Memphis Welfare Board Is Seeking Homes In Hall County Area

Memphis Welfare Board is holding a regular meeting Monday, April 21. The major topic for discussion was establishing foster homes in the Memphis - Hall County area. Neglected, abandoned, abused children in the area need foster parents - both white and black. There is a particular need for foster parents who are willing to take in teenagers, children in minority groups, and those with handicaps. There is a great need in this area for foster parents in general and a special need for black and Mexican American foster parents. Interested applicants can contact C. H. Murphy, Tops Gilchrist, or Bea Levy, Planned Parenthood. Foster parents could be expected to be called on to take in neglected, abandoned or abused children referred to the child welfare department. The foster parents receive $3.00 per day for a normal child and $4.00 per day for an exceptional child - such as the handicapped. Foster parents need to be stable, mature, and tolerant, because these children have usually been through a lot. An applicant must be 18 or older and preferably married. Single persons will be considered, but the department likes to put a child in a home environment with both foster mother and foster father. An applicant must be physically and mentally capable of caring for children, and must list references on the application. The home must be inspected for safety, and the applicant must have a $3.00 food handling permit from the health department. A home worker will interview the applicants, and will assist them in getting the necessary inspection and permits. There is a shortage of black and Mexican - American foster parents. Many foster parents accept children of all races, but the foster home worker prefers to put the child in a home of his own culture. Miss Susie Parker of Silverton and 1974 Bob Wills Queen will be featured with other beauties at Miss Texas, Miss Ford County, and Miss Southern States.

MHS Trackmen Are Dist. Champs Again

The Cyclone track team captured a decisive District 2-A track championship here last Thursday with outstanding performances from many of the team's members. The victory for the team appeared possible when the 440-yd. relay team turned in its best performance of the year running a 43.6 to edge out Wellington at 44.3 and Shamrock 44.35. Fred Alexander, Rickie Spruill, Charles Bryley and James Beck have the best sprint relay time going into the Regional meet at Lubbock Friday and Saturday. The mile relay (Eddie Williams, Alexander, Bryley and Beck) won with a time of 3:36.0. Memphis captured six first places, qualified both relay teams and five individuals to compete in Regional. The Cyclones amassed 140 points to 96 for runner-up Shamrock and 94 for Clarendon. Wellington and Silverton had 58, Wheeler 35, McLean 9 and Claude 4. Don Davis won the 120 high hurdles with a 15.5 time while Steve Flemmons placed sixth in this event. Rickie Spruill ran a 9.8 in the 100-yd. dash to place second behind Clarendon's Kenneth King's 9.6. James Beck won the 440 with a time of 51.6, while teammates Eddie Williams and Fred Alexander took fifth and sixth places. Don Davis placed second in the 330 I. H. with a 42.8 time, and Gary McKay placed fourth in this event. Rickie Spruill placed second in the 220 yd. dash and Charles Bryley took fourth. In the 800, Pete Salinas ran a 2:06.0 to win this event and Ricky Bloxom placed sixth. In the mile run, Randall Shahan placed second with a time of 5:11.0, and Jesse Hernandez placed sixth. The only field event points not reported last week was the Pole vault, Don Davis placed sixth in this event. In the freshman division, Wellington took first with 118, Memphis second with 101, Wheeler third

Work Day At Lakeview Cemetery Is Set For May 1

May 1 (Thursday) has been set as the date of the annual work day and gathering of dues of the Union Hill and Oddfellow Cemetery Assn. at Lakeview, according to Nettie Adams, secretary. Each person interested is asked to come and bring a basket lunch and tools to work with. Mowing needs to be done, Mrs. Adams stated. She asks that everyone please carry off the limbs, shrubs etc. when they are dug up or cut off. She also suggests that the use of weed killer from Hall County Farm Supply will reduce the need for hoeing on the lots. Dues are $2.50 per grave.

Memphis High is sending a large following to Region competition this weekend in Lubbock, with most leaving yesterday or today.

The MHS golf team began 36-hole competition this morning. Members competing at Region in golf are: Matt Monzingo, David Cofer, Don Cofer, Phillip Bray and Ricky Guy. The team was in Lubbock over the weekend for practice rounds on the Lubbock course and the local young golfers were very determined to do their best to win at least a trip to Austin as either the first or second place finishing team.

Memphis has one tennis player competing this weekend in Class A boys singles. Charles Phillips took second in District singles and would like to make a good showing at Regional.

The MHS track team will be well represented, and the team has outside chances of possibly making a bid for the Regional crown. Track Coach George Berry, after comparing times and distances with all eight district qualifiers, said, "it all depends on how much better we can do, and how much better the other schools will do at Regional."

Coach Berry who has made many trips to Region over the years, pointed out that the excitement of Regional competition often brings out super performances making outcomes unpredictable. "Our 440 relay has the best time going in, 43.6, with Alexander, Spruill, Bryley and Beck running," he said. He also pointed out the following: Pete Salinas has the third best time in the 880, Don Davis the fifth best in the 120 high, and 8th best in the Intermediates. Rickie Spruill has the second best time in the 100 yd. dash. James Beck has the second best time in the 440, and the Mile Relay team has the third best time.

Rickie Spruill has the best time in the broad jump if he can equal or better his mark of 22'5" which set a new MHS record last Thursday. Randall Shahan has the 8th best time in the mile run. "Competition is always keen at Region. We have only won the Regional crown one time in recent years, and I really was so concerned about winning district I didn't do much figuring on our chances at region until last Friday," the coach said.

The coach theorized that his team might (and that's if the local young men can equal or better the place finishes discussed above) capture 65 or so points at Lubbock. Memphis will not be relying on a seasoned squad at Lubbock, as only two of the participants are seniors, Don Davis and James Beck. Youngsters like Randall Shahan (a freshman) and Salinas (a sophomore) are in their biggest athletic competition of their lives. On the other hand, veteran James Beck said Wednesday, he is going after the 49.3 school record in the open quarter. He has not broken 50.0 this season, but it was region before he ran at 49.7 last year, so in a fast field that region will provide, maybe James will accomplish this personal goal.

Cub Scouts To Have Pack Meet At Travis Tonight

Amendments . . . In Their Defense!

We've heard and read a lot of talk recently on the Equal Rights Amendment, pro and con, and on other amendments to either state or federal statutes, and it has become amazing how worked up some people become, and how totally disinterested others are, over prospects of amending basic laws in our country.

On the one hand, you have those citizens who are totally wrapped up in either themselves, their work or their world, to pay no attention to such things as amendments. They don't even know when and if the state is having an amendment election, for example.

Texas did have an amendment election last Tuesday. This county had about 375 casting ballots. Obviously, area citizens were not too concerned over the outcome, one way or the other.

Actually, by possibly narrow margins, the state retirement system amendment carried as well as did the salary raises for State Representatives and Senators. Early returns indicated these two amendments were carrying over the state.

No amendment to the U. S. Constitution has created so much "in" fighting as has the Equal Rights Amendment, and this editor has read through countless pages of pros and cons, provided for us through many, manw well meaning groups and individuals.

Frankly, Texans generally are an hour late and a dollar short on ERA. This state has already ratified the ERA amendment, and there is federal court authority to the effect that once a state has ratified a constitutional amendment, it cannot legally revoke such ratification.

Texans in particular, and Americans in general, need to understand a simple principle. Amendments to the laws of the land have a certain "permanency" status. We are a nation of laws.

What about ERA? Both sides of the issue are "running off at the mouth," if you care to know our opinion. It's ridiculous to hear or read some of the claims being made that the ERA would do or not do. Women can be drafted now . . . no man or woman in the U. S. is required to work (look at the welfare roles) . . . and basic laws setting forth personal privacy and freedoms would not be altered in any way.

Since the original drafting of the U. S. Constitution, which was quickly amended by the famous first 10 amendments, known as the Bill of Rights, Americans have benefited far greater by amendments than our citizens have ever suffered from any one of them.

Sure, the Civil Rights amendment has brought about big changes in public schools in all the states, and has created difficulties and some hardships. These have come through implementation rather than injustice of the basic principle set out in the Civil Rights amendment.

We've tried to study our lesson on ERA. We think the amendment is needed. It would eliminate many unjust laws, in many programs, such as Social Security to name one, and would strengthen the family life by establishing a real partnership in law as well as in fact and strengthening the bonds between men and women.

It would, possibly, help make a more standardized set of state laws governing the way people live their lives. ERA affects only laws that apply differently to men and women. No criminal sex laws apply only to one sex, so ERA would not affect these criminal laws.

Women, in the United States, went for about a century plus a few decades, without the legal right to vote. It was the suffrage amendment which changed the status of women.

NEW TEXAS CONSTITUTION

It comes as a real surprise to most Texans to see the proposed new Texas Constitution zipping through the Texas Legislature this April with nary a fuss after these same legislators duelled to the death over it in an expensive special session a year ago.

Certainly one wonders about the change of heart.

As one legislative spokesman explains, the emotional and controversial issues — right to work being No. 1 — have been removed from the document this time.

But that isn't the whole reason, we feel sure. Right to work could have been removed from the constitutional package just as well last April as this April.

The difference, we are convinced, is that the politicians could see the writing on the wall. Not only had they disgraced themselves last year in expensive disagreement, but it is pretty obvious that Texans in general are determined to get a new document and are prepared to turn the job over to civilians not politicians if a new start is required.

That is when the legislators cut off the bickering and decided to stand together rather than fall together. You will note there is relatively little argument about anything in the 1974 constitution as it is approved section by section in 1975.

We will also hazard a guess that the main opposition to the new document will come in a statewide campaign carried to the voters before they are given the opportunity to ratify the new constitution in November.

Voters themselves right now are not very knowledgeable on provisions of the new constitution. Politicians who oppose the new document figure they can stir up plenty of emotional issues in the public's mind before November.

We don't know how the legislature proposes to "educate" the voting public before the November election on what the new constitution contains, but The Dispatch flatly opposes the 1974 proposition that millions of copies be printed and distributed into the homes of all voters at an astronomical expense.

While this sounds "good" as the best way to get the various provisions before the people, mostly it would be a real waste of a few million dollars worth of tax money.

Few would read, and fewer would understand what they read, and none would be aware of the arguments for and against the various constitutional articles.

A better "educational campaign" than that is needed. We don't know exactly what it should be, but the matter deserves real study before the "publicity decision" is made.

As far as the benefits or drawbacks of such a new constitution for the people who live here in Garza County that too will take real study on the part of this newspaper or any other communications media for a fair and unbiased presentation.

In many instances the dentists are the first to discover not only cancer but signs of anemia, tuberculosis, diabetes and other diseases. Dr. Phillip Boyne, dean of the University of Texas Dental School at San Antonio, says that today an increasing number of dental schools are placing more emphasis on basic sciences such as biology, chemistry, etc., in order to enable the dentists to become better diagnosticians.

The Home Pro Nifty Decorating Idea—"Marbleizing"

Marbleizing is the name of the method used to simulate marble on a glass or wood surface. Authentic marble is made up of many colors, with base colors such as white, cream, pink and black. They are often mixed with other colors to produce interesting shades and effects.

This project is in the 3M "Home Pro Furniture Refinishing And Antiquing Guide", one of a new series of step-by-step how-to books at hardware, department and building supply stores.

First take a color photograph of a suitable piece of marble and it as a guide when marbleizing. Usually two other colors are used with the base coat. In addition, black is often used for accenting.

Oil-based paints should be used for marbleizing as well as for the base coat. Be sure the surface is properly sanded and sealed before beginning.

1. Apply base coat and allow to dry until tacky.

2. Using artist's brush or small stick, apply one color in an uneven dribble pattern.

In succeeding colors, apply only about one half the amount of paint used in Step 2.

3. Repeat Step 2 with additional colors, as desired.

4. Using a crumpled paper, pat the surface lightly, following the basic pattern of the colors. (Be sure to change paper occasionally when it becomes saturated with paint.)

5. Continue patting surface and edges until desired effect is obtained.

6. Using a stick, apply small amounts of black across surface in a random pattern. Lightly pat these areas with crumpled paper.

For a more realistic effect, veins may be added in thin, uneven lines.

7. Using a stick or thin artist's brush and white paint, apply veins to surface.

8. Allow surface to dry thoroughly.

9. Apply a clear, semigloss finish.

Senator Bentsen Feels $100 Billion Federal Budget Deficit Avoidable

Even as the Administration and Congress worked together to revitalize our economy through the recent tax cut, the President really caused some concern with his prediction of a possible $100 billion deficit this year.

"This must not be allowed to happen, and I am working to see that it doesn't," Texas Senator Lloyd Bentsen said Sunday.

"Our country simply cannot afford it. Our government simply cannot assume a deficit so huge. And just as lawmakers and the President worked closely to reduce taxes for the American people, we have to work in cooperation now to hold the line on Federal spending," he said.

It is by no means an easy task, Senator Bentsen said.

Over eight million Americans are out of work and we are still sinking deeper into the quagmire of recession. And every time another person loses his job, tax revenue goes down. In fact, a one percent jump in the unemployment rate costs the U. S. Treasury $12 to $15 billion in lost tax revenues, he said.

On top of that, it costs an additional $2 to $3 billion in spending for such items as unemployment compensation.

Clearly, the recession has eliminated the hope of wiping out this year's deficit entirely. But this doesn't mean that we mustn't hold the line on spending as much as possible, he said. It does not and must not mean we have to accept the $100 billion deficit the President is talking about.

Everyone agreed on the short-term economic stimulus provided by the recent tax cut. It was needed to restore some of the purchasing power Americans have lost to inflation. It was needed to pump money into our economy again, to get our factories operating and people working.

As a shot in the arm, its benefits will go far towards restoring economic health to our nation.

Survey Lists 138 Businesses In Hall County

NEW YORK — Hall County appears to be a good place to have a business, judging from the number of them in operation in the local area.

According to the latest government figures, just released, there are more business establishments locally than in many communities of similar size.

The facts and figures are contained in a recent report issued by the U. S. Census Bureau covering every county in the country. It gives details on local industries, on the number of people they employ and on the size of their payrolls.

The data was compiled principally from tax reports submitted by employers last year to the Social Security Administration.

For Hall County, the survey shows a total of 138 businesses that employ one or more people. This is exclusive of self-operated enterprises that have no employees.

Of this total, 98 have from 1 to 3 persons on their payrolls, 27 have from 4 to 7 and 12 from 8 to 19.

As in most sections of the nation, small and moderate-size firms predominate in the local area. For the most part, they have been holding their own despite the competition from big business.

Some 98 percent of them have fewer than 20 employees, the figures show. Elsewhere throughout the country, the average is 84 percent.

The report shows that Hall County's commercial establishments provided gainful employment in the year for 664 men and women in jobs covered by Social Security.

Not included were self-employed people, farm workers, government employees, domestic workers and members of the armed forces.

Wages and salaries for the local work force have been rising steadily, bringing payrolls to a total of $3,056,000. Two years earlier, when a similar study was made, it was $2,268,000.

Nationwide, many businesses are under a strain these days. They are caught between inflation on the one hand and recession on the other. Mounting unemployment and a general uneasiness over the state of the economy have cut deeply into their sales volume.

It has resulted in a number of shutdowns. Some 17,000 retail outlets closed their doors in the past year, according to Audits and Surveys, a marketing research organization.

Phil Duncan Is Councilman At Grand Prairie

Phil Duncan, son of Robert Duncan and Mrs. Dorothy Duncan, both of Memphis, has been elected to the city council in Grand Prairie, a city with 65,000 residents situated between Fort Worth and Dallas.

Duncan won 59 per cent of the vote over two other opponents, thus avoiding a runoff election.

Mrs. Dorothy Duncan spent three weeks at the Duncan home prior to the election, assisting effort that reached nearly 10,000 potential voters in a 72-hour period.

A 1962 graduate of Memphis High School, Duncan was the top vote-getter in the municipal election, which attracted 13 candidates seeking the five open spaces on the council. He received 2108 votes.

Duncan is married to the former Lynda Hewitt of Hereford. The couple have two children Shanna, 6 and Sean, 2. Mrs. Duncan is a school teacher in the Grand Prairie public school system. Currently, Duncan is employed by University Computing Company in their public relations department.

How To Build A Boy

Liberally mix several old tin cans full of fun, with a mop of hair that always seems to need to be cut.

Sprinkle in streaks of orneriness, pride, courage, envy, and maybe even a little fear.

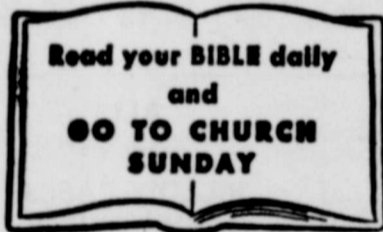

And there: you've made a boy.

Well, almost.

Boys, wonderfully, have a sweet sense of the bigness and beauty and mystery of things. And it's this sense of bigness, beauty and mystery we hope they'll never lose. Religion is an awfully big word to a little boy. But the spirit of it isn't. And it's the spirit of religion that can bring peace, comfort, security and goodness to a boy—his whole life through.

Hit-the-bat, hide'n' seek—they're as vital to a boy as peanut-butter sandwiches. So is the help of true religious faith. Your children should worship this week in your church. And the best way to see to it is to be there with them yourself.

He restoreth your soul....Worship together this week

HOME ECONOMIC FILLERS
Fad diets can be injurious to the dieter's health. They rob energy by excluding important nutrients the body needs every day. Selections from the Basic Four Food groups should be eaten every day even when trying to lose extra pounds, Mrs. Mary Sweeten, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, advises.

Mrs. Nell Abrams Is New President Of Ophelia Club

Mrs. Nell Abrams was elected president of the Ophelia Club during the meeting April 10 in the home of K. Eddins.

Other new officers were: Mrs. Edwin Wynn, president; Mrs. Georgia Long, secretary; Mrs. land, treasurer; and Margaret Cope, reporter. The club will sponsor a Health Drive at 2 p.m. Mrs. Eddie Huddleston, chairman, it was announced.

Delphian Club Enjoys Program On Conservation

Mrs. John Deaver II called the meeting of The Delphian Club to order on Tuesday, April 15, meeting in the home of Mrs. W. C. Dickey. Mrs. Leon Davis introduced the program with the continuation of the year's study, "Unity—The Key to Survival", with this program being on Conservation, Our Endangered Species.

Consider Conservation was the topic assigned Mrs. C. D. Morris for the Meditation stressing the responsible man is to protect and use wisely the treasures of land, waters, wild life, forests, fields, bounty and beauty of our countryside yields with a constant fight against ignorance, waste, greed plus the foes of erosion, forest fires, and floods, with a vision of adding something good to the whole neighbor, each gain requires our share of self giving.

The American Eagle and the Whooping Crane were the most extinct species discussed by Mrs. Henry Hays; there are only some 45 cranes left in our wildlife refuge at Aransas Pass, Texas. Each year the cranes migrate north for a season then return to their refuge to mate. The American Eagle is in almost as bad a state of existence or maybe worse. They migrate north to the high mountain tree or crag, building on top of the old nest year in and year out, with the nests sometimes weighing hundreds of pounds.

Mrs. Dean Yarbrough's subject the Texas Big Horn sheep mostly in the Big Bend country and the Davis Mountains, with some 25 or 30 still around; they easily succumb to the disease common to the domestic sheep. The ram has a harem of some 12 ewes and no other ram dare intrude into his harem.

The Bison was the assignment of Mrs. E. L. Kilgore, with these heavy oxlike quadrupeds, having large shaggy manes, heavy coats of fur, roaming the panhandle of Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma. They are a heavy, lumbering moving slowly but if there is a stampede they can reek great havoc because of their massiveness. However, the buffalo, as we call them, is not really as vicious as we might assume but if they are disturbed they become very violent, destroying everything in their path. They have short horns and heavy forequarters, with a large hump. Some have tried crossbreeding with cattle but little success has been realized.

Delicious refreshments were served to Mrs. Hays, Mrs. L. F. Jones, Mrs. J. S. McMurry, Mrs. Robert L. Duncan, Mrs. Kilgore, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Ben Moss, Mrs. C. L. Smith, Mrs. Mildred Stephens, Mrs. Yarbrough, Mrs. Gaylen Ariola, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Deaver, and the hostess, Mrs. Dickey.

As the members were making their departure, Mrs. Dickey offered each an African Violet plant with instructions for their care.

CARD OF THANKS

The following article is written by Charles R. Townsend, author of the Bob Wills biography entitled "San Antonio Rose: The Life and Music of Bob Wills" (University of Illinois Press, 1974). This article has been published by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, Memphis, Hall County, Texas with all rights reserved. Any reprint of this article must be accompanied by written permission and consent of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce.

BOB WILLS AND THE BIRTH OF WESTERN SWING

Charles R. Townsend, "Bob Wills was not born in Hall County, but the music he created—Western Swing—was. James Rob Wills was born on March 6, 1903, near Kosse in Limestone County, Texas. He was the first of three children born to John and Edna Foley Wills. In 1913, Jim Rob was eight, his family moved to Hall County. They first settled on a farm on the Ogdenville Ranch between Memphis and Littlefield. In the early twenties, the family moved to a combination farm and ranch between Littlefield and Big Red River. It was here that Jim Rob lived in Hall County that he learned to play the violin, and in 1915, he played the violin at his first dance. Jim Rob played for ranch dances in West Texas for the next fourteen years. His life and career were greatly influenced by the environment of western America. Wills spent his formative years in the heart of one of the largest and best ranching areas in the world, and his songs often reflected the western environment and romance he knew and loved so well. For that reason, he referred to his music as western. Years later, Bob told me he developed his style "down between the rivers." By this he meant that his years in Hall County were the formative, and consequently the most important, years in the development of his musical style.

It was in West Texas, between 1913 and 1923, that Wills brought together two streams of American folk music to create his own distinctive musical form. He first learned frontier fiddle music from his father and grandfather, music that had followed the American frontier from the East Coast to the new West Texas. While he was learning the music of his family, he was also learning blues and jazz from Negroes. His earliest playmates were Blacks, and he later worked with them in the cotton fields of East and West Texas. Wills played more than just frontier fiddle music; it was fiddle music with the heat of blues and swing of jazz. Jim Rob Wills created a new music that could as properly be called Western Jazz as Western Swing. In fact, it was the jazz that made his western music swing.

Bob Wills took this basic West Texas music to Fort Worth in 1929, and two years later started a band called the Light Crust Doughboys. In 1934, he moved to Oklahoma where he made radio and musical history with his broadcasts over KVOO. During his years in Tulsa (1934-1942), he and his Texas Playboys continued to develop the swinging western music he had pioneered in West Texas. Wills' recording of San Antonio Rose (1940) took him out of the provincialism of the Southwest and made him a national figure in popular music. In the same year he went to Hollywood and made his first movie.

After World War II, Bob Wills had his greatest success. Literally thousands attended his dances, and he had years when he grossed nearly half a million dollars. In 1968, he was elected to the Country Music Hall of Fame; Bob Wills was much more musically than just country-and-western. To call Bob Wills music country, Merle Haggard told me, is as limited as saying "Louis Armstrong was a trumpet player." Bob's role in American music went beyond that; he was the creator of Western Swing in the Southwest and on the West Coast, a founding father of country-and-western music in Nashville, a transitional figure in rock and roll, an idol of musicians in Bakerfield, and now an influence on country rock in Austin.

The Bob Wills legacy in American music is important. And it had its birth in Hall County where Jim Rob Wills played for ranch dances. It all began "down between the rivers" in Jim Rob's West Texas.

The above article has been reproduced in pamphlet form with a map sketch of Hall County, Texas and information of the author; Bob Wills Coin Artist, Jan (Hudlow) Bell; and the Bob Wills Commemorative Coins. A copy will be distributed with each coin sold during the Bob Wills Day celebration in Turkey, Saturday, April 26th.

Reddy's helpful tips for your Room Air-Conditioners

Your air-conditioner will operate inefficiently if filters are not cleaned regularly. Dirt and lint, collected on the filters, restricts air flow to the coils. Clean filters every two weeks.

Let nature help you save energy by shading your home with trees and shrubs to help cut down on summer cooling costs. Draw draperies against afternoon sun.

Remember to keep outside doors, windows, and fireplace dampers closed. If you have window units, close the heating vents near the floor, as cool air falls and can escape through vents.

You purchased fine-home comfort when you bought your air conditioning unit. Properly maintained, it will offer you years of efficient service. A once-a-year check-up by your dealer pays dividends in savings on operating and breakdown costs.

TEXAS TALK

By BILL COLLIER
Branch Manager

Grass-Fed Beef vs. Grain-Fed Beef

Grass-Fed Beef is one of the most often discussed topics of the agricultural industry. Maybe Texas Talk can clear the air a little. The only difference to the consumer is quality. What does quality mean? In this particular comparison, the sense of taste is the absolute test. Most of us have become use to the flavor of grain-fed beef, therefore it tastes better than meat from grass-fed cattle. This difference in taste is created primarily because of the absence of intramuscular fat (marbling) from the cuts of grass-fed beef. For this reason the meat is graded lower than grain-fed. One of the key ways to tell the difference at the meat counter is to look for USDA Choice or Prime grades. Virtually all these cuts will be from grain-fed cattle. Grass-fed meat may carry an identifying store name such as "Baby-Beef", "Economy Cut", or "Budget Beef". Appearance and nutrition value of the meats are essentially the same.

BYRON BALDWIN

Lee M. Robertson and grandson of Lakeview had as their guests in Heritage Hall the past week, Edna Wallace of Dallas, Minnie Wallace Brown of Plainview and Mamie Lee Douglas of Dallas. Edna and Minnie will be remembered as the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Wallace who moved to Hall County from Dallas in 1906. Edna said she was born at Lakeview and Dr. Stidham brought her into this world. Minnie Wallace Brown of Plainview is another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Wallace. There were seven children in the Wallace family and Edna and Minnie are the only ones now living. Mamie Wallace, the mother of Lee M., married Morris Robertson who is now deceased. Lee M.'s brother is now living in Longview where his wife and two daughters are now teaching. All of the Wallace children attended Lakeview and Webster schools.

Edna graduated at Turkey High School in 1927. She started working as a telephone operator in 1927 for Tom Colvin who owned the telephone exchange in Turkey. She worked at this operator job 10 years and then acted as city secretary for the town of Turkey. In 1939, she moved to Dallas where she worked for the water company for 29 years. She remembered the early days of Bob Wills when he had his barber shop in Turkey and played his fiddle at night. She played a banjo and saxophone in Bob's early days. Others she remembered playing in this band were James and Lee Skinner. Edna remembered when her mother had a lot of customers in Memphis for her square mold butter. Edna helped her mother get the butter packed in ice before day break in the buggy which was a pretty long trip in that mode of travel. She remembered her mother sending her in the bank to get change and cash checks. The teller always gave her chewing gum or candy and she liked to go to the bank. She also remembered decorating the harness on the horses with flowers and flags. Minnie Wallace Brown married L. H. Brown in 1933. They moved to California in 1937 and lived in Memphis four years. L. H. passed away in January of 1975 and was buried in Fairview Cemetery here. Each one of these girls had served their time at milking cows, churning and running cream separators. The other visitor in this group, Minnie Lee Douglas, was reared in Grayson County. Before retiring, she had worked for a Savings and Loan Co. in Dallas for 30 years. She and Edna both retired, now have their home together. This group of visitors was very much surprised at the collection of artifacts in Hall County Heritage Hall.

After investigating the Wallace girls about their early days in Hall County, I found this story about how their mother's butter pleased her many customers. I found out from my wife, Willie Mae, how well her dad, Geo. M. Thompson, liked Mrs. Wallace's butter. His family was living in California in 1921, and when he started on the trip to see them, he bought 12 pounds of butter and told the porter on the train that the package contained gold bars and to keep them in the refrigerator, which he did and when he arrived in Los Angeles, he had nice fresh bars of Texas butter from Mrs. Wallace of Hall County. Another thing that Edna Wallace told me was how she looked forward to coming to Memphis with her buggy loaded with butter because her mother bought her a banana split from the J. A. Sparks ice cream parlor on the south side of the square.

In the passing away of Lilly Stephens Powers the past week brought back memories of almost 68 years ago. Lilly Stephens was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Stephens. They operated a hotel in a two-story frame building located just west of Dr. Roses' office on Main Street. Mr. Stephens was the first sheriff in Hall County. They had four daughters and seven sons, all now deceased except Elbert and Brice of Dallas. The night we arrived in Memphis on the F. W. & D. C. About 6:30 p.m. in August of 1907, we had reservations for one large room for our mother with 5 children, 9 months to 12 years of age. About 9:30, after we went to bed, Mrs. Stephens woke us up and said there was a storm cloud and come to the cellar back of the hotel. She was very excited and so were we, trying to put on some clothes by the light of a coal-oil lamp. We did get partly dressed; and partly undressed, we made it to the cellar where Mrs. Stephens with her children and all the other guests of the hotel were crowded in this small cellar. Mollie Bailey's Tent Show was just a short way back of the hotel. The tent blew down on their audience and there was a lot of screaming and crying and a lot of praying was going on in that cellar. Mrs. Stephens proved to me the first night we spent in Memphis that she was a Christian and trusted in the Lord.

Someone gave me the information that in the early days, Lilly Stephens was one of our accommodating telephone operators that gave you the time of day or any other news she knew that would interest you.

In speaking of age, I heard through Gladys Power that Mrs. A. H. Wilborn observed her 103rd birthday in Amarillo April 8. She is the mother of the Wilborn Sheet Metal. She and her husband with their two daughters and one son moved to Amarillo about 50 years ago for the higher elevation for the benefit of Mrs. Wilborn's health. This was really a good move for her health. We will look forward to the 104 age on April 8, 1976. Congratulations! and best wishes for many more birthdays. Gladys Power made the ice skate show a few weeks ago. She did not learn to skate but had a bad fall that crippled her up and she says she is wearing the chair and herself out doing so much sitting which she is not used to doing.

A few days ago on a coffee break at the restaurant, I noticed a familiar face. I was curious to know the name behind this face, and I found out that it was Joe Williams, Jr., who is a carbon copy of his dad who lived here several years with his wife, Peggy, and three children and I guess they were Mrs. Baird's adopted family. Joe, Jr. is now 25 and graduated from Texas Tech in 1962 and he is district man out of Plainview. Cindy is now a sophomore in Texas Tech and Nick is now working in Lubbock National Bank. Joe, Sr. and Peggy are now living in Austin where he is district supervisor for Mrs. Baird. Our best wishes to this family. Joe Williams was known as the Baird boy and Holmes Posey known as the Mead boy. They both passed out several tons of bread in Hall County.

Vera (Spencer) Orr had as her guests in Heritage Hall, her son, Crow, who has lived in Orlando, Fla., the past two years. Also in this group was Randall Spencer. Randall is the brother of Vera and attended school at Plaska and Memphis where he graduated in 1937. He joined the Army in 1938 and served 2 1/2 years. He married Della Dicks of Lawton, Okla., at Plaska July 5, 1941. They have three children, two in California and the daughter Shirley Spencer of Muskogee, Okla. who was also a visitor in Heritage Hall. Della Spencer has been a nurse in Reynolds Army Hospital since 1936. Shirley has been in the nursing profession since 1966. Linda Turner, also a nurse who was reared in Iowa, has been nursing at Reynolds Hospital for the past 2 1/2 years. This hospital has 250 beds. This was Linda's first trip to Texas.

Randell, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Spencer, served in Korea and the Philippines. The Spencer family moved to Hall County in 1928. There were 9 children in this family. They all attended school at Pleasant Valley, Plaska and Memphis. They are all now living—Vera Orr, Madie Massey, Charlie, Rupert, Randell, James, Vernice and Edward. Mrs. J. S. Spencer passed away in July, 1970, and Mr. Spencer passed away in December of 1970.

The third annual reunion of Newlin, Texas, Sunday the 27th of April, starts at 10:30 in the Community Building. This brings back many memories of the early days when Newlin was a thriving business center of Hall County. I would hate to guess how much population Newlin has produced for Memphis and other parts of the world. This was a prolific neighborhood and I would guess their offspring would be over 100,000.

Another one of our former residents of Hall County passed away in Amarillo with memorial services in Clarendon and was buried here in Fairview Cemetery Wednesday of last week. We had overlooked this news until the past weekend. This was none other than Mrs. C. L. Mixon. Mr. and Mrs. Mixon and their family lived in Hall County in the Salisbury Community from 1928 until 1947 when they moved to Clarendon. G. L. passed away in 1970. In their immediate family, survivors are five daughters and three sons. In the case of each one of the elder people that I have known and they passed away recently, the scripture would apply to each one Matt. 25:21, "Well done thou good and faithful servant. Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I make thee ruler over many things."

I happened to get a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Don Collins the past week. He was with the highway patrol here for several years before moving to Lampassas. I had to be introduced to Lindy Lu and David as they had grown up so in the past few years. It is pretty hard to keep up with out local people, so many of them are on the move. Robert and Mary Helen made the trip to Florida (to see Anita Bryant and missed her) and then I heard of Olton and Bobbie Pate on their trip to Tennessee (to do the state waltz and see Tennessee Ernie). I do not know if they achieved either of these goals, and I did not see them on "Grand Ole Opry". I had a short visit with Mrs. Harry Womack of the past week. I heard her husband invite Harry and his down for his Sunday School fish fry last Thursday night. I did come down for this event and along with Harry's dad, Andy, who is making his home in Austin, he loves fish and his friends Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ragsdale. Austin are having their 50th anniversary party. Sons and their wives April the Driskill Hotel in Austin is the only living charter member of the Memphis Rotary Club. (Continued on Page 11)

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

AUSTIN — Texans are going to get to vote on a new constitution this year after all.

Final legislative agreement on the article-by-article revision proposal will send it to the polls November 4 for a show-or-leave decision by voters.

A major campaign is shaping up for the document, and several efforts can be expected against individual sections.

At least, the revision is shorter, simpler and better organized than the present patched-up constitution. It would give the governor needed fiscal control, appointive power and agency reorganization authority.

The proposed unified court system is not without some strong criticism, as well as backing. The finance article requires uniform standards and procedures for tax appraisal and countywide appraisals.

Counties, through the new local government article, would be able to change their governmental structure and adopt ordinances. Environmental protection would be mandated along with access to comprehensive health care and equal education.

Voters will decide earlier on two constitutional changes — on April 22. On the ballot then are recommended "emergency" improvements in state employees' and school teachers' retirement programs and a $600 a month pay scale and expense account increases for legislators.

MONEY RUNNING OUT State revenues, rapidly shrinking in spite of a once-fat $1 billion "surplus", will be far short of needs for real school finance reform, two government officials maintain.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, Legislative Budget Board chairman, predicted about $450 million to $500-million will be available after the general state budget is approved.

LBB Director Tom Keel estimated the main budget "leftover" at $472.8 million. That's nearly $300 million below the most modest pricetag of major education finance bills backed by Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

Hobby said the teachers will get a pay raise — less than they are asking — but many other provisions of the Briscoe and Texas State Teachers Association bills cannot be financed.

PRIMARY DELAYED

Presidential preference primary legislation went to conference committee with initial Senate instructions to retain a self-destruct feature which would make the legislation effective for 1976 only.

Sponsors are still trying to get rid of the mandate so they can make the primary a permanent election procedure, unless repealed as in the case with most laws.

WATERWAYS BILL PASSED

The Senate designated the pool from a damage verdict federal effort to maintain 426 miles of Gulf Intracoastal waterways.

The Department will cooperate by providing spoil disposal areas along the 426 mile main channel from the Sabine River to Brownsville.

COURTS SPEAK

The State Supreme Court will review a Lathrop case which Atty. Gen. John Hill claims may have major consequences for enforcement of deceptive trade practices court orders.

The High Court will also hear arguments May 14 in Exxon's appeal from a ruling that a truck driver who was injured earlier in a refinery accident.

Two wives of a Chambers County man who died in a Java Sea shipwreck in 1976 are entitled to inherit from his $51,931 insurance and unpaid wages estate, the Supreme Court held.

A $10,500 jury award to a Marshall farmer for pollution damage from Atlas Chemical Industries effluent was upheld by the High Court, but a $25,000 exemplary damages award was rejected.

The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed a rape conviction of four San Antonio men because their trial was not postponed to accommodate a lawyer - legislator who had been called into special session.

A Hillsboro burglary conviction of two was also reversed since the jury relied on testimony of an accomplice witness.

In another recent opinion, Hill concluded planning and development of state parks and historic sites may be financed from Texas Parks Fund III financed by cigarette taxes.

COUNTIES SHIPPED

Seven West Texas counties have been moved from the North-Northwest Territory to the Central Inland Territory, with a reduction of homestead and extended coverage rates.

Montague, Jack, Young, Wise, Eastland, Brown and Stephens counties asked the requirement for insurance on buildings. Counties said they didn't have hail, tornado and windstorm damage sufficient to require they stay in the high-rate territory.

SHORT SNOOZES

Comptroller Bob Bullock reported unemployment payments climbed 52 per cent last month, to a March total of $246.4 million. The Comptroller said tax revenues will decline when unemployment payments exceed $1 billion.

Health Maintenance Organization legislation, providing for a new system of pre-paid, fixed-premium medical and health care services, passed the Senate and is expected to pass the House.

Texas Research League said a tax bill may be necessary this year regardless of Gov. Briscoe's threats to veto one. The Governor signed into law

ALLOWABLE WIDE OPEN
The Railroad Commission again set the oil allowable at 100 per cent for May in spite of a minor decline in crude requests from national buyers.

Next month will be the 38th of wide-open production. East Texas Field, restricted to 86 per cent, is an exception.

COURTS SPEAK
The Court of Criminal Appeals, by a 3-2 vote, upheld the 1973 Texas death penalty law which permits execution for several categories of murder. Thirteen men are on death row at Huntsville prison.

Texas Supreme Court held that a man who lost an eye in an oil field accident can collect disability insurance only for that specific injury unless he can prove that other physical problems (including traumatic neurosis) are direct results of the eye loss.

AG OPINIONS
A county clerk has authority to issue a marriage license even though it appears applicants have been divorced less than 30 days, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:
A bill permitting veterans to defer paying tuitions and fees at colleges while awaiting federal benefits is constitutional.

SHORT SNORTS
The Senate again passed a bill calling for a study to determine if state agencies are doing adequate jobs and if they should be continued.

A multi-million-dollar alcoholic treatment and rehabilitation program also received Senate approval.

A $150,000 rural development loan went to Corsicana Industrial Foundation to help finance a tool and rubber company expansion.

The Stuart family moved to Titus County near Mount Pleasant in 1879. There were nine children in this family and five are now living. Mildred is almost an old-timer as she and Roy moved to Hall County in 1934.

I met Ewell and Fama Noel the past Saturday at the coffee conference table. I thought they had been to the fountain of youth. They had been associated with youth as they left Tommie at Wichita Falls with the other girls that were in the 1936 graduating class who were Martha Thompson Campbell, A n a b e t h Leverett Short, Hattie Dem Ward Thompson, June Power Leary, Annie Ruth Williams and Ann Palmeyer Watkins of Wichita Falls where they were having their semi-annual meeting. I think this class has met each year for a reunion since they graduated. Ed and Florence Gilliam did not fail to send us an anniversary card again this year. Glad to hear they were not touched by the Jackson, Tennessee storm.

CONSTITUTIONAL SUBMITTED
Final concurrence by the Senate in House amendments to a proposed constitutional revision resolution sent the issue of a new constitution for Texas to a November 4 statewide ballot.

Campaigns already are shaping up for the eight-section article - by - article rewrite proposals, which are virtually identical to the final recommendation before the 1974 Constitutional Convention. Funds will be provided by the legislature for advertising the document and

Trash Containers Are Being Used To Dump Dirt

Memphis citizens are urged to not put dirt and rocks, or any unusually heavy items in the trash containers in the alley behind their homes.

Jack Scott, City employee, said that citizens are dumping dirt and rocks into the containers and the compacting truck cannot lift the containers.

"The maximum lifting load of the truck is 2,000 lbs. The containers themselves weigh 560 lbs. It takes additional equipment for the city crews to load a heavy container and sometimes it has to be partially unloaded before it can be dumped," Scott explained.

Const. Amendment Election Draws Light Turn-Out

The two constitutional amendments voted upon Tuesday by Texans carried by 70-30 and 60-40 margins.

In Hall County, voters approved the retirement amendment 259 for, and 115 against. The Legislative pay raise amendment carried 230 for and 143 against. About 375 votes were cast in the election.

Ruben Torres Was Found Guilty Of Burglary Wed.

Ruben Torres was found guilty yesterday afternoon by a jury in 100th District Court after the jury deliberated about 15 minutes. The verdict was pronounced at 3:40 p.m.

Farm Bureau President Attends Washington Meet

Leon Helm, president of the local Farm Bureau, is in Washington D. C. this week attending the Texas Farm Bureau's 1975 County Presidents' Conference.

Mr. Helm will be among 200 Texans attending the meeting. The group flew from Amarillo on April 22 and will return on April 24.

In a departure from the past, this year's conference is being held in the nation's capital to acquaint FB leaders with governmental functions and to cement

Crop Reports From Farmers Are Needed

During the last half of May, a random sample of some 24,000 Texas farmers will receive a crop acreage questionnaire from Charles E. Caudill, Agricultural Statistician in Charge of the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, Austin, Texas.

This information will be the basis for determining the planted acreage for the state of Texas and each county. Texas covers such a wide area that state totals alone do not provide adequate information on Texas' most basic industry — agriculture. The Texas Legislature has provided a program of estimates for each county. This is a cooperative effort of USDA's Statistical Reporting Service and the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Accurate estimates are of great importance to farmers in planning production and marketings and in providing an unbiased picture of Texas agriculture. Farmers who receive questionnaires are urged to complete and return them by mail. All individual reports are confidential and are used only for state and county totals.

Methodist Youth To Have Car Wash Sat.

The United Methodist Youth will have a car wash Saturday at the Methodist Church according to sponsors. The young people will wash cars from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Anyone wishing to have their car picked up, washed and delivered back to them may call the church at 259-3041.

Cost of a car clean-up (car brought to church will be $3.00) clean-up with pickup and delivery service will be $4.50.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack L. Rose were in Dallas last week attending an Optometric meeting. Speaker for the meeting was Dr. Robert Levoy of New York City.

Wall Street in New York was so named because it follows the line of the palisaded wall or stockade built in 1652 across the southern end of Manhattan Island.

greater familiarity between Texas lawmakers and their Farm Bureau constituents. While in Washington, Mr. Helm will meet with Congressman Jack Hightower, who represents this district, and the two Texas Senators.

The group will also see usual sights in Washington, including

Ford's Theater; the Federal Triangle; the Capitol Building; the Supreme Court Building; the Library of Congress; the White House; the Washington Jefferson and Lincoln Monuments; the Cherry Trees; the Smithsonian Institution; the National Gallery of Art and Arlington National Cemetery.

The group will have a banquet featuring American Farm Bureau Federation President William Kuhfuss and the Washington office staff in a discussion of "The Washington Situation," and will be conducted on a special guided tour of the Department of Agriculture.
