ONE DAY CONVENTION HELD BY WORKERS OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Team of Four Make Very Interesting Talks In Sweetwater

A team of four outstanding workers of the Christian church held a one-day convention in Sweetwater Tuesday, their theme being "Witnesses to His Power." Those attending from Colorado were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Porter, Mrs. H. B. Broadbent, Mrs. R. R. Harryman, Mrs. J. Ralph Lee, Mrs. J. M. Page, Mrs. C. L. Root, Mrs. Ed Jones and Mrs. Sam Majors.

The meeting began at 10 o'clock in the First Christian church and lasted until 5:00, with an intermission for lunch. In the evening a very enjoyable banquet was held in the Marcy Grille.

All of the speakers were very interesting and had much information to give, but a French Catholic who had turned Protestant and who told of his work among his people in Louisiana was probably the most appealing of all. The need of more witnesses in every line of work and in every church was clearly shown. Sweetwater had many members of Christian church from other nearby towns. The group went on to Lubbock, where they held a convention Wednesday.

SEVERAL 'IS' IN DISTRICT FOOTBALL SETTLED THIS WEEK

Snyder to Play Roscoe Friday And Colorado vs. Rotan On Thursday.

A number of "Is" in the matter of who will be left in the running for championship in Section B District, Class B, of the interscholastic League football will be settled by the end of this week, with Colorado playing Rotan here Thursday and Snyder and Roscoe in Roscoe Friday. Colorado's chance at the championship is dependent on three "ifs." If Snyder beats Roscoe and if Colorado beats Rotan, and then if Colorado succeeds in winning over Snyder on November 11 (if Roscoe wins her other conference game, which she probably will), then Colorado, Snyder and Roscoe will have equal chances at the championship in this district and will have to play it off by November 23, when all district section championships must be decided.

Snyder, Roscoe, Colorado, Rotan and Loraine are the schools in section B of this district. Snyder has two conference victories, one over Loraine and one over Rotan, and no defeats to her credit so far. Roscoe also has two victories and no defeats, the victories being over Colorado and Loraine. Colorado has one victory and one defeat, the victory over Loraine and the defeat by Roscoe of 15 to 0. Rotan has one defeat and no conference victories, although she has what is commonly conceded to be a strong team. Loraine has no victories and three defeats.

If Snyder beats Roscoe and Colorado beats Rotan, that will make the standing as follows: Snyder, three victories, no defeats; Roscoe, two victories, one defeat; Colorado, two victories, one defeat. Then Colorado's task will be to defeat Snyder on November 11 to make the standings equal.

In Section A of the district, in which the schools are Merkel, Roby, Haskell, Stamford, Hamlin, and Anson, the standing is headed by Merkel, due to her victory over Stamford, 6-0. Merkel was decisively defeated by Colorado.

JACKRABBITS AND CUBS ARE TO PLAY

The Jackrabbit football team and the Cubs, Junior high school team, will be matched against each other in a game on Cantrill field Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Both of these teams played their first games last week, and both defeated their opponents from Roscoe.

Junior Band To Play Halloween At Iatan School

The Junior Band, of which Roy Hester is director, has accepted an invitation to play at the Iatan school on October 30 at a school carnival and Halloween festival to be held there at 7:30.

The school announces that a Halloween queen is to be crowned at this time, with the Colorado musicians furnishing "court music." The Iatan school, which is one of the most progressive in the county, has just installed Delco-Light system.

- 4:00 p. m.—Next place of meeting.

FUTURE FARMERS OF LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL MET LAST WEDNESDAY

Program For Year Read and Committees Were Appointed

The local high school chapter of the Future Farmers of Texas met on October 16, with a program on which the opening number was a talk by Supt. Ben S. Peek. His talk boosted the boys' work and also pointed out the importance of this work in the school.

A brief business session was called. The president read the program of this year's work. One of the outstanding socials is to be a Fathers and Sons banquet.

The following members were appointed as committees:

- Committee of Activities—Orin Feaster, Harvey Jones, Preston Wynne, James Bodine, and John Lee Henson.
- Committee on Dues—George Tate, Pete Smith, and Francis Johnston.
- Program Committee—Lester Powell, W. R. Hains, and Rex McKenney.

The session was adjourned until the fifth Tuesday in October.

Pie Supper At Cuthbert Next Friday Night

G. W. Womack announces a pie supper will be held at Cuthbert Friday night for benefit of the church building which needs repairing.

He extends special invitation to everyone to attend and promises a real good evening of entertainment and some of the best eats, to those who attend.

LIONS CLUB HEARS OF HEALTH WORK IN COUNTY FROM NURSE

Miss Burish Tells of Plans For Six Week's Work In County

Miss Olga Burish, State health nurse, here for six weeks' work in Mitchell county, explained her work and plans for work in this county at the Lions club luncheon Friday. She gave a splendid lecture on the need of health and then told of the work among children.

She and Miss Ruby McGill, county superintendent, had visited one independent school district to examine children and found one small boy who could hardly see out of one eye, and another who had diseased tonsils, teeth, and defective vision. These two cases were the worst found in the school so far.

She explained that more than 50 per cent of the school children have defective teeth, and a very large percent have diseased tonsils, adenoids, or some defect that can be easily remedied, and it is the purpose of the nurse to discover these ill and recommend to the parents means of correcting the trouble.

Mrs. Berryhill sang a classical song and the "Pagan Love Song," with Mrs. Bert Wulfjen at the piano. This part of the Lions club program was highly appreciated by the members. Frieda Merle Reid gave the essay which she gave at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce meeting in El Paso Thursday in the "My Home Town" contest.

President Randie reported on the charter night banquet of the Sweetwater Lions club last Friday. He also appointed entertainment committees for November as follows: Col. C. M. Adams, chairman; J. Ralph Lee, and J. H. Smoot.

C. N. Potts of Dallas, brother-in-law of J. B. Mills, was a guest, as was also Miss Ruby McGill.

Grand Jury Returns Five Indictments

Five felony indictments were returned by the grand jury this week before its adjournment Wednesday afternoon, to reconvene next Wednesday.

Three of the indictments were against M. L. Lacey, colored, charged with forgery. One was against Will McKnight, colored, charged with assault and attempt to murder. One indictment, that against Clarence Loving, colored, charged with forgery, resulted in his conviction Thursday morning in district court and a sentence of two years imprisonment.

Ginning Total Of County Goes Over 15,000

Mitchell county's ginning total had passed the 15,000 mark Thursday noon, 15,789 bales have been ginned in the county.

In Colorado 8,395 bales had been ginned; in Buford 1,215 bales, in Westbrook 2,300 bales, and in Loraine 3,879 bales. Westbrook's two gins had each ginned 1150 bales.

Ginning in Colorado was distributed as follows: Lambeth, McCleary & Grubbs, two plants, 2,060 bales; Farmers' Cooperative, 1,190 bales; Williams Morgan, 1,580 bales; Concrete, 910 bales; Farmers' No. 3 plant, 1,878 bales; Farmers' No. 1 plant, 777 bales.

The staple was selling at $16.10 per hundred, and the seed was bringing $30 per ton.

BAPTISTS HAVE GOOD TEACHERS' MEETING

The officers and teachers of the Baptist Sunday school Wednesday evening was one of the best meetings held since the meeting was instituted. One of the largest crowds attended the luncheon and stayed for the business hour that has been presented since the early spring months.

Development In Dairy Work Makes Steady Growth

Dairy development in Mitchell county continues to make a steady growth with the purchase recently of two registered Jersey bulls and a registered heifer by Wiley Walker of Loraine, and C. B. Eppler of Westbrook.

Mr. Eppler's bull is from a cow that is producing 38 to 40 pounds of milk with her first calf, and the heifer is from a cow that is producing 40 to 45 pounds of milk. The dams of these animals will be put on official test with their next calves.

Mr. Eppler is milking four cows and in the first 20 days in October he sold $110 worth of milk and his feed bill, including the feed of five heifers and a young bull, amounted to $54.00.

Mr. Walker's bull calf is from a cow that gives six gallons of six per cent milk. These animals were purchased at Dublin and Granbury.

TWO MITCHELL COUNTY 4-H GIRLS AT FAIR ENCAMPMENT IN DALLAS

Miss Imogene Halbert And Lena Ohlenbusch Enjoy Fruits of Good Work

The 4-H Club girls of Mitchell county, Imogene Halbert and Hilda Ohlenbusch, are among the three hundred 4-H Club girls at the Dallas Fair this week. The girls left Monday morning and will return Friday.

The two trips were given by the Texas & Pacific railroad, and the girls are guests of the Dallas Fair association while in Dallas.

To win the trip to the fair in this way, each girl must exhibit at the fair at least one entry from each of the following phases of 4-H Club work: Food preservation, clothing, home improvement, productive projects, and she must also have a complete record book and history of 4-H Club work.

Both Miss Ohlenbusch and Miss Halbert began 1929 with a determination to win the trip to Dallas Fair. They have kept that goal in mind throughout the year, not only in the work they have done but also in keeping records of this work.

THREE OF SCHOOL BUILDING ENTERED BY THIEVES MONDAY

Unknown Persons Force Way Into Grade Schools; Objects Stolen

Persons as yet unknown, but thought to be two in number, forced their way into three of the public school buildings Monday night and stole several small items.

The buildings entered were Hutchinson, Primary and Junior High schools. Entrance in the Junior High school was gained by means of tearing open a screen, and the doors of the other schools were prized open with a bar.

Eighty-two cents were stolen from the office of the Junior High principal. A fountain pen and phonograph records were other things taken.

The frost was not generally regarded as harmful to cotton. In fact, many farmers welcomed it for their cotton, claiming that it will hasten the opening of the bolls and hurry up the harvest. Some cotton was lost through the frost over the county, but it is claimed that not much of this would have matured anyway, unless frost had held off as much as a month longer, which it was not likely to do, since the first frost last year came about Nov. 11.

Considerable damage was done to feed, however, several farmers reported.

Mrs. Otto Jones and the Misses Jones spent Saturday at Rendonbrook.

WULFJEN REPORTS ON DALLAS FAIR TRIP AT LUNCHEON CLUB MEET

Urges Completion of Feeding Demonstration Plans; Miss Price Reads

U. D. Wulfjen urged completion of the plans to feed out one or more cars of calves for market next spring as a part of the demonstration work to prove it profitable to feed Texas cattle on Texas soil, when he spoke at the Luncheon club Tuesday noon.

He reported on a trip to the Dallas fair, where a meeting of the Texas Feeder-Breeder association was held. He returned enthusiastic as to the future of this organization. Mr. and Mrs. Wulfjen, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wulfjen, Mrs. J. L. Pidgeon, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Foster, and a number of club boys and girls of this county attended the exposition.

Miss Loyce Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Price, gave a reading that was highly appreciated. Miss Price is indeed an artist in programs of this kind.

Dr. T. J. Ratliff, Oran Feaster, John Elliott and Miss Price were guests. Others present at the Tuesday meeting were: Miss Beatrice Logan, A. L. McSpaddin, Ben S. Peek, Rev. W. M. Elliott, C. E. Stubblefield, Dr. R. D. Bridgford, W. L. Doss, R. H. Northcutt, Rev. Alex Hanson, Doyle Williams, U. D. Wulfjen, H. I. Berman, F. B. Whipkey, J. B. Mills, W. A. Rose, J. Ralph Lee, Milburn Doss, W. R. Morgan, D. M. Merritt, O. H. Majors, J. T. Johnson, C. H. Earnest, Col. C. M. Adams, W. C. Hinds, Jim Logan and J. H. Greene.

OVER 200 BIRDS TO BE SHOWN IN LORAIN EXHIBIT IN NOVEMBER

At Least Eight Breeds Of Chickens To Be Entered

Over 200 birds are expected at the Diversified Farming Exhibit and Poultry Show to be held at Loraine November 8 and 9, according to Clyde Smith, superintendent of the show. Indications are that at least eight breeds of chickens will be entered in addition to a large number of rabbits and turkeys.

In addition to the regular premiums, seven special prizes will be offered for the best pullet in the show, best cockerel, best hen, best cock, best young pen, best old pen, best trio of turkeys.

All persons expecting to enter poultry in this show should make reservations with Mr. Smith or with the county agent, before Wednesday, November 6th, in order to be sure that coop space for the birds will be provided.

Jack Frost Comes Early To County

Jack Frost descended unexpectedly and earlier than usual on Mitchell county Wednesday night, and Colorado awoke to a silvered world on Thursday morning.

The frost was not generally regarded as harmful to cotton. In fact, many farmers welcomed it for their cotton, claiming that it will hasten the opening of the bolls and hurry up the harvest. Some cotton was lost through the frost over the county, but it is claimed that not much of this would have matured anyway, unless frost had held off as much as a month longer, which it was not likely to do, since the first frost last year came about Nov. 11.

Considerable damage was done to feed, however, several farmers reported.

Mrs. Otto Jones and the Misses Jones spent Saturday at Rendonbrook.

COLORADOANS TO NAME MAYOR NEXT TUESDAY, OCT. 29

Coloradoans will go to the polls in a special election next Tuesday to name a mayor to succeed Thos. J. Coffee, resigned.

Every voter is urged to take interest enough in this election to cast a ballot. The selection of a mayor is an important task and citizens should express their preference at the polls Tuesday. There are two men in the race, Hon. R. H. Ratliff, local attorney and native citizen, and Mr. H. L. Hutchinson, pioneer business man of Colorado. Both are well qualified to fill the office, and each is well known for his honesty, integrity, and sincerity. It makes no difference who the voter prefers in this race, a ballot should be cast.

Remember, the election is to be held at the city hall next Tuesday, October 29.

REPLICA OF FIRST LIGHT BULB GIVEN SCHOOL ON MONDAY

Gift Comes From Ted Garrett On Fiftieth Anniversary of Edison's Invention

What is supposed to be an exact replica of the first incandescent light bulb invented 50 years ago, last Monday, by Thos. A. Edison, was presented to Colorado High school Monday by Ted Garrett, local electrical expert.

The bulb was placed in the science laboratory of the school, where it will remain to interest high school students for years to come. The bulb is not unlike the latest Mazda lamps today in either structure or appearance. It is mounted on a wooden base, as was the one which Edison perfected and gave to the world in 1879, and the glass is clear. A tiny globe is on the end of the larger globe.

Supt. Ben S. Peek, in behalf of the school, has expressed profuse thanks to Mr. Garrett for this valuable and interesting gift.

ROTAN VS. WOLVES ON GRIDIRON HERE THIS AFTERNOON (THURS.)

Good Game Is Promised In Match Between Two Strong Teams

A football game well-worth the price is predicted to take place on Cantrill field this afternoon (Thursday) when the Colorado Wolves meet Rotan.

Rotan is said to have a strong team, even though it has met two defeats, one at the hands of Snyder and one in a contest with the McMurry Freshmen.

This is Colorado's third conference game. So far the Wolves have met only one defeat, and that at the hands of Roscoe with the score standing 15-0. Weaknesses revealed in the Wolves' game at that time have been given special attention in the Wolves' practice since then, and indications are that the Colorado lineup will be stronger in this game than in any previous match.

Miss Cooper On Program To Talk Before Teachers

Miss Octavine Cooper, teacher of vocational commercial courses in Colorado High school, will make a talk on some phase of her work before a convention of all vocational commercial teachers in Texas assembled on Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Austin.

The teachers will also be addressed by Mr. Bradford of Washington, D. C., head of vocational commercial work in schools of the nation.

JUDGE FRITZ SMITH ILL; M. CARTER IS SPECIAL DIST. JUDGE

Veteran Attorney Named To Serve Temporarily When Court Opened Monday

Judge M. Carter, veteran Colorado attorney, was named special judge for the Mitchell county district court Monday morning to serve temporarily on account of the illness of Judge Fritz Smith of Snyder, who is confined to his home with lagrippe.

When court session was called Monday morning, the attorneys composing the bar before the court elected Judge W. W. Beal of Sweetwater temporary chairman and he had ballots passed and the attorneys voted on a special judge, selecting Judge M. Carter.

The grand jury was called and empaneled. Joe H. Smoot was named foreman by Judge Carter. Other members of the grand jury are M. L. Adrian, J. C. Etheridge, A. M. Angel, B. D. Smith, Van Boston, J. G. Bruce, C. A. Wallace, J. W. Walker, C. N. Stubblefield, A. K. McCarty, J. W. Munns. The jury immediately took up the duties of investigation.

In charging the grand jury, Judge Carter instructed them to look into all law violations and to return indictments in all cases where testimony sufficient to substantiate the indictment could be introduced.

"Do not return indictments where the district attorney feels the testimony is not sufficient to secure conviction," Judge Carter said. "We do not want the expense of taking up cases where we know conviction can not be secured, but in all cases, regardless of whatever nature, where actual law violations are apparent to you and evidence can be secured, you should return indictments without fear or favor."

Liquor law violations came in for special charge of the judge. He said a large majority of the cases to come before the grand jury would likely be liquor law violations, and he instructed the jury to investigate these thoroughly and return indictments in all cases where testimony can be introduced to substantiate the indictment.

The case of J. S. Tinney, charged with murder of C. W. Scuddy near McKenzie on August 25th, was to come before the grand jury and District Attorney George H. Mahon said he would insist on indictments for first degree murder.

The three negroes charged with shooting W. C. Jones, T. & P. brakeman, here recently, were also to be examined.

Following the swearing in of the grand jury, the petit jury list was called and sworn and then dismissed until Thursday morning at 9 o'clock when they were instructed to reappear at the court room. No jury trial is to be held until Thursday morning.

The petit jury list is as follows: O. P. Blair, O. H. Thompson, S. W. Scott, E. Blessingame, Earl Brown, J. L. Bowen, C. B. Reeder, A. T. Baker, E. B. Smith, E. H. Blum, J. W. McGuire, Ivan Barber, W. H. Long, S. E. Meadows, M. E. McGuire, L. L. Bedford, Orion Linam, C. C. Bell, O. T. Bird, L. J. Tillison, H. M. Smith, R. B. Long, W. R. Wood, B. V. Powell, Paul Snively, F. L. Terry, R. H. Bennett, J. F. Morris, T. B. Russell, W. K. Miles, W. D. McAdams, G. D. Shelton, L. R. Messimer, and Ed Womack were excused.

The criminal docket is set for next Monday morning, when it is expected Judge Fritz Smith will be present.

Tuesday was appearance day. The court met at 10 a. m. and several non-jury cases were set down on the docket. There are 21 divorce cases on the docket and 30 other civil cases.

DEBATING TEAMS TO MEET SWEETWATER

Debating teams of Colorado High school will meet teams from Sweetwater here this afternoon (Thursday) at 3:30 o'clock, according to John W. Cobb, director of debate.

The six Colorado teams are scheduled to meet six corresponding teams from Roscoe here next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. J. L. Pidgeon returned Friday from Dallas and Fort Worth.

SOCIETY

MRS. J. G. MERRITT, Editor
Phone 144
would appreciate report of all social and club meetings. Reports must be phoned in not later than Wednesday afternoon each week
PHONE 144

Hesperian Club

The Hesperian Club met Friday with Mrs. E. H. Winn. The members were delighted to have Mrs. Lockhart of El Paso, who was a member until the time of her leaving Colorado. Her sister, Mrs. Billingsley, and Mrs. Lewis were the other appreciated guests.

The president reported briefly upon Dr. Anderson's address on State health. It was voted to pay the County Federation dues of $1.50.

It was voted to adopt the two rural schools the club had last year—Looney and Seven Wells. Committees were appointed to visit them.

An invitation was read from the City Federation of Big Spring inviting the club to a tea Friday, and the next meeting of the Hesperian club was set for Saturday at 3:30.

The lesson on King Henry Sixth was led by Mrs. Millwee. Mrs. Sadler gave a very splendid paper, citing that Shakespeare was a student of theology. Mrs. Johnson's paper, citing evidence that he was a student of nature, was given in a very interesting way by Mrs. Millwee. Mrs. Lee cited many evidences that he was a student of history. Mrs. D. M. Merritt read Mrs. Teas' paper, a character sketch of the Duke of Bedford. Mrs. Johnnie Prude gave a character sketch of Henry Seventh. The questions on Act 1, scenes one and two, were studied.

The hostess took her guests to the Keybrook, where they were served a delicious Halloween luncheon. The tables were covered in black and yellow cloths; the napkins were adorned with Halloween figures. Toasted chicken sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, and coffee, was followed by pumpkin ice cream and black and yellow cake, with plate favors of Klondike cosmos.

The meeting this week is with Mrs. S. O. Wulfjen at the home of Mrs. J. L. Pidgeon, on Saturday instead of Friday.

1921 Club
The 1921 Club met Friday with Mrs. R. P. Price. They voted to sponsor a Mitchell county exhibit at the Dallas Fair next fall. A resolution was prepared asking the County Federation of Clubs to take charge of this.

The invitation to the tea given by the Big Spring club women was read and ten members plan to go. They will meet this week on Thursday.

Mrs. J. M. Doss led the lesson on the Short Story. Mrs. Pritchett gave a very splendid paper on the development of dialogue in the short story. Mrs. Hardison gave an excellent one on the development of structural technique in the short story; Mrs. W. L. Doss, Jr., discussed Poe's views as to the short story, and Mrs. Ratliff discussed realism and romanticism in the short story.

The meeting Thursday is with Mrs. Foster.

Halloween Party

Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Jack Reynolds, the Junior Missionary society was entertained by the leaders with a lovely Halloween party. The house was beautifully decorated in Halloween symbols. The children came masked as ghosts, witches and various animals. They were greeted by a tall, white ghost and a black old witch with her broomstick. Games were played on the lawn for a while, then a treasure hunt was enjoyed inside and many pieces of candy were found.

A witch's pot with its fire interested the youngsters very much. Maxine Dorn and Thelma King gave Halloween readings, then more interesting games were played. The group—about 75 in number—were finally lined up outside and marched to the back door, where they were served cups of chocolate and black cake.

The superintendents of Junior and Primary work, and the Junior church leaders were assisted by some of the mothers in making of this a success. Everyone, including the children, are very appreciative of Mrs. Reynolds' lovely hospitality.

Mission Study

The Methodist Mission study class met Monday with Mrs. Mattie Merritt. The first lesson in "What Next in Home Missions," was studied. The scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Jeff Dobbs. Mrs. Van King led in prayer. The lesson, a "Backward and Forward Look," was taught by Mrs. Merritt. Topics were given by Mrs. Garrett, Mrs. King, Mrs. Merrill, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Arnett, and Mrs. Dobbs. The next lesson is on "Learning to Live Together."

County Federation

The Mitchell County Federation of Clubs has been given permission to meet in the assembly room of the City Hall and their November meeting will be held there. The Federation made $22.00 on its rummage sale Saturday, one-half of this going into the club house-building fund.

Self Culture Club

The Self Culture Club met Friday at 2:30 with Mrs. John Williams. They voted to change the meeting this week to Thursday and ten of them will go to Big Spring on Friday to the City Federation tea.

The lesson was led by Mrs. John Brown. Roll call was answered with the name of a Texas artist.

Mrs. Lambeth gave a very interesting review of the life and work of the Texas sculptor, "Elbleit Ney." Mrs. Gordon read Miss Logan's very splendid paper on the Christoval Art colony. Mrs. Williams read some of Lexie Dean Robertson's beautiful poems. At the conclusion of the club session bridge tables were placed and the ever-fascinating game was played until 5 o'clock, at which time a delicious salad plate with coffee was followed by cherry pie.

The meeting today is with Mrs. Clarence Cook.

Honoring Dr. Stewart Browning

Thursday evening the members of the Country Club, together with a few invited friends, gave a farewell party for Dr. Browning, who is leaving the first of November for Amarillo.

A beautiful fried chicken supper was served at 7 o'clock, and at conclusion of the meal, bridge was played. The tallies were Halloween figures and partners were found by matching these.

There were 14 tables of players. Judge C. H. Earnest, president of the club, made a very beautiful address, expressing the sentiment of the members in regard to Dr. Browning as a club member, a citizen, and as a dentist. Mr. Earnest told especially what he had meant to the Country Club. Dr. Browning having served as the president last year. To this speech Dr. Browning very modestly and appropriately replied.

Bridgettes

The Bridgettes met Thursday with Mrs. W. R. McEntire, who had a beautiful Halloween party. The house was lavishly decorated, the pumpkin tallies each had an orange wrapped package attached. These, when opened, contained balloons to be blown up; with whistles and other noise makers.

There were six tables of players, the only out-of-town guest being Mrs. Griffith of Midland. Mrs. Dick Carter won high score, and was given a set of bridge ash trays.

A beautiful and delectable refreshment course was served, consisting of chicken salad in orange jack-o'-lanterns, orange bread and butter sandwiches, potato chips, coffee with orange sugar, chocolate pie with orange meringue.

The meeting this week is with Mrs. D. M. Merritt.

Presbyterian Circle Two

The Presbyterian ladies of Circle Two met with Mrs. Otis Wolf on Monday afternoon, October 21, at 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. Wolf's home was beautifully decorated in orange and black, and bats hung from the ceiling. Skeletons, black cats and other figures hung on the walls.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Lee Carter and was opened with a prayer by Miss Nellie Riordan. Seven members responded to roll call. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The district meeting of the Auxiliary, which includes Midland, Big Spring, Coahoma, Roscoe and Colorado, and which meets here October 24, was discussed.

Mrs. Carter led the Bible lesson, and Mrs. Clarence Gross led the Home Mission study. The meeting was closed with a prayer by Mrs. Ben S. Peck, after which the hostess served delicious refreshments. As the spirit of Halloween prevailed, several ghost stories were told and suddenly a very red witch appeared. She told fortunes and amused the guests.

After a very enjoyable social hour the guests departed.

Circle Three, Presbyterian Auxiliary

Circle Three of the Presbyterian Auxiliary met Monday with the chairman, Mrs. Daugherty, who presided at the business session. The meeting opened with a chain of prayer.

Mrs. Jerold Riordan conducted the Bible lesson from the 17th chapter of Matthew. After the business session, Miss Frances Riordan conducted the lesson on "The Foreigner in Our Midst." Miss Mildred Coleman told some of the things the emigrants have brought to us. Mrs. Abe Dolman told of the Italian mission in Kansas City. Miss Mamie Riordan told of the Blue Bird school for girls in this mission.

Mrs. Hattie Smith had as her subject the Tex-Mex school at Kingsville. Mrs. Potter had the "Institute Is Training by the Nobility of Honest Work," a boy's story of the Kingsville school. Mrs. Jerold Riordan told of the new Mexican school at Lockhart.

Mrs. John Brown told of the work of Rev. Abraham Fernandez, who serves from El Paso to Big Spring. Mrs. Daugherty told of the oldest foreign work.

Mrs. Hovis was received as a new member. The hostess served a delicious refreshment plate, carrying out the Halloween idea in her napkins, salad and cake. The meeting Monday is the Bible Study.

Standard Club

The Standard Club met with Mrs. C. M. Adams. Mrs. Riordan led the lesson on the second part of King Henry Sixth. Five of these ladies plan to go to Big Spring on Friday to the City Federation tea.

At the conclusion of the lesson, a delicious two-course luncheon was served. The next meeting is with Mrs. Carter.

Shakespeare Club

The Shakespeare club met Friday with Mrs. Pearson. The Shakespeare lesson was led by Mrs. John L. Doss. Miss McComas gave the first article on Belgium, which was very interesting indeed. A salad plate and coffee followed by a dessert was served.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jerold Riordan. About ten of the Shakespeare members plan to attend the tea at Big Spring, and if they go there will be no meeting held this week.

Mrs. John Williams Entertains

Friday morning at 9 o'clock, Mrs. John Williams entertained three tables of bridge with a pretty Halloween party. Her guests were Mesdames Nat Thomas, J. W. Randie, D. Tidwell, Lester Manning, W. W. Cagle, Richardson, Harrison, Howard Delaney, Pritchett, Bill Broadus and Lewis.

At the luncheon hour, chicken salad, hot rolls, coffee, cherry pie, and whipped cream was served.

In the afternoon, after the meeting of her club, Mrs. Williams had four tables of players. The club and one table of invited guests, enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon.

Halloween Bridge by Mrs. Sadler

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. J. A. Sadler very delightfully entertained five tables of bridge players with a beautiful Halloween party. The house was tastefully decorated in the Halloween symbols, masses of chrysanthemums and marigolds being used. The tallies were gay old witches. The party was a very enjoyable one and at the conclusion of the games, a delectable salad plate with coffee was served.

Luncheon Club

The Luncheon club met Thursday with Mrs. Pearle Shannon at the Colorado hotel. Her guests were Mrs. J. H. Greene and Mrs. L. G. Lewis. A three-course luncheon composed of shrimp cocktail, broiled chicken, peas, potato salad, rolls and coffee, was followed by a fruit mold. The usual number of bridge games were played in the most enjoyable way. The meeting next week is with Mrs. Ledger Smith.

Merry Makers Entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones, Jr.

The Merrymakers received the following invitation last week: "The Pumpkin House is shing bright. To celebrate a festival night, Tuesday eve, so come and see some sights you've never seen before."

The guests were met at the door by a spook with icy hands. The ladies were given coat hangers and told to hang their coats in the bedroom closet, where they were caught by another spook with icy hands.

They found their places at the table by black-cat place cards. A two-course dinner, consisting of chicken, dressing, cranberry sauce, peas in potato nests, pineapple salad, hot rolls and coffee, followed by pumpkin pie, was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Snyder, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Tidwell, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Prude, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Mackey, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Murrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wulfjen, and Pete McCurry. The guests were served by two little witches, who, when unmasked, proved to be Gladys Louise Jones and Elizabeth Hutchinson. The guests after dinner drew their tallies and paper hats from a witch's pot. Crazy cards were played throughout the evening. At the end of the fourth game the players were told to pull the noise makers suspended from the ceiling, and when this was done, the witches fled—if they have any sense of hearing.

High score was won by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wulfjen, and low by Pete McCurry and Mrs. Raymond Gary.

The next meeting is with Mrs. R. B. McEntire.

This was one of the gayest and spookiest of any of the many Halloween parties that have been given. Mr. and Mrs. Jones certainly proved themselves "witching" entertainers.

Baptist Women's Missionary Society

The ladies of the Baptist church held their Missionary meeting Monday afternoon in the parlors of the church.

Circle One arranged the program and acted as hostess. Mesdames C. H. Lasky, W. R. Morgan and O. C. Lambeth were the leaders, and they brought a most interesting program on "Stewardship and Missions."

Song, "Holy, Holy, Holy."

Prayer by Mrs. Ashford.

With Mrs. Bowen at the piano, the three leaders gave several selections of readings and songs. "Money and Missions" was given by Mrs. Lee Jones, saying though money may be "filthy lucre," yet if applied in the right channel and spirit great good could be accomplished. Mrs. Lasky conducted a round table discussion on what we possess belongs to us or God?

Solo—Mrs. Walter Stoneham.

At the social hour the hostesses served sandwiches, cake and tea, and the plate favors were Halloween favors of pumpkins and witches.

After adjournment the ladies met in the T. E. L. class room and packed a box for Buckner Orphans' Home.

The W. M. U. will meet in Circle groups Monday, October 28.

D. A. R.

The D. A. R. will meet with Mrs. Ben S. Peck Saturday, October 26, at 3 o'clock.

THIS, THEN, IS TEXAS!

The following address with slight omissions was delivered by former Governor Pat M. Neff at Peoria, Ill., a few years ago at the head Camp meeting of the Modern Woodmen of America. Governor Neff being one of the Texas delegates was selected to deliver the address welcoming the Woodmen to hold their succeeding annual meeting at Dallas, Buffalo, New York, being the only contender. As an apostrophe and tribute to the Lone Star State this address is a classic, and rivals in humor the famous "Speech of Duluth" by Senator J. Proctor Knott.

"Feeling a modest glow of pride in my Texas nativity, I gladly bear to you on this occasion her greetings and congratulations, and I desire in a few simple words to extend to you a cordial invitation to hold your next triennial session within our gates.

"To fully appreciate the boundless area and magnificent dimensions of Texas, extending from the first blush of day to the golden twilight of the setting sun, it is necessary to combine states and empires for illustration. Why, you could put New York and Colorado and Utah, our three competitors for your next meeting place, in the Panhandle of Texas, and it would take the cowboys of that western district three weeks to find the borders of them. You can put all the New England states, with Illinois and this head camp thrown in for good measure, in Texas, and they would rattle around like peas in the pod. Texas is 212 times larger than

'THE TWO FLYING COLONELS'

Snyder American Legion Post To Be Organized Next Sunday

SNYDER, Oct. 23. — Ex-service men of West Texas will flock to Snyder next Sunday when the American Legion post is to be re-organized and where Col. Wm. E. Easterwood, Dallas, National Aeronautics chairman for the American Legion, will be one of the principal speakers.

Col. Wm. E. Easterwood, he of the chewing gum fame, who has just returned recently from a foreign tour, is offering $25,000 for a flight prize from Rome to New York and Dallas. Ex-service men and citizens in general all over West Texas are being invited to join in the ceremonies at Snyder, which will be held Sunday afternoon, October 27th, at either the Chamber of Commerce offices or the district court room.

Col. Easterwood, a native born Texan, is shown in the photograph above during Lindberghs last visit to Dallas, where he was Easterwood's guest.

Col. Easterwood having been born and reared at Wills Point, is perhaps more widely known as the manufacturer of Orbit Listered Gum, in which he has made a fortune through persistently advertising his product. He has also been prominently associated with a movement of newspaper men to enter the Democratic arena for Governor next year.

10, 1883. I have about 1,000 head of cattle, grow a heap of cotton, and much more row crops for feed-stuff."

Besides his pet sheep, which minds him like a Scotch collie, Landers has another hobby. It is the collection of horns. His is said to be the largest and the finest in Texas since the sale and removal to Havana, Cuba, of the famous collection in an old saloon at San Antonio. Landers' collection consists of more than 100 pairs of horns, ranging all the way from buffalo to lambs, including deer, antelope, steers and elk.

"I'm not here for any reason in the world other than to look the market over," Frank Smith of Colorado said when seen at the Metropolitan. "I have got a lot of stock getting fat on our ranges, due to recent rains, and I just want to see how the markets are acting, so as to judge when to sell, or get a line on a lot of good feeder stuff, take it out our way and put it in condition for the market later. Colorado is doing fine. There is lots of building and merchants are not complaining about poor business."

"Fifteen years ago where our new hotel stands across the street from the depot, a fellow ran a garage. I bought an auto from him. Shortly after that he moved away. He returned a few days ago and, will you believe it, when he got off the train, and looked around, he swore that the conductor had put him off at the wrong place. He could not believe his eyes. That great big hotel on the lots where his one-story fram garage once stood; the paved streets instead of mud holes, and brick houses instead of frame shacks, were beyond his comprehension. He was a stranger in his own home town."

County Health Nurse Has Full Visit Schedule

MISS BURESH MEETS WITH 4-H CLUBS AND ALSO VISITS SCHOOLS

Meeting with home demonstration clubs and planning visits to rural schools, Miss Buresh, State health nurse who has been in the county the past week, has had a full program, and has an even fuller schedule worked out for the coming two weeks.

Miss Buresh met with the Baumann Home Demonstration club on Tuesday afternoon and outlined the work of the public health nurses. Last week she met with the Conway club and discussed with the members plans to organize an Adult Health club.

A child health conference is being held in each of the schools in connection with the inspection of children in rural schools, and mothers who are anxious to bring their children of pre-school age for inspection are urged to do so.

Today (Thursday) Miss Buresh is visiting the Buford and Longfellow schools. Her schedule for the remainder of the week is as follows:

- Oct. 25—Landers at 9 a. m., and Looney at 1 p. m.
- Monday—Cuthbert at 9 a. m. and Fairview at 10:30, and Rogers at 1 p. m.
- Tuesday—Lattan at 9 a. m., Dorn at 1 p. m.
- Wednesday—Little Sulphur at 9 a. m., Valley View at 1 p. m.
- Thursday—North Champion at 9 a. m., Lone Star at 1 p. m.
- Nov. 4—Hyman at 9 a. m., Spade at 1 p. m.
- Nov. 5—Silver at 9 a. m., Bauman at 1 p. m.
- Nov. 6—Shepherd at 9 a. m., and Horn's Chapel at 1 p. m.
- Nov. 7—Seven Wells at 9 a. m., and Payne at 1 p. m.
- Nov. 8—Love at 9 a. m., McKenzie at 1 p. m.
- Nov. 9—Carr at 9 a. m.
- Nov. 12—Conaway at 9 a. m.

'COCKEYED WORLD' REAL SURPRISINGLY FINE TALKIE

Roul Walsh Achieved Exceptional Results in This Movietone All Talking Picture of Marines in Action; McLaglen and Lowe Are at Their Best We Believe

"Believe it or not," as Ripley would say, but there is a well defined notion in our minds that Roul Walsh has surpassed, directorially and in many other ways, his former world-wide success, "What Price Glory," with his current production, "The Cock-Eyed World." In fact, the latter which shows at Big Spring on Sunday from 1 to 6 p. m., and on Monday from 2 to 10:30 p. m., at the Ritz Theatre, might well be called an all-talkie classic of the "Devil Dog" in so-called peace times.

There are many contributing reasons for this predilection; for with the advent of talking pictures, there is a marked breadth of technical advance in picture production as demonstrated by the result achieved by Walsh.

Nor will anyone deny that both Edmund Lowe and Victor McLaglen have climbed many steps up the ladder of cinema fame since their former effort by reason of commendable portrayals in other important Fox pictures. But in none have they appeared to better advantage than in this epic of the Marines, to be shown in Big Spring next Sunday and Monday, at the Ritz Theatre.

And Walsh having mastered the technique of sound pictures makes this another important factor which

Local Firm Has Interest In New Radio Program

A new Radio program, which will be heard over WBAP, Fort Worth, next Tuesday evening and on each Tuesday evening thereafter, 6:30 to 7 o'clock, is being sponsored by a group of Aladdin lamp dealers in the Southwest, of which J. Riordan Co. of Colorado, Texas, is one. This program will be known as the Aladdin Mantle Lamp Barn Dance Frolic and will feature those old tunes so popular a few years ago.

In addition to the music, there will be a very important feature for anyone at all interested in the raising or marketing of poultry. On each Tuesday evening's program, Uncle Ned will give a detailed, accurate, concise poultry market report. It will be possible to then determine exactly the price being paid at shippers' doors in the poultry centers for the fowls. This feature alone will save members of this community many dollars by keeping accurately posted. Be sure you dial in on WBAP Tuesday night at 6:30. 1t

FUTURE HUSBANDS TO BE FED 'HOME STYLE' CLASSES IN HOME ECONOMICS INDICATE

There's a comforting answer—for future husbands of Colorado, at least—to the query:

"Will the next generation of husbands be fed in home or delicatessen style?"

The aforementioned comforting answer is found in the home economic department of Colorado High school, where ninety-one feminine members of the "younger generation" do not feel strange in a kitchen apron, preserving, canning, and performing other tasks of the household gods.

All bids fair for future husbands, who will need to go neither hungry nor buttonless, for these ninety-one modern young heads are bent over the sewing machine and the cooking pot each day by choice.

And the classes grow each year, according to Miss Mary Davies, head of the home economics department.

The practical side of everything is stressed in these classes. In taking these courses the girls are being taught modern methods of preparing foods that are simpler, easier, and will enable them to manage a home on an economical basis and to feed a family in a scientific manner.

There are two home economics courses offered. In number one, which is a prerequisite for number two, the girls are taught the relation of health to food. Stress is placed upon weight and the girls are encouraged to reduce to normal or to come up to their normal weight. They study the source of food as it affects the body and the value of the food. They also plan meals.

Several times they have guests for breakfast or luncheon and plan and cook the meals and wash and do all of the necessary cleaning up. They are made to feel at home in the work and to forget that it is school.

They are taught the proper use of china and silver and linens, and the care of linens and how to launder and remove stains.

Everything that pertains to the simple things of the home is brought to them in this first year course, even the proper ways to furnish living rooms and bed rooms.

Another important feature of the first course is the teaching of principles of family relationship, bringing out how the girl can be courteous not only in the home but all places.

And then, they are taught how to help save on the income—budgeting is a great part of this step.

They are also taught how they might be an asset to the community.

In home economics 2, the girls advance to the more complicated foods. They are taught to serve more elaborate luncheons and dinners, to decorate, prepare, serve and clean.

They are taught the principles of a balanced diet, how to gain or retain normal weight, and how to serve the proper amount of carbohydrates and proteins for a balanced meal.

They are taught to can and preserve, and how best to save their food.

Home management, equipment, care of the kitchen and dining room, the saving of steps by the proper placing of the equipment in the most convenient places are important details in which they receive instruction.

In fact, practically no phase of home life will be entirely new to the bride who has taken the courses offered to the students in the Colorado High school.

I. K. GALEY BUILDING TRENCH SILO ON FARM

I. K. Galey is building a trench silo on his farm just northeast of Colorado and will fill it next week. This is the first silo of its kind to be tried here and the experiment is being watched with interest by dairymen and farmers.

The silo consists of a trench eight feet wide, eight feet deep and fifty feet long, and will hold fifty tons of silage. It will be filled with maize and will then be covered with fodder topped with dirt or old lumber.

The chief advantage of this silo is its low cost. It can be built in just a few days without any cash outlay except for labor. Another advantage is that in feeding, a wagon or cart can be backed down the slope at one end, making it very easy to get the silage out of the silo.

Anyone interested in trench silos can get plans for same from Doyle Williams or W. S. Foster.

MAIZE YIELD INCREASED BY USING PURE LINE SEED

Maize yields were increased 246 pounds per acre by Horace Snider of the Valley View 4-H Club by using pure line maize seed furnished by the Colorado Chamber of Commerce. In this demonstration, Horace planted half his acre with this seed and half with seed from the crib. The good seed made 1050 pounds on the half acre and the other made 927 pounds, an increase of 123 pounds on the half acre, or 246 pounds on one acre.

Both plots were planted together and given the same treatment. After charging all expenses against his crop and adding on $5 per acre for rent of land, this one acre made a net profit of $7.33.

Horace is selecting seed from the pure line maize to plant their crop next year.

$125,000 Stock To Go At Drastic Reductions;
15-Day Sale

Starting Friday morning at 9 o'clock, an immense "Trade Extension" sale will get underway at the West Texas Dry Goods Company, formerly known as the Colorado Bargain House.

The store's entire $125,000 worth of new Fall merchandise, consisting of ladies' and gent's ready-to-wear, piece goods, hats and shoes, will be placed on sale for 15 days at a drastic reduction in prices.

To the first 50 customers that make purchases to the amount of $5.00 or over, following the opening hour of the sale, an aluminum two-quart percolator will be given. Only one percolator will be given each family.

On Saturday, beginning at 10 a. m., the store will give a two-quart aluminum double boiler to the first 50 customers making purchases of $5.00 or over. Limit one to each customer.

BIG TIME REPORTED BY 4-H CLUB BOYS

The 4-H Club members who won the trips to the Club Encampment at the State Fair at Dallas last week, report that they had a big time and a very interesting trip.

The boys spent Sunday night in the jury room at the court house and left early Monday morning in cars with Sam Wulfjen, Jim Johnson, and W. S. Foster. Two of the boys went on the train as guests of the railroad.

By supper time everybody had been checked in at the camp and all had been assigned a bed. The Encampment is held in a large building with 14 rooms that hold 40 boys each. In the back of the building there is a large dining room that seats 400 people.

After supper, the boys, in charge of county agents, visited some of the agricultural exhibits, but turned in early.

At six o'clock, first call was heard, and the boys were given a few setting-up exercises and after breakfast they were taken on an inspection trip to visit and study the agricultural exhibits.

After lunch, the whole gang boarded special street cars and were taken to the Majestic Theatre, where they saw a good show. That night they saw the Hagenback-Wallace circus in front of the grandstand, and afterward they rode "Lightning" and many other rides at the big Carnival grounds. (One of the Mitchell county boys saw his first circus.)

Wednesday they watched the Short horn cattle being judged and in the afternoon went to a rodeo. After supper they went to see "The Red Robe" at the Coliseum.

Thursday the boys were turned loose to see anything they liked with their county agent. Some of the boys went into town and visited some of the business houses, while others spent the day in carnival grounds. A number of boys visited the Ford factory in the afternoon.

Thursday night and Friday morning everybody broke camp and started home, tired but happy and ready to go back.

Those who made the trip were Garvice Craghead, Joe Leonard Blackard, Kenneth Riechburg, George Draper, L. G. Walker, Foster Willis, Roy Hallman, Max Hallman, Robert Earle Wulfjen, and J. C. Northcutt.

TWO-ROW SKIP ONE MAIZE MAKING GOOD

Two-row-skip-one maize made 790 pounds more maize per acre than where every row was planted in a demonstration completed last week by C. W. McAnally of North Champion community. The skip row maize made 2514 pounds per acre and the solid planting 1715 pounds per acre. Both plots were planted side by side at the same time and were given the same cultivation. The heads were larger and heavier on the skip-row maize. This is the first year that Mr. McAnally has used this method of planting, but he is well pleased with it.

DE PRIEST DEMANDS SOCIAL EQUALITY

KANSAS CITY.—General recognition in official Washington social circles to which a congressman and his wife are entitled was demanded here today by Oscar DePriest, negro congressman from Illinois.

Included in his plea was the demand that his wife be accepted on an equal basis at official functions to which she might be invited, and recognition of his right to frequent capitol baths and barber shops.

GREAT POSSIBILITIES IN MILKING SHORTHORNS

The milking Shorthorn cow offers great possibilities for Mitchell county, according to County Agent W. S. Foster, who says that there are many cows of the breed that will produce enough milk to equal Register of Merit requirements. In fact, the record cow of all breeds is a Milking Shorthorn of Australia that produced 32,522 pounds of milk and 1,614 pounds of fat in 365 days under official test.

When given good care the Milking Shorthorn cow will give lots of milk and when dry can be fattened and sold for beef. Cows of this breed, freshening in the fall, can be milked for five or six months during the slack season on the farm and can be turned out on grass in the spring with the calf which will make a good baby-beef animal.

Since a good many Mitchell county farmers milk cows through the winter and turn them out on grass in the spring when most of their time is needed with the cotton crop, this breed of cattle should fit into this system of farming very nicely. The calves from Milking Shorthorns make good beef animals and can be fattened in the feed lots the following winter. This gives the farmer two chances for profit—cream during the winter while prices are high, and a beef calf to be sold in the fall or put in the feed lot. Handling cows in this manner will not interfere with the cotton crop and will enable farmers to make full use of their time.

Valley View Visits

Valley View school is progressing nicely. And has an enrollment of 62. Practically all the students who attend this school have already enrolled. However, a few more will probably be enrolled within the next few days.

The teachers, students and patrons are making an effort to make this term the most successful school Valley View has ever had.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Templeton and Ernest Robertson spent the week-end visiting relatives in Midland.

CHICAGO'S BUMS NOW ENROUTE TO SOUTHLAND

CHICAGO, Oct. 23. — Three months before millionaires feel they can leave business, "bums" from Madison street, Chicago's hoboland, have started their annual exodus south to escape winter's blasts.

"Pals" through the summer are breaking up because they can't agree whether Florida, California or Texas offer the best wintering facilities.

Owners of "flop houses," "five and ten" restaurants, boarding houses and second-hand stores, know the annual rout to the warmer climates has begun, because their receipts decreased daily.

The street, usually lined with loafers and soap box orators, seems deserted—the corners are not crowded with the unfortunates who in the warmer days congregated to spin yarns of yore—when they were in better circumstances.

The heart of Madison street, known as "bums' paradise," is five blocks in length. It is their kingdom—police look upon it as such and interfere little with its business. Few know its true and mysterious workings—thousands of others care little. It is just Madison street.

Farewells on "Good-bye, pal," and "Tell Joe in Pecos howdy," are heard as the card-free brigade drifts ahead of the chilly blasts from Lake Michigan, along with the geese.

Just how they all leave Chicago is a mystery. Many take the "rode," while others "hit the highways." The bolder among them ride the "blinds" of the fast passenger trains, outriding the cold waves.

An old grizzled veteran of the street, while vatin' ga nickel's worth of beans and drinking a cup of coffee, was wondering, in terms of finance, just how he was going to escape the winter.

They are now headed South, but to that part of the South where there is but little work and plenty of room to work their different grafts.

A Domestic Product Customer—I want a pair of shoes for this youngster.

Salesman—French kid? Customer—Certainly not; born right here in Texas.

Young Men's S. S. Class Entertains

The Bruce-Wesley Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday school entertained with a delightful party at the Methodist church Monday evening, October 21. The following program was rendered and every number was appreciated and heartily applauded: John Mahon, master of ceremonies. Music—Orchestra.

Vocal solo—Mrs. W. R. Martin. Readings—"I Didn't Go To Do It" and "Mammy's Lil' Boy"—Mrs. Roy Edwards.

Plantation Melodies—Orchestra. Male Quartet—Messrs. Pickens, Jarratt, Muns, and Taylor.

Reading—Eldon Mahon. Class history and eulogy to J. M. Bruce, retiring teacher—C. W. Palmer.

Response to eulogy—J. M. Bruce. "God Be With You," with variations—Orchestra.

Song, "When We All Get to Heaven"—Led by Mr. Bruce.

Roll Call—C. F. Glass. After the program, the party hurried informally to the tabernacle, where a feast of luscious water-melons, raised by C. W. Palmer, was served, amidst merry laughter and good fellowship.

The melons soon disappeared like a "vortex of mist at eve," then away ran the "boys" and their guests, who, by the way, were their wives, to engage with each other in spirited contests of pillow race, "cracker and whistle," Chinese spelling match, etc., under direction of Mesdames W. R. Martin, Marvin Martin, and Harold Martin.

The Bruce-Wesley class is composed of some 40 honorable Christian gentlemen whose creed is, "Truth, for there are those who trust them; Purity, for there are wives who care; Strength, for there is much to suffer; Bravery, for there is much to dare. They are friends to the friendless; they give and forget the gift; they look up and laugh, and love and lift." May they live long upon the earth and have a party every time the moon changes.—A GUEST.

Womack and Neff Announce New General Tire

The new General Dual-Balloon tire is the climax of all the features that have made the name General famous in the tire world, according to Ed Womack of the firm of Womack & Neff, which this week announces in an ad in the Record the advent of the new tire.

In the Dual-Balloon the remote chance of a puncture is reduced to the vanishing point, it is said. Womack & Neff are offering a special Trade-In plan in introducing this new General tire.

AMERICA'S NAVY DAY

October 27th, the anniversary of the birth of the patron saint of the modern navy, Theodore Roosevelt, is "Navy Day," a day set apart to bring before the American people, the owners of this navy, a better realization of what the Navy is, of what the Navy does, and of its activities in the preservation of peace. All United States Naval vessels and activities throughout the world are open for inspection by visitors. Naval ships have been sent to every port on the coast line to participate in exercises and ceremonies befitting the day. The Navy is on dress parade, and wants its stockholders, the American people, to come aboard and see how it works and how it plays. The navy was not able to get one of its big war vessels up the river to Colorado for this year's celebration, but the people here are invited to go to the nearest port and look over your battleships.

Vernon Glover and mother of Buford attended services Sunday night.

VETERINARIAN BE HERE OCT. 30 TO TEST DAIRY COWS

Dr. Coleman, County Health Officer, Says All Those Selling Milk Should Act

Dr. O. E. Wolfe, licensed veterinarian of Big Spring, will be in Colorado on Wednesday, October 30, to test cattle for tuberculosis, according to Dr. P. C. Coleman, county health officer, who is waging a campaign to enforce the milk ordinance of Colorado.

Dr. Coleman arranged with Dr. Wolfe to come here to test cattle in compliance with the city milk ordinance, which requires all those who sell milk or any dairy products in the city to have their cows tested and hold a certificate showing the cow or cows free from tuberculosis and other diseases.

Those who have cows to be tested should phone or see Dr. Coleman at once so that the veterinarian can make the test when he comes to Colorado.

Dr. Coleman has made it plain that he intends to enforce the milk ordinance. The expense of having the cows tested is $1.00, and Dr. Coleman says every family that keeps a cow should have the cow tested for their own protection.

While the milk ordinance applies only to those who sell milk and butter, owners may avail themselves of this opportunity to get their milk cow tested while Dr. Wolfe is here. Dr. Coleman said, and he urges every owner of a milk cow to take advantage of this opportunity.

COLORADO STORE OF HICKS COMPANY LEADS IN ABILENE DISTRICT

Volume of Sales Exceeds That of Any Other Hicks Store

Tuesday, A. C. Connell, manager of the Colorado store of the Hicks Rubber Co., Dayton and Star tire dealers, received a wire from J. R. Hill, division manager, stating that the Colorado store led all other Hicks stores the past week in volume of sales.

The Colorado store sold more tires and tubes than Abilene, Stamford, Lubbock, Plainview, San Angelo and other stores, Hill said.

He commended Connell and the other Hicks store employees here for the excellent business done. Connell says Colorado is the best town in West Texas and therefore he is not surprised at the record made by this store. Last year the Colorado store led in sales.

The telegram from Hill reads: "Heartiest congratulations to your store. It led sales in the Abilene and West Texas division last week. We are proud of the thorough efficiency of your organization. Ability and hustle will do the job and you have got it. More success to you."

Spade News

The Spade Dramatic Club met Friday evening at 7:30. Business was attended to. Miss Letha Skaggs was initiated into the club. Mill Mildred Faulkner came in as a new member. Then a delightful little program was rendered, after which a social hour was enjoyed on the school campus.

The Spade school will have a Halloween party on the night of October 31st. A very interesting little program is being planned for the general public. There will be fortune-telling booths, cold drink stands, and popcorn balls will be for sale. We are also planning to get in some interesting track meet games with some of our neighboring schools. A small fee will be charged for these different forms of entertainment. We urge each and every one to come. Other communities are requested to be here. Proceeds from the party will go on stage equipment fund.

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 16, quite a few friends and relatives of L. H. Welch met at the teacherage and gave him a pleasant birthday surprise party. The friends began singing in a little before sundown and continued to come in for quite a while. The friends brought with them good eats and personal gifts to the honoree. Refreshments of sandwiches, fruit punch and cake were served to about fifty in the dining-room of the teacherage. Some undertook to administer the "usual birthday whipping," but failed in this. All went away early, expressing kind wishes for the honoree.

The program for the P. T. A. on Thursday, October 24, promises to be quite interesting. A report of same will be in next week's paper.

Rev. A. D. Leach filled his regular appointment here Saturday and Sunday. Large crowds were in attendance at these services. Bro. Leach brought us some good gospel messages, as he always does.

Miss Ruby McGill visited in our school a little while last week. She is planning on some improvements for the school. Come again, Miss McGill, we are always glad to have our county superintendent.

Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Swann have been on the sick list. We are glad to report that both are rapidly improving.

Little Gladys Lorne Browne came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Landra Browne on Friday morning of last week. She is indeed a welcome member to our community. Mother and daughter are both doing fine.

Sunday schools are both on the improve. There was a good number at each one Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Allen of Hyman visited in the L. H. Welch home Sunday.

B. Y. P. U. work is moving along nicely. All are willing workers, and the work is going fine.

Rev. A. O. Garner, pastor of the Methodist church, will preach here Saturday night and Sunday. Let's all come out to church and hear Bro. Garner. We are needed there and we all need to be there.

UNCLE IKE MARRIES A MEXICAN COUPLE
While Uncle Ike was proceeding to marry a Mexican couple in the county clerk's office Saturday, a near-accident occurred. The "hombre" in the case came near being left out of the proceedings. It all happened by reason of the fact that none of the Mexicans could understand English and Uncle Ike failed to make himself thoroughly understood in the Mexican lingo. The couple actually desiring to be married consisted of a hombre about 40 years old apparently and a fair senorita about 16. The judge naturally supposed that the groom was a nicely-dressed young man, about twenty years of age who was in the group. Consequently, he directed this young man to take his place by the side of the senorita, started the ceremony, and commanded the young man and the fair lady to join hands. At this stage of the game, the mother detected a serious mistake was about to be made and she excitedly intervened, explaining

Speedometer To Decide Whether Player Eligible

The fine line that marks the halfway point between Colorado and Snyder is the object of a diligent search by a new-comer to Colorado High school this year. His name is Francis Johnson and he would love to play basketball for Colorado, but he hasn't yet been able to determine whether he lives nearer Colorado than Snyder, and on the answer to that question depends his eligibility or ineligibility to play for Colorado.

It's soon to be determined, though. Francis lives just on the lane which turns west just this side of Dunn. By the main highway, he lives just one-half mile nearer Snyder than Colorado, but there are many crooks and turns on his way home by that route.

The rules of the conference state that distance can be measured by the "nearest traveled road." It is said there is another road leading to his home by a back route, which is frequently traveled. Before the opening of the basketball season some teacher in the high school has been instructed to set out in his car, setting his speedometer at the door of the school house here, drive to the boy's home, and thence to the door of the Snyder school house. This was the solution recently suggested by the executive board of this district.

If the distance to the boy's home to Snyder is greater than the distance from his home to Colorado, then Colorado High will have a new and eligible member on its basketball team this spring.

SLATS' DIARY

Friday.—Pa put 1 over on Ant Emmy tonite at the super table and I don't believe she has saw the point of it yet neither. She was asking why sum of the Musikal shows which shows on Broadway St. in Noo York stays for such long run sum times and pa answered and replied they run so long on acct they have so many laigs.

Saturday.—I overheard a conversation of 2 men talking today and they both was all bandaged up like they had hen in a couple recks or sum thing. I man sed to the uther man. that this young man was the girl's brother and that the intended groom was the older man in the company. After all had indulged in a hearty laugh at the ridiculous situation, a re-arrangement was made and the wedding proceeded in due form and order.—Tahoka News.

NOTED EDITOR IS OPPOSED TO STATE BIG BOND PLAN

Fred Robinson of Waco, veteran newspaper man, publicist and patriot who has been frequently mentioned as a suitable person to be governor of Texas, has some very pronounced and interesting views on the highway question and taxation incident thereto. In a recent letter printed in the Dallas News, Mr. Robinson said:

"I oppose the proposed road bond issue of about $300,000,000.

"I oppose the rerouting of roads and leaving off the smaller towns, thereby virtually destroying them.

"I favor closing the gaps on all important highways in one year, out of the funds in hand, and without increase in taxes.

"I favor reducing the gas tax from 4c to 2c and reducing license fees to $3 for cars costing under $1,000.00 with maximum of $5.

"I favor a highway commission of three members, elective preferred, that will be in session 365 days a year at an annual salary of $5,000 each, so that any citizen can present his road problems at any time, instead of having to get permission to come to Austin to secure a hearing.

"I favor a general reduction of State expenses, with lower taxes all along the line, as I consider this the best way to afford the farmers relief, as also the laboring man, and the average citizen.

"While I have made no decision as to entering the race, many of those who know me well are urging that I do so, and if there seems any considerable demand for my services to carry out the policies indicated, from the 1,000,000 automobile taxpayers of the State and (about) 2,000 smaller cities and villages likely to be disastrously affected by a continuation of present policies, I may enter the contest at the proper time, and will do my best to make things 'hum.'

"It will really be a contest of the people versus the politicians, with myself merely an incident, and striving to be of some benefit to my native State.

"And I may be pardoned for stating my full initials are F. B. R., which all can see are emblematic of For Better Roads." From the Center (Shelby County) Champion.

WRECKS MAN'S CAR THEN MARRIES HIM

Five weeks ago Marvin Walker of the South Ward community went down to Commerce to pick cotton. He was a stranger in a strange land, but soon succeeded in landing a job. The man for whom he began work had two fair young daughters. When Walker had been on the job for about two weeks, the damsels borrowed his car to drive a short distance. Having had little experience in driving cars and not being familiar with his particular "make," the young ladies found difficulty in driving it. Something went wrong down the road and the car turned over. The girls were only slightly injured but the car was almost completely wrecked. After extensive and expensive repairs had been made, Marvin came back home in it.

But he soon discovered that there was something bad the matter with him. His heart seemed to be seriously affected. Dan Cupid had gotten in his work. So, in a few days his heart turned back to Dixie—or to Commerce, rather—and so did the rest of the body. In the meantime Cupid had been working on the other end of the line also. Marvin found the young lady willing and so, after the requisite three days' notice had been given, a marriage license was issued, and Miss Oneta Liston, one of the girls who had wrecked his car, became his blushing bride.

The happy young couple then turned their faces westward, driving the same car that had brought them so much grief, and on Wednesday of last week, they arrived at the groom's parental home in the South Ward community, where they will reside. Truly Dan Cupid can turn some funny tricks.—Tahoka News.

Or Was It a Jew?
"Ever hear of the Scotchman who bought a car and then married a girl because a doctor said she had gas on her stomach?"
"Go ahead, order your drink; I'll pay for it!"

TELLS JUST WHY HE COULD NOT PAY THE BILL IN FULL

"Dear Sir:
"I have your statement showing that I owe you $769.80 and I am enclosing a check for $5.00 for which please send me a receipt. I am sorry that I cannot pay more at the present, as I am unable to collect from my customers, as my money is scarce right now. My own living expenses are terrible and I can hardly get along. I will try to send you another $5.00 when I sell my hay, which should be in July. I cannot pay you more at that time for my daughter finishes at Ward-Belmont this year, and that costs a heap of money.

"I thought I could send you check when I got my cotton money, but it took all I could rake and scrape to put in Doleo-Lights as my wife didn't have electricity to run the sewing machine and vacuum cleaner. Then, too, we had to build a shed to put the Ford in so we could put the Cadillac in the garage, and build a concrete bridge over the brook in our front lot, as well as a new road so that we could get in and out better with the new car.

"I can't send you the corn money, because my son is going to college, and although the lads of today are very economical about hats and garters, still a coonskin costs the old man a lot and even junk-yard Fords come rather high by the time they are decorated for college use. I might send you the hog money, but the missus and I have planned a trip to Niagara in the fall, and after working hard all these years, I think she deserves a trip. We can't go before taking out all the red plush and putting in over-stuffed cane and mahogany. This is a terrible strain on my finances especially as the new well that was needed closer to the house and the new up-to-date barn have to be paid for.

"All the farmers here are in hard shape financially with strawberries this season at 75 cents a quart and the price of gasoline as it is. Then, too, there is an epidemic among the married women to have their plain gold wedding rings platinized and set with diamonds and everybody's having their tonsil and teeth removed, to say nothing of adenoids."—Tulsa Bulletin.

"P. S.—I forgot to tell you also that when the Delco-Lights are installed we are going to have to buy a 'lectric attachment for the radio, but this will cut down expense of havin' the batteries charged."

Little Milton came home from Sunday school with a mite box.

"Why do you call it a mite box, mother?" Milton asked.

"Because," chirped his brother, "you might put something in it and you might not."

ABILENE BOY WITHDRAWN FROM PRIZE CONTEST

ABILENE, Oct. 23.—Abilene will not be represented in the "My Home Town" contest of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at El Paso this week.

Walter Ely, Jr., twice winner of the contest, has been withdrawn, not by the Abilene Chamber of Commerce which entered him, but by his father, W. R. Ely, an Abilene attorney and member of the State highway commission. Judge Ely telegraphed the Abilene Morning News from Austin Tuesday that, inasmuch as his son's eligibility to compete had been questioned, he, the father, did not care to have him go to El Paso.

The contest was launched by W. E. Reid, editor of the Colorado Record, joined by the chamber of commerce of that city. Reid took the position that Walter Ely, having graduated from the Abilene High school last May, is not, under the rules, qualified.

Young Ely had won the Statewide contest at the Wichita Falls and Fort Worth conventions.

WAIT DICK, TILL TRADE GETS GOOD!
(Dick McCarty in Albany News)
"Wait, Dick, till trade gets good, and then we will give you an ad!" That gag is so old that it has whiskers a foot long. Look yonder at that train load of catalogues enroute to Texas, the nation's bible directory of prices on Chicago's bargain counters. There's a picture of a hairpin, giving a description of the crinkle in the wire, just how it was tempered; so that it will bend and never break. And bob-haired women are buying them by the carloads.

"Wait till trade gets good, Dick, and we will give you an ad." And by the time trade gets good the short haired flappers have bought all the hairpins they want. Nut crackers, clothes pins, mouse traps and can openers. Pictures of 'em in the very pretty catalog telling all about 'em, just how they are made, why they are better and cheaper, and a great long lock and bull story about quality and wear. A blank order sheet, a stamped envelope, freight and postage guaranteed. The picture and the sales talk touched the spot and Ma's order is gone glimmering down to the big city store.

"Wait, Dick, till trade gets better, and then we will give you an ad." But, says, Boy, when trade gets good every household in your trade territory is stocked with rat traps, can openers, nut crackers, their knitting needles and floor mops. The home merchants have 'em galore, often times cheaper than the catalog joints, but they just won't picture them in picture books and brag on their merchandise. Wait till trade gets good, Dick, and we will give you an ad.

Wriggly, the chewing gum man, took some waste stuff, and sweetened it, and perfumed it, and through the office of publicity gives you a sweet breath, cleanses your teeth, and heals up your sore gums, and the civilized world is chewing wax. He spends his millions for publicity, has created a fortune in the last ten or 15 years of a hundred million dollars. And here is the average merchant can't sell bacon and beans, sugar and coffee, calico and domestic axle grease and plow gears, and the staples of life.

"Wait till trade gets good, Dick, and we will give you an ad." Of course, your space ain't worth a damn if you just do it to help the old home paper out."

Eastern Star To Have Practice Meeting Tonight

A practice meeting of officers of the local chapter of the order of the Eastern Star has been called for Thursday night, October 24.

This meeting has been called for the purpose of practicing for the initiation of three new members next Thursday evening at the regular meeting. Those who are to be initiated are Eula Gross, W. W. Porter, and Mrs. Bill Turner.

All officers are urged to be present at the meeting tonight.

Little Milton came home from Sunday school with a mite box.

"Why do you call it a mite box, mother?" Milton asked.

"Because," chirped his brother, "you might put something in it and you might not."

GLEANINGS FROM EXCHANGES

THE NEW W. T. C. GENERAL MANAGER

At El Paso October 24-25-26 the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will probably adopt a new constitution and effect a number of changes to make more efficient the greatest regional chamber of commerce in the world.

One of the outstanding matters of business will be the selection of a general manager to succeed Homer D. Wade, now manager of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce. The electors should be extremely careful in their selection. Anybody can apply for the job and may possess unusual business qualities, but it requires more than a "mixer," more than a "hot-air" merchant with a press of the devil and the deep, blue sea." Let's rescue it.—Big Spring News.

THE NEW ORGANIZATION

The organization of the Association of West Texas County Judges and Commissioners, accomplished here two days ago, forecasts added activity on the part of official West Texas. The idea is a good one—just what the association will amount to is up to the members themselves.

It is only logical to believe that public officials can become more efficient by banding themselves together and exchanging ideas—just as business and professional men in all lines have been doing for the past ten years. It is only logical to believe that "two heads are better than one," whether those heads be public or private business men, and if its cause is pushed the association should benefit the territory.

The Morning Avalanche hopes that Robert H. Bean, Lubbock county judge and first president of the organization, will have a pleasant and a busy administration. It is to be further hoped that the organization be one of accomplishment as well as of theory and that the time spent in its meetings will be productive of big things.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Water Supply

Any West Texas city that is growing has a problem of water supply that commands constant attention.

The rainfall, altitude and other forces make it imperative that city governments watch always lest their people be faced with shortage of water for domestic as well as industrial uses.—Big Spring Herald.

The water problem is the biggest that West Texas towns has to solve. The city officials of Graham have solved that question for its town. Lake Eddleman was recently completed. Its capacity is two billion gallons. When filled to capacity it will supply water sufficient for the town for five years if it should not rain a drop in that period. The watershed of the reservoir covers some 44 miles area so there is little danger of this lake ever going dry. Besides this is an addition to the present water supply, which has maintained an adequate supply during the recent drouthy period.—Graham Leader.

The dries, including the officials of the Anti-Saloon League, are inclined to oppose Morris Shepherd's latest bill and bid for popularity of making the purchaser of booze equally guilty with the bootlegger in the sale of intoxicants. They figure, and rightly so, that when such a law is passed it will almost nullify the 18th amendment in that in most cases there will be no chance for witnesses, as no one is forced, according to our constitution, to incriminate themselves. Some, and this includes wets as well as dries, say the bill would be unconstitutional.—Brownfield Herald.

We do not know whether ex-Senator Fall, now on trial in Washington for bribery in connection with the oil scandal of the Harding administration, is feigning illness or not. We are inclined to believe that he is really sick. But whether he is very sick physically or not, he must be desperately sick at heart. Whatever the result of this trial, his name will go down in history as the name of a man belonging in the same class morally with Benedict Arnold and Boss Tweed. Once occupying the exalted position of United States Senator and then a cabinet officer, his lust for gold led him to commit a crime, according to the allegations of the indictment against him, that is among the most despicable in the whole category of crime. How much he has suffered mentally since the commission ever know, but our guess is that he has had few happy moments since. Which brings us back to say again, that however alluring the promised gains, crime never pays.—Tahoka News.

If Morris Shepherd's bill to make the purchaser of liquor equally guilty with the bootlegger should become a law, we should then like to see the Senator assume the role of prosecutor in the courts and find out how he would go about enforcing the law. Since the only witnesses to most liquor transactions are the seller and the purchaser, prosecutor Morris would be compelled to promise immunity to either one or the other and use him as a witness. Wouldn't it be great to see Morris come into court with an indictment against one of his fellow citizens for purchasing liquor and prove his case by the bootlegger who sold it? It is to laugh.—Tahoka News.

HESTER WOULD MAKE COLORADO 'MUSIC CITY OF WEST TEXAS'

"The Music City of West Texas" is what Roy Hester, director of the Colorado Municipal Band, the Colorado School Orchestra, and the Junior Band, would make of Colorado.

Mr. Hester would begin his work in this direction by starting youngsters out early in the musical way by getting them into junior bands and school orchestras.

"The Colorado School Orchestra has, at present, 28 members, Mr. Hester states. "Boys and girls from the grade and high schools. We hold rehearsals every Tuesday and Friday morning from eight to nine, in the high school auditorium.

"I would be very glad to have the parents of any of the orchestra members attend any of our rehearsals so they can see how we have advanced. The children work very hard at rehearsals trying to better the organization so that Colorado will have a school orchestra she will be proud of. We have a very nice instrumentation, although we could use several more violin players. We never get too many violin players in an orchestra.

"There isn't any argument as to the importance or value of music in all our lives. Music is a language that everyone understands. Any thought or mood can be expressed by music. If you are tired after a hard day's work, just relax in the old arm chair, turn on the radio or phonograph and listen to some lively piece of music and see how much better you feel. I believe I'm safe in saying that 25 per cent of the population of the United States plays some musical instrument. Music is not a luxury. In the present age it is a necessity. Let's have more music, more musicians.

"It's better to have your child at home playing some musical instrument, amusing himself and other members of the family than running around town at nights.

"I want to hold a musical concert, in the near future, at the high school auditorium consisting of a concert by the Municipal band, the Junior band, the School orchestra, the Glee club, and the Choral club. I want to show the citizens of Colorado that they can always be assured of a band and orchestra by showing them the talent we have in the Junior organizations.

"No doubt some of you older people remember how you used to stand around and listen to the band and wish you could be one of the band boys. Well, don't have your child wishing the same thing. Find out what instrument the would like to play. But it for him and let him start now. He can join the Junior band after a few weeks home study. "Let's have more music and more musicians in Colorado."

People love to see their home town prosper. Some may say they don't, or at least from their actions they seem not to care. But no citizen who has the welfare of his family at heart, who wants to make life pleasant for them, wants to reside in a dead town. To make a live town depends wholly on its citizenship. Every citizen should be willing to give its share of time and money to the advancement of his town. A town is not going to progress of its own accord. A Board of City Development provides a way that will make each citizen an equal partner in the financing of an organization that is always sponsoring moves that will keep the town in the front ranks of other progressive ones of the State.—Rotan Advance.

What'll we do with all those invisible hairnets we have left in stock?" asked the clerk.

"Put 'em on sale as the newest material for street dresses," replied the department head.

Patient—Sh-s-sh! For heaven's sake, speak softly—she's sitting in the next room.

Putting a Kick in Shakespeare

Teacher—What did Juliet say when she met Romeo in the balcony?

Pupil—Couldn't you get seats in the orchestra?

Mother—Jimmie, you run upstairs and bring your new baby sister's nightie.

Jimmie—Aw, I don't wanna.

Mother—You run upstairs this minute or your baby sister will put on her wings and fly back to heaven.

Jimmie—Well, tell her to put them on and fly upstairs and get her nightie.

Putting His Foot Down

Curiosity—Did you give your wife that lecture on economy you talked about?

Domesticity—Yes.

Curiosity—Any results?

Domesticity—I've got to give up smoking.

Amiable Soul

Myers had a bad day at the office which made him cross and irritable so he decided to go home early. A friend on the street accosted him: "Where are you going, Myers?"

And Myers savagely replied: "I'm going home, and if my dinner is not ready I'll raise old Nick, and if it is I won't eat it."

The film director was making a Western thriller and was working very hard to get some action into it.

Finally he turned from the brink of a cliff, mopped his brow, and then glanced at the dummy made of straw and old clothes lying on the ground beside him.

"Good heavens!" he shouted, "who was I two threw over the cliff?"

Southern Woman—Mose, I'm sorry to hear your wife got a divorce and has left you.

Mose—Yessum, she's done gone back to Alabama.

Southern Woman—Who's going to do your washing now?

Mose—Don't you fret, missus; I see cotin' again an' Ah sho' cotes fast.

While Auntie arranged the pantry shelves, her little niece handled the spice boxes and called each spice by name. Presently she said:

"Auntie, I can read."

"Can you, dear?" answered her auntie.

"Yes, Auntie," came the reply. "but I don't read like you do. I read by smell."

ABOUT AUTO AND TIRE DEALERS

The Colorado Motor Company has sold new cars to Geo. H. Mahon, Clyde McKean, The California Company, and Jack C. Smith.

Mills Chevrolet Company has sold a new Chevrolet roadster to C. E. Wilson, a Chevrolet coach to L. S. Coles, a coach to D. R. Rodriguez of Westbrook, and an Imperial sedan to O. W. Redwine.

A Buick coupe was delivered to C. A. Martin and a Buick sedan to Mrs. W. L. Doss, Sr., by May Motor Co., this week.

A Plymouth sedan was delivered to W. W. Davis of Westbrook by the Hendrix-Woldert agency this week.

All automobile dealers of Colorado report good sales on used cars, which has been featured by them for the past thirty days.

All tire dealers in Colorado who have been advertising in The Record report extra good sales during the past month. Allen Connell, local manager of the Hicks Rubber Co., received a telegram from that company this week saying the Colorado store had heavier sales than any store in Texas. This is considered a fine record when it is taken into consideration that the Hicks Rubber Co. has stores at Abilene, San Angelo, San Antonio, Waco, and many other places larger than Colorado.

LORAIN TAKES GREAT INTEREST IN SCHOOL HEALTH INSPECTIONS

Miss Buresh, State Health Nurse, Examines Children

Much interest was manifested in the physical inspection of the children of the Loraine school, according to Miss Olga Buresh, State health nurse. It was evident that the students realized the necessity of keeping well and that physical defects hindered them in their school progress. The suggestions as to what they can do to improve their health were received with much enthusiasm.

In the physical inspection given by Miss Buresh at Loraine, 315 children were inspected, 235 of them showing some physical defect, a total of 355 ailments of defects being found in this number. Eighty-four cases of more than 10 per cent under weight were found.

Suggestions, recommendations and directions were given the teachers by the State health nurse, for a program that should prove most helpful in the formation of health habits.

A sanitary survey of the Loraine school, according to Miss Buresh, revealed many conditions that are harmful to the welfare of the school child.

R. H. RATLIFF IS STRONG CONTENDER FOR MAYOR'S PLACE

Local Attorney Offers His Candidacy On Platform Of 2 Years Ago

R. H. Ratliff, former county attorney, who made the race for Mayor of Colorado two years ago, announces he is seeking the office now upon the same platform used in that campaign, and expects to stand by his convictions with reference to city governmental affairs.

Ratliff, who was reared in Colorado, has demonstrated exceptional ability as an attorney and business man. Returning to this city a few years ago from the University of Texas with a degree in law he started with practically no financial backing, was overwhelmingly named county attorney by the voters in the primaries, served creditably in that office for two terms and then began the practice of law.

He now owns a good home near the high school, several other smaller pieces of property, a half interest in the Chero-Cola Bottling Co., and the large brick building which houses the Mills Chevrolet Co. Ratliff is a home boy who has made good in a financial way as well as professionally.

In seeking the office of mayor he expresses a desire to serve the people in this capacity in order that he might further demonstrate his ability to handle business as well as legal matters. He has some very definite ideas about the conduct of city government and expects to stand for the incorporation of these into the city management. He also feels that matters of economy in expenditures should be practiced, and that delinquent taxes and other neglected affairs should be collected and adjusted.

Ratliff asks the voters to go to the polls Tuesday and vote, and of course he solicits their support in this race. He feels he can accomplish something for the citizenship in this office and promises if elected to do his best to fill the office efficiently.

Having been reared in Colorado, the attorney is known to most every voter. His honesty is beyond doubt, his ability and sincerity is not questioned, and his friends and supporters say he would make this city a real mayor. This is the first time in history of Colorado the voters have had an opportunity to elect a native son as mayor.

Ratliff is ambitious to do some-

Weldon Skinner Is Given Eagle Award For Work

Weldon Skinner, assistant Scout Master here, was given the Eagle Award at the council meeting of the Buffalo Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America, here Friday evening.

Skinner has been in Scout work 11 years, and has won more than 40 merit badges. He filled requirements for the Eagle award two years ago, but because certain records were lost, considerable correspondence with National headquarters was necessary before the award was approved there.

SHELTON AND SHURTLEFF HANDLING FINE SEEDS

G. D. Shelton and J. O. Shurtleff are boosting the plan to get farmers to plant better cottonseed and have purchased and culled about 3,000 bushels of fine cotton seed, most of which are first-year seed.

They have these seed stored in the Shurtleff building on East Second street. The Blue Wagon Mebane, Cash, Rowden and other varieties are in stock and they are expecting to be able to furnish Mitchell county farmers with good planting seed for next spring at reasonable prices.

Shelton is dealer for the Russell pedigree seed also, and is selling a great many of these fine seed.

thing worth while and therefore his supporters say he would work at the job with vim and vigor rarely ever exhibited by a city mayor in a city the size of Colorado.

STAND OF LOCAL C. C. IN WTCC CONTEST WAS STRENGTHENED MONDAY

Originator of My Home Town Contest Says College Men Not Eligible

The stand of the Colorado Chamber of Commerce against the entry of Walter Ely, Jr., of Abilene, student in the University of Texas, in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention "My Home Town" contest, was strengthened Monday by a long distance telephone conversation with Thomas Etheridge, Jr., of San Antonio.

J. H. Greene, secretary of Chamber of Commerce, quoted Mr. Etheridge as saying to him: "No high school graduate is eligible to compete in the 'My Home Town' contest of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and no individual can win the cup for himself."

"Etheridge originated the contest, gave the loving cup and wrote the rules under which contestants may compete," Greene said.

According to Greene, Mr. Etheridge further said: "My understanding and interpretation of the rules are that no high school graduate can compete for the prize at any time and under no circumstances will the cup become the property of the individual who successfully competes for it. The cup, when won by any town for the third time, becomes the property of the town and not the individual. It was never my intention to give the cup to the contestant but to the town winning it for three consecutive years regardless of whether the same person or three different individuals competed for the prize for that town during the three years."

"The Colorado Chamber of Commerce filed protest against Abilene's entry of Walter Ely, Jr., University of Texas student, who won the cup the past two years, and whom Abilene had entered again this year," Greene said. "Grady Shipp, assistant to President Bourland of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, had ruled Ely eligible and I called Mr. Etheridge over long distance to ascertain his attitude.

"He plainly stated he had never intended that a graduate of a high school should compete and that no individual could keep the cup," Mr. Greene said.

"The rules as sent out by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce," J. H. Greene continued, "clearly make Ely ineligible this year and in view of the statement of Mr. Etheridge, sponsor of the contest, which bears out my contention raised several days ago, I insist that Ely cannot compete for the prize this year."

Contestants who have been notified are John Rayburn, Slaton; Curtis Bishop, Big Spring; Louis Bridges, Del Rio; Frieda Reid, Colorado; Elizabeth Jobe, Sweetwater, and Ely.

Dr. P. C. Coleman, vice president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, endorses the stand taken by Mr. Greene.

"Regardless of any ruling by officials or employees of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the fact remains that to me Ely is clearly ineligible to compete in this contest this year," Dr. Coleman said. "I can see no fairness in the efforts to force him into the contest and if he is allowed to participate it will not only be a violation of the rules and the intent of the donor, Mr. Etheridge, but will be a violation of the spirit of fairness heretofore upheld by West Texas Chamber of Commerce," Dr. Coleman concluded.

A letter on file in the Colorado Chamber of Commerce offices from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce reads: "Eligibility contestant must be under 21 years of age and a student of high schools, and must carry a letter from the superintendent or principal, stating he is a student and representative of the school and a letter from the chamber of commerce of the town represented stating he is the contestant for the town so represented."

SIX-YEAR-OLD GIRL PICKS 100 POUNDS COTTON DAILY

Little Marguerite Milligan of the Red Top community, near Graham, is an exceptionally good cotton picker. She is 6 years old, weighs 35 pounds and picks an average of 100 pounds of lint cotton every day.

She is making this record in a field that is making a bale to about every five acres. Some days the little girls picks as much as 115 pounds. She picks regularly every day, not being old enough to go to school, and not satisfied to stay at the house alone.—Graham Leader.

Jackrabbits And Cubs Victors In Roscoe Matches

"The rising generation" of football players in Colorado schools will furnish Colorado High school a team of Wolves to crow over in the near future, if they continue winning victories like the ones in their first games last week.

The Jackrabbits, the team of younger boys second to the Wolves, defeated a similar team from Roscoe high on Cantrell field Thursday afternoon. The score was 7 to 6.

The Junior High school team made a sweeping victory of the first game of its existence, defeating the Junior High team from Roscoe to a score of 34 to 0. This team is calling itself the "Cubs."

CHAMBER HERE FIGHTS ENTRY OF ABILENE MAN IN HOME TOWN CONTEST

Officials Claim Walter Ely, Jr. Ineligible Because He Is Not In High School

The Colorado Chamber of Commerce will carry the fight to bar university students from participation in the "My Home Town" contest at the El Paso convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce meeting to the floor of the convention if Abilene insists on entering Walter Ely, Jr., a student in the University of Texas, according to J. H. Greene, secretary of the chamber.

The Colorado organization has filed formal protest against the university student entering and contends that Grady Shipp, secretary to the President A. M. Bourland of the W.T.C.C., has no authority to rule Ely is eligible. The rules for this year, as well as those used in all previous contests, clearly state the entry must be a bona fide high school student and must have a letter from the superintendent or principal certifying he is a student of that school.

"Walter Ely, Jr., graduated from the Abilene high school last spring and is a student in the University of Texas, and according to any fair interpretation of the rules, he could not possibly qualify," said Greene. "The statement that he is eligible because of the postponement of the convention from last Spring is ridiculous. If the convention should be postponed for the next four years until Ely graduates from the University of Texas he would still be eligible, according to that argument," Greene continued. Greene already has received assurance from several towns who expect to have a participant in the contest assuring him of their support and backing in the protest. Greene says every town or city in West Texas which is interested in the contest should file a protest against entry of the university student.

"It is not only a violation of the rules, but is absolutely unfair for Abilene to enter this man. Sophomore and Junior high school children should not be forced to speak against a university student, and I think Abilene should pick another representative and try to win the cup this year without any question as to the eligibility of the contestant," Greene concluded.

MEMBERS OF EPWORTH LEAGUE HERE TO GO TO ROSCOE MEETING

Miss Lila McCurry To Have Part On Sunday Program

A group of members of the chapter of the Epworth League in the Methodist church here will represent Colorado at the Sweetwater district Epworth League meeting to be held at Roscoe Saturday and Sunday.

Those planning to attend the meeting from Colorado are Misses Lila McCurry, Mattie Dorn, Sis Hart, Ruthel McKinney, and Ruth Hinds. Miss McCurry is scheduled to have a part on the program of the meeting Sunday afternoon.

Registration for the meeting will begin Saturday evening at 5:30 o'clock and a program will follow, lasting until 8 o'clock that night. The Sunday morning program will begin at 9:45 o'clock. Luncheon will be served at 12:10 in the church basement. The Sunday afternoon program will begin at 2 o'clock. Among the speakers will be J. H.

BOY SCOUT PROGRAM OVER BUFFALO TRAILS AREA WILL BE EXTENDED

Budget For Year Fixed At $9,100; Field Executive Will Be Employed

Plans for the active extension of Boy Scout work throughout the Buffalo Trails area were made at a meeting of Scout leaders over the council when they assembled for a banquet at the Colorado hotel Thursday night.

A budget of $9,100 for the coming year was adopted and plans were made to employ a field executive after January first to assist A. C. Williamson, executive, and organize the Scout work in communities not now reached.

About two dozen leaders from over the area were here for the meeting, at which Rev. W. M. Elliott, council president, presided.

The budget is an increase over previous years for the entire area, but it is to include a larger portion of the area and the amounts to be raised in the different communities will be more nearly equalized.

The council adopted as a new policy a plan to make the financial campaign over the area in the fall of the year. Heretofore the campaigns have been conducted in the different communities at different times. "The new plan," Mr. Williamson said, "will provide for the raising of all funds prior to December 1 so that the council will know in advance what money it has to operate on during the ensuing year. Sweetwater, Big Spring and Snyder will conduct their campaigns in November. The appointments made by the council are: Sweetwater and Big Spring, $2,500 each; Midland $1,800; Colorado, $1,300; Snyder $1,000; Rotan $400; Odessa $250; Stanton and Roscoe $200 each; Jayton $100."

In the extension of the work it is planned to endeavor to organize troops at Roby first, and to follow up with the other towns that at present have no Scouts. The duties of the field executive who is to be employed will be to organize new troops, hold courts of honor, rallies and prepare and conduct programs, camps and various other activities.

Election of new officers of the area council will be held at the annual meeting which is to be held in Big Spring in January. At that time a nominating committee, composed of B. H. McLain, Sweetwater; Wendell Bedicheck, Big Spring; Jerold Riordan, Colorado; H. F. Rogers, of Snyder, and B. G. Grafa, Midland, will submit a list of nominees.

Those attending the meeting were: Judge Horace Holley, A. A. Bullock, J. R. Hicks, Abe Rogers, Snyder; W. A. Rose, Jerold Riordan, W. L. Doss, Colorado; Dr. C. C. Armstrong, Dr. P. T. Porter, John W. Cobb, C. M. Adams, Weldon Skinner, J. F. Morris, Ben S. Peek, J. A. Ferguson, all of Colorado; John P. Howe, B. C. Grafa, Kenneth Ambrose, Midland; Wendell Bedicheck, C. S. Holmes, Big Spring; Murry H. Fly, A. H. Dennison, Odessa; Warren Dodson, Snyder; Roy W. Thompson, B. H. McLain, Sweetwater.

R. U. BEAN AND FAMILY MOVE BACK TO COLORADO

R. U. Bean and family who moved to San Angelo a few months ago, have moved back to Colorado. Mr. Bean, a former grocery merchant here, has purchased the filling station and store on the highway near the cemetery east of Colorado. He expressed pleasure at being back in Mitchell county. They did not like to live at San Angelo. Their friends are glad to have them return here to make their home.

OVER THOUSAND BOOKS FROM LOCAL LIBRARY READ IN 7 MONTHS

Size of Circulation Surprising For Small Library Open Only 2 Days a Week

Over a thousand books have been read from the Colorado library by Mitchell county members in the past seven months, a survey of the records reveals.

This fact is made even more startling when one considers that the library is open for only two and one-half hours two afternoons each week. The number of books which have been taken out of the library in the past seven months would be considered large even in a public library open all the time in a town this size.

Nothing could prove more conclusively that, although the library, which was established several years ago by the Mitchell County Federation of Women's Clubs, has had slow growth in size and membership, that growth has been sure.

A membership drive for the library is now being conducted by the Mitchell County Federation under the new president, Mrs. C. P. Gary. Mrs. J. G. Merritt is chairman of the membership committee, and Mrs. Boyd Dozier and Mrs. Tom Pritchett are also members.

The library is maintained solely by membership dues and fines collected. It has grown to include some five hundred volumes of popular fiction by this method, though membership is but one dollar per year. A book may be kept out as long as two weeks before returning. The library, which is located over the city hall, is open each Tuesday and Saturday afternoon, from 3 to 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. Boyd Dozier is employed by the Federation as librarian.

Lacking a public library, Colorado book lovers have found pleasure and profit in this library, which began in a very modest way with donations of books from various club members. The shelves are replenished as often as there is a sufficient sum in the treasury. The novels placed on them are always the works of popular authors and have usually proved their merit before being placed in the library. It is not always possible for the library to afford the very latest works of fiction, but the best sellers are always secured as soon as they have circulated to any great extent in smaller cities and towns.

SCHOOL CHORAL CLUBS PLAN JOINT PROGRAMS

Joint choral club programs with the choral clubs of Colorado High school and Sweetwater High school participating, are planned for the near future, according to Supt. Ben S. Peck.

According to the plans, the clubs of both schools will appear in joint programs, presenting the same program in both Sweetwater and Colorado. Similar plans may be made later by Colorado High with other neighboring schools.

HYMAN HAPPENINGS

Corley Bozeman of Colorado week-ended at Hyman, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coles. Mr. Bozeman is a brother of Mrs. Coles.

Lloyd Sigler of Fort Worth, vice president of the McGinley-Sigler Company, had been an expected visitor to Hyman for the past two weeks but so far has not arrived. In telephone conversation with Harry Hyman over long distance yesterday Mr. Sigler stated that sickness and business combined had prevented his making the trip. Mr. Sigler arranged to meet Mr. Hyman in San Antonio on Saturday of this week to talk over with him business connected with the drilling of additional wells on the McGinley-Sigler lease, where there is already one producer.

F. M. Baker of the Aetna Life Insurance company, San Antonio, visited Hyman this week on business.

There will be a box supper at the Hyman school Friday night of this week, for the purpose of raising funds with which to buy equipment needed in connection with the athletic department of the school. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Menasco, new residents of the West End addition to Hyman, are the proud parents of a brand new baby boy. Mr. Menasco reports that mother and baby are getting along fine.

The new roads at Hyman, lately graded by Commissioner VanZandt, are holding up well, having suffered very little washing from the recent heavy rain. The road drag was out as soon as the ground was sufficiently dry, and the roads are again in good condition.

Carl Lowry, Frank Black and Frank Taylor, who recently purchased the J. M. Black farm, will, it is understood, work this place in addition to the land already being worked by them.

John Black will move shortly to Llano county, his old home, where he has leased a farm. The community regrets to lose him, and its good wishes follow him.

W. E. Jackson, of Bronte, Texas, has decided to lease for a period of five years the T. L. Vowell place here. This place has 275 acres in cultivation and 400 acres of good grass land. Mrs. Hyman has decided to lease a number of her places here, containing from one to two sections, on terms which seem to be attractive to farmers from all parts of Texas and Oklahoma, judging by the inquiries which are being received about them.

F. M. Gladden of Paducah, Cottle county, was a business visitor at Hyman this week. He was inspecting some of the places for lease here. He says the country looks good to him, and he arranged to lease a place here for five years, beginning with January 1st. Mr. Gladden states that Cottle county is all right, but that in the part of the county where he lives the entire country is in farms and no grass land is to be had. He stated that the terms on which Mrs. Hyman is leasing her stock farms is something that he had been looking for for some time. On these terms only half of the cultivated land is to be planted to cotton in any one year.

and this is to be rotated. It is the belief of Harry Hyman, who is handling these places, that this plan is better for the land, better for the landlord, and better for the tenant.

Letters received from Mrs. Hyman report her health continues good. She was, when last heard from, in Christiansburg, Virginia, and expects in the near future to visit Rocky Mount, Martinsville, Danville, Chat-ham, and other points, in the order named.

The Baptists of this community are preparing to build in the immediate future. The location is being staked off, and lumber for the building will begin to arrive this week. Mrs. Harry Hyman donated the lot and will help in other ways. It is reported, too, that much of the labor necessary for the building will be donated, and the lumber companies have made very close prices on the lumber, all of which is much appreciated by the congregation.

Lon Drago and son, Keith Drago, until recently residents of Hyman, said this place a short visit this week. They have been on a trip to the Kentuck Ranch, in Live Oak county, Texas, formerly the property of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hyman, and where they still own several thousands of acres, of which about 1000 acres is in cultivation. They report the country down there looks good to them, and that several of the farms there are making three-fourths of a bale of cotton to the acre, and wonderful crops of corn and other feed.

J. H. Keith of Hyman has returned from a trip of several weeks to Oklahoma points.

Richard Lanham, who for the past eight months has made his home here, is in a flying trip to Quitaque, Texas, his former home.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF MITCHELL
Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a certain Execution issued out of the Honorable District Court of Tarrant County, on the 20th day of September, 1929, by the Clerk of said Court for the sum of Three Thousand Five Hundred Eighty-Five and 56-100 Dollars and costs of suit, under a judgment in favor of W. M. Harris in a certain cause in said Court, No. 82551 and styled W. M. Harris vs. A. W. Terpening, Paul Elder, F. M. Liston (Ferman M. Liston), placed in my hands for service, I, R. E. Gregory as Sheriff of Mitchell County, Texas, did, on the 21st day of September, 1929, levy on certain Real Estate, situated in Mitchell County, Texas, described as follows, to-wit: All of the South one half (S 1/2) of the South one-half (S 1/2) of Section No. Fifteen (15), Twp 1 North of the Texas and Pacific Railway Company surveys of land in Mitchell County, Texas; and levied upon as the property of Paul Elder and that on the first Tuesday in November, 1929, the same being the 5th day of said month, at the Court House door of Mitchell County, in the City of Colorado, Texas,

DEEP PLOWING PAYS HIM

LEVELLAND.—Land that T. M. Hester plowed from 10 to 12 inches deep three years ago on his farm near Cobleland, in Hookley county, made twice as much corn per acre this year as land plowed shallow at that time. The land has been handled the same and has grown the same crops since that time, W. T. Magee, county agent, states.

Wheat on the deep plowed land was six inches taller and much heavier than that on ordinary land. Mr. Hester follows the practice of listing his land early, from 10 to 12 inches deep the first time, and then plants in the middles after busting rather shallow. Such fields have withstood the drouth very well.

between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. by virtue of said levy, I will sell said above described Real Estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said Paul Elder.

And in compliance with law, I give this notice for publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Colorado Record, a newspaper published in Mitchell County.

Witness my hand, this 24 day of September, 1929.

HIS OLD HOME TOWN

Will Rogers played at the Palace Theatre Friday and Saturday. The title of the play, "They Had to See Paris," the plot of the play had its inception at Claremore, Oklahoma. That's his old home town, and with the coming of fame, the glare of the White Lights of Broadway with the Follies, which made him famous, the world over—His association with diplomats, statesmen, princes and dukes, and the coming of vast wealth, the boy has never forgotten his old home town—Never misses an opportunity to help put it on the map—in this great play just staged, Claremore, Oklahoma, stands out in it. The shooting of the oil well, and the flow of the liquid gold on his face so realistically pictured on the screen, making him a millionaire over night as the story goes. Then to Paris, where all the fool rich Americans go to spend their millions, this old cowpuncher checked his baggage. But get this, with all of his funny capers and escapades in that wicked French city, his old home town, Claremore, was the high spot in the play. The article that he wrote some time ago about coming back to the old home to see whether or not he could make, is a classic. He had traveled all over the world, had been the sport of the great and the near great, crowned heads and presidents gave him an audience, and so to speak he had made the civilized world laugh. But he sure did. It's true that Claremore is just a straggling one-horse town, but to this famous humorist there is no other town on earth just like it. That's the way we feel about Colorado, just about the average town, about the size of six bits, but to us there is no other town on earth just like it.

Pity Poor "Information" --- She's Termed a "Mean Thing" Because She Can't Answer All Questions

"Mean thing!" That is probably the way many a Coloradoan designates a perfectly innocent and obedient telephone operator when she refuses to break rules, by telling the time, where the fire is, or to answer any of the other thousand and one foolish questions that come the way of that "unseen voice" known as "Information."

"Central" used to tell the time in Colorado, before it began to be such a busy little place, and some of us can even remember when she used to distribute knowledge of the whereabouts of the fires unstintingly. But all that became "against the rules" in the course of time, as Colorado grew and the switchboard became busier.

Then Colorado required an "Information" operator, and, although the telephone books specifically stated that her duty was to "give telephone numbers which did not appear in the directory," the idea seems to prevail even yet that she is supposed to be all that the name "information" implies—a sort of talking encyclopedia, as it were.

At least, that is the impression one gets when one hears of all the questions that are asked almost daily when folks call for "information."

Questions about the time of day and the whereabouts of a fire following the call of the fire siren lead all other questions in number. Operators are positively forbidden to answer either of these questions, since they would probably have time for nothing else if they did so.

"Where's my mother?"

That is one of the questions sometimes asked "Information," and it often has a touch of childish tragedy, even if it does first strike one as being funny. It's usually asked by some small child who suddenly misses its mother or comes home to find her gone and takes the only means at hand of getting in touch with the outside world, the telephone. There are usually traces of tears in the young voice, and "Information" cannot help much, since she could hardly be expected to know what mother to start looking for.

Children often call and ask: "Call my mamma," or "Ring my Daddy."

Many folks call Information wanting to know where it rained and how much. She can give such information as this only in reply to a long distance call from some outside point.

The role of weather prophet is one frequently offered "Information," presumably by persons who don't want to take the trouble to look up a weather forecast. And, even if she were allowed to attempt answering questions of this kind, that is all she could give them, for none of the operators here have yet reached that ripe old age at which people usually become adept in prophesying the weather by means of "signs."

Calls from "lonesome" men are frequent. Sometimes they use a question as a pretext, sometimes not.

Other calls are from gentlemen befuddled with drink, or seemingly so. In such cases, "Information" makes an effort to close the conversation politely but coldly as soon as she makes sure she is being "kidded," and if this method does not work she disconnects the offending party, leaving him "holding the line."

The operators can't "curse them out." That, also, is against the rules.

"Information" is often asked where folks live and other such questions. In cases like this they answer if they happen to know, since such questions are not out of the way and are not asked frequently enough to take up a valuable portion of time, but operators are not required to answer them.

Other questions asked frequently are:

"Who is manager of Such & Such store, or company?"

"What is the population of Colorado?"

"How far is it to Kalamazoo?"

"How do you spell asafetida?"

"What day of the week and month is this?"

To none of these, whether asked in earnest or fun, can "Information" give the reply desired, for that is not her duty. She is supposed to explain rates, answer any question about telephone service, and give phone numbers, but with these her obligation ends.

Until recently one operator served solely as "Information," but now each operator usually acts as Information when "Information" is called for.

A strange phenomenon in the exchange is the way in which phone calls increase just after a rain. Operators say that they are always rushed to the limit following a rain. After the deluge on Saturday, two weeks

Light! The Modern Miracle

When Thomas Alva Edison, five decades ago fed electricity into the first successful incandescent lamp, he began what has proved to be the most spectacular period of progress ever chronicled in the history of the world.

To be sure, the art of lighting, prior to 1879, had advanced from the crude torch to superior forms of open flame—to the stone lamp, to whale oil, to candle and gas. With these the world has smoked sputtered and flickered through a thousand centuries.

Take the last half century, filled to overflowing with its contributions—by Edison, by a host of inventors all over the world, and particularly, in the last two decades, by the Mazda Research Laboratories.

First, of course, came Edison's famous lamp of October 21, 1879. A bottle; a vacuum; a carbonized piece of cotton sewing thread the filament or burner. Came next, in rapid succession, a host of burners infinitely better than carbonized thread. Enter paper. Enter bamboo; squirted cellulose; metallized carbon; osmium; tantalum; tungsten; "drawn" tungsten; "non-sag" wire and the coiled filament.

THE MIRACLE OF 1929

Take, for example, the standard 100-watt inside-frosted Mazda lamp of today. Now compare its light with the light from the early Edison lamps of 1880.

Based on present money standards, those early lamps cost well over $2.00 each. They burned for only 600 hours. Each gave the light of 16 candles. The present 100-watt lamp on the other hand costs but 35 cents. It burns for 1,000 hours, and it gives the light of 134 candles. Remember too, that the cost of electricity has steadily come down from the start.

Thus within the brief span of fifty years, the lighting art has leaped ahead to the point where the 100-watt inside-frosted lamp of today gives the consumer a light which is a hundred fold more kindly and pleasing than the light from the lamps of fifty years ago, but which gives him 76 times as much of this light for the same money.

Indeed, then, the progress made in the art of lighting and lamp making in this brief span of years, has been nothing short of miraculous.

Lighting one end of this span the miracle of 1879, the triumph of Thomas Alva Edison. Lighting the other end, is the miracle of 1929, the triumph of Mazda Service.

See our windows today and tomorrow celebrating the 50th Anniversary of Edison's famous lamp—forerunner of the electric globes you use today.

Texas Electric Service Co.

Your Electric Servant

ago, they say, they were almost swamped. None of them know why this should be so, but it is probably because so many people are forced to stay indoors with nothing to do, so they decide to use the telephone to spend their spare time.

Most operators seem to think that the old belief that talking over a phone during an electrical storm is dangerous is about dead, since they are ordinarily busy as ever during such a storm.

The "squealer," which is turned on by the operator when a receiver has been left down somewhere, scares the negroes within an inch of their lives, it is said. When one old man heard the awful squawks emitted from a phone receiver when the "squealer" was turned on, and he just knew the "hants" had got her.

Long distance operators make a few friends of other girls over the country, but they also make some bitter enemies. The nervous strain they are under through the rush hours of the day is not conducive to handing out bouquets to each other, and occasionally some sharp words are passed between the operator of one station to another.

MERKEL GIN RECEIPTS

MERKEL.—Cotton receipts for the season here have passed the 4,000 bale mark during the past week, the total receipts up to Friday morning being 4,202 bales.

This figure compares with 2,665 bales a year ago, but the crop, which is very short this year, matured exceptionally early and is being picked rapidly. It is estimated that receipts here may reach 6,000 bales this season.

SIX PLANTS IN TEXAS MANUFACTURING LIME

AUSTIN, Oct. 24.—Lime was produced in Texas during 1928 to the amount of 83,325 short tons, according to statistics obtained by the Bureau of Economic Geology at the University of Texas in cooperation with the United States Bureau of Mines. This lime was valued at $751,729. This amount represents an increase over the production of the preceding year, which was 80,796 tons, valued at $733,678.

Six plants in Texas were engaged in the manufacture of lime during last year, according to Dr. E. H. Selwicks, director of the University Bureau of Economic Geology. These were located in Comal, Coryell, El Paso, Travis and Williamson counties.

Stone was produced in Texas to the amount of 3,150,050 short tons, valued at $2,522,495. The largest production was of limestone, 2,767,230 tons, used for road material, in building and other purposes. A total of 26,550 tons of granite was produced, valued at $195,409.

Output of Cement Increases

The output of cement in Texas during September was considerably ahead of that in September last year, due to the operation of an additional plant, according to Bervard Nichols, editor of Texas Business Review, issued monthly at University of Texas.

"In September, 707,000 barrels were produced by Texas mills; the same in August, but above the 544,000 barrels turned out in September last year," Mr. Nichols said. "Shipments declined from 786,000 barrels in August to 680,000 barrels in September and compare with 520,000 barrels in September, 1928. The stocks on hand show a seasonal gain of 27,000 barrels."

DOCTORS SHOULD USE PRINTER'S INK, SAID

HOUSTON, Texas.—Dr. J. E. Dildy of Brownwood, president of the State Medical Association, delivered a biting attack on the policies of Texas doctors and advocated use of publicity to spread the gospel of health in an address before the annual convention of the South Texas Medical association here Thursday.

"May a just and merciful God either mark us ignorant of our neglected duty or else give us moral energy to about face on our antiquated, silent, life sacrificing, pseudo-ethical foolishness," Dr. Dildy said.

"The same thing that has buried our profession in historical obscurity is keeping medical progress out of modern literature. It is our fear of one another, our tongue-tied policy, false modesty and our inherited, antiquated ethical idea that printer's ink is unprofessional and that publicity is braggadoocio."

He urged that doctors make more speeches, write articles and broadcast to spread the advantages of early diagnosis and the value of physical examinations.

"A thousand lives could be saved by the doctors every year in Texas by such a campaign," Dr. Dildy declared.

He urged the doctors not to be afraid to preach this educational program.

"Let's give the family physician a chance to be useful," he pleaded. "This campaign is right. It is ethical. It is timely. It has stood the test in other states."

IT'S ALL THROUGH LIFE

By RUTH TRICE
Why should we try to put on airs Of life we all have equal shares? We do not live in what we own, We live in what we do alone.

Sorrow has its place in life, As well as joy and laughter; We do not think of this when sad, But just before and after.

Of joy and sorrow equally A perfect life is spun; It's hard to do the things we should, And be polite to everyone.

Not everyone is a victor in life, Whatever great triumph is his, Unless in his heart he has made His peace with the world as it is.

No fault is too wicked to forgive, We must be weighed in the balance; If we forgive our friends' misdeeds, Perhaps our own will have a chance.

So as we go down the road of life And pluck flowers our spirit needs, We must remember other folks, and Here and there plant new seeds.

TOO MANY SCHOOLS
"The Texas Educational Commission of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, finds that we have too many Methodist schools already," says the Dallas Morning-News.
Continuing, this paper ventures the opinion that "the finding is not that church schools fail of attendance so much as that they fail to meet with financial support. And that is probably a general rule with church schools of other denominations."
"The commission proposes that no more schools be established by the Methodists unless they have the approval of the denomination generally, and that expansion programs of all these schools be correlated so as not to interfere with one another."
"This looks like common sense and educational statesmanship. The service of the starving college is pitifully limited. The effort to be big rather than effective is not limited to schools, but in education it is particularly disastrous because of the half-baked results it is responsible for."
McMurry College of Abilene is to be one of the key schools of the Methodist church, according to recommendation of the Educational Commission. It is to be maintained as a four-year college to serve West Texas, according to information secured by T. W. Stonersad of Colorado, member of the board of directors of McMurry. The Educational Commission of the Methodist church has made a step forward that will mean a great deal to McMurry. This school will become the point of concentration for the denomination over a wide area. It will get support from the whole church instead of a small portion of the body. The four schools mentioned by the commission as those to receive the major support of the Methodists will take their place among the better schools of the country. The slogan, "Not more schools but better schools," is indeed a desirable one.

PARKING
"We note in many towns the merchants and other business and professional men have agreed to give up the parking space in front of their stores to their customers, especially on Saturdays and other rush days," says the Brownfield Herald, in an editorial on the parking problem on busy days.
"We have been wondering if this would not be a wise move on the part of the business men of this city. Of course it has never been agitated here, and the business men may have never taken the matter under consideration. This has been done through the civic clubs in some towns."
"On Saturday mornings perhaps the store owner and one or two of the clerks drive down early and park in front of the store, and together with a delivery wagon or two, twenty or thirty feet in front of the store has been appropriated by them alone. This is repeated early in the afternoon, and the customers must find the same amount of parking space off on side streets or alleys and they or the clerks in the store are then obliged to pack the goods they purchase to the vehicle.

"The idea being developed in other towns that have adopted the plan is for the business man or clerk to either park their cars on Saturdays on a side street, or to have a member of the family drive them down, and carry the car back home, leaving all the space in front of the store for the convenience of their customers. The streets are so wide in Brownfield that they permit a three tier parking; one on either side and a row down the middle, but even with this arrangement, parking space in the business section on Saturday afternoons cannot be had after 3 o'clock, and the demand is growing from week to week as new people settle in this section and come to Brownfield to do their trading."

The latest moving pictures show the women stars wearing long dresses. Women all over the country are discarding the knee-length clothes they wore last year and buying more cloth for longer skirts. This will mean more cotton consumption, and a better price for the staple. It looks like the Southern farmer is going to receive "relief" without aid of the Government, unless the drug store cowboys cut down the leg size of their trousers.

EASING THE COSTS

Although the gentle yip of requiring motorists to cough up two-bits or more for a purely perfunctory and meaningless headlamp inspection is to continue, the automobile owners of Texas have a material blessing of substantial size to rejoice over.
This year's registration is based wholly on weight, instead of a combination of weight and horsepower, as was the case until the new law went into effect. The reduction in fees will mean more than 50 per cent on the lighter cars, 50 per cent on the medium weights, and less than 50 per cent on the heavier types. For instance, ancient flivvers will pay $5.04 instead of $11.20; the new model Ford will pay $9.36 instead of $17.20; the Chevrolet will pay $9.00 instead of $16.50; the heavy Buick $21.12 instead of $32.50, and the Cadillac $23.50 instead of $40.67.
These are substantial reductions, and to the ordinary user will mean enough to more than make up for the increased gasoline tax. The gasoline tax falls easy because it is paid in a few cents at a time. The old registration fees were onerous because they had to be paid in a lump sum.
Texas has bought 1,300,000 sets of license plates this year, reported to be the handsomest ever put out by the highway department. They have a yellow background with blue numerals.
Truck owners are not relieved of heavy fees. Indeed, fees have been increased in many cases. That is a profit to those who make a profit out of the highways should pay for the privilege.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST CITIZEN

The world's greatest citizen and benefactor is without doubt, Thomas A. Edison. That he is an American is a matter of pride to every American. That he should live to see a nation set aside a day to do him homage is gratifying not alone to him, but to the people of America. Celebration of the 50th anniversary of the invention of the electric light provides the opportunity for the world to acknowledge to this man its recognition of his service in making a world free from darkness—a world of growing comfort, expanding safety and improving health.
Why Don't They
"Granny, why are the chickens making so much noise?"
"They want their breakfast, dear."
"Well, if they're so hungry why don't they lay themselves an egg?"

You should never have even a puncture

The Dual-Balloon principle pyramids all the features of big mileage that have made the name General famous. It advances beyond the balloon tire of yesterday, sweeping aside all previous conceptions of care-free tire performance.
Now, even the remote chance of a puncture is reduced to the vanishing point.
In the early days of the four-ply balloon, General reduced the puncture hazard about 90 per cent by bringing out the six-ply. The six-ply made a sweeping replacement of four-ply balloons on all but the smaller cars. Now, General leads on ahead again with the Dual-Balloon "8."
As surely as the advent of the balloon swept high-pressure out before it—as surely as General's six-ply balloon changed the four-ply standard of the industry—the new Dual-Balloon "8" carries General farther ahead, transcending even the previous high mark of its freedom from puncture.
It should enable you to look back upon season after season of the pleasure of punctureless driving.

The New GENERAL Dual-Balloon

Our Special Trade-In Offer

Take advantage now of our special Trade In offer introducing the new General Dual-Balloon "8" and including, too, all the regular General super lines of 4-ply, 6-ply and 8-ply tires. With today's low cost of crude rubber your savings will be spread over many seasons. By trading in now you can enjoy the satisfaction of running without trouble and the economy of the longest, safest mileage you have ever known. During this special event car owners are equipping with new Generals and avoiding the hazards of smooth tires during the slippery season.

BEAUTY SPECIALIST— COMING TO COLORADO DRUG COMPANY

Miss Lillie Mae Smith, representing Dorothy Perkins Toiletries, will be at Colorado Drug Company next week.

Miss Smith is a graduate beauty specialist, and has wide experience in beauty culture.

A private booth has been installed in the store where ladies may go for consultation with the specialist and for treatments if it is desired. She will gladly make telephone appointments with any one who desires to consult her.

No charge is made for these consultations. Mr. Farris having made special arrangements whereby customers and users of the Dorothy Perkins toilet articles may be given expert advice without cost, and where others may be made acquainted with the excellence and wide range of variety of the Dorothy Perkins line.

A cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity to consult with a competent specialist as to their peculiar cosmetic and beauty culture needs.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

PESSIMIST SHOULD CHECK UP

Farm and Ranch:
J. L. Carrell of Scurry county seems to think the farmer needs some special law passed for him. The farmer who gets this pessimistic talk from the implement or hardware man needs to check up on himself. Mitchell county has plenty of farmers whom implement men are glad to sell in any way or any time of the year. Bankers are the same. We also have the fellow that hears this pessimistic stuff.

Farming is a business, and if it is done in a business way it can be made a paying business. I think if we farmers would apply the same thought and time that other business requires, we would not need special laws passed for us. As far as that goes, that wouldn't take care of us all. We have the little merchant and the big merchant; the little farmer and the farmer that is doing well, and always will. One doesn't need this special stuff, and the other won't get it.
H. L. BAKER,
Colorado, Texas.

INVESTMENTS OF TEXAS LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

EASIER MONEY

Easing of the money situation in Texas was reflected in two ways in the report of investments of Texas Life Insurance companies for September. Investments in bonds and stocks showed an increase from 9 per cent of the total in August to 15 per cent in September. The total investments increased from $462,380.00 in August to $648,318.00 in September. A less stringent condition of the money market was also reflected in a decrease of policy loans from 52 per cent in August to 39 per cent in September. Real estate loans on the other hand were increased from 39 per cent in August to 46 per cent in September. All of these facts, according to close observers indicate an unusually prosperous fall trade in Texas. Distribution of the real estate loans showed West Texas in the lead with $130,784.00. North Texas was second with $107,625.00. South Texas third with $32,000.00, and Central Texas fourth with $19,750.00. Loans on dwellings occupied a large percentage of the total although this was closely followed by loans on business properties.

"EASY PICKINGS"

This is about the time of year now that harvest is getting under way and money is circulating more freely, when sleek itinerant grafters of one sort and another pounce upon towns the size of Lamesa and smaller and begin their yearly "promotion" schemes. Usually they have nothing to sell and change plenty for it.

Most often, schemes of this sort are based upon advertising. A splendid thing in itself, advertising has been so badly misused by some of these clever sharpers that it has come to be the stock-in-trade of many a "slicker" game.

No merchant who subscribes to one of these "grafts" stops to think that the same amount of money spent in the advertising columns of the Lamesa Reporter would bring him far more results—besides keeping the money at home. If he had stopped to think of that, he would be such easy pickings.

Now Lamesa has a permanent organization to pass on the merits of the "smooth propositions." It is the Retail Merchants' association. Every year it saves all thousands of dollars. The next time you get a chance to do some real high-powered "advertising" with a stranger, ask him if the Retail Merchants' association approves the plan.—Lamesa Reporter.

ROSCOE NEWS

B. F. Younger Is Dead
B. F. Younger, who has been in ill health for a long time, died at his home Thursday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

A Fine Rain
Rain amounting to 2 3-8 inches fell in this section Saturday night and Sunday. A section of the country north of Champion received a much heavier rain and considerable hail which destroyed crops over several farms.

The rain did some damage to open cotton, but will be of much benefit to wheat and pasture.

Gin Report
At 3:30 Thursday afternoon the five gins in Roscoe had ginned a total of 3501 bales of cotton during the present season.

Phillips Renewed Lease
The Phillips Petroleum Company paid the renewal this week on their 11,000 acre block southwest of Roscoe. The R. R. Plunkett Phillips No. 1 was underreaming the first of the week at a depth of 4215 feet, preparing to set six inch casing. A stream of sulphur water was struck a few days ago.

Married
Barrett Souls and Miss Blanche Blackstock of the Inadale community, were united in marriage Saturday night by Rev. G. W. Butler at his residence.

Walker-Harpole
Owen Walker and Miss Maud Harpole were united in marriage Monday by Rev. G. W. Butler, at his home.

Owen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker of the Goods community and has many friends. Miss Maude is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harpole of the Goode community. She has a host of friends.

DEER SEASON IN OLD MEXICO IS NOW OPEN
Letters are still being received by Lisandro Pena, Mexican consul, regarding hunting in Mexico during the coming season. From present indications many hunters will try their luck in Mexico this fall.

Deer seasons opens on October 16, lasting until January 31. This is a long season and no doubt many hunters will take advantage of the long period.

Letters have been arriving from all points in Texas as well as places in other states.—Herald, Del Rio.

Harvey Gives Sermon Series On The Bible

"The Bible as The Book" is the subject of a special series of sermons being given at the Church of Christ by Pastor J. D. Harvey.

The first sermon of the series was preached last Sunday evening, and its subject was "Why Study the Bible?" The second sermon will be preached this next Sunday evening, and its subject will be "The Key to the Bible."

SPECIMENS OF BOLL-WEEVILS BROUGHT IN BY W. E. BRYANT

W. E. Bryant, farming on the C. W. Simpson place, 15 miles south-east of Colorado, came in Friday with 14 Mexican or "East Texas" boll weevils in a bottle which he said he captured off one stalk of cotton in his cotton patch.

There is no doubt in the mind of the writer about the pests being the old-time boll weevil. Being raised in East Texas where these pests oc-came so thick, we can testify that they are the real ones. Bryant says there are lots of the pests in his section and that they did heavy damage to his cotton this year. He had some of the "grubs" from which the weevils hatch.

NATURAL GAS NOW AVAILABLE TO USERS IN RURAL SECTIONS

Lone Star Gas Co. Perfects a New Plan for Furnishing Gas To Users in Country

Natural gas is now available to everyone in the country as well as in Colorado, due to the development of a new method of transporting natural gas, according to the local offices of the Community Natural Gas Co. This new method known as Stargas, was developed by the Lone Star Gas Co., and is being introduced in Mitchell county by the Community Gas Co.

Stargas, a natural gas in cylinders, is the name of the new product which makes it possible for those who do not live near gas mains to have this convenience.

The above pictures exemplify the two types of natural gas service now in use. The gas meter on the right is familiar to all those who have enjoyed natural gas service from pipelines for these many years. To those who do not have gas mains near, the Stargas installation shown in the picture above has the same meaning as the time-tried gas meter has to the city neighbor.

In the latest natural gas service, the gas is transported in cylinders instead of pipe lines and in place of the gas meter, the cylinders are connected to the house piping. The same appliances with slight adjustments are used on both systems, thus rendering natural gas for cooking, lighting, hot water heating, ironing, and gas refrigeration available to everyone whether they are near a gas main or many miles from one. Each cylinder contains sufficient gas to supply a family of five about two months for cooking. Two cylinders are included in each installation, one being in service and the other as a reserve. As one cylinder becomes empty it is cut off and the other turned on; the empty one can then be replaced without interrupting service.

BUFORD BULLETIN

School is doing nicely, but a number are having to stay out to pick cotton this week. Last Friday was clean-up day. The interior of the building was cleaned and each room was decorated in Halloween designs. The school yard, which is well sown with weeds, looks quite different, but much work is needed on it yet. A sheet of primary news was printed on the hectograph and a copy given to each primary pupil. This was done in order to encourage the pupils to do better work, and it is hoped that it will also help to get the patrons more interested in their school. Playground ball is the chief amusement at present. Some of the games prove very interesting, especially when the teachers make out.

Mrs. Glover was very ill from Friday until Sunday, but is much improved at this writing. Little Geneva Campbell, who was ill last week, is able to be in school again. The little Feaster baby, who has been very sick, is reported much improved.

The young people of Buford community enjoyed a party at the home of Mr. George Webb on last Friday. Games were enjoyed by a large crowd until a late hour. They reported a very enjoyable time.

Miss Lottie Lou Prentice spent Sunday with Miss Lucille Woodward. Miss Ruby Pearl Curry was the guest of Miss Edna Fortenberry last Sunday.

Frank Blasingame spent Sunday with W. G. VanStory.

W. G. VanStory, Horace Padgett, and Frank Blasingame called on Otis Neal Sunday afternoon. Jim Fielder, Clyde Reeder, and Mrs. Ruth Hallen of Georgetown are visitors in the J. R. Collins home this week.

Miss Johnnie Chesney spent the week end at her home in Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Powers of Conway were visitors at the teacherage Saturday.

H. F. Collins of Ackerly was a caller at the teacherage Sunday.

Miss Burnice Ramsey spent Sunday afternoon with her parents at Westbrook.

There were 125 at Sunday school last Sunday. A number of members were absent, but it is hoped they will be in their places next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Don't forget, next Sunday is our regular preaching Sunday. There will be a conference at the home of Mr. Max Holt next Friday night to discuss plans for the work of the Methodist church for the coming year. If you are a Methodist, be sure to be there at 8 o'clock.

J. V. Glover and Mrs. Glover visited in Westbrook Sunday afternoon.

MARKET CROPS ON HOOF AND IN BOTTLE URGED

"How would you like to rope a wild cow to obtain cream for your morning coffee? Or send a dum dum into the ehaggy brow of a buffalo to assure steak for supper?" asks Wellington Brink in an article setting the theme for the October issue of Texas Opportunities, a State-development magazine published by the Texas Power and Light Company.

"This is the day of packing houses and creameries, and it is seldom that we give thought to the time when the pioneers customarily drank their Java black and the longhorn roamed the unfenced prairies in competition with mustang ponies, buffalo, deer, antelope, wolves and Indians. Life was a battle of horns and hoofs, of arrows and bullets, of perseverance and a quick wit. Texas was in the raw."

Mr. Brink paints a romantic word picture of Indian fighting, of wire cutting, of trail driving, of roadside merchandising. He unrolls briefly the whole evolutionary process which has culminated in blooded beef and dairy stock, in great packing houses, in cheese factories and milk plants, and in a stabilized well-being. He gives W. S. Hall credit for having established the first packing plant in Texas, and he pays tribute to Goodnight, Schreiner, Pryor, Saunders and others of the old-timers.

"Before the present packing industry was possible, it was necessary to create finer meat animals. Before finer meat animals were possible, it was necessary to produce a variety of grains and other feedstuffs. And before these grains and feedstuffs were available, the land must be put to the plow," observes the author.

"It was a great day for Texas when the plow came to the State. It was the Kelly 'little blue plow' and its successors which remade the whole economic complexion of the State. It made rancher-farmers and farmer-ranchmen out of unanchored cow men. It established the basis for diversification."

The article advocates beef and milk as the most profitable forms in which to market farm crops. It points out the saving in harvesting expense and transportation costs, and urges beef and milk as sources of year-round cash income.

WOMEN URGED TO VOTE IN TUESDAY'S SPECIAL ELECTION

Many of the leading women of Colorado are urging every woman in the city to go to the city hall next Tuesday and cast a ballot in the city election in which a mayor is to be named.

They call attention to the fact that women who are qualified voters in the county and have lived within the city for six months may vote in this election without a city poll tax. The city is not permitted to assess a poll tax against women and every woman who is qualified to vote in the county can vote in the city election, whether a property owner or not and regardless of poll tax in the city.

The Record has been asked to urge the women's clubs to take up this matter and get their members out to vote, regardless of the candidate they wish to support. There are two able men in the race for mayor. Go to the city hall next Tuesday, October 29, and vote.

SICK AT HIS STOMACH
"I was suffering from stomach trouble, in 1917," says Mr. C. K. Nelson, a railroad engineer living in Pulaaki, Va. "I had a tightness in my chest, a shortness of breath. There seemed to be a heavy weight in the pit of my stomach, and quite a bit of nausea, yet I couldn't vomit. I tried different remedies, yet suffered on just the same. When in West Virginia on a work train, I was in such a condition that I just gave up and came home. I couldn't stand to work, in my condition. Some one told me about Black-Draught. I started taking it in small doses after meals. It helped me, and I went back to work."

THOUSANDS GATHER AT EL PASO FOR WEST TEXAS C. C. MEETING

Selection of New Heads Is Puzzle; Abilene After Next Meet

The hosts of the West, many thousands in number, the membership from 100 counties within the territory of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, assembled at El Paso Thursday morning in a most disturbed frame of mind.

About the only certain thing the delegates know concerning the convention is that Abilene will be selected as the 1930 host city. No opposition has developed, and chances are the choice will be unopposed, Abilene having announced at the Fort Worth convention last year that it would ask for the 1930 session.

Manager and President

A new manager will be named, to take up and draw tight again the reins surrendered last summer by Homer D. Wade, and a president will be elected to lead the West Texas chamber out of an admittedly bad year financially into a renewed successful administration.

No one knows who the manager will be—hardly any one is even speculating, the situation being that uncertain—but it seems probable that J. P. (Pat) Williams, banker of Mineral Wells, will succeed A. M. Bourland in the presidency if he, Williams, decides to offer his candidacy after he reaches El Paso.

Complete Reorganization

The directorate of the West Texas chamber—numbering more than 100 on its executive board, its vice-presidents, advisory council of nine and steering committee of four—is going to El Paso with the thought that a sweeping reorganization will be the main order of business. Big changes in the by-laws will be laid before the delegates that are calculated to effect a general tightening in the day-by-day administration. Departing from precedent, the president and acting manager this year has not appointed the convention committees well in advance of the session.

Machinery of the convention was set up when the executive board met Wednesday morning. The nominations, resolutions and other committees were named at that time by the full board, and then referred to the first meeting of delegates the same afternoon.

In any case, a big, interesting and exciting convention, with extraordinary preparations made by the host city for the entertainment of delegates and other visitors, is now in full swing.

BLOOD AND WORDS RAN HOT IN POLITICAL DISCUSSIONS HERE IN 1892; OLD PAPER SHOWS

Blood—and words—ran hot where politics were concerned in Colorado in the election of November, 1892—so hot, in fact, that the Colorado Weekly Clipper came out "painted red" on November 12, 1892, when results of the election had become known.

Not only was this issue of the paper printed in red ink, but it was also plentifully decorated with arrogant, crowing roosters, a whole row of them adorning the top of each page, for had not the Clipper stood pat all through the campaign for Hogg for governor and against the Clark bolters who were defeated by a small margin.

But McEachin & McEachin, editors and proprietors of The Clipper, evidently deemed even a small minority worth considerable crowing and a great many "I told you so's."

In the center of the front page appears a coffin, blood-red. And around it was written Clark's epitaph with the sign, "Keep Off the Grass."

And that was how they served party-bolters in 1892. In the words of The Clipper, "Democracy has been saved" in Texas through the defeat of those party bolters who had upheld Clark for governor.

"The grand principles of the Democratic party have triumphed in every quarter of this great republic," said the Clipper, "and a new era has dawned for an oppressed people. The Republican party has met its Waterloo. . . . A new era has dawned upon the country, and the blighting curse of Republicanism has been wiped from the face of the earth. . . . They have been smitten hip and thigh, and like ripe grain before the scythe, they have gone down before the sweeping blade of Democracy. To the victors belong the spoils, and the camp of the entire Republican party has been captured. . . . The Democracy has not only gained the president and vice president (Cleveland and Stevenson), but both houses of Congress. . . . For the first time in 36 years, every branch of the government is in the hands of Democracy. It has been a long time to wait, but thank God we are out of the woods at last."

Such statements as these were interspersed with a great many "puns" at the party bolters, and a few consoling words to the "gentlemen now in the cold," assuring them that the party doors were still open, waiting to receive them in again if they proved their loyalty.

The county election results took secondary interest, appearing on the back page. The Clipper stated: "Xavier Ryan is our next county judge, and Y. D. McMurry succeeds R. C. Ware as sheriff. J. E. Hooper, the old reliable, is retained as county clerk. Dr. E. T. Terrell will continue to finger the finances of the county, while W. S. Stoneham will again serve us in the capacity of assessor. M. Carter, one of the most promising young members of the bar, will again serve as county attorney. Jim Smith has again been elected inspector, and John Doss will again serve us as commissioner. Jim Goodwin will continue to grind at the old stand of justice of the peace, and Fred Lancaster will again serve as constable. Messrs. Van Tuyl, Johnson and Buchanan are county commissioners."

Some of the local notes appearing in this issue of The Clipper were: "Judge R. H. Looney's handsome new residence is rapidly nearing completion. Captain S. A. McMurry, brother of Y. D. McMurry, spent several days in the city this week. "Born to Mr. and Mrs. M. Carter, Monday morning, a son. Friend Carter wears his fatherly honors with becoming grace and dignity. "Ed Curd is no longer engaged in the saloon business here, and speaks of engaging in journalism in Briscoe county.

"Mr. and Mrs. John Prude have returned from Fort Davis, and will make their home in Colorado. "The young Democracy of Colorado was out Thursday night with their musical instruments, and they made the welkin ring with cheers for Cleveland and Hogg. These embryo politicians are starting out well. "The Colorado Bakery has started a bakery wagon. Signed C. H. Laszky."

"The Sassafras Savant says he thinks the movement from the county to the city should be limited to at least 40 miles an hour.

CHANGES IN OPERATION OF WEST TEXAS C. OF C. URGED BY COMMITTEE

Authority Of Manager Cut While Board Directors Have More Power

Changes in the internal operation of the West Texas chamber of commerce will come before the eleventh general convention of the regional organization at El Paso, which opened a three-day session on Thursday morning. A complete revision of the by-laws is coming before the board of directors—the work of a committee of three appointed at the Co-man district meeting in July of 1928.

Walter D. Cline, Wichita Falls, is chairman of the committee, and his colleagues are O. P. Thrane, Snyder, and R. L. Penick of Stamford.

"General Tightening" In working out the revision, the committee sought to attain a general tightening of the West Texas chamber's operation. The general manager—a new one is to be named at El Paso to succeed Homer D. Wade—is given somewhat less authority than Wade and his predecessor, Penick, had.

Section 5 of the revision says it shall be the duty of the executive committee, together with the general manager, to submit a proposed detail budget, prior to the annual membership convention; that an annual audit shall be made by a certified public accountant and brought to the convention; and that the organization's fiscal year shall end as of May 1 each year.

It is proposed also that: The president, vice president, treasurer and general manager shall be elected by the board of directors by ballot form;

The general manager shall have power to appoint and dismiss all employees, but the number of employees and their salaries shall be fixed by the board of directors;

All employees handling funds of the organization shall be bonded.

EASTERN MOTORIST GOES 1,200 MILES AT ONE "SITTING"

Here's one for the long distance motorists to shoot at—1,200 miles of continuous driving with only a few brief stops for gasoline.

The tireless pilot was Marshall W. Forrest, prominent young golfer of Lowell, Mass., who recently drove the 1,200 miles between Lawrence, Kansas, and Lancaster, Pa., at one "sitting" while east bound on the last stage of coast-to-coast round trip of 11,675 miles. The car was a 1927 Pontiac Six roadster which previously had been driven 19,000 miles. Forrest left the Kansas town at 8 a. m. one morning and reached Lancaster at midnight of the next day after 40 hours on the road. The entire trip from Los Angeles to New York required only six days.

Forrest drove moderately but achieved his remarkable results through long hours at the wheel. He was accompanied by Harry S. Buzzell, also of Lowell. In addition to the driver and passenger, the Pontiac Six carried some 400 pounds of camping equipment and other baggage. En route they passed through 22 States and four Canadian provinces. According to Forrest, the most interesting and difficult part of their tour involved 250 miles of driving through wooded trails and over the roadbed of the Grand Trunk railroad for a distance of 250 miles between Jasper Park and Edmonton in the Province of Alberta.

Despite the fact that much of the route led through rough country little frequented by tourists, the gasoline consumption averaged 17.4 miles per gallon. Forrest asserted that the Pontiac required no service attention either during or after the long trip.

Highway Dept. To Start Drive Enforce Laws

FIFTY NEW TRAFFIC COPS TO BE PUT ON TEXAS HIGHWAYS

AUSTIN, Oct. 19.—Where 12 years ago Texas became a party to a drive to make the world safe for democracy, it was announced here Saturday that a new alliance is to be formed by the Highway commission, Attorney General's department, and Railroad commission, to make Texas highways safe for the public. The emergency 12 years ago was less fatal to Texans than the shambles of 1929, it was shown here Saturday by various State departments as they prepared for the campaign.

Estimates place the 1929 highway casualty loss at 8,000, a little more than the Texas casualties overseas. In effort to minimize automobile accidents the following program has been adopted:

- Fifty Officers Due
1. Placing on the roads a force of 50 officers under the Highway department to enforce safety regulations and make arrests.
 - Prosecution by the Attorney General's department of violators with the assistance of county authorities.
 - Requesting the next Legislature to enact a law that will require State license for drivers, depriving of such permit when violations are proved.
 - Appealing to civic clubs, chambers of commerce and municipal governments for close cooperation.
- In dollars and cents automobile accidents of all kinds cost the people of Texas $5,000,000 annually and the figure is increasing, it was estimated by L. A. Gueringer, chief engineer of the Railroad commission, this including funeral expenses, doctors' bills, property damage and litigation costs.
- R. M. Tilley, Assistant Attorney General, is cooperating with the Highway commission, telling just how far the highway patrolmen may go in the enforcement program, and especially complaining of violations by freight trucks.
- Ten States Have Law
Gueringer pointed out that only

10 states have enacted statutes requiring drivers of automobiles to obtain licenses with penalties for violations, these being New York, Iowa, New Jersey, Connecticut, Maine, Vermont, Rhode Island, North Dakota, California and Wisconsin.

At the regular session of the Forty-first Legislature last winter, Senator Walter C. Woodward of Coleman introduced a drivers' license bill that provided many safety regulations and penalties but it died on the calendar, a casualty of crowded work, although there was little opposition.

State officials Saturday said that this or a similar measure will be sought at the next session.

Some of the crashes on highways are incomprehensible, according to reports reaching Gueringer and other officials. The 1929 monthly reports of the chief engineer, dealing with accidents at railroad crossings, show that many drivers insist on trying to wreck locomotives by driving into them, by driving into trains standing still, by driving into moving trains after 30 to 35 cars already have passed, so evidently the trains were seen by drivers.

Crashes Are Cited
At Shamrock two accidents of similar character occurred when on different dates automobiles were driven into trains, once after 10 cars had passed and again when 35 had passed, eight persons were injured in the two crashes.

One of the most peculiar accidents was at Bowie, the report saying that a truck driver waited at a crossing 15 minutes for a train, drove up the track just as the cars were approaching and then abandoned the truck. Yes, the driver was severely injured. In January five automobiles loaded with passengers ran broadside into trains; in February, the number was seven; 10 automobiles colliding with trains was in March records. Two were killed in April in the attempt; five were the May figures; June witnessed three cars trying their luck with the sides of trains; July the number was four; August it was increased to eight, and September it was seven.

Hits Baggage Car
At Sinton three were injured when a driver ran his automobile under the baggage car of a train.

All this is from official railroad reports, but accidents at other places than grade crossings take heavier tolls.

One bus company, the Southland Red Ball, which now owns West Texas Coaches, soon is to put a crew of its own officers on the highways, but they will only check up on their own traffic, watching buses. But bus accidents have been rare because the rail commission and the bus association insist that drivers observe regulations, of which there are 50, drafted for line drivers alone. A bus driver is not permitted to smoke while at the wheel and is compelled to stop 20 feet from all railway tracks, open the door and look for trains.

Advices have been received by the commission from the American Automobile Association asking for cooperation in Texas to pass and enforce highway safety laws, the association asserting the deaths and injuries are increasing every year, going to nearly 30,000 persons killed for 1929.

MRS. GREEN ASTONISHED BY RESULTS OF SARGON

"I honestly didn't believe there was a medicine in the world that could help me like Sargon has."

"I suffered for five long years with stomach trouble and an almost constant pain in my side. I had rheumatic pains in my limbs and it seemed like every joint in my body ached. It got so bad I could hardly walk. My liver wasn't active and my whole system seemed full of poisons. My husband was taking Sargon and I saw it was doing him worlds of good, so I decided to try it.

"I can eat anything I want now and my stomach never bothers me. That terrible aching in my side is gone and there isn't a rheumatic pain in my body. Sargon Pills regulated my liver and drove all the poisons out of my system, without nauseating or upsetting me in the least. Of all medicines I ever tried, Sargon and the Pills are the only ones that really gave me lasting results."—Mrs. J. E. Green, 2218 Cedar St., Dallas, Colorado Drug Co., Agents. Adv.

Food Riot in New York

A FIVE and Ten Cent Food Store was recently opened in New York, and attracted 2500 customers the first day. By 2:30 P.M. its owner had to call a policeman to handle the crowd. The latter tried in turn to telephone for the reserves, but he had to give up the attempt because he found that he couldn't push his way through the crowd to the telephone. The owner had to keep the store open till two in the morning, and draft his wife, sister and father—all the available members of his family—to help him out.

Small Cans Here to Stay
 All of which goes to prove that the small can of processed food is here to stay. The new 8-ounce cans of fruit, for instance, which usually cost ten cents, are rapidly creating a cook book of their own. Special recipes have to be devised to use the exact amount of food in these cans, and make enough of each dish for from two to eight people. Here is a sample of such a recipe: Pear and Roquefort Salad: Drain and chill the contents of an 8-ounce can of pears, and arrange on leaves of romaine. Crumble Roquefort cheese coarsely and sprinkle in cavities of pears. Mix together and beat well two tablespoons oil, one-half tablespoon vinegar, one-eighth teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon paprika, one-sixteenth teaspoon mustard, one-half teaspoon sugar, two tablespoons chili sauce and two tablespoons mayonnaise. Pour over the salad and decorate with strips of pimiento. Serves two."

These are the Oakland features which make driving a real delight

Proof that Oakland is America's Finest Medium-priced Automobile

The following facts were obtained from a comparison of the Oakland All-American Six with 20 other medium-priced automobiles. All told, 878 individual comparisons were made. Of these Oakland proved to be distinctly superior in 431 or 51.37 per cent. The 20 cars combined were at best equal to Oakland on 382 or 43.50 per cent. And 13 of the 20 were higher-priced than Oakland.

CROSS-FLOW RADIATOR
 Only Oakland in the entire field has the Cross-flow radiator or anything similar to it. All other cars use the down-flow radiator.

FOOT-CONTROLLED HEADLIGHTS
 Only Oakland and one other higher-priced car in the field offer this convenience. Eleven more expensive cars fail to provide it.

Today's Oakland All-American Six embodies many basic advantages which are combined in no other car at its price. In addition, it offers a number of features of a supplementary nature—which make driving a real delight. Foremost among these is the Cross-flow radiator. Foot-controlled headlights represent another. It is such features as these, combined with Oakland's impressive performance, distinctive style and exceptionally long life, which make Oakland ownership an uninterrupted experience in motoring enjoyment.

Oakland All-American Six, $1145 to $1275, I. O. B. Pontiac, Michigan, plus delivery charges. Spring covers and Lock-Jay Hydraulic Shock Absorbers included in list prices. Bumpers and rear fender guards extra. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list (I. O. B.) price when comparing automobile values. . . . Oakland-Pontiac delivered prices include only authorized charges for freight and delivery and the charge for any additional accessories or financing desired.

DRAWING THE "COLOR LINE" ON YOUR EGGS

Color of Eggs Has a Decided Influence on Their Market Value in Some Parts of the Country. A Decided Swing From White To Brown in Many Centers and the Reverse in Others.

There are no doubt very few who would care to take literally the oft-quoted assertion of a well known writer that gentlemen prefer blondes. Most certainly some gentlemen do prefer blondes, but there are others who have a decided preference for brunettes. No man who favors either the lighter or the darker tresses would dare to say that the color of his choice carried with it any superior virtue, grace, or distinction. He just likes what he likes and that's all there is to it. A very similar situation exists in the egg market, strange as it may seem to many of us. In some parts of the country, brown eggs are almost unsalable, with white ones at a premium, while in other places the exact reverse is true.

Just why certain sections of the country should be so thoroughly prejudiced in favor of one color or the other is something that requires a lot more explaining than the space allotted to this article will permit. No one has been able to discover that the color of an egg shell has any connection with the food value of its contents. On the contrary, it seems to be well established that if hens laying brown eggs are fed the same materials and cared for in the same way as those laying white ones, the products of both will be absolutely equal in food values. Nevertheless, these strange local prejudices must be considered just as certain merchants must reckon with the fact that women in certain parts of the country will accept nothing but Clark's thread, while Coat's thread, spun on the same spindles from identical raw materials, is the only brand others will have.

This peculiar state of affairs is of little interest to the poultrymen whose entire output is consumed locally. He knows the preference of his own neighborhood and, if wise, will enter to it. It is the poultryman or egg buyer whose output is too great for local consumption who must face the blots-and-brunettes problem when he sends his product out to market.

The great center for marketing brown eggs is and has always been Boston and surrounding communities. There, the preference seems to date back to the days of the earliest settlers. The reason it has persisted for so long doubtless lies in the fact that most of the American class breeds—all brown egg layers—originated there.

The owner of "brown-egg" fowls has the advantage when it comes to supplying dressed fowls for family use. As for capons, these breeds are ideal. The capons rival turkeys for size and weight with flesh of such tenderness and delicious flavor it would take an expert to decide if anything on earth could equal them.

Nevertheless, many poultrymen whose chief concern is egg production, hold the white egg laying breeds in high esteem. They are undoubtedly wonderful layers and the various strains have been greatly improved of late years. Their eggs now compare quite favorably in size with the average run from brown egg laying breeds and it can no longer be said that the so-called "all egg" breeds are less productive than the general purpose or brown egg breeds during the fall and winter months. There are certain localities where white eggs are in great demand, whatever the reason may be. That, after all, is sufficient reason for raising the kind of fowls that supply them.

The public preference sometimes changes. The situation in New York is a good illustration of what can happen. There, brown eggs were at one time all but a drug on the market. Early in November, 1927, white egg prices began to decline and the brown eggs forged ahead until the latter were soon enjoying a price advantage of 8c a dozen. Since then, there has been considerable fluctuation. In many other markets similar changes in one direction or other have been noted.

Such changes as this are of no little significance to poultrymen everywhere. No matter how large or small your flock may be, if you produce eggs to sell, you want to be on the right side. Be prepared to swing with the tide of public desire. It may not be the most heroic measure, but, aside from Lindbergh's case, who ever heard of heroism that paid dividends?

TRUE FARM ELECTRIFICATION IS GROWING

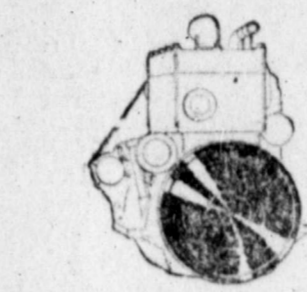

Use of electricity on American farms is increasing at a steady rate. A thorough survey just completed by the United States bureau of census shows that production of individual electric plants in 1927 was more than 7 per cent greater than in 1925. Since the great bulk of individual electric plants are used on farms, this is a positive indication of the steady spread of rural electrification throughout the country.

Dominance of the individual electric plant in farm electrification has resulted in an unheralded but important economic development in this field, the bureau of census figures show. Although production of electric plants was more than 7 per cent greater, the cost to the farmer-purchaser was a total of almost two and a half million dollars less. In other words, increased manufacture of individual electric plants under mass production made a saving for the farm buying public of two and a half million dollars.

Recent figures from the National Electric Light Association show a total of 454,100 farms receive electricity from transmission or "high lines." One manufacturer of individual plant is an overwhelming factor in farm electrification.

The bureau of census figures reveal a decrease of 2,028 electric enterprises (central power station enterprises) in 1927, as compared with 1925. With the number of such enterprises decreasing while the number of individual electric plants is steadily increasing, farm electrification depends greatly on the individual electric light and power units which the farmer installs on his own place.

The true field of farm electrification—more farmers using electricity for light and every-day power applications, is steadily growing.

Millions of Miles of Constant Testing to maintain the outstanding quality and dependability of The Chevrolet Six

In spite of the fact that a million Chevrolet Sixes have already been placed in the hands of owners, and have proved their performance and stamina by billions of miles of service over every type of highway the nation affords—

—the Chevrolet Motor Company continues to take new Chevrolet Sixes from the assembly line at the factory and subject them to pitiless testing on the roads of the General Motors Proving Ground! This passion for proof—this consistent refusal to accept any tests as final—is one of the fundamental reasons for the overwhelming popularity of Chevrolet cars. For in no other way is it possible to make the Chevrolet Six so sound in design and materials—so dependable in performance—and so economical to operate!

If you are considering the purchase of an automobile, come in and see the new Chevrolet. You will find that it is more than a Six in the price range of the four. In every way it is a finer car than you ever thought possible in the low-price field!

BILL KELLIS SAYS R. E. THOMASON IS MAN FOR CONGRESS

W. F. Kellis, publisher of the Sterling City News-Record, who has always been a strong supporter of Hon. Claud Hudspeth, present congressman from the 16th district, came out last week in a strong editorial for R. E. Thomason of El Paso as the logical successor of Mr. Hudspeth, who has announced his retirement at the end of his present term. Kellis says:

Congressman Hudspeth has announced that after the expiration of his present term as representative of the 16th district he will retire. Claude has made us a wonderful representative and has given us the very best of service.

Now that these people have so long been accustomed to good service at the National capital, there is going to be a lot of kicking unless it is continued. Now without the fear of reward or hope of punishment, and without his knowledge or consent, and altogether unbeknownst to him, we hereby present, name, announce and nominate one R. E. Thomason, present mayor of El Paso, as a candidate to succeed Claude B. Hudspeth as representative of the 16th Congressional district of Texas.

The 16th is a mighty big district, and it takes a mighty big man to represent it and Ewing Thomason is a mighty big man—just such a man as we need to look after our interests in Washington.

Hon. R. E. Thomason is a Democrat without any adjective or jug handle to distinguish him from the true breed of Democrats. He was born in Texas. In his early youth, he had the advantage of poverty. He learned to work with his hands. He can distinguish between a cotton stalk and a sheaf of oats. He knows a ramb lamb from a billygoat and can extract the lactical fluid from a Jersey cow in case the milkmaid goes on her vacation, and knows a good steer when he sees him.

While engaged in learning the mysteries of the farm and ranch, Ewing was absorbing book learning until he was head and shoulders above his fellows in that regard. For some cause or other, the people of the El Paso district sentenced him to serve in the legislature for several terms. In 1919 the people of this district got it in for this editor and sent him to the same place. When he found the way to the capitol, he found lots of fellows there in the same fix. They wanted a speaker. There were several likely fellows after the place, but when we saw a tall, smooth, bright handsome young fellow, we all cried out: "That's the man!" We knew he was the man just like the prophet Samuel knew that Saul was the man when he was commissioned to select a man to rule over Israel.

When the shouting was over Ewing Thomason took up the gavel and from that time on, the House knew it had made no mistake. While he was brave, firm, and wise in his rulings, yet clean and modest as a maiden in his bearing. At times his foresight and judgment impressed one that he was possessed of almost prophetic vision. One day he said to us: "Underneath the soil of West Texas lies a sea of oil, and we must enact laws to meet the conditions that will arise through its development," or words to that effect. At that time there was not a producing well west of the Colorado river. Time has proven that his assertion was true, for we know now that there is literally a sea of oil beneath the surface of West Texas.

He ran against Pat Neff for governor and got beat, but he made old Pat know that he was in a real boss race. While Pat did the best he knew how, yet, there are those who came to regret they did not vote for the young lion of El Paso.

All that is past and gone, together with its strife and bitterness. Today we must choose another man to represent us at the National capitol.

This tall, bright, handsome young man is available to our choice. Personally, we feel that he is "the man."

We would not say so (and you know it) unless we honestly thought so. Let us lay aside personal friendship and local pride and select only our best and most competent man to serve us. We honestly believe that Thomason is our best buy.

The world stands ready to honor the man who does his best without bragging, pays his debts without dunning, and does his work without worrying.

Our pessimistic friend says the best way he's found to keep the knock out of his car is to leave his wife at home.

Our young spinster friend says she has met some men who acted like they thought their wives had cheated some other woman out of a mighty good husband.

BIG SPRING IS WINNER OVER SNYDER ELEVEN
BIG SPRING, Oct. 19.—The Big Spring Steers won their first game of the season here today, defeating the Snyder Steers 19 to 7. The Steers held the Tigers scoreless until the last quarter.

A PIONEER
Back in the covered wagon days of the great Southwest, some 50 years ago, when shootin' irons were a part of the regular equipment of every he-man, there was started in Indian Territory (now Oklahoma), a small trading post from which to supply foodstuffs and coffee, to the hardy pioneers.

Housed in a tent on the banks of the Red River, and operated under the partnership name of Waples and Platter, this trading post early became the center of trading activities for hundreds of miles around. History records that it was a success from the beginning, so successful, in fact, that the business was moved shortly to Denison, Texas, then terminal of the Katy railroad. That early beginning was the nucleus of the present Waples Platter Company, manufacturers and distributors of foods and coffees, an organization which has for many years been a dominant factor in the business and industrial leadership of the great Southwest.

Due to the sound principles upon which this early business was founded, and to the keen, far-seeing judgment of the forebears of the present owners of the business, from this humble tent on the banks of the Red river has grown an institution whose modern manufacturing plants occupy 25 acres of land. Headquarters of the company are now located at Fort Worth. Twenty-two branch houses located in as many progressive cities of Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma, constitute the supply bases for over 10,000 dealers who sell Waples Platter food products throughout the Southwest. In many respects this institution is self-contained in that it manufactures a majority of the widely known food products which it distributes. Daily a fleet of powerful, company-owned motor trucks plies between its manufacturing plants and the twenty-two strategically located branch houses of the company, carrying new merchandise so that the thousands of dealers have access daily to fresh goods.

Today, under the able leadership of Lloyd McKee, president, the Waples Platter Company is recognized as one of the largest manufacturers and distributors of food products in the United States. Today Lloyd McKee is regarded as one of the most able merchandisers in the country. His strict adherence to the policy of manufacturing and selling goods of the highest quality and his ideas of super-service to dealers and consumers have won for him an enviable reputation throughout Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, where he is widely known and often referred to as a leading business magnate and citizen of the Southwest.

We carry a complete line of office supplies.

.. then you'll know why more than 2,000,000 people have bought

BUICKS

The world-famous Buick chassis and Buick's smart new Bodies by Fisher! An unrivaled combination! Providing the highest degree of motor car performance and all-round motoring satisfaction, over the greatest number of miles!

The more thoroughly you compare Buick with other cars, the more clearly you will understand why more than 2,000,000 people have bought Buicks—why men and women are buying from two to five times as many Buicks as any other automobile priced above $1200—and why they have purchased more Buicks during the few weeks this brilliant new car has been on the market than in any like period in Buick history.

See the new Buicks and arrange to buy one. Six of the 14 luxurious body types, incorporating all the famous Buick superiorities, are available at prices ranging from $1225 to $1295, f. o. b. factory. All available on the extremely liberal General Motors Time Payment Plan.

BUICK'S 99-horsepower V6 in Head engine is the most powerful engine of its size in the world. It is famous, too, for unrivaled smoothness, economy and stamina. It incorporates such modern engineering advancements as counterweighted crankshaft with torsion balancer, carburetor heat control, positive pressure gas pump, and triple seals against wear.

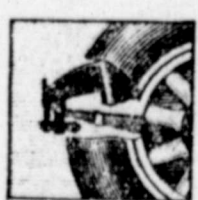

BUICK'S Controlled Servo Enclosed Mechanical Brakes provide the most perfect control ever desired for any automobile. They are smooth, sure, silent in operation, and achieve positive results with minimum pedal pressure. And because they are enclosed fully protected against dust, dirt and water—they insure maximum braking efficiency in any weather.

New, longer rear springs, in conjunction with four new Levee Shock Absorbers, impart a supple degree of riding comfort. These two vital comfort factors work together in perfect harmony to check both bound and rebound over the roughest roads.

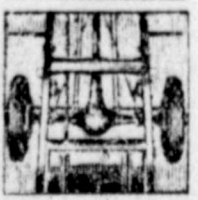

BUICK'S new frictionless steering gear imparts matchless steering ease throughout the entire turning range, while the new Buick Road Shock Eliminator absolutely governs transmission of road jolts and jars to the driver's arms. Twin features which make a tremendous contribution to driving ease and reliability.

BUICK'S famous multiple disc clutch, too, reveals marked superiorities. In addition to being far sturdier than those of conventional design, it imparts exceptional smoothness, due to its special facing which requires gentle, gradual engagement of the driving and driven surfaces.

BUICK'S famous torque tube serves two vitally important functions. It not only carries the driving thrust, leaving the rear springs free to cushion the car's progress, but also forms a major unit of the Buick chassis seal. Every moving part of the Buick chassis from fan to rear wheels is fully protected against dust, dirt and water, assuring maximum operating efficiency in any weather.

"CONGRATULATIONS! HOW DID YOU DO IT?"

"How did I do it? Well, it started seven years ago when I made up my mind that some day I'd have my own business. From that day I began saving—opened an account at the City National Bank, fed it every Saturday night, and let the interest ride . . . the account grew, and now . . . well, thanks for the congratulations! I wish you luck!"
