RESIDENTS—The three Squirrel Monkeys, who are making their home now in the Park, were not anxious to pose for pictures Tuesday. But with the aid of the owner, Mr. Cowan, the above picture was taken of two of the Monkeys as Mr. Cowan offered some food.

A. Cowan Donates Squirrel Monkeys To Memphis City Park

DEBBIE COMBS
There has been a new addition to Memphis City Park, and everyone in the area has seen it or another see them. The new addition of three Squirrel Monkeys donated to the city by Mr. Cowan. Misty who is an 18-month-old female didn't care much, but the other two, Trebol and Simone a three-year-old male, gladly chattered away for guests.

Cowan has had Misty and Simone for the past two years. He first acquired them when he was very little to do with them. He was able to let them run loose in his yard. Misty and Simone did not have any problems for the Cowans. One such example was when Misty and Simone were apart some rose belonging to a neighbor. They weren't purposefully being destructive, but rather were after the roses.

On a recent trip to Dallas, Cowan purchased Trebol, a male, hoping he would be a young female company and possibly add one to the

According to Mr. Cowan the monkeys feed mostly on insects and various berries, however they will eat anything humans will. They especially enjoy lettuce, not the garden grown type, but the 59c a head type which can be obtained at the local grocery stores. Mr. Cowan feeds the trio three times daily, and they are given a general vitamin and a calcium vitamin.

The Squirrel monkeys are natives of the South American forest where the climate and temperature are fairly stable. In order for the Squirrel monkeys to survive they must be kept at a temperature not below 75 degrees F. or above 95 degrees F. To solve this problem Mr. Cowan installed a fan on the monkey house to keep the temperature down during the summer months.

and an electric stove to keep it up in the winter. An auxiliary heat lamp has also been hooked up to insure the safety of the monkeys.

Mr. Cowan has put many hours of work in on the cage and monkey house. The cage is left open at all times and the monkeys are free to roam about the park area; however they generally stay in the trees near their cage. Mr. Cowan hopes the public will enjoy the threesome as much as he does.

NEW LINE—Pictured above is Roger Messer of Messer Electric displaying a new line of pianos which his firm is now handling which were displayed during open house activities Saturday in the building located at 102 Boykin Drive.

Last Saturday was the Grand Opening and Open House of a new business for Memphis, BAme Fence and Iron Co. and Messer Electric's introduction of a new line merchandising, pianos.

Memphis, in recent years, has not had a fencing company nor has there been any firm handling new pianos.

C. D. Bradshaw and his sons, Ron and Mark, set out last month in a business venture of selling and erecting chain link fences. Mr. Bradshaw is selling the iron through BAme Fence and Iron Co., while his sons are doing contract work erecting the fencing.

Lumber Yards in the area have sold fencing supplies for years to those who would erect the fences themselves, but Bradshaw's is the first Memphis firm to sell and erect fences in this area. Citizens had to deal with Amarillo or Wichita Falls firms in the past.

Bradshaw and Roger Messer joined together to open business in the Ft. Worth and Denver Depot building, located 102 Boykin Drive.

Messer is in the business of selling and installing heating and air conditioning systems, selling pianos, light fixtures (which he makes himself), selling garbage disposals, and continuing his electrical business.

Mr. Bradshaw is also introducing (Continued on Page 8)

Truck-Trailer Loaded With Cattle Overtakes Saturday Morning Here

A truck-trailer jack-knifed and overturned on the curve and bridge of U. S. Highway 287 just a half-mile south of Memphis at 5:30 a. m. Saturday morning and much of the load of 160 calves were scattered throughout the Memphis area.

The driver, Floyd Asa Newton, 44, of Zolfo Springs, Fla., was treated for head cuts at Hall County Hospital.

The 1973 Peterbilt truck tractor and trailer were heavily damaged in the wreck.

Members of the Volunteer Fire Department and Hall County Sheriff and Deputy Sheriff were quick on the scene and prevented any traveling motorist from hitting any of the stray calves while the wreck was being cleared.

Cowboys from Memphis were able to round up 80 to 90 head of the strays and 18 were killed in the wreck, leaving another 40 to 50 still running loose.

Cycle Riders Are Warned By Local Police To Have Lights On Cycles

BILL COMBS
As bicycles, bicycles, bicycles, like all communities, is in the rebirth of cycling these days with the large increase in cycling is coming a danger on the streets.

Chief of Police Kenny made an appeal this week to the police to meet the state law requirements of having a front and a rear reflection on bicycles.

As there are having more and more bicycles at night, most instances being reported to the police it is because bicycles are not equipped with lights and reflectors.

An incident occurred to the patrol vehicle in which the warning the patrolman gave the bicyclist was in the fact that one of the bicyclist was equipped with the reflector pedals.

Patrolman Collins the pedal reflector caught his eye in time to slow down and avoid the large group of cyclist. At the same time, Chief Schull urged motorists to be on the lookout for bicycle riders.

The problem of keeping a youngster with a light for his bicycle is well known by parents. Bicycle lighting devices are famous for not lasting through the first fall or the batteries seem to always be dead. Parents, however, would be wise to require their children to put their cycles up at dark, if there is no light.

Making the problem more acute is the popularity of the multi-gear cycles, some with speed ranges up to and surpassing 60 mph.

Bicycle riders are reminded that they are subject to the same rules and regulations governing the operation of motor vehicles, including speed limits, stop signs, hand signals for making turns, etc.

Law enforcement officers can issue traffic tickets to bicycle riders for failure to comply with state laws.

Cub Scouts To Have Swim Session Fri.

Cub Scout Pack No. 35 will have a swimming session Friday evening from 7 to 9 p. m. at the City Park Pool, Cubmaster Bill Combs announced.

The swimming session will be a combination fun and work session with swimming lessons and water safety practices stressed.

Cubs will also have play periods to enjoy during the two-hour swim.

Boy Scouts who would like to come and help with the instructions are invited, the Cubmaster said.

"Especially do we want those Cubs who do not swim or who are having problems swimming to be there. Swimming is a big part of the Boy Scout program, and it is a phase of the Cub Scout achievement program," Cubmaster Combs said.

What Is The Future In Housing?

In rural America, we have been noticing more and more reports pointing out the need for additional housing. In Canadian, this year, the public school has hired several teachers who could not accept their contracts due to unavailable suitable housing.

This situation is being seen over and over in town after town, where people are unable to find a place to live, even though there is a job opportunity available to the bread winner.

The situation is just as keen here in Memphis as it is elsewhere. When Memphis City fathers approved the Low Rent and Homes for the Elderly Housing project several years ago, citizens with rent property were understandably concerned. But their fears quickly dissolved after the units were occupied and people were still seeking rental property.

Memphis is getting more and more trailer homes being set up on vacant areas. New homes are being built, but at a far slower pace than was seen in the 1960s, as building costs have been climbing rapidly.

Nationally, the modern trend is in construction of "condominiums" or what is recognized as owner-type apartment buildings. These are multi-unit structures which have home-ownership, with the home-owner holding title to his own unit in a condominium and shares ownership in other facilities such as swimming pools, parking lots, lawns and play areas.

Why is there a big move away from rental property to condominium property? Any landlord could answer that question easily. Renters in general don't concern themselves with taking care of their surroundings.

This is not to say that all renters abuse property, for some are excellent, doing repairs and painting for the owners, keeping lawns, and generally taking care of the property as if it was their own. But it doesn't take the other kind of renter long to completely wreck an apartment.

Will there ever be a condominium built in Memphis? That's a question we can't answer. It would take a lot of money initially to bring that to reality.

If people wanted to form a co-operative in a condominium they would have these advantages as a tenant: getting to deduct the interest on mortgage and property taxes from income tax; get the benefit on a depreciation in the value of the property; and by paying a monthly fee, being freed from grass cutting and other chores that homeowners traditionally fall heir to. Naturally any increase in taxation, utility increases, etc., are passed along to the unit owners. Under co-operative the individual holds a share to the co-operative and does not have individual title to his unit.

In general, our rural area is creating more jobs with agricultural markets increasing and government farm program cutting out set-aside land. Secondly, De Rose Industries factory and Postex Hall Plant, along with agri-business industry in this area offer additional employment opportunity.

Consider the homes in Memphis. Most of them were built many years ago, in the 1920's possibly. The newest addition saw many homes being built in the 1960s. New homes are still being built here, but the pace is far slower than the demand.

What Other Editors Say

Press is free

If there was ever doubt about the chilling effect that the U. S. Supreme Court might have had on a free press when it ruled that newsmen must answer grand jury subpoenas, the Watergate case has removed it. The news sources that were supposedly going to dry up are now bushing forth like Niagara Falls.

The implied censorship that some journalists were griping about has been obliterated by one disclosure after another. New developments in the Watergate story are being reported daily, all gathered by enterprising newsmen. So many, in fact, that it is getting to be a trifle boring.

But the news keeps coming as a sign that Washington still leaks like an Army pup tent. Supreme Court rulings notwithstanding, the news, however sordid is still being offered for public inspection.

There may be more occupational hazards, but the press is still free.

Consumers Begin Paying

This is the week American consumers are discovering the inherent disadvantage of hastily imposed, temporary controls aimed at altering the natural ebb and flow of economic forces.

Prices, held in check by the temporary freeze President Nixon put into effect June 13 and then lifted late last week, are zooming up.

A Safeway official in Dallas reported that bacon is going up by as much as 50 cents a pound—from $1.09 to $1.59. Pork chops, he said, are going up 30 cents a pound, eggs 10 cents a dozen and milk 9 cents a gallon.

"There are so many (price hikes) I don't even like to think about them," he sighed.

And, in Washington, Kenneth Fedor, head of the Cost of Living Council's office of food price monitoring, had similar bad news to report.

"Price should go up most in those areas where we had them down most," said Mr. Fedor, adding that the increases are likely to be especially noticeable at the outset for poultry, pork, eggs, fresh fruits and vegetables.

Beef is the only food still under the freeze, and is due to remain there until Sept. 12. While beef prices can not go up now, as is the case with other foods, all indications are that it is going to be in extremely short supply as more producers keep their livestock off the market awaiting the administration's next move on Sept. 12.

Even some of the items on which the price freeze was lifted are likely to be in short supply for a temporary period, as producers of these commodities anticipated the lifting of the freeze and withheld supplies from the market last week, a situation which will be evident in the supermarkets of the nation this week. In fact some retailers already have announced plans to limit amounts which customers may purchase.

When the price freeze was invoked in June it brought a general sigh of relief from consumers. It was a welcome poultice for the pain they were experiencing.

Now the poultice has been removed and the pain is more intense than before.

What the temporary freeze did in terms of food prices was to delay the eventual day of paying the full bill, and from all indications that bill has now come due, with interest or carrying charges added on.

This unhappy turn of events suggests to us a fundamental fact of economic life.

There is no easy way to control, or partially control, prices by law or administrative order, as experience over the last two years with the various phases of President Nixon's effort to stabilize the economy has shown.

With Phase 4 the Nixon administration will continue to walk a narrow line between a controlled economy and a freely competitive one. Its aim, stated many times, is to achieve stability without resorting to all-out controls, and in this effort it will have the support of legions of Americans who remember from wartime the bureaucratic nightmare which all-out controls can create.

could also remember when we had preaching around the square. One of the particular services he could remember was when there was preaching on the northwest corner of the square and he stepped off the sidewalk in front of a car that knocked him down and broke his leg. He was picked up and laid out on the floor of Harrison Hdwe. until Dr. Hyder got to him and put his leg in a cast. Ed left Memphis in 1950, moving to Berger, and in 1953 moved to Amarillo where he is still living. I do not know if Ed is a singer, but he has been with Singer Corp. several years.

Mrs. Aubrey Martin had as her guests in Heritage Hall, Mrs. Art Palmer of Secaucus N. J.; Mrs. Connie Hendricks of Lakeview had her granddaughter, Kelly Martin of Plain. Mrs. Palmer will be remembered as Shirley Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Martin. She graduated from Clarendon High School in 1953, after finishing her grade school years in Memphis. She taught school 5 years in Amarillo before moving to New Jersey where she has taught the past 3 years near the end of the tunnel on the Jersey side. Some of her schoolmates she remembered here were: Johnnie McDaniel, Elizabeth Grundy, Annette Miller and Jimmy Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Martin have a son, Ronnie, of Plano who is with the Magnetic Observatory of Dallas. He and his wife have two daughters. They have another daughter, Connie, who married Macky McWhirter. They live at Plains where Connie is teaching in the schools. They have two sons. So Aubrey is now married to a grandma with 4 grandchildren.

Mrs. Bill Wood had as her guests in Heritage Hall, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Moore of Lake Jackson. Mrs. Moore is a sister of Bill. She was very complimentary of Heritage Hall.

Lucile Wright has her guests in Heritage Hall, Mrs. Don Reeves of Wellington and her grandchildren, Kathleen and Wesley Reeves of Wellington and Nancy Wright of Amarillo. Mrs. Reeves will be remembered in school here as Katherine Wright, daughter of the late Don and Lucile Wright.

Other visitors from Wellington were Mrs. Frank Coleman and son, Jodi. Mrs. Coleman will be remembered as Barbara Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson of Quail. Barbara graduated from Quail High School. She and Frank have three sons. They say Jodi was named for Barbara's grandfather, Jodi J. Wilson.

Some surprise visitors in Heritage Hall last Saturday from Kerrville were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mess. Mrs. Mees will be remembered by her given name, Marie, who is the mother of Billy, Omega, Gwen and Buddie Ballew. Marie left Memphis in 1935 and has lived in California, Ohio, Penn., Michigan and Louisiana since leaving here. She now has four children, 25 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. Marie's family was having a reunion in Portales, N. M., July 29. Roy Mees retired from a Houston Oil Co. in 1954 and he and Marie now are living in retirement at Kerrville and enjoying life.

Mack Graham had as his guests in Heritage Hall, his daughter, Mrs. K. J. Kopacki and granddaughter, Terri of San Antonio. Mrs. Kopacki will be remembered here as Gerita Graham who was born here and graduated from MHS in 1953. The first thing I noticed that had changed Gerita, she had lost those pretty freckles she had on her nose when she was a little girl. She had passed the freckles to her daughter was her quote. Some of her schoolmates were Franky Srygley, Joan Hart, Frank Foxhall and John Chamberlain. Gerita is now working in data processing and her husband, Kenneth, is Tech Sergeant at Randolph Field. This was Gerita's first trip through Heritage Hall and she was surprised at the collection of articles that were on display. Mack Graham moved to Memphis in 1922 and has helped press a good many bales of cotton in over 50 years. He started work at the compress with the Truebloods and Mr. Matken. Mack's son, Ted, is now living in Andrews where he is working with the Phillips Refinery and his wife is telephone operator supervisor. She will be remembered as Doris Parks. They have one son, age 19, and one daughter, age 17. Gerita was asking about one of her teachers, Zady Belle Walker, who taught her how to write.

I met Mary Truelove of Lubbock in our city last week. She and Ted moved to Lubbock from Memphis several years ago along with the daughter, Peggy. Peggy is now living in Fort Worth. Ted has made several pair of boots for Hall County people and Mary helped keep the ladies in this area looking pretty as she worked for Mrs. Greenhaw in her beauty parlor.

I thought of the old nursery rhyme of "Mary, Mary, how does your garden grow?" when she told me that she brought 10 bushels of peas and beans from Lubbock. She wanted to see if her mother and sisters still knew how to can like they used to. They had a big week with all the cooking, scalding jars, etc. Sounds like they are taking the squirrels advice on storing up for the winter months.

I noticed in the daily paper paper that the astronauts were copying after Noah and the ark. They loaded up two spiders. The difference with them and Noah was they carried two female spiders as they wanted them to weave a web.

Mr. and Mrs. David Spencer and son, Randy, were visitors in Heritage Hall the past week from San Francisco, Calif. David is the son of Randal Spencer who is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Spencer who were early day residents of the Plaska area. Randal served 23 years in the Army and is now retired at Lawton, Okla. He has the one son and two daughters. David served two years in the Navy. He has lived in San Francisco for the past 7 years. For the last four years, he has been on the police force of that city. He married Delores Perez in 1968. Delores was born in the Philippines, graduated from High School and Nursing School in San Francisco. She is now working in the Washington Hospital at Fremont, Calif. They have the one son who is three years old. This was Delores' first trip to Texas. She said she liked Texas' friendly people very much. David gave me the information that the night population of San Francisco was about 750,000 and the daytime population would run about 3 million! Their streets (Continued on Page 7)

Five are now survivors Frank of Whittier, Calif., Edna Stacey of Albany, Calif., Betty Jackson of Long Beach, Calif., Morgan of Memphis and Mildred Rydell of Lake Oswego, Oregon, Box 129, Zip 97034. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker both passed away in 1948.

I met a young lady in Memphis a few days ago whom I had known all of her life, but she had grown up so quickly that I did not recognize her. She had some outstanding qualifications which were pointed out by one of her former teachers. She works most of the time when not in school, is a good financier in taking care of her earnings and is a good seamstress. I found out she could go to the scrap box, get 15 pieces all different colors and come up with a colorful dress. She also said she could eat her own cooking. This young lady is Denise Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Phillips.

We had a surprise visitor in Heritage Hall a few days ago by the name of Ed Smith of Amarillo. His mother was Ada Smith and grandfather was J. M. Hackney who was a contractor in Memphis. He moved to Memphis when he was 3 years old. He graduated in 1936 from MHS. He played drums in the High School Band. More Than 150 Persons Enjoy Annual Wills Family Reunion In Memphis Approximately 153 friends and relatives registered during the two-day Wills Family reunion which was held at the Community Center in Memphis the weekend of July 21 and 22, according to Bera Francis.

The reunion got underway on Saturday afternoon featuring visiting and the showing of a family movie made in 1960-1961.

That evening the group enjoyed a barbecue at 7 p. m. followed by a talent show by members of the family at 8:30 p. m.

Children competed for prizes and the six winners, Teresa and Marsha Francis were the master of Ceremony.

Special thanks went to Big Bill Wills who entertained with "Do You Remember." Lori Stephens won first place with her ballad routine; Marsha Francis won second place with her piano solo; Leslie Stephens won third place with her ballad routine. Other prizes were presented to the following: Laura Crane, Brett Folmar and Susan Crane.

Other talent present was Gospel Singing by Leon and Sharon Crane. Doyle Fowler illustrated an unbelievable magic trick. But the highlight of the talent show was Fred Vehon, age 6, and Chuck Harris, age 2, who got stage fright.

Following the talent show the Singing Wills Family gave a wonderful singing program of religious and patriotic songs and music.

A number of local resident attended the program to hear the Wills family program.

The young people enjoyed a skating party from 10:00 to 12:00 Saturday night as the skating rink was kept open especially for this group.

On Sunday there was an abundant amount of home cooked food and a enjoyable day of visiting among relatives.

All relatives and visitors were registered and given name tags to make renewing acquaintances easier. There was a family tree displayed which caught the fancy of most of the younger folks who joyiced in seeing their names included on the tree.

The barbecue on Saturday evening was hosted by out-of-town relatives in appreciation to local relatives.

The visitors from out-of-town stated they wanted to express their appreciation to the local relatives and other Memphis citizens for showing such wonderful hospitality and coming by to renew old friendships. They especially wanted to thank Charles Waller and Jack Scott for their service at the community Center. It was stated this may well have been the largest family reunion held there and members of the family feel this may have been the most successful family reunion ever.

AUSTIN, TEXAS
Texas may be better off under its present type of government than the so-called cabinet form being advanced in preparation for constitutional revision, according to Texas Research League.

League staff members in a new report to the Constitutional Revision Commission point to advantages of the present system and offer these key observations:

ing 6 pounds, 1/2 ounce, he has been named Daniel McBride. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Cleveland of Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Reinauer, Jr., of Hereford announce the adoption of a 6 1/2 pound baby boy, born July 23. He has been named Charles Christopher. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stargel of Memphis.

While there is room for improvement, Texas government is not the "administrative jungle" portrayed by critics. There are 174 legal entities which might qualify as state agencies, but fewer than 30 of them control 99 per cent of money and personnel in state government.

Texas still has one of the most economical big state governments in the nation. Ohio and Missouri rate slightly lower, but Texas spends more in support of its schools than those two states. Major suggestions by the League for economies have been in the areas of education and welfare financing. Overhead administration and control functions cost 1.9 per cent of Texas' total budget, while the national average is 2.6 per cent.

Major Texas agencies such as the Highway Department, Education Agency, Department of Corrections and Department of Public Safety rate high nationally. The League found few agencies in other states "clearly superior" to Texas counterparts.

While advocates of the cabinet theory claim it provides for holding the governor accountable for all aspects of government administration, political realities dictate that he can be held accountable at the polls only once or twice. Further, it is difficult for voters to assess thousands of acts by the chief executive during any four years.

Whether authority to appoint 20 cabinet officials but no sub-cabinet-level personnel would strengthen the governing policy-making it debatable. Merit system employment to insulate state employees from the spoils system is considered part of the cabinet theory. This means echelons below the cabinet level are beyond the governor's control.

The Lonely Heart

Mrs. and Mrs. Bob Miller of Enid, Okla., visited this week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hoover.

Mrs. R. C. Lemons was in Durante, Okla., the first of the week, to be with her mother Mrs. John Moreland, who is ill.

Mrs. Jim Barrow of Biiger, Okla., spent last week in Memphis visiting with her sister, Mrs. Brode Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hutcherson had as guests last week Mrs. Ray Powell and children and Mrs. Mary Jameson of Amarillo. They returned home on Monday.

Mrs. Carl Smith went to Grapevine on Thursday of last week to visit with her son, Carl Jack Smith and family and assist them while moving into their new home on Lake Grapevine.

Tom Green flew to St. Louis, Mo., Friday where he was soloist at the wedding of a fraternity brother, Jim Click.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Brown of Lawton, Okla., Mrs. Ozelle Elledge of Lanford, Okla., and Bobby Hinton of Sunside, Ariz., visited Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Bryan Adams. They left Wednesday for Rails to visit another sister, Ann Boone Hinton, who is ill. Mrs. Hinton suffered a stroke three years ago and is not doing good at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Scott have as guests this week two grandchildren, Valory and Victor Scott of Crosbyton.

Miss Terri Shadid returned home Sunday after visiting for the past week in Wichita, Kans., with a cousin.

Visiting from Thursday until Friday in the home of Mrs. Annie Hamilton and Inez McCraw were Mrs. Millard Sanders of Midland, who is a sister of Inem.

Mr. and Mrs. John Blackmore and son Todd of Houston visited here a few days last week with their grandmother, Mrs. H. B. Estes and with Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Crawford.

Mrs. Elmer J. Murdock's mother, Mrs. Edith West of Ratliff City, Okla., spent the past several weeks visiting here. Other visitors during this time were Mrs. Jim Cook and Chawn, and Jimmie and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rodgers of Amarillo, Mrs. Curry Griffin of Payson, Ariz., Mrs. Vernon Dilbeck and Terry and Danny of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Murdock and Allen Lee of Memphis, Jessie Wayne Murdock of Ft. Shirey were the lead men in the singing. Everyone seemed to be having a good time. I did find some hidden talent where I looked over at one of the pianos and found Billy Darrell Roden playing a duet with Wanda Montgomery.

The Dennis family had their reunion at the Community Center last Saturday and Sunday. The last report I had from Hubert was that they had 35 or 40 present.

Today's Best Laugh: "There's the sad tale of the guy who bought a trailer because he could not find an apartment and then had to sell it because he could not find a parking space."

A remembered quote: "It's a coincidence that June, the month of weddings, is followed by July, the month of fireworks."

There was a lot going on last Saturday on Highway 287. With a cattle trailer turning over with about 50 head of cattle which killed about 20 head and some more had to be shot for fresh beef as they were crippled. Another part of this load was loose, running up and down the railroad tracks with cowboys after them with their lariet ropes, the first scene like this in several years. In the old depot building there was a lot going on where Bradshaw and Messer were having their special opening day. KBGH was covering this event with a lot of good music being played on the organs and pianos, along with the serving of doughnuts, coffee, Cokes and tea with efficient service. The three main organists while I was there were Mrs. Jerry Montgomery, Shirey Patrick and Roger Messer, playing the player piano with the rolls of music. Thurman Ellerd and

TFB President Names Committee Of Cotton Div.

WACO—Texas Farm Bureau President J. T. (Red) Woodson has announced the appointment of a seven-member TFB Cotton Division Advisory Committee.

Darrell Cobb, cotton and grain farmer from Rogers in Bell County, has been named chairman.

Other members include: Ervin Baumann, Midland; Dan Griffith, Haskell; Herman Henry, Weslaco; Ralph Petersen, Banevang; Ray Sawyer, Hillsboro; and Doyce Turner, Muleshoe.

The major responsibility of the committee is to develop a program of work for the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Division which was established earlier this year, Woodson said. Its recommendations will be advisory to the Texas Farm Bureau Board of Directors, he said.

The TFB Cotton Division is comprised of County F a r m

Bureau Cotton Divisions in 58 of the leading cotton-producing counties in Texas. The seven members of the state advisory committee were selected from among the county division chairmen.

Commodity division are organized first on the county level at the request of producers. When a sufficient number of county Farm Bureaus request the establishment of a state commodity division, the TFB is authorized to organize one.

Hall County is one of the counties which have established a Cotton Commodity Division and is participating in the TFB Division.

Corner Main & Boykin Drive

From The Chamber Corner

Progress is just around the corner and industrial expansion is in Phase I for Memphis and Hall County. However, we are faced with the long time and constant problem that has always held Memphis back. Housing is just not available and this problem is hurting our county, city, schools and everyone who resides in Memphis. Memphis has a great potential to grow but the acute housing shortage is standing in the way.

The Memphis Chamber office receives daily requests for housing in Memphis but there is simply none. Many of our present business and industrial personnel are living in Clarendon and other surrounding communities because of Memphis' housing shortage. Our ship is sailing away and Memphis is still at the dock.

Chamber President Larry Parks, with Byron Baldwin and Jim Wines, talked with State Senator Jack Hightower concerning a highway sign for Hall County Heritage Hall. Senator Hightower expressed his support for our request and felt that he could help us to obtain a sign for the Heritage Hall.

Mrs. Carl Wood is working on a design of an emblem for the Memphis Chamber. The emblem will be in a seal fashion and will be presented at the Board of Directors' meeting this Monday.

The Chamber Board of Directors will meet for lunch at the Big O Restaurant this Monday at 12:00 noon. Several topics of business will be discussed and interested chamber members are invited to attend.

Hall County Industrial Foundation President Don Cockrell with Danny Scarbrough and Jim Wines talked with a representative of Lee Metal Products of Phillipsburg, Pa. This firm is in search of a possible expansion site and was seeking information about Memphis.

Chamber of Commerce membership is constantly growing and any citizen or business firm who is interested in becoming a member, can contact the Chamber office or any director. The Memphis Chamber of Commerce is an independent nonprofit corporation as authorized by Subdivision 53 of Article 1302 of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes of 1925. It is dedicated to the purpose of advancing the economic development of Memphis and its trade territory; to promote the general trade and commercial interest; to promote the industrial, agricultural, commercial and business developments which will improve the standards of living and income of the people of this area.

The Memphis Chamber of Commerce salutes our medical physicians: Dr. Robert Clark, Dr. O. R. Goodall and Dr. H. R. Stevens, all members of the Memphis Chamber. We are very fortunate to have these men and we certainly appreciate their dedication to the people of Memphis and Hall County.

Memphis B&PW Club To Sponsor Master And Miss Hall County Contest

The Memphis Business and Professional Womens' Club is sponsoring again this year a "Master and Little Miss Hall County" Contest which will be held on Saturday night, August 18, at 7:30 o'clock, at Community Center, Memphis.

Children who are 2½ years through pre-school age which includes Kindergarten children are eligible to enter the Master and Little Miss Hall County Contest. No talent will be judged just "beauty" and the dress is entirely optional for the Contestants. The Club would like to have entries from Lakeview, Estelline, Turkey and Memphis.

If you are interested in entering a child for the contest either in "Master Hall County or Little Miss Hall County" see or call Mrs. Barney (Lucille) Burnett at the First National Bank, Phone 259-3556, Memphis. Mrs. Burnett is in charge of "Contestants" and all entries must be in by August 15th. Parents are encouraged to enter the children now.

Mrs. Mike (Linda) Branigan and Mrs. Jack (Peggy) Moreman are in charge of gifts and trophies for the Contest. Mrs. Billy (Helen) Ballew, Mrs. Dean (Betty) Yarbrough and Mrs. Robert (Chris) Galloway will be

Ronnie Morris Is Attending VoAg. Conference

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Morris are in San Antonio this week attending the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Conference and In-Service Education Workshop. Some 1,600 teachers were expected.

Besides the four days of conferences and sessions, and a large slate of speakers, entertainment and activities are planned for the Ladies who attend the meeting.

Truck Trailer—

Citizens in this area are asked to contact Jimmy Roden if they locate any more of the strays. PNC Enterprises of Florida was the shipper of the cattle.

Highway Patrolman Don Collins said the truck was traveling northeast when it left the highway knocking down a row of willow trees along the approach to the bridge, and overturned with the rear portion of the trailer facing the direction of travel.

Wreckers from Memphis moved the truck-tractor several hours before the trailer could be up-righted by Highway Department front end loaders and moved off the front end of the bridge by wreckers.

The stray animals were seen throughout Memphis during the day, and on Saturday night, at 11 p. m., one of the strays got in front of a 1972 Ford LTD being driven by Cecil Randy Whitten on 14th and Noel Street intersection. The collision did damage to the left fender and side of the Whitten vehicle, and killed the stray.

Open House—

ing a line of play-ground equipment which he is selling, including swing sets, climbing towers, etc.

Asked about school teaching, Mr. Bradshaw said he is ready for school to begin and he will be back in the classroom.

"I'll be fulfilling my teaching duties first, and directing BAcmE as we go along," he said.

Bradshaw said he has been a long-time friend of the owner of BAcmE Fence and Iron Co., the firm which supplies the fencing material.

He also said that his fencing firm will operate all year long and he will hire employees as they are needed.

Open House day, Saturday, will see the Bradshaw and Messer families busy, serving refreshments, hosting well wishers and customers.

The opening of BAcmE Fence and Iron Co. and the expanding of Messer Electric is an example of Memphis citizens providing services which this community did not have previously. The result is more job opportunities and a stimulation of business and better services for residents in this area.
