That Glorious Rain.

On Wednesday morning of last week, the whole of this section as far as Midland was visited by a glorious rain. For more than two years such a rain has not been seen in West Texas. True it came too late to make the crops that are now being turned into money, but the season put into the ground and the great benefit to the cattle industry, filling up the surface tanks saving the grass and many other blessings it brought, are beyond estimate. It put a smile on every face and rebuked the prophets of evil, who have gone up and down the streets the past two years giving every body, fool enough to listen to their tale of woe, the creeps by day and bad dreams by night. It turned the ceaseless caravan of drifters back toward the setting sun and inspired new hope in every breast and confirmed the faith of the old guard who had seen the prosperity of West Texas wane more than once. And now neighbors there ought to be a valuable lesson in this to us. The seasons of drouth are just as essential to the renewing of the fertility of the country, as the annual overflow was to the land along the Nile and the Mississippi rivers. There are no great rivers in this country to spread their alluvial deposit over the land and every year so nature renews the fertility of West Texas lands by withholding the leaching rains and bringing to the surface by continued aridness, the essentials of lime and potash which are the prime factors of vegetable growth. The part of wisdom would be, knowing these times of renewal must come, to anticipate them and provide against them as did the Egyptians under the direction of Joseph.

The Republican nominee for Congress says: "All the free-trade newspapers in London, according to cable reports, were delighted with the Democratic victory in Maine, because they said it was 'a staggering blow at high protection in America.' Every body knows why Great Britain is anxious to have free trade in the United States. The protective tariff has built up American industries to such an extent that they are now competing with those of the free-trade England. This has been done despite the fact that American wages are much higher than the English wages. It is not well for any nation to pursue a policy which gives satisfaction to its chief competitor."

It is the merest moonshine to think that the best opportunities for making money out of Texas land passed with the passing of the pioneers. There are a thousand opportunities today, where our fathers enjoyed but one. They did not invest in West Texas land because they saw or believed the land would appreciate in value as it has, but for the sole reason that there was nothing else in which they could invest their money or its equivalent. If they had a surplus of anything they did not care to keep, there was no commodity into which they could turn it save land—they could care for a few sections of land that did not eat and would not run off, better than for any other form of wealth. There are ten thousand buyers today wanting Texas dirt where there was one at that time. It requires much more money today to handle large bodies of lands than it did then, but fewer people want to buy on such a large scale. Thirty years ago if a single section of best land in West Texas were offered for sale at any price where would there have been found a buyer. Today a thousand people want less than a section, where one wants more than this amount. The opportunities are here alright, son, have you the nerve to pick them up and hold them? That's the main point in winning out in this bully country.

Umbrella borrowers from August 3, to November 1st and From Feb. 1 to May 1st., while every man who accepts this paper for two years, but when the bill is presented, say: "I never ordered it." may be killed on sight without reserve or relief from valuation or appraisal laws and buried face downward without benefit of clergy.

People who snore should not be dealt with harshly, for it is their only chance of being heard.

Henry Ransome Shoots Attorney.

Houston, Oct. 25.—James B. Brockman, an attorney, was shot and fatally wounded tonight by Henry Ransome, a former ranger and now a special officer employed recently by Mayor Rice. Brockman said Ransome fired on him without warning. Ransome gave himself up and refused to refer to the disturbance in any way. Brockman is known throughout the state as a criminal lawyer. Ransome was engaged by Mayor Rice to investigate the McFarlane case and has been in the city collecting evidence for the prosecution. Ransome was formerly City Marshal of Colorado.

If We Only Knew, and It Costs So Little

When it costs so little to bring happiness to a child and a quicker heart throb and upward glance to some despondent soul or those "in bonds," it is almost a crime to withhold the word or the act. Many a repentant soul has been frightened forever from the ark of safety, or been plunged deeper into the slough of sin just as they were hovering above a sure footing or balanced upon the brink, by the harsh and unforgiving criticisms of those "who think they stand."

Hundreds of men, the victims of overmastering temptations, but who had a desire to live straight and clean lives, have been driven back by the lack of just a word of encouragement or a friendly handshake, at the critical moment. No class of men in this world so strongly appeal to the subtle influences for good, from the outside, as the convicts in our penitentiaries. Many of them are people of gentle breeding, fine feelings and delicate sensibilities, and capable of appreciating to the fullest the force of that bond of sympathy which suffering alone creates.

A few weeks since, a copy of the "Acaede Chronicle" was sent to this office with a request to exchange. We gave some comment on the aim and contents of this little paper, and gladly placed it on our exchange list. Last week the following letter was received which carries its own message to every sympathetic heart:

Rusk, Texas, Oct. 11, 1910
Mr. A. H. Weston, Colorado, Texas.

Dear Sir: I take real pleasure in thanking you for the "Out of the Depths" notice you have given our paper. "Hark, from the tomb, a doleful sound!" would have been very appropriate. I believe that every one, no matter what his position on the social scale does better when he receives a little encouragement. I am sure, we of the lowest do. I want to ask you to investigate parole laws, and if they seem good to you, to help the cause. It is the very foundation of reformation, as you can easily prove by examination of results from other states.

"They say, best men are moulded out of faults." As regards our paper, we are "heavenly unprovided."

Thanking you again, I beg, Sir, to remain,

Yours very respectfully,

Playing With Death.

(Des Moines Capital)
He has a strangely perverted idea of the proper use of the life which God has given him, who will devote it to trifling with death.

The man who shot the rapids at Niagara Falls Monday in a motor boat played the fool. If he had been unsuccessful, he would have been branded as such from one end of the world to the other. Because he has managed to come out alive he is made the recipient of a certain amount of unthinking and hysterical applause.

There are hazards enough in the legitimate occupations in which men must engage without insulting Divine Providence by a wanton gamble with death.

The new White House cow has been named "Pauline" so when the President wants to relieve his feelings he can step to the back door and say, "Nay, nay, Pauline," without offense to office seekers.

The waiter's union has resolved to refuse all tips of "an insulting size." How small does the insult have to be we wonder.

Really the State department ought to have that consul examined, who reports that pearls grow on trees.

Dr. Edwards Killed.

Dr. J. H. Edwards of Westbrook was killed in some unknown manner last Monday night while on his way to visit a patient up in the Cuthbert community, out near the river. He was found dead out on the public highway Tuesday morning, lying just in front of his team of horses, with the buggy hung up on the post that had been placed at the corner of the fence to guard the fence post. The presumption is that he was driving fast around the corner, the buggy wheel was caught on the post and the Doctor thrown out, and his neck broken by the fall.

Dr. Edwards was highly esteemed in the community where he lived and was a very successful physician. His sudden and sad death has cast a gloom over the entire circle of his acquaintance.

Dr. Edwards was a Mason, a member of the Ira lodge and was buried Wednesday morning at Cuthbert with Masonic honors.

He leaves a wife and two children, father and mother and three sisters and a large acquaintance.

The body was found by Rufus Womack about seven o'clock Tuesday morning.

In this instance we are admonished that some casualty may abruptly call us to eternity.

A Voice From Wichita

"I want to see more business and less bitterness put into our legislature" said R. E. Huff, president of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce. "Read the reports of the daily papers during a session of the legislature and you will find hatred, malice, bitterness and ambition prominently displayed in the speeches made by many representatives. Perhaps we have no more of this than any other State, but Texas is the biggest State in the Union, and we ought to lead in intelligence and justice as well as in area and climate.

The legislature is no place for the man with a grudge and our legislative halls ought not to be permitted to become defiled with the vomit of denagoguery. Keep reason on the throne and watch Texas grow."

THE STORY OF A "GILDED FOOL"

"A Gilded Fool" tells the story of a poor youth, suddenly made rich by the death of an avaricious old uncle. The youth starts to make ducks and drakes of his riches as usual. The love of a good woman proves the turning point in his career and he resolves to be something more than an idler. The girl's father has a wicked partner who inveigles the gilded fool into a partnership in the firm. He needs his money for his speculative schemes which threaten the firm with ruin and dishonor, and he so arranges matters that while the firm will be bankrupt, his private fortune will be enhanced.

The girl in the case discerns the truth and warns her lover. He has already signed the checks for his whole bank deposit, but has not signed the co-partnership contract. He refuses to sign and by clever manipulation he so influences the stock quotations that the wicked partner is ruined and exposed and the late fool gets his money back and wins the girl's heart and hand.

Mr. Taylor is singularly happy in his interpretation of the title role for which his mobile features and quaint quiet humor, so eminently fit him.

It is not a one part play such as the star is in evidence. The love story is beautifully developed and the juveniles are a pretty love episode of their own. The dialogue is unusually witty and there is a great character in the detective, who poses as a parson.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES.

We have every right to be proud of our Sunday schools. Mrs. M. K. Jackson has a fine Philathea class of 12 members. These meet each week and are studying the Legion of Honor. Mrs. Scott Greene has lately organized the young ladies of her church into a Philathea class which has already interested a great many of the girls. Prof. Hamilton has the Baraca class of the young men of the Baptist church. This is one of the most important organizations of all. If the young men can be interested and kept in the Sunday school, they will almost certainly enter the church and those who have had the Baraca training will enter equipped for service. And thus they will really be good for something. The Daughters of the King is the name of the married women's class at the Methodist church. They have a fine teacher in Mrs. J. T. Davis and their president, Mrs. McCall is always working in the "King's business." Numbers of the members have been taken from the class for teachers, but they still hold their membership and enjoy the monthly meetings. This class is working for a big rally Sunday and hope to have a number of new members, upon who to pin the International button.

The Presbyterian Ladies are fortunate in having Mrs. Elliott as their teacher and her talks upon the lessons are quite as good as sermons 'tis said. This is also an organized class.

Those who cannot or will not attend Sunday School are looked after by the Home department of the church so it is hard to find a home without the literature. After one becomes interested in the home department, they are almost sure, where it is possible to enter the active work of the Sunday school and it is becoming more and more common to see the parents come and bring the children and all enjoy the school together. This is as it should be as from our Sunday Schools, go out our workers of the future and our workers of today can gain knowledge and strength by thus studying God's word.

The Juvenile Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Saturday with Mrs. Lyon. There was a fine attendance present. An article on the student volunteer movement was read by Miss Lula Merrill. Miss Nora Blandford read a paper on the Young People's Work. Mrs. Merritt read one on the Woman's Foreign Missionary Work. Mrs. Lyon told most interestingly of the Laymen's movement. X-rays on the program were given as questions to the other members and much information gathered. The society decided to have a candy pulling at Mrs. Shaw's early in November. A free will offering or small sum, will be asked for, the amount raised to go on the pledge. It was decided to take up the study of Korea in transition, the lady manager Mrs. Merritt to be teacher. Miss Esther Ayres was welcomed as a new member and the meeting closed after which dainty wafers and punch were served by Mary Lyon and Sara Shaw. The Society will meet the first Sunday at the church and the second Saturday with Mrs. Merritt for the social meeting.

Mrs. Gustine called the Junior Council together Saturday at the Baptist church, but so few were in attendance that no business was transacted. It was decided to meet next Saturday at four o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. Gustines. Mrs. Lyon will conduct the lesson and all primary teachers are asked to be present. The Junior Council was organized by Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins when they were here last and held most instructive sessions until the weather grew so very warm and a number of the teachers left town. It is very fine training for those teachers who have little people under them and should be better attended.

Dr. Gregory of the Terrell Asylum for the insane has offered to come to Colorado and lecture on the Evils of Cigarette Smoking and the ladies of the town are trying to arrange to have him come at an early date. Those who have heard him talk say he is fine and surely when he comes from the Insane Asylum with facts upon this awful habit that is mastering so many of our young men, they will be impressed with the gravity of their case.

Mrs. Sam Majors called her class of young ladies together Tuesday and they resumed the work given up in the summer. This is another of the organized Sunday School classes that is getting ready for the rally Sunday and preparing for a great work this winter in the Christian church. We are indeed becoming an organized force for good.

Dainty invitations, done in Autumn leaves have been received by the members of Mrs. Davis' class of ladies. These read: "The Daughters of the King, Sunday School Class with Mrs. J. T. Davis, Thursday, October 27th, at 4 o'clock."

The Hesperian Club met Friday with Mrs. Wilbur Dupree and a most pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent.

The Standard enjoyed an afternoon of interesting work with Mrs. Hooper, while Mrs. Shropshire was hostess for the Bayview club and the usual work was enjoyed.

Mrs. Radford entertained the Card Club Tuesday at the home of Miss Martha Earnest. The Club misses Mrs. Bell greatly, she having been one of the charter members, the first president and always its most ardent supporter. Mrs. Bell resigned because of ill health. It is hoped that she will soon be able to resume her social duties, as she is greatly missed by her friends.

Mrs. Earnest's home was also the place of meeting for the young ladies "42" Club, Mrs. Tom Morrison being the hostess.

Wednesday, Helen Elizabeth Radford was four years old and her mamma gave her the nicest kind of a party. The mamma's of the youngsters invited had to go with them, so Mrs. Radford had a party as well as her little daughter. The ride out to the country made every little one feel just like playing and of course gave them an appetite, as the games and the good things to eat which came afterward were very much enjoyed. There were a number of pretty gifts and everybody, mamma's and all had an unusually good time.

The garments of the Needle Work Guild were on exhibition Wednesday at Hutchinson's Furniture Store. Eight charities were remembered. Methodist Orphanage, Juliet Fowler, Christian; Rescue Home, Methodist; Files Valley, Presbyterian; St. Matthews, Episcopal; Buckner's Baptist and Union Benevolent. There were over four hundred nice well made children's garments, whole suits of boys' clothing, stockings innumerable, and the nicest kind of warm underwear. Surely every orphan will find something that will just fit him and thereby be made happy. A number of things were placed in Hutchinson's model kitchen and the beauties and conveniences of the kitchen were quite as much enjoyed as the display of garments. The ladies were fortunate in having such a nice place for their display and the directors are to be commended for their efforts in collecting such a large number. A full list will be given next week.

THE BIBLE MEETING
At the Church of Christ is in progress. Good interest. Come and be one to enjoy the benefit of these services. Song service begins at 7:30 p. m. each day until Sunday when there will be services at 11 a. m., 3:30 and 7:30 p. m. Everybody invited.

Heart Felt Religion.

The Witness of the Spirit.
Is There Anything in a Name?
A Man Saved, His Works Burned.
The Wind Bloweth.—Jno. 3-8.
Works and Grace.—Eph. 2-8.
Make it as Sure as You Can.
Preaching by A. R. Lawrence. You are at liberty to ask any questions you choose concerning God's Revealed Word. Come and Hear.

To the Ladies of the Methodist Church
Are you a member of the Home Mission Society? If not, why not? Do you realize the great work given us to do here at home. The foreigners on the Pacific and Gulf Coasts, the Mountaineers, negroes and others of the interior? This is left largely to the women of the church. Don't you want to help? It was decided in the great meeting at Edinburgh, Scotland, that the failure of Missions was due to the lack of interest at home. Is it not time for us to do our duty that the gospel may be preached in the utmost parts of the earth? We must do our work at home that this may be done. The months of October, November and December have been set aside as the time for the membership campaign for the Society. Will you not join us in our good work for "The work the centuries might have done—
Crowds the hour of the setting sun."

D. 1910 in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court, No. 1285, wherein R. H. Looney is the plaintiff and Thomas S. Yeoman is the defendant; the nature of plaintiff's demand being as follows:

AN ERA OF CYCLONIC PRICE SMASHING

Begins Saturday, Oct. 29 Ends Nov. 19

Stop! Read! Think! Unbelievable Facts! Startling Surprises

This is the Third Annual Sale of the Loraine Mercantile Company and will surpass all others. Those who were here last year know how well we keep faith with the people. This fall we are loaded to the guards with seasonable merchandise, which, on account of crop conditions must be TURNED LOOSE. We unhesitatingly and emphatically assert that the bargains in this sale are the greatest in style, variety and genuine value giving ever offered in Mitchell county. We need the money to pay bills and are forced to turn this $30,000.00 stock of finest merchandise into ready cash regardless of former price, cost or value. We have made prices that will stamp this as the greatest of price smashing events ever known in the history of Western Texas.

Sale Begins Saturday, Oct. 29

Continues 19 Days Only

MONEY WE MUST HAVE and if prices will do the work, we will get it by the BARREL, for no such slaughter of goods was ever attempted by a merchant before. Everything in the Store goes—nothing held in reserve. YOU'LL HAVE TO HURRY. There is plenty for all, but big bargains go quickly. Better get in line and come early. Twenty-five extra salespeople will be here to wait on you and we shall do our best to expedite matters, but such a slaughter of prices was never met with before and the roads will be lined with people on foot, a horse' back and in painted wagons, all headed for the big "SCARE 'EM UP SALE." No such money saving event was ever seen before. Make out your list and get what you want at but little cost.

Get In Line--Come First Day-- You Can't Afford to Miss It

Nothing like it was ever attempted before in Mitchell county or the great State of Texas. The stock must absolutely be cut in two to raise cash. It will be AN UNPARALLELED SACRIFICE OF VALUES. No such bargains in new, up-to-date merchandise was ever witnessed. FOR CASH you buy goods in many lines at LESS THAN HALF VALUE. The big red mark of destruction is on each and every article. Not a few leaders, but the "WHOLE SHOOTIN' MATCH GOES." It means the harvest of your lives.

Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats, Clothing

Thrown to the four winds to get Cash. The whole store goes in this great undertaking of ours. Thousands of pairs of SHOES are out in bins and boxes at prices so you can nearly shoe the whole family at about the price of one pair elsewhere. One lot LADIES' SHOES at $1.48 that are worth $2.25 in gold. One lot at $1.79 that couldn't be duplicated for a three dollar bill. Others at $1.98 and $2.39. On each and every pair, we save you 50 cents to $1.50. One big lot Men's Shoes at $1.19 that can't be bought in any other store for less than $2.00. $3.50 and $4.00 values for $2.69 and $5.00 Shoes for $3.48. Children's Shoes don't cost much. We've got 'em at $1.19 per pair and Misses Shoes at $1.19 per pair that makes it so you can all wear shoes. COME and shoe the whole family at but little cost. From the corner to the roof, the whole store is ABLAZE WITH BARGAINS. A wagon load of DRY GOODS, SHOES, HATS, CLOTHING and EVERYTHING that would make the high Sheriff ashamed.

of oiling harness? The old way of oiling was alright but very little oil got into the loops of the harness. Half of the oil was left on the ground and one half was distributed on the harness and your clothes, after you had spent a whole day a very disagreeable job. The oil is worth at least 65 cents and one days wages $2.50, for a job that will not cost you to exceed $1.50 if we do the work. You have no grease to track through the house.

Important Notice to the Baptist Congregation.

It will be remembered that an announcement was made last Sunday that we would take collections for State Missions, the first Sunday in November, instead of the fifth Sunday in October, as was previously announced. This change was made at a late hour after notice was given that the Union Sunday school Rally to be held next Sunday would consume the 11 o'clock hour and hence no regular church service. In view of the fact that we must get our collections in before November the 1st, after consulting some of the brethren, we feel sure that it will be best to begin our collections on Next Sunday night, for State Missions.

We hope for and expect a full representation of our membership and hope every one will come prepared to do their best for this much needed cause. R. BROOME, Pastor.

BURNHAM BRIEFS

There was quite a crowd in town Saturday and business was good. A crowd in town on Saturday is one of the characteristics of our town for the people see how rapidly it is building and know our gin turns out the cleanest and best proportioned bales and the best groceries, dry goods and hardware can be bought from the Burnham Mercantile Company for the least money, so they don't hesitate to drive ten or fifteen miles to our town.

Mr. Frank Lupton has returned from a week's visit with relatives and friends in Colorado.

UNION ITEMS

Delayed from last week:

Hello Mr. Editor: Wonder what has become of citizen and Flunkes. Guess they are both looking after each others interests.

Well Mr. Editor, I hardly know how to interest your readers for there is nothing of a lively nature going on now in this community.

Last week the death angel visited our community and claimed the companion of Mr. J. M. Green which produced sadness throughout the entire community and I feel safe in saying that the people of this community extend deep sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mrs. E. M. McClellan, I learn is still improving.

The general health in this section is good.

We learn that Mr. A. A. Dorn is going to leave this part of the moral vineyard and is going to a region beyond Mr. Press Phenix's to a town called Westbrook where he has accepted a position as cashier of the First State Bank of Westbrook. Our loss is surely Westbrook's gain.

Bro. Ledger came over last Sunday and wound up his year's work at Union.

Mr. Editor, I wish I could tell you something about a crop, but I can't for we haven't got any to amount to anything, but there is one thing that we do know, that is that we don't know how we are to make the landing until another crop comes on and let me now make a suggestion that every good citizen of Mitchell county stand unflinchingly together looking with pride and dignity to each other's interests.

Good wishes to the Record and its readers.

—FARMER

LETTER FROM CAR

Two fine rains here in the past ten days. Wheat and oats looking fine out her.

One of our citizens was in Westbrook not long since and while attempting to cross one of those canyons, in the streets of Westbrook was thrown from his wagon on the double tree and barely escaped being seriously hurt. When this was made known to the people out here they immediately went to work to protect themselves and neighbors and now are having petitions signed, asking for a road district to be laid out which will include Westbrook and we are going to issue bonds to build roads.

I wish to thank the Record in advance for aiding us in this fight.

Now to the people of this territory, one and all: Let's get together and all push and issue $75,000 worth of bonds and build roads for ourselves and neighbors, feeling sure that the Record will grasp a wheel and help us push.

This writer has been advocating a road district beginning at District 1, four miles west of Colorado, dropping south of Colorado and Big Springs road, running west to west line of Mitchell county, following county line to Colorado river on north line of the county and South with river to a point north of the west line of District 1 and south to place of beginning.

We have our petitions all ready and our people are taking hold of the matter in a way and with a vim that insures success. We will vote a 15 cent tax and issue bonds to build the roads. We intend issuing seventy five thousand dollars more bonds, if our valuation warrants.

Our good friend Mr. J. L. Killian, wants it understood, that neither the bureau of the federal government at Washington, the alleged forecaster of the "Gander Bone," nor yet the hords of pretenders, who invariably tinker with the meteorological condition until it gets knee sprung and frazzled at the edges, came within three months of pulling off the recent bully rain. He has known a thing or two all this while and long ago gave it out with many sapient shakes of the head and oracular looks that it was not going to rain on ly on "the full 'o the moon" if it took five years to do it. Therefore, by the authority in the Record, vested, as the "Grand a-Ha" of the Weather Priesthood" friend Killian is hereby voted and will on some ceremonious occasion besting such dignity, be invested with a leather medal bearing on its face his own proper likeness and on the obverse side, a pictorial orbit of the Zodiac.

STORIES OF LESS THAN A CENT A PIECE.

In the fifty two issues of the year's volume, The Youth's Companion prints fully two hundred and fifty stories. The subscription price of the paper is but $1.75, so that the stories cost less than a cent a piece, without reckoning in all the rest of the contents, —anecdotes, humorous sketches, the doctor's weekly article, papers on popular topics by famous men and women.

Although the two hundred and fifty stories cost so little, they are not cheap stories. In variety of scene, diversity of incidents, skill and truth in character depicting, they cannot be excelled.

The announcement for 1911, beautifully illustrated, giving more detailed particulars of these stories, and other new features which greatly enlarge the paper, will be sent to any address free with sample copies of current issues.

Every new subscriber receives free The Companion's Art Calendar for 1911, lithographed in thirteen colors and gold, and if the subscription is received at once, all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1910.

FOOD FOR REFLECTION

Many farmers, some way or other get it into their heads that town business men are the happiest and most prosperous people on earth; get rich by simply reaching out and taking in all the money they want. The farmer gets to brooding over his hard fate, as it seems and thinking that anybody can run a store, because it seems so easy to measure a yard of calico or weigh a pound of tea, sells out the farm and goes to town. Its no trouble to find a man willing an anxious to sell out the remains of a sick stock of groceries, or the remnants of an empty shelved drygoods store and when the farmer first sees his name over the door he leans back against the lamp post with a pencil over each ear and feels large and imagines that his fortune is made. He buys a large stock of every commercial man that comes along, sells mostly on credit to individuals who can't buy a nickel's worth of goods anywhere else in town without cash and at the end of two years finds his stock run down to a low ebb, with nothing to show for the farm he once owned but a book full of worthless accounts, that would sell for probably a cent and a half a pound to the rag man. Broken up and completely demoralized, he becomes a common day laborer in his old age without a ray of hope of ever being able to make another start in the world, sufficient to keep want and poverty from the door.—Hamlin Herald.

Customer—"Have you any fly paper?"
Clerk—"Yes sir. Will you have the Aeroplane Journal or the Aviator's Gazette?"

It seems the irony of fate that the Nashville American, the very organ that formented the issue which resulted in Senator Edward Carmack's death, and about the only newspaper in Tennessee that defended the course of Governor Patterson for pardoning his slayer, has lately been sold, and the Nashville Tennessean, Senator Carmack's own paper put up the cash and bought in the losing plant. To those of us who believe in the retributive justice of God, and that vengeance is at all times in his hands, this seems a palpable justification of that faith. "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

The farmers never get any more for their milk, no matter how much the trust may raise the price in the city to the consumer.

Gerge Gould expresses the sapient opinion that business will improve whether success alights on either Republican or Democratic banner. Another middle of the road man.

After The Grippe

"I am much pleased, to be able to write and thank you for what Cardui has done for me," writes Mrs. Sarah J. Gilliland, of Siler City, N. C.

"Last February, I had the Grippe, which left me in bad shape. Before that, I had been bothered with female trouble, for ten years, and nothing seemed to cure it. At last, I began to take Cardui. I have taken only three bottles, but it has done me more good than all the doctors or than any other medicine I ever took."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

For the after-effects of any serious illness, like the Grip, Cardui is the best tonic you can use. It builds strength, steadies the nerves, improves the appetite, regulates irregularities and helps bring back the natural glow of health.

Cardui is your best friend, if you only knew it. Think of the thousands of ladies whom Cardui has helped! What could possibly prevent it from helping you? Remember you cannot get the benefit of the Cardui ingredients in any other medicine, for they are not for sale in any drug store except in the Cardui bottle. Try Cardui.
