Three Are Named Winners In Essay Contest In Region

Three Plains students have just received word that they will receive medals as fifth, sixth and seventh place winners in Region 1 of the Fort Worth Press Essay contest. Winners were Judy Lowe, Marsha White and Jeannine St. Romain.

The local essay contest was sponsored by the Board of Supervisors of the Yoakum Soil Conservation District and Judy and Marsha received plaques as District winners. Ten of the local entries in both the senior high and junior high division were sent as entries in the state wide contest.

Bob Carson Gregg was found guilty of murder without malice in the shooting of his employer, Austin Addison, and a maximum five year sentence in the state penitentiary recommended by the 109th District Court jury at Andrews as they returned their verdict in the trial early this morning (Thursday).

Gregg has 10 days in which to file a motion for a new trial before sentence is imposed by District Judge G. C. Olsen. Following the report of the jury, Gregg indicated he did not want to accept the verdict, but no action is expected for a few days.

Jury in the trial was selected by mid-afternoon Monday and the first witness for the prosecution heard before court recessed. The major part of the witnesses were heard on Tuesday, with the prosecution presenting several rebuttal witnesses Wednesday morning. The charge to the jury and arguments took the major part of the afternoon.

The jury returned the verdict about 1 a.m. after deliberating some five hours. The case was handed to the jury at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday night.

Representing Gregg in the trial were two court appointed lawyers Tom Steele of Levelland and Henry Guillet of Andrews. Representing the state was District Attorney Max Ramsey, with Galloway Huffaker of Tahoka as special prosecutor.

Gregg was accused of shooting Addison who was his stepson-in-law last August on the latter's farm near the Gaines-Andrews county line. Addison was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Addison of Plains and had farmed near Plains until about a year prior to his death. Gregg also at one time resided in Plains.

Addison was shot several times with a .22 rifle while working on a tractor. Gregg had earlier told officers he did it because he was "tired of being pushed around."

The farm is located between Andrews and Seminole, and Gregg was first placed in Gaines county jail after being arrested by Seminole officers. However, later it was determined that the shooting took place on the Andrews.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Texas—Unemployment or no unemployment, most people this side of the Rio Grande aren't willing to bend their backs to pull onions at 50 cents an hour.

So say Texas farmers. Their crops are going to rot in the fields, they add, if the U. S. Labor Department doesn't relax restrictions on importing Mexican nationals.

Spokesmen for organized labor have demanded a ban on importing labor because of climbing unemployment. But farmers say that idle aircraft mechanics, no matter how numerous, are no help in getting the crop in.

According to the farmers, abundant rainfall gives promise of the best harvests in years—if they can get field hands.

Labor Dept. has put a limit of 26,500 braceros to be used in Texas during April and May. It's about one-fifth the number used this time last year. Rio Grande Valley growers say they could use the whole bunch in their area.

Texas Employment Commission says there are already about 26,500 here; hence, no more imports. Under Labor Dept. regulations, workers cannot be imported until the TEC certifies the jobs cannot be filled with American citizens. Valley growers recently asked for braceros to harvest vegetables. TEC certified to a short-total 254 lives or approximately 10 per cent of last year's traffic death toll.

ANTI-AD BAN UPHELD—A new law prohibiting price advertising of eye-glasses is constitutional, says the Texas Supreme Court.

Passed by the last legislature, the law says "ophthalmic dispensers" (which the court says means optometrists, too) may not mention "bait, discounts, premiums, prices, gifts" in their ads.

It landed in the courts when one group of optometrists (Texas State Optical) brought suit to prevent another group (Lee Optical) from advertising prices. Defendants said the law was invalid because its caption did not specifically mention the things the law covered.

But the high court ruled the caption was clear enough. The bill as originally introduced made no reference to price advertising. The portion pertaining thereto was inserted in committee without there being any change in the caption.

Opponents of bill charged "trickery." They argued that this was just another attempt to raise the price of glasses by prohibiting the publicizing of prices.

UP THE LADDER—One plan to up-grade higher education in Texas has official approval of the Commission on High Education. Others are under study.

Commission approved a request from the University of Texas to divert $1,000,000 from its Available Fund, ordinarily used for buildings, to a research program. Noting that the University needs "brains as well as bricks," President Logan Wilson said the money would be used to attract and hold outstanding research personnel and provide them with equipment and books.

Still under consideration by the Commission are:

(1) Texas Technological College's request for graduate engineering study. Tech's engineering department is a sort of "strong back and weak mind" program, said President E. N.

Jones, with 2,700 students and no upper-level study to attract top-notch teachers.

(2) Texas A&M's touchy problem of whether to admit women.

(3) A proposal to concentrate graduate study in home economics at the two state college at Denton, curtailing home economics at the University of Texas. Commission voted to re-study after hearing UT exes' protests.

TFAA spokesmen said they particularly wanted to encourage exhibits from small town groups, such as hooked rug clubs and church needlework groups. Booths may be rented for nominal fees. Applications should be made at once by writing Mrs. Wille Burk, P. O. Box 5023, Austin.

Designed to create the atmosphere of an Old World fair, the fiesta will have strolling musicians, singing gondoliers, boat rides, a Mexican Market, Siamese gardens puppet show fish pond, and of course, a serious art exhibit.

JUDGE GREENHILL FILES—Judge Joe Greenhill of Travis County who was named to the Supreme Court last fall by Gov. Price Daniel, to succeed the late Judge Few Brewster, has filed for election to the office, Judge Greenhill, who has had 20 years of trial and Appellate Court experience, says he will campaign actively in every county in the state between now and the July 26 primary.

Cotton Planting Conditions Said Best In 17 Years

Pre-planting conditions of the 23 member counties of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. were reported in the best shape in many years this week after additional general showers added up to 2 inches of moisture last weekend.

As planting time nears, Texas Experiment Station officials, officers of the PCG and Extension Service personnel urged farmers to follow the Plains Cotton Guide in cooperating with advice from county agents and other agricultural authorities to try and produce a higher quality cotton this season.

One of the things farmers can do to try and insure some of this quality which will return in more profit to the farmers—in cotton production is to have soil tests made on their land if they do not now know the fertility level.

Subsoil moisture, possible the best at this time of the year on the Plains since 1941, indicates a 1958. With this reserve supply of moisture and increased yield potential comes a greater need for an adequate fertility level, Dr. Clark Harvey, associate agronomy professor at Texas Tech, explains.

In drouth years lack of moisture naturally becomes a limiting factor in crop production. But in periods of sufficient moisture, plant nutrients often become the limiting factor. So, with chances for sufficient moisture good, farmers are advised to apply sufficient fertilizer on irrigated land to supply enough plant nutrients for good growth.

A soil test is the best way to determine the needs for this, Dr. Harvey said. A soil test will not only determine the amount of nitrogen, phosphorous and possibly potash that will be needed, but it will also supply information about the proper balance in which the nutrients should be applied, he added.

The recommendations based on a soil test are designed to give the yield increase which would result in the most profitable return. Water management and other proven practices also must be utilized to get maximum yields of quality cotton, Dr. Harvey concluded.

Farmers can check with their county agents on soil tests.

MOST FAMILIES USE CREDIT

How much did you charge to your accounts last month?—The average customer came closer to $100 than to $10, according to Mrs. Eula Newman, extension home management specialist.

Debt can be constructive or destructive depending upon your credit capacity and management. It would not be wise to mortgage needed income tomorrow, next month or next year to satisfy pleasures and comforts that are to be consumed today. A fine durable product that gives good service far beyond the last payment date may be worth the extra charge for credit.

Many young families have taught themselves to save by buying on installment plans. Planned spending is the secret to sound use of credit. There are advantages and disadvantages in using credit.

Paying cash for little things, paying when the bill is due, limiting the number of accounts will make for smoother financial sailing.

Try to keep charge accounts under control. The amount of credit you can use depends largely on: capacity to meet financial commitments; the prospect of continuing employment or income, and on assets or capital on hand.

If we learn to use credit wisely it can serve us—otherwise we may become slaves to excessive charge accounts and worry.

Buying furniture wisely includes a long time plan for families on a budget. Usually the main pieces are bought the first year with smaller less essential furniture and accessories.

When buying upholstered furniture there are a few things to look for:

A. The round coil type spring usually last longer than the bar type-non-sag spring.

B. The webbing strips at the bottom of the chair looks like canvas ribbon. The webbing should be tight and make a drumming sound when thumped with the hand.

C. The springs should be sewed to the webbing to hold them securely in place.

D. The padding should be firm and covered with burlap, muslin, and then the final cover fabric.

E. The outer cover should be soil resistant. The longer fiber which is tightly twisted will wear longer. A close weave will not snag as easily as a loose weave.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Randolph were in Lubbock over the weekend visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Randolph.

Mr. John Hague returned home Monday evening after a few days' visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Oden Hawley, Texas. While there, Mr. Hague enjoyed fishing.

Mrs. J. B. Hillhouse of Odessa, is visiting this week in the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Chapman, Marvin and Jo.

Cotton Planting Dates For Plains Given As May 5-20

Optimum cotton planting dates on the Texas High Plains are May 5—20, Don L. Jones, former Superintendent of the Lubbock Experiment Station, has reminded Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. members.

"Later planting usually results in lower quality cotton and if planting must be done after June 1 select an early maturing variety," Jones advises.

As to prior planting, Jones explained that years of research work at the Experiment Station has shown that the best results for planting comes when the soil temperature averages 60 degrees for 10 days at an 8-inch depth from the top of the bed.

Daily radio and newspaper reports are now being broadcast and published which gives the average daily temperatures. This information is part of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. Educational Program to try and help High Plains Cotton farmers produce a higher quality cotton in 1958.

In other planting tips Jones urged farmers to use delinted, treated seed if possible, and warned them to check the seed germination percent and to alter planting rates accordingly.

A uniform stand of approximately four stalks per foot in 40-inch rows is recommended. Plant 20 to 30 pounds of seed per acre, adjusting the rate according to germination tests and the use of a seed press wheel and shallow furrows will help plant emergence to be rapid, he added.

The method of harvest to be used should help determine the variety to plant when practical since storm-resistant cottons maintain quality longer in the field and strip better than open-boll types, Jones concluded.

May We Ask You a Favor?

WE KNOW that YOU KNOW value when you see it. You are able to pretty accurately judge the quality of a piece of merchandise, and whether or not "the price is right."

And . . . we also know that when you buy Home Furnishings, you are looking for your money's worth. You are intent upon getting the most for every dollar you spend. If you have a trade-in, you are naturally interested in getting the highest allowance possible for it. If you have ready cash, you are going to search for the best obtainable. In other words, you are going to shop around and carefully compare quality, price, trade-in, and terms.

THAT IS WHY WE ARE ASKING YOU THIS FAVOR. We would like for you . . . right now . . . to promise yourself and promise us that you'll drop in and shop our store before you make your next purchase of Home Furnishings. You'll be under no obligation, of course—just come in and compare our quality, prices, trade-in allowances and terms with what you can find anywhere else in West Texas. Ask us to quote your our deal on the furnishings you are interested in. Then you can be the judge of where you can get the most for your dollar.

We'll certainly thank you if you'll do us this favor. And in the final analysis, we think you'll be doing yourself a big favor, too.

Perhaps the most inspirational portion of the program is that presented to the gathering of church members in the "Sermon in Song." This presentation by the chorus of five well-known hymns interspersed with narration which relates the music to the whole, is an experience which must not be missed. The young men in the chorus who do the narration have been trained by Virgil Lawyer, head of the Speech Department and do an excellent job.

VISION

How far can you see? When you look, what do you see? Vision means more than just to see something with the eye. Actually, the deeper meaning of vision would be to perceive what is not seeable to the eye... a mental view or image. True, the eyes deliver 87% of all impressions to the brain. But vision means seeing further than one can see with the eye.

We know 20-20 vision of soul has deeper meaning than 20-20 vision of the eye.

Do you have vision? Have you seen God lately? Have you visioned His church on the corner and all it stands for? When you read His Word can you anticipate all the glories of His second coming? May we develop 20-20 vision of sight, of mind, and of soul.

May we have true vision.
