Memphis Country Club will have its annual club championship tournament Saturday and Sunday, June 26 and 27, it was announced this week by Tournament Committee Chairman Dennis Ward.

Entry fee is $10.00 per golfer, and the tournament will be 36 holes medal play. "Each golfer will play 18 holes Saturday, then 8-man flights will be drawn up for Sunday's rounds. Golfers will be assigned foursome Sunday," Club Manager Barry Ward said.

Since the championship flight is competing for the club championship, Ward said, golfers who want to compete for that title can declare for that flight if they so choose, even if their Saturday round is not in the top eight. "We can have as many in that flight as there are golfers interested," he said.

Also, Memphis Club golfers are being urged by Chairman Dennis Ward to begin signing up for the Club's Partnership handicap tournament to be held July 31, Aug. 1. "We want all our club members to play in this tournament if they will, and if they don't have a partner, the tournament committee will get them one. We have many out-of-town golfers wanting to play in this tournament but it is a membership affair.

The partnership tournament held later on in the summer has become another popular tournament with golfers.

Members have handicaps determined by computers, as do many golfers for other country clubs. The golfers are allowed to reduce their score by one stroke on holes they are allowed a handicap, so all teams are considered equal when play begins.

The Club championship tournament being held this weekend is the tournament which determines the club champion for the next year. Danny Scarbrough is defending champion, and must be considered the odds-on favorite to win the tournament again this year. Last weekend Scarbrough, playing with Allan McNally in the Childress partnership, blistered the Childress course with rounds of 65-68, leading his team to a second place finish in the championship flight.

The Hall County Senior Fellowship was organized several months ago. At first, members gathered in the dining hall of The Methodist Church for a monthly luncheon and later moved to the Community Center. More than 90 persons attended the monthly luncheon and stayed to play games. Credit for this organization is due to the Officially organized now, officers of the group include Orville Goodpasture, president; Mrs. John Deaver, first vice president; Ed Cudd, second vice president; Lucille Wright, secretary and Pauline Knight, treasurer.

Plan Now For July 4th Celebration!

July 4th, 1976, the two-hundredth year since the Declaration of Independence was signed which formally separated the United States of America from the British Empire, is only a weekend away. Since the holiday falls on Sunday, this year, most will be observing Monday, July 5, as a holiday.

Memphis and Hall County will not have a big celebration over the July 4th weekend. Neighbors to the northwest, Clarendon, and to the southeast, Childress, are planning celebrations. But the usual display of fireworks will be going off over Memphis during that period and many citizens will take advantage of the occasion to celebrate in various ways, picnics, ice cream parties, etc.

But a little good sense goes a long way toward making a family celebration a pleasure, rather than a tragedy it could be if precautions are not taken. Four dangerous areas come quickly to mind.

Many holiday accidents take place during travel. The highways are crowded, and drivers often are overly tired from long trips, or some have celebrated too much before they get behind the wheel. Often, drivers are pulling campers or trailers on their trip. These are often people who are not accustomed to handling vehicles pulling loads.

The best way to make a holiday trip is to plan carefully. Have vehicles inspected for top working conditions, plan travel time allowing ample rests for drivers. Don't drink alcohol or take drugs and drive. Observe speed limits and drive defensively.

Secondly, supervise children playing with fireworks. Youngsters, even those in their teens, get carried away with fireworks, and disregard safety practices. Most towns have ordinances against fireworks within the city limits. These ordinances are passed to protect citizens and property against the hazards of fireworks. Fireworks do set fires when used in dry conditions.

The third dangerous area is in and around water, or in picnic areas and parks. Recently, a person was killed when a camper trailer was backed over him. Extreme care should be taken to see everything is clear when backing boats and trailers. Lakes, themselves, present very dangerous conditions to boaters, skiers and fishermen. The more crowded lakes become the more dangerous they are. The following editorial deals with safety steps which should be observed when vacationing on the water.

Finally, the fourth dangerous area is food during picnic times. Picnics, backyard parties, buffets—meals that will be easy to serve a crowd of family and friends—will be popular during the holidays.

The food served this way offer a challenge to keep it safe from food poison caused by bacteria. "Sal, staph and perfringens can be the culprits in food poisoning," Frances Reasonover, a food and nutrition specialist, advises.

The best way to prevent infection from salmonella is to prepare foods in a sanitary manner to keep the bacteria out of the food. Cooking at hot temperatures and keeping the food cold enough before serving are a must. Refrigeration should be at 45 degrees or colder.

"Staph does not grow in food at hot temperatures above 140 degrees F. and cold temperatures below 40 degrees F. The only way the toxin is destroyed is by boiling for several hours or heating the food in a pressure cooker at 240 degrees F. for 30 minutes," she advises.

Perfringens poisoning is caused by a toxin produced by Clostridium perfringens bacteria. To control the poisoning, meats that are to be eaten later should be cooled rapidly and refrigerated promptly at a temperature of 40 degrees F. or below, the specialist said.

Citizens in this area will join with those from throughout the nation observing the 200th Birthday of this nation. "If (July 4th) should be celebrated with parades, games, bells and fireworks from this time forward," John Adams, second President of the U. S. stated in setting the tone for this year's special bicentennial celebration.

Let's all join in but still use good sense and make the celebration a safe one as well.

Safe Boating Over The Fourth Means Freedom From Accidents

The July 4 three-day weekend is sure to increase the traffic on Texas roads — and on our waterways. With boat owners numbering almost half a million, Texas Safety Association, in recognition of Safe Boating Week, July 4 - 10, reminds boaters to keep an eye out for each other.

Each year between 400 and 500 Texans die in drowning accidents, mainly during holiday periods. To assure that your holiday is free from injury, keep in mind these boating safety tips:

Check to see that your boat and trailer are in tip-top shape before leaving home.

Always have sufficient life preservers accessible to everyone on board.

Carry filled fire extinguishers — and use caution when filling fuel tanks.

Remember that the rules for safe driving apply on the water, too. Hot rodding and drinking while boating are taboo!

Water safety rules also apply to fishermen, swimmers and waterskiers who will be enjoying the water along with boaters. Waterskiers, in particular, should remember to confine their skiing to areas where there is no swimming or skin diving; to wear approved life jackets; and, to exercise caution. Excessive speed and sudden contact with obstacles in unfamiliar channels can end the holiday in grief.

Texas Safety Association joins with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary in asking Texans to observe Safe Boating Week, July 4 - 10 — and to continue the spirit of safe boating the whole year 'round.

CONSIDERATE JUDGE!

A south-central Indiana daily newspaper assigned a reporter to cover a trial of a man which had been venue to another county. The charge against the defendant was assault and battery on a 14-year-old girl.

The reporter did fine for a while, but midway in the article, he began referring to the presiding judge as the defendant, stating: "Blank (name of judge) is charged with an alleged attack on a girl who was 14-years old at the time."

The final paragraph again gave the judge's name and said he was pleading an alibi defense.

The newspaper didn't discover the error until the press run was complete and the newspaper was distributed. It sat back and prayed no one would notice it.

Someone did. Shortly thereafter, it received a letter from the judge, which read as follows: "I enclose a Xerox copy from your paper which has just been handed to me. I appreciate the fact that, because of bad circulation, your paper is understaffed and your writers are poorly trained. The subject matter of this article was highly technical, and, therefore, the writer of this article could not be expected to get it right the very first time. I, therefore, am going to point out some of the illog used in court and identify the cast of characters."

"First, the judge (that is me) sits up in front of the courtroom on a raised dais with a robe on and scrolls at people. Secondly, the defendant is the fellow sitting at counsel table with his lawyer, with an apprehensive look on his face. Thirdly, the prosecutor is the young man sitting at the other counsel table representing truth and justice. The press are those people sitting over at the side of the courtroom with long hair, whiskers and barefooted."

"Now, in criminal proceedings, the judge is not charged with crime. The defendant is charged with crime. The judge does not claim alibi. The defendant claims alibi. The judge does not have to have an alibi. He is the head honcho."

ABOUT FARMERS!

JAMES FISHER in Houston (Mo.) Republican: The Bank of Houston in this small, southern Missouri town has published a tribute to some of its best customers with the coming of the New Year. The tribute, to farmers speaks for itself:

A farmer is a man who wears out two pairs of overalls growing enough cotton for one.

A farmer can shape an ax handle from a persimmon sorout — and shoe a horse with a hunk of car tire.

A farmer starts every year with nothing, loses everything he grows and at the end of the year comes out even.

Nobody knows how he does it. He doesn't even know himself.

What Are Farmers Made Of? Farmers are made of bent nails, rusty horseshoes, barbed wire and held together with callouses.

And if he gets a good crop, he won't meet expenses.

Yet the only lines on a farmer's face are from grinning.

You look at his unattended chores, unpainted buildings, unsharpened tools and untidy barnlot and you say, "The smartest man in the world would starve trying to do all that."

And you're right.

The smartest man would starve.

But not the farmer. His wife won't let him.

She has a basic menu; she serves what she has. In good years that may be six vegetables at one meal. In lean years she pumps from poke salad to black-eyed peas.

He can make a harness out of hay wire, feed sacks and shoe straps.

He grows corn and melons mostly to make fat cows.

He loads his planter with $1,500 worth of seed, fertilizer, herbicide and insecticide. That's one hour's worth.

In a normal farm afternoon, 1 to 10 p.m., he'll bury $13,500 in the ground in half a day.

REDDY'S HELPFUL FREEZER TIPS

LOCK IN FLAVOR: Use moisture and vapor-proof materials especially designed for freezers to wrap your foods. Tightly sealed, these lock in flavor and moisture and prevent "freezer burn" (surface drying) on foods. Don't use wax paper, bread paper or regular cellophane for freezer foods.

LABEL PACKAGES: Date and identify freezer packages so (1) you don't accumulate a lot of mysterious shapes and (2) you'll be able to pick out foods that have been in the freezer longest.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF SALES: Avoid overstocking with commercially frozen food that's always available; use your freezer as your own bargain counter and store foods you can buy on sale. But do allow space for short-time baked goods, leftovers and special party foods.

BYRON BALDWIN

In the passing away of Clyde Reed a few days ago, it brought memories to me of his mother's family whom I knew in the early days of 1900. William E. Jackson and his wife, Cornelia Rebecca Baskin, immigrated to Tarrant County, Texas, from Mississippi in 1877. William was a soldier in the Civil War. They had 7 children, two sons and five daughters. Their son, Thomas W., lived in Fort Worth where he was chief of Detectives for about 40 years. Reuben Jackson moved to Hall County in the early days. He married Ruth Ball, and they later moved to Colorado to make their home. The first one of the Jackson girls to move to Hall County was Pearl who arrived here in 1902. She married Major McCanne, the father of Lucille (McCanne) Dennis, Mrs. Hubert Dennis. Major McCanne moved to Hall County in 1892. Velma Jackson came to Hall County in 1906 and she married J. C. (Lum) Wells, father of Del Wells of Lakeview, Minnie Jackson came to Hall County in 1898, and she married Henry McCanne, the brother of Major, and he was the father of Paul McCanne. Mary Ida Jackson moved to Hall County in 1911, and was the wife of Parks Reed who was the father of Clyde Reed. The other Jackson girl was Addie, who married J. F. (Ferdie) Walker. They located at Stamford in Jones County. The Jackson family furnished Hall County with four good looking industrious home makers for their husbands and children. They stood for the right things in life in rearing their children which included "If you eat, you must work." And they all contributed so much in helping Hall County to overcome obstacles of the Mountain Railway of Life. That helped make Hall County the place we now live in and so the rest of us can say, "I am proud of Hall County with its good people."

It was very interesting to read in the book, "Land of Promise" of Dunley County by Virginia Browder giving the history of one business that was started in old Clarendon by Dr. Stocking, who came there from New York in 1885, where he was the doctor, dentist and druggist. This drug store was operated under the same name for over 86 years. I cannot think of any other business in this area operating that long under the same name.

Another item I was reading was about Giles, Texas which was almost in Hall County. I can remember when I was a boy of about 12 years of age that some of us would take a Sunday afternoon ride on our bicycles to Giles and by the time you pedaled all the way up hill, you would be almost out of breath. The best way to get to feeling good again was to eat some of Mrs. Melvis' stick candy and drink some of her good cool well water. Giles, Texas, at this time, was one of the largest cattle loading places in the Southwest. They had plenty of water and could take care of the ranchers' cattle while waiting for the extra railroad cars to load them in for the markets in Kansas City and Chicago.

In the passing away of Barney Burnett, it brought back memories of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burnett. J. B. served as commissioner of Precinct No. 1 for 11 years, which was the longest time anyone served since the county was organized until Ed Hutcherson was elected to this office, and at the end of his present year when he retires, will make him 24 years of service in this office. Ed will then join the "Honey Do" Club and will give Mildred a lot of help, if she gives him the right kind of jobs.

Some of our former Hall County residents who are now living in Houston have wished for some of Hall County's dry land when Houston had 13 inches of rain in 13 hours. I noticed an article a few days ago that Tulsa, Okla., had flooding in parts of the city. One man had put his furniture on his front porch to dry out, and while he was gone, someone came along and hauled his furniture away. He said it would not have been so bad if they had just taken the furniture, but he had an almost new porch on his house and it was confiscated along with the furniture.

The past week we received a program from the Bicentennial executive committee of San Leandro, Calif. One of our hometown girls, Katherine (Milam) Toner is chairwoman of this committee. They sent the program of their "National Pride Month", June 14 until July 11. They started out with "Flag Day." This was followed by many other activities including "Western Barn Dance" with "Chili Dogs", July 4th church bells will ring over the nation and at 11 a.m. "Moe Down Picnic" and on July 7th, a "Pancake Breakfast" and many other things on the program for the "National Pride Month". They are really having a busy month with this active Bicentennial committee. Our congratulations to the city of San Leandro.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bradshaw of Paducah were visitors here the past week. Clifford had his 29th birthday with the William McQueen. The daughter, Connie, made him a birthday cake for the occasion.

I had a short visit with the Rev. John Bobo and wife, Shirley, of Hurst, John, a former pastor of the First Baptist Church, had a group of about 40 young people from the Hurst Church where he is now pastor. This choir presented a program here Wednesday, June 16, at First Baptist Church. From here, they made the trip to Canyon to see the "Texas" Show in Palo Duro Canyon. John and his wife, Shirley, I think have been to the fountain of youth since leaving Memphis.

I had a surprise visitor a few days ago, Mrs. Lynn McCoy. Mr. and Mrs. McCoy were here for several years and Lynn did carpenter work. They lived at 915 Robertson Street. Lynn passed away in January, 1976, after being an invalid for 4 1/2 years. Mrs. McCoy worked with me in the store for a time. I am always glad to see former employees and fellow workers. Mr. and Mrs. McCoy had two children, Marguerite and Max who attended school in Memphis and are well known here.

I wonder sometimes if we are grateful and thankful for our different parts of our bodies that God has given us to take care of. Since I have been on a walker, I can remember when these legs of mine were very active. Now

I watch people run, climb ladders, telephone poles and on top of roofs, and I realize more how valuable my legs were. We have company here in trying to walk as we have several people here who have to use wheel chairs, walkers and crutches. Our latest addition to this group is Mrs. Ben Parks who broke a leg. We can look back over the years and thank God for the number of years that we were active.

I had the fourth month anniversary of my operation the 17th of June. The doctors told me that they thought I could walk 9 months from the date of Feb. 17. I have five months to wait and see about the walking. I had "store door delivery" one day last week when Willie Mae and Bennie Parks framed up and made the decision that I would look better if I had a hair cut. Bennie drove the car up the sidewalk to the front door of the barber shop on the north side of the square, so it was a short trip from the car to the barber chair.

Drop-In Center News

Having met in the study hall of the Junior High School during the summer months of 1975, and in the auditorium of the Housing Authority thereafter, the members of the Senior Citizens group are delighted that they are now in their permanent home at 502 Robertson Street. The location has been made easily recognizable by a yard sign about five-by-eight feet which reads "Hall County Senior Fellowship, Inc." The sign, decorated with the picture of a huge domino and a cup of coffee is the contribution of Don Stogge of Clarendon. Mr. Stone also painted a clever picture on the wall of the abandoned security house behind the home. This sign is in the form of an arrow pointing to the door and reads "Ed's Hoosegow". On it is a picture of a man behind bars. Both of these pieces of art are highly indicative of the atmosphere of the meetings and are deeply appreciated, not only by the senior citizens, but by all people interested in the project.

Within the house the erstwhile living room has been converted into a place for playing of dominoes, forty-two, et cetera. The dining area is used for coffee breaks. The bed-room is used for quilting. Other rooms are the kitchen, bath, and office. A needed convenience is the telephone, number 259-2951. An electric water fountain and dual cooling and heating have been installed. A pool table, reconditioned by Carl Wood, Jr., has been installed

Ed's Hoosegow
So many people have contributed money, furniture, accessories, and time that a correct listing of names would be utterly impossible. To all of these the community of Memphis is deeply indebted because they have helped to make a show place for the town as well as a much needed recreational center. Particular mention should be made of the help of Ed Hutcherson, Commissioner of Precinct No. 1 of Hall County; and of Ernest Lee and Fred Alexander, who spent many hours in reconditioning the building.

Open House will be held on Saturday afternoon, June 26, from two o'clock until five Mrs. Merle Rodgers, Coordinator, cordially welcomes everyone to come to see the home and enjoy the fellowship.

"A Tribute To My Dad"

by Voy Piland
written: 6-11-76

He gave me life,
And keeping me—protection from strife.
Always for good, Evil he hated,
Food, shelter and clothing, he never abated.
His childhood, not so carefree,
Bestowed early manhood you'd agree.
Business always dealt in honesty,
And speaking revealed his modesty.
Later years brought him pain,
But his life wasn't in vain.
Life and right teachings he gave,
Shouldn't make our parting so grave.
To this man whom many love so,
My Heritage—I owe.

Terri Shadid Is Health Officer At Girls State

Terri Shadid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shadid, returned Friday after spending 10-days at the 1976 Bluebonnet Girls State which was held at the Texas Lutheran College in Seguin.

This year 508 girls attended and in elections held by the group Miss Shadid was chosen as Health Officer of City J. She was a delegate from the local American Auxiliary.

Non-partisan and non-political, the purposes of Girls State program are to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age, to afford them an opportunity to live together as a self-governing group and to inform them of the duties, privileges, rights, and responsibilities which they will assume when they become adults. They learn the problems of government by assuming the duties of city, county and state officials as stipulated by the Texas Legislature. Each year citizens are selected at local levels from students who have just completed their junior year in high school. The selection is based principally on leadership, character and scholarship.

Chief Justice Joe Greenhill of the Texas Supreme Court administered the oath of office to the elected state officials of Bluebonnet Girls State Monday, June 14, in the Rotunda of the State Capitol.

One of the highlights of the session which began June 8, and ended June 18, was the selection of three outstanding citizens of 1976 who will be sent to Girls Nation in Washington, D. C. also sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

69ers Club Enjoys Breakfast In City Park Tuesday Morning

The 69ers Club met Tuesday morning, June 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the City Park for a cook-out breakfast.

The group enjoyed cooking food in the park. The menu consisted of bacon, scrambled eggs, jelly and coffee.

Mrs. L. O. Dennis offered

thanks for the meal. Those enjoying the early morning cook-out were Mmes. Inez Aspgren, Carrie Dennis, Ruth Gardenhire, Ethel Lambert, Ruth Misenhimer, Faye Maddox, Dorothy Stargel and Ima Widener.

Mrs. Elsie Hoover returned home last week after visiting in Russell Belgium with her daughter and family, Maj. and Mrs. Bill Freestone and John and Bill. While there they enjoyed touring England, France, Holland and Germany.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to express my sincere gratitude to all my friends for the prayers, inquiries and telephone calls in my behalf during my recent trip to the Mayo Clinic. Friends give much strength through prayer interceding for me at many times; however, in this event, I especially felt I could not have made such a successful and safe trip without this added strength. May God bless each family and our community as a whole for being the thoughtful people they are.

FIRST STATE BANK

America's early colonists were hard put to come up with hard coin to pay for the goods they purchased from Britain, so they experimented with substitutes for metal.

From New England to Virginia, wampum or shells used by the Indians became the accepted small coinage. In 1641 in Massachusetts, it was made legal tender, subject to some limits as to the size of the transaction, at the rate of six shells to the penny.

Shells came in two denominations, black and white, the first being double the value of the second. The acceptability of the shells depended on their being redeemed by the Indians in pelts, making the Indians, in effect, central bankers of their day. Beaver pelts were the reserve currency into which wampum could be converted.

As civilization moved westward, beaver became scarce and wampum stopped being convertible, thus losing its purchasing power. It soon disappeared from circulation.

"The more you know about our business, the more we can help you!"

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this means of expressing my heartfelt thanks for the beautiful flowers, cards, prayers and phone calls in my behalf while I was a patient in Hall County Hospital. Especially do I thank Bro. Hooten and Bro. Stargel for their special prayers and visits. Also a special Thank You to Dr. Stevenson, Dr. Thompson and all the staff of nurses and other personnel for their kindnesses. To all my good friends and relatives for their concern and expressions of love. "My cup runneth over." May God bless and keep each and everyone of you.
Sincerely,
Elva Johnson

SUMMER BRINGS US CLOSER TO GOD'S CREATION

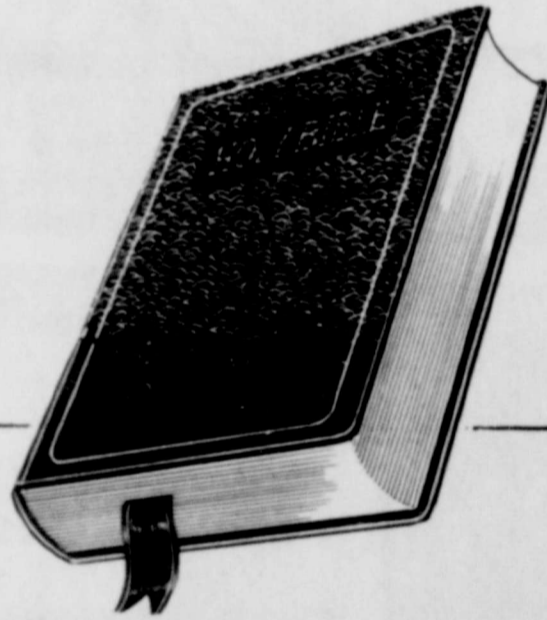

The sun has reached the zenith in the sky,
 And casts no noonday shadow from up high;
 But warms with gentle breezes through the air
 A world of life that's teeming everywhere.
 The grass and trees attain their deepest green,
 While lazy streams reflect the summer scene:
 A season meant for living out of doors;
 And time to take a holiday from chores,
 But never from your faith, for on vacation,
 You'll learn first hand the beauty of Creation.
 So, in the Church to which your faith has bound you,
 Give thanks to God, who made this world around you.
 —Gloria Nowak

"Now learn a parable of the fig tree: When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near."
 —Mark 13:28

A happy soul, that all the way
 To heaven hath a summer's day.

Cotton Growers Financed Program Makes Cottonseed Most Valuable

Cottonseed at one time was considered a worthless by-product that posed a disposal problem. With development of ways to recover the oil, meal, and other parts of the seed, this situation changed.
 Now, thanks to research
 sponsored by Cotton Incorporated and others, significant progress is being achieved in making cottonseed the most useful and valuable seed product in the world.

These facts were brought out in comments today by George W. Williams, Hall County Cotton Producer as he described some of the results of the dollar-a-bale research and promotion financed by cotton growers.
 The program is carried out by Cotton Incorporated.
 "Research efforts aimed at producing cottonseed flours, concentrates, and protein isolates for human food have been successful, he said.
 "The next step is to get production on a commercially sound basis."

The grower explained that glandless cottonseed kernels are the protein source in various foodstuffs. Cottonseed protein can be added to such common favorites as ham-
