a 56-minute time. Third in the class was Amarillo's Rick Glover, with 66 minutes. He finished the race after taking two rough spills which left him covered with mud and with a bloody nose.

Only one of the light bikes finished the grueling 41-mile up and down the Prairie Dog Town Fork of Red River from just north of Estelline to the Oxbow Bridge over 20 miles to the west.

The driver was a Memphis man, Tommy Dunnam, who completed the course in 64 minutes; the five other bikes in his class did not finish the race.

Three of the six heavy bikes (251 cc and over) finished the race, and placed first, second and third. David Neal of Vernon came in with a time of 64 minutes, John Henderson of Vernon was a half minute behind, placing second, and Bob Tow of Amarillo placed third with a time of 70 minutes.

Of the 20 bikes which started, only seven finished the river race. The river bed Saturday was hot and dry. Saturday night, a rain fell on the river, making the bottom wet and slick in spots. Mechanical failure caused several to not finish the race.

David Neal, open class winner, said, "I didn't fall but nothing was easy out there."

Rural Accident Reduction

The Texas Safety Association and Texas Governor Preston Smith are urging Texas farm and ranch families to step-up their efforts to make agricultural enterprises safer. The Texas Governor has issued a proclamation designating July 19-25, as Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Week, urging all farm and ranch families to become more safety conscious.

The Governor, in his proclamation, called attention to the fact that farm and ranch accidents in Texas continue to increase, despite a decline in the rural population and advances in agricultural technology.

"We must renew our efforts to prevent accidents among our rural residents as they go about the hazardous task of producing the commodities needed by the entire population," Governor Smith said.

Accidents occur in all phases of rural life. Fires claimed the lives of 54 rural residents in 1968. Thirty-three died in tractor accidents with 18 the result of tractor turnovers. Firearm accidents claimed the lives of 49 persons in the rural area and only 16 of these were the result of hunting accidents, during 1968.

Farm animals are also dangerous to life and limb when safety rules are ignored. Horseback riding is dangerous unless supervised properly. Even the most experienced riders and their mounts are involved in accidents each year.

The statewide safety group urged rural workers to take the necessary steps to provide maximum protection against accidents.

Fire protection plans for homes and farm buildings are necessary steps. Fire escape routes, correcting inadequate electrical wiring, and the installing of fire extinguishers in buildings, on motor vehicles, tractors and other self-propelled equipment is advisable.

Tractors can be equipped with crush resistant cabs and safety belts. The wearing of safety glasses and goggles, safety shoes, hard hats, and bump caps help in reducing accidents.

Weapons should be loaded only when they are being used for hunting. Firearms should be handled at all times with extreme respect for their life-taking danger.

The following eight suggestions are worthy of detailed study and application:

1. Keep all guards and shields in place when operating machinery and power tools of any kind.
2. Be prepared for emergencies such as fire, flood, blizzard, windstorm, sudden illness and injury.
3. Wear gloves and recommended protective clothing and chemical respirators when applying pesticides.
4. Keep pesticides in a suitable storage area, inaccessible to children and animals.
5. Protect small children and others by covering tank openings, and fencing dangerous areas such as manure lagoons, and farm ponds. Have life-saving flotation devices available at all ponds.
6. Check electrical wiring and make sure you are using the proper size fuses.
7. Spare your hands on rough jobs with heavy-duty gloves. Wear rubber gloves when handling farm chemicals, petroleum products and other solvents. Use good hand lotions to prevent chapping.
8. Observe state law and equip all your farm machinery that has occasion to be moved on the highway with the Slow Moving Vehicle emblem.

What Other Editors Say

Healty Receives Deserved Credit

During the months preceding the political primaries, State Rep. Bill Healty, of Paducah, was beset by enemies seeking to paint him as some sort of Satan with a forked tail. With much shouting, blowing of bugles and tootling of horns, the Republican U. S. District Attorney in San Antonio—about as far away from Representative Healty's home base as it was possible to get—staged a full scale farce with suspected help from Washington.

The sound and the fury rolled across the South Texas metropolis, but when it was all over two grand juries—the second one in Lubbock—found no reason for acting against Mr. Healty, or anyone else, on unsupported charges that somebody, somewhere, opposed his being unseated in favor of some unknown rival.

As we said then we say again, the whole performance was both unnecessary and without reason. Everybody knows that a chairman of the House Appropriations Committee oftentimes must say "no" to people and when he does he makes foes. Mr. Healty has held that post longer than any legislator in Texas history and as difficult as the job is, he has done it well. We're happy to pass along the fact that it's an odds-on bet he'll be Appropriations chairman again in the next Legislature which will convene in January.

In Lubbock Thursday night, the "other side" of the Bill Healty story got the spotlight.

As honor guest at the annual meeting of the Texas Pork Producers Association, the Paducah legislator was described as being "the best friend agriculture ever had," the "father of the best mental health and retardation program" in the U. S.; the man most largely responsible for improvement of the Texas prison system and a staunch friend of youth, the aged and the helpless.

John C. White, Commissioner of Agriculture, rang the bell when he said Mr. Healty could be "as tough as nails" when he needed to be—a statement difficult to disagree with, but added that he is "soft-hearted and compassionate" and "got where he is by doing things for people who couldn't pay him back." There, again, there's no room for dissent.

Bill Healty isn't perfect and would be the first to admit it.

When he thinks it's the thing to do, he swings from the ankles and he can be, when he deems it necessary, as "hardboiled as a picnic egg." These attributes, however, are essential to doing the Appropriations job as it must be done if the taxpayers are to get the protection they deserve.

As we said, Bill Healty has taken some lumps from his enemies in recent weeks, but lately he has been given the plaudits of friends in this instance the pork producers from all over Texas, who, wittingly or not, also were speaking for many others.

Thus the testimony clearly reveals that the fellow who is "big, bad Bill" to his political foes is regarded, instead, as "sweet William" by many others who know the good things he's done and credit him for it.

Always a way

Mrs. Neal Nichols of San Augustine used to read the newspaper like everybody else. She began with the front page. Lately, she has made a startling discovery. She now reads the newspaper backward, from back page to front and she says the world looks a lot brighter when taken backwards. After reading the front page, she says, she used to throw away the remainder of the paper unread in despair of the future of the U. S. But by easing backward into the news day, she finds much that is cheerful and even inspiring.

She may have hit on the one thing that will preserve human sanity.

Texas School Teachers To Get Raise; To Be Paid On 10-Month Basis Now

AUSTIN — Texas public school teachers — those on the state minimum salary schedule — will receive pay raises averaging about $500 per year in 1970-71, the Texas State Teachers Association announced recently.

Students will go to school — teachers will teach — an extra 180 days (180 days instead of 150). In addition, teachers will be on duty for 10 more days of non-teaching work during the year, and will be paid on a 10-month basis, instead of nine.

These changes in the school year and the basis for figuring their pay result from amendments to the minimum foundation program law passed in 1969 by the Legislature.

Under the minimum program, a beginning bachelor's degree teacher in 1969-70 was paid $593 per month for nine months, or $5,337 for the year.

In 1970-71, a beginning bachelor's degree teacher will receive $600 per month for 10 months, or $6,000 for the year.

Many Texas school systems pay their teachers more than the state-required minimum salaries.

Texas was ranked 38th among states in average teacher pay in 1969-70. The 1970 raises and a long-range improvement plan are expected to move Texas up to a more favorable position among states in the years ahead.

The new law puts into effect in 1971-72 a continuing compensation plan which will give Texas teachers an additional five percent raise each year and cost-of-living raises in 1974 and 1978. It will allow all Texas teachers to reach the top of the pay schedule — $11,040 for bachelor's degree, and $12,040 for master's degree teachers — within 10 years of service.

The new law has left many people — teachers as well as school patrons — with questions about its work and pay aspects.

The state Board of Education has attempted to answer such questions by drafting an official definition of the 180-day school term and service requirements for teachers in 1970-71 and future years.

Basically, the state board says that beginning on September 1, 1970:

- Texas public schools will have 180 days of actual classroom instruction, (where teachers and students are together in learning situations instead of the 175 days previously required under foundation program law. (Some schools had already been operating programs longer than the minimum.)
- Most Texas teachers will be paid on a 10-month basis. (Vocational and special education teachers may be paid for 10, 11, or 12 months.)

In addition to the 180 days of classroom instruction, teachers and other personnel previously authorized for less than 10 months under the foundation program shall be required to be on duty for an additional 10 days, making a total of 190 days, exclusive of holidays approved by the local board of trustees.

School districts may employ teachers for more than the specified 190 days, but if they do their salaries for work beyond the 190 days must be paid wholly from local funds rather than foundation program funds.

Texas Local Board No. 20, Childress, has a call for five registrants for Aug. 11 for induction, and does not have a call for armed forces physical, it was announced.

The August quota is down from 817 in July, which is being filled with men having random sequence numbers no higher than 190.

The state quota for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in August is 1,490, down from 1,601 in July. Men sent for these examinations will be limited to those with random sequence numbers 1 through 215.

Deferred or exempt men, such as teachers, college students, and vocational or trade school students with random sequence numbers 1 through 215 may be forwarded for these examinations if they are likely to lose their deferred or exempt status during the next six months, Colonel Schwartz said.

No men with random sequence numbers above 215 will be forwarded for examination until further notice. No authority has been received to examine men born in

Ribbons

The Memphis Democrat

1951, whose random sequence numbers were established by the drawing in Washington July 1.

All volunteers at the draft boards must be inducted ahead of the nonvolunteers selected and ordered to report for induction by random sequence number.

The Texas induction quota of 560 for August is the state's share of a national call for 10,000 men, all for the army.

This you may not believe, but there are more rifle and pistol ranges in the United States than there are golf courses. Furthermore, shooters outnumber golfers three to one.

LETTERS

To The Editor

Member of Commerce Memphis, Texas Clifford Farmer, Mgr. Mr. Farmer:

Last year I wrote to you regarding your city park as a location for our family reunion, (Shotts) its central position seemed suited for all. Your reply was prompt and we accepted your welcome and used it as a meeting place.

We found it to be a lovely place an ideal setting for our gathering; in fact everyone was so pleased with our choice that we decided to make it a standing invitation for this annual event so in this year the in-gathering held in your park. For this I am writing, on behalf of us, to thank you for your kindness and express to the city of Memphis our appreciation for the use of your park and its facilities. The swimming pool is especially for the younger ones.)

Also, we would like to express gratitude for the courtesy shown at the two motels where four families of us found accommodations at one and three families at the other on the night of the 3rd.

We had a picnic supper in the park, spent the night in motels, cooked breakfast for everyone the next morning in the park. Some 46 people were in attendance including some as far away as Hayward, Calif., Edmond, Chickasha, Rish Springs and Duncan, Okla., besides five families from Memphis.

We made special effort to properly dispose of garbage and to clean the area where we stayed as we found it.

Hoping to again see our kith and kin in your fair park next year and thanking you for letting us meet there.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Mardy May

Laqueta Burgess And Bobby Leeper Marry In Pretty Home Ceremony

Miss Laqueta Susan Burgess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Burgess of Brice, became the bride of Bobby Ray Leeper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Leeper of Clarendon, in a Friday evening ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

Minister Robert C. Jones solemnized the double ring ceremony before an altar of white gladioli with lemon leaf and fern. On each side of the altar was a basket of blue and white gladioli.

Miss Karen Ann Burgess, sister of the bride and pianist, played the Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet and traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of white bridal satin designed A-Line with shaped back hemline and a lace yoke, peneled lace front accented with seed pearls and fitted lace sleeves which buttoned at the wrist. Her train of chantilly lace was attached at the yoke. Her shoulder length veil of brkald illusion fell from a coil of roses and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations entwined with baby's breath and ivy atop of white satin covered Bible.

The bride wore a pair of Cameo ear rings which belonged to her Great Aunt and a Mameo necklace belonging to her mother. She carried out the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue, and a six-pence in her shoe.

Miss Annette Alexander, of Clarendon, was Maid of Honor. She wore a blue street length dress designed with accordian pleats from the waist and carried a bouquet of blue and white daisies.

Jim Moore, of Waxahachie, served the groom as best man.

The mother of the Bride wore a beige, double knit princess line dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations. The mother of the Bridegroom wore a blue and white two piece dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding. Guests were registered by Miss Connie Miller, of Tahoka, cousin of the Bride.

The Brides table was covered with a white, cutwork cloth, over an underskirt of blue. Centering the table was a floral arrangement of blue and white daisies. The three tier wedding cake was decorated with blue roses topped with white wedding bells. Appointments were in crystal and silver.

Mrs. Donnie Helton, of Lubbock, sister of the Bride, and Miss Debbie Parrish, of Shamrock, cousin of the Bride, served the cake, and Miss Karen Ann Burgess, sister of the Bride, served the punch.

The Bride chose for her going away dress, a low-waisted dress with a beige colored top and dark brown skirt with beige accessories.

She wore the corsage lifted from her Bridal bouquet. The couple will be at home in Clarendon.

Why would a smart farmer like you work harder for less profit?

Just about everyone understands the need for irrigation, but it's just as important to realize the value of efficient irrigation. To be efficient, an irrigation system must:

- Offer maximum return on minimum investment
- Be reliably available when needed
- Cost as little as possible to operate

There are lots of ways to water a crop, but it takes a Boss Lateral-Roll irrigation system to meet the requirements of efficiency. Obsolete, high-cost irrigation may be better than none, but it makes your work harder, your profits less. That's why smart farmers like you are asking Boss for the complete story.

Facts and full details yours without obligation. Write or phone today for our new free brochure.

When you refer to something big as a "whale" there is good reason. An average adult gray whale weighs about 18 tons and is approximately 35 feet long.

T. J. Dunbar, Jr. Is Buried July 1 At Lake Jackson

Funeral services for T. J. Dunbar, Jr., 60, of Lake Jackson were held at 10 a. m. Wednesday, July 1, at Lakewood Funeral Chapel there with the Rev. H. Eugene Cragg of First United Methodist Church officiating.

Burial was in Restwood Memorial Park in Lake Jackson. Dunbar was stricken by an apparent heart attack and died soon after arriving for work on his first day back at his Freepoint engineering offices after a lengthy confinement for a heart ailment.

Born in Memphis, Dunbar graduated from the University of Texas in 1933. He was a registered professional engineer and had headed the Gulf Coast Chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers.

Dunbar was with the Texas Highway Dept. when brought to Brazoria County to solve road problems as county engineer. He served in that capacity for eight years before being employed in June, 1942, by the Dow Chemical Co.

Immediately, he was assigned to the "Lake Jackson project". This meant carrying out Alden B. Dow's designs for the original street and utility systems of Lake Jackson. This was the community nucleus from which Lake Jackson grew. Later as manager of the Lake Jackson Co., he headed up the actual operation of the city prior to formation of the governmental body. When, in 1944, the first set of city officers was elected, Dunbar was city secretary.

In 1945 Dunbar went into private practice as an engineering consultant. Teaming with J. G. Dickson in 1950, Dunbar has for the past two decades been involved in consultant work that has included the design of many public and private works.

Active in Democratic politics, he was for many years chairman of Lake Jackson's Pct. 23. He was a charter member of the Lake Jackson Jaycees.

He is survived by his wife, Vera; one daughter, Mrs. Ronald Steinbach of Lake Jackson; his mother, Mrs. T. J. Dunbar, Sr. of Memphis; and one brother, Allen Dunbar, also of Memphis.

When they sold out on this... place, they had 1311 head of cat-... tle at the going price. At one time... they brought ranch land 5 1/2 miles... south of Estelline from Jim Vardy... and they later sold his place to... They left here in the early... part of 1906. Some that he re-... membered going to school with... here were Maud Milam, Chas... Webster, Ora Webster, Frances... Roberts, Dave Roberts, Charlie,

Jim and Joe Montgomery, and... Tom Drake, along with the Davis... sisters, Pearl who married C. H... Boykin, Davis sisters who were... twins, Mattie and Fannie. Tom... Drake married Mattie and said... they talked about a double wed-... ding as he was courting Fannie... but he decided he did not have... enough to offer a woman to mar-... ry him. He later married Mae Bar-... rador of Texico. Ross has one sis-... ter buried in Fairview Cemetery... who died before they left here.

At one time, Ross said he was... postmaster of Naylor in Donley... County and kept all of his stamps... and other supplies in a shoe box... and never lost a dime. He was... born near Waco and is now at... Grandfalls. May have another... story on him as I have a recording... of the conversation.

Other visitors in Heritage Hall... were Johnny H. Patterson, grad-... uate of Estelline High in 1952... He married the daughter of Mr... and Mrs. J. B. Worthington and... is now in the Navy stationed at... Corpus Christi.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Billington... of Houston were looking Heritage... Hall over with their two sons... Mike and Bobby, 19 and 17. Louis... graduated from MHS in 1940... then spent four years in Texas... University. He has now been in the school system of Spring... Branch, Houston schools, for over... 20 years. Mrs. Grace Billington... graduated from San Angelo High... School in 1940: Louis is the son of... Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Billington of... Memphis.

Also visiting with them in Heri-... tage Hall was Bobby Billington,

Met Mills Roberts a few days... ago and commented on his slender... figure and he said he walks five... miles a day on the golf course... and it did not bother him. The Pall bearers were Ross Springer, A. J. Garland, Leo Jester, Joe Miller, Les Sims and J. M. Ferrel, Jr.

Honorary pall bearers were members of the Garrett Memorial Sunday School Class.

1965. He was stationed in Dallas until Feb. 1968 when he moved to Abilene to be in charge of that sub-region.

Mrs. Prince is a native of Hagerman, N. M., and a 1961 graduate of Roswell, N. M.

"We want to welcome Bill to our banking staff, and want our friends to meet him as soon as possible. He is well qualified in all aspects of banking and will be a valuable asset to our bank and our community," President Parks said.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Thompson and Debbie visited here with Mrs. Myrtle Hammons, Mrs. Thompson's mother, and with Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wiginton, and in Clarendon with his mother, Mrs. Bernice Thompson.

Seven Bikes—

Barry Ward, took time out from the race to notify race officials that Bob Stewart of Amarillo was injured after a nasty flip. "Apparently it was a shoulder injury," Ward said after the race. Stewart was taken to the Oxbow end of the raceway and then to Memphis to get medical attention.

Of the 20 riders in the race, 11 of them were from Memphis.

In the medium class, John Binkley of Memphis led the race up until his bike ran out of gas. "I knew I'd be pushing it with the tank size I had," Binkley said after the race. His bike, like 13 others, was left in the river bottom to be retrieved.

Blackie Johnson served as starter and flag man for the race and the Hall County Haulers, a Memphis cycle club, furnished trophies, had the concession stand, and provided clean-up crews and radio operators. By 1:30 p. m., it was announced that no bikes were moving in the river, so the race officially closed with 13 of the 20 bikes missing. Riders were located and returned and the job of picking up bikes started.

All the riders finishing the course said the race was a rough one. "It starts off smooth," one rider said, "but then you go around a curve and pow, the rough stuff starts."

The drivers carried wired-on tickets which were stamped at Oxbow Bridge to prove they had finished the first leg of the race. Nine drivers finished the first half of the race.

Another injured in the race was Larry Combest of Memphis, who was hospitalized with a shoulder injury received when his bike flipped with him during the race.

Working in the river and giving assistance to the drivers were Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Foxhall, using their sand buggy, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Davidson in their Scout, Robert Allen Hodges and Alvin Phillips in a pickup, Bengy Godfrey, and several at the Oxbow Bridge end of the raceway.

Just how rough is Red River as a motorcycle track? Drivers who completed the race without taking a spill reported they were just lucky, for they could have gone down several times. The river bed was challenging with mud, dips, hidden logs, salt cedar, and undefined boundaries.

Drivers in the 0-125 c.c. class were: Buzzy Maxey of Clarendon, Randy Whitten of Memphis, John Hawkins of Amarillo, Tommy Dunnam of Memphis, Larry Combest of Memphis and Buster McQueen of Memphis.

Drivers in the 126-250 c.c. class were: Bob Stewart of Amarillo,

Mack Miller of Memphis, Joe Ed
