COLORADO MERCHANTS OFFER PAY EXPENSES OF TRIPS TO COAST

Two Ladies Be Given Tour With Accommodations Paid in Full

Six progressive merchants and business firms of Colorado have arranged to send two ladies of this trade territory on a trip through the GOLDEN WEST with absolutely all expenses paid—a trip each lady who is lucky enough to be chosen will remember as long as she lives. Following is a brief description of the trip.

The trip to the Golden West will be made in the going direction over the world famous "Sunset Route" of the Southern Pacific lines.

The return from San Francisco will be made over the famous "American River Canyon Route" of the Southern Pacific lines which carries one across the Great Sierra Nevada mountains, which are capped with snow, through the desert, and across Great Salt Lake—thirty miles from shore to shore—on through the wonders of Colorado scenery.

The first point of stop over is El Paso, the gateway to Old Mexico. Here we cross the International Bridge into Old Mexico at Juarez and will enjoy a short stay among this Latin race.

From El Paso the route carries you through California's newest scenic marvel, the wonderful Carrizo Gorge on the San Diego and Arizona railroad. For eleven miles you traverse this Ah-Hapsa and every turn of the train affords thrilling views. To build a railroad along the rugged canyons of the Carrizo Gorge, an enterprise long considered impossible, finally was accomplished by blasting a roadway from a bed of solid rock. You will never forget the trip through the Carrizo Gorge.

After passing through the Carrizo Gorge, San Diego is reached, a city of 80,000 people, set in semi-tropical verdure, built upon terraced slopes and table lands that face the sunset sea, with a background of granite-walled mountains. At San Diego you will visit Balboa Park and be entertained with an organ recital on the finest outdoor organ ever built. Will visit the beaches and ride through San Diego's beautiful residential sections.

Several days will be spent in Los Angeles, where automobile trips are provided, visiting Pasadena, the Ostrich Farm, Venice, Hollywood, where they make the movies, etc. Will also have a steamer trip out in the Pacific ocean to Catalina Island where you may view the submarine gardens from glass-bottom boats.

From Los Angeles the train for many miles runs along the shore of the blue Pacific, where one can see the beautiful country homes, flowers, and orange groves on one side and watch the waves come and go on the other.

San Francisco—Several days will be spent here and automobile trips are arranged, seeing the Golden Gate Park, Cliff House, Seal Rocks, Presidio, Exposition Grounds, etc. One night a trip to Chinatown is arranged which includes many sights.

From San Francisco you climb the snow-capped Sierra Nevada mountains, pass through the deeper and then "go to sea by rail." For many miles the train traverses Great Salt Lake Sea, road-bed built of solid rock through the middle of the sea, thirty miles from shore to shore.

Salt Lake City—the home of the Mormons. Automobile trip over the city is provided, visiting the many places of interest. Will be entertained in the Mormon tabernacle with an organ recital on one of the largest pipe organs in the world. A trip to salt lake beach is also provided. Bathing in the water—you cannot sink—is a great attraction.

Leaving Salt Lake City you travel through the wonders of Colorado scenery to Denver where an automobile tour of the city is provided.

Colorado Springs—Here you will have a trip up Pike's Peak, a trip

CHALK FIELD EXTENDED THREE MILES WHEN FRED HYER WELL IS DEEPENED

Marland Takes Over Property Drills Deeper and Gets 200 Barrel Well

Extension of the Chalk oil field three miles to the east by drilling in of the Fred Hyer No. 1 on the H. E. Clay ranch, which was recently taken over by the Marland Oil company and drilled deeper for good production at a depth of 1760 feet, is one of the most important events of the week in oil circles of this sector.

This well was brought in over a year ago for a seven-barrel producer at 1500 feet and had supplied fuel oil for other drilling wells in the field, but had been given up by the owner as a small producer, but Marland drilled into an entirely new sand at 1750 feet and, according to reports received from the field, is a good well and extends this field fully three miles to the east, which gives this sector a territory already proven that is of considerable size.

Since Lockhart's well in section 36 was practically a dry hole, with only a small showing of oil, and then well in section 35, more than a mile to the east and south, is a good producer, it begins to look like the Chalk field is going to run toward the east and extend over into Mitchell county.

It is reported that other wells will be drilled in the vicinity of the Hyer Clay well at an early date. The fact that Marland recently paid Fred Hyer and associates $250,000 for the 1,200-acre block on which this well is located, shows that the company has faith in the extension of the field. The Marland paid Hyer $100,000 cash and $150,000 in oil, it is said. Marland is also building a rig for south offset to the Reeves & Apperman test in southeast part of section 126, which is also outside of the Chalk field proper.

LORRAINE PASTOR DIES AT ABILENE HOSPITAL

Rev. W. A. Foster, Moderator Mitchell-Scurry Assn. Is Buried at Loraine

Rev. W. A. Foster, 37, pastor of the Loraine Baptist church and moderator of the Mitchell-Scurry Baptist association, died at the Baptist hospital in Abilene at 5 a. m. Saturday and was buried at Loraine cemetery Monday afternoon following funeral services which were held at the College Heights Baptist church in Abilene at 10 o'clock that morning, and conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. A. Powell. He was pastor of the Loraine church and the Ovale Baptist church, and was a senior in Simmons University and would have graduated from that institution at completion of this semester.

The minister was born in Anderson county, Texas, November 6, 1889, and had lived in Abilene for about seven months. His address was at 1841 Orange street. He was taken to the hospital on Christmas day and had steadily declined until death came Saturday.

He is survived by his widow and two children, Mildred, 16, and Willard, 11.

you will never forget. Will also visit the Garden of the Gods and have a trip through Williams Canyon to the Cave of the Winds. Will visit Manitou, the famous health resort where hundreds of springs of carbonated water bubble and gush from the ground.

Hotel accommodations, all meals, all sight-seeing trips, transfers, railroad and Pullman tickets are furnished—absolutely all necessary expenses are paid by the six merchants and business firms of Colorado.

COLORADO MAY GET GAS LINE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SAYS

Wholesale Grocery Also In Prospect; Cheese Plant May Come Here

According to Monte E. Owen, secretary of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce, this city stands a good chance to get a wholesale grocery, a cheese and butter plant and a natural gas line during the coming year, and he is in Dallas this week-end to investigate the propositions so that he can make recommendations to the board.

A Fort Worth concern has indicated they will establish a large creamery proposition, including a cheese and butter plant, in this section of West Texas, and while they have given several other towns in this section a promise of investigation as a probable location of the plant, Owen says Colorado stands a very good chance of securing this plant.

Other concerns are investigating the location for a wholesale grocery at Colorado and it is probable that either a branch of some established house or a new organization will put in a house here, Owen says. Data is being furnished to inquirers relative to this.

Also several large grain elevator companies and some individuals interested in the grain business, are considering the proposition of installing a small elevator here, which would provide a thresher for maize and sorghum grains and would buy and ship these grains along with oats, wheat or any other grains raised in this vicinity. Some farmers claim that if we had such plant here this year to thresh maize and handle it in that shape, the feed crop would bring more money than is now being realized.

Another matter that is getting considerable attention from the Chamber of Commerce, is the securing of natural gas for Colorado. This is entirely probable, Owen says, since certain interests are talking of extending a line west from Abilene, or north from Ballinger to Sweetwater and then west to Colorado and Big Spring. Owen is working on this proposition and expects to be able to announce something regarding the same within the next few weeks.

No Changes Made In Bank Officials At Annual Meet

Annual stockholders meeting of the two Colorado banks were held as usual on Tuesday, January 11. No changes were made in the personnel of the boards or the active officials.

The Colorado National declared an 8 per cent semi-annual dividend in December, and the City National declared 10 per cent semi-annual dividend also in December.

Officials of the Colorado National who were re-elected at the meeting Tuesday are: Directors, R. H. Looney, E. M. Burns, J. M. Thomas, C. M. Adams, C. H. Earnest, Dr. P. C. Coleman and Joe H. Smoot.

Active officials, R. H. Looney, chairman of the board; F. M. Burns, president; J. M. Thomas, active vice president; C. M. Adams, vice president; C. H. Earnest, vice president; Joe H. Smoot, cashier; H. E. Grantland, assistant cashier; G. B. Slaton, assistant cashier.

City National directors are: C. H. Lasky, D. N. Arnett, T. W. Stoneroad, Jr., J. D. Wolfson. Officials: C. H. Lasky, president; D. N. Arnett, vice president; T. W. Stoneroad, Jr., active vice president; J. C. Pritchett, cashier; T. A. Richardson, assistant cashier; Chas. E. Pritchett, assistant cashier.

DR. COLEMAN WILL DELIVER RESPONSE AT STANTON MEETING

Vice President West Texas Chamber and Other Local Men to Attend

Colorado will be well represented at the district meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Stanton, Tuesday, January 25, according to Monte E. Owen, secretary of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce. Owen says boosters from the West Central section of the State will convene in Stanton on that date for the regional meeting of this organization and that a number of Colorado citizens have already stated they will attend.

Representatives who attend will meet in morning session at 9:45 o'clock, gathering at the Crystal Theatre, where B. Roagan of Big Spring will preside. Following invocation by a local pastor, C. Wedgeworth, superintendent of the Stanton schools, will extend the address of welcome to which Dr. P. C. Coleman, president of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce, will respond.

After committee appointments, the "Object of District Conventions" will be explained by B. M. Whittaker, exhibit-agricultural manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Col. C. C. French of the Fort Worth stockyards will talk on "Hogging the Country," and Ollie B. Webb, assistant to the president of the Texas and Pacific, will speak on "Feeling the Right View."

Several other features of entertainment and program will be rendered.

CEDAR BEND WELL GETS TWO SHOWINGS; LIME HIGHER UP

Oil Men Believe Well Will Get Westbrook Pay; Colorado Watches

The William Seyler, Dowling No. 1, commonly known as the Cedar Bend well, encountered the top of the big lime at 1310 feet and at 1545 feet had a small showing of oil. Another show was found from 1705 feet to 1710. The well is now drilling at 1750 feet.

It is believed that this well is running higher on the top of the lime than any of the wells in the vicinity and geologists and oil men believe it has a good chance to make a producer in the Westbrook pay.

The well is about 7 miles northwest of this city and because of its nearness would mean considerable to Colorado should it open a pool.

All information to Public L. W. Sandusky, local attorney for the Seyler interests, states that any and all information regarding the well may be had at his office and this is borne out by Mr. B. E. Walter, general superintendent for the Seyler interests, who states that there is no secrecy at all about the well and that the drillers are instructed to furnish true and correct information at any time to any one interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown are moving to Big Spring. Their many friends here regret very much to see them leave.

Buffalo Trail Council Boy Scouts 1927 Program Be Talked At Sweetwater Meet; Training Classes Be Held In Each County

Plans to make 1927 a banner year for Scouting in the Buffalo Trail Council are now being worked out by Boy Scout officials of the four counties making up the Council, and these officials will meet at Sweetwater the latter part of the month to discuss the program for the year. Among the subjects to come up, will be the holding of adult leaders' training courses in the larger towns of every county in the council. These courses will probably start in March or April, and men throughout the council who are interested in the welfare of the boys, will be urged to participate in the training.

James P. Fitch, Houston, Regional Executive, will attend the Sweetwater session of Buffalo Trail Council officials, according to E. A. Moore, executive for the council. Moore recently returned from Dallas, where he was in conference with Fitch regarding the Scouting program in this council for the coming year.

Mr. Fitch probably will arrive here about Jan. 17 or 18, and the meeting of officials will follow.

Officers of the council are: W. M. Elliott, Colorado, president; W. W. Hamilton, Snyder, vice president; Mose Newman, Sweetwater, treasurer; W. S. Barcus, Sweetwater, secretary; Will Scott, Sweetwater, in charge of leader training, and an executive board consisting of some 12 or 14 men in Nolan, Mitchell, Fisher and Scurry counties.

The importance of the Boy Scout movement, its benefits to the youth of the section and the results of the Scouting program, are pointed out in a statement just issued by W. M. Elliott, Colorado, president of the council, in which he urges the support of citizens in each of the four counties in putting over the Scout work. His statement follows:

"On my honor I will do my best, to do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout laws; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, men-

RURAL SCHOOLS ARE NOT UP TO SCORE IN SOME REQUIREMENTS

Is Expected That Grading At End of Term Will Show Improvement

During the past ten days all rural schools in Mitchell county have been rated by their teachers and County Superintendent G. D. Foster on what is known as a "Rural School Score Card." This score card was prepared by the state department of education and is planned for the purpose of standardizing the rural schools of the state, to the end that the boys and girls in rural districts may be given the best advantages possible for securing an education.

The score has two main divisions, Scale A for measuring the material factors—grounds, buildings, equipment; and Scale B for measuring the human factors—teacher, pupils and community. Valges assigned the various items in the two divisions to total 1000 points, and are divided thus:

SCALE A
Grounds and outbuildings	110
Schoolhouse	190
Equipment	200
Total	500
SCALE B
Teacher and pupils	325
Community	180
Total	500

To be standard a school must make at least 400 out of a possible score of 500 points on each scale, and must satisfy in full the requirements under certain starred items, to wit: Flag and flagpole, 10; sanitary toilets, 20; eight month term, 30; and all teachers must have first grade or higher certificates, 20. In other words, a school must not have merely 500 points to its credit, 400 on each scale, but must have full credit on all four of the items listed above. For the reasons set out above, no rural school in the county, at the time of the scoring rated "standard" though five different schools rate over 500 points.

The rating of the schools on the first check is given as follows, highest score first, etc.:

800 and over—Spade, Rogers, Bauman, Lone Star and Dorn.

750-800—Valley View, Little Sulphur, Coraway, Buford, Carr, Lowe, Lenders, Silver, Cuthbert, Hyman.

Under 750—Payne, Shepherd, Longfellow, Horns Chapel, Jatan, Fairview, Seven Wells, Looney, McKenzie, North Champion.

There will be at least one more checking before the term is out, Foster said, and the average of these scores will determine the rating of each school. In every community teachers, pupils, trustees and patrons are studying the score card carefully to see what additional requirements they can meet. There is with it all a spirit of wholesome rivalry and there is much speculation as to which schools will rate highest on the final check. There are loving cups and pennants for the winners, but the real prize lies in the general improvement that will be made in each district.

LOCKHART MAKES NEW LOCATION AT CHALK

Lockhart & Company have made location for a new well in the Chalk field, in northwest half of the northwest quarter of section 114. This well is building rig now and will be at the earliest possible date. It is between their Chalk No. 1 and No. 2, and is in proven territory.

The Sloan-Owen Oil company is starting operations on a block of land in Loving county adjoining the Lockhart well near Arno. They will drill a well there at once.

Hardy No. 1-A of Teas & Stivers is drilling at 1,250 feet. This well is north of the Westbrook producer.

Miss Helen Swift of College Station was in Colorado Tuesday for the County Federation.

RECORD CEMETERY FUND WILL BE CLOSED TUESDAY, FEB. 1

Contributions Still Coming in; Sketch for Entrance Being Prepared

The Record Cemetery fund will be closed on February 1, and those who wish to donate funds to help fix up the cemetery gate and read and build a nice entrance should do so before that time. After that date the funds will be turned over to the proper authorities to handle with assurance to that the work will be done according to plans. Something more definite will probably be announced next week as the I. O. O. F. lodge is to hold a meeting tonight and discuss the matter and the editor of this paper will meet with them and see what can be done relative to the matter.

Judge C. H. Earnest, local attorney, pioneer settler and large property owner, sends in check for $100. Judge Earnest is one of the city's most public-spirited citizens and always contributes to anything that will advance the interests of the city. Mrs. Mildred Virecent of Los Angeles, Calif., sends in remittance of $2 for which we thank her. Other citizens have contributed considerable to the fund.

Mrs. Nellie Schroeder of El Paso sends check for $2.50 to T. W. Foster, read which he hands in to the fund. Mrs. Schroeder owns property here and farms in Mitchell county. She is spending the winter with her son in El Paso but calls Colorado her home.

NEW SANITARIUM BE BUILT DURING 1927

Old Property Sold; New Site Bought; Some Material Ready

The editor, upon visiting the office of Dr. C. L. Root, owner and surgeon of the Colorado Sanitarium, for the purpose of interrogating the doctor regarding the truth or falsity of the rumor that the Colorado Sanitarium had been sold, was informed by the doctor that the buildings and grounds of the Colorado Sanitarium (not any of the equipment) had been traded for a 230-acre sandy tract in Scurry county, near Ina. Dr. J. H. Lee is now owner of the sanitarium property, Arthur Wilson having put the deal through. In the transaction Dr. C. L. Root obtained a lease on the sanitarium property for a period of six months, and will continue operating the Colorado Sanitarium in the same buildings and other arrangements are made.

Upon being asked what about building a new sanitarium this year, Dr. Root said: "The first, and perhaps the greatest, obstacle was removed when the old sanitarium property was disposed of. I feel sure now that with the prompt financial help of some of my city friends that we are going to put the new one over, and that before many days the blue print, plans, and specifications have already been finished. Grounds have been purchased, about 200,000 dollars worth of material has been placed on the ground, and gone too far to turn back on down—have been out too much money to give up the project, even if I get disposed of. I am not at all bit so disposed of. My ambition, my 1927 big five, my long cherished hope, is coming up over the west side of Waterworks street, facing the beautiful, modern fireproof store hospital building of which the architect's hand painting prospects hangs upon the wall of my office lobby."

Colorado In Center Of Big Basin, Due Get Biggest Oil Play In History Of West Texas According To Geological Reports Received

Colorado is practically in the center of an oil territory destined to set the biggest play during 1927 in the history of West Texas, according to reports received and indications of work now in the embryo stage.

The big salt basin underlying a large part of West Texas and extending across this section in the shape of a giant "U" open at the north end or top, absolutely surrounds Mitchell county, and assures the territory in this vicinity great oil play the coming year, if we are to judge by the activities now in progress and the report of work to be started at an early date.

The giant U-shaped field runs down on the west side of Mitchell county, through Howard, Upton, Pecos and Crockett counties and as far west as Ector and Crane counties, and is said to extend on up through the Plains country to the Panhandle or Amarillo field.

According to geological theory this is the west part of the U, which includes the Artesia, N. M., and Pecos and Fort Stockton sectors. The Mitchell county field and the Clark field are said to be on the eastern rim of the western part of this giant U.

The U extends on down to Fort Stockton and Laredo, and up through Ballinger, Cross Plains, Eastland, and on up to Wichita Falls, Ringling, Chickasha and Enid, Okla. The Trent, or Noodle Creek, field is said to be in the eastern side of the giant U and local citizens argue that the middle of this oil-producing territory is bound to afford the largest producers of the mother pool is touched, and which they contend runs through east of Snyder, through Colorado and extending east to the divide between Lorraine and Roscoe, and on down via San Angelo to Sanderson.

Be that as it may, Colorado is in the center of a proven oil territory of such magnitude that few can realize its possibilities. We have of fields all around us and it is only a question of drilling deeper in to get the pay, we are told. Wildcat drilling has spread from the Trent field west to within a short distance of the Mitchell county line and the Mitchell county field near Westbrook is trickling out and he is enthusiastic about the matter. He explained the purposes and workings of the plan last Sunday at the meeting of his class, and they will vote on adoption of the plan at the meeting next Sunday.

Special invitation is extended to every man in Colorado who is now attending some Sunday school to attend the meeting of this class at the American Legion hut next Sunday and hear discussion on this subject.

The Brotherhood class is growing rapidly and already has more than 35 members and it is expected to reach 100 within a short time, the pastor says.

All departments of the Baptist Sunday school are growing, more than 200 being present last Sunday, and Superintendent G. B. Slaton is optimistic about the future outlook of the organization. He believes the school faces a period of growth never before attained.

RECORD CEMETERY FUND WILL BE CLOSED FEB. 1 (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) gives $1 and Morgan $2.50. J. A. Dockrey, another prosperous farmer, gives $1.00 for which he has our thanks.

Q. D. Hall, local dairyman and a pioneer citizen, gives $5.00 and says he is glad to see this movement started. He is another citizen of the substantial type, who pays cash when he buys and always helps when he can.

A. J. Hagler sends in $2.00 and a boost for the fund. He is a former East Texan but has been here so long that he is a genuine West Texan with a big heart and good business judgment. J. M. Thompson, 200 acres in $2.00. He is another West Texan who has the old style of hospitality. We thank him.

Mrs. A. B. Maxfield of Stanton sends in $5 which is highly appreciated.

Lorraine Farmer Successful in New Style of Terracing

E. C. Hallmark, who lives one and one-half miles southwest of Lorraine, is using the new "level" terrace with great success, according to County Agent W. S. Foster. According to Foster, this style of terrace differs from the ordinary terrace in that no fall is given along the terrace line. The level terrace is adapted to soils that absorb water rapidly as the water is held above the terrace until it evaporates, sinks into the soil or finds its way slowly to the ends.

These terraces have given complete satisfaction in Fenery, Garza, Fisher and Lubbock counties and in many cases have withstood heavy rains better than the terrace having two or three inches fall per hundred feet.

With further reference to terracing, Foster said: "Comparisons of fields on terraced and unterraced fields show that farmers having even slightly rolling land lose from 38 to 515 per acre due to the more even distribution of water over the field."

Hugh Hallmark of Lorraine, and H. L. Baker of Longfellow report the largest yields they have ever had. They attribute to the fact that they terraced their lands last year.

An A. & M. farm engineer who recently visited this county estimated that there are 100,000 acres of farm lands in this county that need terracing, and the county agent urges farmers to secure farm levels and do their own terracing with advice from his office. It will be impossible for him to run the lines for all the terracing work to be done this spring.

Henson Has Proven That Poultry Raising is Profitable

B. H. Henson, farmer on the Gary farm, five miles south of Colorado, has proven that poultry keeping in connection with general farming is profitable adjunct, and he has made it pay over a period of seven years to the extent that he is now one of the most enthusiastic boosters for the hen. Although Henson is a good farmer and probably has done more along this line than some others would do, he claims no credit for the success he has had, for he says any man could do as well if he will only try. We doubt that, yet many of them could.

Henson says it took him two years to learn that scrub poultry did not pay. Seven years ago he sold off his mongrel flock and bought a high-laying strain of White Leghorns. He has continued to build up his flock until now his 200 hens average 50 per cent production daily throughout the winter. Henson also states that he cannot get this high production without a good egg-laying mash. On the short, cold, winter days he feeds a warm, wet mash about 4 p. m. and finds this prevents a drop in production during cold weather.

In addition to the hens Mr. Henson has several good Jersey cows and a registered Poland China sow. The pigs from this sow have been fed maize and corn balanced with skim milk and now weigh 225 pounds at five months of age. He says any man who will keep a few hens, cows and several good laying pigs will make a success of farming if he works and looks after things as well as his staple crops.

ENGINEER HIGHWAY CLUB MAKES SURVEY ROADS IN WEST TEXAS

T. B. Van Tuyl, Jr. Here Friday Gathering Data Relative Highways

T. B. Van Tuyl, Jr., engineer and representative of the Highway Club of Texas, of Fort Worth, was in Colorado last Friday gathering data on road conditions in this section of the State and sounding out sentiment of the people relative to the proposed amendment to the constitution being fostered by the Highway club.

Mr. Van Tuyl is a former Colorado boy, having lived here with his parents a number of years ago. His father, Thos. B. Van Tuyl, was connected with the Colorado National Bank for some time, coming here in 1838 and removing to Odessa in 1893, from which place he went to Cleburne as cashier of a bank there, then to Fort Worth where he was with the old American National bank for some time. While here Friday, young Van Tuyl was a guest at the luncheon of the Lions club and made a talk before the club and stated he would be back in Colorado the latter part of this week to get additional data on the highway situation. He paid a visit to his aunt, Mrs. Ben Van Tuyl, while here last week. He is on a tour of all West Texas to gather information for his club. In speaking of his work and the Highway club, Mr. Van Tuyl said:

"The Highway Club of Texas is composed of public spirited, influential business men and firms who have the interest of the State at heart and who desire to see the highways of Texas properly constructed and maintained. To this end the Highway Club of Texas is presenting to the 40th session of the Texas legislature certain amendments, acts and codes which will provide adequate funds and authority for the construction and maintenance of the main State highways and the lateral roads of each community, forming a co-ordinated system of roads throughout the entire State.

"The desirable legislation for the next session comprises:

1. An amendment to the constitution designed to give the State full constitutional authority to establish, construct and maintain a State system of highways; and to provide a distinct fund for the accomplishment of the purposes authorized.
2. All necessary amendments to the present highway act to authorize State construction and maintenance and to strengthen the highway department for the more efficient and economical administration of the road work of the State in the public interest.
3. Amendment to the statute empowering counties to protect county roads, not part of the State system, from destructive traffic.
4. A statute according more distinct recognition to the public use of motor vehicles in freight and passenger transportation, and providing for the adequate regulation of such vehicles.
5. The enactment of the uniform vehicle code as may be deemed necessary, supplementing the body of our present laws. These special acts comprise particularly parts of the 'Uniform act regulating the operation of vehicles on highways, uniform operators and chauffeurs' licenses act, uniform motor vehicle anti-theft act.
6. Amendment to the statute regarding registration of motor vehicles more nearly placing the large heavy trucks on a proportionate plane with the small, lighter ones.

"We feel," he further stated, "that the people of Mitchell county realize the necessity for some changes in the present highway system, and we respectfully request the consideration of these amendments by every taxpayer of Mitchell county. We will be glad at all times to hear of your individual ideas and will welcome you to membership in our club if you have the interest of an improved State highway system at heart.

"Offices of the club are maintained at 1909 F. & M. building, Fort Worth, with Mr. Wm. T. Wheeler, formerly connected with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, in charge.

HERRINGTON SELLS SHOE SHOP TO HIS BROTHER

Frank Herrington has sold his shoe and harness shop, located on Walnut street, to his brother, Hope H. Herrington, who will take charge of the business on January 15th. The Herrington brothers were formerly joint owners of this business, but last year Frank took over the entire business and has successfully conducted the same for more than a year. Hope moved to his farm near Lamona, for the past year, but is now moving back to Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herrington will leave next week for a tour of West Texas in search of a location for a new business which they will probably establish. However, it is not definitely settled that they will go into business elsewhere, Herrington said Wednesday.

"The Highway Club of Texas is composed of public spirited, influential business men and firms who have the interest of the State at heart and who desire to see the highways of Texas properly constructed and maintained. To this end the Highway Club of Texas is presenting to the 40th session of the Texas legislature certain amendments, acts and codes which will provide adequate funds and authority for the construction and maintenance of the main State highways and the lateral roads of each community, forming a co-ordinated system of roads throughout the entire State.

These young men were reared in Colorado, and while Doss formerly owned a drug store at Mingus, Texas, he is considered a strictly home boy. Doss owns the building where the Alcove is located, which is one of the most valuable pieces of business property in Colorado, and these progressive young men are making every effort to keep their store up to the very best, as evidenced by the improvements now being made.

C. OF C. BULLETIN BOARD GETS BUYERS

According to County Agent W. S. Foster, a number of farmers are taking advantage of the bulletin board in the office of the Chamber of Commerce as a means of bringing buyer and seller together. Pigs, chickens and other farm products are offered for sale and many farmers are finding this a good way of securing what they want or selling what they have for sale. Farmers are urged to make use of this method at any time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bearford who recently moved here from Abilene, have purchased a farm in the Cedar Bend section and are going to engage in the poultry business in connection with their farming. The Berry-Fee Lumber company of Colorado has constructed one of these houses and has it on display at their yards here, where they invite farmers to call and see it if interested. According to R. E. Hyman Man Makes Money With Chickens and Cows

F. L. Andrews of Hyman is one Mitchell county farmer who has been convinced that it pays to keep cows and chickens on the farm and he is making money thereby. Andrews kept seven cows last year and from these he sold $693.24 worth of cream and dairy products, and the keeping of these cows has been so profitable for him that he has increased his herd to 11 head this year. The majority of Andrews' cash revenue from these cows comes from the sale of cream. He lives about 25 miles from Colorado, which is his closest railroad marketing point, which is considered considerable of a handicap, yet he is making the dairy cattle pay handsomely. Andrews also kept about 35 hens from which he received a cash revenue of $159.68. He has increased his flock to over 100 laying hens for this year and expects to sell several hundred dollars worth of these products for these hens. Andrews is a good farmer and a good manager, as the above will signify, and he will make the increase in his herd and his flock produce him real money on the investment.

NEGRO GETS HAND HURT AT OIL MILL

Buick Ahead Again in the Yellowstone!

Again in 1926, more Buicks toured through Yellowstone Park than any other car except the one of lowest price.

Buick has held this same honor every year since the Park was opened to automobile travel.

This year there were 4,756 Buicks in a total of 44,472 cars registered. 101 different makes were represented in the registrations. One in every ten was a Buick.

Here is convincing evidence of Buick reliability—striking proof of the faith which Buick owners repose in their car.

They know Buick will take them and bring them back comfortably, safely and splendidly—across the Continent—or around the World.

Methodist Home Department

The Home Department of the Missionary Society met with Mrs. E. H. Winn, Monday, in the church. The chairman, Mrs. W. L. Doss, presided. The roll call was upon love. The chairman announced as her paragon committee for the year, Mrs. Barcroft, Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Pidgeon.

It was voted to place an electric water heater and boiler in the paragonage. It was also voted to send flowers to Mrs. Blanks, who is in the hospital. Special prayer was also offered for her.

It was voted to have four Saturday markets, beginning January 22. The chairmen for these are Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Dozier, Mrs. Winn, and Mrs. Hubbard. A number promised to take League delegates for the Institute Saturday and Sunday.

There were thirty women present and they went on record as favoring a curfew law for children of the county, a strict enforcement of the compulsory school attendance law, and pledged themselves to aid in any way they could in law enforcement.

Mrs. Hess was a new member and Mrs. Pidgeon of Indiana a guest. The hostess served lovely white cake and hot chocolate. Mrs. Sam Wulfjen is the next hostess.

Baptist Missionary Meeting

The Baptist Missionary Auxiliary met Monday in the church, with Mrs. Ford Morris and Mrs. A. L. Whipple as leaders. Mrs. Whipple had the Scripture lesson. The subject was "Intercession for a Revival." Mrs. Porter brought a message of the new year's opportunity. Mrs. Smoot talked on the ministry of prayer. Mrs. Ratliff talked on hindrances to prayer and Mrs. Terrell gave a splendid paper on our need of a revival. When she had finished all felt that Colorado needed a revival more than any other thing.

As Mrs. Whipple read appropriate Scriptures, Mrs. Slagel, Mrs. Lee Jones, Jr., and Mrs. Alexander read the verses of a beautiful poem, "I Will Hear." The watchword of the year, "Seek ye first the kingdom of heaven," was repeated in unison.

Resolutions to visit more, to be more diligent about the Master's business, and to attend the Missionary meetings more regularly, were made by those present.

There were forty in attendance, which looked as if the resolution to attend was being put into effect.

1921 Study Club

The 1921 Study Club met Friday with Mrs. Milburn Doss with a program on "Fine Arts." A number of visitors were present, several of whom were on the program.

Shower for Mr. and Mrs. Randolph McEntire

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Ross Dixon entertained with a beautiful shower for Randolph McEntire and his wife, who was Miss Gillian Foster of Sterling City. Mrs. Dixon met the guests at the door and presented them to the receiving line. At the head of this was Mrs. Randolph McEntire, next her mother, Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. E. B. McEntire, Mrs. Fowler McEntire, Mrs. James McEntire and Mrs. Claud Collins. Several piano numbers were given by Mr. Roy Fletcher and much enjoyed.

When all had gathered Miss Eleanor Thomas, dressed as a Gypsy, on a sudden saying she was hunting for the bride. When she had found her, she read her palm, promising her long life, happiness and many other blessings. In conclusion she told her to come to the Gypsy Caravan where many beautiful gifts awaited her. She led the bride to the sun parlor where a Gypsy tent was pitched. In front of the tent little Ross Dixon, Jr., as the cutest Gypsy boy imaginable, was playing. He welcomed the bride and her friends to the camp, and opened the tent to reveal the lovely shower and wedding gifts it contained.

The usual enthusiasm was shown in opening and admiring the pretty and useful articles.

White heart-shaped ice cream with pink cupid on the bears and lady fingers were served by Miss Eleanor Thomas, Mrs. Deane Tidwell, Mrs. McCall Merritt and Miss Catherine Pater. The plate favors were tiny Dresden brides and bridegrooms, most appropriate and lovely.

The guests from Sterling City were Mrs. Lowe, Miss Lowe, mother and sister of Mrs. McEntire; Mrs. Claud Collins, Mrs. Fowler McEntire and Mrs. James McEntire.

Bridgettes

The Bridgettes met Thursday with Mrs. Henry Vaught. There were four tables of players, one of guests. These were Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Lee Jones, Jr., Mrs. Clay Smith and Mrs. Bob Thompson. At the conclusion of a delightful afternoon, the hostess served hot coffee and pie.

The next meeting is with Mrs. W. L. Doss, Jr., at 3:30.

Self-Culture Club

The Self-Culture Club met last Wednesday with Mrs. L. B. Elliott. Mrs. John Brown was received as a new member. A report of the County Federation was given. R. L. BOBBITT NAMED SPEAKER OF HOUSE

AUSTIN, Jan. 11.—In the 12th year since he earned his way through the Texas University law school by waiting on tables, mowing lawns and performing other such tasks, Robert Lee Bobbitt, Laredo, Tuesday was unanimously elected speaker of the house of the fortieth Legislature, convening here at noon.

A. E. Wood, Craner, was unanimously chosen president pro tem of the senate.

Bobbitt and Wood are strong supporters of Dan Moody, governor-elect, but their election was urged by the men who in the thirty-ninth legislature were counted stalwarts of the Ferguson administration—a circumstance lending weight to general belief that the session is to be one of the most harmonious of history.

LEATRICE JOY HAS EXCITING HOUR IN "THE WEDDING SONG"

Leatrice Joy working her way down the cliff, lashed by a furious tropical storm, while a group of women a hundred feet below try to save her from a perilous fate. ### MOODY IS OPPOSED TO RAISE IN STATE TAXES

Deficiency Looms And Special Session Probable, Reports Say

AUSTIN, Jan. 11.—Whether or not there is to be a special revenue session of the Texas legislature is a question debated by the fiscal students who are members of the fortieth legislature. Demand for a real survey, its findings to be considered at a special session, is growing. That there will be a deficiency of $2,000,000 is a certain fact. Figures which have been compiled, based on the actual expenditures contemplated by constitutional and statutory requirements and the income which is apparent from the sources now available, are incontrovertibly indicative of a deficit. Governor Dan Moody, as Dan Moody will be known after next Tuesday, must face this as a fact, and despite the campaign pledges and platform generalities, unless a radical cut is made in the expenditures of the State government, new revenues must be obtained.

Opposed to New Taxation
Facing the certainty of a deficiency, the only alternative of the new governor is either to seek to push through an otherwise congested session of the legislature special revenue measures or to seek to find out the means of new income, the demands of State institutions, and then to discover how to obtain new revenue without any burden on present sources of State revenue.

During the campaign, which culminated in his nomination for the governorship of the State, Moody went definitely on record as being opposed to any new taxation on the people of the State. In practically every speech he made prior to the July primary vote the new governor said that he was unalterably opposed to any new revenue legislation. When he opened his second campaign in a speech at Greenville he said that he would favor additional revenue measures only in the event that it became necessary to do so in order that the public school system of Texas might function properly. He stood on this statement throughout the second campaign.

BANKS IN WEST TEXAS SHOW MUCH PROSPERITY

Financial conditions in widely distant sections of West and Northwest Texas are considerably improved over those at the beginning of 1926 according to reports received from correspondents of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

While bank deposits in some cases show a loss as compared with January, 1926, the decrease is in every case far more than offset by cotton remaining in farmers' hands and by the big feed crop already harvested and in the barns, awaiting the time when it will be turned into pork and beef and marketed at a profit.

On the other hand, Amarillo banks show a gain of more than $15,000,000 in deposits over the like date last year, and there is no doubt that a compilation covering all the banks in the Panhandle-Plains country will show far more money available for the rebuilding of the country than ever before since West Texas started making financial history.

Two things have contributed to the good conditions now prevailing. First, of course, comes the money expended by the oil companies as bonuses, rentals, wages and royalties, while, second, comes the big grain and feed crops which have made it unnecessary for farmers to send actual cash from other crops away for feed and food.—Star-Telegram.

AUSTIN, Jan. 11.—Dan Moody, governor-elect, Tuesday announced the appointment of Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum of Austin as his secretary of state; Joseph D. Sawyer, former governor, as a member of the board of pardon advisers; Boyd Gatewood of Houston as his private secretary, and J. D. Hall of Georgetown as his first assistant secretary.

PICTURE PACKED WITH DRAMA

A picture said to be fairly packed with drama is "The Wedding Song," starring Leatrice Joy and featuring Robert Ames. The scenes are laid in the underworld of San Francisco and on a tropical island. Many thrilling situations are brought about by the development of the story. The photoplay will be shown at the Palace Theatre next Friday and Saturday, January 19 and 20. The support is excellent.

COLORADO, TEXAS, FRIDAY JANUARY 14, 1927

WHIPKEY PRINTING CO.

FOUNDER MITCHELL COUNTY CHURCHES IS CALLED BY DEATH

Rev. J. C. Moore Diedd at Home in Sweetwater Friday; Pioneer Here

A great and useful life came to an end at 5:40 p. m. yesterday when the soul of the Rev. J. C. Moore passed to Him to whose service that life was dedicated as a preacher 56 years ago.

"Brother" Moore, of loved and grateful memory all over West Texas, died at his home in Sweetwater, with his wife and each of his living children at his bedside. He was 82 years old, December 8.

Following the funeral service held at the Methodist Church at 2 o'clock p. m. Friday, the Rev. G. S. Hardy in charge, the body was laid to rest in Sweetwater cemetery. Burial was under the direction of the Masonic lodge, of which Rev. Moore was a member.

Two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Clark of Gainesville, and Mrs. E. M. Smiley of Lorraine; and three sons, W. W. Moore of Cisco, J. H. Moore of San Antonio, and B. D. Moore of Victorville, Calif., are surviving children of Rev. Moore's first marriage. Horace Heath of Sweetwater is a stepson.

Among the other relatives present for the funeral were Glen and Devane Smiley of Lorraine, grandsons; Mrs. M. W. Paulson of Sweetwater, a grand-daughter, and Mr. Paulson; Mrs. Elmer Quinn of Pampa, a grand-daughter; Virgil McDaniel of Sweetwater, a grandson; J. A. McDaniel of Sweetwater, a son-in-law; Mrs. T. D. Freeman of Cisco, a sister-in-law; and E. M. Smiley of Lorraine, a son-in-law. There are twenty-four grand children and four great-grandchildren.

Rev. Moore became seriously ill December 23, last consciousness about midnight last Sunday, and gradually sank lower in vitality until the end came.

Before losing consciousness, Brother Moore was very cheerful, singing religious songs and quoting poetry, and telling his children how proud he was of them. Active in religious work of the Methodist Church until his illness, he had discussed his work for the new year and talked enthusiastically of attending a Confederate Veterans' reunion. He preached recently at Ada and Gannon although his failing strength caused his friends concern.

It is said of him that no other preacher in West Texas married as many couples and held as many funerals. A constructive worker, he built churches at McCaulley, Sylvester, Newman, Palava, Lorraine, Union Era, Eskota, Westbrook and Cuthbert.

Born in Giles County, Tennessee, December 8, 1844, Rev. Moore served in the Confederate army in company F, 32nd Tennessee Regiment infantry, under Generals Bragg, Johnson and Hood, and was severely wound-

Bozeman Comments On Recent Item In Record

On reading the article in last issue "35 Years, One Management, No Change," D. T. Bozeman said, "I don't know when the article was being written and don't know its author, but am sure he is a jolly good fellow."

"There are some errors and lots of exaggeration. To me the achievement seems but commonplace and could have been accomplished by any ordinary man if blessed with good health and a good wife like mine. But it is a fact that when I began selling goods in '91 the profits did not afford me a living and allow me to improve my homestead. I had but 75 cents (six bits) as a paid in capital, the remainder of my stock being on commission. So I had to work on the outside and wife worked inside. She kept store in addition to her other work. In my outside work I served as teacher, surveyor, postmaster, telephone manager, justice of the peace, etc., with service to my fellow man as my purpose, and alas, an empty purse and a clear conscience as my reward."

"But how did the outside world learn so much about me? When I came West I located in an obscure corner of the county. Was too busy earning bread and helping my wife with our seven children to attend public gatherings, make public speeches, or run for office."

"That my land is underlaid with oil is scarcely doubted, but there is no denying the fact that it is shy of water. When, after striving for more than a quarter of a century, I secured a supply of water, I was greatly elated and to bid the public welcome composed the little rhyme about the Colorado river which frequently becomes dry, then changed to the Mississippi River as in the placard, supposing it would be read by my customers and the few transient people who pass by."

"Somehow it reached the newspapers and now seems destined to go the length and breadth of the United States. Who would have thought it?"

Wife and children are modest unassuming Presbyterians and I am old time footwashing Primitive or Hardshell Baptist, of whom not one in a million ever attains worldly eminence. "So it must be—it really is ludicrous joke."

W. H. Richardson of Dunn, one of the most prosperous and prominent farmers of that section, recently killed a porker that takes the record insofar as we have been able to find out. The hog, which was only 14 months old, weighed 514 pounds.

He was licensed to preach in a Memphis conference in 1870. In 1883 he came to West Texas and as a circuit rider served in most of the counties of this section. He came to Sweetwater in 1901.

REGULAR MEETING OF MITCHELL COUNTY FEDERATION TUESDAY

Reports Show Club Working And Much Accomplished; $673 Goods Sold

The Mitchell County Federation met Tuesday in the parlors of the Christian Church with Mrs. H. B. Broadus as hostess.

The first hour and a half of the meeting was devoted to a lecture on oil stoves by Mr. Thrash, a demonstrator whom Miss Jones had secured. He said the points to be considered in purchasing an oil stove were dependability, safety, ability to do the job, one that required the minimum amount of care and used the minimum amount of oil. He showed the superior heating qualities of the New Perfection, care of the wicks, how to heat its oven, the necessity for clean oil, clean pans and right placing if best results were to be obtained. The women were very much interested in this and asked many questions.

When Mr. Thrash had finished, the minutes of the December meeting were read. Mrs. Jones reported $91.42 sent in on health seals. The treasurer reported $16.20 made on pleasure show benefit; $20 paid librarian; $12.82 on hand. Mrs. Jones reported eleven members in the Cooperative Market and $673.00 sold since last meeting. Proposed Bill Places Power
With Attorney General

AUSTIN, Jan. 8.—W. D. McFarlane of Graham, Young County, one of the five new members of the senate, is preparing two joint resolutions proposing amendments to the constitution. He would raise the pay of the members of the legislature, and he would remove the pardoning power from the governor and permit the legislature to place it elsewhere. He has a measure to vitalize the latter amendment if it is adopted by the people. McFarlane served in the last house. The amendment to the pardon clause of the constitution would change it so that the legislature could enact laws declaring who shall be vested with power to remit fines, grant pardons, furloughs and paroles. If it is adopted he would then propose a bill to provide that a pardon could be granted only with the consent of the attorney general and at least one member of the court of criminal appeals. This would take the pardoning power out of the hands of the governor.

Dodge Brothers, Inc.*

Within a few months, Dodge Brothers, Inc., will introduce a new line of motor cars, in no way conflicting with the market for Dodge Brothers present types, but occupying a considerably higher price field and produced in limited quantities.

Combining Dodge Brothers well known dependability with exceptional performance and striking beauty of appointment and design, these distinguished vehicles, we believe, will instantly set a new and higher standard in fine car practice.

Dodge Brothers will continue to produce their present line in maximum quantities to meet a demand which, during the year just ended, has called for an impressive total of 330,000 motor cars.

The Parent-Teachers' Association held their first meeting of the new year at the school building Friday night with a splendid crowd in attendance. After the business session a short program was rendered and a great deal of interest was manifested in the work. A report of the State inspector, who recently visited the school, was read by the superintendent which was very encouraging yet it made us realize that there's much to be done to meet the State's requirement for affiliation. Our next meeting will be January 21, at which time we will have a round table discussion on "The Problems of Childhood," led by Mrs. Berry. We earnestly crave your presence and cooperation in this work and believe you will be happier in so doing. J. W. Flemming celebrated his seventh birthday Friday afternoon with a party. As the little guests arrived they were each given a paper hat which they wore throughout the afternoon. J. W. was the happy recipient of many nice gifts and a jolly hour was spent playing games. Cake and soda pop were served to about fifteen guests. The favors were little baskets filled with candy. Miss Gladys Webb of Colorado was visiting friends here Saturday and Sunday. Miss Irene Bledsoe entertained with a forty-two party at her home south of town, Friday evening. Fifteen guests were present, all of whom entered into the game with much enthusiasm. Mr. Hague and Mrs. Oglesby won high score. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cake and chocolate were served, at a late hour, after which the guests bade their hosts good night and departed for home. Mr. Jack Garber has been quite sick with flu for the past few days but is much improved at this writing.

Don't fail to hear the sermon on "The Ideal Girl" from the young man's viewpoint, at the M. E. Church Sunday evening. The "Welcome All" Sunday School class will give a "Poverty Party" at the Riorden building Friday evening, January 21. This is something new and novel, so prepare yourself for an evening of fun. Mr. and Mrs. Lucas were called to Abilene recently where they had placed an order for a baby. Upon arriving there they found a fine-looking baby boy some eight days old who found favor in their sight as soon as they looked at him. The necessary action was taken for adoption and little Murry Charles was brought to his new home in Westbrook. He, with his father and mother attended church Sunday and at night, and judging from his looks he is well pleased with his new surroundings. You have only to look at the new dad and mother to know how happy they are over the matter. We heartily recommend Mr. and Mrs. Lucas for this noble deed and pray God's richest blessings upon them in the rearing of this, their new son. Mrs. G. C. Wildman has been confined to her bed with the flu for the past few days. Rev. Fillpot of Abilene filled the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday night. The young folks of the Baptist church will present a play at the school auditorium Friday evening. We understand this is a splendid play so keep this in mind and be on hand to encourage these young folks and at the same time get your share of the fun. The Methodist Church. We are happy to note some renewed interest being manifested in the work of the church since the passing of the holidays. There was somewhat of a letting down during the Christmas season, but many are getting back on the job with renewed zeal and enthusiasm. Last Sunday was a great day in many respects. The subject Sunday evening, "An Ideal Young Man," created quite a bit of interest. There was present the largest crowd we have had in almost a year. The pastor read a dozen or more letters that he had received from young ladies the preceding week in which they had described their ideal young man. Many seem to think that the standard was too high, but it at least proved to be a challenge to every young man present to strive to attain the highest possible standard of idealism. Next Sunday the pastor proposes to preach a sister sermon to the one delivered last Sunday. The subject will be "An Ideal Young Lady," from the young man's viewpoint. Already much interest is being manifested. The boys are already sending in their description of their ideal young lady. These letters will be read from the pulpit next Sunday evening. These will, within themselves, be an eye-opener. The boys do have an ideal. Come and see what it is. The sermon last Sunday evening was the first one delivered of a series of five. Make an effort to hear all of these sermons. "They will do thee good." Let every member of the church be present next Sunday morning. The pastor has something special for you. Don't stay away. Remember, you are needed. You will disappoint your pastor and hurt the service if you stay away. We have a great opportunity lying before us. Will you not resolve to make this the best year for your church in this community that has ever been known? There will be an out-of-town visitor with us next Sunday morning—come and meet him. "The Friendly Little Church on the Highway."

L. E. NORTHCUTT, Pastor. School Notes

Friday afternoon, January 7, the boys' and girls' basketball teams, accompanied by the pep squad, went to Rogers to play a matched game with the school teams. The weather was ideal and the pupils who went in cars and trucks enjoyed the ride greatly. Both games were won by Westbrook, the boys' game resulting in a score of 24 to 4, and the girls' game 12 to 0. Victories are always encouraging and both teams are anxious for another game soon. The boys' team will be hindered for a while owing to the misfortune of Thomas Gressett who is suffering with a broken arm. It is hoped, however, that he can be back with the team before many weeks. The seventh and eighth grades were given a part holiday last Friday afternoon for not having any tardies the month before Christmas. The two grades went in a truck to Reagan to attend the ball games. Notes by Sixth Grade Students

Mr. Will Bell, who used to live in Westbrook, is back from California. Tommy Gressett fell and broke his arm while playing basketball last Tuesday. Ira is going to put on a play Saturday night. The play is entitled, "When the Spring Quit Springing," and it promises to be good. All are invited to be present.

SILVER SCHOOL ORGANIZES P. T. A.

On Friday afternoon of January 8, 1927, the patrons of Silver school met with the teachers and organized a Parent-Teachers' association. The organization was perfected after Mr. Finley pointed out some of the needs and values of the organization. Mr. F. F. Brooks was elected president, Mrs. Brooks vice president, and Mrs. I. O. Finley secretary-treasurer. There were nine members. Others will probably enroll at the next meeting which will be held in the near future. After organizing the club, it was decided to have a box supper at the school on Friday night, January 14. The funds received from this supper are to be applied to various needs of the school. The members say they are not selfish and everyone is invited.

"Old Glory" now waves over the Silver school. Friday at noon the flag was raised and shouts of "Hurrah for Old Glory," and "Hurrah for the flag" went up from all parts of the playground. The flag was even noticed by the farmers from the hills and valleys around. It is the first one the school has ever possessed.

"BEAT COLORADO" IS AGAIN BIG SPRING'S AMBITION

Colorado nosed out on the football team in a recent contest but she is going to have a harder tussle in beating the First Methodist Sunday school in attendance record through the coming three months period.

Final arrangements for an attendance contest were completed Tuesday of this week when Rev. and Mrs. Hinds and Mrs. Charles Morris went to Colorado and with the officials of the Methodist church and Sunday Sunday school there agreed upon the conditions of the contest which is to be decided upon four points, namely: Attendance, number contributing, number remaining for preaching service, and number of new pupils enrolled. The contest started last Sunday, January 2. Further details will be made known as the contest progresses. One feature of it is that the records of each Sunday school will be communicated forth and back before dismissals and the standing will be known without delays.—Big Spring Herald.

Baptist Notes

The first service was held in the new basement Sunday morning. Mr. Harris led in the singing of "I Am Thine, O Lord," and another song, after which Bro. Ike Glass, teacher of the Men's Bible Class, led in prayer. The Sunday school superintendent, R. H. Bennett, read a portion of Christ's Sermon on the Mount, and made a short but appropriate talk. He mentioned the fact that we had hoped our first service there would be one of joy and praise in which our pastor would lead, but instead we had gathered with sorrowful hearts over his death which occurred the day before. His last message to the two preacher boys nearest him was, "Boys, do your best." We hope that we may do our best and be able to finish the church up some time before many years, that it may be a fitting memorial to the pastor who started it and an honor to God's cause in Loraine.

One hundred and twenty-five were present in Sunday school. The lesson was taught by S. C. Harris to the whole school in one class.

Saturday night is regular conference night. A pulpit committee will be nominated at that time. There will be regular services Sunday, although we are not able at this time to announce the man who will preach.

Loraine Pastor Dies

Probably one of the largest and the most widely attended funerals Loraine has ever witnessed was that of Rev. W. A. Foster, who had been pastor of the Baptist church since May, 1924. Twenty-five preachers and evangelists whom the writer knew personally were noted in the congregation and no doubt there were several others. Many friends from communities and towns in Mitchell and nearby counties, and others from farther away, gathered to pay their last respects to this beloved man.

After an illness of only a few weeks, he was carried on Christmas day to the Baptist Sanitarium in Abilene, for special medical treatment.

Owing to complications, the doctors were unable to do more than give temporary relief. Surrounded by a few friends and loved ones on last Saturday, as the light of the morning sun began to herald the new day, his spirit was ushered into the light of God's heavenly kingdom.

The body was carried to the family home at 1841 Orange, 19th street, Abilene, where it remained until tenderly borne by the Seniors of Simmons University to College Heights Church on Monday morning. There a very touching service of which we have not learned the details, was held. This was the second time during the 18 years Dr. Sandefer had been president of the school there that the choicest man of the Senior class had been taken.

According to Rev. Foster's own wishes, expressed prior to his serious illness, the body was then brought to Loraine where funeral services were held in the basement of the new church which he had begun building.

At 2:15 the Simmons Seniors, still acting as pallbearers, brought the body in, while a member of Simmons faculty played softly at the piano. A quartet from Simmons then sang, "Looking This Way." Rev. Sam Morris, who worked here with Rev. Foster in the last revival meeting, had charge of the service. After the Scripture reading, he introduced Dr. J. D. Sandefer, president of Simmons University, who addressed the assembly. He spoke of how our lives might be enriched by following the traits of character possessed by Rev. Foster—a gifted, cultured, well-balanced man of God who was beautiful in spirit and personality. According to our own selfish way of thinking, we cannot understand why our earnest prayers were not answered and his life spared a little longer for the good of his family, his church, Simmons and the present generation of youth. But God is entitled to the best and had a right to take this one of his choicest servants to his reward. It is only divine that we yield to his going. Dr. Sandefer then pictured the vacant chair on Senior day, February 22, when W. A. Foster was to have been class orator. How his winning smile will be missed by his friends everywhere as well as on the college campus.

Rev. Morris took the verses from the fourth chapter of 2nd Timothy as a text and spoke comforting and consoling words to the bereaved wife, daughter, son, sister and other relatives and friends. He closed with the verse, "Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness—and not to me only but unto all them also that love His appearing." Surely this crown and the joy of seeing others crowned is a greater honor than would have been the receiving of the diploma which Simmons would soon have given him.

Rev. Foster was only 37 years old but had been very successful in the ministry for a number of years. In addition to his work in Loraine, he was pastor of the good church at Ovalla at the time of his death. He was a member of the Masonic lodge of Big Spring. They could not come but sent a beautiful floral tribute. The Colorado lodge had charge of ceremonies at the cemetery.

The Loraine Methodist Sunday school, the Mitchell-Scurry Association of which he was moderator, the Ministerial Council and other organizations of Simmons University, several churches, and personal friends of Rev. Foster each made their contributions to the beautiful floral offering. Thus was their great love shown, the last earthly dwelling place of the body made beautiful and the scars of the grave made softer for bereaved hearts. One of the pastor's favorite songs was sung at the close and Dr. Sandefer dismissed the service with an earnest, heartfelt prayer.—Baptist Church Reporter.

The Loraine Study Club met last Thursday with Mrs. Arline Martin. Although several members were absent on account of sickness, we had a very interesting lesson on the Rocky Mountain National Park. Roll call was answered with some interesting feature of the park. Mrs. Hal Bennett was leader. After the lesson, Miss Laura Sheridan favored us with piano music and Princess Martin with a reading, "The Carpenter Man." The hostess served salad, olives, potato chips, cake and coffee. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harold Martin.

You see, my wife has been sick all the week; she caught cold the other day on our way home from Ballinger and I am both nurse and cook as my son is in McCamey and my daughter is in Sweetwater and the hired hand is in El Paso.
