

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL CONTINUE SUPPORT TO BAND

That the Colorado Chamber of Commerce continues to appreciate the band, was again demonstrated Thursday night at the January executive session when an appropriation was passed to finance purchase of a new instrument costing $325.00. J. H. Greene, chairman of the band and public entertainment division of the chamber of commerce, and T. W. Stonerod, chairman of the financial department, have always sponsored the band and this policy is endorsed by every official and director of the chamber of commerce. M. S. Goldman, director of the band stated Saturday that the band personnel was purchasing a new instrument, making two new horns to be added.

The band will be in better condition than ever before when it goes to Amarillo as the official band of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Goldman stated.

"THE KEEPER OF THE BEES" COMING IN BENEFIT BILL

Gene Stratton Porter's great novel, "The Keeper of the Bees," recently published in McCall's and considered by American critics as one of the best contributions to American fiction during the present age, has recently been dramatized for the screen and is to appear at the Palace Wednesday and Thursday of next week as the headliner in a two day benefit bill for the Parent-Teacher Association.

Former screen plays arranged from the literature contributions of this writer have been shown at Colorado theatres with great success. The Colorado theatre going public is assured a fine program and at the same time an opportunity of contributing to a meritorious program.

The Parent-Teacher Association, after having purchased the school athletic park, placed more than $1,000 in play ground equipment on the school grounds, have as their latest undertaking the financing of the typewriting department in the Colorado schools. Proceeds from the showing of "The Keeper of the Bees" will be applied to this fund.

HOTELS

All will admit that Ballinger is greatly in need of better hotel accommodations, and all will agree that some plan should be adopted for solving the hotel problem. Our sister city, San Angelo, has subscribed liberally both to stock and bonus propositions in providing good hotels for that city. Ballinger must do likewise before this city can offer hotel facilities which will attract travelers.—Ballinger Ledger.

Providing of adequate hotel facilities is something that no town can overlook. In fact, it is a very necessary requisite in the building of a city, and all towns are seeking to become cities and all cities are seeking to become larger cities. That is characteristic of America; growth, growth in every way; growth in the individual growth in cities. Some cities of Texas are very fortunate in that they have looked to the hotel question and are able on account of the fact that they have adequate hotel facilities to get much good advertising there from. West Texas could profit greatly by looking to the hotel question. There are few if any cities in West Texas which have adequate hotel facilities, although improvement in the situation is being made rapidly. Ballinger will solve the hotel problem just as other cities in West Texas are solving the same problem.

We had 184 present in our S. S. the house was crowded at the preaching service. The leaguers broadcasted their program. While it was not the success that we hoped, yet it was by no means a failure. The quartet by the young men at the evening service was excellent. God bless them, their hearts are in the work of the church. Come and be with us next Sunday. We want to have 200 at S. S. and a large crowd at church. The pastor will preach at the morning hour from the subject the life of Abel. At the evening hour the subject will be, The Scarlet Thread. Come and be with us.

General excitement aroused Loraine citizens Sunday evening when word came from the M. L. Adrian farm south of town and 12 miles from Silver, that Roy Baird, Jr., age 5, was lost on Silver Creek. Messrs. W. W. Rowland, Roy Baird, and Irl Zellner with their families composed a Loraine party Sunday afternoon motoring to Silver Creek, where they went for a few hours outing and camp supper. While the men were preparing supper for the ladies who were together at some little distance on the river from the camp, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Baird, who was with the men, became lost in trying to find his way through the thicket of brush to the women. After about an hour search for him by the party word was phoned into town and many left here to assist. Searching parties from the Spade Ranch and Colorado were also on their way to the river, when at sunset the child, who had been lost nearly three hours, was found in a mile or so of the camp.

Seven Wells Notes

The rain Friday and Saturday was gladly accepted. And we are looking for another good one.

Mr. U. D. Wuljen has gone to Ft. Worth with a car of cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wallace left Saturday for their home at Midland. We surely regret to give those good people up. But we feel sure that while we have lost a fine neighbor, that Midland has gained one. That they will long be proud of.

Quite a few from our community attended the party at Mr. W. P. Bassham's last Thursday night. Everybody and their best pal were there, and all report a wonderful time.

Little Vista Wuljen was on sick list Tuesday, but we are hoping to see her at school again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bassham from McAdoo, have moved here this week and will make their home.

We failed to state last week that Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Reese have a wonderful young man stopping with them. We didn't learn what his business is but any way, he has come to stay. He is three weeks old.

The farmers are very busy preparing their land for another record breaker crop. We never get discouraged in this community. What part the army worms and grasshoppers leave we can always find a real use for, and feel good after all.

Grandpa Wallace has gone to Bonham on business. He will return in about a month.

Mrs. Eva Dillon from Sweetwater is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler.

UNION ITEMS

No special news only times generally seem to be on the upgrade except lots of our people are losing quite a little meat during the cold weather in the past and at present.

This bit of news demands an explanation so here it goes, they lost by not having any hogs to kill. Wake up and take notice and don't be caught in the same trap next season. Ever remembering that the independent man is the one who has his smoke house and feed bin on his own premises. Suppose we farmers write as a motto upon our door post. "More feed less cotton supplemented with more hogs more cows, more chickens and etc." This is not intended as paper farming or newspaper gossip, but I term it logical talk. Some in our community have some cotton to gather yet, but hauling and stacking feed is the general order of the day.

Some one solve this problem, once in time two great men were conversing, one says "Where there is liberty there my home is." The other answered "Where there is no liberty, there is my home." Some one please harmonize the two sayings and put it in print. Oh, Mr. Editor, I like to forget to tell you, but please don't say much about it. Some few in our section have actually commenced turning the soil preparatory to making another bumper crop.

Workers Conference

The Baptist Workers conference of the Mitchell-Scurry association met at Westbrook Tuesday. In spite of the cold drizzle quite a crowd gathered. In the absence of the Moderator, Rev. G. W. Parks, Rev. M. C. Bishop presided. After a devotional exercise in which all joined Brother Bishop talked on Religious Literature in a way that set folks to thinking of the mental food in the home. B. L. Hargrove teacher, preacher, preached in "Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead." At the noon hour the good women served a lunch at which all proved to be workers, all had to work to get even a taste of the many good things prepared for their guests. In looking over the table one wondered how so many nice things could be prepared by so few hands. Truly it was a bounteous feast. The afternoon was devoted to the women's program and round table discussions, the 1926 budget plan, how to put it in the entire association and other topics.

The president of the Colorado W. M. S. conducted the program at the women's hour.

The regular week of prayer for Foreign Missions was used. The work of China was given by Miss Coral Bishop in a very interesting way. Having been in school with quite a number of the active workers there, she made it very real in her talk. Mrs. A. L. Whipkey told us of the life of Miss Lottie Moon a Georgia young lady who in her young womanhood gave her life for service in China and who each year the women of the Southland remember by making a freewill offering for the country she loved and served.

The next meeting will be February 2nd at Ira.

Brother Summers and his good people received the thanks of all present for the good day. Several were there from Snyder and other places. Those from Colorado were Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Bishop, Rev. Holcomb, Mesdames Keathley, McComb, B. F. Wilson, Lee Jones, A. L. White, C. E. Way, A. L. Whipkey and Miss Coral Bishop.

Granite dippers for 10c at McMurry's Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gay are moving to Big Spring this week. Mr. Gay has a 6 month contract to furnish both the Big Spring and Westbrook meat markets with beef, hence his time will be divided between the two places. He is sorry to lose them from our little town but hope they will be contented in their new home.

Miss Dollie Elliott and Mr. Parker Jarman stole a march on their friends a few days ago by slipping off to Colorado where they were united in marriage. Their many friends wish for them a life filled with pleasure and service.

Upon the suggestion of Mrs. Jack Crossley a plan has been worked out by the two Missionary Societies whereby we may become acquainted with all the new people who are continually coming to our town and give them a hearty welcome. The two societies will meet at the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon where we will be divided into groups, each group to go in different directions in until all the strangers in our midst have been called upon. This is a duty that every town owes the stranger and perhaps we have been somewhat careless along this line yet there have been so many within the last few months that it has been most impossible to get around to them all.

A deal was made last week whereby Mr. Hazlewood became owner of the Methodist parsonage and has already moved his family into it.

Committees have been appointed for the purpose of building a new parsonage near the Methodist church. The committees are on the job and we hope to have the building complete within the next few weeks.

Mrs. Chester Bullard and children have returned from a two weeks visit to relatives in Breckenridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Garber of Colorado attended services at the Methodist church Sunday night.

The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Fleming was taken seriously ill last Saturday and was taken to Big Spring, where she is under the care of Dr. Hall and Barney. We are glad to say that her condition is reported much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crossby and children attended church at Colorado Sunday.

A miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mrs. Holders Friday night honoring Mrs. Dollie Jarman nee Elliott. The gifts which were all arranged on the dining table and at the proper time were presented to the honoree, who unwrapped them and passed them around for the guests to see. Refreshments of chocolate fudge was served.

Westbrook saw the first snow of the season last Thursday when the ground was partially covered. The moisture will be of service to the farmers who are beginning to break their land, however we did not get as much as we needed.

Mr. Abb Oglesby came out Sunday night with his head and nose all covered with bandages. When asked what the trouble was he pointed to the young lady by his side and said, "Ask her." The order in Miss Ingraham's room this week has been unusually good. No wonder.

Mrs. Ollie Bird is leaving for Mineral Wells Wednesday of this week, where she will spend several weeks visiting relatives. While there she will take the baths for the benefit of her health which has not been good the last few months.

LUBBOCK MEN FORCED TO GIVE AUTOMOBILE TO CONVICTS

Lubbock, Texas.—Clarence Emms, of the Plains Motor company, and Joe Slotta, of Lubbock, returned to their home here late yesterday after a business trip to Houston.

The trip was made by automobile and Friday morning at 11:00 o'clock when the men were en route home they were held up by two escaped convicts six miles south of Sugarland, who relieved them of their automobile, overcoats and hats, and a six shooter, which was taken from Mr. Emms's suit case.

The Lubbock men met the escaped convicts who were riding horseback, and as their car was making slow speed due to the heavy mud, one of the convicts succeeded in leveling a sawed-off double-barrel shot gun on them before they knew what was happening.

"That was the biggest gun I ever saw," Emms told a member of the Avalanche force last night. "I could have walked upright through the barrel of it, at least it looked that big as just as it was placed on level with my head the convict cocked both hammers and declared he meant business. Needless to say I didn't argue it with them, in fact I never was so glad to give up an automobile," Emms continued.

The convict compelled the two Lubbock men to get astride the horse they were riding and go in an opposite direction and assured them that if they made any attempt to look back the shot-guns would be used.

According to the two men that was the slowest horse in Texas, and in fact they were so restless at the speed they were making that they abandoned the nag to trust to their own feet for speed.

Going to the convict farm from where the men had escaped, Emms and Slotta found that guards were in pursuit, and they waited at the convict farm to await outcome of the chase. Early that afternoon they found that their car had been taken by officers along with the two convicts and they were dinner guests of the Ranger Captain who directed the search for the escaped convicts.

Before they gave up to the Ranger captain who with a group of guards located them and the car, which was stuck in the mud, shots were exchanged in which a door lever to the car and one finger of one of the convicts were hit by a bullet from the Ranger captain's gun. The car door lever which was broken by the bullet is being kept by Slotta as a souvenir.

The Lubbock men recovered their car, clothing and the gun which had been taken by the convicts, and later viewed the two men at the prison farm to where they had been returned to identify them.

They expect to be called back to Sugarland for service in the trial of the escaped men.

NEWSPAPERS, ETC.

This, the beginning of a New Year, and almost the beginning of the forty-fourth year of the history of the Enterprise, it is proper that the present management express his appreciation for the business given the institution in the year just passed, and in the three years it has been here. There is not a single subscriber to this paper that it does not appreciate, nor a single bit of business transacted in the past that is forgotten.—Western Enterprise (Anson).

Newspaper owners are always appreciative of their readers and other customers. That is the reason that the owners are constantly striving to make the newspaper a better newspaper; more interesting from the advertising point of view. That is the reason owners of newspapers are spending a great deal of money in buying new features and in providing ways for the obtaining of more news.

COLORADO OFFICE OPENED BY TEXAS ARCHITECT FIRM
 Vance Phenix, formerly of Colorado, and who for some time has been with the Brown-Crummer Company, investment brokers, at their Houston office, has recently formed a partnership with E. G. Shelton, head of the department of Architecture, Texas School of Technology, Lubbock and the firm will maintain architectural offices in Colorado and Lubbock.

Mr. Phenix stated Monday that the firm had not obtained office quarters here, but that he would make this city his headquarters and be in charge of the Colorado office, expected to be opened at an early date.

111,566 TEXAS MEN APPLY FOR VETERANS WAR BONUS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Bonus claims, based upon service in the World War, to the number of 111,569 have been filed with the War Department by Texas veterans, according to the report of Maj. Gen. Robert C. Davis, Adjutant General of the Army to the Secretary of War, for transmission to Congress. In addition to these 2,911 claims were filed from Texas by dependents of veterans, being cases where veterans have died or are incompetent.

The amount of cash or value of the bonus certificates which actually went to Texas applicants is not given. However, figuring the money value of the bonus law, based on the number of days of service of veterans of that State, the total would be $47,796,654. Texas furnished 4.2 per cent of the country's soldiers and 4.23 per cent of the total applications made came from that State. The number of Texas veterans who have refused to apply for the bonus is not given. It is stated, however, that about 21 per cent of those in all States and countries entitled to the bonus have not applied, while 2,760,000 did apply. Jan. 1, 1928, is the final date upon which benefits of the bonus may be claimed.

The report shows there was a generous distribution of government funds throughout the world, since applications for the bonus came from eighty-four foreign countries, as well as every State in the Union and all of this country's possessions. The foreign-born who applied from Texas numbered 2,782. At the date of the report the department had applications from 11,040 claimants awaiting completion. The department was forced to return 635,000 applications for correction and signature of the veteran, which was responsible for nearly 300,000 being returned. About 600,000 of the deficient applications have been sent back to the department. There has been outright rejection of 38,534 claims, chiefly because the applicant served less than sixty days, were members of student's training corps or were serving under provisional commissions.

There was no end of detail in making application of the bonus law, and the division of benefits into numerous angles probably accounts for the lack of more figures applicable to States. In the first place, a sixty-day period was removed from all service owing to a payment by the Government to the soldier incident to his discharge from the service. The law provides for adjusted compensation for the veteran at the rate of $1.25 for each day of overseas services and $1 a day for home service rendered between April 5, 1917 and July 1, 1919, in excess of sixty days. If the amount due the veteran is $50 or less he is paid in cash. Texas veterans who have applied to the number of 3,924 came within this class.

If the amount due exceeds $50 the veteran receives an adjusted service certificate of a face value equal to the amount of twenty year endowment insurance which could be purchased at his age with the amount of his adjusted service credit, increased by 25 per cent. Veterans having home service only were limited to a value of $500, and 64,503 of the Texas applications fell within this class. Those serving overseas were limited to $625 and 13,222 Texas applications were so classified. In addition there were 29,920 of those applying from Texas whose service overseas was much longer, but they were limited to the $625 allotment. Of those who made application from Texas 43,240 had home service only and 68,329 had both home and overseas service.

The total money value of the bonus law as apportioned to the classes of service by the War Department is $1,107,489,315. Congress appropriated $3,600,000 as first cost of administration of the law and $3,131,678 has been expended.

CATTLE INDUSTRY HAS GOOD OUTLOOK

ALPINE, Tex.—An optimistic outlook for the Texas cattle industry, which is under a five year depression is sketched by Herbert L. Kokernot, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers association in a brief resume of present and possible future conditions.

Mr. Kokernot is the largest ranch owner in the Big Bend, Davis Mountain, and Trans-Pecos district and has spent his life in the cattle business.

"The outlook for the cattle industry in 1926 on the whole is good," said Mr. Kokernot. "Range conditions generally are above normal. There has been so much forced liquidation for the last five years that it seems our surplus has disappeared, that our production now is not above our own consumption. With fair treatment it appears it should be only a short time before the industry works back to a par with other industries."

"From the best information I can get the cattleman's dollar is worth at present 80 cents in purchasing power."

He said there were three things necessary to restore the business to normal. These are: A better marketing system; a financing plan that will fit the requirements of the business, one that would be self-liquidating within a period of three to five years; and protection "sufficient to prevent our country from being thrown into competition with those countries where land value and labor costs are far below ours."

"Just at this time the industry is threatened with another burden in the way of increased freight rates. Hearings are being held in various sections of the country and the outcome is very uncertain. If the railroads are successful in raising rates this will be a blow which it will be difficult to recover."

HOTEL BUILDING TO CONTAIN THEATRE

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 6.—This city in 1926 will get two new hotels, in addition to the seven-story, 100 room annex to the St. Angelus Hotel, now under construction.

Bids will be opened here by S. A. Naylor of Vernon, Jan. 6 for the construction of a modern, fireproof six-story hotel of 119 rooms, and Frank Roberts, at one time proprietor of the Landon Hotel, has announced that work will be begun in January on a hotel of 70 to 100 rooms, to be located either on North Chadbourne Street or West Twelfth Avenue.

The Hotel Naylor will occupy the site of the Landon which burned, Aug. 20, 1925, the southeast corner of Chadbourne street and Concho Avenue. It will contain a large theatre, seating 1,800 persons, that will be used for both a movie and a playhouse. The theatre will be leased and operated by Robb, Rowley & Jones.

The Roberts hotel will be financed entirely by local capital and will cost around $150,000.

TRACTOR AND IMPLEMENT DEALERS HAVE BIG TRADE

Farmers of the Colorado territory are purchasing tractors and other modern farm machinery on a large scale, according to announcement of local dealers. This trade has been brisk for the past several weeks, owing to the fact that many farmers finished gathering their crops early and started the work of flat breaking the land.

Demand for farm implements is expected to continue good for the next several weeks. The trade will be in cultivators, listers, planters and other planting and cultivating equipment later as farmers start their 1926 crops.

Begin right in youth—Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. Ecclesiastes 12: 1, 13.

Prayer—Dear God, Thou hast said, "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Make us all Thine own little children, and then it shall be our joy to do Thy will daily.

Dangerous Cough—How to End it

To quickly end a dangerous cough there is a very simple treatment which gives almost instant relief and often breaks the cough entirely in 24 hours.

This treatment is based on the famous Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You take just one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but also loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of the coughing. So the worst cough usually disappears quickly.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children, too—no harmful drugs. Very economical, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY CITY TEACHERS INSTITUTE

The following resolutions were passed by the teachers of Colorado and Loraine schools, recently convened here in teachers institute:

We, the resolution committee of the joint Teachers Institute of Colorado and Loraine after a study of the problems confronting us, as teachers of the public schools of this state, and of the problems of education confronting our citizenship, beg leave to submit the following resolutions, to-wit:

1. That we are in hearty sympathy with the progressive measures advocated by our State superintendent and pledge him our hearty co-operation in carrying into effect these measures.
2. That we favor a tax on gasoline for the benefit of the public schools.
3. That we favor a tax of tobacco and other luxuries for the support of public education in this state.
4. That we favor a legislative appropriation for the purpose of supplementing Federal Aid for vocational education in Texas.
5. That after due consideration of all the advantages that may be derived from a larger unit of school organization we favor the adoption of the county unit of school organization.
6. That after a careful study of the survey of the education of Texas, we favor an elective non-partisan State board of education whose duty it shall be to appoint a state superintendent of public instruction.
7. That we favor longer terms of office for all executive school officials and the granting of more authority to our County board of education.
8. That we favor a higher standard of qualification for our county superintendents and believing that this official should not be hampered by partisan politics we therefore favor his employment by the county board and a fixing of his salary not to exceed $4,500.
9. That we appreciate the untired efforts of the Texas State Teachers Association in their efforts to build up the Texas educational system, pledge them our hearty support, both morally and financially.
10. Lastly, resolved that we appreciate the untired efforts of County Supt. G. D. Foster and pledge him our hearty cooperation in his efforts to better educational conditions in Mitchell county.

$3,000,000 FARMER CREDIT IS ANNOUNCED BY ASSOCIATION

In line with the progress of cotton co-operative marketing and the work of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton association toward rendering substantial beneficial services to its members collectively which would not be possible individually, officials of the organization announce the completion of plans for service to its members in the production credit field. Facilities for such purposes will be available for next season's crop, and the arrangements made provide for a line of production credit to the amount of $3,000,000. This money will be placed in the hands of the members at 7 per cent per annum interest, and will be handled by rediscounting through the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank.

In discussing the plan, W. W. Porter, secretary of the Mitchell county association said: "The association through its subsidiary, the Texas Cotton Growers Finance Corporation, has arranged with the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, with the approval of the Federal Farm Loan Board at Washington for a line of credit of $3,000,000 to be loaned the farmers of the State by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank through the finance corporation. Paper will be rediscounted at the ratio of six to one. Full details of the operation of handling production credit loans will be announced later.

"The purpose of entering production credit is twofold first, The first and most important reason is to render a service to our membership, and the second to furnish our members money at a cheaper rate of interest than many communities have had heretofore.

"We have been asked upon numerous occasions if the association expected any criticism on the part of the interior banks regarding this plan. We do not feel that any open-minded banker will criticize the association on account of the fact that the association is not entering the banking business. It is merely a service to our members to which they are entitled. Moreover, it is a service that will bring $3,000,000 of new money into our State at the cheap rate of interest, and this $3,000,000 will be loaned to the farmers of this State and as it is loaned will be deposited in the interior banks and thus supplement their deposits to that extent. It is not an unusual thing for an interior bank of this State to loan all of its funds by June 1 and seek credit from their correspondents or from the Federal Reserve Bank to take care of the pressing needs of their communities. If we loan money to our members where an interior bank is discounting with the Federal Reserve Bank, the money loaned to our members will be deposited in their bank and thus relieve them to that extent and having to borrow to lend someone else.

"The Federal Intermediate Credit Bank was organized several years ago for the purpose of rendering aid to the farmers and furnishing cheap money for production purposes, but they are not in a position to make loans to the farmers but they are in a position to discount for some corporation organized for the purpose of acting as a bridge to let the individual or farmer reach the reservoir of money that is available thru the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank.

"This is the first effort that has been made in Texas in a large way to make it possible for the farmers of this State to avail themselves of this credit. It means that they can borrow money for six to nine months at the rate of 7 per cent per annum and inasmuch as the prevailing rate in this State is 10 per cent and the prevailing rate of this credit will be 7 per cent per annum, creating a difference of 3 per cent per annum in interest rates, it is easy to calculate that if $3,000,000 is loaned, there will be a saving in interest rates alone of $90,000 per annum.

"The entering of the cotton co-operative marketing association into the production credit field follows closely the recent distribution by them to their members at cost of approximately 75,000 bushels of certified cotton seed, with a view of improving the quality of Texas cotton and enabling the members to receive added profit through such quality production. Credit arrangements were also made possible to the members to secure this seed at the wholesale rates. Announcement was also made from the offices of the Farm Bureau Cotton Association yesterday that during the month of March several millions of dollars would be distributed to the membership throughout the State."

$10,000 IN STOLEN LOOT FOUND BY BOY IN RIVER

When a youth swam out to a small island in the Brazos near Grandbury the other day to investigate a tow sack which he and several companions saw from the bank, he uncovered approximately $10,000 in Liberty bonds stolen from the First National Bank of Strawn, Texas, on December 21.

The boys had been wondering about the sack for several days and on a dare one of the boys decided to swim out and investigate. He found the bonds which he thought worthless and a one dollar bill. The boys repeated the story of their finding to a garage man who notified the sheriff and a posse was formed.

More than $30,000 was secured during the hold up of the bank when six men entered the building during broad day-light and locked bank officials and customers in the vault.

THE BOY SCOUTS
From the Brownwood Bulletin:
Training received while he was a Boy Scout enabled an Austin youth the other day to save the life of his elder brother who had been overcome by gas fumes and was found unconscious in a bath room. After telephoning for a doctor, the lad began the application of artificial respiration to his fainting brother, and when the doctor arrived the patient was recovering.

Boy Scouts learn many lessons which are valuable to them throughout their lives. First aid for the injured is only one of the many lessons taught. Of even more importance, as the boy grows into manhood, are the lessons of honesty, sincerity, fidelity, reverence and helpfulness which are drilled into every scout. Fidelity to God, loyalty to his country, principles of scouting; and the boy who is permitted to participate in the scout program almost without exception grows into useful and respected manhood.
Brownwood has made several half hearted efforts to establish and maintain scouting here. For a time the work was carried on in a fairly satisfactory manner, but it had to be discontinued because of lack of financial support. The Bulletin believes that every boy in the city is entitled to such training as is given through scouting, and that by refusing to finance a Scout program Brownwood has deliberately robbed its boys of a privilege which rightfully belongs to them. Austin got value received for all the money it has ever invested in the Boy Scout movement when the little scout saved the life of his older brother the other day; and the saving of a boy's ideals is just as important as the saving of his physical body. Brownwood's boys are good boys, as a rule, and are given adequate educational facilities and proper home training; but there is lacking that organized, systematic development of the boy-life of the community that could be given through Scouting, and the boys are not getting all that they are entitled to. It is Brownwood's shame that it is so.

Every Community is Known by its Utilities

WHEN A stranger comes to town all he has to do is to use his eyes and his intelligence to know what kind of a town it is. If he finds modern electric lights and abundant electric power, he knows that here is a wide-awake, prosperous, progressive community. If he doesn't find these things, no amount of verbal "boosting" is going to convince him that this town is a desirable place in which to live and work and invest his money. For he realizes that a prosperous, growing electric light and power system means a prosperous, growing community, made up of broad minded, progressive citizens.

American public services are the envy of the world, because it is here that the greatest progress has been made in their development. Electric light and power, electric transportation, the telephone and telegraph, in fact all of the utility services except gas, originated in the minds of inventive Americans. As general public servants they have become every-day necessities of modern life. They brighten and accelerate all social, commercial and industrial activity.

Your Electric Lighting system is an invaluable asset to your community, and as such it is regarded by every thoughtful citizen. You are a partner in it. Keep it prosperous and expanding as you would any other business in which you have an interest.

THE AMERICAN FLAG

When the question of selecting a suitable flag for the Sesquicentennial International Exposition arose it became at once evident that because of the nature of the event which the Exposition was to celebrate only one standard could properly be used.

The resolution was officially published in August and the design first promulgated by Congress on September 3d. Where it was first displayed is still a question of dispute, but it flew in the breeze at the battle of Brandywine on September 11th at Germantown on October 4th and in all subsequent encounters.

The last modification of the flag was in 1818 when, the number of stars having grown to twenty, and additional ones foreseen in the future, President Monroe signed an act to the effect that every new state admitted into the Union would be recognized on the 4th of July following its admission by the addition of a new star to the flag.

Although defeated in the race for Representative by a small plurality, I wish to thank those who saw fit to support me in the campaign, and I trust that the friendships made during the campaign will be lasting and mutually beneficial.

George Washington described its making thus: "We take the star from Heaven; the red from our mother country, separating it by white stripes, thus showing that we have separated from her; and the white stripes shall go down to posterity representing liberty."

In the coat of arms of Washington there were, curiously, both stars and stripes represented, and many historians have sought to establish a connection between this and the conception of the flag.

It was a year after the signing of the Declaration of Independence that the first legislation for the flag was enacted. On June 14, 1777, now celebrated by us as Flag Day, Congress sitting in Philadelphia adopted the following resolution: "Resolved that the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes alternate red and white; and the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

This was the first official step toward the adoption of our national emblem. The resolution was officially published in August and the design first promulgated by Congress on September 3d.

Their Anniversary on New Year's Eve

Company of Others Does Not Always Give Satisfaction Desired.

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

IT HAD been three years since they were married. Three years ago this New Year's Day, what a clear, vigorous New Year's Day it had been.

They had started out with high resolves, resolves that they would always be just as happy as on this first day. It was to be a New Year for them, but every year would mark an anniversary just as significant of fresh, unspoiled romance.

Not that they expected life to be all pleasure. But it would be deeply fraught with happiness because of the depth and the eternal youth of their love.

They were as happy, happier than most couples. But that was not what they had meant to be.

They had meant to settle down to complete, ideal happiness. It was New Year's Eve, and he had planned to work late and then attend a dinner where a number of his business friends would be gathered. It was not an important dinner, but it was something he had been urged to do, and why not?

Why go home to a dinner that was unimportant instead of going to another which was a little different? Yet it was the first time he would be doing such a thing.

Besides, he had been a little hurt. She had come home late. She had been out at an afternoon gathering of a number of her friends, and she had been late, and neither of them had been any too pleasant.

They had both been discussing husbands and exchanging complaints. Even she had joined in, though not as much as some of the others. But it made her feel ashamed. And in feeling ashamed she had become irritable.

He went to the dinner. The conversation turned on business. A young man, the youngest of the group, seemed a little out of the setting.

"Why," he asked during a pause, "do you all work so hard?" "For our wives and our children," came every answer.

And yet, the husband of three years thought, I am leaving mine alone on the eve of our anniversary to make that speech to others. This, he decided, was the time to recall his earlier resolves.

He left a little abruptly and went home. His wife was there. She had no dinner ready. She had been busy thinking.

"My dear," she cried, "you've come home so early. What is the matter? Don't you feel well?" He gathered her in his arms.

"It's New Year's Eve," he said, "and the eve of our anniversary. I wanted to be with you. We've let some things get just a little out of reach—but we'll reach for them and we'll have them again. It will be really a New Year for us."

His words were answering the questions and the thoughts that had been in her heart. (© 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

For New Year Standing at the portal Of the opening year, Hushing every fear; Spoken through the silence By our Father's voice, Tender, strong and faithful, Making us rejoice, He will never fail us, He will not forsake; His eternal covenant, He will never break. Resting on His promise, What have we to fear? God is all-sufficient For the coming year. —Frances Ridley Havergal, in The Olden.

TO MEET IN DALLAS, JAN. 13

DALLAS, Texas.—The eyes of the medical world will turn towards Dallas from April 17th and from then until the end of the American Medical Society Convention, will be focused on this city.

On April 17th, 18th and 19th, the National Convention of the Jewish Consumptive Relief Society, that maintains headquarters at Denver, will meet here, followed by that of the leading physicians and scientists in America. It will be the first time in the history of the Jewish Consumptive Relief Society that a convention has been held in the South.

This organization maintains the largest hospital in the United States, and perhaps in the world, that gives relief and treatment to patients suffering from the great white plague in all its stages, absolutely free of charge. This institution is operated entirely for charitable purposes, and does not accept pay patients. Its charities are unlimited, and include persons of all ages, races and religion. It is filled at all times, and patients accepted are kept for at least six months, and some of them for two years, until relief is afforded, the cure is perfected, or the bodies are returned to the dust from whence they came and the spirits to the God who gave them birth.
