STORE BURGLARIZED.

Sometime Sunday night a man was caught in the Charters & Sadler drug store. He gained entrance by cutting the back screen door. It seems that there were two men, termed hobos. One stood on the sidewalk as guard while the other entered. The night watchman gave the alarm and they were arrested. Nothing was missing from the store.

A preliminary trial was held before Judge J. C. Hall and the men were turned loose. The one on the outside plead innocence, not knowing the other fellow, and doing nothing, no case could be made against him. The one who entered the store plead that he was a dope fiend, and was in such a condition that he had to have the drug, and entered the store for morphine and nothing else. The court held that a man in this condition was not responsible and so he was turned loose with a reprimand, and they both left town, not standing on the order of their going.

THRICE WELCOME.

Mitchell County Bids All the Soldiers and Sailors Welcome Home.

We are happy to join with the relatives and friends of the boys who have been "over there" in an old fashioned, genuine West Texas welcome upon their return.

Those of us who remained at home in comparative safety will never know the hardships you endured, nor the dangers you faced. Words cannot convey the experiences that were yours. Try as we may we shall not know the real meanings of the great world war to those who took part in the battles.

Day after day you made the supreme sacrifice in your own hearts as you faced the thunders of the cannon and roar of musketry. The task was not pleasant, you did not choose it, but duty made its demands and you answered the call of country and though you were at times afraid, you gladly obeyed the commands of your officers in order that you might do your part in saving the world from the domination of autocracy.

Soldiers of liberty we salute you. It is our joy to have you back in the "land of the free and the home of the brave." When you were gone our thoughts were constantly with you. Our achievements and the record you made only demonstrated to the world the faith we had in you. We hope you shall feel at home, we believe you will.

Yours has been a world view. Because of the great conflict in which you had a noble part the boundaries of Europe have been changed. Empires and kingdoms have toppled and fallen and 258 persons claiming nobility have been made plain people.

Our hats are off to you. We thank you, we honor you, we wish to make you know that we welcome you back to home and loved ones. We shall strive to show that we appreciate the great contribution you have made to civilization. You have upheld the traditions of this wonderful new world in a fashion to reflect glory upon our nation and honor upon everybody. You have written your names high upon the pages of history and the generations that shall follow will call you blessed.

The welcome which we give you today, and we include every man who has had a part in anyway in the winning of the great war, would not be complete if it did not include the wish and hope that in the days that are before you, you shall be found at the forefront, battling for the betterment of your community, your county, your state and our nation as you battled on Flanders fields for the liberty of the world.

The people who remained at home and supported by their money, their sympathy and their prayers expect you to become the leaders of the activities of this great land. If the leadership that is yours shall serve your own people as you have served the world by your brave deeds upon the battlefields of France it must be unselfish and given in the spirit that you gave while at the front.

Great opportunities are yours. The people are anxious to honor you and to see you have the best. Your future is in your hands, and it is with confidence that we look to you to give to America the benefits of an experience that shall make our country greater and more glorious as the years pass.

The joy we have upon your safe return home is boundless. We want you to know that it comes from hearts that appreciate the great sacrifice you made. Colorado is at your service and in the good old West Texas way we bid you ask for what you want if you do not see it. We "lift our cups" to drink to your health; may you live long, be happy and prosperous. Thrice Welcome!

ORDER FOR BOND ELECTION.

State of Texas, County of Mitchell:

Whereas, on the 11th day of June 1919, a petition was presented to me for an election in Common School District No. 12 of this county on the question of issuing bonds to provide funds to be expended in payment of accounts legally contracted in constructing and equipping a public free school building of wooden material, and authorizing a tax upon all taxable property within said district sufficient to pay the current interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal at maturity said petition bearing the requisite number of signatures of property tax-paying voters of said district and being in every respect in conformity with law; and, it appearing that Mitchell County contains a population of more than 8000, according to the last United States Census; and it further appearing that said common school district No. 12, has been heretofore on to-wit, the 9th day of April 1917, properly established in accordance with Article 2817, Revised Statutes of Texas, 1911; and it further appearing that said district as so established contains an area of more than nine square miles, and that no other district has been reduced in area below nine square miles by reason of the creation of this district; and it further appearing that said district No. 12 does not embrace any territory that was taken from any other school district (either common or independent) that had an outstanding issue of bonds at the date of such inclusion in this district.

WORDS FROM HOME.

Statements That May Be Investigated
Testimony of Colorado Citizens.

When a Colorado citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Colorado resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

C. D. Doggett, retired stock man, says: "Several years ago I was troubled with my bladder, which caused me to get up often during the night. I can gladly say that Doan's Kidney Pills helped me a whole lot and I take pleasure in recommending them to anybody suffering with their kidneys or bladder."

PLENTY OF RAIN THIS YEAR.

No Complaints Are Now Heard in West Texas of Lack of Moisture Cattle Doing Well.

Even the old timers do not remember the time when West Texas was more thoroughly soaked than at present, nor the time when the rainy season covered such a long period. Ever since the first week in March not a week has passed during which we did not get some rain, and some weeks there were a few days that rain did not fall. Another unusual feature this year, occasioned by the excessive rainfall, is the long spell of cool weather. This condition has worked to the detriment of crops, as the cold has retarded the growth to a great degree.

The excess moisture will prove of incalculable value to the ranges, as grass and weeds are now flourishing as never before; but it is hampering agricultural activities, as the farmers are anxious to get busy and destroy the weeds.

Some oat crops were badly damaged by the rains, after cutting, and some few patches utterly destroyed.

It has been a long time since we have had a cloudless day, and the rains and showers follow in such close succession, that work is retarded to some extent.

With prospects for the best crops in years, our farmers are staying right on the job, and they are going to keep everlastingly at it until crops are ready for harvesting. If destructive hail and rain storms and insect pests do not interfere further than they have so far, our county will be able to show some record crops this fall, especially in this so of feed stuff.

The last week has been ideal for promoting the growth of plants, and with a few more weeks of sunshine everything will be in fine shape in old Mitchell.

The excessive rains with sand, wind and hail has done some damage, but the ground is so thoroughly soaked that fine feed crops are practically assured. A few light showers will also make a bumper cotton crop if the worms and bugs do not destroy it. Prospects were perhaps never brighter at this time of the year than they are now. We knew old West Texas was coming back, and she's here now.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHIA TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

UNION HAPPENINGS.

This morning (July 1) looks good, as it is the first outlook for some fair weather, which is badly needed at this time.

Crops are doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Church progress almost at a standstill, mainly on account of weather and road conditions; while many are afflicted with indifference, which, if persisted in, leads to neglect, and neglect leads to destruction.

I want to tell you something—but of course you won't say anything about it. You know a prevailing sentiment is that the red ants and the Methodists are going to take this country; and with the help of the cocklebur weed, surely a success is assured.

Many of us farmers want to attend the fourth of July picnic at Colorado but in case we are not there you may feel assured we are over in the field trying to take care of our crops.

When you want your Ford car repaired, insist always upon getting the genuine Ford Parts, made by the Ford Motor Company, in order to insure reliable quality. There are "spurious," "counterfeit," "imitation" parts made by outside concerns who have no regard for quality in material, so insist on your Garage or Repair Man furnishing you the genuine Ford Parts. All reliable garages may now buy the genuine Ford Parts from us—so there's no excuse for any one using the "bogus" parts. To be sure, bring your car to us for repairs or replacements.

RAINFALL FOR COLORADO FOR LAST FOURTEEN YEARS. This record is made from the Government Gauge, now in charge of, and accurately kept, by E. Keathley. He can give you any other information.

A NARROW ESCAPE. On Wednesday little Susie Beal, two-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Snyder Jr., had a narrow escape from death. She fell from the running board of her father's car while he was driving at a great speed. The car was standing in the back yard and she crawled upon the running board, and was lying on it. Her father, not knowing she was there got in on the other side and started off on a business trip, at a fast rate. She held on for quite a little distance and was then thrown off. Some boys saw her, and knowing the child brought her to her mother. A physician was called at once, and it was several hours before they could tell how badly she was hurt, but on Thursday morning the physicians say it is only bruises and after a few days she will be fully recovered. The child says she screamed to her father, but the roar of the motor prevented him from hearing her; and when she fell off he was still in ignorance of her having been on the car and went on, not knowing anything of the accident until notified later. Mrs. Tims, who has been visiting Mrs. J. J. Williams the past ten days has returned to her home in East Texas.

of his purpose was quick and decisive. In England it was gradual, but complete. We may well unite on both shores of the Atlantic in celebrating this anniversary.

WILSON'S MESSAGE TO AMERICAN PEOPLE.

President Wilson, in an address to the American people on the occasion of the signing of the peace treaty, made a plea for the acceptance of the League and the covenant of the League of Nations without change or reservation. His message, follows: "My Fellow Countrymen:—The treaty of peace has been signed. If it is ratified and acted upon in full and sincere execution of its terms, it will furnish the charter for a new order of affairs in the world. It is a severe treaty in the duties and penalties it imposes upon Germany, but it is severe only because great wrongs done by Germany are to be righted and repaired; it imposes nothing that Germany can not do; and she can regain her rightful standing in the world by the prompt and honorable fulfillment of its terms. "And it is much more than a treaty of peace with Germany. It liberates great peoples who have never before been able to find the way to liberty. It ends, once for all, an old and intolerable order under which small groups of selfish men could use the peoples of great empires to serve their ambition for power and domination. It associates the free Governments of the world in a permanent league in which they are pledged to use their united power to maintain peace by maintaining sanctions. It does away with the right of conquest and rejects the policy of annexation and substitutes a new order under which backward nations—populations which have not yet come to political consciousness and peoples who are ready for independence, but not yet quite prepared to dispense with protection and guidance—shall no more be subject to the domination and exploitation of a stronger nation, but shall be put under the friendly direction and afforded the helpful assistance of Governments which undertake to be responsible to the opinion of mankind in the execution of their task by accepting the direction of the League of Nations. It recognizes the inalienable rights of nationality; the right of minorities and the sanctity of religious belief and practice. It lays the basis for conventions which shall free the commercial intercourse of the world from unjust and vexatious restrictions and for every sort of international co-operation that will serve to cleanse the life of the world and facilitate its common action in beneficent service of every kind. It furnishes guarantees such as were never given or even contemplated for the fair treatment of all who labor at the daily tasks of the world. "It is for this reason that I have spoken of it as a great charter for a new order of affairs. There is ground here for deep satisfaction, universal reassurance, and confident hope. WOODROW WILSON.

LONGFELLOW LOCALS. Rain, more rain and better rain—Friday until Sunday. It has rained every afternoon, some parts of the country receiving big ones and other parts little ones. Miss Hattie Lucy Cathcart was visiting Miss Ruby Wilson Sunday. Singing was better than ever last Sunday. It seemed that everybody was out. The class is now practicing on songs to be sung at the convention and is making nice progress. Bro. Haygood filled his appointment, and everybody had the pleasure of listening to a very interesting talk delivered by him. We heartily welcome this able preacher back. Quite a number of young folks from Buford attended singing Sunday. We are glad to have them at any time. Quite a number of young folks took dinner with Misses Mae and Kate Williams Sunday. Cotton chopping in general has begun in this community and will be in a big headway until it is all finished.

RIGHT WILL PREVAIL.

It has been the history of all nations of the world, as well as of all great national questions, that sooner or later the Right will prevail. Last week the Texas Legislature adopted the Federal constitutional amendment extending the right for women to vote. This is the ninth state which has already ratified this amendment, and we think that it will only be a short time until a sufficient number of the states will ratify it, to make it a national law. We think so because we think it is right. It is just as much right as was the prohibition amendment which was ratified as fast as the legislatures of the various states could meet and pass the bill. It is just as much right as was the policy of the United States in the great war, and the war was won by the United States and Allies because they were on the side of right, justice and fairness to the human race. If you will look back over the world's historical events it will be shown that, though the greatest wrongs seemed to, and did, prevail for greater or less time, the right finally came out triumphant, as it will always do. We think it is only fair to our mothers, our daughters, our sisters and sweethearts to give them the ballot. We never could see how nor why the "standard of womanhood" should or could be lowered by casting a ballot for the men who made their laws, and for the peace officers who protect their homes. It seems to us that if the women have to raise our children, as they do, that they should have a voice—and an equal voice—with the men in the selection of the lawmakers and officers, who control the destinies of the country and the government of these children when they become men and women. Let the women vote.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.

About a year ago the Fourth of July was observed as a festival in countries to which it had no previous significance. It was celebrated in France. It was even celebrated in England. It is a matter of record that it was observed in England with even more punctiliousness than in France. In plain language they made a fuss over it. George V took an official part in the ceremonies and there were services in cathedrals, and pyrotechnics—both chemical and oratorical. There was flag-waving, singing, parading, and promiscuous demonstrating. In this country considerable comment was made upon the official participation of George in the ceremonies. Not that George counts for much, either here or there; but George is a remote descendant of George III, whose personal humiliation is commemorated in our national festival. By what rule of logic George V should be restrained from celebrating the humiliation of George III is difficult to grasp. George V is the son of the niece of the brother of the son of George III. He is the flea on the tail of the dog of the wild man of Borneo, as worthily acclaimed in ancient vaudeville. If the remote ancestor of a cousin of yours was hanged for horse-stealing, the fact does not in any way compel you to champion horse-thieving as a polite diversion. Representative government was established as a precedent in England in Cromwell's day—shortly after the Pilgrim Fathers sailed. Only an accident prevented Cromwell from sailing later. George III impregnated with autocratic ideals by his German parents, tried to stifle this Anglo-Saxon instinct both in England and in the colonies. Contemporary literature proves that public feeling in England was solidly antagonistic to him. On this continent the frustration

IS THERE STILL A DIXIE?

(By Geo. M. Bailey of Houston Post) "Is there still a Dixie?" asks Life in its "Dixie Number." Yes, there still is a Dixie. A Dixie in the hearts of some of us older ones, and in that realm of the spirit of fancy many summon visions of the most beautiful of scenes, the loveliest of faces, and days of cloudless blue! Dixie, the East to which those of us who stand on the rim of the fading day turn in devotion, while the shadows creep! Dixie, the Glory Land of the Past, the golden bourne of memory's silent rambles, the hallowed Solitude in whose cool depths the lost chords of life breathe their music into the soul! Dixie, Love's Shadowland, peopled with the unfettered spirits of the noble and the great, redolent of memories that do not die because they cluster about things immortal, templed with the dream-fabrics of a nation that drew from out God's boundless deep and, after four years of romance, poetry and glory, turned again Home! Dixie, the beautiful and Glorious, the sweetest chapter of History, the noblest Epic of the ages, the light of yesterday whose effulgence gilds the crest of Time's swift onward tide! Dixie, the stainless Mother of the Nation, the indestructible Kingdom of the Twilight—Dixie, the incomparable South of our dreams! Yes, there is still a Dixie. I Must Sell For Cash. CHURCHES, CLUBS AND SCHOOLS ENTERTAINMENTS, PARTIES AND SOCIETY'S DOINGS

—BY MRS. A. L. WHIPKEY—

You will confer a favor upon the Record and the editor of this department if you will 'phone her (No. 157) any announcement or news item

Every woman in Colorado knows that I represent the Record in the way of writing up entertainments, parties, etc. It is supposed that when one gives an entertainment in honor of a friend, that such should be reported to the paper by the hostess, not that she might be honored by the mention, but as a courtesy to the honoree and her guests. I am always anxious to give mention to every one of these events in our town, be they big or little, simple or elaborate, but if the hostesses do not report to me, how am I going to know about it? Five minutes at the phone would be all that would be necessary, and those who entertain certainly owe this much to their guests. I have been criticized for failing to have an account of one or two entertainments recently. I want to say in self defence that I was not informed of either of these, and knew nothing of them until too late for the paper. The honoree in this case felt slighted, as well she might, and no doubt laid it at the door of the newspaper, instead of to the hostess, where it rightly belonged. My position is not like a reporter on a city paper who is paid a salary to do nothing but look these things up, and even then nine-tenths of the society functions are phoned to the reporter in case the paper had no invitation to the event, in which case a reporter is sent especially to write it up. Again I ask the ladies of the town and country, too, to phone me if you have any kind of entertainment, or if you have a visitor. If your friend comes from some other place to visit you, it shows a courtesy to them to have the paper mention it. It is impossible for us to get all of these items without your assistance. It might be done with a high salaried person who did nothing else, but a country newspaper cannot afford to do that. If every one who entertains or has a guest will call up 157, I will be glad to talk with you any time and will take pleasure in making mention of your guests or your entertainment. However if you don't do that, you should not feel hurt or slighted if the item does not appear in the paper.

Mrs. A. L. Whipkey, Local Editor.

ENTERTAIN FOR MISS PRUDE.

Mrs. Thos. Dawes gave a delightful tea in honor of Miss Prude last week. A goodly number of Miss Prude's friends were invited to come and bring their thimbles. The afternoon was spent in marking the beautiful linen which had been given her—each piece with a monogram into which was woven happy wishes for the bride. A salad course was served by the hostess.

The bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Marcus Snyder in honor of her cousin Miss Lois Prude, whose marriage to Lieut. Bennett was so soon to be solemnized, was a most elegant affair.

The bride elect, beloved of the host of friends who were present, wore a gown of corn colored georgette and Venetian point lace, with a diamond and pearl necklace of exquisite make. Mrs. Snyder who met her guests at the door was robed in a dainty gown of net and lace over old rose messaline. After the games were finished the guests were invited to the dining room where a luncheon was served, which recalled the old Southern feasts of the past in its lavishness and exquisite preparation. The bride occupied the seat of honor with its appropriate decorations; at her right her friend, Miss Gladys Sedwick of Albany; at her left her mother. The gentlemen of the two families joined the party at this time.

The occasion will be long remembered by those present and always a happy memory to the bride.

BAPTIST QUESTIONNAIRE.

I am mailing, this week, a questionnaire to every member of the Baptist Church who has not already filled out and returned to the pastor one of these cards. It is very important that the pastor have the information that these cards will furnish, regarding each member of the church. These questionnaires were given out during the meeting at the Baptist church, but only a few were filled in and returned, hence the necessity for mailing them to you now. Please do not throw it away, but fill it and return it to the pastor. He cannot do the church the good he wants to do without the information, regarding you as a member of the church, that will be contained on that card. If the church is to meet the demands of the present time, we must take some forward moves, and the pastor cannot personally visit each member and get you to give him the information he must have concerning your life, past present and future, if he is to lead in the on-going of the Kingdom here in this town. Won't you please heed this request? I ask it for your sake, for the Church's sake and for Christ's sake.

Don't forget that there is preaching every Sunday at the Baptist Church, unless otherwise announced. The pastor will preach at both morning and evening service next Sunday. The B. Y. P. U. meets at 7 p. m. and at 8 p. m. they have light refreshments and social thirty minutes in the Sunday school rooms of the church. Don't forget you are invited and then specially urged to be present at the preaching service at 8:30 p. m.

Colorado Presbyterians Over-subscribe Quota in Educational Campaign.

At a meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church last night the quota of $6,000 assigned to this church, is its part of the $50,000.00 to be raised in El Paso Presbytery for the benefit of the Presbyterian colleges of Texas, was several hundred dollars over-subscribed, and it is thought that a total of $7,000 will be reached here.

Prior to the night meeting the committee appointed to direct the campaign in this Presbytery, composed of J. M. Thomas, Colorado; E. B. Daniel, Toyah and Rev. B. K. Tenney, Barstow; met and fixed the amounts to be raised in each church in El Paso Presbytery, and arranged all details of the campaign. Mr. J. M. Thomas of this city is chairman of the committee and has been selected as campaign manager.

Andrew L. Randall of Dallas, Chairman of the Executive Committee of Schools and Colleges of the Synod of Texas, who is in charge of the campaign in the entire state, was present and met with the committee. He is the guest of Rev. Guy B. Duff, the pastor of the Colorado church.

At the night meeting Mr. Duff presided and introduced Mr. J. M. Thomas who made a brief address, and told those present of the amount fixed to be raised here. Mr. Randall was then introduced and made a more extended address, going into the history of Austin College at Sherman, the Texas Presbyterian College for Girls at Milford; Daniel Baker College at Brownwood, and the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Austin. He told of the activities of these institutions in the past; of their contributions to the educational leadership of the State and Nation, and of their necessity to the life and development of the church. Mr. Randall gave some interesting and astonishing facts and figures which demonstrated the peculiarly close relationship between the denominational college and the church, and proved that the growth and prosperity of the church everywhere are exactly in proportion to the growth and prosperity of the church colleges.

Mr. Randall told of this statewide campaign to raise $1,325,000 for the four institutions named above, and described the uses to which the fund is to be put, including the payment of debts, the construction of new buildings and creation of large endowments. After speaking of the efficiency of these colleges, which he said are the equal of any in the country, Mr. Randall paid a bright and heartfelt compliment to Dr. P. C. Coleman of this city, who has, for many years, served on the Board of Trustees of Austin College, and on educational committees of the Synod of Texas. He also spoke very feelingly of the services to the campaign of Rev. Guy B. Duff of Colorado, who has just completed four months of arduous and effective labors to the campaign in the State.

"The action of the members of the Colorado church," said Mr. Randall before leaving the city Thursday, "in immediately responding to the call, and over-subscribing a heavy quota at a financial sacrifice, is one of the heartening and inspiring incidents of the whole campaign, and assures success in El Paso Presbytery. Indeed, the campaign is succeeding everywhere in Texas, and we are now assured of victory."

MRS. BURNS' LETTER.

Here is a letter that is certain to prove of interest to people in this vicinity, as cases of this sort occur in almost every neighborhood, and people should know what to do in like circumstances:

Savannah, Mo., Oct. 12, 1916.

"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint some three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. LARGE VEGETABLES.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Draper who live north of Loraine brought a car load of vegetables to town and treated the newspaper man to beets and cabbage and we ate until almost sick. They had beets as large as a gallon measure, and cabbage as large as a water bucket and weighing from five to six pounds per head. Mr. Draper vowed they had gathered only the average ones. Mitchell county right now has more vegetables and fruit that has been raised altogether in the past three years.

The passage of the concurrent resolution was completed when the Senate adopted it by a viva voce vote. The resolution passed the House Tuesday by a decisive margin. Illinois was the first state to ratify the amendment on June 10 and was followed closely by Wisconsin and Michigan the same day. The other states which have approved the amendment are: Kansas, Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and Texas, named in the order in which they ratified the amendment.

GRAVEL FROM REEVES FOR THE BANKHEAD HIGHWAY.

The site of the county's gravel pit in the vicinity of Saragosa is the scene of activities these days with a crew on hand at all hours loading the gravel that will be used in grading that section of the Bankhead National Highway that crosses the Monahans sands.

This stretch of road has been the bane of travelers for many years, and necessitated a detour of forty miles from the main route along the Texas and Pacific to avoid the inconvenience of traveling over it, and was the cause of the lack of interest exhibited in that section regarding good roads building, as the problem was thought to be unsolvable. Bankhead engineers have tackled the problem and with the aid of the fine gravel found in Reeves county will soon overcome all obstacles and by winter that stretch of road will be open to the tourist.

During the past week and this 50 cars of gravel were loaded out from the Reeves county pit and used on the highway. It is estimated that over one thousand in all will be used.

In another column will be noticed a warning to school patrons that if children who are intending to enter this school were not included in the census of the independent school district, it will be necessary for them to be transferred to this district, and this must be done by August 1st. This is very important to patrons of the school, and if your children have not been enrolled on the census you should see to the matter at once. No doubt there have been many families who have moved here, or will come here for the school, who were not here when the census was taken, and if these children are not properly transferred and enrolled, they will have to pay tuition fees, according to the school laws of the state.

FREEDOM OVER ALL THE EARTH

Due Recognition of Human Rights Now the Aim of Mankind.

Independence hall is holy ground at the entrance to which, like Moses at the bush of fire, one should remove his shoes; but it pales into insignificance beside Interdependence hall which some day we must build across the street from the "birthplace of American liberty." One hundred, two score and three years ago, the federation of the thirteen colonies into a federal union was a political event of prime import; today it is overshadowed by the thing of which Tennyson dreamed. "The Federation of the World." The Declaration of Independence is a state paper of such significance as to stand in a class by itself. It immortalized every man who signed it. "These united colonies are and of right ought to be free and independent states; absolved from all allegiance to the British crown; and all connection between them and Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved." So run the words of fire the idealism of which was to be made real if need be, by the lives, as well as the property and sacred honor of the signatories. But the Declaration of Interdependence of all free peoples will overtop that of July 4, 1776, as the oak overtops the daisy.

Great Patriotic Aim.
But at that time independence was the biggest and best thing the fathers could purchase in a war of seven years. They could not enjoy the unalienable rights of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" while ruled by Great Britain, for to be subject to England meant to be robbed and exploited, jailed or hanged at the behest of a half-mad German, George III, who wore the British crown.

And so the patriots proposed to stand alone, to be independent. They proposed an equitable self-rule on lines more liberal than ever had been tried; there were to be neither kings nor kinglets but rather a state of human equality.

Across the water it was a dark day for human rights. In all Europe liberty was eclipsed; there was not one free people. Monarchs were supreme and more or less tyrannical; and so, to stand alone and even aloof, as Washington counseled, was to be prudent. No alliance was possible save with that which they had just renounced—kingcraft.

Old Order Abolished.
But "the old order changeth, giving place to new." Today, in 1919, the proper social desire of the individual is to "live in a house by the side of the road and be a friend to man." And similarly, to live in the crossroads of the nations and show vital interest in all that pertains to humanity is the proper attitude for the nation. The setting for the next act on the world stage must be big enough for interdependence and internationalism. Interdependence is life and opportunity for both. "We must hang together or we will hang separately."

By maintaining independence and aloofness the fathers hoped to succeed; isolation spelled safety, and so they trusted that a deep, wide moat at their front door, the Atlantic ocean, would keep their foes at a distance of 3,000 miles while they should gain numbers and wealth and experience in governing themselves. They minted coins bearing the inscriptions, "Let Me Alone" and "Don't Step on Me," the latter beneath the figure of a colled rattlesnake, and cutting themselves off from world politics and world interests they became a self-contained, self-sufficient people, enjoying free assembly, free speech, free press and free

But I was never surprised at any resemblance that appeared when your boys and ours stood side by side in the trenches. The minuteman of Concord is the ideal of the young Englishman of today, who flung himself over the top, giving away his comforts and risking his life for every man in his company.

We long to see England rich in just such young men as your minuteman, and you make the same prayer for America, so that in this, as in all the things by which men live, you and we have the same aims—liberty and the service of our country and our God.

I saw a very beautiful expression of the feeling between us on Memorial day last year, says a writer in Scribner's. I went early in the morning to the Old North bridge with flowers for the minuteman, a Southern friend was with me, and the two lost causes, British and Confederate, were alone on the bridge. We laid flowers before the minuteman and on the grave of the two British soldiers whose fate so moved Hawthorne. His spirit may have joined us as we raised the Old Manse, but no one else was to be seen, when suddenly a ghostly procession came through the mist—six old veterans just risen from their graves; four tiny boy scouts hardly yet born; and two young men of the present carrying a bugle and a flag.

They went first to the British grave, and for the first time in history they laid on it England's flag and a branch of New England apple blossoms; they saluted, blew a bugle call, and passed on to do the same for the minuteman and his flag. Then they stood in line on the bridge—each of the 12 threw a flower into the river and saluted, while the leader said: "We salute all the sailors who died in the Civil war."

Then after a last ghostly bugle call they melted away into the mist. Was it the mist of past or future?—for they had saluted the three great facts of past, present and future history—the birth of democracy, the friendship of Anglo-Saxons, and the future peace of the world which will surely spring from it.

religion, but making Americanism dangerously near a big provincialism. We helped no other people to gain our glorious liberty. All was well if we were let alone by the political and warring world.

Autocracy in Rout.
But a new world order has come in. The western hemisphere is all free. China has astonished the world by electing a president. "The bear that walks like a man" becomes human for a fortnight and is free—until his liberty, mistaken for license, enslaved him to the bolshevik. France and Portugal are free; Great Britain, our ancient oppressor, is free and is our friend. The British empire is free, a galaxy of great self-governing peoples—Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa—all free, even though a figurehead king is its nominal head; but Lloyd George, democrat, not George V autocrat, is the real ruler of the British empire!

Now for "Peace on Earth."
Free peoples do not menace the tranquility of the world; they are not bent on conquest; they seek not to impose their will on their neighbors, even though the neighbor be weak and small. They covet nothing which is their neighbor's. They stand for peace on earth and good will among men. The considerations alike of safety and ethics demand the observation of the golden rule among nations.

On July 4, 1776, the old Liberty bell rang out in order to "proclaim liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof." Suppose that on another July 4 it were permitted to raise its cracked and wheezy voice to do a bigger and far nobler thing: Proclaim liberty to all the oppressed of the world! Where is the man who would not wish to live in that good world? Surely not Simeon, "Lord, lettest thou thy servant now depart in peace."

Let all the free peoples of the world send representatives to meet in Independence hall. Let them create and sign a nobler document than that which the fathers made and signed; nobler and larger for one reason only—the new document will be the Declaration of Interdependence.

That declaration will enable all free peoples to stand against the aggression of autocratic spoliars. It will assert the solidarity of all who stand for freedom and who love their fellow men. It will set forth the growing sense of human brotherhood. It will express in larger measure the high political ideals of our time. It may not ring in a thousand years of peace, but it will herald that dawn—when light shall spread, and man be liker man.

Through all the circles of the golden year.

AMERICA'S DEBT TO LAFAYETTE

Washington Paid Tribute to Great Services Rendered.

WHEN the Revolution began Americans were still pioneers and straight shooters. The country was full of men who had seen service in war against the French and Indians. Washington had been all his life a soldier. It is not surprising that American officers felt quite able to handle the military situation without assistance from the host of applicants for commissions from abroad. Therefore when Washington heard that a young Frenchman named Lafayette had left his wife and child and crossed the ocean to serve the American cause as a volunteer without pay, he muttered: "One more incumbrance." But Lafayette pleaded: "Give me a chance; I do not want to be an honorary soldier."

He went to Washington's camp and there began a friendship which ran through so many years like an idyl. In 1785 Brissot visited Washington at Mt. Vernon with a letter from Lafayette.

Lafayette.

He says Washington "spoke to me of M. De Lafayette with emotion; he considers him as his child." Later, Lafayette sent to Washington the key to the destroyed Bastille, saying: "It is a tribute which I owe as a son to my adopted father, as an aid-de-camp to my general, as a missionary of liberty to its patriarch."

French Eager in Liberty's Cause.
The spirit of Lafayette was the spirit of Rochambeau's army. A host of young French officers looked on the expedition as a crusade for liberty, and crowded for places. Young Berthier was a volunteer at Yorktown, and he became a marshal of France, Viscount

De Noailles marched afoot the whole 756 miles from Newport to Yorktown. Young Saint-Simon, Cloasen, Chastellux, a brother of Mirabeau, a brother of Talleyrand, Barras, later Director Barras, and many other enthusiasts for liberty were in the expedition. They understood Americans. Equality was the particular American trait which impressed them most, and this idea was imported by them from America into France.

Rochambeau placed himself and his army under the command of Washington. The ragged Americans always had the right of the line. In case of equality of rank, the American officer always took command. Not so much as a cabbage was taken without payment. Before Yorktown the Americans were not skilled in siege operations, and Washington gratefully acknowledged the service of the French engineers. The French fleet closed the river, and the surrender came. Without that French help we tremble to think what might have happened.

Fired Lafayette's Ardor.

Toward the close of the year 1776, the duke of Cumberland, who was the brother of King George III of England, was traveling in France, and one day he arrived at the town of Metz, then a French possession. A certain count De Broglie, a veteran of many battles, was in command of the garrison, and to do honor to his distinguished visitor, he invited some of his officers to meet him at dinner. Now it happened that the duke of Cumberland was in disfavor with his royal brother—he was, in fact, in banishment. He had lately received news that certain of his majesty's colonies in America had rebelled and declared themselves free, declining to be subject any longer to a tyrannical king. It would seem that the duke of Cumberland told the story with some gusto, as if he were not altogether sorry that his brother was in trouble. One officer listened with particular attention. He was a youth of nineteen, tall and thin, with a long nose and reddish hair. His solemn expression and his somewhat awkward manner contrasted strongly with the frivolous ease and grace of the other young officers present. He was a marquis of long descent, connected by marriage with one of the greatest families in France, and he had at his own disposition a very large income. He listened intently, he asked many eager questions, and when he rose from the table he had made a momentous and historic resolution. He had resolved to abandon the pleasures and luxuries of the gayest court in the world, even to leave his young wife and child, and to cast in his lot with these strange rebels in America. In his own words, "When first I heard of American independence, my heart was enlisted!" That young man was Lafayette; and when the American army went to the front in France, it merely paid a small part of the debt of gratitude we owe that splendid young officer—that true nobleman.

Appointed a major general by Washington in July, he fought at the battle of Brandywine in September and received an ugly wound. Soon again in the saddle, he went through many vicissitudes and privations with Washington at Valley Forge, his crowning exploit being the forcing of the retreat of Lord Cornwallis, leading to his surrender at Yorktown, in 1781. Although Washington and other famous American generals had joined him previous to the surrender, Lafayette, with a small force, had initiated the rout of Cornwallis at the battle of Red Bank. That the highest credit was due to Lafayette is shown by the fact that Washington warmly thanked and complimented him in the presence of the troops, after the great surrender which practically ended the war.

Patriot of Marblehead.

General Lafayette paid a tribute to Marblehead, Mass., by making two visits to the people, by whom he was received with bands of music and a huge procession of citizens. It is related that on his first visit in 1784 there was a controversy as to how the procession was to proceed through the main streets of the town, owing to the fact that at one of the sharp turns, a house so jutted into the road that the general's coach could not pass. On the morning of the great event, it was discovered that the patriotic family occupying the property had cut off a section of the house, removing the offending corner and thus the coach was driven without a hitch through the street. The house with part of the first story missing can still be seen in this year of 1919, and is shown in the illustration.

He Is The Welcome Guest Who Goes Quickly.

The following jingle from James Bloomfield has more truth than poetry, many people would do well to think it over; especially some of Colorado's young men: It goes thusly:

"Thrice welcome is the man who, when his visit ends, gets on his hat and says good-bye, and on his journey wends.

"No taxer of politeness he, he better breeding shows, than him who lingers hat in hand amid his hosts who round him stand, and yet talks on a weary spell, his worn-out jokes again to tell, while those who wait, politely grin and bitter thoughts do think within; their feet a-hurting them like sin, until at last he goes.

"How beauteous is the wight, who, when he's spilled it all and took his share of friendly fare, and feels he must be elsewhere, promptly ends his call.

"And not on going stands, but when he's got his hat, makes his farewell and gets away without the final chat.

"And when he comes again, we greet him with a cheer, sure that when he's said his say, he'll get his hat and break away, of him we to each other say, "He's always welcome here."

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts Like Dynamite on a Sluggish Liver and You Lose a Days Work

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and cannot salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

THE PRO. AMENDMENT.

For more than a generation the fight against the saloon in Texas has been going on. The first State-wide election on a constitutional prohibition amendment was back in 1887. The vote in that election was 129,270 for and 220,627 against. The second election was in 1911, and the vote as announced was 231,096 for and 237,393 against. There was a general feeling throughout the State that prohibition won in this election if there had been an honest count. Since that time the prohibitionists have repeatedly tried to have the amendment submitted again, but the liquor forces have succeeded in defeating the wishes of the majority of the people until this year. The third election was held May 24, and the amendment carried by a safe majority. There was but little interest in this election as there are no open saloons in Texas, and the Federal law will go into effect next month. Then the state is also under statutory prohibition, though this law has not been fully tested in the courts. The adoption of this amendment to the constitution of the State banishes the saloon from its borders whatever the courts may decide about statutory prohibition and whatever steps may be taken to delay the operation of the Federal law. We predict that there will never be an open licensed saloon in Texas again.

WILL MITCHELL COUNTY BE REPRESENTED?

The County Should Have An Exhibit and Chamber of Commerce Send a Representative.

The following letter has been mailed to the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. The Record thinks it is one of the best opportunities to get the county before prospective immigrants, and think that there should be a small but complete exhibit of the products of this county gotten together, and a good, representative man selected to go with this party. It would be worth every cent it cost and then some. Here is the letter:

Dear Secretary:

I am now at work mapping out the plans for the West Texas Business Men's Trade Excursion to the Middle West. There are many details connected with this project. This project represents substantially the most elaborate and far reaching effort ever made by any commercial body, local, regional or state, to advertise a great section of country. It stands out boldly as a project of vast possibilities and typifies the spirit of West Texas. Perhaps in no other region of the United States would a project of such size have ever been thought possible of realization.

I want you to be thinking of the excursion; therefore I want to tell you something about it.

It is a plan by which a special Pullman Exhibit car train will be assembled at some convenient point in West Texas. The train will be equipped to take care of from 150 to 200 business men and farmers of West Texas, a Pullman berth being provided for each. There will also be a Buffet or Club car. In addition to the Pullmans and Club car, there will be attached to the train two agricultural exhibit cars and one car equipped as a miniature theatre, in which will be shown motion pictures of the agricultural, livestock, mineral and industrial interests of West Texas.

Every county and every commercial organization in West Texas will be given an opportunity free of cost to furnish part of the agricultural and mineral exhibits, materially from each county or locality being properly tagged as from said county or locality. Also each region of West Texas will be properly represented in the motion picture.

The present tentative itinerary proposes visiting Texarkana and Little Rock, Ark.; stopping at Memphis for the Tri-State Fair, thence to Nashville, visiting the Tennessee State Fair. Stops will be made at Hopkinsville, Madisonville and Louisville, the train will be routed through Cincinnati, Toledo, Akron and to Columbus, Ohio, where a day will be spent as guests of the Ohio State Fair. Leaving Ohio, the party will spend a day in Detroit the guests of the Ford Motor Co., which plant will be inspected, and of local commercial bodies. From Michigan the train will be routed into Chicago, where the party will be the guests of Harry A. Wheeler, President of the United States Chamber of Commerce, and also where we will be served luncheon at the Lincoln Park Zoological Gardens. A feature of this luncheon will be that the waiters will be Kangaroos. We will visit the Illinois State Fair at Springfield, going from there direct into Milwaukee and then to Fon du Lac, Wisconsin, inspecting the great Holstein cattle herds there, thence to Madison as the guests of the University of Wisconsin for a day. Next stop will be Minneapolis, where we will visit the Minnesota State Fair. Leaving Minnesota, we will stop at Des Moines and several other Iowa Cities, visiting The State Fair enroute. A day each will be spent in Omaha, Sioux Falls and Lincoln, and possibly other towns in Iowa and Nebraska. The next important stop will be at Kansas City, where we will visit the International Soil Products Exposition. Leaving Kansas City, we will visit Emporia, Topeka, Wichita, Kansas; and then pass into Oklahoma on the last leg of the trip, visiting important cities and fairs in that state.

We will be guests at practically every point we stop, of Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Clubs, etc. Chicago, Detroit and Milwaukee especially are planning elaborate entertainments.

The approximate trip will be about $175.00 per passenger.

The probable date for the trip will be September 3rd to September 24th, 1919.

Each Chamber of Commerce in West Texas will first have the opportunity to send one or more representatives. After these are taken up, the 3000 members of this organization will each have the opportunity to take the trip and will be assigned Pullman space in the order of reservations. About 30 days prior to starting the trip, payments for berths and etc., will be due.

Chester Crowell, Publicity Manager, for those organizations, will make a tour of the territory over which we will travel. He will proceed us by from ten to fifteen days at each point. He will arrange for proper reception for us, get publicity in local newspapers, etc. At each Fair he will make special arrangements for the farmers attending the Fairs to visit our Agricultural-Mineral Exhibit cars. Also at leading industrial centers he will arrange for meetings, where the industrial needs of West Texas cities may be set out. At all important points oil and mineral displays will be brought up-town for special display.

Commerce taking the trade excursion. We have a big idea. Already many are asking for reservations?

Complete and final details will be furnished you by the middle of July at the latest. In the meantime, from time to time, we will keep you posted on the details.

Sincerely,
Porter A. Whaley,
General Manager, West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

BAKER-WHEELER MANUFACTURING CO. DALLAS, TEXAS

ONE DOLLAR BUYS ONE THOUSAND DOLLAR POLICY

After due consideration and advising with the President and chairman of the board of Trustees of the E. K. Progressive Insurance, and others who are vitally interested, we have decided to put into effect on this date a campaign for membership at the very small cost of 1.00 per member.

No one gets any commission out of this fund but on the other hand it is placed in the First National Bank of Snyder, Texas, to the credit of the general fund to pay the first death call.

We decided to do this for the first 1000 members, because we realize the stringency of the times, the scarcity of money and the need of the public for protection in a good wholesome, solid insurance policy, we therefore waive all commissions and give you the full benefit of the protection, offered you at cost, based on a death rate in one of the healthiest districts in the U.S. The death rate for the last 17 years being only 2 to 1000 population of insurable age.

We will be at Colorado the 7, 8 and 9th; Loraine the 10th; Roscoe 11 and 12th.

Joe Baily "is in bad" worse than ever. The things that people have charged him with, and proven him guilty of are nothing to be compared with what's happened to him the past week. Of course he was "down and out" before this last humiliation came upon him. But why should a man even of such sinner as Baily be treated in the manner he was last week. There is a limit to all things. No matter how degraded a man may come; no matter how long he may get—there is some species of punishment that is too severe, that is brutal and inhuman—that is undeserved—and this has been visited upon the head of Joseph Weldon Bailey. Last week Jim Ferguson came out in an article favoring Bailey for President!—Plainview News.

You Do More Work.

You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness.

GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill TONIC is not a patent medicine, it is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood.

The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill TONIC when a member of their family had Malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store. 60c per bottle.

At the Record office all kinds of rubber stamps, ink pads, ink, daters, numbering machines, etc.

Soldiers Returned.

Several of the Loraine boys returned Wednesday morning of last week. Most of the boys were members of the famous 90th Division. They have many interesting things to tell of the battle fields of France. They also served in the army of occupation until their departure for home. The following boys were in the supply train of the division: Herman Finley, Luther Meadows, Drew Givens, Howe Bennett, Edwin Hallmark, Russell Kidd, Walter Washburn, Newt Haggerton. Private Walker Roberts served in the infantry corps. Walker tells us he knows of one German that felt the cold steel. He went over the top seven times, coming through without a scratch. All the boys were, of course, glad to be home again, and the home folks were only too glad of their arrival.

Fifth Sunday Meeting.

The fifth Sunday meeting held at the Baptist church from Thursday until Sunday evening was well attended. Many of the best preachers of the Association were present, and many valuable lessons were laid down during the course of the sermons. Dr. Sandefer, president of Simmons College, spoke both in the forenoon and afternoon of Sunday. His talk was on Christian education and higher things in life. Those who were present affirmed the fact that Dr. Sandefer is one of the most able speakers of the South. The upbuilding of the church and Sunday school was discussed throughout the meeting. Rev. Ira Harrison of Abilene led the singing.

Since the 11th hour of the 11th day and 11th month of the year 1918 it has been a question as to whether or not the peace that would end the great war would be signed by the German delegates. It seems as though the Germans have been rather demanding, bound as they were. Not until the line was drawn did they sign. But at the last moment coming through the back door of the palace at Versailles, they signed the articles that officially ended the great war, June 28th at 3:13 o'clock.

The Outlook.

Going back and turning the leaves of the history of West Texas, we never find as much rain as we have had so far this year. Never was there before more feed in Mitchell county. If nothing happens to the feed crop we believe Mitchell county will have feed and to spare. Most all the early maize is in head or shoot. The small grain crop has been harvested. It was, of course short, as is a common thing here, owing to the small amount planted. But most every farmer has a small patch of early feed which has "cut out" his feed bill. The cotton crop is all young and no one knows as yet, how to estimate the amount of cotton that will be made; it of course depends on the fall season.

But the surrounding country looks more promising than it has for the past few years.

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try It!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates. Adv.

Some few years ago some men in our state decided that the discharge of powder in large quantities would cause it to rain. Of course there was much discussion along this line during the war, and it will cause one to stop and wonder. If he will look back to war times, when the countries of Europe were continuously being rained upon, while the scope of dry country grew larger in the U. S. each year of the war. Even though we are undecided on the question as to whether or not this had anything to do with causing the drought, it at least, looks suspicious, especially if you recall the fact that only a few weeks after fighting had ceased in Europe, it began to rain in this country and has continued to do so until this good day.

DAYLIGHT SAVING LAW.

Final approval has been given by congress of the repeal of the daylight saving law which measure is attached to the agricultural appropriation. Unless President Wilson should veto the bill, when we change back to the old time the last Sunday in October it will be for "keeps". The law does not work well in this part of the country. As it is it don't get dark until almost midnight and it is getting-up time before you go to bed. The farmers have never adopted the new time and they do not approve of it. Dairymen and truck farmers find it a hardship. The people of Texas are almost unanimously for the old time.

An El Paso dispatch says: "Zach L. Cobb, who has been connected with the War Department for nearly a year, has resigned and will return from Washington to El Paso immediately to engage in law practice. Mr. Cobb plans a series of speeches in the Southwest in support of the League of Nations covenant. He said the people along the border have been misinformed concerning the League." We hope Zach Lamar will not leave Colorado off of his itinerary.
