Crop Disaster Deadline Changed

Mr. Larry E. Rogers of the Hall County ASCS Office has advised us to announce that there has been a change in the deadline for filing applications for crop disaster payments. Producers were previously informed that January 31, 1975 would be the final date. Because of weather conditions in several areas of the state, harvest of crops has been substantially delayed. Therefore, to give producers in this situation every opportunity to participate in the disaster program, the January 31 deadline has been changed. The revised deadline will be not later than 15 days after completion of harvest of the crop for which a loss is claimed. Producers are reminded that they must notify the ASCS office if any acreage of the affected crop will not be harvested so that it can be appraised prior to being devoted to another use. Appraisal of unharvested acreage is necessary for determining eligibility for and amount of disaster payment.

A.H.S. Cagers Lose Crucial Dist. Contests

For either District 2-A or 2-B ball crown for Memphis faded this week as both the boys and girls lost key games. The girls hopes are still alive if they can remain undefeated through the second half, and beat Claude girls in a play-off game. Memphis boys are virtually out of it with a second half loss to Wellington Skyrockets, the team which won the first half of the game. Cyclonettes and Cyclones to Wheeler tomorrow night, a B team girls game be at 5 p.m., followed by varsity boys at 6:30 and varsity boys at 8 p.m. On Tuesday, local teams traveled to McLean for games against Tigers and Tigrettes. Memphis girls present a real challenge in district play. Claude girls faded early in the fourth quarter of the Memphis - Claude game, with Memphis within points of the Mustangettes. Mickey Henderson fouled out of the game, much to the surprise of the Memphis bench. Coach Thompson said, "I was up with Mickey's fouls, our book had only four fouls but the official book, kept a home team, had five fouls." Coach went on to say he felt it was an honest mistake and no foul was expressed, but the girls were really coming on in closing the 6-point deficit within two points. "Our girls made a fine game," he said. Claude lead 34 to 23 at half after trailing 14 to 12 at end of the first quarter. Memphis led to a 6-point deficit at 39 at the end of the third, and got within two points at the fourth quarter. Claude won game 61 to 54.

J. Beck, Davis Named To Class A All-State Teams

Two Memphis football players for 1974, have received distinctive honors for outstanding performances during the 1974 season. Senior Split End and Safety Back James Beck and Senior Noseguard Don Davis were named on the Texas Sportswriters Class A All-State teams. James Beck, all around outstanding athlete, became the first Memphis Cyclone football player in approximately 30 years to be named to first team All-State. He was selected as a wide receiver, split end, and he was named second team All-State as a defensive Safety. Don Davis, the Cyclone's full-back and noseguard, was named on the second team All-State as a defensive lineman, quite an accomplishment for a 165 pounder who stepped into the noseguard position for the Cyclone only this season. Beck was also named both ways on the Amarillo Globe-News Super Team, a regional selection of athletes from all classifications. Coach Clyde McMurray said, "This is a big honor for these young men and we're all extremely proud of them. This is the first for one of my players to ever be named All State." Memphis lads had opportunity to play against several All-State athletes during their climb to the State Quarter-finals. Kenneth King of Clearendon was named an All-State running back, Hendrix of Jim Ned an All-State guard, and Johnny Quinney of Jim Ned is also an All-State as a running back. Steve Watts of Stinnett was named on the second team All-State as a defensive lineman.

Valley Girls, Hedley Boys Lead Dist. 4-B

The Valley Patriot girls and Hedley Owls continued their dominance of Dist. 4-B this week. Friday night Estelline travels to Samnorwood, Quail hosts Lakeview and Hedley hosts teams from Valley High. Next Tuesday, Lakeview will host Hedley teams, Estelline hosts Quail and Samnorwood plays Valley. Last Friday, Hedley won two games from Estelline teams as the Owlettes took a 57 to 25 victory over the Bearettes in the girls game and Hedley's boys won 82 to 38. Valley won two games from Lakeview, 87 to 17 in the girls game and 88 to 28 in the boys game. Samnorwood and Quail split games, with the Samnorwood girls edging Quail 57 to 53, while the Quail boys won 71 to 51. Tuesday night, Samnorwood teams won two games from Lakeview, 69 to 42 in the girls game, and 54 to 35 in the boys game. Hedley's teams won two games from Quail, as the girls won 67 to 43 and the boys 82 to 55. District 4-B will not have district tournaments under new rules of the district this year, so the winners of the round robin play will represent the district.

Beck was also named both ways on the Amarillo Globe-News Super Team, a regional selection of athletes from all classifications. Coach Clyde McMurray said, "This is a big honor for these young men and we're all extremely proud of them. This is the first for one of my players to ever be named All State." Memphis lads had opportunity to play against several All-State athletes during their climb to the State Quarter-finals. Kenneth King of Clearendon was named an All-State running back, Hendrix of Jim Ned an All-State guard, and Johnny Quinney of Jim Ned is also an All-State as a running back. Steve Watts of Stinnett was named on the second team All-State as a defensive lineman.

All State players are selected by a committee of sportswriters, a separate committee for each classification. Texas Sportswriters, classification Assn. is one of the largest state associations in the nation and newsmen volunteer their time serving on various committees. Beck is possibly the best college football prospect to come out of the Memphis athletic program in several years, because of his tremendous speed, one of the fastest quarter miler in the state, and his over-all aggressiveness on the playing field. His defensive talents of defending against the run, by aggressive tackling, and against the pass, was one of the keys of the Cyclone's success. As a receiver, he drew double coverage and sometimes triple coverage all season, and still was the team's leading scorer and top receiver, averaging 25 yards per catch. Don Davis, who packs a lot of power in his short frame, was almost impossible to block due to his strong arms and legs, and quickness off the snap of the ball.

Food Stamp Program

Throughout the country, the benefits of high inflation and recession are those on the lower end of the economic scale. However, many of these are taking advantage of government programs designed to ease their plight.

This week the newspaper received a report on the Food Stamp Program in Hall County from the State Department of Public Welfare. The report shows that 219 of 275 families living below the poverty level in Hall County are now making use of the food stamp program.

These families purchased foods prepared for human consumption only at an authorized store in Hall County. The United States Department of Agriculture studied the impact of food stamps on three rural counties in 1974. These were the findings: (1) On the average, low income households were able to buy more food than they could afford to buy without food stamps. The 2,000 participating households paid $1,085,508 for food stamps and received $2,254,546 worth of bonus stamps. (2) Economic activity in farmers increased when the program was in effect. (3) Farmers with food stamps increased their income by 10 per cent of the total value of their crops. (4) The program was successful in saving food stamps. (5) More economy was generated from the community. (6) $254,098 in $1.50 bills were generated. (7) The program was successful in saving a total of 175 cars potentially available in the three counties.

Only 28 counties had food stamps prior to 1972 when the state-wide food stamp program was approved. Now the administrative costs for the state-wide program are paid by the State of Texas. Previously, the counties were responsible for these costs. The state-wide program is administered by the State Department of Public Welfare. The United States Department of Agriculture pays for and administers the food stamps.

Certified household members and Authorization to Purchase (ATP) card each month at the mail. The ATP card specifies an amount of the stamps and how much money, if any, they may pay for them. The ATP card and the necessary cash is sent to the local office at the local Post Office. The local stamp office is located in the Hall County Courthouse in Memphis.

The food stamp program is one way that this nation has of seeing that no citizen on the lower end of the economy is left. Although there are probably necessities in the program, Americans should feel a little better knowing that while many people throughout the world go hungry, the number one food stamp of our nation is being used.

Some there are those who do not want to be helped. They will not take the trouble to meet requirements to qualify for the program. And there are others who will take advantage of the program.

The Food Stamp Program cost taxpayers. But it probably does as much good as any program in operation, next to the Social Security Program.

FARM CENSUS TIME AGAIN. Farmers and ranchers throughout the United States are being asked to report on their agricultural operations during 1974. The 1974 Census of Agriculture is the 10th national farm census since the first one in 1840. Report forms are mailed out in January and the Bureau of the Census would like to have them filled out and mailed back promptly. All information is confidential by law, the results, published only in statistical form, provide the yardstick by which American agricultural advancement is measured every five years. No information can be released which might reveal the operation of an individual farmer or rancher.

PUBLIC SERVICE JOB

The nation's public service job program is looking more and more like a dog-eat-dog fight. Each agency goes in one and then job after the other.

Another is the small Government by city, county and state officials, who are good at taking old money out and at good at creating new jobs for people who really need work.

AT LAST report, only 18,000 public service jobs had been created, which is far short of the 200,000 jobs the Labor Dept. hopes to fill by the middle of 1975.

It's not a question of money. Nearly $2 billion in federal funds have been set aside to pay for the program.

Basically, it's a question of providing communities to use the money — or to turn it over to somebody else.

A stopgap attitude toward helping the unemployed is holding back something similar happened in 1971 when a public service job program got off to a slow start.

BUT THE CURRENT reality is much more serious than the 1971-72 drama, and the job situation is likely to get worse unless it improves.

Public service jobs are in short supply. For one thing, they make only a small dent on the unemployment problem. Most of the jobs disappear once the federal aid runs out.

Given choice though, the country is better off putting people to work — in hospitals, schools, parks — than simply pouring money into welfare programs that produce little or nothing in return.

OF LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Every once in a while, The Dispatch receives a letter to the editor, obviously intended for publication which we cannot print because it isn't signed.

The most common in this category is about the lack of local fire support for girls basketball. It was signed "The parents of the past present and future basketball team."

The Dispatch established a rule on letters to the editor a long time ago that those which were published would have to be signed and the names affixed to print.

It is too easy to be critical anonymously. A string of critical, unsigned letters would easily change a letter to the editor column into one of complaint and abuse. A lot of folks might take a rather average delight in reading something like that, but this is not for us.

It is an established fact that the "letters" department is one of the best read in any newspaper. We would like more letters. We will print critical letters too if those who write them will sign them and stand up and be counted for their convictions.—JC

Southerners traditionally have a long, long memory and despite the fact that no one wants particularly to talk the people in a moment of pain, some simply can't resist the temptation.

And Boston officials are hearing from Southerners with long memories concerning integration and school busing problems.

Fred, Jr. married Mary Smith of Mineral Wells who is a niece of the late Ben O. who was a partner with his dad in the saddle business. Mary visited here in her teenage years and she remembered the Arnwood opera house, skating rink and also remembered a tall handsome boy at the skating rink whose name was Odom. We pinned this down to Coy Lee. She remembered attending Austin College at Sherman and Uncle Ben sent her a whole box of Hersheys and chewing gum. She reported that her most enjoyable years were at Canyon where she worked 4 hours a day and attended college at West Texas State. They have two sons they visited in Atlanta, Ga., and San Antonio, Texas. Other places are visiting on this trip are Dallas, Waco, Houston, Wichita Falls, Canyon, Amarillo, Childress and Memphis.

I think their plans are to go to Indianapolis, Ind., where the granddaughter and her husband live. Her husband is an architect and they have built a studio from a barn and silo and have installed the "Estes" memorial window there. This stained glass window was in the Methodist Church that was torn down to make room for the present building. The memorial is still in the Estes family in another state with the fourth generation. The Estes family was an early pioneer in this part of the world as Linton's father and Fred, Jr.'s father escaped the Indians by horseback after their wagons had been burned. Linton checked on his Grandfather

PARTY HORS D'OEUVRE

As any hostess knows, dips and spreads with crackers are tempting snacks for parties. The next time you're having friends over, make this fancy Party-Go-Round Cheese Spread. The base is a tasty cheese spread which is prepared the day before. Savory toppings go on just before serving. It's not hard to make, but looks pretty and looks as if you made a special effort. Set out with whole wheat TRISCUIT Wafers and SOCIABLES Crackers. Watch your guests dig in and watch it disappear.

PARTY-GO-ROUND CHEESE SPREAD

- 1 (8-ounce) package cream cheese, softened
 - 1 (8-ounce) Gouda cheese, grated
 - 1 cup dairy sour cream
 - 1/2 teaspoon onion powder
 - 1/2 pint cherry tomatoes, halved
 - 2 hard-cooked eggs, finely chopped
 - 1 (3-ounce) can sliced mushrooms, drained
 - Parsley sprigs
 - SNACK MATE Pasteurized Process Cheese Spread Cheddar, optional
 - TRISCUIT Wafers
 - SOCIABLES Crackers
- Beat cream cheese until smooth. Blend in next three ingredients. Line bottom of a 9-inch layer cake pan with wax paper. Spread cheese mixture evenly in pan. Cover and refrigerate overnight. Loosen edges with spatula and invert on serving plate. Peel off wax paper. Working from outside edge, make one ring each of tomato halves, cut side down, chopped eggs and mushroom slices. Arrange parsley sprigs in center. Cover and refrigerate. Just before serving, decorate edge with cheese spread, if desired. Serve with TRISCUIT Wafers and SOCIABLES Crackers. Makes 1 (9-inch) round.

Craig's grave in Fairview Cemetery (who was born in Scotland in 1803 and passed away at Newlin in 1896.) While Linton was doing recruiting duty for Uncle Sam in Mexico after World War I, he recruited for himself a wife at Clayton, N. M. Linton says what a good housekeeper, cook and nurse she is. Linton is a brother of the late Herbert Estes whom many of you remember. Linton has been very successful in Wichita Falls is his paper business and ranching. He still maintains his ranch in Montague County and his sons are now operating the businesses in Wichita Falls. In his younger days, he was very much in demand for an after dinner speaker for Chamber of Commerce banquets and conventions. In fact, I remember he was speaker for one of our C. of C. banquets. He says he is now 81 years old and wants to come back to Memphis again, but he did not know as the undertaker had been smiling at him and when that smile is left off, he will be back. Anyway, we had a good time visiting with these two Estes families for a couple of days.

Linton said he and his two saddle horses on his ranch—one of them got crippled up with arthritis and had to shoot him and now he has arthritis so bad he cannot get on the other horse.

I heard Mr. Don Curl give a report on the operation of Hall County Hospital at Rotary about two weeks ago. It was very gratifying to hear that they have operated in the black since it was opened to the public on Feb. 10, 1964. They will have their 11th birthday on Feb. 10, 1975. Hospitals do not operate like this one has by themselves. There has to be some people in the back to keep things going with Don Curl, Administrator, and the following board members — Ben Parks, chairman, W. B. Mullins, vice-chairman, O. M. Cosby, secretary, and other members are L. J. Halford, Carl Hill and Billy Hancock. All of this hospital board has served the full 11 years with the exception of one who replaced a death on the board. This hospital averages about 80 employees at all times and through the year will employ about 100 people with a payroll of over $300,000 a year. This is volunteer work by the Board and I think they would like a word of appreciation. We are very fortunate in having our doctors, technicians, nurses, secretaries, bookkeepers, kitchen operators and caretakers in having the co-operation of all to put this over. This is another one of our blessings we should count with all of the modern equipment we have in this hospital.

TESTED TIPS TO HELP YOU

The inevitable spills and splatters that occur at the dinner table should be removed as soon as possible and before laundering. Grease and greasy food stains, which are particularly difficult to remove if left to stand, can be quickly and easily treated with corn starch. Cover stain with a layer of corn starch; roll up stained item and let stand. The corn starch will absorb grease. Then launder as usual.

ing. Soap clean and gently pat skin dry. Argo corn starch leaves a silky smooth, invisible film on the skin

Corn starch is considered an excellent dusting powder. Use a sprinkling of corn starch in rubber dish washing gloves each time they are worn. The gloves will slip on and off more easily and stay free from that clammy feeling. It's a good idea, also, to use a sprinkling of corn starch in boots to absorb moisture.

On those days when everything seems to go wrong, take time for a soothing corn starch bath. Fill the tub with hot water, pour in a cup or two of corn starch and swish it through the water to dissolve. Then spend as many leisurely minutes as possible just soaking and helps soothe itchy, irritated skin.

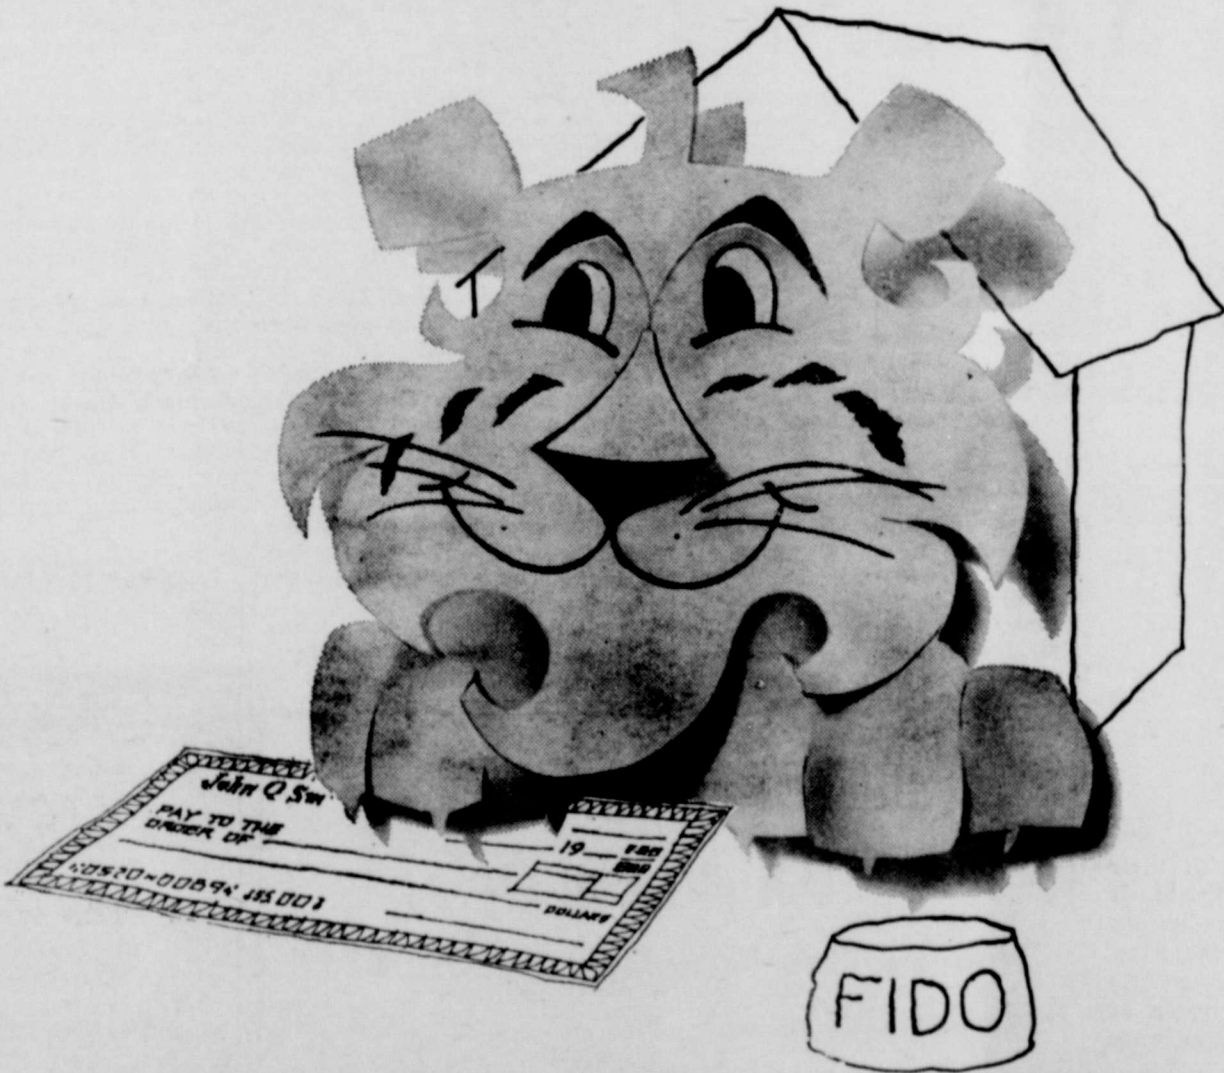

Fur collars, cuffs or hats can be cleaned using a simple household formula. In a well ventilated room, mix 3/4 cup corn starch with 1 tablespoon household dry cleaning solvent in a bowl. Place the fur piece flat on brown paper. Spread on the mixture with fingers, rubbing it into the fur. Let it stand for about 20 minutes, rubbing it occasionally. As mixture absorbs dirt, it will turn grey. Remove dirt with vacuum cleaner, using the upholstery attachment or take the garment outdoors and shake and brush it well until completely clean.

It's a building with a soul. Young daughters come licking in to the world and young sons open their lungs for the first time in hospitals. Proud grandfathers press proud noses against panes of glass to grab the first glimpses of new grandchildren in the hospital. And over the years the people of the hospital, doctors, nurses, aides and helpers become friends of those who sit and wait and pray. Life churns through the veins of a hospital. There's a heartbeat in every room. A hospital is a great leveler — the rich and poor look just alike in a hospital bed. Hospital midnights are for praying. Hospital midnight brings the night sounds of the hospital. There are whispers up and down the halls. There is the echo of a muffled moan and the light sounds of the soft wheels of a cart gliding down a hall. And now and then the strong cry of

REDDY'S REFRIGERATOR SAVINGS TIPS

Don't open refrigerator door unnecessarily. Plan your trips to the refrigerator while cooking. Make sure the children maintain a closed-door policy.

Buy the size that fits your needs. An over-large refrigerator or freezer wastes space as well as electricity.

Clean external coils, fins and motor often and keep them free from dust.

Defrost your refrigerator and freezer before ice deposit exceeds 1/2 inch. Excess ice causes your refrigerator to work harder.

First Hall Co. 4-H Food Show Is Set For Feb. 1

February 1 is the date set for the first 4-H Food Show to be held in Hall County in many years. The home economics program has been recently established in the county through the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, and is coordinated by Miss Pam Wallace, Assistant County Extension Agent-at-Large. The Extension Home Economics program serves both youth and adults with educational learning experiences aimed at enlarging technical skills and abilities, and providing useful information on a variety of subjects. 4-H is the youth development program of the Extension Service focusing on the needs, interests and concerns of young people. It's aim is to help youth acquire a positive self-concept, rational social behavior, knowledge and problem solving capabilities.

One of the areas of Focus for Foods and Nutrition, 4-H Project home economics work is Family work in this area is the first to begin. Work in 4-H Foods and Nutrition involves a series of six lessons the girls complete while learning skills from actual food preparation. The Food Show is the Achievement and recognition program following the completion of the project work. The Show is scheduled for Saturday, February 1, with public viewing of the food displays and the presentation of awards starting at 2:00. The public is invited. The Show will be held in the Home Economics Department at the High School in Memphis.

"As this is the 'first' in the country in 43 years, there were probably more girls interested in starting 4-H home economics work beginning with Foods and Nutrition, that we didn't know about. By next year, when foods and nutrition time comes again we can get a head start, hopefully with all interested girls from all areas of the country." Beginning almost immediately after the Foods and Nutrition Program has been completed will be Clothing Project work. Now is the time to begin thinking about it. Any person who would like to work with a small group of girls on clothing project work, the time to volunteer is now. Volunteer leaders are the key to successful 4-H and youth programs. They have the opportunity to help young people develop into responsible and productive individuals.

Mr. H. B. Bennett and Gertrude Bennett visited here on Thursday night with relatives and friends. They were en route to Dallas where they will make their home. They have been living in Santa Fe, N. M. for a bumper crop of years.

a western lady and now and then the sign of someone very tired & weary. A building with a wall. The building that never sleeps.

Late last Thursday evening John Fowler called me to tell me that he had some customers in his store that were from England and were spending the night at the Western Hotel. I immediately called the motel and talked to the manager, Jim Hager, and asked him to tell these people I was not an F.B.I. agent but just wanted to ask them a few questions. Jim gave me telephone connection with those people who were Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Cooke and their 8 year old daughter, Susan, who were traveling around the world. They were from Peterborough, England, where Mr. Cooke farms about 1,500 acres of wheat, barley, potatoes. The first state they made of the U. S. was Hawaii and on to San Francisco, Las Vegas and Albuquerque, N. M. They were driving a rented car and were driving up the cap to Silverton and on to Ft. Worth and Dallas where he would turn the car in. They were then traveling to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., before leaving the States. They were enjoying their trip through Texas. They especially enjoyed seeing the cotton strippers work. In their trip through Africa, their motel was a true house where they could get a glimpse of the elephants and other native wild animals. He said he used Massey-Ferguson farm machinery. Mr. Cooke said he just watched the bright lights in Vegas so he could keep on traveling. I think John Fowler has a date with this man for next summer helping him farm.

We never realize how many towns and countries are represented here. In about 30 minutes, after talking to Mr. Cooke, Jim Hager called and said this is a coincidence that another family just drove in a Toyota from New Zealand. I had Jim get me in touch with this family by telephone. These people were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Falcone and 3 children from Patania, New Zealand, on their way to Guatemala as missionaries. I asked them what church sponsored them to the mission field and he said it was the Christian Brothers which was founded in England. I would guess they were about 18 thousand miles from where they started. On Tuesday night before this Thursday night, the motel had guests from Ottawa, Canada, but I did not get to interview them.

Mrs. Mike Liner and daughter Mikella of Marton visited here from Wednesday until Saturday with their parents and grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sims and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Liner.

Information Is Given On Securing Birth Certificate

Have you ever asked yourself, "How do I prove when I was born?" At some time, each of us will be faced with finding the answer to this question.

Proof of age will be required for the following types of benefits under social security: retirement benefits; wife's benefits at age 62 or older; widow's benefits at age 60 or older, or if applying as a disabled widow, age 50 or older; child's benefits under age 18, student benefits age 18 to 22, or disabled child's benefits; and, disability benefits if age 60 or age 55 and blind.

The best proof of age is a birth record or hospital record made during the first five years of your life. The next best record is a church baptismal record made before you were five years old and showing your date of birth and the date recorded. If you were born in the state of Texas prior to 1910, there will not be a recorded record of your birth. Even after this date, some births may not be recorded.

If you do not have a birth or baptismal record, try to obtain a record established early in your life. Records that might be available are: a school record, a family Bible, an insurance policy which shows age or date of birth, a State or Federal census record, a marriage record or a child's birth certificate which shows your age or date of birth, a voting record, an employment record, a military record, a passport, a driver's license or a delayed birth certificate made over 5 years ago. The time to start obtaining proof of your age is now. If you need help in finding out what records are available in your area, contact your local social security office. In Amarillo, call 806-376-2241 or write Social Security Administration, 317 East Third St., Amarillo, Texas 79101.

Rep. Hightower To Keynote Amarillo Meet

AMARILLO — U. S. Rep. Jack Hightower will keynote the Eighth Annual Membership Meeting of Water, Inc., Feb. 15 at the Quality Inn, Amarillo. He heads a list of program participants which includes State Senators Max Sherman of Amarillo and Kent Hance of Lubbock.

Theme of the annual get-together will be "A Year of Progress," with emphasis on the new unity at the state level. More than 250 persons from throughout West Texas and Eastern New Mexico are expected to attend.

Two meetings of the Water, Inc., board of directors are slated in connection with the Saturday meeting, the first at 4 p.m., Feb. 14, and the second immediately following the membership meeting. The latter is the board's annual session at which officers and members of the executive committee are elected for the coming year.

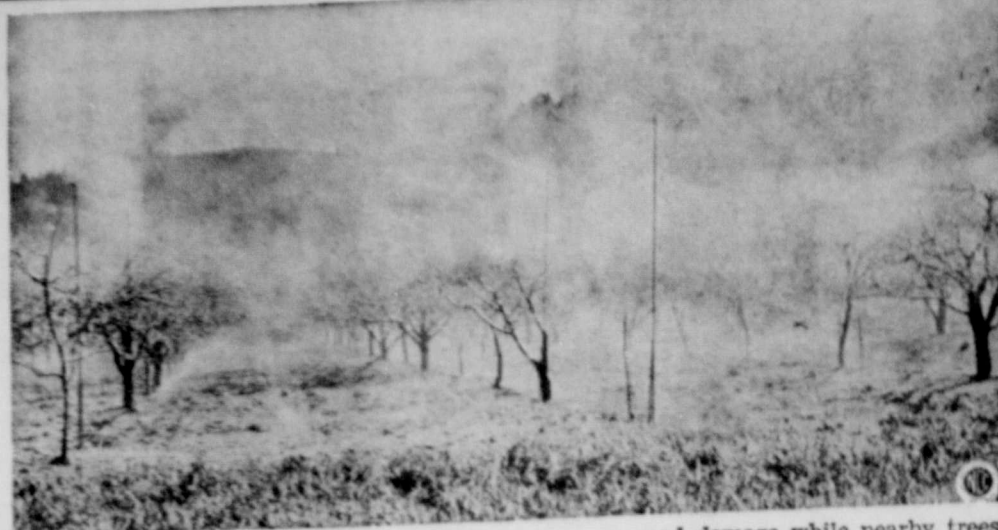

Rep. Hightower of Vernon was elected to represent the sprawling 13th Texas Congressional District last November, a district that includes the Texas Panhandle and a swath of North Central Texas extending to Wichita Falls. He was first elected to public office in 1952 as a state representative. After one term he was appointed district attorney, a post in which he served for six years. He was elected to the state senate in 1964, serving in the state's upper chamber until his recent election to Congress. In the state senate, Hightower was known as a prime mover of water legislation. During the past year he headed up the state senate's four regional water study councils.

THWARTING FROST—Recent study in Oregon showed how thermal waste water from industrial plants can protect fruit trees from frost. This orchard, sprayed with the warm water, escaped damage while nearby trees not treated in this manner suffered heavy losses.

Farabee Receives Senate Committee Assignments

AUSTIN . . . Senator Ray Farabee began work in Austin when the 64th session of the Texas Legislature opened last week. Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby announced committee assignments immediately after the swearing-in ceremonies on the opening day of the session.

Farabee was informed of his appointment to the Senate committees on Finance, Jurisprudence, Natural Resources and the Committee on the Texas Constitution. He was named Vice Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Civil Matters within the Jurisprudence Committee.

All committees held organizational meetings and began work immediately. Farabee expressed pleasure over the committee assignments he received, pointing out that they all deal with issues that will directly affect the interests of the citizens in the 29 counties that make up the 30th Senatorial District.

Since the Finance committee determines the amount of funding for all state government, it provides an excellent overview of all the issues. Farabee is committed to pay as you go policy of funding state government and consistently opposed any new taxes.

The Natural Resources committee deals with all issues related to agriculture, water and oil and gas. These are subjects closely related to the economy of North and West Texas.

Senator Farabee's work on the Jurisprudence committee will benefit from his experience as a practicing attorney. The Senator is particularly familiar with those areas of the law dealing with civil matters which will add to his ability to function as Vice Chairman of the Sub-committee on Civil Matters.

Commenting on the upcoming Session Farabee said, "I believe the Legislature this year faces many challenges. The problems that confront our state, such as the equitable financing of our public schools, are going to require initiative, imagination and a spirit of cooperation. For my part, I'm thankful for the opportunity to be here in Austin representing the people of North and West Texas and it's my hope that this Legislature can turn the challenges that face us at the present into opportunities for the future."

Farabee is serving his first term in the State Senate, occupying the seat vacated by former Senator Jack Hightower. Hightower is now serving his first term in the United States Congress.

CARD OF THANKS

YOU CAN DO IT

Spring is just around the corner and it will soon be time to begin those needed clean-up and repair jobs around your home.

Beginning January 30th, Pam Wallace, Assistant County Extension Agent-at-Large will be presenting the first of a three-part series of programs for homemakers and other interested persons (men included) on Home Care and Maintenance.

The first program is on "Simple Repair Jobs." This will feature tips on how you can replace broken glass in aluminum and wood frame windows and doors, how to patch or replace wornout screening in aluminum or wood windows and doors, plus tip on how to "weatherproof" your house to cut down on heating and cooling bills.

This first "You Can Do It" program will be held in the Bronze Room at the First National Bank in Memphis at 2:00 p.m. All persons, regardless of race, color, creed, religion, sex or national origin are invited to attend these meetings sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. These programs are completely free of charge.

The remaining two programs will be concerned with "Fastening 'Things to Walls'" and "Storage Tips" on February 12, and "Cleaning on a Shoestring" scheduled for Tuesday, March 4.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

STIN, Tex.—The 64th Texas Legislature started with a bang burst of action last week. The Senate set new records in help provide and paper the bill need, and international grow faster, the tier and health provide more paper.

Gov. Bill Hobby, as promised a complete roster of standing committees on the day of the session, Jan. 4. Only changes in chairmanships were made. Don Adams moved up to head the Appropriations panel. Sen. Pete Snellson of Midland took over the intergovernmental relations committee.

Senate went to work immediately on a proposed pay raise for state employees, while both houses agreed to extend unemployment compensation benefits for two weeks and gain $5 million.

Sen. Clower of Garland, chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on Consumer Affairs, said the panel already has an extensive file of leads. Clower said he hopes to have the investigation completed before the legislative session ends June 2.

COMMISSION SIZE BLAMED — A House Liquor Regulation Investigation Committee blasted the ABC Administrator O. N. Humphreys

PRODUCTION STILL "WIDE OPEN" — February is the 35th straight month of wide open state-wide oil allowable.

Texas Railroad Commission once again set a 100 percent production order.

Meanwhile, independent oilmen said the decline in Texas oil production has begun a "big turnaround."

Frank Pitts of Dallas said 60,000 to 70,000 wells can be drilled a year instead of the present 30,000. There are lots of places to drill oil wells, but the cost is going to be high, said Pitts.

Crude prices should average $90 to $100 per barrel to encourage drilling the maximum number of wells, said the Dallas oilman.

INVESTIGATION FUNDED — A Senate sub-committee was given a budget to begin an investigation of questioned Southwestern Bell Telephone Company operations in Texas.

The Senate Administration Committee approved a $27,832 allowance to hire utility rate experts and two investigators to look into allegations of wire-tapping, campaign slush fund contributions and keeping of dual sets of books (one for rate cases).

Sen. Ron Clower of Garland, chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on Consumer Affairs, said the panel already has an extensive file of leads. Clower said he hopes to have the investigation completed before the legislative session ends June 2.

COMMISSION SIZE BLAMED — A House Liquor Regulation Investigation Committee blasted the ABC Administrator O. N. Humphreys

Jr. Had the commission been a nine-member agency instead of a three-member body, one member would not have been able to "carry out a relentless campaign" to get rid of Humphreys, the committee concluded. Commissioner R. L. Thornton launched the effort to fire Humphreys and finally convinced Joe Burkett Jr. of Kerrville to join in asking resignation.

COURTS SPEAK — A divided (5-4) Supreme Court threw out a mandatory nickel-a-ton assessment of grain sorghum growers to finance a program of farm product promotion and research.

Third Court of Civil Appeals refused to overturn the will of an alcoholic who left most of his estate to two sons by his first marriage and little to his estranged second wife.

APPOINTMENTS — Some 578 interim appointments by Gov. Dolph Briscoe to offices, state boards and agencies were sent to the State Senate for confirmation.

Among the more recent appointments were Walter Sterling of Houston, Tom Law of Fort Worth and Dan C. Williams of Dallas (reappointment) to the University of Texas board of regents; Alfred I. Davies of Dallas, Ross C. Watkins of Uvalde and Joe H. Reynolds of Houston (reappointment) to the A&M University board of directors;

Gerald Clayton Puckett of Fort Stockton and Jack Henry McCreary of Austin to Texas Aeronautics Commission (succeeding Paul M. Fulks Sr. of Wolfe City and James L. Luther of Killeen); and Jimmy Charles Payton of Euless to succeed Amon G. Carter Jr. of Fort Worth on the Trinity River Authority of Texas board of directors.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. John Hill held a requirement for reports of child abuse is applicable to the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, without regard to conflicting provisions.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

Development of parks and recreational facilities by municipal utility districts is constitutionally permissible.

Confidentiality of faculty performance evaluation cannot be maintained against an individual's right to access to information which is the basis for government action affecting him.

Private clubs and fraternal and veterans organizations claiming they are private places for defense against gambling prosecution must prove the public has no access to them.

BOARD CLAIMS SAVING — A State Insurance Board report claims the board last fiscal year "saved" Texans $5.7 million in benefits or returned premiums.

Insurance Commissioner Don Odum cited administrative action against 36 agents and 18 companies and 1,900 field investigations by the board license division.

Planned board reorganization will save $250,000 in annual operating costs, the report stated. There were 1,705 insurance companies licensed to sell policies in Texas at the start of the current fiscal year.

1974 — SAFER? — Vehicle accidents dropped six per cent last year below 1973, and 1974 may have been the safest year on record considering traffic death rate per 100-million miles, according to the Department of Public Safety.

The traffic toll for the year may reach 3,042 when all reported a saving of 650 lives from 1973. In 1964, 3,006 were killed in Texas traffic accidents.

DPS Director Wilson Speir speculated that the reduction in driving and reduced speed limit brought about the improved safety record.

SHORT SNORTS

Governor Briscoe expressed concern that President Ford's energy proposals, including excise taxes on domestic oil and gas production, may take $3.4 billion out of the Texas economy in the form of higher utility and gasoline bills.

The winter tourist season is blossoming, and heading toward a near record, according to Texas Tourist Development Agency.

Governor Briscoe asked Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz to declare Limestone County a disaster area due to drought and other adverse weather.

What is a Chamber of Commerce? Many individuals often ask what is a Chamber of Commerce and the following is in answer to that question.

Your Chamber of Commerce is a voluntary organization of citizens who are investing their time and money in a community development program — working together to improve the economic, civic and cultural well-being of the area.

Any citizen who is interested in helping to develop the area (which means more money—more business—more jobs and better living for everyone) is eligible to be a member of the Chamber of Commerce. The dues structure is designed to permit even the smallest business to be a member.

The work of the Chamber is financed by the investment of the members who support it on the basis of their ability to pay and their interest in the progress of the area.

The Chamber of Commerce is composed of Committee workers, Directors, and Officers who serve without pay. The manager and his staff who devote their full time to the Chamber of Commerce are the only paid employees.

Joining our growing list of members and investors of Memphis through the Chamber is First Federal Savings and Loan Assn. of Childress, The Childress Association, under the leadership of President Russel Jones, has served the Memphis area for several years and recently opened the Memphis branch office.
