AIRSTRIP

By Justin Berry

As a frontier Army post, first established in 1852, it had to be self sufficient, as much as possible. Especially in the early days, transportation was limited to horseback, stagecoach, or wagons. All of which were quite slow, as compared to modern day transportation. So, Fort Clark personnel, being one hundred and twenty five miles away from San Antonio, and a lot further from the closest sea port, had to raise or manufacture as much of the everyday necessities as they possibly could.

Dairy products were some of the necessities which the fort could produce on its own. The last dairy area was located to the east of Scales Road (now Fort Clark Road), near the intersection of Airport Road. About one hundred feet south of this intersection to the east of Fort Clark Road, is an old road bed, still visible, although it is overgrown with brush and mesquite. This road bed runs to the east for about one hundred yards, then turns north and stops. This is probably where the above pictured area was located. The building construction was of the temporary World War II and prior to, construction, with concrete slab, brick or block foundation, and above this of frame with tar paper outside covering.

BY ALAN L. MCWILLIAMS

The coveted Gold Star, highest recognition of 4H achievement at the county level, will be presented to the District 13 Gold Star Awards Luncheon in Uvalde on Saturday, September 23. The event will be held at noon at the Holiday Inn.

A gathering of about 125 4H'ers, parents, adult leaders, special guests and Texas Agricultural Extension Service Personnel are expected.

Awards will be presented with the assistance of Kimberley Lehmann, Comal County, Council Secretary, and Jody Jones, Uvalde County, Vice President of the District 13 4H Council.

Among those to be honored will be Mary Jean Duran and Stephanie Ahrens representing Kinney County.

They were named Gold Star winners on the basis of personal development, leadership, outstanding achievement in projects and activities and contributions to the overall county 4H program.

The luncheon is sponsored by Central Power and Light Company, and acknowledgment of their support will be given by Monte Bartek, Atascosa County, District Council Vice President. The special guests will be introduced by Lynette Coleman, Dimmit County, District Council Information Chairman. The invocation will be given by Crissy Fort, Kerr County, District Council Parliamentarian. Christi Spain, Sutton County, Council President, will be Master of Ceremonies.

Others who will be attending the awards luncheon from Kinney County include Mr. and Mrs. Eugenio Duran, Mr. & Mrs. Gerald Ahrens and Mr. Alan McWilliams, County Extension Agent.

VOLUNTEER ROLE IN 4H PROGRAM IS REWARDING

One of the most rewarding things an individual can do for tomorrow's leaders is to serve as a 4H adult volunteer today.

Volunteers not only give leadership to 4H experiences for youth, they keep the program relevant to local community needs and interest. Today, 30 4H adult volunteers in Kinney County work with 76 members from the third grade to 19 years old. These volunteers share their skills and experiences by assisting young people in a variety of 4H projects and activities.

With National 4H Week set for October 1-7, this is a special time to recognize and applaud those volunteer leaders who give so much to the 4H program. Volunteers do not have to be experts in specialized subject matter areas. They can rely on the Extension Service staff in the county and at Texas A & M University, the state's landgrant university, to provide them with training, educational materials and resources to use in the 4H program. The landgrant system makes 4H uniquely qualified to meet both the contestant and everchanging needs of young and older people alike.

VOLUNTEER ROLE IN 4H

The 4H volunteer corps is almost 620,000 strong nationwide; more than 30,000 volunteers support the 4H program in Texas. Volunteers are the backbone of a basic and cost effective system which delivers practical educational experiences to some 4.5 million 4H members in the United States. The time, travel and support volunteers contribute is valued at $1 billion annually.

The 4H program provides many opportunities for growth and stimulation for adults and helps them attain enjoyment and self fulfillment. So help prepare the young people in our communities for tomorrow by joining the ranks of 4H volunteers.

For more information about the 4H program and its many opportunities, contact the county Extension Office.

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 102 proposes a constitutional amendment that would increase the salary of members of the legislature to one-fourth of the Governor's salary and increase the salary of the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives to one-half of the Governor's salary. The annual salary of members of the legislature, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives is currently $7,200. Under this provision, the annual salary of the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker would be $46,716, and the annual salary of members of the legislature would be $23,358, based on the Governor's current annual salary of $93,432. The increase for the Speaker and the members of the legislature would take effect when the legislature convenes for its regular session in January 1991. The increase for the Lieutenant Governor would take effect when the term of that office begins in 1991. The salary increase for the Lieutenant Governor would not make members of the legislature ineligible to run for the office of Lieutenant Governor.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to limit the salary of the lieutenant governor and the speaker of the house of representatives to not more than one-half of the governor's salary and to limit the salary of a member of the legislature to not more than one-fourth of the governor's salary."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 5 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Texas Water Development Board to issue an additional $500 million of Texas water development bonds. The additional bonds are to be used as follows: $250 million of the bonds are to be used for water supply loans and facilities acquisition; $200 million of the bonds are to be used for water quality enhancement projects; and $50 million of the bonds are to be used for flood control. The legislature may provide that $100 million be used for subsidized loans and grants to economically distressed areas of the state for water and wastewater facilities.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the issuance of an additional $500 million of Texas water development bonds for water supply, water quality, and flood control purposes."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 51 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to provide for the issuance of general obligation bonds to provide money to establish a Texas agricultural fund, a rural microenterprise development fund, a Texas product development fund, and a Texas small business incubator fund in the state treasury. The Texas agricultural fund would be used to provide financial assistance to develop, increase, improve, or expand the production, processing, marketing, or export of crops or products grown or produced in Texas by Texas agricultural businesses. The rural microenterprise development fund would be used to stimulate the creation and expansion of small businesses in rural areas. The Texas product development fund would be used to aid in the development and production of new or improved products in this state. The Texas small business incubator fund would be used to stimulate the development of small businesses in the State.

The principal amount of bonds outstanding at one time could not exceed $25 million for the Texas agricultural fund and $5 million for the rural microenterprise development fund. The financial assistance offered by both funds could include loan guarantees, insurance, coinsurance, loans, and indirect loans or purchases or acceptances of assignments of loans or other obligations. To carry out the Texas product development fund, the legislature could authorize loans, loan guarantees, and equity investments, and the issuance of up to $25 million of general obligation bonds for initial funding. To carry out the Texas small business incubator fund, the legislature could authorize loans and grants of money, and the issuance of up to $20 million of general obligation bonds for initial funding.

Bonds authorized under this amendment would be paid out of the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in any interest and sinking account at the end of the preceding fiscal year that is pledged to payment of the bonds or interest.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

the state and is destined to be forwarded out of the state, regardless of whether the intention to forward the property existed when the property was acquired or imported into the state, if it remains in Texas for 175 days or less for assembly, storage, manufacture, processing, or fabrication. The proposed amendment would authorize the governing body of a county, municipality, school district, or junior college district to prevent the exemption of this tangible personal property from taxation by taking official action before April 1, 1990. In addition, each elected and appointed officer would be required to sign a sworn statement that he or she had not paid, offered, or promised anything of value for a vote or to secure appointment to an office, as applicable. The written, sworn statement would be filed with the secretary of state. The information in the statement is currently contained in the oaths of office taken by elected and appointed officials.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

The proceeds of the bonds could be used to acquire, construct, or equip new corrections institutions, mental health and mental retardation institutions, youth corrections institutions, and statewide law enforcement facilities and to repair and renovate existing facilities of those institutions. The bonds would constitute a general obligation of the state. The bonds and interest on the bonds would be paid from the first money coming into the treasury that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in a sinking fund at the end of the preceding fiscal year that is pledged to payment of the bonds or interest.

If the permanent school fund were required to make payment as a result of its guarantee of bonds issued by the state, the fund would have to be reimbursed immediately from the state treasury. The amount of bonds guaranteed by the permanent school fund could not exceed $750 million unless a higher amount was authorized by a two-thirds vote of both houses of the legislature. If a school district were to become delinquent on a loan, the amount of the delinquency would be offset against other aid to which the district was entitled.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for using the permanent school fund and its income to guarantee bonds issued by the state for the purpose of aiding school districts."

PROPOSITION NO. 13

"The constitutional amendment to eliminate certain time limitations relating to the issuance of Texas agricultural water conservation bonds."

PROPOSITION NO. 19
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 59 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow local governments to invest their funds as authorized by the legislature. Currently, the constitutional prohibition against a grant of public money to an individual, association, or corporation or against becoming a stockholder in a corporation, association, or company prevents local governments from making some kinds of investments. This proposed amendment would allow local governments to make any investments authorized by the legislature.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize local governments to invest their funds as provided by law."

PROPOSITION NO. 20
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 16 proposes a constitutional amendment which, if passed, would abolish the office of county surveyor in Cass, Ector, Garza, Smith, Bexar, Harris, and Webb Counties. A majority of the voters in an affected county must vote in favor of this proposed amendment before the office is abolished in that county. If the office of county surveyor is abolished in any of these counties, the powers, duties, and functions of the office are transferred to a county officer or employee designated by the commissioners court of the county in which the office is abolished.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county surveyor in Cass, Ector, Garza, Smith, Bexar, Harris, and Webb Counties."

PROPOSITION NO. 21
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 74 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to enact laws authorizing the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor to provide for, issue, and sell an additional $75 million in general obligation bonds as college savings bonds. The form, terms, and denominations of the bonds would be prescribed by law. The interest rate and installments would be prescribed by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor. The maximum net effective interest rate would be set by law. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds would be credited to the Texas opportunity plan fund, which is used to make loans to students to attend institutions of higher education in Texas. The bonds and interest on the bonds would be payable from the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not already appropriated by the constitution, less the amount remaining in the sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds as college savings bonds to provide educational loans to students and to encourage the public to save for a college education."

SKINDEEP

Zach loves his exwife. He loves her so much he's willing to do anything to get her back. Except give up women. Give up booze. Or go back to work.

Blake Edwards (the Pink Panther series) scored another perfect 10 in this hilarious account of a middleaged little boy's attempt to grow up. John Ritter (Hooperman, Three's Company) is a heartbreaker in both senses of the word as Zach, stumbling haplessly along a road to maturity strewn with banana peels and beautiful babes. Gag-packed and explosively funny, Skin Deep is highlighted by a glowinthedark sequence that will go down in comedy history: "I can't describe it to you, I can't show it to you, but this film has one of the biggest laughs at the movies".

DREAM A LITTLE DREAM

My best friend Bobby is totally cool. We hang together, go to the same school and think rock'n roll's rad. Bobby's kind of a dreamer. Now he's stuck on some dreamboat named Lanie. She's pretty hot, I guess, but doesn't know he exists. Bobby's got just three days to convince Lanie that she loves him, even though she already does but doesn't know it yet. This whole thing is just to weird but I'm sticking around to see what happens.

ANNOUNCEMENT

ANNOUNCEMENT OF PUBLIC MEETINGS PROPOSED
TEXAS HIGHWAY TRUNK SYSTEM

The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation will hold a series of meetings this fall to get public input about the proposed Texas Highway Trunk System. The trunk system is part of a long-range plan to develop a rural network of four-lane or better divided roadways. This system will link urban areas in the state, as well as major ports and points of entry from surrounding states and Mexico.

Eight meetings will be held during October and November, as listed below. Testimony will be heard from 8:30 a.m. until noon at each meeting. Detailed maps and other information about the proposed system will be on display at the meetings. Staff planners from the highway department will make a brief presentation and will be available to answer questions and hear public testimony.

You have demonstrated an active and concerned interest in Texas and in transportation. Your input would be greatly appreciated as we develop our plans for this very important system of roadways. In order to give the maximum opportunity to all concerned parties, we ask that groups or organizations offer their testimony through one representative.

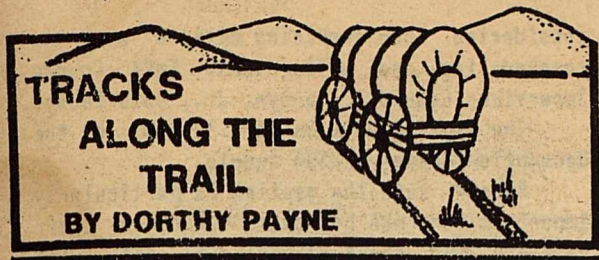

For further information on the proposed Texas Highway Trunk System, or for answers to specific questions, please contact Mr. Robert Cuellar, Transportation Planning Division, SDHPT, Austin, Texas 78701, (512) 465-7466.

About fifteen to twenty years ago tequilla became a popular drink. With mixes you could make a tequilla Bloody Mary, or a tequilla Manhattan, but the most popular drink made with tequilla is the Margarita.

There are a lot of versions of the origin of the Margarita. Some say the drink was first made in Los Angeles by a gringo bartender, at the Tail of the Cock bar, who was fooling around with recipes in the early 1950's.

Then there is the myth that the manager bartender in a hotel in Pueblo, Mexico who had a girl friend who put salt in everything, so he put salt around the rim of her glass and decided to liven up her drink with tequilla with coentreau and juice of lime.

There is another one about Margarita Somers of San Antonio. Her friends in Acapulco claim she always requested the bartender to mix her tequilla with coentreau and lime and serve it in a cocktail glass.

Another story tells that Dona Borta the proprietor of Bertitas Bar in Taxco, Mexico, produced the first Margarita and named it for a friend.

What ever the case or whatever the variation it is a popular drink in Mexico and the United States.

Think now about the "agave", the plant that makes tequilla. It also is shrouded in mystery. This cactus when growing in the fields in Mexico looks like images of men armed with spears rising out of the ground.

When it is harvested the fruit of the Agave, called pinas and could be as large a diameter of 25 inches and could weigh over 100 pounds. Three basic drinks are made from this cactus; pulque, mescal and tequilla.

In Aztec mythology there is a special corner in the night sky where the 400 pulque gods came to drink from Mayahuel's 400 udders. There really are 400 types of agave found in Mexico. when the juice is distilled it goes by another name. So all tequilla is mescal, but not all mescal is tequilla and it has the same effect on anyone as any other strong spirit.

21 PROPOSED AMENDMENTS SUMMARIZED

BY JUDITH ZAFFIRINI

STATE SENATOR, DISTRICT 21

"The faith of the pople of Texas stands pledged to a republican form of government, and subject to this limitation only, they have at all times the inalienable right to alter, reform, or abolish their government in such manner as they may think expedient," states the preamble to the Texas Constitution.

In this eighth and final article in my series on the Constitutional amendments which Texans will decide in November by majority vote, I shall summarize the 21 propositions.

Proposition 1 would increase legislators' salaries from $600 per month to one-quarter of the governor's salary. The Speaker of the House and the Lieutenant Governor each would earn half of the Governor's salary.

Proposition 2 would authorize the sale of bonds to subsidize water development projects for colonies and small communities which cannot otherwise fund such projects.

Proposition 3 would authorize the issuance of bonds to fund a Texas Product Development Fund, a Texas Small Business Incubator Fund and a Texas Agricultural Fund.

Proposition 4 would permit the legislature to exempt from local property taxes land owned by non-profit veterans' groups.

Proposition 5 would allow local tax exemptions for goods brought into Texas temporarily for assembly, storage, processing, or fabrication.

Proposition 6 would permit laws authorizing four-year terms for hospital district board members.

Proposition 7 would shorten the cumbersome oath of office for legislators and would incorporate a new requirement that they sign statements affirming that they have not bribed voters.

Proposition 8 would authorize the issuance of $400 million in bonds to acquire, construct, and equip corrections, statewide law enforcement, and mental health and mental retardation facilities.

Proposition 9 would allow the consolidation of state criminal justice-related agencies into a new Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

Proposition 10 would allow legislation permitting juries to be informed about the possible effects of good conduct and eligibility for parole on particular sentences.

Proposition 11 would increase the peritted per diem for legislators from $30 per day to $81.

Proposition 12 would authorize use of the Permanent School Fund for low-cost loans to school districts to subsidize building, repairs, and capital improvements.

Proposition 13 would establish a constitutional Bill of Rights for crime victims.

Proposition 14 would require the Ft. Bend County District Attorney to be elected and serve terms at the same times as other criminal district attorneys in the state.

Proposition 15 would authorize the legislature to permit and regulate raffles conducted by charitable organizations.

Proposition 16 would establish general guidelines for hospital districts and then would empower localities to create their own hospital districts without legislation.

Proposition 17 would authorize the state to provide grants and loans to firefighting organizations.

Proposition 18 simply would eliminate the expiration date on a previous constitutionally authorized water bond issue.

Proposition 19 would allow greater discretion to local governments in seeking out profitable investments.

Proposition 20 would abolish the office of county surveyor in seven counties, including Bexar and Webb.

Proposition 21 would create legislative authority to issue college savings bonds, with proceeds of the bond sales to be used for college loans.

More information about these propositions will be published in local newspapers, as prescribed by the Texas Constitution.

That document has been amended 307 times since its adoption in 1876.

HIGH SCHOOL DAYS

BY CECE FOSTER

The Chemistry I class, taught by Mrs. K. Crumley put together an air conditioner last week. The chemistry class designed it and with the help of the shop class put it together. The materials used by the class consisted of a styrofoam ice chest, pvc pipe and glue, ice, rock salt, and a funnel 2ft. in diameter.

By using a fan the air is blown into a funnel connected to the pvc pipe. This pipe is cooled by the ice surrounding the tube. Therefore the air coming out of the other side is cool.

SNÖOPS

It has been a busy week. Har tis autumn, and a beauty at that. Thangs are a coolin down, and folk are a comin back from thar travels un sech, and gettun ready fur the new seasons. Football is a beginnun to git people out in the night air, with a lot of hooin and hollerin. Boy, these folk shore know how ta express themselves. Especially when our Tigers get out and win.

Wal! I ben a snoopin around again and met some right nice folk from Brackettville. First I ben a talkin to Louisa Derengowki. That gal is right spunky fur her to be in her eighties. She said she has been a wider for some yars, but was married to Paul, who was in the service, stationed here at Fort Clark Springs fur some 25 yars. She was a born and reared right here in Brackettville. She can't do much but watch TV now a days. Her mother Jacinto and father Geromnia Olvera, were no relation to the Castros in Castroville. Her grandparents were Guadalupe and Leandro Castro. Louisa and Paul, had three littleuns. Alonzo Talamandez, the oldes son, has passed on. Daughter, Rose Marie Fuentes, has one son, and lives in Brackettville. The other daughter, Cordelia, lives in Rockport, and has three boys. Louisa loves visitors, has no address, but lives by the football field. So friends, hest git yoruselves over ta say howdy once in a while to Louisa.

I did hear a little history from one who has been here some many yars. He was a bit low do ta his arthritis a kickin up, with this cool weather and all, but John Dimery, bless his heart spoke to me about his family. It's a darn shame that he and Helen, his wife, who lives in Kerrville, are no longer together, but they did a fine job of raisen seven lovely younguns. Their only son, John Jr., lives in Austin, and works for the State. Geraldine, has four boys, lives in Indiana. Christine, has two boys and two girls and lives in Houston. The twins, Edna in Kerrville has two boys and one girl, and Nellie, has three boys, lives in New Jersey. Sharon, lives in Georgetown, and the baby, Ida Mae, has two girls and one boy, and they're livin in Kerrville. John, had his grandparents, John and Mary Shields, who was an important part of history. Granddad John, was First Sgt., and the leader of the Seminol Scouts. He ran the Indians out of the area. Plus all of that, they did have a passel of kids, six boys and one gal. Number one child was John A. Dimery, with seven youngins, mentioned above, and in order, George Jr., then Porter, and Louis, who is one of Brackettville's City Councilmen. Ray, who lives in Fresno, California, Wallace, and last but not least, the youngest a girl, Marger who has passed on. John's folk were George and Rosey Dimery of Brackettville. John Dimery, was born on the Fort, but said that when they was a fightin the Indians, all the Fort folk had to be moved into the town of Brackettville. Hobbies? Wal, let's see now. John did mention that he jest worked hard alla his life. Nice a chawin the fat with ya'll John.

I had the pleasure ta speakin to young Luis Flores Jr., who along with his wife Maria are a raisin two fine youngins, a boy, Luis the 3rd, age 7, and the cutie is Katy Nicole, age 3. Daddy said, that the youngins love to swim. Daddy loves to horseback ride, fish and water ski, and mama enjoys fishin and sewin. Luis, said he works a carin for folks yards, mowin and sech. He works for Mr. Massingill, and ifin you need your yard cared for, jest give these folks a call.

Did ya git to meet with the Association's General Manager, Gene Britton? Well let me jest tell ya'll this fine gentleman, has ben on the Fort since December 1983, nearly six years now. It is evident that he has been doin a fine job, considerin all that he must contend with. It takes time, a lot of patience, and monies to git things done. Yars ago, Gene was introduced as the "Man for all Reasons!" Heard tell that he come from Port Lavaca, Texas, where he served as City Manager, and before that was City Manager at Iowa Park, Texas. Gene, was born and reared on an Oklahoma farm (about twenty miles up from the Texas' Panhandle). Understand that his early career was spent as a fighter pilot, and later in several staff positions with important management responsibility until his retirement as a Lt. Col., after 22 1/2 years. He is right important, holding a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Omaha and a Master's Degree from the University of Utah. Gene and his lovely wife Mary, both like "country livin" and use thar "free time" for golf and bridge. They said that's what appealed to them about Fort Clark Springs.

Time shor enuf passes quickly. Soon it will be the sixth yar, November 12th, since the "Empty Saddle", was dedicated? Twas November 12th, 1983, when Donna Hale, then from Round Rock, Texas, also the daughter of Ralph and Elby Beard, who were the creator's of "Empty Saddle" (i.e. "The Horse") Fort Clark Springs' tribute to its Cavalry past, Donna, came along with her Golden Palomino mare Rosita. Donna Hale, was brought up in Eagle Pass, is bilingual, and communicates only in Spanish with her lovely horse. Im told that the "Donita and Rosita" act they did was started in 1980, and included over two dozen tricks by Rosita. I was neve thar to enjoy one of these acts, but perhaps in some future time, Ralph and Elby, can get Donna to come back here and give us another show.

Time is a runnin short, and I must git this over to the Cavalryman paper, and begin ta talkin more to more fine, and lovely folks, and keep ya'll posted about who ya'lls neighbors are. I am a findin out about a lot of folk, that I did not know about until I began to snoop. Call me now, ya hear? "Snoops", the Cavalryman 32991.

FMHA MEETING ON LOAN SERVICING

Uvalde, Edwards, Real, Kinney and Val Verde County farmers with loans from the Farmers Home Administration are invited to a meeting on Tuesday, September 26, 1989 on how FmHA's computer program is used in considering loan servicing options such as rescheduling and write-downs, FmHA County Supervisor Edmund L. Persyn, Jr., said today. The meeting will be at 1:30 P.M. at the Convention Center in San Angelo.

Persyn said the meeting is particularly important for FmHA borrowers behind in their payments and those having difficulty with their loans.

"We wil go over all the options available to those borrowers and explain how to go about finding one that will keep them in operation," Persyn said. "We will be putting emphasis on the Debt and Loan Restructuring (DALR$) computer program that was developed just for this purpose."

Persyn said DALR$ does many mathematical calculations quickly and in a number of combinations in helpng in the analysis of farm financial plans.

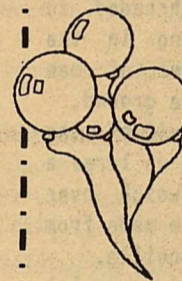

"If a restructuring plan exists that will keep the borrower on the farm, DALR$ will find that plan, and that plan will minimize the cost of debt restructuring," he said.

DALR$ was developed as a tool to help debt restructuring authorized by the Agricultural Credit Act of 1987. FmHA farm borrowers who are behind in their payments should, by all means, try to attend this meeting, Persyn said.
