Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Here I go again, putting my bird tracks on this small paper talk. I have talked to a lot of decent citizens within this small town of Brackett and a lot of families have asked me, "Have you received an obscene call? Oh, It's terrible!"

Well I have answered "Yes" I have but that doesn't bother me because I have worked in a quite way with a lot of people that come form different walks of life and a lot are as such: some are sick from the mind through birth defect and others are just Mother Nature's mistakes; yet others are just tired or over exhausted; but the ones that really grab me and I feel sorry for are Mother Nature's mistakes. For example, that "sicko" that employees his time fascinating himself over the phone.

God made man and made them equal, what they made of themselves is another thing.

I Pity the mother that suffered nine (9) months our of (1) year and went through painful labor to give birth to an idiot.

As you all read, in the CAVALRY
MAN, I was going to Washington,D.C.
to face Congress and the Senate and will be leaving around the 8th or the 15th of September to speak on behalf of the Texas Band

AREA "HAM" OPERATORS ASSIST BORDER PATROL IN ILLEGAL ALIEN RING BUST

On Saturday, August 22, the Border Patrol apprehend 30 Mexican illegal aliens with the assistance of area Amateur Radio Operators (HAMS). The apprehension took place about noon near Eagle Pass Hill, south of Del Rio.

Lee Young, KC5RP, and Phil Shreves, KA5IBI, of Del Rio, were installing an antenna at approximately the 200 foot level on the Eagle Pass Hill tower, when they spotted a suspicious group hiding under brush nearby.

Young, while still on the tower, contacted Brackettville "Ham" operator, George Loos, W5LFG, with his handie-talkie. Loos contacted Bob Latham of the Brackettville Border Patrol. Latham relayed the information to the Del Rio Section Border Patrol sector.

Units were dispatched to the area but could not locate the suspects. The Del Rio Area Border Patrol Agents went to the tower base and were met by "Ham" operators, Dick Angevine, WA4HUX, and Jim Lowe, W5EJQ, who were installing the ground portion of the Emergency Volunteer Communication Systems.

With their Handie-talkies, Lowe and Angevine, contacted Young and Schreves who were still up the tower, and found that they still had the suspects in sight from the 200 foot tower level.

Angevine accompanied the Border Patrolmen and with his handie-talkie was able to direct the Patrolmen in apprehending 26 illegal aliens from information supplied by Young and Schreves atop the tower. Four more aliens were apprehended a few minutes later.

The aliens were part of a large scale smuggling operation, and were turned over to Mexican Immigration authorities.

All of the Ham Radio operators involved are members of the Border

Amateur Radio Society, whose members are from the Del Rio, Eagle Pass, Peidras Negras, and Brackettville. The Society is dedicated to supplying emergency communications to such as The Red Cross ; Weather Bureau; Civil Defense; and other disaster organizations, stated President Pat Dugan, KA5GKO.

"This Group of volunteers stated installing a new emergency radio facility for Val Verde and surrounding counties at 7 a.m.-- they assisted the Border Patrol--completed the radio installation about 6 p.m.--and put on a demonstration of Emergency Communications for the Cub Scouts at 7 p.m.--not bad for a group of non-paid volunteers, who also donated all the equipment!" concluded Dugan.

September means school and for parents of young children, their child's trek to and from school each day can be a constant source of apprehension.

Parents should teach their children basic, commonsense precautions and work with school officials and the PTA to initiate crime prevention strategies in and around schools.

PROTECTING CHILDREN FROM CRIME

( ) Give your child a healthy suspicion for "strangers", and a stranger is anyone a child's parents don't know, even if the person knows the child's name or "seems like a friend."

( ) Children should never accept food or an automobile ride from a stranger and should never play around public restrooms.

( ) Teach your children to never open the door to a stranger and never enter a stranger's home. If your child is selling Girl Scout cookies, Easter Seals or Christmas cards door-to-door, make sure he or she is accompanied by at least one friend.

( ) If a stranger bothers your child, he or she should remember the stranger's description, his clothing and the color and license number of his car. Call the police IMMEDIATELY.

Parents of young children might consider organizing "Child Safety Patrols" if child harassment becomes a serious problem. A more aggressive form of the "block Parent" idea are child safety patrols, which are composed of parents who walk the streets when school opens and closes each day.

Know the length of time it takes your child to walk to and from school. Immediately check any delay in arrival home. Also know the safest route to and from school and instruct your children to follow that route. If your children are to arrive home after dark, arrange to meet them.

Know your children's playmates and where they congregate. Visit the school and become acquainted with teachers and school officials. You may learn of delinquent behavior before it becomes a serious problem. Give the school instructions to release your children only to persons you have designated in writing.

Tell your children never to admit being home alone--on the phone or to someone at the door. Be sure your babysitter is a responsible person and capable of acting in an emergency.

Children should be encouraged to talk with their parents any time they have a problem, whether the problem is with a stranger, friend or relative. Remind your children that the police officer is a friend who can be called on anytime there is trouble.

KINNEY COUNTY LIBRARY

BY: Marie Bixby

Dear K.C.,

The SAVE OUR LIBRARY ball is rolling--Let's keep the momentum going! We have accomplished much, but we are being threatened on all sides. Plan to attend the Friends of the Library meeting in the court room of the Kinney County Courthouse, Tuesday, Sept. 8, at 7 p.m. so that these concerns may be brought to your attention, discussed, and action decided upon. Let's not falter--If the library ever needed friends it is now!

The "Friends" want to thank Olga Sauer for our most recent contribution. She has given over the deeds to two Lorenze Addition lots in Brackttville in memorial to her late husband, Oswald Sauer; ---the proceeds designated to be deposited in the "Friends" Labor Fund for the new building.

Among new arrivals at the library is How To Cut Your Own Or Anybody Else's Hair, by Bob Bent which also gives you some interesting facts and information such as :Your hair grows approximately 1/2 inch a month which varies a little with the seasons ---slower in winter and faster in summer. Also these new junior books are on the shelf: Left-Handed Shortshop, by Patricia Reilly Giff and The Indian How Book, by Arthur C. Parker which describes the crafts, dress, food preparation, ceremonies, war strategies and culture of the American Indian. Come in the brows!

Yours truly,

SWTJC

Enrollment figures released at the close of regular registration at Southwest Texas Junior College indicate that college official's apprehension about a slight decrease may in fact be correct.

"To date, 1834 students have registered," Dean of Admissions/Registrar John Allen Davis, Friday morning. "Based on past enrollment figures at this point in the process, we may show a slight decrease in enrollment."

Late registration at the college will continue through Thursday, September 3.

"We still have a week to go and are still hopeful," Davis continued.

The housing shortage in Uvalde which was the cause of lower enrollment projections has eased slightly after an article published in the Leader-News drew a welcome response from the community.

"We are very much appreciate the cooperation of the Leader-

News, the Uvalde Chamber of Commerce and the community at-large in helping us deal with the housing problem," Davis said. "Since that article was published several individuals and landlords have called offering to rent to students. Of course, we can still use more, but the situation has improved."

College officials are hopeful that some students who left earlier will return during late registration to try to find a place to live one more time.

The breakdown of enrollment at the various areas served by SWTJC is as follows: Uvalde day, 855; Uvlade evening, 202; Del Rio 423; Eagle Pass, 198; Asherton, Carrizo Springs and Crystal City 63; Dilley, 40; and students registering through financial aid division, 53.

Approximately 125 fewer students have registered than had at this time last year.

Persons with information on available housing for students or desiring information on course should call 278-4401, EXT. 275.

WHEELS FOR LIFE BIKE

CANCER

Brackettville, Sept. 1, 1981--- Bike-a-thon chairman Sandy Herman and Karen Crowder asked Brackettville residents to participate in the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital "Wheels-For-Life"
Bike-a-thon, September 26, 1981.

Volunteer workers and riders are needed for the Bike-a-thon to raise funds for the world-famous research center and its battle against childhood cancer and other catastrophic childhood diseases.

Karen said this year's ride is being dedicated to Terry, a leukemia patient at St. Jude.
"By riding for Terry, we'll really be helping all stricken children since research is the only way these illnesses can be conquered." "we're looking for people who will contribute some of their time and energy to help children live. We really need bike riders, since they are the ones who can make this Bike-a-thon successful."

In the Bike-a-thon, riders enlist their sponsors who donate a sum for each mile completed.
Riders who raise $25 will receive a St. Jude T-shirt, and those raising $74 will receive a jacket."
said Sandy. "WE also have prizes for other riders." Sponsor forms are available at the Library and neighborhood stores.

"You can put your muscles to work for a child's life in this Bike-a-thon," Sandy said. "We need every bike and every rider."

Interested persons can contact Sandy Herman, Box 271.

St. Jude Hospital was founded by entertainer Danny Thomas, and operates primarily from public contributions.

WORKING MOTHER'S DAY PROCLAIMED

GOVERNOR CLEMENTS LAUDS WORKING MOTHERS IN OFFICIAL STATE DOCUMENT

Governor William P. Clements has signed a State of Texas Official Memorandum designating September 6, 1981, as Working Mother's Day, in recognition of the immense contribution made to our society by working mothers.

Spearheading the large group of advocates who worked to bring official recognition to working mothers were Allen M. Seigal, Vice-President of Public Affairs of National Child Care Centers, Kathleen McNemar, President of the Texas Association for the Education of Young Children, Jean English of the Texas Department of Human Resources and Jeanette Watson of Austin, newly elected national board member of the National Association for the Education of Young Children, plus many volunteers from these agencies and other child advocates groups.

"In four out of five households today, two wage-earners are needed to support a family," said Seigal. "Fifty-four percent of women with children under that age of 18 are employed outside the home. That's sixteen million American women. These women perform the almost superhuman task of serving as productive members of the work force as well as nurturing mothers and homemakers. Accepting this challenge and functioning with strength, humor and grace under pressure reflects the very best qualities of the American spirit. It's our privilege to be able to honor them by helping declare September 6 as Working Mother's Day."

The State of Texas Official Memorandum, signed on August 14, 1981, by the governor and affixed with the state seal of Texas, will be reproduced by National Child Care Centers in a form suitable for framing. As memento of this special occasion, these documents will be available free to anyone who requests one by writing or dropping into any National Child Care Center and leaving their names and address. They day care firm operates centers in the major metropolitan areas of the state, including Houston, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, El Paso, Dallas, and the majority of the Mid Cities including Arlington, Irving, Garland, Carrollton, Plano, Bedford, Duncanville and Richardson.

You may be able to fight inflation with inflation. To save money, be sure your tires have enough air. An underinflated tire wears out faster than it should and it can affect steering, decrease the load the tire can carry and increase fuel consumption. The experts who wrote the Reader's Digest Complete Car Care Manual have some suggestions on how you can keep your tires from "retiring" too fast.

First, check the air pressure in all your tires—including the spare—at least once a month. As long as you keep under the maximum tire pressure printed on the sidewall, you can exceed the pressure listed in your owner's manual by about three pounds per square inch and you may get better gas mileage. Check the tires when they're cold for an accurate reading.

***

Check your tire's tread depth about every three months. Unusual tread wear patterns could indicate suspension problems. Measure the tread depth across the width of the tire in several places and you may spot uneven wear before the tread is completely worn away. Other useful advice to help you find the satisfaction that can come from fixing your own car can be found in the 480-page Reader's Digest manual. Available at your bookstore.

The Texas Consumer Association's Report from Austin

By Jim Hightower, President

The City Club of Dallas.
The Headliners Club, in Austin.

River Oaks Country Club, in the poshest section of Houston.

Do you belong to any of these exclusive, for-members-only gathering spots? Not likely, you say? Most of us couldn't even get in the back doors of these swank clubs.

But, unbeknownst to you, you actually are helping to pay for memberships in elite clubs like this, even though you can't get into them! You pay for it every month on your phone bill.

Southwestern Bell Telephone, which is in Austin right now seeking the biggest rate increase in the history of our state, charged its Texas customers $27,000 last year to buy club memberships for its top brass. Of course, your share of it only comes to a few pennies, but it's the principle of the thing that grates on us — why should we be asked to pay higher phone bills when they're wasting our money on martinis at the country club? Instead of asking us for so much more money, why don't they cut back on these lavish expenditures?

Hearings on the phone company's new rate demands have just begun at the Public Utility Commission in Austin, and they are expected to run for more than a month. What Southwestern Bell wants is $469 million a year more than they are now getting, and they want practically all of that to come from us little users — people with only one phone in our home or business. Here's the bottom line for you: every month, you would take another five dollars out of your wallet or checking account and turn it over to Bell.

Company lawyers have told the PUC that rampant inflation has socked them, just like it has mom & pop businesses, and they simply have to get more income to make ends meet.

But wait a minute, say opponents of the increase. When mom & pop get in a financial squeeze, they don't just raise prices — they get more efficient and cut back their costs. Consumer groups say that Bell should get its own house in order before raiding ours for more money. They say that the phone company wastes millions of dollars now, pointing to unnecessary advertising, the silly "Telephone Talk" newsletter that is inserted in our monthly bills, excessive lawyer fees paid to fight competitors and all those country club memberships.

Opponents also note that Bell is notoriously top-heavy with vice presidents and assorted varieties of executive assistants. In Texas, the phone company has a manager on the payroll for every 3 1/4 workers, and all those managers are averaging 50% more salary than the operators, repair crews and others who do the real work to keep the phone system humming.

How do you see it? Is it fair of the phone company to bill you for another five bucks a month, or should Bell executives cinch up their belts and try to run a leaner, more efficient operation? The Public Utility Commission is taking testimony from the public, and you can let them know your feelings by writing directly to the commissioners at this address: Public Utility Commission/Austin, Texas/78757.

BULLOCK SMELLS POLITICAL BLACKMAIL

Austin--State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday said State Senator Grant Jones' trial balloon about running for Comptroller' in next year's Democratic primary has the smell of political blackmail.

Bullock accused Jones of using the threat of a campaign for Comptroller to further his own political ends with the Legislature Redistricting Board.

As a member of the Board, Bullock and four other state officials will start to draw new state Senate districts next week to replace a legislative plan vetoed by Governor Bill Clements.

"On the very eve of the redistricting board's meeting, Grant Jones is putting out the word he'll run against me because he's afraid he won't have a senatorial district to run and win in the next time out," Bullock said.

Bullock said he's "welcome" Jones in a campaign for Comptroller and promised he'd have "a few surprises for the Senator" if he really runs.

"Jones' record in the Senate is negative and against the economic health of this state," Bullock said.

"If Jones goes fishing to run for Comptroller, I predict that he'll come up with nothing but the worm and as an opponent, his pipe will go out before the race is over," he said.

Bullock said if Jones ends up without a winnable Senate district it's because his current district doesn't have enough population or that the voters in the reshaped 24th Senatorial District have found a better candidate.

FIRST AID FACTS

Treat Those Blisters Before They Become Infected

If you run, jog or play tennis for fun or fitness, you share a problem with millions of active Americans: the BLISTER.

Although blisters may rank among minor health complaints, they are nonetheless painful and prone to infection. First aid experts and doctors warn that blisters need immediate attention to avoid complications later on.

As a matter of fact, your feet require routine care after all athletic activities including long walks. They should be washed (soaked, if you have time), powdered and hosiery changed.

If you notice a blister (you'll probably feel it before you see it), resist the urge to break it. If you "pop" the blister, you will leave the raw skin underneath exposed and prone to infection. It will also be painful to the touch and to the shoe.

To care for a blister properly, cleanse the affected area with warm water and mild soap. Treat with an application of a small amount of first aid cream or topical antibiotic ointment. Cover the area with a non-stick sterile pad and secure with a first aid tape. For a small blister, use a Band-Aid. This process encourages safe healing and also cushions the blister so that your shoe will not rub against it.

The primary cause of blisters is ill fitting shoes and sneakers. When you shop, take your time. Walk around the store to see how well the shoes fit.

It makes good sense to protect your feet. Remember, you can't perform, if your feet won't.

Hints For Homeowners

Protecting Your Drapes, Upholstery and Carpeting

Consumers today are investing more money into decorator drapes, upholstery and carpeting to improve existing homes rather than move into new homes with higher interest rates. To protect important investments on major household items, utilize the expertise of local professional dry-cleaners to learn what spots and stains can be cleaned at home, how to clean various spots and which stains should be left to the professional.

The first important step to better care is to buy quality merchandise that comes with complete cleaning instructions, say experts at PPG Industries, a leading manufacturer of perchloroethylene drycleaning solvent. For example, some furniture slipcovers which cover foam rubber cushions cannot be cleaned even if the slipcover is zippered indicating easy removal.

In some cases, the fabric may have a special finish on the underside for better fabric feel and when washed or drycleaned it becomes limp. A consumer can never ask too many questions about the care of whatever item is purchased.

Buying drapes, or fabric to make them, can run into hundreds of dollars. Yearly drycleaning ensures longer life for this investment. All drapes should be lined for protection from the sun and the fabric should be Sanforized or pre-shrunk. When sewing, use proper needles and thread to avoid puckering. Thread that has been pulled too tightly will shrink when cleaned later.

On upholstery and curtains, several spots can be safely cleaned at home such as spots made with alcohol, chewing gum or jelly. Other items, however, like ink, chocolate and oils should be treated professionally.

Since upholstery comes in such a variety of fabrics and materials as well as stuffings and paddings, PPG experts note that cleaning techniques are different for each style. Professional dry-cleaners or specialists have the proper solvents, detergents, brushes and special equipment for applying and drying.

In some cases homeowners can remove certain spots without professional help. However, PPG experts advise consumers to get to know their local drycleaner better and to take advantage of available fabric expertise. In certain cases, immediate spot cleaning by the homeowner and later overall, thorough cleaning by a dry-cleaner will save the life of a cushion, carpet or curtain and protect an important household investment.

FACTS & FIGURES

Experts indicate that coal and nuclear are the energy technologies most capable of producing large-scale alternatives to imported oil for the generation of electricity from now until at least the year 2000.

Coal is the nation's most abundant energy resource. There is enough to last at least several hundred years, point out the experts at General Electric, which is spending millions to produce electricity from coal without harming the environment.

The U.S. has more than two decades experience in building and operating nuclear power plants. Last year, for the first time, nuclear energy passed oil as a primary fuel for generating electricity in the U.S.

U.S. nuclear electric generation is now delivering each day the power equivalent of five tankers, each filled with 260,000 barrels of imported oil. Nuclear power meets about 13 percent of U.S. electrical needs at costs well below those for fossil fuel generation.

THE FIRST IMPRESSION

By Tom Hopkins

To influence or persuade others, it is vital that they have faith or belief in you. And there is no more important time to establish that trust or confidence than at the first meeting.

In the seminars I conduct throughout the country, and in my book, How to Master the Art of Selling, I teach four ways to help make a favorable first impression.

Hopkins 1. Smile almost to the point of grinning. A smile radiates warmth and is almost always a necessary first step to instilling trust.

2. Look in their eyes. Those who look away from, or past the other person, or are shifty-eyed, suggest a lack of honesty in their hearts.

3. Greet them properly. For starters, learn three different greetings: 1) a formal, respectful greeting, 2) a friendly greeting and 3) a happy-go-lucky greeting. Study each person for an instant and then select the greeting you think best suits his or her personality.

4. Let them determine whether to touch. Some people don't like to shake hands, so don't initiate the contact. However, if the other person puts out his hand, you should of course take it.

Practice these four suggestions and do them with confidence and you are bound to make a fine first impression on others, and be on your way to "selling" them your ideas, product or service.

PUBLIC NOTICE
BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
SPECIAL ELECTION
NOVEMBER 3, 1981

PROPOSITION NO. 1
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to authorize cities, towns and other taxing units to grant exemptions from ad valorem taxes on an unproductive, underdeveloped or blighted area in order to encourage its development. The amendment would also allow the legislature to authorize a city or town to issue bonds or notes to finance this development and to pledge future increases in ad valorem tax revenues from the property in such areas to repay these bonds or notes.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize cities, towns, and other taxing units to encourage the improvement, development, or redevelopment of certain areas through property tax relief and the issuance of bonds and notes."

ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 117 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize a person to receive a patent to land from the Commissioner of the General Land Office under certain conditions. Application for the patent must be made within five years from approval of the amendment. The land must be surveyed, public free school land not previously patentable. The person must have a properly recorded deed to the land, which he acquired without knowledge of the patent defect and which title he and his predecessors in interest have held for at least 50 years. The person and his predecessors in interest must have continuously claimed the land and paid the taxes for at least 50 years.

This amendment does not apply to beach land, submerged land, or islands. An applicant may not use this provision to resolve a boundary dispute. This amendment will not apply to land which has been determined to be state-owned by a court of competent jurisdiction or that has a productive state mineral lease on the effective date of the amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the commissioner of the General Land Office to issue patents for certain public free school fund land held in good faith under color of title for at least 50 years as of November 15, 1981."

ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 38 proposes a constitutional amendment that would enable the legislature to grant to a state finance management committee the authority to manage state funds. Funds constitutionally dedicated to specific purposes would not be subject to committee management. The committee would be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, Chairman of the Senate State Affairs Committee, and the Chairman of the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to grant to a state finance management committee the power to manage the expenditure of certain appropriated funds."

ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would provide that one-half of the surplus tax revenues above the spending limit provided by Article VIII, Section 22, of the Texas Constitution would be placed in a Water Assistance Fund to be used as provided by law, including projects for water development and conservation, water quality enhancement, and flood control purposes or any combination of these purposes.

The amendment also provides $500,000,000 of the general credit of the state to guarantee bonds issued in commercial markets by local political subdivisions, including cities, counties, and special districts. The amendment allows amounts to be established to decrease or retire state debt, which is defined as that debt secured by the full faith and credit of the state. The amendment would raise the interest that could be paid on authorized, but unissued, bonds guaranteed by the full faith and credit of the state from 6% to 12%.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the use of a portion of the excess revenues of the state for water development, water conservation, water quality enhancement, and flood control purposes; authorizing the use of the state's credit, not to exceed five hundred million dollars, to guarantee the bonds of cities, counties, towns, and other units of local government in the financing of projects for such purposes; increasing the interest rate that may be paid on previously approved, but unissued, state bonds; and authorizing a program to retire state bonds."

ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 49 proposes a constitutional amendment that would exempt livestock and poultry from taxation. Currently, farm products in the hands of the producer and family supplies for home and farm use are exempt.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide for the inclusion of livestock and poultry with farm products as exempt from taxation."

ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 81 authorizes the governing body of a county, city, school district or other political subdivisions to exempt from taxation a portion of the market value of a residence homestead. The portion exempted may be as much as 40% for 1982-1984; 30% for 1985-1987; and 20% for 1988 and after. The amount of an exemption may not be less than $5,000 unless the legislature by general law prescribes other monetary restrictions on the amount of the exemption. An eligible adult is allowed to receive other applicable exemptions provided by law. An exception is made where ad valorem tax has previously been pledged for the payment of debt.

The amendment further directs the legislature to require that notice be given to property owners of a reasonable estimate of tax on their property in certain situations.

ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Veterans' Land Board to issue and sell an additional $250,000,000 in bonds increasing the Veterans' Land Fund's total bond issuance authorization from $700,000,000 to $950,000,000. The amendment would increase the maximum interest payable by the state on these bonds from 6% to 10%, and permit an even higher rate, if specified by the legislature.

PLAN TO DRIVE OVER LABOR DAY?

Leave the alcohol alone. That's the advice of the Texas Commission on Alcoholism and the Texas Safety Association.

Leaders of the public and private agencies joined in a reminder to Texas drivers for the long holiday weekend.

"Last year 22 Texans were alive prior to the holiday, who became tragic fatal statistics following the weekend because of drinking and driving--all of them preventable," Ross Newby, executive director of the Texas Commission on Alcoholism, said.

Over the 1980 Labor Day weekend, 44 persons were killed on Texas highways; experience has shown that approximately half of all traffic fatalities are alcohol-related.

Dave Colestt, Dow Chemical Company, Freeport, president of the Texas Safety Association, emphasized the fallacy of the widely-accepted myth that a cup of hot coffee hastens sobering up for a partying driver.

The average person's body can absorb only one drink per hour, or one bottle of beer, without becoming impaired to operate machinery. If partying is part of the Labor Day weekend, caution and self-discipline should be the rule.

"We applaud road-side coffee stops because the stops--not the coffee--help the body regain its equilibrium," the safety association president added.

The private organization has long been involved in developing classroom curriculum for use in schools and court sponsored drunk-driver remedial programs to emphasize the adverse affect of alcohol in operators' control and safety of their vehicles in traffic.

The combination of long distances on Texas Highways, the potential for driver fatigue and the last long holiday weekend of summer are considered special hazards for the holiday driver.

"Adding alcohol to this mix is an invitation to disaster. We hope Texas drivers will do their partying at home and not on the highway," Newby added.

The worst Labor Day Holiday in recent years was in 1978 when 62 deaths were recorded in Texas according to the Department of Public Safety, with 30-32 of them related to drinking by one or more drivers.

THE PALM'S LEAF AVAILABLE

The 1981 edition of The Palm's Leaf, the magazine featuring works by the winners of the annual Southwest Texas Junior College Creative Arts Contest, is now available for purchase in the SWTJC bookstore and journalism department.

Contest winners' hometowns range over a 44,000 square mile area, including Angleton, Brackettville, Carrizo Springs, Crystal City, Eagle Pass, Del Rio, Dilley, Fredericksburg, Hondo, Knippa, LaPryor, Leakey, Lytle, Rocksprings, Sabinal, San Antonio, San Marcos, and Uvalde.

The magazine features literary works--poems, short stories and essay--in divisions which include virtually every age group, from pre-schoolers to convalescent home residents. Also included are drawings and photographs by SWTJC students.

"The literary works and visual art fit into six loosely defined categories that we used as chapters or sections in the magazine," said David England, SWTJC creative arts sponsor. "This is the first time the works have been arranged this way rather than by age group."

The sections are titled "struggle and Accomplishment, Personalities, Suspense and Adventure, Fantasy and Imagination, Perspectives, Entertainment, and Enlightenment."

The dimensions of the magazine have also changed, from 7"x8 1/2"x11" and the publication is printed on heavier, slick, enameled paper

"We have had to raise the price of The Palm's Leaf to $4.00 if purchased on campus, $4.50 by mail, due to the increased printing costs," England said, "but we believe that the winners of the contest and the readers of the magazine will appreciate the improvement in quality more than they will mind the increase in cost."

BUTTS-STATE APPEALS COURT JUSTICE

"It has become increasingly important in today's society that the Law, rather than mobs and terrorists, govern," she went on.

Before being named to the Fourth Court, Justice Butts was in partnership with her husband CHARLES D. BUTTS, former President of the San Antonio Bar Association.

She has taught criminal law, criminal procedure, juvenile law, professional responsibilities and clinical internship program for senior law students.

Mrs. Butts is the author of many widely published legal writings.

Educated at the California State University at Los Angeles, and the University of Texas School of Law, Justice Butts in a former chief of the civil section of the Tarrant County District Attorney's office.

She has had extensive trial and appellate practice in both civil and criminal areas in both State and Federal Courts.

From 1975 to 1980, Mrs. Butts was adjunct professor of law at Saint Mary's University. She was associate professor of law at the school from 1976 to 1979.

*****

According to the Times of London, thieves who ransacked the offices of Games and Puzzles, a British publication, bagged several hundred thousand pounds in cold cash. All of it, however, was in play money.

San Antonio Attorney SHIRLEY BUTTS a recognized authority in both Criminal and Civil Law, this Tuesday became the only woman state appeals court justice in Texas.

Mrs. Butts is one of four new justices named to the San Antonio based Fourth Court of Appeals. The Court, expanded to hear appeals in both civil and criminal cases, has jurisdiction in a 32 county area in South Texas.

She is one of 22 recently appointed appeals court justices who were shown in Tuesday in Austin by State Supreme Court Chief Justice Joe Greenhill.

Named to the bench by Governor Bill Clements, Mrs. Butts has announced plans to seek a full term on the Fourth Court as a candidate in next Spring's Democratic Primary.

In a statement the new Justice expressed concern about the country's increasing crime rate.

"Sometime must be done to curb that increase," Justice Butts said. "The Governor's anti-crime package passed by the recent legislature is an attempt at that solution."

"The Courts should administer these new laws with common sense and with an eye toward carrying out the expressed intent of the Legislature. Simultaneously, a careful eye should be kept on the protection of our Constitutional freedoms, in order to insure that certain safeguards built into this legislation are not cast aside."

"I promise my own best efforts in this regard as a member of the Court of Appeals."

Mrs. Butts noted much public interest has been generated about so-called legal technicalities in the judging of criminal appeals.

She added that trial judges, prosecutors and defense attorneys have the responsibility of following the Constitution and established rules of procedure.

"These so-called 'technicalities' Mrs. Butts said, 'actually are safeguards of our liberty and freedoms and should never be cast aside lightly for any reason of expediency, public emotion or public clamor.'"

The new Justice said the Judicial Branch of government should interpret laws and the Constitution with common sense and intelligence.

"I suppose you might say that essentially I believe injudicial self-restraint and consider it important to preserve the right balance between our three branches of government," she said.

"There must be a fair balance between the needs of an orderly society and the protection of the legitimate interests of the individual reflected in the appellate decisions."
