LUCY LUCAS IN
"MISS SOUTH TEXAS PAGEANT"

The largest and outstanding regional Miss America preliminary in the state of Texas, "Miss South Texas Scholarship Pageant", will be hosting some 37 beauty queens in Seguin, June 28-30. Among one of the top contenders will be Lucille Lucas.

(Lucy Lucas holds the title "Miss Kinney County". This 17-year old high school senior from Brackettville is interested in photography, tennis, music, art and horseback riding. Standing 5-feet 6-inches all, she is the daughter of Pauline and the late Walter Lucas. Her talent will be a reading. Lucy wants a career in business management. She is sponsored by the Brackettville Chamber of Commerce.

"The beauteous contestants will be trying for an all-time record high $21,670 in scholarships," according to Mrs. Juanita Taylor, Executive Director of the extravaganza.

The latest donation of $1,000 to the scholarship fund was made early last week by Joe Payne, head of Houston's giant Payne and Keller construction and engineering firm. "Payne wants to help provide talented young ladies with more educational opportunities," Scholarship Chairman Miss Linette Habermann said.

Seguin-Guadalupe County Coliseum will be the site for the prestigious event. An action-packed four days is planned for the participants setting the pace for Seguin's famed Freedom Fiesta.

A highlight of the second night of the pageant, June 29, will be the selection of Little Miss and Mister South Texas with some 23 contestants trying for the coveted titles.

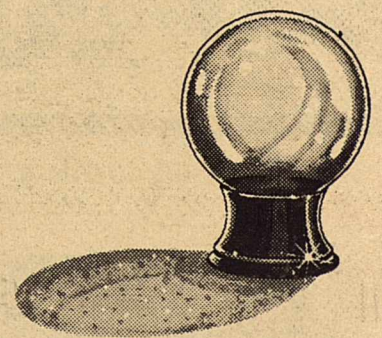

Representing Kinney County will be "Little Miss" Jennifer Javins and "Little Mister" Anthony Lopez.

Adding to the illuminous lineup will be beautiful and highly talented Carmen McCollum, last year's "Miss Texas, and second runner-up for the Miss America" crown. She will be the mistress of ceremonies for the three-day spectacular.

Make plans to attend this year's greatest "Miss Sotuh Texas Pageant". Tickets may be purchased at the door.

JOHNNY RODRIGUEZ RE-SIGNS WITH MANAGER, SHAHAN

NASHVILLE, TENN.--Johnny Rodriguez, the rags to riches, Mexican heart throb whose "overnight success" catapulted him to the top of the country music charts, has reunited with his former mentor, Happy Shahan, and Nashville music business attorney Hon Lentz, for total career direction. The pact between the trio brings together three of the original principles which were responsible for Rodriguez' initial success and development as a major artist.

The deal was cinched with the traditional Texas-style handshake on June 8 at Rodriguez' home in Nashville during Fan Fair. Rodriguez has recently separated from his wife, and divorce proceedings have been filed.

"Johnny Rodriguez has gone full circle," Shahan said, "and he is now getting back to the basics."

"Johnny wants to write songs, and explore new areas of music to broaden his listening audience and further develop his own sound. He's also anxious to get back in touch with the people," Shahan said.

As part of the agreement, Rodriguez' bookings and personal appearance will be coordinated by Celebrity Management, Inc., a Nashville based entertainment organization, which is jointly owned by Shahan and Bob Bray, president.

In 1972, Rodriguez was signed to Mercury Records, and his first single "Pass Me By (If you're Only Passing Through)", became an immediate success. Since that time, every Rodriguez single has gone Top 10 and all of the country music trade charts. His explosion on the country music scene resulted in many awards, including Most Promising Male Vocalist by the Academy of Country and Western Music and the 1974 Billboard Magazine Trendsetter Award for "Emerging as the first young Chicano country music star...to capture the national audience."

Through his humanitarian efforts, the Johnny Rodriguez Life Enrichment Center was established in Corpus Christi, Texas for research and treatment of cerebral palsy.

This week our community has been signally blessed by the presence of a group from the Beaumont area. A group of young people from First Baptist Church. The youth of the church near Beaumont worked for several months making and saving money to pay for their trip. They brought some adult leaders who cooked many of their meals in the Kitchen of Frontier Baptist Church. The group stayed at Fort Clark Springs. Their purpose in coming was to conduct a Vacation Bible School at Frontier Baptist Church. It is heartening to know that some young people and adults are sensitive to spiritual realities and will put forth some effort for God beyond the confines of their own Church. This kind of group always carries a load of blessings wherever they go.

UVADLE-- Southwest Texas Junior College Board of Trustees met here Thursday night to approve a 1978-79 operating budget which provided only a slight rise in expenditures despite continued cost-of-living increases.

The new $4,741, 088 budget represents an increase in expenditures of only $29,190 over the previous budget with faculty salary raises accounting for the major portion of that increase.

"I am pleased to be able to recommend a budget that contains only a small increase in expenditures," president Wayne Matthews said as the board convened in regular session for the annual budget hearing.

"It has always been our goal to provide students with a quality education for the least amount of money possible," he said. "We have continually managed to do this at very little expense to the taxpayer."

Matthews explained that the college tax rate has remained the same for more than 30 years with tax revenue from the tri-county district providing only 4 percent of the total college income.

The board again set the tax rate at 20 cents per $100 of assessed valuation as determined by the Commissioners Court within the tri-county district.

Taxes combined with tuition and fees provide more than 15 percent of the operating income with state appropriations and state contracts contributing nearly 49 percent of the total income. Income derived from federal funds totals only 15 percent of the budget. Auxiliary enterprises such as the bookstore, dormitories and food service provide more than 13 percent of the operating budget.

In additional action the board increased summer room rates in the dormitory from $15 a week to $20. The new rate becomes effective during the second six-week session and became necessary as a result of the rising cost of utility services.

Room and board rates for the upcoming fall semester were also increased from $420 a semester to $500.

"It has always been our policy to keep down room and board fees as much as possible," Matthews said, "But a steady increase in food, utilities and labor has forced us to request an increase in the room and board rates."

Matthews stressed that even with the increase Southwest Texas Junior College is still well below room and board rates being charged by other comparable state institutions.

Board members also approved a health fee increase for students from $7 a semester to $10 in order to defray the increased cost of operating the health center.

Other action taken by the board included restructuring the administration to provide a Dean of Special Services rather than the former Dean of College position.

Areas of responsibility delegated to the Dean of Special Services will be administration of the Adult Basic Education Program, the Regional Traffic Safety Program, the Regional Law Enforcment Academy, Campus security, and the Higher Education Migrant Program.

The board also approved purchases of a postage meter which will be used to set up a centralized mail processing department for the college.

They also accepted the resignation of Walter Stueck, coordinator of the Traffic Safety Program, and Marilyn St. Clair, an instructor in the Division of Business Administration. Stueck resigned to accept a similar position at Texas Tech while Miss St. Clair will teach in the business department at Weatherford College.

The board accepted the low bid of Ballard and Haile for placing a seal coat on the college circle and repaving some areas of the parking lots in addition to curbing a new parking lot.

Dr. Jimmy Goodson, dean of administration services, reported that the Zavala County suit against the college which had been filed in federal court in Austin was dismissed by Judge Jack Roberts. The county has filed a motion for a new trial, he said, and the college attorney has answered that motion.

TRI-COUNTY 4-H CAMP

Approximately 90 4-H members, adult leaders and county agents from Brackettville, Rocksprings, and Leakey participated in the Tri-County 4-H Camp held June 1,2,3, at the H.E.Butt Encampment at Leakey, Texas.

The camp held each year allows 4-H members to enjoy the beautiful camping facilities along the Frio River. Activities at the camp included recreation, competitive games, fishing, swimming, crafts, wool and mohair judging and lots of plain good ole fun.

4-H members participating in the camp from Kinney County were: Ana Rocha, Virgie Garza, Ronnie Latham, Sandra Munoz, Rex Simmonds, Robby Latham, Dutch Wardlaw, Ginger Shamblin, Lashawn Wardlaw, Leisha Wardlaw, Tana McCarty Barbara Forbes, Warren Voss, Brenda Foust, Janie Bunjes, Debbie Packer, Debbie Latham, Kim Baxter, Cindy Miers, Jeffery Ragsdale, Rex McCarty, J.R.Smith, Seth Kaplan, Kevin Kaplan, Joel Voss, Wayne Ragsdale

4-H Adult Leaders from Brackettville included: Phyllis Simmonds, Joyce Hooten, Jimmy Simmonds, Robert Ormsby, Hadley Wardlaw, Carl Esser, Tulisha Wardlaw, Jim Voss.

STATE 4-H CONTESTS

Joel Voss and Kevin Kaplan, both members of the Las Moras 4-H Club in Kinney County, participated in the State 4-H Round Up held at Texas A&M, June 6,7,8,. Joel and Kevin received second place at the State 4-H Contests for their demonstration on co-operatives. Their demonstration was centered around the establishment and founding of the R.E.A. in 1935.

The State 4-H Round-Up held each year at TexasA&M displays the cream of the crop of 4-H members across the state. Coaches for the 4-H members were Mrs. Jim Voss, Ms. Molly Ardrey and Bud Gwartney.

Present Day Myths

by: JOE TOWNSEND

The Constitution guarantees the promotion of the "general welfare." This has long since become a myth. Comes now the total disregard of the "general welfare" in favor of the perch like "Snail darter". All the demands of bureaucratic red tape had been met and a much needed dam has been built using $116,000,000 of tax payers money. That's about 52¢ for every single man, woman, boy or girl in the United States. Some biologist paid with tax funds discovered a small fish in the river. An irresponsible Congress had in the mean time passed legislation giving bureaucrats the power to declare any life an endangered species and forbid anything that might harm that specimen. So the Supreme Court says it makes no difference the dam was approved and built before the endangered species act was passed. Human beings must not be allowed to benefit from the dam and have wasted $116,000,000. The Audobon Society with its millions has in this case proved itself totally insensitive to reality. Claiming there are only 1,000 of the snail darters they make them to be worth $116,000 each. I wonder how many of the members or the highly paid officers and staff would pay $116,000 for one snail darter? Of course, the Federal Government says there are many more. But respect for truth has never been a hall mark of the Society. One could hardly blame the Audabon Society however. Any person or group has the privelege of being wrong, of being radical, of being bigated. We can however, blame an irresponsible and unthinking Congress for passing such illogical and ridiculous legislation. Maybe it would help if both the Audobon Society wheels and Congressmen would read the Bible and find the right perspective for man versus the natural order. On the other hand, doubtless many of them know what the Bible says - they just feel they are smarter than God - this is the mark of stupidity and mental sickness.

IMPACT OF POLITICS

It Even Costs More to be Poor

The rising cost of living has even forced the poverty level up. The Labor Department has redefined the official poverty level to reflect the effects of sharply higher consumer prices. The poverty level for non-farm families living in the continental United States averages $350 higher than last year, according to the department. For farm families, the increase averages $290.

That means that an urban family of four can now earn up to $6,200 a year and still qualify for the poverty category, compared with $5,850 in 1977. The farm family figure is now $5,270, compared with $4,980 last year.

Marshall Musters Fraud Force

Labor Secretary Ray Marshall has created a special 200-man permanent force to investigate alleged corruption, mismanagement and fraud in the department's $25 billion government assistance programs.

He said the investigations will include such programs as the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act, which funds the hiring of public employees; workers compensation; and the black-lung benefits program.

"Our programs are generally successful and well-administered," Marshall said. "The scattered instances of fraud and mismanagement involve only a tiny percentage of our $25.4 billion budget." While declining to name any figure, Marshall said he believes the amount of money lost to fraud is less than $1 billion.

IRS Says Going Broke is No Excuse

The Supreme Court has ruled 5-4 that an employer who goes bankrupt must still pay the full penalty for failing to collect withholding taxes from workers and turn them over to the government.

The case involves Onofre Sotelo of Alpha, Illinois. He was president of O. J. Sotelo and Sons Masonry Inc. until the corporation went bankrupt without having paid the IRS taxes it was required to withhold from employees.

The Supreme Court agreed with an earlier decision by a bankruptcy court that Sotelo had to pay the IRS fine even though his company and he, personally, had gone bankrupt.

AID Aids Its Own, Says Senator

Sen. William Proxmire (D.-Wis.) says employees of the Agency for International Development (AID) are overpaid, over-ranked, over-age and too many of them are "over here" instead of overseas.

Proxmire awarded his "Fleece of the Month" award to AID. It goes for what he calls "the biggest, most ironic or ridiculous example of government waste."

The senator said that AID's foreign service officers get an annual salary of $31,139, about $6,000 more a year than their counterparts at the State Department, which is in charge of foreign policy.

Now comes the real testing time for lawns, gardens, trees, shrubs and flower beds. If there are soil deficiencies, they will become evident. If there is insufficient water it will be glaringly evident. If there is disease, fungus or insects it will be easily seen. Just don't hit the panic button. Find out what the problem and know there is a solution. There is no substitute for water. There are soil nutrients and chemicals however to deal with other problems. Don't give up - there's a long time till frost.
