DOCTOR AND MRS. CLYDE LYNN and sons, Clyde Jr. and Charles are shown in this photograph. The doctor and his family arrived in Plains this week and plan to open the clinic about August 1. Clyde Jr. is on the left and Charles is in front of his mother.

The second annual banquet of the Plains Chamber of Commerce has been set for Friday, August 7, and will be held in the Plains School cafeteria. Committees have been appointed by President D. N. Taylor in preparation of the affair.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien, widely known speaker and pastor of the First Baptist Church in Big Spring, will be the speaker for the evening. The program for the occasion will be announced at a later date.

Committees appointed by the president include a food committee consisting of P. W. St. Roman, chairman, and Rod Duff and Russell Faulkenberry. The ticket committee is Bill Loyd, chairman, and Pete Sampson and Casey Brown.

Tickets will be $1.50 per person and will be sold in advance. The program will consist of reports on activities of the Chamber of Commerce and plans for the future.

In addition to the announcement of the annual banquet, the president also announced the hiring of E. E. Longbrake as manager. Longbrake will take over the duties immediately and will take care of all correspondence, collections, reports and keep books. An office will be secured in the near future, he said.

The president reported that a sufficient amount of dues are now being received to enable the organization to maintain an office and that correspondence and activities are increasing to the point of making this move necessary. He also said that several merchants who have not started paying their monthly dues, but have indicated that they intend

Outstanding

County Agent is honored

College Station, July 15 — (Spl) — Leo L. White, Yoakum county agricultural agent since February 1953, was one of seven Texans named today to receive the National County Agricultural Agents Association's Distinguished Service Award for 1959. White was nominated for the high award by the Texas Association, and Chairman P. S. Nix, Texas Awards Committee and Houston county agent, made the announcement.

The awards are made each year to a select group of county agents in each state who over a period of years have made outstanding contributions to agriculture and rural living. A highlight of the annual meeting of the National Association will be the presentation of the awards. This year's meeting is scheduled for Kansas City, Missouri, September 6-10 and White plans to attend.

The award winner is a graduate of Texas Technological College with a bachelor's degree in agricultural education and has completed graduate courses at Tech and Texas A&M College in animal husbandry, range management and agricultural engineering.

White was first employed by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in July 1944 as county agent in Briscoe county and was transferred to his present position in 1953.

In Briscoe county, White was successful in adding more than 300 miles of lines to the rural electric cooperative at a time when materials were scarce. He gave assistance to farmers in planning and constructing irrigation systems, terraces, and earthen dams as a part of the soil and water conservation program. He was the first in the area to demonstrate the pumping of water from surface lakes onto cropland. This practice of irrigating from surface lakes has since become a major factor in the economy of the area.

The Briscoe County Livestock Association was organized and included in their plans an annual show. He worked through this organization in carrying out a livestock improvement program, brush control, prairie dog eradication and other practices aimed at improving the county's livestock industry. He provided leadership in soil and water conservation efforts which lead to the organization of a soil conservation

Conservationist reports results are good on spraying of shinnery in area

Preliminary results of shinnery spraying in the Yoakum Soil Conservation District look good, according to Wyatt Lipscomb, Work Unit Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, Plains.

Ty Field, Bronco has sprayed about 3000 acres of shinnery this spring and some benefit is already evident. A good top kill of the shinnery has resulted but we will have to wait until next spring to determine how much permanent kill has resulted. However, grass growth on the sprayed area is good and with the reduced competition grasses are growing rapidly.

Application was made with 1/2 pound of low volatile 2,4,5-T, 1 gallon of Diesel fuel and enough water to give a total application of 4 gallons per acre.

Although the sprayed area has been rather dry this spring, the increased growth of grass following the spraying is very evident. Sideoats grama, little bluestem, sand bluestem and other grasses are making vigorous growth and a good seed crop. The sprayed pasture will be rested during this year to give the grass a chance to seed and spread. Plans are to give the shinnery a follow-up spraying of the same mixture next spring.

Several ranchers made plans to spray shinnery this spring but were unable to get it done. The late freeze delayed the growth of the shinnery plants and windy weather this spring slowed application down so that they were not able to get the spraying done while the plants were still tender.

Most of the ranchmen feel that they have enough grass on their ranches to provide a seed source of the better grasses and that recovery will be good following the spraying. However, in some cases some seeding may have to be done in order to help speed the process.

Clyde Coke, Denver City, put out a mixture of native grasses on this place ahead of the spraying to provide a seed source of the better grasses. The grass seed was broadcast by airplane early in the spring and then the ground was roughened with a stalk cutter in order to cover the seed and make a better seedbed. Later when the grasses were up the place was sprayed to control the shinnery.

Results of this operation look good right now. Seeded grasses are showing following the spring rains and with the shinnery competition reduced they should be able to make a good growth.

The shinnery spraying program has been tried in a number of other areas and has been successful and indications are that it will also be helpful here.

Cost-share assistance is available through the Great Plains Conservation Program for shinnery spraying and indications are

Thief steals car from under noses of highway patrol

Somebody has a lot of Cheek (property, that is.)

Monday, district court was in progress at the court house at Plains, and a highway patrolman spent most of the day in town and the vicinity, since Deputy Sheriff was in San Angelo on legal business.

At five o'clock, Mrs. Joe M. Cheek, employed in the county clerk's office, gathered up her purse and left the court house to go home. She had left her 1945 black Ford parked directly in front of the court house, and was astounded to discover that the car had disappeared.

To date, neither the car nor the "help-yourself" driver has been located, although a description of the vehicle was immediately put out over the air.

Mrs. Bartlett resigns as librarian in county

Resignation of Mrs. Bert Bartlett as county librarian was accepted by the county commissioners' court at the regular meeting held Monday morning.

The resignation is to be accepted as of July 18. To date, no successor has been secured for the post which Mrs. Bartlett has held since the libraries at Plains and Denver City were constructed.

The appointment of Sharon Fletcher of Denver City as a deputy tax assessor-collector was approved, and salary set at $270 per month.

On motion of H. C. Cotton and second by Trout, it was decided that the quarterly report of the county treasurer be published in the Denver City Press and Yoakum County Review, and that a recapitulation report of the independent auditor, Harold P. Wine, be published alternately in the Press and Review.

Burglar in Plains now in custody of San Angelo police

Deputy Sheriff Olan Heath reported this week he was confident of having located a suspect in the June 27th burglary of Plains Frozen Foods, grocery at Plains.

Heath spent Monday in San Angelo, locating Edward Roberts, 30, who for a short time had been roughnecking in the Plains area, but had left the town since the date of the burglary. Heath said Roberts also has some $200 in hot checks in Plains which are to be explained.

The deputy sheriff, however, had to leave Roberts in San Angelo, where they have had a car theft charge against the man since April. A hold order was placed on Roberts, however, and Heath said he will be filed on for burglary and swindling when he is returned to Plains by authorities.

The salary of Sarah McGill was set at $315 per month; and reports of the county auditor, county clerk, county treasurer, county sheriff and tax assessor-collector, justices of the peace for precincts 1 and 2, were approved. Bills against the county and Yoakum County Hospital were also ordered paid.

At an earlier meeting, the court voted on a motion by Vance Brown and second by Clyde Trout that members of the court be allowed $75 per month for traveling expenses, provided the county is not furnishing an automobile, truck or other means of transportation. This is in accordance with the recent passing of House Bill 529 by the state legislature.

It was also voted that disability benefit of $1421.40 from social security administration for the benefit of Henry McManm be accepted and deposited to the county.

In Yoakum county he continued his work in irrigation but because of sandy soils sprinkler system were used. During the drouth years he assisted ranchmen and farmers with emergency feed and other problems. Demonstrations proved the superiority of hybrid grain sorghums in 1957 and last year more than 90 percent of the county's grain sorghum acreage was planted to hybrids. His work in Yoakum county has been guided by a county program building committee and he credits their assistance and advice with making the extension effort in the county successful.

The 4-H livestock feeding program and the county fat stock show and sale is considered top and local leaders get much of the credit. He takes an active part in community and civic affairs and is currently serving as a district director in the Texas County Agricultural Agents Association and as chairman of the Animal Industries Committee.

ACROSS THE CATTLE GUARD

by LEO W. WHITE
County Agent

We have just figured out that it costs $5,000 an acre to kill bind weed. That means putting on enough soil sterilant to kill the soil for a five year period and using such materials as sodium chlorate or attalide. Some of the new materials may be cheaper. One man told me that he had a few bind weeds on his place and last year he tried to get some custom operator to agree to kill them for him. The operator would not even make an offer for a guaranteed kill. He did apply one of the new materials called Karmax and charged only for the materials and the use of his equipment. The bind weed patches were so scattered that no acreage was figured out but they were guessing it would take better than $2,000 worth of materials to cover an acre.

Some of the other materials, and I don't know enough about them to call them by name, are supposed to get the job done for $200 an acre or less. That is still getting close to the price of good land and bears out the fact that you cannot afford to kill out a solid stand of bind weed if you can find some land to that is not infested. The thing that the farmer can afford to do is kill out the small spots as they first appear. Even if the cost is $5,000 an acre, a spot that is 10 or 12 feet in diameter can be killed for less than $10.

The time to kill bind weed on a farm is when it first appears. The same is true with an area like Yoakum County. The time to kill bind weeds in Yoakum County is when you first realize they are present. Most of the bind weed that I have seen in this county is within the city limits of Plains. I have found about seven other small patches and nearly all of them are in road right of ways. Many difficulties could arise about who should furnish the materials and labor to kill a patch of weeds that was partly or all out in the adjacent road. I know one farmer who found a small patch in the State Hiway ditch next to his farm. He gave $14.00 for a can of Attalide and put the whole thing on a spot about six feet across. That was four years ago and nothing is growing on that particular spot until yet. If he had not treated the weeds until this year it would have taken that much material to treat the weeds that were growing on his property and a whole lot more to kill those in the road ditch.

Tiny tog shower for Mrs. Taunton

Mrs. H. W. Taunton will be honored with a "Tiny-Tog" shower, Monday, July 20 from 3 to 5 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church. Hostesses Mesdames Clifford Anderson, J. L. Taylor, G. R. Todd, Carl Lowrey, Lee Roy McCravey and Gilbert Pierce, extended a cordial invitation to everyone to attend.

Cotton measurement in county is nearly 90% of completion

Cotton acreage has been measured on approximately 90 percent of the 372 Yoakum County cotton farms according to W. M. Overton, Yoakum County ASC Office Manager. A large percent of the farms have excess cotton according to Overton. Most farmers planted in excess of their farm cotton allotment expecting some acreage to be destroyed by wind erosion or other unavoidable hazards. According to farm reports very little of any cotton has been destroyed by weather hazards except the farms in the June 28th hail strip.

It is expected that most all farmers have or will destroy the excess cotton. The penalty on excess cotton on the 1959 crop has been set at 19.1 cent per pound.

After the farm reporter turns in the farm's plotted cotton acreage on the maps the acreage is computed and a within allotment card or an excess cotton notice is mailed to the farm operator. The county office manager again urges all operators to review their notices when received and contact the county office if they believe that an error has been made in their cotton acreage.

Farmers that have excess cotton and destroy the excess are urged to have the excess well destroyed so that the reporter checking the excess will be able to sign a statement showing the cotton has been destroyed to such an extent that no cotton could be harvested. If a second overplanted notice is mailed to farm operators because of not destroying the cotton well enough destroyed or not having enough cotton destroyed, then in that case the regulation states that farmers must again make a deposit to cover the cost of re-checking additional cotton that may be destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Hanna and children attended a housewarming for Dr. and Mrs. Lee in Morton Thursday evening.

Mrs. Ann Green and Mr. and Mrs. Lavon Smith and baby spent the weekend at Floydada where they attended a family reunion and visited Mrs. Green's mother, Mrs. Lydia Graves and other relatives.

Jess Murphy gets minor injuries in tractor fire

Jess Murphy who farms about ten miles northeast of Plains, received minor burns of his face and hands and some sprains when the tractor on which he was riding became enveloped in flames Saturday due to the engine back-firing several times.

A comparatively new tractor, it is surmised, developed a leak in the butane system. The tank did not explode, but plugs and connections were torn loose.

The tractor was badly damaged except for the tires which were saved.

Mr. Murphy's coveralls became ignited, but thanks to zippers, they were easily "shucked" off.

Since an insurance adjuster had not made an estimate Wednesday morning, the actual dollars loss could not be ascertained.

Local story-hour attendance is low

IS YOUR CROP DOING ITS BEST?

G. C. SHULTS—farmer in the Union Community, southeast of Brownfield, had this to say about fertilizers: "This is my third year to use fertilizers and I am convinced that they help increase production. I'm farming 925 acres—805 acres of cotton under the "A" Plan, of which 150 acres is irrigated. The balance of my land is in grain," and he added: "I fertilized before planting, and after having a tissue test run I found that my cotton needed additional nitrogen. By side-dressing with 15 gals. per acre of 10-5-5 the plants should have sufficient nutrients to finish out the growing season." When asked what he thought about using liquid fertilizers, he replied: "I like the ease of applying and the great labor-saving. It's easy for me to put down 40 to 50 acres a day, by myself. If liquid solutions will do what they should, and I believe that they will, then it is the fertilizer for me."

Have you taken a good look at your cotton crop lately?
How is it standing up in comparison to past crops? Your crop is now going into a critical period. It is at this time that most of your plant nutrient deficiencies will begin to show up. Don't take chances on producing only half of your potential. Have your plants tested and find out what you can do to increase your yield by adding the proper diet of balanced plant nutrients to your crop.

For instance: Phosphorus is usually a limited nutrient in cotton growth in our locale. The symptoms of phosphorus deficiency in cotton are not so pronounced as those caused by a lack of nitrogen. The most outstanding deficiency is a weedy-type growth. A deficiency of phosphorus will result in delayed fruiting and maturity—a very serious problem where boll-weevil damage is likely to be heavy.

Also the symptoms in cotton associated with a lack of potash may be very pronounced. A lack of potash often results in a striking malnutritional symptom commonly called "cotton rust" or "potash hunger." The first symptom in the leaf is a yellowish-white mottling. The leaf changes to a light yellowish green, and yellow spots appear between the veins. The centers of these spots die, and numerous brown specks occur at the tip, around the margin and between the veins. The tip and the margin of the leaf break down first and curl downward.

As the breakdown progresses, the whole leaf finally becomes reddish brown in color, dries, and is shed prematurely. The premature shedding of leaves prevents the proper development of bolls, which are dwarfed and immature. Potash-deficiency symptoms are most likely to occur on soils with an abundant supply of calcium.

These and other nutrient deficiencies play a big role in determining the yield of your cotton crop. Again we urge you to have tissue tests made and by following the proper recommendations you should be able to show a significant increase in the productivity of your soils.

We will welcome the opportunity to be of service to you and we will be more than happy to explain the many advantages of using liquid fertilizer solutions for side-dressing your crops.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

BUILDING YOUR HOME
When you are ready to build, you will find that the law helps in many ways to make your home enjoyable and secure.

Have you decided on the type house you want and the amount you want to spend? If so, then let's go into details!

1. Your lot: Junior's school or your church may be nearby, but find out—

(a) Whether they are planning to run a highway through the area or nearby, or make any improvements for which you can be assessed.

(b) What "covenants" or restrictions run with the land? To protect residents, the plats or basic deeds of some neighborhoods call on you to build a certain size or type of house. Do you want to and can you afford to?

(c) Easements. Either you or your neighbors may need to run pipes, or string wires over each other's land or to share a driveway. Have the abstract checked, carefully to disclose any easements.

2. Zoning Ordinances: For your protection the local government frequently zones some areas, for example, for single houses only, for multiple dwellings; for retail stores, for manufacturing, etc.

Unless the local governing body changes its zoning ordinance, no filling station, for instance, can go up next to you in a residential area. Neither could you turn your home into a store. In any case, you should find out what your neighborhood zoning rules are.

3. Building Codes: Be certain that the plans and construction will meet the requirements of the local building code as to size, location and structure. Municipal ordinances usually impose strict standards for the building, the plumbing and the electrical wiring. In many cases only licensed building tradesmen are permitted to make the installations.

4. Financing: Financing contracts protect both you and the lender. Unless you pay cash, you will use credit to pay for your house, most likely a deed of trust or a land contract. Your installments often include principal, interest, insurance and taxes. Under a land contract the lender holds title to your house until you pay for it. If you fall behind, the holder can take the house back. With a deed of trust, the lender has a lien which he can foreclose if you default. You may get some of your money back on the principal; but you may also have to make up any loss the lender makes in re-selling the house.

Well worked-out contracts can help your dream house come true. A construction contract or a so-called "earnest - money" agreement or receipt is no job for an amateur. Too many legal details are involved. Your lawyer is trained by education and experience to protect your best interests in contracting and closing real estate deals.

Denver City to host district Pony tournament

Denver City's red carpet and best welcome mat are being dusted off and cleaned up in preparation for welcoming an influx of visitors next week for the District 7 Pony League Tournament. The tournament, which will find the best Pony Leaguers in West Texas and eastern New Mexico competing for the right to enter regional playoffs, is scheduled to get underway here on Monday, July 27.

Planning for the event is now well underway, with the souvenir programs scheduled to go to the printers today and housing arrangements for the visiting teams already arranged for.

Heading up the local group planning for the tournament is Carl Johnson Jr. who has been named Tournament Director. Assisting Johnson is T. O. Martin who is assistant tourney director.

Other local people who are playing key roles in the planning include C. W. (Skin) Rohman, chairman of housing and food; Cecil Mobley and Marvin Post, co-chairman of program advertising and sales; M. C. O'Neal, Clyde Pyle and Bob Dyer, playing field and grounds; W. Y. (Bill) Gravitt, concession stand; David Coats and Nolan Smiley, credentials; and Ralph Townes and Ed McAnear, official scorers.

R. N. (Red) Tipps will be the umpire in chief for the tournament. He has already lined up a group of experienced umpires to assist during the four-day tournament. Tourney Director Johnson said today that there will be no repetition of last year's farce with umpires, with local men to do all umpiring and no other team will be permitted to furnish umpires.

There will be two tournament games each evening, the first scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. and the nightcap scheduled to start promptly at 8 p.m. each evening.

A total of five teams will be entered in the tournament. There will be two teams from Area 1, comprising Denver City, Hobbs, Lovington and Roswell, N. M. Denver City drew a bye into district play as host to the tournament.

Representation from Area Two will be from Hereford, Borger, Pampa or Childress. The entry in the district tourney will be determined in area tournament play beginning Monday. Area Three will be represented here by either Tahoka, Post or Slaton; while Area Four will find representation from one three Lubbock teams or from Littlefield.

Pairings for the first round games were made Tuesday night, with the Area one winner slated to meet Denver City at 8 p.m., July 27; while Area Four will play Area Two's entry in a 6 p.m. game that night. The representative from Area Three has drawn a bye in first round games and will meet the winner of the Denver City-area One winner game on Tuesday.

Winner of the District tournament scheduled for Denver City will advance into regional playoffs to begin in San Antonio on August 6. If the same team is successful in the regionals, they will then proceed directly to the national tournament played annually in Washington, Penna.

In announcing preliminary plans for the tournament, Johnson expressed his appreciation to the residents of Denver City for their cooperation in making the tournament possible. He said that "words will not express the way the people of Denver City have supported the All-Stars in the past, no matter where they played. We hope that the people will continue to support us as we venture into holding our first district tournament."

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, TEX.—Whatever the outcome of the summer tax battle, when the smoke has all cleared, the fire won't be out.

Like live coals banked in ashes, the tax issue will be ready to flame up again when new fuel is added.

Sources of new fuel are easily foreseeable.

Every member of this Legislature, by his voting record, expressed a tax viewpoint. Many of them will have to face opponents attacking this viewpoint in the 1960 elections. Since a new law moves primaries up by two months, campaigning will begin long before the dogwood is out . . . maybe while the Christmas lights are up.

Many candidates may be wary of lighting into an issue on which it's almost impossible to take an all-around popular stand. But whoever gets elected and comes to Austin in 1961 will find the old tax monster waiting, bigger and fiercer than ever.

This Legislature will likely enact just barely enough new taxes, mostly on "old favorite" sources, to cover the budget. But the 1961 budget will have to be bigger. For some time population growth and other factors have kept budgets going up by about 10 per cent every two years.

Additionally, there will be, as always, demands for new programs, new buildings, new spending. Hale-Aikin school improvement program alone would call for at least a $100,000,000 tax bill.

Only hope for avoiding an even hotter tax battle in '61 is for 1960 voters to give their elected officials clear instructions on what they want and how they're willing to pay for it.

BATTLE LINES—Show-down fight of the second called session came on a $90,000,000-a-year tax bill based on about three-fourths selective sales taxes, one-fourth business taxes.

It was in line with expressed sentiments of the Senate, but many House members regarded it as "another insult." All the five Senators and five House members on the conference committee that worked out the bill signed the report and recommended adoption.

It was designed to get revenue from these sources over a 2-year period:

TOBACCO — Cigarettes up 3 cents a pack (for two years - then back to one cent) to raise $6,000,000. Other tobacco products, except snuff, a 25 per cent tax to raise $13,500,000.

NATURAL GAS — raise in the production tax from 7 to 8 per cent to bring in $12,000,000.

CORPORATION FRANCHISES — increase of 75 cents per $1,000 capital to May, 1960, 50 cent increase thereafter, to raise $32,000,000.

UTILITIES — a 20 per cent increase in gross receipts tax except for telephone and telegraph, for $3,000,000.

MOTOR VEHICLES — increase in sales tax from 1.1 to 1.6 per cent, for $20,400,000.

BEVERAGES — liquor up from $1.408 to $1.68 a gallon, wine up 20 per cent, for $6,000,000.

BOATS, MOTORS, AIRPLANES — a new 1.6 per cent sales tax, for $3,250,000.

RADIOS, TELEVISIONS, PHONOGRAFS — a 2.2 per cent sales tax, for $6,000,000.

CAMERAS — temporary 10 per cent sales tax for $6,000,000. Provisions for more vigorous tax collecting would bring an estimated $4,000,000 more.

NEW INSURANCE BILL — Out of the House-Senate conflict over the State Board of Insurance came a reorganization bill aimed at getting rid of at least some present officials.

Sen. Floyd Bradshaw of Weatherford introduced the bill calling for organization of a new three-member, fulltime Board of Insurance.

One member would be designated Commissioner at a $20,000 salary. One would be the chairman at $15,000; another, a member at $15,000. Nothing in the bill says present members could not be appointed, but all appointments would be subject to Senate confirmation.

Senators tried to oust present Commissioner William A. Harrison two years ago, but were balked by Board Chairman Penn Jackson and an Attorney General's ruling that they lacked this authority.

Since then Senate hostility toward Jackson and Harrison has been open and frank. Senate appropriation bill slashed salaries to one-third time for Board members. House held out for full-time Board.

Senate's counter-offer was the reorganization bill . . . with a full-time Board to please the House and a chance to name new members to please the Senate.

LET NATURE BE — A group of West Texas ranchers won another round in their court fight to force a cloud-seeding firm to leave the weather alone.

Texas Supreme Court upheld an injunction to stop a "weather modifying" program by Southwest Weather Research, Inc.

Weather Research had been hired by a group of Fort Stockton cotton farmers to drop silver iodine pellets into clouds that threatened to bring crop-destroying hail storms.

Water-loving ranchers brought suit. They contended the cloud seeding not only chased off the hail but moisture of all kinds.

INSURANCE CUT DUE — State Board of Insurance has ordered reductions in auto insurance rates ranging from 10 to 15 per cent in some parts of the state.

Effective date is Aug. 1. Most of the cuts will stem from a reduction in expenses, such as agent commissions, rather than low accident rates. State-wide the cuts will amount to about $226,000,000, saving some drivers as much as $20 a year.

In some areas, mostly larger cities, the drop will be smaller, and in a few counties the rate will rise.

Board Chairman Penn Jackson said that a merit rating plan, setting lower rates for accident-free drivers, will be made later.

Seminole man is purchaser of local home for funerals

Charles W. Davis, of Seminole, has purchased the Funeral Home from L. W. Barrett and it will be operated as Davis Funeral Home.

Mr. Davis has been in the Funeral Home business about twelve years and has been at Seminole the past five years.

He offers courteous, modern and complete services, and twenty-four hour ambulance service.

Mr. Barrett plans to move back to his home in Morton.

Joyce Curtis will be honored at tea and shower July 25

Miss Joyce Curtis, bride-elect of Louis James Schoepf, will be honored with a "come and go" tea and shower July 25 from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the Country Clubroom.

The Curtis-Schoepf wedding has been set for August 8 in Bowman Memorial Chapel of First Methodist Church, Lubbock.

Pin enthusiasts form association in Yoakum County

The Yoakum County Bowling Association was officially formed last week at a meeting at the Community Building. Buck Fox was named president of the association.

Other officers elected were Clyde Keith, vice president; J. E. Birdwell, secretary; and Woody Sullivan, A. J. Fowler and Cliff DeBarr, board of directors.

A meeting will be held on Monday, July 20, at 8 p.m., at the community building for all women and others who may desire to form leagues for the coming fall bowling season.

Birdwell said today that anyone who is interested in further information concerning league formation and operation should contact the Denver City Bowling Club at their earliest convenience.

The County association was formed for the purpose of gaining American Bowling Congress sanction of any leagues which are formed at the local bowling club.

DC All-Stars named for Pony League Tournament

Denver City's Pony League All-Stars will begin tournament competition on Thursday night when they enter the Area Tournament which gets underway in Lovington. The local youths will be meeting the Roswell All-Stars in the first game of the double elimination tournament, beginning at 6 p.m.

The local participation in the area tourney is strictly on a practice basis, however, since the District tourney will be played here the hosts have been given a bye into district play.

If Denver City wins on Thursday night they will meet the winner of the Hobbs-Lovington game. If the locals lose they will meet the loser of that game, the winner advancing and the loser being eliminated from further tournament participation.

Making up the Denver City entry in the tournaments will be the following boys: Sammy Faulkner, James Petty, Ed Espinoza, Curtis Wilson, of Seagraves; Mike Martin, Butch Geisecke, Pat Hubbard of the Denver City Oilers; Larry Williams, Doug Walters, of Plains; and Charles Roman, Jimmy Mobley, Tommy O'Neal, Gilbert Coats, Nolan Smiley and Kim Freeman, of the Transporters.

Management of the All-Star aggregation will be handled by Walter McFerrin, manager of the league champion Transporters. Lefty Faulkner, manager of the Seagraves Giants, will be a coach of the local nine.

The Denver City entrants in tournament play managed to split even in a pair of games played over the past weekend. Last Saturday night they dropped Tahoka by an 11-6 count and came back on Monday night to lose a heart-breaker to Andrews by a 5-4 score.

A total of 25 boys saw action in the Tahoka tilt, which was played before Manager McFerrin named his All-Star team and while the boys were still trying out for the coveted positions.

In the tilt at Andrews on Monday, the locals managed to lead all the way until the fifth inning when the hosts knotted the score at four-all. Then, in the bottom of the seventh the hosts pushed across the winning tally, on a double, a passed ball and an error.

In scoring the 11 runs against Tahoka, the locals posted 10 hits while the visitors were committing one error. Tahoka posted its six tallies on five hits and five Denver City miscues. Denver City hurlers struck out 13 of the visiting batsmen while DC batters fanned on eight trips to the plate.

Monday night the Denver City stars managed to out-hit the hosts but were unable to post sufficient tallies to bring home a win. Denver City batsmen had seven hits, compared to four for Andrews but three DC errors compared to only two by Andrews told the difference. Nine of the Andrews batsmen fanned while 11 local batters went down via the strikeout route.

Tiny Mike Martin is top batter in local Pony League

Diminutive Mike Martin, shortstop of the second-place Denver City Oilers, walked off with top batting honors in the Denver City Pony League, according to final averages released today by Ed McAnear, official league scorekeeper.

Martin posted a season batting average of .556 on 20 safeties in 36 times at bat. He managed to hold a slight edge over Sammy Faulkner of Seagraves who hit safely 17 times in 31 trips to the plate for an average of .548; and Ken Rankin of the Oilers who had 15 hits in 28 appearances for a .536 average.

The final averages show that Jimmy Mobley topped runs batted in production with 18, followed closely by Martin with 16 and Gilbert Coats of the Transporters with 14.

Mobley, Butch Geisecke, Charles Rohman, Nolan Smiley, and Mike Courtney all tied for leadership in the most runs scored category, each notching 21 tallies during the season. King and Coats were in second place in the category with 18 runs scored.

The final team standings as released by McAnear were as follows:

Team	W	L	Pct.
DC Transporters	11	1	.917
DC Oilers	9	3	.750
Seagraves Giants	3	9	.250
Plains Gophers	1	11	.083

Many changes made in state's voting calendars

The old political cry of "There'll be some changes made" will hold true in Texas next year. Yoakum County voters, who are used to going to the polls in the heat of July and August, will play it cool in 1960.

They'll do their voting in May and June, before things really get hot—weatherwise. The Legislature has passed, and the Governor has signed, a bill which will be law moving the primary elections (Democratic and otherwise) and conventions from July and August to May and June.

Here's about the way things will move in 1960:

Filing deadline—Monday, Feb. 1.

First Primary and Precinct conventions — Saturday, May 7. County Conventions — Saturday, May 14.

Second Primary — Saturday, June 4.

State (Presidential) Convention — Tuesday, June 14.

State (Governor) Convention — Tuesday, Sept. 20.

The new law provides that delegates elected at the May county convention shall be delegates "for all state conventions throughout the remainder of the year."

This means that Presidential State Convention delegates in June will also be the delegates attending the subsequent September state convention, according to the Texas Democratic Newsletter.

Another change bases all Convention delegation strengths on the votes for Governor in the preceding presidential election, but this provision isn't effective until 1962. Next year, the delegation strengths will be based, as usual, on the vote for Governor in the preceding General Election (1958).

Something else new, a person's "ticket" for admission into next spring's precinct conventions will be a stamped poll tax receipt, or a certificate showing participation in the primary.

The fact that a person's name is on the poll list for the precinct does not entitle them to attend their precinct convention, as has been the case for several years.

Another bill, designed to curb possible abuse in absentee voting, was also passed at the regular session of the Legislature.

Only sick and disabled voters will now be able to receive absentee ballots within the county of their residence.

Voters absent from the county can still vote by mailing providing they make application from outside the county of their residence. However, if they expect to be within the county during the period of absentee voting, they are required to vote in person at the county clerk's office.

Also the absentee voter will detach the signed stub, seal his ballot in the plain and unidentifiable envelope, then place the stub and the sealed ballot envelope in a larger envelope. The sealed envelope would then be deposited by the election judges in the ballot box and would not be opened until the time for counting the ballots.

The "land of sky-blue waters" is also the most valuable iron-ore region known in the world. The World Book Encyclopedia reports that more than one-billion gross tons of first class iron ore have been mined in Minnesota since 1884.

Orange Ice Cream—
1 quart thin cream
2/3 cups sugar
4 tablespoons orange juice
Grated rind of one orange
2 tablespoons of lemon juice
Dissolve sugar in cream. Chill. Immediately before freezing, add juice and rind.

Mrs. Russell Faulkenberry, Mrs. James Anderson and Mrs. Audrey Reece were Denver City shoppers Monday.

Mrs. C. L. Strickland of Level-land visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. L. McClellan and "Mr. Mc" the first of the week.

Visiting in the Leo White home last Tuesday were Mr. Whites parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. White of Springlake, two of Mr. Whites sisters, Miss Wanda White of El Campo and Mrs. B. L. Dent of Salem, Oregon with two of her sons' Jackie and Gary.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Harvey and Rojana are vacationing in the New Mexico mountains this week. Mr. Harvey is Elementary School principal here.

Friends of C. B. (Shorty) Hobbs will be glad to learn that he is home after undergoing throat surgery in a Dallas hospital several weeks ago. He is making tremendous improvement and hopes to be home a couple of weeks or longer before going back to Dallas for a checkup.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Dumas, Eddies and Melva, of Andrews visited their parents, Mrs. Irene Dumas and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hobbs Saturday and Sunday.

A number of Yoakum County residents expect to attend the annual reunion or gathering for former Newmore community, Lynn County, people Sunday, July 19 in Coleman Park, Brownfield. A real feast is expected since everyone brings a basket lunch.

harvesttime

The "lost coin" was out of circulation. The "lost sheep" was away from the fold. The "lost son" was far from the Father's house. But what a day in history as we see the Prodigal return, put on his old clothes, get his fork and go to the field to do harvest. What a challenge the fields offer this man. It is that way too, with spiritual things—eternal goods—God's work—His church. There is plenty for us to do but so very few who can be depended on to do it. Perhaps it is time for us to start gathering up some of the "fruits-of-the-spirit," love, joy, peace and long-suffering. These are not material, Sir. They are elements or constituent parts of every aspirant of Heaven. Harvest time is a grand time of year. All the granaries need filling, but we must not forget our responsibility to harvest souls.
