Banks' Deposits Are Off Slightly

Hall County's bank depositors have $1.2 million less in the Bank the last day of June this year as compared with the last day of June last year; however, total deposits of the three Hall County Banks are up about $615,000 over the April 16, 1975 figure.

Citizens should remember that Bank deposits records in 1974 set all-time record highs, and the $28,482,806.96 total deposit figure for June 30, 1975, is just $1,200,809.65 off the June 30, 1974, record, which surpassed the June 1973 figure by over $8 million.

Total assets of the three banks, Peoples State Bank of Turkey, First State Bank of Memphis and First National Bank of Memphis, as of June 30, 1975, totaled $31,650,937.86. This is off last June's total assets by $1,062,972.37.

The statements of condition of the three banks, published elsewhere in this issue, show loans at $15,094,475.25, which is an increase of $1,309,758.13 over a year ago.

Hall County's financial picture clearly reflects an agriculture oriented economy, as years of good crops and strong markets, total deposits climb, while during adverse years a decline is seen. However, upward spirals seems to be sharper than declines, especially during the past decade.

EDITORIAL

Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Week Proclaimed!

This is the first part, of a two-part, editorial look at the up-coming Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Week, which has been proclaimed by Governor Dolph Briscoe, for July 25-31, 1975. Farm and ranch safety is a very important subject locally, as well as throughout our state.

The week-long emphasis will highlight farm and ranch accident prevention, through programs conducted by the Texas Safety Assn., Texas Farm Bureau, State Agriculture Extension Service, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers, and the Young Farmers of Texas.

Records show that 285 Texas farm and ranch residents died in 1974, an increase over the 214 fatal accidents which occurred in 1973. Accidents involving traffic, tractors and drownings were the leading causes of fatalities in 1974.

The week selected by Governor Briscoe coincides with National Farm Safety Week, as declared by President Ford.

Texas farmers and ranchers have become increasingly concerned with the various agricultural safety regulations issued by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). Their concern is noted by leaders in safety associations. Joe L. Smetana, Texas Safety Assn. Vice President, who is the Safety Director for the Texas Farm Bureau, said, "Of particular concern due to recent regulations are the certification or licensing of farmers and ranchers to use restricted pesticides, and the roll over protective structures for farm tractors."

In his proclamation of Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Week, Gov. Briscoe urged, "all who live and work on Texas farms and ranches to put safety first, to plan for accident prevention and to work diligently to remove hazards in agricultural environments."

Why are so many more persons engaged in agriculture becoming accident victims now than in years before? There are many reasons, but chief among them is that equipment being used today is far more dangerous because it is bigger, more powerful, has more moving and exposed parts. The most dangerous time is when equipment is being repaired or maintained, it appears.

Farming and ranching is, by its very nature, a dangerous activity, involving the use of heavy equipment, dangerous chemicals and fuel, potentially dangerous animals, and all the hazards of nature.

Causes of fatalities last year according to data from the Texas Safety Assn. and The Farm Bureau were accidents involving traffic 97, tractor 34, drownings 34, firearms 24, and fires and burns 21. It is not surprising to see that traffic accidents claimed the largest share of the fatalities because those engaged in agriculture are required to do a lot of traveling. It is not uncommon for a pickup to have 30,000 to 50,000 miles put on it during a year. However, the 285 deaths represents a 33 percent increase over 1973 and a 16.9 percent increase over 1972. Other causes recorded include falls 18, machinery 15, animals 13, electric current 10 and miscellaneous 19.

But for any safety program to be successful, accidents have to be prevented before they occur. This is possible only when farmers and ranchers themselves plan and execute a safety program, and set the example for the members of their family and employees.

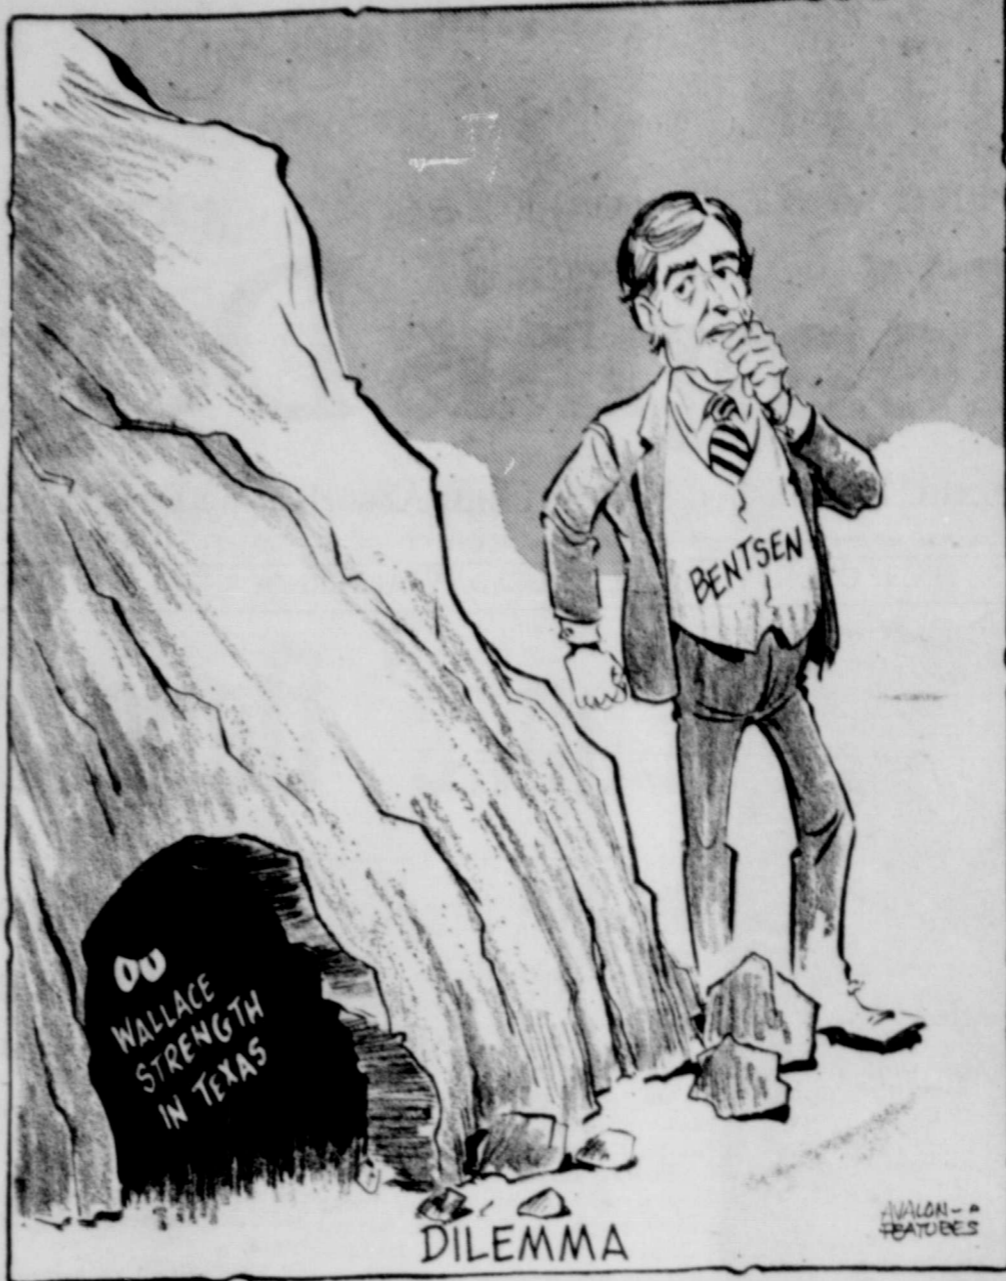

This editor heard a statement made by an old mountain man in a mining community in the hills, last weekend on television, say that mining companies, years ago, had this policy whereby if a mule was killed, the company had to buy another one to replace it, but if a miner was killed, the company just hired another miner.

There is a certain amount of hazards involved in every profession or vocation. It is wise to devote some time to safety training, instruction in safety procedures, and making certain that machinery and vehicle operators are skilled in the handling of the equipment. Also, no one, regardless of how skilled, is capable of safe operation after long, long hours without sufficient rest.

Planning work schedules with safety in mind, keeping equipment properly maintained, and being safety conscious when handling dangerous chemicals, is good advice, for this state can certainly do without the needless waste of human resources from the ranks of this state's leading industry-agriculture.

TRIBUTE TO ELDERS LOOK BACK WITH PRIDE

MAYBE IT'S TIME for somebody to say something good about our often-maligned "older generation" for the benefit of our own self-esteem as well as for the information of our youngsters.

Somebody did, eloquently, too, at a college commencement exercise recently. It was Eric A. Walker, president of Pennsylvania State University, and it bears repeating. We are re-printing it here from The Perryton Herald, but the speech is getting a good airing by the American press, and deserves it. Here it is:

THIS CEREMONY MARKS the completion of an important phase of your life. It is an occasion in which all who know you can share in your sense of pride and accomplishment. But no one has more pride in your accomplishments than the next group I'd like to introduce you to. If you of the graduating class will look over into the bleachers to your left or right, I would like to re-introduce you to representatives of some of the most remarkable people ever to walk the earth. People you might want to thank on this graduation day. These are people you already know — your parents and grandparents. And, if you will bear with me for five minutes, I think you will agree that a remarkable people they are indeed. Let me tell you about them.

Not long ago an educator from Northwestern University by the name of Bergen Evans, a radio performer known to your parents, got together some facts about these two generations — your parents and grandparents. I'd like to share some of these facts with you.

These are the people who within just five decades — 1919-1969 — have by their work increased life expectancy by approximately 50 percent — who while cutting the working day by a third, have more than doubled per capita output.

These are the people who have given you a healthier world than they found. And because of this you no longer have to fear epidemics of flu, typhus, diphtheria, smallpox, scarlet fever, measles or mumps that they knew in their youth. And the dreaded polio is no longer a medical factor, while TB is almost unheard of.

LET ME REMIND YOU that these remarkable people lived through history's greatest depression. Many of these people know what it is to be poor, what it is to be hungry and cold. And because of this, they determined it would not happen to you, that you would have a better life, you would have food to eat, milk to drink, vitamins to nourish you, a warm home, better schools and greater opportunities to succeed than they had.

Because they gave you the best, you are the tallest, healthiest, brightest, and probably best looking generation to inhabit the land.

And because they were materialistic, you will work fewer hours, learn more, have more leisure time, travel to more distant places, and have more of a chance to follow your life's ambition.

These are also the people who fought man's grisliest war. They are the people who defeated the tyranny of Hitler, and who when it was all over, had the compassion to spend billions of dollars to help their former enemies rebuild their homelands. And these are the people who had the sense to begin the United Nations.

It was representatives of these two generations, who through the highest court of the land, fought racial discrimination at every turn to begin a new era in civil rights.

They built thousands of high schools, trained and hired tens of thousands of better teachers, and at the same time made higher education a very real possibility for millions of youngsters — where once it was only the dream of a wealthy few.

AND THEY MADE A START

—although a late one — in healing the scars of the earth and in fighting pollution and the destruction of our natural environment. They set into motion new laws giving conservation new meaning, and setting aside land for you and your children to enjoy for generations to come.

They also hold the dubious record for paying taxes — although you will probably exceed them in this.

While they have done all these things, they have had some failures. They have not yet found an alternative for war, nor for racial hatred. Perhaps you, the members of this graduating class, will perfect the social mechanisms by which all men may follow their ambitions without the threat of force — so that the earth will no longer need police to enforce the laws, nor armies to prevent some men from trespassing against others. But they made more progress by the sweat of their brows than in any previous era, and don't you forget it. And, if your generation can make as much progress in as many areas as these two generations have, you should be able to solve a good many of the world's remaining ills.

It is my home and I know the hope of these two generations that you find the answers to many of these problems that plague mankind.

But it won't be easy. And you won't do it by negative thoughts, nor by tearing down or belittling. You may and can do it my hard work, humility, hope and faith in mankind. Try it.

—The Canadian Record

BYRON BALDWIN

R. G. Patrick and his daughter, Helen Pate, had as their guests in Heritage Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patrick and son, Lonnie Dale. Jack will be remembered as the son of R. G. and brother of Helen. Jack graduated from MHS in 1943. He worked for Selby Shoe Shop and Henry Hays, making people happy with new soles and heels on their shoes. He also worked in Quanaah for a sort time. He married Dorothy King, daughter of Mae King and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Crow. They married in 1946 and moved to Portland, Ore., in 1955. They have two sons and one daughter and three grandchildren. One son is now making a medical doctor. This was their first trip back to Memphis in 11 years and noticed many changes in the town. The three had been here 3 days and they reported that each one of them had gained 5 pounds due to Mattie Patrick's good cooking. Dorothy graduated from MHS in 1945. She made a visit to the Crow farm to get her a sample of the good plums she ate when a small girl. Other members of the Crow family now living in Portland are: Mae, Peggy and Winifred. They had a picnic supper for Mrs. Henry Scott, Gloria and Gene Tension on July 9. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott were neighbors of the Crow family when Smith School was very active. This group enjoyed their trip through Heritage Hall, even Mrs. Elwin (Helen) who reported that was her first trip through Heritage Hall. Helen gave me this information that the Pate family had worked the Daniel farm west of Plaska for the past 56 years along with their own farms. I think that would make 3 generations that had worked on this place. Jack and Dorothy Patrick reported that they were only traveling through by plane to make the 2,000-mile trip. They bought 3 bales of Hall County cotton to show in Portland. Thanks to the Patricks for their contribution to Heritage Hall and also the complimentary things they said.

John Fowler showed me a very interesting document last week that he had framed. This was a land grant signed by President McKinley in 1900 to John's uncle, James Fowler, who came from Iowa to Oklahoma and he did not travel by jet as the last 85 miles were made in a stage coach. He did not stay very long in Oklahoma and sold this quarter section of land for the high price of $160 which was $1 per acre. John and his two sons, Dick and Bob, now own this farm and are keeping it in the family.

History tells us that William McKinley was the first American president to ride in an automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingram Walker of Cleburne were visitors in Heritage Hall the past week. They were both born and reared in Memphis and graduated from MHS in 1927 and 1929. Shirley Greene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Greene, married Ingram Walker, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Walker, in 1935. Ingram and Shirley left Memphis in 1936. They lived in Turkey where Ingram worked for the Memphis Press, and from there to Hillsboro and Fort Worth before locating in Cleburne where they have operated a florist business the past 14 years. They have one son, Robert, and one daughter, Gail, who live in Dallas. They have one grandson and one granddaughter. Shirley and Ingram had their first swimming lessons at Bryant's Lake east of Memphis. At one time, Shirley was mascot of our famous "Gold Medal Band." The Walker and Green families were pioneers of Hall County arriving here in the early 1900's. R. C. Walker first operated a gin just off of West Neal Street in 1902, and later he and a Mr. White built one of the larger gins in this area on Boykin Drive near the location of Ward Motor Co. A. T. Lokey was their head ginnee. The other two children in the Walker family were Nell, who is now Mrs. Dudley Ray of Lubbock (she has 3 children), Jack, who was a pro golfer and is now operating a shoe store in Midland.

The other child born to the Greene family was Gayle, who is operating the department store his father started in 1908. He has one son and two daughters. Ingram and Shirley were surprised to find so many artifacts in Heritage Hall. Shirley majored in music. There is a musical sound she likes about as well as the piano, and this is the ticker tape, when Dow Jones is on the up and up.

Another surprise visitor in Heritage Hall the past week was John Lamb of Waco. John, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lamb graduated from MHS in 1936, served four years in the Army before locating in Waco where he married. I guess she must be a good cook, as you would have to pay for about 50 pounds more freight on him than when he left here. They have one daughter who lives in Washington, D. C. and works for Congressman Henry Reuss, who is chairman of the House Banking Committee. The Lamb family started moving to Hall County in 1905. There were 7 children in the Lamb family. The only survivor of this family is Mrs. Vernon Sasser of Memphis. John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lamb, passed away just three weeks apart in 1971. Other members of the Jake Lamb family now living are Faye Smith, Rhea Foster, wife of Wesley Foster of Friona, and Ruth, the wife of Dave Conner who lives in Kentucky. John was on his way to Friona with Mrs. Sasser for a visit with the other members of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burnett of Tulsa, Okla., were visitors in Heritage Hall. They are admirers of the collection of Bob Wills music. They have the first record Bob Wills made which was "Osage Stomp", along with all of the other numbers that were recorded. This couple had been visiting in Turkey and were on their way, humming that song, "Take Me Back To Tulsa".

Mr. and Mrs. Lenis Simpson and son Lenis, Jr. and Lenis' mother, Mrs. Larry Simpson, made a trip a few days ago to Wenhrop, Mass., which is in the suburbs of Boston. They made this 2100 miles in three days, traveling by car through Arkansas, Tenn., Virginia and Penn. and also took a tour of Washington, D. C. They were in Boston where the big tea party was held. They saw the Plymouth Rock and made part of the path of Paul Revere near North Church. They did not get a speeding ticket and 59c was about the highest price of any gas they bought. Of course, they made this trip to see all the family of their daughter, Nancy. After conversation with Lenis, I think the main attraction was the grandchildren that they had never seen. Grandchildren have a lot of pulling power. Anyway, they reported a nice trip and arrived back home safe and sound.

In the daily paper last week, we noticed that a company is now in the process of manufacturing 275 street cars, 175 for Boston, Mass., and 100 for San Francisco. The last trolley car made was 23 years ago. We must have had something good and did not know it, with all of the clang, clang. I remember my first street car ride was about 72 years ago in Shreveport, La., which was very fascinating as was the last one I rode in San Francisco on Knobb Hill. The same day I had that first street car ride, I found out what a finger bowl was in the Seibald Hotel. I first thought that it was put on the table to drink.

Other visitors in Hall County Heritage Hall were Bill McKee of Carey and Harold Parton of Tahlequah, Okla. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lewis, one of our former Hall County grads, was in Heritage Hall the past Saturday. Janie Adecock Lewis moved from Memphis 36 1/2 years ago. She was attending the Lewis and Childress family reunion at the Community Building. Janie will be remembered by her schoolmates as the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joel Adecock, who lived east of Memphis on the Bryant farm. Other members of this family now living are: Lola B., Raymond, Oran, Lorene, Ruth and Joel of Midland, who married June Seago, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sims Seago who operated a gin in Memphis.

A few weeks ago I happened to hear the name of Ray Cullin on NBC News from Los Angeles, Calif. I addressed a letter to Ray, C/o N.B.C. with a lot of questions to see if he was the Ray Cullin I knew (as a kid) he was; and he was as you can see from the letter given below.

Dear Mr. Baldwin: First let me say it was a pleasure to get your letter and I am the same Raymond George who grew up in Memphis with George and Essie Cullin (she was called) is my brother. I do appreciate the letter. I graduated from Memphis in 1948 and Charles graduated in 1950. I went to Wayland for two years before joining the Air Force for four years during the Korean War. Charles to Hardin - Simmons for two years then into the Army West Texas State in Cleburne, Amarillo. Charles had several newspaper jobs in Lubbock and Santa Fe, N.M. For four years he was

REMEMBER JOHNNY, OH! REMEMBER

Remember Johnny, Oh! Remember The games we played together? Remember, Oh! Remember The fun times we had? Oh! why did you have to leave? Oh! why did you have to go? My heart is said— My heart is broken— I'll always miss you so.

Remember Johnny, Oh! Remember The old porch swing? Remember, Oh! Remember The time I hurt my eye on the window sill? Oh! why did you have to leave? Oh! why did you have to go? My heart is said— My heart is broken— I'll always miss you so.

Remember Johnny, Oh! Remember The day you scared the snake away? Remember, Oh! Remember The things we saw together? Oh! why did you have to leave? Oh! why did you have to go? My heart is said— My heart is broken— I'll always miss you so.

Remember Johnny, Oh! Remember The time you jumped off the windmill and cut your arm? Remember, Oh! Remember The yesterdays we had? Oh! why did you have to leave? Oh! why did you have to go? My heart is said— My heart is broken— I'll always miss you so.

LETTERS

To The Editor

TO ALL SO CALLED DOG LOVERS — We took our trailer and Granddaughter to Greenbelt Lake Saturday afternoon for a weekend of fishing and camping. Just below our campsite was a family who had brought along their big Saint Bernard dog. The family swore the dog would not bite. They were so wrong. He attacked our Granddaughter Lesha and literally tore her face up. We had too rush her into the emergency room at Hall County Hospital where she received nine stitches all about her face.

The family who owned the dog swore before we left for the hospital that the dog had a collar and had been vaccinated. Our doctor told us we had to get the dog and have him confined for the next 10 days at least. We went back to Greenbelt to get the dog, and at that time only, the owners admitted the dog had no tags and they had only had him for five weeks.

Estal took the dog to Amarillo and had him impounded. Now we have the terrible horror of waiting to see if the dog is rabid or not, and the pain and trauma Lesha is going through.

Please, people, if you love your pets, see they are kept up and give them their shots. Our city has an ordinance against dogs running loose yet in our neighborhood of North 10th they are in abundance with no tags. From now on any loose dog in our yard is doomed. Either the pound or our shot gun will get it. We will call the city first, so if you want to keep your dog—keep him. We don't want them. We think our children and grandchildren should have the first chance at the wonderful outside world.

Estal and Lena Collins

surgeon. Doc and Mae Rasco wish to thank all our old friends in Memphis for their cards and letters. May God bless all. Sincerely yours, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rasco
