Harvest Is Two-Thirds Complete

County Livestock Show Is Cancelled For Sat.

The Hall County 4-H, FFA Livestock Show for 1972 has been cancelled, according to an announcement this week by show sponsors.

At a meeting Tuesday, attended by county school FFA advisors, 4-H Club representatives, and members of the Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee, it was decided that the show, which was to be held Saturday, Jan. 15, would have to be cancelled due to stipulation on animal quarantines.

The cancellation of the county show came about following the declaration on Jan. 6 that all swine animals must be inspected and health certificates issued before entering livestock shows. The quarantine came on hog cholera.

Regulations also specify that calves entering stock shows must be inspected for scabies before leaving stock pens.

The Regulation which primarily brought about the cancellation of the county show was the rule in the hog cholera regulations which states that once a pig has been inspected and enters a show, the hog cannot return home to pens and then be taken to other shows. Swine entering the show circuit are allowed to go from one show to the next so long as they are not taken home in periods between shows.

Since several boys are planning to go to shows in Amarillo or Fort (Continued on Page 8)

Sasser Cotton Crop Is Harvested By Friends, Neighbors Last Week

In a joint, neighborly action recently, the Sasser farming land was stripped for the family by 13 cotton strippers the first day and 21 strippers on the second day.

The cotton was then hauled to the Memphis Farmers Co-Op Gin and the Memphis Paymaster Gin where it was ginned. Ginning fees were donated by the two gins.

Those donating time and equipment to the two-day stripping effort were the following:

Gus Orcutt, Charlie Jones, Kenneth Jones, Rayford Hutcherson, Rocky Moore, Will Sperman, Troy Phillips, Bill Lukus, Alvin

Phillips and Robert Hanvey.

Also, Lloyd (Snooks) Wyatt, T. J. Spry, Hub Holt, Clyde Collins, Fred Collins, Bob Hutcherson, Ed Hutcherson, Tommy Foster, Raymond Foster, Raymond Martin, Milton Beasley, Jr., Milton Beasley, Sr., Ray Phillips, Benny Maddox and hand, Mack Richards, Sonny Murdock.

Also, Pat and Mary Wells, Raymond Whitten, Warren Whitten, Joe Mothershed, Cecil Whitten, Artist Whitten, Roy Spruill, Fred Hamilton and Bill Helm.

The harvesting of the Sasser cotton was done last weekend. Alvin Phillips of Phillips Machine Shop made field repairs on the scene in order to keep the strippers in production.

The volunteer harvesting of the cotton was in the spirit of good neighborliness which has been seen in several instances throughout this area in past years. The Sasser family has been in Dallas for several weeks while Vernadine has been undergoing medical treatment.

Mrs. Lucy Pounds, Memphis Pioneer, Is Buried Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Lucy Ann Pounds, 94, of Memphis were held at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday, Jan. 11, in the Church of Christ with Minister Paul Lusby of the Pleasant Valley Church of Christ in Amarillo and Art Smith, minister of the Memphis church, officiating.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Mrs. Pounds was born Dec. 21, 1877, in Gadsden, Ala. She was united in marriage to M. M. "Major" Pounds in 1899 at Honey Grove. The family moved to Memphis in 1906. They built Pounds Hotel in 1924, and it has been operation since that time. Mr. Pounds preceded her in death in 1959.

Survivors include: one son, (Continued on Page 8)

Anyone knowing who is responsible for the damages is asked to telephone Jim Lange, the club's president, at 259-2393.

To Host Silverton—

Cyclone Captures Two Key District Victories

Memphis teams are still alive in the District 2-A race and will be playing hosts to teams from Silverton here Friday night, with the boys B team game played first, followed by the girls and boys varsity games.

Next Tuesday night the local teams will go on the road to play Claude teams at Claude. The B team girls will play at Claude.

The Memphis B teams are entered in the Paducah B team tournament at Paducah today, tomorrow and Saturday.

The Cyclone opened district play against Clarendon last Friday night, and with a strong fourth quarter effort won the contest 57 to 46. Memphis held a three-point edge at halftime and a five-point edge at the end of the third period.

Mike Browning was the team's leading scorer with 18 points followed by Larry Don Johnson with 17. Clarendon's Elray King scored 14 points.

The Cyclonettes took a sound victory from Clarendon by a 68 to 22 score. Wanda Walker led the team in scoring with 25, and Hall County farmers and gin crews came close to reaching a weekly (7-day) harvesting peak during the past seven days as 10,489 bales were harvested according to the telephone survey this morning of the 12 ginning points in the county.

The seven-day record is slightly over 11,000 bales, but any-time gins handle over 10,000 bales the harvest is well into peak production.

Figures quoted each week are weigh-in receipt figures, not actual ginning figures. On-the-yard bales are quoted in the weekly reports of this newspaper.

This brings the 1971 crop figure for Hall County to 42,490 bales and indicates there is possibly three weeks remaining before the crop is harvested, according to our estimation. Should adverse weather come, then the harvest could go well into February.

Ginners reported that cotton is ginning better now than it has in the past. However, it was indicated that most of the "good" cotton has already been gathered. The harvest could be considered to be two-thirds completed at this point.

Classing Report
The Memphis office last week classed 21,200 samples by Friday, Jan. 7 to bring the season total to 74,000. This compares to 96,900 by the same date last year, according to W. E. Cain, in charge of the USDA's Memphis Cotton Classing office.

Light Spotted grades were predominant this week accounting for 57 per cent of the total classed. Spotted grades accounted for 28 per cent.

The predominant staple was 31 with 41 per cent followed by staple 30 with 35 per cent and staple 32 with 11 per cent.

Micronaire readings showed 3.4 per cent miked in the 3.5 to 4.9 range. The 3.3 to 3.4 range accounted for 24 per cent. The 3.0 to 3.2 range accounted for 32 per cent.

Pressley reading showed 89 per cent of the samples tested 75,000 psi or higher.

The cotton market continued active with a strong demand. Prices climbed until late this week, then fell 100 to 150 points to close 50 to 75 points under last week averages. Mixed last, mostly Light Spotted and Spotted grades, 30 and longer staples, 3.0 and higher mikes sold for 32.00 to 32.50 cents per pound. The same grades and staples, 2.9 and lower mikes sold for 31.50 to 32.00 cents per pound.

BLOOD DONORS—Pictured above are some of the 51 persons who donated blood Monday morning when the Bloodmobile was in Memphis. Donors came from all age groups in the appeal for blood donations on behalf of Vernadine Sasser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sasser. The response was more than was needed as the line was stopped at 51.

Blood Donors Number 51 With Bloodmobile Mon.

The response for the Bloodmobile from Amarillo which visited Memphis Monday morning was greater than was required as several volunteer blood donors were turned away.

Final tabulation showed that 51 blood donors gave blood in a short period Monday morning, when the line was stopped as the Bloodmobile crew reported that it was all that was needed at this time.

As in the past, more donors showed up than were taken in the appeal for blood donations in the name of Vernadine Sasser, a leukemia patient in Dallas.

Over 100 Attend Public Meeting With Memphis ISD School Board Monday

Over 100 persons were on hand Tuesday night in the Memphis High School Auditorium with the Memphis Independent School District board of trustees in a public meeting concerning the district's dress code.

The meeting was held on the regular monthly meeting date of school board, the second Tuesday evening of the month, after the portion of the district's dress code dealing with the length of boys' hair became a public issue. Last Friday, over 35 male students at Memphis High School were asked to take time off by school officials to get their hair cut to comply with dress code regulations.

Tuesday night, at the public meeting, several adults and students asked the school board to revise the dress code to allow boys students to wear their hair in longer styles than the code allows. Also, the board was asked why the school had a dress code and what basis was used when the code was adopted in the August meeting of the board.

Several other citizens expressed the opinion that the dress code was necessary and they felt the board exercised good judgement in setting the code, and the code should be enforced fairly throughout the system.

School Board President J. Robert Hanvey, Jr., who presided, stated in opening the session that the board was there to hear the (Continued on Page 8)

Local Control Of School Districts!

One of the freedoms we, living in Hall County, Texas, have today is the freedom of interst and direct communication with the administrative control of our school districts, whether our concern may be over taxation, rules and regulations or whatever may be our individual concern.

This week, the Memphis Schools' dress code was the subject of much conversation and the Memphis School Board held an "open to the public" meeting Tuesday night for the benefit of local school patrons who might have wanted to meet with the board.

This is all in the due process of democracy and thereby well within the great guidelines which have made our schools acceptable to our citizenry.

But recently, wheels were set in motion which may bring about a change to this system in Texas Public Schools. This is the recent federal court ruling against the present method of financing public schools in Texas. This ruling can be frightening when considered in all its aspects.

The federal court ruled that Texas cannot use any system based entirely or partially on property values because this discriminates against pupils in poor school districts. The court gave Texas two years in which to make changes that would be satisfactory to them. If not, the court will make these changes itself.

Basically, Texas school districts have operated under this system of school financing since the beginning of public schools in this state. Consider some of the implications the federal court ruling could conceivably bring to our school districts:

1. There would be no more teacher salaries above the state scale obviously this would be discriminatory. Both districts with oil development and heavy industrial complexes would no longer be able to pay salary incentives to get and hold the better teachers, in their judgement.

2. Any type of state tax equalization plan will shift the responsibility of setting property valuations into the hands of a state agency rather than handled on the district level. Property owners can rest assured that if Texas shifts to a system whereby property is valued by assessors in Austin rather than in the local districts, much of the local control of our individual school districts will go with this.

Property owners can also see that the state of Texas is not going to go elsewhere to seek financing. And, also, any type of state tax equalization plan would probably be based on the number of students to determine the equalization between districts. Bigger school districts (student number), not necessarily the amount of money the district might have) have been working for several years to try and get a larger cut of state money. In the past, smaller districts have received the larger cut, proportionally.

The greatest danger of all lies in the possibility that a tax equalization plan for Texas would bring on a system whereby the state has a much greater control over the operation of each individual school district.

The Texas school system has operated for the past two decades under the Gilmer-Aiken Bill which sought to eliminate the very differences that the federal court ruling attacked. Through the minimum foundation program, state aid is supplied more generously to those school districts whose economic wealth is less than others. The state minimum salary program seeks to eliminate discrimination because poor school districts are helped to pay the state salary schedule.

The school tax court cases in Texas and California pointed the way to shift from local control of the public schools toward control by state and federal officials far removed from the scene. This certainly bears out watching and our concern in future days.

Professional Bureaucrates

The president of the National Association of Professional Bureaucrates has some good advice for fellow bureaucrats who are facing a big policy decision. "When in charge, ponder. When in trouble, delegate. When in doubt, mumble. Then refer the whole problem to a coordinating committee for review."

The same fellow admits that the new schedule of federal closing dates presents some sort of problem because it really doesn't make much difference which day they take off or how many days they are gone because there is no evident change in the flow of work done. Some of the most boring jobs in the world are buried in the federal bureaucracy.

Payrolls Taxes Going Up

If you are employer, you have no doubt received your new tax information booklet informing you that next year will see you dig a little deeper to pay state and federal payroll taxes. Both have gone up. The Social Security tax remains the same at 5.2 percent on both employer and employee, but the base has been raised from $7,800 to $9,000 which takes in most wage earners.

Christian?

I can sort of understand the conflict between races of people who don't even claim to know the Christ who proclaimed "Peace on Earth and Goodwill to Men" but when so-called "Christian" nations resort to cruel bloodshed and warfare I'm at a loss for explanation.

Yes, I know there have been "holy" wars in the past and I'm equally at a loss to explain that terminology as well. At this very hour people who think themselves Christian are killing one another in a battle closely akin to one recently fought between the Indians and Pakistanis, who make no claim to Jesus Christ.

Even wonder why the majority of the people of the world have no use whatsoever for "Christianity," so-called? As long as those who claim allegiance to the Prince of Peace continue to wage hatred and terror among and between themselves, we won't be surprised at the world's care-less attitude.

Horse Sense

The rare West Texas fog had moved in and we were lost. We had been over some of the area but we could not find a single landmark by which to orient ourselves. It seemed that all the streams were flowing the wrong direction, and at one point we found horse tracks that proved to be our own. At last we decided to cease to rein our horses and both animals started in the opposite direction. We could scarcely believe their instinct, but allowed them free choice of direction.

Unordered Merchandise and Negative Options

When you receive unordered merchandise through the mails, do you know your legal rights? A law passed by the Sixty-first Texas Legislature in 1969 provides that where unsolicited goods are delivered to a person, he has the right to refuse to accept delivery of the goods and he is not required to return the goods to the sender. If such unsolicited goods are either addressed to or intended for the recipient, they will be deemed a gift and the recipient may use them or dispose of them in any manner without obligation to the sender.

There are three exceptions to this law—first, when the goods are sent due to a bona fide mistake and the sender has the burden of proof to show the error. Second, the law does not apply to goods which have been substituted for goods ordered. Finally, the law does not apply to goods ordered by the recipient.

In summary, if a consumer receives merchandise which he did not order he can refuse the goods and the sender is under no legal obligation to pay for the merchandise received in this fashion. The related area is the negative option plan employed by Book and Record Clubs whereby an individual signs a contract with the club and items are automatically shipped to him. Under this negative option arrangement, the consumer is obligated to pay for all items shipped unless he returns a card to the company indicating his refusal to purchase the item.

The complaint with this plan is the failure of the consumer to realize his legal obligation if he fails to periodically notify the company of his wishes. In addition, some companies do not allow a sufficient time period to receive the option cards prior to mailing the merchandise. The consumer who signs up with one of these companies should understand his legal obligations under the contract and be alert when the option notices are received so that merchandise is not inadvertently ordered.

704-Page Alamac In New Edition Gives Texas Facts

Figures from the 1970 U. S. Census, a history of the Texas tidelands and many other new features are found in the 704 pages of the 1972-73 Texas Almanac, published by the A. H. Belo Corporation, publishers of The Dallas Morning News.

While data from the decennial U. S. Census are expected to be among the most widely used material in the new publication, Editor Walter B. Moore said that there are many other features not found in the previous edition. Among these are:

A history of telephones in the state, prepared by leaders in the telephone industry.

A history of grain sorghums in Texas, co-authored by J. Roy Quinby, sorghum researcher who received the Hoblitzelle Award for his achievements.

The tidelands history prepared with the collaboration of Judge Price Daniel, formerly U. S. Senator and Governor of Texas; and Attorney General Crawford Martin, both active in the successful program to save this rich asset for Texas.

Election results, listings of the county, municipal and state officials, amendments to the Texas Constitution and those to be voted on in 1972, appointive boards and commissions, officials of the state and regional civic and trade organizations and many other listings are expected to make this edition widely used as a reference for business offices, public offices, schools and other centers.

A night view of San Jacinto Monument appears on the front cover of this edition.

A new Texas map, in color, with major highways, distances and other information supplements 254 county maps, undated from maps prepared by the Texas Highway Department.

The county maps are published with information about each Texas county supplied by chambers of commerce, county agricultural agents and others.

Tourism and recreation are featured, with many photographs in color and black and white of Texas scenes.

Each of the 24 Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas, the urban concentrations in which most Texans live, has an editorial page devoted to it.

Joe M. Dealey, president of The Dallas Morning News, pointed out that this is the 46th edition of the Texas Almanac that has been published since 1857.

Carl Leary of Dallas and Cathy Leary, student at Rice Institute in Houston, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. F. E. Leary, in Estelline and in Memphis with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen Ballard.

You're paying for many more—and vastly more important—gifts than those you put under the Christmas tree recently.

You paid out hard earned tax dollars to buy the gift of good health for yourself, your family and all other Texans.

Your gift budget last year included $9.5 million to buy and equip 20 health care facilities—hospitals, nursing homes, rehabilitation centers, and outpatient facilities for those areas of Texas with the greatest need. The gift included 258 modern hospital beds and 198 modern nursing home beds, as well as 30 rehabilitation beds.

Over the past 25 years your gift budget has purchased nearly 30,500 hospital beds. Your shopping counselor was the Health Facilities Construction Section of the State Health Department.

To give the gift of safe drinking water, you paid for some 210,000 water analyses for bacteriological quality by State Health Department laboratories. Appraisals of plans for over 500 water-related projects were conducted this year, covering both new facilities and improvements to existing systems. More than 90 per cent of the Texas population is now served by approved water supplies.

You and other Texans have invested over $100 million in rural water supplies serving almost 100,000 rural families. Your gift consultants in this instance were State Health Department engineers.

To help prevent pollution from entering Texas streams, plans and specifications for 384 new facilities and expansions of existing sewage treatment plants were reviewed, and 139 engineering reports concerning existing facilities were also reviewed. You paid the bill. The consultants for this work were also State Health Department engineers.

To upgrade the quality of air we breathe, Texas industry spent millions of dollars during 1970. Other millions are being earmarked for improvements. Your tax dollars hired a team of engineers and technicians so the Texas Air Control Board could keep close surveillance of industry in their efforts toward pollution control.

Visiting here during the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Don Carmen and family were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Turrin and George of Schneckatady, N. Y. Also visiting in their home on New Year's day were Mr. and Mrs. Creed Lamb and family of McLean and Mr. and Mrs. Al Dewlen of Amarillo and Mrs. Jean Lamb of Memphis.

Virginia Browder, owner of the Golden Colweb Antique Shop here, was in Amarillo over the weekend where she had a booth at the Antique Show.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen Ballard visited in Hollis, Okla., on Thursday of last week.

Branigan Attends Electronic Course For Watchmakers

Elmont Branigan, owner of Branigan's Jewelry in Memphis, recently graduated from a course in electronic timekeeping conducted by Bulova Watch Company. The intensive program was designed for the professional watchmaker who handles the Accutron, the world's first turning-fork timepiece for wrist use. The school was held in Dallas, which was one of 100 cities in the U. S. where the training service was offered.

Today Accutron tuning-fork movements, made in the United States, are the only watch movements on the Moon. The movements are in the timer of the Apollo 11 seismometer placed on the Sea of Tranquility by Apollo 11 astronauts Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin July 21, 1969 and in the timer in the central data station placed on the Ocean of Storms November 19, 1969 by Apollo 12 astronauts Pete Conrad and Alan Bean. A clock version is used as the master timer aboard Nomad, the world's first computerized buoy that broadcasts weather information from its position off Cape Hatteras, the western Atlantic storm center, Branigan said.

"This transistorized watch use a tiny tuning fork at its time base," Branigan explained. "The fork vibrates 360 times a second, or 31,104,000 times each 24 hours. That's 72 to 144 times as fast as the balance wheel oscillates in other types of mechanical electronic watches-making possible an average accuracy on the wrist to within two seconds a day. The same accuracy is maintained by the Accutron timers on wild elk being tracked in Yellowstone National Park by orbiting satellites." Servicing of the revolutionary timepiece requires special training, he added, because the electronic movement uses components not found in conventional watches. The Accutron watch, he noted, is the only U. S. developed watch sold around the world by jewelers today. Bulova, he explained, is the sole domestic manufacturer of jeweled movement and tuning fork watches in the United States.

'North Country' Will Be Featured At Movie House

"North Country," an outdoor, color, action-adventure motion picture about the exploits of modern-day trapper, Jeff Graham, will show at Movie House in Memphis Sunday, Jan. 16. Four showings are scheduled, beginning at 2:15, 4:30, 7:00 and 9:15 p. m. Admission charges are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children 12 years of age and under.

This exciting film, shot entirely on location, follows woodsman Graham through one year of his life as he camps in the frozen wilds of the far north country trapping beaver, fox and muskrat. In this true-to-life feature, Graham pans gold and serves as a backcountry guide over some of Alaska's roughest terrain to earn enough to pay for what little he needs from civilization. Otherwise he lives off the land, hunting only out of necessity.

None of the characters in "North Country" are actors. These are all real Alaskans portraying their real lives.

Ron Hayes filmed, directed and appears in "North Country." He has masterfully captured on film this land's magnificent scenery, rare wildlife, and unique people. "North Country, G-rated, is a Rainbow Adventure film, released by American National Enterprises, the company that bought "Cougar Country."

since we have to the end year of 1971, it time to te our inventory of the ear and see which side of ger we are on. The first ts are that we are in the we have tried, but feel e did not do our best in e Almighty in showing ove for our fellowman and to make this a better world in. 1971 has gone and let that we can do better in We lost a lot of good fry death in the past year, an say that most of them e on in hearts of others they have known and lov- est of them had lived a full life, but there were some that were young in years three score and ten. It your heart very sad when younger friends pass on as el that you have helped em by seeing them in their ves and you feel that they part of you. And feel so to their relatives in sharing e loss.

We live in the best part of the und from the standpoint of love ad empathy for each other, and would be hard to carry on with- at friends. This statement was ade to me a few days ago by y friends who had lost their ly child, whom we all loved so uch.

think of the Bible scripture, "Love your neighbor as yourself". Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sasser had their daughter in the hospital in Dallas seriously ill. Gene had his cotton crop in the field that had not been stripped. The conversation I overheard was that one day friends and neighbors had 13 cotton strippers in his crop and the next day were 21 stripping this cotton. There were others that carried sandwiches, Cokes and coffee to this group that were doing the work. I would have liked very much to have the names of each one who took part in this good neighbor deed. No one would attempt to give me the names as they were afraid they would leave someone off the list. Also, the Memphis Co-op and Paymaster Gins ginned Gene Sasser's cotton without charge. But anyway, those are the kind of people living in Hall County. I have known of several more times when a farmer was sick and had trouble, there would be enough tractors go to his rescue and plow the whole crop in one day.

When I get to thinking some time as to how little I do and try to evaluate myself, I almost come up with a zero. I guess I could compare myself to a worn out spare tire that you carry in the trunk of your car and you have four good times on the wheels and you happen to have a flat. You can put the old spare tire on and limp into town driving slow and easy. So after all, the old spare tire has been of a little service. Even though we have aged, we might find some way to be of a little service like the old spare tire.

"Noisy Nimrods" from "Happiness Before Breakfast" "Some people are like blank cartridges. They make a lot of noise but never hit the mark."

I had a short conversation a few days ago with Ruth (Med-calf) Bromley of Amarillo. She graduated from MHS in 1923 and has been living in Amarillo since that time. Ruth married Wirt (Blondie) Bromley who was a former resident of Memphis. Ruth remained me of the fact that her mother was a nurse here for Dr. C. F. Wilson (Father of Win-fred) in the early days of a hos-pital here.

In walking down the corridor of the Hall County Hospital a few days ago, I met a lady that stopped in front of me and asked if I knew her, and I told her I did not. She says, "I am Jerita", but I still could not guess which Jerita and she finished the name Pounds. She was one of the three pretty little girls of Lafayette Pounds. She is now living in Dal-las.

This quote from "Happiness Begins Before Breakfast": SW-AP - Often we trade our kingdom for a horse only to find the steed is lame or blind."

Our local motels report good business here in January which is usually a slow month. I think a lot of this business is some re-peat business here caused by the courtesy show these travelers in our cafes, filling stations and mo-tels on the highway. One night the past week we had as guests in one of our local motels, Mrs. Gus Grissom and two sons. Gus was one of the astronauts who was killed in the premature ex-plosion of one of our space craft about 4 1/2 years ago when two other besides Gus were killed.

of the best reducing machines the past week if you want to lose weight. Mrs. McWhorter who had been operating the steam press was taken ill very suddenly and had to be carried to the hospital.

So for three days, Soapy ran this steam press and he lost 10 pounds in that length of time and we had the figures on the scales to prove this besides his figure. Even with his loss of weight, the day I talked to him he was pretty happy as he, as an ex-Navy man, had taught an ex-Marine, Joe Mothershed, how to clean his glasses with a dollar bill.

Hall County Heritage Hall vis-itors have been a little short dur-ing the cold weather, especially out-of-town visitors.

Den 4 Paek 35 Cub Scouts made an inspection tour of Her-itage Hall one day last week. The den mother, Mrs. Roddy Bice, accompanied this group including Scott Becker, Chris Morris, Randy Bice and Mark Markgraf. Mrs. Jimmy Lindsey is assistant den mother of this group.

We should be proud of our tal-ent in our young people of Hall County. Last week when Eddie Braidfoot presented the program at our local Rotary Club, he in-troduced Larry Moss, Don Moore, Tommy Greene and Geary Brog-den, who gave a program of music and song. My personal thinking is that they would be a credit to Billy Graham's crusade or anything I have heard from Hollywood.

It is good to see Mrs. Barber (the hot roll queen) back in cir-culation again.

This is a copy I read a few days ago on "How We Spend Our Time". Computers have calculat-ed that the average citizen of North America and the western world invests his 70 years in the following ways: 24 years sleeping, 14 years working, 6 years eating, 3 years learning, 3 years con-velescing, 4 years conversing, five years traveling, 8 years amusng himself. What about our wor-ship? If we began on the day of our birth spending 5 minutes each morning and evening in praise and prayer (more than most of us spend) and three hours a week in church, at the end of 70 years, we would have invested only 20 months. Time isn't moeny or even a commodity. It's not going any-where; it can't be speeded up or slowed down; it can't be bought or bartered. It is as Webster put it simply, "The period during which action or process con-ines". We say, "Time goes, not so, time stays, we go."

"A Cure", from "Happiness Before Breakfast", "If forced to listen to themselves, many people would soon take less."

Our fire boys have been pretty busy here of late it seems from the number of times I have heard the siren. A report on some of these fire alarms were two dif-ferent pick-ups, a cotton trailer full of cotton on Highway 287 that belonged to Chubby Waddill, a grass fire on North 16th when Mrs. Jerry Montgomery let the fire fall out of her trash barrel. Another fire was at the DeVille Motel when John Kehr's mattress back of the office caught fire. In this fire I heard some con-versation and what they said was, "I guess John went to sleep smok-ing in bed". I questioned him on this point and he replied, "I never smoke in bed and I do not think my young son will strike any more matches under the bed looking for the lost ball."

Our local fire boys are pretty busy trying to make besides all of the other things they are doing, including working with the am-bulance program and they also promoted a Bloodmobile service here last Monday to replace blood for the Gene Sasser family.

Gas Drying

Electric Drying

Either we're four times cheaper, or they're four times more expensive.

Gas drying is not only easier on your pocketbook, it also makes life a whole lot easier. For one thing, gas drying practically eliminates the need for ironing. The new gas dryers are so gentle that clothes come out almost wrinkle-free. Clothes are tumbled dry, then cooled, and gently fluffed. Automatically, Pleats stay pleated, Creases stay creased. All this for a cost of about a penny a load. (Or $2.00 a ton.)

Take a look at the new gas dryers at your gas appliance dealer. Then do something nice for yourself. And your pocketbook.

Sunday services will begin at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Weekday services will be held at 7 p. m. each evening in the Chapel.

Rev. Murphy said of the Conference, "I am very excited about directing this study of Job. I plan to preach a series of messages about Job and the circumstances of his life that is of common interest to everyone. Tragedy suddenly came into Job's life. He lost all of his property and his children. He suffered from an illness so terrible that his body was racked with constant pain, and he was brought to the edge of the grave. Our study in Job will concern us with what Job did and what we can do in the face of suffering and trial and trag-

Lakeview Teams To Host Teams Of Quitaque Fri.

District 4-B basketball play continues with the Quitaque teams visiting the Lakeview gymnasium Friday night and the Hedley squads playing at Turkey.

Next Tuesday night, Hedley plays at Quitaque and Estelline plays at Lakeview.

Last Friday night, Hedley and Lakeview teams split games, as the Hedley boys took a 76 to 38 victory from Lakeview as Bolin led the Owls with 19 points. Bill Richburg had 11 points for Lakeview.

In the girls game, a real cliff hanger, came about as the game ended during regulation play with the two teams all tied up at 37 to 37.

Although Lakeview had led almost all the game, 11 to 5, 18 to 16, and 29 to 23, the Owlettes tied the game up at 37 to 37. In the three-minute overtime, as both coaches had to go to their benches as girls left the court via the foul route, the Lakeview forwards managed to put six points on the board while the Hedley girls could not manage to score. Lakeview won the game 43 to 37 in a real thriller. Carolyn Hughes and Marla Gregory each had 19 points for the Owlettes and the Owlettes' leading scorer, Renee White, led her team with a total of 21 points.

Tuesday night, Lakeview and Turkey teams split games as the Lakeview girls won 38 to 32, and the Turkey boys won 89 to 47. High point scorers for Lakeview were Carolyn Hughes with 14 and Zane Gilbreth with 19. High scorers for Turkey were Annie Faye Polly with 11 and Kim Coker with 23.

Also Tuesday night, the Estelline, Quitaque teams split games as the Quitaque girls downed the Estelline girls 32 to 24, while the Estelline boys defeated Quitaque boys 59 to 52.

High scorers for Estelline were Betty Welch with 17 and Vernon Moore with 28.

Quitaque high scorers were Wanda Ramsey with 9 and L. W. Hamilton with 19.

Worth to show their swine, this regulation created several problems.

Elmont Branigan, chairman of the show, said that all those in charge of planning the event have regretted that the show must be cancelled this year for there are many boys who only show their animals in the county show.

Also, he said, FFA and 4-H members need to have their animals shown in order to fill out their record books on their animal projects.

Wheeler led at the end of the first quarter 14 to 13 and again at the end of the third period 50 to 48, but the Cyclone came on strong at the end of the second and final periods to lead 34 to 30 at halftime, and to capture the important district victory 67 to 60.

patrons who had come concerning the dress code. All who desired to speak were given the opportunity.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the board president stated the chair would hear a motion to revise the dress code, but there was no motion made by the members of the board. All were present at the meeting.

A dress code is not a new thing in Memphis Schools. The district has operated under a dress code of one form or another during the past seven years. The code this year would be considered more liberal than the one students were under last year.

The board, following the public meeting, adjourned to the board room to conduct other business on the agenda.
