MITCHELL COUNTY FARM BUREAU IS ORGANIZED

The Mitchell County Farm Bureau was organized Saturday afternoon at a mass meeting convened at the court house in Colorado, which was attended by 240 farmers and cattlemen of the county. H. E. Dieterich of Dallas county, who has had charge of the campaign for organization of this county, was introduced by W. A. Dulin, county farm agent, and he delivered an address outlining the purposes of the organization, and the duties and responsibilities of the officers and directors.

Following the address of Mr. Dieterich the members present adopted a resolution providing for permanent organization of the bureau and the following officers were elected: President, J. V. Harter, of Colorado; vice president, James Bodine of Buford; secretary treasurer, E. M. Baldwin of Colorado; S. H. Hart of Lorraine, P. C. Conaway of Westbrook, B. O. Joyce of Spade and J. W. Kay of Colorado were elected on the board of directors.

Mr. Dulin stated Tuesday morning that already more than three hundred members had affiliated with the organization in this county and the campaign had not yet been completed. It is believed that the membership will reach at least four hundred.

"One of the first duties to be taken up by the bureau will be to arrange plans for pooling cotton of the members," Mr. Dulin stated. "Now that the Mitchell County Farm Bureau is organized we expect to get down to business. In Nolan county, which was only recently organized, the commodity of the bureau membership is approximately all pooled and will be by February 21, according to information from Sweetwater."

The board of directors will meet Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Chamber of Commerce for a business session, at which plans for the immediate future will be outlined. The bureau will maintain a permanent office in Colorado, to be opened as soon as suitable quarters can be obtained.

DR. C. L. ROOT NAMED AS CITY HEALTH OFFICER.

Dr. C. L. Root was named as city health officer by the city council on Tuesday afternoon. The office of city health officer was recently created when ordinances providing for a board of health and establishing regulations under which food products establishments and the proprietors and employees of such establishments are to operate were passed.

REPAIRING BUFORD ROAD.

County Commissioners Court will assist farmers of the Buford community in making repairs to the Colorado Dunn road near Buford, according to a statement made to The Record Monday by Judge J. C. Hall. Farmers of that community pledged their teams and time free for hauling gravel in order to make some needed repairs to sections of this road, provided the expense of loading would be borne by the county, to

FIRST STATE RE-ELECTED AS MITCHELL CO. DEPOSITORY

The First State Bank was re-elected depository for the county and the school funds of Mitchell County in an order passed by commissioners court Tuesday. The bank will pay interest at four and one-half per cent this year. Interest at the rate of five and one-half per cent has been paid for use of these bonds during the past two years.

The commissioners were convened in session Monday, and this being the term of court at which quarterly reports of the several county officers are audited, election officers and road overseers appointed, etc., they have been busy during all of this week. Election judges as appointed, follow:

Colorado, R. B. Terrell; Westbrook, C. E. Danner; Spade, R. A. Hood; Landers, W. E. Wimberley; Cuthbert, Geo. Goodwin; Carr, T. M. Grant; Lorraine, J. L. Pratt; Latah, E. B. Gresson; McKenzie, Fred McKenzie; Buford, H. B. Palmer.

TOMBSTONE FROM GRAVE OF TRAMMELL FOUND IN LAKE.

Residents around Lake Trammell and Sweetwater nimrods hied to the placid waters in search of the elusive bass, lost their nerve early Sunday morning upon discovering a large tombstone lying half submerged off the sloping spillway of the lake.

Investigation developed the fact that the monument had been taken from the grave of the late Thomas Trammell in Sweetwater cemetery, hauled to the lake in a heavy truck and dumped overboard. That the vandals who removed the stone took advantage of darkness to do their work is pointed out by the fact that they left the lake in the belief that the monument had gone to the bottom. Instead, its weight, some 2,000 pounds, prevented it sliding down the inclined dam. It was barely covered by water.

Upon being notified by J. F. Roland, keeper at the lake, Mrs. Trammell went to Lake Trammell, and had the monument returned to the cemetery and replaced at the grave of one of Sweetwater's leading business men and townbuilders.—Sweetwater Reporter.

SENIORS ENTERTAINED.

The Seniors of the High School were entertained with a Valentine party by the Sophomores no Monday evening at the home of the president of the Sophomores, Miss Fannie Bess Earnest.

The decorations were valentines of all sizes arranged over the house. The entertainment was contests and fortune telling. A prize was given for the most original costume. This was won by Millard Smith.

Jack Helton, Lillian Dorn, both received sticks of candy by shooting nearest the heart. Heart shaped cakes and chocolate were served.

which the Commissioners Court has agreed. Plans for doing this work was negotiated by T. W. Stonerod, Jr., representing the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Stonerod stated Tuesday that he expected this work would be commenced within the next few days.

A. B. ROBERTSON DIES AT ABILENE, SATURDAY, FEB. 12th

A Prominent and Well Loved Citizen of West Texas, who Lived at Colorado, Slaton and Abilene. He was a Well Known Stockman, Banker and Merchant and His Friends Were Numbered by Thousands.

The friends and relatives were shocked when the news came early Sunday morning of the death of A. B. (Sug) Robertson, one of Colorado's pioneer and wealthy citizens, which occurred Saturday evening at about 9 o'clock, at his home in Abilene.

While he had not been in good health for some time, and the physicians advised him to leave Slaton for a lower climate, yet no one thought of him as a sick man. He died of acute indigestion.

He had lived in the west so long, and was so closely allied with all its big interests that he could not get far away, so moved to Abilene only a few weeks ago, hoping that the altitude was low enough there for him, and that he could still carry on his business in the west. But God ruled otherwise, and he passed away after a few hours of suffering.

The remains were brought to Colorado for burial Monday, so that they might lie beside his mother and other relatives. The body lay at the residence of his niece, Mrs. H. C. Landers until the hour of the funeral, 3 p. m., when it was followed by a host of friends and relatives to the Methodist Church, where the funeral services were held.

The altar of the church was a solid bank of flowers, silent messengers of love, from friends at Ft. Worth, Lubbock, Slaton and a number other towns of West Texas. The services were conducted by Rev. B. W. Dodson, of Moran, a pastor when Mr. Robertson lived here and whom he loved and respected; assisted by Rev. A. V. Hendrick, pastor at Slaton and Rev. C. L. Browning, local pastor. Mr. Dodson took for his text "By their fruits ye shall know them" and "He that is not against us is for us."

Mr. Dodson pointed out the good fruits of the life of Mr. Robertson, who had been his personal friend for years. He said, while he was not a member of the church, yet he was always interested in the things the church stood for, and was a trustee of the church while he lived here. He had high ideals for a church member and always felt he was unable to reach them. The last years of his life, however, he read and relied more and more on God's word.

He leaves to mourn for him a wife, four children and a grand child: A. L. Robertson of Slaton; Mrs. W. S. Sewell of Eastland; Pool, of Sweetwater; A. B., of Abilene, and Wade, a grand child who was raised in this home as one of the children; and many relatives, and the whole of West Texas as friends.

The pall bearers were, J. H. Smoot, T. W. Stonerod, M. Carter, F. E. McKenzie, B. M. Holland of Slaton and George Bowles of Lubbock. The honorary pall bearers were, F. M. Burns, D. N. Arnett, R. H. Looney, C. M. Adams, C. H. Earnest, J. L. Doss, R. N. Gary of Colorado; Marion Sansom, E. W. Clark, Ft. Worth; George Wolforth, J. E. Edwards of Lubbock; A. J. Payne, Robert Murray, A. L. Brannon and George Merriott, Slaton. The ushers were J. W. Shepperd, H. C. Doss of Colorado, Dick and Sam Arnett of Lubbock.

The following persons from out of town joined the Colorado friends in attending the funeral services: Marion Sansom, President Stockyards National Bank; E. B. Spiller, Sec.-Treas. Cattle Raisers Association, Ft. Worth; E. W. Clark, director First National Bank, Ft. Worth; George Bowles, George Wolforth, Len McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Arnett and Dick Arnett of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Payne, A. P. Smith, George Merriott, Fred Whitehead, R. J. Murray, B. M. Holland, Ray Stephenson, J. S. Edwards, J. V. Hollingsworth, Alex DeLong, W. P. Osborn, A. E. Howerton, A. V. Hendrick, John Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brannon and Miss Annie Thompson of Slaton; O. P. Thrane of Snyder; R. L. McCauley, W. H. Jobe and J. D. Dulaney of Sweetwater; Mrs. Clarence Parree of Abilene. His only sister Mrs. McCoughy of Alpine, and his only brother, Pink Robertson of El Paso, were also at the funeral.

A distinguished jurist in speaking of success in life said, "Some succeed by talent, some by influence of friends, some by a miracle, but the majority by commencing without a shilling." The truth of this statement, especially the last clause, is illustrated by many of the greatest live stock men of America, for in a majority of cases among the pioneers the individual has been the builder of his own fortunes. Many of the men who have become acknowledged leaders in the cattle industry of the southwest began without special educational advantages and have gained knowledge on the boundless prairies under the star-lit sky. In battling with obstacles of the gravest nature they have advanced through inherent force of character, unflagging diligence and strong determination and they deserve great credit for what they have accomplished.

A. B. Robertson, one of the most successful cattlemen of the great Southwest belongs to this interesting type of American citizens. For a number of years he was a member of the Board of Directors of the Cattle Raisers Association of Texas, and was for several years Vice-President of this organization. He was also a member of the executive committee of the National Live Stock Association, and has become well known throughout the United States in connection with cattle interests. He also gained regard and won admiration by reason of his pleasing address, the ability with which he carried forward any undertaking, and his upright honorable nature.

He was born in Indiana, Jan. 14, 1855; was a son of Dr. A. B. Robertson who moved his family to Arkansas prior to the Civil War and at the time of hostilities joined the Confederate army. In 1863, when his son and namesake was eight years old, the doctor sent his family in charge of a friend to the Brazos river in Texas, for the advance of the Federal troops alarmed many of the people of Arkansas and there was a considerable exodus from that state. The trip was made in a covered spring wagon and the family lo-

"CHICKEN" ORDINANCE PASSED AFTER FIRST READING

An ordinance designed to protect flower and vegetable gardens of the city from depredations by the town chicken and "other fowls" was passed by the City Council Tuesday afternoon following the first reading.

The ordinance provides that owners and keepers of chickens or other fowls within the corporate limits of Colorado shall keep them confined in coops or other inclosures and the city marshal is directed by provisions of the ordinance to take up all chickens and fowls found violating the ordinance.

These chickens are to be collected by the city marshal and placed in pens to be provided. Owners of the chickens may call at these pens, identify their chickens and take them home, upon payment of a reasonable sum, not to exceed 25 cents each, to the officer. The ordinance provides that owners of chickens permitted to depredate in violation of this ordinance shall be fined $5 for each offense and it is specified that each day the fowls or chickens are permitted to run at large shall constitute a separate offense.

SUPPORT OF COLORADO APPRECIATED BY SWEETWATER.

That the support of Colorado in the fight to bring the 1922 convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to Sweetwater is appreciated by that city is evidenced in the following letter received Wednesday from Hon. Geo. H. Shepperd, mayor:

"At a regular meeting of the board of city development last evening a resolution was unanimously passed, thanking the Colorado delegation at Ranger for the unqualified support given Sweetwater in the contest for the next annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and instructing the secretary to convey to you and the Colorado delegation an expression of Sweetwater's gratitude for your neighborly loyalty, and should Colorado at any time need the assistance of Sweetwater to assure you that she will be glad to have the opportunity to serve."

MUNICIPAL ELECTION ORDERED FOR TUESDAY, APRIL 5TH.

An order calling for a municipal election to be held in the city of Colorado Tuesday, April 5th, was passed by the City Council Tuesday, convened in regular session by Hon. F. M. Burns, mayor pro-tem. The election of a mayor, city secretary and three aldermen will be voted upon at that time.

Aldermen whose tenure of office expires in April are R. O. Pearson and J. H. Greene. An alderman will also be elected from the ward represented by F. M. Burns, mayor pro-tem.

HARDISON ELECTED PRESIDENT MITCHELL COUNTY S. A. BOARD

Rev. D. R. Hardison, pastor of the First Christian church, was elected president of the Mitchell county advisory board of the Salvation Army, at a meeting of the directors held Wednesday morning at the Chamber of Commerce. Rev. Mr. Hardison was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. W. A. Williams, former president, who recently removed to Florida.

HUNDRED EXPECTED TO ATTEND BANQUET TUESDAY

W. R. Charters, chairman of the committee arranging details of the banquet to be held Tuesday night at the Price Auto Company display rooms, stated Wednesday afternoon that sixty men of the city had made reservations to attend and it was expected that at least one hundred would be registered before the booth is closed. All those desiring to attend this banquet should see Mr. Charters at once, in that the committee have adequate time in which to work out the various details of furnishing refreshments, cigars, etc.

The Colorado Band will furnish music for the occasion, Mr. Charters stated, and he is authority for the information that this band, under direction of J. Lee Jones, has attained a high rate of efficiency.

Among the special attractions at this banquet will be an address by Porter A. Whaley of Stamford, general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Whaley has promised that he would positively be here. Hamilton Wright, of the editorial staff, Fort Worth Record, has also promised to attend the banquet as a guest of the city. Wright was for some time publicity director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and is one of the best writers making the West Texas territory today. He will come to Colorado to write an article for his paper on this city and county.

An invitation has been extended to Hon. Clifford B. Jones, of Spur, the president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, to attend this banquet, but up to late Wednesday afternoon no reply had been received from him. This invitation was extended Mr. Jones by Dr. P. C. Coleman, president of the Colorado chamber, and others who are co-operating with the committees in making the banquet the success it should be.

Those arranging the various details for this occasion are optimistic in the belief that this big smoker and banquet next Tuesday night will be one of the most successful meetings of its kind in this city for some time. That plenty of pep will dominate the meeting is assured by the fact that Hon. C. M. Adams will act as toastmaster. The invitation to attend is extended every citizen of the city who believes in the fraternity between the several business and professional men of Colorado and has the interest of the city and county at heart. See Mr. Charters at once and make your reservation. You will enjoy the occasion one hundred per cent and the price per plate is only one dollar.

ATTENDS STOCKHOLDERS MEET INDUSTRIAL TRANSPORTATION

W. W. Porter, who is in St. Louis to attend a meeting of the stockholders of the Industrial Transportation Company, will deliver an address before the meeting, according to information received by The Record Wednesday. Porter became associated with the concern only recently when they announced the intention of opening a retail grocery at Colorado.

On his return to Colorado Mr. Porter plans to stop at Little Rock for a visit to the company packing plant.

WITH THE CHURCHES

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45. Attendance Sunday was 244. Let's help to make it 300. Come on to Sunday school and help the town and churches.

Preaching Sunday morning at 11 by Rev. E. W. Gray, field agent for the Methodist Orphanage located at Waco. Mr. Gray will bring a good message from the Home. Come out and hear him.

Junior League at 2 p. m. Senior League at 6:15. The Seniors have a special program on for this hour, and all members and friends of the league invited.

Preaching Sunday evening at 7:15 by the pastor, Rev. C. L. Browning. His subject will be "Choosing One's Life Work." Young people especially invited to hear this sermon.

Good music a special feature of all these services. A welcome to everybody.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Superintendent W. W. Porter was missed Sunday, being away in St. Louis on business. A good Bible school was present. Both morning and evening there were good audiences. The special music at the evening hour was unusually good. We hope to see every teacher and pupil on hand Sunday.

Morning and evening worship at 11:00 and 7:15 respectively. Senior Endeavor at 6:15. We will be glad to see many present at all these services.

D. R. Hardison, Pastor.

BAPTIST MEN PLEASE READ.

We are using a new plan by having different men, who will, teach the lesson. Dr. T. J. Ratliff taught February 6th, F. B. Whipkey February 13th, and A. L. Whipkey is to teach February 20th. You do not have to teach, but you are urged to be present February 20th, and help the other fellow make the class go.

E. Keathley, teacher.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Friday, February 18th, Litany, 7:30 p. m.

February 20th, second Sunday in Lent: Holy communion at 7:30 a. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Holy Communion, 11 a. m. Even song 7:30 p. m.

Monday, February 21st, Lenten service 4:15 p. m.

Every Wednesday during Lent the Women's Auxiliary meets for the study of missions at 4 o'clock.

F. B. Eteson.

SPECIAL MUSIC.

The special music at the Baptist church next Sunday will be: Duet, "The Lord Who Giveth." Chorus, "Christian Faith." Offertory, "Meditation." Hymns from Charles Wesley.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL.

There was an increase of 16 in the membership of the Baptist Sunday school last Sunday morning. The special music given at that hour and at the eleven o'clock hour by Misses Nast, Roderick and Mr. Pride was a musical feast.

A special honor is to be given the school February 27th, and everybody is urged to be present next Sunday to hear the plans.

There were 94 in attendance at prayer services Wednesday night at the Methodist church. The subject for discussion was "The Ten Virgins" led by the pastor. It was a most inspiring service and those who are missing these mid-week prayer services are missing a great deal.

A special program on Stewardship will be rendered at the Methodist church Sunday at 6:15, by the Senior Epworth League.

ORDINANCE.

An ordinance providing that the keeping of chickens or other fowls within the corporate limits of the city of Colorado, other than in pens, or coops, or inclosures, shall be a nuisance; making such keeping of chickens or other fowls an offense; and providing for the taking up of such chickens or fowls.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Colorado, Texas:

Section 1. The keeping of chickens or other fowls within the corporate limits of the City of Colorado, Texas, other than in coops, pens or other inclosures sufficient to keep said chickens or other fowls upon the premises owned or controlled by the owners or keepers of such chickens or other fowls, is hereby declared to constitute a nuisance and is hereby prohibited.

Section 2. The terms, "coops, pens, or other inclosures," as used in the preceding section are intended to include any contrivance intended for the purpose of keeping chickens or other fowls upon the premises, where they may be lawfully kept by the owner or keeper.

Section 3. If chickens or other fowls habitually escape from these premises where they are purported to be kept by their owner or keeper and go upon the streets, alleys, or other public places in the City of Colorado, or upon the premises of anyone other than the owner or keeper, then and in that event such coops, pens or other inclosures as defined in Section 2 hereof shall be deemed insufficient, and the keeping of such chickens or other fowls by such owner or keeper thereof constitutes a nuisance, and is hereby prohibited.

Section 4. If chickens or other fowls are kept within the corporate limits of the City of Colorado in such manner that the keeping thereof constitutes a nuisance within the terms of the three preceding sections hereof, then such owner or keeper of such chickens or other fowls shall be guilty of an offense hereunder, and upon conviction hereof shall be punished by a fine of $5.00 for each and every offense. Provided, that each day that chickens or fowls are so kept in violation of this ordinance shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 5. The city marshal of the City of Colorado shall take up and safely keep any chickens or other fowls found running at large upon the streets or alleys or in any public place in the city of Colorado; and the city marshal shall if requested by any citizen of the city of Colorado upon whose premises the chickens or other fowls are found, take up and keep the chickens or other fowls so found; and any citizen of the City of Colorado shall have the right to take up the chickens or other fowls of another which may unlawfully be on his or her premises, notify the city marshal that such chickens or other fowls have been taken up, and keep such chickens or other fowls until the city marshal shall call for the same.

Section 6. The City Marshal shall provide a pen or other inclosure, wherein to keep the chickens or other fowls taken up under the provisions of the preceding section. The city marshal shall notify the owners of said chickens or other fowls that may be taken up by him; if the owner is known to him, and shall keep and care for said chickens or other fowls until the same are disposed of as provided in Section 7 hereof.

Section 7. The city marshal shall keep chickens or other fowls that are taken up by him in accordance with Section 5 hereof for a period of ten days after same have been taken up. If anyone shall claim such chickens or other fowls within the period of ten days, then the city marshal shall deliver such chickens or other fowls to such claimants. Provided, however, that the city marshal shall be entitled to a reasonable compensation for taking up and caring for such chickens or other fowls, not to exceed twenty-five cents for each and every chicken or other fowl so taken up and such reasonable compensation shall be a charge against such chickens or other fowls; and the claimant shall not be entitled to possession of such chickens or other fowls until such compensation to the city marshal is paid.

Section 8. If such chickens or other fowls are not claimed by the owners or keepers thereof before the expiration of ten days from the time they are taken up by the city marshal then the city marshal shall sell such chickens or other fowls. The city marshal shall retain the sum of twenty-five cents for each and every chicken or other fowl so sold, and the balance if any after the expenses of such sale are paid, shall be paid into the city treasury to be held subject to the order of the owner of said chickens or other fowls.

Section 9. Sections five, six, seven, and eight hereof shall not be construed as in any manner limiting, or modifying the provisions of Sections one, two, three and four hereof; and the fact that chickens or other fowls may be taken up under the provisions of Sections five, six, seven and eight hereof shall not relieve the owner or keeper of such chickens from the penalty provided in Section Four hereof.

Section 10. In event that any part or parts of this ordinance may be held void, it is intended that the part or parts not so held to be void shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 11. This ordinance shall become effective thirty days after the passage and publication hereof.

Approved, this 15th day of February, A. D. 1921.

OBITUARY.

On January 30th the death angel called at the home of Brother and Sister Harris Welch and claimed the only jewel, little Harris, Jr., whose earthly life was only three months, and twenty-one days, but during the few days of life he made impressions on the hearts of the father and mother with many friends, and loved ones which shall wait until God shall call us home. And then we shall be united again with this precious one for ever more, and sing praise unto Him from whom all blessings flow. We extend to the young bereaved parents our deepest sympathy and with prayerful hearts would say this is only one of the ways in which God gives us ties in Heaven. So let us keep our faith in God and say as Jesus said while passing through the dark hours of suffering "Not my will, but thine, be done."

When through the deep waters I call thee to go. The rivers of sorrow shall not overflow; For I will be with thee thy troubles to bless And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress. When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie My grace shall sufficient shall be thy supply; And beyond this vale of tears, with Him whose gone a babe; One day we will be united with him When we learn to love. --Your Pastor.

LOCAL POST TO SECURE PERMANENT QUARTERS

Dean C. Hooker, Post No. 127, of the American Legion, will either build a club house or lease quarters in which the post may meet for business session, and also hold social functions, if plans discussed by members of the post at a meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce Friday night materialize.

Considerable enthusiasm was manifested when the suggestion was introduced by W. W. Jeffress that the practicable thing for the post to do would be to form a stock company and build permanent quarters at Colorado. He suggested that it would be fitting to construct a building typical of the army barracks buildings in which the boys were housed while in the cantonments.

Joe H. Smoot, W. W. Jeffries, J. H. Coffee, Claud Hooks and Thos. R. Smith were named by the post commander as a committee to represent the post in conducting investigation into this matter, with instructions to report their recommendation at the next meeting, called to convene on March 3rd at the Chamber of Commerce.

New members were admitted to the post as follows: Osborne, J. B. Dobbs, A. L. Young, Pat H. Kelsey, Rush Moody, J. J. Rhodes, Robert A. Shepperd, S. B. Standefer, W. C. Osborne, J. B. Dobbs and A. L. Young, Dr. T. J. Ratliff was elected Post Chaplain and H. A. Ragan, post historian. The resignation of W. S. Cooper as adjutant was accepted and W. W. Jeffress elected to fill the vacancy.

The post unanimously adopted a resolution calling for the organization of a woman's auxiliary to the post and the post commander received instructions to co-operate with ladies of the city in perfecting this organization.

The creation of the Woman's Auxiliary as a sister organization for the Department of Texas, American Legion, is now well under way, and indications are that the woman's auxiliary will prove a "big sister" for the American Legion of the State.

Since the perfecting of the State organization of the woman's auxiliary more than twenty-five cities and towns of the State have applied for charters for local units. Mrs. E. C. Murray of Houston, president of the state auxiliary, has started an organization tour which will embrace twenty-three or more Texas cities, and considerable interest has been aroused in all parts of the State.

A committee report adopted at the last national convention of the American Legion provided that "membership in the woman's auxiliary shall be limited to the grandmothers, the mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of the members of the American Legion, and to the grandmothers, wives, daughters and sisters of all men and women who were in the military service of the United States between April 6, 1917, and November 11, of 1918, and died in line of duty or after honorable discharge. This will make the membership resources of the Woman's Auxiliary considerably larger than those of the American Legion, and officials of both organizations predict that the enrollment in the Woman's Auxiliary will equal that of the Legion in Texas, if it does not surpass the latter, by the end of this year.

The tour by Mrs. Murray, which began in Galveston, is scheduled to end in May and embrace the following towns: Houston, Navasota, Corsicana, Dallas, Jacksonville, Nacogdoches, Marshall, Texarkana, Paris, Commerce, McKinney, Sherman, Denton, Denton, Wichita Falls, Stamford, Sweetwater, Abilene, Cisco, Gorman, Dublin, Comanche, Brownwood, Cleburne, Waco, Temple, Belton, Georgetown, Taylor, Smithville, Luling, Seguin, Shiner and Victoria. Dates upon which Mrs. Murray will arrive at each of these places have not yet been determined.

GULF REFINING COMPANY I now have the agency for the Gulf Refining Company. Get your good Gulf gas and Lusterlite from me. Delivered free, anywhere, any old time. J. A. SADLER

LONGFELLOW LOCALS. Longfellow is still on the map, but has not been represented in quite a while. Some are picking cotton, and some are cutting stalks preparing to farm.

Yes—and some are digging bait, preparing for the finny tribe. Some are beginning to hunt the tanks to beat the heel flies off, while others are trying to save up chips to trade for marriage licenses.

We have a complete stock of Shell Hardware; can supply the farmers' needs. Colorado Mercantile Co.

We have singing at the school every Sunday afternoon. After singing some of the good songs last Sunday evening the community went into a Sunday school organization. Mr. A. P. Tims was elected superintendent, and Miss Katie Williams secretary and treasurer. As we had no literature, we did not go into choice for teachers, but you are invited to come over one and all and help us, for we are going to have Sunday school.

Our literary school is progressing nicely, with Mrs. W. P. Welch as principal, and Miss Bennie Adams assistant.

On account of the sickness in her father's home Miss Bennie Adams was absent from school Monday and Miss Ila Owens taught in her place. We hope the family will soon be well and Miss Bennie can return to her work.

Have your battery work done by an authorized battery service station. Womack & Company.

J. P. Felts, son of J. D. Felts, had an accident and got his collar bone broken a month ago, and later had an operation for the same at the Dr. C. L. Root Sanitarium at Colorado, Texas, and is doing nicely, we are hoping to see him soon as he is missed very much by the community.

The farmers are going to meet on Wednesday to organize a local farm bureau. We hope to have a large attendance at this meeting.

Last, but not least, the health of the community is very good. As news is scarce, will ring off, with best of wishes to The Record and its many readers.

CUTHBERT NOTES.

Health is excellent, with the exception of Mr. Solomon. He has been quite sick for several days. It is hoped that he will soon be up and about his work.

Sunday school at this place has again been resumed. Much interest is being manifested in the Sunday school work. All of you come on

Well, sir, folks are peculiar beings. Mr. Wilson, one of Cuthbert's enterprising merchants has finally succeeded in persuading his wife to live with him again. (Oh, she has been staying in town keeping their boys in school. Of course, they have not been separated; that is, divorced.) But since she has come out here to live Mr. Wilson is hardly ever here. Folks are peculiar, indeed they are.

B. L. Autry has gone to Mountain-air, N. M. to make his future home. We wish for him and his family a pleasant and profitable stay in New Mexico. But we expect to see him coming back not many years hence.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Womack of Colorado Sundayed at Mr. G. W. Womack's.

Our stock on Harness is complete, and the price is right, quality the best. Colorado Mercantile Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Caruthers of Barnhart, Texas, spent a few days in our midst last week and took his mother, Mrs. C. H. Caruthers home with them. She will visit in that vicinity some two weeks.

Colorado seems to be on the upward road morally. A man passed through Cuthbert today who had just come from Colorado, and he said he did not hear of any one fighting.

Sunday school was well attended Sunday. Everyone seems to be taking a new interest in the work. Rev. Duff of Colorado preached after Sunday school.

T. J. Purdon and children left last week for Stamford.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Tilson entertained the young people with a social Saturday night.

Charley Womack made a flying trip to Colorado Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilson visited relatives at Colorado Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Reeder visited their daughter, Mrs. Fred Bodine, Sunday.

Mr. G. E. Goodwin has been sick the last few days, but is better at this writing.

D. T. Bozeman made a business trip to Colorado Wednesday.

OUTDOOR SPORTS.

Because a Ford car is half shot, or even shot a full load is no sign it is seriously injured, even though the shot aimed at a vital part, as Rupert Womack can attest. While driving along in his car a few days ago he put his shot gun, muzzle down beside him, forgetting to snap the safety.

The report that came in a few minutes caused him to think all four tires had blown out at once, and that highwaymen had started practicing on him with an American naval gun entrenched somewhere beside the road. Investigation proved his imagination camouflaged, for his own gun had gone off and shot a hole through the floor boards close to his feet. His friends are mirthfully watching Rupert's recovery. The Ford is all right and able to be about.

Give Your Children a Chance

Of course you want your children to have a better chance than you had—every good father does. You want your daughters to marry well and you want your sons to have enough capital and sufficient education to begin their farming careers almost at the point you have reached after years of toil.

Many a farmer has found in pure-breds the solution for the two outstanding problems—how to keep the children contented with farm life, and how to start them out so that they are bound to achieve success.

One Ohio farmer's plan is typical. When his eldest son was 12 years old he went to the bank and borrowed $350 to buy a registered bull and two registered heifers. In eight years this investment has grown into a pure-bred herd which has provided schooling for three children, a comfortable home for the family and a permanent, prosperous business for himself and the boys. "I didn't have to beg the youngsters to stay on the farm," the father says, "they got to liking the cattle." Pure-breds do keep the children on the farm; they do make farming a profession worth following.

Doubtless you started with scrubs—maybe you haven't even yet overcome this handicap to success. Let your children start with pure-breds—they deserve it. And let them start, too, with that great service weekly which has contributed so much to the cattle-raising industry—THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. Just $1.00 buys 52 helpful issues. THE RECORD WILL STAND PAT.

There are those who are clamoring for a reduction of subscription and advertising rates and job printing prices, seem not to remember, or perhaps never knew, that the newspaper business for the past several generations has been the least profitable in the gamut of business occupations.

They seem to think that if the editor and printer has a profit left after he has paid for his stock, his labor and other fixed charges, he is guilty of misdemeanor if he keeps it for himself and family.

In the old days, though, the printer and newspaper man took what was offered him and in many cases was glad to get it. And in those days the wants he supplied were not such insistent wants as they are today. The pioneers of printing and publishing, unconsciously perhaps, developed a demand for their services which in these times, equals the demand for any other speedy and complex life. And for the generations of scant living and expensive teaching the industry now is entitled to a rich reward, especially with the added expensive equipment and highly trained executives and well paid labor which present conditions require.

It is no argument for lower printing, advertising and subscription prices to say that prices in other directions are coming down. If there is any lowering of prices of materials or other needs of the publisher and printer, they are as to the whole cost of production almost negligible.

YOUNG LADIES MISSIONARY SOCIETY HOLD MEETING.

The Young Ladies Missionary Society met with the superintendent, Mrs. Barcroft, Tuesday, and began the new study "Serving the Neighborhood." This promises to be a helpful work in developing social service.

"Many localities in Texas today are considering the numerous advantages that would accrue to Texas and to the farmers of this, the largest cotton producing section of the world by the establishment of cotton mills," says the Hico News-Review. "The industry without a single exception has proven to be profitable to those who have placed their money in them and there are some in Hico who have spoken to the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce in regard to why should Hico not do its utmost to locate one here?" Troy Texas, a little city near Temple, not near as large as Hico has just recently made a cotton mill project possible there. The secretary has done some investigating and is still at it. His present information is that the sections that secure mills do so by putting them up themselves. A 5000 spindle cotton yarn mill would afford a local market for nearly all the cotton raised in this immediate section would enhance values and would employ some fifty or sixty families, adding to local population by at least 500 people."

The Record carries this week interesting country letters all of news interest from Loraine, Westbrook, Iatan, Cuthbert, Buford, Longfellow, Lone Star and Looney. These are all very fine and appreciated by the Record and its readers. Perhaps the youngest of the correspondents is the one at Looney. Now we need someone to write from Spade, Seven Wells, and Champion.

Mrs. W. W. Jenkins sends for The Record at Sierra Blanca, saying they are lonesome without it.

THANKS.

Phillip Thompson and Jim Kimble take this method of thanking their many friends who so promptly came to their assistance last Sunday in extinguishing the fire that threatened to destroy their entire pastures, as well as the pastures of their friends and neighbors. The quick response from the citizens of Howard, Mitchell, Glascock and Sterling counties reduced the damage of the fire to a minimum.

Messrs. Thompson and Kimble hope the next time they meet these good people, it will be at a good, old-time picnic where ice—and such things—are plentiful, instead of around the seething flames of a prairie fire.

COL. ROBERTSON NAMED EXECUTOR TO THE SCOGGINS ESTATE

Col. A. B. Robertson, who died at Abilene, Saturday night, and was buried at Colorado Monday was named one of the executors of the will of the late I. D. Scoggins, rich cattleman, who recently died in the sanatorium at Post City. The Scoggins estate is composed of thousands of acres of valuable grazing lands in Scurry and Kent counties well stocked with cattle, in addition to large holdings in hogs and other stocks and bonds. Mr. Scoggins was one of the principal owners of the First National Bank of Sweetwater. The other executor is Judge Ed J. Hamner, a prominent attorney of Sweetwater.

THAT FOOL GROUND-HOG.
February second is a groundhog holiday and Mr. Hoo after viewing his shadow with a feeling smile, returned to his hole in the ground with a cool heart and cold feet, thereby predicting sixty days of cold. Had weather which was by the way the biggest lie ever fastened on a suffering public. The ground-hog lies will not only in Texas for February weather has been as attractive as the maiden ladies at Palm Beach. All this month the cattle ranchers have been framed across the sun-baked prairie heavily laden with the new-fangled flannel, bringing in and clothes only equalled by that of a June wedding. The ground-hog is a myth.

A Kansas man anxious to find out the lie or workhorse of the ground-hog, has with hopeful aim ground-hog, installed them on the back of a truck, built an observation tower and on the morning of February 2nd mounted the tower to watch the antics of the wood-hog. He waited for some hours when finally his small eye informed him that the ground-hog had been out for some time. These are a party of hunters who bought them as a nuisance. The boy was smarter than his father.

EFFECTS OF CONSTIPATION
Constipation causes a stagnation of the sewerage system of the body. The poisonous refuse matter that should be excreted away is retained in the system and often causes the blood to become thick and can cause many serious diseases. No one can afford to neglect his bowels. A dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will afford relief. Avoid drastic cathartics, they take too much water out of the system and there is a likelihood of being followed by constipation.

Why pay $2.50 for re-charging your battery when Womack & Company re-charge them for $1.50? Best carbon paper made, for pen, oil or typewriter. Also have it in large sheets. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Major and little son visited relatives in Sweetwater this week.

DEATH OF A. B. ROBERTSON

cated in what is now Hood county, where, at the close of the war, they were joined by Dr. Robertson.

It was about this time that the subject of this article, who is usually known as "Sug" Robertson, started for Western Texas and entered upon his career in the cowboy camp. For ten years the lad was almost continually in the service of R. K. Wiley, who proved to be a wise counselor and lifelong friend. He showed unusual aptitude for the range and soon was placed in charge of men of twice his age. When eighteen years old he made his first trip on the trail, taking a herd of one thousand cattle belonging to his older brother, R. P., over the Chisum trail from Coleman County, Texas to Coffeyville, Kansas. Mr. Robertson had eight men in his charge and succeeded in accomplishing his task not only with credit to himself but with good profit to his brother.

In the year 1873 the country was swept by a financial panic and many Texas cattlemen lost everything they had, but fortune favored the first important business venture of Mr. Robertson.

In 1876 Mr. Wiley assisted him by giving him the opportunity of acquiring a half interest in a herd of cattle in Runnels county. Mr. Wiley also owned a herd of two or three thousand head out on the Pecos. A short time afterward Mr. Robertson offered to trade Mr. Wiley his interest in the Runnels county herd for the Pecos herd, giving his note for $25,000 as the difference. This was in 1879, when he was 24 years of age, and it stands as a proof of the faith which the experienced cattleman had in his protege.

In 1882 Mr. Robertson settled in Colorado, and began ranching extensively in Mitchell and Nolan counties. In 1893 he bought a herd of cattle which he placed upon the range in Eddy county, N. M., and Gaines county, Texas. Here the Hat brand originated. In 1895 Winfield Scott of Ft. Worth, purchased an interest in the business, and the firm of Scott & Robertson was for a number of years considered one of the greatest cattle ranches of the plains, covering an area of forty miles square in New Mexico and Texas. Mr. Robertson was the active manager, and inaugurated many improvements. $50,000 was expended in watering the range as there was no surface water. Never less than forty men were employed throughout the year, and at times several hundred. Five hundred saddle horses were employed, besides hundreds of work horses. The headquarters was at Monument, New Mexico, but there were eight or ten "ranch houses" scattered over the holdings. This firm then established a ranch in Dawson county, Montana, to which 8,000 cattle were shipped in the spring of 1903.

In 1884-86 considerable disaster met the cattle raisers, and Mr. Robertson lost heavily on account of going security for friends. He met the emergency, however, and not only recovered, but far surpassed the limits of his original holdings.

So the famous Hat brand became well known in Montana, the Dakotas, and Texas, and in fact in all the great markets of the country.

When Mr. Scott died a few years ago, it was found that in his will he had appointed Mr. Robertson sole executor of his million dollar estate, without bond; which showed the unbounded confidence Mr. Scott had in his one time partner and friend.

Mr. Robertson has given his aid and cooperation to many enterprises which have felt the stimulus of his activity and have profited by his sound judgment. In 1893 he became a stockholder in the Colorado National Bank, and was elected its vice-president and a member of its board of directors and in 1899 he became president of the bank, which has a capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $100,000. He retired from the presidency in 1909, as he had decided to move to Slaton, to be nearer his holdings, as in 1900 he had purchased a ranch lying in Crosby, Lynn and Lubbock counties, comprising 125,000 acres. This ranch he had in active operation at the time of his death, as well as extensive mercantile interests in Slaton.

On the 30th of May, 1877, Mr. Robertson was married to Miss Emma Lenora Smith of Runnels county. For years she lived with her husband on the ranch, far out on the plains and she has ever been an ideal wife and mother. Four children have blessed their home. A. L. Robertson, who lives at Slaton, Mrs. W. S. Sewell, of Eastland; A. B. and Pool, of Abilene. All of these children are living and were present at the funeral.

Mr. Robertson had no opportunities for attending school in his early years and learned to read by studying newspapers in the light of the campfire when a cowboy, and mastered writing by laboriously copying the bills of cargo supplies made out by the merchants at his own request. He had, however, a high estimate of the value of education and his children have been provided with good facilities in this direction.

Some years ago Mr. Robertson in talking with a Record man said, as a prediction: "West Texas is yet undeveloped. We are just learning the value of land which for many years has been regarded as a desert. In fact the immense plains country will yet be recognized as the most valuable part of the state. The time is at hand when men with money to build reservoirs will recognize the opportunities presented on the plains and all over West Texas, and the flood waters will be utilized for irrigation. There is absolutely no soil in any country in the world that is more productive than that of West Texas, if water is applied."

Mr. Robertson was a brilliant talker, as a public speaker or in private conversation; a fine story teller, and was always the center of a circle of admiring friends. He was personally acquainted with many of the pioneer cattlemen and regarded John S. Chisum as the prince among them. He has related many interesting incidents of the early days of West Texas.

The field of action in which Mr. Robertson was thrown very early in life was one of the most remarkable the world has ever known for development of character. Surrounded by none of the luxuries of civilization, brought face to face with the stern problem of existence and obliged literally to win his way to any position he might reach, he early learned the great lesson of self-reliance. He found that perseverance wins and that the faithful performance of duty day after day would insure the attainment of every worthy ambition. Hopeful in disposition and gifted with magnetic qualities that insure leadership, he was a source of inspiration to his associates and a leading factor in the growth of West Texas.

He was kind hearted and liberal to a high degree, the man that was down and out always had his sympathy and financial help. He was a model husband, a kind father, and a citizen that the whole of West Texas was proud of.

While he died rich in this world's goods, his greatest riches will last for generations, which is the good that he did to his fellow man and the kind memories that thousands of men will have toward him as long as they live.

SHEPHERD NOTES

The box supper and program was very successful. Sufficient funds were raised for the purpose needed. The program was organized Sunday, the 6th of February. W. L. Coe was elected president of the class and Miss Pearl Brown secretary. We have a very lively class, and we intend to go out to hear us and help us.

Miss Swan Farrar spent the week end with her parents at Loraine. Quite a few people from our community attended the box supper on Friday night.

Miss Ade Kay and Lillian Reeder of Horns Chapel community were at the box supper Friday night.

METHODIST NOTES.

Rev. D. B. Doak of Abilene delivered two excellent sermons at the church Sunday. His sermon on a "Christian Education" on Sunday eve was delivered to a full house, and he in a most impressive manner held the audience's attention for nearly two hours. It was a powerful sermon, and furnished food for thought. Rev. Doak has preached here before and his sermons are always looked forward to with much interest.

The W. M. S. Jr., met with Mrs. T. R. Bennett last week and a special program will be rendered on the 22nd at their next meeting. Some of the W. M. S. members are expected over from Colorado.

Sunday school is growing in membership and interest. The new building for the cradle roll and smaller students, has been completed. Church attendance Sunday numbered 235.

NOTICE.

A sacred hymn singing will be held the fourth Sunday of this month at the Christian church and everybody invited to come and bring books.

P. A. DAVIS BADLY HURT.

Tuesday morning while Mr. P. A. Davis who resides south of town was driving to town, his team in some way became frightened and ran away throwing him out, breaking his collar bone, several ribs and his hip. This is a very unfortunate accident to Mr. Davis, and his many friends will regret to hear of it, but hope he will recover soon.

PHILOMATH CLUB.

The Philomath Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. S. D. Dunna-hoo last Friday afternoon. After a most interesting lesson on "Mexican Problems" the hostess served refreshments. Mrs. T. A. Martin is hostess for this week.

VALENTINE SOCIAL.

Mrs. T. R. Bennett entertained her Sunday school class and their friends on Valentine evening. A most delightful time is reported.

Mrs. R. W. Shinn who has been the guest of Mrs. J. W. Fairbairn returned to her home at Estland Monday. Mrs. Grantland of Colorado was also a guest of Mrs. Fairbairn on Sunday. Lee Griffith in company with F. O. Wilson and wife was in Sweetwater Monday.

Misses Lois Coon, Beatrice McGee, visited in Abilene on last Saturday. Miss Lula Munns visited with her brother Claude at Cisco on Sunday.

VALENTINE 42.

Mrs. Allie M. Erwin entertained a few friends on Valentine evening, honoring Miss Toler's birthday. The house was prettily decorated throughout in symbols of the season, and 42 was the main feature of amusement, the score cards were valentines bearing messages. When refreshment time came the guests were ushered into the dining room where a most beautifully arranged table awaited them. The center piece was a smiling kewpie in red ribbons. At the plates pretty heart baskets of mints were placed, and a course of chicken sandwiches, chipped potatoes and salad and coffee, pink and white heart shaped cakes were served. From the center of the cakes arrows bearing the lines, "Miss Toler, February 14th, 1921," were sticking up. When this course was finished another delightful course was brought in on a tray, this proving to be lovely gifts for the honoree, for which she responded with thanks and appreciation to the hostess, and the other dear friends who were so thoughtful to remember her on this day.

HOME TALENT PLAY.

The three act drama entitled "Making Good," presented at the Crystal Theatre Tuesday night played to a full house, and pleased their audience. While they were only a few days getting it up, each part was well handled and showed they had good training under Mr. Curtis. A nice sum was netted which goes to the band funds.

C. M. Jackson, J. J. Ridens and W. F. Altman attended the Chamber of Commerce convention at Ranger last week. Homer Richards and wife have moved to the Wm. Richards farm, where they built them a small cottage and he will work on the farm in hope of regaining his health. He has somewhat improved since quitting indoor work.

Mrs. Ruby Robertson was called to Colorado Tuesday to the funeral of her brother-in-law, A. B. Robertson, who died very suddenly of acute indigestion at Abilene last Saturday.

W. R. Clarke of Bronte has returned home after visiting his daughter, Mrs. Floyd Ritchie.

S. E. Brown took his holiday on the 12th at Sweetwater, where he joined Hubert Toler and a few other friends and fished in one of the lakes there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray Taylor spent the week end in Sweetwater in the E. J. Dunlap home.

Harold Hallmark spent Saturday night and Sunday with Homer and Lester Richburg.

We have a few Large Lister Planters left. They will lift out the largest stalks. Colorado Mercantile Co.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Seven more pupils this week make the present enrollment 90. We now have more than can be seated comfortably in the primary room.

The Literary Society held its regular meeting Friday afternoon and after disposing of the business gave a short but interesting program. Mrs. Homer Mearse and Misses Alice Richburg and Una Sanders were our visitors.

Rev. Griffin of Elmo, who has been visiting his niece, Mrs. B. S. Davie, visited our school Wednesday morning and gave us an interesting address which was appreciated very much.

Our box supper Saturday night was well attended and we made $55, even though many of the boxes sold for less than $1.

It has been said that some of the boxes were taken from the room in which they were kept, before they were sold, and that one girl was overheard to remark that her box was not sold. I am very sorry and do not know about the truth of the above statement but repeat them, so if any one brought a box and did not see it sold, she will understand why. Maggie Peach.

W. O. W. MEMBERS PLEASE TAKE NOTICE.

Having moved our place of meeting to the I. O. O. F. hall, and their meeting every Thursday night, caused us to have to change our time of meeting.

The managers have set the third Tuesday night in each month, and all are urged to be present Tuesday night, February 15th, to attend to business of importance.

A GOOD MEDICINE FOR GRIP.

George W. Waitt, South Gardiner, Me., relates his experience with the grip "I had the worst cough, cold and grip and had taken a lot of trash of no account. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done me any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the cold and grip have left me."

FAMOUS EVANGELIST TO LECTURE IN COLORADO.

Dr. Clyde Lee Fife, famous Union evangelist, who for seventeen years has thrilled all parts of America with his sermons and won thousands of conversions and additions to all the great religious bodies, will lecture in this city next week, two days Monday and Tuesday, at seven p. m., at the First Christian church.

Those who have heard Dr. Fife will know that his coming here will be a notable contribution to the religious and moral life of the city. He is a Kentuckian, 35 years old, six feet tall, weighs two hundred, black hair and brown eyes. He is always interesting and his audiences are moved mightily. No admission and no collection as Dr. Fife has generous friends who make his work here possible. Hear the opening lecture on "Our Homes; Are They Safe?" And the companion to it on "Worse Than An Infidel." Everybody invited. Make no other dates for Monday and Tuesday nights.

Dr. Fife is head of the Fife Bros., known nationally as the world's most musical evangelist. Hear this noted and gifted speaker and singer without fail.

OUT BUFORD WAY.

Bro. A. D. Leach, the Baptist pastor, filled his regular appointment on Saturday night and Sunday morning. His good friends here and a few in town, showed him their appreciation of his faithful service to us, and all humanity last Saturday night, by "pounding" him in the old fashioned way. We were trying to make a practical application of our Sunday school lesson of February 6th, about the parable of "The King's Feast," inviting others, etc. We were none of us capable of doing much inviting, but we were all able to care for and help the good man of God that comes to us each month so faithfully. His "old green jitney" was pushed up near the door of the church after Brother Leach had gone inside. Most every man, woman and child in the community dropped a package of something to eat or wear, as he or she came into the church. All kinds of canned goods, sausage, spare ribs, pop corn, corn ready for the mill, and numerous other things that are good to eat. Besides those things, there were socks, towels, handkerchiefs, ties etc. Among Bro. Leach's good friends in town the following contributed to the pounding: Mr. W. R. Morgan, O. Lambeth, R. E. D. Smith, Clarence Barnett, J. H. Greene, H. B. Broadus, and C. M. Adams. We all thank you good people and commend you to the buying public.

When the preacher came out and found his car covered over with these expressions of love from his friends, his voice most failed him as he tried to thank the folks. He said "The English language has not enough words and my vocabulary is too limited to thank you good people."

Everyone felt amply repaid to hear his kind words and to see the tears of gratitude run down his cheeks. We enjoyed his coming more than ever before.

A phone message came from his home Sunday morning that his aged father was very low and it was necessary that he call in the evening appointment to be at the bedside of his father. We hope to hear that Bro. Leach Sr. may be better to greet the spring-time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McGuire and others from Union were up for our preaching service Sunday morning; also Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty were greeting old friends at church Sunday.

About all the young people and a part of the others of the community, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brewer Pohner Sunday night, and had a sure enough good singing.

Several young people from town were out also. Miss Moore from Big Spring, and the Misses Carter and Berry from Cuthbert were present. We had two songs by a quartet that everyone seemed to enjoy. We are learning some new songs and developing some good vocal talent, and in a little longer will just challenge anybody's choir to a singsong.

On Monday afternoon the school teachers, Misses Elliott, and Porter, invited all the mothers of the community to the school house for the purpose of organizing a mothers club. They were assisted by the following ladies from town: Miss Ella Dry, Mrs. J. A. Sadler, Mrs. W. L. Doss, Jr., and Mrs. H. B. Broadus. Officers were elected and committees appointed and work outlined for the remaining part of the year.

Mrs. H. B. Pohner was unanimously elected as president; Mrs. J. F. Bodine recording secretary, and Mrs. G. Oneal corresponding secretary. They decided to meet again Tuesday evening February 22nd, and complete their organization.

Miss Bonnie Smith has been visiting her grandfather, at Loraine, J. F. Marshall, and while there, took very suddenly ill and has had to stay several days. Her mother, Mrs. Jean Smith Marshall, was called to her bedside to nurse her.

We wish to take this means of thanking the committees in charge of the hanging of curtains that partition the church into Sunday school rooms. It is a splendid arrangement, and lasting good will result from it.

School work is going on as smoothly as can possibly be. A program for the end of the month is being prepared, and every one is looking forward to the occasion. All told, we still think Buford is the most wide awake community in the county.

Pains Were Terrific

Read how Mrs. Albert Gregory, of R. F. D. No. 1, Blufford, Ill., got rid of her ills. "During . . . I was awfully weak . . . My pains were terrific. I thought I would die. The bearing-down pains were actually so severe I could not stand the pressure of my hands on the lower part of my stomach. . . I simply felt as if life was for but a short time. My husband was worried. . . One evening, while reading the Birthday Almanac, he came across a case similar to mine, and went straight for some Cardui for me to try.

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took it faithfully and the results were immediate," adds Mrs. Gregory. "I continued to get better, all my ills left me, and I went through . . . with no further trouble. My baby was fat and strong, and myself—thank God—am once more hale and hearty, can walk miles, do my work, though 44 years old, feel like a new person. All I owe to Cardui." For many years Cardui has been found helpful in building up the system when run down by disorders peculiar to women.

NEW GOLDWYN IS EMINENT AUTHORS PICTURE

At The Best Theatre Next Wednesday and Thursday—Made From Famous Rinehart Novel.

“The dangers in ‘Dangerous Days’ are national and personal, industrial and domestic. Home life and steel mills are in danger, the love of a husband and wife, father and son, son and stenographer. A picture play has been made of ‘Dangerous Days’ and it will be known as a Mary Roberts Rinehart picture, one in which she has taken an active part to insure the integrity of her story. It is well said there is nothing of the maiden aunt about Mrs. Rinehart. Her men are real masculine human beings—not the dreadful creatures imagined by a desiccated maiden aunt. Her fine humor and her sense of fun prevent exaggeration and sentimentality. She handles the difficult problem of sex with full understanding and completeness, without a leer. She doesn’t mince matters, but she does not offend.”

TEXAS CATTLEMEN CAN NOT COMPETE WITH S. AMERICA

The cattlemen of West and South Texas can not continue to compete with the cattle industry of the South America, countries under present conditions, according to Marion Sansom, prominent cattleman and financier of Fort Worth who spent the day in Colorado Monday. “In a great many sections of South America, especially Argentina,” said Mr. Sansom, “the cattlemen have just as good range, and in some instances, better, than those of West and Southwest Texas, and we have noted that in South America the rancher is also enabled to obtain grazing lands and employ labor at about twenty-five per cent of what we have to pay in this country. Existence of this condition makes it impossible for the Texas cattleman to compete with the South American cattleman.”

Mr. Sansom stated that he had found livestock conditions, in so far as the range and cattle were concerned, to be excellent throughout West Texas. “Winter pasture was excellent and range cattle are coming into Spring in good shape,” he said. “In Southwest Texas, however, south and west from San Angelo, this condition is not so favorable. There the range was not so good and in some instances livestock interests suffered losses. Last year they had better pasture than you, but now the condition is reversed.”

The wool and mohair industries of this section is also suffering reverses Mr. Sansom stated. “We held our clip in the hope of obtaining a better price, and we are still holding it.” He attributed this unfavorable condition to foreign importations.

E. B. Spiller, secretary of the Texas Cattle Raisers Association and also of Fort Worth, was in Colorado with Mr. Sansom. Mr. Spiller corroborated the statements of Mr. Sansom as affecting the cattle industry in Texas. The present financial stringency and the material slump in market conditions have combined to curb the cattle industry in this state, he said. Sansom is president of the Stock Yards National Bank at Fort Worth, and also a director of the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas and stated that his observation from a financial standpoint was not very optimistic for the immediate future should the farmers of the cotton producing states persist in planting another large acreage to this commodity in 1921.

When questioned as to his opinion of the Farm Bureau movement in Texas, Mr. Sansom stated that in so far as his information went as to the purposes of the organization, he believed it to be practicable and had no doubt whatever but that the producers of farm and ranch commodities who affiliated with the bureau would be benefited should the purposes be adhered to.

Messrs. Sansom and Spiller were in Colorado to attend the funeral of A. S. Robertson, who, as each expressed, was considered in banking and livestock circles throughout the country as one of the leading men representing these industries in the Southwest.

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE

There seems to be a misunderstanding in the minds of some of the rural teachers concerning the rules regarding rural school participation in athletic events. I have been informed by the State Secretary of the League that the rural schools are to participate as heretofore, and that they will be in class B.

Most of the schools of this county are now members of this League.

There is no reason why all should not join it. In fact this matter is one standard by which the progressiveness of a school may be judged. We expect to have a most interesting meet this year; so if your school has not yet become a member of the League, will you not urge that it join at once?

I shall take this opportunity to remind the county officers of the League of your meeting at Judge Hall's office at 1 p. m. on the last Saturday of this month.

Uncle Walt's Story

VARIETIES OF COURAGE

“KERSMITH is an awful coward,” said the retired merchant. “He hasn't as much spunk as a chipmunk. This morning I saw a man half his size twist his nose, and he never offered to defend himself. He trembled all over and was covered with a cold sweat.”

“And yet, under other circumstances, Kersmith might show all kinds of courage,” said the hotel-keeper. “It isn't safe to jump to conclusions about such things. A woman will climb a tree, and shriek for the police if she sees a mouse, and if a real peril comes along, she'll exhibit more courage in five minutes than the average man could dig up in a hundred years.”

“There are scores of different kinds of courage in this world, and you can't expect one man to have them all. A man may tremble and cringe when threatened with physical violence, and yet stand up serene and magnificent when the assessor comes to the door, and there's nothing finer than that sort of moral courage.”

“There used to be a blacksmith in this town who had a wide reputation as a fire eater. He wasn't afraid of anything, people said. If he heard of a promising bruiser anywhere in the countryside, he couldn't rest until he had mixed things with him. And he didn't ask for purses or other inducements. He engaged in combat just because he loved it, and was happiest when his nose was knocked to one side, and his eyes were bugged up so that he couldn't see whether he was going or coming. He acted the hero on several occasions, rescuing people from burning buildings, and saving gent who were drowning, and his nerve became a byword.”

“Well, in the fullness of time his teeth went wrong, and his head swelled up until it looked like a squash. He bought about a million things at the drug store, and they wouldn't relieve the pain. The doctor told him he could have his sufferings ended in five minutes by going to the dentist's, but that idea turned him faint. At last he had to go, and the dentist told me he never saw such a doggone coward. That invincible blacksmith just had to be lifted into the operating chair, and as often as he could get his breath, he yelled.”

“The dentist's chair takes the starch out of many a brave man. I used to have to frequent it a good deal before I bought these hand-made tortoiseshell teeth, and I saw some moving sights when I was seated in the waiting room. Women would come in there as calm and cool as though they had just stepped in for a dish of ice cream. I have seen a girl graduate sit chatting comfortably until her turn came, and then she'd step into the chamber of horrors without turning a hair; and then some big policeman, who'd think nothing of fighting a revolver duel in the dark with a burglar, would come into the waiting room as flump as a dishrag, sweating ice tea and groning every time he drew a breath.”

“A man might easily get a lot of false ideas about courage in the dentist's waiting room.”

“That man Kersmith, who stood and permitted a smaller man to twist his nose, has a sort of courage I'd give a lot to own. I've always wished I could make public speeches. I've a lot of pent-up eloquence inside of me that ought to be turned loose for the edification and instruction of the people. But every time I'm called upon for a few timely remarks, I'm scared stiff, and can't say a blamed word. I just gurgle and splutter like a sunstruck lunatic, and hate myself for three weeks after it.”

“But when Kersmith is called, he rises without a tremor, and smiles sweetly upon the audience, and goes ahead saying what he has to say as though in his own arm chair by his fireplace. I'd be willing to have my nose and ears twisted several times to have his courage.”

Chilean Nitrate Fields.
The nitrate fields, the principal source of Chile's wealth, are limited to a narrow strip of arid desert located on the eastern slope of the coastal range, west of the cordillera of the Andes, at an altitude of from 2,000 to 5,000 feet above sea level, and inland a distance varying from 16 miles in the northern part of the zone to 80 miles in the southern part.

INSIST ON GENUINE FORD PARTS

Imitation “Ford” parts are being sold by many mail houses, down-town stores and garages to unsuspecting Ford owners, as “Ford” parts. But they are not genuine Ford Parts. They are made by concerns who have no connection whatsoever with the Ford Motor Company. Tests have shown them to break when the genuine Ford parts didn't even bend.

The Authorized Ford Dealers are your protection. As such, we handle nothing but the Genuine Ford parts. They are made from the famous Ford Vanadium Steel, and each part—according to its use—is heat-treated in the way that will give it the longest wearing qualities.

Our Ford garage and Ford mechanics are at your service at all times. Drive in when replacements or repairs for your Ford car may be necessary. Save your car and also your money.

TO THE CITIZENS OF COLORADO AND SURROUNDING COUNTRY.

I am preparing to leave Colorado after the middle of next month and have tendered my resignation to Womack and Company effective on March 15th. Myself and family expect to visit in New Mexico and Arizona for about three weeks after leaving here and will then go to Kansas City, Mo., our future home.

I appreciate to the fullest extent the courtesies you've shown me here both in personal and business relations. As chief mechanic for Womack & Company I have seen the business grow from an infant to one of the best garage businesses in Central West Texas, worthy of the fullest confidence of the garage patronizing public. Womack & Company are the cleanest garage men I have ever come in contact with and you can absolutely rely on them in every respect. You can't possibly make a mistake when you turn your automobile, tire and battery business over to them. You will get a square deal every time.

They have arranged to give even better service after my connection is severed. Mr. Smith, who has been with the Womacks for several months is one of the best mechanics and electricians in the Southwest. He will be in charge of the mechanical end, assisted by thoroughly competent mechanics.

Womack & Company have in every instance been the first to lower prices on gasoline, batteries, labor on cars, electrical equipment, etc., even when others wanted them to stay with the higher prices. You would still be paying the higher prices no doubt if Womack & Company had not lowered them.

I am proud to have worked in the Womack & Company garage, and enjoyed the enviable reputation it has; also I am proud of the many customer-friends we have made.

Very sincerely yours, R. C. EDGELL.

GAS IN LANDERS WELL.

Considerable interest is manifested by local people in the Landers location of the Travellers Oil Company, seven miles due south from Loraine. According to W. E. Alexander, manager of the well, they are drilling in black lime at a depth of 3300 feet, in a six-inch hole. Considerable gas has been encountered and Mr. Alexander stated that "it looks mighty good."

This is the only well in the county that Loraine has claimed for her very own and Loraine people have faith in the well and the fact that this is the only well in the county to encounter gas, indicates that the geologist, who stated that the Westbrook andlatan wells were edge wells and that the main pool was under the town of Loraine, had not necessarily been drinking bootleg whiskey.—Lorraine Lender.

"THE BRANDING IRON."

On Friday and Saturday with Saturday matinee the Best Theatre presents one of Rex Beach's best stories, called, "The Branding Iron."

The branding iron has long offered foundation for stories of the great West. Now it returns to the screen but this time not as the weapon of the cattle rustler. In the hands of a jealous husband it becomes the brand of ownership, searing its cruel design into the fair white flesh of his terrified young wife. Such, in a paragraph, is the underlying theme of the powerful Goldwyn picture, "The Branding Iron." Around it revolves a story in which brawny men of the great West reveal their hates and their loves for poor little Joan Carver, while intrigue has its champion in the person of a wealthy New York playwright. Smashing snow scenes beautifully portrayed, action of the sort that holds, and romance of the good old fashioned kind offer effective settings for the splendid art of fascinating Barbara Castleton as Joan. "The Branding Iron" will brand itself into your memory long after other pictures are forgotten.

You will never regret having seen this picture.

Help Edison

Take some Mood Change Charts home and make this experiment!

LET'S imagine you have just come home from shopping. You are tired and nervous. You step to the New Edison and put on an Edison RE-CREATION. Gradually the music soothes you. You forget fatigue and your "nerves" disappear. You feel refreshed and light-hearted.

Chart, and do your bit for Mr. Edison's research?

Make the experiment in your own home. Come in. Let us give you a supply of Mood Change Charts. Have your family and your friends fill them out. They will find it more fun than Ouija.

Mr. Edison in his present great research is studying into the effects of music on the minds and moods of men.

If you don't own a New Edison, fill out a Chart in our store! Better yet, we will lend you a New Edison and a program of RE-CREATIONS so that you can give a Mood Change Party in your own home.

HESPERIAN.

Mrs. W. P. Leslie was hostess for the Hesperian with Mrs. Merritt as leader. The study of Julius Caesar was completed. The hostess had as guests Mrs. S. D. Woods, Mrs. J. W. Dorn and Mrs. Aubrey Herrington. At the social hour the hostess assisted by her little daughter, Rosalie, and Mrs. Aubrey Herrington, served a salad course, angel food and coffee. The club will be entertained by Mrs. Barcroft this week.

STANDARD.

Mrs. Prude was hostess for the Standard. The study was Maeterlinck's "Monna Vanna," begun with Mrs. Coleman leader. Mrs. Sherman gave a paper on the synopsis of the play. At the social hour a salad course and coffee were served.

BAYVIEW.

Mrs. T. W. Stonerod was hostess for the Bayview with Mrs. T. R. Smith leader. The study hour was devoted to the study of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream," and the study of Mexico, from the Bayview Magazine. Mrs. J. M. Thomas came in as a new member. At the social hour the hostess served pressed chicken, black and white sandwiches, pineapple salad, coffee, punch and cake.

CENTRAL CIRCLE.

Mrs. Oscar Majors was hostess for the Central Circle of the Methodist church Monday afternoon. There was a large attendance. The regular business was transacted. Over $17 was received as dues and offerings. The house was decorated with valentines. A salad course and coffee were served. The next meeting is with Mrs. J. L. Pidgeon.

KING'S DAUGHTERS.

The King's Daughters met with Mrs. L. A. Costin last Thursday. The Sunday school lesson was studied, led by Mrs. Merrell. Plans were made for the annual party to be given with the husbands as guests, at the parsonage, February 25th. The pastor was a guest. The hostess, assisted by her daughters, served a salad course. The next meeting is with Mrs. Berry.

U. D. C. MEETING.

Mrs. R. N. Gary was hostess for the U. D. C. chapter Tuesday. There was a good attendance and an interesting program given by different members. The committee reported over eighty dollars received from the two picture show benefits and from other friends for the bungalow at Kerrville for the tubercular ex-service men. A vote of thanks was given both picture show managers. The hostess had as her guests Mrs. McCall, Mrs. Ben Plaster and Mrs. C. P. Gary. Miss McGill assisted in serving refreshments. Four certificates were awarded to new members.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. L. C. Dupree honored her little daughter, Mary Frances' sixth birthday last Saturday in the afternoon by having a number of little friends come to play with her. The cake with its six lighted candles was a delight to all the little folks. After games ice cream and cake were served.

42 PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Majors entertained some of their friends with 42 Monday evening. The decorations and score cards were valentines.

Refreshments of chicken salad, sandwiches, tea, pie and whipped cream were served. The personnel of the party was Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Doss, Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Majors, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Doss, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James T. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. JUNIOR MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Junior Missionary Society of the Methodist church combined business and pleasure last Saturday afternoon when they entertained their mothers and other grown-up friends with a Valentine and patriotic party at the home of the superintendent, Mrs. W. H. Garrett. The decorations were valentines, flags and pictures of Washington, Lincoln and W. G. Harding. Little Miss Exa King greeted the guests and Master Frank Pidgeon pinned heart valentines on them. From there they went to the treasurer, little Miss Irene Dorn where the offering was deposited. A program of stories, songs and readings were given by the little folks. Then stunts were done, like binning the tail on the donkey, and prizes were given for each.

WENT TO BUFORD.

Mrs. J. A. Sadler, Mrs. W. L. Doss and Mrs. H. B. Broadus motored to Buford Monday to attend a valentine program party given by the Home Economics Club of the school there. They went to represent the Hesperian Club and presented the school with a copy of a Corot painting. After a program by the pupils a Mothers Club was organized. The aim is for the betterment of the school. Officers elected were Mrs. H. B. Palmer president; Mrs. James Bodine, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. O'Neil, corresponding secretary. The pupils served hot chocolate and little cakes.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS.

Christian Workers, an organized class of the Methodist Sunday school met with Mrs. Robert Smith Wednesday in business session. The meeting next week will be with Mrs. Ed Womack. All members are urged to be present.

The hostess served sandwiches, angel food and cocoa.

HARMONY CLUB.

Mrs. A. J. Coe entertained the 42 Harmony Club Wednesday. She had as invited guests her neighbors and a few special friends. Mrs. J. E. Hooper of Abilene was an out of town guest. There were six tables of players. The hostess served chicken salad, salted crackers, olives, fruit gelatine, whipped cream, cake and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Majors entertained with a dinner party last Friday evening. This was followed by 42. The personnel of the party was Mr. and Mrs. Keck, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wulfjen, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pidgeon.

MERRY WIVES.

Mrs. Abe Dolman was hostess for the Merry Wives Wednesday. Her guests were Mesdames Keck, A. P. Dolman, J. A. Sadler, Webster. She served chicken salad, sandwiches, pickles and iced tea. The meeting next week is with Mrs. Boyd Dozier.

PHILATHEA CLASS ENTERTAINS.

The Philathea Class of the Methodists Sunday school, of which Miss Dry is the teacher, gave their annual class party on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dobbs. The decorations were valentines, red hearts being festooned over the entire house. The lights were shaded with red crepe paper and vases were filled with red and white carnations. Hearts was the game played and partners were found by matching quotations on torn hearts. The score cards were red hearts. After tiring of this game a chewing gum contest created interest and fun. The plan was to fashion animals with gum and tooth picks. Messrs. Claud Hooks and Roy Warren were the best modelers and were presented with valentines. Fortune telling by a real Oriental fortune teller prepared all the young folks for pleasant dreams. Ice cream and angel food were served and on each plate were favors of bunches of violets.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Holt of Amarillo are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McMurry, and other relatives here.

Harvester Company Brands Story False

DURING the past month, reports have come to us that at farmers' meetings charges have been made, sometimes directly and sometimes indirectly, that this Company has adopted a policy of refusing to supply repair parts for old machines in order to compel the purchase of new ones. This statement is absolutely false. Such a policy has never been considered by this Company nor suggested to it.

Ordinarily we ignore such reports, because we have learned that any large company, no matter how fair and high principled, is subject at all times to unjust criticism. The facts are this Company has always recognized the importance of repair service and has used every effort to make IHC service the best. We believe we can truthfully say that the repair service furnished wherever this Company's goods are sold is equal if not superior to that furnished on any manufactured line.

We call attention to the fact that machinery "Fix-up Weeks," instead of being something new and originated by the farmers in 1921, as some seem to think, were really an outgrowth of the movement started by manufacturers and dealers' associations in connection with the Council of National Defense as a war conservation measure. Perhaps no other agency has done so much to promote "National Repair Weeks" as this Company.

The farmer needs machines which will be efficient and economical. If his old machines can be repaired so as to render efficient and economical service, he would be foolish to purchase new ones. Whether the farmer utilizes and repairs his old machines or buys new ones is a question for him to determine. But in making his decision, we give to every farmer who owns any IHC machines the assurance that a full stock of repair parts will always be provided by this Company.

Today, our repair stocks on the territory available for the farmers are 21 per cent greater than ever before at this time of the year. An average of a quarter million pounds of repairs are shipped from IHC factories for every working day in the year. Thirty million dollars' worth of repair parts are now ready, as insurance for the farmer when he needs this service.

In every International Harvester Works manufacturing orders call for repair parts first and even when furnishing them has meant cutting down production of new machines for which we had orders, repairs have always had preference.

At every one of our 91 branch houses trained men are on duty to see that all orders are filled and shipped promptly. Thousands of dealers scattered everywhere with an assortment of repairs in stock are always ready and willing to render every assistance.

This service which this Company has rendered through the years to those who have purchased its machines has been a matter of great pride to the Company, and is the foundation of the cordial good-will existing between it and its customers.

We feel it is due the Company and those who have purchased its machines that we give the widest publicity to the fact that this service of repairs will be maintained and improved, and that any charges to the contrary are untrue.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

One of the best lessons for the Christian Endeavor will be brought before the society by an able leader next Sunday evening at 6:15, Miss Gloise Pond. The topic is "New Work That Our Committee Can Do." As the Christian Endeavor is just getting started it is requested that all members come and bring as many new members that he or she can.

Miss Isla Tilley, who is well known in our city and whom we all like to hear sing, will render us a vocal solo which will be appreciated very much.

Other speakers for the evening will discuss the following lesson as thus: "The program committee," by Miss Juanita Pond. Miss Pond will discuss the topic and you want to be there to hear what she has to say about the future work of the Endeavor. There are great things ahead of us.

"Lookout Committee," will be discussed by Miss Elsie McCarroll. She has some good ideas, and it will be of interest to us to hear her discuss the topic along this line.

On February 22nd, the main spring of the Society is going to break and the Society will have one of the best entertainments in the city. The place has been selected. It will be at Mrs. Jim Hale's. The party will be a "kid party" and everyone must wear either short trousers or skirts. There will be lots of good eats. Everybody be present at both the Endeavor and the entertainment, and have a part in it.

There will be short sentence prayers; come and bring a sentence from the Bible. After the above program has been finished, there will be a business meeting, and if you are interested in the society stay with us and give us some of your ideas. Do not forget the hour for the Endeavor 6:15. Stay for church if you can, for the minister always has a message to bring you.

W. H. Cornett, a good farmer of northwest of Cuthbert was in town last Saturday with a load of fine turkeys which readily sold for 5 cents a pound. Mr. Cornett said he had two acres in turkeys and will realize more from this two acres than he did from his whole cotton crop. Mr. Cornett lives within a mile of the oil well and said if he did not get rich on oil he would diversify this year and bid old King Cotton good-bye.

WANT TARIFF OF $15 TON ON NEWSPRINT PAPER.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Claiming that as a result of the present exchange situation newsprint paper manufacturers in Norway, Sweden, Holland and Germany can sell their products in the United States at a price below the production cost here, American newsprint manufacturers asked the house ways and means committee today to impose a tariff of $15 a ton on newsprint imported from any country except Canada. The present rate is 12 per cent ad valorem provided the value is above 8 cents per pound, free entry being accorded stocks below that value. Should this measure pass it would put one-third of the country newspapers out of business. The U. S. supply now is nowhere near the demand even at the present high price and to bar out the import newsprint would put our paper up to 25c per pound, which would be prohibitive.

Quaker Minister Is Grateful to Tanlac

Rev. Parker Moon

Nearly everybody in Southwest Missouri either knows or has heard of the Rev. Parker Moon, who for a full half century has devoted his life and talents to Sunday school and organization work of the Society for Friends, or Quakers. "Uncle Parker," as he is more familiarly known, came from fine old rugged Quaker stock, and there is not a better known or more highly respected citizen in that part of the state. In referring to his remarkable restoration to health by Tanlac, he said: "About five years ago I suffered a general breakdown. My principal trouble was nervous indigestion. My appetite was very poor and my food seldom agreed with me, and I had to live on a very restricted diet. I suffered a great deal from headaches and dizzy spells; I had severe pains across the small of my back and was badly constipated most of the time. In fact, I was so weak and run down I was not able to attend to my duties. "This condition made me very nervous and I could not sleep at night. Frequently I would be awake most all night and was in that condition more or less for five years. My doctor said he could not do anything for me and suggested a change of climate. I then moved to Texas and went back and forth three times but did not get relief I had hoped for. Finally, I got so bad off I was not able to get around with any degree of comfort. I was also told I had heart trouble. "I had read about Tanlac and as it had been very highly recommended to me, I decided to try it. I got a bottle and had taken only a few doses until I could notice a marked improvement in my condition. I noticed especially that I was not troubled any more with sour stomach after eating, which was a great relief. "I kept on taking Tanlac until I fully regained my health. My appetite is splendid; I enjoy my meals and I do not find it necessary now to take any laxative medicines of any kind and I can sleep much better and am not nearly so nervous. "I take great pleasure in recommending Tanlac to anyone who needs a good system builder, or who suffers from stomach trouble. I have recommended Tanlac to a great many of my friends and am pleased to reach others by giving this statement for publication." Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.
