County Banks' Assets Show Rise

The Hall County financial picture as reflected in the third quarter recently is the brightest of the year and even set a new record high for the October report.

After a decline in the Dec. 31, 1969 report at the first of this year, then a sharp decline in April's report, followed by a mild recovery in the July report, the Oct. 28, 1970 report indicates a sharp recovery to set a new third-quarter high for Hall County.

The assets of the three Hall County banks combined total stands at $17,786,103.41. This is not an overall record high but is a record high for the October report. This is an increase over the 1969 October report of $506,753.39 and the 1969 report was slightly higher than the year before. This makes the fifth consecutive year for an increase in the third-quarter report.

The total deposits figure for the three banks also showed this trend, standing as $16,061,359.90 or $430,797.56 above the Oct. 1969 figure.

The only figure showing a decline was the loans total of the three banks. This figure is $8,485,761.16 or a decline of $370,225.75 from last fall's total loans figure.

The figures come from the statements of condition of the People's State Bank of Turkey, First National Bank and First State Bank of Memphis.

"We don't know what it means to be involved directly in a war. Never have bombs fell on our heads. We have lost the sense of reality. Having all the means to solve our social problems here in our great country we become so egocentric and selfish that we cannot see what is going on around us."

"With all our military resources we could have finished World War II with a complete victory without having a cold war now," he said.

It's Thanksgiving, 1970!

We, Americans, have grown accustomed to the finer things in life, the easier way, and one might observe that out of our abundance, we give to charity, the church, and to our favorite worthwhile causes.

The American people, and the United States of America, are the only people and nation in the world which has a national holiday of thanksgiving to a Spiritual Being, Jehovah God. The act of giving thanks for blessings is not a normal practice among mankind, whose history is full of "might makes right" examples.

When someone gives thanks, he or she must admit that he is receiving blessings beyond what he is entitled to, he has been fortunate to avoid many disasters, and he has the intelligence to be able to look around him and say, "But there, only by the Grace of God, go I."

There is little doubt that Thanksgiving Day is observed in the United States of America because it was observed by the Pilgrims on that October day in 1621.

This editor has read much about the Pilgrims, but a recent article brought into sharp focus the true story of the Pilgrims, much more so than the traditional accounts normally used to describe the events of their exodus from Holland to Plymouth.

England in the early 1600's was experiencing a time of inflation. Times were changing so quickly it was difficult for a man to keep up. The cost of living was rising, with the price of land outrunning all other commodities. People with money, especially new money, bought up tracts either for speculation or social prestige or both. The average man saw his dream of suburban house fade in the face of economic reality.

The key to England's economic reality was a severe tightening of credit following a prosperous period during which working people achieved a standard of living their grandfathers could not have hoped for. But, when the belt tightening part of the economic cycle came, these Englishmen were not too willing to go along. These were the Englishmen who were responsible for the early development of America.

The famous Pilgrims were the most ineffectual of settlers when it came to starting up the New World. Their little village at Plymouth was soon bypassed by commercial travelers who knew that the serious business was being done in Boston.

But it is the Pilgrims we most remember on Thanksgiving Day, and we know so much about them only because their leader, William Bradford, wrote about them in a book.

History books tell us it was religious persecution which was a direct reason for the establishment of the first permanent settlement in New England. But a really close look at the situation would indicate that religious persecution was really only a minor reason. Back in 1609, it's true, a group of Separatists in the English village of Scrooby became annoyed when other Protestants organized a kind of un-Protestant Activities Committee to investigate them. Reacting to this harassment—which, by the way, was mild—the Separatists moved to the Dutch town of Leyden.

Now Holland was very tolerant of religious zealots. But the Pilgrims weren't very tolerant of the Dutch, as they saw their youths become dropouts, running off to sea, sowing their wild oats among the fast Dutch crowd, and in general causing a sight of headbaking among Scrooby folks.

Fed up with all the permissiveness in Holland, the Separatists began listening to the siren song of some London land salesman who were promoting property in the New World. The Separatists pledged seven years of labor from each Pilgrim for one share each in a partnership set up with the promoters.

After bringing off that business coup, the Pilgrims went out and bought the Speedwell, a ship so rotten and leaky it might have drowned them all. Finally, in September, 1620, the Pilgrims crossed the Atlantic at the worst possible time of the year.

Indeed, the Pilgrims had much to be thankful for on that October day in 1621 when they paused to feast and consider their blessings. Because of their great resolve they were able to overcome their own blunders, live with tragic memories, and face a future filled with terrible possibilities.

The little settlement at Plymouth never amounted to much, as the first permanent colony in the New England area. But it will long stand bright and shiny as a symbol of faith and courage. After all, here in 1970, do we Americans need anything more?

How To Choose A Political Party

With the voter registration taking place, many people are perturbed that they had to declare their political party. Of course, one had to call for either a Republican or Democratic ballot at the primary elections, and in this way one went on record as to his political choice. There are other ways to tell a Republican from a Democrat without going to the bother of checking registrations. In order to clarify the matter the following differences should be noted.

Democrats buy most of the books that are banned somewhere. Republicans form censorship committees and read them as a group. Democrats give their worn out clothes to those less fortunate. Republicans wear theirs.

Republicans employ exterminators. Democrats step on bugs.

Democrats keep trying to quit smoking, but are not successful. Neither are Republicans.

Republicans keep their shades drawn, although there is seldom any reason why they should. Democrats ought to but don't.

Republicans study the financial pages of the newspaper. Democrats put them in the bottom of the bird cage.

Most of the stuff you see alongside the road has been thrown out of the car window by Democrats. Republicans give theirs to their relatives.

Republican boys date Democrat girls. They plan to marry Republican girls, but feel they are entitled to a little fun first.

Democrats plan, and then do something else. Republicans do what their grandfathers did.

Republicans sleep in twin beds—some even in separate rooms. That's why there are more Democrats.

We trust that this has helped those who have not made a choice to do so.

If you are one of that vanishing breed of Texans that still till the soil for a living, you had better pick up a copy and start plowing through this year's tax problems. You may be interested in a copy even though you simply live on a farm, work for wages or a salary, and farm for food—and maybe a little profit.

Actually the Farmers Tax Guide is as valuable for the city dweller who owns a farm and does his farming through the windshield of his car as it is for the on-the-farm dweller. The price is right—it's free.

Estelline Bears Lose Out In District Bid

The Estelline Bears, battled aggressively, but were unable to prevent a brilliant performance by Guthrie's Dwayne Pettiet, a 189-lb. senior halfback and linebacker, losing the showdown for the district championship 58 to 32, Friday night.

The Bears took command of the contest in the early stages, forcing two fumbles by the Jaguars to lead the contest by 16 to 6 at one point in the first half.

There was little question that both teams came to play their best in trying to decide the championship. Guthrie drew first blood on a 50-yd. run by Roy Keith around left end as the football was faked to Pettiet, a hard runner to bring down, and pitched back to Keith. Keith tried for the two-point conversion and was met by the Bears defensive line and thrown back short of the goaline. The score was 6-0.

The Bears, the first time they got their hands on the ball, called on converted lineman, Steve Pardue, to make 12 yards on two carries for a first down. Then the Bears were stopped and Paul Bryant punted the ball to the Guthrie 14-yd. line.

On the next play, a fumble resulted and Estelline's No. 60, Roland Trevino, recovered it for Estelline. HB Doug Fowler found running room for five yards to the 7-yd. line. Then, QB Bryant carried for 4, and on a third down, HB Pardue plowed his way over for the tying score. On the point after, QB Bryant passed to End Jackie Morris for the two-point conversion and Estelline went ahead, 8 to 6.

The Bears kicked off to Guthrie and downed the receiver on the Guthrie 27. On the next play, a fumble was recovered by the Bears and Estelline had the ball on the Jaguars' 27.

Bryant picked up 5 yards on the option play. Then, Fowler was met at the line of scrimmage. On the third down, Bryant again found End Morris open in the right flat for a big gain to the Jaguars' 9-yd. line.

Pardue made seven big yards to the Guthrie 2-yd. line. Then, an infraction moved the ball back five yards. A pass went incomplete, the play before Bob Collins carried on a sweep around right end, saw daylight inside and scampered for the goaline knifing over. QB Bryant passed to End Richard Holland for the two-point conversion and the Bears led by a 16 to 6 score.

The Jaguars came back and scored on a 20-yd. pass from Roy Keith to Jimmy Green and Pettiet carried for the conversion making the score 16 to 14, at the end of the first quarter.

The Jaguars took advantage of an Estelline fumble on the Bears three-yd. line which Pettiet recovered, with Pettiet carrying over on the next play to go into the lead 20 to 16. Pettiet was stopped on the extra point try.

The Bears received the next kickoff, but on the first scrimmage play, fumbled the ball to Guthrie on their own 38. Two plays netted Guthrie a minus six yards. But then, Guthrie's center snapped the ball between the quarterback's legs to FB Pettiet, who faked a pass play, then ran with the football for 17 yards and a first down. Pettiet began engineering the touchdown drive, and scored from 7-yards out four plays later. He passed for the two-point conversion to make the score 28 to 16.

The Bears gambled on a 4th and 1 situation and lost the ball to Guthrie on their own 35 after the kickoff. With only a short time on the scoreboard clock, the Jaguars scored again and held a 34 to 16 halftime lead.

In the second half, Guthrie scored three times, one a 52-yd. carry by Pettiet on the first play after the half when Guthrie took possession. Pettiet passed for two, 2-point conversions and scored the second TD from four yards out.

The Bears came back and scored on a 63-yd. drive engineered by QB Paul Bryant who hit End Richard Holland for 18 yards. FB Fowler got loose for a 10-yd. gain to the Guthrie 35. Collins picked up eight yards in two plays, then QB Bryant passed to Jackie Morris who broke a tackle and raced across the goaline from 27 yards out. Bryant passed to Holland for the conversion to give Estelline 24 points.

Guthrie scored again before Estelline mounted its final drive of the night.

Beginning on the Estelline 5, Holland caught a Bryant pass for 8 yards, then Pardue carried for good yardage to the Estelline 23. On the next play, Bryant to Morris pass combination gained 33 yards to the Guthrie 24. Bryant hit Morris again to give Estelline a first down on the 9-yd. line.

BEARS FOOTBALL SWEETHEART—Estelline senior Debbie Bowman was overcome with emotion when Bear Captains Paul Bryant (No. 10) and Gene Bruce (No. 61) crowned her 1970 football sweetheart in pre-game ceremonies last Friday night. Miss Bowman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bowman of Estelline.

Steve Pardue carried for four yards, then Bryant passed to Holland in the endzone for the TD. Bryant ran the conversion over and Estelline finished the game with 32 points.

The loss was a heartbreaker for the Bears who hoped to overcome Guthrie and advance into the state play-offs. Guthrie won the Regional title last year and with the victory over Estelline will again advance into the play-offs.

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

Last month the Congress passed my Communicable Disease Control Bill. The President then signed into law this vital piece of health legislation. This is the Inoculation or Vaccination or Immunization Bill.

This week I want to tell you just what this bill means to our State of Texas. The Texas Office of Comprehensive Health Planning recently released a report on certain communicable diseases in Texas. This report shows that Texas has the highest rate of polio and measles in the country.

While Texas has just 5.5 per cent of the nation's population, Texas had 50 per cent of all the diphtheria cases reported in all of the fifty states. Texas had 42 per cent of all polio cases. The rate of polio and measles in Texas is three times as high as the national average and the rate of diphtheria in Texas is nine times as high as the national average.

The study by the Health Planning Department covered 12 different diseases. Taking the overall ranking of the 12 diseases, Texas had the worst rate of communicable diseases; that is, we had the highest percentage of people suffering from communicable diseases of any State in the Union. This is not a first for Texas to be proud of. It is doubly tragic when you realize there are ways to protect against most of these diseases. And most of these are child diseases, and our children are suffering with measles, with diphtheria, and many of them will be crippled for life as a result of it.

Protection against these diseases is what my Communicable Disease Control Bill is about.

My bill authorizes a two-year program of grants of money by the Federal Government to the different states to fight these diseases. My bill provides for programs to fight diphtheria, measles, polio, rubella, or German measles, and other communicable diseases.

With a good program of vaccinations, we could prevent such things as the outbreak of diphtheria in San Antonio this year.

Last year in Texas there were 3,000 cases of rubella, commonly called the German measles. This disease is often not serious itself, or not taken seriously, but is dangerous if it strikes an expectant mother. When a pregnant woman gets rubella, there is one chance in four that her child will be born with a serious birth defect, or other serious physical defect, such as blindness or mental retardation.

There was a rubella epidemic in 1964. That epidemic in 1964 resulted in more than 20,000 children being born in this country with birth defects. In 1964, there was no vaccine against rubella. Today we have such a vaccine. My bill will get this protection to expectant mothers before an epidemic is hit with another rubella epidemic. And such an epidemic is forecast for next year.

My bill establishes these programs of protection. These programs must now get high priority for federal funds.

The high rate of communicable disease in Texas shows how our state needs my bill. But other communicable diseases do not remain state lines. The only way to fight these diseases is with a national program—a program which offers protection plans to all states. This is what my bill—which is signed into law by President Johnson—offers.

Beta Sigma Phi Of Childress To Have Autograph Party For John T. Forbis

John T. Forbis, Jr., will be honored by the Childress Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at an autograph party to be held on Sunday, Nov. 22, from 2 to 4 p. m. Proceeds from the sale of Forbis' new book that date will be added to the chapter's scholarship fund.

Childress Attorney Forbis has written a book entitled: "What Parents Should Know About Horses," which is being published by the Hodovan Corporation of Houston, publishers of Horseman magazine.

Former District Attorney of the 10th Judicial District, Forbis became horse owner by sheer necessity in his early adventures as father of a zealous young horse-woman put him in the same boat with thousands of other parents: He had to learn a lot about horses in a hurry and he had to do it the hard way, by personal experience.

"Though I was reared in the Texas Panhandle town of Wellington," he says, "I didn't know that a bridle was or where to buy one."

His education in horse ownership began in 1962 and "during the eight years that followed the ownership of the first pony, I have been stepped on, kicked at, slobbered on and generally entertained by some of the sorriest and some of the best horses in West Texas."

At the encouragement of friends and Horseman magazine editors, Forbis began to put his experiences on paper in 1970, and those who read them recognized their potential value to thousands of uninformed parents of horse crazy youngsters, and as sheer entertainment for everyone who enjoys reading.

There has been another dividend already for the Forbis family: "By hauling horses literally thousands of miles to 4-H shows, my daughter and I have met and closely associated with the best people on earth—horse people."

Anyone wishing a copy of the book, and unable to attend the autograph party, may have a copy reserved by contacting Mrs. Omer Johnsey, Box 828, Childress.

Mrs. Johnsey states that members of Alpha Delta Omega Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi are grateful to Atty. Forbis for allowing them this opportunity of adding to their scholarship fund.

The autograph party, to be held at the Woman's Department Club in Childress, is the second major scholarship fund project to be held by the Beta Sigma Phi of Childress.

Baptist WMS On Missions Meets For Prog.

The Women's Missionary Society met at the First Baptist Church Tuesday, Nov. 24, for the foreign mission study on Taiwan.

The study was opened with prayer, led by Mrs. J. W. Fitzjarrald. Across the front of the room was a most interesting and eye-catching display of Chinese articles and pictures, some of which were sent by Mrs. J. W. Chappell's daughter, Mrs. Virginia Saban, who is in Misawa, Japan.

Mrs. Henry Hays reviewed the book of Taiwan in her most capable manner. It was brought out that when the Chinese government was forced to flee from China to Taiwan, formerly called Formosa, they took along with them their arts, talents and education. Mrs. Byron Baldwin closed the study with prayer.

Attending were Meses. Frank Ellis, Minnie Voyles, Theodore Swift, Byron Baldwin, J. W. Fitzjarrald, H. H. Lindsey, Hulda Wilson, W. R. Parker, Ward Gurley, Henry Hays, W. E. Billington, Ida Hutcherson, W. M. Kilpatrick and one guest, Mrs. J. W. Chappell.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Deep Plowing is Effective Prevention of Plant Disease
Incorporation of crop residue into the soil by deep plowing is an effective means of preventing a carryover of disease causing organisms, explains County Agent W. B. Hooser.

In peanut production, for example, deep burial of crop residue will reduce the amount of southern blight and Cercospora leaf spot in succeeding peanut crops. Both of these diseases are common in the peanut growing areas of Texas, Hooser says.

Plowing under large amounts of organic matter was substantially reduced losses from cotton root rot, he noted. Many cotton growers have found this practice works well where a three-year rotation is used. A cotton-grain sorghum-small grain rotation gives the grower the opportunity to deep plow after the sorghum or small grain crops are harvested, or both.

Many disease-causing organisms which affect cotton can also be carried over from year to year in the soil. These include the bacterium which causes angular leaf spot or bacterial blight and fungi which cause seedling disease. Diseases from both these organism types will be lessened by burying the organic matter as deep in the soil as is practical, explains the county agent.

IT'S THANKSGIVING. BUT WHAT IF YOU HAVE NO BLESSINGS TO COUNT?

Consider for a moment. Suppose you were the poorest man in all America. Without shoes. Adequate clothing or housing. Without education. Ill fed. Sick. Maligned. What would you have to be thankful for while most of the rest of America was sitting down to a fat turkey dinner? You would still have the breath of God in your lungs. You would still have that most beautiful gift of all gifts, the ability to hope. You would still possess God's love. But very probably, since you're reading this newspaper, you're not the poorest man in all America. It's likely you have a television set. A warm bed to sleep in.

A happy feast to share with relatives and friends this Thanksgiving Day. In short—lucky you—you do, indeed have a lot to thank God for. And while you're thanking God, don't forget to thank Him for yet another gift He's given you. The ability to help others. The desire to share. To open your heart and your hand and your mind to someone, somewhere, who just might not be quite as lucky as you are. Think. If everybody exercised this wonderful gift, imagine how much more this old world would have to be thankful for on Thanksgiving, 1971!

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your CAPITOL

JUSTIN—Heads of the Texas Education Agency have set priorities for public schools during the next two years. This includes additional state and local funds at more than $362 million. Highest priority must be assigned to implementing those major educational acts of the 1969 Legislature, says Dr. J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education.

Listed these acts as the 1969 compensation (long-range pay raise) plan, a kindergarten program for five-year-olds, comprehensive special education programs, expansion of technical educational programs and refinement of the teacher retirement program are projected over the next seven-year period.

As desirable as new or accelerated programs may be, says Ed. Board of Education, more experience is needed in the 1969 acts and more opportunity should be allowed to use available resources in pre-authorized goals.

"Directed priority," says the Commissioner, "goes to carrying out recommendations of a committee on changes in school financing plans, with a view to equalizing funds assigned as the local foundation costs."

More than $2 billion will be for public elementary and secondary education this year. Next year in $2.6 billion, 2,728,000 pupils now are enrolled, and 2,760,000 will be in the next year.

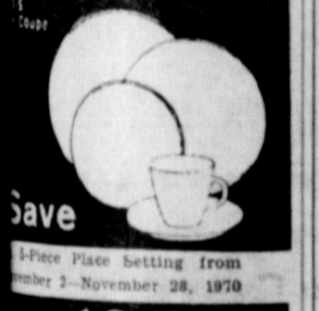

Cost of existing programs for year alone will increase $156 million, while new programs will cost an estimated $25 million.

Courts Speak

The Supreme Court will hear arguments on January 13 as to whether a narcotics case can be heard in joint jurisdiction of criminal and probate courts through the mental health code. In the case, a mother tried to commit her daughter who had been seen on a narcotics violation to a hospital for addiction treatment.

Other recent cases the High Court argued for January include a $35,000 damage lawsuit filed by parents of a young

State Railroad Commission ordered a cut in December statewide oil allowable to 83.5 percent of potential, from the high 87.3 percent factor.

Action followed four consecutive monthly increases. December limit would allow a maximum production of 3,815,992 barrels of crude daily. That is a reduction from this month's 3,954,193-barrel maximum.

'3.76 In '76' Program Is Receiving Much Attention Over State Of Texas

A topic getting much attention these days in Hall County as well as the entire state has to do with a new program initiated by the Agricultural Extension Service. It is the "3.76 in '76" program designed to help Texas' great agricultural industry achieve its full potential.

Specifically, explains County Agent W. B. Houser, it will intensify Extension educational activities to bring about an increase in cash income, including government payments, to Texas farmers and ranchers by $1 billion by the year 1976. The program, he adds, is designed to increase both the gross and net income of producers.

Too, a principal objective is to reduce the gap existing between knowledge and practice through the coordinated application of improved production and marketing practices available from research and proven demonstrations.

Another objective, the county agent says, is to utilize more appropriately and completely resources potentials of each agricultural production area of the state. Also to improve the power and performance of Texas agricultural products in the market place and bring greater confidence in the future to the state's farmers and ranchers.

The county agent notes that other agencies and organizations working to improve Texas agriculture have endorsed and are lending their full support to the effort.

Annual production goals for such economically important agricultural enterprises in each county are being established. Guidelines for the use of producers, outlining the practices which can bring the projected production to reality, are now becoming available.

It will take a great deal of teamwork and considerable changing of production and management practices to achieve the desired goal. But, concludes the county agent, all Texans and especially farm and ranch families stand to greatly benefit from the program.

FOR BETTER HEALTH

Cancer patients in Texas are being aided by information collected by the Texas State Department of Health in its Cancer Registry.

While previous research into cancer is of great benefit to those with the disease today, the future holds more promise because of information being collected on cancer, its treatment and follow-through examinations.

"One of the primary purposes of the Cancer Registry," said Dr. W. S. Brumage, Chief of Special Health Services of the Texas State Department of Health, "is to follow up cancer patients through their family physicians and hospitals to determine the quality and length of care and survival. Continuation of care to the cancer patient is of primary importance." He said this necessitates a lifetime follow-up and periodic examinations.

The Registry hopefully can provide us with information as to what is the best type of care, he said. This includes surgery, radiation, chemotherapy or a combination of these. This can be of vital concern to cancer patients of the future," said Dr. Brumage.

The Registry had its start in 1949 and was housed at M. D. Anderson Hospital in Houston. It operated under sponsorship of the Texas Cancer Coordination Council and was composed of volunteer hospitals which provided records of cancer cases and follow-up exams. On the council were the State Health Department, M. D. Anderson Hospital, Texas Medical Association, Texas Dental Association and Texas Division, American Cancer Society.

In 1959 the State Health Department took over sponsorship and designed a local hospital cancer registry booklet. A manual, "Year Hospital Cancer Registry Guide," provides each participating hospital with suggestions to use in collecting uniform data about the patient, the disease, treatment and follow-up. One part of the disease of major importance is its location in the body and the stage of the disease at the patient reported for treatment—whether localized, with regional involvement or remote metastasis.

Dr. Brumage said the local hospital or clinic is the base on which the Registry is built. This optional procedure is approved by the American College of Surgeons. He noted that many hospitals the services of the Cancer Heart Division. Some use the reporting forms and although they may not be a part of the Registry program, we count them also, said Dr. Brumage.

Information from the participating hospital or clinic is put on the Texas State Department computer. More than 100,000 cases are on the Registry. Some 30,000 new cancer cases were reported in Texas in 1969.

Texas has 207,446 productive oil wells in 4,700 fields.

Do not know how many of the Lawrence Welk television last Saturday but if you did not see it you are missing one of the outstanding programs of the year. It was on television. It makes you stop and think that you are proud to live in America even though we need a more improvement to make it a better place for our forefathers planned it. We tried to keep it that way, but progress and education are muddled up a little, but the duty of every individual is to make it a better place to think of the lady from a foreign country that made a nurse. A few months ago with a state of about 40 thousand and in her will she left 36 million to the government of the United States, thanking them for the care of her while living in this country. Of course I still with Winifred Moore that the "Golden Spread" are living the best part of the world. About 150 youth in the First Baptist Church of Dallas last Sunday and with Ed and a choir of about 65 members. We see that all of our young people do not have their hearts on evil, but for good, and will offset a lot of newspaper news we get on delinquents. We see the youth have a great opportunity to help make America a better land.

The co-operative spirit we have showed up Sunday night in Thanksgiving service at the First Baptist Church with an overflowed of 5 to 6 different denominations, but all looking to God. This was one of the best Thanksgiving services I have ever seen.

noticed in the local paper days ago that Bro E. C. Campbell had passed away at the age of 98 years. He was pastor of the Presbyterian Church here for many years and I feel that one of the best tributes that could be given to him would be the shortest eulogy ever given Jesus Christ. "He went about doing good." Respect of denomination, he was a father to everyone he came in contact with while here. He was loved by all.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. (Jake) Roberts of Abilene visiting in Heritage Hall the past Saturday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Roberts were born and reared in Hall County. Frances Denny is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Denny (Courtney son of a pioneer family passed away in 1940) Her mother, Ora Long Denny is "up and at 'em" and very active. Frances graduated from MHS with the 1929 class. Jake graduated in the 1927 MHS class and attended college at A&M. He and Frances married in 1932 and moved to Abilene in 1934. Jake is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bob Roberts, who moved to Hall County in 1908. Bob passed away in 1960 and Mrs. Roberts in 1970. Jake was named for J. C. Montgomery, one of the founders of Memphis. Bob bought his first farm from J. C. Montgomery. Some of the memories Jake had of his early days were when his father brought him to town on Saturday to take him in the bank where he would sit on Mr. Montgomery's lap and look at the wolf in the bank, the same one we have in Heritage Hall now. He remembered Mr. Montgomery gave him a namesake a calf when he was a small boy. Jake has only worked for one concern since finishing his college work. He is now in his 41st year with the highway department of Texas. Jake and Frances have one son, Denny Roberts, who is married and now living in Dallas.

We asked Jake and Frances what they thought of Heritage Hall so they stated three things: 1. Unbelievable as to collection, 2. Excellent as to arrangement, 3. Everlasting interest for posterity. He also stated that we had a much better museum here than they had in Anchorage, Alaska, a town of 46 thousand where he and Frances visited a few weeks ago. I asked Jake what he thought of the old home town when he comes back here and he replies, "Well, it is pretty lonesome to me since my father and mother passed away, but the town shows progressive people live here." Jake and Frances made a contribution to Heritage Hall which we appreciate very much. We have several donors from Abilene who graduated from high school and still have love in their hearts for the old home town.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff D. Ray of Oklahoma City in Heritage Hall the past week. Mrs. Ray will be remembered by most of you as Frances Finch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Finch who now live in Oklahoma City. Frances brought into Heritage Hall a "momeestic" sewing machine owned by her mother, whose own baby clothes were made on this machine by her mother, the late Mrs. Mary Bonham in Burlington, Kans., in 1883. The machine was originally owned by Mrs. Bonham and has been in the Finch family since 1908. A beaded purse owned by Frances' grandmother for display in Heritage Hall was a special copy of the Funk and Wagnalls new standard dictionary dedicated and inscribed to Howard A. Finch signed A. W. Wagnall, president of the company, dated Dec. 13, 1913. This dictionary is five or six inches thick and contains 2,915 pages. Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Ray for these items to add to our display.

A. G. Callahan of Selma, Calif., visiting in Heritage Hall for a short time while visiting with his mother, Cora Powell McMickin who is seriously ill in Hall County Hospital. A. G. is a Hall County product.

Visiting in Heritage Hall were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. (Shorty) Spear of Lakeview and had as their guests their two daughters from Amarillo, Pauline Spear Harper and Meriel Regdon. Mr. and Mrs. Spear moved from Tulia to Hall County January of 1929. Mr. Spear has worked for Hall County the past 32 years, first worked under Mr. McMaster who was commissioner of Precinct No. 2, and for the past 22 years Mr. Spear has held the office of commissioner of this precinct. They have the two daughters, four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. The last great-grandchild was born in Spain. Mrs. Spear brought in for Heritage Hall display a quilt made by her mother, Mrs. J. H. Watts in 1880 in the state of Georgia. A lot of hours of labor put in on this quilt as this was made in the old days when people were not in a hurry to go some place.

A. D. (Dewey) Britt from Estelline in Heritage Hall last week for the first time and he said he was surprised to find so many displays in so short a time. The Britt family moved to Hall County in 1913, and their were 11 children in the family and Dewey is the only one of them in Hall County now. He owns the homeplace now where they first settled west of Estelline. In going over the early days, he remembered how his three sisters used to train the

Gene Jorgenson To Hold Revival At Wellington

Rev. Gene Jorgenson of Kermit, Tex., former pastor of the First Baptist Church in Memphis, will be holding revival services at First Baptist Church in Wellington, it was announced this week by Rev. Bob Sandlin, pastor.

The revival will start Monday, Nov. 30, and will end with services on Sunday, Dec. 6. Daily services will start at 7:30 p. m. Music for the revival will be led by Doyle Fowler of Memphis, music director of Faith Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Greene left Tuesday for Jefferson City, Mo., where they will be guests of Mrs. Greene's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Mansur. The family is planning a reunion for the Thanksgiving holiday. The Greene's three children will meet them there as well as several of Mrs. Greene's sisters and their families.

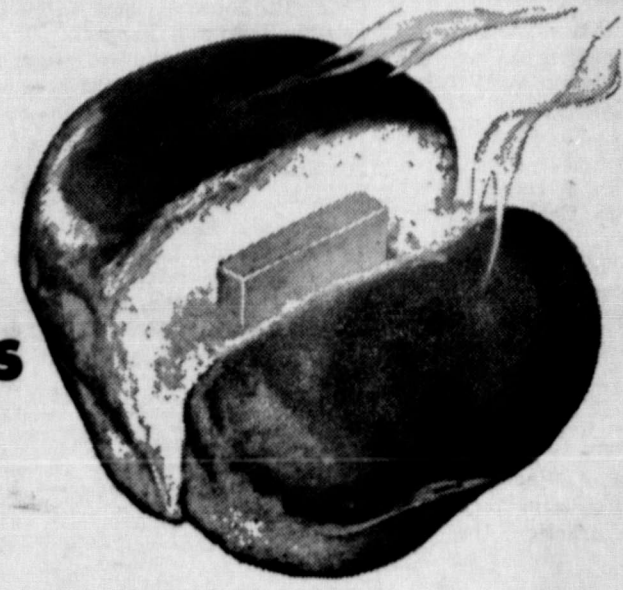

calves to ride, and they would see Pete Rigby coming down the road on his horse, these girls would get on the calves and ride them down the road to meet him. He also remembered when the Mill Iron cowboys would stop at their place and come in and listen to the girls play the organ and sing for an hour or two. These cowboys did not forget the entertainment as when they killed a beef they would come by and leave them some of this good beef. I will try to give more on the Britt family later when Dewey gives me the information.

In reading one of the daily newspapers, a would-be robber in St. Paul, Minn., who came in for money, got a religious counselling instead. Donna Jane, 18, a candy store cashier, said a man ordered her to put all the money in a bag or lose your life. She told him, "In Jesus name, don't take this money. God has something for you." And he left the store without the money!

A statement from Washington, D. C. the other day made us think that one of the ten commandments was on the way out as they stated that there would be six hundred million dollars worth of shop lifting in the U. S. in 1970. In the Thanksgiving service

Sunday night, Rev. McGarrity stated that Thanksgiving was planned for the end of the harvest, but so far here this year the only one I have heard of who was through with their harvest was

Dick Fowler, who had picked his room who was being questioned and they asked him if he was married? And he replied, "No it was a car that hit me."

of Farmers Union to whom he had talked by telephone from Vernon that afternoon: "We hate to lose, but I am glad to see the side of the farmers."

The state president said that bill as passed will cause farmers of the Rolling Plains area to lose $150,000,000 on cotton alone.

"Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin has more power than any other secretary under this new bill. You need to read it to get the full impact," Naman said.

Cotton farmers in Hall County in 1971 will lose $628,000 below what they would have gotten with an extension of the present farm program, he said, adding, "In 1972, at four cents per pound loss, then in 1973 at seven cents per pound loss, which would mean a total of $2,592,000 for the three years, under terms of the bill, according to an estimated production for your county."

In discussing the overall economic picture, Naman said that each dollar received by the farmer means a six-dollar turnover in each community, adding that this is of utmost importance to every businessman and community leader.

He stated that he thought the President would sign the Farm Bill within a very short time.

Pointing to other facets of production, he predicted that feed grain growers would lose under the program which is coming. "On the other side of the ledger, Congress passed a half billion dollar subsidy to be given to the shipping industry of this nation. I am not for downgrading the income of our farmers," he added. "Farm programs are in the public interest," Pres. Naman told the audience. "They are important to democratic structure of this nation, and should be recognized as one of our basic facts."

He stated that parity is a bedrock issue with the Farmers Union, and it is taken out in the new Farm Bill. "The elimination of the loan on cotton as a price support is a feature of the new bill, because Secretary Hardin will have authority to issue directive regarding it. The diversion payments are in a similar position. There will be no more referendums. You can produce all the cotton you want. This bill will destroy management of cotton production. Allotments will be depreciated tremendously under the new law."

In pointing to the future, he added, "I think we can redeem ourselves in 1971. We'll have more friends in Congress, some with new faces. We must work to get this new bill amended, and get some of the things we are losing."

"I believe our farmers will become better informed on all these things. We need more people to understand what the bill will do to farmers like you. You can help us turn this fiasco," he concluded.
