The area Pony League baseball tournament will be played in Denver City July 23, thru 25. The other area champions will be decided the same week as the local tournament, the sites of those games being Hereford and Slaton. Two trophies will be awarded in the meet, with the runner-up receiving an award as well as the champion team. Each player will receive a 1958 Pony League jacket emblem.

New Postage Rates To Go Into Effect August 1st

Come August 1st, the new postage rates will go into effect, under a law passed May 27th, according to Robert Watson, postmaster. The new rates require a 4-cent stamp on all first class mail. Postcards will increase from two to three cents. Airmail rates will increase from six cents to seven cents. Airmail postcards will sell for five cents as compared to four cents now. Replacing the old three cent stamp will be the Lincoln four cent stamp. It will be lavender in color. The new seven cent airmail stamp, colored blue, shows a silhouette view of the wing spread and fuselage of a composite jet liner which will soon be in use. Second class mail rate will be two cents for the first two ounces and one cent for each additional ounce or fraction, or fourth class rate, whichever is lower. Third class mail will be raised from two cents for the first two ounces and one cent for each additional ounce to three cents for the first two ounces and one and a half cents for each additional ounce. Eight ounces now constitutes third class mail, but under the new law, fifteen ounces will be the maximum, Watson said. Becoming effective July 1st, all unpaid and insufficiently prepaid mail is now rated for the amount of the deficient postage plus a new short-paid charge of 5 cents and dispatched for delivery. Air parcels for overseas military addresses that were formerly limited to a weight of two pounds and not over 30 inches in length and girth are now limited to 70 lbs not to exceed 100 inches in length and girth. Mr. and Mrs. John Camp and Mr. and Mrs. Sherm Tingle and boys attended the rodeo in Lovington, N. M. Friday night.

Excellent Sorghum Crop Is Forecast For County

Prospects are excellent for the grain sorghum crop this year to exceed the 1,000,000 pounds of grain sorghums produced in the county in 1957, Leo L. White, county agent, said this week. "It's hard to tell exactly how many acres of grain sorghums are being grown in Yoakum County," White explained, "or what percent of the acreage has been planted to one of the hybrids but we feel that the 1958 crop will be at least 60 per cent hybrids. "We know," he continued, "that we have in excess of 130,000 acres in cultivation in the county. When we take off 36,000 acres for cotton and 20,000 acres for other crops we have about 75,000 left for sorghums. If the 60 per cent figure is near correct, then we have about 45,000 acres of the hybrids." Most of the hybrid grain sorghums will out-yield the standard varieties, the county agent pointed out, so the average production per acre should be increased on both irrigated and dry land. However, the fact that hybrids are being used is not the reason for all the high yields. Moisture conditions between now and harvest time will be the determining factor, he said. Yoakum County has a grain sorghum committee composed of Neil Hickman, Pete Bryson, Loren Gayle, E. D. Campbell and Paul Cobb. Four of these men attended a meeting last Monday night along with T. A. Elmore, who is chairman of the program building committee. The group heard Mr. Bill Nelson of Amarillo explain the workings of the Grain Sorghum Producers' Association, and all were quite interested to learn about the organization and that some work is being done to promote the crop. According to Mr. Nelson, about three percent of the grain sorghum seed is oil of a very high quality. Grain sorghum oil, he said, had the rare quality of withstanding a tremendous amount of heat without being damaged. It will be very desirable for a lubricant on fast running machinery which operates under a high temperature, and it also makes a very good cooking oil as it will get twice as hot as ordinary cooking oils before it will form any smoke. This smokeless quality, Nelson said, makes it desirable for cafes and school kitchens where smoke from hot grease is a problem. J. H. Baumgardner of Texas Tech has done a lot of work with

Business Growth Here Defies Recession Trend

13,236 Acres Placed In Soil Bank By Farmers

Yoakum County Farmers have placed in the Conservation Reserve Soil Bank 13,236 acres on 55 farms, according to W. M. Overton, manager of the ASC office. This land is in for a period of five to ten years and is to be seeded to a permanent vegetative cover. If a farmer has a CR Contract he should read the copy of the contract carefully so that he will fully understand all the requirements.

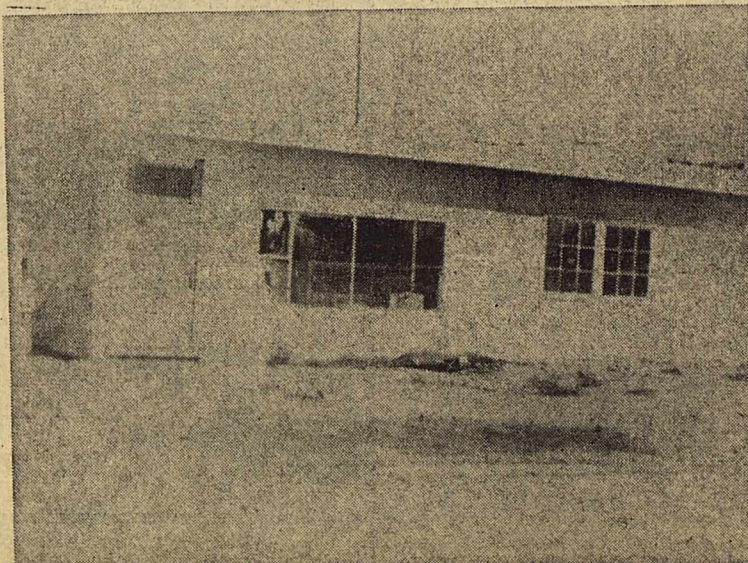

The annual payment on the land placed in the CR Soil Bank in Yoakum County is $9.00 per acre. Farmers also receive an additional payment for preparing land, seeding operation, and seed in establishing the permanent vegetative cover. Land placed in the soil bank cannot be grazed or no crop can be harvested during the life of the Contract.

Farmers also placed in the Acreage Reserve 741.0 acres of their 1958 cotton allotment, and 350.0 acres of their wheat allotment. The payments on this land will average approximately $27.00 per acre on cotton and $10.00 and acre on wheat.

These payments are being made as farms are checked and funds are made available. Even though a farmer has received or does receive his payment in the near future his responsibility under the agreement continues during the life of the contract. No crops can be harvested nor the acreage reserve land cannot be grazed.

SCD To Sponsor Tour

Plans have been completed for the tour to Wheeler, Texas to see the results of shinnery spraying. The tour is being sponsored by the Board of Supervisors of the Yoakum Soil Conservation District and everyone interested in the shinnery problem is invited to come and make the trip.

The group will meet at the courthouse in Plains next Monday morning July 14 at 5:00 a.m. We plan to leave at this early hour so that we will be able to make the trip there and back in one day.

Experiments have been carried on in that area for some time on the chemical control of shinnery and sage and the group will be able to see the results of spraying done over a period of some five years. During the past two or three years quite a lot of spraying has been done and the group will be able to see and talk to ranchers who have results of grazing following the control of the brush.

The results from this type of control of shinnery have been very good in that area and we are interested in knowing if it will be economical and practical in our area.

PUT YOUR STOCK IN DON HANCOCK FOR COUNTY JUDGE

(Paid Pol. Adv.)

If you weren't among the ten thousand who visited the National Rifle Association's annual convention in Dallas recently you missed a great show. Convention proceedings were most interesting. But the thing that held most of us was the exhibits of firearms.

We saw there literally hundreds of guns dating back to the beginning of firearms. Collectors from all over the United States brought in iron-bound wooden boxes with flint lock and percussion cap guns with which our freedom in America was won.

They had old Colts, Remingtons, Sharps and Winchester galore. Each gun was prominently displayed so it could be viewed and admired, along with modern day guns.

The whole show was a reminder that firearms are here to stay, and that we'd better do something about keeping a place to use them.

I was particularly impressed with the statement made by an old-timer who had been to most of the Camp Perry shoots. He was talking with a couple of game wardens at the Game & Fish Commission exhibit.

"Why don't you fellows in Texas get a real shooting range" he demand. "You have a few pretty fair rifle and pistol clubs scattered around over the state, but as big as Texas is you need a place to shoot that will even outrank Camp Perry."

That fellow had an idea which we hope some Chamber of Commerce will pick up and follow through on. We do need that big range, and we do need many smaller ones.

I realized this just the other day when a friend called me and asked where his 11-year-old son could get some 22 rifle practice. He had been shooting in a country gravel pit, but someone put a stop to that.

I couldn't keep from thinking how open the country was when I was a kid. We could shoot 22's anywhere. Today however cities are expanding rapidly and random 22 shooting is extremely dangerous.

Perhaps the problem could be solved locally in many places by some rancher dedicating one small canyon to 22 shooters under the age of 17. Anyway it's a good idea.

FASTER ON THE DRAW—Another thing that interested me at the NRA convention was the work of amateur gunslingers. There were several fellows there who'd better not run into Marshal Dillon. If they do Gussmoke will disappear in a puff.

Some of these quick draw artists are older men, but most of them are young fellows, who have quick reflexes and use a lot of science. They can flick out a long barrel six gun with either or both hands faster and faster.

Most of them were using the old single action, cocking type revolver. It will be interesting to see now whether another fraction of a second can be shaved from drawing and firing time with a new fast gun just announced by High Standard. It is patterned after the frontier models, but is double action and chambers nine 22 caliber cartridges.

This "Double Nine" as it is called, is sure to be showing up in all quick draw and rapid fire competitions where western guns will be required.

For years High Standard has been making top quality automatic pistols and revolvers for 22 ammunition. This gun should be their best.

BETTER AMMUNITION TOO—Ammunition manufacturers are continuing to bring out new and souped up versions of sporting ammunition that make us wonder how we ever killed anything with the old 'thuty-thuty.'

Winchester has just announced a couple of new loads. One is the 264 Winchester Magnum, which will provide hunters with a high velocity, flat shooting, long range load, ideal for deer, sheep and antelope.

The other is a 338 Magnum, as an intermediate cartridge for moose, Kodiak bear, lion, tiger and other heavier game.

Both cartridges are based on a case similar to the 458 Winchester Magnum, which permits the use of the Model 70 action.

Col Charles Askins Jr. who recently returned from Africa, field tested one of these 338 guns. He told me he had killed 18 animals with it in Africa.

Only one shot was necessary on 13 of them.

Colonel Askins is one of the world's great marksmen. He has shot all over the world, first as a forest ranger, then as a Border Patrolman. While in the Border Patrol he held all world's records in pistol shooting. Then he went into the Army. During the last 20 years he has shot big game all over the world, including lions and elephants in Africa and tigers in India.

He thinks the 338 is tops for a hunting gun. It will kick out a 200 grain bullet at 3050 feet, with 4130 pounds of muzzle energy, or a 300 grain bullet at 2840 pounds.

By comparison a 30-06 kicks out a 200 grain bullet at 2400 fs. with a muzzle energy of 2830 pounds. It almost equals the 375 H&H Super Speed, which emits a 300 grain bullet at 2550 fs. with an energy of 4330 pounds.

PELLET GUNS POPULAR NOW—While on the subject of guns we were also impressed with the Crosman display at the NRA show. Here is a pellet gun that has made very rapid strides in the last few years, especially for indoor targets.

These guns are available either air or gas powered. They are made in both 22 and 177 calibers. The pellet gun offers a great deal for both indoor and outdoor shooting. It is less dangerous in the open than conventional rifles. It must not be sold short however, in power, and should be handled with the same care as any other gun.

Crosman provides an indoor target range for the pellet gun, which permits a lot of target practice at a very reasonable price.

Newest in the Crosman line is the CO2 pistol, which gives power without powder. The Medalist model, which was on display at the Dallas show attracted a great deal of attention from military marksmen.

We stood and watched with great admiration some of the army boys who had been used to plugging away with 45 ACP's picking up one of those light Crosman pistols and putting pellets into the bull's eye at every shot.

They seemed to get as much kick out of the accuracy of these powderless guns as did the on-lookers who admired their marksmanship.

And, while Crosman makes mostly guns for fun, the company also produces another gun with a useful purpose. This gun, especially made for wildlife biologists, is used in trapping and tagging operations. It shoots a dart or needle containing an anesthetic which paralyzes the animal until it can be tagged or treated as the case might be.

Thoughts by Jerry

In the days of yore, when Yoakum County was mostly cattle country, there were many cow hands around these parts. When it became necessary to fence the land later on, some of the cowhands were assigned to "riding fence". They were called "fence riders".

We still have many "fence riders" today but most of them are now called "politicians". They do a different kind of fence riding. When a controversial issue is presented, they try not to be forced into taking a stand and ride the fence.

We also now have "fence jumpers". They jump from one side to the other and are swayed by the person they happen to be talking to at the moment.

If, by some strange quirk of fate, I am elected your county judge, I will approach all problems as I have done all my life—I will weigh all factors, being guided by "what is best and fairest for Yoakum County" and reach a conclusion and stay with it. You never have to wonder where I stand because I will and have always been completely frank. I guess that is why I will never make a good politician. It does help, though, as I never get my stories crossed. I have only one.

County for a better Yoakum County.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex.—Mid-way through the so-called "recession year" of 1958 economic forecasters are turning their eyes upward again.

Statistical reports show steady improvement in overall business activity since the bleak lows of February and March. If the hoped-for pick-up in oil demand develops during the latter half, analysts say, "1958 may be a good year after all."

Some of the bases for the current atmosphere of cautious optimism are these:

BANK DEPOSITS: Folks have lots in money in the banks; in most areas, more than last year. Response to the Texas Banking Commission's mid-year call for condition of banks showed that most have higher deposits than last summer and some are at new records high. Dallas County bank deposits increased by $333,000,000. Harris County (Houston) by more than $267,000,000 over a year ago. Towns with all-time high deposits were Amarillo, Corpus Christi, Tyler, Midland, Denton and Fort Worth.

RETAIL SALES: Despite sag here and there, Texas retail sales are expected to run some 7 per cent ahead of '57, says the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Because of low volume for the first five months of '58 were 1 per cent below the sales ahead of those for May, same period for '57. But a late spring upsurge put May, 1958, 1957. Apparently Texans are concentrating on essentials. Compared to last year, farm implement sales were up 27 per cent, food up 11 per cent autos down 8 per cent.

BUSINESS INDEX: BRR's latest report shows the 1958 level of general business activity 4 per cent below May 1957. But May, 1957 was a dizzy pinnacle, the highest point ever reached by the Texas business index. Since the low in March the index has made encouraging progress pulling up by 8 points. Fall will bring the tip-off says BRR as to whether recovery momentum is sufficient for a rise to a new crest.

EMPLOYMENT: Although thousands more were out of work than a year ago Texas Employment Commission's most recent over-all survey showed a substantial shortening of the jobless lines. Like the general business index, employment seemed to be making a steady recovery from the early spring

"trough." Number of unemployed dropped 4,200 during May, TEC reported, and non-farm employment rose to almost three million. Insured unemployment in Texas was only 4.1 per cent of the working force compared with the national average of 7.2 per cent.

COMPANY CHALLENGED— A king-size clash is in prospect July 15 between the State Insurance Department and National Bankers Life Insurance Company of Dallas.

Commissioner William A. Harrison has ordered the company to prove fitness of its management or lose its license.

National Bankers, regarded as one of the largest and most prosperous companies in the Southwest, claims more than $19,000,000 in assets. Some $5,000,000 of these are discounted by the Department as unsound or unsuitable for an insurance company. Specifically questioned by the state are a number of mortgage loans made by the company to other firms in which the company's officers or directors have an interest.

Company President Lester F. Hall said the firm's financial footing is so sound it could raise $5,000,000 in a matter of hours. He said the company had a premium income of $10,000,000 last year and net earnings of $1,000,000.

GLAD TO MOVE OVER— Despite the prospect of losing "biggest state" honors, Texas officials say they're happy to welcome Alaska as No. 49. Sample comments.

Gov. Price Daniel: "We will still have the biggest navy."

Sec'y of State Zollie Steakley: "I'm glad another state will bear the brunt of the gags about being the largest state."

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson: "I suggest they nail down their offshore lands before they enter the union."

SEMI-WESTWARD HO!—Redeigned Texas-tan uniforms have brought a new look to the Texas Highway Patrol. Semi-western in style, the uniforms sport black trim, black shoes, wide-brimmed grey hats with western crease.

Only 380 patrolmen and other division members of the Department of Public Safety are outfitted at present. New uniforms for the rest of the force will have to wait for another appropriation from the Legislature.

TAXPAYERS GET WARY— Slump in federal income tax collections in Texas the past several months has been noted by Internal Revenue officials.

Cause has been attributed to recession-minded taxpayers lowering their estimates of income for the year. South Texas Collector Bob Phinney thinks, however, most will wind up making just as much money as last year.

Last year Texans paid a record-breaking $2,600,000 in federal income taxes, about $128,000,000 more than in the year previous.

SCHOOL COST CLIMB SEEN— Texas counties expect cost of education to climb $70,000,000 annually in the next five years.

This was revealed in reports of 251 counties to the Hale-Aikin Survey Committee on Public Education. Most of the increase would go for expansions necessary to keep up with increasing enrollment.

Counties differed as how the money should be raised. Twenty-five per cent favored higher local taxes or increased valuation. Forty-four per cent wanted additional money from the state. Nine counties favored federal aid. Thirty-five recommended a sales or income levy.

SHORT SNORTS— Walter Buckner, publisher of the San Marcos Record and past-president of the Texas Press Association, has been named by Governor Daniel to the Industrial Accident Board. He will serve as the employer representative. The two other members of the board are Ned Price of Tyler, representing labor; and Leonard Carlton of Austin, representing employees—A $20,500 grant for re-codifying Texas school laws has been provided by the M. D. Anderson Foundation of Houston. A legislative committee headed by Rep. Robert H. Hughes of Dallas is in charge of the work—Preliminary report on a comprehensive survey of Texas water resources has been submitted to Governor Daniel. It was requested by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson and prepared jointly by state and federal water agencies. Contents of the report will not be released for publication until final approval is given—Farm experts expect that a 92-year-old record for cotton yield per acre may be topped this year. Second-highest yield was recorded last year at 295 pounds. All-time high was 325 pounds per acre in 1886—when soil was virgin—Governor Daniel has proclaimed July 14-20 as State Park Week to call attention to the 56-park unit begun in 1924 when Gov. Pat Neff and his family donated "Mother Neff Park" to the state—Texas draft quota for August will be 539 men, only one more than were called for in July. State Selective Service Headquarters also announced that some 1,700 men are to take preinduction exams in August.

a new life

What was once an old caterpillar, hanging on a limb, has suddenly become a Beautiful Butterfly. The cocoon has taken on newness of life.

What a parable! The old wrapping has turned loose, broken away and given up the new, perfect butterfly. A man must give up some old things too, when he decides to follow the Lord. Deciding for God changes ones habits, ones life. One throws off the old and puts on the new and suddenly finds himself happier running errands for Jesus, than when sowing seeds for satan. The transformed individual loves his fellowman . . . do you? To him the Golden Rule has greater meaning.

"Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: Old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." 2 Cor. 5:17.

Weather damages to cotton greater than infestations

(The following insect infestation report as of July 3 has been prepared through cooperation of county agents, voc ag teachers, personnel of Texas A&M, and U. S. Department of Agriculture.)

Wind, sand and hail damage to cotton has been much greater than caused by insects. All cotton in the area has suffered wind and sand damage. Scattered locations had cotton severely damaged or destroyed by hail. No heavy infestations of insects were reported.

Thrips were present on cotton in light to medium infestations throughout the area. A majority of plantings showed satisfactory fruit set, indicating damage from thrips had decreased.

Fleahoppers were reported present in light to medium infestations in an increasing number of fields. Populations had increased somewhat over the previous week. Although control applications were made to additional plantings, only scattered fields have been treated for fleahopper control.

Lycus bugs caused damage to cotton in part of Terry County, and were present in small numbers in most fields. Aphids, cabbage loopers, grasshoppers, and garden webworms were reported in restricted area of fields in plantings throughout the area.

Miss Lana Oden of Abilene was a recent visitor in the home of Mrs. Sallie Hague.

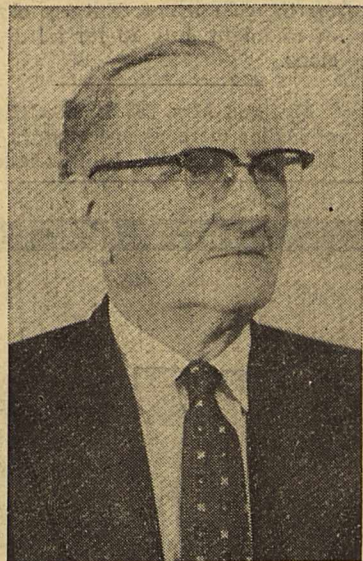

Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Coffman returned home Tuesday from Casa Grande, Arizona, where they spent last week visiting Mrs. Coffman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Williams.

T. Sgt and Mrs. Doc Proctor and children of Amarillo were recent visitors in the home of Mr. Proctor's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Nordyke and they also visited friends.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Having decided to make the race for the office of County Judge and Ex-Officio County School Superintendent, I take this opportunity of asking you for your support.

Most of the people who have lived in the county for three or more years, know that I have held the office before. When I went into office on January 1, 1949, I well knew, that to do my best, and what was expected in the position I held there would have to be cooperation with all elected county officials, county employees as well as the citizens of the County. Of course I knew that my closest associations would be with the Commissioners' Court as that body of elected officials makes the final decisions on all county problems. I do not think that any County Judge in Texas ever had more cooperation than I received. I served with a number of County Commissioners and we got along, I think, very well. Certainly, they did not agree on everything, and I did not agree with them on everything, but we never became disagreeable with each other.

As everyone is interested in the taxes they pay, I would like my record reviewed on that count. During my six years in office, considerable progress was made in developing the facilities of the county; many new oil wells were drilled; existing industries were improved by several millions of dollars; and yet, there was less than a 10 per cent increase in tax value. In fact it was considerably less than the normal increase.

The County Judge of this county has many duties. He tries all Civil and Criminal cases in the County Court; he is presiding Judge of the Commissioners' Court; he is Juvenile Judge; chairman of the county Hospital Board; he handles all Wills and Probate matters; and is also Secretary to the County School Board. The County Judge does not necessarily need to be a lawyer, as the statute provides that the Commissioner's Court, County Judge, and other elected County Officers, receive all their legal advice from the County Attorney. In fact, Dallas County is the second largest county in the State, and it's County Judge is not a lawyer although there are some 1500 attorneys in Dallas County.

In my six years as County Judge, I tried a number of cases in the County Court, and several were appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin but none was reversed. I am proud of my record as Juvenile Judge, and I will welcome comparison of my record in that position with that of any other Juvenile Judge in Texas. I never sent a boy to Gatesville nor a girl to Gainesville, the two corrective institutions where delinquent juveniles are sent. I feel that guidance and love make more children develop into useful citizens than do institutions of correction.

When I went into office, the County had built a number of miles of road, but had not had the time to work with the Highway Department on getting the roads taken over for maintenance by the State. Having had number of years experience in dealing with the State Highway Department I had a lot of information regarding roads, and that certainly helped me as County Judge. No one could have received more cooperation from all of our Commissioners in working with the State Highway Department in Austin on the development of our roads. While I was on the Court, we made many trips to Austin, and never did we fail to get something worthwhile done. We induced the State to pave approximately 15 miles of roads and to take over maintenance of approximately 37 miles of roads the County had already built. Thus, a saving to the County of many thousands of dollars. We also got the State to widen the Plains-Lovington Highway from an 18 foot Farm-to-Market Road to a 22 foot Highway.

I worked with the Commissioners' Court and other interest parties in securing one of the first free swimming pools for school children in Texas, and it is still free to Yoakum County school children. If I am re-elected, I will continue to try to keep it free.

The Old Age Assistance program does not come under the duties of the County Judge, but after I was in office a short time, I learned that a great number of our elderly people were not receiving their share of Old Age Assistance. I took it upon my self to help, aid, and assist all of the unfortunate, and with my efforts there were a number who did receive this assistance.

While I was in office, I devoted my entire time to the position, and if I am re-elected I will do the same thing again. I have and will continue to make a special effort to see everyone in the County before the primaries. Should I not be able to see you, I will appreciate it if you grain sorghum as a feed for livestock, and feels that there may be a relationship between the smokeless quality of grain sorghum oil and the temperature at which bacon will smoke while frying. They want to run some tests to see if a hog fed on grain sorghum will cook at a higher temperature without forming smoke than a hog fed on other grains. They believe there is a talking point for grain sorghums if the heat resistance from the sorghum oils will carry over into the pork of sorghum fed hogs.

Sorghum

Since an animal has the ability to convert starches into sugar and sugar into fats, then the bulk that is left after the oil has been removed from the grain would be a good hog feed, too, the local county agent said. It may not put in the smokeless quality, but it should not be hurt for a feed grain just because the oil has been taken out, he commented.

White said there are a lot of possibilities for grain sorghum. Very little research has been on developing other uses for the grain, he explained, as most of the research work has had to do with increased yields and a stouter stalk with resistance to blight.

"With new uses coming into the picture, the research people will need to develop some different characteristics in a grain to make it fit the need," White said. "It may mean that the farmers will need to grow a different type that is already developed and waiting for them."

"As long as the farmers continue to reach out for the new products as they did in the case of hybrids," White concluded, "there is no need to worry about the farmer getting behind."

Absentee voting for July 26 election started on Monday

Absentee voting in the first Democratic primary of July 26, began Monday, and will continue until three days before the election.

Actually, voting should have started on July 6, but since that day was Sunday, it was moved up to Monday.

Persons who plan on being out of town during the election may vote absentee by appearing at the county clerk's office in the court house at Plains and

"ASSUMING" A LOAN

You can give some of your rights to other people. For example, the right to collect a bill; but it's a different thing with your duties. You need your creditor's OK firmly to assign your debts to another.

You can sell what you own, all right, but you can't shake a debt merely by getting somebody else to promise to pay it for you. Your creditor—who is a party to your contract—has something to say about who takes over your obligations.

Thus, your cousin, say, borrow from you and promises to pay the money back. He can't get out of it by getting his neighbor to say he will pay you for him unless you agree—and this takes a written contract.

Suppose you bought Abel's house on time for $15,000 and had paid off $5,000. Then, with $10,000 left to pay, you get Joe Blow to buy the place.

How could Blow pay you for it?

Well, for Blow to do it would be just dandy for you to let him take over the $10,000 debt, pay you back your $5,000 equity and then pay off Abel the rest of your $10,000 debt. Blow would save the cost of a new loan—if his credit was good enough to get one in the first place. So you set it up that way.

One day Blow blew; and you, hold the bag. True, you could turn over your equity to Blow without Abel's consent.

But your agreement with Blow to pay the balance is not binding on Abel. He can hold you to your original deal. Pay up $10,000.

Don't let someone "assume" your loan unless you protect yourself by an agreement with your lender, or unless you are willing to risk holding the sack.

Your buyer is often a good enough risk for you to let him assume the loan—but don't do it thinking you are free of your debt.

presenting their poll tax receipt. If a person is still a resident of the county and is away at school or on a job, they may secure a ballot by writing County Clerk J. W. O. Aldredge.

Requests for 30 absentee ballots had already been received by the county clerk's office up to Tuesday afternoon, indicating a decided interest in the approaching election.

Of that number, two went to service men overseas and two to Alaska where a Denver City couple are vacationing.

Highest number of requests was from voters in Precinct 7, with 15 absentee ballots issued. There were 10 requests from voters in Precinct 9, two each in Precincts 8 and 5 and one in Precinct 1.
