Saturday—ma sed at the dinner table 2 pa that the Lord had smiled on Hill Low wich lives near us and pa sed I dont see as how he Smiled on him I wood say he luffed out loud at him. which was all 2 deep for me not understanding there meening. I ast pa was he going to work today he sed he had a engagement to see a man wot was to give him a job as prohibition enforcement officer. pa sed if they wood put him on he wood sure put the bootleg down in Colorado. he sed he culd beat the officers we have had lately. ma sed O I see now how you wuld "put it down."

Sunday—I staid 2 church 2 heer bro. Bishop expung the gospel today. I guess he is a ottomobeel fan because he had the Audients 2 sing a song which was named Threw That Beautiful Land on high. Pa sed he had a ford wich I Judge is the reason of the enthusiasm. They was making up munny to pay fur the meetin and wen they passed the plate around pa wanted to do sumthing but he was broke so he raises up and lays a big button in the pan. I saw it but ma diddent. J. A. Pickens wo is always been real active in church wurk, got happy and went around the room shakeing hands and falling on the everybodys neck and weepin. women and men alike. pa sed he must a been sum happy to fall on the neck of sum of them wimmen.

Monday—Had sum time at the new hutchinson skool today. we had a sale to buy sum shades for our room. pa give me fifteen sents and I bot two pieces of cake and a piece of lemon pie frum J. E. Chigger also bot a quarter of one dollars wurth of candy frum her and we et the two. After skool ma and me went down town today & we seen a big crowd & snuk up to see what the matter was and they was Hal Degarmo laying on the ground senseless. ma sed to Stewart Cooper Did sumthing run into him and Stewart replied & sed Yes and ma sed What & he sed About a pint I think. Me sed later he ment likker wich pa seys is a luxury in Colorado now since Irvin was put in as sheriff.

Tuesday—Pa got a job down to the compress today. Harry Ragan ast him wot he was doing and pa sed I'm head of the transportation department down there. Ma sed Yes he dont have nothing to do but transport bails of cotton frum the platform to the press rooms Pa sed the pressman cum near having a accident today down there. He thot mr. Dickerson was a bail of cotton and tried to get him into the press The press was too little. Got a job to day running errands for the Editor of the Record. He sed to me if you do well and work hard sum day you will own a place of your own. I sed Well I always was unlucky.

Wednesday—When I sweep out the Editors offis this morning I found a $ Bill a laying on his desk & I put it in my pocket and waited till he cum in & then I give it 2 him and sed I had found it. He sed Slat's yure a fine yung man 2 return that money I put it there 2 try you. I replied & sed That's what I thot. He frowned and sed Well yure the only one that works here that I wuld risk that way.

Thursday—we had a tawk to the skool this morning buy a lady frum Austin about helth. She sed you shud wash yure face and hands daily and also yure teeth, and also sed to try and follow the example set by the professor. Chigger sed Well if that aint the limit. pa sed he wuld beat me up if I diddent quit ackettig like prof. King so much and I dont know wot to do. Ennyway I will be facing the devil and the wild cat on both hands.

There are many indications of increased cost of general merchandise this fall. Buyers who have been in the dry goods markets find that cost of all kinds of dry goods will probably be higher than last year. Tire dealers have received advance in price or notification of an advance. Steel products are going higher.

COLORADO MERCHANTS DO BUSINESS ON SMALL PROFIT

Hundreds of customers from the nearby communities and some from other counties who come to Colorado to do their principal shopping, when interviewed Saturday by a representative of the Record, stated that Colorado was the best trading point in this section of West Texas, when the price and quality and variety of merchandise offered by the merchants are considered. One party from east of Lorraine stated that he could drive to Colorado and save anywhere from a day's pay to a week's wages on a bill of goods, especially in the dry goods, shoe and even grocery lines. Another party from Scurry county stated that he could always make it to his advantage to come to Colorado to do trading rather than go to Snyder, which is several miles closer. He stated that Colorado was known in his community as the best cotton market in West Texas and that he intende. hauling all his cotton to Colorado market this fall.

In speaking of the advantages of Colorado as a trading point, one farmer and stockman from Eastern part of the county stated that he considered it worth while to come to Colorado to do his trading. Continuing he said: "There are two things that I never buy in Colorado. Those are furnitue items and implements. I can buy both of these items in Lorraine and Sweetwater much cheaper and then when I go to buy them the dealers there treat me courteous and make me want to go back." That is probably more than Colorado can boast of in these lines. Another thing when I buy furnitue, the wife and I talk it over at home and we like to have papers with advertisements about the goods offered. We can decide on about what we want before we come to town. If your merchants would advertise more Colorado would do more business. I have two boys and three girls and when we get the Colorado Record, we all read it, not only the news items, but the ads. We pick out and decide on lots of things to buy before we leave home for Colorado. If Colorado merchants would advertise more they would get more of my business."

Some will say the above mentioned citizen is an exception, which may be the case, but nevertheless, we believe that as whole, Colorado is the best place in West Texas to buy the merchandise needs of the average family. The merchants of Colorado, with few exceptions, make very close prices and do business on a very small margin of profit.

In this connection we call to mind the recent article of James H. Collins in the Saturday Evening Post. This article reads:

"The number of retail stores in the United States is around one million, or a store for each twenty-two families. Probably six million people work in our retail stores, and not less than twenty million are supported directly or indirectly by mercantile trade.

Yet, despite widespread suspicion that the merchant who passes goods along takes a large profit without rendering any real service, trustworthy investigators have found that less than 2 per cent net profit is made on the average retail sale; this includes both big stores and little shops.

"If these million merchants agreed to sell without any profit whatever, declared Harvard investigators, "it would not make a difference of $25 a year in the expenses of the average American family of five persons.

"Storekeeping is the last business to be studied scientifically. In contrast with the money spent to teach better methods of production to manufacturers and farmers, almost nothing has been spent on the storekeeper. Too often he gets into mercantile lines without knowing much about business methods and gets out again to such an extent that mercantile failures are nearly twice as many as all other business failures put together.

OIL NEWS REPORTED BY THE BIG SPRING HERALD

It is stated that a deal was closed Thursday for the purchase of 4500 feet of California casing, needed to complete the Enders-Cushing well. This casing is at Mexia and is to be shipped to the Cushing ranch at once. The company's second test, the Sparkman No. 1, is now drilling below 1900 feet in a brownish lime. New interest is being taken in this territory since the big companies are being attracted to that section.

Representatives of the Fidelity Oil Company are now at Sterling City to open offices and plan for a big drilling campaign. This company has a lease on fifty thousand acres of land southwest of Sterling City and will drill four wells. Tools and machinery are expected immediately and work is to be pushed with all possible speed.

There is less carbon in that Supreme Auto Oil—get prices before buying.

WILL DRILL FOR OIL IN CROCKETT COUNTY

A. W. Little, field superintendent of the Crockett Drilling Syndicate, was here last Friday evening. Mr. Little stated that rigging and necessary equipment would be on the ground within the next few weeks, and that drilling will start immediately. He also stated that a thorough test will be made. The wells will be located on the Shannon and Massie ranches in Crockett County, 25 miles south of Big Lake. The Crockett Drilling Syndicate has large acreage in this section of the country—Big Lake News.

TOM GREEN RANCHMEN ASK 55¢ POUND FOR WOOL CLIP

SAN ANGELO, April 24.—San Angelo ranchmen have contracted for the sale of 210,000 pounds of long staple wool at 50 cents a pound. Many ranchmen, however, are holding out for 55 cents. Shearing is expected to begin soon according to ranchmen.

New Fresh GROCERIES

We have the goods. In buying Groceries it is not what you pay so much as what you get for your money. At very low prices may really be very dear. Our figures will prove a good investment. For every penny spent here secures a value that would cost two in many places.

The point to consider---come in and see, or phone:

is estimated to be as high as 95 per cent: for each hundred retailers who have embarked in this field, only five achieve permanent success. Our cities are full of little shops that do a business not much larger than that of the pushcart peddler—shops run by storekeepers who are not the pushcart man's equal as a merchant, for his business nearly always has a good balance of modest profit and overhead to healthy turnover.

Not long ago a manufacturing concern whose product is sold through one-fourth million retail merchants went over its list of dealers, cutting out those whose purchases were so small that keeping their business cost more than it was worth. It was thought that ten to fifteen thousand little shopkeepers might be dropped, but seventy thousand names had been struck off when the job was done. This company's salesman not only call upon such merchants no longer but their orders are politely refused.

The only cap that's right for rainy-day wear—"SURE-FIT"

THE ONLY cap we repeat. A strong statement, that—but consider the facts: Suppose it's blowing like all sixty. You take hold of the little strap on your "SURE-FIT", snug it in a bit as you would your belt—and that cap'll sit tight till your head blows off! Suppose you're out for some time in the rain. Any cap'll think then. You'd be damed uncomfortable in an ordinary cap. But you just ease out the strap in your "SURE-FIT" and go on smilingly.

Tight or loose, or in-between, your "SURE-FIT" always fits—comfortably, perfectly.

And, if you get one of the show-up "SURE-FIT" you'll be out of the walk as far as head-gear is concerned. The show-up "SURE-FIT" keeps the cap in shape, improves its finish, makes it last longer, and sheds showers like a duck.

See the new Fifth Avenue styles and patterns that have just come in. Fit the same as you'd pay for any stylish cap—and you get "SURE-FIT" unexcelled comfort.

IN SOCIETY AND AT THE CLUBS

Club Federation

The Sixth District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs is in session in Midland this week. Those from Colorado are Mrs. H. B. Broadus, chairman club extension; Mrs. Jim Johnson, Mrs. Tom Pritchett, Mrs. A. L. Whipkey, Mrs. Draper and Mrs. Bill Martin of Loraine. The Midland women had everything planned for the comfort of their guests and met every train with a warm welcome. Women are here from Ranger to El Paso, everyone full of optimism and enthusiasm. The first thing on the program was registering and getting acquainted. After lunch, cars were provided to carry the guests to the high school building to witness the Swedish gymnastics and health exercises given by more than six hundred pupils. This of its self was well worth the trip to see such perfect team work. Then followed a tree planting by the Sixth District Clubs. Really the splendid pecan tree had been planted over a month ago by the Midland clubs and was only dedicated at this time. Besides talks by the officers of the district and State officers, Superintendent Lacky had the high school pupils to give the American's creed and Kipling's "If" This was all done in perfect unison and showed splendid training. At six o'clock a barbecue was given at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Half. This was indeed a feast and all Midland, it seems, was there to see that all delicacies and visitors were given the true western hospitality. The musical program at the Baptist church was called off on account of the tragic death of one of Midland's prominent citizens and husband of one of the leading club women and hostess, E. R. Thomas. The other programs will be carried out tomorrow of which a report will be given next week. But suffice it to say that this is a successful meeting in every way and Colorado delegates feel they will get the 1924 meeting.

Parent-Teachers.
The Parent-Teachers Association will meet in regular session at the high school auditorium next Tuesday evening, May 1st at 7:30 o'clock. The entertainment committee assisted by the pupils and teachers have prepared a splendid program for the entertainment of the parents and all are urged to be there. It is a health program and will be instructive as well as entertaining. The music will be furnished by the high school orchestra. The program will be in the form of a pageant. Miss Saling will give the readings.
The program will be as follows:
Reading—Modern Education—Edgar Cooper.
Pied Piper of Health.
Music

Miss 1823, Miss 1923.
Domestic Art.
Vegetables, Fruits, Cereals, proteins, germ carriers, disinfectants, spirit of play, sunlight, air, calisthenics.
Folk song.
Flower drill
Prayer Song
Business period.

Baby Clinic
There will be a baby clinic held in the basement of the Methodist church Friday and Saturday. This will be under the auspices of the county Federation of Women's clubs and every mother is urged to bring her baby from six months to six years for examination. Miss Beard, state health nurse will be in charge. The local physicians have agreed to assist her. This is entirely free to all who wish to avail themselves of an opportunity to weigh, measure and examine baby.

The 1921 Study
The 1921 Study club met with Mrs. C. L. Root, Mrs. Stewart Cooper led the lesson from Antony and Cleopatra. Mrs. Pond gave a character sketch on Octavius and Mrs. Jones one on Octavia. Mrs. Pritchett read the club report to be given at Midland at the district meeting next week. The hostess served cherry ice cream, punch and cake. The meeting this week will be with Mrs. Soper.

Standard
The Standard met with Mrs. C. M. Adams. The lesson was a review of the year's work led by Mrs. Riordan. Mrs. Smoot gave an interesting paper on the Passion Play. Mrs. Blume of Ft. Worth was a guest. The meeting this week will be recreational. The club will go in a body to a matinee at the Palace Theatre and afterward to a luncheon at the Barcroft. The hostess served a two-course luncheon.

Ladies Auxiliary
The Ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. A. E. Maddin last Thursday with Mrs. Maddin and Mrs. Millwee hostess. Mrs. Riordan led the lesson on Mexico in the missionary survey and Mrs. Coleman conducted the lesson in "Sunrise in Aztec Land." There were more than twenty ladies present and the program was both interesting and instructive. Mrs. Jack Smith and Mrs. Buzzo were guests. The hostess served three kinds of cake and ice cream with cherries.

Hesperian
The Hesperian met with the honorary member, Mrs. A. E. Barcroft, with a program on Joaquin Miller led by Mrs. H. B. Broadus. The roll call was questions of the day. Mrs. Leslie gave a paper on a picturesque personality. Mrs. Barcroft read "Kit Carson's Ride." A general discussion of the western mountain scenery in American literature was held by the club. At the social hour the hostess served peach pie a la mode, grape juice and California candied fruit sent by a friend. The meeting this week will be with Mrs. W. L. Doss.

The Shakespeare
The Shakespeare met with Mrs. J. L. Doss. The study of The Tempest was conducted with Mrs. J. L. Bennett leader. The club decided to study Coriolanus and Love's Labor Lost next year. The hostess served ice cream with cherries and cake. The meeting this week will be with Mrs. Harness with a short story lesson.

Parents-Teachers.
Remember parents and friends of the Colorado public school the meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association next Tuesday, May 1, at 7:30 at the High school auditorium. We will begin promptly the business at this hour. At eight o'clock under the direction of the entertainment committee we will have a Health Play by seventy-five school children. Our plan of work committee will report on the outline of work this association hopes to accomplish for the good of our school in the near future. Hear this report if you are not a member of the parent-teacher association, become a member and assist us in doing the worth while things for our school.
How can this generation of fathers and mothers prepare the next generation to meet its grave problems? Only by coming together by gathering all the wisdom possible in order to start the boys and girls off in the right way. Let us make them feel that we expect from them greater results than we have been able to accomplish. Friends, let us cherish our public schools as the looms and our teachers as the weavers who weave the wondrous destiny for our children. Join now and become a charter member of this association.—Mrs. Jack Simth, president of the parent-teacher association.

THE FARMER'S REWARD AS PER GOVERNMENT RECORDS

From Ft. Worth Star-Telegram:
A dispatch which came over the wires from Washington Friday night contains food for thought. It reads as follows:

"A cash balance of $715 was all the average farm made available to the owner to pay his living expenses and take care of debts in 1922, the Department of Agriculture announced today, after a survey of 6,094 representative farms. Of the total farms canvassed, 14.6 per cent failed to break even, 50.8 per cent returned less than $1,000, 22.2 per cent less than $2,000, 6.8 per cent less than $3,000, and 5.6 per cent more than $3,000.

"The farms averaged $917 to the owner-operators for the use of an average of $16,400 of capital and the labor of the farmer and his family. The margin of receipts over cash outlay averaged $715 and the average increase of inventories of crops, livestock and machinery was $202. In addition, the average farm produced food and fuel consumed on the farm estimated to be worth $294.

"Results of individual farms, which made up the average of $917, ranged from a margin of $58,000 of receipts over expenses, to a deficit of $34,000. Average receipts were $1,972 and average cash outlay $1,127.

"The average value of the real estate on Jan. 1 was $13,600 and of inventory of crops, livestock and machinery, $2,800, making a total of $16,400 in capital investment. The average size of the farms was 252 acres, or somewhat larger than the average farm of the United States, as recorded in the 1920 census."

It is figures like these that have started a few economists to thinking along unusual lines, with the result that they are reaching conclusions that are not in accordance with the popular view of such things. Of course, even an annual income of $715 for a family is so much higher than similar families in most other countries and than similar families in this country only a few decades ago, that there is some gratification in the figures. But there is another side of the matter. These figures show that the farmer does not enjoy an average of prosperity enjoyed by the rest of the population. That means that, measured at its market value, the production of the farmer does not equal that of elements of the population, and an examination of the "national income" figures shows that whereas the farmers and their families constitute about one-third of the total population, their total production in a year, measured in dollars and cents, is about 26 per cent of the total production of the country. What's the cure? More production by the farmer? But it has been shown in the case of cotton and wheat that a large production means a smaller return in dollars and cents than a smaller production would mean. What's the matter? Prices? There seems no hope there. So some economists have begun to wonder if it is not a good thing that some of the farmers are moving to the city. It may be better for the efficient farmers who are remaining in the country.

Have you read "Slats Diary" this week.

"Well! Strong!"
Mrs. Anna Clover, of R. F. D. 5, Winfield, Kans., says: "I began to suffer some months ago with womanly troubles, and I was afraid I was going to get in bed. Each month I suffered with my head, back and sides—a weak, aching, nervous feeling. I began to try medicines as I knew I was getting worse. It did not seem to find the right remedy until someone told me of

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic
I used two bottles before I could see any great change, but after that it was remarkable how much better I got. I am now well and strong. I can recommend Cardui, for it certainly benefited me."
If you have been experimenting on yourself with all kinds of different remedies, better get back to good, old, reliable Cardui, the medicine for women, about which you have always heard, which has helped many thousands of others, and which should help you, too. Ask your neighbor about it; she has probably used it.

RAILROADS ASKED TO SUPPLY INFORMATION

Fifty-one of the largest railroad systems have been given until May 25 to furnish under oath responses to a questionnaire covering labor conditions in their maintenance departments and the general situation in regard to fitness of their equipment.

Each railroad was asked for data as to how the strike of shopmen had affected it, and whether any settlement had been made with the employees as a body.

were asked for information on the fight of the strike, such as proving lodging for guards and strike breakers and to give by months from July 1, 1921 to March 31, 1923, the total number of train and engine employees in their service.

DAUGHTER W. S. COOPER DIED SATURDAY AFTERNOON

On last Saturday afternoon at six o'clock the spirit of Alla B. Cooper, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cooper, passed to be with Him who said "suffer little children to come unto me," at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wade in Sweetwater.

The funeral services were held in Sweetwater and the little form brought here and laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Many are the heart beats of sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Cooper in this dark hour. But while all is dark we point them to Him who doth all things well and may they feel that "my grace is sufficient for thee."

LITTLE GIRL DIES

Little Miss Alla B., the thirteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cooper, died at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wade, 800 Bowie street, Saturday evening at 6 o'clock.

The little girl had been ill with pneumonia for the past three weeks. Services at the Wade residence Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, followed by the funeral at Colorado at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Cooper is secretary of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce and editor of the Colorado Record. He also served for a time as editor of The Sweetwater Reporter and has many friends here who are grieved, indeed, to learn of his loss.

MITCHELL COUNTY JUDGE DEMONSTRATES INITIATIVE

AUSTIN, April 23.—An interesting story of how a West Texas County Judge evaded orders of the speaker to clear the house of representatives as the special session was being called to order Monday of last week, is going the rounds of newspaper men who are here to "cover" the session.

Judge Hall, together with some two or three other gentlemen from Mitchell County, who were here on business with the State Highway Commission, visited the house of representatives just as the speaker sounded the gavel, calling the assembly to order.

The bet was a winning one. The West Texas county judge sat undisturbed, busily covering the opening ceremonies for "his paper" as other visitors were escorted from the hall. "I came up to witness the opening ceremonies of the house," Hall said afterwards in discussing the incident with a reporter who occupied a desk next to him.

WEST TEXAS CHAMBER CONVENTION BIG AFFAIR

SAN ANGELO, April 25.—Three days brimmed with carnival, music, sports, plays, recreation, business—that is the trinity of time for West Texas celebrations at the fifth annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce here May 21, 22 and 23. Ten thousand westerners—big of heart, big of mind, big of resources—are coming to make the welkin ring with their stentorian voices, their 50 brass bands; with their beautiful "queens," with everything.

The big features will be water fights between firemen teams, water contests, polo, baseball, cowboy stunts, band contests, pageants, open air dances, "medicine shows," town advertising, parades, etc., an infinitum.

The water fights will be staged on the main streets. Pressure for the fights will be obtained from a 160-foot standpipe filled to the top. Swimming contests also will be open to all. Baseball between famous teams, cowboy stunts, juggling, $120 in cash prizes, forty to fifty bands contesting for $2,000 in cash, the great All-West Texas Pageant of Progress featuring 75 town "queens" from all parts of West Texas, dancing on the streets, a big "three-mile long circus parade,"—howdy boy! All at Angelo May 21, 22 and 23.

Accommodations have been made for all who come. Those who come in automobiles will be granted free parking privileges in the tourist park on the picturesque Concho river, together with "free hand" at the finny tribe. Many are coming by this mode of travel prepared to camp out. Tents may be procured in the city. Numerous special trains are to be operated into the city for the event. A special fare of one and one-half for the roundtrip will be applicable on all railroads. The Texas & Pacific will operate a special accommodation train on the first day from Dallas to San Angelo via Sweetwater.

Ten thousand people are expected at this big Western event. The reunion of West Texans will be an event worth journeying miles to see. The business sessions will feature addresses by some of the most prominent figures in the United States. Special entertainment is to be provided for ladies. More than 3,000 are expected. Sponsors will be honor guests of the city during the entire three days.

RELICS FOUND IN CORNER STONE OF SNYDER BUILDING

This is a day of exploiting of ancient tomb excavating and many other weird and interesting things are taking place. Some exploits are made for the mere satisfying of one's curiosity while others are done in order that old debris may be removed for the erection of other and more modern buildings.

This happened the other day in Snyder when the corner stone of the old school building was excavated by T. L. McMillan, a member of the school board, and Elmer Benfey. The ground on which the old school building stood was being cleared, and in the work of leveling up and removing the ancient structure of learning the corner stone was encountered with the result that many antique specimens of other days were found.

According to historical records, the corner stone of the old Snyder High School building was laid on June 18, 1901, under the auspices of the Masonic order of Snyder, as indicated by relics found in the stone. In it was found a copy of The Dallas News of June 7, 1901; also a copy of the El Paso Times and one of the St. Louis Republic of the same date. About a dozen pieces of silver ranging from a 5c piece to 25c were found; also a few pennies, jewelry, keys and a Masonic apron; a local paper was not found in the corner stone. One might have been placed there and perhaps rotted away as the papers were in pretty bad condition from the effects of dampness that had in some way reached it. On each of the other three papers found the name of L. J. Norton, Colorado, Texas, appeared written in pencil and still legible.—Snyder Signal.

CARD OF THANKS

We express deep appreciation for the many beautiful tokens of love and sympathy extended us and our dear little daughter, Alla B., during her illness and death. The beautiful flowers furnished to her by loving friends of Colorado during the time she was ill were received by sincere appreciation by her. She often spoke of their beauty and of her love for the good friends who sent them. The many kind acts and words received by her and us from friends, both in Colorado and Sweetwater, shall never be forgotten.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cooper and family.

ROWE-DANIEL GET TWO GUSHERS IN ARKANSAS FIELD

EL DORADO, Ark., April 25.—Late reports from the field state that Rowe-Daniel Petroleum Company completed two gushers this week, one in the El Dorado field and one in section 8 at Smackover. Both wells are reported good wells and are under control. Pipe line facilities are being completed and both will soon be connected.

Two additional wells are to be drilled immediately on the Smackover tract. All preliminary arrangements have been completed. Also two additional wells will be drilled on the El Dorado tract.

At Powell, where Rowe-Daniel holds a tract approximately 1,200 feet from the Burke discovery well and about 900 feet from the new Kenner, they are preparing to start drilling at once. Additional acreage

Arrangements are about completed to start drilling in Mitchell County, on the 240 acres offsetting the Smartt well that came in some three weeks ago.

"Gusher Bill" Rowe and Chal Daniel, co-trustees of the Rowe-Daniel Petroleum Company, have had many years experience in the oil business.

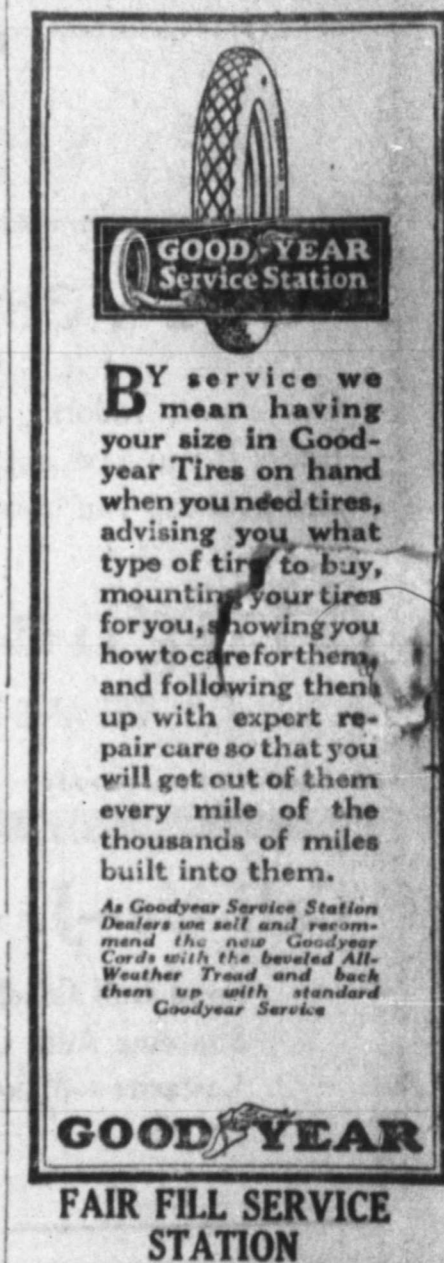

Chal Daniel drilled the LeSurre No. 1 in the Mitchell County field, just west of Westbrook, which well is now on the pump and good paying well. Both Bill Rowe and Chal Daniel are well known among oil men at Colorado and the announcement that these men will develop their tract near the Smartt well is of interest to local oil men. It is also reported here that Daniel will drill another

EXPERT GIVES INFORMATION FOR FEEDING BABY CHICKS

Miss Helen Swift, district supervisor, Extension department, A. & M. College, who was in Colorado Monday stated that according to reports of the work of the local home demonstration agent, Miss Georgia Lacewell, many citizens of Mitchell county are becoming interested in poultry and are buying and hatching baby chicks in large numbers. Miss Swift stated that the most important thing in the raising of these chicks was the proper feeding of the chicks while young. She also stated that the main point was to get the chicks to grow as fast as possible and that the feed given the young chicks had much to do with the growth and development later. For the benefit of those interested Miss Swift gave out the following relative to feeding baby chicks:

The problem of getting satisfactory feed for the baby chicks is not always an easy one to solve. Many of the local mills have two grades of cracked corn neither of which is satisfactory for chick feed, one being too coarse and the other too fine. What is ordinarily known as cracked corn or coarse chops is all right for hen feed but is entirely too coarse for baby chicks, and the fine corn chops as ordinarily ground contains so much fine meal that there is a great waste if it is fed to chicks as a scratch grain.

There is a great variety of commercial chick feeds on the market which ordinarily are composed of ingredients of about the right size but which sometimes are not safe for feeding on account of the low grade products contained and in other cases are to high priced to be economically fed.

To illustrate, one man wrote the College as follows:
The writer found himself facing the situation this spring of having 4,000 baby chicks on hand and not being able to buy satisfactory chick feed at a price he thought reasonable to pay. The local mills offered only the coarse cracked corn which the chicks could not swallow and the fine corn chops which were really coarse meal. A sack of the fine chops was tried and it was found that fully half of the feed was so fine that it was wasted in the scratch litter. After this experience a bag of commercial chick feed was purchased at the price of $2.50 per 100 pounds. This was very poor appearing feed, containing a large amount of weed seeds and foreign matter and being composed of grain that showed considerable traces of damaged condition before milling. It was felt that this feed was not safe but as no other feed was on hand and the chicks were clamoring for food they were fed twice out of the sack. The result was a considerable amount of bowel trouble and a few cases of paralysis.

After the above experience the chick feed of one of the companies which advertises their feed widely was investigated and although the feed was clean and wholesome in appearance it seemed to be composed principally of corn and kafir and the price of $3 per 100 made it too expensive to feed on a large scale. When these conditions came to light there appeared to be but one thing to do and that was to make a home mixed starting feed for the baby chicks. A considerable quantity of steel cut oats had been secured before the chicks arrived and it was decided to mix the oats and home ground corn chops to make the chick scratch feed. Accordingly the home feed grinder was put in operation and adjusted so that it ground shelled corn so that the pieces were about half the size of a grain of kafir. The ground corn was run over a section of screen door and all the meal that went through was mixed with the mash while the part that ran over the screen was mixed at the rate of 300 pounds of corn chops with 100 pounds of steel cut oats to make a chick scratch feed which is very much relished by the chicks and which is promoting a very satisfactory rate of growth. The shelled corn cost $1.33 per 100 pounds and the steel cut oats cost $3.75 per 100 so that aside from the time required to grind and mix this feed a 400-pound lot cost $7.75 or at the rate of a little less than $2 per 100. There are no better feeds for chicks than those containing corn and oat products and this home mixture is probably equal or superior to the best commercial chick feeds and we have the satisfaction of knowing that it contains nothing except clean wholesome grain.

In using this home mixed scratch feed the chicks are started on rolled oats crumbled up fine and fed dry for the first week. Along with light feedings of the rolled oats the chicks are given all the milk they can drink until they are large enough to eat mash.

After the first week the mixture of three parts cracked corn and one part steel cut oats gradually replaces the rolled oats and the amount fed is gradually increased until the end of ten days the chicks are receiving all the scratch grain they will clean up three times each day. As the amount of milk is somewhat limited on this particular farm a home mixed mash containing dried buttermilk is being used to good advantage. The chicks are given the fresh milk until they are a week old and then the fresh milk is gradually left off and the buttermilk mash is introduced. Dried buttermilk is an expensive product but where the chicks cannot be given liberal quantities of fresh milk it probably is a good plan to mix some dried buttermilk in the mash. Most of the commercial chick starters contain dried buttermilk and experienced chick raisers recommended that the dried milk be used when fresh is not available.

We bought the dried buttermilk direct from a creamery at a cost of $10 per 100 pounds. In mixing our chick mash we mixed 100 pounds bran, 100 pounds shorts, 100 pounds oats, ground, 100 pounds corn meal, 100 pounds high grade digester tankage, and 50 pounds of dried buttermilk. This mixture makes a mash which the chicks go literally wild about and which is giving remarkable success in promoting growth. This mash costs us approximately $3 per 100 pounds which is very much less than good brands of commercial buttermilk chick starter can be bought for and we have the advantage of knowing that our mash contains approximately 10 per cent of dried buttermilk and 20 per cent of high grade tankage. One chick fed on this mash in combination with the home mixed scratch feed described above weighed a full half pound three weeks after it was hatched.

On farms where kafir, fetterita or milo are available these grains can be used to good advantage in making up home mixed feeds for baby chicks. Where the chicks are started on rolled oats and are fed that for a week or ten days the chicks can be gradually worked off onto a scratch ration composed principally of one of the kafir grains if nothing better can be secured. While it is desirable that kafir should be cracked until the chickens are three or four weeks old it is possible for chicks to eat the whole kafir after they are from seven to 10 days old.

Any of the following mashes can be easily mixed and will give excellent results when fed in unlimited quantities to growing chicks:
Mash No. 1—100 pounds wheat bran, 100 pounds shorts, 100 pounds oat flour, 100 pounds corn flour, 100 pounds corn meal, 100 pounds high grade tankage.
Mash No. 2—200 pounds wheat bran, 100 pounds wheat shorts, 100 pounds corn meal, 100 pounds high grade tankage.
Mash No. 3—200 pounds wheat bran, 200 pounds wheat shorts, 100 pounds high grade tankage.

WITH THE CHURCHES

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Our services Sunday were well attended and the addresses made by the laymen concerning the life and character of the late J. W. Burkhardt were very good. Our services will be at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Sunday. All the C. E. Societies will have important meetings at their usual hours. We are always glad to see visitors in our church.

D. R. HARDISON.

THE MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

There was more interest Sunday than at any former meeting of the men at the Palace Theatre. A great class of men gather here at 9:45 for lecture and then the men "fire" questions for fifteen minutes. The program will have additional attraction Sunday in the way of a Men's Quartette. Come and you will find pep, enthusiasm and interest.

D. R. HARDISON.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Reverend F. B. Eteson, priest in charge.

Church school every Sunday at 9:45 a. m. J. B. Reese, Supt.

Rev. Eteson will be in Big Spring April 29, but morning prayer will be read by T. R. Smith, lay leader, at All Saints' at 11 a. m. Mr. Smith will read morning prayer on the Sunday's Reverend Eteson is away, so services will be held every Sunday at 11 a. m. Reverend Eteson's appointments will revert to former order during month of May as follows:

Colorado—First and Third Sundays in each month. Big Spring—Second and Fourth Sundays in each month. The fifth Sundays (if any) are not assigned.

The Guild and Auxiliary will meet in business session. Thursday, May 3, at the church at 4 p. m. The auxiliary will meet the second and third Thursdays in month, at the church. The last Thursday is reserved for silver offering teas.

SUNDAY WITH THE BAPTISTS

The meeting has come and gone but we were delighted with it all the way through. The attendance was fine. The spirit was good. In all we feel this was the best meeting for the church we have had.

The interest on the part of the town was good. The three special services were all we could wish for. Every body enjoyed the singing and the fine orchestra. We feel the singer was all we could wish for. We appreciate the many kind things said about the services also the nice things done for the pastor and his family during the meeting. We hope the interest will continue and we will have a great crowd at both S. S. and preaching services next Sunday. We are glad to know the men of the town are attending S. S. at the Palace Theatre Sunday morning. That is fine and is as it should be. If the room gets scarce there and overflows we have plenty of room in a men's Bible Class with a real, sure, enough Bible teacher in a separate room in our church. We would invite you to join us in such event.

Here's hoping to meet you next Sunday at the regular services.

M. C. BISHOP.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., J. M. Thomas, superintendent. Classes for all ages. The pastor was at Coahoma last Sunday. We had a great day

Four united with our church on their confession of faith in Christ. Their will be no preaching services next Sunday. The pastor will be at Big Spring assisting in installing Rev. Mr. Sheppard as pastor over that church.

Sunday school at Horns school house at 3:30 every Sunday afternoon. Jerold Riordan superintendent.

W. M. ELLIOTT

METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Everybody on time with lesson prepared. We are trying for 225. We just lack a few having this number. We can have it next Sunday and more if all will come.

Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Everybody invited. Let us see how many of our Sunday school pupils will stay for the preaching services next Sunday.

Sunday is to be Centenary day in our church. When this drive was put on in the church five years ago this church did not make a subscription running through the five years. At that time there was a great drought on in this country and no one can blame the church for not subscribing for it looked then like the whole country would dry up and be blown away. But since then there has been several good crops made and sold for good prices and we are now having such prospects as the country has perhaps never seen. We can now do the right thing and pay what we are asked to pay in on this. About two dollars per member would get the amount we are asked to pay and our people could pay that next Sunday morning before breakfast if we had the interest at heart and were amid to do it.

The Epworth League 6:30 p. m. Prayer services Wednesday 7:45 p. m.

Would be glad to see you Sunday at one or all our services.

J. P. LAWLIS, Pastor.

SAYS OUTLOOK IN COTTON STATES IS NOT ENCOURAGING

FLORENCE, S. C., April 24.—Taking issue with conclusions of the recent report by the Department of Agriculture that the indicated cotton acreage was 12 per cent greater than last year, Senator Smith of South Carolina declared in a statement here today that in the Carolinas and Georgia at least the outlook for the cotton crop was the poorest in years. Unfavorable weather, the migration of tenant farmers from the 1920-21 prices were the causes given by Senator Smith.

"Whatever may have been the intent of the Department, the result was at least temporarily disastrous to the price of cotton," the South Carolina Senator said. "I do not know the sources of information of the Department or those who made the statement but I do know that

Studebaker

The well-built car and the poorly constructed car look very much alike on the salesroom floor. Paint and varnish can cover a multitude of weaknesses in closed car construction.

But you can't ride on the paint. In a Studebaker Sedan the quality is built into the job. The body will not begin to rattle or squeak after thousands of miles of hard usage.

It will continue to be comfortable and easy riding and will present a fine appearance month after month as when new.

There are closed cars that do not include heaters. Yet, you cannot be comfortable unless you are warm. Every Studebaker Sedan is completely equipped including a heater.

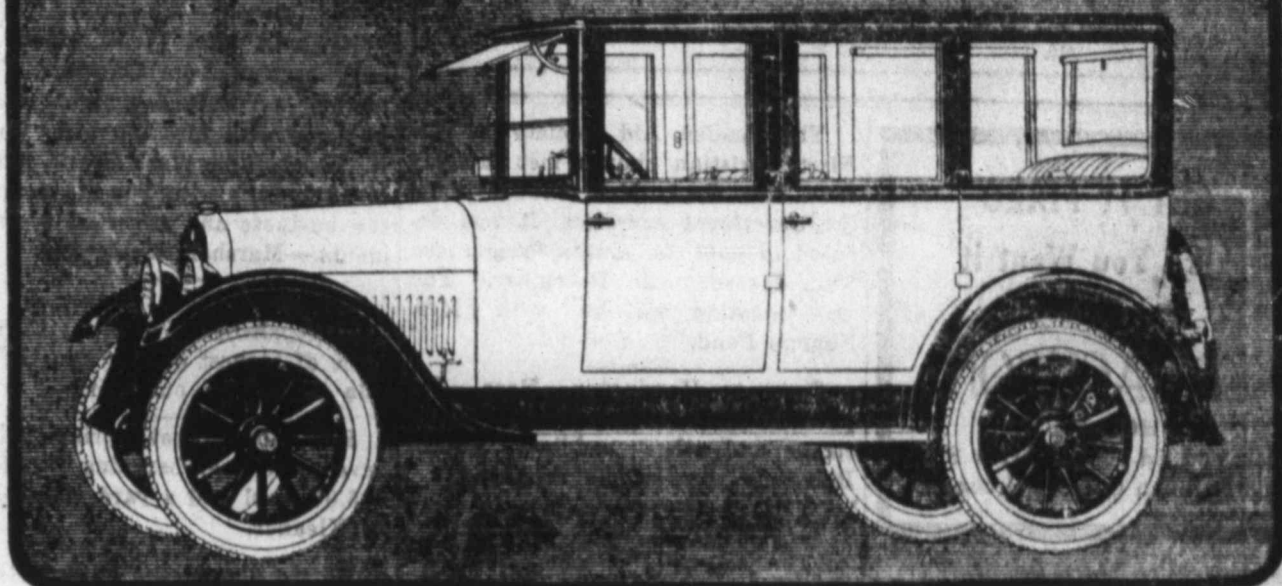

Studebaker's quantity production of cars of quality is responsible for the low price of this Sedan.

THREE BIG WESTERNS AT THE BEST THEATRE

The Best Theatre announced this week that it has engaged three special western plays to be given on three consecutive days. The first is on Friday night featuring Tom Mix and "Tony." Tom's favorite horse in "Just Tony." Saturday night "Shorty" Hamilton the comedy man of western plays will be on the screen in "The Man Getter." On Monday night a Universal picture will be presented featuring Frank Mayo, a famous horseman, in "Wolf Law," a story of the old west.

FIFTH SUNDAY SINGING

There will be all-day singing and dinner on the ground Sunday, April 29th at Plainview, better known as Franklin church, four miles south of Sterling City road. All singers urged to be present and the public generally invited.

The Quartet representing the Central Music Company of Temple, Texas, will furnish some special music for the occasion. Come one, come all, be sure to bring a well filled basket.

IN BAD COMPANY

APRIL RAINFALL TOTALS 3.59 INCHES TO THURSDAY

E. Keathley, local weather observer, reported Thursday that a total of 3.59 inches of rain had been registered at the Colorado bureau during the month of April. The rain Tuesday night and Wednesday totaled 1.35 inches. The rain this week was general over West Texas and was very heavy northwest of Colorado, causing the river to come down with the largest rise since April 26th, last year. Rainfall during April of last year was over twelve inches, the heaviest during the past nineteen years. Some damage is reported to the roads and bridges of the county from washouts. A large number of farmers also report damage to their land from washouts and overflows. In most instances, especially in the sandy land belts, where crops had been planted the farmers will have to plant over.

Texas & Pacific trains were running behind schedule Tuesday night and Wednesday morning. Trains from the west were delayed on account of a bridge going out at Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Moody and baby arrived from Colorado, Texas, in their car Saturday night, and are at home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Welch, 308 West Grand avenue. Mr. Moody is with The Messenger in the business and advertising departments.—Marshall Messenger.
