COLORADO, TEXAS

The Ladies Aid met on Wednesday afternoon instead of Thursday on account of the Woman's meeting at the Association, which meets at Loraine this week.

The old officers had good reports and the new officers took charge.

The leading feature of the work of the evening, after the reports had been made, was planning for the bazaar which will be held some time the first or middle of December. The ladies realize that they will have to work to make it the success it has always been, and ask that the other ladies co-operate with them. They are planning all kinds of things, and especially will the little folks be provided with animals. Mrs. Keathley will have charge of the menagerie, and asks that the orders be given before hand, as it takes quite a while to make them properly, and she wants to know how many and what kind to make. Any kind can be made and your orders before hand will be appreciated. Anyone having seen the animals last year will remember how nearly perfect they were. Mrs. Broom was appointed to work for the Foreign Mission Journal and other periodicals that would educate the members on missionary lines. Every lady of the church should be a reader of the journals and should attend the meetings some. If not possible to attend all of them. Quite a number of the ladies will attend the association and two of our own members are on the program. The report for the year work is as follows:

Foreign Missions.....$ 32.50

Home Missions.....	22.65
Self Denial Week.....	21.99
State Missions.....	54.25
Associational Missions.....	45.75
Associational Mexican Missions.....	26.99
Ministerial Education, Simmons College.....	5.99
Girls Industrial Home.....	49.99
Aged Ministers.....	7.99
Buckner's Orphan Home.....	154.99
Boxes Buckner's Orphan Home.....	194.55
Special Offering to China.....	2.50
Training School Louisville.....	2.50
Margaret Home.....	1.99
Assisting other churches.....	19.99
Local Church Work.....	75.99
Miscellaneous.....	49.15
Associational Dues.....	3.39
Total.....	$779.49

Each one present resolved to stand by the new officers, and wished that every member of the church would co-operate to the extent of their ability.

Fred Woodmansee Returns.
It is with a great deal of pleasure that I announce the return of Mr. Fred Woodmansee to Colorado, and the fact that he will again do the bench work at my jewelry store.

Mr. Woodmansee needs no introduction to the people of Colorado or Mitchell county, as his work among them for several years is the best recommendation of his ability, while his genial personality, quiet and gentlemanly ways made him a favorite with all who came in contact with him. There is no better nor more reliable workman in West Texas than Fred Woodmansee. Our Colorado repairing department will be entirely under his charge which is the most dependable guarantee possible for honest work at the most conservative prices.

In this connection it may be well to state that my Colorado store will in no wise suffer either attention to detail or variety of stock by the deviation of my business. The stock will still be kept up to that standard of excellence that has made it the leading jewelry emporium of West Texas. If any change is made at all it will be for the betterment and enlargement of the stock, both in variety and volume.

Bring you repair work—the more difficult it is the more anxious we are to get it. We guarantee the best work that human skill and ingenuity can effect.

With gratefulness for the generous patronage accorded me in the past and soliciting a continuance of the same based on the "best of quality in goods and skill in workmanship."

Very Respectfully,
J. P. MAJORS,
Manufacturing Jeweler.

FARMERS, BANKERS AND BUSINESS MEN.

A Call to the Public.

A public meeting will be held in Colorado on Saturday, Oct. 7, composed of farmers, bankers, business men and laborers of every description, to meet and discuss the bearish movement in the market and to discuss ways and means for getting our just dues and what is coming to us for the products of our labor. These meetings will be held all over the South on this day, and everybody is urged to attend.

J. E. Hooper, J. B. Story, Jack Smith, E. M. McCreless, W. M. Green, W. J. Wingo, E. M. Reese, P. C. Coleman, C. M. Adams, R. H. Looney, F. M. Bury, A. C. Costin.

Come to Loraine.

Everybody is cordially invited to come to Loraine on Wednesday, Oct. 11th. The occasion is a basket dinner picnic and a day of pleasure. Prepare and bring a basket well filled with good things to eat and join the crowd. A splendid program has been arranged for your entertainment. Don't forget to bring your basket, and be sure and come.

Phone 25 for meat. Prompt delivery.

THE CIRCUS.

The circus has come and gone, and the juvenile population of Butler and vicinity, as well as the older ones, will have something to talk about for weeks to come. Show day is a day looked forward to by many with great expectancy. It is a day which is enjoyed equally with fourth of July and other great celebration days. Saturday was no exception to this rule, for early in the morning the country people began to arrive in town, some coming as far as twenty miles. One man, living a considerable distance from Butler, was heard to remark that he had brought his twenty-two year old son to town to see the circus and the cars, it being his first time to see either. Circus management informed us that they sold 4,900 tickets for their afternoon performance to the main show. The evening performance was attended by a fair sized crowd. Campbell Brothers give a high class show and everything is on the square. No fakirs or short changers are allowed by these men. People generally are well pleased with the show and express a desire for the show to return next year.

As for the Herald we can say that we were never treated nicer or more liberally patronized by any tented aggregation.—Butler Herald.

Electric Lights

Please don't forget that the fall and winter nights are coming and your light bills will grow larger with the long nights.

We have the Tungston Lamp—strong, tough and good. They give more light and use much less current, and will make your bills small.

Please supply yourself with these lamps. Prices are as follows:

25 Candle Power.....	.50
40 Candle Power.....	.75
60 Candle Power.....	$1.00

The 60 Candle Power take the same current as the old 16 Candle Power, and the smaller lamps in proportion.

The Lyceum Course.

Don't forget that Col. Bain will lecture here on October 13th under the auspices of the United Brotherhood, and allow us again to remind you of the worthiness of the lyceum course of your hearty support and encouragement.

At the expense of more than $2,000 to which amount you generously contributed, the United Brotherhood erected the best and most commodious auditorium in all of west Texas, and are maintaining it for the benefit of the public. It has solved the question for many years to come of a public meeting place for all the public gatherings and entertainments that have for their end the moral and educational uplift of the community, and this too, without any expense beyond the cost of lights for the occasion. The tabernacle, besides affording these advantages to the people of Colorado, saves hundreds of dollars annually to the several churches of the town in providing an ample auditorium for all revivals and other purposes.

Only once has the brotherhood asked for help from the public beyond voluntary contributions. About $60 was contributed to a fund being raised to purchase a suitable organ for the building. The fund is not yet large enough to secure an instrument powerful enough to meet the needs of the tabernacle services, but it is gradually growing.

It was hoped by bringing this series of entertainments to Colorado the Brotherhood might be able to complete the organ fund and begin some long needed improvements on the building. A generous patronage of all the series of entertainments will enable this worthy organization to make the building more comfortable and more attractive. The enterprise is worthy of the public's most generous support.

Farm to Trade for City Property.

I have 160 acre farm with a five room house, well and windmill, good spring, close to town, to trade for city property. I also have some bargains in city property to sell. Let me sell you a home and you pay for it like paying rent.

Post City Letter.

W. A. Coggin went to Merkel last week, returning Tuesday.

Prof. H. C. Zorns came in this week and is preparing for the opening of the Post City school next Monday.

The work of cleaning off the town section is moving along nicely and in a short time there will be no unsightly brush or bushes left to mar the appearances of the town.

Dr. Ponton was called to Snyder last Saturday evening to operate upon Miss Mona Clark for appendicitis and Sunday morning the operation was performed. The attack was very severe and Miss Clark's condition was very critical for several days, but she is now much improved and her recovery is almost assured.

Last Sunday evening a heavy rain fell at Post City and in the northern and northwestern parts of the county. This rain was of much value to the winter range, and will benefit the late crops. In some places the rain fell in torrents, Fall creek showing the heaviest rainfall in over a year.

Died.

At Post City, Texas, on Thursday, August 31, at 6:50 a. m. Sam C. Wilkes, Sr. Mr. Wilkes had been confined to his bed for months, and his death came as a release from his sufferings. His family and a number of his relatives were present and they all have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their bereavement. A more extended account of Mr. Wilkes life will appear later.

Hartzell-Hathcox.

Tuesday evening, Sept. 19, at 8 o'clock, the Rev. Rainer united in marriage Miss Phoebe Hartzell, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. W. A. Hartzell, in this city, and Mr. Hathcox. Six months ago when the young man was located at Manchester for a short time occurred the re-establishment of a warm friendship of five years existence.

Mrs. Hathcox has been one of Dickinson county's best teachers for the past five years and has many friends whose best wishes go with her. Mr. Hathcox is a very progressive young man and is the proprietor of the Home Art Company.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, witnessed only by relatives. The bride was gowned in a handsome white messaline satin with pearl trimmings and the bridegroom wore a suit of imported white serge.

They left Manchester Sunday morning for Topeka where they will be located for an indefinite time.

We join their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous journey through life.—The Manchester (Kan.) Motor.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank the kind friends who so graciously ministered unto us in our great bereavement. Their love and sympathy was a balm to our wounded hearts, and we pray God's blessings upon each one. May he richly reward them for their kindness and may they have friends as true when their hour of sorrow comes.

BROOMCORN CROP MOVING.

New Product of Illinois Brings Highest price in Thirty Years—Probably Reach $200 Per Ton.

Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 28.—The new crop of broomcorn is moving and some of the sales recorded are the highest in thirty years. It is said that the supply of broom corn this season will be limited and some growers are predicting that $200 per ton will be paid before the season is over.

Heavy Load of Cotton.

Taylor, Tex., Sept. 26.—Further illustrating the value and convenience of good macadam roads, John P. Burns, Jr., of the Rice community, ten miles south of Taylor, this morning drove into Taylor with sixteen bales of cotton loaded on one wagon and drawn by a team of two spans of mules. Estimating the weight of the driver, harness and wagon at 700 pounds, this team of four mules pulled a weight of 9,500 pounds a distance of ten miles in five hours time. Aside from the driver, wagon and mules, the value of the load was approximately $1,285.

$36,000 Suit for Libel at Ballinger.

Ballinger, Tex., Sept. 26.—The first libel suit ever filed in the district court of this county was filed here today when Goldsdel & Srisham, of Winters, representing J. O. Harrell, Elgin Davidson and C. W. Caldwell, of Winters, filed three suits against the Western Telephone Company and the Ledger publishing Company for damages aggregating $36,000.

The suit grew out of an article signed by A. W. Wood, manager of the Western Telephone Company, and published in the Daily Ledger of the 19th inst. J. O. Harrell is a stockholder and manager, and Davidson and Caldwell are stockholders, in an independent telephone company, with headquarters at Winters, known as the Bool Weevil Telephone Company. The independent company came into Ballinger with their line and competition has been very strong between the two companies and resulted in an article being written by the manager of the West Texas Telephone Company attacking the responsibility and standing of the independent company.

The controversy and suit between the two factions is attracting a great deal of attention.

A. B. ROBERTSON FOR CONGRESS.

The Congressional Entries—Up to Date.

The following taken from the editorial columns of the Lubbock Avalanche gives notice of another "Richmond in the field," in the person of a former citizen of Colorado.

"The congressional campaign in this district promises to be the warmest since the creation of the district, the somewhat famous Smith-Dean campaign in 1902 and the Smith-Cunningham campaign in 1906 not excepted. W. R. Smith, the present congressman, will be a candidate, and the names of several other gentlemen are strongly mentioned as candidates, among the most prominent of these being Judge Thomas L. Blanton, of Abilene, and at present district judge of that judicial district, Judge Turney, of El Paso, and Mr. Calahan, ex-president of the Texas Cattle Raisers Association; but the latest, and doubtless the strongest possible candidate is A. B. (Sug) Robertson, of this county. Mr. Robertson has been receiving letters and personal solicitations from all parts of the district urging him to make the race. These letters and solicitations come from all classes of people—from bankers, farmers, merchants and cattlemen. There is not a man in this district that stands higher as a man than A. B. Robertson, not one in whom all classes have more confidence and a higher regard. He is a solid man in everything that expression implies. He is not a pallid man—just a plain, broad-gauged, fair-minded, high-minded gentleman. There is no question as to his capacity and qualifications. Should he make the race the man who beats him, if that could be done, would have to show that he is made of mighty good stuff, and he will have to make the fight against the man who resorts to no kind of little tricks. When approached on the subject last Saturday Mr. Robertson had nothing positive to say. He did say, however, that the fact of his name being mentioned in the matter was somewhat of a surprise to him, as he had never given the subject any thought himself. He admitted that he had been strongly urged to make the race and that these solicitations had come from many different sources, and from sources that meant more than mere flattery. He said that his business interests were such as to make the sacrifice very great and that he would have to consider the matter further. He expressed great appreciation of the unsolicited assurances and encouragement he had received, and further said that should he decide to make the race that fact would be made known in due time. But even since this interview much stronger pressure has been brought to bear upon Mr. Robertson, and the Avalanche receives the assurance from an unofficial source that Mr. Robertson has practically agreed to make the race, reserving a few weeks in which to consider things.

Should Mr. Robertson decide to make the race the Avalanche will present to its readers an extended and interesting personal sketch of this man whom the editor has known for many years, and whom he has known for many years, and whom he regards as one of the most deserving and remarkable men this or any other country ever boasted as a citizen.

The Jacksboro Public Schools have opened in a new building which is one of a type of the modern and up-to-date buildings which is fast becoming common in Texas.

Many of the teachers institutes met this year before the opening of school, thus preventing the break in the school work and affording the teachers the inspiration and help derived from such gatherings to begin the sessions work with and to use throughout the year.

The Colored Concert.

Bills and programs announcing the personnel of a concert to be given by the Baptist Young People's Union of the colored church were generously distributed last week, and the entertainment occurred on Thursday night.

A special invitation was given their white friends, the balcony being reserved for the colored people. Rarely has any entertainment at the Opera House been accorded a better support. The elite of the city were not only present, but evinced their appreciation of the local skits by tumultuous applause.

They were given fully a $100 house, and at the prices, 25c and 35c, a full house had to be present. Many of the jokes perpetrated by Bones and Tambo were not only new to the audience but good in themselves and gotten off without that ridiculous spurious jargon so usually attempted by the negro in burlesquing himself.

The work of that incorrigible Senegambian Apollo, Manse Smith, vied with that of Arthur Taylor (economically known as Friday) for first place as chief features of the program.

The singing was generally good, particularly the choruses, and though comparisons are odious, and though George Hubbard deserves more than passing notice. George as music master among the colored citizenship of West Texas, facile princeps; his reputation, both as a vocalist and performer, stretches from Cisco to El Paso, and to ears unattuned to intricacies of scientific technique, his music is more enjoyable than the classic renditions of symphonies, extravaganzas or stately oratorios. The recitations were very creditably done, as were all the specialties between curtains.

All in all it was a very creditable performance and the consensus of authoritative opinion is that it was up to the standard of the average entertainments at the Opera House.

THEY ALL DEMAND IT.

Colorado, Like Every City and Town in the Union, Receives It.

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve, but do not cure. Doan's Kidney Pills have cured thousands. Here is the proof.

Frank Palesek, of Big Springs, Texas, says: "It was two years ago that I first used Doan's Kidney Pills. I was then working in the shops, and from my drinking too much ice water my kidneys became disordered. The most severe pains often darted through my back, causing me intense misery, and kidney secretions were too frequent in passage. I was unable to find anything that would relieve me until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. After taking a few doses I felt better, and after using the contents of two boxes I felt as well as ever."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Masonic Work.

Colorado Royal Arch Chapter enjoyed a royal time Tuesday night, the occasion being the exaltation of a team in the Royal Arch Chapter. The victims were Homer Robinson, Henry Eudery and Billie Butler. The Colorado chapter has several first class ritualists among its membership, and it goes without saying it that the work was done in due and ancient form. A large representation of the local membership was present and the following visitors:

A. J. Herrington, D. M. Logan, C. L. Norris, W. P. Knox, C. W. Merrill, D. Halcumb, and G. W. Barnett, all except the first two being members of the Snyder chapter.

After the immediate practice of the rites, refreshments were served in the banquet hall and the evening concluded with a social hour wherein jokes, stories and masonic reminiscences played leading parts.

These occasions are always greatly enjoyed by the members, who, owing to the distance they live from town, attend the chapter meetings but rarely. Colorado has one of the strongest and brightest lodge, chapter and council in West Texas, and for the population of the county, in the state. So, when the neighboring bodies know there'll be something doing in Masonic circles in Colorado, they are always eager to be ch hand.

From Union.

I live in Union community, southwest of Colorado. This is a good section of Mitchell county. Our lands are fertile, with a high, dry, healthy climate, and can produce the proof by showing our people. Our facilities are fairly good. We have a good Methodist church building, a good school building and a good line of people to back the same.

And in addition to all this we live near a good thriving town—Colorado—where we have a good editor, and, consequently, a good, newsy paper. We think second to none, and with the New Richmond in the field we see no reason why things generally can't survive. So we hope to see every good citizen of Mitchell county fall in line for a general uplift of our County.

Cotton picking is still the order of the day, but picking is too high according to the price of cotton. Say, people, let us pick more of our cotton ourselves. It's only September yet awhile.

Since my last writing Mr. E. M. McCreeless has become so interested in the farmers interest and Colorado as well, it seems, that he is now making his headquarters in Colorado; yes, and some, at least, will follow him. Now for fear my script is growing too lengthy and may find its way into the waste basket, I will close by saying good will for all, especially the New Richmond in the field, and the Record and its many readers.

IS AN AUTO WORTH THE MONEY

Written By a Nebraska Farmer, Who Writes of the Auto's Serviceability in the Country From Actual Experience.

It is said that thirty million dollars represents the value of the motor cars of Nebraska. That is a tremendous sum, but it is not a wasted value, for it represents human life, human happiness, human comfort and human progress. If anyone on earth needs the motor car it is the farmer. He lives a distance from town. All the city folks can use the street cars or attend meetings or go to business easily, but we the people on the farms, are the people who need these distance annihilators. You have heard the charge that the automobile leads to extravagance. Millions have gone into the telephone and come back to us again. Millions have been expended on rural mail routes, but the government estimates that the people realize big dividends on the investment. So it is with the automobile; it costs money, but happy families will earn more than it costs.

Isn't it better to buy a motor car and add ten years to mother's life? Let us figure. A satisfied, happy, jovial mother is worth, at a fair average, $500 more a year than a cynical, dissatisfied one. If you can add ten years of happiness to her life you have enough to buy an auto and keep it going. Then a satisfied boy on the farm is worth $500 more a year than a cynical, dissatisfied one, and if the auto keeps him that way it is pretty good interest on the $1,280 you have invested. Besides that, it creates a big interest in machinery. He learns the use of gasoline and oil and becomes a mechanical expert when compared with his fathers of 60 years ago. A mechanical expert on the farm is worth some more good, hard cash.

But some people are so very practical that they cannot be convinced that happiness is worth a dollar. They have to see the actual eagle before they give up that anything pays. To those fellows we will say that scores of times the automobile brings in pretty good interest on the money. For instance, if some member of the family is feeling pretty sick and it would cost six or eight dollars to get the doctor, you can easily make up your mind to stand a trip in the auto, and by the time you get to town you are so much rested that you get a few doses of medicine and the doctor charges you 50 cents.

We needed some repairs in the harvest; one of the shockers stopped for an hour and the binder kept right on going. Often we go to town and get needed supplies before breakfast, or while the horses are resting at noon, and not an hour is lost, thus half a day is saved and in the busy season that means actual dollars. A neighbor driving by found that he had lost his engine and was about to lose a load of hogs. We ran out the auto, went back a mile and found the engine, while he watched the back of the wagon for a few minutes. Then on the threshing eve the phone got out of order and we made a round before breakfast the next morning, then went to town, seven miles away, and got back before the machine was set for work, driving 29 miles in all.

Perhaps you want to attend a sale some dozen miles away; you are there in an hour. I used my auto in assessing this precinct this spring and drove it over every mile of road in the six miles square, thus proving the fact that an automobile can be used on bad roads.

Tire trouble is the biggest bother, but we have a pair of inside tires and use them on the oldest tires, thus using them out completely. I now have on a tire that I threw away a year ago because it was blown out. We put some clinchers over the blowout, a heavy leather patch inside and then the inside tire and the inside tube. In this way tire trouble is greatly lessened, but these aids should be used when the fabric weakens and before the blowout comes then you can use tires longer.

Do not always be tinkering with your engine; fix anything that needs it, oil liberally and ask the garage man to keep an eye on your machine.

5 Strong Reasons for Fall Painting

1. The wood is thoroughly dry.
Summer's sun has removed all moisture.

2. Paint penetrates deeper into dry wood.
The deeper it goes the better it holds.

3. Fall weather is warm, dry and dependable.
Little danger of cold, damp, rainy days, which endanger the durability of the paint.

4. Wet weather decays and destroys unprotected surfaces.
Lack of paint means unsightly and less valuable property.

5. Fall painting keeps out winter moisture.
The greatest enemy to the life and beauty of all structures.

Death of Mrs. Clayton.

All Colorado was shocked when it was learned that Mrs. J. F. Clayton had died Saturday night at ten o'clock at the hospital in Abilene. She had been there for several weeks, having undergone a very serious operation, but was reported to be slowly improving, so that news of her death came as a severe shock to her friends and acquaintances here.

The body was brought in Sunday morning, and Sunday afternoon at four o'clock the funeral services were held at the M. E. church. The house was crowded with sorrowing friends and neighbors who came to show their last tribute of affection to one who had lived among them for almost 30 years. Beautiful music was rendered by the choir and a helpful sermon was preached by her pastor, Brother Lyon, from the text, "So Run that Ye May Obtain." He told of the length of her membership in the church, she having joined twenty-nine years ago, when there were only about fourteen members, and of her unceasing love and devotion to the work connected with it. The class of girls whom she had taught until a short time ago, when her health became so bad, were present in a body with a big wreath of flowers, and their grief was pathetic to see. In concluding the sermon Brother Lyon urged all to live so that they too might win the prize of a home in Heaven when they were called to leave this earth. The body was tenderly carried out to the cemetery and placed in its last resting place and the mound heaped with flowers by loving hands. Yet we all know that she is not there, but in her Heavenly home, awaiting the coming of her husband, her son and the loved ones still here. One sister, Mrs. Williams, of Greenville, was with her during her illness and came up here remaining until Wednesday.

Another pioneer has left us, another good woman gone. As our friends pass over the river we shed tears of sympathy for the bereaved ones, yet as we think of the many who await us on the other side, we feel that it will indeed be going home, for—

"There all the ship's company meet,
Who sail with the Savior beneath,
With shouting each other they greet
And triumph o'er sorrow and death.

The voyage of life is at an end,
The mortal affliction is past,
The age that in Heaven we spend,
Forever and ever shall last."

The deepest sympathy of the whole community is extended to Mr. Clayton and Willie and the relatives in their great loss. May the God they loved comfort and sustain them in their great trial.

If Security is What You Want, Read This.

National Bank Notes circulate in every part of the country without question, because it is secured by a deposit with the government. In the same manner every policy in the Missouri State Life is secured by a deposit of its entire reserve with the State of Missouri. If you want life insurance, see me, and if you don't want it see the policy, then you will want it.

Cuthbert.

T. H. Smart is moving his family to Westbrook for his children to attend school.

C. C. Cornett, who has been staying in Colorado, returned home last Monday.

Miss Pamela Westfall, of New Hope died last Friday morning. She was buried in the Cuthbert cemetery Saturday.

A. J. Roe, near the Triangle Ranch, has traded some land in White County, Illinois, for some in Scurry county.

Miss Cora Womack and Miss Minnie Womack visited T. B. Cowan of Colorado.

Brother Leach filled his regular appointment at the Cuthbert church last Sunday. He accepted the call to serve for another year.

F. M. Holley and wife were baptized. The Cuthbert gin is getting about all the cotton they can gin now. They ginned ten bales Saturday.

One Success Helps All

Indicative of the value of a little advertising, and how the success of one enterprise, no matter how small, in a community, helps all the others, and adds to the prestige of the town, the following notice of a Colorado industry from a paper up in the Pan Handle is a case in point. The notice is taken from the Lubbock Avalanche of last week:

Mr. L. C. Doby, of Colorado, Texas, has demonstrated that irrigation pays in that part of the state. In August he marketed $750.00 worth of cantaloupes and is now planting the ground in turnips. This was accomplished by means of irrigation, and proves that Texas land equals, if not excels, any other state in the union in fertility and productiveness.

Rally Day at Methodist Church.

Sunday was rally day at the Methodist church and no preaching was held, but a program was prepared and rendered by the children. The church had been decorated in green and with Texas and U. S. flags, and made a pretty setting for the children.

The program opened with a song, then followed a welcome by the beginners. Then followed: the Doxology, by the school; prayer, by Bro. Lyon; song, "God Will Take Care of You," by the children, who were massed in order of their size upon the platform; song by the choir; Lillian Spruill gave as a recitation, "He wants Us All;" three little girls gave as a recitation, "Praise God for All Things;" Ruth Davis gave as a recitation, "Give Thanks for Daily Bread;" Song What Birdie Sings, primaries; The Little Missionary, Ada Shaw; Dialogue, How Shall we praise God, five little girls; "I Wonder if You Did," Roderick and Roberta Cromer. Chorus, The Summer Song, intermediates; promotion from primaries to Juniors; Valedictory, Allie Merrill; Seventeen children were given certificates of promotion and a speech made them by Mr. Bosden; recitation, Why I'm in Trouble, Godfrey Spruill; song by the Juniors. A short talk was made by Brother Lyon to the fathers and mothers especially. The intermediates gave a pretty delineation of the praise of God by all nations, being assisted in the song by the choir which was much enjoyed by all present.

A Thriving Business.

Few people unacquainted with the development of the Colorado Steam Laundry, realize the amount of business this enterprise is bringing to Colorado.

Since the removal and enlargement of their plant, they have been running night and day to keep up with their work. There is but one laundry on the T. & P. road between here and El Paso, which is at Big Springs, and but two, Weatherford and Abilene, between here and Fort Worth.

The laundry sends out an average of fifteen baskets to the neighboring towns, from Midland to Merkel, every week. The total out-of-town work last week amounted to $535. About 15 people are given regular employment by this industry, and Messrs. Davis & Avery have shown themselves capable of building up their part of the business of Colorado to exceedingly creditable proportions. They deserve every success they may receive.

Don't trifle with a cold is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in case of a child. There is nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds in children. It is safe and sure. For sale by all dealers.

The Clark Band Wagon.

Shattuck, Okla., Monitor:— Senator Owen has fallen into the Champ Clark Band Wagon. We have been in from the first. Our private opinion, publicly expressed, is that Champ is the man for the job. He has a record that puts him in the "true blue" class. We have kept close tab on Clark ever since he was a member of the Missouri legislature, and have noted that his vote always comes up on the right hand side. He is the embodiment of Democracy, and can carry the standard to victory.

Gravette, Ark., News-Herald:

Occupying, as speaker, the second highest office in the land, Champ Clark has met President Taft squarely upon the issues vital to the welfare and has downed him at every corner. In this congress he has shown his powerful executive ability, such as must be shown by the man who stands at the head of the government. Clark can command the votes of every Democrat in the country and a great following from the insurgent ranks; their leaders have supported Clark in Congress for two years. Our political compass points true to Clark as the man.

WHAT ABOUT THAT LIFE POLICY that you were going to take?? Is it protecting your family? Better get it today, then it is done. See M. K. Jackson and get a Missouri State Life Policy, then you will have a policy that is second to none.

LUMBER

See us about your next bill of lumber, we can save you some money.

Colorado, Texas.

We desire to call special attention this week to the big ad of H. L. Hutchinson Furniture Company. This is the largest ad this company has ever had and they take this method and space to tell the people some facts Hear what they say: "If you will come to our store with the money and pay us cash for all you buy, we will guarantee to duplicate the price and quality of anything you have bought from the northern mail order houses. Not one-cent's worth will be charged to the best man in the county; but the spot cash will buy anything in our store, or, if we haven't it, we will send for it for you for as little money as you can get it for from the mail order houses." It will pay you to turn to page nine and read their ad. Another thing, they take this space as a test on advertising to see if the people read the ads, and you will help your local paper by going to the store and telling them you read the ad. You need not buy; just tell them that you read the ad, and we will win.

The body of Mrs. Arp was shipped here from Barstow and buried on Sunday last. She lived near Colorado some twenty years ago and had a daughter, son and two grandchildren buried here. The old-timers will remember that Dick Crutchfield was killed on the slaughter ranch by a runaway team nearly twenty years ago. Crutchfield was her son-in-law. She had no living relatives. The body was accompanied by Charlie Nickles, a man who had boarded with Mrs. Arp at Barstow.

The Methodist tea was held last Wednesday with Mrs. John Vangan, she and Mrs. J. W. Sheppard being hostesses. A most delightful program of music and readings was given by Little Miss Winnie Mary Lyon and some of her little friends. The house was gaily decorated with ferns and flowers, and looked very attractive. A delicious ice with white cake was served by the hostesses, and a nice sum realized. Mesdames Person and Jackson are hostesses next week with Mrs. Person.

The Five Passenger, Fore-door "29" Touring Car has won more records, both in and out of her class, in the past nine weeks, than any other car. Fully equipped and delivered in Colorado, $975.00; with a one year full guarantee.

F. S. KEIPER.

The Cemetery association held its monthly meeting Wednesday with Mrs. Carter. It was found that the money of the organization was conspicuous by its absence; not because of lack of work on the part of the collectors, but because the Odd Fellows had failed to pay their part for the past several months. It was decided to make an active campaign for new members and to urge the brethren to pay up. If the sexton's salary cannot be raised he will have to go, and the cemetery will soon become the unsightly place it was once. Let us all try to help this worthy cause.

Thursday afternoon Miss Byrd Adams most delightfully entertained the G. T. C's. She is not a member, but several times having enjoyed the hospitality of the club members, she paid her obligations to them by acting as hostess. The time was pleasantly spent playing the old stand-by—42. The prizes were a cut glass nappy and two pairs of silk hose, but the winners are too modest to have their names appear. A lovely salad course was served at the close of the games. This was one of the most enjoyable afternoons the G. F. C's. have ever spent.

Mr. O. G. Jones, who is preaching at the tabernacle, is delivering some splendid gospel sermons along practical, everyday religious lines, and every Christian should hear him, and should use every means to get the sinners out, for his talks are so plain and earnest that anyone can understand and can hardly fail to be convinced. He is sure to help those who attend the services. Mr. Jones is hear him and more should be gotten. Mr. Elliott's brother, and they are both men of ability, and the meeting deserves wider recognition than it is receiving. Go out and get a blessing. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. M. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Adams, Rev. and Mrs. Broome, Mr. Keathley and Mesdames J. L. Shepherd, H. F. Wheeler and A. L. Whippley went to Loralne yesterday to attend the association.

If PROTECTION is all you want in your insurance, the Missouri State Life will give it to you at age 21 for only $10.00 per $1,000 annually; at age 30 for $10.82 per $1,000; at age 40 for $12.88 per $1,000 insurance. See me and I will explain the plan. M. K. JACKSON, Agent.

EXPLODED.
Gone Up In Hot Air, and Colorado's Promised Future Sunk Into Oblivion.

Dreams of Future Greatness a Myth.

The something mysterious held in the dark for the past two weeks has come to light and gone up in a flame of hot air. We had hoped it would develop so as to put Colorado on the map, but the God of Fate ruled it otherwise. We had built air castles and dreamed of streams of gold and rivers of prosperity flowing through Elysian fields of peace and plenty; but alas and alack, it was not to be.

The scheme, or plan, was for a railroad running on an air line from Tucumcara, N. M., to Kerrville, splitting Colorado wide open in the center. Several weeks ago the promoters of the Fluvanna townsite received a letter from a Mr. Healy who purported to be president of the Texas, Mexico & Elsewhere Railroad. He wanted to build the road from Tucumcara, N. M. to Kerrville, via Fluvanna and Colorado, and wanted to know what Fluvanna would do and also what Colorado would do. This letter was answered, giving the gentlemen all kinds of encouragement, and a second letter was received in which he said if Colorado would give forty thousand dollars stock and right of way they would come to Colorado and build the road fifty miles north, or to Fluvanna. They would then bond the road and build it south over the Robert Lee right-of-way, etc.

Five or six of our business men then took the matter up and wrote a number of letters and made considerable enquiries, etc., but when asked about the matter they shake their heads and take the dry grins; all of which means that there was nothing in it from the first, except a windy. Every town in West Texas gets a new railroad started each week. The Big Springs Herald has built three North and South railroads to our certain knowledge, but Colorado has as good a chance as any of them.

But we need not despair; there is the J. J. Lanin and Sterling City project yet. The Record believes that if Snyder, Colorado, Sterling, Lanin and the Elwoods will get together that this road can be built. All it needs is a starter.

For a good cigar see E. B. Morgan.

Morris Sheppard.
Congressman Morris Sheppard, of the first district of Texas, has announced his candidacy to succeed Joseph Weldon Bailey to the United States Senate. Mr. Sheppard is 36 years old, but he has been in east Texas politics ever since he abandoned swaddling clothes. Son of one of Texas' most distinguished Congressmen he grew up in an atmosphere of politics. As his father's private secretary young Morris became educated in the ways of the Washington statesman. Early in life he earned the title of "boy orator" and he has kept it ever since. He was elected congressman to succeed his distinguished sire when his face was as smooth as an Elberta peach. His people have showered him with sufficient honors to have spoiled a much older man, but Morris is still the modest young fellow we knew ten or fifteen years ago when he was winning oratory medals in schools and colleges. For several years he had a monopoly on oratorical honors. He was the Frank Getch of debating forums. He had a monopoly on adjectives. For the greater part of his early career the dictionary was his guide and beacon light. For convenience's sake he eliminated all words that were out of a descriptive character. He carried the eloquent thoughts of Sir Walter Scott, of Bacon, of Shakespear and Demosthenes to every cross road hamlet in East Texas. He found the poetry that existed in the East Texas pines, he saw the beauty of the red clay hills, he learned the song of the East Texas brooks and told it all to his people.

As a funeral orator Morris Sheppard can turn a congregation into one convulsive sob and discover traits of character in the deceased that were entirely overlooked by his dearest relatives. Morris can climb out on a high oratorical perch but he can also stay at the foot of the tree. He can make the halls of congress ring with his eloquence and yet he can go back home and make a speech that will start a posse of East Texans out with guns and ropes looking for the "money trust."

In congress he has done some notable things, among them being the keeping of "In God We Trust" on the American dollar, much to the discomfiture of one Theodore Roosevelt. His orations on "Mother" has made thousands weep. His "Defense of the Home and Fireside" has called us all to arms, and many of us have regretted that we could not find the "attacker" of the aforesaid home and fireside upon who to wreak our vengeance. Morris always has on the tip of his tongue a Star Spangled Banner speech that gives us new visions of the beauties of the American flag. He has made Confederate soldiers mentally charge up the heights at Gettysburg time after time during the course of his reunion speeches, and after the oration had been concluded these valiant old warriors, although weary after reliving the famous battles, were willing to carry the stars and bars into the very depths of hell to capture, bind and gag his Satanic majesty. Senator Bailey may have been a deep student of the provisions of the constitution and found in its provisions dry principles of law, but if Morris Sheppard is elected Senator, he will present to us undiscovered beauties in that famous old document. He will uphold it so eloquently that we will all take more pleasure in dying heroically for it than living under its protection.

It is said that Senator Culberson was once asked if some sheep in a neighboring field were white. His reply was that they looked white on his side.

But Morris Sheppard would give a different reply. He would say: On yonder hillside those beautiful sheep are gamboling. How lovely is yonder picture of those ewes and lambs. How tenderly the mother sheep watches over her offsprings. What a sweet scene of parental devotion. My brother, there is a beautiful lesson in that flock of sheep. What matters it if they are not white on the farther side. They are white on this side and their whiteness adds beauty to the picture I have explained to you. If they are black on the other side, my friend, the scene would be just as beautiful if the sheep were turned around."

Do You Need One;

I have one Moesler and one Cary safe. Both good as new. One cost $225 and the other $150. I traded for these, and as I have all my money in etreulation and no earthly use for them, I will sell or trade them for a great deal less than they are worth.

Would trade for residence lots in Colorado, or for Jersey cattle.

Commercial Loyalty.

A few days since we were standing on the street talking to a prominent business man, when a gentleman came up with a special catalogue in his hand from Sears, Roebuck & Co. They compared prices and quality on a few of the articles with the prevailing prices for the same articles in Colorado, and conclusively proved that the person who patronizes such guerilla concerns deserved no sympathy when ripped up the back. One of the gentlemen said that if one of his employees should patronize a Chicago mail order house, he would fire him if he found it out.

There is much in the merchant's attitude toward these concerns and the people who patronize and foster them to merit serious consideration. Not one dollar of the money sent to these commercial sharks ever finds its way back to this community. It buys only one dollar's worth and is forever withdrawn from local circulation; whereas, if that dollar be spent with one of our home merchants, it might have, and likely would, discharge hundreds of dollars of indebtedness before being withdrawn from local circulation.

The people who carry us over periods of depression and drouth, who help build our churches, school houses; who contribute to the necessities of the indigent, sit up with our sick and perform the last sad offices to our dead; these are the people and the merchants who deserve the support of every dollar we have to spend in their respective lines. How much of the taxes of this community do such concerns as Marshall Field & Co., and businesses of like kidney, pay? What part do they bear in supporting our schools and the various community burdens that our local merchants so continually and generously foster?

Every individual who earns a living and in any way depends upon the general prosperity of this community for employment, owes something to the business interests of the town, and that something is steadfast loyalty. Not the flimsy debt of mental gratitude or mere appreciation of a favor, but the debt of sincere investigation, honest comparison and reasonable preference.

Not the farmer in Big Springs trade territory; not the housewife who lives near Snyder, nor the lawyer who lives in Abilene. None of these have any particular interest in the upbuilding of Colorado. But with the people, of all trades and classes, whom the prosperity of Colorado and its business interest in any way touches, it is different. We all live here and should be selfish enough to desire the prosperity of Colorado before that of any other town in the state of Texas.

No matter what the individual lot or station may be; the stability and growth of every business institution in Colorado means something to that person. If you are a tax payer, it means much. If you are not, surely you at least owe something to the old town that protects your peace and happiness; that furnishes a roof for your head, that furnishes you whatever pleasure it can afford, and gives you a right to live, to work and to go unmolested in the pursuit of your individual happiness.

Every man owes something to every other. Don't fancy yourself independent of the world and its individuals. If it were not for the millions of these others you would today be feeding on grass and nuts like ship-wrecked Crusoe. So long as you remain in the world you are debtor to those around you, and whose efforts have made your condition more tolerable.

Let us not be cheats and spongers. If Colorado serves you to good purpose in anything; return the compliment. Do your own stunt, no matter how insignificant, and feel that you are a real, red-blooded unit in the general spirit of divine unrest that makes the world go round—and your own little hub with it.

The merchants who have stayed by Colorado through thick and thin—and it has been mighty thin sometimes—who have put their all into their business and helped you to pull through many tough places, these people are the town itself. They have shouldered the burden of giving employment to many others, and their smoke helps to keep things humming. If you have never realized their importance to you, think of the number of your friends to whom they give employment. Every man in the trade territory of Colorado owes such men a debt; not of empty gratitude, but of business loyalty and allegiance. Perhaps you have never thought of the matter in this strictly abstract light. But it is a fact nevertheless, that when you make a purchase of any article of a Colorado merchant, it is not so many dollars and cents you are putting into it, it is your own life blood—your own effort—it is you yourself, that you are investing in it.

Are you putting yourself into the upbuilding of your own home and all that effects its stability and well-being; are you spending all you have to spend to help your neighbors who help you, or are you helping to build up Chicago, St. Louis, or any other city that helps you in nothing, and only sucks your life blood like a vampire?

Any article of equal quality is worth more to you bought in Colorado than if bought in any other place, and you are bound to get something of it back if you are a producer and not a parasite. Stay by your home town and its business men; they are on the bridge that may have to carry you over; they are your friends.

Illustrative of what the shinnery land of Mitchell county will do, it is only necessary to cite the performances of a little farm owned by Y. D. McMurry, four miles north of town. The land is strictly shinnery of the most pronounced type. He has a young orchard which is in its second year of bearing, from which he realizes this season more than is often made on a half-section of land. His watermelon crop is still coming in, and we would be afraid to say just how many wagon loads of the finest melons he has brought in and sold, without hearing him tell the story again—but it has been a plenty demonstrated that Mitchell county shinnery land is hard to beat. If some way could be devised by which the rip-roaring winds that have their home up about Amarillo and have a habit of drifting this way, could be made to skip our shinnery land or be made to gently breathe upon them without digging great holes in the ground and shifting it from one quarter of the section to the other, these lands would command a better price than any other class of West Texas realty. Good water, good gardens, good orchards are not to be sneezed at, and these are all to be realized on the shinnery lands of Mitchell county.

The farmers themselves are just beginning to realize the potentialities of the land in Mitchell county and West Texas generally. The unvarying adherence to cotton and feed stuffs and buying everything else the farmer and his family used, proved an expensive regime. Diversification has helped the farmer to make buckles and tongue meet; the hog has lifted the mortgage from many a home, clothed and shod many children, and provided many comforts for the entire family that before were impossible. The milk cow has done no less, while the poultry business is assuming great proportions, the farmers of this section supplying the tables of people in other states. West Texas is a farming country and is holding its own with the best of them in the long run.

The simmering political pot is throwing to the top many heretofore unsuspected statesmen. The resignation of "the noblest (sic) Roman of them all" from the United States Senate, propagated a lot of heavy weights who fairly hone to try on his discarded toga. The rash act of the gentleman who draws congressional pay from the Texarkana district has set the woods afire with would-be successors, and several favorite sons are being groomed out in the woodshed for Colquitt's job. Even the job of lieutenant governor lacks not for suitors. This may be a part of the ethical awakening some of our more optimistic statesmen have been telling us was just around the corner.

Says the Sweetwater Reporter: "Senator J. K. Vardeman, one of the most prominent politicians before the country," as being in that city for a brief stay last week. It also gives the information that Senator Vardeman wears a long suite of hair which gives him a quaint appearance. We had always thought that Jim's "long suite" lay elsewhere than (Samson-like) in his hair. Certain it is that his ambrosial locks are no badge of Nazarene vows, and if this were not enough, the Reporter lays him to Arkansas. Could the Reporter have gotten Vardeman's looks and Jeff Davis' state mixed in his metaphors? Its a matter of conscience between Vardeman and the state of Arkansas.

When you see two men off in an alley talking in Guy Fawkes tones and a "gunpowder-plot look" on their faces, no use to lock up the house at night, count the chickens on the roost or sleep with your poll tax receipt under your pillow at night. They are projecting no moonless raid or examining dynamite cartridges; it is just one prospective candidate suggesting the "candidacy" of the other—kinder feeling out, as it were, the other fellow's ideas. The Record doesn't hold a license in any line of seership except West Texas weather, but tips off an epidemic in office seeking next year.

It is the consensus of authoritative opinion that there will be much more cotton made in Mitchell county, and indeed in all the Western counties, than was imagined one month ago. The last rains, while not absolutely necessary to the cotton, did much good in keeping the plant vigorous and in growing condition. The cotton plant is the most delicate in the whole range of agriculture; is subject to more disasters and is the prey to more kind of insect enemies than any other; yet on the whole it is the surest crop the farmer grows. There have been total failures in the corn and grain crops in every section of the country, time and again; but there is always something doing in the cotton crop that saves it from total failure. If the corn crop fails other farm products can be substituted as a makeshift; if the corn crop fails us, pore folks can eat corn and the stock pull through on hay; but there is no substitute—nothing just as good—for the cotton crop; it is the one thing that must be had, and West Texas seems to be the ideal cotton raising country. With an amount of moisture that other sections would regard as a drouth; with an amount of work to plant and cultivate that the older cotton growing states would consider sheer neglect, West Texas can produce a cotton crop that is ideal in size of the plant, color and quality of fibre, that is the envy of ever other section of the world. Great is West Texas and Mitchell is the banner county.

The world, its mother and the dog, seems to have gone to the Ringling circus at Abilene Saturday. Those of us who were unable to prize up the price of the admission to the show, let alone the $1.20 which the cold hearted corporation, known as the Texas & Pacific railway company, insisted on demanding in advance just to get to the show grounds, had to be content just to go down to the station and see the cage-laden trains flit past. And true to the proverbial look of the poor white trash, every blooming one of them was late, and we had to go to bed without even the refreshing smell of the animal wagons. But Abilene needn't get chesky about it being the only stopping place for first-class shows between Fort Worth and El Paso. Not at all; the only reason they light in that city is that the law won't allow animals to be carried over that distance without being unloaded and fed. It is not because Abilene is a bit better show town or has more suckers per square acre than Colorado, Sweetwater, Midland, Big Springs, and like "best towns in Texas."

No town in West Texas, and for that matter, in the state, can boast of better streets in the resident portion of its city than Colorado, and much credit is due our efficient board of City Aldermen for their high standard of civic pride. Nothing advertisements a town better or makes a better impression upon strangers and visitors than well kept streets and public buildings. They reflect the spirit of the community, and it is fair to assume that if the people keep their community interests in ship shape, they keep their individual affairs in like condition.

W. H. MAYES ANNOUNCES.

Brownwood Editor Will be Candidate for Lieutenant Governor in Democratic Primaries.

Brownwood, Tex., Sept. 26.—Since the suggestion was made a few weeks ago by some of his Brownwood friends that Hon. Will H. Mayes, editor of the Brownwood Bulletin and former president of the Texas and National Editorial Association, would make an excellent lieutenant governor, numerous letters have been coming from all over the state urging Mr. Mayes to make the race, and the press comments from all sections have been most favorable.

Mr. Mayes decided tonight to announce his candidacy for that position, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries. Mr. Mayes stated further that at the proper time he would make known his views upon matters pertaining to state legislation, deeming it too early now to enter into a campaign for the office.

Mr. Mayes has many friends and supporters in Colorado and in response to a letter written him by the Record we received the following reply which we take the liberty of publishing. His letter says in part: F. B. Whipkey, Esq., Colorado, Texas.

Dear Mr. Whipkey:— I wish to thank you most cordially for your kind letter of August 23 regarding my proposed candidacy for lieutenant governor, and also for your nice reference to me in the Record. I think it unnecessary to announce a platform, or begin an active campaign, for some time yet.

I received your letter asking how I stood upon the prohibition question. I do not object to my views being known upon this, as well as upon any other public question. I favor every measure that opposes the domination of the saloon in the moral and political life of our people, and oppose every measure that favors it. I am for state-wide constitutional prohibition, and until it is brought about, am for all reasonable restrictive laws looking to the reducing of the evils of the saloons to the minimum, but do not regard statutory state-wide prohibition with favor, for reason that it would cause the prohibition question to forever overshadow other important issues and keep us in a turmoil that could as easily be obviated by constitutional prohibition. I hope I have made my views clear in this matter. As the campaign progresses I will let my views be known upon all the issues that may interest the people, and in the meantime will be glad to give anyone my views upon any question upon which they may be interested.

Again thanking you for your kind expressions toward me and my candidacy. Sincerely yours, WILL H. MAYES.

'Tis Good Enough for Him.

(By the Record Staff Poet).

There was a Mitchell county farmer, Who was tackled by a charmer, Who only sought to help him to a better thing you see; So one day he found a taker, For his land—$30 the acre, And he bargained for a section by an inland blue print sea.

There were mountains in the distance, That were mineralized—for instance There was water power, forests, and a lot of lumber dope; With a cinch for irrigation, And a central head stream station, 'Till the farmer's head was humming like a circus calliope.

There were trunk lines continental, Traced by red lines largely mental, With a scrap-book full of clippings that were unsolicited; There were pictures in three colors, That were mighty sucker pullers, It looked just like a paradise—and the stock was limited.

And they told him how alfalfa Would realize a half a Crop of Eskimolan rice that was crossed with Irish swat; They told him of the satsuma, That grew wild about Old Yuma, 'Till the profits of Standard Oil by comparison were a loss.

And they guded him on tornadoes, Hot winds, drouths and such daddoes, They ridiculed the proceeds of his Mitchell county land; Just to show they had contribution, They sloughed their whole commissoin If he'd never breathe a word of it—you understand.

But this Mitchell county farmer, Having bought and sold to Armour, And several times had swatted trusts a solar-plexus swat; Likewise Pecos Valley subaqueous And Tampico earthquakeous, You'll find still in West Texas, holding on to what he's got.

The Dago and the "Unspeakable Turk" are now at it, hammer and tongs. On sea the former may be able to show the heathen a trick or two; but afoot, there is no more savage or determined scrapper than the devoted followers of Islam, who court death in battle, believing that he will be transported directly to the side of Mohamet in Paradise. "Believe or we'll eat you" is a pretty good pabulum on which to feed a soldier.

The Lubbock Avalanche, in speaking of the Record last week, says: "The record is a real interesting paper and the writer enjoys reading its pages every week, because we once lived in that place, and at one time knew about every man, woman and child in the town and county, and was not a candidate for office, either."

Whipkey is loyal there is not a doubt in our minds about that, for after spending several years in the vicinity of Colorado and taking in the situation it would require a man of considerable loyalty and nerve to keep a stiff upper lip in the face of existing conditions to keep boosting. Colorado country is a mighty good country, but to say that it is the best on earth would indicate that the pastor who is looking after the spiritual welfare of this condition and take an inventory of the Record man's stock in trade.

The broad assertion, however, was caused largely from the fact that the editor was soaring in the realms of the skies of visionary beauty, and should he get down on a common level with the balance of the people in this section he would see things as they really are.

el with the balance of the people in this section he would see things as they really are.

el with the balance of the people in this section he would see things as they really are.

Ball's Candidacy.

Hon. Thomas H. Ball, has announced his candidacy for the United States Senatorship. Mr. Ball was for several terms a member of the lower branch of congress, voluntarily retiring to practice law. He was the manager of the prohibition forces of the late campaign.

Mr. Ball is the third to enter the race, Messrs. Randall and Sheppard being the other two. There will be a fourth entry, Mr. Jacob Wolters. This gives us two prohibitionists, Messrs. Ball and Sheppard, and two anti-prohibitionists, Messrs. Randall and Wolters.

It is only conjectural as to how much of the Bailey issue remains. There seems to be a disposition among the people to forget that there ever was such an issue. Mr. Bailey has eliminated himself; why further consider him?

Mr. Ball goes further than to announce his candidacy; he says he will support Woodrow Wilson for president and Judge Ramsey for governor. It will thus be seen that Mr. Ball is determined, if possible, to make Mr. Colquitt a one-term governor.

For long years Mr. Ball has enjoyed the favor of the Houston Post. He was a Houston man; that gave him some standing with the Post, but far and above that was his allegiance to Mr. Bailey. Now Mr. Ball and the Post part company, the Post being committed unworvledly to Mr. Colquitt. Possibly the Post will support Mr. Wolters, but with some reluctance, it being understood that Mr. Wolters, in explaining the light majority for the "anti" side, had Mr. Bailey in mind when he denounced our public men for their cowardice during the campaign.

Mr. Ball favors a test vote as to the Senatorship at the same time a vote is taken on the presidency, the two men receiving the highest vote to run it out before the people in July. That is eminently fair.

It may be taken for granted that Mr. Campbell will not be in the race; his great desire is to retire Mr. Colquitt at the end of the present term.

At this time it looks like four—and only four—entries for the Senatorship: Randall, Sheppard, Ball and Wolters, and two—and only two—entries for the governorship: Colquitt and Ramsey.

Colorado merchants are after your trade; read all the ads.

It's so, if you saw it in the Record.

The Deed That Transformed a Life.

(By F. A. Robinson.)

Was he dreaming? He pushed back the white coverlets and gazed around the room. Many times had he awakened in a drowsed, twice in the police station, once in the "snakeroom" of a lumber town hotel, but this morning everything was different. What had happened? The room was the most beautifully furnished he had ever slept in, and his soiled clothes on the chair near the bed were strangely out of harmony with the rest of his surroundings.

He had confused memories of events since he had received 75 cents for a morning's work shoveling coal, but he knew he had spent this money in a way most of his earnings had gone lately, and he condemned himself for having been a fool again. With a half-consciousness of someone being near he looked on the other side of the room.

The bedroom door had been quietly opened and a bright "good morning" greeted him. There need be no hurry he was told, but whenever he was ready he might just as well have a bite of breakfast with the minister who would wait for him in the adjoining study.

No word was spoken in explanation of the man's presence nor in regard to the difficulty the old minister had had in getting him away from the quarrelsome group the night before, nor of the amount of persuasion required even after he had reached the manse for returning "to fight Hank Collins."

Slowly and with mingled feelings of embarrassment and disgust the occupant of the spare room dressed himself. Down stairs the mistress of the manse from returning to "fight Hank in the hall and on hearing the carried the first course of the morning meal into the study. She remained only long enough to tell the visitor that she was glad to see him and that he was always welcome at the manse, and that Mr. M— often had a quiet meal in the study with his friends. Only a few words passed between the two men during the meal, and the visitor was ill at ease.

When the time for the departure came the handclasp was a long one and was accompanied with a simple, sincere invitation to make the manse a home as often as was convenient.

The Sunday morning's sermon was being outlined late that night when the measured tread of a man was heard on the walk leading to the study.

The door opened revealing the man who had breakfasted with the pastor. Through the day the drunkard had heard how the minister had stayed by him for two hours during the preceding night, and how when he was about to be locked up the minister had asked that he be allowed to stay with him as he was going to "stay at the manse." It was not the first time the preacher had tried to help him, but somehow the treatment of the past night had touched feelings that words had failed to reach. There were no preliminary questions. There were no entered the man's parsonies as he now entered the study for several weeks. "Mr. M—, I've been thinking about you a good deal, but if there's a kind that makes me do what you did for me last night, I want it." Then he added in a lower and subdued tone, "An interest in me! The dirty tough that I am!"

Six years have passed away. Down by the sea a man is building a home, a business and a character. He has not returned West during these years, but has told a few friends that there is a southeast room in an Ontario manse that he never forgets, and he thinks of God for those who valued a dirty wrecked man more than furniture and carpets, and whose hospitality and service awakened desires that have transformed a life.—Toronto Press-Herald.

The Studebaker Corporation to Show Pictures of E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" Factory Operations.

At the tabernacle in this city next Thursday night, October 12, at 8:00 p. m. a unique picture show, which will no doubt be as interesting as those for which you pay, and a great insight of value for those interested in automobiles, will be given free of charge.

With several thousand feet of films reeled off before the eyes of the spectators, every detail of the building of automobiles, from the first principle to the finished product, will be shown. The pictures will show the great Studebaker corporation plants in operation at Detroit, where the E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" cars are turned out. The idea is that of Gen. Mgr. Walter E. Flanders, and the pictures are being shown in many cities for the benefit of owners and prospective buyers. If you ever expect to own an automobile don't fail to see these pictures.

Tickets free for everybody to be had by calling at the Studebaker garage.

Notice to Our Customers.

Owing to the falling off in patronage by reason of the cooler weather, our ice wagon will be taken off after Saturday, October 14th. There will be an abundance of ice, however, at the ice plant and customers can get whatever amount they want by calling for it themselves at the ice house. Thanking the public for the liberal share of their custom during the last summer, and hoping to greet the same old ones, and many new ones, when we begin to deliver ice again, we wish one and all success and happiness.

Five More Boys Gone to School.

Last week Ralph Beall left for Fort Worth where he enters T. C. U. Carl and Bruce Phenix re-entered Baylor University. The boys both like the school and are doing good work. Bruce has carried off several honors with his drawings in the past, and we expect to hear more from him in the future. He enters the senior work this year with bright prospects, and Carl the Sophomore.

Thomas R. Smith and Harvey Phillips left last week for the State University. These boys both carried off the honors of their home school the year they finished, and both were the youngest in their class. Thomas R. enters the Senior year in Civil Engineering, and would have finished sooner, but stopped two years to work. As it is, he will graduate before reaching his majority. Harvey worked hard this summer to be able to enter this year, and he has a bright future before him. We are proud of our home boys.

While we were enduring the excessive heat she and Miss Eleanor were cool and enjoying the refreshing beauties of nature and art, that even in the most imaginative, mood cannot be comprehended until actually viewed. Some one has said that the best part of a visit is the home-coming, and it proved so with Mrs. Coleman and Miss Eleanor, for when they

The Ladies Prayer meeting was held Tuesday with Mrs. Gustine, a large number being present.

G. B. Airhart, of Grapevine, Texas, visited his brother in the Carr community this week. Mr. Airhart owns land in Mitchell county and is so favorably impressed with conditions here that he contemplates transporting his Lanes and Penates hither at no distant day. "Great is Mitchell County, and The Record is its Prophet."

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buchanan are looking for their oldest son home this week, who has been in Old Mexico five years as civil engineer. He is now in the employ of the Southern Pacific road of that state, and has obtained an enviable position of trust and responsibility by his ability and reliability.

The subscriptions for the lyceum will be collected next week, as the first number occurs on the 13th. Col. Geo. Bain will be the first attraction. His address will be "Among the Masaees, or Traits of Character." Those who have heard him say that this particular lecturer is his best, and those who fall to hear him will miss a treat. # BRING YOUR COTTON TO COLORADO

THIS is the Very Best Cotton Market in all Texas. Our buyers have the best facilities for handling cotton and strong financial connections that enable them to pay the market price in cash.

Colorado has strong banks, with ample means to do all that is proper and necessary for your accommodation in a financial way, should you need assistance, in case you do not wish to market your cotton when ginned, but wish to hold for better prices.

Our merchants are buying in large quantities, knowing that we are to have a great trade this fall. We will thus be able to supply you with everything you need at prices that will please you, as the greater the volume of business the cheaper we can sell you goods.

We have several large, up-to-date gins that will give the best service at reasonable price. There will be no necessity for waiting on the part of the farmer who hauls his seed cotton here.

Colorado has splendid hotel facilities, livery stables and wagon yard accommodations and an abundance of pure water for man and beast. The public watering troughs are a blessing to all dumb animals.

Colorado merchants are anxious to serve the farmers of all Texas. Courtesy, promptness and fair dealing will be their watchwords.

THE RECORD urges its readers to visit Colorado your products here and buy from any of the advertisers in this paper. They will give you a square deal and their opinion save you money on every purchase.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

The State of Texas
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon C. R. Goodman and Bruce Knight, whose respective places of residence are alleged, under oath, to be unknown, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 32nd Judicial District; to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mitchell County, Texas, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Colorado, Texas, on the 3rd Monday in December, A. D. 1911, the same being the 18th day of December, A. D. 1911, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court, No. 1316, wherein Chas. J. Canda, Simeon J. Drake and Alphonse Kloh are plaintiffs, and C. R. Goodman, W. L. Edmondson, W. T. White, Bruce Knight and J. W. Smith are defendants; the nature of the plaintiff's demands being as follows:

Plaintiff's original petition filed herein alleges that plaintiff's reside in the city of New York, and State of New York; that the defendants C. R. Goodman and Bruce Knight are transient persons, and their respective places of residence are unknown to plaintiffs; that all of the other defendants reside in Mitchell County, Texas.

That heretofore, to-wit, on September 20th, 1906, the defendant C. R. Goodman made, executed and delivered to Chas. J. Canda, Simeon J. Drake and Sigmund Neustadt, of the City of New York, his eight certain promissory notes—numbered consecutively 9217 to 9224—both inclusive—each for the principle sum of $192.00, bearing interest from the date thereof, at the rate of six per cent per annum, until paid, and payable to the order of said Chas. J. Canda, Simeon J. Drake and Sigmund Neustadt, on or before one two, three, four, five, six, seven and eight years respectively, after date:

That said notes were given for a part of the purchase money for that certain tract or parcel of land situated in Mitchell County, Texas, known and described as the north half of survey No. 23 in Block No. 29 Township 1 South, as surveyed by and for the Texas & Pacific Railway Company, by virtue of certificate No. 2-1704, issued to said Railway Company, it being a part of the same tract of land which was patented to the said Texas & Pacific Railway Company, by Patent No. 98—Vol. No. 37, and containing 320 acres, more or less.

That each of said notes refers to deed No. 2097, by which said land was conveyed to said defendant C. R. Goodman, an d that each of said notes recites that one of the covenants of said deed is as follows, to-wit: "In case of default in the payment of any one of said notes, when it shall become due, and payable, then, and in that event, all of said notes then remaining unpaid, at the date of said default, shall mature, and become payable by person thereof, and the said grantors may at any time thereafter, proceed to enforce in full, the vendors' lien, and said deed contains such covenant.

That each and all of said notes are secured by the vendors' lien, which was expressly retained in said deed No. 2097.

That there is a covenant in said deed No. 2097, to the effect that said defendant, C. R. Goodman, shall promptly pay the taxes on said land, for the year 1907, and all subsequent years, and in the event of his failure to pay the same, on or before the first day of January next succeeding the assessment of such taxes, the grantors in said deed shall have the right to pay said taxes, and when so paid, the amount of said taxes, the expenses, penalties and costs pertaining to same, shall attach to and become a part of the purchase money maturing next after such taxes are so paid, and shall bear interest from date of payment thereof at the rate of ten per cent per annum:

That by virtue of said first named covenant contained in said deed No. 2097, and set out in each of said notes, and on account of the fact that none of the defendants have ever paid any of said notes, or any part of same, plaintiffs have elected to declare all of said notes due and payable, and to enforce in full, the vendors' lien on the said land:

Plaintiffs allege in their said petition; that they are the legal holders and owners of all of said notes:

Plaintiffs further allege in their said petition, that the defendant, C. R. Goodman, joined by his wife, by deed dated December 17th, 1906, and duly recorded, conveyed said land to the defendant W. L. Edmondson, and that a part of the consideration expressed in said last named deed, was the assumption by said W. L. Edmondson, of the payment of the said eight notes; that by the assumption of the payment of said eight notes, the said W. L. Edmondson thereby promised to pay, and become liable for the payment of the said eight notes:

Plaintiffs also allege in their said petition that they believe, and aver that said defendant, W. L. Edmondson, conveyed said land to the defendant W. T. White, though no deed of conveyance thereof, from said Edmondson to said White, appears of record; said W. T. White is notified to appear at the trial hereof, and produce the deed from said Edmondson, conveying said land, to him, the said White, and upon his failure to do so, secondary evidence of its contents will be introduced.

That said defendant, W. T. White, by deed dated June 5th, 1907, and duly recorded, conveyed said land to the defendant, Bruce Knight, and a part of the consideration expressed in said last named deed was the assumption by the said Knight, of the payment of the said eight notes:

That the defendant, J. W. Smith, is now in possession of the said land, under some sort of a claim thereto, the nature of which, is unknown to plaintiffs:

That the respective claims of said defendants, W. L. Edmondson, W. T. White, Bruce Knight and J. W. Smith, to said land, are junior and inferior to the lien of plaintiffs; wherefore they are joined, as parties defendant herein in order that whatever claims they may respectively have in and to said land, may be adjudicated in this suit:

That by the terms of each and all of said eight notes, the defendant, C. R. Goodman, agreed to pay an additional sum of ten per cent, on the amount of said notes, as attorney's fees, if not paid at maturity, and the same should be collected by an attorney, or by legal proceedings; that plaintiffs have been compelled to place said notes in the hands of an attorney, for collection, and to institute this suit; that said C. R. Goodman, by the execution of said notes, and said W. L. Edmondson and Bruce Knight, by the assumption of the payment of said notes, have become lawfully bound to pay ten per cent attorney's fees on the amount of said notes, which is alleged to be reasonable compensation:

That said defendant, C. R. Goodman, and all the other defendants, have totally failed to pay the taxes on said land for the years 1907, 1908, 1909 and 1910; that said taxes for said years, together with the interest, penalties and costs thereon, aggregated the sum of $55.64, on July 14th, 1911, and that plaintiffs on said last named date, paid said amount to J. B. Coughran, Tax Collector of Mitchell County, Texas:

That said defendants, nor any of them, have ever paid said notes, or any part of them; that plaintiffs have declared, and now here declare, all of said notes due and payable; that defendants still fail and refuse to pay said notes or any part of same, to plaintiffs' damage in the sum of Twenty-Six Hundred Dollars:

Plaintiffs further allege in said petition that the 1911 taxes on said land, will have to be paid in January, 1912, and that they will be compelled to pay same, unless said taxes shall be previously paid by some one or more of the defendants herein:

Plaintiffs, in their said petition, pray that on final hearing, they have judgment against said defendants, C. R. Goodman, W. L. Edmondson and Bruce Knight, for the full amount of the principal of, and the interest on, said eight notes, for the interest accrued on the interest of said notes $217 to $221, both inclusive—the same being the first five of the said eight notes—at the rate of six per cent per annum, from the maturity thereof—according to their respective faces—to date of final hearing hereof, for said taxes, costs and penalties thereon, together with interest thereon, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, from date of payment of same, to date of final hearing hereof, for ten per cent attorney's fees, on the whole amount due, and for all costs of suit:

Plaintiffs, in said petition, also pray for the foreclosure of the vendors' lien on said land, and that if at the final hearing hereof, none of the defendants has paid the 1911 taxes on said land, and plaintiffs shall have paid same, then and in such case, in addition to the judgment hereinbefore prayed for, plaintiffs pray that they have judgment against said defendants, C. R. Goodman, W. L. Edmondson, and Bruce Knight, for the amount of said 1911 taxes, together with the penalties and costs attached thereto, with interest thereon, from date of payment, at the rate of ten per cent per annum:

Plaintiffs further pray in their said petition, that said land be decreed to be sold, according to law; that the proceeds of said sale be applied on the judgment herein prayed for, and in the event said land shall not sell for a sufficient amount to satisfy the full amount of the judgment prayed for, then that they have execution against said defendants, C. R. Goodman, W. L. Edmondson and Bruce Knight, for whatever balance may remain unpaid, after the proceeds of the sale of said land shall have been applied on the said judgment.

Herein Full Not., But have you before said Court on the first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same Notice to Buyers of Lumber.

Mr. Cowan, manager of the Kelsay-Hawes Lumber Company, (A. J. Roe's old yard) has been handling over all the stock, carefully taking out all the low grades. In order to move these low grades quickly they are offering them at very attractive prices.

They also have a large stock of first class lumber, shingles, posts, etc. Mr. Cowan says the stock must be reduced. Go and see him.

To the Purchasers ...OF... Mitchell County

The amount of money annually sent out of Mitchell County to the mail order houses of Chicago, St. Louis and other cities, would astonish even those who most generously estimate it. It is something enormous. And why is all this money sent away from home when those sending it must know that not a penny of it will ever find its way into circulation again?

The answer is plain. They believe they are getting the goods for less money than they can be bought for from home merchants. This is a plain statement of the only reason, aside from the belief that they will have a larger stock from which to select their purchases.

Now, Good People,

If you could be shown beyond any peradventure of a doubt that you can buy the very same goods from us as cheaply as from the mail order houses of Chicago and other northern cities, would you not prefer to keep your money at home, where it would find its way back into your own hands? We believe you would. Further—we believe the success of the mail order business is in part due to the fact that they bid for your trade in expensive advertising and DEMAND THE CASH IN EVERY INSTANCE.

We'll Meet Their Prices

If you will come to our store with the money and pay us cash for all you buy, we will guarantee to duplicate the price and quality of anything you have bought from the northern mail order houses. Not a cent's worth will be charged to the very best man in the country; but the spot cash will buy anything in our store, or if we haven't it we will send for it for you for as little money as you can get it for from the mail order houses.

This Is a Fair Proposition

We want the trade of every person in Mitchell county who buys furniture, household goods of any kind, hardware, harness, or anything else that enters into housekeeping, and to this end we invite you to our store. Our goods will be marked at the price which we are compelled to ask for them when sold on credit, and also at the price at which we can afford to sell them at for SPOT CASH, which will explain all the advantages the mail order houses have over the home merchant.

This Is No Bait

just to get you into our store. Come and see that we will keep faith with every word of our advertisement. After this week we will advertise the prices of a few of the things, and more the next week, until we have covered our entire stock. All we ask is the opportunity to show you that we can do just as well by you for the cash as Mr. Mail Order or Mr. Anybodyelse. The difference between cash and credit business is all the difference between the goods of your home merchant and the Chicago merchants.

Come to our store and let us demonstrate this to you. You will be under no obligation to buy a penny's worth. We only wish to prove to you that what we say is TRUE. We can save the people of Mitchell county thousands and thousands of dollars this fall and winter, and we want to show you just how it can be done.

Very truly yours for Business,

Colorado will have a circus on the 14th instant—a real circus, with elephants, lions, tigers, rhamphorinchi, the mild-eyed and docile ichthyasaurus, and the trowel-tailed plesiosaurus, a lizard which licks up such things as crocodiles, boa-constrictors, politicians and book agents in companies for breakfast. It's going to be a good circus, and we would like to see a good crowd in that day. Twenty cars and acres of tent room.

Lame back is one of the most common forms of muscular rheumatism. A few applications of Chamberlain's Liniment will give relief. For sale by all dealers.

You may know that something is going to happen. Why? Our good friend, J. L. Killian, dressed in his best Sunday clothes, boarded the train Sunday morning and hid himself to—well, he wouldn't tell this deponent, but it may be well to keep an eye upon him.

The members of the Needle Work Guild are asked to have their garments ready by the middle of October, and every lady who is not a member should become one by making two new garments, which will go to any charity she desires.

Owing to the funeral services on Sunday afternoon occurring at the same hour, the services at the tabernacle were called in, but the same program will be held next Sunday. The question of Thanksgiving services, which have been under the direction of the Brotherhood for the past three years, will be considered then and arrangements made for the program, by the standing committee of the Brotherhood. They want to have the best services on that occasion in its history.

Biliousness is due to a disordered condition of the stomach. Chamberlain's tablets are essentially a stomach medicine, intended especially to act on that organ; to cleanse it, to strengthen it, tone and invigorate it, to regulate the liver and to banish biliousness positively and effectually. For sale by all dealers.

Do You Feel This Way?

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at nights unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to forge ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your lazy liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a lingering cough, bronchitis, or bleeding at the lungs, it will bring about a cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice. Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good." Dr. Pierce's medicines are of known composition. Their every ingredient printed on their wrappers. Made from roots without alcohol. Contain no habit-forming drugs. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cure of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.

Sunday night the colored Methodist church held a baby rally for the purpose of raising money. Three baby girls were entered, and for three weeks the money has been gathered in by means of envelopes, three women having charge of a "club" and running their baby. The contest closed Sunday night, the money being taken in and counted amid much excitement and many songs of rejoicing. The "Brooker Club" won for their baby collecting over $40, the "Hill Club" with $22 was second, and the "Brooks Club" third with $18.75; over $70 being made in all.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist church met Monday at four o'clock at the church. A very fine program was given. Bible reading and talks upon talents, Mrs. Lyon Mrs. Arnett and Mrs. Shaw. Missionary Chimes, these were cardboard bells, interesting facts about the Mission schools whose bells ring round the world. Mrs. Jackson read an interesting extract from a letter from China, Mrs. Blandford an article upon the Sue Bennett school, Miss Dry a sweet little story of a Korean girl—Toksunie. Mrs. Shaw made a splendid talk upon our duty to the foreigner. There was so much that the report of the delegate from Big Springs was postponed, as it was sun-down before we were discussing to meet the third Monday in our study course.
