Hall County Picnic Takes Shape!

President Lee Vardy selected a rather late hour, 8:30 p. m. last Thursday to have a steering committee meeting but the value of this time selection was evident with a full house in attendance to plan the 1973 Hall County Picnic.

The entertainment committee plans to meet tonight with President Vardy to further discuss many ideas about activities for Hall County's 1973 celebration to be held September 15 and 16. This meeting is at 8:30 in the Councilroom of the Community Center.

The 1973 celebration is going to have a new-old look this year, no doubt about it, with the Memphis Chamber of Commerce having a whiskers contest. A whiskers contest has been missing from the agenda since 1965, the 75th Anniversary Celebration eight years ago.

Considering the circumstances, with higher food prices, shortages in several areas of the economy, and obviously a need for more revenue to handle the celebration, spirits for the celebration were running high at the steering committee meeting Thursday.

President Vardy said frankly, "We don't feel beef is any problem," as plans were made to feed about 2,500 people barbecued beef and beans the Sunday noon meal. The Picnic Association will have need for more cash contributions this year.

What about the Hall County Picnic celebration each year? This editor hears both sides, the pros and cons, with some thinking the affair should terminate and others thinking it should be made into a much bigger affair by sponsoring a "money making" event. The Picnic has been a free affair in almost all activities for well over a decade.

The Hall County Picnic each year provides an avenue of cooperative effort for our citizens and provides a fitting reception for our visitors who come back to their place of birth or former residency each year.

Hall County is not blessed with monetary reward after the picnic, as visitors are not exploited and relieved of their bank rolls. Rather the affair brings out a spirit of service, giving of oneself, and provides an opportunity for civic leadership development.

Organizationally, the affair is set up and controlled by its officers through committee chairmen. All work is done voluntarily and the only cost is for supplies which have to be purchased.

The Hall County Picnic has its shortcomings. One being the Sunday afternoon portion often offers little activity for the younger set or teenagers, who don't find the prospect of sitting around listening to their elders renew old acquaintances as much fun as their elders do.

Another shortcoming is the way some local folks feel about the Picnic. Some seek opportunity to be out-of-town that weekend for one reason or another. Almost all at one time or the other, after laboring for four or five weeks planning the affair, feel the urge to slip off and rest, it's only natural.

But then again, what hostess hasn't felt a sudden letdown, after finishing the final touches for a special occasion, to discover the actual event, although enjoyed fully by her guest, to be a "drag" to the hostess.

But then again, when we all see how much the affair means to our visitors, former friends and neighbors, when crops are being laid by and fall gets in the air, it's picnic time again.

End of the Big City As Mecca?

Conservationist David Brower claims: "Actually, wanting to go to the big city has just about ended. And small-town people should stay where they are. We've already beginning to run out of resources that have enabled conglomerates like New York City to be built. Those in small towns should hang on, and find things to do to help the environment—the things the cities didn't do. People must become more self-sufficient to become sounder, and it's in smaller cities and towns that they can." #### Our Outrageous Law

A so-called equal space law recently upheld by the Florida state supreme court is so outrageous that it hardly deserves mention. But is potentially so dangerous that it cannot be shrugged off, either.

The state law requires Florida newspapers to give free "right of reply" space to political candidates criticized by a newspaper. Naturally, the court's decision upholding the law is being appealed by newspapers and professional organizations.

This law is such a flagrant infringement on the First Amendment protection that it almost defies belief.

If such a law is allowed to stand, then the newspapers of this with its editorial policies.

Most newspapers make every effort to print material from all candidates in a political campaign and certainly accept advertising from opposing points of view.

But on the editorial page, it is the right and even the duty of the publisher to take a stand and if he wants to support one candidate over another, that is his privilege just as it is that of any other citizen.

Memphis ISD School Policy Asks For Stadium Parking Cooperation

Football season is just around the corner and the Memphis Public Schools issued a statement through Supt. Bill Wood concerning the policy controlling parking at Cyclone Stadium during sporting events.

The policy states: "No vehicle will be parked in the lanes left by the firemen nor in any area which blocks traffic and which keeps other vehicles from leaving the parking area."

"The Superintendent will appoint someone to check the parking lot at the beginning of each quarter and report any violations to the pressbox. The announcer will announce the parking violation over the public address system and give the license number of the vehicle in violation. If not moved, a wrecker will be called to tow the vehicle away at the owner's expense.

"1. The firemen do this free-of-charge to the school and it is tragic when their work has been for nothing and late arrivals park in the emergency lanes left by the earlier parkers.

"2. Emergencies arise and people are blocked in by the late arrivals.

"3. Emergency vehicles are unable to enter the parking area unless the lanes are left open.

"4. Proper respect for others is not shown when parking in these reserved lanes.

"We solicit the cooperation of all patrons of the district in correcting this problem," the school policy states.

Cattlemen Are Urged To Go To Brucellosis Meet

Cattle producers in Hall County are urged to attend a meeting in Amarillo on Tuesday, Aug. 21, regarding upcoming new regulations on brucellosis testing.

The meeting will be in the City Commission Room, third floor, Municipal Building, Amarillo, 8 p. m. on August 21, announces County Extension Agent, W. B. Hooser.

A Veterinarian with the Texas Animal Health Commission will be on hand to inform producers of pending changes in the present brucellosis regulations.

The new brucellosis testing program is expected to begin October 1 and is designed to eliminate the cattle disease from Texas, thus allowing the state to be declared "Certified Brucellosis Free."

"The upcoming meeting on Aug. 21 in Amarillo will provide an opportunity for producers to learn about the new plans for brucellosis testing," Agent Hooser said.

Lightfoot-Kennon Vows Read Aug. 4

Miss Pamela Ann Lightfoot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Lightfoot of Amarillo, became the bride of Lawrence Kennon, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kennon, Sr. of Memphis at 7 p. m. Saturday, Aug. 4, in the Bereah Bible Church in Amarillo.

Rev. Jerry Bryan, pastor, read the double ring ceremony before a background of baskets of white gladiolas and blue carnations with blue and white ribbons. The standard candelabra and one arched candelabra with cathedral tapers completed the setting. White satin bows marked the family pews.

Mrs. Don Criswell, organist, presented traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Jerry Bryan as she sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Guests were registered before the ceremony by Miss Cheryl Brown of Amarillo, niece of the groom, in the vestibule of the church.

The Bride

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal-length gown of soft, silk faced organza with high rise bodice and scalloped lace, stand-up collar, Juliet sleeves with lace cap attached to fitted lace cuffs. The bodice and skirt were overlaid with Chantilly lace and bordered with deep pyramids of lace surrounding the skirt edge and forming a sanctuary train. The tiered veil of imported illusion was attached to clusters of white silk roses and edged with lace. She carried a bouquet of white Puritan mums and baby's breath with blue streamers.

In observance of the traditional old-new bridal custom, she wore a blue garter and a brooch that is over 100 years old, passed down to her grandmother, Mrs. Mildred Lightfoot, and a penny in her shoe.

The bride presented her mother with a kiss and white rose before the ceremony and presented her new mother-in-law with a white rose as she left the altar.

Attendants

Miss Sandra Podzemny of Amarillo was maid of honor and Miss Priscilla Carroll of Amarillo was bridesmaid. They wore identical formal-length dresses of dotted swiss over crepe with scalloped collar and full, long, set-in sleeves gathered to wide buttoned cuffs at the wrists. They wore wide brim blue hats with lace bands and carried nosegays of blue Puritan mums with white streamers.

Miss Melonie Dunn of Clovis, N. M., niece of the groom, wore a dress identical to the other attendants and headband of blue and white flowers. She carried a white basket and scattered rose petals down the aisle.

Larry Jeffers of Memphis was best man and Bill Campbell of Amarillo was groomsman. Ushers were Randy and Wiley Davis of Memphis & Robbie Clark, nephew of the groom of Memphis.

Lighting the candles were Doug Youree of Pampa, nephew of the groom, and Joe Lightfoot of Amarillo, brother of the bride.

Ringbearer was Mac Young of Memphis, nephew of the groom, and Miss Janet Brown of Amarillo, niece of the groom, distributed the rice bags.

Mrs. Lightfoot chose for her daughter's wedding a formal-length yellow chiffon dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Reception

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth over blue and held a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. It was decorated with blue roses.

Serving at the bride's table were Mmes. John Segethy, Phil Haynes, James Walters, James White, Bob Britten and Gordon Brown, sister of the groom.

The groom's table was covered with a brown linen cloth and held a chocolate cake decorated with pink icing.

Presiding at the groom's table were Mrs. Dennis Young and Mrs. J. S. Henry, sisters of the groom, both of Memphis.

The bride is a 1973 graduate of Canyon High School while the groom graduated from Memphis High School in 1972 and is now attending West Texas State College in Canyon and is employed at Anthonys.

Following a wedding trip to Colorado, the couple will reside in Canyon.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesies

A rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents on Friday night, June 3, at Underwoods in Amarillo. Special guests were the bride's parents and Rev. and Mrs. Bryan.

Miss Lightfoot was honoree at

MRS. L. KENNON, JR.

Local School Board Finalizes Plans For Kindergarten, Elects Faculty

The Memphis I. S. D. Board of Trustees met Tuesday evening and among items of business the School Board finalized plans for the new state-wide kindergarten program for the Memphis Schools. Kindergarten pupils will go to school beginning Monday, Aug. 20, on a full day basis for the first semester, it was decided by the board. Mrs. George Berry will be the instructor for the kindergarten class to be in Travis Elementary.

The Kindergarten program being held all day long the first semester, (not in operation the second semester), will see five-year-olds in classroom all day long, just like first graders, and these pupils will have bus and lunchroom privileges just like the other elementary students, Supt. Bill Wood said.

The board set a fee of 8 cents for extra white milk and 9 cents for extra chocolate milk in school lunchrooms and set the prices of lunches at the same price as last year, on a month by month review basis. "The board will review the cost of operation of the lunchrooms each month to determine if prices should be raised," Supt. Wood said.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Rosemary Parks who has been teaching in Austin Elementary.

The board handled several assignments and elected several teachers for the district Tuesday. Coach Jimmy Pope was given the girls basketball coaching assignment.

Mrs. Clyde McMurray is elected to teach social studies in high school.

Mrs. Gloria Nelson was assigned to Austin Elementary.

Mrs. Ann Chappell is assigned to be the instructor for the Title I remedial reading for grades four through eight with Mrs. Nancy Roden and Mrs. T. O. Pounds as teacher aides.

Miss Linda Haygood, of Winnsboro, Texas, was elected to be the school systems Home Economics teacher. She taught last semester in Sulphur Springs High School and is a graduate of North Texas State University. She also attended North East Oklahoma A&M College and Tyler Jr. College.

Supt. Wood said the Memphis Schools last year received $52,953.00 in Title I and Title III federal aid money, and this year the system has been cut back to a total of $11,515, all earmarked for Title I and will be used for Remedial Reading by the local school district.

State Great Plains Committee To Have Annual Meeting Here Sept. 12

The State Great Plains Committee has selected Memphis and Hall County as the location of its 1973 annual meeting, Mack D. Richards, Chairman of the Hall-Childress Soil and Water Conservation District No. 109, announced this week.

"Our Soil Conservation District is hosting this meeting", Chairman Richards said.

The meeting will get underway Wednesday, Sept. 12, in the American Legion Building in Memphis with a 2 p. m. call to order by District Chairman Richards.

From 2 to 5 p. m. that afternoon, the annual business session and program will be held with Ed Thomas, Program Chair, man.

That evening those attending the annual meeting of the state Great Plains Committee will enjoy a 7 p. m. catfish dinner and program at the Memphis Community Center. The dinner is on an invitation basis.

The State Great Plains Committee is composed of five men who work on a state-wide level concerning the Great Plains Conservation Program which is administered by Soil Conservation Service. One of the reasons

Hall County was selected as the site for the annual meeting of this State Committee is the Grazing Association programs which have been established, the first of their kind in Texas.

More information concerning this meeting will be released later, including a list of state and national officials and educators in agriculture who have been invited.

Beard Growing Contest Gets Underway Here

If you have wondered about the Bearded Men seen about town this week, they are just getting ready for the contest which will be held this year in conjunction with the annual Hall County Picnic, Jim Ed Wines, Chamber of Commerce manager, said this week. The contest is being sponsored by the Chamber.

Shaving permits, for men who do not choose to grow a beard, will go on sale sometime in the near future, Wines stated. Permits are $5.00 each and can be purchased from Directors of the Chamber.

Citizens also have another alternative . . . that of being thrown in the jail which will be opened some time in the future. Men who are not carrying a permit or growing a beard will be carried off to jail by Sheriff Johnny Law of Deputy Dog and will appear before Judge Dirty Harry.

Posters requesting men to participate in the Beard Growing Contest have been posted throughout the county, Wines stated.

Several years ago a Beard Growing contest was held and Joe Mothershed, who won the contest for the best over-all appearance, challenges the winners this year to beat his record.

Other winners in the last contest were Sam Goodnight, for a full beard; R. D. Reddell, chin whiskers; Pee Wee Simmons, partial beard and Bill Combs, mustache.

Judges in the last contest were Tops Gilreath, Virginia Browder and Mrs. Herschel Combs.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

When the month of August rolls around, thousands of Texas mothers suddenly realize that only a few more weeks remain until school begins.

Parents with youngsters beginning school for the first time this September, look forward to school with a little more excitement, and many mothers whose first-born are going off to school may be a bit bewildered by it all.

In addition to the million-and-one chores that must be performed in getting the youngster ready for school—new shoes, clothes, health examination—most school districts require proof of age for beginning students. A certified copy of a birth certificate is usually requested, reports the Texas State Department of Health.

This fall there will be 221,100 new first graders in the schools throughout Texas, with the total public school enrollment expected to reach 2,805,300. Continued growth of the school population is expected for the next two to three years, according to the Texas Education Agency. In addition, there will be 78,700 children enrolled in public school kindergartens.

Anticipating the rush of birth certificate requests, the Records and Statistics Section of the Texas State Department of Health has prepared for it. Requests already are pouring in.

It takes a sizeable staff just to open the thousands of letters received daily, let alone search out a requested certificate, remove it from the thick volume, make a certified copy, mail it out and then return the original certificate to its proper place. Years of experience have eliminated nearly every bottleneck. The operation is smooth and fast. Usually the copy is mailed within 3 or 4 days after the request is received.

One bottleneck still remaining, however, is the individual who makes the last-minute request. Parents are requested to stop now and write for a certified copy of the birth certificate, or contact either the city registrar where the child was born or the county clerk in the county of birth.

In most cases it is an easy matter to make a trip to your county courthouse or registrar and personally request a certified copy of a birth certificate. The county clerk's office has birth records on file, as well as countless other documents.

If you write the Texas State Department of Health, Bureau of Vital Statistics, the address is 410 East Fifth Street, Austin, Texas, 78701. Be sure to include the child's name, his place of birth, the date of birth, and names of the parents—including the mother's maiden name. The State Health Department fee for a certified copy of the birth certificate is $2.

Filing of birth certificates is just one function of the Records and Statistics Section of the State Health Department. Records also are kept of deaths, diseases and other public health information.

There are more than 13 million birth certificates on file in the state office, and the tabulation of birth certificates is a never-ending process. Last year, for example, there were just under 222,000 live births recorded in Texas.

"KNOW WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN YOU BUY TEXAS EGGS," Agriculture Commissioner John C. White says. With egg prices on the rise, the more a consumer knows about purchasing eggs the better buy she will make. Because size and grade or quality are not related, a Jumbo or a Medium egg may be Grade AA, A or B. According to information from the Texas Department of Agriculture, Grade AA eggs cover a small area with a thick, high white and a firm, high yolk. Grade A covers a moderate area. It has a reasonably high, thick white and firm, high yolk. Grade B covers a wide area with a small amount of thick white and a flattened, enlarged yolk. Grade B eggs are better for scrambling, baking and combining with other foods than for poaching, frying and cooking in the shell. Egg sizes include Jumbo, which weighs a minimum of 30 ounces a dozen; Extra Large, 27 ounces; Large, 24 ounces; Medium, 21 ounces, and Small, 18 ounces.

Largest number of live births for Texas in one year was recorded in 1957. That year 249,567 babies were born alive in Texas, and their births are recorded in the Records and Statistics Section.

Just maintaining records of current births and deaths is a mammoth task. In order to do this, the statewide system includes 1,000 local registration officials who collect these records. All of these must be carefully indexed to expedite the hundreds of thousands of searches that must be made each year to process applications for birth verifications and certification.

This sounds complicated, and it is. But to a person who needs a birth certificate for a passport or to prove the age of a child entering school, it is a vital service.

Not only are these records helpful to you and necessary for legal proof in many instances, but they furnish—as a group—information of great value to the state. To best use this wealth of statistics, data is transferred from records to magnetic tapes and a computer converts these into tabulations. From these charts and reports come information enabling staff statisticians to read and interpret the very pulse of the state's health.

Larry Johnson To Go To Grayson Co. Junior College

Larry Don Johnson, who represented Memphis in the Texas High School Coaches Assn.'s All Star Basketball Game in Dallas, Wednesday, Aug. 1, has accepted a basketball scholarship at Grayson County Junior College, located between Sherman and Denison.

Johnson played on the North All-Star team, and saw limited action in both halves of the contest, which the South won in the final minutes of play after the North team had led most of the game.

Johnson received one of the All-Star watches, a gift from the Coaches Association to players who participate in the games during the coaching school.

Coach Jimmy Pope discussed the game and other activities which the players participated in at Dallas and said, "Larry Don seemed to enjoy the activities and he certainly represented Memphis High well on the court and off the court."

"He possibly didn't get to play

George Stanley Gives Interesting Report On Recent Trip To Africa

(Editor's Note: George Stanley is visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Koen, until Sept. 16 when he will leave for Fort Lamy, Chad, where he will be Fulbright Lecturer in English at the University of Chad for the next year. Chad is in north-central Africa and is part of former French Equatorial Africa. Mr. Stanley writes of his time already spent in Africa.)

I have just recently returned from two and one-half months in South Africa, South West Africa, and Rhodesia.

I was in South Africa to complete my doctoral studies at the University of Port Elizabeth. While I was in Port Elizabeth, I stayed with my dissertation director, Professor Doctor J. G. H. Combrink, and his family at their home in Summerstrand, a seaside suburb of Port Elizabeth. The Combrink's house is three houses from Algoa Bay, a bay of the Indian Ocean. Even during the winter (the seasons in South Africa are the reverse of ours) it is usually warm enough to go swimming in the Indian Ocean, and the beaches are almost always crowded. Surfers, too, find these waters excellent.

Many Americans are surprised to find out that South Africa is almost exactly like the United States in its way-of-life. This can work both ways, however, because South Africans are also just as surprised to find out that Americans are "just like South Africans". South Africans love sports and outdoor cooking. They are very keen on rugby and their bar-b-quees are called "braais".

I was a victim of the dollar crisis while in South Africa. The South African rand is tied to the American dollar. Everytime the dollar declines on monetary markets, the rand goes with it. Because of this, the South African government decided to revalue the rand upward against the dollar by five per cent. This move certainly helped the South African economy, but it made me approximately 30 dollars poorer the day of the revaluation than I had been the previous day.

From Port Elizabeth, I went to Cape Town for a few days to visit with friends. Cape Town is one of the most pleasant cities in the world. While there, I attended a performance of the University of Cape Town Symphony Orchestra in St. George's Cathedral, and a performance of "Crown Matrimonial", a play about the abdication of King Edward the Eighth. The play was performed in the magnificent Nico Malan Theatre.

From Cape Town, I flew to Windhoek, South Africa. South West Africa was German territory until after World War I. In fact, German is still one of the three official languages, the other two being Afrikaans and English. Windhoek, a city of approximately 70,000 people, has four daily newspapers, two in Afrikaans, one in German, and one in English.

South West Africa was mandated to South Africa after World War I by the now defunct League of Nations. The United Nations has been trying for many years to wrest control of the territory from South Africa, so far unsuccessfully. Because of this, the Southwesterners, as the inhabitants are called, tend to be extremely cold and unfriendly. While I was there, their coldness was matched only by the weather. At night, the temperature was often below freezing, and the days were not much warmer. Since much of the territory is desert, there were often dust storms during the day.

The city of Windhoek, itself, looks both old and new German. There are many buildings dating from the German occupation of the late 1800's and the early 1900's. Some of the new parts of the city reminded me of the newer parts of Berlin, Munich, and Frankfurt.

From Windhoek, I flew to Salisbury, Rhodesia. The temperature was warmer, and the people were incredibly friendly. The latter I could not and still cannot understand. If any inhabitants of a country deserve to be hostile toward the rest of the world, Rhodesians deserve to be so. This marvelous country has been living for eight years with United Nations sanctions, mainly because Great Britain doesn't have the fortitude to stand up to the other Commonwealth nations. Not only does Rhodesia have to contend with United Nations sanctions, she also has to fight black terrorists operating in the northern part of the country. While I was in Rhodesia, terrorists raided St. Albert's Mission, a catholic school north of Salisbury, and kidnapped nearly 300 women and children. The terrorists intended to take them across the border into neighboring Zambia, and then send some of them to the Soviet Union and China for training as terrorists. Fortunately, most of those kidnapped were eventually able to escape at night and make their way back up the rugged Zambezi escarpment to the mission. When I left the country, Rhodesian security forces were closing in on the terrorists. Incredibly, I can find no one who remembers hearing this kidnapping reported in the American press.

Rhodesians can visit only a handful of countries in the world: South Africa, Malawi, Portugal (and her African territories), Greece, and Switzerland. The rest of the world does not recognize Rhodesia as a country! Because of this, Rhodesian passports are not considered legal documents. Even in some of the countries where Rhodesian citizens are allowed entry, Rhodesian currency is not accepted as legal tender. Still, with all this to contend with, I never encountered one harsh word, even though America is herself responsible for some of Rhodesia's problems.

While in Rhodesia, I flew over to the Victoria Falls. I had not planned to do this, because in May, Zambian soldiers had shot and killed two Canadian girls and wounded one American man who were climbing down some of the steep gorges on the Rhodesian side of the Zambezi River which marks the boundary between Rhodesia and Zambia. However, I decided not to pass up the sight of a falls twice as high as Niagara and many times wider. It was well worth the trip. It was also fascinating to peer through the thick bush at the bridge which crosses the river, knowing that on the other side were trigger-happy Zambian soldiers, just waiting to shoot anyone who dared cross over the white stripe in middle of the bridge marking the boundary between the two countries.

Although Rhodesians are denied entry to the United States, Rhodesians welcome Americans.

As one Rhodesian told me, "We want you to come and see for yourself. We want you to come see that black and white are trying to live together. We are trying to solve our problem." The "problem" is that 200,000 whites are ruling a country where there are also 5 million blacks. Britain demands one-man one vote. The whites in Rhodesia do not want to give up their country to people who are still living in the stone age.

the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rube Sisk, who operated cafes here for a number of years. This was a hard working family with long hours. Another "old timer" I heard of who passed away a few days ago was Mrs. E. A. "Tater" Thomas of Amarillo. She will be remembered as the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Burnett who lived in the Indian Creek area in the early days. For a number of years Mr. Burnett was called "Cotton King" before moving to Moore County where he first introduced cotton and built a gin there.

In last week's daily paper, we found the death notice of Mrs. Mazine (Grady) Tunnell who was buried at Quitaque. She will be remembered as Mazie Grady who married Ernest Tunnell, son of the late G. Tunnell and Mrs. Tunnell of Plainview. Ernest passed away in 1948. Mr. and Mrs. G. Tunnell were merchants in Quitaque and Memphis in the early days.

We should have a lot of good homemakers as I read in the daily news that June 25 to 28 the Home Ec show in Atlantic City drew a crowd of 6,800 Home Ec teachers from over the U. S. This article did not say whether they were trying out the new can openers or not.

Mrs. Jerry Davidson had as her guests in Heritage Hall, Mrs. J. W. (Barbara) Garner, Tamara Walker, Vickie Ann Garner, also George and Van Garner of Longview. Mrs. Garner is the mother of Mrs. Davidson and the first trip for this family in this part of Texas. They are used to the tall pines. One of them made the remark of how far you could see.

Mrs. C. S. McCollin had as her guests in Heritage Hall, her daughter, Mrs. Buster Kerlee of Hanau, Germany. She was born and reared in Hall County and graduated from High School in 1946. She married in 1965. Her husband has been in the U. S. service the past years. They have two children who were also visitors in Heritage Hall. This family will leave for Germany Aug. 18.

John Lemons and Jerry Burleson had as their guest in Heritage Hall, one of their old schoolmates, Jimmy Don Sturdevant of Fort Worth. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Odie Sturdevant. He graduated from MHS in 1965 and has worked with the DPS for the past 5 years. With the cover on his face, I had to be introduced and then I called him an under- cover man. That little fuzz on Jerry and John's chins will have to have a lot of fertilizer if they have a showing for the Picnic and Beard Contest.

Mrs. L. W. Wells of Wellington was a visitor in Hall County Heritage Hall the past week. She will be remembered here by her schoolmates as Willie Scruggs, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Scruggs, who were early day residents of Memphis. Geo. Scruggs was manager of Woodriddle Lumber Co. and also the Wm. Cameron Lumber Co. here before moving to Clarendon in 1919. Willie graduated from Clarendon High School. The Scruggs family moved to Wellington in 1925. Willie married Lowell Wells who is now deceased. She has three sisters now living, Mildred, Mary Nell and Frankie, also one brother, Wes Scruggs. They are nieces and nephew of the late Inez Baker, who wrote and published the book of Hall County. Mrs. Wells is very much interested in museums and she is working on the one at Wellington since re- turning from school teaching.

Bob Crow of Washburn was a visitor in Heritage Hall. He is still a native son of Hall County and hope he will soon make his home here again.

Jan Baldwin of Austin was a visitor in Heritage Hall the past week. She is now teaching in one of the high schools of Austin.

Mike Valencia had as his guest in Heritage Hall, his mother, Mrs. Roy Spry of Albuquerque, where she has lived the past 15 years. Mrs. Spry will be remembered by her schoolmates as Ethelyn Eller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Eller. She graduated from MHS in 1939 and left Hall County in 1940. She has lived in several different states since 1940. She has the one son, Mike of Memphis, and one daughter who lives in Albuquerque.

Mrs. Carl Clayton had as her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Clayton with their son and daughter. Carlton was a member of the 1957 graduating class of MHS but did not finish with his class as he joined the Air Force where he has been active for the past 17 years. He and his family have recently returned from Tokyo, Japan, where he was stationed four years. They are now living in Ruston, La. Mrs. Clayton was Sandra Johnson of Abernathy.

Other visitors in Heritage Hall the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bogg of Lubbock. Rodney Jone had as his guests, Ethel and Teri Johnson of Garland.

Dwight Gailey of Denton was a visitor in Heritage Hall on his way back to Denton after visit- ing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ace Gailey, in Colorado.

Mrs. W. S. McQueen had as her guests in Heritage Hall, Mrs. E. M. Sampley and her two daughters of O'Donnell. Mrs. Sampley will be remembered as Billie McQueen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McQueen and granddaughter of the late John and Mrs. McQueen of Memphis. W. S. was born in Hall County and his wife will be remembered as Cleoph Ziegler. She and W. S. have 7 children and 8 grand- children, now living.

Gina Brown of Buffalo, Mo., was a visitor in Heritage Hall the past week.

Judge Chappell retrieved an unusual electric light globe the past week from the Huddleston home on West Brice Street. This was a clear globe with the wrap- per around it. It was an Edison Mazda, 110 volt and 40 watt. This globe was probably left in the at- tic when this home was wired for electricity about 60 years ago. People I can remember living in this house in the early days were Jet and Dora (Read) Fore and later on, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Flannery and still another fam- ily was the A. W. Read family.

Some of the younger man have started getting ready for the Hall County Picnic, the third Sunday in September, which has become traditional.

Last Sunday I noticed several of the younger men at church who, I thought, had forgotten to wash the dirt off their faces; but after a closer look, it turned out that they had started their whisk- ers growing. They were fuzzy faced.

Mrs. Louise (Davis) Hodge was a visitor in Heritage Hall last Saturday. She will be remem- bered here as Louise Davis, the daughter of the late W. M. and Mrs. Davis of Memphis. Louise graduated from MHS in 1938 after attending school at Salis- bury. She married Elmer Hodge of Tulsa, Okla., in 1941. They have two sons and two grand- children. Louise and her husband have traveled in all of the states of the U. S. with the exception of the New England States.

They are now living in Siloam Springs, Ark. Another visitor in Heritage Hall last Saturday was Jesse Lee (Jaynes) Davis of Globe, Ariz. She is the daughter of the T. A. Jaynes who were early day residents of Hall Coun- ty. She attended school at Salis- bury, and Newlin and graduated from Hillsboro High School. She married Eugene Davis in 1940. They have one daughter and one son and four grandchildren. One of Jesse Lee's sisters, Mildred, who was a nurse here, is still following the profession and has been living in Dallas the past 15 years. The other two sisters are Hazel of Durant, Okla., and Bess who lives in Houston. Jesse Lee and Eugene have been living at Globe, Ariz., the past 23 years.

Mrs. W. T. Hightower had as her guests in Heritage Hall, her daughter, Laura Mai, and grand- daughters Janie and Katie of Houston. Laura Mai and Sen. Jack Hightower graduated from MHS in 1944. Laura Mai married Hugh Lilly who is with a con- struction company which keeps him flying over the states and a few foreign countries trying to keep up. I found out that he and his brother-in-law were both in Chicago a few days ago and they did not have time to see each- other. We are living in a fast world.

Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lilly for their contribution to Hall Co. Heritage Hall.

I enjoyed attending the Postex party last week. The Burlington Mills were celebrating their 50th birthday in all of their plants in the U. S. and other countries. My observation at the local plant was sheets, sheets and more sheets. Some being hemmed, cut, inspec- ted, folded, wrapped and shipped, along with rolls and rolls of sheeting. Altogether I don't think I would miss it much to say there were a million yards of sheeting in this one plant. There was a smile of happiness in this plant from the front entrance to the back room where they were ship- ping the large cartons.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Leslie left last Friday on their trip to Las Vegas, Los Angeles, Tokyo, Hong Kong, China and Hawaii. I asked Bill to say hello to Mrs. Woo in Hong Kong whom we met a few weeks ago on her way home. I guess Wilma will wonder what makes her handbag so heavy. I think Bill slipped a jar of peanut butter in her bag after he found out that beef steak was selling for $14.00 a pound in Japan.

The Memphis Chamber is very proud of our courthouse lawn and grounds. Mr. Buster Howard has really done an excellent job and I'm sure that the whole community is proud of our courthouse grounds. The next time you see Mr. Howard, tell him how nice the grounds look and how much you appreciate his work.

The City Park highway signs have been erected this week. The signs are located on Highway 287 near the 6th Street intersection. Our appreciation to the Texas Highway Department.

We hope that the signs will direct our highway travelers and tourists to the park. Memphis has an excellent park and we should be very proud of it.

We are all anxiously awaiting a good time with the beard contest and encourage every man in Hall County to let "them whiskers grow".

Postex Hall Plant Observes 50th Anniversary Of Burlington Industries

Last Friday, employees of Postex Hall Plant enjoyed a celebration of Burlington Industries' 50th Anniversary from 12 to 3:30 p. m. by receiving one prize and watching five lucky winners receive other prizes.

The Postex Plant here served cake and coffee or soft drinks to its employees and each one received a blue and white throw rug with Burlington's emblem.

Several visitors stopped by throughout the day to extend best wishes on the occasion.

Many activities are being held by plans in the Burlington Industries in the chain which contains 130 plants in 14 states of the U. S. and 11 foreign countries. Burlington is the largest producer of textile products in the world.

"Hall Plant has been a part of Memphis for 11 years and we of Burlington are proud of this facility and equally proud of the community in which we are located. We are confident that this fine relationship will continue for many years to come," Tom Drake, local Plant Supervisor said.

Five workers at the plant were lucky enough to win special gifts. Jacquelyn Elliott won a set of men's luggage, Melody Wauer won the opportunity to have her name submitted as the local plant entry in the $5,000 corporate prize being given to one lucky winner.

Pauline Bias won the big he will be seeking offensive personnel, but following workouts this week certain names have been called at times giving indications.

In the T formation, tight ends are called for and Captain Bobby Hall is obviously going to be one of them with 6' 4" Ben Smith looking a good prospect for the other. Mark Bradshaw and Captain Jimmy Booth appear regularly in the guard slots, while 200 lb. Jerome Spearman, a lad who has trimmed some weight and Lyndel Orecutt, a hard hitting defensive lineman last year are appearing in tackle positions. Three lads are snapping the football at center, Jay Campbell, Mark McQueen and Ed Hutcherson.

In the backfield, Coach McMurray is looking at Captain Wayne Davis, Ronnie Browning and Jimmy Melton at quarterback, with Melton doubling as a halfback along with Don Davis and James Beck, and others. Fullback Jim Dixon, a captain, and Gary McKay are also in the backfield.

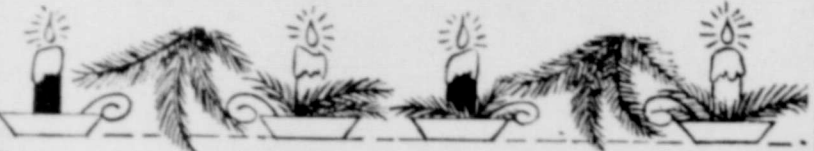

Along with those mentioned above, there are David Cofer, George Wiggins, Buddy Ballew, Duck Richards, Candy Reyes, Tony Salinas, Audie Moore, Chuck Chappell and Mike Mowrey. Another lad, a transfer, James Deary, is working with the team but Coach McMurray said his eligibility is yet to be determined.
