HEAR HIM!

Some of the Wonders I Have Seen.

One of the most wonderful pieces of mechanism I ever saw was at Warnerville, New York, made by E. M. Calkins. It took him twenty years to complete it on a large platform 7x20 feet, constructed so as to represent mountain scenery, rocks, trees, lawns, rivers, cascades, caves and lakes. There are several hundred moving figures of men, birds and beasts. In the center is a life-like facsimile of Washington's residence at Mt. Vernon. On the roof are two beautiful figures carved and painted so as to represent sculptured marble guarding with drawn swords the historic mansion while a gilt eagle perches upon the porch. In a room Washington is lying on his death bed, surrounded by sorrowing friends. In the kitchen are colored servants at work. In the yard are men sharpening their scythes and chopping and sawing wood. Several incidents centered with Indian life are vividly pictured. Railway cars are running and ships with sails unfurled and laden with passengers float in a miniature river. Even Noah's Ark is represented with Noah at the head of the procession marching into it, while on the tree tops surrounding are men and women awe struck at the rising waters. A perfect grist mill in operation is represented, also a country home with the father and mother sitting by the fireside reading by the light of pine knots. The figures are all kept in motion by a small overshot wheel, less than ten inches in diameter. All the figures were carved with a jack knife, several of which were worn out since he began his work.

There is a curious clock in Japan. This clock is in a frame three feet high and five feet long. It represents a noon landscape of great loveliness. In the foreground are plum and cherry trees and rich plants in full bloom. In the rear a hill graded in ascent from which flows a cascade admirably imitated in crystal. From this plant a thread like stream glides along encircling in its winding rocks and tiny islands, but presently losing itself in a far off stretch of woodland. In the sky turns a golden sun indicating as it passes, the striking hours all marked upon the frame below where a slowly creeping turtle serves as a hand. A bird of exquisite plumage resting by its wings proclaims the expiration of each hour. When the song ceases a mouse springs from a grotto near by and runs over the hill, hastily disappears.

A man in England was the owner of an eighth century water clock in the dial of which a door opened at each hour and when at noon the 12 doors were thrown open and as many knights on horseback issued out paraded around the dial, then returning, shut themselves in again.

The Wonders of Korea.

There is a hot mineral spring near Kin Shantao the healing properties of which are believed by the people to be miraculous. No matter what disease may afflict the patient a dip in this water proves effective. The next is two springs situated at a considerable distance from each other, in fact they have the breadth of the entire peninsula between them. When one is full the other is always empty and notwithstanding the obvious fact that they are connected by a subterranean passage, one is bitter and the other pure and sweet.

The next is a cold wave cave, a cavern from which a wintry wind perpetually blows. The force of the wind from the cavern is such that a strong man cannot stand before it.

The next is a forest than cannot be tradicated, no matter what injury is done to the roots of the trees which are large pines. They will sprout up again directly.

The next is the most wonderful of all. It is the famous floating stone. It stands in front of the palace erected in its honor. It is an irregular cube of great bulk. It appears to be resting on the ground free from supports on all sides, but strange to say, two men at opposite ends of a rope may pass it under the stone without encountering any obstacle whatever.

The next is the hot stone from remote ages has lain glowing with heat on the top of a high hill.

The next and the last one is a drop of the "sweat of Buddha." For thirty paces around the large temple in which is enshrined not a blade of grass will grow. There are no trees or flowers inside the sacred square. Even the animals decline to profane a spot so holy.

The great Stratsburg clock of Germany I saw at Grand Rapids, Mich., as I was passing by there. This great wonder was on exhibition there in a box-like frame 3x6 feet. Every hour a different scene comes off. I happened to be there just at 12 o'clock. Just at this minute a door opens near the center and a small figure steps out on a platform representing our Saviour. A second later a door opens at the right and the twelve disciples comes out in single file and marches around in a circle. As each pass the center he turns half around and bows to the Saviour then marches on and goes in another door at the left.

Judas is the last one to march and as he passes the center returns his back on the Saviour and then follows the crowd, but before he goes in the door he looks over his shoulder to see if the Saviour is watching him and then disappears. A band of music could now be heard playing Home Sweet Home. All is still now for one hour. I could have stood there for hours and taken this in but my train was due and I had to leave. I was told that some of the other scenes was the two disciples on their way to Eannus, and the three disciples Peter, James and John at the transfiguration and the ten virgins and so on, different scenes every hour.

SCIENTIFIC FARMING.

Did you ever see a stalk of oats come up in the middle of the road on the public highway where the horses and wagons packed it until it was almost as hard as brick? I did, and it was in the spring of 1910, which was the driest springs I ever saw.

This stalk grew to be about 2 1/2 feet high with a head about 15 inches long. It was perfectly green until time for maturity. I had a small patch of oats on my farm the same year. My land was of the same nature as that on which this stalk was growing. It reined as much in my field as it did on this stalk. I did not make any oats. I decided "there's a reason." I had plowed mine in with a cultivator, covering it some two or three inches and harrowed it until it was level and as loose as a pile of ashes. You could rake up the dirt for a depth of six inches with your foot. As I said before it made no oats and I believed there was a reason besides the fact that it was a very dry spring.

It appeared to me that if one stalk would thrive under certain conditions, that a whole farm would do the same under the same condition.

In October 1910 I sowed my wheat and oats by hand. Had four 14 inch sulky plows following me, and each running as deep as three mules could pull them. Just behind these I ran an "Acme" harrow. This sifted the dirt into all the little crevices. Following this on the same day, I ran a heavy roller. This left the land almost smooth. Both wheat and oats came up to a perfect stand at once. About two weeks after it was up I ran my roller over it again which seemed to pack the dirt nicely around the little stalks. As I said the first rolling made the ground level and when rolled the second time the roller would touch all parts of the ground. This was about December 1st. Let me say here that this farm did not get a drop of rain from October 19, 1910 to February 12, 1911. This made 116 days, and it was all sown after October 19th. During the week following Christmas I ran a section harrow over the entire crop, both wheat and oats, and followed this again with the roller.

On January 2nd we had a freeze that killed all the oats near me, but I don't think that it killed a stalk in my field. The rains in February packed the ground considerably and when it turned dry in March the ground began to crack I harrowed it with a section harrow and a few days later rolled it for the last time.

Now I do not claim this as the Campbell system nor the Gammel system, but am simply telling the way I cultivated my crop; and owing to the fact that I made as good wheat and oats as can be raised in Texas, and that several of my neighbors sowed the same week that I did and failed to make a crop, I believe there is something in it.

All lands in this country are not alike. Some must be worked different to this. The idea in raising small grain crop is to try to keep the moisture in and keep the cold out. Each farmer should study the nature of all parts of his own land, and as Hon. Oscar Callaway told me when I first began to teach school: "Find out the real situation and adjust yourself to the circumstances."—E. B. GAMMEL.

TOM DAVIS IN CALIFORNIA.

Visits San Bernadina and Cawston's Ostrich Farm. Sees Oranges Growing.

Our first glimpse of California was when we reached San Bernadina and beheld for the first time orange orchards and trees and flowers of all varieties. Then a vegetable garden to Riverside where we quit the cars and took in the old Glenwood Mission Inn of old Spanish day construction, though in every way modern in its conveniences. The most unique place of its kind I ever saw. The beauty of its courts of luxuriant California production only, passes description. A drive through the wonderful Magnolia Avenue and palm driveways and through orange orchards with the yellow fruit peeping out from the dark green leaves. The streets are lined with all kinds of large trees and flowers all pretty and all new to West Texas.

Then again we boarded the special coach to leave this garden of Eden. But we were not leaving it, because the luxuriant vegetation reached on to Los Angeles.

The next day we boarded the Pacific electric cars and took in the old, old mission, San Gabriel, beautiful Pasadena with its wonderful flower gardens and costly residences and orchards, and the original ostrich farm of America, known as Cawston's Ostrich Farm.

Some of the huge birds stand nine feet high form their heads to the ground and weigh 350 pounds. Cawston has on exhibition here also $50,000 worth of prepared plumes, the most beautiful I ever saw.

From here we passed back through Los Angeles again and were bound for the world famous Long Branch, 20 miles away. The old Pacific looks terrific at first sight. The water is as blue as indigo. There was a stiff wind blowing and the water came in against the shore in white walls five or six feet high. The moaning of the surf is just like constant heavy thunder. We were going to bathe but the water was too rough and the wind too cold.

Today was the sabbath and we had a day of leisure and of church going. We took an auto ride of 45 miles all over the city and saw the beautiful parks and the most unique residences it has ever been my pleasure to behold. Not any two homes can you find in all this beautiful city of the same design. They are all of a unique pattern though all different.

We went through the famous palm drive, the most wonderful in all the world. The palms are the fan palms and reach the height of our Davis Mountain pine trees. They are thirty years old. The big magnolia trees have huge white blossoms on them as large as the outspread hand. We haven't begun to see California yet!

V. D. Payne made a visit to Colorado Monday between trains.

The only real Fourth of July demonstration in Lorainé was an informal parade of the little folks. They were armed with flags, cow bells and other noisy implements, and they whooped 'em up.

Brings Prompt Aid in Case of Fire

THE farm buildings are often at the mercy of flames. A minute's time gained at the outbreak of a fire, means saving the property. A call on the Bell Telephone saves the precious minutes. The far-sighted farmer appreciates its protection as well as its economic value. The best time to join the army of progressive farmers is now. Consult our local manager.

Fourth of July in Colorado.
The glorious Fourth was enjoyed in various ways by our people, everyone going the thing that best suited him. Numbers went fishing and spent the day on the river lazily enjoying themselves on a quilt in the shade, or out in the broiling sun waiting for a nibble, according to their ideas of restfulness. The largest of these crowds went out to Bailey's ranch to the barbecue. While the boys and girls together with the officers, spent the day at the Play grounds, having all the fun and making all the money they could.

About one hundred and fifty of the old timers went out to Bailey's ranch where an elegant barbecue and other picnic delicacies had been arranged by D. H. Snyder Jr., for the benefit of his friends. Everything was prepared in elegant style. There were tables and chairs for 42 guests, an abundance of ice water, lemonade and beer. The calves were barbecued to a turn and after it had been bountifully served with bread, pickles and onions, an added surprise was given by the serving of ice cream and cake as dessert. Everybody had a fine day, and thoroughly enjoyed the pleasant things so generously prepared for them.

The Playground Association had arranged for an athletic meet for the boys and visiting young men. A few brought baskets and spent the day. The officers had a stand and sold ice cream cones, lemonade, watermelons, sandwiches and chewing gum. A thriving business was done and a neat sum cleared for the Association.

The races, vaulting, jumping and other stunts were much enjoyed by the large crowd of spectators. The funniest things were the donkey races and the sack race. The Association has the grounds in very good condition and is now striving to build a shed that the children and members may be comfortable and those who were out Tuesday will surely be willing to aid in getting the shade as they had a practical demonstration of its need.

Everybody had a celebration and in every case it was a safe and sane one, so Colorado may be classed as up to date in the matter of celebrations as in everything else. We did not hear the explosion of a single fire-cracker, gun anvil or other noise of like character, and the children seemed to enjoy the day as well as if they had burned up a ton of fire works, half the town, and a barrel of money.

Hon. J. F. Cunningham, a prominent criminal lawyer at Abilene, says: "During my active practice for twenty-five years in Western Texas, I have defended 78, and prosecuted 41 men and women charged with murder making a total of 119 cases of murder in which I have been counsel for either the defense or the state. Of this number more than eighty per cent of the homicides resulted from drunkenness on the part of either the defendant or the deceased, and I believe that you will find this to be the experience of every practitioner who has had a liberal and extensive practice be pro or anti.

QUALITY IS ECONOMY

Pants are made for men, not for women. Women are made for men, not for pants. When a man pants for a woman and a woman pants for a man, they are a pair of pants. Such pants don't last. Pants are like molasses—they are thinner in hot weather and thicker in cold. Men are often mistaken in pants. Such mistakes are breeches of promise. There has been much discussion whether pants is singular or plural. Seems to us when men wear pants it is plural and when they don't it is singular. Men go on a tear in their pants and it is all right. When the pants go on a tear it is all wrong. If you want to make the pants last, make the coat first.—Ex.

Last week we published a news item about a rabbit jumping into an auto while at high speed, near Robert Lee, and said we supposed the rabbit recognized some ex-Coke county citizens returning. We have since learned that it was a Tom Green county rabbit strayed over into Coke and as soon as it found that it had crossed the county line, took this method of escaping from the rabbit twisters.

Children's Day at M. E. Church.

The Sunday evening services at the Methodist church was given over to the children, the regular Children's Day in May not having been observed. The altar, choir rail and organ were draped in vines and flowers, the green making a pretty background for the white suits of the boys and girls. The children marched up the aisle singing Happy Day, after grouping on the platform, a prayer was offered by Bro. Lyon, then the children sang "Praise the Lord From Whom All Blessings Flow."

A beautiful responsive reading was given by the Sunday school superintendent and the children. Then all sang God is Love. Godfrey Sprull greeted the grown people. He hoped they would enjoy themselves and not go to sleep. He was cheered in spite of the service being in church. Lorena Smith gave a beautiful reading on Children's Day. The Intermediates gave a lovely chorus, Daisies. The beginners sang very sweetly Little Forgetmenots. This was the very smallest test, and they did marvelously well and looked so sweet and cunning for anything, with their pretty white suits and the wreaths of forgetmenots on their head. Three little girls, Opal Lowe, Mamie Jenkins and Lillian Smith gave us a reading. God is Love, very nicely. Lella Ayers had as her speech, My Baby Brother, and did finely. Carrel Mae Mitchell sang, beautifully, assisted by the intermediate as a chorus. The beginners said a pretty little piece about the uowers for Children's Day, placing their flowers upon the altar. Then the tiny tots sang Little Buds of Praise, after which Mary Jackson sang a lovely solo. Cloize King preached a short sermon on giving, taking as his text God Loves a Cheerful Giver. He told the audience if they wanted God to love them to give liberally upon this occasion and the girls were sent out with the baskets for the collection. Then was given a pretty tableau, The Voices of Children of Our Flag. Eril King, representing Columbia, Claudia Smith the flag of Christ and other girls representing Italy, Russia, Alaska, Mexico, Brazil, Cuba, Japan, China and India, appealing to Columbia for the Cross under which is love and peace. The choir sang America and then the audience sang with them Onward Christian Soldier, after which the benediction was pronounced.

It's so, if you saw it in the Record.

West Texas Log Rolling Association.

The celebration to be held under the auspices of the West Texas Log Rollers Association in Sweetwater, Texas, on August 3, 4 and 5th, will be the biggest event of the kind ever held in West Texas. Arrangements are being made for the largest crowd that has ever assembled to celebrate any event in West Texas. The Association includes 500 W. O. W. Lodges with a membership of more than 40,000. The territory includes that whole of West Texas from Fort Worth to El Paso, and to Amarillo on the north.

A strong program has been arranged. The speakers include the Hon. Morris Sheppard, Judge Lattimore, Attorney General Jewel P. Lightfoot and other leaders in Woodcraft. The best W. O. W. Drill Teams in the state will contest for prizes.

Amusements too numerous to mention will be provided. A big Airplane ascension will be made each day. This alone will be worth the trip to Sweetwater. Baseball games between the best teams in the West will be pulled off each day. Foot races, Potato races Fat Men's races and amusement contests of all will be provided. The celebration will be held in the Sweetwater Mineral Wells Park just south of the business section of the city, where shade and plenty of ice water will be provided for all. You will have no trouble in reaching the city for this event, as here is where the Santa Fe, the Orient and the T. & P. cross. Your friends from all West Texas will be here. Come, join them and enjoy the occasion together.

"Great is Mitchell County, and The Record is its Prophet!"

COLORADO TEXAS, JULY 7, 1911.

I do not accept the argument of the extreme anti that the right of local self-government is violated unless each county is permitted to decide for itself whether or not liquor shall be sold in it, and I am sure the state has just as much right to prohibit the sale of whiskey in every precinct as it has to prohibit gambling and other vices which have been made statutory crimes.—Senator Bailey.

Beeville, Brady, Bryan, Brenham, Corpus Christi, Cuero, Del Rio, Georgetown, Nacogdoches, Palestine, New Braunfels, Port Arthur, San Angelo, Temple and Victoria are to be postal savings bank towns by July 1.

On both sides of the one hundredth meridian south of Potter County north of Tom Green County, and west of Wichita and Palo Pinto counties lie the great plains of Texas, known as Central West Texas, comprising 64 counties in a body in which there is not a saloon, all having adopted local prohibition. We have traveled over this great country, we know its people and their habits of life and no one can truthfully deny the fact that there are fewer bootleggers in this territory than there are thieves and murderers therein and we will further state that there are fewer thieves and murderers in this locality than in any other portion of Texas of its magnitude and population. In this magnificent country prohibition is as well enforced as any other law, and all laws are well enforced therein. This is true with saloons in counties bounding on the north, south and east. The adoption of state wide prohibition would remove the saloons from the immediate border to cities many hundred miles away, thus enabling them to both combat the evil influences of drunkenness and intemperance until they could soon stand in solid phalanx and proclaim to the world that they are a sober people inviting the moral people of other countries to come and make their home with them and help them subdue the richest and greatest undeveloped portion of the Southland.

A great moral wave of temperance reform is steadily spreading over the entire world. We are teaching temperance in the public schools of Texas, and most all the other states. The business world is seeking sober men for its employment. The Christian mothers around the fireside at home are admonishing their sons against the danger of stumbling into the drunkard's grave, and it is the duty of the fathers of the land to lend their aid by voting to remove beyond the borders of this great state, that army of men who stand behind the counters wearing the white apron, an emblem of virtue and purity, while they sell to our people that which first weakens and then destroys body, mind and soul.

BE SURE TO VOTE.

Perhaps one of the greatest things that will help defeat prohibition (if it is defeated) on July 22, will be the indifference of the voters, and especially is this true among the country voters. A great many will say, "It don't make any difference to me; this territory is already dry, and will remain so no difference how the vote goes, so I will not vote." Every prohibitionist should vote. Remember that a dry vote here will kill a wet vote in Dallas. In this election every vote counts and all should remember that the good people in the whiskey centers are praying to be delivered from the saloon curse and the dry counties in Texas have it in their power to rid Texas of the saloons if all will come out and vote. The Record has no shadow of a doubt but that the state will easily go dry on July 22, if everybody will vote. It is the ambition of the pro managers in Mitchell county to make this the banner dry county in all the west, and they, together with the Record, urge everybody to be sure and vote, and not defeat the good cause by indifference.

POLITICS FOR 1912.

As Seen From Anstia. Will Have Opposition for Second Term.

Despite the personal and tearful appeal of a committee of mothers who waited on him in the executive office despite a petition signed by more than 25,000 mothers and sisters and despite the advice of a number of political friends who believe the step is an unwise one, Gov. O. B. Colquitt has taken the stump in an active fight against the adoption of the statewide prohibition amendment. His political opponents charge that it was brewery and saloon money which financed his successful campaign for governor and that it was the influence of the saloon element which secured his nomination and that the governor is only repaying a political debt.

Fight Against Re-election.

The antagonism aroused over the state by his activity on behalf of the anti make it almost certain that he will have opposition for a second term, something unusual in Texas. Most prominently mentioned in that connection are Tom Ball, of Houston, chairman of the prohibition forces in Texas, and former governor Thomas M. Campbell. The latter is as active in campaigning the state on behalf of the prohibition amendment as Colquitt is against it. Very few think that Campbell will offer for a third term and believe that his activity at present is to line up the prohibition element in the state in his behalf if he makes the race for the United States senate against senator Joseph W. Bailey, which it is generally conceded he will.

There is considerable opposition to Gov. Colquitt from many other sources than the prohibitionists. He is generally considered to be too friendly with the interests which Joe W. Bailey represents, and many think that these corporations especially the reorganized Waters-Pierce Oil Company, are getting a little too strong a hold on the state. It is also charged that the governor is exceptionally friendly to the interests of John H. Kirby, of Houston, who is the lumber king of Texas, and whose companies in this state are generally supposed to be a portion of the lumber trust.

Legislature Opposed.

The special session which will meet immediately after the prohibition election, July 22, will add fuel to the fire. The legislature is known as a Campbell legislature. While Gov. Colquitt was elected, a majority of the legislature is opposed to his views and none of his pet measures were passed. Even the appropriation bill was passed out.

The question of reappportioning the state and thus wielding the ax so as to eliminate some of the members of the federal house of representatives who are opposed to Bailey, will also come up for action. The last bill was so drawn up to place several of the present congressmen in the same district, thus making it impossible for both to return to the lower house. This was done in the districts of Congressmen Hardy and Henry, Congressmen Elyden and Calloway and others. The counties in which other congressmen were resident were also trimmed as to benefit the aspirations of some of the Bailey supporters in the legislature who were anxious to go to congress. Snug little districts were carried out to order for Lieut. Gov. Davidson of Cuero and state Senator Hundspeth of El Paso. This is certain to keep the Bailey issue at a white heat during the session of the legislature.

The platform of the Bailey opponents will be on the grounds that no public official has a right to receive fees from the great public service corporations and trusts and an attack on Bailey for supporting Lochner.

The special session will last during all August. At the end of that time it can be pretty well ascertained just how the leading politicians will line up both in the United States senator race and on the governor's race. All indications now are that Texas is in for a warm time during 1912 so far as politics are concerned.

Your ad in the Record will get Request Declined.

Austin, Tex.—Governor Colquitt refused to cancel his engagement to speak at an anti-prohibition rally, to be held here tomorrow night. The request came in the form of a petition signed by 900 church women.

Big Decrease in Saloon Licenses.

San Antonio, Tex.—Twenty-two saloon men in San Antonio and Bexar county were refused new permits by County Judge Phil Shook. Their present licenses expire July 28.

Cause and Effect.

Local questions are local questions, pure and simple, and must always remain so. Murder, theft, robbery, arson and a number of other things that are wrong per se, and over which no community has any right to legislate in a local way are altogether different from such questions as a hog law, a cow law, a fence law, or selling whiskey, all of which are local options pure and simple.—Texarkana Courier

Then let's be consistent. The state doesn't license the running at large of hogs and cows.

The state doesn't send a man to the penitentiary for violating the hog law.

It has been our contention for years that the State should go out of the liquor business.

Then the selling of whiskey might easily be made a local question, just as many other questions are local, pure and simple.

It is a great mistake when the government goes into partnership with any business.

Just as protection raises up an army of socialists, so does the license system raise up an army of prohibitionists.

Cause and effect were here at the beginning and they will be here when Brother Gabriel blows his horn.

We contribute considerable space this week to the cause of prohibition. We really have but one more issue before the election and may see even more next week, after which this issue will be settled for some time to come. It is a matter of very great importance to every citizen of Texas, be he rich or poor, big or little, male or female. In fact it is one of the most important things Texas has ever "went up against" and for this reason we feel that our readers will appreciate the fact that the Record has been giving its space liberally for the cause of what we believe to be right, and the best thing for the people of this great State. We urge every citizen to go to the polls and vote, so that Mitchell county will make a good showing when the votes are counted on July 22. Let us be able to say that old Mitchell nobly did her part, whatever may be the result.

Peck's Potatoes.

Mr. J. P. Peck of Sulphur Springs has just marketed nine acres of potatoes which brought one hundred bushels to the acre. The net profit which Mr. Peck realized from his nine acres after deducting the cost of cultivating, fertilizing, etc., was six hundred and ninety-four dollars, and the land is now planted in cotton. There are unlimited possibilities for the diversified farmer in Texas and the experience of Mr. Peck is only one out of many hundreds throughout the state.

Milam County Good Roads.

The Cameron Commercial Club has a good roads movement on foot and has employed an expert engineer who visited that city inspected the roads in the precinct and the local supply of road building material. His report was highly satisfactory and an election will be called in the near future for the purpose of voting bonds to build roads in Milam county. The good roads question is gathering momentum as it rolls along and scarcely a county in the state but what has either recently held an election or is preparing for one.

Editor C. C. Watson of the Midland Reporter spent a day last week in Colorado, the guest of the Record force. Mr. Watson is an exceptionally good newspaper man and edits one of the newest and brightest papers in the west. His paper is at all times well edited and neatly printed, and is worth more to Midland than any other one thing in the town. Just this week we received his special Fourth of July and Educational Edition, profusely illustrated and of which we will have more to say next week.

Texas Play Ground.

Port Arthur is building a Texas play ground on Sabine Lake. They will spend a quarter of a million dollars in constructing a pleasure pier a mile out in the water. It will cover an area of ten acres and will be supplied with up-to-date park equipments. Our ports are our play grounds, for people will always love to congregate where land and water meet.

The Honey Bee

The honey bee is nature's factory, and this family of insects is the only one which completely manufactures and stores a product ready for the market without the aid of man and the ingenuity of the human race has never been able to imitate its products. So completely does it monopolize the manufacture of honey that in all probability it operates in direct violation of our anti-trust laws.

Like the human race, there are many drones in the colony, but as a whole the bee is the highest type of energy, thrift, and enterprise in the animal kingdom and it leads in intelligence, foresight and business efficiency.

They are the most orderly and best governed of any class of animals, not excepting the human race. Their methods of government form the basis of the constitution of every civilized nation on the globe, and so perfect is this primitive system of government that no changes in or additions to their laws have been necessary since the beginning of creation and they have fewer and better laws than any other organized form of animal society. The "spirit of the hive" is oftentimes more conducive to peace and industrial activity than public sentiment of civic communities.

The Texas Almanac of 1910 estimates that we have 600,000 swarms valued at $2.17 each, making a total value of $1,284,000, and last year the output of honey and wax sold for $3,500,000. This is a return of 58 per cent on the investment. No banker or broker will undertake to compete with them in dividends and money invested in an apary is as safe as in a bank vault. No domestic animal or insect has been able to approach the honey bee as a revenue producer and none can compare with it in popularity of product.

The climate of Texas permits the bee to work 365 days in the year and the soil produces blossoms, buds and flowers for these little harvesters to reap the entire year. The natural vegetable growth of Texas is rich in honey products and no country on the globe is better adapted by nature to apiculture than Texas.

A CHALLENGE.

F. S. Keiper of the Studebaker Garage challenges any car in this county for an endurance race from Colorado to Abilene. This includes any car in the county against his E. M. F. 30. All who wish to enter can put up $25 as an entrance fee and the car making the trip in the shortest time gets the prize; amount of oil and gasoline used on the trip is to be taken into consideration. He further challenges any car in the county to compete against the E. M. F. 30 in hill climbing or going through sand. Talk is cheap, but it takes money to buy automobiles. Are you in for the Abilene race? Judges and preliminary arrangements to be arranged by the contestants. The race to be made against time, only.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The House of Representatives is still "marking time" waiting upon the committee on ways and means to report a bill reducing the cotton schedule, the committee having begun consideration of the measure the moment the woolen schedule was sent to the Senate. Conditions in the upper branch of Congress continue chaotic although the defeat of the amendment offered by Senator Root, to the Canadian reciprocity pact, insures its passage when the time comes to vote, by an exceedingly large majority, by one placed as high as forty. The bill will not be changed in either form or verbiage, the desire of Senator Penrose, chairman of the powerful committee on Finance being to put it through the Senate without the change of an "I" or the crossing of a "t." This is President Taft's desire and he has been ootspoken in his opposition to any amendment to the bill that many legislators have come to see the wisdom of the suggestion and are falling in behind the President and are marching with him to victory.

What will become of the so-called farmer's free bill and the bill amending Schedule "K" known as the woolen schedule is wholly guess work. Senator Penrose wants to vote on these bills but certain of the progressive republicans are unalterably opposed to the bills as they came from the House and they will fight the proposition of a vote to the last ditch. Notice having been served on the progressive republicans by the democrats in the Senate, that they cannot expect any aid or comfort from them, in view of their attitude on reciprocity, the progressives seem to be hopelessly divided and close observing newspaper men, who have been playing the game of politics for years in Washington, see the disintegration of the insurgent wing of the republican party not very far ahead. Should a vote be taken on Canadian reciprocity by the middle of the last week of July there are those who believe that Congress could get away by the middle of August with votes on the farmer's free list and woolen schedule bills. Should the Senate however get into a tangle Congress might run all summer, the extra session lapping over into the regular session which begins on the first Monday in December which falls on the fourth this year. At this time it is utterly impossible to tell when Congress will "fold its tents like the Arabs and silently steal away."

For the next few days Beverly, Mass., will be the summer capital of this "great and glorious republic," the President and his family having gone to their summer home in the old bay state on Friday. President Taft will "commute" between Beverly and Washington for the "week ends" while Congress is in session and after he gets the National Legislature off his hands will settle down to daily golf playing until he starts on his "swing around the circle" in the fall.

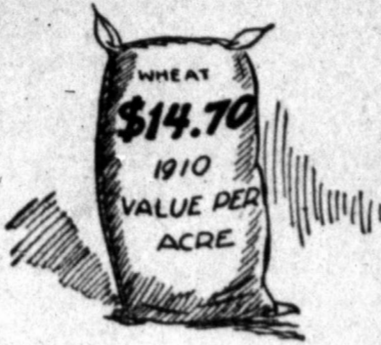

Gov. E. F. Noel of Mississippi, writing to Secretary Ellison of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, commending the work of that association in exciting a lively interest in waterway development, says: "I believe in a fixed governmental policy entrusted to a nonpartisan board. In this way a permanent system of improvement could be planned and executed. A shifting system, changing with each congress cannot result in a permanent and beneficial public policy. Since the establishment of the postal savings system 800 postoffices have been designated to receive savings and 850 banks applying to be made depositories have had their securities approved by the Board of Trustees for the system. The postoffices thus far designated are of the second class. The Postmaster General will soon designate one first class office for each state to receive deposits. The main consideration in the selection of the office for this designation will be the size of the business in money orders for foreign destinations, one of the principal reasons for the establishment of the system being to persuade foreign-born workmen to keep their money on deposit in this country. The business of the postal savings offices first established—one for each state—was largest up to May 31 in the western mining towns, such as Leadville, Colo., Anaconda, Mon., Globe, Ariz., and Carson City, Nev. Leadville's total deposits were $61,897. The smallest deposits were at Rome, Ga., $10 being the total.

The New Market.

This week the Beals have been hard at work moving and getting the New Market in shape, ready to open up. They say now that it will be ready some time between the 15th and 20th. The Cold Storage being put in will enable them to keep in stock all the time the best of meats, fowls and game in season, vegetables, butter, eggs, etc., and give the public the best market service possible. Next week we will publish the opening date.

Texas Wheat

The increase in the world wheat acreage has not kept up with the increase in population during the past decade and students of economy tell us that we must increase our wheat acreage or face a bread famine. According to estimates of the Federal agricultural department's reports, in 1910 the wheat fields of the world harvested 3,667,494,000 bushels, which makes 2.5 bushels per capita. In Texas we raised 18,780,000 bushels, which is approximately five bushels per capita.

An examination of the wheat acreage planted in Texas each year for the past three years shows an irregular and volcanic condition. In 1908 we harvested 924,000 acres, in 1909 there were 555,000 acres harvested, and in 1910 we harvested 1,252,000 acres, indicating sudden and rapid changes in our wheat acreage.

Our wheat crop ranks third in value of Texas' agricultural products and has a farm value of $18,404,000. We produced fifteen bushels per acre and the farm value was $14.70 per acre.

Texas Oats

Our oat crop ranks fourth in value. In 1910 we had an oat acreage of 695,000, producing 24,325,000 bushels, farm value $11,435,000. Our oats yielded thirty-five bushels per acre and a farm value of $16.45 per acre.

Texas is fast taking its place among the cereal producing states in the Union.

NEW FAST TRAIN ON T. & P.

Improved Passenger Service Will be Added to This Road at an Early Date, is the Report.

According to rumors which seem authentic, double daily passenger service from Fort Worth to El Paso will soon be inaugurated by the T. & P. Ry. According to report, it is planned to make through trains of passenger trains No. five and six, which are made up in Fort Worth and run to Toyah, and put them on a much faster schedule. Many stops will be eliminated, county seats being the only points where these trains will stop for passengers. The distance from Ft. Worth to El Paso is 614 miles, and if this program is carried out, the time of daily train, which stops at every station en route, can be shortened five hours or more.

It is also stated that passenger trains No. 7 and 8, between Ft. Worth and Sweetwater, may operate through this city under this plan.

If this improved service is established it will be greatly appreciated by the patrons of the road, and in course of time it will divert much of the California traffic from other roads which have been holding same by reason of better service and a faster schedule.—Big Springs Herald.

The new train service on the T. & P., we learn, will go on July 16th, arrangements to that end being rapidly perfected.

The new time card, however, we are informed, does not show that the train which now stops at Sweetwater will be run on to this city.

The new fast train will be equal to the finest of any road in the country and is bound to be a drawing card for the T. & P. in the way of a big increase in traffic.

Mrs. Allen and the "Kids."

Wednesday evening Miss Lillie Allen had ten couples of the "kid crowd" over to her home just to have a good time, they certainly enjoyed every minute. Mr. and Mrs. Allen are such delightful entertainers that it is always a pleasure to the young people to go there. The whole house is theirs, and they take control of it, and always have a good time. They did a number of things Wednesday evening and it was late before the refreshment course had been served and the last good night was said.

For a good cigar see E. B. Morgan.

Hon. A. W. Terrell Hands the Governor a Hot One.

He rather broadly intimated that Mr. Colquitt used his position as railroad commissioner to boost his candidacy for governor, and here are some of the things he said in this connection:

"With such a record, Mr. Colquitt wanted to go higher, and he had a right to look for help to the purses of the liquor corporations he had enriched; he would not resign as railroad commissioner, and if beaten for governor he could punish their ingratitude by making them pay for their 'empties' hereafter.

"Now, mark the result. The ablest lawyers in Texas represent before the railroad commission the great corporations. They are muzzled, sidelined and chloroformed and kept away from the conventions and forced to vote for the nominee, for if Colquitt was not nominated he would still be on the railroad commission to fix freight charges for the railroads, for he refused to resign as commissioner. See? Not one word was heard against him from Perkins, Garwood, Parker, Baker and the other great lawyers of the corporations, for if Colquitt was beaten as governor he might remain as an avenging fury on the commission to punish their corporate clients."

The Woman's Base Ball Game

Last Wednesday evening about one thousand men, women and children went over in South Colorado to see the St. Louis women play ball against the home team. About all we can say of this game is that it was a farce on the national game of base ball. The women could not play ball, and the men they had in the team, who were supposed to really play the game, were dubs, and could not get the ball with a bushel basket. But then they did not come with any intention or hope of beating the Colorado boys, in fact they did not care whether they beat or not, as they already had the money before the game started, and we presume that is what they were after, and if so they ought to be well pleased because they got it. Not only a big crowd from town, but many from Lorraine and the country was in to see them. The score was six to two in favor of the Colorado boys, and could have been 12 instead of 6 if the boys had been interested in the game. The novelty of the thing is all that brings the people, as the team is rotten when it comes to playing ball. We predict that should this aggregation come to Colorado next year, the crowd will be not half so large. We will say however that the game was nicely and quietly conducted, and all who paid their money were very well pleased, though as far as we are concerned we had much rather see a good tilt between Colorado and Lorraine, any day. In the third inning, Walter Whiplkey, who was pitching for Colorado, and had just made a score, became overheated and had to be carried home, but he is now recovered. Strong Arm Bob Cooper took his place. If Mr. Gibbs wants to hold the patronage of West Texas fans he will have to get a better ball team than he has.

Sub-Irrigation in Texas.

N. Y. Seymour of Piedmont, Nueces county, is successfully cultivating an orange grove by means of sub-irrigation, which method is fast gaining favor in this state. The grove consists of 18 acres and is in the heart of the citrus fruit district of Texas. By means of sub-irrigation it is claimed that the moisture is retained longer and that it is possible to apply intensified farming methods in the strictest sense of the word. Sub-irrigation is practically a new enterprise in this state and is as yet in its infancy, having been introduced in the state a little less than two years ago. The experiment has been tried in Kansas and other neighboring states and the farmers of Texas who have tried it out so far declare that the results are satisfactory.

The subject of irrigation is one of the most important questions before the farmers of Texas and with the broadening out of the scope and possibilities of man's substitute for rain, that section of Texas where rainfall is insufficient may be made to blossom like a garden of roses.

Notice of Sale.

The Texas & Pacific Railway Company will, at 10 a. m. July 17, 1911, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand at its local freight office at Colorado, Mitchell county, Texas, one car Portland cement now stored at Farmers Union Warehouse, said cement originated at Galveston, Texas, consigned to Colorado Salt Company, Colorado, Texas, and refused by consignees when tendered for delivery; the above sale to satisfy freight demurrage and other charges. The order to sale will be carried out on date mentioned, unless charges are satisfied and disposition furnished prior to hour of sale.

Mrs. Burns Entertains.

On Friday evening Mrs. F. M. Burns most hospitably entertained in honor of Mrs. Marcus Snyder, Miss Marguerite Looney and Miss Frances Evans. The beautiful Burns' home smiled out a welcome to each guest and this was made more cordial by the host and hostess, and the receiving line, which greeted them upon entering. In the line were the hostess, Mrs. Looney and the guests of honor, Miss Evans being a visitor at the Looney home.

Tables were arranged for 42 and after enjoying this for awhile, dancing was indulged in by those who cared to dance, and the music was so inspiring that everybody wanted to whether they danced or not. A delicious and refreshing punch was served, Mrs. Crockett presiding with dignity and grace at the punch bowl. At the close of the evening a lovely refreshment course was served in the dining room. Everything was just as nice as could be and each one present most thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Hot, Dry and Spirty.

As the Record goes to press Thursday evening the liquid in the tube is up 'round the 100 notch. It is dry, hot and sultry; not a bit of rain since the 28th of April. DeVoe says 6th, 7th hot and sultry, 8th to 9th hot and sultry, on the 10th a storm will form over the Ohio Valley, 11th to 12th heavy thunder storms. Mr. Killian says it will rain in Mitchell county before the 11th. Dr. Weston has lost his barometer and has resigned his position as forecaster until he returns from his East Texas trip, where he will learn some new weather stunts. We had predicted for the Fourth, but as we fell down, we will now wait until we see it come before we again go up against the manipulator of West Texas weather.

Rev. A. L. Phillips, Secretary of Sunday school work for the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, U. The public is invited to all these services. The Sunday school workers and pupils are urged to hear Dr. Phillips. It is not very often we get such men as Dr. Phillips to come this way, so be sure to take advantage of this opportunity. Don't fail to hear him.

PROHIBITION SPEAKING OLIVER WAYNE STEWART

Famous Orator and Lecturer Will Speak at the Tabernacle on Sunday July 16, at 3 P. M.

Arrangements have been made to have the famous and well known orator, Oliver Wayne Stewart speak at the tabernacle at 3 o'clock p. m. Sunday July 16, on prohibition. Mr. Stewart is a member of the Illinois legislature, an orator of ability and a man of national reputation. Some of the press comments are:

"He has wonderful command of language, excellent delivery, and the faculty of making his declarations convincing.—Chicago Evening Journal.

"It was reserved for Oliver W. Stewart to deliver the most interesting speech of the day, judging by the attention and applause that greeted it."—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

"He was applauded repeatedly, and at the conclusion of his speech was cheered long and loud. His speech was the oratorical feature of the proceedings."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

"The speaker was conservative; flashes of wit followed each other in close succession, and the house applauded and laughed. He spoke with a rapidity that overtook the stenographers, yet every word he uttered was so distinct that it was heard in the farthest corner of the hall. In construction, in following the rules of oratory and speech, in style, diction and delivery, he was almost perfect. His personal presence was admirable. The stories he told were in graphic and telling language, and the morals they taught were driven home with short, sharp sentences. He never lost the thread of his argument. Every detour brought him back to the place where he had started; he connected his discourse with a master's voice."—Springfield (Ill.) News.

CONTROLLER GIVES DATA

Showing Comparative Conditions That Have Resulted From Dry and Wet Counties.

We had on September 1, 1910, 3578 convicts, 1451 of which were from the 162 dry counties, the remainder, 2127, are from the 83 wet counties.

The State Institutions for Training Juveniles has 201 inmates, 59 of which are from the 152 dry counties; the remainder, 142, are from the 83 wet counties.

The Southwestern Insane Asylum, at San Antonio, has 1105 inmates, 303 of which are from the 162 dry counties; the remainder, 802, are from the 83 wet counties.

The State Insane Asylum at Austin, has 1491 inmates, 503 of which are from the 162 dry counties, 988 are from the 83 wet counties.

In the year 1890 on November 1st, the population of Texas was 2,235,527 with a penitentiary population of 2,200, or one for each 698 5-8 inhabitants. In the year 1900, in November, Texas had a population of 3,048,710, with a penitentiary population of 4,129, or one for each 738 3-8 of population.

On September 1, 1910, Texas had a population of 3,896,562 with a penitentiary population of 3,578 or one for each 1098 1-35.

I find the average tax rate in the 162 dry counties to be 41 3-8 cents on the $100 valuation. In the 62 wet counties it is 42 4-5 on the $100 valuation. In the 21 totally wet counties, 46 1-20 on the $100 valuation.

Hoping that this will serve your requirements, I beg to remain,

Yours truly,
W. P. LANE, Comptroller.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

THE STATE OF TEXAS:—To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon W. K. Lewis, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof in some newspaper published in Mitchell county, Texas, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of said Mitchell county, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Colorado, on the 3rd Monday in December, A. D. 1911, the same being the 18th day of December, A. D. 1911, then and there to answer Second Amended Original Petition of Plaintiff filed in said Court on the 3rd day of July, A. D. 1911, Amending her original Petition filed in said Cause November 7th, 1910, in a suit numbered on the Docket of said Court No. 1269, wherein Mary Lewis is Plaintiff and W. K. Lewis is Defendant. Said Second Amended Petition alleging that Mary Lewis is now and was at the time of the filing of said Original Petition, a bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas, and a citizen of Mitchell county, Texas, and was such bona fide inhabitant of said State and of said county for more than six months next preceding the filing of said original Petition and said Second Amended Petition. That Plaintiff and Defendant were married in the year of 1884 in the State of Connecticut and lived and cohabited together as husband and wife until about August 5th, 1904. That on said last named date Defendant left Plaintiff voluntarily with the intention of abandoning her, and that since said time they have not resided or cohabited together as husband and wife, and Plaintiff does not know the whereabouts or residence of the said W. K. Lewis. That since said abandonment Defendant has not contributed to Plaintiff's support or aid or assistance in anywise whatever. That about March 1st, 1906, Defendant having contracted the habit of using intoxicants to excess came home drunk and without excuse or cause therefor became enraged and whipped and beat and bruised Plaintiff. That during said year and the three succeeding years, the exact dates of which are not remembered and cannot be given by Plaintiff definitely, and while intoxicated as aforesaid, Defendant cursed, abused, and ill-treated Plaintiff, often beating, bruising and slapping her and threatening to abandon her. That about August 5th, 1904, Defendant in a drunken fit of anger assaulted Plaintiff and with a rock or some other hard substance beat and bruised Plaintiff by striking her in the face and on her eye, and nose therewith and did thereby cut, mangle and greatly bruise plaintiff's face, from which she suffered great pain, shame and grief. That Defendant's conduct towards her was such that their future living together was rendered insupportable. That during Plaintiff's marriage relations with Defendant, she treated him with kindness and forbearance, was thoughtful and attentive to her said husband and did all in her power to render their home and living together happy and pleasant, but notwithstanding all this, Defendant without cause or excuse therefor, beat, bruised, and cursed and abused Plaintiff in total disregard of his marriage vows, and finally abandoned her as hereinabove stated. That Plaintiff in her own right owns real estate and personal property in Mitchell county, Texas, some of which it is necessary for her to dispose of to pay her debts and it is extremely necessary that she be granted a divorce. Plaintiff sues and prays for divorce against Defendant, for costs of suit, and general and special relief. Plaintiff also files affidavit as provided for by law to the effect that the residence of W. K. Lewis is unknown to her, and asks that the said W. K. Lewis be cited by publication herein.

Herein fail not, but have before this Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Colorado, this the 3rd day of July, A. D. 1911.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of known composition. No counterfeit is as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.

LOCAL NOTES

Austin College Quartette Coming.
This quartette will be here on Friday night, July 21. The College boys have already filled several engagements and reports from these different places pronounce them one of the best quartettes ever heard in the state. Following are the boys composing this quartette: T. M. Cunningham, First Tenor; Hugh Cunningham, Second Tenor; W. M. Anderson, First Bass; S. L. Anderson, Second Bass. The programme will be varied, being made up of college songs, both humorous and sentimental, with enough classical productions to make up a program that will be enjoyed by all. There will also be some instrumental pieces which will be a treat to those hearing them. Announcements as to the prices, time, place and boys will follow next week.

Now is the time to try a sack of White Crest Flour. It is the best.
COLORADO MER. CO.

Our good farmer friend, H. D. Womack, came in on Friday last and had the Record sent to Mrs. J. B. Smart at Admiral. They brought with them a sample of some mighty fine plums and reported watermelons getting ripe. Mr. Womack always raises plenty of good things to eat, regardless of rain and he has what is known as a shiny farm, which will some day be proven to be the best land in Mitchell county.

FOR SALE—120 chickens, mostly broilers, at 15 cents each. See me at once. T. L. HAMILTON.

Mr. Walter Davis, who has been operating the Record linotype machine, has accepted a position with the Abilene Daily Reporter, and left last Friday night for that place. The machine is now being manipulated by A. L. Whipkey, who can "make good" on the machine when he has to do it.

Some Consolation.
Be a stayer. If anyone is considering the advisability of leaving west Texas on account of it being a little dry, they should have a talk with Mr. R. P. Price at the Colorado Mercantile Company. Mr. Price has just returned from a trip up in old Grayson, Lamar and Collin counties, three banner counties in Texas; and reports a complete feed failure. He says from Dallas north not a bushel of corn will be made, and this is their only feed crop. The cotton in and around Paris does not look as well as ours, and that many of the towns, and portions of the country are short on water.

Altogether west Texas is far ahead of any portion of north Texas, and if you are thinking of looking for a better place you had better investigate before you leave.

Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed and cannot be obtained when on board the cars or steamships. For sale by all druggists.

Children's Day at Vincent.
A very interesting Children's Day service was held at the Vincent Baptist church Sunday. A good program had been prepared for the occasion which was nicely carried out by the children. A fine dinner was served on the ground. In the afternoon county Judge, M. H. Morrison of Big Springs delivered a very interesting discourse on a number of topics, which was greatly enjoyed by the crowd. Quite a number attended from this neighborhood.

Happiest Girl in Lincoln.

For sale by all dealers.

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
Any persons wanting the services of Dr. J. M. Britton, specialist in diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, can see him in the office of Dr. N. J. Phenix Sunday, July 9, Dr. Britton will be here only one day.

A Record Breaker.
This is to certify that I and my two sisters, have run our E. M. F. 30 654 miles, consuming 38 gallons of gasoline and 2 1/2 gallons of lubricating oil. Total cost, $5.43. Less than one cent a mile, an average of 17 4-19 miles to one gallon of gasoline.—R. E. BEAL.
Mr. Kelper considers this a record breaker as he considers 13 miles is a good average for any new beginner.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be lost forever. No case out of ten are cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

Supper at Seven Wells.
A gay crowd of people went out to Seven Wells Monday evening for a moonlight pic nic. Mrs. A. J. Payne and Mrs. F. B. Whipkey were the chaperones and took good care of the youngsters. All had a lovely time. A delicious lunch on the rocks, the cosy nooks, where whispered nothings might be poured into listening ears, to whom they sounded sweet and pleasant. The gay ride home in the cool moonlight and the beginning of the Fourth almost before the third was ended. Still it is good to be young, and good to enjoy the sweets of youth, and nothing is more enjoyable these hot days than an evening spent there cooling waters flow.

Card of Thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Witten take this method of expressing their thanks to the good people of Mitchell county for their help in this our time of need. The dwelling in which we lived was consumed by fire and we lost everything we had, even to our clothing, and the chickens in the yard; but a liberal donation was made, which enabled us to go to housekeeping, and everyone so contributing has our heart felt thanks, and we hope to so live as to be able to return in part, at least the favors bestowed. Thankfully,
