clearing the scratchpad

As we grow older, we are inclined to give up the idea of reforming the world, or ourselves. We have no great plans for the future, or regrets for the past. We take each day as it comes along. Our ambitions are for others rather than for ourselves. Most of our missions have been fulfilled. We have not settled in full all accounts, but the score seems to be in balance. Losses are forgotten, but our gains we fondly cherish and hold close to our hearts. They are like rare and esteemed jewels, our solace and pleasure not to be shared with anyone else.

Is it selfish to hoard sentiment? I think not. Our memories are precious treasures we keep within the inner vault of our souls, counting them, as does a miser, only when we shut our eyes and quietly open the door of our heart after turning the key to remembrance.

Sometimes these things we cherish are mere trivialities to others: a budding romance, a beautiful song, some self-denial, a helpful act of charity given in secret. But they are our own, our wealth, our life's completeness.

When trials assail us, or we are called upon to take up the burdens of another, life would be dismal if it were not for our secret wealth, our faith in Eternal Goodness. Stored away behind the secret door we possess the priceless love. It is the only key.

The remodeling job at the post office is really looking nice. It was quite a show this morning to see us all trying to find out how to get into our boxes. But after about fifteen tries, I finally mastered it . . . I think.

Mr. G. D. Kennedy asked us to tell you that they still need some more help with the scout hut. He said that they had lots of help last Saturday but that only one member of the Lions Club showed up to help with the work. So they would like to see more Lions there this Saturday.

When is someone going to start building some houses in Plains to rent? There were ten oil rigs that moved into town last week, and more are coming in. Altogether there will be about thirty rigs, and people can't find a place to live. So if anyone has an apartment or house to rent and will let us know we would appreciate it, as we have people coming in every day looking for a place to live.

Two Cases Filed In District Court

Two cases were filed in district court this week, one a divorce action and the other a suit seeking compensation for injuries.

Paul Lee Remmers, resident of Hobbs, has filed action against I.C.T. Insurance Company, seeking total disability payment for injuries allegedly incurred in June of 1956 while employed by S&G Trucks. Remmers sets forth that he was letting down the gin pole from a tandem truck, when because of a slack line on the mechanical equipment of the pole, its entire weight of about 1500 pounds came to rest on his arm. He alleges that he suffered hand and arm injuries, as well as injuries of the head and neck. He is asking maximum compensation of $25 per week for 401 weeks.

In the divorce action of Cain vs. Cain, the plaintiff is a resident of Denver City and is charging cruel and harsh treatment. She is asking custody of one child, a daughter, and $50 per month in child support. The defendant is now a resident of Dumas, Texas.

in the League. An estimated cost of the four teams was given at about $917.00. Age requirements are that the boys be at least eight and under 13 by August 1st.

Teams would not be eligible a franchise must be held for a for competition this season since year before out-of-town games may be played. Mr. Stockstill said that he had two sponsors for teams, Lea County Electric Co-op and the Odd Fellows Lodge. Two more sponsors are still needed. It will cost about $250 to sponsor a club, including equipment and suits.

Anyone who would be interested in managing a team or helping out is urged to contact Mr. Stockstill.

Stockstill said that he had 52 boys who were interested in playing ball. Practice will begin the day after school is out and the teams will be selected one week later.

Three men have taken jobs as managers and one more is still needed. The three managers are Newlon Rowland, Soda Pop Hobbs and Robert Long.

Two Discoveries Take Potential Tests in Area

Pan American Petroleum Corporation No. 1 M. M. West has been completed as a flowing Devonian discovery in Southwest Yoakum County, 12 miles northwest of Denver City.

The strike finished for a 24-hour flowing potential of 295 barrels of 40.5 gravity oil, through a 5/8-inch choke and perforations from 11,058 to 11,077 feet, after 50 gallons of mud acid. Gas-oil ratio was 74-1.

Well site is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 606, block D, John H. Gibson survey. Pan American No. 1-A R. C. Blanchard, 10 miles southeast of Denver City in Northwest Gaines County, completed as a discovery from the San Andres.

On the potential test, the strike pumped 125 barrels of 32.7 gravity oil, plus 19 per cent water in 24 hours, from perforated section at 5,450-90 feet.

That interval had been treated with 3,500 gallons of acid. This pay corner is on the flank of the ODC (Devonian) area. It drilled to a total depth of 11,939 feet, and was dry in the Devonian. Then the hole was plugged back, and casing was set at 5,650 feet for the San Andres completion.

The well site is 660 feet north and east lines of the northwest quarter of section 271, block G, WT survey.

Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation No. 1 Holt, Southeast Yoakum County wildcat, encountered a slight show of oil and gas in a four-hour drillstem test at 9,660-9,73 feet in the lower Spraberry.

Recovery was 180 feet of oil and gas-cut drilling fluid, 60 feet of free oil and 30 feet of oil and gascut water. Source of the water was undetermined.

Flowing pressure was from 135 to 180 pounds. Shutin bottom hole pressure in 15 minutes was 772 pounds. The project is making hole below 9,875 feet in lime and shale.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 875, block D, John H. Gibson survey.

Trip Highlights Told By FHA Meet Delegate

By Carol Anderson

The two girls, Pat Smith and myself, Carol Anderson, plus our sponsor, Mrs. Anderson, who were elected to attend the State F.H.A. meeting, left on Thursday morning, April 25, at 7:15. We met Mrs. Powell, Janice Wheeler and Barbara McIlroy from Denver City at 7:30, and left with them in the lead for our trip to Dallas. We had a very enjoyable ride, and arrived at Dallas at 5:00. We then went to the Lido Hotel, where Mr. Kennedy had made reservations for us.

At 8:00 on Thursday night, we arrived at the Coliseum at the fair grounds in time for choral practice for the Friday night program. After the rehearsal, we then returned to the hotel and found Mrs. Brown and Willie Mae Addison, who had just arrived from the Lowe Field Airport.

On Friday morning, we had to have Willie Mae at the coliseum at 9:00, so we rushed from our hotel out to the fair grounds and enjoyed a wonderful program until about 11:30. There was the opening ceremony, welcoming speeches, and introduction of platform guests. Willie Mae was introduced at this time. Our speaker spoke on 'The Duties of a Homemaker'. We were then dismissed for lunch at the Women's Building. All members of the chorus were allowed to eat first in order to get back for our rehearsal at 12:30. This we did and at 1:00 our Friday afternoon program started. It was all wonderful. The state chorus of which I was a member sang several

COUNTY'S WHEAT CROP REPORTED TO BE SMALL; SEED ONLY 682 ACRES

Yoakum County farmers seeded only 682 acres to wheat on 15 different farms, according to ASC county office records. The total 1957 wheat allotment was 2345 acres on 38 farms.

The seeded wheat acreage recorded in the ASC office does not include farms that do not have wheat allotments, and may have seeded wheat that the office has not had a seeded report on. All other acreage has been measured.

Should any farmer have wheat on acreage that has not been measured by the county office, he should report the acreage to the local ASC office or his county committeeman, so that the measurements may be made and the farm made eligible for a marketing card.

The excess wheat disposal deadline is May 10. Farmers should keep this date in mind if they have any excess wheat.

Any farm is allowed 15 acres of wheat without marketing quota penalties.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson has announced that the 1958 wheat quota referendum will be held June 20. Eligible wheat farmers may vote at the old courthouse in Plains. The 1958 wheat allotments will be mailed prior to the June 20 voting date.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Newsom Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Newsom and son of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. George Fulton of Donie and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Newsom.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

The recent rain and warm weather is really greening up most of the pastures in this part of the country. With the good rains falling in most parts of the state, lots of people will be looking for cattle to restock their ranches. But before buying more cattle a rancher should look at that blanket of green color on the pastures and see how much of it is grass and how much is weeds. Not only that but he needs to know how much of that grass is good grass and how much is low quality invading grass.

The rangelands have taken a serious beating during the drouth. Some were in bad shape when the drouth started. The grass that remains is lacking in vigor, low in reserve food, and the roots are short. Sick grass, like sick people, takes time to fully recover.

The hardland pastures and the mixedland pastures are in better shape to recover than the sandyland pastures. Quite a lot of the better grasses have remained on most of the hard country. However it is weak and much bare ground is showing. There are many worthless weeds and grasses invading on this bare ground.

The sandyland in many cases has had much of the grass completely killed out. This country which used to grow sand blue-stem, little blue-stem, sideoats grama, and dropseed couldn't stand the close grazing that it was subjected to during the drouth.

Ranch Plan Needed

The picture is not a rosy one and the recovery will be slow at best. The best solution, or at least a step in the right direction is to develop a well planned system of grazing (rain helps too!). This grazing plan or ranch plan may need to include such practices as planting supplemental pastures of improved grass. It may mean deferring certain pastures during a part of the growing season. It may mean seeding some depleted rangeland to native grass or re-locating the salt to obtain uniform grazing. A well planned grazing plan will mean keeping a stocking rate consistent with the amount of grass your ranch will produce.

Good Ranges Are Important

Why is it so important for a rancher to improve his rangeland? Generally speaking, the better the condition of the rangeland, the greater the profit per acre will be. Experiments on little blue-stem grass in the Flint Hills grazing region indicate that blue-stem clipped to a height of 1 1/2 inches each week, produced only 20% as much total forage as blue-stem which was not clipped. True, this isn't the Flint Hills, but this same principle applies wherever you are. The more forage your land will produce, the more profit you have a chance to make. How is your rangeland doing?

Lyndon Johnson Predicts Cut In Ike's Budget

Congress will cut the budget submitted by President Eisenhower for the fiscal year 1958, Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, Senate Majority Leader, predicted this week.

"There will be material cuts in the budget," Senator Johnson declared. "We are going to try to make them material enough to justify relief from the heavy tax burden."

The Texas Senator is a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Johnson said that during his visit to Texas the latter part of April he heard many "disturbing reports" about the economic situation.

"Business men tell me their profits are down even though they are doing more business than they did last year," he said. "People on a salary tell me their bank accounts are lower even though they have had no salary cuts."

"Costs are up all along the line—the cost of living, the cost of money, the cost of doing business. We have prosperity in terms of gross income. But in terms of take-home pay and profits—the kind that puts pork chops and potatoes on the table—the picture is far from bright."

"It is not surprising that there are such strong demands for economy in government. The recent tax bite was a heavy strain on our people."

AUSTIN, TEX.—Texans will be a long time cleaning up from one of the greatest flood disasters in the state's history.

Nearly 10,000 persons were forced out of their homes and some 35,000 square miles were affected, according to official estimates.

State, national and private agencies are cooperating to help the flood victims. At the request of Gov. Price Daniel, Pres. Dwight D. Eisenhower designated the flooded counties as "major disaster areas." It brought an immediate flow of funds, equipment and supplies to aid State Disaster Relief Headquarters.

Governor Daniel also asked the Legislature for $20,000 to replenish the National Guard's fund for emergency work.

As waters receded in most areas, people began to take stock of the future. Though crop damage was estimated as high as $30,000,000, most farmers took a long range view.

Many missed the corn planting season and will have to switch to sorghum or some other crop. Others have put cattle back on dry feed after seeing the best pasturage in years ruined by floods. "But," they say, "at least it's wet."

Water conservationists point to the flood-ridden areas as "Exhibit A" in the case for more dams and lakes. Ramping rivers could be held in check, they say, saving top-soil and water for future use.

IT'S GOVERNOR LOCK NOW—Sen. Otis Lock of Lufkin became Governor for a day and received all the honors customarily paid on such occasions.

May 3 long will be remembered by the 46-year-old lawyer who has served 18 years as a state official.

He issued a proclamation designating the day as Texas Interscholastic League Day; addressed the high school journalists assembled in Austin; served coffee and cake in the reception room of the Governor's office; and attended a banquet given in his honor by his many Lufkin friends.

As president pro tem of the Senate, Lock became Governor for a day when Governor Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey left the state on official business.

LONG TALK—Longest filibuster in Texas State history brought only a "moral victory" for opponents of school segregation bills.

Sens. Abraham Kazen Jr. and Henry Gonzalez teamed up to talk 36 hours and 2 minutes against a bill to allow school boards to assign pupils to certain schools. When they finally quit, their colleagues passed the measure and sent it back to the House for concurrence on a minor amendment.

Proponents agreed to delay for a few days taking up other segregation bills.

Previous filibuster record was 31 hours and 25 minutes set in 1949 by opponents of a medical bill.

Kazen and Gonzalez were aided by prolonged questions from other anti-segregation minded senators. Those who opposed the bill included Sens. R. A. Weinert, Bruce A. Reagan, Hubert Hudson, Charles Herring, Carlos Ashley and Frank Owen III.

ICT REPORT—Senate ICT Committee's voluminous report had no kind words for those who had been connected with the $4,000,000 failure.

It said the company was founded contrary to law and operated in a negligent, haphazard and downright fraudulent manner. It sharply criticized Ben Jack Cage, onetime ICT manager, and labor leaders who had helped Cage sell union people on investing in ICT.

Union officials, it said, had been compromised by "lavish entertainment" or payment of money. Their attitude was called "negligent or at least complacent."

Committee made 20 recommendations for tightening laws to prevent future ICTs. One would make insurance company officials criminally liable for false statements. Another would place insurance securities under supervision of a securities commission.

NATUROPATHS SET BACK—Naturopaths are in a worse quandary than ever now that State Supreme Court has ruled their licenses to practice are no good.

This upheld a lower court ruling that the 1949 licensing law was unconstitutional.

Texas Naturopaths will be in court again next week when Ex-Rep. James E. Cox of Conroe comes to trial. Cox is charged with consenting to accept a bribe from a TNA member in return for killing a bill outlawing naturopathy.

INSURANCE REORGANIZATION—Governor Daniel is riding a crest of triumph after House passage of his plan to reorganize the Insurance Commission. After weeks of wrangling and nip-and-tuck committee votes, final approval was by a lopsided 109 to 25.

House version calls for a three-man, full-time board all to be appointed by the governor. Senate already has passed a similar bill calling for a part-time board.

Both versions would remove from office John Osorio, the present commission chairman, and Member Mark Wentz. Opposition by their friends in the Legislature was one of the main obstacles to reorganization passage. Joe P. Gibbs, the third member of the commission, was appointed recently to serve temporarily.

THUMBS DOWN—In the push

THE BEAUTIFUL GARDEN of the Murphy Luna's was visited this week by H. C. Snyder, publisher of the Yoakum County Review, who is here from California on a business trip. Mr. Snyder had heard of the loveliness of the Luna flowers, and came away convinced that it was certainly not a "tall Texas tale." In the above photo, Mrs. Luna is presenting Mr. Snyder with a gorgeous bouquet of iris and bluebonnets. Review Photo to clear the Legislative calendars, a lot of bills are falling by the wayside. Measures which already have hit the dust include those to:

Abolish the property tax on automobiles and substitute higher registration fees; provide for re-districting of county precincts; require county judges to be lawyers; allow cities on local option to elect officials for four years instead of two; raise the minimum age for senators from 26 to 30 and the minimum for representatives from 21 to 25; require persons over 60 years of age to obtain an annual exemption certificate to vote; prohibit cities from annexing property property across county lines; and allow cities to issue bonds to build municipal parking lots.

APPROVED—Measures which apparently have made the grade: Allow use of tax money to advertise the state of Texas; levy penalties for tossing litter on public roads, parks and beaches; make it unlawful to carry a switch-blade knife; permit skipping of jury trials in lunacy cases; create a new Securities Commission to handle regulation now divided between the Insurance Commission and Secretary of State's office; create a system of full-time paid supervisors for paroled convicts; and define rights of REA co-ops to operate in areas annexed by cities.

FINE ARTS CLUB HEARS EXCELLENT PROGRAM ON 'OUR NATIVE MUSIC'

The Fine Arts Music Club met in its regular session May 2, in the home of Mrs. Rod Duff with Mrs. Pat Henard as co-hostess. Mrs. Ed Robertson played Rimsky Korsakoff's "Scherzazade" from "Ten Thousand and One Nights" while the delicious dinner of roast beef, stuffed baked potatoes, brussel sprouts, kernel corn, fresh vegetable relish dish, iced tea, hot biscuits, lemon cake and ice cream was served to sixteen members and their guests.

Flower decorations were Bells of Ireland and Flocks. The guests of honor were Mrs. P. W. St. Romaine and Miss Jeanine St. Romain. Jeanine was presented a rhinestone pin in the form of a grand piano, as a token of appreciation for all the many hours she has so graciously contributed to the club and the community.

Mrs. H. F. Barnes, columnist, gave an interesting talk on "Our Native Music". Mrs. Barnes emphasized the music of the pioneers saying that even though there were no pianos, pipe organs, saxophones or majorettes and that they were almost without musical education, they had their music even during the time of settlement, the butcher, baker, shoe maker, merchants and many others who felt a musical urge rehearsed regularly. The Sunday afternoon concerts were great events. From such beginnings came our school bands and city orchestras. Mrs. Wallace Randolph, program director, introduced Mrs. G. W. Cleveland, who gave a talk on the Cheyenne Indian War dances and played "Skiltons Arrangement of War Dance."

Mrs. Ed Robertson's topic was Negro Folk Music. She played the "Juba Dance" by Nathaniel Dett and recited an interesting and humorous poem relating to the origin of the Negro Folk Music.

The meeting was brought to a close with the members and guests rehearsing the songs which they will sing at the Baccalaureate service.

Final Rites for Mrs. J. L. Hicks Held on Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. J. L. Hicks were conducted at the Cundiff Community First Baptist Church Friday afternoon, May 3. Mrs. Hicks died about 8:00 a.m. Tuesday, April 30.

The Rev. Roy Anderson, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Jacksboro officiated and was assisted by Rev. Bill Evans, who is attending school in Fort Worth.

Burial was in the Cundiff cemetery.

Survivors include her husband, J. L. Hicks, Jacksboro, two sons, Ralph Hicks of Albany and John T. Hicks, Hillsboro, Ill., and one daughter, Mr. Earl Robertson, Sr., Plains, eight grandchildren, three sisters and two brothers.

ACROSS THE Cattle Guard

By LEO W. WHITE
County Agent

The gain contest for beef calf feeders will begin one week from Saturday, May 18. This contest will again be sponsored by G. W. Cleveland. There will be a 279 day period between the initial weigh day and the final date which is the first day of the County Fat Stock Show. There were 37 animals in the contest last year and it appears that there will be at least that many again this year.

I made the prediction last year that there would be three or four calves that would gain as much as 700 pounds during the period but I was mistaken. The top gaining calf fell short of that mark by two pounds. Surely, this year there will be some calves that go over 700 pounds. One thing for sure, there will be several kids trying to get well over 700 pounds of gain on their animal in order to feel like they have a chance to win that loving cup. An average gain of 2.6 pounds per day would give a total of 725 pounds for the whole gain period.

The Experiment Stations have proven that the fast gaining animals are also the animals that put on the most economical gains. They have pretty well established that the outward appearance of an animal does not indicate his gaining ability. Of course, any good cow man could look at a calf when he was between four and seven months of age and tell whether or not he was a good doing animal just by his size, his flesh and the condition of his hair. The body conformation is the thing that is not related to his ability to put on gain.

At the Pan-Tech Bull Progeny Test this year they found that the fastest gaining bull put on an average daily gain of 3.54 pounds. Their situation differed from ours in that the animals weighed about 600 pounds when the test started and were on feed for only 112 days. The fast gaining bulls ate 873 pounds of feed in order to put on 100 pounds of gain whereas the slow gaining animals required 1,333 pounds of gain. This testing work has been going on at Pan-Tech Farm at Amarillo since 1950 and the bulls that have been winning the contest for the past two or three years are sons of the bulls that were the top gainers up there in 1950 and 1951. They have a sale at the end of the feeding period and the fast gaining bulls have been demanding some pretty fancy prices. Perhaps we need to import some of that breeding into this county. That may be what we will have to do in order to get some of our steer calves to gain as much as 700 pounds over a 279 day period.

One thing that is consoling, for two years now the local contest has been won by a home grown calf. Marvin Taylor was the breeder of the 1956 winner and the winning calf in 1957 was bred by J. V. Been. The top three calves in the contest this past year were all bred in Yoakum County. Each year they were up against competition from calves that were brought in from out of the county. I think this is a healthy situation since it gives us something by which we can make comparison. On May 18th we will weigh some calves that came from outside the county again and there will be a good number of calves that were bred by local ranchers. Most of them will be dehorned and gentle so that they will not have anything to do for the next 279 days except put on weight. Animals will start coming in to the barns soon after lunch and the public is invited to come to the Livestock Exhibit Building and get a look at the stock.

In Her HONOR

Yes-sir-ee, the world voted her a day and Heaven was glad. Right now you should wrap up your heart in a card or a package and deliver it at once. She gave you life and love . . . what have you given her? Mother is our warm meal when we are hungry, our extra blanket when cold, our light in a dark room . . . it takes Mother every time.

There is something very special, something extra that comes only from mother . . . she makes us tick. Life will not change Mother's love, death will not conquer it. She is the soaring cloud of radiant rapture that lifts us to new attempts and the strength we need to see us through. This is Mother's Day, may we be with her in Church.

1st Baptist Church Participates in Special Program

The First Baptist Church of Plains is participating in the 1957 Texas Baptist General Convention Town and Country Achievement and Recognition Program.

There were 161 churches in Texas enlisted in this program last year and awards were made by Associations, by the 17 District Conventions and by the annual State Convention for the church and pastor making the best record. A large metal highway display sign is given to the winners in each of these three levels of competition. The pastor of the winning church will receive a scroll and the State Winner will speak at the annual State Convention.

Each church participating in the program sets up goals in the three general phases of activity. The three phases are, Toward a Better Church, Toward a Better Community, and Toward a Better World. An inventory questionnaire furnishes suggestions for worthy goals. Such projects as better health, education, and recreation are featured in the Better Community phase. Churches select their own projects for improving the church, community, and world relationship.

Churches in the open country and in towns up to 2500 population are eligible to enter this program. Twenty-three out of each twenty-nine Southern Baptist Churches are in this size classification.

Growth of interest in the movement is shown by an increase from 48 churches to the present 161 and a goal of 300 churches participating has been set up for this year in Texas.

Mr. Don Powell has been made chairman of the local General Progress Committee. Rev. C. J. Coffman is pastor of the church.

selections. A style show was presented with a basic wardrobe by adding all kinds of accessories. The girls then received their was to have been awarded hers, but was in the hospital and unable to attend. The program on Friday night began at 7:30. We didn't get to attend because of high water between the hotel and coliseum. It was a talent show. It rained hard all day long.

On Saturday morning, my mother and I took Mrs. Brown and Willie Mae to Love Field for their flight to Washington. While we were gone Pat Smith, the voting delegate, was at the meeting voting on the yearly issues. After the delegate's meeting, then came the most beautiful and extraordinary part of the whole meeting, the installation of the officers. The stage was decorated in F.H.A. colors, red and white. There was a white trellis collinear for a background, and then all of the girls in white formals. Each officer wore a red rose corsage, and the table before them had a huge red rose bouquet of roses with white candles lined on each side. It was really a wonderful scene.

After the installation, they served us lunch and at 1:30 the meeting was adjourned. We left Dallas about 2:00, and followed Mrs. Powell as far as Breckenridge, and there we turned north to Throckmorton, where we spent Saturday night with mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Coan. Early Sunday morning we continued our trip and arrived back in Plains at 2:30.

Enlistment Option of Army Explained By Local Recruiter

Another division has been added to the growing list of units in the Army's unit rotation program. It's the 8th Infantry Division, now stationed in Europe.

The enlistment option of direct assignment to the 8th Infantry Division is open only to young men who have not had prior service. Those applying must have high mental and physical qualifications. Accepted applicants will take basic training with the 1st Infantry Division, Fort Riley, Kansas. Upon completion of the training, they will be transferred to the 8th Infantry Division in Europe.

Enlistment under the Gyroscoupe plan permits enlistees to choose the unit with which they will serve. This plan particularly appeals to young men who want to know where they will serve and want "choice, not chance" in the United States Army, plus stability of duty assignments.
