

AUSTIN, Tex.—Despite the static about treasury troubles, Gov. Price Daniel insists that the Texas Legislature can hold a special session and still have money left over.

Recently, House Speaker Waggoner Carr and others suggested that the state might not be able to pay session cost without a new tax. But the governor said his budget department estimates that a brief session, limited to two or three subjects could be held for as little as $250,000. He reported that some $618,416 is available. This is considerably more than any previous estimate had indicated.

Governor Daniel made it clear that none of the objections have lessened his determination to issue a special call for passage of lobby control, water conservation and possibly other important measures.

HELP ON OIL ASKED—As the state moved into another month of low oil production, Governor Daniel wired Pres. Dwight D. Eisenhower that a "real emergency exists."

He asked the President's help in obtaining a limit on foreign oil imports. "More drilling rigs are being stacked," the governor's wire noted, with an "adverse effect on state revenues."

Because of lowered demand for Texas oil, the Railroad Commission set the August allowable at 13 producing days, same as for July. It is the lowest producing pattern ever used in the state.

INDIVIDUAL INCOMES UP—Texans are getting richer, according to Uncle Sam's tax reports for fiscal 1957.

For the five-state Southwest area federal tax collections hit the all-time record total of $4,346,149,316. More than half of this—$2,560,867,402—comes from Texas. This is a 7 per cent increase for this state over last year's collections.

Of this total, 75 per cent comes from income taxes, the remainder from employment taxes, excises, etc. Revenue officials attributed the big jump to higher salaries in the Southwest.

IT'S AN ILL WIND—Cricket season came early this year in the Capital City. The pesky, black jumpers which pay Central Texas an annual visit in great numbers, are here.

But Marion Toole, aquatic biologist for the Texas Game and Fish Commission, says it's a lucky season for fishermen. Crickets, it seems, are considered a real delicacy by all game fish. But sunfish and bass bite them best, he says. "It's too good an opportunity for any fisherman to pass up."

So, while merchants fight them in downtown areas and home owners spray and dust around porches and patios, both fish and fishermen can have a field day. "And they'll be with us until early September," Toole added.

TRAFFIC TOLL UP—Texas traffic deaths and injuries jumped an estimated two per cent for the first six months of this year compared to 1956.

Reports from the Department of Public Safety for January-June, 1957, show 96,785 accidents. Total for the same period in 1956 was 91,555 accidents. Final figures on deaths and injuries are not yet tabulated.

One bright spot, however: deaths dropped from 5.7 per million vehicle miles to 5.5 for this year.

VETS DUE REFUNDS—Some $16,271 in fees will be returned to veterans who started but did not complete transaction with the Veterans Land Board.

Before it was amended by the last Legislature, the law did not allow the board to return fees to veterans who changed their minds about buying land.

Average refund will be about $70, largest $100, according to Land Commissioner Earl Rudder.

"FLU" WATCH ON—An outbreak of Asiatic "flu" in Texas is likely, say State Health Department officials.

Many Texans were believed exposed at a church conference in Grinnell, Iowa, and at the Boy Scout Jamboree in Valley Forge, Pa.

Adding to the uneasiness was a report that 50 sailors stationed at Corpus Christi had been stricken.

Present vaccines are ineffective against this Asiatic virus, said Dr. J. E. Peavy, chief epidemiologist. "But I have a new vaccine will be ready by fall."

VICE CAMPAIGN IN THE RED—Atty. Gen. Will Wilson's department is having to use "rubber checks" to carry on with its campaign against organized gambling.

Because of its extra activities, the department ran out of money, with no more due until the new fiscal year begins, Sept. 1 Govern-

Scattered Rains Beneficial to Crops

Scattered rains that varied from light showers to a cloudburst dotted the area within the last two weeks to give cotton crops a new lease on life, bringing the total rainfall for the month of July up to 5.96, gauged by the local weather observer, John Hague. The total for the first seven months is now 14.32.

Rains have been so varied that there is no one best area. Prospects for a cotton crop look much better now than they did 10 days ago. Even where the rains skipped fields, the cooler weather has helped crops considerably.

nor Daniel granted the department $11,425 from his special emergency fund of $200,000. But, because of a technicality in the wording of the bill, this money isn't officially available either until 1959.

Hence, the checks written on the fund are deficiency warrants, which, said the comptroller, are really "hot checks." Banks can't get their money from them until the Legislature meets and makes them good.

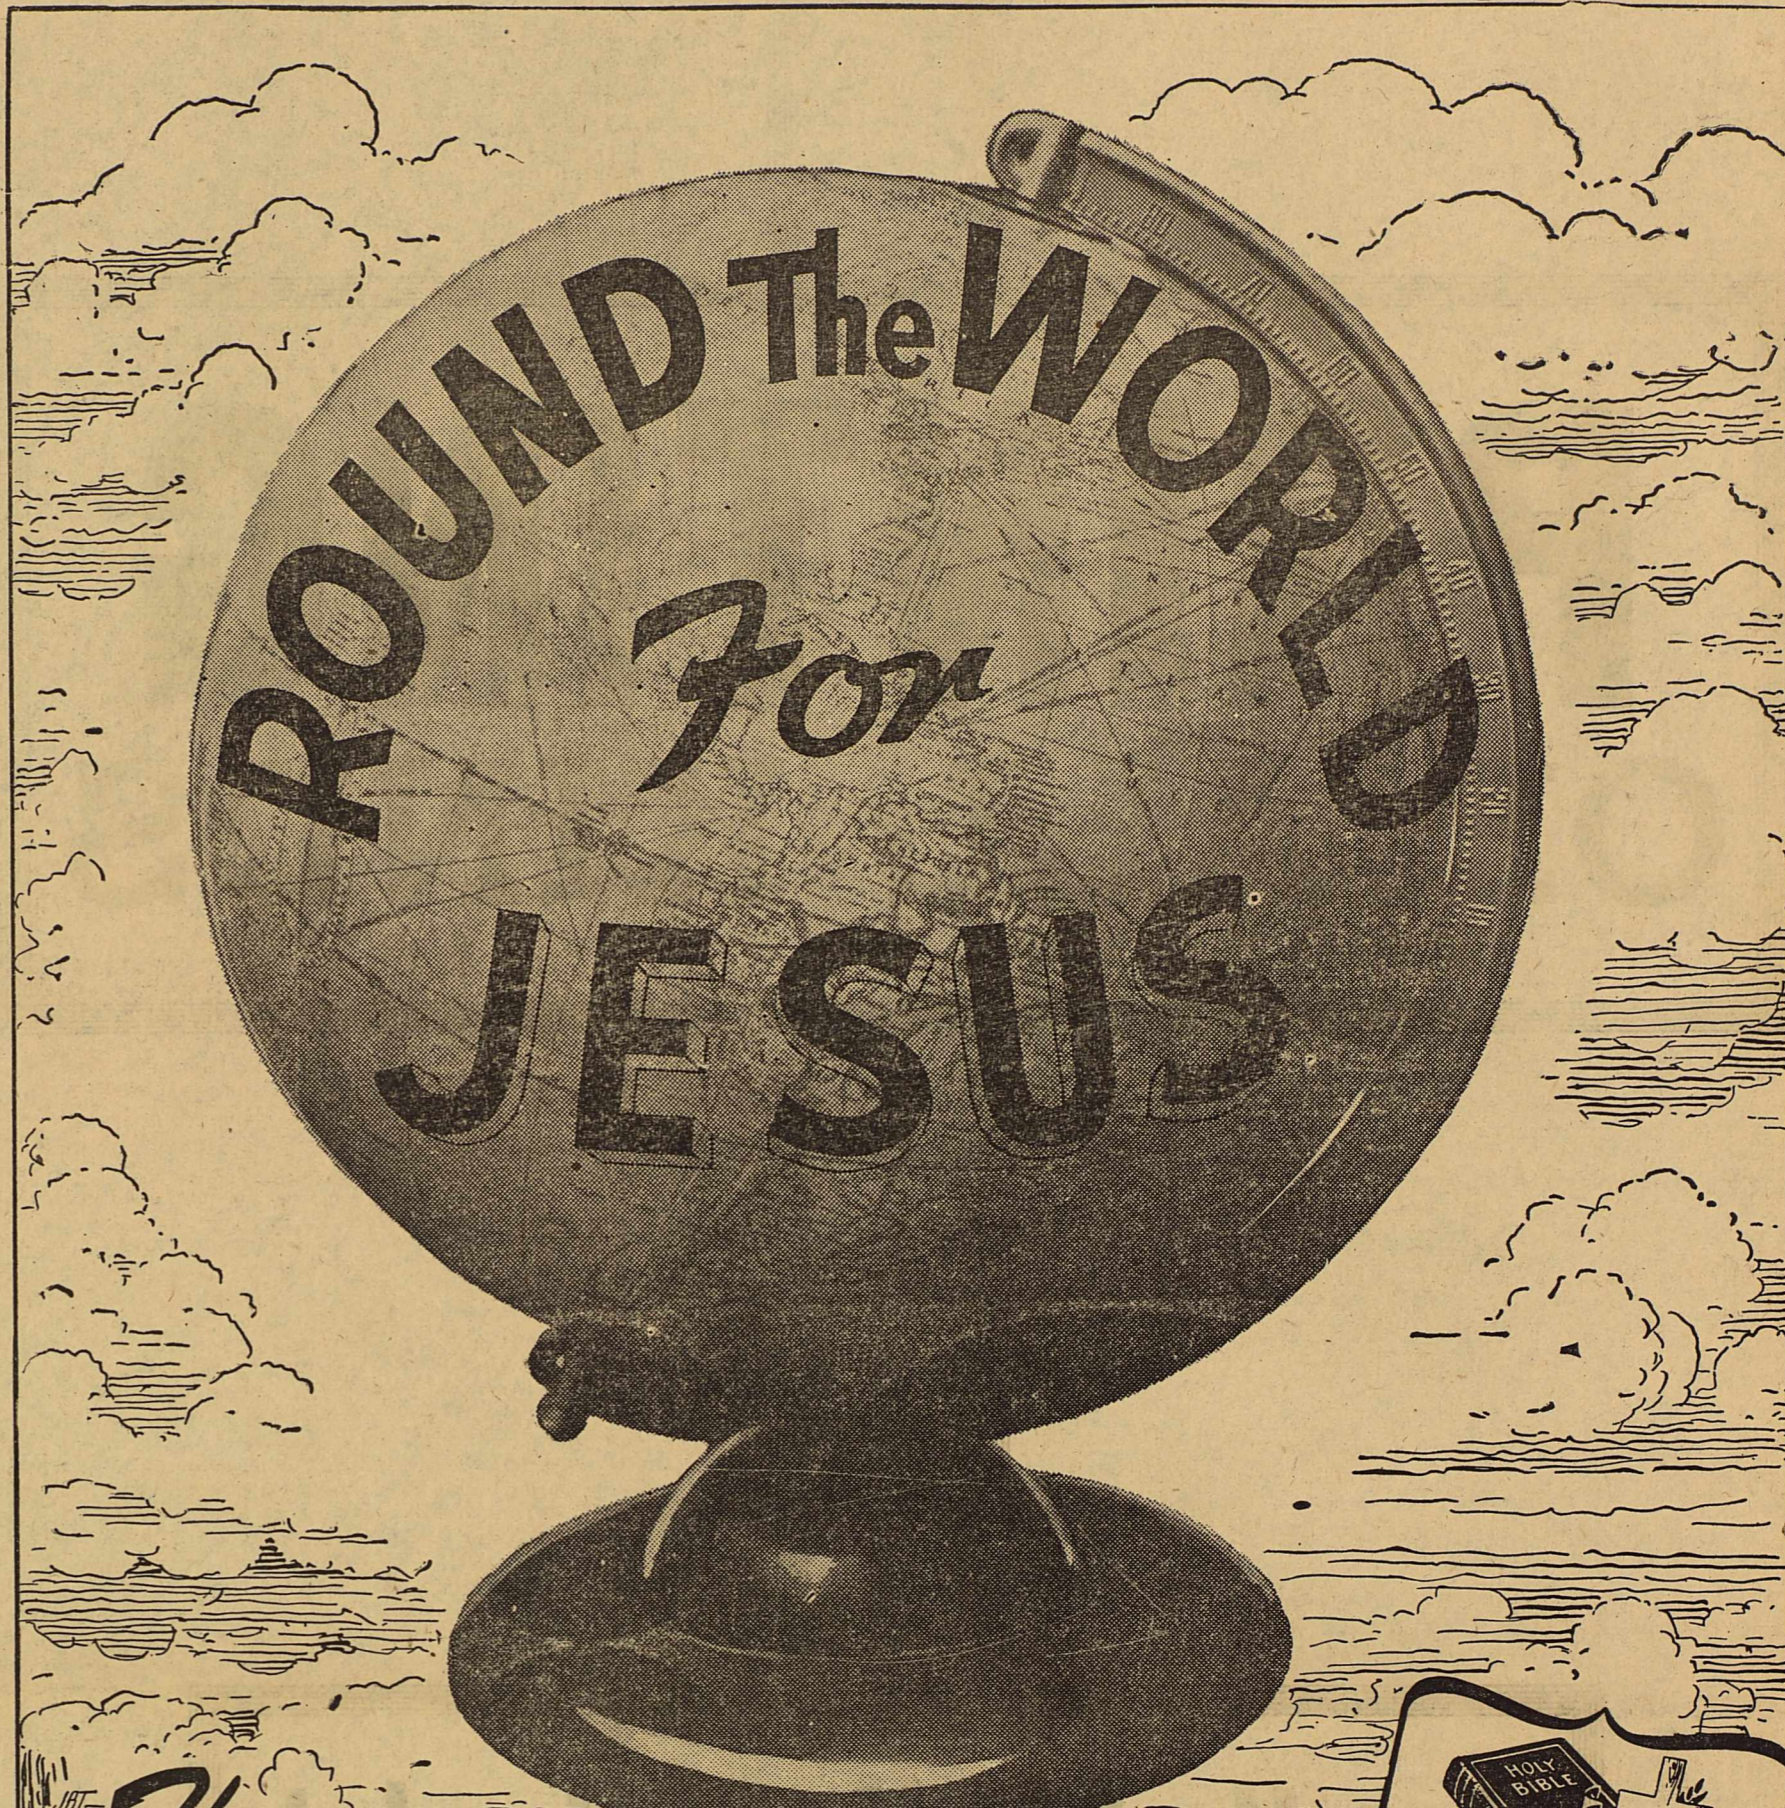

OPTOMETRISTS WRANGLE—Texas optometrists are still in a hassle as to whether the state can regulate their advertising—and if so, how much.

Prior to the last Legislature the State Board of Optometry Examiners tried to set up advertising regulations. Suit was brought challenging its authority and the effort was dropped.

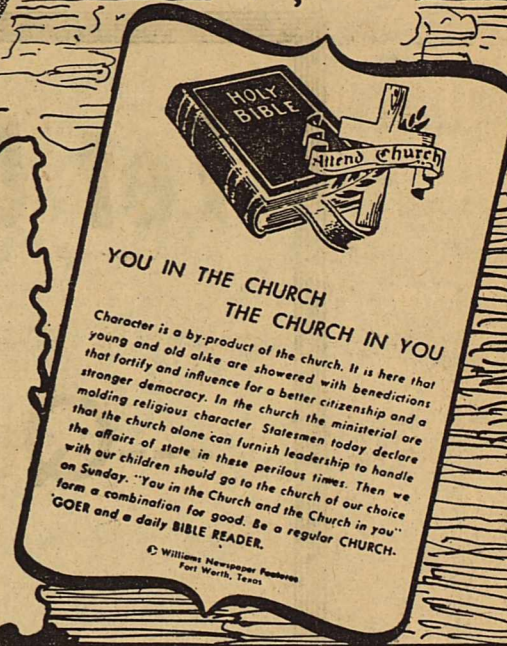

Last session a new law was passed barring "fraudulent, deceitful or misleading" advertising. At a recent meeting the board is reported to have set machinery in motion to form an advisory committee from the profession with powers to set restrictions. But some practitioners objected and talked of trying to get advertising media to bring suit to test the constitutionality of the new law.

A board spokesman promptly explained the board wasn't contemplating any ban on advertising. He said the statewide advisory committee was only to make recommendations which would not be binding.

SHORT SNORTS—Half as many legislators with twice as much pay has been proposed by Austin's Sen. Charles Herring. "I've found it difficult to deal effectively with such a large number of lawmakers," said Herring, but added that he doubted the halving plan would be adopted. . . . A total of 92 new firms employing 1,587 persons was started in Texas last month, reports the Texas Employment Commission. . . . Low bids totaling $14,063,208 were tabulated by the State Highway Department in its July bid opening for road construction projects. . . . One of the largest organizations in Texas was launched this week at a convention leading up to the merger of state labor groups into the Texas AFC-CIO.

How far are YOU willing to go? A little way? Half way? Completely around the world??? Have YOU ever heard His command, "Go ye into all the world . . ." Well, what are you doing about it? Have you answered that call? This is the moment of decision. It is a personal decision . . . a positive act of the will. It must be performed in the lonely solitude of your soul, in the presence of its Maker. Then, Choose YE this day. Decide right now just how far YOU are ready to go for Him. Gilder said, "As for me and my house, if Jesus Christ were a man and only a man, I say that of all mankind I would cleave to Him, and to Him would I cleave away. But if Jesus Christ is God and the very God, I vow I will follow Him through Heaven and Hell, the Earth, and Sea, and Air!" How far will you go???

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

By Sen. Lyndon Johnson

Dear Friend:

The debate on so-called "civil rights" bill has been one of the most enlightening in Senate history.

The bill—written by Attorney General Herbert Brownell—came to us widely advertised as a "right to vote" bill. Thoughtful Senators trained in the law—Richard B. Russell, of Georgia, and Sam Ervin, of North Carolina—refused to take the advertising at face value. They discovered that it:

Resurrected a forgotten reconstruction statute passed in the days when Thaddeus Stevens was riding high.

Permitted the Attorney General to go into Federal courts and take out an injunction against anyone he considered to be infringing upon "civil rights."

Authorized the trial without jury of anyone accused of violating the injunction.

Authorized the President to call out the Army, the Navy and the militia to enforce the injunction.

In blunt language, this so-called "moderate" law would revive the blackest page in American history—the Reconstruction era.

Those backing the law claimed at first that these powers were not in the bill. But they had to back down under the weight of compelling arguments. They retreated to another line of defense. They insisted that the President would not "use" such powers.

This argument did not impress the Senate. Few members could see the wisdom of voting unwise powers to a President on the theory that he would save us from our own folly by inaction.

By a vote of 90 to 0, the Senate killed the "troops" section.

At the time this is written, some backers of the bill are looking for a "face saving" compromise. But the mood of the Senate is to reduce the measure to a right-to-vote bill—which is what it was supposed to be anyway.

I wish you would write me and give me any suggestions you have about issues and problems we face. I get strength from your counsel.

The Thrill That Comes Once in a Lifetime

Nope, it don't take a sculptor to make a bust out of some folks.

Some gals need a good sh-lackin', the way they paint.

It must be tough to have a thin skin and a thick head.

Some old grouches do have ulcers, others give 'em.

A fighter usually cooks his goose when he forgoes to duck.

It seems that some folks are pickled on more than a banjo.

Yep, pickled drivers should be kept in the jug.

In the end everybody has about the same size house.

Loose talk kin sure git a feller in a tight spot.

Some fellers spread it on thick, others just lump it.

Most fellers like the misses who come across with hugs and kisses.

Sometimes a wolf has to be pretty foxey to land him a dear.

To enjoy life and make it full, then don't depend upon a pull.

Some boxers are cabbage heads with colliflower ears.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

STATE MAY WIN PROPERTY WHEN WILL IS LACKING

Make your will? If not, the State of Texas may wind up as owner of your estate upon your death. Under our statutes, the estates of persons having no heirs who die intestate revert, or "escheat", to the State.

Such provisions have been carried over from the English common law. There, under such circumstances, the estate escheated to the British Crown. The theory of the process is that the sovereign (or State), having been the original owner of all lands before they were parceled out to individuals, is entitled to a return of such lands when the possibilities of legal inheritance have been exhausted.

This idea has been expanded to include personal property as well as real estate. It also applies in the case of a person absent for a term of seven years and not known to exist who leaves no heirs and no will.

Presumably, there is hardly a person who does not have some individual or charity that he would prefer to have his estate rather than have it go to the State by default, so to speak. Yet surprisingly, estates worth many thousands of dollars do escheat to the various states from time to time.

Now, before you shrug off with the idea that these statutory provisions could not possibly apply to you, better think a minute. Suppose you and your spouse have no heirs besides each other and your children. Many people do fall into this category.

In event of a catastrophe resulting in death for you and your entire immediate family, no legal heirs would remain. Therefore if you had no will, your property would go to the State. In preparing a will, it is possible to provide for such an eventuality.

In this hypothetical case, you would probably want to designate some friend as executor, to take care of all necessary arrangements and then distribute the estate according to your wishes.

On the other hand, if you have plenty of possible heirs, a will could be used to designate which of them shall participate in the division of the estate. And even if you wish your property to be distributed entirely in accordance with our statutes of descent and distribution as explained in previous columns, a will can perform useful functions. Among other uses, a will could provide for an orderly and economical partition of your property, preventing any waste of the assets by heirs impatient for a settlement.

What happens to property which escheats to the State? Following certain required legal formalities and court proceedings, all escheated lands are set apart to the Permanent Free School Fund of the State, and may be leased and sold by the Land Commissioner under certain regulations. Escheated personal property is sold by the local sheriff under a court writ and the money received therefrom paid into the State Treasury.
