CHAMBER COMMERCE ORGANIZES FORCES FOR LOCATING TEX. TECH

ENTHUSIASM PREVAILS AT MASS MEETING CONVENED FRIDAY NIGHT; LOCATION AND STATISTICAL COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

The Colorado Chamber of Commerce, supported by every civic organization in the city, and the Loraine Chamber of Commerce, has fully organized forces to direct campaign to locate the Texas School of Technology on a site to be selected near this city. Plans for fighting for the school were perfected at a mass meeting convened by the Chamber of Commerce at the First Christian Church Friday evening.

Citizens of the city faced a dismal night out, negotiating rain and mud, in order to attend the meeting. In the absence of Dr. P. C. Coleman, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Col. C. M. Adams, presided. The committees named at the meeting are already at work and will formally file application within the next few weeks.

In spite of the rainstorm outside and the further fact that several citizens did not brave the threatening weather to be present, the mass meeting developed into one of the most enthusiastic ever held here. Speakers were profuse in their praise of Mitchell County and of the advantages to be offered for locating the school near this city. That every advantage to be offered by any West Texas County could be found in this county was the key note sounded in a number of addresses.

"If I did not know that Mitchell County was just as good from any angle as any other county in West Texas, and did not have equal advantages to offer for location of the school, I would be looking for that better county," Joe H. Smoot, cashier of the Colorado National Bank, stated in opening his address. J. H. Greene, Col. Adams and others referred to the opportunity Colorado has of obtaining this wonderful institution as the greatest opportunity ever presenting itself.

Adams named two committees to work out the details to be met in placing application of this city before the locating board. One of these committees is assigned to the duty of securing a site for the proposed institution and the other, designated as the statistical committee, to compile in brief a resume of the county, including the several resources and industries, together with the soil, climate and health conditions.

The locating committee is composed of Dr. P. C. Coleman, chairman; E. H. Winn, F. M. Burns, H. L. Hutchinson, R. H. Looney, J. M. Thomas, J. Riordan, T. W. Stone-road, Jr., Thos. J. Coffee, Thos. R. Smith and J. H. Greene. The statistical committee is composed of W. S. Cooper, chairman; E. M. Baldwin, O. Lambeth, E. F. King, Dr. T. J. Ratliff, J. C. Hall, C. H. Earnest, R. P. Price, L. B. Elliott, Chas. R. Farris and W. A. Dulin.

Following the announcement of H. L. Hutchinson, president of the school board, that the schools would be closed Friday afternoon in order to allow the school children to attend the Sweetwater jubilee, it was determined to arrange for a special train from here. A committee composed of Rev. D. R. Hardison, A. B. Blanks and E. F. King, was appointed to arrange for the special.

"We will send 200 to 300 school children to Sweetwater Friday if the means of transportation is available," E. F. King stated, and there is no one who is more capable of letting those people know that Colorado is on the map."

MITCHELL BUSINESS MEN FIGHT FOR TEXAS TECH

Every business and professional man of Colorado is lined up solidly behind the Chamber of Commerce in the campaign to locate the Texas Technological College at Colorado. This is evidenced in the fact that these men enthusiastically pledged to close their offices and stores Friday afternoon for the booster excursion to Sweetwater.

The booster excursion to leave here Friday afternoon on the special is not to be confined to citizens of Colorado by any means. Every citizen of the county who desire to have a part in conducting this campaign to locate the college in what we believe to be the best county in West Texas, is invited to join the delegation. A committee composed of A. B. Blanks, E. F. King and Rev. D. R. Hardison are selling tickets for the special and will order one extra each in addition to the number required to take the number to whom tickets are sold.

Loraine business men are also enthused over the excursion and the possibilities of locating the school in Mitchell County. Representatives of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce were in Loraine Wednesday morning to invite the people there to join the booster excursion to Sweetwater. Chamber of Commerce officials and Mayor J. J. Ridens stated that strong delegation would be assembled at Loraine to board the Colorado special.

"Loraine will not be a contestant for the Technological College."

COLORADO HONORED BY TELEPHONE MANAGER

Tuesday afternoon shortly after noon the El Paso-Fort Worth long distance copper circuit was opened by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company and within a few minutes the manager of the company at Fort Worth called the Colorado Chamber of Commerce to deliver to this city a message of praise for the progressive spirit shown here.

"We have realized for some time that the city of Colorado was one of the most progressive cities of West Texas," he stated, "and desired that the first message to Colorado over the new copper long distance circuit be one of congratulations from Fort Worth to your city." After this message had been delivered, Porter A. Whaley, general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, who was in Fort Worth, came in on the line and supplemented the telephone company official's message to this city. Dr. P. C. Coleman, president of the Chamber of Commerce, stated Tuesday afternoon that this city deeply appreciated the spirit of the message. "It is a distinct honor and one I am sure the citizenship of Colorado will continue to merit," Dr. Coleman stated.

TICKETS FURNISHED BY TRANSPORTATION HEAD

The information was published in the extra edition of The Record Tuesday morning that tickets for the special train to Sweetwater this afternoon should be obtained at the ticket office. Since that time, however, a different plan has been worked out and the tickets are being issued to purchasers by A. B. Blanks, chairman of the transportation committee.

The Texas and Pacific will issue a ticket to Blanks for the train, and he will in turn be responsible for fares of the individual passenger. Those who have made reservations and not yet received their tickets, should apply to either Mr. Blanks or Chas. Farris at the Colorado Drug Company.

HARDISON CHAIRMAN WEST TEXAS CHRISTIAN MEETING

Rev. D. R. Hardison, pastor of the First Christian church, left Tuesday night for Sweetwater to attend a West Texas district meeting which was convened at the First Christian church of Sweetwater Wednesday morning for a session of two days. Rev. Mr. Hardison is chairman of the meeting.

Men prominent in the Christian church from over West Texas are in attendance. The purpose of the meeting was to work out a program of special work for the Christian

EXCURSION RATES TO APPLY ON EXCURSION

An excursion rate of one and one-half fare for round trip will apply on rates for the special train to Sweetwater Friday afternoon, on condition that the equivalent of two hundred fifty adult tickets are sold. It was stated Wednesday afternoon that considerably more than the required number to guarantee the special rate would purchase tickets.

MASONS CONTEMPLATE NEW COLORADO HOME

The construction of either a new modern temple or repairing and enlarging the present building is contemplated by the Masonic Lodge at Colorado, according to statements made during the past week by several local members of the fraternity. C. M. Adams, prominent in Masonic circles here, has been named as chairman of a committee to raise finances for one of the two projects.

Figures have been submitted by L. H. Gaskins, Colorado architect, on estimates for both. To repair the present building and adding the extensions desired would represent a cost of approximately $12,000, while to build and equip a new temple, fifty by ninety feet, standing two stories with basement, would cost something like $25,000.

Gaskins, who made a thorough investigation of the condition of the present temple, stated that the building was in a very bad state and recommended against a large expenditure for repairs. He found that the west and south walls were in an unsafe condition and stated that to make repairs a part of the wall would have to be torn down and rebuilt.

The plan for financing the proposed new building, or making the repairs, as announced by Col. Adams is to be to solicit loans from the membership, the loans to be advanced to the lodge and draw interest at the rate of eight per cent. It is estimated that revenue to be realized from rentals on the lower floor departments and from membership dues would pay the property out in from twelve to twenty years.

OIL NEWS AS REPORTED BY STERLING CITY NEWS-RECORD

J. S. Merriwether came in last Tuesday evening accompanied by S. M. Byers. Mr. Merriwether says he has come to finish the McCauley well. Mr. Byers is a driller of many years experience in the various oil fields of Texas and will have charge of drilling the well to a finish. A car of fuel oil for this well is en route to Sterling and as soon as the machinery can be gotten ready, the drill will be started and kept going until a completed test is made of this interesting prospect. Mr. Merriwether is backed by the Golden-Eagle Petroleum Trust of Eldorado, Ark., which is reported to be a strong company. The McCauley well is located near the southeast corner Sec. No. 173, Block 29, W. and N. W. Ry. Co., 18 miles northwest of Sterling City.

Owing to illness among the crew, work at the Durham well is still suspended, the drill was to have started yesterday, but several members of Mr. Biglow's family developed flu and it may be several days yet before he will be able to resume operations.

Drilling has been resumed at the Cushing well and it will be but a short time until the drill will pass through the 80 feet of cement that was poured in, in an effort to shut off the water. So far the hole is perfectly dry. If this hole can be kept dry, some interesting developments are expected at the Cushing soon.

Good progress is being made at the Sparkman well in spite of the bad weather and heavy roads. The drill is around 1400 feet and everything is going smoothly.

The Brennand well has been plugged and the casing is being pulled.

MARRIED

At the Christian parsonage Wednesday, February 21st, 7:30 p. m. Mr. Robert Baker to Miss Ola Reed, Bro. Hardison performing the ceremony. The sincere good wishes of many good friends follow these young folks. A few friends were with them to witness the ceremony.

Old West Texas is getting ready to put on her Sunday clothes just as soon as Easter appears, and perhaps a little before. Things never looked better than at present is the verdict of all the old timers. It's up to our folks to make this the best year ever.

COLORADO TO RUN SPECIAL TRAIN TO SWEETWATER JUBILEE FRIDAY

STORES, OFFICES, BANKS AND SCHOOLS OF CITY WILL CLOSE FRIDAY NOON. LARGEST DELEGATION EVER LEAVING COLORADO

The special train to be run by the Chamber of Commerce from Colorado to Sweetwater and return Friday afternoon for the West Texas Jubilee at Sweetwater, will be operated as an exclusive Colorado train, with the exception of citizens of Loraine and others towns and communities of Mitchell County who accept the invitation to accompany the booster excursion, according to A. B. Blanks, chairman of the transportation committee.

Blanks stated Wednesday afternoon that a train of four new steel coaches, sufficient to seat more than three hundred passengers, had been ordered and that the equipment would be sent out of Dallas to Colorado. Additional coaches are to be ordered, as the sale of tickets may justify. The special will leave here at 12:15 p. m. and is to leave Sweetwater on the return trip at 5:45 p. m.

The special was chartered by a committee appointed at the Chamber of Commerce mass meeting Friday night consisting of A. B. Blanks chairman; Rev. D. R. Hardison and E. F. King. The committee guaranteed the sale of tickets amounting to $306 in order to obtain the special. That the sale of tickets would greatly exceed that amount was predicted by the Chairman Tuesday morning. Tickets totaling more than $200 had been placed at that time.

A. B. Blanks, chairman of the transportation committee, stated Wednesday afternoon that in keeping with the policy of the Chamber of Commerce to make the special train a Mitchell County booster event, a strong delegation of Loraine citizens would accompany the delegation from here. "The citizenship of Loraine have endorsed the city of Colorado as their choice for location of the Texas School of Technology," an official of the Chamber of Commerce stated, "and they will go to Sweetwater with us Friday afternoon as boosters for Mitchell County."

J. J. Ridens, mayor of Loraine, stated Wednesday that efforts would be made to induce the school board to close the school there in order that a large delegation of Loraine youngsters join the Colorado children in the parade at Sweetwater.

Colorado is to have an important part in the program for the day. The Colorado Booster Band has been engaged to assist the Sweetwater band in furnishing music for the day. The several hundred school children expected to attend the jubilee from Mitchell County are to form a section in a parade of ten thousand children at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Immediately after arrival of the special in Sweetwater, the Colorado delegation, headed by the band, will form a parade leading through the principal business district. Mitchell County school children will march in this parade, which will end at the Hotel Wright, on North Oak street. The school parade will form in front

EVERY DELEGATE TO WEAR COLORADO BADGE

Before leaving for Sweetwater to attend the jubilee celebration every delegate is urged to obtain a badge. Take one for yourself and every member of your party. These badges are furnished free by the Chamber of Commerce and may be obtained upon application at the J. H. Greene & Company store. By all means get your badge and wear it.

OFFICIALS RETURN

Members of Commissioners' Court County Judge J. C. Hall and David S. Castle, architect, returned Friday from a tour over Central West Texas, made for the purpose of inspecting several court houses recently constructed. Information thus obtained will be of assistance to them in arriving at definite plans for the new Mitchell County court house.

of the Wright Hotel at 2 o'clock.

J. H. Greene, chairman of the committee arranging for the parade, stated Monday that every delegate from this county would be expected to wear a badge. These badges will be furnished by the Chamber of Commerce. In addition to the badges, banners and pennants will be carried in the parade, advertising the fact that Colorado is one of the live towns of West Texas and is in the campaign to locate the Texas Tech. It is very important that every delegate form in line for the parade immediately after detrainning.

Every business house and office in Colorado will close at 12 noon Friday and these are co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce in urging that this city send a strong delegation. Chamber of Commerce officials have repeatedly praised the co-operative spirit of the business men here and state that such a policy is directly responsible for the progressive distinction Colorado maintains in this section of Texas.

Colorado is in the fight to locate the Texas School of Technology, one of the largest institutions of its kind in America. The delegation to Sweetwater is being arranged as a great jubilee, commemorating establishment of this school by the legislature. The stronger the delegation to Sweetwater, the stronger the impression Colorado will make on the thousands of citizens there Friday that we are on the job for everything that means a bigger and better West Texas. We sent a delegation of 300 to Abilene Fair last September and there is no reason why we should not send one thousand people to Sweetwater Friday afternoon.

Colorado is the only town in West Texas to announce that a special train would be run to the jubilee. It is up to the citizenship of the city to keep this town, of which we are all proud, in the initiative in doing big things. The stronger Coloradans are for Colorado, the better Colorado will be. Let the slogan be "I will see you in Sweetwater."

STATISTICAL COMMITTEE ON TECH LOCATION ORGANIZES

Members of the statistical committee, named Friday night at the Chamber of Commerce mass meeting at the First Christian church, met Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce for organization and to work out preliminaries. W. S. Cooper was elected chairman and Chas. R. Farris, secretary.

Sub-committees were named to compile data on the agricultural, livestock, educational, sanitation, mineral, climatic and other conditions of the county. The committee will meet again Monday night of next week. Members of the committee are W. S. Cooper, E. M. Baldwin, O. Lambeth, E. F. King, Dr. T. J. Ratliff, Judge J. C. Hall, Judge C. H. Earnest, R. P. Price, L. B. Elliott, Chas. R. Farris and W. A. Dulin.

J. H. Greene, chairman of the committee arranging details of the booster excusion to Sweetwater Friday, is anxious that every person going, man, woman, boy and girl, wear a Colorado badge. Do not leave for the jubilee until you have obtained one of these badges.

Because of some technicality overlooked in preparing the petition and the article for publication calling for the school bond election that was voted upon the 24th of January, the bonds have been rejected by the Attorney General and it is necessary to call another election before the bonds can be issued and work begun on the new school building. The school board met one day the latter part of last week and called another election to be held on the 20th day of March. In the election just held the bond issue carried by a large majority and will do the same this time, so it only means a short delay in commencing work on the new building.—Lorraine News.

300 COLORADO SCHOOL CHILDREN TO PARADE

There will be three hundred Colorado school children to accompany the Colorado delegation to Sweetwater Friday afternoon, according to E. F. King, superintendent of schools. King stated Monday that the schools would be closed for the day Friday.

These children are to have a part in the big parade to be staged at Sweetwater Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It is estimated that ten thousand school children will be in the parade singing "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You." The children will march in front of the reviewing stand on the court house lawn, to be occupied by Governor Neff, Dr. Coleman and other prominent citizens. Immediately after the parade, the Governor will address the children. Parents of Colorado are urged to assist in sending a strong delegation of school children to Sweetwater. They can go on the special and will be under the personal direction of their teachers.

Mister Luther Nichols in behalf of Mister Geo. E. B. Peddy, late defeated and disgruntled Republican candidate for U. S. Senator from Texas, is to file a contest against the seating of Mayfield in the U. S. Senate. Now suppose Mister Peddy or Nickles, succeeds in his undertaking and Mayfield is not seated, then what? Governor Neff would appoint a senator. Who? Earle B. Mayfield. Why? Mayfield was the choice of the Democrats of Texas by 134,000 majority. What has Nickles gained? Nothing except the name of being the greatest jackass of them all—not even, excepting this here jimferguson person.—Sterling City News-Record.

WHAT SAY YOU.

Consider the school children. They toil mentally five days in the week, when mental toil is difficult and not at all attractive to one of their ages. They have not attained that station in life where the value of an education is apparent. To them study is a hardship that is forced upon them by parental authority.

How, then, can we wake the children up and induce them to take a stronger personal interest in excelling in their studies. How can we induce them to strive to be at the head of their respective classes?

Honors in marking do not appeal to them as strongly as they do to the adult. The juvenile mind has not reached the point where it can appreciate to the full the glories of 99 or 100 per cent. What, then, will appeal to their young minds? What will supply the incentive that now seems so often absent?

Prizes for excelling in study. Let half a dozen prizes be awarded in each grade each month, so that all will have a fair show in the competition. A single prize would not be sufficient. Too often it would be a foregone conclusion, and the incentive to excel would be destroyed.

Every child knows what it means to "get a prize." It is an event that overshadows many others with them. They will work for a prize when otherwise their inclination is for play.

It would cost a few dollars for our public school officials to arrange a series of monthly prizes, but it would be money spent to the very best advantage.

The Colorado special to Sweetwater will leave at 12:15 Friday afternoon. There is going to be a big jam at the ticket window just before the train pulls out for the jubilee. Better get your ticket now and be safe.

"Rain or no rain, we are all going to Sweetwater Friday to keep Colorado on the map," A. B. Blanks, chairman of the transportation committee stated Tuesday morning. The rain only means that the special train from here will be larger, carrying scores of citizens who had planned to go in their cars.

Nelson Reed, county commissioner for precinct No. 3 recently sold at Canadian eleven sows weighing 4460 pounds; fifteen spring pigs ten and a half months old, averaging 284 pounds each; another bunch eight months old averaging 222 pounds each. He received for the lot about $1200. Mr. Reed says that the Panhandle of Texas is the finest hog country in the United States. He came to Hemphill County from Nebraska sixteen years ago, and bought land twenty-two miles east of Canadian for $9.50 an acre, which he says is now worth $50 per acre. He called the names of a large number of farmers and stockmen in his section of the county who have succeeded splendidly as stock farmers since coming to the Panhandle. Mr. Reed stated that he knew a number men who came here with only a few thousand dollars, who are now worth from twenty-five to fifty thousand each. He further stated that he had seen much of several states in the middle west and he believed that the Panhandle of Texas was the surest and safest stock raising country in the United States. Speaking of taxation, Mr. Reed said that he heard a great deal about high taxes in the Panhandle of Texas, but our people have no reason to complain in view of the taxes that are paid in several other states that he mentioned, and in which he has lived and has relatives. He spoke also of the wonderful improvement in public roads in this section of the state during the last few years.—Canadian Record.

COLORADO BAND DIRECTOR GOES IN SPITE OF MUD

The old adage, "where there's a will there's a way," was forcibly proven again Friday in the determination of Sam Goldman, director of the bands at Colorado and Sweetwater, to reach Sweetwater for a rehearsal Friday night. The story is told in an article carried in the Sweetwater Reporter Sunday. Here it is:

"To give an idea of what Sam Goldman in Sweetwater thinks of his Sweetwater Booster Band is plainly given in the following narrative:

"I had my car greased all-round, tank filled with gas and everything in shape to make a daring attempt to get to Sweetwater Friday night," Sam Goldman, director of the Colorado and Sweetwater bands said, Saturday.

"I was in Colorado and wired Mr. Manroe in Sweetwater that I would be there in time for rehearsal, or bust a main spring. At the time it was raining and the roads, I knew, were just about impassable. In the 'flat' just west of Roscoe. While standing there in a 'small drizzle' with one hand propped over against the side of my 'Lizzie' dreading to make the trip. About that time one of those 'big boy' freight engines on the T-P bowed his head to me so invitingly that I decided I'd take a 'joy ride' in a sidedoor sleeper. This was about 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. I went over to the 'rail pike' and saw a 'sleeper' rolling my way with a 'gap' open. At the proper time I 'crowled in' and found everything nice and clean with the exception of some bark off of cord wood, maize, barley, chops, fodder, few old bones, some pieces of glass bottles, and wads of hog hair. It was nice all right and I just sit tight on my nest and came right on to Sweetwater.

"As this was my first 'jaunt' by freight, I forgot to get the schedule on arrival from Colorado to Sweetwater, and naturally the trip was just a little slow for those 30 odd miles, as when 'we' parked at the T-P freight yards in Sweetwater, about a mile west of Sweetwater, it was straight up an down 6:30 o'clock. "Had I not promised to meet my Sweetwater band, the chances are I would have postponed the trip. But as I wanted to make my promise good, I was determined to meet the band, and I did—but it was a scratch and one of the longest short rides I ever made in my life."

Mr. Goldman emphasized the fact that this was his first ride on a freight train, and further stated that in all probability it would be his last.

COLORADO LIONS PLEDGE CO-OPERATION TO C. OF C.

Members of the Colorado Lions Club pledged their full co-operation to the Chamber of Commerce in resolutions adopted Friday and upon instructions from the club, the following letter, signed by C. M. Adams president, was read before the mass meeting at the First Christian church Friday evening:

"We are indeed pleased to have the opportunity of pledging you our sincere co-operation and active support in the campaign to locate the Technological College at Colorado. "It shall be the policy of every member of this club to offer his best services to you, on committee work or otherwise, in furthering this campaign to the best interests of Colorado and her citizenship in placing before the locating board the advantages to be found here for the proposed site of this great institution.

"Our club has the utmost confidence in the future of our city and believes that the development programs recently inaugurated here are to be followed by others until the goal of seeing Colorado one of the foremost commercial centers of the great West Texas be realized.

"Done by order of the club in regular session Friday, February 23rd, 1923."

BAPTIST PASTOR FILLS M. E. PULPIT SUNDAY

Rev. M. C. Bishop, pastor of the First Baptist church, filled the pulpit at the First Methodist Sunday evening at 7:30, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. F. Lawlis, who is in a sanitarium at Temple. Members of the Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist congregations filled the auditorium of the church.

Preaching on the mission for which Christ came into the world, Rev. Mr. Bishop delivered a strong sermon upon the importance of Christian living and of the manner in which Christian people should become ambassadors for the Messiah. At the opening of his sermon, the minister spoke of the ties binding a pastor and his congregation and requested his audience to remember Rev. Mr. Lawlis in their prayers.

STATISTICAL COMMITTEE TO MEET MONDAY NIGHT

The statistical committee, appointed Friday night at the Chamber of Commerce mass meeting at the Christian church, has been called to meet Monday night, February 26, at 7:30 for the purpose of organization and completing preliminaries. This committee has been assigned the duty of compiling data to be furnished to the locating board with the application to locate the Tech school here. Members of the committee are W. S. Cooper, E. M. Baldwin, O. Lambeth, E. F. King, T. J. Ratliff, J. C. Hall, C. H. Earnest, R. P. Price, L. B. Elliott, Chas. R. Farris, W. A. Dulin.

HALF HAMLIN COMING

J. B. Adkins of Hamlin visited his daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Cooper while en route east and said that in his opinion at least half of the population of Hamlin would be in Sweetwater on Jubilee Day.—Sweetwater Reporter.

Colorado will send such a strong and enthusiastic delegation as to cause you Sweetwater folk to believe all of this town is there.

LIONS ROAR APPROVAL OF JUBILEE EXCURSION

Every member of the Colorado Lions Club present at the luncheon Friday at noon at the Barcroft enthusiastically endorsed the plan to send a strong delegation from Colorado to Sweetwater for the West Texas Jubilee Friday. Resolutions were passed calling upon every business and professional man of the city to close at noon Friday and join the excursion to Sweetwater.

A committee composed of J. H. Greene, R. P. Price, Joe H. Smoot, M. S. Goldman and W. S. Cooper, was named to represent the club in requesting that the stores and offices be closed. The committee was also directed to co-operate with the band director in completing arrangements for the band to go to Sweetwater and provide suitable badges and pennants for the trip.

Visitors introduced Friday were Rev. D. R. Hardison, John Holt and Dr. T. J. Ratliff, each of whom addressed the club. J. Riordan was elected to membership in the club.

RAIN MONDAY NIGHT WILL SWELL TRAIN DELEGATION

The rain Monday night and Tuesday will swell the number of Colorado citizens to make the trip to Sweetwater on the special train. A. B. Blanks, chairman of the transportation committee, states. Because of the almost impassable condition of Roscoe Flats, many formerly planning to go in cars are now making reservations on the train.

Those who have made reservations are requested to call at the ticket office any time after Wednesday noon and obtain ticket. The fact that you have paid for your ticket will not entitle you to make the trip unless you obtain it yourself. Your names are registered at the ticket office and the ticket will be issued you upon application.

SWEETWATER MAKES CHANGE IN JUBILEE DAY PROGRAM

In order that school children from Colorado might have a part in the school children's parade, previously arranged for 10 o'clock in the morning, the committee having in charge the jubilee program at Sweetwater changed the time to 2 o'clock in the afternoon, thirty minutes after the Colorado special train is scheduled to arrive. The change was made at the request of representatives of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce who were in Sweetwater Monday afternoon.

BANKERS AND PRINTERS

Lometa Reporter: The unkindest cut of all is that when a bank cashier used a blank printed in Chicago or New York to notify the home printer that his account at the bank is overdrawn.

Just how the Lometa man manages his bank to get an overdraft is what puzzles the Record man. As a rule, bankers are good fellows. They earnestly wish to see home enterprise built up. When they give printing orders to far-away printers it is mostly because they imagine the work can be done more efficiently in the larger shops of the larger towns. Sometimes that is so, sometimes it isn't. The country printing office of today is blessedly better than that of yesterday. The equipment and workmanship in many country offices equal the same desiderata in the larger cities, except that one is on a small scale and the other a larger scale. A shop with one press can do as good work as one with a dozen presses, for printing presses are the same everywhere, as regards models. The local printing offices do more for the local banks than the local bankers realize, perhaps. And the investment of a dollar or two more in a printing order by giving it to a local shop is usually a good investment from the banker's side. Not necessarily, however, is the local printer's price higher. Often it is lower. Especially in these days of costly transportation.

DR. COLEMAN ON PROGRAM FOR ADDRESS AT JUBILEE

Tentative program of the jubilee celebration at Sweetwater, received here Monday morning includes the name of Dr. P. C. Coleman of Colorado as one of the principal speakers for the day. Dr. Coleman and Governor Neff are the only two names mentioned in the program for addresses in the afternoon.

It was stated here Monday that the pen, used by the governor in signing the Texas Technological School bill and to be presented to Dr. Coleman, would be given him Friday, following a fitting presentation address by the governor.

IN SOCIETY AND AT THE CLUBS

Second Anniversary

The 1921 Study Club celebrated its second anniversary February 22, with a social meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Root. The guests were the husbands and a few special friends. The entertainment was 42 and there were seven tables of players besides several who did not play. The decorations were ferns and beautiful flowering plants. The natural colors were carried out in the score cards, lunch cloths and napkins. At the close of the games it was found that Mr. M. C. Ratliff proved the most skilled player of the gentlemen and was awarded a collar button. Mrs. Tom Pritchett was the best player among the ladies and was awarded a miniature mandolin. Refreshments of chicken salad, sandwiches, potato chips, olives, osgood pie with whipped cream and coffee were served. While this is the youngest literary club of the town yet it stands out as one of the most progressive, always taking part in all Federated and local club work and its membership is composed of wide awake young matrons and young ladies.

Now is the time for all good things to come.

Sunday School Party

The Intermediate boys of the Baptist Sunday school entertained the Intermediate girls last Friday evening at the home of Robert Whipple. After the party went to the picture show, benefit for the Auxiliary to American Legion, cherry pie with whipped cream was served. Hand painted hatchets were given as souvenirs.

Birth Party

Little Edna Smith celebrated her tenth birthday last Saturday afternoon by having her little friends of the neighborhood come play with her. After enjoyable games, sandwiches, cake and cocoa were served.

Young People's Society

The Young People's Missionary society met with Miss Hazel Costin Tuesday. Besides the regular business plans were completed for the Japanese tea. Miss Clayton of Roscoe was a guest. The hostess served a salad, potato chips, crackers, olives, angel food and cocoa. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jim Dobbs.

1921 Study

The 1921 Study club met with Mrs. Soper. The lesson on Louisiana, or Creole Stories was led by Mrs. Henry Pond. Mrs. Soper gave a paper on George W. Cable and Creole stories. Mrs. Earnest, read "Ole" Creole Day. Mrs. Harry Ratliff gave a paper on Cable's longer stories. Mrs. Pritchett one on Grace King and New Orleans stories. Mrs. Quincy gave a paper on James Lane Allen's short stories in flute and violin. Mrs. Pritchett was elected delegate to the district meeting at Midland. Mrs. Harry Ratliff alternate. The hostess served meat loaf, fresh tomatoes, sandwiches, potato chips, olives, cherry pie with whipped cream and tea. The meeting will be with Mrs. Roy Dozier on Wednesday this week on account of the meeting at Sweetwater. Mrs. Fred Carey was a guest.

Hesperian

The Hesperian met with Mrs. Broadus with Mrs. Merritt as leader. The lesson was on the life and short stories of Nathaniel Hawthorne. Papers were given by Mrs. Shropshire and Miss Lacwell. Mrs. Barcroft and Mrs. W. L. Doss were elected honorary members for the next club year. Mrs. Winn, Mrs. Shropshire and Mrs. Lee Jones were elected delegates to the County Federation for next year. Mrs. Brown of Gatesville, Mrs. Oscar Majors and Mrs. W. R. Mitchell of New Orleans were guests. The hostess served a salad course, lemon pie with whipped cream and coffee. On account of the meeting in Sweetwater March 2nd the club decided to meet Tuesday. The meeting will be with Mrs. Winn.

Reception

Mrs. T. J. Ratliff gave a reception last Thursday from 4 to 6 o'clock honoring Mrs. Harry Ratliff and Mrs. Blakemore Reese of California, who is here on a visit. The house was decorated in ferns, cut flowers and pot plants. Mrs. O. B. Price received the guests at the door. Mrs. Ross Dixon announced them to the receiving line, which was headed by Mrs. Ratliff. Then Mrs. Lister Ratliff and her mother, Mrs. Hard. Mrs. Harry Ratliff, Mrs. M. C. Ratliff, Mrs. Blakemore Reese, and Mrs. J. L. Doss. Miss Caroline Chambers led them to the dining room where refreshments of sandwiches, angel food cake and tea were served by Misses Elsie Lee Majors, Fannie Bess Earnest, Gladys Kirkpatrick, Evelyn Lasky. Appropriate souvenirs of hand painted hatchets tied with little red, white and blue ribbon were pinned on each guest by Misses Collins and Saling. More than a hundred guests called in honor of the two recent brides and the out-of-town guests.

Bay View

The Bay View met with Mrs. R. O. Pearson. Mrs. Jerald Riordan was leader. After the O. Henry prize short story the study of the Tempest was begun. The hostess served a salad course, lemon pie and coffee. The meeting this week will be on Wednesday with Mrs. E. F. King. Mrs. Thomas R. Smith was a guest.

Missionary Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Methodist Missionary was held with Mrs. D. N. Arnett Monday afternoon. After the regular business a program on the Mexican work in the United States was studied. In the absence of the pastor, who is in the sanitarium at Temple, the members pledged to visit the sick, strangers and shut-ins and carry on the work as best they could.

Standard

Mrs. M. Carter was hostess for the Standard. The study was on the modern drama led by Mrs. Y. D. McMurry. A two course luncheon was served at the social hour.

Harmony Club Entertains

The Harmony club entertained with Colonial party at the residence of Mrs. H. C. Landers February 22. Each member invited guests and requested them to come in costume. When the guests arrived they were introduced to the members, who were also in costume. The receiving line was headed by George and Martha Washington, who afterwards gave the minut. They were Mrs. R. A. Collins and Mrs. J. H. Guitar. Score cards with Colonial figures on them were then passed and several games of 42 were played. The house was beautifully decorated in flags, bunting and ferns. A miniature cherry tree of ripe cherries on a dainty centerpiece on the dining table completed the patriotic picture. Cherry pie covered with red, white and blue ice cream was served. Little hatchets were given as souvenirs.

Mexico is a treasure house wherein is stored up perhaps the most enormous and diversified wealth ever bestowed by nature upon a single people in a similar area. Scientists are awed by the vast magnitude of her mineral resources. For four centuries she has supplied more than one-third of the world's silver, and the deposits have been barely scratched. The anthracite coal fields of Sonora rival those of Pennsylvania. The huge deposits of copper and iron ore are incredibly rich.

Cattle men have found in its broad pampas a paradise of grazing land whence each year they reap millions in profits. Mexico's giant gushers of petroleum are among the largest in the world, but the untapped oil resources are said to be vastly greater than any yet uncovered. Ninety per cent of all kinds of fruit grown in the world flourish in Mexico, and every variety of grain found in the United States abounds even more luxuriantly in the rich soils of that favored land. Millions of acres are densely forested with trees whose woods are the most valuable in the world for industrial purposes.

The mystery of Russian Women

Men who have traveled far say there is about the women of Russia a strange, baffling, indefinable charm.

Nara Alexieff, the heroine of Richard Washburn Child's novel, possesses this mysterious characteristic to a remarkable degree, and the conflict of her spirit with the stark brutality of revolution and pitiless intrigue makes an amazing romance.

Life was before me of cares and sorrows I knew nothing, life was one perfect day after another, with nothing to mar its perfection.

After that, there was a long silence and I had begun to think that I had indeed drifted far in my lethargy, when to my great surprise I again heard the voice speaking.

I looked all around for the one who was speaking and was at a loss to know from whence the kind voice came.

Again I heard the gentle rustling of leaves and the queer kind voice, and realized that it was the great gnarled, twisted, misshapen tree itself speaking.

MRS. MEDA ROBINSON AT BURNS' STORE

How beautiful everything was, life was full of promise, the birds were flitting here and there building love nests, the trees and flowers lifted their faces to the Creator, and again life seemed to be a perfect day.

All that year I grew and grew, tall and sturdy, and was very happy; when north wind came again with his family he had no terrors for me, for I was strong enough to withstand his assaults.

Again I heard the gentle rustling of leaves and the queer kind voice, and realized that it was the great gnarled, twisted, misshapen tree itself speaking.

Rapidly the first fleecy clouds were joined by dark angry ones, followed by thunder and lightning which was terrifying to us, the cold rain descended at first gently, but soon it became almost a torrent and I was moved along very much against my will, down the ravine at a rapid pace, powerless to help myself.

I was very sad and discouraged had almost given up hope of being rescued, when a branch of hhrhd rescued when a bunch of friendly field grass which grew along the ravine's edge, held out its protecting arms to me and I was saved.

Slowly the water receded, and left lodged in the clump of grass, sticks, leaves, and a rich loam, entirely covering me. After those terrifying experiences I was very tired and weak, when north wind called his snow child and spread a beautiful white fleecy blanket over the earth, soothed and comforted by the kind assurance of the field grass, I nestled in Mother Earth's bosom and slept.

Warmed and assured, I timidly peeped from beneath my covering and lo, again I was changed from the little dull red berry to a bright green twig, just tall enough to peep from Mothes Earth. I seemed to hear a voice saying, "I am the resurrection and the life."

trying to destroy the Constitution, I will have time for something else to do other than trying to prevent the destruction of the fundamental principles. I unhesitatingly say that the curse of this country is too many laws. There is not a lawyer in this country who knows what is prohibited until he spends a week looking it up in the statute books."

The Senator stated that more than fifty thousand bills were introduced in Congress in a single session, and that it would be a valuable service rendered to this country if half the laws now on the statute books could be repealed and two thirds of the public officials discharged.

There is more truth than poetry in what Senator Reed says. America is afflicted, not only with superfluous legislation, but with superfluous officialdom. We are drifting from a democratic and representative government into a government by bureaus and commissions which operate on the basic principles of socialism and paternalism, and it is creating much dissatisfaction among genuine Americans.

We are scarcely prepared to subscribe to the time-honored doctrine of certain of the fathers of the Republic, that the government is best which governs least; yet there can be no reasonable doubt that in some respects we are now governed too much. It is, however, not an easy matter to tell just where the line should be drawn.

Our legislators are not sufficiently apprised of the rightful limits of their power; that their true office is to declare and enforce only our natural rights and duties, and to take none of them from us."

PROSPECTS NEVER BETTER Never in the history of the Colorado section were prospects for a favorable year and bumper crops more favorable than at present.

The slow, steady rains of last week, amounting to one and sixty-five one hundredth inches, was one of the biggest rainy spells ever recorded for the month of February. Coming as it did, slow and steady for several days, every bit of moisture went into the ground insuring a fine season for early planting. It also assures a large and early weed and grass crop for livestock. Additional showers the past two days continues to improve the prospects.

As Easter arrives this year on April 1st, planting time is arriving much earlier than for many years past and this means a great deal. If cotton can be planted early in April it will be in the best of condition to meet the warm spell during the summer months and be benefitted rather than injured. Last year it was in May and June when most of our plants were planted, so if we can start two months earlier in planting this year it will mean bigger and better crops of every kind.

Conditions could not be better than at present and our farmers are going to be working early and late in order to get every possible acre in shape for early planting. It is estimated that 25 per cent more land will be in cultivation in our county this year, than last year. If good prices for farm products are in effect this fall there is every reason to believe that our folks will enjoy the greatest measure of prosperity they have ever been treated to.

With the farming and livestock industries enjoying a season of prosperity it means that our entire citizenship will share in this prosperity. Then too, we are all looking forward to Colorado being selected as the location for the great college that has been authorized for West Texas so the outlook for the future is indeed bright. Our folks have every reason to feel optimistic over the future and an era of prosperity thru industry and co-operation is certainly assured.

No city among the great number seeking the location of the Texas Technological College has all the advantages and every single city has some advantages. Sizing up the situation down one side and up the other we cannot help but conclude that Colorado's chances are just as good as that of any other city in the list, and in our opinion, just a little bit better.

It took place in Colorado. Not in some faraway place. You are asked to investigate it. Asked to believe a citizen's word; To confirm a citizen's statement. Any article that is endorsed at home is more worthy of confidence than one you know nothing about, endorsed by unknown people.

MAN ACCUSED MARRYING TWO IN NINE DAYS' TIME

Married at Abilene on January 20, at Midland on January 29 and engaged to other girls in different cities, the matrimonial adventures of Robert E. Biddy have come to an end and he is now awaiting the action of the Midland County Grand Jury after a chase that led through Coleman, Brady, Abilene and other towns, finally ending with his arrest at Stamford.

A traveling salesman for road machinery and tractors, Biddy made his headquarters at Sweetwater. He is charged with marrying Miss Grace Anne Pettit of Abilene on January 20th and Miss Alice Haley, member of a prominent Midland family on January 29. He was issued a license at Eastland to marry a third, and was engaged to a Sweetwater girl during this period as well, it is charged.

At the request of Midland County authorities, Sheriff Yarbrough of Nolan County traced Biddy to Coleman and Brady and missed him by two minutes at Abilene and finally located him at Stamford. Yarbrough brought him to Sweetwater Friday night and turned him over to Midland authorities, who took him to that city to await the action of the grand jury there, which is now in session. Biddy is also said to have a wife in Indiana.

For several days we have felt raging within us a semi-poetic desire to herald the glories of recent rains, but have lacked the concentration, time or something.

However, one of our correspondents has solved the difficulty for us, and provides a way out. His success may be judged by the following: "A vicissitude of weather has been the meteorological menu here for two months, the most recent phase of which has manifested itself in dense London-like fogs, East Texas dews, March rains and corona moons. "In the pastures and ranches green grass is carpeting the terra, trees are beginning to burst out in buds, poultry are making their spring contribution of sustenance, springs are bursting forth in unsuspected places, and the thermometer is again reminding of watermelon weather.

"Fifful spells of rainy weather have prevailed. For the fourth time in three weeks the overburdened clouds have jettisoned some of their aerial cargo upon formerly parched earth. At times the sun peeps shamefully from above the curtain of clouds just to give West Texans assurance that he still is on the job helping Jupiter Pivius take the principal role in the drama of weather making."

We all know a few things, but think we know more.

COLLEGE BILL PROVIDES THAT NO BONUS BE GIVEN

In an interview given The Record Saturday, Porter A. Whaley of Stamford, general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, called attention to the fact that the bill creating the college prohibited the offering of a bonus of any kind by the towns competing for location of the school.

"The bill creating the Texas Technological College provides that no bonus shall be given," Whaley stated. It is the spirit of all towns who have helped in this movement that a town should secure location of the college upon its own merits. We believe that any town offering a bonus will violate the spirit which has actuated West Texas in making a fight for this great college, and we are inclined to believe that such a bonus would injure the towns chances."

Plainview will be in the race for the West Texas College of Technology, and will give the locating committee a plenty of good reasons that this is the proper place to locate it. Hale County is the ideal place for it.—Plainview News.

Floyd County will doubtless be in the race also for the West Texas Technological College. Every county in West Texas will doubtless be in the fight for the location of the school. We do not believe the school will be located on the Plains. It certainly would not come any ways near to the West Texas State Normal College at Canyon. But it will be a free for all fight, and the Plains has as much right to fight for its location as any other section of the West. There is no way to tell how the locating committee will look at the matter. If disinterested business men could be appointed as the locating committee, politics would not cut any figure. As we understand it, the governor and speaker of the House forms a part of the locating committee. Much political wire pulling will take place during the next few months in attempting to locate the school. There is some political wire pulling to take place before the selection is made for its location. If Plainview can win the location of the school, we wish her well. It's a laudable undertaking.—Lockney Beacon.

The Colorado citizens who attended the Knight Templars at Snyder on Monday night were reliably and most forceably informed that it had already been decided to locate it at Snyder. The arrangements and logical reasons were so clearly stated that the Colorado gentlemen were convinced (?) that the school would be located at Snyder.—nit.

STATE GOES ON CASH BASIS WITH MONEY TO SPARE

AUSTIN, Feb. 28.—For the first time since last September, the state general revenue fund went on a cash basis today, State Treasurer C. V. Terrell announced. A call for warrants amounting to more than $500,000 was issued this morning and it was announced in the senate that the treasury has sufficient funds to meet all outstanding warrants. The balance in the general revenue fund today was nearly a million dollars, it was said.

The deficiency in the general revenue fund has reached nearly $3,000,000 at times during the past six months. The cash basis today was made possible by the receipt of more than a million dollars, in taxes collected during the past two months.

THE BAPTISTS ARE RIGHT

From El Paso Morning Times: A good deal of editorial ink is being wasted trying to make out that a professor of Biblical literature at William Jewell College, a Baptist institution in Missouri, recently "fired" for teaching and holding opinions at variance with Baptist theology, is a victim of unjust persecution. But when the Baptists and other denominations which have similarly disciplined professors in their sectarian colleges and universities take the position that they are paying out their own good money to have their own doctrines taught in their own schools, they simply are not to be controverted.

The William Jewell professor, it appears, denied the existence of Jesus Christ and His divinity, besides a number of somewhat obtrusive points in the Baptist doctrine. An individual and an American citizen, he is of course within his rights in believing what he pleases about any delicious question. He is at full liberty to seek employment in educational institutions where professors are not limited in their views by a definite sectarian theology, and, if he is good enough teacher, he can undoubtedly get it.

But when he tried to teach non-Baptist doctrines for Baptist money, he simply wasn't playing the game. Any business house in the country would "fire" an employe for similar disloyalty to its fundamental policies and why the Baptists should be expected to extend sentimental charity to opponents beyond the limits of common sense is a question no fair mind can answer.

You need not fear rainy bad weather. I have a drying room.—Klasy Kleaner. Phone 133.

HIGHWAY THROUGH NOLAN COUNTY IS REPORTED ROUGH

The highway through Nolan County was very rough Monday afternoon, according to information from representatives of the Chamber of Commerce and Lions Club who were in Sweetwater Monday afternoon to complete arrangements for the part of the Colorado delegation is to have in the jubilee program there Friday.

J. H. Greene, member of the committee going to Sweetwater to confer with those arranging the program stated that it required two hours and twenty-five minutes to make the drive from Colorado to Sweetwater. The Roscoe Flats were found very rough, with numerous mud holes along the route.

The committee on transportation is of the belief that the condition of the highway through Nolan County will cause a number of citizens who had planned making the trip in cars to abandon that plan and go on the special train. Even a light rain would place the Roscoe Flats in an almost impassable condition, it is claimed.

We often hear people remark that "it makes no difference what others think."

But it does make a difference. This town is a collection of people. This state is a collection of cities and towns and the surrounding surrounding countrysides.

This country is simply a collection of sovereign states welded together in a single and central government for their own protection and advancement. The government is dependent upon the states, and the states are dependent upon their cities and towns and countrysides, and the latter are dependent upon the people who compose their respective populations.

And there you have it—an endless chain of dependence one upon another.

Does it make a difference "what other people think?"

Four Reasons Why You Should Buy Your Ford Car This Month

I.

The unprecedented demand for Ford Cars throughout the winter months has taken the entire output of the Ford plants working at capacity, indicating that the demand this Spring will be far in excess of the number of Ford Cars that can possibly be built.

II.

January was the tenth consecutive month in which retail deliveries exceeded 100,000 Ford Cars and Trucks. Requirements for February, the month when preparations are already under way for Spring business, called for 148,407 Cars and Trucks—more than 24,000 in excess of the number we can possibly produce.

III.

Ford dealers in many parts of the country are already finding it necessary to specify future delivery dates on Ford Products because there are no reserve stocks to draw from.

IV.

Your order placed now will protect you against delay or disappointment later on—it is the only way you can be assured of reasonable prompt delivery.

We consider it important to give you these facts, so that if you are planning to purchase a Ford Car, Truck or Tractor for use this Spring or Summer you can list your order at once and take advantage of our dealer's first opportunity to make delivery.

STATE OFFICIAL DISCUSSES LOCATION OF TEXAS TECH

Hon. Geo. B. Terrell, Commissioner of Agriculture, is interested in the best location for the Texas School of Technology to be established under a recent act of the legislature, and gave out the following statement today:

"I am always interested in educational matters and especially in agricultural and technological education.

"Twenty-one years ago I supported a law establishing a Textile Department at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas to train young men to become foremen and managers of cotton mills which were just beginning to be erected in Texas.

"It seems that this addition to the A. and M. College has not properly fulfilled the purpose for which it was established, and that it has become necessary to establish a school of technology elsewhere on a larger scale.

"I supported the law in the 35th Legislature establishing an Agricultural College in West Texas, which College was located at Abilene, but was later repealed because of the near scandal connected with its location.

"West Texas has needed, and has deserved this school for several years, much more than the three Normal Schools were needed which were created at the same time.

"In the location of this new school there are several important things to be considered by the locating board, as follows:

"1. A sufficient body of good land,

"2. An ample supply of good water.

"3. Ample facilities for boarding students to save the State the expense of building dormitories.

"4. Health and accessibility, with reference to center of population to be served and railroad facilities.

"These matters are of most vital importance, but other things should be considered. The price of land and an ample supply of water should be guaranteed before the location is made.

"The law forbids the acceptance of donations by the locating board until after the location has been determined. It seems to me that if the board is competent to select a suitable location that it would be competent to accept donations, and the State is certainly entitled to any donations that might be offered, as this school will be a very valuable acquisition to any community.

"The ability of any community to board the students is one of the most important considerations. No State school should be located where it is necessary to build dormitories to house the students. This is becoming a burden upon the State now, and should be stopped. Practically all the State schools are clamoring for dormitories, and it means an enormous expense to the taxpayers.

"The A. and M. College of Texas is located five miles from Bryan, and it is necessary to build dormitories there, or move the school.

"With the light of past experience to guide us, we should not commit the same follies in the future.

"I trust that the establishment of this school will usher in a new industrial era in Texas."

WHY THE HAPPIEST MAN IN THE WORLD

A Georgia paper claims to have found the happiest man in the world. The man lives in North Georgia. He has six fiddles, ten children, thirteen hounds, a deaf and dumb wife and a moonshine still that has never been spotted by enforcement officers. No doubt the Georgian is a happy man, says an exchange, but we believe we know a genus hobo who is getting more joy out of life than the Georgian. Our hero is a negro, about six feet high. He preaches in the summer time and shoots craps in the winter. He can wear an overcoat in August without discomfort, and a seer-sucker in January without feeling the cold. Anybody's shoes will fit him and his neighbors all raise chickens. He wields the razor so savagely that every negro in the community is afraid to kick one of his dogs, or smile at one of his wives.

"Delegation 500 Strong Coming From Colorado for Jubilee," says headline in the Sweetwater Reporter Friday. The delegation will be there, alright, and we will maintain the distinction of being one of the foremost cities in West Texas. The Colorado delegation will be one of the largest to visit Sweetwater during the jubilee and of course the Colorado Booster Band will be the best band there by odds.

The high school celebrated February 22nd by having a program and planting trees. Special numbers were given by the high school orchestra a song, the story of the flag by the tenth grade girls and Mr. Millard Smith in costume. The little tots of Mrs. Davis' expression class gave the story of George Washington. Patriotic songs were sung by the school and talks made by Mr. King, Rev. W. M. Elliott, H. L. Hutchinson, Mrs. Merritt and Mrs. A. L. Whipkey. Mr. King reviewed the outside work done by the school since he has been superintendent in the way of lyceum, library, Red Cross work. The purchase of a grand piano and many other things. Mr. Elliott made a talk on the work the Boy Scouts were doing and urged all boys to live a "fit" life physically and morally. Mr. Hutchinson spoke on the life of service. Mrs. Merritt told of the work and high ideals of the camp fire girls and urged the girls to keep pace with the boy scouts. Mrs. Whipkey told of the famous historical trees, when and how they became famous. The different grades each planted two trees, named them and will look after them.

Keeping What You Have

MANY men who spend most of their lives working hard to secure a competence for themselves and families lose sight of the fact that it takes thoughtful planning to keep the money they have saved. An ill-considered speculation or an unwise business venture may wipe out the proceeds of years of labor.

For forty years we have helped people to keep and add to the money they have saved. We specialize in the personal banking service needed by thrifty and thoughtful men and women who wish to secure to themselves and families the benefits of what they have accumulated.

In fact nothing gives us greater satisfaction than the thought that we have helped and are helping thousands to secure a competence and preserve its benefits for themselves and families.

THE STUNT KING OF THE MOVING PICTURES

(By Marry B. Mullett in American)

Plenty of people would like to get Charles Hutchinson's salary, but they wouldn't take his job for a million dollars a day.

Down in the Tennessee mountains a few years ago, a moving picture company was making the scenes for a serial production. Serial pictures are the continued stories of the screen; one "episode" or installment, being shown each week.

In this particular case, the location of one scene was a mountain torrent rushing over a rocky bed to a point where it plunged from a cliff. Just above the falls a tall tree trunk was laid across the stream; and the hero rode his horse over this log from one bank to the other.

A group of mountaineers had gathered to watch the strange doings and when the hero had performed his stunt one of the natives remarked, "If a gol-durned movin' picture actor kin do that, I reckon I ken, too."

He decided, however, to temper his courage with caution; so, instead of riding across he merely tried to lead his horse. When he was half way over, the animal slipped off—on the side toward the falls! It tried to get a footing, but its frantic struggles were powerless and it was swept over the brink.

The mountaineer would not risk his own life by trying to rescue the animal; but the "gol-durned movin' picture actor" jumped into the torrent below the poor beast to rescue it.

The name of the man who risked his own life to save that of a poor dumb victim of another man's folly is Charles Hutchinson. To countless moving picture audiences all over the world he is known as "Hutch, the Thrill-a-Minute Stunt King." Before I had seen the things he does I thought this title was merely a clever advertising slogan. Now that I know him, I admit his right to it.

For sheer daring, Charles Hutchinson is a world-beater. His life is a succession of hair-raising incidents. But his courage is not simply daredevilry.

Hutchinson is not a reckless fool, gambling his life against chance. His faith in himself is founded on facts. For instance, his nerves must be absolutely dependable. Therefore he lives a simple wholesome life. He does not drink. He smokes one cigar a day—or none at all. He is careful about his diet. He keeps early hours. He has a delightful home and would rather be there than any place else in the world.

"The way to do seemingly impossible things," he said, "is to make sure, before you attempt them, that you understand the principles involved. Then, if you are certain of yourself and if you do not trust any of the vital details to other people, you are pretty sure to come through successfully."

"One of my stunts is to ride a motorcycle straight through a fence. The first time I did it, I was bruised and torn by the broken pieces of wood. I had tried to play safe by going at a speed of ten miles an hour.

"When I was well again I tried the stunt once more. But I knew what I was about. I struck the fence at 60 miles an hour. The pieces of wood flew a hundred feet—but not one of them touched me. I was not trusting to what looked safe, but to the principles I had figured out.

"In another case, I was to be in a buggy on a railroad track in front of an approaching train. The engine was to strike the buggy and I was to jump onto the front of the locomotive. I told the engineer to come on at a speed of thirty-five miles an hour. He refused at first, said that he wasn't going to be responsible for killing me, and that he would run at ten miles an hour.

"If you do," I told him, "you probably will kill me. The wreckage will be jammed on the front of the engine and I'll be caught in it." He finally consented to do as I wanted him to and came at me full tilt, making thirty-five miles an hour. At the instant the engine struck I leaped and caught the locomotive. And because the speed was so great the wreckage shot into the air clear of the train. That was exactly what I had figured would happen."

"What if you had jumped a second too soon, or a second too late?"

"Well in that case, I shouldn't be here today."

Here is an example: While I am speeding along on a motorcycle at 45 miles an hour, an airplane swoops down over me. I stand up on the seat of the motorcycle and catch with one hand a rope ladder hanging from the airplane. I climb the ladder and get into the plane. When I first did this, I never had been in an airplane, either on the ground or in the air. But I figured the whole thing out in my mind and believed I could do it. You probably have seen pictures of a person standing up on the back seat of an automobile or on the top of a train, and catching a rope ladder. But somebody else was driving the car, or the train! I was alone on the motorcycle which is a very different proposition.

I must know for the lives of other people depend on it. My wife used to play opposite me in the pictures, and we did one scene where I carried her across Au Sable Chasm by walking a log laid from one cliff to the opposite one. The log was about fifty feet above the water; and the distance across the chasm was about the same. It would not have been serious, perhaps, if we had fallen into the rapids but there were also jagged rocks below us. Nothing would have induced my wife to walk that log alone. But she was perfectly willing to have me carry her across, because she had faith that I could do it.

In one play, I had to make a bridge of my body from the topstory window of one building to the fire escape of an adjoining building, and my wife was to cross by this human bridge, sixty or seventy feet above the ground. This distance across the gap was six feet.

You can bet your life that I made sure of myself before I did a stunt like that, with my wife's safety at stake. We began training for it at home. I would take two chairs and stretch myself out, horizontally between them. Then I had my wife sit on me, while I was in this position. Then she would stand on my back. And finally she would walk along my body, from one chair to the other. We kept this up for six weeks. Then when I felt absolutely sure of the principles and of our ability to carry them out, we did the real stunt.

In one picture I walked a wire across Au Sable Chasm. It was one of the wires on which a big iron bucket, or scoop, travels back and forth. I had to step over the pulleys as the bucket passed under me. To prepare for this I spent weeks walking a wire in the gymnasium. I began with it a few inches from the floor and gradually raised it to a height of six feet.

The only serious accidents that I have had were due either to the fact that I hadn't made sure of the principles involved or that I had depended upon other people for some of the details. The worst smash I ever had came from relying on what others told me. It was a scene where I was to jump from a balcony running around a ballroom catch a chandelier, which I could swing back and forth like a pendulum go from that to another chandelier and swing from that to the opposite balcony. The ballroom had very lofty ceilings so that the chandeliers were about twenty-five feet from the floor.

I did it twice but on third trial the chandelier hit the upper part of the balcony, shattered the globe and a shower of glass flew into my face. Instinctively, I tried to shield my eyes with my arm, lost my hold, and fell to the floor. My left arm was broken at the elbow, the bones protruding through the flesh, and at the wrist. My right arm was broken and the elbow dislocated so that the hand stood out backward, at right angles to the arm.

Sometimes I have had an accident because for perhaps only a few seconds, I did not keep my attention concentrated on what I was doing. One of these accidents happened only last year. I jumped from an airplane to a moving railway train—not to the top of the train, which would be comparatively easy, but to the side of the train, where I caught the sill of an open window and hung there by my hands. I made it all right, but my attention was diverted by the airplane. When I had jumped it rose higher and went over some trees alongside the track. Then the sound of its motor suddenly stopped. And it was while I was wondering whether the plane was in trouble that I got into trouble myself. The train was to slow up and I was to drop off. But at the place where I did this there were several tracks branching from the one on which the train was running. There had been some rain not long before and these tracks were slippery. Because I was thinking about the airplane, I did not notice this. The consequence was that I fell, dislocated my hip, and tore the ligaments of my leg—and that is worse than an ordinary fracture of bones.

As we were making one day, I was pursued by villains, as usual; and in order to escape them was to jump from the roof of one seven story building to the roof of the next building, across an eighteen-foot gap between the two. But when you made that jump of course there was a net below you, in case you missed, wasn't there? I asked.

No, said Hutchinson; because we had two cameras working all the time. One was on the roof showing the jump from that point of view. The other was placed where it showed the gap between the two buildings from the ground up and me leaping from one to the other. In that way, the moving picture audiences could see there was no fake about it and that there was no net underneath.

The list of daring stunts which have made Hutchinson the "stunt king" in fact as well as in name is an amazing one. He has repeatedly dived from cliffs and towers into the water, the highest of these dives being one hundred feet. Once his hands were tied to a heavy iron anchor, which was then thrown into deep water. He worked himself loose and came to the surface within two minutes. He rides a motorcycle alongside a train at full speed, leaps from his machine and catches the rear platform of the train. If he missed—but he hasn't missed yet. He says that is an easy stunt, that the hard part is when he has to let himself slip off the steps, as he catches the railing, and be dragged along the track while he clings to the railing with his hands.

But in most of the things he does there is a lesson which can be useful to us all. It is the lesson of careful preparation, of trying to make sure how a thing can be done before attempting to do it.

Supper, reassemble 7:30 p. m., Ira L. Parrack, presiding. Address, 30 minutes—A. J. Morgan, Breckenridge.

Closing Address—Millard A. Jenkins, Abilene. As you will note by reference to the program some of our outstanding men and women of the state are to be present, the addresses generally are to be short, but pointed. We have tried in the main to use pastors, missionaries and workers in on the program who were not on the program at the fall conference. Of course, no one will stay away because his name happens not to be on the program. You will see at once that it is a physical impossibility to have every worthy pastor, missionary, layman or W. M. U. worker on any one program.

The entertainment will be on the Harvard Plan. Plan to come, and urge others to come. Let the slogan be: "On To Colorado"—Committee.

Spring hats are trimmed now. Husbands will be trimmed later.

COLORADO BE REPRESENTED AT BAPTIST WOMEN'S MEET

The Executive Board of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union is called to meet in Fort Worth, March 6-7. Besides the thirty-one elected members and the chairman of the standing committees, the presidents and secretaries of the Districts and Associations are members of this Board.

It is expected that over two hundred women, from all points in Texas, will be present at this Board meeting as it is one of the most important ones of the year.

At this time messengers to the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, which meets in Kansas City in May, will be elected; reports for the quarter will be read; the committee on Methods and Finance will make a very important report; appropriations for the work in the various districts and associations will be made; and plans will be discussed for the spring round-up of the 75 Million Campaign.

The entire Board will be the guest of the Fort Worth Training School during the two days stay. The Training School has an enrollment of 385 students, training for missionary and other religious work. A great many of the students are the wives of the preachers attending the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

"NICE PEOPLE" "Nice People," will be given at the Palace Theatre, February 22-23 under the auspices of the Auxiliary to the American Legion, proceeds to go on hut. See Nice People. THE TERRYS.

VERY FINE STORY IN "ORPHANS OF THE STORM"

The giant special to be shown at the Best Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, besides containing the last word in art and architecture has a very finely written story. It is based upon actual happenings during the French Revolution and nothing can be more interesting than legends of this historical time. The bloody guillotine, the murders, the horrors of that medical period are all brought out with painstaking accuracy but with a subtlety that makes this play, "Orphans of the Storm," one of the artistic achievements of all time. Lillian and Dorothy Gish have the leading roles of this great play, and many hundreds of extras were engaged to play in the bigger scenes, all being handled by the super-craftsmanship of D. W. Griffith himself.

Other Big Pictures to Follow

Among the big pictures following "Orphans of the Storm" are Mary Pickford's "Tess of the Storm Country," which is her latest and best; Charles Ray in "A Tailor Made Man," Rex Beach's great railroad story, "The Iron Trail. Dates will be announced on these in a few days.

It is better to be safe than sorry. See A. B. Blanks now and purchase tickets for the special train. You might make it through the Roscoe Flats in your car—and you might not.

Next Sunday is Consecration Meeting and every member of the C. E. Society is urged to make a special effort to be present and answer to roll call. Many interesting plans are being discussed and things are going to hum pretty soon. If the members want to be on the inside of these plans, please make your selves conspicuous at the regular meetings.

BAPTIST NOTES
Sure enough. Rain and other things produced a small degree of absences last Sunday but most of the "old guard" were present. We were delighted to have a large number of visitors with us at the morning service. We enjoyed preaching to the Methodists Sunday evening. It seemed natural to have a full house to preach to. We enjoyed the fine fellowship of the evening. All regular services next Sunday. Come and be with us.

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH
We had no preaching services Sunday morning but at 7:30 in the evening our church was honored by having our neighbor pastor, Rev. M. C. Bishop of the First Baptist, fill the pulpit. He dismissed services at his own church and brought his congregation with him to worship with us. It was a good service and we appreciate such Christian fellowship.
Next Sunday Rev. W. A. Smith, pastor of our church at Midland, will preach at 11 o'clock and at 7:30. Special music has been arranged for both services. Come to Sunday school Sunday, not at 10 or 10:15, but promptly at 9:45, and remain for preaching. The Epworth League at 6:45.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH
We had a fair attendance at all the services Sunday, notwithstanding a rainy day in the forenoon. The men's Bible class at the Palace Theatre had an interesting meeting. The evening services at the church were good. Dr. Root gave a very instructive talk and was followed

REPORTER.

AS CONGRESS BUYS A NEW CAR

WASHINGTON—We certainly are a great people. Especially in our governmental finance. It is no wonder that the income tax acts like a squirrel in a tree.

"Item, $50,000 with which to buy the secretary of the interior a new automobile."

That appears, in more recondite and complex words, in the draft of the current appropriations bill. Blanton of Texas rose to object to it in the discussion in the House. Blanton is one of the most persistent objectors. He wanted to know why the secretary of the interior must have a new automobile. He said plaintively that members of Congress ride in their own cars, if they ride in cars at all. Which is quite right, he added.

"I'm not picayune," he said. "I don't care how people spend their own money."
But he thought it about time we stopped giving $5,000 automobiles to government officials. He noted the number is increasing all the time. "We grant them these $5,000 cars and maintenance, and then they draft a civil employe of the government, who draws another salary in many cases to run it."

It was explained by Mr. Cramton of Michigan that the secretary of the interior's car was old, and all the other secretaries had new cars. Anyhow, it was not until the secretary of the interior had been told to try to get a car from the war department and had failed that he was granted the $5,000 relief. Of all the thousands of cars the army had not long ago but two were available. The better one of the pair had actually been turned over to the secretary.

"But it is such an old type that the wheels, parts and tires are entirely different from the models of the present day."

Therefore the secretary was to be allowed $5,000 to buy a new car, provided that he traded his old car in. Mr. Blanton rose to make his final objection:

"You propose to allow the secretary of the interior $5,000 to trade his old car for a new car. Yet the cost of an up-to-date car of this make, delivered, is $2,485."

So the debate ended and the secretary got his new car by a strict party vote of 11 to 9. Almost all votes are party votes. A party man who departs from his party lines on an appropriation bill had better be an aged trapper and be gnawed by wolves.

CITATION ON APPLICATION FOR LETTERS OF GUARDIANSHIP

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mitchell County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to cause to be published once each week for a period of ten days before the return day hereof, in a newspaper of general circulation, which has been continuously and regularly published for a period of not less than one year in said Mitchell County, a copy of the following notice:

THE STATE OF TEXAS:
To all persons interested in the estate of Samuel Riggs Sheppard, minor; Maud Hall Sheppard has filed in the County Court of Mitchell County, an application for letters of guardianship upon the estate of said Samuel Riggs Sheppard minor, which will be heard at the next term of the said court, commencing on the first Monday in March, A. D. 1923, the same being the 5th day of March, A. D. 1923, at the Court House thereof, in Colorado, Texas, at which time all persons interested in said estate may appear and contest said application, should they desire to do so.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court on the said first day of the next term thereof this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Colorado, Texas, this 14th day of February, A. D. 1923.

ALL IS SET FOR BIG CELEBRATION FRIDAY

Sweetwater Reporter:
The parade of school children will be held in the afternoon instead of the morning in order to better accommodate the children from the rural schools at the Jubilee celebration on March 2—next Friday.

Bunting is already beginning to fly from various places of business as the decorator begins to get in his fine touches in readiness for the great day.

There was a meeting of the finance committee held in the First National Bank Tuesday morning and the men who served on it stated, that never had they served upon an occasion when the response was so cordially liberal.

There will be a large delegation from Big Spring, a letter from that city assures Secretary McCurdy of the Board of City Development, while Lubbock is planning to send 150 men from there, according to another letter from the Hub of the Plains.

Judge Rosser passed through Sweetwater Tuesday morning and advised that Snyder was sending a large delegation.

W. C. Calvert and Miss Mabel Spann say they will have from 200 to 250 members of the Boys' and Girl's Clubs in line in the parade Friday.

Other committees will meet the Santa Fe trains and the Orient with care and render any assistance that may be needed, as well as information for the different events.

The north, west and south sides of the square will be roped off, Chief of Police Johnson announces. There will be a fence built diagonally across the corner from the City National Bank to the Sweetwater Dry Goods Company, from Harrington and Lee Grocery to the First National Bank, also straight across from the County Jail and from Tidwell-Campbell Company to the Court House. This is to give room for the mass meetings to be held on the Court house rostrum. Automobiles will use the other streets except the east side of the square which will be open.

The program for the day is as follows:

7:30 a. m. Reception Committee with guard of Honor in command of Captain Sidney C. Morgan of Sweetwater National Guard Unit will meet Governor Neff and other guests at the T. and P. Railway depot and accompany them to Hotel Wright.

9 to 10 a. m. The Governor and other guests will be given an auto drive around the city.

9 to 10 a. m. Band Concert from the Grand Stand by Colorado and Sweetwater Bands massed.

10 to 11:30 a. m. Speaking from the Grand Stand. Hon. M. E. Rosser of Snyder presiding.

(a) Address of Welcome to West Texas with something of the school movement.—Dr. P. C. Coleman, Colorado, who issued the call that eventually brought about the Texas Technological College.

(b) The Work for the College in the Texas Legislature.—Senator W. H. Bledsoe of Lubbock.

(c) March 2 in Texas History.—Dr. J. D. Sandefer, president Simmons College, Abilene.

(d) Something of the Benefits of the Technological College to a State.—Hon. L. T. Carpenter of Dallas, who put the "Tech" in the College who put the "Tech" in the College.

(e) What it Has Taken to Get This College for West Texas.—Porter A. Whaley, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, who has been with the movement from the first.

(f) Address by Former Governor W. P. Hobby director of Texas Technological College.

11:30 to 12:30 a. m. Public reception to Governor Neff in Hotel Wright lobby.

2 to 3 p. m. Review of 5,000 school children before Governor Neff. Mr. Rosser will introduce Mrs. W. W. Beall of the Sweetwater School Board who will present the children to the Governor.

3 p. m. Address by Governor Pat M. Neff, introduced by Representative Chitwood.

7 p. m. Banquet at Hotel Wright

STATE PARK IN DAVIS RANGE IS ASKED

AUSTIN, Feb. 28.—A State park of 200,000 acres in the heart of the Davis Mountain range, and embracing tablelands over 7000 feet high and Mount Livermore, towering 9,000 feet above the sea, was recommended to the Legislature Tuesday by the joint legislative committee who visited this region in 1921. While former Speaker Charles C. Thomas was in the city the report of the committee which visited the Davis Mountains was drafted. Senator I. D. Fairchild, chairman of the committee; J. T. Robinson, land commissioner, a member, and Thomas prepared the report.

Robinson has made a survey of the proposed section where it is planned to establish a tourist park and a State game preserve. It was pointed out that hundreds of thousands of dollars annually of tourists' funds would be held in Texas instead of being spent in California, Arizona or other states if the park were established by the State. Game and fish abound in the regions embraced in the park site now. The country, high above the level of the plains country of West Texas has abundant plant life and large trees.
