5 County Athletes Qualify For State

Despite unusually stiff competition at Regional UIL Class B and Class A competition, Hall County schools qualified a few athletes to represent them at Austin in the state meet.

Regional victories were captured by Lakeview in girls doubles tennis, and Estelline in girls singles tennis.

Track qualifiers were in field events from Memphis and Turkey. The Lakeview girls doubles team of Brenda Smith and Susie Sams were determined to play their best and swept the regional tennis meet, giving up only two games, and these to the regional champion team last year from Bronte.

Jan Rapp of Estelline managed to dominate her opponents to capture the Class B singles title.

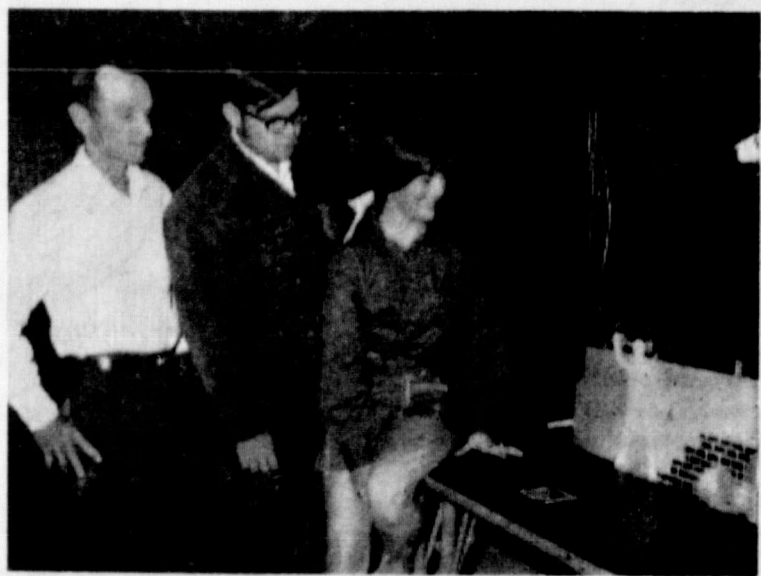

Memphis' long jumper, Tommy Johnson set a new school record with a measured leap of 22'1" to place second in that event behind Spur's Benny Ball who jumped 22'10 1/2". Johnson will go to the state meet.

Turkey's high jumper, Dan Davis, cleared the bar at 6'1-3" to place second behind Danny Cooper of Bronte who set a new Class B regional record record at 6'3-4".

The Smith-Sams duo defeated a Union tennis team 6-0, 6-0, then met defending region champions from Bronte and downed them 6-1, 6-1, in the semi-finals. In the finals, Lakeview defeated Meadow 6-0, 6-0 to capture the regional trophy.

Jan Rapp defeated a Valmorrehea girl 6-3, 6-2 in the semi-finals, and downed a girl from Tornillo 6-3, 6-2 to capture the regional title.

Memphis FFA, FHA Chapters Attend Program Monday On Electric Shock

Memphis FFA and FHA chapters Monday, April 26, were presented an electric shock demonstration by Joe Smetana, safety director of Texas Farm Bureau.

The program was sponsored by Hall County Farm Bureau, and President Leon Helm was on hand as were other members.

In a 45-minute demonstration, Smetana showed that nobody is safe from electric shock. He said, "so don't let your body complete an electric circuit."

Using special visual effects and a model home, electric current was traced from the generator, through transformers, transmission lines, service entrance and "oversized" wall outlets. Hazardous accident producing situations were pointed out both inside and outside the home.

After 23 Years—

Farmer Retiring As Chamber Mgr.

Clifford Farmer, manager of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce for the past 23 years, has announced his resignation from the post effective July 1. His tenure as full-time manager of the Memphis organization is one of the longest in the state.

Applications for the position are being sought, Lester H. Campbell, Memphis chamber president, has stated, and must be received not later than May 5. The chamber plans to take action soon on Farmer's replacement to enable the new manager to become better acquainted with the office.

Farmer, whose background prior to entering chamber work consisted of newspaper and other writing, plans to devote his future efforts to his western paintings. He already has several showings planned following the completion of his current duties. A native of Missouri, Farmer came to Memphis as chamber manager in March, 1948. In Missouri, he was in the dairy business and had a herd of registered cattle. He served as farm editor of the Springfield, Mo., Daily News for some time, and prior to that he was editor of the Missouri Ruralist. He has had articles in a number of publications, including Outdoor Life, Texas Parks and Wildlife magazine, and Farmer and Stockman.

The retiring manager is well known throughout the central United States. He is a former president of the Highway 287 Association, and is currently serving as secretary of the Palo Duro Scenic Road Association. He is a member of the Memphis Lions Club and Presbyterian Church.

14,000 Acres Purchased—

Del Norte Grazing Assn. Buys Hall County Land

Last Wednesday was a big day for 24 Texas ranchers who have formed the Del Norte Grazing Association for that was the day the association received $809,700.00 Farmers Home Administration insured loans to purchase 14,000 acres of Leonard Farms land located in south Hall County.

The FHA loan was approved for development of a grazing area and was announced by J. Lynn Black. The loan funds and an additional $21,600.00 contributed by association members enabled the Del Norte Grazing Association to purchase the land.

This grazing development is expected to add around $40,000 yearly to the area's economy along with strengthening the family farms of the association members who will share use of the grazing area to improve their livestock production.

The 14,000 acres was previously owned by Leonard Farms, and Donald Black of Childress represented the Leonard family in the sale of the property.

On hand at the Bronze Room of the First National Bank here last Wednesday to complete the transactions were: Charles Hoover, president, and James Gentry, secretary, of the Del Norte Assn., John Chamberlain, attorney for the association, Donald Black of Childress, Ralph Owens, a Hereford realtor, Ken Carey of Peoples State Bank of Turkey, and representing F. H. A., Jim Criswell of Temple, Claude Moore of Clarendon and James Chappell of Memphis.

Other members of the grazing association were also present to witness the transaction. Most of the members are from the Hereford area.

Mr. Futch of FHA emphasized that the project for developing much needed grazing land in the Texas Panhandle section was made possible by the cooperation of a number of individuals, groups and agencies.

Organizations working with the sponsoring association were the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service and Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

During the area's development 3,280 acres of brush will be sprayed, 700 acres of cropland will be reseeded to range grasses, 13 water facilities will be added, new corrals will be built and scales will be installed. The older windmills will be repaired and put in better working order. The existing barns and dwellings will be maintained.

The loan will be made for a period of 40 years at an interest rate of five per cent, Mr. Futch reported.

Education Costs!

From grade school through college, education is becoming a costly, complicated business.

Education at all levels is affected by any sort of economic slowdown, and on the college level the rising costs are making it impossible for some families to meet.

If the trend continues, college is going to be put out of reach of millions of American families.

Today it costs up to $4,000 a year to attend a university. The private institutions which have to charge large tuition fees are finding enrollment applications are down. State Schools, which are supported by the taxpayers, are also boosting charges to students because of rising costs.

The latest indication is the move in Texas to raise tuition in University of Texas schools to pay for construction of college buildings over the state.

At a state school in Texas these days, a student can count on spending at least $2,000 for a nine month school year and this is a conservative cost. The forecast made on the state level shows that private schools in Texas will have to charge $8,000 a year by the end of this decade and that state schools will have to double their costs.

On a national average, it is estimated that a bachelor's degree at a first rank university costs a student about $22,000 and a doctorate costs up to $47,000.

It requires a fourth to a half of an average family's income to pay expenses at most colleges if the student lives on campus.

It appears that the sheer economics of securing a college education will eventually solve the problem of overcrowding. If costs continue to climb, it will simply be impossible for papa to foot the bills.

ACROSS THE DESK

What Other Editors Say

Car Insurance: Something New
Own an automobile? Then you have an important stake in the big debate over car insurance.

The central issue is this: Should the present method of insuring motorists be substituted for one under which all accident victims would be compensated for losses without regard for who caused the accident?

Supporters contend that "no-fault" insurance would be cheaper, broader, and fairer, and would take a good bit of the case load off the nation's overburdened courts. Opponents report that no-fault policies might actually cost more, than they could encourage careless driving, and that they would force good drivers to subsidize bad ones.

It should be noted that much of the opposition is coming from certain lawyers and insurance companies that have a vested economic interest in the existing system. Conversely, some insurance companies that have endorsed no-fault might benefit economically from the change. What's more significant is that the no-fault concept has the strong backing of important segments of the public that have no ties to the insurance business or the practice of law. These include the Consumer Federation of America, Consumers Union, and the AFL-CIO.

Nobody, of course, is ecstatic about footing the bills for bad drivers, but there are compelling reasons to believe that doing so would benefit all motorists. Only 45 per cent of all victims of serious traffic injuries now receive any money at all from liability insurance. Those who suffer the worst losses receive the least, on the average, in compensation. On top of this, premium costs are soaring and policies are being canceled at an alarming rate.

A major reason for this intolerable situation is the high cost of determining blame for accidents through litigation. Eliminate the litigation, or most of it, and the cost of insuring motorists should drop appreciably. More important, the savings would help assure adequate and speedy payments for injuries and property damage resulting from accidents.

Certainly this is a desirable social goal. Traffic-negligence lawyers would be hurt, but enriching lawyers is not the purpose of auto insurance. Most no-fault proposals do provide, however, that victims of extraordinary damage or injuries could still sue culpable drivers.

Massachusetts instituted a limited no fault plan in January. Last week Gov. Francis W. Cargent said claim costs have dropped by an average of 36 per cent. He predicted a "future premium cost cut of 25 per cent for bodily-injury insurance."

So let's give no-fault a try nationally. Everybody agrees that something must be done, and no other proposal offers so much promise.

30 YEARS AGO

April 3, 1941

That Hall County will be the next area designated for the cotton stamp plan of the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation was indicated when representatives of Memphis conferred with H. D. Kreyger of the regional food stamp office of Dallas last week-end in Childress. Only a few areas in Texas have been given the cotton stamp plan and Hall County stands at the top of the list in the next group to be given the plan, it was learned.

A total of 1,794 passenger cars, 132 farm trucks, and 186 commercial licenses for 1941 have been sold, J. M. Ferrel, county tax assessor-collector, said this week.

A one-day instruction school for all P. T. A. officers and incoming officers will be held at the courthouse in Memphis next Tuesday it was announced this week.

She was only 65 bales from the correct answer, much closer than previous winners.

The 1932 Culture Club of Estelline held the second March meeting in the home of Mrs. C. L. Sloan. After a short business session conducted by Mrs. Hulen Clifton an Irish program was presented. ### S. S. Beneficiaries May Have To File Earning Report

Most social security beneficiaries who earned over $1680 in 1970 must file an annual report of their earnings with the Social Security Administration.

The deadline for filing the report is April 15, 1971, according to Travis C. Briggs, manager of the Amarillo Social Security office. Briggs emphasized that the report was needed in addition to any federal or state tax return.

Unless a beneficiary was age 72 or older all months of 1970 or is receiving disability benefits, he is required to file an annual report for last year if his earnings were over $1680. Earnings are defined as wages plus any self-employment income. Pensions, interest, dividends from stock, etc., are not considered as earnings for social security purposes.

Briggs said the purpose of social security benefits is to replace earnings lost due to retirement, death, or disability. If a beneficiary continues to earn over an allowable amount, which is currently $1680, then some adjustment is made in the amount of his benefits. One dollar of his benefits is withheld for every two dollars earned between 1680 and $2880. If he earns over $2880 he loses one dollar for each dollar earned over that amount. Briggs said the annual report is used to determine whether or not payments made were correct and if not to make necessary adjustments.

Ginger ale was originated by chemists to use as a substitute for ginger beer for British troops in India.

The Weddells moved into Memphis and Richard went to work for the Bradley 3 Ranch in Childress County but, in 1964, Jay made a tour of the Aberdeen Angus Show circuit with Richard traveling from Shreveport to Ogden, Utah.

Following the death of his beloved mother, Jay moved to Dallas, joined the Steel Workers' Union and began work for Henry C. Beck & Co., where his brother, Evetts (Dink) was foreman of a crew of workmen. Even later, he was employed by Kugler-Morris construction engineers.

The sixth of eight children, Jay through the years chose to stay with his parents. Except for a brother killed in World War II, the others have established homes for themselves. Though so far, Jay has escaped matrimony, he is not impervious to feminine charms. But, not being seriously in love, Jay found that his work and monthly visits to Amarillo to see his father in a rest home there and his two sisters still left him some spare time.

So, two years ago, he decided to put his spare time to constructive use with the study of musical theory by correspondence with the U. S. School of Music in Fort Washington, New York, and thus through formal training increase his knowledge and appreciation of music in general and the violin in particular. Recently, J. C. Weddell received his Certificate of Award on completion of this course of study with a grade of 97 on his final paper. And, the recipient is rightfully proud of this written evidence of time and money well spent.

A modest fellow by nature as to his talents, Jay Weddell seldom plays for an audience and never entered a fiddlers' contest. A. C. (Eck) Robertson, one of the great break-down fiddlers of this area, had been a continuous inspiration to Jay and he knew what he liked in music but not why he liked it until he was exposed to musical theory.

All of which goes to prove, one should never underestimate the capabilities of a Texas coyote hunter.

For temporary storage, consider using pole rods and other units that are not fastened to the ceiling, walls, or floor. When you move, you can take them down and use them in another house.

JAY WEDDELL

Horses And Fiddle Music Fill Spare Time Of Steel Worker, Jay Weddell

By VIRGINIA BROWDER
Ordinarily, it would be a bit difficult to reconcile the combination of horsemanship, fiddle music and the tying together of retirement steel rods on lofty structures such as "One Main Street" in Dallas as activities of a human being. Nor would one expect a self-taught "break-down" fiddle player to undertake the study of musical theory. However, this accurately describes the behavior pattern of J. C. Weddell of Dallas, former of the Texas Panhandle.

The old-time fiddlers could read a note of music but were self-taught and padded their musical repertoire by learning tunes by ear from fellow fiddlers. Many a cowboy kept a fiddle and bow stuffed in a flour sack hanging on the bunkhouse wall. Some never learned the art and others became experts.

Born near Tishamingo, Okla., Jay Weddell, son of G. W. and Gussie Weddell, at an early age moved with his family to Childress County. Five years later, the Weddells settled in Hall County in the Deep Lake community where Jay helped with the farming in the summer and took to the saddle and chasing coyotes in the winter. The bounty on coyotes was a dollar a head and the pelts he shipped to the Mosher Fur Co. in St. Louis, Missouri. While snaring coyotes was not a lucrative business, running them was a great sport which fostered Jay's love of horses and polished his horsemanship.

After a short time in Swisher County near Tullia, the Weddell family moved to Giles in Donley County. By this time, Jay had begun to spend much of his leisure time propped against the side of the house in the shade perfecting his "break-down" fiddle tunes.

In was in 1954 that Jay made friends with another Giles resident, one Richard Stotts and his five-string banjo. Together they spent many a long hour making country music. Later, with Jay's encouragement, Richard became a fine fiddler in his own right. As the years passed, these two buddies went their separate ways but their fast friendship has continued.

It's a simple matter to install a cooling unit to your gas heating system. You can probably use the furnace blower and ductwork you already have. You'll save up to half the installation costs of starting from scratch.

Temperature control in your home is a year-round proposition, but not an expensive one. We have special rates for gas air conditioning during the summer. And no matter what the season, you pay less for gas than electricity.

Another nice thing about gas central air conditioning is its simplicity. There are fewer moving parts. Fewer breakdowns. Fewer repairs.

Wake up your central gas heating to central gas cooling. You'll sleep better this summer.

What You Are

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Jesus Christ" —Philippians 2:5

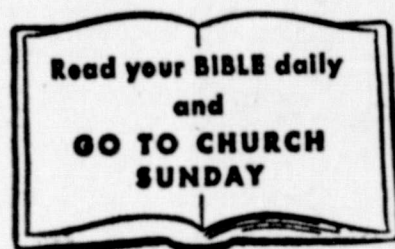

What you think you are, you may not be. You are more likely to be what you think.

Confusing? Let us try it again. The opinion you have of yourself may not be realistic. Others may see you as a quite different person from what you consider yourself to be, from the image you attempt to project. You are what you think. Your thoughts represent the real you.

Examine yourself. How do you feel about religion? About brotherhood? About your neighbor?

Do you attend church because it is the thing to do? Do you publicly support the equality of all men while still clinging to hidden prejudices? Are you nice to your neighbor because you want to keep peace or because he might be helpful to you in some business transaction?

WALT & SKEEZIX say:

B. B. Shots

by BYRON BALDWIN

We had an Aerogramme letter week from Major Sim W. Hall of 16 Roebuck St., Red A.C.T. 2603, Australia. He had in this letter that the day he arrived in Canberra, they met a young lady who is a first cousin of Teddie Jean (Mrs. Mackie) Parker. She was a Parker, raised in Memphis. Judy Parker, the cousin, married to Major Robert Shroeder who works in the same office as Sim. As he stated, "Out of our officers assigned to our office, we have very close friends in Memphis, Texas. You never can tell where someone from our County will show up." From correspondence and return letters here, I think Hall County is out and touches the world. I think of some now living in many, China, Africa, Pakistan, and other countries. I think I should start a list of our representatives from Hall County.

Christianity which was a switch from some of the issues. Then in listening to the talk by Art Linkletter and testimony of Nicky Cruz last Sunday afternoon, it makes you think that we may be taking a face-about for higher things in life what we have had the past few years.

I would like to pay tribute to Ed Shubert who is leaving us here and moving to Amarillo. A part of Ed will remain with us here through his influence with the young people in our town. Not just the young people in our church where he was educational director, but has, I think, influenced in the right way of thinking our whole town of young people. As he lives in these young people after he is away, they will continue to make our community a better place to live in. So, best wishes to Ed and his family wherever they may be in carrying on his work with influence in the right direction.

We had 30 people register in Hall County Heritage Hall the past Saturday. Carolyn Sparks and Mary Ann Lemons of Canyon, Texas, both of these Memphis girls are enrolled in West Texas State.

Mr. and Mrs. David Shafer of Fort Worth, Texas. David is the son of the late Leonard Shafer who passed away in 1929. The Shafer family moved to Hall County in the early days and for several years, they lived on the Texana Wilson land west of Memphis. There were five boys and three girls in this family. Only two of the boys now living, Howard of Arizona and Horace of California. The three girls now living are Clara Fitzgibbons of California, Mary Holland of Hedley and Tex Scott who lives in Memphis. She was named for Texana Wilson. David attended school here in 19-89 and moved from here in 1942. They liked Heritage Hall very much.

Kent Mágness, former resident of Memphis, is now living at Sand

Springs, Okla. Kent was a former manager of the Postex plant here. Kent's wife, Mary, was in town but failed to show up at Heritage Hall. Kent said he wanted to put something on display if we did not have anything like it, and sure enough we did not have it, as it was the first I had seen and it was a rock rose. We now have it on display.

Mae Paul was in the past Saturday and brought one of her keepsakes for display which was an unusual tea set that was given her by a friend and this set is now about 65 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Roberts had as their guests in Heritage Hall Mr. and Mrs. Vestal Daughtry of Quanah and Mrs. M. W. Taylor of Goree. This group of people compared our displays with the ones at Canyon. Mr. and Mrs. Daughtry stated that they had a lot of items gathered up in Quanah to start a museum but so far had not acquired a building that was suitable. Anyway, they were all very complimentary of Hall County Heritage Hall.

The oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wiley, Cecil, and his wife from San Francisco, Calif., were visiting in Heritage Hall a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rasco of El Paso visiting Hall Co. Heritage Hall the past Saturday. A. W. the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Rasco, graduated from M. H. S. in 1940 and left here 31 years ago. He served in the Air Force for 24 years and is now operating a flying club at El Paso. A. W. has one son and two grandsons. His wife, Edna, said she was a native of New York state and A. W. said something about her being a "D. Y.", but she informed me that had been changed to only one word. They both liked our displays very much and would try to get back and see them again soon.

Visiting in Heritage Hall last week was Mrs. Jack Nelson of Estelline. Angie Nelson, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Phillips who moved from Buffalo Gap to Hall County near Lesley on the Clyde Fowler farm. Angie married Jack Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nelson. Jack and Angie graduated with the last class that graduated from high school at Newlin. Some of the other graduates in this class were Woodson Phillips, Bertha Ann Kellison, Leata Crabtree, Jack and Jim Nelson. The mother of Jack Nelson is now living in Estelline, keeping busy all the time and driving her own car. She is the daughter of the late Uncle Bill Morrison. This family I believe I have met six generations of living in Hall County. Mr. Sallie (Morrison) Nelson is the sister of the late Butler Morrison. Jack and Angie have three sons who all graduated from Estelline High School. They have one son in Amarillo, one in Irving and the other son at Lamar, Colo. Angie reported that one of the former teachers at Newlin was Mr. Frank Corey who lives at Carlsbad, N. M.

I had a short visit on the street a few days ago with Mrs. Nettie Betts and Idell (Betts) Burnett who is the wife of the late Clifton Burnett. They are both former residents of Hall County and are now living at Ennis. They reported that they were getting along fine and were asking about a lot of the people they knew here.

Charlie Williams is still sharpening scissors for the ladies if they will bring them in.

I have found out one more thing in life and that is that a geranium has much more life to it than you would think. I witnessed this when one was taken out of the flower pot of dirt last November and hung by its heels in a cellar until April and was reset in soil. In two days it was turning green again with sprouts. If we had the strength and come-back of this plant, it might be some of us would want to be hung up by our heels for a few days with a newness of life, but I would not want to stay in the position of heel hanging for 5 or 6 months. Who knows-it might make hair grow on these bald heads.

One quote I noticed the other day was "Cities now have two kinds of parking left "No" and "Illegal".

It looked like on the screen last Saturday that no one was working in Washington, D. C. and San Francisco as they seemed to all be in the parade march for peace.

Well, it has not been long since we had the pancake races in Liberal, Kans., which gave the ladies a lot of exercise. Now comes another sport over television the past Saturday night that I had never noticed before which was open for both men and women. It was called the cow chip throwing contest.

To start with, the contestants were in line cafeteria style going by the different piles of cow chips, picking out the ones they wanted to throw. This contest was put on at Beaver, Okla., and it must have been a big affair as the governor of Oklahoma was there and threw his chip. His distance was 80 feet. The young fellow who was winning almost doubled the governor as he threw his chip 150 feet. Well, we have rose queens, Miss Cotton, Miss Wool, Miss Wheat and a lot of other beauty queens for different things and I just wondered if we might have a queen called "Miss Cow Chip". Of course, I would not want to be called by this name, but it would give this queen an opportunity to view some of the finest cattle on the range and in the feed lots while locating the best chips for the next contest.

Drivers Of Farm Vehicles Exempt From Regulations Until July 1st

AUSTIN—Drivers of farm vehicles are temporarily exempt from compliance with new safety regulations established by the U. S. Department of Transportation's Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety for drivers involved in interstate commerce. Texas Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White said last week considerable confusion has developed among farm vehicle drivers following adoption of the new safety standards, but that an amendment to the regulations adopted Jan. 1 1971, exempts drivers of farm vehicles for a six-month period until July 1, 1971.

Commissioner White says that according to the amendment, farm vehicle drivers must be 18 years old, rather than 21 as required in the general safety standards, and that other provisions of the regulations—including written examinations, road tests and physical examinations—will not apply.

The vehicle being driven must have a gross weight, including load, of 11,000 pounds or less and is not used in the operations of a for-hire carrier.

White pointed out, however, that farm vehicle drivers are defined as persons who are at least 18 years old, are driving a vehicle controlled and operated by a farmer and are being used to transport produce from the farm or supplies to the farm. In addition, Commissioner White advised all farm vehicle drivers to be aware of the exemption deadline of July 1, 1971, at which time a determination will be made as to the permanent interpretation of the regulations as they apply to farm vehicle drivers. The present interpretation is based on the crossing of state lines by farm vehicles.

feated in an early match in the Class A boys singles.

Lakeview's Lewis Richburg was downed by a boy from Eden, a school which dropped into Class B this year, 8-6, 6-4, in one of the disappointing aspects of the meet in a second round match. The Eden youth went on to win region with no difficulty.

In track there were other disappointments.

Memphis' Lewis Davis, despite giving his best 330-yd. hurdling performance, a 40.2, was edged out by inches by a boy from Vega who placed second. Tiffin of Hale Center won the event with a 39.2 time.

The Memphis 440-yd. relay ran their best time of the year at regional, only to place sixth in the finals, out of eight teams competing.
