LOCAL C. C. MEMBERS PROMINENT AT SNYDER DISTRICT WTCC MEET

Moody Flayed By Body; Dr. Coleman Is Recommended As Tech Regent

JUDGE THOMPSON SPEAKS

McCamey Chosen As Meeting Place For Next Year

Well represented in the prominence of its members if not in their number, Colorado Chamber of Commerce took an active part in the West Central District convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Snyder Tuesday.

Those attending from Colorado were Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Coleman, Judge and Mrs. C. H. Earnest, W. W. Porter, J. H. Greene, and Judge C. C. Thompson. Dr. P. C. Coleman was presiding officer at the session.

Moody's land bill veto came in for loud denunciation at the meeting, the convention having its approval when R. L. Panick, veteran Moody man of Stamford, offered a resolution urging the Texas Senate to override the governor's veto of the Small land valuation bill. The resolution was seconded by Judge Fritz R. Smith of Snyder.

Among those voting "aye" were Andy Boulden, WTCC president, and Homer D. Wade, general manager. A few hours later, at the convention dinner, Wade rose, his face wreathed in a smile, to read a telegram from Austin announcing that the senate had overridden the veto with votes to spare. There was another demonstration—and then another when a long telegram from W. E. Reid, legislator from Colorado, was read to the convention, in which Reid scathingly referred to "an attorney general who expects to run for governor, and a governor who expects to run for United States senator."

The Penick resolution went after the governor and attorney general hammer and tongs for having "felt called upon to function as judiciary officers in this matter, rather than permit the bill, which would clear title to so much valuable land in Texas, to take its course in the courts of the land. This for the reason that the officials named did not, and could not, have sufficient time to make the needed investigation of the organized crooks of our land could and would do."

Harriman's Car Ditched By Auto Thieves Saturday

Car thieves did not get far, though they got a running start, with Rex Harriman's Cadillac last Saturday night.

The car was parked at the depot while the Harriman family was at the picture show. When they returned to where they had left it, it was gone.

Next morning it was four miles west of town in a ditch. The drivers evidently did not know about the detour and running at a high speed could not stop. They abandoned the car after it ran into the ditch, and it was found undamaged except for the bumpers.

With two grading crews working on the Bankhead highway between Colorado's western limits and Morgan bridge, and three working on the road between Colorado and Lorraine, it is expected that weather permitting, grading and drainage work on the twenty-one miles of highway between Lorraine and Westbrook will be completed well within the next 90 days, and possibly within the next 60 days. Five crews are working on bridges and culverts, and these will be completed by the time the dirt work is done.

Actual laying of concrete on the highway through Iatan Flat is to begin on April 1, according to C. C. Thompson, county judge. This work is in charge of the David Ryan Construction Co., now in Tom Green county. Tibbets Construction Co. is in charge of the grading and drainage work on the highway. ## ROSS ARMSTRONG KILLED BY TRAIN SUNDAY MORNING

Lorraine Resident Mistook Main Tract For Switch Track

Mistaking the main track for the switch track, Ross Armstrong, 38, was instantly killed Sunday morning when struck by a freight train in the yards at Lorraine.

Armstrong was walking along between the two tracks, according to witnesses, and when the train whistled not far from him, he evidently became excited and mistook the main track for the side track and jumped in front of the train. He breathed but a few minutes after being struck.

An employe of the county, Armstrong was spending the Sunday at home with his mother, Mrs. Bill Petty, in Lorraine. He was well known over the county, having lived here for many years.

Funeral services were held Monday from the Baptist church in Lorraine and interment was in the Lorraine cemetery. A brother, George Armstrong of Cumby, and a sister who lived in Wichita Falls, survive him, beside a half-brother and half-sister, and his mother.

WORKERS' CONFERENCE HOLDS GOOD SESSION WITH SNYDER CHURCH

All Members of Evangelistic Party There Added To Program

The monthly Baptist Workers Conference of Mitchell-Scurry Association met with the Snyder church on Tuesday, March 5, in an unusually good session, with an attendance from all parts of the Association.

The Snyder church was in the midst of a revival with Rev. Mr. White of Lubbock doing the preaching, Mr. Carnett of Fort Worth Seminary leading the singing, and Mrs. White giving chalk lectures. So besides the vital subjects discussed by the able leaders of the Association, these treats were thoroughly enjoyed and will be carried back to the various churches.

Rev. Mr. White preached on "Echoes" at the 11 o'clock hour with such force that many resolved to let the echoes of their lives, in word, deed and action, be for good.

At the noon hour a bounteous luncheon was served in the basement of the church by the good women.

Following this, a board meeting and W. M. U. sessions were held. At the board meeting, the subject of an Associational missionary was discussed and Rev. W. D. Greene of San Angelo was unanimously chosen.

Besides the regular W. M. U. business, Mrs. G. W. Bower of Snyder was elected to fill the vacancy of Young People's leader, the subject of redistricting the State was discussed and it was voted to send the president unopposed at the board meeting in Fort Worth next week. A devotional program was given by the Snyder women. After this, Mrs. White gave a very inspirational chalk lecture, concluding with a special song, "Have Thine Own Way," by Mr. Carnett.

Rev. G. W. Parks of Roscoe had for his lecture, "Changing Preachers," that had wit, humor and wisdom.

The next meeting will be with the Roscoe church on April 9. Those attending from Colorado were Rev. W. C. Ashford, W. R. Morgan, J. L. Bowen, Mesdames Robert Terrell, Carrie Gustine, W. R. Morgan, Hugh Callan, Blackard, Mohler and A. I. Whipkey.

METHODISTS HERE BEAT SWEETWATER ON LAST SUNDAY

COLORADO CHURCH WOULD HAVE BEEN WINNER EVEN ON 50-50 BASIS

Though certain ratios had been fixed in the points of contest between the Methodists of Colorado and Sweetwater, because of Sweetwater's greater membership and possibilities, Colorado Methodists would have come out winner last Sunday, the first one of the contest, even if all the points had been on a fifty-fifty basis.

Colorado's attendance at Sunday school was 371, Sweetwater's 329. Colorado had 16 new pupils to Sweetwater's 8, and Colorado had 302 staying for church, while Sweetwater had only 175. Thirty-one teachers were present in Colorado, and 28 in Sweetwater. Collection here was $70.44 to Sweetwater's $42.21.

The number of teachers present was the only point on which the

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. J. J. CLARK AFTER YEARS AS INVALID

Deceased Was Making Her Home With Her Daughter, Mrs. A. J. Herrington

After some fifteen years as an invalid, Mrs. J. J. Clark was claimed by death at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Herrington, in Colorado, Wednesday night.

Mrs. Clark was born Minerva Janie Stockton in Arkansas on August 28, 1843, making her near 86 years of age at the time of her death. She was reared near Little Rock, Arkansas. Her first residence in Texas was in Hopkins county, where she was married to J. J. Clark when she was 21 years of age. Mr. Clark preceded her in death about nine years ago.

They lived later in Scurry county for some time, moving from there to Colorado about twenty years ago. Mrs. Clark had made her home with Mrs. Herrington for the past six years.

Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Clark, seven of whom survive their mother. The five daughters are: Mrs. A. J. Herrington, Colorado; Mrs. W. R. Roe of Snyder; Mrs. W. L. Herrington, Colorado; Mrs. A. B. Shaw, of Grand Saline; Mrs. Tom Goss, Colorado. The two sons are D. E. Clark of Ira, and Ed S. Clark of Colorado. All these were present for the funeral except Mrs. Shaw, who was unable to come.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Herrington home in Colorado, with Rev. W. C. Hinds, pastor of the Methodist church, in charge. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery beside the husband of the deceased.

LOCAL OFFICERS CAPTURE STOLEN CAR, ARREST MAN

New Ford Taken In Big Spring Spotted Tere Fifty Minutes Later

Fifty minutes after it was stolen in Big Spring, Chief Dick Hickman and Assistant Chief Homer Key caught a new Ford automobile in West Colorado Monday night and arrested the driver, a man accompanying the driver making his escape.

The car had been parked in Big Spring by a garage owner near his place of business. Colorado officials were informed of the theft, and when the drivers stopped at the first filling station west of the Col-Tex refinery to buy gasoline, they were seen by the officers.

Just as the policemen made a rush for the car, the driver saw them, threw the Ford into second gear, and made an effort to get away. Hickman caught on the running board, and Key caught the back end of the car. With two pistols pointing at him, the driver decided it was best to stop. Chief Hickman asked the man if he had a gun, and he replied: "No, no; if I had I would have been using it."

During the excitement the second man in the stolen car made his escape after paying for the gas, but the driver who was arrested accepted all the blame, according to the officers here, and said the other man had nothing to do with the theft.

Big Spring officers arrived soon after the arrest and took the man and car back with them.

Crew Working On Water Main Half Through

Laying of the new water mains on Chestnut, Third and Hickory streets was nearly half done on Thursday.

Churches were to go 50-50. The first three were to be on the ratio of 6-9, and collection 5-6.

Sweetwater promises to put up a real fight next Sunday, according to Rev. W. C. Hinds, pastor of the Methodist church.

POTSY CALLS HOLE-IN-ONE 'AN ACCIDENT'

"It was an accident," says Potsoy Doss, age 13.

"Maybe so," replied Bob Scott, Colorado's golf star, "but I've been playing for years and have never had a pleasant accident like that."

They were referring to the hole-in-one made by Potsoy on the Country Club golf course last week. And Potsoy upheld the start he made then in the golfing game by making a "birdie" last Saturday.

He was playing with Edgar Allmond, Lewis Taylor and Charles Cook when he made the hole-in-one, and all of these witnessed the play. Potsoy has been caddying at the club ever since it opened, and has learned the game both by watching and practicing.

L. B. Elliott is making efforts to get the Hole-in-One Club to give the youthful golfer a prize, and if he is successful, Potsoy will probably be among the youngest, if not the youngest, to ever get this distinction. Dr. G. W. Hubbard and J. Max Thomas are the only two Colorado golfers having membership in the club at present.

DRIVERLESS CAR ON COLORADO STREETS SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Stock Model Chevrolet To Stop, Go, Honk Without Driver or Passenger

A driverless car will do all the things that one with a driver can do on the streets of Colorado next Saturday when a standard stock model automobile will give six exhibitions.

This mysterious machine is operated and controlled entirely by radio and will carry neither driver nor passenger, yet it starts, stops for signal lights and steers its way through traffic just as if a driver were at the wheel. It will blow three large automobile horns at intervals to attract the attention of passers-by, or anyone that might be in its path.

R. E. Allen, the inventor and operator of the driverless automobile, will give the demonstrations here personally. Mr. Allen has selected a new Chevrolet for local exhibitions. This car is a stock model loaned by the Mills Chevrolet Co. of this city. The radio apparatus will be installed on the car at the shop of this concern early Saturday morning. Mr. Allen says he has selected the new Chevrolet with which to demonstrate the possibilities of radio because of its ease of operation, powerful motor and wireless steering. These qualities insure more uniform performance and afford the operator an opportunity to function unhampered by road shock, difficult steering and other items which would materially impair its effectiveness.

During the past year Mr. Allen has been successful in operating this driverless machine under radio control from an airplane flying overhead, from a radio broadcasting station, from a second car following and from a portable radio control device carried in the hands of the operator walking some distance behind the car.

The car will be controlled from a second car which is equipped with a majestic radio furnished by W. L. Doss. This car will be driven some distance from the mystery car.

Following is the schedule of the radio car, Saturday, March 9:

Start at Mills Chevrolet Co. at 12:45 p. m.

Gulf Gasoline Co., at 2:15.

W. L. Doss Drug Store at 3:45.

Mills Chevrolet Co., Delco-Remy Batteries at 4:15.

Hicks Rubber Co. at 5:30.

Club Cafe at 6:15 for dinner.

with 67 men working since Monday morning.

More than 4,000 feet of new mains are being laid, 1,800 feet being cast-iron 8-inch water pipe laid along Chestnut, Third and Hickory streets, and connecting with the 8-inch "one second street. The other feet being laid is 6-inch pipe, and the 2-inch line on Hickory

Meetings To Take Place In The High School Auditorium

Several hundred people from Mitchell and three surrounding counties are expected to be in attendance at the Four-County Singing Convention in Colorado Saturday night and Sunday.

The program for the meeting Saturday night, which begins at 7:30, has been prepared by the local entertainment committee, composed of W. L. Doss, Sr., W. W. Porter, and Sam Smith. Committees will be appointed at the close of the Saturday night meeting to prepare the program for Sunday, as it will be known by that time who will be present and who will not.

A number of quartets and singers of note will probably be present, and songs by these, liberally interspersed with congregational singing led by various ones will make up Sunday's program. One especially fine quartet from Snyder who have recently been invited to sing over the radio at Amarillo, will be in attendance.

The meetings will take place in the high school auditorium, and W. L. Doss, Sr., as chairman of the program committee, will preside during the early part of the evening. A song by the congregation will open the evening, and prayer will be led after that by Rev. A. D. Leach.

After Chairman Doss has made whatever statements he sees fit, W. W. Wood of Snyder, president of the convention, will be placed in charge. A song led by Claude Womack will be followed by two numbers by the Boys' Glee Club of Colorado High School, directed by J. W. Treat.

Thomas Riordan will lead the next song, which will precede a duet by Dr. C. L. Root and Dr. T. J. Ratliff. Following this, the Boys' Glee Club will sing again, and the evening program will be closed with a song.

A large and appreciative crowd met at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon, where for two hours they listened to the splendid singing that was rendered by the class.
The Missionary Society had the best meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Burr Brown on Monday afternoon, with 28 present, including several visitors. An enthusiastic business meeting was held after which a social hour was greatly enjoyed. The hostess, assisted by her group, served coffee with cherry pie and whipped cream. On next Monday afternoon we will meet with Mrs. Terrell, from 3 to 4 o'clock, after which the Epworth Juniors will entertain the mothers, the junior group meeting at Mrs. Terrell's and the primary group at the parsonage. Every member of the society is invited to be present and enjoy the treat these youngsters has in store for you.

On last Thursday night the members of the B. Y. P. U., accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. McDermitt and Mrs. Grover Williams, went on a Missionary tour, the trip being made in a truck. The first nation visited was that of Africa, where they were met by a couple of dark complexioned ladies who told the visitors about their country, their work, etc., after which they were served gingerbread. The next country to visit was Brazil. Here they were served coffee. From there they went to Japan, where they feasted on tea and cakes. The next station was France, where champagne was served. The last nation to visit was that of China, where they were invited to sit on the floor and partake of rice with chopsticks, which proved to be rather awkward. Upon arriving at each nation the visitors were given an entertaining description of the country, their customs, and the work being done by the missionaries so the tour was quite profitable as well as enjoyable to the youngsters. Let us hope that more of such occasions will be planned for our boys and girls, instead of some of the things they sometimes indulge in.

Rev. Gray, representative of the Waco Orphans' Home, will speak at the Methodist church Sunday night. You are cordially invited to hear him.

Stag 42 Party
Last Friday evening, Mrs. Homey Smith and Mrs. Ernest Jones entertained at the home of Mrs. Smith with a stag 42 party, the occasion being Mr. Smith's birthday. There were five tables of "42," and after many interesting games, the hostess served a delicious plate lunch of sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, stuffed egg and potato salad. The favors were 3-leaf shamrocks. The guests all gathered around the dining table, where the beautiful white birthday cake, green candles in pink holders were lighted. Many comments were made on the number of candles, but we will always wonder just how many were there. The cake was cut and served with jello, whipped cream and coffee. Joe Bennett won high score, having 13 games to his credit, receiving a beautiful all-leather pocketbook. Dr. W. L. Hester won second, his score being 12 points, and Mayor G. W. Hendrick won the consolation, a beautiful nickel-plated cornet. He was requested to play a solo entitled, "We Are Here Because We Are Here." Everyone agreed that Mr. Kendrick is a very accomplished musician. The guests departed at 12, everyone having had a very delightful time.

Midland Group Inquires About Evangelist Here
Although it has been some four years since Dr. James Rayburn, evangelist, held his union revival in Colorado, it was proven that Colorado people still remember it as one of the greatest in the history of the town in the report they gave concerning Dr. Rayburn's force and ability to an inquiring committee from Midland Tuesday.

Ministers of Midland are planning a union revival for that town, and have seriously considered securing Dr. Rayburn as evangelist. The visit of the committee to Colorado was made to get some idea of his success here, and it is said that Colorado's report was very favorable.

The visiting committee was composed of Rev. T. D. Murphy, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Midland, R. T. Bucy, Rev. J. E. Evena of the Christian church, and George Ratliff.

Luther Anders who lives two miles east of Bauman school has been feeding an egg-laying mash to his 235 Buff Leghorn hens and he reports that after using this feed for three weeks the hens have tripled the production of a straight grain ration. Before feeding the balanced ration the hens were laying only 35 eggs per day and now they are laying from 95 to 100 eggs daily. Mr. Anders says this is the first time he has fed an egg-laying mash and that he is well pleased with the results. He is milking four Jersey cows, two of which are almost dry, and get his check amounted to over $17 last week. He intends to sell off his cows this fall and buy two or three extra good ones as he can make more profit from two high producers than he can from four average ones.

YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN WHO THINK CLEARLY THE GREATEST DEMAND OF AMERICAN BUSINESS

Bankers Association President Gives the Five Essentials of Sound Thinking in Business—Greater Opportunity Than Ever Before for Young People With Educational Training and Power to Analyze Problems.

By CRAIG B. HAZLEWOOD President American Bankers Association

ONLY half a century ago Michael Pupin, a shepherd boy, guarded his flocks by night among the fields of Serbia. Thieves often lurked in the bordering cornfields awaiting an opportunity to make off with a part of the herd. Serbian boys were taught a method of signalling one another for warning and help. Each carried a knife with a long wooden handle which he would thrust deep into the ground and in case cattle thieves approached he would strike the wooden handle. The sound would be transmitted through the ground to other boys some distance away who could hear and interpret the message.

CRAIG B. HAZLEWOOD

"Why is it," Pupin asked his mother, "that we can signal this way? Why is it the sound can be heard through the ground, but not through the air? Why is it the signals can be heard in the pasture land so much better than in the plowed fields?" The boy's mother could not answer his questions, nor could the village teacher. However, having an eager mind and great determination, the boy decided to go to America, where he might win an education and find out the answers to these and other perplexing questions. Hundreds of other boys under the same circumstances and with the same set of conditions merely accepted these things without once questioning them just because they had always done them that way.

The Land of Education and Success

So a penniless immigrant boy from Serbia at the age of fifteen landed in New York in 1871 and, years later, having worked his way through Columbia University, concentrated the wonder and simplicity of his signal upon the problem of sound, which had puzzled him as a shepherd boy. The results of his thinking—what he has accomplished for the long distance telephone and for radio communication by his inventions—are known the world over. "If during the past twenty-two years this company had been compelled to do without one invention of Michael Pupin," an official of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company once said, "and yet give the same service it is giving today it would have had to spend at least $100,000,000 more than it has expended."

These inventions, in which millions of dollars of capital have been invested, were the result of the thinking of a mere country lad who had the simplicity to wonder, the determination to know and the power to apply what he learned.

Stimulating the imagination and thinking is the greatest purpose of education. What American business needs more than anything else is young men and women to think—individuals who are not mentally anchored to tradition, who do not merely appropriate other people's ideas, but who are hard, purposeful thinkers, independent and unprejudiced, with the ability to concentrate and strike straight for the heart of a problem.

Business Needs Folk Who Think

America has astounded the world by its readiness in casting aside traditional viewpoints, disregarding traditional difficulties and pioneering new shortcuts for the realm of business. Business is undergoing epochal changes.

Business problems are crowding in upon us so rapidly that the executive knows not where to look for adequate help or relief. With the enormous increase in size and intricacy of business affairs the problems have become so complicated and the mass of information necessary to their solution so great that the "days are not long enough." The demand for managerial and executive ability is rushing ahead—the opportunity for young men and women who have the professional training and who develop genuine thinking power is greater than ever.

All business feels the same crying need for the men who see clearly and think conclusively. Whenever we look—manufacturing, wholesaling, retailing, banking, financing—new forces are at work. Vast movements are under way and executives are seeking light upon perplexing problems daily.

Let us consider briefly the five essentials of a sound thinker. If I were looking for a young man of exceptional promise I should hope, first, to find in him the simplicity to wonder. Every great advancement in business has been made by men who dared to wonder, who had the courage to inquire into present procedure and who had the audacity to ask whether something that had been done a certain way for a long time might not be wrong. Although the history of America's progress from its very discovery to the present time has shown the value of an inquiring mind, there is still an inevitable tendency in most men to accept in a docile manner the opinions, methods, supposed facts, procedures and processes of the past. With due reverence to the effort, the spirit, the accomplishments of the past, let us make it our rule that everything be looked at with the clear questioning mind of the scientist.

Business Requires an Open Mind

Second, among the essentials for sound thinking I would write down an open mind. We have mentioned freeing our minds from the influence of tradition. Let us think also without prejudice of personal feelings, desires or consequence. Let us seek only the truth. Mere surface reasoning must be discarded. Old "can'ts" and "don'ts" must be thrown into the discard. A man who has an open mind will do a great many things because he doesn't know they can't be done.

The third essential to sound thinking is knowledge—a thorough, comprehensive understanding of all the factors involved in a problem. It has been said that most problems answer themselves when the facts have been gathered. A well known student and teacher of business describes the method of attacking a problem as tearing it down, reassembling the problem and drawing the conclusion. There can be nothing but guess work or intuition unless the unknown quantities are discovered.

As a fourth essential sound thinking requires the capacity to generalize. How often we have seen men sweating and confused before a mass of details which they were utterly unable to classify and crystallize. We have the problem of sorting out the relevant, attaining a perspective and reaching a conclusion that can be defended against any attack. To certain minds this procedure comes naturally; to others training in the solution of complicated problems points the way out.

The Time for Action

Fifth among the essentials of sound thinking is the power to apply. A few individuals have minds that travel at random or in circles. Some have minds that even refuse to budge. But there are still others who naturally or through training have minds that can be directed straight through to the practical application of their thoughts. They refuse to compromise or to be thwarted in purpose before definite application of their ideas has been achieved.

It is possible, I believe, for young people to train themselves to an inquisitive attitude, an open mind and the ability to classify and interpret material step by step from the beginning of a problem to its final solution and application. Here, then, is the thought I would leave—the paramount need of business is sound thinking. Some may think I have overstated the case, have set an high a standard. They may feel that they are merely cogs in a machine. That, too, is a part of the problem. The only way to solve that is to find time and place in the day's work for thinking.

SCHOOL SAVINGS BANKING MOVEMENT REACHES IMPRESSIVE PROPORTIONS

Almost 14,000 of America's schools now have school savings banking plans in operation, and about four million pupils are learning systematic savings through this type of thrift, with deposits in excess of $26,000,000, recent reports of the American Bankers Association's Savings Bank Division show. The schools included in the reports are attended by 4,609,525 pupils, of whom 2,240,237 are participants in the school savings banking plans mentioned. During the year these plans have received interest in the amount of $17,500 on their deposits.

The reports gathered by the association also show that there are 33 cities in the United States in which a full 100 per cent of the grammar school enrollment is participating in school savings banking. The figures covering high schools show that in 47 cities 100 per cent of the attendance in this class has school savings.

"HALF A BRIDE" TO BE AT PALACE WEDNESDAY

"Half a Bride," with Esther Ralston, Gary Cooper, and Gregory La Cava as its leading cast, is billed to appear at the Palace Theatre here next Wednesday night. ### WHAT'S DOING IN WEST TEXAS

When work is completed on the Lee highway, according to a Crowell paper, Foard will be one of the first counties in Texas to have all bridges across the county 24 feet wide, and of re-inforced concrete. Foard will have 35 bridges, and culverts, with all culverts 20 feet in width.

Perkins & Reynolds, well drilling contractors of Kermit, were recently awarded a contract for sinking a second well on Leunst street property of the utility concern. The bore of the new well will be 8 1/2 inches and is expected to increase the available water supply 3,000 barrels daily.

During one stretch of 19 days, J. T. Draper, of Lone Star, made a profit of $61.00 for his 400 hens. The eggs sold amounted to $30.05, and the feed cost $29.05. The price ranged from 30 to 85 cents. Draper

Methodists Finish Study Course

The Methodist church has been studying "The Methodist Evangel" at prayer meeting the last month. On Wednesday evening a review of the whole book was taken. The outstanding thoughts brought out were the need of a revival over the whole world, especially among the so-called Christian nations, and more vital teaching on the prominence of God as Father and Ruler of all mankind. All Southern Methodism has been studying this during the Missionary Cultivation period of the months of January and February.

RECORD EAGER TO BE SHEET OF NEWS FOR ALL

The Record is eager to be a news medium for everyone in Colorado and Mitchell county. Its staff and publishers are concerned with making it a distributor of news concerning the comings and goings and activities of every citizen in the county, for the actions of each citizen are of interest to some of the Record's readers.

But it is impossible for a staff of two or three to hear of things of interest to everyone in the county, and it is for this reason that we ask your cooperation by phoning, writing, or seeing some member of the Record office force or Mrs. J. G. Merritt, whenever you know of someone who has been somewhere, returned from somewhere, been ill, or done anything else that would be of interest to Record readers. It is those little things that give a paper some of its keenest local value in Colorado, where most of us know everybody else.

$299,200 BUDGET IS REPORTED ADOPTED BY BOLLWORM COMMISSION

W. W. Porter, of Colorado Present At Meeting Of Body in Austin

W. W. Porter, Colorado member of the State Pink Bollworm Commission, who met with the commission in special session in Austin Thursday, reports that the board unanimously recommended the adoption of a budget of $299,200 for the year, starting Sept. 1, 1929, and a like sum for the corresponding period ending August 31, 1931, which is to provide the financing machinery for enforcing the recently passed pink bollworm bill.

This sum of slightly under $600,000 is to provide compensation for cotton growers in the existing regulated areas of West Texas, who heretofore have had to defray the costs of having their cotton seed sterilized at an approximate cost of 75¢ a bale and their lint fumigated at the prevailing charge of $1.25 a bale. The budget takes into account an annual production of some 160,000 bales from the present regulated areas. Of the annual outlay contemplated, $200,000 would be paid by the State for fumigating bales and $72,000 for sterilizing some 72,000 tons of seed at $1 a ton, which was considered just, and $27,200 is the estimated cost of ascertaining the correct amounts due by the State Compensation Claim board.

Brewster county, which was made a non-cotton zone in 1928, will be recommended to be released and placed back in a regulated zone, it having been found that the non-cotton zone has served its purpose of reducing the infestation, according to Federal and State officials.

The State Claims Compensation Board, of which W. A. Dulin and T. H. Halbert of Mitchell county are members and which met in Austin on Wednesday, recommended the payment of $23,000 to Wayne Cartledge, cotton grower near Santa Helena in Brewster county, whose average production on 190 acres was established at 170 bales, or 14-15 of a bale to the acre.

Would Change Boundary Brewster county's release will serve as an interesting experiment, in the opinion of R. E. McDonald, senior administrative officer in charge of Federal plant quarantine and administration, who said if infestation is found there next year it would probably be traceable to flight and wind carriage of pink bollworm moth, since no cotton fields on the Mexican side of the river are adjacent to the Texas border.

Changes were recommended in the northern boundary of the present quarantine line of Dawson county to expedite ginning for the convenience of interests of O'Donnell, Inkum and Pumpkin Center. The boundary was moved south several sections, but not as far as wanted by Dawson county residents whom Mr. Crawley represented. To move it further south would have brought it too close to a cotton field infested in 1927.

Contrary to expectations, the question of releasing some West Texas counties from present quarantine regulations did not come up.

Under the new law, signed by Gov. Dan Moody, the State would either buy or lease and operate the seventy-three gins and seven fumigation plants in the regulated zones of West Texas. The bill was introduced by Carl Rountree and Henry Webb to meet the complaints of farmers in present regulated zones for having to pay costs of having their cotton pro-

LORAINE CLUB BOY REFORTS PIG GAIN

Fred Harrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Harrell of Lorraine, reports a gain of 13 pounds on his 4-H Club pig during the first ten days of the feeding period. The pig is being fed maize, milk and pig feed and as the pig only weighed 42 pounds at the beginning of the test, this is considered a good gain.

Other members of the Lorraine club who are feeding pigs are: Hugh Harrell, Kenneth Richburg, Weyman Kirkpatrick, George Draper, Roy Willis, Louis Wilcox, Myrl Haygood, Robert and Thomas Horton and Thomas Collier.

J. W. WATSON ATTENDS A. C. C. BOARD MEETING

The board voted to continue the building program on the new campus in Abilene Heights and to erect only strictly fire-proof buildings.

ceased, which they maintain is not as much for their own protection as for the protection of other cotton sections of Texas where the worm, once established, would prove probably a more serious menace. They have maintained for some time that the pink bollworm is not a serious menace in West Texas, as it has had difficulty of establishing itself and has only been found in limited numbers the last two years in the seven counties placed under regulation in 1928.

Law's Efficiency Doubled The workability of the newly passed law is doubted by the members of the Pink Bollworm Commission in some of its provisions and the committee conferred with Governor Moody for the purpose of either amending it or amending the previous law, which was considered satisfactory, by adding provisions compensating farmers for losses. To the committee were added Commissioner of Agriculture George B. Terrell, and Representative Rountree.

Gov. Moody urged Mr. Terrell to see what trade he could make with the West Texas ginners as to the new regulations. It was plain that nothing could be done at this session of the Legislature and that the appropriation matter would have to receive the attention of a special session. Gov. Moody, when told the average cost of sterilizing seed, thought the figures were rather high. He was told by Mr. McDonald that if no appropriations are made for compensating these costs, the work of the State and Federal departments would be seriously impaired. Mr. Rountree told the commission he was agreeable to any amendments that would be made to the bill and that all West Texas is interested in is to have the present pink bollworm eggs placed on the State and not on the farmers.

The Pink Bollworm Commission will ask the Board of Control to make additional appropriations providing $30,000 a year for the pink bollworm administration work. Members of the commission present at the meeting were W. D. Parris, Ennis, chairman; W. K. Crawley, Lamesa; D. S. Beeman, Fort Stockton; J. H. Boogher, Grand Falls, and W. W. Porter of Colorado, and J. M. Delcurto, chief entomologist of the State Department of Agriculture.

WEST TEXAS AGAIN TALKS SECESSION

(From Austin American)
This half-century-old secession cry is echoing again as the newest development of the fight to have the State validate titles to dry stream beds sold many years ago, suddenly turned to golden treasure by the discovery of oil, and which Governor Moody and the Attorney General's department are claiming for the State.

This time the talk of reviving the attempt to carve out a brand new State on the wind-swept plains, the high Panhandle, and the really western part of the State is being taken seriously by westerners, according to Wed E. Reid of Colorado and other western representatives, and is being fanned to a new pitch by the acute triangular controversy over land, oil and water.

"It is a West Texas of more than two million people talking now, instead of the barren plains of 300,000, scattered inhabitants of a few decades ago that is mulling over the question of a separate empire," Reid said. "The first thing you know, you will wake up and find the State of West Texas an accomplished fact," he said as he discussed Governor Moody's veto of the land title validation bill.

"And it isn't the 'out past the beyond' country, nor the 'West of the Pecos' regions that we are talking about," Reid emphasized. "Fort Worth boasts of being 'Out where the West begins,' and when we say West we mean the western half of the State."

The agitation for an effort to create a separate Western State has reached points of considerable intensity at various times in the past, due to controversies and "growing pains" similar to the present oil, water, land situation. The vast wealth from the oil and gas production of the territory; the rapid increase in population; the great crops of wheat, the uncounted millions in mineral wealth such as potash and nitrate, gold, silver, zinc and quicksilver, the expanding areas of insubstantial irrigated lands and the spreading lakes of impounded water in which the safety and the security of its economic life is contained, all this gives the west a new assurance in its dream of sovereignty.

Sooner or later, the West Texans say, there is sure to come a climax in the long, disjointed but irrefragable envisioning of a separate State. There will come a time when some issue like those budding now will force a real test on the ability of the west to quit the rest of the State.

WESTBROOK SCHOOL NEWS

An interesting contest, teaching children the correct way to brush teeth as recommended by dental authorities, has been a feature of the current 1928-29 school year, according to Mrs. C. S. Lambert, one of the Westbrook teachers.

"Much brushing of teeth," Mrs. Lambert declares, "has been found ineffective, simply because the correct way to brush is not understood."

And actually, it is easier to brush teeth effectively by correct use of the correct brush than to brush the wrong way."

"We made a contest of it, in which the children took an unusual degree of interest, and found it isn't difficult at all, once the proper way is learned."

Winners announced by Mrs. Lambert were Eula Bell, Allen Hayslip, John Bell, Cleo Ussery, and Lucille Fox.

Following are the names of those who were on the honor roll in the fourth and fifth grades:

Fourth grade—Rennis Hines, Eula Bell, Ora Jane Williams, R. Cletus Rowland.
Fifth grade—Mary Florence Van Horn, Chester Collins, Sibel Holder, Lucille Moore, Ruth Miller, Clodan Board.

ANOTHER TUNNEL IS FOUND IN CAVERN

CARLSBAD, N. M., March 2.—Another tunnel in Carlsbad cavern was discovered and explored when Thos. Boles superintendent, and Jim White, veteran guide, and a small party of Carlsbadites, who have visited the cave on many occasions, entered what has been called "Left Hand" tunnel for a distance of nearly two miles.

Narrow boards used for bridges, and a coil of heavy rope were several times brought into play to negotiate the chasms and descend from one elevation to another. In this new tunnel, as in all others recently discovered new rooms, the formation seems more intricate and more beautiful. If possible, than in the other rooms first discovered. Considerable trail building will be required before the public can be admitted to this newest of the uncharted passageways of the great cave.

TIRES CAREFULLY STUDIED PROBLEM OF NEW FORDS

One of the problems which demanded most careful study and exhaustive experimenting in the building and equipping of the new Model A Ford car was that of tires.

The new Ford was an entirely new car in its class, with power, speed and acceleration that were also new to the field of light, moderate-priced cars. The very first test models of the car proved that tires which could be counted upon to "stand the gaff" with the Model A Ford must be larger, tougher and better able in every way to withstand wear, heat from

Got Up In The Morning Feeling DIZZY

"I BEGAN to suffer with headache and biliousness," says Mr. John C. Malone, of Buena Vista, Ohio. "I had a hurting through the middle part of my body which seemed to come from indigestion. I would get constipated, and then feel all out of sorts. I would get up in the morning feeling dizzy, and everything I ate would disagree with me. 'Someone asked me why I did not try Black-Draught. I found it to be just the medicine I needed. When I feel a spell coming on, I begin by taking a dose of Black-Draught, dry, at night. I continue to take it for several days, and in a short while I am feeling fine. It is all the medicine I need.'" road friction and ordinarily damaging action of bumps, ruts and other uneven road surfaces upon the tread and the sidewall of the tire.

Costs only 1 cent a dose.

To begin with, these tires with which all Model A Fords are equipped, while designated as 30x4.50 in size, actually give an effect equal to that of tires measuring 30x4.75, when fitted to the special drop center steel spoke wheels of the car.

The designers of the Model A Ford realized that this car would go into many parts of the world and find many varied road conditions. So the tires with which the first few test models of the new car were equipped were subjected to every possible type of service and from these tests Ford engineers were able to determine specifications that would produce a truly modern balloon tire with all the excellence of design, workmanship and material to insure its giving a service on a par with that of the Model A car itself.

Tires for the Model A Ford are made by several of the best manufacturers of the country, but every tire must meet those specifications. The rubber which goes into each of these tires must be of the finest grade of new, live rubber that has been properly cured. Just so much of this rubber, to within a fraction of an ounce—and no less—must be used. The cotton from which the cord is manufactured must be of the fine, long-fibre variety, tough and durable. And each lot of tires received at the Ford assembly lines must first be carefully inspected and tested to see that they meet these specifications, and that there are no flaws or defect in tread, sidewall or shoulder.

One of the testing devices drops the tire down from a height of several feet, under a weight equivalent to that of a fully loaded car, upon a section of steel rail similar to those at railroad crossings.

the small isolated power plant was fairly capable of serving the simple needs for electric service. The uses of electricity were few. It had not then assumed the importance in daily life which it now holds.

Today

the isolated power plant is not capable of meeting the modern demand for electric service. Great generating stations produce electric power which is transmitted over high tension power lines for many miles, thus making possible metropolitan electric service in the smallest towns.

the PURPOSE of the Texas Electric Service Company as a Texas Institution

The Texas Electric Service Company was established several years ago for the purpose of rendering electric service to Texas cities and towns.

It was evident, even then, that isolated power plants would not be able to supply the rapidly multiplying needs of Texas people for electric service.

After long study and experiment the engineers of the Texas Electric Service Company, together with other leading electrical engineers throughout the world, found that electric energy could be transmitted over high tension power lines for great distances from large generating stations, thus making possible a metropolitan type of electric service for smaller communities.

From that day until this it has been the purpose of this Company to render an electric service adequate to the needs of Texas people, in order that any user in any community served could at any time of the day or night, press an electric button and receive instant, dependable electric service at a reasonable cost.

Revolutionary changes have been made in the methods of generating and distributing electric power. Changes are rapid, so rapid, even now, that equipment which is the last word today will be obsolete tomorrow. Electric service has become so inseparably part of our daily life that it would be impossible for us to move through a day without its aid. The tremendous burden of responsibility which is thus thrown upon the Texas Electric Service Company is borne with true American efficiency.

Through all the changes within its own industry, through poor years and good, through prosperity and depression, into this present era of stabilized and sound development, the Texas Electric Service Company has held unwaveringly to its great purpose. As a result those Texas cities and towns served by this Company have unrivalled electric service.

FORMER WORKER UNDER MISS SEVIER EXCELLENT CLUB GIRL

A former club worker under Miss Abbie M. Sevier, county home demonstration agent, was Miss Alma Kindt, whose home is near Wheelock and who is a senior in Bryan High School. Miss Kindt, who has made a fine club record and enthusiastically indorses club training, was given a write-up in a recent edition of the Dallas Semi-Weekly Farm News. Because some of the facts in this story may prove helpful or encouraging to club girls of Mitchell county, some of the facts are reprinted below:

In her four years of club membership, Alma has received instruction in the three major productive projects of the girls' club training—gardening, dairying and poultry raising. In connection with the productive work, she has also studied—and practiced—the best methods of doing all the branches of work that falls within the sphere of an efficient farm home maker and she has become proficient in cooking, canning, sewing, home improvement and beautification of farm home grounds. It was through Alma's influence, due, she says, to her club training—that running water was piped into the Kindt home and that the kitchen was provided with sink and built-in cupboards. Among the additional home improvement work which she assisted in doing, are papering rooms, painting floors, woodwork and the exterior of the home, building clothes closets, planting flower beds and creating an attractive lawn about the house. Alma also made fresh window curtains for the home and fashioned many dainty pieces of table and bedroom linen.

Concerning club teaching, Alma says: "I have learned much in the way of preparing food, especially have I tried to work toward the protective diet. I have learned by experience that in mixing cake and other things, unless one follows the recipes and does just as they call for, one will not get good results. The greatest value of meals is to be obtained by means of good cooking and attractive serving adds lots to the meals. In canning I learned to use a steam pressure canner and that the more care one takes in sterilizing the jars, rings and lids, the less the food will spoil. I love to sew. I have learned that in choosing materials one must be careful to get good, serviceable material and the colors to suit one's type. Especially must one be careful in cutting, always to even the cloth and cut it to save the material when possible. The latest thing I have learned in sewing is the Italian hemstitching. When improving my bedroom I learned that simple and attractive rooms are best. The room should be cheerful, restful and as beautiful as possible. The walls are best covered with natural shades of color and one should by all means avoid the use of large flowered wallpaper. The dresser should not be crowded with all kinds of junk. I have learned much about turkeys, much in the way of raising them. In my dairy work some of the permanent benefits I received are: (1) I learned that one good cow is worth several ordinary ones; (2) I learned that peanut hay is good food for a cow; (3) I learned to carry on a dairy in a better way as well as the value of making every pound of feed count; (4) I learned the benefits to be had in not allowing the calf to take so much of the good milk when he can be raised equally as well and at less expense."

CHEVROLET AGAIN WORLD'S LARGEST AUTO BUILDERS

Assurance that Chevrolet's position as "world's largest builder of automobiles" will be sustained again this year, is contained in official production figures which give 106,914 passenger car and truck units as output for the first 45 days production on the new sixes. This figure not only eclipses all previous records of manufacture of six cylinder cars, but it actually exceeds the entire year's output of any other manufacturer during the first year.

The figures, as revealed by W. S. Knudsen, president of the company, date from December 15 to February 1. January production was 86,178, meaning that 20,736 units were produced the last two weeks of December.

A highlight of this remarkable 45-day production record was the manufacture, January 31, of 6,729 cars. This was peak for any day during the period and can be regarded as an indication that February would find all Chevrolet's mammoth production facilities geared to meet maximum quotas. Chevrolet's peak day as a producer of sixes does not compare unfavorably with the company's all-time record for a single day, which occurred May 28, 1928, when 7,075 four-cylinder units were produced.

Further comparison with last year shows that production this January is only 5,406 units less than January, 1928, despite numerous handicaps incident to a changeover as huge as Chevrolet effected successfully last fall. And it is 12,502 in excess of January, 1927, when 73,676 four-cylinder units were turned out. Last fall's turnover involved 20 widely scattered plants, and called for an entirely new set of machine tools, patterns and dies. Replacements began while the company still was engaged intensively in volume production of last year's four-cylinder car—an achievement, which for speed and efficiency, has never been surpassed in the industry.

HOOPER SELECTS TENTH MEMBER OF HIS CABINET

WASHINGTON.—President Hoover, himself an engineer, has selected another engineer, Robert Paterson Lamont of Chicago, to head the Department of Commerce, of which he was the chief for nearly eight years.

The selection of the president of the American Steel Foundries Company as the tenth man in the new Cabinet was uncovered by the Associated Press, ending a long period of intensive speculation as to his identity. Soon afterward the appointment was formally announced at Hoover headquarters.

The ten men who are to be the official advisers of the next president are:

STATE PRESS ENLARGES ON RECORD EDITORIAL

W. S. Cooper, when he wrote an editorial on Col. Dick McCarty of the Albany News, while he held the editorial chair of the Record recently, probably didn't really start it all but he was among the first of those who have been complimenting the well-known "Sage of the Shackelford Hills" through the columns of their papers in the last few weeks, especially since his retirement to take a rest from the editing job which he has held some thirty odd years.

State Press in the Dallas News took one idea from the editorial as its lead and added to it in this article: Colorado Record: Hundreds of West Texas people who have learned to love Col. Dick McCarty, editor and publisher of the News at Albany, know him as "the Sage of the Shackelford Hills." And right is that name. Colonel McCarty is indeed sage, an orator and a writer of a standard not attained by many of us folk. He is loved because of his sincerity and because of the fighting Irish blood that flows in his veins. He will fight, by precept and example, in after-dinner speech and through the columns of his newspaper, in support of those principles that he believes to be right.

State Press in Dallas News: You didn't say anything about Colonel Dick's modesty, but of course you couldn't list all his qualities in one paragraph. As long as State Press has known the Albany News editor of the former didn't know the latter was Mayor of Albany until just the other day. Then the discovery was made through a legal publication to which the Mayor-Colonel's name was attached in his official capacity. How long has this thing been going on? It is rare that one of Dick McCarty's habit can be selected to office, for his outspokenness surpasses his political finesse. The chance is that he didn't run for the office, but that it ran after him.

WHITEWASHING FRUIT TREES PREVENTS EARLY BUDDING

Whitewashing fruit trees thoroughly in the fall of the year prevents them from budding out so early in the spring, according to tests made at the Missouri experiment station. The whitewashed trees failed to absorb as much heat on warm winter days and blossomed three to six days later than trees which had not been whitewashed.

County Agent Foster says that this would seem to be worth trying in this section, as many fruit crops are ruined by the trees budding early. Anyone interested in this experiment may get additional information from Mr. Foster.

BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 3:13-17; 28:19, 20; I Cor. 11:23-25.
GOLDEN TEXT—This do in remembrance of me.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Two Things God Wants Us to Do.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Two Things God Wants Us to Do.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Meaning of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Place of Baptism and the Lord's Supper in the Christian Life.

I. The Baptism of Jesus (Matt. 3:13-17).
1. His request (v. 13).
This was in fact, if not in word, He came from Galilee to Jordan to be baptized of John.

2. John's hesitancy (v. 14).
He perceived something in Jesus which impressed him with the uniqueness of such an act.

3. Jesus' explanation (v. 15).
He insisted upon John's compliance on the ground that it was a method of fulfilling all righteousness.

4. The Heavenly acknowledgment (v. 16, 17).
As Jesus emerged from the waters the heavens were opened, the Holy Spirit descended, and a voice declared, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

II. The Apostolic Commission (Matt. 28:18-20).
1. The authority of Jesus (v. 18).
God gave Him all authority in heaven and on earth.

2. The Commission of the Apostles (v. 19, 20).
(1) It was to teach (make disciples of) all the nations (v. 19).
(2) Baptize believers (v. 19).
This baptism, the divinely appointed way of making public confession, is to be in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, indicating that the believer has been brought into definite relationship to each member of the Holy Trinity.

(3) Teach obedience (v. 20).
Profession is not enough; it must issue in obedience.

3. The all-sufficient promise (v. 20).
The Lord told the disciples their difficulties would be great after He had gone away, but promised them the presence and fellowship of the all-powerful Savior and Lord.

III. The Lord's Supper (I Cor. 11:23-25).
1. Its Institution (v. 23).
(1) Time.
It was on the night of the betrayal of Jesus, just after the betrayer had been announced.

(2) Circumstances of.
It was in connection with the eating of the Passover (Matt. 26:26).
(3) The elements used. Bread, doubtless common bread of the Passover feast. The cup, fruit of the vine.

2. The Significance of the Lord's Supper (v. 24-28, cf. Matt. 26:26-28).
Jesus took material things and made them to be symbols of His own body and blood.

(1) A memorial of the Lord (Luke 22:19) to be observed in remembrance of Him.

(2) To show the Lord's sacrificial death (v. 26). He did not die as a hero, or as an example of unselfish devotion, but as a substitutionary ransom.

(3) It is a guarantee that our sins are forgiven (Rom. 4:25).
(4) It symbolizes the believer's rejection of Christ (I Cor. 10:16).
(5) A forward look to a completed redemption (I Cor. 10:20).

3. Qualifications for participation in the Lord's Supper (v. 27-29).
(1) A proper apprehension of its meaning (v. 27). Eating and drinking unworthily primarily refers not to the demerit of the communicant, but his failure to grasp its meaning and importance.

(2) Church membership (I Cor. 11:18-22).
The Lord's body is the church, which is composed of regenerated men and women united to Jesus Christ as head and to each other as members of that body by the Holy Spirit.

3. Orderly walk.
Conduct which disqualifies for participation in the Lord's Supper:
(a) Immoral Conduct (I Cor. 5:1-13). It is most perilous for one who is guilty of immorality to approach the Lord's table (I Cor. 11:30). Sickness and death are often visited upon such.

(b) Heresy (Titus 3:10; I John 4:2, 3).
(c) The one who stirs up a schismatic strife (Rom. 16:17) in the church should be excluded from the Lord's table.

Clean Hands and Pure Heart
Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord, or who shall stand in His holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord.—Psalm 24:3-5.

The Smitten Check
That command about the smitten cheek is a command, condensed into a proverb against vengeful retaliation. This is not impracticable.—Dr. Weyland Hoyt.

LAW STUDENT IS GLAD HE TURNED TO SARGON; HAS REGAINED HEALTH!

"Money couldn't buy the good the Sargon treatment did me. It overcame troubles I have suffered practically half my life. Ever since I was a boy I have been weak and nervous and frail. I was a constant sufferer from indigestion and constipation and I was greatly underweight. Nervousness made my sleep fitful and broken and in the morning I was always tired and not fit for study.

MACK SPRINKLE

"I had to live on cereals, milk and soups and even that would disagree with me and my life was miserable with gas bloating and pains. Sometimes I would go days without any appetite and then, at times, I would be ravenous with hunger. Nothing I took did me any good.

"I certainly wish I had been able to get the Sargon treatment long ago because I am just like a new man now. I noticed an improvement the first week. Now, I eat three big meals a day. I've stopped that light diet and eat anything I want but it don't hurt me in the least. Nothing disagrees with me now and I am gaining strength every day. I sleep fine, get up in the morning feeling good and I've already gained six pounds and I have only taken two bottles of Sargon.

"Sargon-Soft Mass Pills are wonderful, too. My bowels became regular the first week after I began taking them and their action is so mild and natural that you are not sick or upset in the least."

The above statement was recently made by Mack Sprinkle, 827 East 8th street, Oklahoma City, a law student at the Capital City School of Law.

Sargon may be obtained in Colorado at Colorado Drug Co.; in Westbrook at Mrs. Margaret Lasseter, and in Loraine from Hutchinson & Hall. Adv.-1t

FEDERATED CLUB CANDIDATE FAVORS DRUG ADDICT AD

Institutional care by the State for dependent drug addicts will be one of the principal aims of the next administration of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs if Mrs. R. F. Lindsay of Mount Pleasant is elected president, the candidate has stated.

Mrs. Lindsay, who has served the State Federation as chairman of narcotics problems, believes that drug addicts are as much wards of the State as insane persons and should be given institutional care. It will be her endeavor to obtain legislation to that end through the State federation legislative department activities in the Legislature.

A dean of women in every high school in Texas is another project in which Mrs. Lindsay is interested. A third project is a State-wide beautification day upon which each of the 800 federated clubs in Texas will actually plant at least one tree or shrub.—Dallas News.

The Chicago Tribune has signified that it will have two representatives present.

Uncle Fred Made Honorary Law-Making Member

Uncle Fred Whipkey, who has been visiting in Georgetown for several days, went to Austin last Friday night to visit Wed Reid, local representative in the House. Members of the legislature had been invited to spend Independence Day in San Antonio as a guest of the International Exposition, and upon request of Reid, Uncle Fred was made an honorary member of the party and was given a legislator's badge which entitled him to all the privileges accorded the legislators, including the time-honored custom of "exemption from arrest for any cause."

A special train was run from Austin to San Antonio. A big barbecue at the International Exposition grounds, where the big fair is now in progress, was given at noon. The badge entitled the wearer to enter all concessions and fair grounds free. In the afternoon a 3-hour rodeo followed by a trip over the city and a Mexican dinner at the Alamo grounds was enjoyed by all the visitors. The train returned to Austin Saturday night.

The Colorado publisher was considered as one of the House members and thereby enjoyed the trip immensely, he said upon return.

QUARTET OF LOCAL VOICES FEATURE OF LIONS CLUB PROGRAM

Child Whose Operation Club Sponsored Reported Well

A real treat was offered the Lions Club Friday at their regular luncheon when they were favored with the quartet composed of Sam Scott, W. D. Felts, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Williams, with Miss Redell Williams accompanying. The quartet rendered several numbers, after which Sam Scott delighted the audience with a bass solo, singing "Asleep in the Deep," with Thos. Dawes accompanying.

A committee was appointed at the meeting to draft resolutions concerning the loss of Rev. J. F. Lawlis, Thos. R. Smith, Geo. H. Mahon, and W. A. Rose were made members of this committee. Col. C. M. Adams addressed the club, stating his appreciation for the fellowship of the club members, and expressing his delight at being able to be back.

Rev. J. D. Harvey reported that little Virginia Lee Bringer, whose operation the Lions Club paid for, has fully recovered and has been returned to her mother. A resolution was passed thanking Mrs. Bennett Scott, superintendent of the C. L. Root hospital, Mrs. Fred Brown, and all others assisting in handling this case. Rev. Mr. Harvey stated that a picture of the child was being made and would be presented to the Lions club at the next meeting.

REID AND OTHER REPRESENTATIVES BLOCK EFFORTS

Three House Members Stop Passage of Liquor Penalty Bill

(From Austin American) Representatives Wed Reid of Colorado, Bowen Pope of Hamlin and Vernon Lemens of Glen Rose successfully blocked efforts to finally pass Friday night the Albritton-Kennedy liquor law bill decreasing the penalty for violation of the Dean liquor law, by walking out of the House and breaking the quorum.

The House was working on a bare quorum of 100 votes. When these representatives discovered that the bill would pass, they walked out and broke the quorum, leaving a confederate in the house to raise the point of order that a quorum was not present, which resulted in adjournment until Monday morning at ten o'clock.

It is believed this action has killed the bill. Likely the House will take up the final adjournment resolution first of the week, and if the adjournment date is set Friday or Saturday there will be little chance of getting this bill up again even though it is pending business on the House calendar. Monday and Tuesday are suspension days and there are 100 bills on this calendar and the representatives are not going to give way for consideration of the bill, Reid says.

Lemens and Reid likely will kill the bill by breaking the quorum if brought up next week. They have been active in this direction and it is said they have the House membership so organized that they can do so.

These two new members have been criticized by many for their dilatory tactics, but they certainly put one over on the old members who have been trying to pass the bill. Friday night the House was working under call until ten o'clock. The liquor law bill came up about 10:15 that night and Lemens, Pope and Reid were said to have been present at their desks watching the voting machine. When the red lights showed enough to give the bill a majority, these representatives, during the confusion incident thereto, quietly slipped into the cloak room without voting, it is said. The machine showed that only 98 were present and the point of order that a quorum was not present had to be sustained. Old members tried to order a new call of the House, but the motion to adjourn took precedence.

This bill seeks to reduce penalty for violation of the Texas prohibition law from a one-year sentence in the penitentiary to a minimum fine of $25.00 for the first offense.

Born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Morgan, a son. The baby was very sick for a few days, but is recovering and now both mother and child are doing well.

BIG ELECTRIC HEN IS STRUTTING HER STUFF

(By Colorado Citizen) The writer of this article visited the Logan establishment this week and noticed the big electric hen busy at work, producing a large number of future denizens for Mitchell county barnyards, and doing it electrically, too.

This is a large hen, which works as a whole or in part. Since it would not be practical to have fifty-two thousand babies at one time, for Jimmie and Vernon to look after, the mother hen arranges to systematically hatch a batch of chicks weekly.

The writer would like to see this and all other hatcheries in the county run at capacity until each farm in the county is supplied with a quantity of good grade chicks. There is perhaps nothing that pays better dividends on the farm, than good chickens, up to the local home demand.

PROponents OF JUNIOR COLLEGE VICTORIOUS

AUSTIN, March 1.—After four years of legislative adventures, proponents of the junior college system, which already has gained a foothold in the State, apparently had gained a major victory Friday when the House voted that colleges might be established in districts having a taxable valuation of $12,000,000.

In making this step, already approved by the Senate, 16 junior colleges now functioning were validated and the way was made clear for establishment of similar institutions in 29 additional counties, Representative Ernest Cox of Corsicana said.

Two weeks ago the House refused to allow formation of junior colleges in districts under $25,000,000 valuation, but the Senate reduced the amount by more than half. Action by the House Friday approved the Senate amendment.

Representative Cox, in speaking in support of the Senate's move, asserted that if $25,000,000 was set as the minimum figure only five counties—Brazoria, Collin, Navarro, Nueces, and Pecos—would be affected, since others either have two-year colleges or State institutions. He said that of the 16 colleges in operation, only that at Ranger was failing to meet with rigid education requirements.

Buford Farmer Is Building Herd of Duroc Jersey Hogs

J. P. Hestand of Buford is building up one of the finest herds of Duroc Jersey hogs in this part of West Texas. Two years ago he bought a piglet from Texas, and last year he bought some gilts and young males from the Lillard and Oliver farms, and now he has five well-developed type gilts weighing from 350 to 500 pounds that will farrow in April.

Mr. Hestand's herd she came from Lillard farms and at four days less than a year old the hog weighed 510 pounds. The sire of this hog was grand champion last year at the Dallas Fair and one of the gilts is from a half sister to the grand champion at five State fairs last year.

All of these hogs are fed a balanced ration, consisting of ground maize, corn, alfalfa meal, linseed meal and tankage. These feeds are mixed together and fed wet to the breeding herd, but Mr. Hestand says he expects to use a self-feeder for his meat hogs.

Mr. Hestand plans to exhibit some of his hogs at Snyder, Sweetwater and Abilene this fall, and says if he gets some large litters he will enter the ton-litter contest.

Mr. Hestand is an experienced hog man, having raised pure bred Durocs for twenty years.

Colorado Students In Texas U. Doing Good Work There

Colorado students at the University of Texas are doing splendid work this year according to Representative Wed Reid, who attended a luncheon at the Scottish Rite dormitory Sunday as the guest of these Colorado students.

Misses Ruth Helton and Gladys Dorn of Colorado, and Miss Rosalie Leslie of Eastland, former Colorado girl, are staying at this beautiful and splendidly equipped dormitory. Other Colorado students in the University are Richmond Campbell, Perry Van Zandt, Q. D. Sheppard, John Helton and Jack Hale.

All of these students are making good records in their work, Reid advises, and are upholding the reputation of the Colorado high school for turning out efficient and worthy graduates.

IN MEMORIAM

Tribute to the Memory of Sister Rose Salyer Whipkey (Mrs. Fred Whipkey).

From our fraternal chain of Colorado Chapter No. 58, Order of the Eastern Star, a golden link has fallen.

On Monday morning, February the 18th, 1929, Sister Rose Salyer Whipkey fell asleep. "The story of her life is a finer memorial than any which could be raised of bronze or marble." Her memory will always be an inspiration to those among whom she lived and by whom she was so dearly loved to emulate her good deeds. She was so full of life and energy, good works and splendid poise. She served our Chapter faithfully and was one of our Past Matrons.

"We have walked with her in the pilgrimage of life and around the same altar we have learned the lessons of our order. As she was faithful to her convictions of right, as she was obedient to the demands of honor and justice in her station; as she loved kindred and friends and in affliction evinced a trustful faith; and as she lived in the spirit of charity and the love of truth, so shall be her reward."

To her bereaved family and relatives, we extend our sincere sympathy and commend them to a Holy and Merciful God who doeth all things well. May we bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father.

"Passing out of the shadows into purer light,
Standing behind the curtains, getting a clearer sight,
Passing out of the shadows into eternal day,
Why do we call it dying, this sweet going away?"

Respectfully submitted,
MARY C. JONES
KATIE L. DOSS

TAKEN FROM "THE HOWL"

"PROFESSOR PEPP" TO BE GIVEN FRIDAY EVENING

Friday night, March 8, the Sophomore class is to make a bid for trophy honors with the presentation of the three-act comedy, "Professor Pepp." The setting of this play is laid in a small one-constable college town. The action centers around Professor Pepp, recently returned from Russia, who has undergone a terrifying experience with a nihilist society, the Russian Redeemers, and has fled in terror to the protection of his home town and his man-hating housekeeper, Aunt Minerva Boulder. C. B. Buttonbuster, fifty and rheumatic, a giddy old widower, but an old friend of Professor Pepp, enters the college disguised as his son, Howard. Howard, who has had the courtes to change his name from Buttonbuster to Green, appears on the scene of action, falls in love with Betty Gardner, pretty ward of the professor, and complicates things in general. Olga Stopski, new Russian dancing teacher, learns from a friend in Russia that the secret society of the Russian Redeemer was all a practical joke at the professor's expense. The students capitalize on this information and proceed to show Professor Pepp a high old time, using the password, "Bumski" very effectively. College spirit is at its height in the initiation of Freshman Buttonbuster and the group of college boys and girls make merry at his expense. The reverse conduct occurs, however, when Buttonbuster wins the football game and becomes the hero of the hour. The enlightenment of the Professor by Olga in regard to "Bumski" sets in motion a series of events which culminate satisfactorily for all concerned. Sim Batty, town constable, declares everything "agin" the law but falls for Petunia Muggins, Professor Pepp's maid. The cast of the play is as follows: Professor Peterkin Pepp—Luther Harrison. C. B. Buttonbuster, a giddy old widower—George Slaton. Howard Green, son of Buttonbuster—John Tom Merritt. Sim Batty, town constable—Jack Hicks. Peddler Benson, student working his way through college—Paul Thompson. Pink Hatcher, athletic sophomore—Murray Wood. Noisy Fleming, an upperclassman—Clifton Yater. Buster Brown, another upperclassman—Willie Ogiens. Betty Gardner, pretty young ward of Professor Pepp—Mary Evans. Aunt Minerva Boulder, professor's housekeeper—Ethel Mae Murphy. Petunia Muggins, the maid—Alice Harryman. Vivian Drew, college belle—Mannie Lou Bedford. Irene Van Hilt, society leader—Ruth Hinds. Olga Stopski, a Russian dancing teacher—Freida Merle Reid. Caroline Kay, gay young freshman—Alice Hughes. Kitty Clover, collector of souvenirs—Frances Shurtliff.

TENNIS TEAMS PRACTICE UNDER MR. WILKINS

This year's tennis team will be almost entirely new material, Mike Porter being the only one out who played last year. Under the careful coaching of Mr. C. A. Wilkins, about 15 boys are learning the art of handling the racket. Within a week or ten days Coach Wilkins expects to have an elimination tournament, in order to select the team to represent C. H. S. in the county meet. The boys are progressing nicely, according to Mr. Wilkins, and C. H. S. expects them to carry off the county meet without much trouble.

FORENSIC SOCIETY NEW CLUB AT HIGH SCHOOL

The "Forensic Society," of the Colorado High school was organized on January 28, 1929, with Mr. Cobb as sponsor. The Society is interested in all sorts of forensics, so an appropriate motto was chosen: "It is Better to Fess Than to Fight." The society colors are the school colors, red and black, for the club is a booster for the school. Lenora Cook was elected president; Beola Kirby, vice-president; LaVada Baze, secretary; Ruby Lee Bohanan, critic; and Irma Mae Jarman, sergeant-at-arms. All the debaters and a number of declaimers and the public speakers of the school are members of the society. It has already proved to have a very peppy organization during its short life. The first social of the Forensic Society was given on Monday night, February 18, at the home of Miss Irma Mae Jarman. We regret that that all the members could not be present. Mr. Cobb and the debaters having gone to Lamesa where they met the Lamesa teams in debate. It is certain that the society is really interested in debate, for while the teams were returning from their Lamesa debate, Ruby Lee Bohanan and Mike Porter defeated Irma Mae Jarman and Frank Boddin in a debate at the meeting. A lunch of candy, chilli, and crackers was served. We were pleased to have Mr. "Fats" Slaton as a visitor. Irma Mae Jarman was chosen pep leader and plans for boosting the debaters are being made.

"LITTLE CLODHOOPER" PLAY TO BE GIVEN

The Freshman class is the youngest, the most timid and the least experienced class in high school, yet in spite of these handicaps—if they may be so-called, it intends to present the best play in the tournament. "A Little Clodhopper" is a very interesting and entertaining play. Osey Gump and little Georgie Chiggerson will keep you laughing from the beginning of the play to the end. Little Judy Elliott, the ragamuffin from the poor house, will arouse your sympathy, but you will find that she will not need it for she can take care of herself.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL STUDENTS HAVE BIRTHDAY PROGRAM

A program in commemoration of Washington's birthday was given by the Grammar school on Friday afternoon. For this occasion the combined membership of the Colorado public schools assembled in the C. H. S. auditorium, this being the third occasion of the kind in current history. The program was planned by the teachers of Hutchinson school, and enacted by the eleventh grade pupils. First on the program was the singing of "America." (This was supposed to be rendered by the entire audience, but some of the high school students—well, maybe they needed their nap.)

Next followed an introduction to the main business of the day. James Lupton (small fellow but quite a large memory) talked on "The Childhood Days of George Washington." Then we had an exhibition of pre-high school drama. Came the play, "The Vision," enacted in full costume. The theme was based on the delusion between little George and his mama. He accedes to her wishes and does not answer the proverbial "Call of the Sea." The climax is reached when the old negro mammy (who believes in visions and possibly clairvoyance) has a glimpse into the years beyond and "sees" the young lad as what he eventually became. Next came a talk on Washington by Charles Levinson.

The next playlet was also in costume. "A Pair of Scissors" was a rather good glimpse of life in the colonial days. "With our modern abruptness and sincere brevity of courtesy, these antique customs were certainly queer." The theme of the play was the presentation of the play to Washington by Miss Betsy Ross. George Otis Witten then gave a summary of "Washington's Last Days."

The next number on the program was a play entitled "February Birthdays." We received quite enlightening information on those well known celebrities whose birthday comes in February. This enjoyable program ended with singing "The Star Spangled Banner." Our congratulations and thanks to the participants in the program. H. L.

SENIORS OPEN PLAY TOURNAY FRIDAY NIGHT

The Senior class presented "Go Slow, Mary," a farce comedy, as the opening play of the high school tournament on Friday night at the auditorium. Plot of the play centered about a discontented young wife who prevailed upon her husband to undertake the management of the household while she centered the business world. Many amusing situations resulted, with complications brought about by the presence of relatives and guests in the home, as well as the German cook and her rival suitors. Hoyt May interpreted the role of the husband who jauntily assumed the reins of the household, only to find his boasted "system" not bringing desired results. His struggles in the planning of a dinner menu and in the preparation of potato soup were laughable. The part of the discontented young wife was aptly portrayed by Mary Louise Campbell. Her quarrels with her husband and her worldly wise comments on married life were highly amusing. Beola Kirby by Sally Carter, a modern girl who proved capable of managing her own love affairs as well those of her friends. Seattle Spalding was the mysterious stranger, who proved to be Sally's husband. John Shurtleff as Burt Childs, the bashful bachelor, made a decided hit with his Bostonian accent and his monologue. Katherine Price as Katie, the German maid, was a scream. Her love affairs with Danny Grubb, the ice-man, played by Scott McKenney, and Murphy, the policeman, played by Doyle Kiker, kept the audience in an uproar. Bobby and Dolly, the "angels," were Eugene Soper and Virginia Webb. They proved to be "holy terrors," in spite of the vigilance of their grandmother, Mrs. Beaton, played by Lenora Cook. After many complications and much comedy, the play came to a happy conclusion, with "Mary" learning to "go slow."

The play was directed by Miss Henderson. Mike Porter was stage manager, Doyle Kiker, property man, and Ruby Lee Bohanan, prompter. The play tournament will be judged by the following rules:

1. Do not take into consideration the type of play, as all plays are light comedies, non-royalty plays.
2. Consider the following:
Ability of players to hold interest of the audience.
Distinct speech.
Stage presence—poise.
Smoothness with which the "business" of the play is carried out.
Character portrayal.
3. Consider the effectiveness of the play as a whole by judging the ease and naturalness of the actors and interpretation of individual roles.

FORMER COLORADOAN HEADS CRAFTSMEN

Knott, who lived in Colorado about fifteen years ago and was associated with the insurance and abstract business, has been elected head of the Memorial Craftsmen of Texas, according to an article appearing in the Dallas Morning News. JUNK HEAPS AROUND COLORADO

With all the wide, open spaces there are around Colorado, seems like we ought to be able to find some secluded spot to dump our junk and wreck the cars that have had their day other than plots of ground along our main highways.

One particular eyesore near the town is a dump of trash not far out on the road from Colorado to Snyder.

This is only one example of the several ugly spots around Colorado. There is no need to mention all of them, for most of us with any eye to cleanliness and beauty whatsoever have noted and lamented them all.

City officials have been successful in stopping dumping in several parts of Colorado. Signs, bearing warnings and threats of fines have been placed near these spots, and citizens living nearby have cooperated to the extent of notifying officers of violations.

Travelers invariably like or dislike a town according to the impression they receive of it by passing through. There are occasionally travelers and visitors whose favor will really make a material difference in the growth of the town, and even the admiration of those who have nothing to give but admiration is well worth having.

And there is this besides all that—the roads around Colorado are the only things we who live here have to take our Sunday drives, and it is far pleasanter to admire the scenery without having to peer into the distance to forget the tin cans and old car parts in the foreground.

HASTY WEDDINGS

Our new marriage license law, requiring three days' formal notice of a desire to take out a license, is already being enforced in some counties, while in others the clerks are awaiting the arrival of official notice.

The intent of the law is to prevent hasty marriages, or "gin" weddings, as they are called by the younger set. Yet the legislature saw fit to amend the original bill, exempting from its provisions men over 25 and women over 21.

If the solons believe that men over 25 and women over 21 never indulge in gin, gin weddings or hasty romances, the solons need to be enlightened. A law to stop hasty marriages would have to apply to all to be effective, including 80-year-old Lotharios.—Abilene Morning News.

OUTDOOR BAND CONCERTS AND THE TOWN SPIRIT

A woman voiced a thought that has probably come to many Coloradans besides herself the other day when she expressed a yearning for the good old outdoor band concerts Colorado used to have.

There seems to be nothing that inspires a citizen with more town patriotism than to hear a well-rendered concert by his home-town band outdoors on a summer evening. Those who knew the old days in Colorado when the citizenship of the town gathered around a roped-off section of one of the main streets to thrill to the spirited playing of martial airs look forward to their return with the new advantages given this musical organization with the voting last year of the band tax.

It's work for the band boys, though, and not play, and that must be remembered.

MANY CITIES LIKE TOSPY HAVE "JUST GROWN"

In the past, the mental genius of the entire country has been devoted to invention, and the creating and studying of scientific manufacturing and production methods—a mechanical age with very little thought, comparatively, to the analysis of the community. Now it is recognized that for further expansion of business it is necessary to give the same kind of constructive thinking to towns and the individuals making up the community as has been accorded industry.

What was, isn't! The museums are full of those things thought indispensable a few years ago. Consider the case of the dinosaur or the Tyrannasaurus that had the strength of a steam engine, or the Gigantosaurus that was over a hundred feet long and as big as a house, as an example. They ceased to serve a useful purpose—there was no reason for them so they ceased to exist.

These things that were, but are not now, did not know they were "slipping," could not help themselves, so cannot be blamed—they could not think, therefore a warning of their predicament was useless. Men individually and collectively are capable of thinking; therefore, if they, their business, or their towns verge on the edge of the old order of things, they alone are to blame. Having the powers of comprehension, a hint as to the new order of things should be sufficient.

Yet, man with all of his brains retains those things in his makeup that tends to make one picture those creatures of the long ago. With some, it is procrastination and prejudice, while with others it is just plain every-day refusal to think!

There is a new order of things. Look around you—you will see it on every side. Business, industry, know it—you can't help but recognize it. But look at your town! Has it kept pace? Most towns have just ridden along on the crest of the wave—like Topsy, have "just grown," with little or no thought, consideration, or analysis that is vital to continued growth, expansion and prosperity.

A town is a business—your business. You are a part of that business the same as an employee is of an industrial plant. Your bread and butter depends on the continued growth and prosperity of that business, and regardless of your station in life—regardless of the job you hold, the work you do or the business you are in, you are responsible. As an employee of a manufacturing plant you are a part of it; you must do good work, you must be sold on the product made or you are fired. The better the work you do, the more you make. As a part of your town, the same is true.

You should know about your town—it is yours, and what you do goes to make it a good town, a progressive town or a bum town. You may think your town is not a good town—maybe it isn't; maybe it is "old-fashioned," maybe it has "just grown"—but what have you done to make it any different? A town is just as big as the people in it, and you are the people.

It is not the opinions and habits of the few shining lights that make a community. True, there must be leaders, but when big industries consider your town for location for a new factory, investment in present enterprises, etc., it is the people in general they are most interested in—you and all the other people like you.

Never in the history of this country has the smaller city—your town—had the opportunity that it has today. Big business is looking to the smaller city as it never has before. The town or city that prepares itself for big things will greatly profit, and every individual citizen will be benefited—but the town must be ready. The way to be ready is to be at work—(building up the morale, aggressiveness, customer attitude and salesmanship ability of the "clerks" or citizens of the community)—not by erection of monuments or idle talk on "Town Boosting"—but by constructive thinking to do something, get somewhere, achieve something—to climb out of the rut, to have a city that is the best in the land in which to live, work, play, and make money—to have a city which has eliminated the "oppressive ugliness" of dormant, inactive civic pride.

What are you going to do about it?

ADVANTAGES OF PUBLICLY-OWNED PORTS

Colorado's move to establish an airport owned by its citizens finds favor in official circles of the nation for more than one reason, according to facts set forth in an article by Commander Ralph D. Weyerbacher, U. S. Navy aviator, in a recent number of the Saturday Evening Post, and reprinted by permission in Sunday's Abilene Morning News.

Officials who are supposed to know hold, according to the article, that the very dependence of air lines on their terminals makes a publicly-owned airport necessary in a city which hopes to cooperate with and benefit from aeronautical activity. It is said that if any community is to get the best transportation service, it must be in a position to assure equal opportunity for terminal facilities to the various operators, and the community cannot do this if its most favorable site for a port is acquired by an air-transport company. It would then be dependent on the company owning the port for its air services, and the situation would be similar to the preposterous one of a city turning over its entire water front or harbor to one steamship line.

If the port is owned by a corporation and not a transport company and the corporation sells space and facilities to all aerial traffic, it still falls short of actual community needs, in the opinion of Mr. McCracken and others informed on the subject. They point out that the holding corporation or individual might become financially interested in an operating company and thus establish what amounts to a local monopoly, fixing unreasonable charges, and might at any time discontinue operations.

The article states that these possibilities are not suggested to discourage private initiative in airport construction, but to impress on municipalities the advantages of public ownership where sites are limited in number. The private-owned fields will always be needed for certain types of aircraft operation, for flying schools and for the relief of congestion at municipal terminals, it is held.

You never can tell. If Colorado hadn't started again for an airport, her sons in other cities might someday have had to use that apologetic tone in speaking of their native city that you now hear some of those who are from towns "miles from a railroad."

Conoway Items

A number of the pupils are very much interested in the new playground equipment which consists of a complete tennis outfit. A court is being made and we have a group of enthusiastic players ready to begin at once. Our players seem to promise some close sets with other players of the county. What they may lack in experience will be offset by their enthusiasm and willingness to stay at it through the coming weeks of intensive practice. Therefore, we are looking forward to some interesting times in the line of tennis games.

The Conoway community was well represented at a meeting on Monday night to determine whether they should build a brick building at Conoway or send the high school of Conoway to Westbrook by a bus. They took a vote on it and the vote was 14 to 4 in favor of sending to Westbrook.

Misses Loretta and Venetta Byrd spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Byrd. Lawrence Palmer is ill this week. W. Tenery was carried to the Root hospital Thursday night and operated on for appendicitis.

Nolan H. Vance visited Mr. R. Dolph Conoway Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hart and family visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Blakeney in Westbrook Sunday. Messrs. Olen and Lloyd Hart visited Harvey Webb last Sunday.

Mrs. C. P. Conoway of Colorado visited her daughter, Mrs. Witt Hines last week-end. The Women's Club met with Mrs. J. M. Byrd Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. D. C. Coburn has just returned from visiting her daughter, Miss Fay Coburn, who is attending Bryan High School in Dallas. Miss Fay is taking a business course, and will finish in May. After a short vacation at home she will return to Dallas to take a position as stenographer in the Republic National Bank. Mrs. Coburn reports a good time while on her visit. She and her daughter visited many places of interest, and she also visited her aunt at Greenville while away.

BOTH TEAMS VICTORIOUS IN DEBATE CONTESTS

The first team debaters went to Lamesa Monday, February 18 to debate the Lamesa teams. The Colorado girls had the affirmative side of the question and the Colorado boys the negative side. Both girls and boys of Colorado came home victorious. The girls won a three to nothing decision, and the boys won two to one.

They enjoyed themselves very much while in Lamesa, but on the way home that night it seems as if they had a little trouble. Up in that part of the country there's nothing between there and the north pole except a wire fence and Mr. Cobb

TEXAS SENATORS IN U. S. CONGRESS

By ALVA O. HEARNE

The Record is running each week short biographical sketches of Senators elected to the United States Congress from Texas. Students and others interested should follow the series from week to week. If clipped and placed in a scrap book, these sketches will furnish valuable references on the political developments of Texas.

The tenth Senator to be sent from Texas to the U. S. Congress was
RICHARD COKE
1877-1895

Richard Coke was born in Williamsburg, Virginia, March 13, 1829. He was a son of John and Eliza Coke. His early education was obtained in the common schools of his county, and at the age of 16 he entered William and Mary College, where he was graduated in 1849. Immediately after his admission to the bar in 1850, he removed to Waco, Texas, and began the practice of law. He was married in 1852 to Mary E., daughter of James L. Howe of Waco. He enlisted in the Confederate service in 1861, and at the close of the war he had attained the rank of captain. Resuming his law practice in 1865, he was immediately appointed judge of the district court at Waco, and in the following year was elected associate justice of the supreme court of the State. General Sheridan removed him from the latter position in 1867 on the ground that he was an "impediment to reconstruction," but that act of injustice greatly increased his popularity and endeared him to all classes. He was thereafter known as a leader in Democratic politics, and by his ability and eloquence helped to gather the scattered forces into an efficient organization.

At the general election in 1873 Judge Coke was elected governor on the Democratic ticket by a majority of 50,000, together with the delegation to Congress and the greater part of the State Legislature. This was an almost complete sweep for the Democrats, and incited their political opponents to extraordinary measures (if possible to undo the verdict of the people. One Jose Rodriguez, a Mexican, was incited to apply for a writ of habeas corpus in the supreme court, alleging that he had been unlawfully restrained in his liberty for an alleged election offense. The case was styled "Ex parte Rodriguez," and although the district attorney refused to appear on the ground that it was a fictitious and fraudulent cause, it was tried and resulted in a verdict declaring the late election illegal and void.

A proclamation was, therefore, issued by Governor E. J. Davis, prohibiting the newly elected legislature from assembling; and when that body, ignoring his orders, proceeded to the discharge of its duties, Governor Davis declined to receive any communication from it. As a last resort, in his party's extremity, Governor Davis appealed to President Grant, who, refusing to interfere, left him no course but to resign. Judge Coke was, therefore, peacefully inducted into office, being inaugurated on January 15, 1874. One of his first acts, on the basis of a legislative amendment to the constitution reorganizing the supreme court of the State, was to remove the three judges of "Ex parte Rodriguez" fame.

The administration of Governor Coke marks the return of order and prosperity and the abolition of party machine government in Texas. The constitution forced upon the State by military authorities was supplanted by the one framed in 1875, which forms the present organic law of the State. This constitution having effected a change in the term of official tenure, Governor Coke was re-inaugurated in April, 1876.

In 1876, Governor Coke was elected to the United States Senate, to succeed Senator Morgan C. Hamilton, but, continuing to perform his official functions until December, he took his seat in the Senate on March 4, 1877. He was re-elected in 1883, and again in 1889, his last term of office expiring March 3, 1895, thus completing a full eighteen years in the United States Senate. No public official ever more jealously guarded the interests of his constituents. Possessed of the utmost determination and the strongest of convictions concerning right and justice, he was ever a champion of popular causes against the oppression of corporations and legislative corruption.

As a member of the Committee of Commerce, he secured large appropriations for the improvement of the rivers and harbors of Texas, and on the Judiciary committee his fine talents and high legal attainments made him the author of many important and valuable measures. He earned the reputation of a powerful orator—a giant in debate. He was pre-eminently a man of the people.

Senator Coke died in Waco, Texas, on May 14, 1897.

We loved her, yes, we loved her, but the angels loved her more and they have sweetly called her. Mrs. Lennie Young of Westbrook died in her son's home near Spade last Tuesday evening, February 26. BROADWAY OF AMERICA
HAVING DESIRED EFFECT

Results in the designation and advertisement of the Broadway of America are already apparent, according to H. W. Stanley, manager of the association, who states that the increasing tourist traffic over the highway is proving of great financial aid to the State.

Stanley states from various accurate checks made of tourists from outside of Texas traveling on this highway, it is estimated that the number amounts to 1,000 cars a day carrying an average of three persons who spend $5 a day each, or a total of $15,000 daily. But, he continued, as it takes three days to cross Texas, there are three groups of 1,000 cars each on the highway, making daily expenditures $45,000.

You Knew it was COLD

—but did you know just how many days were colder than the same period last year?

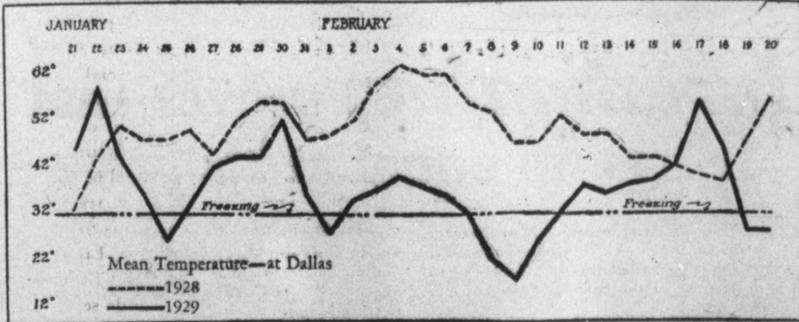

THE WEATHER is the most universal topic of conversation. But few people really know anything about it. Feeling as cold as if it's hot, most people say, "This is the hottest weather I ever saw!" —if it's cold, they jump just as far the other way and say, "B-r-r-r! This is the coldest weather I ever saw!" They're probably wrong both times. It's so hard to remember what the temperature actually was at any given time. But those of you who said right along, "This is the coldest February we've had for years," were correct! The mean temperature for the 31 day period from January 21 to February 20 was the lowest in fifteen years! There were more cold, disagreeable days in this climate than during any similar period for all that time. Here are the comparative figures for this year and last year, based on mean temperatures at Dallas, a more or less central point in Lone Star territory:

Month	Day	1929	1928	Higher	Lower
January	21	46	53	13
	22	60	44	16
	23	44	51		7
	24	36	48		12
	25	26	48		22
	26	34	10		16
	27	42	45		3
	28	44	32		8
	29	44	56		12
	30	32	56		4
	31	36	48		12
February	1	28	49		21
	2	35	52		17
	3	37	60		25
	4	40	64		24
	5	38	62		24
	6	36	62		26
	7	32	56		24
	8	22	54		32
	9	18	47		21
	10	26	47		21
	11	32	53		21
12	38	49		15
13	36	44		6
14	38	44		6
15	39	44		5
16	42	42	8	0
17	56	40	16
18	46	39	7
19	28	48		20
20	28	56		28
21	20	56		28
Mean:		37.4	49.9	13.60	16.96

You will note that 26 days in the 31 day period had a lower mean temperature this year than last year, the average being 16.96 degrees lower. In one stretch, from February 1 to 14, inclusive, the mean temperature was an average of 21 degrees lower this year than last. Eight days this year show freezing, 32 degrees, or below freezing, as a mean average temperature, against no freezing mean temperatures for a like period last year. Such a long period of cold, disagreeable weather, with much sleet, ice and cold rain, means that gas heaters were worked considerably over time! All who could stay inside did, day and night. This meant larger gas consumption.

Naturally gas bills for this period will be somewhat higher than for the same period last year—and compared with the preceding 31 day period this season. Twenty-five days in the 31 day period from January 21 to February 20 showed lower mean temperatures than the period from December 21 to January 20; an average of 13.64 degrees lower! When you compare gas bills, compare these temperature figures. And, be thankful with us that Lone Star Gas Service was able to come through this unprecedented weather as efficiently as it did!

Tires for the new Ford
are specially made
to give long wear

WHEN the new Ford was designed, it was immediately apparent that a new tire would have to be made to match the car's performance. It was distinctly a new problem, for here was a car with quicker acceleration, greater speed and more braking efficiency than any car of similar size or weight.

So that every Ford owner might be assured of maximum tire mileage at the lowest cost, the Ford Motor Company devoted many months to research and experiment in conjunction with the leading tire manufacturers.

As a result, certain definite specifications were developed for tires for the new Ford. These specify cords of certain strength and texture, a large volume of tread and side-wall rubber, sturdy non-skid design, and reinforced plies for protection against bruise breaks—all the strong features of construction formerly considered for only the largest tires.

Great care also was taken to secure the best riding qualities in connection with the transverse springs and the Houdaille shock absorbers.

Though the Ford tires are designated as 30 x 4.50, they have the resiliency and air space of much larger tires because of the drop center rim of the steel-spoke wheels.

For best results, the tires on the new Ford should be kept inflated to an air pressure of 35 pounds and checked regularly to insure this pressure all the time. This is important. Low inflation breaks down the sidewalls of a tire. By causing overheating, it also destroys the rubber that acts as an insulation, with consequent separation of the cord.

At the end of each 5000 miles, when you have the front wheels packed with grease, it is a good plan to have the wheel alignment checked. This will prevent premature wear.

When punctures come, as they will with any tire, you will find the Ford dealer particularly well-equipped to make repairs quickly and at small cost. See him, too, for replacements. Then you will be sure of getting tires built specially for the Ford car according to definite Ford specifications.

An entirely new and attractive sign for the post office at Hyman has been received and put up this week. Though not an electric sign, it has the appearance of one and adds quite a good deal to the post office.

The design has only recently been put on the market and is the gift of Mrs. W. A. Hensinger of San Antonio, who was formerly Miss Anna Rose Scott, one of the heirs of the H. S. Ranch. The Hyman community is very much indebted to Mrs. Hensinger for her attractive gift.
