HEADLINERS

CITY OBJECTS TO CP&L RATE HIKES

The following letter was sent to the Executive Vice-President of Central Power & Light in Corpus Christi.

Executive Vice-President
Central Power & Light
P.O.Box 2121
Corpus Christi, Texas 78403

Mr. Range,

The City of Brackettville is of the conviction that the regulatory responsibilities provided by law for our City is of extreme importance and must be completely fulfilled. It is apparent that sufficient time is not available prior to April 30, 1982 to complete fully the necessary analysis of the revised rate schedule.

On April 12, 1982, the City Council passed an ordinance suspending the revised rate schedule in accordance with Section 43(d) of the Public Utility REGULATORY Act for a period of one hundred and twenty (120) days until August 28, 1982.

In addition the Council has authorized the City of Brackettville to participate in a co-operative effort of various municipalities to employ legal council to make determinations in order to establish a more proper and legal rate. The consulting firm Touche-Ross and Company and Don Butler, Attorney, have been selected to represent the co-operating municipalities and the City hereby authorizes said consultants and attorney as its selected agents to request and receive such information as is necessary in its investigation from Central Power & Light Company, and others, in order to better represent the City in all matters pertaining to the rate request, PUC, and the Courts.

No one but the City Council of Brackettville has authority to speak for the City in regard to a final determination of the pending rate application or any matter in which the City Charter/Ordinances and/or State law governing the City of Brackettville places final responsibility with the City Council.

Respectfully,

W.M.Thurber
City Manager

BOY SCOUT TROOP 234 ACTIVITIES

Boy Scout Troop 234 attended a Shillery the weekend of April 24 & 25 at Camp Fawcett. The Scouts participate in events that were judged by time and efficiency. They took two second place awards in over-all competition. Some of the events were: FIRST AID: KNOT TYING RELAY: COMPASS COURSE: SIGNALING AND BLIND-DEAF MAN TENT SITTING.

The boys have been collecting cans to earn funds. The money will be used to sponsor a Bar-b-Que for their families on May 8th. Any contributions welcome, call 563-2196.

The week of July 4-10 will be Summer Camp for Troop 234 at Camp Fawcett. The Scouts will be selling chocolate during the month of May in order to pay their own way.

Other activities planned for this summer are a trip to either Astro World or 6 Flags, a cultural trip to San Antonio, and a camping trip to the coast.

Scout Spirit was demonstrated the evening of April 26. The troop was at the Fort swim area practicing for a Shill award. Noticing said that one of their fellow scouts was in trouble Mike Cervantez and Ernest Abrego came to the rescue sustaining the scout until the scoutmaster could come to their aid; therefor preventing the boy from drowning. Good work Scouts.

SAFETY GROUP SUPPORTS STATE AND FEDERAL TRAFFIC SAFETY EFFORT

The Presidnet of Texas' largest safety organization recently voiced support for state and national traffic safety initiatives.

"Drunk drivers are the greatest threat to Texan's continued good health and safety," said Dean Ward, president of the 1300 member Texas Safety Association.

"we heartily support President Reagan and Governor Clements Task Force on Traffic Safety efforts to get drunk drivers off the state and nation's highways.

Ward, Vice President and National Coordinator of Loss Control for Alexander and Alexander insurance brokers in Dallas, put the problem of drunk driving in perspective. "In 1981 a total of 4,667 persons died in motor vehicle accidents in Texas. At least half of these deaths were the result of drunk drivers," he said.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

In your "Editorial By: George"
in the April 23rd issue, you stated, "This week, in conversation with some people at the Kinney County Courthouse, I heard a story..." then you go on to say that it's about time
some of our politicians in Kinney County learn that it is time to stop slandering situations and people.

As the local "Press" you do a disservice to your readers
by not naming the persons referred to as "some people."
If they are local politicians as you implied shouldn't we the voters know who they are so at election time we can vote them out?

If the local media don't keep us infomred as to what's going on; then the climate is even riper for rumor mongering.

Sincerely,
T.J. Powell

THEN and NOW

At one time, women's role was confined to kitchen and kids. It's a picture that has changed greatly in just a few years.

THEN: When modern woman first began setting a tentative foot in the world of commerce, it was often in fields that have been termed "cottage industries." Women tried their hands—and often successfully—at endeavors involving cosmetics, fashion, handicrafts and home products.

NOW: A new publication from the Gulf Oil Corporation called The Women-Owned Business Directory, lists more than 1,500 companies nationwide that are owned by women. The 200-page directory represents such diverse interest areas as catering, printing, manufacturing, office supply and equipment distribution, data processing/computer systems, janitorial services, landscaping and environmental services.

FISHING Facts & Fancies

Getting Tackle Ready For The Season

To avoid casting any gloom on your next fishing season, it's best to check your reel now. Does it squeak? Does it turn as quickly as it should? Does the bail flip over smoothly? All these are ways to tell whether your reel should be oiled.

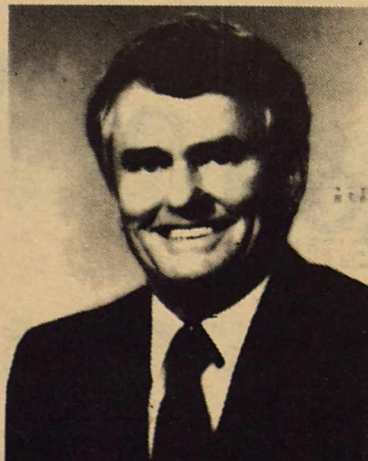

The fishing experts at Du Pont, maker of "Stren" fishing line, America's top selling brand, suggest you check your rod's line guides for rough spots that can abrade your line. A simple test is to rub a cotton swab round the inside edges of the guide. If it frays or snags, you should replace the guide.

A simple way to check your line is to wrap a length of it around your hand (only the lighter pound test lines), reel off some more and wrap it around your other hand. Then give a strong tug. If it breaks, move down the line a little more and repeat. If the line continues to break, it's time to respool.

The problem is especially acute among the state's younger drivers. "Traffic accidents are the number one killer of Texans between 15 and 24 years of age," he said.

The association is working closely with state legislators and the Governors' Task Force on Traffic Safety which are examining drunk driving measures in the state. "Swift and sure punishment of drunk drivers is an effective way to combat the problem," Ward said. "We support the efforts of those who want to increase both penalties and the certainty of punishment in DWI cases."

The Texas Safety Association actively promotes traffic safety in the state through its Defensive Driving program, an eight hour course of driver improvement developed by the National Safety Council. More than 235,000 persons took the course in Texas last year.

The Texas Safety Association is also participating in a nationwide program to increase seat belt usage. Only one in every 10 motorist uses seat belts.

It's a Fact!

In the 1920s and 1930s, the increasing use of cow milk or evaporated milk as a substitute for human milk for infants meant that solid foods had to be introduced earlier to provide adequate amounts of essential nutrients that were missing in cow milk.

Today, doctors are advising mothers to delay the introduction of solid foods until the fourth to sixth month. Most doctors agree that human milk is the preferred food for infants until at least that time. However, commercial formulas have been developed under rigorous testing procedures to the point that they can now provide the same basic nutrients as breastmilk, making the decision concerning feeding the infant easier for mothers who choose not to breastfeed, or who want a supplement to breastfeeding. By mid-infancy, the child has achieved a level of development to consume and digest foods other than human milk or formula, and to absorb and metabolize them.

"HOT WHEELS" AND CROSSING CAUTION

Although railroad grade crossing caution is a year round safety concern, the warm weather months bring with them additional factors that complicate safe crossing procedures.

In any weather conditions, motorists should STOP, LOOK, LISTEN and WAIT until the tracks are clear in both directions before proceeding. In spring and summer the situation is aggravated: Texas hot spells make most drivers roll up the windows tight, crank up the air conditioner and tune the radio to some crusin' music.

This can mean big trouble if the driver can't hear clearly when approaching railroad tracks, according to Jim Bearden, Vice President for Railroad Safety, Texas Safety Association. "Even if hearing is only partially blocked, attention may be distracted or fragmented by the auditory interference the driver has set up," says Bearden.

Where a crossing is equipped with electronic gates, the situation is a bit less hazardous. But only a little bit, since drivers have been known to race around gates trying to beat the train-and often getting killed. When the crossing is not physically barred, it becomes even more important that the driver keep ears open and mind alert for the rumble of the train and the sound of the whistle.

So if the heat gets to you while you're behind the wheel, enjoy the modern conveniences, by all means. But at railroad grade crossings, stop, turn off the radio, turn down the air conditioner (especially if your "dragon" really roars), crack the windows and listen, reminds the Texas Safety Association. If you do hear that tell-tale rumble or whistle, wait 'till the train passes, check the tracks again in BOTH directions, and if the way is clear, let the good times roll.....
