MYSTERY HOLDS IDENTITY OF BODY FOUND ON TEXAS PACIFIC TRAIN WEDNESDAY

Initials, 'C. H. S.' Inside Of Fraternity Ring Causes Interest At Colorado

The badly decomposed body of a young man found crammed into vent of a refrigerator car at Big Spring Wednesday afternoon in all probability was not that of a graduate of Colorado high school, John E. Watson, superintendent of the schools, stated Thursday afternoon. A fraternity ring worn on finger of the dead man carried the initials "C.H.S." and was dated 1932.

Watson stated at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon that he could not recall if the initials corresponded to name of a youth in senior class last year. "I am going to go through the records, however, to ascertain whether or not such is true," he said. "The initials 'C.H.S.' are identical with those used in rings worn by our graduates, but, of course there are other high schools in Texas using the same letters."

The man had been dead several days and was so badly decomposed that only his hair served to establish whether or not the man was white or black. The body was found after a freight had pulled into Big Spring from the east. Men riding on the train complained of offensive odor issuing from the car vent.

Officials at Big Spring have taken the matter up with Herf-Jones Company, Indianapolis, Ind., manufacturers of the class ring.

VERDICT IN NEW MILLER CASE RETURNED TUESDAY IN 32ND DISTRICT COURT

Jury Out Short Time; Only Two Days Required For Hearing Cause

A verdict of guilty and assessing fifty years in the State penitentiary as punishment was returned by jury trying New Miller in Judge A. S. Mauzey's 32nd district court here Tuesday afternoon. The twelve men reported verdict within one hour and fifteen minutes after receiving the case. Miller was on trial for the murder of Slim Davis, shot to death on a Colorado residence street on afternoon of Sunday, April 10, 1932.

The case was called Monday morning and the jury had been selected and sworn in before the noon recess. Introduction of evidence was begun Monday afternoon and at noon Tuesday both the State and defense announced completion of testimony. Charge was delivered the jury as court was resumed after noon Tuesday and argument of attorneys was begun. The jury retired at 4:30 o'clock and reported verdict at 5:45.

That defense and State attorneys were anxious to extend every cooperation with the court in expediting trial of the case was demonstrated as selection of the jury got underway. The first juror was called for questioning at 10:30 a. m. and one hour and fifteen minutes later the twelve men had been qualified and sworn in. Only twenty two men were called from which to select a jury. After reading of the grand jury indictment by the district attorney Judge Mauzey announced recess until 1:30 Thursday afternoon.

That the defense would build its case around the plea of self defense was evidenced as the first tailmen, T. A. Richardson, Colorado banker, was called. Attorney Ratliff questioned him if he believed in the law of self defense. The same interrogation was put to every one of the other veniremen questioned.

MOVIES

The Palace Theatre shows "Tess of the Storm Country" Thursday and Friday, featuring Charles Farrell and Janet Gaynor. This is the eleventh picture in which these two popular screen stars are teamed. This picture is taken from the famous novel by Grace Miller White. This story was done on the screen in the silent days, and done very effectively, but not as effectively as Charles Farrell and Janet Gaynor do it in the squawkies, Gaynor and Farrell do their work in their usual style, carrying the romantic element in the expected fashion and in a manner which should have a definite effective reaction upon the run of patronage. Janet has the role of the fiery daughter of an elderly sea-captain. This famous pair is supported by June Clyde, Dudley Digges, Claude Gillingwater and many others. Pappy, a pet monkey, steals the show in many instances. The cast is well selected, the story well followed, and the acting, directing, and settings perfect.

Hoot Gibson again comes to the Palace Theatre Saturday. This time in the "Dude Bandit." A picture well fitting the flashy, fast moving, hard fighting, cool headed Hoot. Of course Hoot is supported by one of the prettiest of Hollywood's feminine stars, Gloria Shea. Hoot is well known for his good western pictures. Plenty of action, fighting, riding, romance and above all a goodly amount of comedy.

You'll laugh so heartily that you'll cry when you see "They Just Had to Get Married," showing at the Palace Theatre Sunday and Monday. It is hailed as the funniest motion picture in years. The leading roles are taken by the world's greatest man and woman comedy team, Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts. Here is a picture which runs the whole gamut of comedy, from biting satire to riotous farce. With a fast pace which at times will have you holding onto the arms of your chair, thrilling at dangerous exploits at the same time you are shrieking with laughter. The supporting cast includes Roland Young, Verree Teasdale, Fifi O'Rorsay, and many other popular screen actors. If you fail to see this you are denying yourself the greatest comedy treat in years.

The Palace Theatre has booked for its special Bargain Nights, "Self Defense" featuring Pauline Frederick. This picture is Monograms biggest release for the year. The story is of course centered around Pauline and her efforts to run a Canadian Saloon and gambling hall on the level. Pauline has trouble aplenty, and makes the picture more than interesting in her own way.

"The Infernal Machine" coming to the Palace Theatre on Thursday and Friday June 22 and 23, is a story whose plot is based on the rather time honored theme of the reactions of a group of eminently respectable citizens of diversified pursuits to an impending unseen disaster, "The Infernal Machine." It has moments of suspense and general activity; it contains on the whole, convincing melodrama and deals with reaction as well as in action. The plot contains captains, wealthy and unscrupulous business men, scientists, concert singers, etc. More about this picture next week.

called to him to drop the gun but he did not. I pulled my own gun and fired at his right arm, the one in which the gun was held. Again I asked that he drop the gun. Davis was working with the hammer, trying to get it to work and I shot again. After demanding that he drop the gun the third time, I fired another shot. Finding that I had no more shells I called to my brothers to run and I myself ran to a car parked nearby.

Miller testified that just before he ran from the scene Davis handed the pistol to Jim Hudson with request that he (Hudson) "get it to work, and burn them down."

Evidence of the defendant that Davis had threatened life of Miller was testified to by Brownie Miller, brother of the accused man. Several points in evidence, having to do with events immediately prior to the shooting, as aduced from State and defense witnesses, were considerably in variance. The State maintained there was no gun in possession of Davis during any time the men were talking nor later following the fatal shooting.

Testimony of the defendant that he shot Davis only after believing his life was in danger was controverted by Jim Hudson, who accompanied Davis to the Miller home and was present during the shooting. Hudson, called to the witness stand Monday afternoon, testified that he witnessed delivery of a pistol to Davis by Brownie Miller a short time before the shots were fired.

"I never did see the pistol after that and I did not see Davis with a gun in his hand after the trouble came up," Hudson said. "I do not recall Davis handing a gun to me with the request that I get it to working."

Mrs. D. V. Merrit, whose home is near scene of the shooting, testified that she saw Brownie Miller, with a pistol in his hand, running through her yard shortly after the shots were fired. Miller, under cross examination Tuesday morning, stated that he did not have a gun in his possession either preceding or following the shooting.

Testimony showed that following the shooting Newt Miller drove in his car to the downtown district, parking at curb in front of the City National Bank building. Going across the street he met Dick Hickman, police chief, and announcing he had shot Davis, surrendered the pistol. In company with the officer Miller went to the hospital, Hickman declining to accept suggestion from Miller that Davis had probably been shot to death.

Hickman testified that he searched the Hudson car, found parked in driveway at the hospital and there were no arms of any kind to be found. The officer also affirmed there was no weapon of any kind found on person of Davis.

Mining testified that he accompanied Hudson in Hudson's car to take Davis to the hospital. Enroute Davis requested that he not be taken to his home on West Ninth street, but that they drive direct to the hospital. "They got me," the witness quoted Davis as having said. A bit later the wounded man said, according to Mining, "Give me a cigaret. This bullet is burning me down." Davis never spoke after arriving at the hospital.

First witness called Monday afternoon as the case was resumed at 1:30 o'clock was Jack Hobbs, an eye witness to the shooting. Hobbs witnessed Miller fire three pistol shots at Davis, but denied that he saw Davis with a gun. A. P. Mining, another star witness for the State, described the shooting in detail. He was sitting in a parked motor car only a few feet from the scene. He testified he did not hear any argument nor see Davis with a pistol.

Dr. C. L. Root, chief surgeon at the Root hospital where Davis was taken after the shooting, testified as to location of two gun shot wounds on Davis' body. There was no gun on body of Davis when he was brought to the hospital, the physician stated. He did not know whether or not Davis had been drinking. Lee Carter, employee of Jones, Russell & Company, funeral directors, testified as to location of wounds in Davis' body. The State rested at 3:30 p. m. after the testimony of Mrs. D. V. Merrit had been concluded.

CHAMPION FARMER TAKEN TO HOSPITAL FOLLOWING SHOOTING LATE THURSDAY

Sweetwater Man Held In Jail After Row At Sweetwater Thursday Morning

SWEETWATER, — Joe Jenkins about 35, farmer of the Champion community, is in the Sweetwater Sanitarium with a bullet wound through the chest and W. P. Brookes, city, is being held in the county jail as results of a shooting at 497 West Ave. C at 10:30 a. m. Thursday.

While the condition of Mr. Jenkins was described as serious, his attending physician thought the wounded man had a good chance to recover.

An argument over a small sum of money, reported to have been asked by Mr. Brookes on a debt, was said to have led to the difficulty.

The shooting occurred at the Sayles Garage. Jenkins was reported to have just entered his car when he was shot. The bullet was a .32 calibre, fired from a 765 Mauser automatic revolver. It entered low in the left shoulder and came out in the back of the right shoulder. Jenkins was shot only once.

Brookes went to the sheriff's office from the scene of the shooting and handed the gun to a deputy.

"I've had a little trouble down here and I want to give up," he was quoted as saying.

He was placed in jail and a charge of assault with intent to murder was filed. Bond was set at $1,000 by Justice Brashear.

Mr. Brookes, who is about 60 years of age, is a former carpenter and contractor and more recently operated a small store on Lamar street. Jenkins, who is single, formerly lived here. He makes his home with his mother, Mrs. Rhoda Jenkins, in the Champion community.

Plans for a four county Commercial Beef Cattle Show will be perfected at a meeting of county agents, chamber of commerce secretarys and vocational agriculture teachers at Sweetwater Thursday, June 22nd. Mitchell, Nolan, Fisher and Jones counties are to be included in the district.

The show will be held late in May or early in June of next year and entries will be open to commercial fed cattle only. No nurse cows will be allowed. By having the show after all other shows are over it is thought that a better market will be obtained as there is usually a scarcity of fat cattle at this period of the year.

Each of the four counties is planning to have a county show a day or two before the district show. Most of the boys are planning to feed calves produced in their home county and thereby advertise the local cattle for commercial feeding.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SIGNS HOME MORTGAGE ACT

LOCAL PROPERTY OWNERS HAD MAINTAINED CONCERN AS THE MEASURE PENDED

Creditors Urged Abstain in Proceedings Against The Small Home Owner

A considerable number of Mitchell county home owners are expressing elation in news from the National Capitol that President Roosevelt Tuesday signed the $2,000,000,000 home mortgage aid bill, at the same time issuing appeal to mortgage creditors to abstain from foreclosure proceedings against small home owners.

Several of these local property owners have watched with growing interest for news from Washington, dealing with the president's attitude on the act, since its passage a few days ago by the congress.

"I appeal to mortgage creditors and all others who have claims against home owners and ask them, until full opportunity has been given to make effective the refinancing provisions of the home mortgage act that they abstain from bringing foreclosure proceedings," the president said.

He also urged that such creditors abstain from seeking to dispossess the home owners who are in debt to them.

The measure, part of the president's emergency legislative program, is designed to give financial relief to mortgage-burdened home owners of the nation.

Established a home mortgage corporation with $200,000,000 capital provided by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The home loan administration is empowered to issue $2,000,000,000 in bonds which would be exchanged for home mortgages.

Owners of homes valued up to $20,000 would be aided under the plan. They could exchange up to 80 per cent of their mortgages for the bonds which would not exceed 5 per cent interest rate and be of long term type.

The act also provides for scaling down of mortgages for the benefit of home owners who built in pre-depression times.

It also provides for direct loans for tax payments, real estate assessments and repairs, as a means of financial assistance to home owners.

FRATERNALISTS, BUSINESS MEN FIGHT FOR LEAD AS FIRST HALF SERIES ENDS

Masons' And Fire Boys Play Ten-Inning Tie Tuesday; Monday Tilt Called

With game Tuesday between the Fire Boys and Masons first half of the city league series was concluded. The Masons, with two tie games chalked against them during the season are faced with the necessity of winning one of these in order to claim pennant for the half. In event the fraternal club loses both the tie contests and the Business Men take victory in their tilt with Col-Tex, rained out Monday; the two teams will be tied for first.

The first season half came to a close amid considerable enthusiasm. The Masons and Fire Boys were playing some excellent baseball with errors and other bad features usually injected into the melee reduced to the minimum. At the end of seventh inning the two teams were deadlocked. Play continued through the tenth, when Col. Adams called the game. The score was 6-6.

The Masons had easy sledding in game with Col-Tex Thursday afternoon, taking the lead in a one-sided scoring record of 12-5. The Business Men Friday afternoon took victory over the fire department 9-3. Game between Col-Tex and the Fire Boys Monday afternoon was called in second inning due to rain.

Sight Saved After Bullet Sliver Hits Small Child In Eye

SWEETWATER.—Struck in the eye by a sliver of a bullet while her father was shooting rats, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee sustained a serious injury Friday afternoon but will probably not lose vision in the injured eye.

The attending physician said Thursday that the eye would probably be saved and that the vision likely would not be impaired. The accident occurred Friday when Mr. Lee was firing at rats with a .22 calibre rifle. A part of a bullet glanced, striking the child. The eyeball was badly cut.

Mr. Lee is a dairyman, living a short distance west of Sweetwater.

'THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT' PORTRAYED BY SMALL AND TINY EGGS

"We have often heard of the 'long and the short of it,'" and here is a demonstration of that theory, if such a proposition be a theory," remarked D. L. Buchanan as he came into The Record office Monday afternoon with two hen eggs. One of the eggs weights over five ounces and the other less than one ounce.

Buchanan explained that he had a flock of Rhode Island hens at his place in Colorado. One of the hens, no doubt influenced by President Roosevelt's plan for return of better days, is doing her share by producing over-sized eggs. Another, for some unexplained reason, is supplying the smaller ones.

CHEVROLET CONTINUES TO LEAD ALL OTHER CARS IN NUMBER OF TITLES LISTED

Both Automobiles and Trucks Sweep Ahead During First Quarter This Year

Registrations of new Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks in the first quarter this year accounted for 37.2 per cent of the total of the industry and exceeded the combined registrations of the next three leading makes, according to a statement released today by the Chevrolet Motor Company.

In the three months Chevrolet titled 96,621 new units as compared with 47,509 new cars and trucks for the second-place make, 29,823 for the third, and 14,354 for the four-place holder, another General Motors car in a higher price range than the first three, the statement read.

Of Chevrolet's total registrations for the first quarter, 14,278 were truck units representing 45.5 per cent of all trucks registered by the industry in the period. The total compares with 7,956 trucks titled by the second leading manufacturer, it was claimed.

Every one of the first three months shows a surprisingly uniform number of Chevrolet registrations, the banking situation in late February and March neutralizing the normal seasonal upturn at that time. In January, Chevrolet registered 34,809 units, in the shorter month of February 30,411, and in March with its banking troubles, 31,371.

In the first quarter the industry registered 259,376 new units in the domestic market. Chevrolet's percentage of 37.2 of the total compares with 35.7 in the same period last year, the statement observed.

Four H Club members and Vocational Agriculture students may borrow money from the Regional Agricultural Corporation of San Angelo to purchase lambs and calves to feed according to a letter received by the county farm agent from J. C. Deal, manager of the San Angelo Board of City Development.

Mr. Deal's letter is as follows: "I have just had a conference with the officials of the Regional Agricultural Corporation here in San Angelo and I am authorized to inform you that the Corporation will loan you 4-H club boys or vocational student that you recommend, the full amount of money for the purchase of a calf or lamb to fatten for the stock show. The loan to be paid when the animal is sold. The loan will be made for the purchase price only. Feed must be furnished by the boy."

"It appears to me that this is an opportunity to get more of your boys interested in feeding. I will be glad to assist you in any way that I can in getting the application through."

Chevrolet Dealers Report Substantial Increase In Deliveries For This Year

Chevrolet dealers reported the sale at retail of 65,761 new cars and trucks in May for the largest single month's retail deliveries since June, 1931, W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager, announced today.

In May, 1932, the figure was 48,210 units, a gain of 36 per cent, and in April this year 53,956 units, Mr. Knudsen said.

Retail sales reported in 1933 for the five months ended May 31 totaled 226,388 new cars and trucks as compared with 209,792 in the like 1932 period, he stated.

Each one of the three ten-day periods in May showed a constantly growing margin of gain over comparable periods of a year ago. Figures as announced by Mr. Knudsen were 47,000 for the first ten days of May this year, as against 13,800 last year, a gain of 22 per cent; 21,800 in the second ten days as against 16,200 last year, a gain of 34 per cent; and 26,800 in the last ten days as against 18,100 last year, a gain of 48 per cent.

Despite the sharp upsurge of new car sales, used stocks in dealers' hands remained unchanged during the month, while new car stocks in the field dropped several hundred units due to retail sales running ahead of factory projections, Mr. Knudsen said. Manufacturing schedules had to be increased frequently during the month to meet expanding dealer commitments.

Glories Of Virginia Will Be Detailed By Noted Radio Artist

On Wednesday night, June 14, American radio audiences may tune in on the second Continental Oil Company broadcast of the season to be dedicated to the nation's most historical state—Virginia.

The numberless bits of history and scenic descriptions included in the program will be combined into one colorful story and presented by Carveth Wells, well known explorer. Wells himself claims that he is almost a Virginia because his father was a resident of Bermuda. Virginia, Wells adds, is just as famous outside of the United States as it is within the States.

The Conoco program may be heard by local listeners who tune in on station WFAA, Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock.

117 West Texans Aboard Special Train Enroute Century Of Progress Exposition

The special train leaving Sunday morning for Chicago, carrying Mrs. Pearl Shannon and Mr. and Mrs. W. Dorn of Colorado, and Miss Margaret Towle of Snyder, had 117 West Texans aboard, according to an article published in the Abilene Morning News for Tuesday under St. Louis date line. The article follows:—

A full section of the special train from Texas neared Chicago and the World's Fair today with 117 West Texans aboard.

And what a cheerful happy crowd it was. Twenty-four hours of speeding railway travel had increased rather than diminished the enthusiasm. Perhaps it was the thought of the four days that lie ahead of them. Or perhaps it was the agreeable surprise that G. B. Sandefer, promoter of the section, had kept them throughout the Sunday morning jaunt from Abilene.

The surprise consisted of standard Pullman cars instead of the tourist sleepers that had been promised them. Tourist sleepers are the type always provided on low excursion rates such as those offered West Texans on this section. However, the Texas & Pacific railway found that it could not supply the demand for tourist sleepers on this section and, in order to fulfill its contract, was forced to provide standard Pullmans. In addition to the West Texans, 75 people boarded the train at Fort Worth and 253 at Dallas.

The West Texans are due at Chicago at 3:20 this afternoon. They will spend four days and nights at the World's Fair, beginning the return trip to Texas at noon Friday. The section will be a part of the Sunshine Special which reaches Abilene at 6:20 Saturday evening.

Seven persons made last minute ticket purchases Sunday morning just before the train left Abilene. They were: Miss Dorothy Cummings, Miss Mollie B. Bagley, Miss Rosemary Johnson, Midland; E. F. Vandustucken, San Angelo; Mrs. Hamlett, Baird; Mr. Townsend, Ranger.

Midland is distinctly the most World's Fair-minded community in West Texas. Nineteen persons from Midland are on board the train. They are: Tommy Wilson, John Turner, Jack Carroll, Graham Brown, C. A. Goldsmith, B. C. Driver, Mrs. Paul Vickers, Mrs. Bill Dorsey, Mrs. Doris Harrison, Miss Margaret Francis, Walter Faye Cowden, Miss Dorothy Cummings, Mrs. Jerry Edwards, Miss Lotta Williams, Mrs. Raynie Carroll, Miss Rosemary Johnson, Miss Mollie B. Bagley, Miss Hazel Saye, Miss Billie Denton.

Keeping Apace With Women's Club Work In Mitchell County

Tuesday at the regular meeting of the Latta Home Demonstration Club at Mrs. J. M. Munn's a delegate and alternate were elected to go to A. & M. College July 24-29 to the Short Course and bring back information and inspiration to the people of Mitchell County. Mrs. T. L. McKinney was elected delegate and Mrs. W. L. Hall as alternate. The ways and means committee composed of Mrs. Munn and Mrs. S. C. Edwards are to plan for ways of financing the trip. After the regular business meeting, a canning review and demonstration was given to reestablish the importance of proper sterilization of canned products, by the County Home Demonstration Agent. Most of the people living at the Magnolia Camp have producing gardens and will have a small surplus to can. They are fortunate in being able to have water for irrigation purposes.

Wednesday at the farm home of Mrs. B. H. Henson, at regular meeting of Plainview Home Demonstration Club, Mrs. Henson, the hostess and president of the club was elected delegate to attend the A. & M. Short Course July 24-29 and Mrs. J. C. Sheppard was elected as alternate. Mrs. J. C. Sheppard and Mrs. W. M. Vest were appointed as ways and means committee to plan how the club could make money to finance the trip. The women were given a canning review and demonstration using the water bath and the pressure cooker methods. Three visitors were present, besides the 8 club members.

Thursday morning at the home of Wilma Jean Berry in Westbrook the club girls met for their demonstration in canning. Two girls were appointed to work on a team demonstration with their sponsor, Mrs. W. E. Rucker for the Girls Rally Day program to be held in July. The girls adjourned to meet the next time with Mrs. Rucker.

In the afternoon the Conaway girls club met at the home of Oleta Dockery for their regular canning demonstration. 10 girls were present with their sponsor, Mrs. Dockery and Mrs. H. V. Sorrells as a visitor. They voted to meet for their next meeting with the club president, Lucille Moore.

Friday, the Landers Girls club held its meeting at the home of Ruby Fay Adrian with all but one of the club girls present. The girls were present for their food preservation demonstration which is the foundation for work to be done later. The girls appointed Miss Adrian, a former club girl as their sponsor. Instead of having a club meeting the second meeting of the month the agent will visit each girl in her home and help with their clothing storage. Ruby Fay is working on a braided gunny sack rug for her bedroom improvement work at present.

Lella June Harrell is moulding some concrete tile for sub-irrigation for Fall gardening and late Summer plantings. She hopes to lay some for watering strawberries too. Lella June is a food preservation demonstrator in cooperation with her mother. They have already canned some spinach, English peas, dewberries and plums. To make their canned products more accessible and more easily secured, Mr. Harrell tore down an old quilt closet and rebuilt shelves for the 4-H pantry for Mrs. Harrell and Lella June in their canning program. On Achievement Day this pantry will be on display and the club girls will have open house at Mrs. Harrells.

Tuesday morning Modelle Lee of the Bauman girls club had a meeting at her home at which time the girls had a canning demonstration given by the Home Demonstration

JUDGE KING WARNED TO BE ON THE ALERT; HOG MIGHT ATTACK HIM TOO

Experience of an Archer City constable Monday night, who was attacked by an infuriated sow, might be taken as warning to County Judge A. F. King. The county judge has about one hundred hogs on one of his Mitchell county farms and frequently visits the place, mingling among the porkers. Better look out, Judge; an enraged sow might get you down as was plight of the constable in question.

Experience of the Archer City man is detailed in news article originating there Tuesday morning, as follows:—

A "prowler" that had attracted Constable Tom Rowlett got the best of the investigation, the officer admitted today as he recovered at his home here.

With a mighty grunt the prowler dashed from a clump of bushes on which Rowlett threw his light.

Too late Rowlett realized he had invaded the sanctuary of a mother sow and her new born litter.

He stumbled and fell in his effort to escape. The enraged animal pounced upon him, broke the officer's arm and left severe gashes with her tusks.

Conaway News

The Conaway 4-H club girls met with the adult sponsor, Mrs. Rose Dockrey, June 8th at 2 p. m. The meeting was called to order by Lucille Moore, president of the club and the roll was called and minutes read by the secretary, Alice Mae Sorrells.

Miss Gunter talked to us for a while on canning and the girls were taken into the kitchen and she demonstrated by canning a pint jar of apricots in the water bath and a No. 2 can of string beans in the steam cooker. After this Mrs. Dockrey called the girls into the dining room and served cake and fruit punch.

The next meeting will be at Lucille Moore's. We are to plan our Rally Day which will be sometime in July.

Agents The agent will visit the girls at the next regular meeting date and help the girls on clothes closets and storage in their bedrooms.

A Texas farmer was chopping wood one morning. The ax glanced off a hickory log and deeply gashed his foot.

His wife telephoned the doctor—"Come as fast as you can!"

Later, the doctor said: "Those brief directions by telephone saved that man's life. Even then, he was very weak when I arrived."

Uncle Sam Reports Crop Progress As Unfavorable Now

Conditions during the first three weeks of May were generally unfavorable, due to dry weather which held planting at a standing in many areas and retarded growth of standing crops, according to the June 1 crop report for Texas, issued by the state and federal departments of agriculture.

The last week of May, however, brought much needed rain to practically all sections of the state. However, that portion of the High Plains bordering on Oklahoma and New Mexico; portions of the South Plains area; the western third of the Edward's Plateau; and the eastern portion of the trans Pecos country are still very dry except in spots. East of the 100th meridian soil moisture supplies were abundant on May 1. West of this meridian soil moisture supplies ranged from ample to deficient.

The condition of livestock and ranges improved somewhat during May, but in many counties of the dry areas cattle were losing flesh prior to the rains, supplemental feeding was depleted. In portions of the North Plains practically no range feed was available due to drought and dust storms and cattle were being moved to other areas. Recent rains were very beneficial to ranges and to feed crops.

The condition of winter wheat on June 1 is reported at 39 per cent of normal compared with 59 per cent a year ago, and 64.3 per cent the 10-year average (1921-1930). A condition of 39 on June 1 indicates an average yield of 7.5 bushels per acre which applied to the 2,108,000 acre remaining for harvest indicates a production of 15,810,000 bushels which compares with last years production of 29,580,000 bushels and the 5-year average production (1926-30) of 32,559,000 bushels. The first three weeks of the month of May were unfavorable to the wheat crop, but rains during the last week of May were beneficial. In extreme northern counties of the High Plains area bordering on Oklahoma and New Mexico, the crop is a near failure due to dry, cold weather during the winter and almost continuous dust storms during the spring. Yields over the entire state are low.

The condition of oats on June 1 was 49 per cent of normal compared with 55 a month ago, 64 a year ago, and 69.4 the 10-year average (1921-1930) on June 1. Dry weather during May was unfavorable but rains the latter part of the month were beneficial to the late crop; however, the rains came too late to cause very much improvement. Cold dry winter weather killed a large proportion of the winter oats and spring oats were damaged by cool, dry weather. The crop is in poor condition throughout the entire state with best prospects in the northern portion of the Blacklands Prairies.

A New Deal For Liver Sufferers

Don't be misled any longer. Calomel, salts, oils, mineral waters, laxative pills, herb teas, powders, etc., have no effect whatever on the liver. There are only two generally recognized substances which actually cause a sluggish liver to increase its production of bile. Sargon Soft Mass Pills contain both of them. You can't feel well and strong unless your liver furnishes plenty of fresh bile every day. Without bile food doesn't digest properly—it just ferments and decays—Constipation, gas, sour stomach, headaches and nervousness follow. Unless you have tried Sargon Soft Mass Pills you can have no idea of their effect—You feel stronger, healthier, happier—life and color return to faded eyes and cheeks—appetite and digestion improve rapidly. Only one for a full 30-day treatment. At your druggist, or write G. E. WILCOX, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia—43431.

MAINTAINING HIS RECORD

George H. Mahon, attorney for the 32nd judicial district, continues to maintain his commendable record as among the most able and resourceful attorneys of West Texas. Such has been vividly impressed upon numerous occasions of the past. Such was again impressed during progress of the Miller murder trial, heard here Monday and Tuesday.

Commenting on information that Mr. Mahon planned entering his candidacy for congress from the recently created 19th Texas district, the Sweetwater Daily Reporter recently portrayed him as the type of lawyer to be reckoned as among an outstanding member of the Texas bar, especially for one of his age. "His address to jury trying the Parks murder case in Sweetwater a few weeks ago will be remembered as one of the classics heard before benches of the district court in this city," the newspaper stated.

Such may rightfully be said of Mr. Mahon's address in 32nd district court here, Tuesday afternoon, as he brought to conclusion factors entering into the murder trial already mentioned. Eloquent, yet modest; forceful, yet unassuming; sincere, yet undaunted in meeting the issues involved, are characteristics of this native Mitchell county youth.

The Record appreciates George Mahon. Through sheer determination of will power and cultivation of a character against which none may rightfully barter, this former farm boy of near Lorraine is progressing along the road that leads toward the higher and more refined places in life.

He is as clean as a hound's tooth. We are advancing the prediction that Mr. Mahon will go to Washington as congressman from this district. He possesses those requisites entering into the making of the type of statesmen needed during these times of unrest and uncertainty.

URGING A TIMELY PROJECT

In reviving petition to the State highway commission that Highway No. 101, extending from Snyder south through Colorado, be paved, the chamber of commerce is setting itself toward an objective in which the people of this immediate section of Texas will join unanimously to approve. The communities directly affected sorely need this thoroughfare and its benefit to the motoring public termed tourists will be felt immeasurably, bulging the already favorable trade volume now realized by commercial interests here and at other points on the route.

Conference of chamber officials, representing Snyder, Colorado and Sterling City is slated for Colorado within the next few days, when it is hoped steps toward pushing the project are to be taken.

TRUTH

Thinkers everywhere must and do realize that telling the Truth, living the Truth, demanding it of others, is the best guarantee of a serene, worth-while life. How amazing it is we do not always act upon what we know to be best.

Business, society, science, life itself, depend for their wholesome effect upon the attitude of the individual toward the knowledge and practice of the Truth. There is not and could not be, any other basis upon which we could build, whether it be a house, a life or a character. Everyone's House of Hope must be built upon the Rock of Truth.

The universe itself is so founded. It is unthinkable that God could or would recognize anything that is based upon any other foundation as of an enduring nature. Truth never enslaves. Only error fetters its victims and buries its fangs in their flesh.

Cowper says, "He is a freeman whom the Truth makes free, and all are slaves besides." Fewer sorrows and sufferings come to those who are engaged in deeds of love than upon those engaged in enterprises that are intended for the enrichment of no one but themselves.

SERVING THE WRONG KING

The words at the beginning of this article, which were put into the mouth of Cardinal Wolsey by Shakespeare, about expresses the feelings of most of us as we approach the end of Mundane things. It would only be necessary to substitute some other word for the word "King" to tell the story of each of us.

At any rate there is some one thing to which we give entirely too much of the time we should be devoting to the cause of God and humanity. Time, talent, and effort, opportunity or instrumentality given to anything that is not constructive is worse than wasted. Aggressive effort in any destructive enterprise is worse than listless idleness, which in itself is bad enough in all conscience.

Cardinal Wolsey realized as most men do, after it is too late, that the King, he should have been eager and faithful in serving was not a man such as himself, but the King of Kings. Such service has an eternal recompense.

He who follows after a lie must receive the reward a lie offers, disappointment, sorrow, suffering, woe. This admonition was well given. "Be obedient to the Truth which you see and know, live that Truth, and you will be, so far as that Truth is concerned, authority to all who come within the sphere of your influence. Without wordy wisdom or excellency of speech, you will preach more impressively than sermon or book. Living the truth means living in accord with its teachings—true to our best impulses, true to Divine commands, true to humanity and true to God. The Sweet Singer of Israel said, "Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the Truth." Living in obedience to that law is, of course, living the Truth, living the true life, and only in the true life can happiness be found.

"Small service is true service While it lasts, Of humblest friends, bright creature scorn at one, The daisy by the shadow which it casts, Protects the lingering dewdrop from the sun.

Visiting in a nearby city not long since we went down to what they called "The Church of God." In speaking to the man who was to speak he said this is interdenominational and you may call me a Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, and I am not trying to get men into heaven, I am trying to get Heaven into men, or am I trying to keep men out of hell but to keep hell out of men. I decided to stay and hear him and here is what he said on this subject.

CHRIST ENCOURAGED ETERNAL INVESTMENT

"It was to encourage his followers, such as you and me, in the investment of their money as well as their other resources in the advancement of his Kingdom in the world that Christ uttered these immortal words.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not break through nor steal; for where thy treasure is there will thy heart be also.

If we get to heaven it will be through our personal faith in the atoning blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, but our happiness there will not depend alone upon the fact that we have escaped hell, but upon the extent of the reward we find awaiting us above. The measure of our reward, the Bible teaches us, will be determined here on earth by the faithfulness with which we help external Gods Kingdom in the world. If we are faithful here in the stewardship of all our resources, time, talent, personality, affections, opportunities, money, then when life is ended and we go out to meet the Master face to face we will find him awaiting us with this glad welcome, "Well done thou good and faithful servant etc."

BUILDING MANSIONS IN THE SKIES

Frank E Burkhalter, Bible teacher in Baylor University tells this story.

"A Japanese student stood before my congregation. For thirty minutes he had been giving a striking testimony to the power of the gospel in his own life. A small copy of the New Testament was clasped in his hand. A missionary had given it to him some years before. He guessed it had cost about twenty five cents. He wished he might know what American had contributed the twenty five cents that had bought the New Testament that had been given to him by the Missionary, that had led him to Jesus. But listen to his own words.

"When I get to heaven I shall want to see my Savior first of all, and fall prostrate at his feet in adoration and thanksgiving. And then I shall want to find the Missionary who labored so faithfully in our district, and thank him as I have not heretofore. Then I shall go back to Jesus and beg that he tell me what American it was who gave the twenty five cents that bought the New Testament that led me to salvation. And I shall want to thank the unknown friend with all my heart for making it possible for me to be a Christian."

TROUBLE

Well did the writer of old say, "Man born of women is as prone to trouble as the sparks fly upward." If you doubt this statement of the Biblical writer, a short tour of investigation will convince you, as such a tour did me.

Dan Beeman said, "We farmers don't know anything about the farm relief bill and the trouble is we don't know what we want but one thing sure we don't want what we have."

Mrs. Reagan the saleslady in the ready-to-wear department at The Model Shop was in deep trouble. After much effort she had succeeded in selling a lady patron a lovely dress. After the store had spent a dollar on alterations for the same and after keeping the dress several days, and as she believed wearing it two or three times, the lady brought it back.

Tom Russell the hardware man was in grief and was slinging gems of unprintable words into the ozone. He had ordered an expensive part for some machinery and the man who gave the order had left the country between suns without leaving any address.

Alvin Myhre at Hutchinsons Furniture Store was gruff and touchy. He had sold a fine bill of furniture on the installment plan and the purchaser had moved to parts unknown taking the furniture with him.

The young lady teacher was in tears and her voice was choked. She had been unmercifully balled out by an irate mother for not passing little Willie who had never learned a lesson.

Joe Smoot, the banker, was throwing a fit. One of the clerks had

Large advertisement for Henry Ford cars, featuring the text: 'Henry Ford Dearborn, Mich. June 5, 1933 LOW PRICE CARS VS. CHEAP CARS We do not build a low-price car: the cost to us of building our car is pretty high. But we do sell a high quality car at a low price. Almost every new Ford V-8 car we have built so far this year, has cost more to manufacture than its selling price was. As you buy them at only $490 to $610, we have to depend on increasing volume to make up the difference. The reason for this is simple: — a manufacturer who gives good value must expect to lose money on the first cars he sells because he cannot charge all his costs to the people who are first to buy. But with the purchaser it is different — he cannot afford to lose anything on a car. It must give him full value from the first, and keep on giving him full value for years. Two things make possible our combination of low prices and high cost quality: 1. Volume Production 2. Taking only one profit First, we set our price at what would be fair to the public on the basis of economies we enjoy in volume production. Then, in order to justify and maintain our low price we must get volume sales. Thus it comes that a car which is really high-cost to make, is also low-cost to buy. There is a difference between a cheap car and a low-priced high quality car. Ford prices are always fixed at a point which makes it profitable for a customer to buy. Good and lasting business must produce profit to the buyer as well as to the seller. And of the two, the buyer's profit must be, comparatively, the larger one. It pays you to sell the Ford V-8 because it pays you to buy it. Henry Ford'.
