County Cotton Harvest Is In Full Swing As 21,194 Bales Gathered

Hall County's 1975 cotton harvest has gotten into full swing as the county harvested 14,868 bales since last week's report bringing the season's total to 21,194 bales.

Gins surveyed this morning include the eleven operating gins in the county.

Ideal weather conditions have allowed farmers to get into their fields all week long, with the only holdup being the scarcity of empty cotton trailers as gin yards are stacked up with full trailers. Most gins are running around the clock.

Theodore J. (Ted) Proske, in charge of the Memphis Cotton Classing office in Memphis, said today, that through noon the office has received 29,000 samples, since it opened early last week, and of this number about 21,000 samples have been classed. Over 9,000 samples were classed in Altus before the Memphis office opened.

"We are receiving about 3,500 samples a day, which is not the heaviest receipts we can expect but it is sufficient to keep our six classers busy," Mr. Proske said.

He said there seemed to be no shortage of available classers, so soon as receive increase more classers will be assigned to the Memphis office.

Some farmers interviewed this week said that their fields were not quite ready to be harvested, so they will wait another week or ten days in order to allow their cotton to mature further.

A drive over the area revealed a active sight, as strippers were running in many fields, cotton trailers moving on the roads, and gin yards the center of activities.

Greenbelt Cotton Producers, Inc. To Hold Annual Meeting December 13

The Directors of the Greenbelt Cotton Producers, Inc. announce that the Annual Meeting of the organization will be held on December 13. The meeting will convene at 2:00 p.m. at the USDA Cotton Classing Office, in Memphis, Texas. Mr. Ted Proske, the Officer in Charge of the Memphis Cotton Classing Office will also be on hand.

The Memphis Cotton Classing Office began receiving samples on November 24, 1975. There were over 120,000 samples classed last year. The election of directors, and a resume of the past years business will be among the important items on the agenda.

The Greenbelt Cotton Producers, Inc. was formed in 1959 for the purpose of establishing a cotton classing office in Memphis. This office serves cotton farmers in Armstrong, Briscoe, Carson, Childress, Collingsworth, Cottle, Donley, Gray, Hall, Hansford, Hemphill, Hutchinson, King, Lipscomb, Ochiltree, Motley, Roberts and Wheeler Counties.

Hefley of Shamrock, Leonard King of Childress, Hubert Rhoades of Clarendon, D. E. Brunson, Quitaque, Joe Degam of Flomot, D. D. Band Boosters To Have Luncheon Sunday, Dec. 14

The Memphis Band Booster Organization is again sponsoring the Annual Band Booster Luncheon to be held on Sunday noon, following church services, December 14. This event will be held in the Community Center of Memphis.

The club uses this opportunity to raise needed funds to be used upon all the band students of the Memphis Schools. Inflation is so great now that our dollars do not cover as much territory as they once did, so the booster members must work harder to raise needed funds it was stated. There is no way that the school system can pay for all necessary items needed by the bands, so the booster club has volunteered to help with financial assistance as much as possible. "We feel that the children of our community deserve the best, so we have given our time and labor in their behalf", the group said.

Each mother of a band student will be asked to prepare one dish of food and donate it to the luncheon. All food served at this feed will be home made by some of the best cooks in the community. A large variety of delicious food will please the most finicky appetite. Meat, vegetable, fruit dishes and delicious home-made deserts will be served.

Memphis Host Wellington Dist. 2-A Opener Tues.

Memphis Basketball teams will meet on the line next Tuesday in the Cyclone gymnasium as Memphis hosts Wellington in the opening round of District 2-A competition.

Wellington is the defending champion of the district and has their starters back from the playoffs. Wellington's on-court advantage is they started a week later this year than representing the district in Altus.

Phone Cager Coach Bill Montague said, "We want to have many of our fans as possible to be at the gym Tuesday night to support the team against Wellington."

Although the Cyclone this season is shy on experience in varsity play, the team has proved it can put a lot of points on the scoreboard so the opening District game could prove to be a real test for the visiting Skyrockets if the Cyclone gives a good accounting.

This weekend, both Memphis and Wellington teams are participating in the Paducah Tournament, with the Cyclones facing the Quannah girls at 5:15 p.m. today and the Cyclone meeting the Childress Bobcats at 6:30 p.m. Many of Childress' basketball players are involved in Class AA state play-offs so Memphis should advance to second round games against the winners of Paducah and Matador games for both boys and girls Friday. Finals will be Saturday afternoon and evening in this tournament.

Memphis teams played Quannah teams at Quannah Tuesday night and won both games.

The Cyclones won 83 to 23, with Faye Beck scoring 32 points, Melba Walker 28, Sheryl Orcutt 11 and Jan Richardson 10. This is the Quannah girls team first year in varsity competition after starting girls basketball program.

The Cyclones got into a scoring race with the Quannah Indians, but won it in the final quarter 83 to 75. Memphis led 14 to 13 after the first quarter, but the score was all tied 34 each at halftime.

The Cyclones edged ahead 55 to 54 at the three-quarter mark. Kirk Fields was leading scorer with 25 points, followed by Daryl Smith 13, Ricky Guy 11, Anthony Johnson and Randall Shahan eight each, Ricky Miller 7, Steve Flemmons 6, Charles Bryley 3 and Ricky Woodward 2.

McCracken of Quannah hit 28 points to be the game's high scorer for the night.

All four Memphis Jr. High teams were to travel to Childress this weekend for a tournament, but this tournament has been cancelled due to Childress participating in the State Quarter - finals in football.

Plans were made to show the film at the January meeting.

This Saturday morning, December 6th, is the date for the All-Region Band tryouts. Approximately twenty band students will leave for Panhandle, Texas, at 6:30 a.m. to participate in this annual event. It is hoped that our students will do well and several will be able to make the All-Region Band.

The Annual Christmas Concert is to be held on Sunday afternoon, December 14th, at 3 p.m. All three Memphis School Bands will perform. Miss Carol Blain, director of bands, stated that she hoped the public would enjoy the program this year, since the groups playing will add a little variety in the music selected for the afternoon.

The meeting was adjourned. The next meeting will be on Monday evening, January 5th at 7 p.m.

City Sewage Treatment Plant Is Constructing New Holding Pond

City Sewage Treatment Plant is constructing a third pond, to go with the other two ponds already in use.

The pond, located just east of the second pond, will be 20-ft. deep, 300 ft. long and 350 ft. wide, adding several acre-feet of water already being used now.

The new pond should be in operation by about the first of next year, and is being built by the city crew and County Precinct 1. Manuel Perez is overseeing the project.

The third pond will allow the city to place the water from the second pond into the new pond and not allow any water from the plant to enter the creek. The water in the third pond would be cleaner, with less pollution than it was in the second pond.

The major reason for adding the third pond to the system is to keep overflow water from going into the creek as it now does. E. H. Edwards, Sewage Superintendent, said the Texas Water Quality Board and federal agencies are requiring higher standards of purity for water entering creeks and streams.

Work began on the project the first of this week, according to Mr. Edwards.

Groom Downs Jayton 24-13 In Game Here

The Groom Tigers must like Cyclone Stadium in Memphis, returning to town to play in the Class B State Quarter - Finals, and winning the game 24-13 from the Jayton Jaybirds before 2,000 fans here Friday.

The contest was an exciting affair, with Groom playing good defense and mounting a well-balanced offensive attack, while Jayton's passing yardage was impressive, but the Jaybirds couldn't get their running attack going against Groom's tough defense.

The victory, which moves the second-ranked Tigers to 11-0-1, sets us the Semi-Final match-up between Groom and Celina, a 21-0 victor over Gorman.

Groom's rushing attack was led by Chris Britten who gained 110 yards on 18 carries and scored one touchdown. Thomas Reed slashed 14 times for 33 yards and a touchdown and he also picked off an airborne fumble and raced 47 yards for the game's first TD. John Krizan added 84 yards on 15 carries, and QB Bimbo Bivens added 45 more yards and a touchdown on eight carries.

Jayton's Mark Fincher, who had averaged nearly 200 yards rushing a game this season and is the fourth leading rusher in Texas schoolboy history with 6,498 yards in three seasons until Friday night here, was limited to 87 yards on 16 carries.

Weather for the game was ideal, with 40 degree temperature on the still evening. The 2,000-plus fans almost filled the seating capacity of Cyclone Stadium, which pleased the two schools involved.

Memphis Chamber officials ran the concession stand. Memphis Firemen and Troop 35 Boy Scouts did good work parking cars, handling program sales and raising the flag.

Chamber Executive President Jim Edd Wines said, "Memphis was a good host to Jayton and Groom, and they brought fine football teams to Memphis and had an exciting game."

Tips For Saving Energy!

Americans are entering into the Christmas Season, as well as beginning the winter season of the year, and because of cold weather, increased travel, and Christmas lighting, high energy usage will be the order of the day and night.

Utility rates have increased during the past year and citizens would be wise to study the increased costs in light of the family budget, and not be caught short come bill paying time.

This editor, however, is not one to encourage the shutting off of Christmas lights as a means of saving energy. Children in every family get a special thrill from seeing the beautifully decorated homes at Christmas, which makes the holiday season so special in their lives. We would encourage citizens to participate in Christmas decorating, because of the pleasure it gives.

Area citizens might, however, read the following condensed listing of thirty "Energy Saving Tips" and apply them if they desire to cut energy costs this winter.

1. Set thermostat at 68 degrees and remember to lower it to 60 degrees at night. Wear warmer clothing if cool.
2. If you can feel cold air blowing around window frames, the cracks should be caulked, or weatherstripped.
3. When putting antifreeze in your car, get a tuneup also, it'll save about 10 percent in gasoline costs.
4. Two light-weight sweaters are warmer than one heavy one.
5. Check your radiators or hot air registers to make sure they're not blocked so warm air can flow freely around the room.
6. Remind your children to turn off the lights in rooms not occupied by family members.
7. Use cold water to run food through your sink disposer.
8. A well-maintained furnace, with a clean filter, uses less fuel and saves you money.
9. In cool weather, open drapes, shades and shutters to let the sun shine in. Close them at night to minimize heat loss.
10. Save small light-weight items until last, when drying clothes in a dryer, you may be able to get them dry after you turn off the dryer with heat retained by the machine.
11. When driving, coast as far as you can before braking. The more distance you cover by coasting, the more gas you save.
12. Remove awnings from the sunny side of your home, and store them. This gives natural heat to the home and increases life of the awnings.
13. Winterize your home if you are closing it up for an extended absence. Draining water systems and shutting off furnaces will save energy.
14. Use thermometer to check thermostat. Adjust thermostat so that the thermometer reads recommended 68 degrees.
15. Make compost pile of leaves. Using natural compost instead of artificial soil conditioners in your garden can save money.
16. Suits and vests are in fashion, so use them in your wardrobe.
17. When cooking, prepare several oven dishes at once when oven is hot. Re-heating is cheaper.
18. Teach children how to save energy.
19. Get a copy of "Tips for Energy Savers" free, just write: Federal Energy Adm. Washington, D. C. 20461.
20. If you have a gas lamp, turn it off unless its light is absolutely necessary for safety.
21. Use fireplace damper to keep household heat from escaping up the chimney.
22. Use lower wattage light bulbs, unless you need equal light for reading, close work or safety.
23. Empty or replace dust bags on vacuum cleaners frequently.
24. Plan holidays with fewer long drives.
25. If you live in an electrically heated home, consider replacing your system with a heat pump.
26. Do household cleaning with cold water.
27. Defrost frozen meat and fowl a day ahead of baking or roasting.
28. Fluorescent lights are more energy-efficient than incandescent lights.
29. Storm windows and doors are good investments, 15 percent energy savings are enough to cover the cost in a few years.
30. Showering times should be held to three to five minutes to save energy used to heat water.

What Other Editors Say

Even to those of us who have been less than enchanted with the public image of the late J. Edgar Hoover for the last decade or so, it comes as a shock to discover that behind that awesome facade of Puritan ethic was really a dirty old man... a really dirty old man.

Stories of Hoover's pandering to the prurient interest of Presidents by titillating them with "inside" insights into the strictly-inside activities of prominent public personalities, gleaned from FBI surveillance files, have been unsettling enough, not only for the unflattering light in which they place the Presidents involved, but for their revelation of the methods by which the Director sought to carry favor with people in power.

These might be dismissed as the unsavory but understandable eccentricities of a dirty old man who found his kicks in petty perversions. But the revelations in Senate hearings a few days ago of the FBI's use of blackmail, at Hoover's direction, against private citizens in the public eye... a most flagrant example being the harassment of Martin Luther King with threats of exposure aimed at preventing his acceptance of a Nobel Prize and, apparently, intended to induce his suicide... are positively sickening.

The FBI, once considered a shining example of righteousness in law enforcement, has been revealed as an agency which has stooped to the most sordid tactics, not to enforce laws, but to influence events, and to carry out the frequently malicious designs of its Director.

Not even the also-discredited CIA, whose cloak and dagger activities have encompassed murders and assassinations, has stooped so low.

Plotting the assassination of leaders of unfriendly foreign powers at least has an aura of grandeur to it. But using police powers to carry out character assassination of the citizens of one's own country, to harass and blackmail people to satisfy personal or political animosities, is one of the lowest crimes which can be committed against a free society.

There is rough justice, we suppose, in the fact that the secret files of Hoover's own FBI, which were once used to discredit those who had incurred Hoover's enmity, are now being opened to destroy the once-sterling character of the late Director himself.

Our Idol not only had feet of clay, but a head full of filth.

STATUS SYMBOL

The Automobile, that chrome-wheeled, white-side-walled, candy-apple, metallic-colored, nylon-and-leather, 120 mph manifestation of the modern personality, is, for the middle classes, forced as they are to live, in the words of Pete Seeger, in little ticky-tacky houses, the ultimate status symbol.

And, unless I've sadly misread humanity, it appears that in a world that wants to level mankind, individual men will strive harder to gain identity, to flaunt their status once achieved.

Eliminate the new and flashy car as the middle class status symbol and what in the world will the high school super-stud do to turn the girls' heads?

Will John Public give up without a fight the triennial surge in status which comes as he opens the garage door to reveal his new super-machine to a gawking neighbor still driving last year's model?

You might as well try to wean us from Coors and the Dallas Cowboys.

State Health Program — State health program for the needy may have to be postponed after January 1 unless State Welfare budget can be increased. The department may have to turn back more in unspent federal funds for 1976. The money apparently cannot be transferred from other programs to health services.

Commissioner Raymond Vowell said a health program deficit in fiscal 1977 may be as high as $76 million. Vowell officials said they can make up the deficit within the overall appropriations available if they can get the program to start. However, the legislature prohibited such transfers.

The State Board of Public Welfare authorized staff sessions with Governor Briscoe and the Legislature to seek transfer.

As an alternative, according to Budget Analyst Wesley Cospers, is reducing or discontinuing nearly all health services for the aged, blind, disabled and other welfare recipients.

Most of the shortage, Hjernevik said, is due to spiraling medical costs.

Welfare officials are contemplating reducing hospital stay allowances from 30 to 15 days, discontinuing intermediate care home payments, limiting prescriptions to two per month and cutting off payments for glasses, dentures and hearing aids.

Control To State — The Air Control Board said the federal government is giving the state management of air sampling programs January 1.

The Board will collect for federal study air samples in 14 counties — a job now done by the Environmental Protection Agency. The counties are: Amarillo, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, expenditures.

A state university cannot use either appropriated or auxiliary enterprise funds to purchase liability insurance for its administrative officers and regents.

The legislature may constitutionally vest control of the Texas School for the Blind in five members of the State Board of Education.

A lease of federal land to get the purchase price of parking facilities on the site conveys to the lessee no separately taxable real property interest in facilities.

Appointments

Ed Leach of Longview and Jack C. Kellam of Van were named by Gov. Dolph Briscoe to the Texas Historical Commission. Briscoe reappointed San Antonio Mayor Lila Cockrell and Fred N. Pfeiffer of San Antonio to the Texas Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations. The Governor also picked Don Rogers of Austin and Pledger B. Cate Jr. of San Antonio to the Advisory Commission.

Briscoe placed Carl Smith of Flatonia, W. C. White of San Angelo and John Worsham of Corpus Christi on the Egg Marketing Advisory Board. Other recent appointments by the governor included Carl W. Swenson of Ganado, Hans R. Wittenberg of Edna and Joe Bonnot of Lolita to the Lavaca - Navidad River Authority Board of Directors; Mrs. Katherine M. Birkner of Maxwell to the State Health Advisory Committee and W. Sam Monroe of Port Arthur as Pilot Commissioner for the Sabine Bar, Pass and Tributaries.

Short Snorts

A three-judge federal court in Austin continued an order blocking implementation of Texas' new voter registration law until it is approved by the U. S. Justice Department.

Ernest Angel of Midland, Mrs. William Staff of Dallas and Day Barnhart of Houston were selected co-chairmen of the Texas Ronald Reagan presidential campaign committee.

A detailed discussion of effects of the new Federal Voting Rights Act on Texas governmental units is scheduled here December 17 under auspices of the House Elections Committee.

Texas has been voted top state for beautification work in the Keep America Beautiful competition.

A record low of 10 new industries settled in Texas during October, but they will have an economic impact of $46 million a year and directly employ 600 while generating 750 more jobs.

House Speaker Bill Clayton has named a nine-member committee to find alternatives to the property tax for financing public school education.

The State Democratic Executive Committee is scheduled to hold one of its longest meetings yet in Fort Worth December 8 to consider major party rules changes and a variety of other matters.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to take this means of thanking friends for the cards, visits, flowers, gifts and other kindnesses shown to me while I was a patient in the hospital in Oklahoma City and also in Memphis. I especially want to thank Dr. Goodall and the nursing staff at Hall County Hospital for their care and a special thanks to the cooks for preparing special food for me. May God bless each of you.

Caramel Apples For Family Night Fun

During the fall, plan some family night fun. Spend an evening making one of everybody's favorite treats — Caramel Apples; or shape up some Confetti Mallow Popcorn Balls, delicious crunchy treats studded with chopped gumdrops.

To make Caramel Apples, you'll need a 14-oz. bag of caramels and some water. Just melt caramels with water in a covered saucepan and dip apples into the hot mixture. Invite your family to decorate apples with cereal or miniature marshmallows. Set out raisins, chopped nuts and coconut too; they're all tasty toppings for delicious caramel apples.

Although crisp, juicy apples and creamy caramels are available year 'round, apples are in greatest abundance in autumn. The International Apple Institute reminds you that you can use your favorite harvest-time variety for Caramel Apple-making, making sure that the fruit is firm and vivid in color. They also suggest you wash and dry apples thoroughly for best results.

The apple industry expects a bumper crop this fall, so you'll find plenty of apples in the produce section of your supermarket. You'll find caramels there too, as well as on the candy shelf, with sticks for making Caramel Apples right in the bag.

Caramel Apples

49 (14-oz. bag) Kraft caramels
2 tablespoons water
4 or 5 medium size apples, washed, dried
Wooden sticks

Melt caramels with water in covered double boiler or in saucepan over low heat. Stir occasionally until sauce is smooth. Insert a wooden stick into stem end of each apple.

Dip into hot caramel sauce; turn until coated. Scrape off excess sauce from bottom of apples. Place on greased waxed paper; chill until firm. Keep in a cool place.

Variation: Before chilling apples, roll in crisp rice cereal or dot with Kraft miniature marshmallows, cut in half.

Confetti Mallow Popcorn Balls

4 cups Kraft miniature marshmallows
1/2 cup Parkay margarine
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
3/4 teaspoon salt
3 quarts unsalted popped corn
1 cup chopped gum drops

Melt marshmallows with margarine in saucepan over low heat; stir occasionally until smooth. Stir in vanilla and salt. Pour mixture over combined popped corn and gum drops; toss lightly until well coated. With hands slightly moistened with water, shape into 1 1/2-inch balls; place on greased baking sheet.

3 dozen balls

About 'the House

By Kristin Elliott, N.H.F.L. A.S.P.

Kristin Elliott, a member of the National Home Fashions League, is Floor Fashion Specialist, GAF Corporation.

Country Goes 'Country'

The upcoming Bicentennial is evoking a renewed interest in this country's heritage. It is a challenge to sift through the past to realize a more meaningful present.

Vinyl floor resembles painted tile.

The interest in all-things-Bicentennial has not been overlooked by anyone involved in the home. Here, color, design, texture—all the elements that make a house a home—have been updated into modern statements about the American way of life.

Easy Living
Today's lifestyle may be summed up as comfortable. Any decorative look that makes everyone feel right at home is fitting for the times. The predominant decorative look that encompasses this free and easy living is "country."

Country Look
"Country" is a country-wide expression that could mean Early American on the East Coast or Mexican/Spanish in Southern California. It lets each region express its individual contribution to this land's growth and character. Basically, "country" implies that rigid decorating styles throughout an entire home—or even one room—are "out" and that self-expression is "in."

Wicker, plants, flowers, rope, hemp, bandana fabrics, quilts, sisal... all spell country. They breathe fresh air and life into any room.

Magic Underfoot
It's important to keep what's happening underfoot in step with your other decorative elements. A nice and easy floor to care for—that just wipes clean with a damp mop—is any GAF GAFSTAR® cushioned sheet vinyl. Foam-cushioned for extra comfort underfoot, the floors come in a variety of patterns from old-fashioned parquet wood or hand-set rustic brick looks to hand-painted Delft tile and rough, basket-weave effects. All reflect the latest in good taste, country fashion.

Great-great grandmothers never had it so good!

Maribeth Nabers Attends Illinois 4-H Congress

Nabers of Valmeyer, Ill., former Hall County residents, is one of 48 Illinois 4-H'ers attending the 45th National 4-H Congress in Chicago which began Nov. 30 and ends today. Miss Nabers was named Illinois winner in Home Environment and has been competing with winners from other states for national honors awarded during the Congress. About 1,600 delegates representing all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico have attended 4-H Congress.

Miss Nabers' activities in her trip winning Home Environment project included outstanding work in the areas of flower arranging, table covers and interior home design.

The objectives of the Congress have been to recognize accomplishments of 4-H members and to provide a forum for interaction among youth and adults. 4-H Congress headquarters have been Chicago's Hilton Hotel, where delegates were honored at special banquets and entertained by professional groups. They also toured points of interest.

Miss Nabers is the niece of Mrs. Billie Faye Molloy of Lakeview.

U. S. - U. S. S. R. GRAIN ANALYZED

An economist for the Agricultural Extension Service says that the grain marketing agreement between the U. S. and the Soviet Union leaves room for instability in world grain market. The agreement could break the agreement boost their own exports by same amount of their imports from the U. S., thus leaving changed the annual fluctuation of the world demand for U. S. grain. They could also expand storage facilities and build grain stockpiles during years of bumper crop, provide the stability sought by U.S. - U.S.S.R. pact.

Mrs. Horace DuVall had as guests during the Thanksgiving holidays her daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Don Bullock and family of Lampasas and on Thanksgiving day her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Horace DuVall and children of Amarillo.

Visiting here during the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Crawford were their grandchildren, Michael, Kelly and Cliff Ann Morgan of Lubbock, Joe Morgan of Amarillo and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Beckham and Lori. The Odoms also visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Odom.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Jack Battle, who have been visiting here for the past four months with her mother, Mrs. Henry Scott, left this week to make their home in New Orleans, La. While here Mr. Battle underwent eye surgery.

Paul Fowler, student at Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, Rode Fowler, who is a student at Southwestern State College, Weatherford, and Miss Kathy Cooper of Stillwater, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fowler over the Thanksgiving holidays.

When he would unload a half car of produce and vegetables out of Amarillo for Draper and Ross. And also when he would ship out or our local station a half carload of cream to the creamerys. Some of you will remember Mr. and Mrs. Flannery as Charlie and Vernie. They have one son, Jerry, who has been a pilot for Braniff Airlines for about 30 years. They have four grandchildren.

Another kind of style show with an exposed model A lady in Oakland, Calif., was riding the bus. The bus swerved and as she was in the rest room, she was thrown into the emergency window exposing her buttocks going down the street. She sued the bus company and won $4300 for being emotionally upset when her buttocks were exposed to the public while the bus was moving down the street.

There should be an opportunity for a manufacturer to make clothing for the nude chickens. Now here comes another opportunity to make a special diaper as I noticed in the daily news that two Charlestown, S. Carolina, City Councilmen voted for an ordinance requiring horses and mules to wear diapers. The ordinance did not pass at this time, but it may later.

The ancient remedy for a toothache was eat a mouse!

James L. Richburg, Former Estelline Resident, Honored

James Lowell Richburg of Mt. Pleasant, former Estelline resident, has been included in "Outstanding Americans in the South for 1975."

The Richburg family recently moved to Mount Pleasant to the Pleasant Grove Community off the Daingerfield Highway from Hart. Mr. Richburg is in the plumbing business. Other family members include his wife, Bobbie Ann, and their 16-year-old daughter, Dayna DeAnn.

Richburg is a member of Lions International and was a director in the Hart Lions Club. He attended Auctioneer School in Kansas City, Mo., and has used this training in helping young people in their projects to raise money. He has been a licensed plumber for 16 years. Mr. Richburg was selected by Gov. Dolph Briscoe as one of those to appear in Who's Who in Texas 1973-74.

In the fly leaf of the Outstanding Americans in the South year book for 1975 is recorded, "You can detect them by the way they act, just as you can identify a tree by its fruit. You need never confuse grapevines with thorn bushes, or figs with thistles! Yes, the way to identify a tree or person is by the kind of fruit produced."

CATTLE OUTLOOK AND GRAIN PRICES

Whether grain prices go up or down will affect both fed and feeder cattle prices, points out a livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Service. High grain prices will mean fewer cattle placed in feedlots this fall and thus higher fed cattle prices next year. On the other hand, a drop in grain prices could boost placements in feedlots, and fed cattle marketing by next spring and summer could be burdensome. In the short run, this would, however, provide more strength for feeder cattle prices than if grain prices stay high.

CARD OF THANKS

WE ARE STILL Needing Christmas decorations for our community Christmas decorating project on the court house lawn. Anyone who would like to donate your old Christmas lights and etc may leave these at the chamber office or at your church office. Again, the member churches of the Memphis Ministerial Alliance will be decorating the court-house lawn this year.

The Memphis Chamber Board of Directors will meet at the DeVille Restaurant this Monday at 12:00 noon for the last open meeting of the year. President Mike Branigan will preside over the meeting and business of the official voting ballot for the election of chamber directors will be drawn up. Voting ballots with a nomination slate of four persons will be mailed to the chamber members next week for the four places to be filled. Retiring directors are: Larry Parks, O. R. "Doc" Saye, Frank H. Foxhall, and Jerry Lane. Returning directors who will remain on the Board with a (one year term left to serve) are: Mike Branigan, Jerry Burleson, Don Cockrell, and Donny Spicer. Directors with a two year term left to serve are: Hubert Dennis, Don Long, Coy Miller, and Lenis Simpson.

The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors are made up of 12 persons each serving a three year term with four directors rotating each year. Chamber of Commerce officers are elected each year at the first meeting of the year from the board of directors.

Our appreciation to the members of the Memphis Volunteer Fire Department and others who assisted with the quarter finals, class B football game between Groom and Jayton last Friday. The game was a very exciting one and an estimated crowd of over 2,000 were on hand to view the action between the two teams. A great half-time show by the Groom High School Band and the Jayton High School band was presented and the weather was perfect. This was the first time Memphis has ever hosted a quarter final football playoff game and the Memphis Chamber was happy to make all of the arrangements for the game site. Superintendent of Schools, Bill Wood, did most of the preparations for the game and the people of Memphis who assisted as hosts at Cyclone Stadium did an outstanding job.

The concession stand under the leadership of chamber members: Mike Branigan, Andy Gardenhire, John Kehr, Jim Wines, Don Long, Jerry Howard, Dale Lawrence, Randy Hall, and Jimmy Lawrence did a good job of running the concession for the chamber. We sold out of everything and our thanks for everyone's support.

In our bicentennial program for Hall County we are happy to announce that we have sold the Bob Willis coins to collectors in 34 different states across the nation. All of the complete four coin sets have been sold with exception of the first seven seats (serial No. 1-7), and the majority of the other coins have also been sold. We do still have a good selection of the coins left and invite everyone to visit either Branigan's or the chamber office for Christmas gifts of a Bob Willis Bicentennial coin of Hall County. All funds from the coin sales will go to the Hall County Bicentennial Foundation; (Bob Willis Foundation, Turkey, and Chamber of Commerce, Memphis) for community projects.

We remind everyone that Santa Claus will be at the First State Bank this Wednesday to visit with all of the area children. Also Santa will be returning to Memphis later as the guest of KBGH Radio. The Chamber will not host Santa this year as we have done so in the past many years.

Our sorrow to learn of H. E. 'Gene' Merrifield's death this past week. Gene was manager of the Childress Chamber of Commerce and will be missed by his fellow workers.

"FOOD WEAPON" AIDING U.S.

Agricultural products used as a "food weapon" may be aiding the United States in charting a new international course, according to the dean of agriculture at Texas

A&M University. Government is becoming more involved in international marketing, and food and fiber production is now a matter as much on the minds of national policy makers as is military balance among world powers. Agricultural exports contribute to the entire economy of the U. S., including employment for 1.2 million people and $22 billion to our balance of payments.

Mrs. Ferris played "Bridal March" by Wagner as the processional and "The Wedding March" by Mendelssohn as the recessional and also accompanied Mrs. Murphy as she sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Attendants Mrs. Gary Walker of Lubbock, mother of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Kathy Whittner of Lubbock served as maid of honor. Mrs. A. R. Clifton of Childers was bridesmaid.

Entry List Growing In Democrat's Annual Cotton Guessing Contest

Entries in The Memphis Democrat's annual Cotton Guessing Contest has been picking up as the contest goes into the second week, and all readers of the newspaper are invited to enter guesses in the contest, Bill Combs, editor said.

"The contest got off to a slow start last week, but interest has certainly picked up this week," Editor Combs said.

This is the 29th consecutive year that readers of the Democrat have matched wits with Mother Nature in trying to guess how many bales of cotton Hall County will harvest each year.

Guesses may be made at The Democrat office or by mailing a card or letter to Box 190, Memphis, Texas 79245, listing name, mailing address and number of bales.

No entries will be taken over the telephone under the rules of the contest, primarily because no proof of the actual guess could be retained in the permanent file on a telephone conversation.

First place winner in the contest will receive a three-year subscription; second place a two-year subscription, and third place a one-year subscription to The Democrat. In the case of ties, duplicate prizes are awarded.

Listing guesses since the list was published last week are: H. T. Tooke, 74,338; Alexander Swenn of Lakeview, 63,333; Homer Tribble, 83,263; Travis Gilliland, 69,345; Charles Waller, 78,650; Mrs. J. Band Calendars Have Arrived; Extras For Sale

The Community Calendars sponsored by the Memphis Band Booster Organization have arrived. Some of the calendars have already been delivered with the rest to be sent out soon.

The Band Boosters use the calendar sales as a means of raising needed finances in order to help the band students of Memphis as much as possible. The calendar sales have been a popular item with the community and it is hoped that this project can be made successfully in the years to come.

Extra calendars were ordered, so if anyone failed to order a calendar in advance it will be possible for them to purchase one. Mrs. Ronald Wilson and Mrs. Elmont Branigan have a few extra calendars, so any purchase of a calendar can be made with one of these ladies.

If anyone who bought a calendar does not receive his, they are asked to contact the person who took his order. Many birthdays and anniversaries are listed on this calendar and this provides a method of collecting special days of friends and neighbors. This calendar will also make a delightful Christmas present or for exchanging gifts with friends. Call now and place your order for any extras with the two ladies mentioned above, the president said.

The Band Boosters wish to thank all those who purchased calendars, added their birthdays and anniversaries, and to those merchants who took advertisement space. Without all these people the booster club would be unable to help the band students of our community. To all these persons we say, "Thank You," the member's said.

Floyd Baird's Home Survives Fire In Tujunga

Mrs. Glynn Thompson got a telephone call Tuesday evening from Mrs. Floyd Baird of 11900 Mt. Gleason Ave., Tujunga, Calif., concerning the fire which destroyed much of the valley area.

The Baird's home, and one other, were the only homes left standing. Mrs. Baird is the former Mildred Owens of Memphis.

Mrs. Baird said their home survived the fire due to precautions they took in cutting away trees and shrubs around their home several years before.

She said, when they were evacuated, they had to water down their car and use special breathing equipment to get through the roads. Two trees on their property, were burned to stumps by the fire.

The Baird's home several years ago, was damaged by an earth quake.

Former Resident Opens Wellington Art Gallery Monday

Wellington's newest business, "galeria de tejas", owned and operated by Kenneth and Sue Porter, held its grand opening Monday, Dec. 1.

Mr. Porter is the son of J. K. Porter, former plant foreman of the Memphis Democrat, and Mrs. Porter, and lived in Memphis as a child.

The grand opening will continue through Saturday, Dec. 6.

The interior decor of the gallery has a taste of the "Old West". Old wood from various farms and ranches has been contributed for use as paneling on the walls.

The gallery will host more than a dozen fine artists ranging from watercolor to metal sculpture, said Porter, one of Wellington's young artists. It will also house many handmade arts and crafts and will carry a fine line of art supplies.

Several sets of the limited edition of five Western prints by Porter are still available and can be purchased through the gallery.

Various Texas artists will be featured throughout the coming year. Each month a different artist will have a special showing. Local artists are also invited to show their work.

Several art classes in oil painting, pastel drawing and pencil sketching are being held in the gallery. Porter is also teaching two classes in Shamrock in the office of State Representative Phil Cates, who is one of his beginning students.

Mrs. L. A. Dickey and Mrs. L. W. McClure of Wellington visited here Saturday night and Sunday in the home of Mrs. Dickey's daughter, Mrs. Herschel Combs.

Plan For Next Year's Sunflower Crop

COLLEGE STATION — Sunflowers literally "blossomed" up throughout Texas in 1975 and chances are good that the crop will continue to become more important to the state's agricultural industry in the years ahead.

Good prices caused the sunflower crop to mushroom to more than 375,000 acres in 1975 compared to only 5,000 acres a year ago. However, yields ranged widely over the state due to adverse weather conditions and a lack of knowledge about the crop.

So, an agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service advises producers who intend to plant sunflowers next year to plan ahead carefully.

"Producers planning to grow sunflowers in 1976 need to take a close look at their farming operation in preparation for next season's crop, points out Dr. John Bremer.

He lists a number of items for farmers to consider.

"First of all, choose your planting area carefully. Stay away from home sites and cotton fields since problems arise when attempting to desiccate the crop. Do not plant the crop on the same land year after year as this leads to increased disease problems.

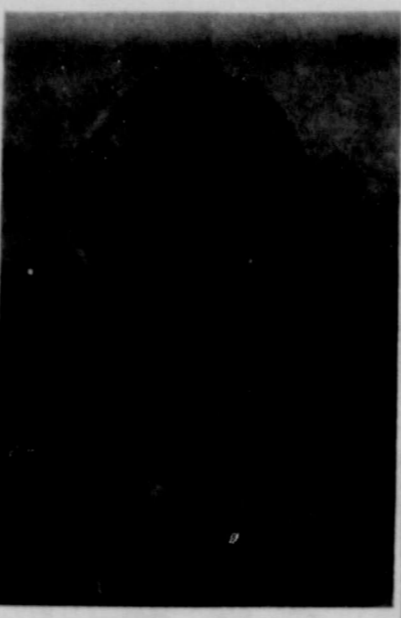

"Plant only high quality seed. Inexperienced growers should plant only small acreages of the crop. There are a lot of questions still unanswered about proper management practices for sunflowers.

"Look closely at the market situation before planting sunflowers. Due to the expected increase in production, the market may be less attractive than this past season. It's important to get a price commitment from a buyer.

"Control volunteer sunflowers in next year's crops where sunflowers were planted in 1975. Volunteer plants can cause moisture and harvesting problems in other crops if they are not controlled."

Bremer notes that the Extension Service is attempting to gather as much information as is available to assist producers in making plans for the 1976 sunflower crop. However, knowledge about proper fertility and insect, disease and weed control practices is still fairly limited due to the newness of the crop in Texas.

"The potential for sunflowers remains great, however," believes Bremer, "as oilseed crops continue to gain in prominence throughout this country. Sunflowers also loom as an alternate crop for cotton growers."

Insulation Cuts Heating Costs

COLLEGE STATION — Don't let the high cost of heating a home put you out in the cold this winter. Those high heating bills can be cut way down with a little insulation in the right places, says Dr. Bill Stewart, an agricultural engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"A home that is completely insulated can cost 20 to 50 per cent less to heat than an uninsulated one," Stewart points out. "And with a little time, work and initiative, you can do the insulating yourself."

Insulating all ceilings, walls and floors in the home provides the best, most complete protection from cold, says the agricultural engineer with the Texas A&M University System. However, if funds are limited or temperatures don't get extremely cold, the most important thing to insulate is the attic floor of your home.

"This is because warm air rises and the greatest heat loss usually occurs through the ceiling."

If you plan to do the insulating yourself, Stewart recommends using batt type insulation for ease of installation. Loose fill insulation such as mineral wool is difficult to apply uniformly by hand; it should be blown in by machine.

Ceilings of homes in Texas should receive at least six inches of insulation or the equivalent to an "R" value of 22. Walls should be insulated to an "R" value of 13. Additional insulation above these amounts will not be justified unless the home is tightly weatherstripped and storm windows are installed.

"Insulating an existing home should start with the attic," points out the engineer. "Purchase batt type insulation of the proper width. Most ceiling joists are spaced 16 inches apart so you will need wide batts. Check your attic first because some homes are built with a 24-inch ceiling joist spacing, in which case the batts need to be 23 inches wide."

Use several 1-inch boards to work on to help prevent putting your foot through a gypsum board ceiling. Place the batts all the way to the outside wall line. However, if there are ventilation openings under the overhang, be sure to leave space for air to move into the attic at the wall line.

In an existing home, there is no need to buy insulation with a vapor barrier on one side, since it will be impossible to install it properly to achieve a good vapor seal. This is only possible in new construction or through major renovation, contends Stewart.

"Insulating walls in a home is difficult and will require con-

Blue Bonnet Club Meets In Lindsey Home

considerable time and skill. The most economical method is to have insulation poured or blown into the stud spaces by a skilled insulator. An insulating panel may also be applied over the wall surface," notes the engineer.

Homes with crawl spaces can benefit from insulation between the floor joists. Use a batt type insulation which can be stapled to the floor joists. Then use wire mesh or similar support to prevent the insulation from falling in the event the staples come loose or the covering gives way. Because of mild Texas winters, only four inches of insulation can be justified for beam and prior floors.

In a home with well insulated ceilings and walls, the major source of heat loss will be due to cold air infiltration through cracks. Therefore, Stewart recommends applying weatherstripping around all windows and doors. Also, keep the fireplace damper closed tightly when not in use. For centrally heated homes, try to provide combustion air for the fireplace through a window as near the fireplace as possible to keep heated room air from escaping through the fireplace.

"Covering screens with plastic can provide a temporary means of reducing heat loss through windows. When constructing a new home, consider using insulating or double glazed windows," advises the engineer.

"Remember, things you do to save on heating this winter will also aid in reducing summer cooling costs and will make home more comfortable," says Stewart.

You may never live it down, but you can sure live it up.

Sometimes people who don't buy U.S. Savings Bonds say funny things to people who do.

"No will power?"

"Scared of the future?"

"You call that interest?"

"You know what Louie said about them?"

So who's Louie and who cares?

Fact is that U.S. Savings Bonds now offer you 6% interest when held to 5-year maturity. And nothing is safer.

You can even save for them automatically through your Payroll Savings Plan at work. What could be easier?

You're the one who'll live it up. Because you've got it.

Series E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4 1/2% the first year). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

materials. The DHT is noted for beautification of its safety rest areas, roadside plantings of native plants and wild flowers, and other programs.

Pickup of roadside litter discarded by careless motorists cost the department approximately $3.8 million in fiscal 1975, or approximately 2.8 percent of its entire maintenance budget. The 1974 litter pickup cost was about $3.7 million.

Although the cost of picking up litter increased by about $100 thousand in the last fiscal year, the increase was well below the inflation - influenced 8.8 percent total maintenance boost last year.

Tight control of litter pickup costs and special emphasis on education was credited with holding down the percentage increase, according to B. L. DeBerry, the department's chief administrative officer.

DeBerry said, "The department is going to need even greater cooperation of the motoring public in the future to control litter because of the extremely tight funding situation." He noted that the department had been forced to reduce roadside mowing operations already and litter pickup may be curtailed.

Overall DHT maintenance costs have been rising about 11 percent per year for the last several years, largely the result of increased costs of materials and labor.

Customers Of Postal Service Need Clear Boxes

The cooperation of rural and suburban postal customers in helping to keep private roads passable and approaches to mail boxes clear during the coming winter months was requested today by Postmaster Gene Lindsey.

"Postal customers are responsible for keeping approaches to their mail boxes clear of snow and other obstructions that would make mail delivery difficult or impossible," Postmaster Gene Lindsey said. "People should be aware that failure to clear paths to mail boxes promptly after heavy snows may temporarily prevent carriers from making deliveries. Customers will be contacted if they have an obstructed mail box."

There may also be a need to ask postal customers to relocate their boxes on a new line of travel if excessive and extended detours are necessary, the postmaster said.

"Highway officials are responsible for keeping public roads passable and in good repair," Postmaster Lindsey said. "But in areas where mail service is provided over roads not maintained by road authorities, the owner of the road is responsible."

Rural and star route carriers will make every reasonable effort to serve the greatest number of customers during severe weather, the postmaster said. "But service on foot when roads are impassable is not required. Also, when state highway authorities or local police consider road travel hazardous, postal service may be curtailed until the inclement weather abates," he said.

The postmaster urged anyone with a question on winter weather road conditions and mail service to contact the Memphis post office.

Ideas for Better Living

This is the time of year many families make plans to fix up various parts of the house. Because of the amount of time many homemakers spend in the kitchen, it often tops the list of fix-up projects.

Whether you hire a professional or do-it-yourself, there are some basic approaches to kitchen remodeling that you should consider before you start.

First, make a list of things you don't like about your present kitchen, such as cabinets, colors, traffic patterns, counter placement, etc. Then decide what you would like to change and how you would like to do it. You may want to consider such custom features as a counter bar, a completely lighted ceiling, coordinated cabinet doors and wallcoverings or additional storage space.

If you seek outside help, be sure to check out the remodeling firm carefully before it starts any work. A call to your local Better Business Bureau should be a must. You also should talk with several of the firm's recent customers.

Once you've satisfied yourself as to the firm's integrity, then plan everything that is to be done before the job starts. Projects added after the start of a job generally cost more than if they were included at the beginning.

Be sure to have a written contract listing specifically what the remodeler is to do, what grade of materials will be used and when the job is to be completed.

Ask the remodeler for his thoughts on how you should remodel your kitchen. He may suggest coordinating the doors of your refrigerator with the front panels of your kitchen cabinets or your wallcovering. Highly styled decorator refrigerators, such as those recently introduced by the Admiral Group of Rockwell International, are designed to accept such materials of 1/4- or 1/2-inch thickness, so that the refrigerator door matches the other colors and patterns in the room.

Pay particular attention to his proposed layout of your new kitchen. Basically, there are three main work areas: storage (refrigerator and pantry), preparation (sink and countertop space) and cooking (range and oven). These should be arranged so that there is a logical work flow.

Accept the remodeler's suggestions for what they are—suggestions. You probably are the best judge of your needs. You, not he, will be the one who has to live and work in your kitchen for years to come.
