Let's Talk Livestock

By TED GOULDY

Fort Worth. — Considerably smaller supplies of livestock arrived at Fort Worth and at the Nation's 12 major public markets as the mid-September market week opened Monday. Highly uneven prices were in evidence, with the trend steady to stronger on most cattle and calves with some sales 50 cents higher. Cows sold fully 50 cents, spots $1 higher. Other classes of cattle and calves, including stockers, were getting a bit better action than was evident in the dull close of a week earlier. Hogs opened the week with a 25-cent advance and topped at $19.75. Sows were steady at $15 to $17.

Sheep and lambs were generally steady, the kinds considered. High quality and highly finished kinds were very scarce, or absent.

In seeking reasons for the recent drop of prices, the trade believes:

Persistent refusal of normal demand for stockers and feeders to develop has been a tremendous factor in the slumping cattle and calf trade. However, packers again pointed to sharp reductions of wholesale prices of most kinds of calf meat and reiterated their inability to work out from under the inventories even at reduced prices. Cow beef, grasser steers and boned out beef was moving sluggishly in the meat channels because of large supplies.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings drew $24 to $30. Plain and medium kinds sold at $15 to $24, with cull yearlings $12 to $15. Fat cows sold from $14.50 to $19.50, with canners and cutters at $10 to $14.50. Bulls sold from $13 to $20.

Good and choice fat calves cleared at $21 to $28.25, with common and medium sorts from $15 to $20, and culls at $12 to $14. Stocker calves ranged from $18 to $27.50 and stocker yearlings bulked at $15 to $26. Stocker heifers sold at $24 down, stocker cows drew $14 to $20.

Fat lambs sold from $20 to $25, stocker and feeder lambs drew $10 to $19, and culls sold from $8 to $10. Fat yearling wethers sold from $15 to $19 and stocker yearling wethers sold from $10 to $14. Yearling ewes sold from $17 down. Slaughter ewes sold for $6 to $7 and old wethers drew $10 down. Two- and three-year-old wethers sold from $12.50 down. Old bucks sold for $6 to $6.50.

Hog top Monday was $19.75 and packing sows ended the week at $15 to $17.

Red Cross Will Provide Aid

Austin, September 25.—Texans in the number of 4,750 are now being graduated each month in the standard Red Cross course in first aid.

A report of State Defense and Disaster Relief Headquarters to Governor Allan Shivers pointed out that this is approximately 100 per cent increase in the normal number of graduates in this course.

Basic first aid training—how to stop bleeding, treat shock, bandage victims, give artificial respiration, and otherwise care for the sick and injured — is emphasized in the State Civil Defense and Disaster Relief program as the most important single step which all people can take to ready themselves for the emergency of natural disaster or enemy action.

Local Red Cross chapters will provide first aid instructors, or information can be obtained from State Defense and Disaster Relief Headquarters, Office of the Governor, Austin, Texas.

Texas County Typifies Aid For '52 Polio

AUSTIN, Sept. 25. — Brigadier General Robert J. Smith, chairman of the 1953 Texas March of Dimes, said Lavaca County's polio problems this year help point up how the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis functions to assist stricken areas.

Lavaca County, which has a population of 22,159, had 43 cases up to August 23 this year.

General Smith, who is president of Pioneer Airlines, explained that the polio incidence in that county previously had been much lighter and that prior to 1952 Lavaca County had received only $425.00 from N.F.I.P.

But this year, under the impact of the outbreak which has burdened so many Texas counties, Lavaca County has already received $11,700 for patient care from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and is listed for an additional $13,500.00 in pending grants.

General Smith said more money has been advanced to Lavaca County in 1952 than the total amount raised under the March of Dimes in the county in the last five years. Also, the county has received back this year more money than the total of the 50 per cent of March of Dimes funds raised and sent in to N.F.I.P. in 14 years.

"This contrast," said the General, "is made despite the fact that Lavaca County has raised amount comparable to surrounding counties in previous March of Dimes campaigns."

The MOD chairman stressed that the total advanced does not include the cost of equipment or personnel provided the county through its local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Nation's New Car Dealers Offer Transportation To Polls

Convinced that citizens will vote if they can get to the polls to do so, new car dealers throughout the country are being urged by their National Association President, J. Saxton Lloyd to offer free transportation to all who need it November 4th!

And, reports the National Automobile Dealers Association, thousands of dealers have already expressed their intention to offer transportation in their communities.

Keynote of this non-partisan community service is "Vote as you please — but VOTE!" New car dealers will display posters and window strips urging all who want transportation to ask for it, and folders titled "Why you should vote" are being distributed. These folders emphasize the importance of every vote and offer a "lift" to the polls if it's wanted.

Both political parties have expressed the belief that the next president will be elected by the millions who have not voted in past elections. In 1896, 79% of those eligible voted, however the sorry fact is that this figure has declined to a shocking all-time low, 44% in 1950.

Many groups are urging that everyone vote. They should, and the efforts of these groups will undoubtedly be of value. But like the weather that "everyone talks about and nobody does anything about," it remains for new car dealers to put into motion a program of action. If you need transportation to the polls, November 4th, call your new car dealer.

From State Health Officer

AUSTIN, TEXAS. — Rheumatic fever and its complications, rheumatic heart disease, probably disable more school age children than any other cause except accidents, declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Rheumatic fever is a well known enemy of children, still physicians do not know exactly what causes it. It usually appears about two weeks after an infection caused by germs of the streptococcus such as tonsillitis, scarlet fever or sore throat. Some children appear more susceptible than others and this trait seems to run in families. Rheumatic fever can occur in any surroundings, but it is most common among children living in poor and crowded homes, and among children who do not get enough of what is called the protective foods such as milk, eggs, meat, butter, fresh fruits, vegetables and the like.

Rheumatic fever actually has no symptoms that are all its own. A few of the group of symptoms the doctor looks for are: persistent fever, poor appetite, tiredness, failure to gain weight, paleness, repeated nose-bleed and especially pain add inflammation that moves from joint to joint.

Rheumatic fever is a disease that may affect any part of the body — skin, joints, blood vessels, heart or brain — but usually it is the heart that is most seriously affected. Unless they are prevented by good management, the acute attacks have a tendency to come back again and again. When this happens, the valves of the heart are usually affected; sometimes so slightly that the child is not handicapped; sometimes so seriously that the child dies. The present day treatment of rheumatic fever is directed at two things. First, reducing the risk of heart damage from an acute attack by bed rest and appropriate treatment with drugs. Second, doing everything possible to prevent another attack after recovery from the first.

Not all of the traffic accidents are laid at the door of speed and the greatest of all killers, carelessness. There are accidents that are unavoidable, that would and occasionally do happen whatever the care exercised by humans. And, as the old saying goes, that no matter the cause, one who is ousted of this world is sent away as well by one method as by any other. Recently, in Texas, eight persons in an old car were hurtled into eternity when their car collided with a fast freight train. It seems sort of ironic that an investigation as to whose fault it was revealed little. But it would have shown, either way, that there someone paid with his life for a mishap.

More than twice as many deaths from tuberculosis occur among white men as among white women. The Texas Tuberculosis Association reports.

On July 1, 1952, the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools reported $16,601 persons receiving treatment in eight state-operated mental hospitals.

MENTAL MEANDERINGS

There are many things which keep the American public agitated or on the go these days. Scandals keep popping all over the place, but there is no certainty that the "mess" will be cleared up—even if those who want to have good government so desire it—soon. Seems that corruption in government has gone so deep and those who want to keep making easy money are so well entrenched that it is next to impossible to root them up. However, this is one fault of a federalized or rather centralized government which wants to control all phases of American life. There is no doubt about it, and this is one of the greatest and most dangerous of all symptoms, that when a government gets in the shape ours is, then it is time to start the ball rolling the other way. We believe that our next President, whoever he is, will want to start something in this way. But there is always the interruptions and swayings of those who have lived off the fat of the land and the taxpayer and who ignores the common good for his own selfishness.

A well known radio preacher recently stated his opinion was that the American people were too proud. Proud of their ancestry, of their resourcefulness, of their ability, their freedom, their inventions, and so on. That this pride was hurting the country. It may affect the nation to considerable extent, but it is the general opinion that if it were not for this pride of doing things, and of getting things done, then we would not be the great country we are. Pride is the greatest of all human sins, possibly with one exception, and the fallen angels give testimony to that. But there are different grades of pride, and that of achievement of good is an aid to a good character. The dividing line, we must admit, however, is rather thin.

The political pot is getting hotter all the time. Where, before, the candidates had been sort of gentlemanly in their remarks and name-calling, some of them appear to have far more sensitive skins than they thought, or perhaps some of the barbs loosened by the opposition have been of more penetrating power than they had expected. Even President Truman, for the first time, has been on the defensive, and on both sides the actions of some of those on the band wagon have been embarrassing to their candidates, to say the least. However, we predict that the last of this mud-slinging has not been seen — there are too many pastmasters of the art in both camps.

The big chant we hear now, and which we have always wanted to join in, is that of "Vote!" It isn't so much as for whom you are going to vote (but we know that members of all parties will dispute that statement) but it is that you "Vote". That is your right, your signature of freedom. Exercise it, judiciously, carefully, well.

But about three months remain in this year. And two of the big holidays are in it — Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Halloween is our favorite, in a way, but we never take an active part in it any more. We like Thanksgiving and the "stuffing" too. We always enjoy Christmas for many reasons: the jollity of the season, its bringing the feeling of genuine friendship to all who are Christians and want to get along with their brotherhood, the exchange of greetings (not to mention for some, gifts). So, in our opinion, just cooler weather too, its a nice end of the year.

"How to do it" books seem to be in great demand at this time. Maybe people earn so much and work less time so they have time for hobbies, etc. Or maybe some are getting thrifty and saving by doing. Or its just a fad. At any rate, we believe it is a mighty good and worthy one.

Over in Korea our Army recently started what is called "push-button" war. That is the use of old planes "commonly called "drones" for carrying explosives to the enemy. Radar equipped technicians follow the plane, which is pilotless, to its target, and see it explode. This is a variation of an old technique, but it is said to usher in "push-button" war. It is a grim warning for the enemy however, and hundreds of old planes that are obsolete are now being readied for the time when they can be used, if needed.

It appears that West Texas, that is the area extending almost from San Antonio westward, is to remain for the time being anyways, in a drought spell. For many dreary and weary months our ranchers and country and town dwellers have been trying to hold on despite the prolonged drought. Occasional rains have been negligible in their benefits, and no one knows when the dry period will be broken. (We are hoping that it will rain afore this comes out in this column and make us out some mighty big story-tellers). We all are hoping and praying for rain, otherwise, its going to be a hard, tough winter.

The new remedies which are being put out at a fantastically rapid rate seem to be tangling up the public. Too many announcements, which lead to too high hopes, and consequently much disappointment. There is no doubt but that the new remedies, some of them to be sure, will help the doctors in their fight against disease. But, as has already been found out, some of these will respond only with some people and not with others, some may prove dangerous later on, or in the presence of other medicines, etc. Let's wait and see.

We recently saw some stereo pictures made with a small camera. These are the two photos of the same object, made into stereoscopic pictures which are then viewed by old-time stereoscopes. Nostalgic, and nice.

The pecan crop is rather good this year, which is one cause of some rejoicing, on the part of those who will make something of the harvest and those who like pecans.

Next stop in the holiday line, will be Halloween, just a few weeks. Planning that party? Well just don't forget that usually the PTA will have its big events about that period.

Veterans Questions And Their Answers

Q.—I believe I am eligible for training under the new Korean GI Bill. Can you tell me how to apply?

A.—You can obtain an application form at any VA office. Fill out the first five sections completely—be sure to include your program training—and send the application, along with a photostat copy of your discharge, to your VA Regional Office. If VA approves the application, it will send you a "Certificate For Education and Training", which you present at your school when you enroll.

Q.—I know that I may change the beneficiaries of my National Service Life Insurance at any time, but may I also change the method of payment of the insurance?

A.—Yes. You may change any previously selected optional settlement to any other—and you may do so without the beneficiary's knowledge or consent.

Q.—When I went on active duty, I made arrangements to pay a smaller amount on my house, which I bought with a GI loan. Now that I've been released, I find that I am unable to resume my regular payments. In fact, I can't pay back the payments that accumulated during my service. Can anything be done to help me out?

A.—Probably yes. It's possible that the payments may be reduced by extending the maturity of your loan. Talk the matter over with your lender.

Q.—During part of my military service, I was a cadet at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point. Do I count that time in figuring out how much entitlement to training I have under the Korean GI Bill?

A.—No. Time spent as a cadet or midshipman at any of the service academies does not count in computing entitlement to training under the Korean GI Bill.

No Rain In September

The month of September was just another dry one in the series of arid months we have been having in succession for a long time. Bains fell up to near Sabinal at that time but all we had was an isolated shower or so.

Tigers Win LaCoste Game

Showing much of the form which last year took them to the regional championship the Brackettville Tigers last Friday night took the measure of LaCoste by a score of 13 to 0.

Playing with a slightly changed lineup, which included Johnny Sheedy playing with a broken arm and the Tigers ripped into LaCoste early in the game.

In the first quarter the tigers gained consistently with Jaso sparking the offense. About half through the first quarter, Jaso teed off from the 45 yard line for a touch down and the extra point was made by Montarci.

The second quarter also saw the Tigers again on the move with the team pushing forward to the 4 yard line where Jaso a gain made a touch down. Try for point failed. At the half the score was Brackett 13 LaCoste 0.

The LaCoste team played a better game the second half, but were unable to make much gains. The Tigers were content to hold their gains and on one occasion made a goal line stand for three downs holding LaCoste in three desperate efforts to score from the one yard line.

Fumbles, interceptions and penalties were liberally through the second half. The Tigers showed much improvement and considerable power. The next home game will be with Crystal City October 10.

One of the Best! Casserole of Rice and Luncheon Meat is Tops for Taste!

First in flavor... the tantalizing taste of this Rice and Luncheon Meat baked dish is satisfying, mouth watering, just "out of this world"! Here is sumptuous eating mixed together in minutes and made temptingly delicious by the magic of the oven.

DELIGHTFUL is the fact that the mixing, baking and serving are all done in one and same dish. No extra pots and pans— one dish does the whole job! The oven does the work while the table is set, and the family is rewarded with the exciting goodness of this bubbly rice casserole.

INGREDIENTS:
1 cup uncooked rice
1, 10 1/2-ounce can condensed cream of celery soup
1 1/2 cups grated sharp cheese
1 teaspoon salt
3 1/2 cups water
1, 12-ounce can pork luncheon meat

METHOD: In a shallow baking dish thoroughly mix the rice, celery soup, cheese, salt and water. Cut the luncheon meat into thin slices and arrange on top of the rice. Bake in a 350° F. oven until the liquid has been absorbed by the rice (about 45 minutes). Halfway through the baking make sure the meat slices are on top of the rice so they will brown nicely. Serve hot from the same dish in which the rice and meat were baked.
This recipe makes 6 servings.

Veteran's Questions
And Their Answers

Q—I am the widow of a World War II veteran, and I am receiving GI insurance payments at a certain rate each month over a period of 10 years. My husband chose this method of payment because it seemed best at the time. I find now, however, that I need a good-sized sum of money immediately. May I be paid the rest of the insurance in one lump sum?

A—No. GI insurance may be paid in a lump sum only when the insured veteran himself has made that selection.

Q—I'm a World War II veteran suffering from a nonservice-connected disability. I went to VA and was told that I might be hospitalized—if I waited for a bed to become available and was unable to afford private treatment—but that I could not get outpatient treatment. Why is that?

A—The VA is not permitted by law to give outpatient treatment for nonservice-connected disabilities. On the other hand, a veteran may be hospitalized for such a disability if a bed is available and if he can't afford treatment elsewhere.

Q—I have been attending college, on my own, ever since my discharge in May, 1952. Now that the Korean GI Bill has been passed, may I put in a claim to collect money for at least part of my expenses since last May?

A—No. Under the new law, payments may not be made for any training taken prior to August 20, 1952.

Q—As the widow of a World

War II veteran, I am drawing both VA death compensation and payments under the GI insurance carried by my late husband. I am planning to remarry. Will VA cut off both payments?

A—Your compensation payments will be discontinued upon your remarriage because, under the law, death compensation is payable only to an unremarried widow. But your remarriage will not affect the payment of your insurance. You will continue to receive the insurance check.

Hidden taxes are sometimes called painless taxes. But they are not painless when the taxpayer's wife pays for meat just half again what she would have to pay if there were no taxes on its production, handling and sale.
