MITCHELL COUNTY BOY REINLISTES IN ARMY

After more than two year's service in the infantry, U. S. Army, Charles G. Gressett, son of Mrs. E. P. Gressett, of Westbrook, has reenlisted in the United States Army, according to information obtained from the Camp Bowie Recruiting office. Mr. Gressett has reenlisted with a view to service in the Coast Artillery and will be sent to Presidio, California for training. By reenlisting Gressett secures an immediate discharge from his old enlistment and a thirty day furlough, with full pay, which enables him to visit his family and friends. He also receives the $60.00 bonus.

BASE BALL.

Colorado and Loraine will play ball today on the Loraine diamond in a contest game for the West Texas Championship. A good crowd of Colorado fans should attend.

APPRECIATION.

As chairman of the entertainment to entertain our soldiers on the Fourth, I wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to those who helped to make it the grand success it was. The band boys, with their untiring efforts, the Colorado Record for its generous publicity, Capt. Allen Wight, who brought the splendid overseas message, Mrs. J. H. Guitier who had charge of the splendid pageant; and to the different committees who gave valuable service to each individual who added, in any way, to the success of the picnic. From the depths of my heart I thank you for your help and for the cooperation.

BIG DAY FOR COLORADO WELCOME PICNIC SUCCESS

The Victory Fourth Was Duly Celebrated by People of Mitchell County. Over Four Thousand People Here.

The Mitchell County celebration for the soldiers and victory, was a grand success, and of course the entire county is proud of it. Even the older people who had forgotten the thrills that come on the Fourth of July, felt the renewing of youth; and the day of days, brought memories long dormant. The young, ever ready to respond to gaily and pleasure, caught the true spirit of the day, and if care ever was in their lives, it was forgotten for the day. The weather was ideal—a regular West Texas summer day. Not a cloud appeared on the horizon, and shade and cold drinks were a welcome feature, and both had been provided, so nothing was present to mar the happiness of the great throng.

At an early hour people began coming from all quarters, and in every way; in buggies, wagons, automobiles, Fords, and on foot. The morning trains brought crowds from the West as far out as Pecos, and from the East as far as Sweetwater. Long before the hour for the parade the streets were full of jolly, merry people.

At the appointed hour the parade formed at the court house, and the crowds viewed the line of march up Third street, south to Second street, up Oak to the tabernacle, where the program was given.

The parade consisted of Mitchell county soldiers in uniform, led by the local band in a beautifully decorated auto truck; then came the boy scouts, followed by beautifully decorated cars, with the inevitable small boys bringing up the rear.

The prizes awarded for the best decorated cars, were announced: Mrs. Jack Smith's car receiving the first; Mrs. C. L. Root, second, and Mrs. Jerold Riordan third.

The tabernacle had been most beautifully and elaborately decorated in the national colors, flags, county service flag, and a profusion of yellow flowers and green background.

The large auditorium seating over 2000 people was filled to overflowing, and fully as many more people were on the outside.

Dr. P. C. Coleman, Master of Ceremonies called the great crowd to attention and read the program. The good Doctor's heart was full and it was with an effort that he refrained from saying some of the things that was uppermost in his heart.

The band played a welcome song which was caught up by six leading citizens, as they marched in from the rear, and sang by them and the band boys. They wore Drs. Ratliff and Root, Mayor Adams, Judge Hall, J. E. Stowe, B. S. Van Tuyl. This put the great audience entirely at ease and helped prepare the way for the splendid program that followed.

Col. C. M. Adams, Colorado's Honorable Mayor, was then introduced, and gave the welcome address. The mayor always says the right thing, but on this great occasion out-did himself, and made a magnificent talk. He welcomed the soldiers in behalf of the citizens of Colorado and Mitchell county with words right from the heart. The keynote of his address was praise for the Allies, the Americans, and for Mitchell county boys. In part he said:

Mayor Adams Welcome Address.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:—To me has been assigned the pleasant task of extending, on behalf of the entire citizenship of Mitchell County, sincere, cordial and hearty greeting to our soldier boys.

I deeply regret that some one more worthy, more capable and more competent was not selected for this service, for I well know and you well know that I cannot measure up to the importance of the subject or the occasion. But you boys in Khaki have already shown the world how to accept cheerfully and perform promptly every duty assigned, however difficult or arduous it may be, and so, endeavoring to emulate that splendid example I appear before you today and ask your indulgence for a short space of time. And I am sure that no soldier among you who fought upon the blood-stained battle fields of France, who crouched in the mud of the front line trenches, ever experienced one tenth the fear and trembling, ever felt one tenth the trepidation that I am experiencing at this moment.

On June 1, 1918, the outlook for the Allied cause in France was very gloomy. Beginning March 21, the Germans had made five terrific drives, had delivered five tremendous blows. They were aiming for Paris, the Heart of France, the heart of the Allied World. France and England were reeling, they had been bled white. For four long years they had borne the brunt of the savage attacks of the murderous Huns; successful attacks for the most part—the fruit of forty-five years of careful military preparation, of perfect military knowledge and exact military science. Germany was recklessly spending her men as a spendthrift recklessly spends his patrimony. She was wasting the choicest blood of her empire as water is wasted when it rushes in torrents down the mountain side and is not conserved. She was offering up her countless legions as cannon fodder before the mighty guns of the Allies, in sacrifice to the mad hope, in sacrifice to the mad desire to become mistress of the world and all things therein contained; to become mistress of all the free peoples, all the liberty-loving peoples on the face of the globe.

In their widely advertised March offensive the Germans dealt the British Fifth Army a mighty blow which sent it reeling back in disorganized retreat. At once they drove the entire Allied lines back to a depth of more than thirty miles along a front of many miles. Then slowly, very slowly, but surely the Allies were forced back until they were within a short distance of Paris, the heart of France and the heart of the Allied world.

And then Marshal Haig, that sturdy old British bull dog, commanded his men to place their backs against the wall and to give not another inch, and they obeyed the order. That gallant line of French, and English, of Australians, Canadians and New Zealanders, the dusky hued Singaleses, the East Indians and the Moroccan tribes held back those teeming hordes, waiting for the advent of America, and with America came the turning point of the war.

And then a little incident happened which is worthy of repetition because it so truly and strikingly represents the spirit which animated you and your comrades in that mighty world war: An American regiment had just arrived in France and was at once brigaded with the French and thrown into battle. Those cautious British and French generals did not deem it wise to pit these raw, untried unseasoned young troops from the great Republic of the West alone against the veteran Germans, flushed with victory; veterans of four years of warfare which had set the whole world ablaze. And so Uncle Sam's boys were brigaded with the British and the French, and this particular regiment of which we are speaking was brigaded with the French and immediately thrown into battle. At a critical time the French general in command gave the order to retreat. The French promptly obeyed that order but the Americans ignored it and continued to press forward. The order to retreat was again given, this time more sharply and peremptorily than before. The American Colonel turned around, looked the General full in the face and shouted, "Retreat? What for? Hell, we just got here.—Go to 'em boys," and the boys went to 'em with such good effect that they just naturally cleaned up on that bunch of baby killers. And from that good day the Allied Armies never again took a backward step, but pressed onward and forward and ever onward until their victorious march was only stopped by the signing of the armistice.

And then there came in rapid succession the battles of Cantigny, Belleau Wood, Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel and the Argonne Forest, and many others. And who was present at the battle of the Bois de Belleau the Wood of the Beautiful Water? Who participated in that brilliant conflict? Who was responsible for that dashing victory? Posterity will ask these questions and History will record, through all the future ages—"The Americans! The Doughboys! The Marines!"

And who was present at the battle of Chateau Thierry? Who participated in that decisive engagement? Who was responsible for that cardinal victory? Posterity will ask these questions and History will proclaim through all the future ages—"The Americans! The Doughboys! The Marines!"

And what about the Salient of St. Mihiel? That ugly salient that protruded its uncouth front along the tortured soil of devastated France? From almost the inception of the war it had stood there, menacing, lowering, forbidding, in defiance to all the desperate efforts of the gallant Frenchmen to eradicate it. It stood there, a menace to France, a menace to the Allied Cause, a menace to civilization. And lo! suddenly a miracle has happened. Yesterday, it was; today it is not. What has become of the famous salient at St. Mihiel? Who has demolished in so short a time that which brave and fearless Frenchmen could not overcome in four long years? For, lo! a miracle has happened! Yesterday it was; today it is not! Who obliterated this menace? Who blotted out this obstacle? Who eliminated it from the map of France? History will announce in clarion tones—"The Americans! The Doughboys! The Marines!"

And was there present at that great epic battle of the Argonne Forest? Who fought for forty-seven long days and nights without sufficient food or adequate clothing because they were cut off from their base of supplies, with insufficient rest and sleep because there was no time to sleep and rest? Who fought in that bloody forest, where every tree concealed a machine gun nest; where from behind every pile of rocks a battery belched forth death and destruction to every one that opposed it? Who was it that fought an unseen foe, who had to slip from tree to rock and from rock to bush, fighting a foe one hundred times more brutal, one hundred times more treacherous, one hundred times more venomous than the red Indian ever dared to be? Posterity will ask these questions and History will spread its flaming pages before the eyes of an admiring world and the answer will be—"The Americans! The Doughboys! The Marines!"

And so, today, in every town and city, in every village and hamlet throughout the length and breadth of this beloved country of ours, the people are meeting to thus give public evidence of their love and affection; their gratitude and devotion to all those who wore the Khaki, and their pride and exultation in the wonderful deeds you have achieved.—And when I say all those who wore the Khaki I mean that literally, word for word. There are some among you who were not permitted to go "over there." There are some among you who will be denied the future privilege of telling your children and your grandchildren as they gather about your knees at some future time, that you were, for example, a survivor of the ill-fated Tuscanis, or, that the little piece of metal which you wear suspended from your breast was presented to you by a grateful government, or, that the old wound which you still bear was received at the battle of the Bois de Belleau, the Wood of the Beautiful Water, or, that you had gone into the very gates of Death, and charged into the Jaws of Hell and had left your right arm in the Argonne Forest.

You had no opportunity to be an Alvin C. York. You had no chance to become a member of the immortal 1st battalion. You had no opportunity to ride among the clouds and from that lofty height deal sudden death to the common enemy of civilization. But you did your duty, God bless you, wherever you were placed. Your government said to you, "We have need of you here. You cannot go 'over there.' He also serves who only stands and waits. Be content." And while, perhaps, your more fortunate Buddy was pounding hell out of Germans you were pounding hell out of the old typewriter at Austin or Washington, or peeling potatoes at Camp Bowie or Camp Travis. But you did your whole duty and therein the honor lies—

"Honor and fame from no condition rise,
 Act well your part, therein the honor lies."
 And you helped win the war just as

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION

surely as did your comrades who had the privilege of fighting in a world's defense. You helped to win it by whole-hearted attention and devotion to duty and by serving your country to the best of your ability in whatever capacity you were placed.

There is glory enough for all. There is glory for Belgium, gallant little Belgium, who held back the German hordes for a few precious days before the gates of Liege until France could prepare for the struggle. There is glory for France, dashing, fearless France, who hurled the foe back at the Marne until Great Britain could marshal her first one hundred thousand men into the conflict. There is glory for England, sturdy, indomitable England, who gave all she had of men and money and blood and ships and treasure that the world might be forever made safe for democracy. So there they stood, side by side, shoulder to shoulder, France, England, Belgium and Italy, stemming the tide waiting for the help of America, that giant young Republic across the far Western waters, America! — the greatest nation among them all.

And there is glory for America, who saved civilization for all time and placed the capstone on that world structure of freedom which shall exist through all the coming ages.

And now, dear Soldier boys, to you who have been permitted to return from that inferno over there, untouched and unscathed, and who, although untouched and unscathed have gone down into the Valley of the Shadow of Death; have looked upon the Rider on the Pale Horse; have gazed into his sightless eyes and heard the rustle of his shadowy wings and have returned to home and country and loved ones, unmarked and unscarred; we tender you our heartiest congratulations and proudly place upon your brows the laurel wreaths of victory.

And you, dear soldier boys, who have been wounded in the service of your country, who have felt the impact of lead and the sharp sting of steel; who have fought, undaunted and unafraid amid a shower of shrapnel shell; who have been blinded by poisonous gases, conceived of and brewed in the Devil's own workshop;

by the Devil's own trusted workmen; remember you suffered these wounds so that never again could a modern Attila, for his own self-aggrandizement, lead his ferocious Huns through peaceful and peace-loving countries; lay waste their lands and enslave their inhabitants; could never again wantonly mutilate the tender bodies of little children and call it a merry pastime. Remember you suffered these wounds so that never again could devils incarnate crucify helpless old men and women upon a cross of agony and death; could never again commit their dastardly outrages upon innocent and defenseless maidens. And as you come to us, wounded and maimed and blinded and broken, we take you to our hearts and proudly place upon your brows the laurel wreaths of Victory, and with you, and all your comrades, daily offer thanksgiving and praise to our Father in Heaven, for His mighty protection and deliverance; for He alone is able to save. He alone giveth the victory.

Now we come to speak of those who have answered the last call, who have paid the supreme sacrifice. Some there are who are sleeping in their own native land, having been stricken by disease or fatal accident before they had the opportunity of serving on foreign soil. Some there are who are resting in the land for which they fought—and all we can do is to enshrine them forever in our hearts, and mingle the lilies and roses and violets of our love and affection, with the actual lilies and roses and violets of sunny France, which those devoted French women are daily placing upon the graves of our heroes.

So we will leave them with this wish:

Mild summer sky beam softly here,
Bright summer sun shine kindly here,
Fierce wintery winds blow lightly,
blow lightly,
Good night, dear hearts, good night,
good night.

This was responded to in a short but appropriate speech by Charley Thompson of Lorraine, an S. A. T. C. boy from Simmons College. He assured the Mayor and the people of the county, that the boys were glad to be here, and that they appreciated the welcome so heartily accorded them, and in behalf of the returned soldiers thanked them for the great honor shown them.

After a few numbers from the band dinner was announced. Tables and shades had been prepared on the court house lawn for all of those who wished to do so could spread their dinner together. This could well be styled a Victory Dinner, for not one thing was left out that made a true picnic dinner. Mr. Hoover had been forgotten, and there was no limit to any of the good things. The Record men fear that they will get no more chicken this summer, as it looked like every one in the county had been prepared for this occasion. Many had invited their friends and sought shady nooks at various places; but all enjoyed the dinner as only picnickers can. If there was a man, woman or child that was not wholly filled with good things it must have certainly been their own fault, as an abundance had been provided.

Afternoon Program.

The afternoon program was, if possible, better than the forenoon, and not a sign did the people give of tiring. The only drawback was the fact that the tabernacle could not contain the crowds who wished to see and hear the program.

Our band boys, of whom we are always proud, directed by Prof. Lee Jones, could not have done better. Every number was inspiring and perfectly rendered.

Captain Wight Speaks.

After this splendid band concert came an address by Capt. Allen Wight of Sweetwater. Capt. Wight is an overcast man, and is a splendid talker. He held the vast audience breathless as he recounted some of the experiences of the doughboys. He paid glowing tribute to the American soldiers, to the brave Allies, to the American government and to President Wilson; making a plea for the ratification of the League of Nations, that the world might be at peace forever. All of Colorado thanks the Captain for the inspiration and information he brought.

Sing-Song.

The Sing Song, led by Joe Roddy, a soldier boy, was one of the interesting features. While this was new to Colorado people, yet the crowd caught the idea and over a thousand voices took up the songs—Battle Hymn of the Republic, Pack up Your Troubles in the Old Kit Bag, etc.

Historical Pageant.

The historical pageant staged by Mrs. J. H. Guitar, with Miss Hardison as accompanist, was the next thing on the program, and been looked forward to by hundreds of people, and all were anxious to see it.

While preparations were being made, Mrs. Guitar sang "Little Glow Worm," while little Miss Marie Ferguson illustrated it with a dance.

The pageant was high-lights of American history, and consisted of two hundred characters—young men and women, boys and girls.

The large stage, which had been appropriately decorated with greens, flowers and national colors, had a throne on which sat Uncle Sam (Joe Earnest) and Columbia (Miss Lorena Smith) costumed for the parts. Near them sat the gracious Queen Isabella, Miss Mabel Smith. At the feet of Uncle Sam and Columbia, sat the goddess of Love and Good Feeling, and the page who heralded all events. These were little Miss Sidney Marie Thomas in fluffy white, and Roy Farmer in gorgeous page's costume.

The Spirit of '76 was represented by a group, the center of which was Betsy Ross and Barbara Fretchie; also a lovely group of Puritans.

The birth of the republic was heralded appropriately with Uncle Sam, Columbia and the Goddess of Love acting leading parts.

Interwoven with this was the fete of colors and the spirit of incense, or the Grecian idea of Beauty and Worship. The fete of colors was represented by Japan, Fannie Bess Earnest and Eleanor Thomas. The Hawaiians by Lillian Smith and Louise Wulfjen with their ukeleles. The Grecian Goddesses were Misses Anna Mary Lupton and Lois Whipkey. Cuba and Spain were represented by Misses Dorothy Burns and Annie McMurry. As these two countries prepared for battle, Uncle Sam intervened and all went well.

The dawn of Texas was portrayed by Miss Hallie Roddy in colors of red and white, and on her breast was a lone star. As she made her entrance she was met by Mexico with uplifted dagger, but Uncle Sam had only to raise his hand when Mexico withdrew and Texas went on her way rejoicing and joined the States of the Union. Mr. Marion Hardison ably acted the part of Mexico.

The spirit of the north was given by the Statute of Liberty, and beautifully was it portrayed by Miss Hardison.

The Southland was represented by King Cotton, (Mr. Mell Beck).

The mocking bird was represented by Miss Marie Ferguson; and interwoven with this were some of Uncle Remus' and Mother Goose characters. Little Mary Figh of Dallas took the part of Little Boy Blue; Masters Homer Hutchinson Jr., Richard Pearson Jr. Roddy Brooks Merritt and Robert Whipkey splendidly acted Brer Rabbit and Brer Bear, and the various birds.

Interspersed with this were some of the popular fairy stories. Cinderella was acted by Miss Marion Adams Mr. Donald Sheaf the Prince, Miss Lottie Pritchett the mother, Misses Frances McMurry and Opal Lowe the sisters.

The Allies were represented by Joan of Arc, acted by Miss Mary Snyder who was beautifully costumed and as she entered on her horse the picture seemed almost real.

Miss Pearl Price represented the Spirit of Peace and she looked the part as in her uplifted hand she held a lovely white dove, which fluttered and flew away over the group on the stage.

The World War was shown with groups of girls, picturing suffering refugees, and exiles. The Red Cross, the angels of mercy, was also represented by a group in Red Cross costume.

The decorative party was the different states of the union. Forty-eight little girls in red, white and blue. Running through the story was music that brought out ideas—Awakening of Spring, and American idea of music.

At this time the Victory, Queen was announced and was crowned by the Spirit of Peace. This was Miss Irma Quinney and was chosen because she had more brothers and near relatives in France than perhaps any girl in the county.

This closed one of the most beautiful things ever staged in Colorado and Mrs. Guitar wishes to express her thanks to all for the splendid co-operation given her.

The Ball Game.

The ball game between Lorraine and Colorado was called about five o'clock, at the ball park in South Colorado. There was a large crowd in attendance to see the game, which put the boys on their metal.

Colorado has no ball team this year but to get up this game Sam Wulfjen took the matter in hand and got a team together, which, considering the fact that they had never played together, nor had any practice, played a fairly good game of ball. Some of these boys had not played a game in two or three years. Of course the Lorraine team beat them badly, the score being 6 to 1 in their favor.

But notwithstanding this great handicap it was an interesting game up to the seventh inning. In the first inning Lorraine scored two runs and in the second inning one. They were shut out then until the seventh, when they scored one in each of the three remaining innings. Colorado drew nothing but goose eggs until the seventh, when Bob Cooper sent out a three bagger and brought in Holt, this being the only score for the home team. However the game was much enjoyed by all the fans present.

Evening Program.

The evening events consisted of a band concert and a dance at the old skating rink. This is a large building with a hard-wood floor, which had been polished and waxed for the occasion. An orchestra had been secured from San Angelo. Several couples from nearby towns were guests. Quite a number enjoyed the dance until small hours of the night.

So ended one of the most enjoyable and amusing days that Colorado has seen in many years, if ever before. There was not an accident nor a disturbance of any character to mar the peace and happiness of the day.

THE SALVATION ARMY DISCARDS TAMBOURINE

Tambourine Methods as Expensively Useless as Charity Bazaars.

(The Literary Digest.)

The tambourine girl of the Salvation Army has been voted about as expensively useless as charity bazaars in other fields, for raising the necessary funds for the Army's work. Commander Evangeline Booth has decided that her time is better employed in the day nurseries that the Army runs; and, besides, the American people have been educated by the war in quicker and more effective methods of raising funds for necessary relief-work. The Salvation Army will soon start a drive for the "Home Service Fund" of $12,000,000, beginning May 19, and it is going to get its money by straight appeals to the public. The word of every returning soldier is a guaranty that these appeals will not be in vain. The Sun sheds some light on this forthcoming effort:

"Maybe some folk will be asking who, when the Salvation Army got a slice from the millions raised by the United War Charities drive, it wants more so soon. Well, in the first place, the slice the Army received wasn't very large, considering the millions of doughnuts and pies it baked for our boys on the other side, and the chocolate and coffee and cigars and writing-paper and other comforts almost without end that it provided, not to mention the personal service of its workers everywhere they were needed, right up to the front. And in the second place the work over here that the war couldn't be allowed to interrupt must go right on.

"An Italian boy who fought and earned two wound-strips with the troops that helped break the Hindenburg line faced a Salvation Army lass who was giving out doughnuts and hot coffee to some just-landed men on a Hoboken pier one day last week. 'Say, he burst forth with his mouth full of doughnut, 'is that club you had for mothers at 94 Cherry Street still goin'? Cause if it ain't my mother is sure awfully lonely. She started goin' there when she couldn't speak no English hardly, and it was about all the sociability she had, those meetin's of yours. My mother ain't much to write, so I didn't hear nothin' while I was on the other side about that club o' yours, and I says to myself, says I, 'It's sure a pity if, seein' all they're doin' for us boys, the Salvation Army has had to give up what they done at home.'"

"The club's flourishing, and so's the settlement house and the kinder garden and everything at 94 Cherry Street," the worker answered, and a happy grin welled up under the perspiration on the lad's face as he hitched his haversack and tin hat and other burdens to a more comfortable position and passed on with his pals.

"That colloquy just shows the special charm of the Salvation Army and the reason for the hold it has on the masses—no red tape, no stand-offishness, no 'side,' just simple friendliness and the desire to serve, and with it all to serve in the most practical and needed way. While they were braving shot and shell and bombs and poison gas to carry comforts to the boys on the Hindenburg line they didn't neglect to give encouragement to the mothers on Cherry Street—and goodness knows that if ever any one needed encouragement it is housewives on Cherry Street. Down in that street, which was once the most aristocratic part of the town, where the beaux and belles of Colonial times disported themselves, where the 'best families' lived, as some of the beautiful carved woodwork that still remains here and there in the old houses, the sadly battered, attests—there are now great poverty, great overcrowding, large families huddling in one flat, and taking in boarders at that.

"And the babies! In one year the Cherry Hill Settlement Day Nursery cared for 14,000 babies, whose mothers go out to work, who but for the Salvation Army would be locked in at home alone, or left to the mercies of brothers or sisters hardly old enough to look out for themselves."

SALVATION ARMY WORKERS GIVE KOREAN BEGGARS THEIR FIRST BATH.

Korea, March, 15.—Members of the Salvation Army invaded Seoul this month and proceeded to give the beggar boys of this city their first lesson in cleanliness. They opened a temporary home or shelter and then went out into the highways and byways and began to gather in the youngsters of whom there are quite a large number. On the first night 20 were brought into the shelter. First they were treated to a haircut, then a good hot bath, during which time their old clothing, with all its company, was being destroyed by fire. What a slaughter! The boys were then dressed in clothes given by some kind friends for this purpose, and housed in a nice warm room. During the day they are taught to read and write, and also put to some manual labor, such as wood-chopping, rope-making, etc. Friends of the Salvation Army have supported the effort as regards finances and clothing.

The Elks had charge of the Salvation Army Home Service campaign in twenty-seven counties of California. Everyone of these counties went over the top. The Elks of Oakland raised over $20,000.00.

"Meats in Storage"

Every working day of the year 75,000,000 pounds of meat are required to supply home and export needs—and only 10 per cent of this is exported.

These facts must be kept in mind when considering the U. S. Bureau of Markets report that on June 1, 1919, there were 1,348,000,000 pounds of meats in cold storage. If the meat in storage was placed on the market it would only be 20 days' supply.

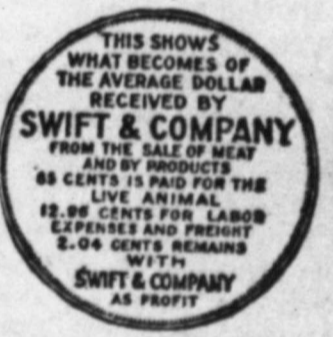

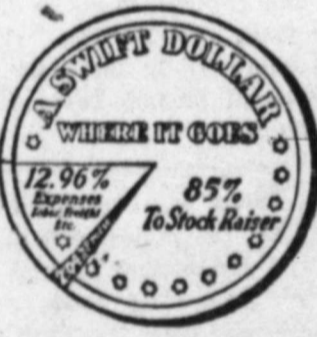

This meat is not artificially withheld from trade channels to maintain or advance prices.

- Meats in storage consist of—
- 65 per cent (approximate) hams, bacon, etc., in process of curing. It takes 30 to 90 days in pickle or salt to complete the process.
 - 10 per cent is frozen pork that is to be cured later in the year.
 - 6 per cent is lard. This is only four-fifths of a pound per capita, and much of it will have to go to supply European needs.
 - 19 per cent is frozen beef and lamb, part of which is owned by the Government and was intended chiefly for over-seas shipment. If this were all diverted to domestic trade channels, it would be only 1 1/2 lbs. per capita—a 3 days' supply.
- 100%

From this it will be seen that "meats in storage" represent merely unfinished goods in process of curing and the working supply necessary to assure the consumer a steady flow of finished product.

Order For Special School Tax.

State of Texas, County of Mitchell:

Whereas, on the 11th day of June 1919, a petition bearing the requisite number of signatures of property tax paying voters and being in every respect in conformity with the law, was presented to me for an election in Common School District No. 12 on the question of authorizing the levying of a tax of 50 cents on the $100 valuation of all taxable property within said district, for the purpose of supplementing the State School Fund, apportioned to said district. Now, therefore, I, J. C. Hall, in my capacity as county judge of Mitchell County, Texas, do hereby order that an election be held on the 19th day of July, 1919, at Looney school house in Common School District No. 12 of said county, as established by order of the commissioners' court of this county, of date 9th day of April 1917, which is of record in book 1, page 15, Records of School Districts, to determine whether a majority of the legally qualified property tax-paying voters of that district desire to assess and levy a tax of 50 cents on the $100.00 valuation of all taxable property in said district for the purposes of supplementing the State School Fund apportioned to said district. J. M. Thompson is hereby appointed presiding officer of said election and shall select two judges and two clerks to assist him in holding the same, and he shall, within five days after said election has been held, make due returns thereof to the Commissioners' Court of this county as required by law for holding said election. The ballots for said election shall have written or printed thereon, the following: For the Tax. Against the Tax.

All persons who are legally qualified voters of this state and of this county and who are resident property tax payers of said district shall be entitled to vote. The Sheriff of this county shall give notice of said election as required by the laws of this State.

Witness my official hand and seal of office at Colorado, Texas, this 12th day of June, 1919.

J. C. HALL, County Judge.

Sheriff's Notice of Election.

State of Texas, County of Mitchell:

Notice is hereby given that an election will be held on the 19th day of July, 1919, at Spade school house, in Common School District No. 9, of this county, as established by order of the Commissioners' Court of this county of date the 8th day of June, 1914, which is recorded in book 1, page 5, of the minutes of said Records of School Districts, to determine whether a majority of the legally qualified property tax-paying voters of that district desire the issuance of bonds on the faith and credit of said Common School District in the amount of $1,500.00, the bonds to be of the denomination of $100.00 each, numbered consecutively from one to fifteen, both inclusive, payable twenty years from their date, with option of redemption after ten years from their date, and bearing 5 per cent interest per annum, payable annually on April 10th of each year to provide funds to be expended in payment of accounts legally contracted in repairing and equipping a public free school building of wooden material, and to determine whether the commissioners' court of this county shall be authorized to levy, assess and collect annually while said bonds or any of them are outstanding, a tax upon all taxable property within said district sufficient to pay the current interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal at maturity. All persons who are legally qualified voters of this state and county and who are resident property taxpayers in said district shall be entitled to vote at said election. Said election was ordered by the county judge of this county by order made on the 12th day of June, 1919, and this notice is given in pursuance of said order.

Dated the 12th day of June, 1919.

To drive through the country now and see the wonderful feed crops almost made, is a pleasing sight. Not in the history of old Mitchell county has so much fine feed been assured at this time of the year.

Quite a good acreage in Mitchell County is being put into sweetpotatoes this year. Y. D. McMurry has some seven or eight acres, T. B. Cowan about six acres, C. H. Lasky five or six acres, the Record man about three acres, and quite a number of other one and two acre patches are planted, and all seem to be doing fine.

The Record has been feasting this week on roasting ears, peaches and tomatoes. On Tuesday the express company delivered to us a crate of tomatoes from our good friend A. C. White at Turney, Texas. These were extra large and fine—just right to make one feel that it was good policy to live to eat. Mr. and Mrs. White have our everlasting best wishes.

Our handsome friend and brother, E. M. McCreless, this week, filled up the front end of the Record office with fine roasting ears, and the newspaper men have eaten until sick. Mr. Mac says his corn is simply fine and this sample will verify his statements, as the ears were like sticks of stove wood in size. This is one season we hope at least that we will not go hungry for corn, as we did the past dry years. Mr. Mac says he has a fine patch of cantaloupes and water melons, a liberal sample of which he promised us when they ripen.

Another warning to holders and future buyers of War Savings Certificates and War Savings Stamps has been sent out by Secretary of Treasury Carter Glass, as a result of the receipt of numerous reports of dishonest traffic in these securities. The warning urges those now holding these certificates to avoid all dealers and redeem them only thru postoffices.

LEMON JUICE

FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates. Adv.

JULY 4TH 1919.

July 4, 1919, was in every way the greatest 4th of July this generation has ever known, if not the greatest since the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

In Colorado it was observed in honor of the returned soldiers, sailors and other men who wore the uniform of this great country in the titanic war which has recently closed.

There was a large crowd in the city all day, and everybody was pleased with what the entertainment committee had provided for the day's program.

The baskets of chicken dinner was one of the finest meals that was ever served in Colorado. There were pies and cakes, fried chicken, pickles, fine bread, and everything that is good and it was all cooked by some good woman at home. The band music was fine, as was the speeches and every number on the program. Not a thing occurred to mar the pleasure of the day.

Many compliments have come to The Record for the entertainment committee. Not only the men in whose honor the day was observed, but the people of Colorado express grateful appreciation for the manner in which the day's entertainment was staged and carried out. It was a fitting tribute to the men who had risked their lives upon the battlefields of France.

The organization of a third party in Texas is gaining some headway and a State meeting for this purpose has been called to assemble in August. The new party is to be known as the "People's Democratic Party," and its leaders are composed of the anti-Prohibitionist and anti-Woman suffragists. Among the prominent leaders is Joe Lee Ferguson, of Hale county, a brother to former Governor J. E. Ferguson.—Panhandle Herald.

A great party this will be, composed of the breweries, anti-woman suffragists, Fergusonites and what not. The liquor bunch is dying right hard in Texas, but dying they certainly are. As to the Ferguson family, they had their chance in Texas politically. They put up the smartest member they had, and he was weighed in the balances and found wanting. If he hadn't been as crooked as a barrel of snakes, and the tool of the breweries, he would have left the governor's office the most loved man Texas had ever raised up politically, and might have been on his way to the United States Senate. But—well there is no use to argue further. Some men are created with a desire to make money, and they place this one passion above honor and every human instinct of right. The third party to be organized by these anti-will not get anywhere. The last nail has been driven into the coffin lid of the liquor crowd. They have been buried face downward so that when the final summons comes they will be headed in the right direction.

In a comment on what we said about the return of the Devil River fishing crowd, the Christoval Observer says:

That bunch must have been traveling in an airplane or took the wrong road in their ford, or they would have stopped at Christoval on the South Concho whose clear, rippling waters are now rewarding its anglers this month with from 3 to 7 1-4 pound bass—and it does not require "liquid bait" to lure 'em to bite.

And in further notice of our claim that Mitchell Co. is located near the garden of Eden the same paper says:

The Plains country might appear like Eden to a "man up a tree," but there are no real, full-grown trees up there to climb. The Observer's picture of the abiding place of Adam and Eve is where a beautiful, sparkling river flows all the time, its banks densely shaded by stately trees whose branches harbor the frisky squirrel and birds sing you a lullaby while you are angling for the "big ones" in the deep, cool water. If you fellows had anything like that, you might talk about a Garden of Eden.

Hush Van Horn, it's just such sayings as the above that lure us to the Concho.

WHEN THE WELL COMES IN.

I've sold my mules and my brindle cow
And my Georgia stock and my turnip plow,
And my old brood sow that I bought last spring
And have bought some stock in a well by jing;
They're goin' to bore somewhere, and when
They fetch her in just watch me then
As I'm shovelin' in my piles of tin
An' alivin' high—when the well comes in.

'Twas the finest feller you ever see.
That sold me the stock, an' he says, sezee,
That a feller's a fool to sweat and toil

Instead of puttin' his money in oil
That'll make him rich in a little while
So his folks can live in the latest style
An' move to town and dress like sin,
With nothin' to do—when the well comes in.

When I told Poteet, who runs the bank,
That I'd bought the stock, why the blamed old crank
Said a feller was just a plain darn fool

To sell his stock and his farmin' tools
And the other things that he's got to sell
And put his money in a wildcat well;
But you just wait and watch me grin
At old Poteet—when the well comes in.

When the well comes in I'm a goin' to buy
A great big car that's geared up high,
And then doll up from head to feet
And drive to the bank to see Poteet;
An' I'll make him feel like a ten cent fool

For advisin' me not to sell my mules
And my farmin' tools and the corn in the bin
And buy oil stock—when the well comes in.

CARLOADS OF PENNIES.
Every mint in the United States has been put to work by Director Ray Baker turning out one-cent pieces in an effort to keep pace with the enormous demand for the nation's least valuable coin. Instituting a twenty-four hour day, the out-put has been pushed to 90,000,000 cents a month. There have been approximately 3,500,000,000 one-cent pieces coined in this country, but where they have gone is a mystery nobody seems able to solve. The subtreasurers are inundated with orders from banks which keep issuing the copper coins for use in payment of odd-cent taxes and street car fares, but the demand continues. The May output of the mints was 64,984,000 coins, of which 60,973,000 were one cent pieces. Nickles also were in large demand. 643,000 being coined, the remainder of the production being 822,000 half dollars, 176,000 quarters and 370,000 dimes. The money value of the output was $1,233,830. All of the pennies being made are in the Lincoln design.

WOULD GIVE FIVE DOLLARS A BOTTLE

Railway Superintendent Says Tanlac Helped Him To Hold His Job

"I would give five dollars a bottle for Tanlac before I would be without it," said Joe Owens, division superintendent of the Memphis Street Railway, whose address is Box 137, Memphis, Tenn.

"I was getting in mighty bad shape with stomach trouble," he continued, "and was all broken down and tired out. I was so nervous and had such awful headaches that I could hardly sleep or rest; I could eat but little of anything, for nothing agreed with me; I was simply down and out and don't believe I could have kept my job much longer if I hadn't got hold of Tanlac."

"Since starting on Tanlac I have gained five pounds, I eat and sleep just fine and it has strengthened me up and made me feel so much better every way that I can't say enough in its praise."

Tanlac is sold by all druggists everywhere. Adv

MABEL NORMAND'S PRANKS

A prank a minute is Mabel Normand's record in "A Perfect 36," her latest Goldwyn picture, which comes to The Best Theatre next Friday and Saturday, July 11 and 12, and Saturday matinee. As a boarding house slaver, a traveling saleswoman, a diva, the screen's most delightful comedienne gives more of her joyous self than in any of her recent comedy successes. Eight at the start Mabel gets in some strong licks as a jokester after her employer sets her to the task of papering a wall. Needless to say, more of the paste is deposited on the boarders clothes, the landlady's pet poodle and on the dining room table than on the ceiling. Her novel way of papering having cost her the job, Mabel finds new employment as a traveling waist saleswoman. Pity the poor people on whom Mabel is thrust in her first night's ride in a Pullman car. She's a farce as a saleswoman and she realizes it instantly. Quitting her job, she hires herself to the beach and becomes a bathing beauty. Her antics with the paste brush and pot are trivial compared with the pranks Mabel plays on the poor unsuspecting natives at the beach and in the surf.

The big crowd here on July Fourth was the best natured and most orderly that anyone has ever seen. There was not an accident, nor a disturbance of any kind. The great tabernacle, packed with people, was quiet and orderly throughout the program. High praise has been given for the manner in which the program was carried out. The people were here for a good time, and they had it—all seemed happy and entered into the spirit of the day. It was a well dressed, well behaved, happy, contented people.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui?... I did, and soon saw it was helping me... After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE

CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.

Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.

MRS. BURNS' LETTER.

Here is a letter that is certain to prove of interest to people in this vicinity, as cases of this sort occur in almost every neighborhood, and people should know what to do in like circumstances:

Savannah, Mo., Oct. 12, 1916.
 "I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint some three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy to dozens of people since I first used it."

UNION HAPPENINGS

For the past week the weather was ideal—real crop growing weather. Last Sunday we had a good rain followed by good weather up to today, Monday afternoon. A good growing season has fell in the Union community which I think will be beneficial to crops generally. Our people are reasonably well up with their work. Feed crops are fine, cotton as good as could be expected, and the general outlook is good.

The Fourth of July came and has past into history with many good things to be remembered.

Surely during these days of reconstruction every good citizen has something to do in the way of good thinking, good saying and good doing. Let us govern ourselves accordingly.

And now, by permit I want to mention at least one important item concerning the banks, merchants and farmers forming a partnership concerning the gathering and handling of the present crop. I am glad to note the fact that the people of Mitchell County, if not in the lead, are not very far behind in that particular. As a proof of the fact, we have established a state bonded warehouse in our county, and it is ready for business. I recall what one strong banker told us when the warehouse was established; that we (the farmers) need not peddle our cotton on the streets any more. It is to be hoped that every farmer will take a business view of the matter and give their undivided support to our own institution.

THAT MORNING LAMENESS.

If you are lame every morning, and suffer urinary ills, there must be a cause. Often it's weak kidneys. To strengthen the weakened kidneys and avert more serious troubles, use Doan's Kidney Pills. You can rely on Colorado testimony.

Mrs. W. M. Casey, Colorado, says: "Last winter kidney trouble came on me all of a sudden. I was doing sweeping and I got such terrible pains in my back it felt as if a red-hot iron was being pressed into me. I could hardly do any work for it would play me all out and when I would get up in the morning I would have a sore and lame back and would feel so tired I would want to go back to bed again. I had throbbing headaches and was nervous. I heard what Doan's Kidney Pills did for other people in my condition, so I bought a box at W. L. Doss' Drug Store. After finishing one box of Doan's, I was relieved of the hurting in my back and other troubles. Occasionally now I have to use a few doses of Doan's when I do any heavy housework." Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Casey had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Adv.

LONGFELLOW LOCALS.

Bro. Garvin of Colorado filled the regular appointment Sunday and his sermon was enjoyed by everybody. Remember he will start his protracted meeting the first Sunday in next month.

Singing was just simply fine Sunday. The class put the finishing touch to their song to be sung at the convention next Sunday and passed inspection in number one condition.

Mr. Earnest Smith of Colorado was visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith Sunday.

Earl Burk, another overseas soldier, has returned to his home last week. He was drafted into the service July 1918. After a few weeks of training he was transferred to the Hospital Corps and soon sailed for France, landing there about September. He says that France is for the French and America for Americans. His hospital was among the nearest to the firing line, being four kilometers back. He can relate some very interesting stories from the army life.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Holt of Colorado motored out to singing Sunday evening, bringing a car full of young folk. We welcome these good people back any time. We weren't able to get John to brag on our singing although we know he enjoyed it, for he said he was coming back.

Mr. Jim Wright of Colorado was visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wright Sunday.

There will be no singing at Longfellow next Sunday as everybody is going to the convention at Loraine. But the next Sunday there will be singing at the regular hour.

Mrs. Clyde Hull of Big Spring has been visiting her parents the past week and attended the picnic on the Fourth.

JOYCE COX

Every Boy Scout in the Eleventh Federal War Savings District can wear a Treasury Achievement Button, an Ace Medal and have bronze, silver and gold palms on his medal ribbon, if he will do as much as Joyce Cox, a Boy Scout of Cameron, Texas. Joyce had sold almost $6,000 worth of War Savings Stamps up to May 1, 1919.

The Achievement Button represents sales of War Savings Stamps to twenty-five individuals. The Ace Medal represents total W. S. S. sales of $250. A bronze palm represents an additional $100, a silver palm an additional $1,000 and a gold palm an additional $5,000 in War Savings Stamps sold. "I'd like to see every Boy Scout in the District wearing gold palms on his medal ribbon by the end of the year," said Frank M. Smith, Federal District Director of the War Loan Organization. "What one boy has done others can do. One of the best War Savings Societies in the District is in the Boy Scout Troop at Tallulah, La. There ought to be a Savings Society in every troop."

Fraternal Orders Strong For Saving

Fraternal orders should take an active interest in the 1919 Savings Campaign in the opinion of Pat M. Neff of Waco, Grand Chancellor of the Texas Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias. Another enthusiast over the Savings Campaign is J. W. Chancellor of Bowie, Grand Master of the Texas Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

"In the Savings Campaign," Mr. Neff said recently, "the Government has placed the stamp of its approval on the fraternal idea. War Savings Societies are not lodges, strictly speaking, but they are next thing to it. Many of the most successful Savings Societies are in the lodges and the Knights of Pythias are doing their share."

"Texas Odd Fellows had a number of strong War Savings Societies last year," Mr. Chancellor said, "and most of them made excellent records. Wherever possible, it would be a fine idea for the members of the lodge to form themselves into a Savings Society again this year, if they have not already done so."

Numerous lodges of various orders over the Eleventh Federal District not only have Savings Societies but are securing sinking funds by investing in War Savings Stamps as a lodge. The members of these lodges are also buying W. S. S. individually.

Has your lodge been organized?

Successful Dollar Is One That Works

The dollar that goes to work is the successful dollar. The idle dollar is a failure.

The successful dollar brings back another dollar with it. It makes itself a dollar and something—two dollars and something—a whole family of dollars.

The careless dollar goes off somewhere and is never seen again.

A Texas man the other day lost a life-time's savings—$786.00. His dollars had gone off in the pockets of two fake stock promoters. He had not taught his dollars to keep good company.

Hundreds of years ago a man to whom a handful of dollars had been trusted buried them in a napkin. He got no increase—he did not even keep what he had. One might as well have nothing as keep an idle dollar.

The dollar that succeeds is energetic—and careful. War Savings Stamps do more than save your dollars. They put them to work at 4% interest. And they never fail. Your Government guarantees every one of them.

Order For Bond Election.

State of Texas, County of Mitchell: Whereas, on the 11th day of June, 1919, a petition was presented to me for an election in Common School District No. 9, of this county, on the question of issuing bonds to provide funds to be expended in payment of accounts legally contracted, in repairing and equipping a public free school building of wooden material, and authorizing a tax upon all taxable property within said district sufficient to pay the current interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal at maturity, said petition bearing the requisite number of signatures of property taxpaying voters of said district and being in every respect in conformity with law; and, it appearing that Mitchell County contains a population of more than 8000, according to the last United States census; and it further appearing that said common school district No. 9, has been heretofore on, to-wit, the 8th day of June, 1914, properly established in accordance with Article 2817, Revised Statutes of Texas, 1911, and it further appearing that said district as so established contains an area of more than nine square miles, and that no other district has been reduced in area below nine square miles by reason of the creation of this district; and it further appearing that said district No. 9, does not embrace any territory that was taken from any other school district (either common or independent) that had an outstanding issue of bonds at the date of such inclusion in this district;

Now, therefore, I, J. C. Hall, in my capacity as county judge of Mitchell County, Texas, do hereby order that an election be held on the 19th day of July, 1919, at the school house in said Common School District No. 9, of this county as established by order of the Commissioners' Court of date the 8th day of June, 1914, which is recorded in book 1, page 5, Record of School Districts, to determine whether a majority of the legally qualified property taxpaying voters of that district desire the issuance of bonds on the faith and credit of said common school district in the amount of $1,500.00; the bonds to be of the denomination of $100.00 each, numbered consecutively from one to fifteen, both inclusive, payable twenty years from their date with option of redemption after ten years from their date, and bearing 5 per cent interest per annum, payable annually April 10th of each year, to provide funds to be expended in payment of accounts legally contracted, in repairing and equipping a public free school building of wooden material, and to determine whether the Commissioners' Court of this county shall be authorized to levy, assess and collect annually while said bonds or any of them are outstanding, a tax upon all taxable property within said district sufficient to pay the current interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal at maturity.

A. R. Northcutt is hereby appointed presiding officer for said election, and he shall select two judges and two clerks to assist him in holding same, and he shall, within five days after said election has been held, make due return thereof to the commissioners' court of this county, as required by law for holding a general election. The ballots for said election shall have written or printed thereon the following: "For the Bonds." "Against the Bonds." All persons who are legally qualified voters of this state and of this county and who are resident property taxpayers in said district shall be entitled to vote at said election. The sheriff of this county shall give notice of said election by publication as required by law.

Dated the 12th day of June, 1919. J. C. HALL, County Judge Mitchell County, Texas.

The State of Texas: To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell county, Greeting: W. D. McCarley, Administrator of the estate of J. G. McCarley, Deceased, having filed in our County Court his Final Account of the condition of the estate of said J. G. McCarley, together with an application to be discharged from said administration;

You are hereby commanded, that by publication of this writ for twenty days prior to the first day of the next term of the County Court, in a newspaper regularly published in the county of Mitchell, you give due notice to all persons interested in the account of final settlement of said estate, to file their objections thereto, if any they have, on or before the July term, 1919, of said County Court commencing and to be held at the court house of said county, in the city of Colorado, on the third Monday in July, A. D. 1919, when said account and application will be considered by said court.

Witness, W. W. PORTER, Clerk of the County Court of Mitchell Co.

Given under my hand and seal of said court, at my office in the city of Colorado, this 21st day of June, A. D. 1919. W. W. PORTER, Clerk Co. Court Mitchell Co., Texas.

By W. S. Stoneham, Deputy Clerk. A true copy I certify: W. J. CHESNEY, Sheriff Mitchell County, Texas.

LETTER FROM OVERSEAS.

Kayl, Luxemburg, May 11, 1919. My Dear Mother:

As this is Mother's Day we are all requested to send our mother a letter, and this is my day to send a letter home anyway, for I always send one each week.

One year ago on Mother's Day I left the good State of Texas; started on my way to the battle front, which it took me three months to reach, as we went into action the 8th day of August. It was in a quiet sector that we first saw real war.—The 12th of September is when we actually got into the game. That was an awful night. The boys (all thinking that we had been in the war) then to go into anything of that kind gave us a new idea of real war.

It is said that the barrage that the Americans put over on that night (which we were out in, lost from the Company Commander and a part of the Company lost) was the biggest barrage put over in this war or any other.

No wonder that when we started our way the next day across what had been "No Mans Land" there were no Germans. We sure made a clean sweep of that sector for quiet a few kilometers.

When the firing opened up we were all excited for a few minutes but kept the caissons "rolling along" for there were artillerymen that needed ammunition.—The cause of us being out.

Before it had gone very long I said to one of the boys: Right here is where my mother wins $10,000. I could almost see my finish. In the morning it got to hot for us and we had to unhitch from the caissons and take to the rear with our horses. We got back to camp, or what we called a camp at that time, which was only a hiding place for the outfit in day time. We got there with every man alive and only one horse missing that was killed. Several horses became so weak that they could not get back, so were left to get by the best way they could. But they could not last long. If they were not killed by a shell they soon died from hunger. That is the way we lost quite a few of our horses.

In the two months that followed between that night and the signing of the armistice were filled with close calls in that line. While there were no more so bad as that we were under shell fire all the time. Were never any place but what the dutch could place their shells about us at all times; and believe me they were not backward about sending them over either.

Since the signing of the armistice we have just been, as you know, going from place to place.

I have done work toward rebuilding three different countrys, two of which suffered much during the four years of war—that is France and Belgium. Luxemburg was held by the Germans, although none of their country is the worse off to any great extent. In Belgium and northern France they played their dirty work, which shows very plainly, too.

After we left Houston and came across it was my pal and I that bunked together on the hikes. That was when we would have to fall down the first place we came to after caring for the horses, (as they were first in every case.)

Would not look for a dry place to sleep nor a soft one, as they were mostly soft on account of being so muddy in the part of the country that we were always in. Still that was no bother. We had to have a little sleep every chance we got as they were few.

Then on the front those weary nights that were spent up there. When we were not out with ammunition or some other work, the two of us would be in our little bed. (two blankets under us and two over us.) That bunk house of curs (the shelter tent) was all the protection we would have from the shells (and you could shoot through both sides of a tent with a bean flipper) and you see we had very little to protect us, even when we were sleeping. The shells would be coming over, sent by the Germans to remind us that they were still in for adding more wooden crosses to the little grave yards that were scattered about on the front and none of us knew but that the next one would bear our name. I guess none ever came over with my name or else it had the wrong address.

These were the nights that we would think of home. This pal of mine would be feeling blue, as well as most of the boys. Then we would get to walking and forget the shrapnel for a few minutes. When all at once the sentry, or gas guard, would sound off with the old klaxon horn that we used. That was to let us know that there was gas around. Then there would be a scramble to get into the gas mask. When in a few minutes it would be gone; or maybe a false alarm would be given, but the masks would be used anyway. Some times we would get 3 to 4 alarms during the night, even back where we were.

That is all over now, and I'm hoping that myself nor any one else ever has to go through with anything of the kind again.

This life that we are now living is trying on a man. Though they say we are going home soon. Think all the boys are alike—they can't make it too soon for us.

I want to say that the letters I have had from you folks and my friends over in the U. S. A., were a great help. They were what would put new life in us. For a few months we would seldom get a mail call, but when we did you could see most of the boys sitting off by a tree or something, reading a letter, and for a few days we would all have something to think and talk about, besides the war.

But one can't write just how he feels or thinks, so will try to do better when I get home. I saw some great sights here this afternoon. There is a Luxemburg carnival in town. You should see some of their money getters. They have a merry-go-round, but I didn't take a ride on it—was afraid I'd get drunk, and if I wanted to do that there is plenty of wine and other drinks here for that. I just stood around and watched them have the time of their lives. I can't enjoy such as that here, but if it were in Texas, believe me, I could.

Most of the afternoon I was talking to the little Dutch girl that I told you about. Met her for the first time in a month. With what little French, Dutch and Luxemburg that I knew and by making a few signs and drawing a few pictures, we made out to get along fine.

Tel everybody I said "hello," and that I am getting along just fine—for this country.

Hoping this finds every one well and enjoying life, and that it won't be so very long before I am with you again, I am,

Your son

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes Into Sour Bile, Making You Sick and You Lose a Day's Work

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it. Adv.

THE COMMON AVERAGE.

No stronger evidence of the important fact that the Ford Motor car has become a veritable part of the life of the people, could be asked for than is given in the registration records of the various states which comprise our country.

For instance, in the month of January there were 11,450 cars of all makes registered in the State of Montana, of which 5,790 were Ford cars. This means one Ford car for every other car, of every make and 130 over. This proportion is very evenly maintained in the other forty-seven states. There are more than 5,000,000 motor cars in operation in the United States, more than one-half of which are Fords.

Truly, Henry Ford has been a great factor of benefit to humanity as he has brought the most economical solution to the great problems of transportation, and by the fruits of his genius has linked town and country, community to community, and made the whole country a common meeting place for all the people.

LIFT CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore, tender or irritated. Adv.

IN LOVING MEMORY.

On the 24th day of June the death angel invaded the home of Brother Jesse Lee and took one that will be missed by the husband and precious little ones.

Sister Lee was born Jan. 25, 1891, and departed this life, after much suffering, June 24, 1919. She was a member of the Bethel Missionary Baptist church.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband and two children, father, S. S. Gardener, two brothers and three sisters, with other loved ones and friends.

With that quiet, reserved and christian spirit, to know her was to love her.

In the midst of sorrow and grief the sunshine of God's love and grace, with all the exceeding and great promises comes to us to heal the breach that the hand of death makes. To the bereft husband and children and other loved ones, we can only say that our loss is her eternal gain.

While stricken hearts are weeping, her spirit is in the full enjoyment of that rest that God has prepared for those that love Him. Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord from henceforth, yea sayeth the spirit; they shall rest from their labors and their works do follow them. That hope of immortality springs up in the soul. That if the earthly house of our tabernacle desolves, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

As this, our love d one, dampened her feet in the turbid waters of death her spirit was borne aloft to the home of the redeemed. The voice that was music to her husband and children here, is now raised in adoration and praise to Him that sitteth upon the throne and to the Lamb, forever. May the God of peace comfort the hearts of the bereaved ones, and help them to realize that some sweet day they can meet her, where suffering pains and parting will be no more.

There's never a day so sunny, But a little cloud appears; There's never a life so happy, But has its time of tears.

—W. D. Green.

WEATHER, CROPS AND OIL.

The weather is fine and ideal for growing crops. The rain Monday put the soil in fine condition, and the sunshine has been doing the rest. A few crops are a little in the weeds, but are fast being cleaned. Fruit and vegetables in abundance. All crops are almost 100 per cent perfect, and a big yield is almost assured.

The oil situation grows brighter and more interesting. Oil men are here nearly every day. Prospects seem good now for about four drilling contracts. It is reported that work on a new hole in the Iatan field will begin almost at once.

We noticed this week our friend W. C. Beard on the streets again after a serious illness of some ten days. Mr. Beard says he has had trouble with his head. This should attract but little notices as there are quite a number of our citizens having this same trouble.

Last week E. K. Smith and W. A. Louder advertised for the Progressive Insurance Co., that they would be in Colorado on July 7, 8, and 9, but something came up so that they could not get here, and asked the Record to say that they would make a date later on, when they will give a chance to all who wish to get into this splendid company. Watch for their announcement.

Misses Cecil Costin and Lela Watson entertained with a picnic at Seven Wells Wednesday evening, honoring Mary Lee and Lucile Pond of Calsbad N. M., and Paul Morgan of DeLeon. There were two cars of merry folks chaperoned by Mrs. Lark Costin.

The Record received this week an invitation to the marriage of Miss Vernon Wrenn and Mr. Claud Mitchell, at South Side Christian Church, July 18th, Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. W. W. Porter returned home yesterday from a pleasant visit to relatives at Waco. While there she had an abundance of fruit shipped out here for canning and preserving.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES.

A great many people are asking: "Will the Red Cross not disband now that the war is over? The answer is: No.

In the first place the suffering caused by the war in not over by any means. The army is being demobilized as rapidly as the ships can bring them home. The soldier is being returned to the lives of business activity. But the Red Cross is here to continue its work for years to come. What the future is going to hold for the Red Cross is becoming more evident now. The accomplishment of the last two years have been most and inspiring. The war program has not ended with the signing of the peace treaty. A large part of our army is still in Europe, and we must remain on the job 'till the last American soldier has returned home. Then in force the future, to do what we can for the upbuilding of the Nation. The future work of the Red Cross will be along the lines indicated by the following departments:

- 1—Nursery Service.
- 2—First Aid.
- 3—Junior Membership.
- 4—Home Service.

Just now the Nursing and First Aid are being taught in the Mitchell County Chapter by a Red Cross nurse Miss Teresa Cuff. The lessons are just beginning, and if others wish to take the course the only cost will be the book, 60 cents.

The Junior Red Cross has not only done valuable service for the country but has developed the spirit of service, sacrifice and patriotism in a way that the young of America need to be developed. Lines of work will be laid out that will tend to upbuild our young along these lines.

Only those most closely connected with the work know just what the Home Service means to thousands of homes, to keep up courage and help them to help themselves, so this valuable branch of the work must be kept up.—Great is the Red Cross and love is the leavening power.

—what the deuce does that mean?

It means that NEW thing in a cigarette, that does for your smoke-hunger exactly what a drink of cold water does for your thirst!

To satisfy, a cigarette must do more than please the taste—it must "touch the smoke-spot."

That's what Chesterfields do. They let you know you are smoking—they SATISFY.

And here's why—Chesterfields have body. The finer, silkier leaves of TURKISH have been properly blended with several varieties of the best DOMESTIC tobaccos, famous for their full-bodied flavor.

SATISFY is something that no cigarette, except Chesterfields, can give you—regardless of price. Because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend.

Lambeth Moody returned to Austin last week, where he will stay until fall when he will enter the medical school at Galveston.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect the Head
Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE, Inc.

Mrs. C. H. Thomas and children attended the picnic in Colorado the Fourth and stayed with Mrs. Thomas parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bodine, until Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bruce spent Sunday with L. C. Wilson and family.

Just try one 3-pound Armour Gro. Coffee, at $1.30—Colorado Mercantile Company.

In a letter received lately from Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Elliott, who are on the border at Nogales, Arizona, say they are doing fine. Mrs. Elliott says she likes it splendidly. They request all their friends to write to them.

Earnest Meadows left Sunday morning for Barstow, where he will work with the gin repair crew. L. B. Walker and Otho Thompson going back with them came in Thursday to get some repairs for the gin out there.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson and Mrs. Hutchins attended the picnic at Sweetwater Wednesday.

Sergeant Allan Bingham of Camp Lee, Va., is visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Mrs. Bob Anderson came in Tuesday morning to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jim White.

Miss Nelson was up from Sweetwater Sunday visiting her parents and home folks.

Vergil Henderson came in Sunday morning from Strawn, where he now lives with his father L. P. Henderson.

Claude Muns was up from Eastland last week visiting home folks and attending the picnic. Claude has gotten to be quite an oil shark during his stay in Eastland.

Russel Wimberly visited here Sunday. He is working in Roscoe now.

You Do More Work.
You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness.

GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill TONIC is not a patent medicine, it is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood.

The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill TONIC when a member of their family had Malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store. 60c per bottle.

Clarence Roland was called to Ft. Worth Saturday night. He will possibly be gone a couple of weeks.

Uriah Duncan came in on the morning of the Fourth to spend a few days with home folks. He tells us that Eastland is still spouting oil and money.

Get your Deering Binding Twine at H. C. Doss—Best twine on the market.

George Hutchins has become famous as a painter. He has his Hup looking as though she was a "million dollar car."

Miss Helen Altman of Arlington is visiting relatives and friends here. She expects to spend several weeks here. She was, only a few years ago, one of Loraine's girls, but she comes back quite an accomplished young lady.

Our stock of Hardware is complete. Let us supply your needs.—Colorado Mercantile Company.

Miss Annie Norman has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Doctor Chambers of Bronte. Mrs. Chambers taught the Buford school last term, while her husband served in the army.

Howe Bennett spent Sunday in Colorado visiting friends.

The Oil Mill at Colorado pays the highest market price for all second-hand sacks.

Mrs. Joe Bennett received a card from her mother, Mrs. Baird, stating that Roy, her brother, had been discharged from the service. He was in the army of occupation until his return home. Mr. Baird is one of old Mitchell county's soldiers and we are glad to know of his safe arrival home.

Marshall Bruce arrived Thursday morning to attend the picnic and visit home folks. He has been in Fort Worth since he was discharged from the army in December. Mrs. Bruce came out several days ago to attend the wedding of her sister, Elizabeth Wilson. She was preparing to leave Thursday night but "Marsh" dropped in on her, so they expect to stay a few days longer.

Sunshine, Rain and Harvest.

The farmers have been looking for some time for sunshine. The past week has given the much needed warm weather. The color has been held back, due to the lack of sunshine, but with the past week giving its direct rays to the plants, it is coming now. Feed of course is doing fine. The small grain crop practically has been cut, and in the shock. The warm dry weather of last week was fine on the grain threshing which is in full swing. The maize crop will be ready to harvest in only a few days. The rain that has been falling, with just a few more showers, will result in one of the largest crops that this county has ever produced. The feed price seems to be holding out well, with cotton climbing all the time. If nothing happens and prices remain the same, the farmers will all be capitalists this fall.

Entertainment for Soldiers.

Last Thursday evening on the lawn at Tom Bennett's residence, the girls served supper to the boys of town, including all ex-soldiers of the community. All things that are good to eat were there. It seems that the mothers are not the only cooks, or perhaps the girls had mother to bake a cake or fry a chicken, but at least we had plenty of good things to eat. That evening was well spent and enjoyed by all. Music was the crowning feature of amusement. Some of the overseas boys told some of their experiences with Uncle Sams army while in France and Germany.

According to plans, President Wilson is expected to address congress on Thursday (yesterday). The president is to be greeted at the pier or his arrival by the children of Hoboken N. J. No doubt but that the next few weeks will witness much discussion and debating in congress of our nation, as it is up to them as to whether or not America is to ratify the league of nations.

France is contemplating opening up trade with Germany. Only a few days ago it seemed as though they never would be satisfied to even breathe the air that passed over Germany.

The dinner spreading has come back very forcibly, perhaps to feed the ex-soldiers well, and, too, because the prospects look good. On next Sunday the East Side Singing Convention will meet in Loraine. They expect to have singing all day and dinner on the ground. Everybody, of course, will be here with a smile on their faces, with melodious voices, and full baskets of dinner. On that day we expect to hear some fine singing. The class here has become a fine singing class. With the classes from the surrounding communities, we will all have a great time.

Don't Forget to Help the Women.

This admonition doesn't apply to all men on the farm, but it does apply to many, not only on the farm, but in cities, too. The love of a woman for her home, husband and children is such that she as a rule will bear almost any burden, endure almost any hardship and work almost unceasingly and uncomplainingly in order that the family may "get along." Too often the fact that she does these things quietly and without grumbling makes it too easy for the men on the place to forget her needs and overlook many things, small and great, that they could and should do for her. On many farms she is left not only to do all her house work, sew, nurse the children and the sick, wash and iron, etc., but also to cultivate the garden, feed the hogs and do many other things that should not be a part of her daily duties. We have often seen men worrying themselves because of the fact that they were unable to get help for themselves in the crops, but they seem to forget that perhaps their wives and daughters need help, too, and so leave them to struggle along the best they can with their work and as much more as is left for them to do.

One very helpful way to relieve the women on the place of much of their work and at the same time make it possible for them to do more than they do and with less labor is to arrange conveniences for them. If water can not be run into the house, then it should be brought for them in such quantities that they do not have to carry it, thus saving their time and strength. Every little labor saving device that can be made for them should be made, and all the help the men can give them before going to work in the morning, during the time at the house at noon, and after they come home in the evening, should be given. Every cent of money and every moment of time spent in the effort to make the tasks of the women less irksome on the farm is well spent. It saves both their time and health, and conservation of health is the greatest economy that can be effected.

It has been authoritatively stated that there is a greater percentage of farm women in the asylums, brought there because of collapse from overwork and strain, than of any other class. This of itself should be an impressive and solemn warning to every farmer to see to it that his wife and daughters are not overworked. No one will knowingly allow them to overwork themselves, but the collapse often comes before the man on the place realizes what has been going on, and now, too late to prevent it, he is overwhelmed with the thought of his responsibility for the sorrowful situation in which he finds himself. Help the women.

Ballard-Coffee.
On last Wednesday evening John Coffee boarded the east-bound train and landed in Fort Worth Thursday morning. In the afternoon of the same day he was married to Miss Gay Ballard of that place, but formerly of Loraine.

Mrs. Coffee resided in the Loraine community in her younger days. She grew to womanhood in our midst and only a few years ago she, with her father, moved to Fort Worth, where she has resided since. She is widely known here and loved and admired by all her friends.

Mr. Coffee is a Mitchell county boy having lived here practically all his life. He is a progressive young man of whom all speak well. John was elected cashier of the First State Bank some months ago, which position he has filled efficiently.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffee are both graduates of the Loraine high school.

They returned home Thursday night on the Sunshine Special. They have moved into the Johnson home.

We express our congratulations to these young people as they enter upon the journey of life together, and hope for them many long, happy and prosperous years.

The Picnic.

The Loraine people attended the Fourth of July picnic in Colorado. All who could hang on went over on the train. Many went in cars. Jerry Walker had to make a couple of trips with his truck, loaded each time. The people seem to have enjoyed themselves very much. The big basket dinner, of course, was fine. All the women folks in Mitchell county had put forth their greatest efforts to cook the very best. For just this one day the people from the farm, the store, the shop and all other places of business came together to break the monotony of daily "hard work" which they had been doing. Everybody had a nice time, and recorded this Fourth of July as a day well spent.

the national joy smoke

NEVER was such right-handed-two-fisted smokejoy as you puff out of a jimmy pipe packed with Prince Albert! That's because P. A. has the quality!

You can't fool your taste apparatus any more than you can get five aces out of a family deck! So, when you hit Prince Albert, coming and going, and get up half an hour earlier just to start stoking your pipe or rolling cigarettes, you know you've got the big prize on the end of your line!

Prince Albert's quality alone puts it in a class of its own, but when you figure that P. A. is made by our exclusive patented process that cuts out bite and parch—well—you feel like getting a flock of dictionaries to find enough words to express your happy days sentiments!
