Cyclone Can Win Share Of Title Fri.

Cyclone Stadium will be the scene Friday night for the 10th game of the Memphis Cyclone schedule and features a district finale between the local squad and the Silverton Owls.

Memphis must have the victory in order to clinch a tie with Claude in District 2-A. Should the Clarendon Bronchos defeat the Wheeler Mustangs, then the district would be in a three-way tie necessitating a toss of the coin on Saturday morning to determine the district representative to meet Stinnett Rattlers in Bi-District.

The Cyclone will be a 40-plus favorite to win the contest and is ranked No. 9 in Class A in Harris Poll Silverton has managed only one district victory, over Valley High, this season and the Owls took it on the back last Friday when Clarendon defeated them in a one-sided contest.

Coach Clyde McMurray said this week, "Our team has a one-third chance in the coin toss of representing our district and our team has set to work preparing for this should we be selected."

"We have had good workouts this week and our starters, including the seniors, will see ample action against Silverton," he said.

The coach indicated that not only does the Cyclone need a victory but the team needs to look real sharp Friday night. Coach McMurray said that "mentally" his team must have a good night and emphasis has been made in practice toward this goal.

"Valley High game was a difficult situation on coaches and players alike," Coach McMurray said. "We tried to prepare these different units on offense and on the sidelines it was difficult to keep track of everyone going in and coming out," he said.

The coach indicated that the team's defense in holding Valley to almost no offense was a highlight of the game and that coaches had opportunity to look and act on season's material.

Silverton Owls
The Owls utilize the Wishbone offensive set and go with either a six-two or a five-two defensive alignment, and the local coach said that it depends on which defense they use against Memphis will depend on the try of offensive attack his team will employ.

The Owls have No 10 Ken Wood, 150, junior, at quarterback, and No. 35, McCoy, a 186-lb, senior at fullback, No. 21, Jeff Tiffin is at one halfback position and No. 5 Craig Culwell, 160, senior, is at the other halfback position.

The Owls line has an average weight of about 15 pounds, per man with tackles Marshall Rauch at 180 and Todd McMimmsey at 178 their heaviest lads up front.

Coach McMurray in indicating starters for the contest with Silverton said, "We are switching James Beck from tight end-split end to flanker, and Ronnie Browning will play a split end most of the night."

Earl Ray Wright and Browning have been alternating in the flanker position for several games. James is a good ball carrier as well as a receiver, and this should give us more speed when we come in tight, and James is one of our best blockers. We'll start with Jim Dixon at tailback, Don Davis at fullback and Wayne Davis as signal caller," he said.

"Bobby Hall at tight end, Candy Reyes at tackle, and Mark Bradshaw at guard will be the right side, and Jimmy Booth, Kenneth Fields and split end Browning will be our starting left side, with Jay Campbell snapping the football," the coach said.

"Defensively, the only change is Jay Campbell at tackle and naturally Earl Ray Wright will be back at outside safety," the coach said.

Local fans should look carefully at the Cyclone offense Friday night for they could see some things they haven't witnessed before if the team begins executing its veer attack. The team has used portions of this attack in the past but has been working on the entire thing and coaches feel the team needs to test it under game conditions.

City Receives First Load of Receptacles

The City of Memphis received Tuesday 16 of the new containers to hold solid waste and expects to receive weekly shipments throughout the next few weeks.

The containers, as they arrive, are being placed in alleys throughout the City of Memphis, and citizens are being asked to "please" not use them until the announcement is made that the "no burning" system is ready for use.

"We are placing the containers in the alleys because we do not have our new packer truck as yet to transport them, and it will save us many man-hours of labor to allow the transport trucks from the contractor to put them out for us as they arrive," Jack Scott, City Tax Collector, said.

"We hope our packer-truck will arrive within the next few weeks," Scott said Tuesday.

Citizens of Memphis are aware that the City of Memphis has until Jan. 1, 1974 to begin the no burning trash collection. Until the new system can be implemented, citizens are asked to continue to use the old system, burning trash barrels, and not to place trash into the new "no burn" containers because the City is not now equipped to empty these containers at this time.

Cotton Classing Office To Open Here Next Mon.

The USDA Cotton Classing Office located in Memphis, will begin receiving cotton samples for classing Monday, Charles Cox, officer in charge of the Altus, Okla. Cotton Classing Office, announced this week.

Wylie Cain will be the officer in charge of the Cotton Classing Office (seasonal) located here. Mr. Cox said, "It is later this year on the opening of the Memphis office, Nov. 19, but our harvest is beginning later this season."

The seasonal office here will stay open until the final stages of the harvest. "We classed more cotton from the Memphis territory last year in Altus, but it was due to the unusually late aspects of the season. We are hoping that this year the harvesting will go faster, weather permitting," Mr. Cox said in making the opening announcement.

Since much of this territory has not received a killing freeze as yet, the cotton is still a little green for good harvesting, but mild dry weather has certainly allowed the crop to mature further and should help in grade and staple as well as micronaire.

Young Men Lead Officers On Short Chase

Two teenage boys, both from Kentucky, were picked up by Law Enforcement Officers here after a high speed chase about 11 p.m. Monday, Nov. 5, and finally forced to stop at the intersection of U. S. 287 and State 228 in Memphis.

The young men, Harry Nelson Hightower, 17, and Vernon Allen Roach, 14, are being held awaiting papers to return them to Bowling Green, Kentucky. They were in a stolen Ford Maverick.

The Texas DPS at Childress, reported to all units that a motorist had stopped in Childress to report that someone had taken a shot at their vehicle from another vehicle on U. S. 287.

DPS Patrol Unit stationed in Hall County, Patrolmen Jerry Leaverton and Don Collins, set up a road block on 287 at the intersection of FM 1619.

A small vehicle pulled off the highway down the road from this unit so the Patrolmen went to investigate and saw the two occupants either getting something from the trunk or putting something in the trunk. The patrolmen ordered the occupants to get out but the pair left the scene at a high rate of speed.

Chief of Police Kenny Schull stopped them at the intersection. Found in the trunk of the vehicle were two .410 shotguns.

Services Held For Miss Lucy Gosdin Sat. Nov. 10

Services for Miss Lucy Gosdin were at 2 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 10 at the First Baptist Church Chapel in Memphis.

Rev. C. H. Murphy, pastor, and Rev. Tommy Nelson, pastor of the First United Methodist Church here, officiated. Burial was at the Union Hill Cemetery at Lakeview under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Miss Gosdin died at 4 a. m. Friday in Wilbarger General Hospital in Vernon. She was born in Bulcher, Tex., Oct. 3, 1897 and was a practical nurse who moved to Hall County with her parents, the late Dr. and Mrs. William S. Gosdin, in 1908.

Miss Gosdin lived in Lakeview until 1948 and worked in the Gosdin Drugstore there from 1910 to 1948, when she moved to Memphis.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Mabel Meacham and Mrs. R. S. Patrick, both of Memphis.

Pall bearers were: Lee M. Robertson, V. C. Durrett, Aubrey Robertson, W. M. Gowdy, Otho Gardenhire and Del Wells.

Band Booster Club To Have Bake Sale Saturday Nov. 17

The Memphis Band Booster Club will have a bake sale on Saturday, Nov. 17, starting at 9:00 a. m.

This is the last weekend before the Thanksgiving holidays, so make your plans now to buy these home baked goodies, consisting of pies, cakes and brownies.

Bake sale locations will be at Fowler's and Lockhart's drug stores.

All money from the sale will go into a spring trip for the Cyclone Band to the festival of Bands in Arlington, Texas.

'Eternal' Flame To Be Extinguished On Friday After Thanksgiving

The "eternal" Flame which has been burning on the Northwest corner of the Hall County Courthouse lawn, erected by Simon-Noel Post of the American Legion here, will be snuffed out on Friday, Nov. 23, 1973.

The reason the flame, which burns natural gas, is being extinguished is the national fuel crisis, not any reflection upon the distinguished memory of War dead, for which the flame was originally lit.

Legion Post Commander John McCauley and the local Legionnaires after discussing the situation with Hall County Precinct Commissioner Ed Hutcherson and other County Officials, concluded that, under the circumstances of the national appeal to conserve fuel, the flame would be extinguished, to be re-lit should fuel become available in adequate amounts.

The national fuel shortage is being considered as critical as during wartime.

Memphis was one of the first places in the nation to lite a Memorial Flame shortly after the death of President John Kennedy.

Basketball Season To Open Tuesday

Memphis High basketball season opens Tuesday night in the Cyclone Gymnasium against Paducah with two games to be played.

Cager Coach Jimmy Pope said, "depending upon the outcome of football season this weekend, we may have two girls games if we're still alive in football, or there will be a boys and girls varsity game with Paducah Tuesday."

Fans are encouraged to be on hand at the local gym to see the games Tuesday night.

Flea Market Saturday To Raise Funds For New Fire Truck; Items Needed

By VIRGINIA BROWDER
Helen Ballew of Grandma's Attic and Virginia Browder of The Golden Cobweb are sponsoring a Flea Market Sale Saturday, Nov. 17, on the parking lot of The Community Center. The purpose of this sale is to help The Memphis Volunteer Fire Dept. buy a new small fire truck.

We plan to put in lots of items and ask everyone who will and can to contribute things like furniture, kitchen ware, bric-a-brac, bottles, dishes, paperback books, yard tools, glass ware and such. There is a stipulation, the "things" should be clean and in good condition—not trash! These items can be taken to Charles Waller at the Community Center between now and Saturday, Nov. 17. Total receipts from sales will go toward purchase of the fire truck.

If you've ever had a fire at your house or in your pasture, you remember how glad you were to see The Volunteer Fire boys come in to view. It's no small task to stop whatever you're doing every time that siren sounds and go on the double to the trouble spot. These fellows are not on salary. This is a service they render the community out of the goodness of their many hearts.

Now, they need a new small fire truck. You saw the old one in the Enduro Parade. The new one will have a hose reel and be fine for country fires. Then, the big truck can be left in town for urban protection, if needed. This FLEA MARKET SALE is to help them protect you. LET'S BUY A FIRE TRUCK!

The Ministerial Alliance of Memphis will again sponsor a Community Thanksgiving Service to be held Sunday Evening, Nov. 18, at 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church.

Christians from various churches of the community will gather to express their thanks to God for the blessings of the year and

Food and Fiber Appreciation Month

What with all the information about fuel shortages, and problems throughout the nation on shortages of many kinds, Texas is observing November as "Food and Fiber Appreciation Month", and we feel the observance is very timely in our state.

Governor Dolph Briscoe has officially proclaimed November as a special month to honor Texas agriculture and the Governor has asked for a vast expanded rural development program and launched a campaign to make Texas No. 1 in agricultural production.

"We will make every possible resource available to help people in rural areas achieve maximum support for a more abundant life," Briscoe said in a keynote address on "Planning for a Rural-Urban Balance."

Briscoe emphasized that loss of people from rural areas has created many dilemmas in the cities, and said that high priority must be given to rural development and job opportunities, orderly development of natural resources, improvements of services and facilities, better rural labor market service, more emphasis on vocational training, improved health service and adequate housing.

Dr. John E. Hutchinson, director, Texas Agricultural Extension Service concludes that Texas appears to have the necessary resources to achieve the goal of becoming No. 1 in agriculture.

"Among the state's advantages are available land resources plus the technological and knowledge reserve from agricultural research for expanding production of all phases of the livestock industry, food and feed grains for domestic and export; cotton and other natural fibers; fresh and processed vegetables, fruits and nuts, soybeans and sunflowers; sugarcane; mariculture, and expanding processing industries near production areas," Dr. Hutchinson said.

Texas Commissioner of Ag. John C. White points out that Texas needs a state program similar to the Veteran's Land Board to assure funds for young people getting into full-time agriculture, improved water resources, a do-it-yourself rural development program and recreation development in rural areas.

Texas Cong. W. R. (Bob) Poage said there is "no effective way to deal with national urban concentration problems until we solve rural problems." He pointed out that locating industries in rural areas has paid for itself, and said he hopes for further implementation of the 1972 Rural Development Act soon.

"Food and Fiber Appreciation Month," is a time to give agriculture a simple "thank you" or a pat on the back for doing a good job. So it is that the month of November is being set aside as a time when we show our appreciation to those engaged in food and fiber production and processing for a job well done.

For area farmers, November will be a time when they are most concerned with harvesting, looking for a freeze, and anxiously watching the weather.

Agriculture has come to the forefront because of the food price situation and improve markets, and the story of Texas tremendous agricultural industry—long taken for granted—is being emphasized.

"Our country and the entire world depends on the food and fiber production, marketing and distribution industry," a spokesman for agriculture said.

What Other Editors Say

Nixon's Year

A year ago President Nixon was re-elected in one of the great landslides in American history. Today a congressional committee is studying whether he should be impeached, and demands are heard that he resign, not all of them coming from his traditional enemies.

In January, Nixon brought perhaps not "peace with honor" but a cease-fire to Vietnam and an end to American involvement, and the Gallup poll reported 68 per cent if America approved if the way he was doing his job.

From that peak, Nixon's popularity has plunged to 27 per cent, the most precipitous decline in the history of opinion polls.

A lot, by no means all, of the unpopularity is Nixon's fault. An example of a body blow that he didn't deserve was the Agnew case. Though he picked Agnew twice as his running mate, he simply didn't know the man was a crook.

Nixon blames much of his terrible troubles on "vicious, and hysterical" reporting by the media. But in truth they stem from the acts of his closest and his own strange behavior, which, stated charitably, constitutes gross mismanagement.

The President's appointees — the Mitchells, Stanses, Deans, Magraders, Haldemans, Ehrlichmans, etc. — have been painted by the Watergate investigations as rascals who would have felt completely at home in a medieval court.

With associates like these, it's no wonder Nixon has been tarred with Watergate, the suspect ITT settlement, the milk-price affair, missing tapes, Bebe Reboza's $100,000, the use of public money to embellish Key Biscayne and San Clemente, and perhaps other skeletons that haven't rattled yet.

Nixon himself has often been his own worst enemy. Throughout the year his spokesman issued sweeping or inane denials that later became "inoperative." The President's speeches and press conferences about Watergate have been unconvincing and riddled with contradictions.

He started out with absolutist positions on executive privilege, testimony of aides, cooperation with the senate Watergate committee, the tapes, the special prosecutor and the role of the courts. He about-faced on all of them, confusing the public and sowing suspicion.

All that, plus the enthusiastic help of his political enemies, explains how he got from 68 to 27 per cent in record time. Where does he go from here? There are about four scenarios.

The first is that he comes clean on Watergate, convinces the public and Congress of his lack of guilt, and restores faith in his presidency. The second is that he and the country limp through the next three years with a crippled president and all the dangers that entails. The third is resignation. The fourth impeachment.

Obviously the first course would be best for the country, but can he take it successfully, with all of the surefootedness and political skill it needs? We wonder.

While Nixon was digging himself deeper in the Watergate pit, he isolated himself, holding up in the White House with Haldeman and Ehrlichman. Now, after briefly broadening his circle of advisers, he's holing up with Gen. Haig and Ron Ziegler, who know little more, if any, about politics than his predecessors. It's a strange way to save a presidency.

The students play, each declaring which school they represent, Memphis, Clarendon or Claude, and the coins are tossed to see which goes to Bi-District. Rumor has it that one of the schools, and we're not at liberty to say where the rumor came from, is seeking the services of "Amarillo" Slim to handle their coin. Seriously, however, a championship is within grasp of a fine, spirited and dedicated bunch of Cyclone football players, who have, for this sports writer, has brought a feeling of ease and contentment to a very nervous stomach, for the team has reached a plateau of excellence rarely seen in conduct, play, aggressiveness and sportsmanship of which their community, school, coaches and families can all be justly proud, regardless of whether they are the district representatives or not. They have been a team, pulling and working together, all the way, each making his contribution in a unified effort, and because of this, the team has been one which has been consistently successful, rarely making errors, and performing up to, and beyond expectations. If they do get the play-off berth, justice has been served, for the 1973 Cyclone has earned it.

Eppers Raises First Bale In Donley County

Hedley's and Donley County's first bale of cotton of the 1973 crop was ginned Tuesday, Oct. 23. The bale was raised by J. A. (Cotton) Eppers on the Lucille Franklin place one mile east of Hedley. It was ginned by the West Texas Gin in Hedley free of charge.

W. B. (Nookie) Wiggins is the manager of the gin. From 2500 pounds of seed cotton, Eppers received a 690 pound bale of cotton and 900 pounds of cotton seed.

The bale was sold under the contracted price of 55 cent per pound and brought $324.50. The cotton seed was sold to the gin for $95.00 a ton, brings $42.75. The bonus paid for the first bale of 1973 cotton by the Hedley Lions Club was $75. The total amount received by Mr. Eppers for this bale of cotton was $442.25. This was by far the most money ever received for a bale of cotton in Donley County.

MONKEY BABY: Clarissa H. Beatty, Ph.D. (r.) and Rose Mary Boeck, Ph.D. give "mother love" to cuddly infant rhesus monkey at Regional Primate Research Center in Beaverton, Ore. The physiology of monkeys is being investigated in a scientific research project sponsored by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America. Because monkeys are more biologically similar to humans than are most laboratory animals, Dr. Beatty and her co-workers hope their study of the muscle metabolism of the rhesus monkey during development and growth will yield data useful to understanding the dystrophic process in children. Dr. Beatty's research endeavor is just one of over 220 MDAA-supported studies now underway in leading hospitals, universities, and research centers in the U.S. and 13 foreign countries. The Association's worldwide research program, aimed at conquering MD and related crippling disorders, is principally financed by dollars raised through the annual March Against Muscular Dystrophy.

Jim Ed Wines, giving the information of the length of time D. R. Kelley had the same number post office box, gave me a few telephone calls the past week. Mrs. L. O. Dennis said their box had been 785 since 1927, making 46 years. Mrs. E. G. Archer gave her box number as 685 and this number was given them in 1922 and was the same in the three different locations. She canceled hers out when she was unable to get up the steps to get her mail. Winfred (Prater) Davis said that box 221 in the upper right hand corner had been used by the E. T. Prater family, she knew for 55 years or more. I don't know how a 39 year old could remember this far back. Word came to me that the Grace Wilson family had the same post office box number the longest period of time, which is over 70 years. There are not so many post office boxes used now by local people as the large towns like Dallas, Forth Worth, Amarillo and Mem-

WORLD WAR ON DYSTROPHY: Russia's Dr. A. N. Studitsky (l.), Japan's Dr. Setsuro Ebashi (r.), and Dr. Carl M. Pearson of UCLA Medical School were among internationally noted researchers participating in the 4th international scientific conference on muscle and neuromuscular disease, held in Arizona in October by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America. The meeting, which brought together over 100 investigators from the U.S. and 13 foreign countries, was co-sponsored by the Italian National Research Council of Rome. Researchers included scientific leaders from Australia, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, England, France, Israel, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Poland, Sweden, the U.S., and the U.S.S.R. The five-day conference discussed latest findings on MD and related neuromuscular diseases. MDAA will utilize findings to intensify its worldwide research program. The Association's research effort, along with its program of patient and community services, is principally supported by the annual door-to-door March Against Muscular Dystrophy.

this, have city delivery mail. from Gladys Power that Lucy (Shaw) Chauncey had passed away in Dallas. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Vic Shaw, who were early day residents here. Lucy married Abner Chauncey who operated a barber shop here in the early days. He moved to Dallas and operated a barber shop in Baker Hotel for a number of years before retiring. He passed away a few years ago. Abner and Lucy had one son Victor, who was named for his grandfather Shaw. I can remember when Versa Brumley and Lucy Shaw were almost inseparable school-mates.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Billington had as their guests in Heritage Hall Mr. and Mrs. Mike Billington of Houston, Texas. Mike, the grandson, is the son of Louis who was reared in Hall County, but has made his home in Houston for several years. Mike is now serving in the army and has been stationed at Fort Hood for the past 18 months. This was Mike's wife's first trip to this part of the world. She liked Heritage Hall very much. The Billington families first moved to Hall County about 1906 and lived west of Memphis a number of years.

The Delphian Club served their annual Thanksgiving dinner last Sunday in the Community building. This is served each year in order to improve finances so they can give a worthy high school graduate a scholarship for college. This investment in a young person's life may return four-fold or many more times in turning this person in the right direction for an education. I will vouch for one thing, the members of this club are good cooks, and you had to doubledeck your plate in order to try the taste of all this good food. I think they must have served about 250 people. It was very noticeable how many of the new residents of Memphis were taking advantage of this good meal, with the fellowship shown among all professions and walks of life. We also noticed several out of town visitors here. It was impossible to get all of the names of the visitors. Mrs. Sims Reeves who is a member of this club had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. John Reeves and daughter of Canyon. John is the son of Mrs. Reeves who has been teaching English in West Texas State the past 4 years. I asked John about our Hall County boy, Dr. Harper who has been teaching there several years and is still doing some special class work.

It was very interesting to read in last Sunday's Dallas News about the simple wedding that Princess Anne of England would have when she married Capt. Mark Phillips (a commoner). Altogether 1500 people will attend this wedding in the 900 year old West Minister Abbey. This is one thousand less than there were attending the Queens wedding 26 years ago. The princess prefers jeans to jewels. She had rather (Continued on Page 11)

In conclusion Mrs. Hughes said, "Any club which does not seek new avenues of service will die." As a finale she recited this prayer. Although my God I cannot see, I like to think that he sees me. Although my God cannot hear, I know that He will hear my prayer. As I grow older give to me more to do, more stars to see, more time to use, more love to give, but always in Thy sight to live."

Following Mrs. Hughes address, all were invited to the tea table. It was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and candles, and was laden with delicious finger sandwiches and sweets.

Song Girls of the University of Southern California, one of the top U.S. cheer squads, show the vim and vigor that will be manifested nationwide in November during the first "Cheerleaders National Rally Against Muscular Dystrophy" at schools and colleges from coast to coast. The pioneering youth campaign, originated by the International Cheerleading Foundation of Overland Park, Kans., is timed to coincide with the March Against Muscular Dystrophy—annual fund-raising drive of Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America. Through the Rally, young people will be cheering—and helping—teams of scientific researchers, sponsored by MDA, who are seeking cures for MD and related disorders. The Association depends almost entirely on public support—through such appeals as the annual March—to maintain its worldwide research program and its wide-ranging patient service program which includes a network of free clinics across the U.S. and in Puerto Rico and Guam.

GOVERNOR WILL GET REPORTS
Gov. Dolph Briscoe talked a...
...bout two important study reports...
...forthcoming from the Texas Re...
...search League — at that group's...
...annual meeting last week.

He will soon receive a report...
...on the impact of the federal wel...
...fare law on Texas' public welfare...
...costs, and he revealed that TRL...
...is working on a governmental reorganization study for the Gov...

...ernor's office.

Another study is being prepar...
...ed by the research organization...
...for the Legislative Property Tax...
...committee on "state school fin...
...ancing."

"The legislative committee has...
...asked TRL to prepare a plan to...
...estimate property values in all...
...Texas school districts," the Gov...
...ernor said.

During his annual talk before...
...the statewide group of busines...
...s-men, he discussed the need for a...
..."zero" base budgeting system for...
...the state, and changes in the...
...constitution to strengthen local...
...units of government.

Briscoe talked about the energy...
...crisis — blaming the shortage of...
...natural gas on the artificial...
..."price" set on gas by the federal...
...government.

"The crisis can be solved best...
...by industry — not by govern...
...ment," he added. "The people of...
...Texas are interested in 'less...
...governmental' intervention into...
...their affairs. And" he concluded...
..."they are not interested in any...
...new taxes."

IN THE COURTS
The Supreme Court upheld an...
...intermediate court decision that...
...a Houston fireman's family was...
...entitled to death benefits and di...
...sability payments following his il...

...High Court said a fireman need...

Cyclone Boosters To Meet Monday At 7 O'Clock

The Cyclone Booster Club will meet Monday night, Nov. 19, at 7 o'clock, President Lester Campbell said following the regular meeting this week. The date is being changed from the regular meeting time of Tuesday due to the opening basketball games with Paducah on the local court Tuesday night.

Campbell also pointed out that the meeting will begin at 7 o'clock since many boosters enjoy Monday night football on television, and the earlier meeting time will allow them to see the football game. Discussion concerning the probable gas rationing and its relation to fans attending out-of-town games will likely be held at the meeting. Carroll Gardenhire, Cyclone booster, pointed out at this week's meeting that rationing will have a serious effect on attendance. Club members hope that a discussion of the subject may bring out some ideas as to how the club can help to prevent any attendance drop.

Gayle Greene was in Amarillo Sunday to attend market.

Mike Branigan Attends Casting School in Dallas

A two-day course was presented in casting of precious and semi-precious metals, designing and finishing of jewelry and also, the repair of fine jewelry at the Sweet Co., in Dallas over the weekend of Nov. 10-11. Mike Branigan of Memphis attended the course working on his Master Craftsmen status.

A total of 541 attended his course with representatives from 42 states. Also included were six from Mexico City, three from Hawaii, one from Hong Kong and one from Taiwan. Jewelers, dentists, doctors and hobbyists came from Bangor, Maine to the east and California to the west.

One of the most interesting individuals was a gentleman from Mexico City. His attire was symbolic of Mexico with the elaborate hat and trousers. Around his neck was a large "free-form" medalion hung from a long chain. On one hand was a large decorative ring, however, on the other, he wore a "two-finger" ring. In keeping with his costume, his boots were fashioned with sterling tips set with diamonds and on the upper heels he had silver with gold inlay set with rubies.

All the instructors for this course were officers of Sweet. A variety of sessions began at 8 a. M. and continued until 5 p. m. in order to touch on all the phases of casting thoroughly.

He had served as Wise County Attorney and was a member of Morgan and Nobles Law Firm. He was a director of the Continental State Bank of Boyd and a member of the Texas and Decatur Bar Association.

MHS Band Is Still Collecting Aluminum Cans

The Memphis Band Booster Club is announcing that they are no longer collecting newspapers for recycling. Only one buyer could be located and that firm would only pay $6.00 per ton. The Club decided that no money could be made from this project, so it is being cancelled.

The "Cans for the Band" campaign is still going on. Band students and boosters are still collecting aluminum cans for recycling.

This campaign is two-fold: It is helping to beautify Memphis by cutting down on litter, and it helps the band with extra finances. Your help and cooperation is appreciated.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Clark and the wonderful nurses who took such good care of me while I was in St. Louis County Hospital, and to my friends for your prayers, cards, telephone calls, visits, letters, and flowers. Words cannot express my gratitude.

Federal Crop Ins. For Hall County To Be Available For 1974 Crop Year

The Federal Crop Insurance Corporation has approved an insurance program for irrigated and dry-land cotton producers in Hall and Childress Counties for the 1974 crop year. Approval came after strong support was expressed by Congressman Bob Price and U. S. Senator John Tower.

for cotton crops in Hall and Childress Counties can mean the difference between financial failure and survival for several producers. I had hoped the insurance which had the support of Senator Tower as well as myself could be placed into effect immediately and I am continuing to urge that action," Price, a member of the House Cotton Subcommittee, said.

From The Chamber Corner

From the time of the gathering of the first harvest at Plymouth in 1621, it was common for the colonial authorities to appoint a day of Thanksgiving to God in the fall when the harvests were in. There was no uniform observance of this annual festival until 1884, when President Lincoln proclaimed a national holiday. The Memphis Chamber of Commerce will observe this holiday Thursday, Oct. 22nd, and invite the people of Memphis to spend a day with your family.

The action will allow producers to purchase insurance from the FCIC which can be used as collateral to secure private loans. Similar insurance is available in other counties covered.

FCIC had not approved insurance programs for cotton producers in the two counties previously because the record of production over previous years was considered to indicate a high risk of loss. FCIC said the approval was on "an actuarially sound basis" which indicates insurance rates will be high enough to compensate for the risk.

The insurance is on a voluntary basis. Interested producers may inquire about coverage through FCIC offices in Vernon or Amarillo.

A community Thanksgiving church service this Sunday evening at 7:00 p. m. in the First Baptist Church will be sponsored by the Memphis Ministerial Alliance. Everyone is invited to this service as our community will rather in Christian spirit and fellowship.
