But there is one motion picture in which he is interested, and that is "America" the big romantic film made by D. W. Griffith of the American Revolution, which comes to the Best Theatre beginning Oct. 27 for three days.

White House relate that not only did President Coolidge confer with Griffith about the making of "America" but that the austere and silent Chief Executive asked the producer for a number of still pictures of scenes from "America," to show the home folks up in Vermont. Which betokens an unprecedented enthusiasm on the part of the President where motion pictures are concerned.

When one learns, however, that 'America" was filmed under the guidance of a special corps of research expents and historians, including representatives of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Sons of the American Revolution, The Lexington Historical Society, and similar organizations; that Secretary of War Weeks assisted by turning over various regular army units, who appear in costume in the massive battle scenes; and that Griffith used historic houses, actual battle grounds and the shrines of American liberty for the scenes, descendants of the leading families of Revolutionary Days as extra people, and drums, pistols, flintlocks, and even uniforms which saw service in the War of Independence as property the interest of even the President becomes understandable.

And even had the subject and the unusual manner of making the film failed to make the average citizen enthusiastic, the fact that Griffith has broken all precedents by extending to every man, woman and child news. "I know who she is; she's the an invitation to come and see the more massive scenes made, would give the general public a more personal interest in "America" than in any film production ever made in this country.

A Spirit of" 50-50"

Increasing numbers of people are showing a cheerful willingness to co-operate with telephone service. When they understand the problems they want to meet the relephone company half way.

It is not sympathy that inspires this "50-50" spirit-nor charity. Such people realize that their own personal interests and welfare are best served by such spirit.

We are always trying to better our service; meantime impressing the users of our service with the importance of their co-operation in insuring its continuous improvement.

This industry daily invites understanding and friendship by providing ample reasons for both.

IN HOTEL AT SWEETWATER

Zona Kimbro (23 daughter of Mr. Mrs. John Kimbro of Thurber, returning with her parents from El Paso where she was to have been married Friday, died in her room at a Sweetwater hotel Sunday morning. A bottle that had contained carbolic acid was found in the room. Another acid filled bottle was near by.

Miss Kimbro and her parents stopped off at Sweetwater Saturday night. Mrs. Kimbro and her daughter had been in El Paso nearly two weeks and Kimbro and the prospective groom were to meet them there Friday. Miss Kimbro's fiance, failed to appear, it is said.

Mr. and Mrs. Kimbro left the hotel to get breakfast Sunday morning. The daughter did not go with them. Shortly after they departed, she asked a maid at the hotel for a pencil. With it she wrote a note asking the forgiveness of her parents and stating that "this is the best way." The clothes in which she wished her body dressed were laid out by her side.

Mrs. Kimbro stated that her daughter was nervous, and asked her to sleep with her Saturday night. Kimbro occupied the room adjoining them When he returned from breakfast, he found the young woman's body on the bed, and the empty acid bottle on the floor. The poison had been purchased in El Paso.

The body was taken to Thurber, accompanied by the parents, Sunday night. Kimbro has lived in Erath County 52 years, and in Thurber for 13 years. He is in charge of a machine shop there.

VOTE FOR MRS. FERGUSON.

The Bible is very strong on everyone keeping their vows, pledges and agreements. And it is the duty of everyone who voted in the primary to vote for Mrs. M. A. Ferguson for governor on November 4th. Every preacher, klansman, man or woman, white or black, knew there was a chance for Mrs. Ferguson to be nominated. They took the pledge to support the nominee and we are in honor bound to do so. It is a shame and dishonorable to take a pledge and you not carry out your part of it. And of course makes a farce and a fraud out of a primary. You know nothing more against Mrs. Ferguson or her husband now than you knew before and can have no excuse.

Now, quite yourselves like men and support the nominee. She has

Mr. C. W. Cook, the only son, Mrs. C. W. Cook and daughter, Betty Jane, reside here also. Mr. Cook is associated with his father in the hardware and furniture business.

Two daughters, Mrs. J. A. Forbess and son Frank Henry of El Paso and Mrs. E. R. Marble and son Earl, Jr. of Hayden, Arizona, have been at home on a visit for the past month. Friday evening the remaining members arrived to complete the family circle. They were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morton and sons, Billy and Clarence of Desdemonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair Ligon and daughter Joan of Breckenridge. The family took their places about the elegantly decorated table Saturday evening at the reunion dinner numbering seventeen in all, contrasting remarkably with the original eight.

The Cook family holds reunions together again at Christmas time im-1925. Few families of this size are fortunate enough to keep the circle unbroken and their reunion is truly a very joyous occasion.

Missionary Meeting.

The Baptist women met at the church Monday for the regular missionary program. Mrs. Keathley and Mrs. R. O. Pearson led the lesson. The Bible study was consecration of wealth. The topic for mission study was, The Lady of the Kimona. Mrs. is the secret of time, happiness in the use of wealth, Mrs. A. L. White gave a paper on what Christianity ed to $7.05 and a love gift for one with sickness in her family amounted to $20.35. Mrs. George Slaton and Mrs. M. C. Ratliff were hostess and served punch and little cakes.

U. D. C. Meeting

The U. D. C. chapter met with Mrs. J. G. Merritt Tuesday. Besides the usual business plans were made for a tea at Mrs. R. N. Gary's Wednesday from three to five o'clock for the purpose of securing funds to send the delegate to the State convention delegates. Mrs. C. C. Thompson will go as page to the State president. The following officers were elected: Mrs. R. N. Gary, president; Mrs. Gustine. first vice president; Mrs. J. B. Reese, second vice president; Mrs. M. Carter, third vice president; Mrs. Earnest Pritchett, recording secretary; Mrs. Tom Hughes, treasurer; Mrs. Jeff Mrs. Jeff Dobbs were appointed difederacy. Mrs. Merritt, Mrs. Blanks ber either of these ladies will receive the application blank. Mrs. C. pointed the visiting committee The hosesss and her daughter served a salad course, cake and coffee. PRESERVE THE WEEKLY.

Bellveue News: We appeal to the people of Bellevue to take their home weekly as the first best bet, and, if they want to keep in closer touch with the Nation through market reports and other telegraphic news, next consider the daily publication. The greatest newspaper men in the history of this State have been those who have edited weekly publications at one time or another. They have been pioneers in the newspaper field, and in this day and age, when people are looking for bigger things, they must not overlook the brilliancy of the writers of today who give their message weekly to the reading public. Those who are considering giving up a weekly and subscribing for a daily should weigh very carefully their decision in this matter, for once the home community publication is eliminated through lack of support, it will be a serious loss to that locality. In smaller places, where two or more weekly publications exist, there should be a merging, however, with a view of giving the people the very best weekly edition possible. Subscribe for the News now. The Dallas Morning News is a paper that is read country-wide and yet we do not hesitate to say that the weeklies in this county fill a place that the daily can not. People take the daily because it gives them markets and the activities of the Nation daily; but there is always lacking those close-up personal relations that are a part of the community life in the smaller cities and part of the villages. Then again, what would the great State of Texas be if we were to eliminate the scores of excellent weeklies that are playing a major part in molding public opinion? Each locality has its own problems to solve, and the daily publication, not being in close touch or understanding the issue, is utterly at sea in trying to take the place of the weekly. With all the arguments that are advanced in favor of a daily newspaper still we contend that the weekly publications, not only in Texas, but thruout the ocnutry, are deserving of the whole-hearted support of the public. We can not forget the fact that, years ago, the weekly was the pioneer, and out of that has grown the great daily of today. Many near-sighted writers feel that with the dailies covering the field there is little need of the weekly. This is a narrow view, to say the

The Dallas News will subscribe to all the Bellevue News says in the above reprint. This News does not compete, or wish to compete, with any weekly paper. The notice is to be made by publication and they will be given a reasonable time in which to remove them; and that if such sign boards were not removed by their owners, then the agent of the Highway Department in charge of the maintenance of the Reeves County highways is authorized to remove them.

RECENT ROBBERIES.

Robbers visited Snyder and Fluvanna Sunday night. The safe at the R. S. & P. depot was robbed of $8.05 and several dollars worth of merchandise taken from the McCord Company, wholesale grocers. It is said the robbers were traced at Fluyanna to a thicket where they had evidently parked their car. A certain mark on the tread of one of the tires enabled officers to track the car to the thicket but no further clue was obtained.

NOVEMBER ELECTION BALLOT CONTAINS 4 VOTING COLUMNS

The official election ballot to be fices. Three of the columns, however, The first eleven prizes went to will carry the printed names of canday afternoon a short distance south West Texas counties, indicating that didates for presidential and vice presof Palava, when the negro, reported West Texas is leading and all others idential electors, the Independent Progressive party having named candidates for electors as well as the Democratic and Republican parties.

The Democratic column will be first on the ballot, the column for Republican voters second and the column for Independent Progressives third. The fourth column will carry no party heading and as in case of the Independent Progressive column, will have blank spaces under the titles of the various offices in which the names of candidates may be written as desired by the individual voter.

Due to the fact that only three parties will be represented on the ballot, the official voting sheets will be narrower this year than is generally the case, though they will correspond in width to the official ballot of two years ago, which had only four columns-Democratic, Republican, Independent and blank column.

Secretary of State J. J. Strickland certified on October 1 the names of candiates for State and such district offices as are rquired by law to the County Clerk of Mitchell county for the preparation of the official ballot, Under the law the Secretary of State is required to make certification not less than thirty days preceding the election. YOUTH MAKES EFFORT TO WRECK TEXAS-PACIFIC TRAIN

A 15-year old Taylor county lad was this week adjudged a juvenile, and was given a 5-year sentence to the State Reform school.

The boy, like many others, was looking for excitement, but he selected the wrong kind, and as the result he must suffer the humiliation of being a prisoner. On September 22, the Sunshine Special crashed into a 30inch steel bar which was laying across the track just east of the Trent depot Three hundred yards west another pile of ties were found on the track, and had they been struck before the steel bar, no doubt there would have been a different story.

The train was running almost 50 miles an hour when it struck the bar, a part of a steel rail, and members of the train are at a loss to know how wreck was averted. It appears, however, that when the wheel struck the bar that it began sliding and continued to move down the rail until the train was topped. A streak of fire ten feet long followed in its wake.

Officers were notified and several days later arrested a boy who entered a plea of guilty. When asked why he did it he said that he "just wanted to see what it would do."

After his sentence he was remanded back to his parents on good behavior .-- Abilene Times.

A MAJOR PROBLEM.

There were 22,621 highway fatilities in the United States in 1923, the rate rising to 20.4 per 100,000 population, which was an increase of 3 over 1922. Death chargeable solely to automobile accidents numbered 16,452, a jump of 2,766 over the previous year. In addition, the 4,274 accidents charged to trains and street cars at grade crossings were those in which automobiles figured also, These statistics deal merely with fatilities; the number of injured, many times the number of killed, as result of the operation of automobiles, is not reported.

The automobile accident problem is one of the most serious that faces American public policy. Moreover, it is becoming more serious every day. More automobiles are being put in operation, and strangely enough, there are more people to supply victims. In the face of such a record, no safeguard that the best thought can devise should be regarded as too stringent.-Ft. Worth Star-Telegram

SERVICE OF RED CROSS

Additional 50,000 Water Safety Experts Probable Gain of Summer Campaign.

A boy watched an expert give a mersion. The next day the boy tried it on a bathing companion and saved his life. Such a boy justifies all the effort and the cost of the Life-Saving Service, American Red Cross officials declare. The Red Cross method of restoring partly drowned persons is so simple that the continual large sacrifice of life must decrease as an informed public insists upon general into induce respiration.

The Red Cross Life-Saving Service in every part of the country, summer and winter, is engaged in teaching this method as an integral part of vice has grown from a single expert in 1914 to a corps of almost 50,000 active life-savers. In this tenth year of the work it is predicted that fully the campaign among 22,000 troops of Boy Scouts under a plan to qualify at least two life-guards in each troop.

During the past year 4.746 men, 3,374 women, 9,731 boys and girls successfully passed the rigid tests of the Red Cross-an increase of 5,331 over 1923. Intensive instruction is developing hundreds of qualified examiners for the Red Cross Life-Saving Corps, who supplement the teaching staff maintained by the national organization. The cause of water safety is therefore penetrating to new sections and eventually will cover all American territory

Recognition of this Red Cross service for humanity is growing apace. At the request of the War Department every military training camp had lifesaving instruction last summer. Municipalities have adopted the Red Cross course, public and private schools are offering it to students, business, civic and athletic organizations are promoting campaigns, and police departments are making it a part of the conditioning process for their recruits.

Volunteer life-savers throughout the country, the American Red Cross reports, are eagerly advancing the cause of water safety, 388 volunteers receiving medals for giving from 200 to 300 hours' service in two or three years. In addition 36 rescue bars to medals were awarded members of the Red Cross Corps who saved one or more lives during the year.

It is for the work and extension of life-saving that continued support through memberships is sought, and the American Red Cross urges all persons to join or renew membership during the enrollment campaign opening Armistice Day, November 11.

Red Cross Invites All Into Neutral Army of Service

There are 3,089 countles in the United States and more than 2,500 Chapters of the American Red Cross. The Chapter is the local unit of the national organization, formed to carry out the program, services and policies of the Red Cross. The industry of these $,500 local units is a voluntary and steady outpouring of well-doing and sympathy which softens human suffering and distress wherever it arises This work is absolutely neutral, for the Red Cross knows no race, no creed, no color. The strength of the American Red Cross being in its Chapters, the organization annually invites the people to join or renew their membership during a Roll Call which always begins on Armistice Day, November 11.

"It is this annual enlistment of millions of Americans under the banner of the American Red Cross which makes possible the continued work of this great and democratic legion of mercy," says Judge John Barton Payne, head of the national organization. "Membership in the Red Cross is a privilege within the reach of everyone. The need for service grows more insistent each year. To keep pace with the demands which come from every section of our country. we must have the people's loyal support. Our capacity for service in the year to come will be limited only by the extent to which we receive support for our work in the coming Roll

The invitation of the American Red Cross is unlimited. The enrollment period, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving, is everyone's opportunity to join.

Annual Summons to Service The annual nation-wide Roll Call of the American Red Cross to enroll members for 1925 will open on Nov. 11, the anniversary of that tense and never-to-be-forgoten Armistice Day six years ago, which silenced the crashing arms of the World War. The enrollment will continue for 17 days, through Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27. Preliminary to the Roll Call period will come Red Cross Sunday, Nov. 3. During the 17 days set aside for the enrollment more than 3,500 Chapters of the Red Cross and their thousands of branches will invite the people to join the Red Cross or renew their
