HOME EYE TEST

HOME EYE TEST FOR ADULTS INTRODUCED BY PREVENT BLINDNESS

A do-it yourself Home Eye Test for Adults that will enable people to determine if they are seeing as well as they should is being introduced this month by the Texas Society to Prevent Blindness as part of its April, Prevent Blindness Month activities.

"The purpose of the test is to alert an estimated 10 million Americans over the age of 25 that they have lost some vision and that they need to have their eyes professionally checked to prevent further loss of sight," says John L. Mann, M.D., an ophtlamologist who is the Society's State Medical Chairman.

"Three basic eye test are incorporated into the new kit," Dr. Mann explained.
"THe first test checks distance vision using a wall chart that is hung at eye level and viewed from ten feet. It depicts what appears to be variations on the letter "C" but which actually are broken circles facing in different directions."

This test, known as the Landolt Rings, does not require language or reading skills, he added, and has been used internationally since 1909.

"The second test checks the near vision that is used for reading and close work," Dr. Mann continued. "it consists of sentences set in telephone directory size type that are to be read while being held 14 inches from the eyes."

The third part of the kit is a chart called the Amsler Grid. The horizontal and vertical lines on the grid provide a test for macular degeneration, a disease which affects central vision and the ability to see fine details in sharp focus. Although some forms may strike yound people, macular degeneration is most commonly a problem associated with the aging process.

"if a person fails any of the three tests, the Society suggests a retesting on another day. If failure results on the second try, a professional eye examination is recommended," Dr. Mann said. "The majority who fail may only require glasses or a change in their current prescription. But, on the other hand, since the test can also warn of more serious eye problems such as glaucoma, cataract, or macular degeneration, its results should not be ignored," he stressed.

The Home Eye Test for Adults was developed by Prevent Blindness with the help of some of the country's leading ophthalmologists. On their recommendation the kit includes, in addition to the tests described, a list of signs of possible problems that can also indicate the need for a professional eye examination. Dr. Mann described some of these sighs as having double vision or seeing halos around lights or seeing showers of black spots or flashes of light.

Those who wish to test their eyesight with the new self-help kit should send one dollar ($1.00) to cover postage and handling to Prevent Blindness, P.O. Box 20/20 Houston, 77252.

Governor Mark White has designated the week of May 8 - 14, 1983, as TEXAS HOSPITAL WEEK in recognition of the efforts of hospitals in effectively promoting the health of the citizens of Texas.

In his statements, White commended hospitals for their "important role in educating Texans in living healthier lifestyles."

"Apart from and through the Texas Hospital Association hospitals have effectively promoted the health of the people of our State by treating them like family," White said. "In every community, this personalized care reminds Texans that our hospitals are truly concerned for their well-being."

TEXAS HOSPITAL WEEK honors the dedicated health professionals responsible for the delivery of care as well as hospital governing boards, auxilians, and volunteers who contribute thousands of hours in the service of their local citizenry.

"We Treat You Like Family -- Texas Style", the theme for TEXAS HOSPITAL WEEK, reflects the role fo hospitals and their staffs as a dedicated a family ready to provide care whenever needed.

Today's complex hospital industry still has a simple, basic mission -- to care, offer support and help, while searching for better ways to help people stay healthy. As advocates of individual and community health, Texas hospitals extend their familysylte care beyond the hospital walls .

Throughout the year, hospitals also encourage Texans to promote good health within their own families by living healthier lifestyles and wisely using the health care delivery system in their locale.

The official memorandum was signed by the governor during ceremonies held at the Capitol April 4. Present were THA President O. Ray Hurst CAE, and Scott D. Evens, FACHA administrator of Round Rock Community Hospital and chairman of THA's Health Careers Com-

LEGAL TITLE OF BANK

BY NORMAN HOOTEN

We have been busy this past week with various law enforcement activities in the Kinney County area.

The investigation into the ranch burglaries that have occurred in Kinney County and Val Verde County over the past few weeks is continuing. We are working closely with Texas Rangers and Val Verde officers on these cases. A few leads have developed and are being investigated, but at this time we do not have enough evidence to make an arrest, though we do have suspects.

We have, during the investigation, cleared up a case of Criminal Mischief that occurred on the Rancho Rio Grande a large ranch which lies in both Kinney and Val Verde Counties. Russ White, foreman of the large ranch, called me to report that a car had crashed through a gate on the ranch . and had prowled around inside. A piece of evidence torn from the car on impact with the gate was recovered at the scene and further investigation by those of us working on the case led to charges being filed against two Cubans (released from prison in Cuba to the U.S. during the Carter administration) living in Del Rio. These men are also suspects in the burglary cases, though no charges have been filed at this time.

Two Brackettville men were arrested at a local tavern last Friday night after a disturbance was reported. Chief of Police Donnie Nance and Patrolman, "Corky" McGuire arrested the pair at the scene and charges of Resisting Arrest, Disorderly Conduct, and Public Intoxication were filed on the men and they were placed in County Jail to await trial on the charges.

Local citizens should be aware of the fact that illegal aliens are pouring through our community at a record rate. Citizens should take precautions to see that nothing of value is left lying around unattended that could be picked up and carried away. Homes and cars should be locked and should you be away for a few days, notify your neighbors to advise the Sheriff's Dept. of any strangers or suspicious persons in the area. Anyone seeing persons suspected of being aliens can notify either the Sheriff's Dept. or the U.S. Border Patrol and they will be checked out. Should any property be stolen, contact the Sheriff's Dept. as soon as possible and try not to disturb the crime scene until officers can arrive and begin an investigation. Quite often valuable

FARM COMPUTER SEMNINAR

COMPUTER SEMINAR FOR SOUTH TEXAS RARM FAMILIES MAY 24 - 25

Farm and ranch families in the South Texas area will have the opportunity to learn more about how microcomputers are being used in farm and ranch management during a seminar May 24 -25 at the Airport Holiday Inn in San Antonio. A similar clinic is being held April 4 - 5 in Austin.

Sessions have been scheduled for those with limited experience and persons with considerable computer work, according to an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, one of the seminar sponsors.

"An advanced session has been designed to give those with some prior computer experience an insight into operating systems and basic programing procedures," points out Joe Pena.

Pena notes that six concurrent sessions and a variety of commercial exhibits will provide an opportunity for participants fo receive "hands on" experience while viewing microcomputer hard-ware and software currently available for the agricultural family.

Sixteen microcomputer specialists will be on hand to lead discussions in the various sessions.

Pena says the $50 registration fee for the two-day session includes a notebook of microcomputer educational information, two meals, refreshements, plus exposure to many different types of computerized decision-making aids

Registration forms for the seminar are available from your county Extension office and should be returned to Joe Pena, Extension Economist, P.O. Drawer 1849, Uvalde, Texas 78801

Motel accommodations are available at the meeting location where several rooms have been reserved. Contact the hotel at 1 - 800 - 238-8000, before April 15 and mention that you are attending this workshop.

STATE CHAMBER

STATE CHAMBER, AUSTIN

Legislation designed to let homeowners use their equity as collateral on loans for certain purposes was intro duces today by Senator Chet Brooks - D- Pasadena.

The legislation would allow homeowners to use the equity, or increased value, ion their homes as collateral for such purposes as family medical emergencies, college education, business opportunity or to supplement retirement income. Currently Texas homeowners are forbidden from using that asset as collateral for a loan except for home inprovement purposes.

"It seems ridiculous to me you can finance a swimming pool but not have the ability for financial relief in a situation of catastrophic illness or family education costs." Brooks said.

The enabling legislation prohibits more than one secondary mortgage lien on the property and sets a $2500 minimum loan amount. It also provides a secondary mortgage lien may not exceed 80% of the homeowner's equity. In addition, the equity could be used as collateral only after both spouses completely understand the transaction through full discolsure and creditors comply with the limitations of the legislation.s

In addition to the enabling legislation setting out the restrictions of this finan cila transaction, a constitutional amendment will allow voters to add a fourth exemption to the homestead exemption for this limited purpose. If approved by the legislature this session, voters would have the opportunity to vote on this measure November 8, 1983.

"I hope these measures will be enacted during the current session to allow Texas homeowners this flexibility on one of the principal assets most families and individuals ever accumulate," Senator Brooks said.

SAFTEY NEWS

DWI law revision included in Senate Bill 1 by Bill Sarpalius of Amarillo received the endorsement of The Texas Task Force on Traffic Safety, according to an announcement made in Austin today by Col. James B. Adams and Dave Coslett, chairman and vice-chairman of the 17-member Task Force.

"In announcing support of Senate Bill 1, the Task Force joins other groups and sponsors in recommending to the people of Texas a set of measures to stop the tradedy of DWI related injuries and deaths," Said Adams. "We believe Texans are no longer willing to tolerate the constantly spiralling DWI problem," he added.

"After careful analysis by Task Force leadership, the group has unanimously agreed to support the thrust of Senate Bill 1.
Task Force members, like various advocacy groups around the state, bring their own perspectives, experience, and sense of responsibility to the issue, but we are united in our determination to support measures to address the problem, " said Costett.

"People are simply getting fed up with violators who go unpunished, especially those with a long record of DWI arrests. And when the citizenry is motivated to organize and demand action, their influence is felt by elected representatives in Austin and Washington," Coslett said.

Col. Adams, who is head of the Department of Public Safety, said, "In 1981, Department of Public Safety troopers arrested 43,246 intoxicated drivers. Of this number, only 17 per cent received a final conviction and a meaningful punishment whichincluded jail time and loss of driving privileges. The others were given probation, deferred adjudication, had no action taken against them or simply had their case dismissed. Other Texas law enforcement agencies arrested more than 40,000 drunk drivers the same year."

"The Task Force concluded that the success of reducing DWI depends on the public's perception of the effectiveness of the State's criminal justice program. Potential violators must realize that if they drive while intoxicated, they are likely to be apprehended and certian to be punished," said Adams.

"There is no doubt that many citizens of Texas are firmly committed to theDWI reduction program recommended by the Task Force," said Coslett. "The Texas Safety Association, which is coordinating a project of information and education on Task Force recommendations, reports that more than 120 persons across the state have joined a Speaker's Bureau supporting the recommendations," he said

"Indications of support for the Task Force recommendations have come from literally thousands of Texas citizens who desire that something be done,"added Adams.

"These people are putting their energy and effort behind their conviction that Texas streets and highways must be made safer for all of us," said Coslett, who is immediate past president of the Texas Safety Association.

HEALTH TIPS

Asprin, Acetaminophen have similarities, differences -- Although asprin is perhaps the most popular drug on the market, some people cannot take it because of an allergy or certain other disorders. For many of these people, the answer to relieving pain or reducing fever is acetaminophen.

Familiar brand names of this non-prescription drug include Allerest, Tylenol, Datril, Bromo-Seltzer, Tempra, Liquiprim and Anacil-3. Acetaminophen also is combined with asprin in such products as Excedrin and Vanquish

In may ways acetaminophen and aspirin are similar, but they also have some important differences, says the TMA. The main similarity is that they both lower fever and relieve minor aches, pains, and headaches. On the other hand, they belong to separate classes of drugs.

Unlike acetaminophen, aspirin is effective against inflammation. For this reason, it is used to treat arthritis, rheumatism and sprains according to a doctor's instructions.

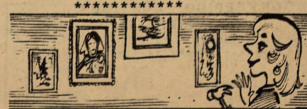

But aspirin is an acid and can irritate the stomach. Although most people have so dide effects from the drug, nausea and vomiting may arise. People with certain disorders should not take apririn unless told otherwise by a doctor. These include flu and chichen pox in children, ulcers, asthma, gout, bleeding problems, and kidney or liver disease.

On of the main advantages of acetaminophen is that it has fewer side effects than aspirin. Because it does not irritate the stomach and rarely causes allergic reactions, acetaminophen can be taken by people with ulcers or aspirin allergies.

Acetaminophen's main disadvantage is its effect on the liver. Excessive use for several weeks can cause liver problems. Because of this, people with liver disease or a virus infection of the liver should not take the drug.

As with other over-thecounter drugs, aspirin and acetaminophen are generally safe to take if instructions and warnings on labels are followed.
