CHURCHES

First Christian Church
Bible School 9:45. Preaching 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subjects: "The Supremacy of Christ" and "Excess Baggage." C. C. KLINGMAN, Pastor.

Presbyterian Church
Today we pray for the students in the schools of our country. All our churches are asked to pray for these students today. We should include in our prayers:
1. The presidents, faculties, and workers in all of our institutions.
2. The students, especially those from our home and communities.
3. For our church department of Christian Education.

The Department of Christian Education is a very important department of our church. It is important that our young people are trained in the fundamentals of our Christianity in order that they may be able to stand in these times when every effort is put forth in many of American Educational Institutions to rob them of their faith and the church.

Dr. Henry H. Swets is our assembly secretary and director of this department. Dr. Swets needs our prayers too.

March is the "Every Member" canvass for funds for our local church and the assembly's local. The church that fails to provide for itself and the benevolent causes of the church in all its departments is a "dying church," so if we as a church live we must also help others. Pray for the canvass—as we face the "Every Member Canvass" in March with its bills and budgets and pledges may it be with a sincere prayer for God's guidance.

Pray for the officers of our churches as they work out the budget for next year. Pray for the pastor as he leads and instructs in spiritual matters. Pray for the congregation that they may realize their duty and responsibility and that they may see beyond the figures of the budget to the souls of lost men who are awaiting for the light and truth. We are giving everyone who has no church home a special invitation to come and worship with us. We have our Church school at 9:45.

Worship and sermon at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Rev. John C. Thomas, pastor of the Big Spring church will preach at the 11 o'clock hour.

Your pastor will preach at that hour at Big Spring. The occasion of this exchange is the presentation of the cause of Home Missions for our Presbytery. This is a special offering for this cause. Hope we have a liberal response from our people.

Junior—Young people will have their vesper services at 5 p. m. The Seniors will have theirs at 6:30. Your pastor will preach at the 7:30 hour.
W. M. ELLIOTT, Pastor.

Episcopal Church
Evening Prayer and sermon at 7:30 P. M. Church School at 10:00 A. M.

The Bible Class will meet next Friday evening in the choir room at 7:30 P. M.

The Young Peoples Service League will meet next Sunday evening at six o'clock sharp in the choir room.

Members and visitors are invited to attend these services.
ALEX B. HANSON.

Church of Christ
All services last Lord's day well attended. Extra fine crowd for the evening Gospel service. This will be the subject for next Sunday: "Paul's Charge to Titus." For the evening: "Christ Appears to Paul."
Teaching: Lord's day Bible school 10 a. m. Young peoples' development meeting 6:30 p. m. Ladies' Bible class Monday 3 p. m. Men's study of the New Testament Church Monday 7:45. All Church study of the Hebrew Letter Wednesday 7:30.

We welcome your presence.

Harvey to preach at Lowe school house Sunday 3 p. m.
J. D. HARVEY, Minister.

First Baptist Church

In spite of the many hindrances last Sunday we had fine attendance and a good spirit in all our services. There were several of our most faithful families who were kept out on account of sickness and death. And several others who were engaged in entertaining visitors here for the Club meeting. Our Sunday school attendance was 414 and there were 85 in the Training Service.

We have set a goal for next Sunday of 500 in the Sunday school and 125 in the B.T.S. This is about what these organizations should average.

We expect to spend four days this week with about 300 preachers at Sweetwater. This is a new organization of Baptist preachers called, "The Pastor's Retreat." The purpose is for fellowship, prayer and Bible study. Some of the strongest men in the South are on the program.

We want to invite the general public to worship with us in all our services.
DICK O'BRIEN, Pastor.

First Methodist Church

Our worship services for this Sunday should be couched in devout preparation of our hearts and lives for service during the revival to open one week later. Let the Methodists of Colorado place themselves unreservedly upon the altar in that we may have a gracious revival of religion in this community.

It is with deep appreciation that we receive information that our sister churches are to join with us in this revival. Our musical director, Sam J. Smith, will appreciate cooperation by members of other choirs.

Be in your place at Sunday school and preaching Sunday morning and evening.

THE COMMITTEE.

PUBLIC URGED TO EXTEND EVERY COOPERATION WITH DISTRICT CENSUS TAKERS

County Superintendent Gives List of Trustees Who Will Direct Work

Cooperation of every school patron with work of the scholastic census takers next month is strongly urged in statement issued Wednesday afternoon by Miss Ruby McGill, Mitchell county school superintendent.

"March is the time for annual school census and everyone is requested to give the names of all children who will be six and under eighteen years of age on September 1, 1933, and who are residents of the district on April 1," Miss McGill stated.

No children who were born on or before September 1, 1915, or after September 1, 1927, may be enumerated. All scholastics must be enrolled in the district in which their parents or guardians reside and in event it is desirable to transfer to another school, this matter must be attended to later.

Supplies for use in taking the census are available at the office of Miss McGill on second floor of the court house. Appointment of the following census trustees have been announced:

MITCHELL COUNTY FARM NOTES

Jim McCullough of Spade killed two hogs the "A. & M. way" at the Vocational Agriculture School being held in that community by Doyle Williams and Saturday he said, "This way of cutting up the meat makes it worth a third more to me. The pork chop cuts are fine."

"I always said I'd let my land wash away before I'd terrace but I found out I had it to do and now I realize it the only thing," said F. W. Hardee of north of Fairview Friday. "I have about fifty acres of tight land that always burned up during the summer but since I terraced it, it makes good crops. I believe terraces over a five year period will increase crops one fourth each year." Mr. Hardee had about 75 acres terraced and terraced about 70 acres more last week.

The writer was invited last week to visit a new food cellar on a Mitchell county farm but it resembled a community grocery more than a food cellar. There were 1266 containers of food on the shelves not counting what they had eaten, since the vegetable canning season ended. In addition there were 300 pounds of sugar, a sack of salt and enough coffee to last a year. They also had the cured meat from 6 or 8 hogs in the smoke-house. (Name withheld by request).

L. W. Carpenter of Rogers says, "I am going to run terrace lines in that south piece. The north piece was terraced several years ago and it has convinced me that it pays. Why the last two years it has made a third more than the south piece."

Still another advantage in terracing is shown in the report of Lewis Vowel who says before he terraced he had to replant some of his crop every year due to blowing or having some of the crop washed up or covered up by rains. The year before he terraced he replanted 3 to 5 times in places. Since he terraced he says he has had to replant only one time and that was on account of weeds. He finds that the crooked rows prevent sandblowing to a large extent. He is terracing some more this month.

Chester Hart and Jeff Mize dehorned their cows last Thursday and Saturday Mrs. Hart reported that the cows were doing fine and the milk production had not dropped off as a result of the dehorning.

"THE SIGN OF THE CROSS" AT SWEETWATER AND BIG SPRING R. & R. THEATRES

Cecil B. DeMille's "The Sign of the Cross" the greatest dramatic of our generation will play a three day engagement at Palace Theatre in Sweetwater, opening Sunday, and a similar engagement at the Ritz in Big Spring, opening Saturday night. These will be advance showings effected by special arrangement with Mr. DeMille. Prices for the engagement will be forty cents for adults, ten cents for children, matinee or evening--popular prices for this two dollar road show attraction.

The leading roles in "The Sign of the Cross" are played by Frederic March as Marcus Superbus, prefect of Rome; Elissa Landi as Mercia, a Christian maiden whose example leads all Christians to accept death as had before them their beloved Master; Claudette Colbert as Poppaea, the courtesan queen; and Charles Laughton as Nero. There are many other well known screen players and 7500 extras in the big scenes.

"The Sign of the Cross" is commended to the attention of all Christian people. Go to Sweetwater and see it.

Charles M. Mann, 56, resident citizen of Mitchell county during the past fifty years, died Sunday morning at 9:15 o'clock at the C. L. Root hospital, following a brief illness. Burial was in I.O.O.F. cemetery Monday afternoon following funeral rites conducted at First Presbyterian church by Revs. W. M. Elliott and Dick O'Brien.

Deceased was a native of Coleman county, having been born there on May 1, 1876. When a boy six years of age his parents moved to Mitchell county and he had since lived here. He was for many years active in the cattle industry of this section.

Esteen in which the late citizen was held by pioneer West Texans was attested in large number coming to Colorado Monday to attend the funeral rites. Scores of these were pioneer ranchers who had known deceased intimately during the half century of his residence in this county.

Mr. Mann had suffered from a mild influenza some two weeks but his condition was not considered with alarm until a short time prior to death. Two days before the end, he was removed to the hospital but nothing could be done to avert his life. During recent year he and family have made their home on a farm a few miles southeast from Colorado.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lena Smith Mann, and ten children, most of whom are citizens of Mitchell county, as follows:

Charles Mann, Jr., San Antonio; Tom Clay Mann, Virgil Mann, Hiram Iann, Billie Mann and Nat Mann, sons of Colorado, and Mmes. G. H. Sargent, John Houston Lupton, E. O. Hudson and Miss Mildred Mann, daughters, all of Colorado.

One brother, George Mann of California, and one sister, Mrs. Ber Trammell of Sweetwater, also survive.

Active pall bearers were D. H. Snyder, Lay Powell, U. D. Wulfjen, O. F. Jones, J. Lee Jones and R. O. Pearson.

Honorary pall bearers were: R. B. Terrell, Harry Landers, Dr. B. F. Oulaney, Will Warren, Ed Jones, Byron Landers, Harvey Cook, T. A. Morrison, Earl Morrison, Billie McEntire, I. W. Terry, Les Terry, Marvin Dorn, H. E. Grantland, George Slaton, J. A. Sadler, Frank Lupton, Ino. L. Doss, H. B. Broadus, John Wallace (col.), J. W. Dorn, T. W. Stonerod, J. S. Greene, A. B. Blanks, R. Progress Noted By Home Demonstration Club Members In Annual Project Plans

Rural women and girls identified with extension service work are launching their projects with renewed interest this week, as the recent bitter cold has been abated. Reports coming from several of these clubs indicates that demonstrators and other club leaders are launching annual project plan with a deal of enthusiasm.

Mrs. Carl Lowery has recently been elected bedroom demonstrator for the Hyman club. Recently her room was scored and the alcove through which improvements are to be realized are now being studied.

Her interior walls of sheet rock are unfinished and one of the first tasks to which she has set her attention is selection of wall paper designs. Storage space in the bedroom will be enlarged through addition of a "closet closet." Later the floors are to be worked over and made as new.

Window shades and curtains are to be added and improvements made to the bed equipment, with the general idea in mind of building for greater comfort and more pleasing surroundings at the lowest cost. She expects to be kept busy until time for starting her Spring garden project.

Mrs. J. T. Vest of Plainview home demonstration club had her bedroom scored this week and found the following needs as a working basis:

First, she will work on her clothes storage space, building in more shelves (with assistance of her husband). More hanger rods and compartment for storing linens will also be added. Her walls are to be newly prepared, the floors refinished and the bed equipment worked over. The making of a tufted bed spread is included in the latter.

Miss Geneva Campbell of the Buffalo 4-H girls club is to have a room all to herself in their new home just being completed. The room will be provided with new paper and draperies but old furnishings will be used. With assistance of her mother the furniture is to be given a complete work-over to fit properly into its new environ.

This club girl announces that she is to make vanity dresser and refinish all old pieces of furniture to match. This week she was to make selections of the wall paper design and draperies to go into her room.

Women and girls in several other demonstration and 4-H clubs will be taking up improvement projects as soon as their bedrooms are scored. Within the month annual clothing inventory will be in order and plans for budgeting this feature of club work started. Foundation materials will be checked to ascertain whether they properly fit and their materials for making new dresses will be selected.

Scores of club girls are busy this week taking measurements and checking them with commercial standard patterns preparatory to making pajamas and dresses.

During the past two weeks the home demonstration agent has directed 4-H pantry work, the checking of canning budgets for 1933 and planning for future food preservation in general. Due consideration of canning done during last year in meeting requirements of the family is ever given.

Colorado Merchant States Record Ads Develop New Trade

Advertising in The Record never fails to bring satisfactory results and the small investment made in about the best business builder that a Colorado merchant could employ, according to Max Berman, owner of the Max Berman department store.

A few weeks ago Mr. Berman advertised a special showing of new Spring shoes for women. In addition to a brisk local trade, credited to the special announcement in this newspaper, he received several mail orders from points in Texas and other States. Among the orders was one from Alabama, one from Tennessee and one from New Mexico.

"I had the largest trade volume last Saturday that I have enjoyed since being in business in Colorado," Mr. Berman stated Wednesday morning. "Advertising carried by the store in columns of The Record did much to bring about that achievement," he concluded.

CHECK ISSUED IN 1916 FOUND ON STREET; HAD NEVER BEEN CLEARED

A check issued by John W. Moogar to Chas. Lasky in the sum of $3, and dated March 21, 1916, was picked up by Ed Womack Saturday morning in front of his store at Oak and Second streets. The check was in perfect state of preservation and had never been cleared through the bank.

Mr. Lasky recalled that he was in the grocery business at that time. Moogar was operating a livery barn in the Coe building on Walnut street. That the check was given in exchange for groceries and then lost is conceded.

The check evidently found its way behind a counter and there remained through the years. Womack is occupying the building in which the Lasky grocery was housed at the time. The check no doubt was swept from the building Saturday morning.

READ A GOOD BOOK

(Continued from last week) In the graveyard repose dead bodies, in the library exist living minds. If there be anything immortal it is the mind in the book.

Books may not be the soul of success in life, but they have ever been a spiritual strength. In truth there can be no intellectual success unless it be accompanied by books.

WHY THE BIBLE IS NOT READ

Our fathers were folks of one book and that book was the Bible but it is not so with us today. The Bible is still the best seller, but it is easy to be misled by figures. Because so many Bibles are sold does not mean that they are read.

EFFECTIVE EVERY DAY EVERY SCHEDULE LOW ROUND TRIP FARES

It will fare ill with us if the music of this mighty book is hushed among us. It is the Mother Book of our literature and the manual of our civilization.

In reading the life of Napoleon and the French wars we came across this quotation from Bampton Lectures, in "The Bible and Modern Research." "In his exile at St. Helena Napoleon Bonaparte said one day to Count Montholon—can you tell me who Jesus Christ was?—No. Well then said the Emperor I will tell you. Alexander, Caesar, Charlemagne, and myself have formed great empires. But upon what did these great creations depend? Upon force. Jesus alone founded this empire upon love, and to this very day millions would die for Him. I think I understand something of human nature, and I tell you all these were men, and I am a man. But none else is like Him, Jesus Christ was more than a man. I have inspired multitudes with such an enthusiastic devotion that they would have died for me but to do this it was necessary that I should be visibly present with the electric influence of my lips, my words, my voice. Christ alone has succeeded in so raising the mind of man toward the unseen that it becomes insensible to the barriers of time and space. All who sincerely believe in Him experience that remarkable supernatural love towards Him. This phenomenon is unaccountable, it is altogether beyond the scope of men's creative powers. Time the great destroyer, is powerless to extinguish this sacred flame, time can neither exhaust its strength nor put a limit to its range. This is what strikes me most, I have often thought it. This it is which proves to me quite convincingly the Divinity of Jesus Christ."

In all her blonde beauty Jean Harlow will flash across the Palace screen Thursday and Friday, voluptuous, wise and wise-cracking. Harlow in a new role with the leading of leading men, Clark Gable. Jean Harlow in an ultra-Sadie Thompsonish role gives a bit of ribald humor to the picture.

One writer said, "It will take much prayer mixed with faith and with God's helping hand to restore prosperity." To which we add: High taxes have been the fall of every great nation.

SUPPORT THE MINISTRY

President Hoover said "The only profession which consists in being something is the ministry of our Lord and Savior, and it does not consist of anything else. And that conception of the Minister which ruins all the marks of it off and mixes him in the crowd so that you cannot pick him out, is a process of eliminating the ministry itself."
