FORMAL OPENING OF NEW PARK SWIMMING POOL IS SET FOR FRIDAY EVENING

Coronation of Queen, Band Concert, Bathing Revue Among Attractions

Formal opening of new swimming pool in Ruddick Park is set for Friday evening amid a picturesque and impressive setting. High lights in the dedication rites will be the coronation of Miss Betty Lou Whipkey as Water Queen, band concert and bathing revue. The festivities are to open at 7:45 o'clock.

Opening the evening's program will be given over to Roy Hester and his high school band who are to render a specially arranged concert beginning at 7:45. At 8 Judge C. C. Thompson, president of the chamber of commerce, is to officially declare Miss Whipkey queen of the water carnival and place upon her head the reigning crown. The queen will then wield her scepter and declare the pool formally opened.

Every girl and young woman entered in recent revue featuring contest to elect the water queen are to be special attendants to her majesty during the impressive rites. This presentation of pulchritude will, the directing committee believes, add much to galaxy of the affair.

Friday morning at 10 o'clock the queen and members of her court were to have been members of a special pre-opening swimming party sponsored by Miss Nell Harper Greene. Every member of the royal company is expected to be present.

The general public of Colorado and Mitchell county have right to pride in this most recent contribution to the county's already well appointed recreation grounds, Jim Greene, secretary of the chamber of commerce, pointed out Thursday morning. The property is open to every one alike and all are cordially invited to attend program given Friday evening, Greene said.

Abilene Bride-Elect Honored At Social Affair Given At Country Club Building

Tuesday evening at the country club Mrs. Harry Ragan very beautifully entertained for her niece Miss Marshalene Stowe of Abilene who is to be married June 27.

The club rooms were artistically decorated in pastel shades favored by the bride. Streamers of crepe paper covered the French doors on the north and a profusion of varicolored flowers were used. The tables arranged for bridge had pastel covers.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Ragan and presented to her sister Mrs. J. E. Stowe and the honoree Miss Stowe. Mrs. Ragan was assisted in entertaining by old time friends of Miss Stowe's who went to school with her when she lived in Colorado. They were Miss Katie Buchanan, Miss Nell Harper Greene, Misses Loyce and Katherine Price. Guests from Abilene were Mrs. Carl Gaine, Mrs. Gorham Streater, Misses Mary E. Bacon, Irene Osborne and Miss Sarah Claude Lyon of Alto.

The house party and the guests as well were all in summery evening frocks in pastel shades blending beautifully with the decorations.

In the bridge game high score was made by Miss Price who was given a vase. Low was made by Mrs. Harry Ratliff who was given a range set. Miss Stowe was given a silver sandwich tray and the other prizes were also presented to her by those winning them.

Ices in pastel shades were served with cake.

"The Infernal Machine" coming to the Palace Theatre on Thursday and Friday is of a story whose plot is based on the rather time honored theme of the reactions of a group of eminently respectable citizens of diversified pursuits of life, to an impending disaster, "the infernal machine." It has its moments of suspense and general activity; it contains very convincing melodrama, and it deals with the reaction of the audience as well as with action in the picture itself. A good story, a sound plot, a splendid cast, superb settings and photography, and direction that is perfection itself.

An exciting page in the history of Arizona, the plundering of a vast cattle herd belonging to a wealthy British rancher, is the historical basis around which Zane Grey wove the romance of "Robber's Roost," the Fox Film's feature attraction at the Palace Theatre Saturday with George O'Brien, Maureen O'Sullivan, Reginald Owen, William Pawley, and Maude Eburne in the unusually good cast and the expert direction of Louis King. "Robber's Roost" ranks as one of the best western pictures of recent years. If you want straight shooting, gallant action, hard fighting, and thrilling romance, see Zane Grey's "Robber's Roost."

The incomparable glorious Gloria Swanson once more graces the Palace Theatre Screen. After several years' absence from the screen Gloria makes a surprising and enjoyable comeback in "Perfect Understanding." This picture shows at the Palace Sunday and Monday. The picture is thoroughly a Gloria Swanson picture, written for Gloria and done by Gloria as only Gloria could do it. With a well selected cast, expert direction and careful settings the picture is all and more than you will expect. A story with a background, a marvelous actress with a good supporting cast, a new addition to the film menu, makes an enjoyable evening for you at the Palace Theatre.

The indefatigable Lee Tracy, he of the crackling dialogue, forces through another sparkling performance, at the Palace Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday. Lee Tracy as Private Jones of the United States Expeditionary forces, a soldier by draft and compulsion, rather than from choice. A lad who cares little for regulation, and less for fighting unless it be fist fighting resulting from unending quarrelling with any one available. Who gives over impression of a yellow streak, but comes through at the crucial moment. Tracy rises to heights of greatness never before approached in his scuffling, hard-boiled, devil-may-care manner. He'll thrill you, anger you, amuse you; you will know him for what he is. See Lee Tracy in his latest picture, "Private Jones." Gloria Stuart and Frank McHugh are his chief supporters in this picture.

"Broadway Bad" coming to the Palace Theatre, Thursday and Friday, June 29 and 30, is a picture centering around the exciting lives of the notorious gold-diggers. Ricardo Cortez, Joan Blondell, Ginger Rogers, and numerous other-screener stars of fame are included in the cast of this picture. With the age old eternal triangle as a base for the plot, and with the picturesque and exciting life on Broadway to give the picture sparkle, it offers a good by amount of entertainment.

EDUCATIONAL BOARD SETS PER CAPITA RATE FIXING AHEAD UNTIL NEXT MONTH

Apportionment Be Allotted Schools Of Texas Pends Ruling By Allred

Mitchell county school boards and faculty members Saturday were informed that another month would pass before definite announcement as to amount of State per capita apportionment would be made. This news came out of Lubbock where meeting of the State Board of Education was in executive session. Reason for setting this important matter ahead another month was explained in legal phase injected into the public school system's status by a $4,500,000 deficit inherited from last year. Pending ruling on that deficit by the Attorney General no fixed apportionment for another year is to be in order, the board announced. Telegrams from numerous school officials of Texas were received by the board insisting that the apportionment be as high as possible.

Among other matters deferred until the next meeting was a request by Paul Haynes, director of vocational agricultural training in Texas, that a supervisor and a teacher trainer for that department be added at the Texas Technological College and the Texas A. & M. College.

A total of $152,000 worth of school bonds from the following school districts were purchased Saturday, Ysleta, El Paso County; Judson, Gregg County; Ward County, East Mountain, Upshur County, Lawn, Smithville, Sabinal, Meadow, Liberty, Lubbock County and Electric.

The board appointed W. A. Morrison a member of the committee on textbook revision and Superintendent Godke of Brownsville a member of the textbook advisory committee.

blood. A week or more is required by the mosquito to complete the cycle from egg to adult, and another week passes before the female begins her weekly stunt of 200 eggs. Each species of mosquito has preferences as to the type of pool or receptacle it lays its eggs in, but all quiet bits of water should be viewed with suspicion by those bent on mosquito control. One all-important fact is true of all kinds of mosquitoes. They must come to the surface to breathe, both in the larval and pupal stages. On this fact is based our chief method of controlling mosquitoes. We try to clog up their pores when they rise to breathe by having a film of oil awaiting them on the surface of the water.

Aedes or yellow fever and dengue mosquitoes breed only in clear water, in artificial containers, such as rain barrels, watering troughs, cans, neglected water pitchers, wells, etc. This mosquito rarely buzzes around a person's head, but makes sly attacks on the ankles or elbows in the daytime, or in well-lighted rooms.

The common culex mosquito leaves its hiding place at dusk and bites during the night. It is this mosquito that makes such an irritating hum. Two or three of them in a bedroom will give the impression that the room is swarming with mosquitoes. While the Culex will breed in the same places as the Aedes mosquito, it also likes foul water in pools and artificial containers.

Anopheles or malaria mosquito breeds only in pools of clean water, and prefers those with grassy edges. The species is shy, bites only at night, makes a very low hum, and will not approach a moving person.

The first thing that should be done around the house in the fight against mosquitoes is to screen all containers that must have water left in them, and to empty all others frequently. Mosquitoes breed in places least suspected, and do it in a surprisingly short time. It is not uncommon, for instance, for them to breed in a flower vase. In screening windows, doors or other openings, use no screen having fewer than sixteen wires to the inch. If there are fewer some mosquitoes will squeeze through.

The next step in the fight against mosquitoes is to drain all small ponds near the house, and to oil all large ponds and sluggish streams near by that are not subject to draining. Or one may stock them with gambusia (top-water) minnows or other small fish. These minnows may be caught in almost any stream.

One ounce of kerosene to every fifteen square feet of still water is effective against wigglers, and the oil will remain effective ten days. On small, slow-moving streams it is well to suspend above the water a number of cans filled with oil, each having a hole driven in the bottom with a nail, and the nail inserted into a small piece of sponge as far as the head and dropped back into the hole. This will result in a continuous drip.

In spite of our best efforts at prevention and exclusion, many mosquitoes will hatch near us and some of them will get into the house. They slip in when doors are left ajar, or they get in through holes in screens. Where they are few in number, they usually will be found on the ceiling. To kill them, shallow cups may be fastened on broomsticks, partly filled with water and oil, and pressed up under the insects. In their fright, they will fly into the oil. At dusk, mosquitoes can be found on window screens. To kill them, press them against the wire with a newspaper.

If there are no screens, and if mosquitoes have gained access to the room, it is possible to protect yourself against them while you sleep by smearing your face and hands with something that is offensive to them. Oil of pennyroyal and spirits of camphor are effective in repelling mosquitoes, as are several commercial preparations. Any of them must be applied twice during the night. The burning of sulphur in a room will free it of mosquitoes, and other life as well, if fumigation is desired after a case of infectious disease. Creosote sprays are more or less effective in keeping mosquitoes away from barns and open houses. Toilet soap, ammonia, alcohol, indigo, naphthalene, moth balls and iodine are recommended for allaying the itching caused by mosquito bites. But there is little that anything can do because the punctures are so small and close at once. Anybody who has ever had yellow or dengue fever, or malaria, and who is convinced it was caused by mosquitoes, will concede that they are much more than pests.

The Mosquito Is Dangerous Pest To The Community Health; Combat Him Openly

By Henry Field Many persons regard mosquitoes as nuisances, but nothing more. But mosquitoes also carry disease, the type depending on the species of mosquito. It is true that the common Culex mosquito is not a carrier of disease, as far as known, but even at that, who wants to be a mosquito picnic ground.

Graver charges must be brought against the Aedes and Anopheles mosquitoes. The former is definitely known to carry yellow and dengue fever, and the latter to carry malaria. Until physicians learned how to control yellow fever, it was one of the scourges of the human race. And to this day tens of thousands of persons are walking about half-sick and listless because they are victims of malaria.

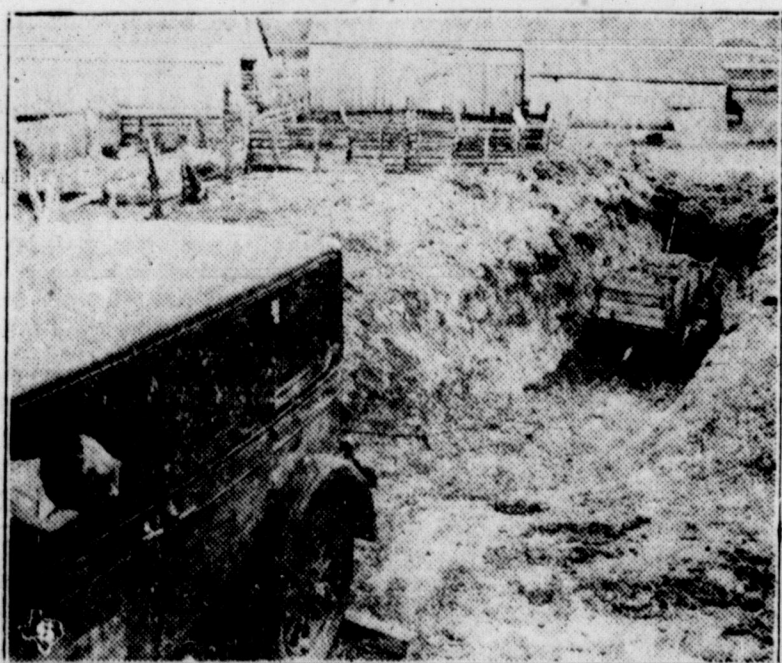

A little knowledge concerning the life history of mosquitoes is helpful in combating them. The female mosquito lays about 200 eggs at a time on the surface of the water. In about two days the eggs hatch into wigglers. The wigglers move erratically about in the water, eating and growing six to ten days, depending on the species and the temperature of the water.

While in the wiggle stage the mosquito is an air breather. The wiggler comes to the surface frequently to take a breath, accomplishing this by holding up its breathing tube. When the larva has reached its maximum stage it changes into a pupa. This is the resting stage, in which it takes no food. The pupa also is an air breather and breathes through two small tubes that project like horns from the top of its head.

Before two days have passed, the skin of the pupa splits and a full-grown mosquito emerges. It floats on the surface of the water long enough to dry its wings and then flies off after its first meal of human

DORN HOLDS ACKERLY TO ONE HIT IN TRI-COUNTY LEAGUE TILT WEDNESDAY

Col-Tex Outgenerals Foes In Every Department of Sensational Game

Lee Dorn, husky Col-Texer, held the hard hitting Ackeryly team to one single hit and no runs in a game played Wednesday afternoon at the West Side ball park. While Dorn was doing all this plain and fancy twirling his mates were piling up 7 runs with seven solid smacks, and that is the story of this all-important contest in the Tri-County League, for it tied Col-Tex and Ackeryly for first place in the league standing with 5 wins and 2 losses each.

Gressett, Col-Tex center garden-er, got hold of one for 4 bases in the early stages of the game. Ackeryly was credited with nine errors, six of them being made by the second baseman, while Col-Tex was given credit for only one error.

The Tri-County League is composed of teams from Big Spring (2), Ackeryly, Coahoma, Colorado and Forsan. Coahoma plays here Sunday afternoon, while Ackeryly is taking on the strong Big Spring Cowboys. With this combination coming up the local Oilers have better than an even chance of taking the league lead.

Desertions from the ranks cost the Mexican Tigers a game Sunday as the Col-Tex nine downed the home-ers 7-1.

Lee Dorn held the Tigers to five hits. He held them to no runs and two hits until the seventh inning when Payne stepped up to the plate to hit his second home run of the season, spoiling hopes of a shutout.

Subia allowed hits all over the lot until he was replaced in the sixth after four runs and five successive hits were taken by the visitors. "Tele" Fierro stepped in the box to hold Col-Tex well, allowing only two runs and eight hits in the four innings he pitched.

O'Neal, Coffee, Gressett and Hutchinson were the hitting stars, each with three hits out of five times at bat. Gressett and Hutchinson were the fielding stars for Col-Tex while A. Garcia was working hard for the Tigers.

West Texas Cotton Growers Confer At Abilene On Monday

ABILENE, June 19.—About 100 cotton growers of this section of the state came to Abilene today to tell C. O. Moser why District 7 has seceded from the Texas Cotton Co-operative Association, aftermath of secession being the organization of a new co-operative, the West Texas Cotton Growers Association, headquarters in Abilene.

Moser is vice-president and public relations director of the American Cotton Co-operative Association parent organization of all the cotton co-ops formed under governmental approval. He in turn came here to tell the new co-op the details of the cotton control program announced today from Washington.

District 7 of the T. C. C. A. took in 42 counties of Central West Texas. Majority of the members, 8,000 at the peak, decided to withdraw and form a more closely-knit regional organization, charter for which has been granted. Independence of the West Texas unity has been recognized by the state T. C. C. A. board.

T. E. Alvis, Roby, is president of the new association, and S. E. Clark, Abilene, secretary. District 7 is the second to secede. The Corpus Christi district led the way. Speakers at today's meeting said Bryan and Laredo districts are about to follow.

Moser, discussing the government's plan of cotton acreage reduction by destroying growing crops, said: "Off-hand, it is hard to favor abandoning any part of a growing crop, but we know a large cotton yield this year would mean low price and demoralization of the entire business structure. What we have adopted is, in a way, the lesser of two evils, and it is the unanimous decision that the wise thing to do is to abandon enough of the crop to avoid the consequence of bringing it to harvest. While it is against the law to deliberately destroy property, that has to be done sometimes. When a town is on fire, the authorities don't hesitate to dynamite buildings in order to check the fire."

More than 90,000,000 pounds of meats were canned, cured and stored in Texas in 1932 for home consumption. These meats included chicken, pork, and beef.

What Makes a Safe Tire? ... I KNOW!

ARE you willing to risk your life on advertising statements claiming blowout-proof and unblowable tires? One manufacturer gives as the reason for claiming blowout-proof tires—the use of one ply of another color—another, a patented "no breaker" construction—a mail order house, high stretch "elastic" cords, etc., etc. Actually the fundamental cause of a tire blowout is the flexing of the tire which causes friction of the fibers in the cord, resulting in heat and causing the rubber to soften and the cords to deteriorate.

There is a reason why Firestone Tires have won the 500-mile Indianapolis race for 14 consecutive years, the most gruelling tire test. The reason is the Firestone patented extra process of Gum-Dipping which saturates every fiber and insulates every cord with pure rubber—which gives strength to the cords and prevents friction and heat in the fibers. This year 42 drivers in this race equipped their cars with Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires and not a single driver had any tire trouble.

Race drivers know why Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires are safer and not subject to blowout and will not risk their lives on ordinary tires. Your life and the lives of your family are often in danger at the high road speeds of today and you should not take greater risks than the race drivers who make sure that they have the best and safest tires they can buy—Firestone. Come in today. We will give you a liberal trade-in allowance for your old tires on new Firestone High Speed Tires—the safest tires in the World.

WILSON TOGGERY ROBBED

The Clyde Wilson Toggery Shop was entered Sunday night June 18 and robbed of approximately $150 worth of general merchandise as stated by Mr. Wilson.

The intruder boldly left a worn pair of No. 8 Florsheim shoes in exchange for new ones. Entrance was made through rear window of the building, same as on another occasion three weeks ago. A worn Stetson hat, picked up in alley a few blocks west of the store was found, also was a new shirt. Mr. Wilson identified it as a shirt from his store.

CORRECTION

The names of several near relatives which attended the funeral of the late E. E. Bennett were unintentionally omitted from the account of his death in last week's paper. His only brother C. E. Bennett and wife of Granbury made several trips here during his illness. They arrived the Monday afternoon of his death and remained until Thursday. Mr. Earl Jackson, Mrs. Ernest Philipp, brother and sister of Mrs. R. E. Bennett arrived from Los Angeles, California, on June 3rd. COFFEY LEADS LEAGUE IN BATTING AVERAGES WITH DELANEY OCCUPYING 2ND

Business Men and Col-Tex Head Ladder in Second Half of Play

Wilbur Coffey, recruit mustered into the Business Men's camp by Dick Pearson from Loraine and assigned to hold down third base, is holding upper berth in city league batting average. This player has credit of .461. Dick Delaney, playing on third in the Fire Boys club, is second with an average of .414. Doyle, center fielder on the Fire Boys team, comes in for third place with an average of .318.

First half of the City League play ended Tuesday, June 20th game between the Fire Boys and Business Men. The Masonic organization clung to head of the ladder by reason of a tie game with Col-Tex Refinery team and a rained-out game between the Business Men and Col-Tex Oilers. The games played today (Thursday) between the Business Men and the Oilers, and Friday between the Fraternalists and the Fire Eaters, by agreement of the managers and Col. Adams, ate to count in both halves.

For instance, if the Masons lose their game and the Business Men win their contest, it will be necessary for the two teams to play off the tie to decide for first half leadership.

In the second-half play the boys who furnish most of the pay-roll for Colorado and the Business Men are starting out strong. The Business Men under the leadership of Dick Pearson took the Masons and Fire Boys into camp for both of their games by a score of 7-8.

Col-Tex, too, has won two consecutive victories during the week, defeating the Fire Boys Friday 9-6 and slaughtering Dr. Dulaney's Masonic team Monday 17-7.

Game Tuesday afternoon between the Fire Boys and Business Men found the opposing clubs deadlocked with seven runs each at the end of the seventh. The latter won the day in the tenth inning, by reason of a single by Coffey going through center field for three bases and a squeeze play to force in the deciding run. In this contest the Fire Eaters put Jones, a southpaw, in the box in the 5th inning, who showed the Business Men more speed than they were accustomed to, consequently in the five innings he twirled, eleven men took three swings at the ball, which is something for this heavy hitting organization. The fans are anxious to see more of this fellow Jones, and Oscar Smith, mentor of the Fire Boys, has consented to let the Masons look at him today.

WEST TEXANS LAUNCH DRIVE TO PAVE HIGHWAY 101

FOUR COMMUNITIES UNITE IN CAMPAIGN SEEKING TO BUILD NORTH-SOUTH ROAD

Snyder, Dunn and Sterling City Delegations Attend Meeting Held Here

With permanent improvement of Highway No. 101, extending from intersection of Highway No. 7 at Snyder to Highway No. 9 at Sterling City its goal, an organization of county officials, chamber of commerce leaders and other citizens was perfected here Friday morning in meeting held at the Palace theatre.

After representatives of delegations from Snyder, Dunn, Sterling City and Colorado had addressed the gathering, each urging that steps be advanced immediately looking to realization of the objective, a permanent organization was formed with appointment of R. P. Brown, Sterling City; W. J. Ely, Snyder; Claude Hooks of Dunn, and Judge A. F. King of Colorado, members of an executive board.

At subsequent meeting of the executive board Judge Thompson was named by the four men as a fifth member and subsequently elected chairman. The five men were in Abilene Saturday to confer with Judge W. R. Ely, State highway commission member, on the highway project.

Brown, executive committeeman from Sterling City, was the first delegate to address the meeting. He urged immediate effort upon part of the interested communities. W. N. Reid, Sterling county commissioner, pledged full cooperation in campaign to pave the highway. "We will do our best to obtain the required right-of-way," he stated.

County Judge King of Mitchell county was the next speaker. He reviewed briefly efforts of his own court to obtain the highway. "We have pledged the State highway commission that right-of-way would be furnished and we stand ready to do all that is practical to accomplish it," he stated.

Young Lawyer, 'Fresh From The Sticks,' Makes Good In His Adopted Coke County

A West Texan by choice, who a few years ago left his native home in Ellis county to place his destiny in this section of the State, paid Colorado a visit Friday. The visitor was E. O. Derron, county judge of Coke county. The chief executive of our neighbor county came here as member of the Robert Lee delegation seeking cooperation in projected paved highway connecting the two communities.

Graduating from law school when yet a mere youth and after having hung his shingle out in the old home town for a time, Gerron tossed his hat into the ring as a candidate for State representative. He was elected and served in the Legislature four years ago. After working through the regular and five called sessions Gerron resigned and came to Coke county to accept appointment as county attorney. He was then only 23 years of age. Filling that office for two years he announced in early part of 1932 his candidacy for county judge. The "new comer," as many of the old timers termed him, did not have an automobile, but set out on foot to canvass the county in quest of votes. He covered every part of Coke county, personally presenting to every voter his claims for office before the primary election in July. Foes and friends, he limped into the county seat to await verdict of the people. He won and is now serving his first term as county judge. "I am delighted with this West Texas country and with West Texas people," Judge Gerron stated. "I can announce without any reservation that I am here to stay. My adopted home in the West is my most cherished."

MOTHER OF EIGHT KILLED IN TRAGEDY ENACTED ON HOWARD COUNTY ROAD

Frightened Team Runs Away As Family Returns Home From Church Sunday

Mrs. Lee-Mellvain, 47, wife of a well known farmer of Lomax community, Howard county, is dead and her husband seriously injured, the result of body hurts received Sunday at noon as the family were returning home from church services. The dead woman was the mother of eight children, six of whom are single and resided with their parents. Mr. Mellvain and family had attended religious services at the community church Sunday morning traveling from their farm home to the community center in a wagon drawn by a team of mules. After church they started on the return journey home. The mules frightened and ran away. Mrs. Mellvain was thrown from the wagon, her head striking hard surface of the roadway. She sustained a fractured skull and died in a Big Spring hospital at 1 o'clock Monday morning without having regained consciousness.

Seriously injured, Mr. Mellvain was unable to leave his hospital bed to attend funeral rites for his wife held in Big Spring Monday afternoon.

COLONEL CHAS. ADAMS DENOUNCES COLLEAGUE IN SPIRITED ADDRESS

One of the most biting and stirring denunciations to be couched in heated oratory fell from the lips of Colonel Charlie Adams Friday as he challenged purported action of a fellow Lions club member and demanded that proper steps be taken by the club to mete punishment in keeping with enormity of the offense.

Colonel Adams, a charter member of the club and among the most active Lions Colorado has claimed since the service organization was formed eleven years ago, spoke with considerable feeling as he advanced claim a most grievous offense had been willingly committed. The speaker, however, did not disclose identity of the Lion against whom the attack was directed.

COKE COUNTY PROJECT TO IRRIGATE LARGE DISTRICT ASSURED, CITIZENS STATE

Fort Worth Engineers Have Been Employed To Push Construction Work

The firm of Hawley, Freeze and Nichols, Fort Worth consulting engineers, will be called to San Angelo within the next few days for conference with the temporary board of directors of the Colorado River Irrigation association to map definite plans for organizing the district and securing Federal loan to carry the project through to completion. Cost of the 100,000 acre project was estimated at a meeting of directors in Bronte Friday night at $3,000,000 but it was learned that the State board of water engineers had included the project in State budget for Federal public works grants at $4,000,000, lending additional optimism to citizens directly interested that ample finances are to be available.

The dam, to be constructed on site already located between Robert Lee and Colorado, will cost $600,000, engineers have estimated. Bulk of the remaining loan would go to construction of a net-work of canals to distribute water over the project. Approximately seventy miles of the canals are specified. Later, in event the project is realized, water may be carried into Runnels county for irrigation purposes.

A special meeting of Coke county commissioners court is to be called within the near future to consider petition asking that election to determine whether or not the proposed improvement district shall be authorized by the voters. Date for the court meeting probably will be announced following conference with engineers at San Angelo.

Members of the directorate attending conference in Bronte included: Bob Kniefm, Bronte, chairman; H. C. Whit, Bronte, secretary; Bob Hickman, Bronte; H. G. Wendland, San Angelo; Fred Roe and Ed Roark, Robert Lee and Tad Richard of Wingate, Scott Sodgrass, San Angelo attorney, conferred with the board.

NOMINEES AS SLATED BY LIONS CLUB ELECTED TO OFFICE FRIDAY AT NOON

M. O. Chapman Ousts Joe Smoot and Ralph Lee For Tail Twister

Nominees given places on annual ballot of the Lions Club a month ago were unanimously elected to office Friday at noon. There was only one office under contest and in this M. O. Chapman, up for reelection as tail twister, defeated his two opponents, Ralph Lee and Joe Smoot. There were no opposing candidates offered for the several other official positions.

Joe B. Mills, Colorado motor car dealer, was elevated from first vice president to the office of president, succeeding Joe Pond. Dr. D. G. Bridgford, dental surgeon, was advanced from the office of second vice president to first vice and George H. Mahon, 32nd district attorney, from third vice president to that of second. B. L. Templeton county clerk and who is to retire as secretary of the club, was confirmed as third vice president.

E. V. Grantland, insurance broker and a new member of the club, was named secretary. Grantland functioned in this office during absence of Templeton. The office of secretary-treasurer, heretofore filled by one man, was divided and Joe H. Smoot, vice president of the City National Bank, named club treasurer.

Jake Richardson, another new Lion, was confirmed as nominee for the office of Lion tamer. A. L. McSpadden, chief clerk at the Texas Electric Service Company offices, was elected as assistant to Richardson.

In the race for tail twister three candidates were offered but M. O. Chapman, incumbent, maintained a spirited lead over J. Ralph Lee and Joe H. Smoot, opposing him for reelection. Vote polled by each of the three candidates was not announced. Henry Vaught, himself a new Lion, came into the official family by election to the office of assistant tail twister. J. H. Greene, executive secretary of the chamber of commerce, and E. R. Bibby, resident manager for J. C. Penney Company, were elected members of the executive board. The newly elected officers and directors are to be inducted into office in July.

TOM GREEN AND NOLAN COUNTIES SEEK REPEAL OF LOCAL OPTION LAW

has it that the issue is revived and at least two Texas counties in this immediate part of the State are out to seek repeal of local option election. Petitions to the county commissioners courts in Nolan and Tom Green counties were being circulated last Saturday. Reports from Sweetwater and San Angelo, county capitals of the two respective counties, indicated that a sufficient number of voters to make calling of the election mandatory would be obtained.

The proposed election in Nolan is to be county-wide. In Tom Green those in favor of repeal would have the voting confined to precinct 1, comprising the city of San Angelo. Both elections would be held on August 26, date for State-wide balloting on proposed repeal of the 18th Amendment.

Colorado Property Owners Called Upon To Meet Heavy Toll In Fire Key Rates

Property owners within the corporate limits of Colorado are paying dearly in added insurance key rates as the direct consequence of heavy losses incurred during the past two years. County Attorney Dell Barber stated Friday morning that investigation by his department disclosed the fact that fire insurance key rate in the city had advanced 37 percent during the past two years.

"I have this information from an authoritative source and enormity of this growing burden upon the people of this city should impress the public with an unremitting resolve to do all within their power to reduce fire losses," Barber stated.

The county attorney said that during the same period fire losses in the residence sections of Colorado had resulted in a hike of twenty percent in key rate.

GOVERNMENT WILL SPEND MANY MILLIONS FOR NEW AND MODERN NAVY CRAFT

Thirty Two Warships Will Be Constructed During The Next Three Years

That the Roosevelt administration has no intention of taking initiative in disarmament, was strongly indicated recently when a $238,000,000 naval building program was announced at Washington by Secretary of Navy Swanson. The building of 32 new warships within the next three years is planned.

The construction program, to be carried out under public works provisions of the new industrial recovery act, will be pushed "with all the vigor we have," Swanson said.

The program involves construction of four light cruisers of 10,000 tons, with six-inch guns; twenty destroyers, two aircraft carriers of 20,000 tons each, four submarines of 1,500 and 1,600 tons and two gunboats for operation in Chinese ports.

"This program is to put people to work," Swanson said, explaining that 85 percent of the total expenditure on a warship automatically goes to labor.

Under original plans the department expected to spend $46,000,000 in the first year, $105,000,000 in the second year, and the remainder in the third year, but the Secretary said he hoped to increase these totals substantially in order to rush the program to early completion.

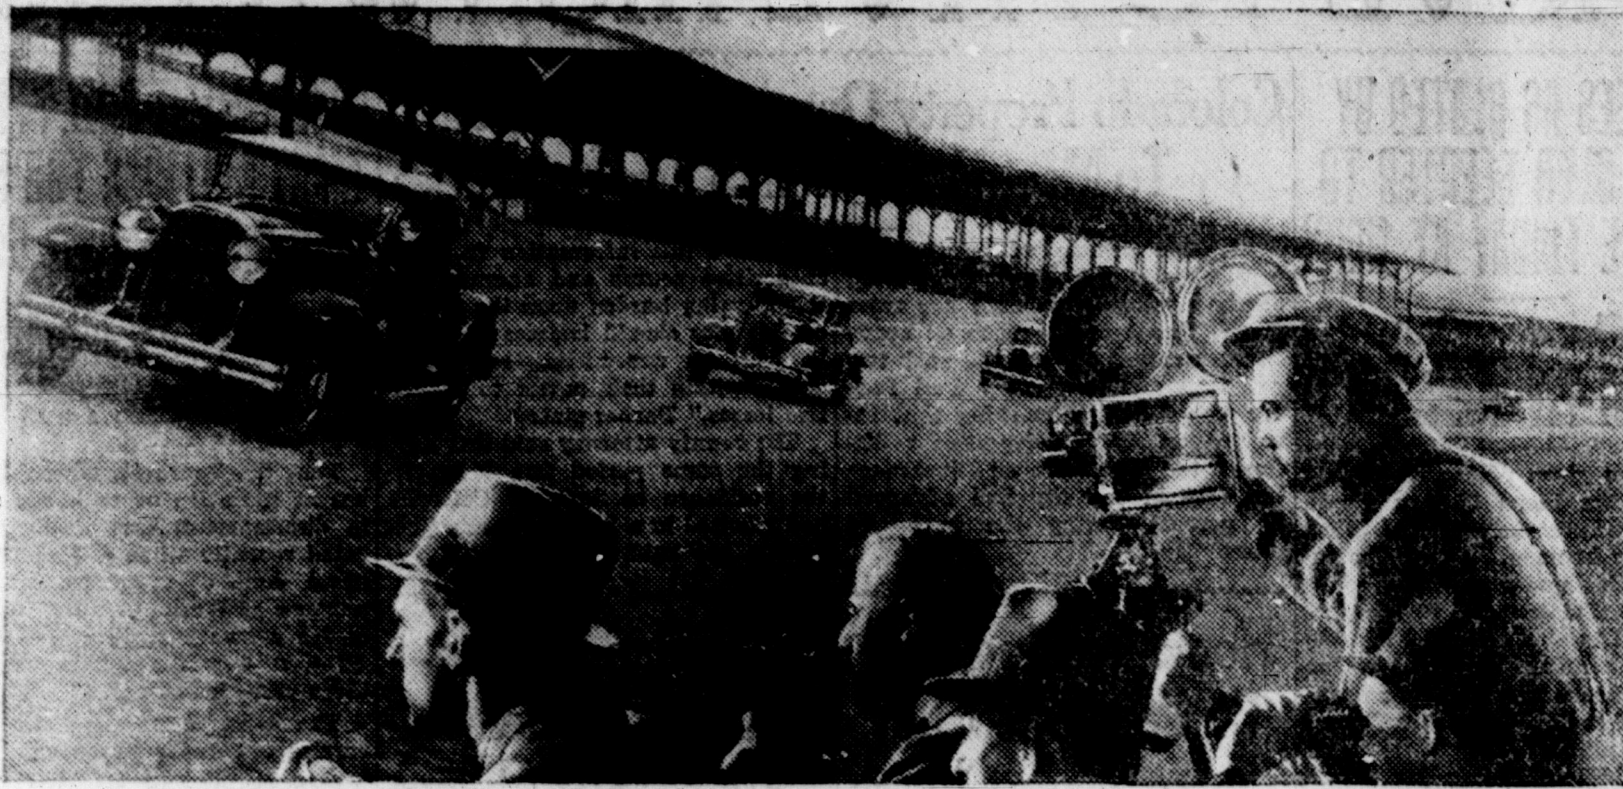

Work on a number of the new vessels is expected to start in navy yards at once. Bids on construction for other ships in private yards will be opened in July.

Jack Carter of Fort Worth was in Colorado this week.

Government Plan For Control Of Cotton And Wheat Production; Marketing Given

Here is a comparison of the wheat and cotton programs worked out under the farm adjustment act which together contemplate payments of from $250,000,000 to $300,000,000 in benefits to farmers who agree to curtail their output.

Both call for levying of maximum processing taxes, about 30 cents a bushel in the case of wheat, on which the levy will begin between July 1 and 15, and about 4 cents a pound for cotton starting August 1.

The wheat program is based on the domestic allotment plan and contemplates no cut in the growing crop, which, had weather conditions have reduced substantially this year. The cotton program, which calls for a reduction of up to 10,000,000 acres in the growing crops, combines features of the allotment plan with a land leasing method and the Smith cotton option pool plan.

The wheat plan calls for payment to farmers of cash benefits for agreeing to retire acreages harvested in 1934 and 1935. Two thirds of the benefit will be paid this year when the agreement is signed with the farmers; the other one third when fulfillment of the agreement has been assured.

The wheat grower must agree to reduce his acreage up to 20 per cent during the next two years, the final reduction figure being subject to agreements expected to be reached at the world wheat conference in London.

The payments are intended to provide him with a parity price, based on pre-war average farm prices, on the portion of his crop needed for domestic consumption. He will sell his wheat in the usual manner, the payments being made separately out of proceeds of the processing tax.

The cotton program calls for renting land from growers who agree to destroy cotton now growing on that land in return for cash rentals or for cash and an option on cotton land to estimated production of the land retired from production. The option will be sold for 6 cents a pound or about 3 cents below the current market price.

What plan will be applied to cotton seeded next year still remains to be determined. Secretary Wallace said the immediate task was to work out a plan to reach the growing crop because of the surplus of cotton, estimated at about 13,000,000 bales.

MRS. WULFJEN TEACHES C. I. A. SUMMER CLASS

DENTON. — Mrs. Maxine Ross Wulfjen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Root of Colorado, is among the 40 students at the Texas State College for Women (CIA) doing practice teaching in the Denton Public Schools for college credit. These student teachers make it possible for 400 Denton children to attend school in the summer without cost either to the parents or to the citizens.

Through a cooperative plan arranged by the college, students needing one semester of practice teaching in order to receive their permanent teacher's certificates are using a system of individual and group study which is proving successful to both teacher and student.

Mrs. Wulfjen is a senior and will receive her bachelor degree in public school music with a minor in English.

FARM FACTS

Fowler McDaniel who has been growing wheat on the Dollar farm near Hyman for several years has just finished harvesting one of the most profitable crops he has ever grown. He says he never plants any kind of small grain without first treating the seed for smut. He has never been docked a penny for smutty wheat.

Harry Cranfill of Silver has been caponizing some white leghorn cockerels recently.

S. J. Robertson of Valley View cut up a hog the new way last week and is curing it out in cold storage.

J. B. Moore of Cedar Bend dried some beef using the cold storage vault at the ice house and it made a very fine product. The meat was cured in a solution containing brown sugar, salt and salt peter. The pieces were left in the cure three days per pound and then were smoked.

Allen Kuykendall has secured some pure line Red Top cane seed and will specialize in the production of pure seed.

A new Texas bulletin, "Filling the Family Storehouse," a plan for producing a living at home is available to all who will drop a card to the county farm agent.

Carveth Wells Will Be Heard In Radio Talk On Colorado

The summer yacht races on Grand Lake, Colorado, where it is more than a mile above sea level, hold a decided appeal for Carveth Wells, Continental Oil Company radio entertainer who on Wednesday, June 28, will devote his last broadcast of the season to a second description of the Columbine state.

Among other Colorado scenes which the famous globetrotter considers phenomenal are the mountains, sunsets, the stone formations in the Garden of the Gods near Colorado Springs, Yampa canyon, the Great Sand Dunes in the San Luis valley, and Carbon Mountain, the peak that is shaking itself to pieces.

"Tourists who would like to see a real old fashioned gold rush should go up into the mountains near Canon City," says Wells. "Hundreds of excited people are busy panning the precious yellow metal there right now."

The Conoco program may be heard by local listeners who tune in on station WFAA, Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Four Communities—

Jim Greene, local chamber of commerce secretary, explained in detail working plans of the president's public works measure. He urged that permanent organization be made, committees elected and sent to Austin "not later than June 19" to solicit interest of the highway department. Greene urged that right-of-way and other requisites to be probably exacted by the State and Federal governments be guaranteed by the counties directly concerned.

Judge Robert H. Curnute of Scurry county informed the meeting that his city and county were ready to join others in realizing the road. He recalled that his commissioners court several months ago guaranteed the State that right-of-way would be furnished in Scurry county.

"The thing for us to do is to get busy and get busy now," Claude Hooks of Dunn declared. Hooks stated that his community would be found ready to meet any reasonable requirement placed upon them in order to obtain the much needed road. "We have not come to Colorado nor into this meeting with ambitions of taking a projected highway from our friends at Sterling City nor any

General Motors Use Enormous Amount Of Electrical Energy In Lighting Building

CHICAGO.—"The General Motors Building rears its bulk aloft, a giant shaft of gold," says one writer describing the magnificent panorama of the Century of Progress Exposition by night. With the Fair but a few days old, the General Motors building is recognized as one of the most thrilling spectacles at night.

Three hundred and fifty Goodland projector lamps bathe the orange, yellow, red, silver and blue building. one else," County Judge O. E. Geron of Coke county said. "We are here to interest the people of Colorado in building a highway connecting this city with our community and San Angelo." Judge Geron advanced the promise that projected irrigation enterprise along the Colorado river between Robert Lee and Colorado would be definitely realized.

Fred Roe, president of the First State Bank at Robert Lee and A. T. Sparks county commissioner in Coke county, were others to address the meeting. Both strongly urged interest of this community in proposed highway to their town.

All four county commissioners of Sterling county, as follows, were present: W. N. Reed, C. A. Brown, W. G. Welch and Oscar Ratliff. Others in the Sterling delegation were R. T. Foster, cattleman; R. P. Brown, agent for the Texas Company; R. L. Lowe, hardware dealer; E. B. Butler, druggist, and S. R. Hefley, Ford Motor Company dealer.

Included in the Snyder delegation were R. H. Curnutt, county judge; A. D. Erwin, chairman, chamber of commerce public works department; G. H. Leath, chairman of the chamber of commerce highway department; W. J. Ely, spyder member of the West Texas chamber of commerce directorate; F. I. Townsend, farmer, and J. W. The Dunn delegation included the Honorable J. C. Beakley, mayor; Claude Hooks, former superintendent of the public schools; W. A. Taylor, farmer; C. W. Tarter, high school principal, and L. E. Russell, Dunn business man.

Several Colorado people attended the meeting. Following adjournment some of the visitors were luncheon guests of the Lions club, the Exterior lighting of the General Motors Building alone consumes enough electricity per night to pump water for a city of 25,000 inhabitants, or to provide home and street lighting for a city of 7,500 inhabitants. An average of two million, three hundred thousand watts of electricity a day is used. Monthly consumption mounts to sixty-nine million watts. This is equal to 92,000 horsepower a month.

Housewife Offered Suggestion On Ant Control; Use Poison

Ants that are wont to infest the house may be controlled with a slow acting poison bait that the foraging pests not only eat but carry into their nests for feeding their young, thereby exterminating the foragers as well as the colony, according to the county farm agent. The agent suggests the following formula:

The poison is prepared by dissolving 5 pounds of sugar in 1 1/2 pint of water placing it in a double boiler and heating gently. Then dissolve one fourth ounce of sodium arsenite (not arsenic) in a little hot water and add this to the syrup solution. Place a sponge in a glass jar with a tin lid and punch three or four holes in the lid. Moisten the sponge with poisoned solution. If ants avoid the jar after a time move it slightly and they will again visit it. In residence one to six jars will be sufficient often one jar will do the work. Place the jars at points where ants enter the house.

The above material is poison to human beings and proper care should be taken in its preparation and use.

At a meeting of the Hyman Home Demonstration Club at Mrs. Carl Lowry's Friday with 10 members and two visitors present, roll call on the use of the foundation pattern (an individually fitted pattern).

Mrs. W. G. McAlpine said she had used her foundation pattern in making her dress. Mrs. Lowry showed the club members a dress she had cut out using her foundation shirt pattern in cutting a 6 gored skirt pattern and Mrs. Roy Davis Coles, the second year clothing demonstrator for her club, had used hers in checking or cutting out garments.

The Hyman home demonstration club has more fitted foundation patterns and the litan club ranks second. Plans are for 100% in each club before the year is over.

At this meeting Mrs. Carl Lowry was elected delegate to attend the Short Course July 24-29 and Mrs. Roy Davis Coles alternate. Mrs. Hoo Parker's mother was a visitor as was Miss Sallie Hill, district home demonstration agent.

Personal visits are worth quite a bit to the county home demonstration agent as well as being worthwhile to the club girl as shown this past week from home visits made with Nadine Hammonds, president of Buford 4-H girls club. The rest of June will be devoted to working on clothes storage for shoes, hats and dresses. Nadine has a spacious clothes closet that she and her sister share but she plans to further improve it by adding rods to hang her shoes upon so that they will not be on the floor of the closet and litter it up. A visit with Jimmie Ruth Glass brought out in conversation with her mother that they were planning to build a very complete closet for the four girls that occupy one room. Jimmie Ruth is a club secretary of the Loraine Girls 4-H club. Another club member of the Loraine girls club Lola Mearse, is planning on using for her storage space for shoes and hats a space under a flue. She will put a door on this and put shelves inside and have a very convenient storage Mrs. Mearse says they have such limited room they must conserve everything possible.

All county home demonstration women's clubs are busy working or getting money to send their delegate to A. & M. College to the short course July 24-29. The Spade home demonstration club elected Mrs. W. E. Seward as delegate and Mrs. J. J. Vanzandt as alternate at their last club meeting at the home of Mrs. J. J. Vanzandt. Mrs. R. C. Sublet and Mrs. W. G. Vanzandt were appointed as a committee to plan ways of making money for this trip. The club will meet Wednesday June 28th with Mrs. R. C. Sublet.

Weekly Business Review

By Joseph L. Myler

United Press Staff Correspondent—DALLAS, TEX., (UP)—The oil and farm industries held the business spotlight in Texas today as rising prices in these most important phases of the State's productive life spread their stimulating effect through the entire commercial structure.

Further curtailment of production in the East Texas oil field brought in its wake sudden increases in barrel price of crude with operator predicting 75 cent oil before the first trend upward reaches a stabilized figure.

CO-ED SLAIN, FIANCE SHOT ON LONELY ROAD

Miss LaDell Hammond of Kosse shot to death, and her fiance, Ernie Conway of Bryan, seriously wounded on highway near Bryan Saturday night when 2 men and a woman stopped them at an underpass to rob them. Conway stopped his car when he noticed a woman, apparently alone and in distress, near the bandits' parked machine. As he brought his car to a stop two men ran from cover and opened fire without warning.

One Oklahoma and two Texas purchasing companies led the field in posting new and higher prices.

The United States department of agriculture estimated the 1933 Texas farm crop will be worth $100,000,000 more to growers than the 1932 crop, although yields in some cases were lighter than usual.

Indicative of the general increase in the farmers' buying power was the experience of Jacksonville bank which during peak days of tomato marketing in East Texas took in $200,000 to $250,000. A crop valued at $300,000,000 was moving to market at the rate of 100 to 200 cars daily.

With cotton prices up 37 per cent since March 15, it was estimated this season's crop would exceed last year's in value by approximately $60,000,000. The wool crop, expected to total 70,000,000 pounds, the heaviest in years, would be worth $7,000,000 more than last season's, the department of agriculture report said.

The wool market reached a new high of 28 cents at San Angelo when the Texas Wool and Mohair company sold half a million pounds at that figure. Generally the price had jumped from 8 cents, last year low, to around 25 cents.

Livestock gained steadily to a point where it was estimated the industry's 1933 revenue would exceed 1932's by $10,000,000 to $15,000,000.

The great Rio Grande valley fruit and vegetable crop, when finally marketed to the last car, will have poured $10,000,000 into the pocket of growers, it was computed.

With the wheat crop already moving to market at a price 82 per cent higher than that of a month and half ago, growers were anticipating an income $300,000 in excess of the 1932 figure despite the fact that the 1933 crop will be the smallest in years.

From all sections came reports indicating farmers were putting their new buying power into operation. New machinery, new homes, new improvements everywhere gave evidence of new prosperity.

This extension of the farmer's wealth to other industries was graphically illustrated by figures compiled for The Shippers Digest, published at Galveston. For the season up to May 19, cotton received for shipment at Galveston totaled 1,967,644 bales, as against only 1,533,589 for the same period of the 1930-1931 season. This was interpreted as meaning increased income from steamship operators and employees.

The lumber industry also experienced increased activity, according to the University of Texas bureau of business research. The bureau report said unfilled orders at southern pine mills rose to an average per unit of 763,299 feet on May 27, the highest since March 1931.

New construction closely followed oil and agriculture in augmentative activity. Stimulated by prospects of receiving $250,000,000 in federal loans for self-liquidating public works, many communities were planning projects ranging from municipal water and power plants to park and highway improvements. Lawrence Westbrook, chairman of the state rehabilitation and relief committee, was in Washington with project plans involving $194,854,794 already prepared and ready for submission to federal authorities.

New business concerns increased sharply during May, according to the state university's business research bureau. New corporations chartered last month, the bureau reported, totaled 151, an increase of 23 per cent over the total for April. Their total capital stock was $1,989,704. They included 40 oil companies, 3 merchandizing firms and 22 manufacturers.

Clemency Granted Jim Brooks, Negro Charged in Killing

Jim Brooks, Mitchell county negro sentenced to 99 years in the State penitentiary on Monday, May 21, 1928, for murder of Ernest Hardin of Inadale on April 14 of that year, Thursday was granted a conditional pardon by Governor Ferguson. Body of the slain man was found April 15, 1928, in ravine near the home of Dr. B. F. Dulaney on Seven Wells road.

Henry Davis, another negro charged in the killing, was tried in 32nd district court here a few weeks prior to the Brooks trial and assessed a life term.

District Attorney George H. Mahon stated Friday that doubt existed in his mind as to guilt of the Brooks negro. He so stated to the State board of pardons about a year ago.

The Texas Farmer And Rancher Due For Better Days, Promise Of Dallas Writer

The Texas farmer and rancher are both moving into easier financial straits, an editorial writer in The Dallas News recently recalled. Prediction was advanced that by Fall both would be back "in the market as an important buying force." The News said:

The long awaited comeback of agriculture is assuming major proportions in various parts of Texas, due to recent substantial and unexpected price rises in at least a dozen major commodities produced by Texas farms and ranches. Many millions of dollars are being added to the purchasing power of Texas farmers and stockmen, and, at the present rate, there should be a definite improvement in general throughout this State by fall.

The rises are of such stable proportions that there seems no longer any doubt about the upward trend. Had these upturns been based upon make-shift devices, prices would have collapsed before now. A few examples only are needed to enlighten the man in the street: Texas has the largest wool crop in its history—70,000,000 pounds—and it is selling for around 25c a pound. Last year it brought producers a low of 8c a pound. Mohair has jumped from a low of 6c to a high of 22c. Cotton from a low of 4.5c last June to a present quotation of 9c. Hogs, cattle, sheep, wheat, oats, corn show increases in price of 5c to more than 100 per cent. This can mean one thing only—if these prices continue into fall Texas farmers will be back in the market as an important buying force.

Henry Ford Dearborn, Mich.

June 19, 1933 A COMPANY THIRTY YEARS OLD

Last Friday the Ford Motor Company completed 30 years of automobile making.

It is also my fortieth year at the same job. I made my first engine in 1893, and it still runs. This is the engine that won the Selden Patent Suit—which took the motor car out of the exclusive class, and opened the automobile industry to hundreds of manufacturers who started during the last 30 years.

Some of the men who began with me that June day in 1903, are working here yet. All of the principles we laid down then, are still operative; we find that they have great survival value for the future.

Although we created the automobile market we have never thought it was good for anyone to monopolize it. We have always believed that before business could be good for one, it must be good for all.

Of course, there is one thing we cannot share—everyone must get it for himself—and that is experience. Money could duplicate our buildings and machines, but it cannot duplicate 40 years of experience.

But the past does not especially concern me; I have just been gathering the tools to do something worth while, and that my real task is still ahead.

Great changes are upon the world. False ideas of every kind are vanishing in the general upheaval. Those who built truly on principle will survive—their service will carry over. Business integrity and commodity honor will be fully justified.

That is the outlook for this young thirty-year old Company of ours.

Henry Ford

FUNDAMENTAL FARM RELIEF

Any sound farm relief program, whether launched by the states or the nation, should have as its basic principle the encouragement and development of cooperatives.

That was the original intention in the farm relief act of a few years ago—which hit stormy weather only when it departed from that and ventured into the field of speculation.

The depression should have served to strengthen, rather than weaken, the co-ops. Three years of bad times have shown the farmer the fruits of disorganization, of non-cooperation.

The government should work with and for the cooperatives. This is the way in which real and permanent farm relief can be achieved.

School's out! Thousands of children all over the country are pouring forth from the classrooms to spend their days out of doors during the summer months.

The schools have done a fine job training youngsters to watch out for themselves. In consequence, when the statistics of adult and child pedestrian accidents are compared, the children are shown to be better.

In spite of this good work 3,400 boys and girls between the ages of five and fourteen were killed last year and 152,550 were injured.

Drivers, give these youngsters the right of way; drive slowly and cautiously through residential districts; and watch out for the child who darts out from behind a parked car.

Colorado had better extend every possible cooperation to Coke County citizens in project to create irrigation district southeast from town.
