflicts between the young and their elders of today. If there is disagreement, a young person, whether ordered from a home or bent on leaving for anticipated excitement, is almost certain of a minimum income in the lush economics of today. Continued ease in securing employment indicates a widening of the "generation gap." A tightened economy could bring the reverse.

Right now, there are some people whose income rises with the cost of living and thus they are not too concerned about inflation.

But there are a lot of other people, in fact most of the people in this community, whose income has not risen to keep pace with inflation.

Farmers get less for their products than they did two decades ago. Many businessmen all over the nation are doing less business than they did five years ago. Inflation is a problem and a threat.

Examining the other side of the coin, however, what would a depression bring. What of all those young families, who have stretched the credit to extremes, who are only one paycheck away from bankruptcy. What of those who suddenly lose that plush job, fine home, cars, and the easy life.

These are the two extremes. Where is the happy balance? Mankind has never been very successful at reaching a balance, whether it be a balanced government budget, a balanced population, a balanced food supply, or a balanced economy.

THAT 10 FT. TALL FEELING...

What Other Editors Say

Incapable of Outrage?
 Are the American people incapable of outrage any more?
 Item: President Eric A. Walker of Pennsylvania State University and his wife fled their campus home after students stoned it and broke out windows. On the Penn State campus small fires were extinguished in several dormitories and classroom buildings, evidently started by gasoline bombs.

Item: A racial clash of high school students in Atlantic City, N. J. resulted in 19 injuries, downtown store fronts smashed, damage to the high school buildings.

Item: Racial tension was blamed for firebombings at the University of Kansas, in which the student union building was burned out with more than $250,000 damage by arsonists engaged in a student "demonstration."

Item: Officials at Hobart College in Geneva, N. Y. closed the ROTC offices and classrooms after a demonstration wrecked the building.

Item: A firebomb thrown through the window of a Bank of America branch office did extensive damage. This building replaced one burned down by college demonstrators in February.

Item: A powerful dynamite blast shattered the Louisiana Senate Chamber, doing $500,000 worth of damage, ripping the ornate marble chamber.

Item: Two firebombs which caused a $100,000 blaze at a Stanford University research center not only destroyed the building but wiped out years of work done by 10 scholars. Elsewhere on the Stanford campus, demonstrators caused an additional $40,000 damage, smashing windows and setting fires in numerous buildings.

These items are but part of the daily diet of news these days as irresponsible hoodlums roam the country, congregating at college campuses, bent upon destruction.

These news stories are typical of the drift this country is taking away from law and order. Somehow the nation has been implanted that the proper course of action to take in dealing with campus hoodlums is to talk to them rather than kick them off the campus and file criminal charges against them.

There is a definite pattern indicating an organized and trained anarchist movement in this country.

When are the American people going to become sufficiently outraged that they demand some action to stop it?

AUSTIN — State Board of Mental Health - Mental Retardation accepted the resignation of State MH-MR Commissioner John Kinross - Wright and appointed a committee to look for a new commissioner.

Committee consists of MH-MR Chairman Ward Burke of Lufkin; Dr. Charles H. Brown, a Wichita Falls psychiatrist; Dr. Robert S. Tate Jr., pastor of the First Methodist Church of Austin, and Edwin E. Van Zandt, Beaumont newspaper executive.

First three appointees were among the six board members who had requested Kinross-Wright's resignation. Van Zandt was one of three board members who wanted the commissioner to continue heading the massive (27,000 patients, 13,000 employees) state MH-MR care and treatment system.

Finding a new commissioner will not be an easy task. When the old Texas Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools was converted into the Board for Mental Health - Mental Retardation in 1963 — and the new law charged that a commissioner should dictate everything but basic policy — it took many months to find a commissioner. Law also says the commissioner must be a physician.

Finally, Dr. Shervert Frazier of Baylor University Medical College was persuaded to take the job on a part-time basis. That didn't work out well for Frazier, or the system, and Kinross-Wright was lured from the Texas Research Institute for Mental Sciences in Houston three years ago.

His tenure was ridden with strife, as a segment of board members led by Dr. Tate charged that the commissioner neglected the community mental health center program. Controversy flared into a firing when Kinross-Wright asked for the resignation of Deputy MH Commissioner Dr. Gary Miller, and Kinross-Wright ultimately bowed out.

Miller literally was waiting in the wings this week (having refused to accept his firing) as a hopeful for the vacancy. Gov. Preston Smith's comprehensive health planning director, Dr. David Wade of Austin, a psychiatrist who formerly headed the Texas Mental Association, was being mentioned as a possibility. But Wade insists he is committed to his present health planning pursuit. Whatever the committee does will be subject to criticism by some segments of state mental health and state mental retardation organizations.

Ag Opinions
Attorney General Crawford Martin ruled that Hidalgo County voters who signed a petition to nominate Raza Unida Party candidates for county and precinct offices signed a valid document, but could invalidate it if they participated in any other party primary. So, the candidates may not have a clear path until the primary lists are checked against the petition signatures.

Martin also held that: An independent school district may deduct union dues from the wages of its custodial and maintenance employees with their authorization.

New Texas Commissioner for Rehabilitation is the legal successor to all functions of the Texas Education Agency's divisions of vocational rehabilitation and vocational determination.

In Harris County, probate instruments must be filed under the direction of the county clerk.

Funds subject to escheat and held in trust by a district or county clerk are subject to being reported to the state as abandoned personal property.

Parks and Wildlife

State Director of Wildlife Services E. A. Walker informed the Parks & Wildlife Commission that LBJ State Park will be completed by June 15. Only the National Park Service's exhibits and amphitheater in the state park remain to be completed. Walker said the federal service is making exhibits and taping former Pres. and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson for "accents" for exhibits.

Commission approved construction of a $3-million Corpus Christi water exchange pass across Mustang Island, and estimated that construction will begin in August.

"Talking License"
Texas Public Safety Commission is considering possible future use of a "talking driver's license." Project is under development by DEK Processes Division, the firm that makes pictorial licenses for the state.

Proposed "talking" license would resemble a credit card, and provide DPS officers with an instantaneous method of checking on drivers. Card would have a magnetic number on the back (in computer code) which could be fed to a computer center over police radio.

Computer would send a print back to the apprehending officer within 30 seconds, indicating whether a person is wanted, the number of previous traffic violations, and so forth.

Natural Fiber Study
Chairman Charles Scruggs of the Interim Committee on Natural Fibers appointed subcommittees to assault the problems of the state's natural fiber industry. "Our goal is to add a billion dollars to Texas' farm income in five years," Scruggs said. "That's why we don't just want to write a report. We hope this will be an action committee."

Scruggs named the following to the subcommittee on cotton, wool and mohair export development: Rep Hilary Doran of Del Rio, Sen. Wayne Connolly of Floresville, Hillsboro Cotton Farmer Dan Pustejovsky and Natural Wool Growers Pres. James Powell of Fort McKavett.

To study textile industry development he appointed Sens. J. P. Word of Meridian and W. E. (Pete) Snelson of Midland, Rep. Charles Finnell of Holliday and Scruggs. To study producing and marketing systems development, he appointed Rep. Delwin Jones of Lubbock, Sen. Snelson, Powell and Pustejovsky.

Judges' Views on Marijuana Sought
While other politicians and state officials argue about what penalties should be applied to persons possessing marijuana, Gov. Smith decided to ask the men who mete out the punishment.

So, he had Harold K. Dudley, director of the Governor's State Program on Narcotics and Drug Abuse, send a six-part questionnaire to every district judge in Texas. Query asks if the penalty for possession should remain a felony or be changed to a misdemeanor. And — if a change is advocated — should it be changed on the first offense, or the second and subsequent offenses.

FU Directors Endorse Purcell At Board Meet

Congressman Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls was highly praised in a resolution adopted at the board of directors meeting recently in Waco, according to Virgil Blackney of Turkey, president of the Hall County Farmers Union.

The meeting of 40 directors and county presidents who compose the Board of the general farm organization unanimously endorsed a statement expressing appreciation to Congressman Purcell for his leadership in the House Agriculture Committee. Purcell, chairman of the Livestock and Grains Subcommittee, is the sponsor of the farm legislation endorsed by a 33-member Coalition of farm groups including Farmers Union.

The resolution stated: "The farmers of Texas owe Congressman Purcell a great debt of gratitude for his distinguished leadership on the House Agriculture Committee and his unrelenting determination to pass a farm program that will increase income to farmers and strengthen the economy in the rural communities."

"Congressman Purcell has demonstrated true statesmanship in his fight to preserve in the farm programs the fundamental principles that are essential to make the programs beneficial to farmers and to give our nation's consumers the assurance of an abundance of reasonably priced food and fiber. These basic principles include parity prices, a supply management program for farm commodities, and a loan program that will give farmers bargaining power."

Methodist WSCS Meets For Study At Church Monday

The Alpha Circle of the women's Society of Christian Service met Monday, April 27, 7 p. m., at the First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. J. J. McDaniel, the annual growth secretary, announced the continuation of the study "The Inner Life" by Harvey Thoff.

Mrs. Bob Hutcherson discussed in an enlightening manner chapters seven and eight, namely, "Feelings and Our Faith," and "Renewal Through Relationships." She stated that in order to understand the relation of faith and faith we need to learn from the experiences out of which persons become aware of God's presence and power are normally experiences involving deep faith. In Mrs. Hutcherson's review chapter eight her focal point was the basic relationships through which persons experience renewal and fulfillment. Blessed is the person who finds the inner joy of living with a sense of purpose.

Mrs. Lee Brown gave an inspiring review of Chapter "Toward Greater Depth in the Experience of Prayer." She stated that prayer is the opening mind, heart and aspiration to an eternal source of life and renewal. There is indeed an instantaneous turning of the life and renewal. There is indeed an instantaneous turning of the heart to a point not ourselves.

Mrs. Brown also read from Muriel Lester's book, "The Art of Praying."

Those present other than ones already mentioned were Mmes. M. G. Tarver, W. J. Master, Ed Hutcherson, M. Crump, J. B. Scott, Mary Erwin, J. P. Montgomery and W. Foxhall.

Mrs. Lester Campbell is staying in Andrews with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll and sons. The Carrolls are the parents of a new son, Mark Todd, born April 29. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll will be moving to Memphis to make their home the latter of May.

STRONG SERVICE—Lakeview's Terry Wansley is shown above a split second before he smashes the tennis ball while practicing for the Class B State Meet in Austin this weekend. He will try to successfully defend his boy's single title. Terry's service is one of the strong points of his game as the Lakeview senior seldom loses a game when he serves.

Lions Club Is Asking Citizens To Buy Tickets

Memphis Lions Club members have begun to comb the territory for citizens interested in purchasing tickets to attend the Lions Club Annual Park Opener, to be held Friday, May 29.

Tickets are $1.00 each and entitle purchaser to one jumbo barbecued hamburger and ranch-style beans, along with prizes to be given away by the civic club. Each year the annual Park Opener attracts over 1,000 people and many years as many as 1,400 have attended.

This year, the Memphis Cyclone Band, under the direction of Glen Thompson, will be one of the features of the evening entertainment. Band Director Thompson announced this week that the Cyclone Band has accepted the invitation to play at the Park Opener.

Local Lions encourage citizens to plan to attend the Annual Park Opener. Profits made go into civic projects.

The Memphis City Park is in the process of being improved by crews of the City of Memphis. Much work has been done already, and it is being planned to continue to improve the City Park whenever possible.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

A Crop Rotation System Is Important for Plant Disease Prevention

A crop rotation system is important for many reasons but one that is often overlooked, says County Agent W. B. Hooser, is plant disease prevention.

A disease of only slight importance to a crop the first year may carry over in the soil and become a very serious problem on land where continuous cropping is practiced.

Most of the common soil-borne diseases pass through unfavorable periods on crop refuse in the soil. Such diseases include damping-off, root rot, wilts and root knot plus many foliage diseases such as early blight.

After disease organisms enter a new field, a small infection can grow and become a serious threat to crops. Corn smut is an example of a fungus which is carried by wind-blown spores. It survives in the soil for several seasons.

A plant disease already established in a field may often be avoided by the planting of a different crop, one not susceptible to the disease.

Farmers should learn to recognize the important plant diseases of this area, points out the county agent, and recommended control practices used to keep damage at the minimum. The planting of resistant crops is always in order, says Hooser.

Since some disease organisms can live in the soil for many years even in the absence of susceptible crops, knowing this fact can keep losses at a minimum and aid in disease control.

The county agent said information is available at his office on plant diseases most common in the county along with control suggestions.

Prune and Spray to Control Black Spot on Roses

Black spot is a spoiler in the rose garden. This fungal disease can ruin the beauty of one of our most desired ornamental plants, reminds County Agent W. B. Hooser.

This disease, he notes, attacks the young tender foliage, causing black circular or irregular shaped spots on the developing leaves.

Black spot, he says, can be controlled by the use of preventive sprays or dusts. Such materials as Folpet, Maneb, Polyram and Daconil 2787 can all be used on roses as preventive sprays, Hooser says.

Pruning out last year's canes now will reduce the amount of disease producing spores carried over from last year. Raking and burning old leaves will also help reduce the occurrence of black spot.

Roses, reminds the county agent, take a great deal of care, but their beauty both inside and outside the home more than offset all other considerations.

Cyclone Bandsmen Enjoy '20's Banquet

This year, a theme on "The Ring 20's" was used with 5th and 6th band members serving as waiters and dressed in red or white paper dresses (girls) or red and white stripe jackets (boys).

Band president Vicki Rose served emcee at the banquet, and Mrs. W. H. Goodnight, Mrs. Gordon Gilliam and Mrs. Bob Ayers.

Almost all of the band members were present, making this year's banquet one of the best attended affairs to be held.

Board Increases Per Capita Pay For Each Student

AUSTIN — The State Board of Education Monday, May 4, increased the per capita support for local school districts from $114.40 to $117.65 for each student. The lower rate had been based on estimates made in July, 1969.

Action came after the Board received a revised estimate from State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert showing $280 million available for distribution to districts for the 1969-70 school year ending August 31.

The new rate is based on average daily attendance of 2,387,519 students in 1968-69. The 1969-70 school year is the first in which per capita support has reflected average daily attendance. Previously, a scholastic census was used.

Calvert's revised estimate if income from the Available School Fund showed an opening cash balance of $14 million added to receipts of $295 million. The Omnibus Tax Fund brought in almost $133 million. Other major sources of income were the motor fuel tax, $78 million; ad valorem tax, $45 million; and interest and securities, $34 million. Unexpended balances, store and exemption licenses, and other revenue completed the balance.

The total deduction of prior year payments, transfer of $17 million to the textbook fund, and a cost of $300,000 for handling bond transactions.

This is Oldsmobile's year at Indy.

Isn't it your year for an Olds?

The knowing folks at Indy just named Olds 4-4-2 official pace car for this year's 500.

For good reason. Olds is not only an excellent performer, it's a winner in looks and ride as well.

The fact is, every 1970 Olds is a pacesetter. And it goes far deeper than performance.

You find it in great engineering. In exceptional comfort. In ride and handling that are outstanding. And in the solid quality and dependability you've come to expect from Oldsmobile.

In fact, it's this quality that leads many people to believe that Olds is priced out of your nearest Olds dealer!

OLDSMOBILE
Escape from the ordinary.

their reach. A mistaken notion that might keep you in an ordinary car, instead of an Olds.

The truth of the matter is that many Olds models are priced right down with the low-price names.

Now that you have the facts, isn't this your year to go Oldsmobile? You can probably do so for no more than what you've been paying. See your nearest Olds dealer!

Hall County FB Have Openings For Blue Cross

A special opening for enrollment of Hall County Farm Bureau members in Farm Bureau's Blue Cross-Blue Shield hospital-medical care protection, from May 11 to May 25, was announced Thursday by Pres. W. M. Davis, Jr.

"Enrollment in our Blue Cross-Blue Shield program is one of the very greatest benefits the Texas Farm Bureau Family can enjoy," Davis said. "It provides, basically, just about all the hospital-medical protection the average farm or ranch family is apt to need; and was especially designed for the rural family. In fact, it is a prime reason for many to join up with Farm Bureau."

The effective date for those enrolled in this special county-wide enrollment is June 1, 1970.

Since the beginning of the Farm Bureau-Blue Cross-Blue Shield partnership in 1944, more than $36,494,387.00 in hospital-medical benefits for members has been paid, Davis said.

Unlike all other such plans, however, Blue Cross provides benefits based on the actual services of the hospital, rather than a limited sum of money, which all too often proves to be all too small. And these charges are all agreed upon, with Blue Cross member hospitals, in advance. Blue Cross, then, pays the hospital direct.

When the Blue Cross member enters the hospital, there is no red-tape — the patient simply presents his Blue Cross-Blue Shield I. D. card at the hospital admissions desk, and that's all. "It's better than a credit card," President Davis remarked. "There certainly is nothing 'like' Blue Cross!"

Childress Insect Meet Is Re-Set For Thurs., May 14

The Hall County Agricultural Agent, W. B. Hooser, announces that due to a conflict with an area meeting, the Insect Control Meeting scheduled for May 7 in Childress has been postponed and rescheduled for May 14 at 8 p. m. in the Childress County Courthouse.

The purpose of the meeting was to determine if Childress County desired to organize an insect control association similar to that in Hall County and apply for State bollweevil control subsidy. Childress County entering into control program with Hall County and other surrounding counties will make for a more complete boll weevil control program so it is important to Hall County.

Hooser urges interested persons to attend the meeting on May 14 at 8 p. m. in the Childress County Courthouse.

Social Security Comes To Aid Of Paralyzed Teofilo Garcia, Jr., 22

MEMPHIS — Nobody calls him Teofilo. He is known as "Porky" to his friends and acquaintances. But Teofilo R. Garcia, Jr., is his name.

As a youngster he moved with his family in the harvest. At 17, while in Memphis, Texas, he married Frances Garcia, and they decided to stay there where he would work on a farm.

Scarcely two years later, Garcia had to have back surgery. And then the tragedy began. At age 19, Garcia, who had a one-year-old child and another on the way, became totally disabled, paralyzed from the waist down. He has been wheelchair-confined since October 1966.

Today, Garcia is only 22. But things are beginning to look up.

It all started last December when the priest in Memphis called on the social security representative to inquire about Garcia's possible entitlement to disability benefits. The representative was told that Garcia had worked only two years on the farm before he became disabled. Fortunately, that's all the work he needed. Due to a 1967 change in the law, a worker disabled before he is 24 can become eligible for benefits with as little as a year and a half of work. (A worker disabled before 31 needs social security credits for less than five years of work.)

Things began to look even brighter for Garcia the day the postman brought his first checks, one for himself and his wife, another for the children, totaling $1,549.80. Now the family receives monthly benefits of $127.50. The contributions Garcia made for social security protection during his two years of work paid off handsomely.

The $1,549.80 included 12 months "back pay". Payments may be made retroactive for 12 months when a beneficiary has been disabled for as many as 18 months. However, no disability payments may be made before the end of a six-month waiting period starting when a worker becomes disabled.

Today Garcia is optimistic about the opportunities open to him through rehabilitative services. All disability claimants, whether their claim is allowed or denied, are considered for rehabilitation services. Garcia is being considered for training as a watch repairman. Social security records are confidential and are not revealed without the permission of the persons concerned. Garcia agreed to the release of his story to point up the fact that social security disability benefits are available to the young as well as to older workers.

Silverton Judo Club To Have Tourney May 23

The junior contest will begin promptly at 10 a. m. and the senior contest at 1 p. m. Weigh-ins will precede each contest.

Gamma Kappa Chapter Meets In Childress

Gamma Kappa Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society met Saturday, May 2, for a luncheon at the Country Club in Childress, honoring the founders of this international society of women teachers.

Mrs. Della Icenhower of Childress lighted candles as tribute was paid to each of the 12 founders who were led by Dr. Annie Webb Blanton. Four of the founders are living and are still active in the work of the society.

Miss Maudie Coffee of Wellington, retiring president, conducted the society's impressive installation ceremony for incoming officers. Mrs. Audrey Tribble of Memphis will be president for the next biennium. Miss Alma Bruce, as first vice president, will be program chairman. By BYRON BALDWIN can remember back in the days when so many of the homes in homes were on party when you might have a 2-ribble, and another 3 bells and with other number of rings and number. Sometimes there several on the same party and you had to be very care- talking on the line as you be censored by a neighbor to find out what was going listening in to see what the was, and at times, it was rasing to listen in and heard would turn a bright pink I thought that day was over dern times, but not so. I have paid tribute to the organization before, as they done a lot of good in saving and even lives sometime by quick communication with short wave radios. A few ago some of these boys were in, and there was a call Mrs. Jerry Montgomery in part of the county to husband Jerry to bring her as for her lawn mower as mowing the lawn. This up a little misunderstand- some of these other homes the men heard this request lawn mower gas, and they lately started procedures to his work done at their home wives. I do not know how come out but I imagine they mised. In the old days the on of communication was one, telegraph and tell a

Gladys Power who had been visit- ing with some of the family. I be- lieve the family moved from here early 1900s to Amarillo and es- tablished with his brother the Wil- born Tank Co. which is still oper- ated by A. H. Wilborn's son, Her- bert. As well as I remember, the main reason they left Memphis to go to Amarillo was on account of Mrs. Wilborn's health as she needed to go to a higher climate and it did prove to be beneficial as Gladys says she visited with her right after her 98th birthday and she is still very active. After several years in California, she and her daughter, Genabeth Cox, are now living in Amarillo. The other daughter, Ailene Moberly, has been living in Mobile, Ala- bama, several years. Some of the early day families almost got away from us but we try to keep up when possible. When we first moved to Memphis, the Wilborns had a real good orchard on west side of N. 16th St. Also good wa- termelons on this location. We used to visit these places quite of- ten.

Last Saturday I met two un- dercover men from Dallas; I am sure these were undercover men as I knew them when they raised their face up enough to see. I recognized these two, Jerry Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall, and Richard Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parker.

Visited with Mrs. Raymond Brumley, the former Florence Jones, here with her sisters, Mil- dred Stephens and Ola Mae Ward. Florence and Raymond both are MHS graduates now living in Aus- tin where they have been for sev- eral years. All three ladies are daughters of Mrs. A. B. Jones. Visiting in Heritage Hall was Maurice Revell Ariola (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Revell), graduated at Lakeview in 1958, married Charles Ariola, had lived in Fort Worth the past three years, but is back in Lakeview. We have a yardstick in Heritage Hall that had been used by Ho- race Lindsey and Soapy Tribble for the past 37 years for altera- tion measuring. It was a yard- stick left here by the Amarillo Trade Excursion from Wilborn Bros. We have more show cases for our displays. The latest gift show case was from Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lee Smith. Thanks, Lou and Clyde.

We had forty visitors sign the register in Heritage Hall the past Saturday. Among them were Marjorie and Kelly Howard of Lubbock and Susan Hooper of Slaton and they thought we were doing a good job of filling the building with displays. Jake Lamb of Friona, was in and said, "I think this is great, what you have accomplished." Jake formerly liv- ed at Lodge in Hall County. Jake is the only surviving brother of the five Lamb boys and there are two sisters of this family now liv- ing, Mrs. R. P. Martin of McKin- ney and Mrs. Vernon Sasser of Memphis. Mrs. Martin is now in her 90th year and still very active.

The past Sunday we helped Dr. Odom celebrate his 87th birthday which was in March, but he was in the hospital at that time. So thanks to the deep freeze, the birthday cake was just as good as new.

Met Coy Lee from Portales, N. M., and daughter, Versa, from Lubbock.

I reminded him of the time when he punished Versa and Lu- cile Wright for playing hookey in school. He had them walk behind his car from Parker Creek north of town all the way into Memphis. (No more hookey for them).

In the land of the free and the home of the brave, we see in our daily news items that it looks like from what they say we are in for subsidy of the human race. And the officials will tell you when and how many children you may have. I noticed that one doc- tor advocates that we have two children to the family, but any- way, I guess you would have to put in for your allotment. Then if you did not use your allotment this amount would be put in a pool like our cotton and this sur- plus could be distributed the next year if you qualified. In the A.S.C. office these subsidies are transferred when land is traded and I wonder how that will be handled with the human race which as much trading as has been done in the last few years, and that division will be made with men and women who have min- yours, and ours families. If you think A.S.C. is a little complica- now wait until you see cont the American Family in act.

Of course I won't be sendi- ing in my application on this alle- ment or surplus either unless I to San Francisco's Knob Hill ; ride the trolley and get all shook up like the girls who sued the city of San Francisco for a huge amount. I noticed in the paper a few days ago that this lady was awarded fifty thousand dollars! She still must have lots of sex appeal, as I don't believe a man that got his left arm cut off could get that much from a Jury. I quoted Art Linkletter the other day to one man that "People Are Funny." This man said is that the answer or would you say "crazy." Well from some of the views we have and do now-a-days and if our ancestors came back to life who passed away 40 years ago they might want to put us all be- hind bars, but anyway, life goes on with progress and we wait to read the next paper and see what is here that we are too dumb to understand.

In the passing away of Gypsy Rose Lee one columnist said she stacked a lot of cash in her stockings as she left over a million dollars to her son. Seems like you would have to have a pretty good size Pantie hose to stash that much away. I guess the Internal Reve- nue Dept., had attended her show and knew where she kept the cash.

Seems to me like Crump Ferrel is overdoing this thing of keep- ing a sanitary hog pen. I over- heard some one talking to Geo. Proffitt the other day and told him they heard that Crump told him he would have to be careful coming so close to his hog project when he was running his tractor as it might contaminate his pro- ject. I asked George how close he had been to the pens and he replied: "Oh, about 100 yards away." So George may have to carry a stick of deodorant for his B. O. on his tractor.

A few weeks ago, I was giving the names of the different drug stores that had been in Memphis the past 60 years, and my atten- tion was called to the fact that I had overlooked two; one was the Major McCanne Drug, who was the father of Mrs. Hubert Dennis, and the other drug left out was Hardin Drug and there may have been others that were overlooked but was unintentionally.

Another discription I read of the American people the other day: "They want the front seat on the bus, back seat in church and to be the center of attrac- tion."

Mrs. Zeno Lemons and Mrs. Robert Maddox returned last week after visiting in Fort Polk, La., with Mrs. Maddox's husband, who is stationed there with the U. S. Army. Robert has been re- ceiving treatment in the Army hospital there, but is reported to be improved. While gone they al- so visited in Granbury with Mr. and Mrs. David Lemons.

CARD OF THANKS
We want to take this opportunity to thank everyone for being so kind to Gaylen while he was in the hospital. The visits, flowers, and cards meant so much. May God bless each of you.
Gaylen and Bobbie Ariola

Mrs. Ralph Howard and Brien and Kelly, Mrs. Estelle Guthrie and Susan Hopper Slaton, all of Lubbock, spent the weekend here with Dink Dennis and other re- latives. Mrs. Guthrie remained in Memphis for a longer visit, while the others returned home Sunday afternoon.

THOMPSON BROS. CO.

To The People Of The 80th Legislative District:

I have always been appreciative of your support of my candidacy for the Legislature, but this year I have special reason to be so, in view of the length and nature of the attack that has been made upon me and my official record.

But my disposition is to leave unpleasant recollections to the past and look to the future. Winning the Democratic nomination is only part of the job this year. Republican State and National leaders have selected me as a prime target in their effort to discredit the Democratic Party record of long control in State affairs.

My hope is that all who voted in the Democratic primary last Saturday, and hundreds of Democrats who didn't go to the polls Saturday will join in rolling up the biggest margin ever given to the party ticket in November.

Thank you for support, and let's see that a big turnout of Democratic votes are registered in the 80th Legislative District this Fall.

FFA CHAPTER AWARDS—Pictured above are the two recipients of the Memphis FFA Chapter Awards presented Tuesday night at the annual Father-Son Barbecue Picnic of the local chapter.

It was in the early 1900's that chlorination was accepted as a means of disinfecting water.

Prior to this, thousands of lives were lost through improperly handled water. Typhoid, dysentery and other water-borne diseases were prevalent.

Sewage treatment often was no more than a collection system sending the waste to the closest water course, and often a downstream city's water supply was served by that water course.

In the early water works system, a person with only a reasonable amount of mechanical ability was needed to maintain the pumps drawing water from the stream or from the wells, and the "operator" normally had little esteem among his fellow citizens.

With urbanization after 1910, demands pyramided on city services for new streets, electric power, waste collection and water treatment. The "town pumper" was rapidly being left behind by advancing technology in the water and wastewater fields.

But in 1945 the Legislature passed the Texas Sanitation and Health Protection Law which stated that water facilities producing water sold to the public, as well as public sewage treatment plants, should be operated by persons holding certificates of competency issued under the direction of the Texas State Department of Health.

Efficient city management has adopted the policy of requiring certified operators in all phases of water utilities. Operators gain the necessary skills by attending utilities short schools held throughout the state.

Much is gained by having certified operator in municipal water systems. Persons having the educational requirements and passing examinations given by the State Health Department are equipped to perform their duties as operators in a more efficient manner.

For Lt. Gov., Byron Fullerton had 24 votes as did Edward M. Yturri for Attorney General.

S. L. Abbott received 23 votes for Comptroller of Public Accounts while Robert F. Koenneke received 23 votes for State Treasurer.

In the Commissioners races, Harry Tripp received 24 votes for Comm. of Gen Land Office and Daniel C. Heath received 24 votes for Comm. of Agriculture.

Over the state, Bush received 184,152 votes to Morris' 12,100.

Refreshments will be served to parents and scouts during the meeting Monday night, it was announced.

Also, all Order of the Arrow members of the Memphis Troop are urged to attend the meeting Monday night. It will be necessary to select candidates for Order of the Arrow at that time.

18 game schedule ending on July 9, for the regular Little League and a nine game series for the Farm Teams ending on July 6," Frisbie said.

"We have a lot more adult interest showing this year than we have in the past," says Frisbie.

"To have a successful season we must have enough adult supervision for the boys. We have sufficient managers but we could use some additional umpires."

"The Little League park is in excellent condition and we will have a score board located in center field so the fans can keep up with the scores," he added.

OUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Agent Names Chemicals To Replace DDT on Fruit Trees for Control of Insects

Production of peaches, apricots and plums free of insect damage can be accomplished through a well-planned, well-executed insect control program.

"In the past DDT was used for control of these pests in both commercial and home orchards. Recent label cancellations prohibit certain uses of DDT and this material should no longer be used on fruit trees around the home.

"DDT and azinphosmethyl (Guthion) will effectively control insect pests in the commercial orchard. Applications should be made at the pink bud, petal fall and shuck split stages of stone fruits.

In the home orchard, malathion and methoxychlor will control the peach twig borer and catfacing insects.

For prevention of damage from insects that attack stone fruits after the last cover spray application, carbaryl (Sevin) might be used either in commercial or home orchards.

When using these and other pesticides, read and follow the directions given on the label carefully.

Weed and Brush Control Important Water Conservation Program in Pastures

Good soil moisture conditions over the county have already started a good growth of weeds on pastures and ranges and more will be coming along, predicts County Agent W. B. Hooser.

Pastures, he adds, should be deferred following chemical or mechanical brush and weed control.

Livestock should be kept off of pastures until weeds are dry following spraying with herbicides.
