Straight Talk to Our Customers

There is no sentiment, no thin skin in business. It is "something for something" all the way around the circle.

The time has come when the obligations of the retail merchants MUST BE MET. Our accommodations to YOU, in the way of credit, were made possible by the credit extended us by the cholesale merchants and banks. They are now demanding their money and in order to pay them we must have pay for what we have furnished you. This is a simple and sound business equation.

The depression of the cotton market affects the merchant more vitally and immediately than it does the farmer. If the merchant can't meet his paper, he is discredited or goes broke; the farmer is given another chance.

WE MUST COLLECT WHAT IS DUE US

In order to supply you next year. If you can not pay us the money, bring us your cotton and we will give you top prices for it, or put your indebtedness to us in such shape that we can handle it to our credit with those whom we owe. But it is very necessary that your account be settled in some way.

Do not neglect this matter, as its prompt attention will save both you an us much trouble.

Hoping you will appreciate the necessity of this notice and respond in the same business spirit it is given, we are still

PRESIDENT AND PEACE

Perhaps—who knows?—when President Wilson has finished his course as Chief Magistrate of this mighty Republic, and when historians come to assign his place in the pantheon of fame, they the Meuse. They also made one retreat. will pass over the great domestic measures of his administration, such as tariff revision, currency legislation, and so forth, and declare that his successful efforts to keep the United States out of war constitute his clearest title to the gratitude of his country.

In his famous first inaugural address, which has become a dasse, and which every boy and gall should commit to memory as a Literary exercise. Thomas Jefferson stated our ideal relations with foreign nations in these words: "Peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all nations; entangling all ances with none word fifty spoken, and therefore "Lie apples of gold in picture

Americans are a peace-loving people. We believe in John Milt a have saying: "Peace hath her victories no less renowne than war." President Wilson expressed with great delicacy an felicity to sentiments of all true Americans when he tendered his kindly thee, to the belligerent powers in order to stop the titanic strugg - across the sea. One man fired six bullets at another man, and, missing his this astounding Old World conflict America is the severely injured innocent by stander, and from a natural desire not to be injured any more, as well as from motives of friendship and humanity, we wish to see a speedy end to hostilities.

The first reason why we desire peace in trans-Atlantic coun- a terrible loss of life." tries is that we are all akin to somebody over there, and our hearts whether our ancestors came over 300 years ago, as mine did, or at British fought heroically. a later time. It applies with peculiar force to our 10,000,000 citizens who were born in the countries now in battle array.

Another reason why we want peace is that the war has disturbed almost every business in which any of our people are engaged fentalling sorrow, suffering and want on millions of Amerians who had no hand whatsoever in precipitating the awful

So, perhaps, it will be with this war—the bloodiest in all the hoary register of time.

No matter who got it up, no matter what it is about, we fondly hope and fervently pray for its early conclusion, not only for the sake of humanity and civilization, but for the sake of our own prosperity and happiness. CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS

The election on November 3 will result in the election of 435 members of the House of Representatives, and 32 of the 96 United States Senators. The Democrats now have a 2 to 1 majority in the House, and before the European war, it was expected that the Democratic majority would be cut to about 50 or 75, which, however, is a better working majority than the huge one we now have. But it is believed that the Democratis will retain practically the same majority as they now have as the American people believe in "standing by the President" when he is bearing such extraordinary burdens for them, as have been thrust upon him my the terrible European war. The Democrats have a majority of 10 in the Senate and it is believed this will be increased to 18 to 20 as Kansas, Wisconsin, Ohio, Illinois, New York and some others, are quite likely to return Democrats in the place of republacans who were chosen in 1908 when the country went republican for the

TREATED LIKE COMMON CLAY

New York, Nov. 2.—Criminal indictments involving a year's imprisonment and $500 fine were returned today against William of the Goat. Rockefeller, George F. Baker, Lewis Cass Ledyard, Charles M. Pratt and sixteen other former directors in the New Haven Railroad, by the Federal Grand Jury. They are charged with conspiring to monopolize commerce in connection with the recently dissolved New Haven combine.

Two hours later Messrs. Baker, Ledyard and Pratt were reach him. The work of beastiality arraigned before the bar of the Federal District Court whee is complete, and unmindful of all else they entered pleas of not guilty and were released in $5009 bonds

HOME THOUGHTS

In the papers night and morning you are confronted with the warning that the cotton market's busted mighty near. As we have before stated the war is on; not against our competitor, Germany or France, but against high prices. We wish to say to you as fully as words can express

Our Entire Stock is For Sale.

We'mean bargains on every item. Here we are in the land of plenty, more food than our whole population could use if everyody got enough, yet there are many people who must go lacking, and they are the very people who do the most of the hard, slavish work. We are in sympathy with every mother who is not comfortably situated around her home. Let not your hearts be troubled about the cotton market. Bring us a bale, we will buy it. You can supply your wants from our immense stock of Groceries, Shoes, and Dry Goods, for verily, we say unto you that you must help to use what you have produced. We want to advocate to our people and America to wear cotton goods, and do not forget the word that has been passed down the line: Buy a bale of cotton and wear it for a bustle; let Paris be forgetten while cotton-growers hustle. Our prices remain unchanged. We are receiving new goods daily. We strive to keep what we advertise, and advertise what we keep. The quality of our merchandise is equal to any and our prices are superior. If merchandise is what you want, give us an opportunity and we will sell to you. Don't forget our premiums in Wm. A. Rogers Silverware. Tickets given you with every $1.00 worth of goods bought from us. Our prices continue as before advertised.

We Will Name You a Price On a Few of our Staple Lines

However, our entire stock is included. Ladies' and Men's Ready-to-Wear Suits, and Ladies' and Misses' Cloaks and Skirts at a REDUCED PRICE. Tinware very near half-price.
