Plans made for county rodeo

An editorial PAT ON THE BACK

Plans for the Yoakum County Rodeo are getting underway and the project is counting on the entire town to help make it a big success. Three local clubs, the Roping Club, the Lions Club, and the Chamber of Commerce, are jointly sponsoring the event and are dividing the work program among their members.

Other civic and social clubs are being asked to help by sponsoring a queen candidate. With the rodeo being a community project it seems assured to be a big success.

In the past the Roping Club has handled the tremendous responsibility and under their guidance the rodeo has grown to be a major area event. Due to this growth the Roping Club had to call upon other clubs in Plains to put on

A pat on the back goes to the members of the Roping Club for their fine work they have done in the past and for making the rodeo a bigger success each year.

The rodeo will provide entertainment for the entira family and even'ts are schedulead that will appeal to every man, woman and child. So if you are called upon to help-pitch in to make this year's rodeo the best yet.

as' 1960 census figures indicates that while Texas cities are getting bigger, the wide open spaces are getting less and less cluttered with people. Much of the explosive growth of cities apparently has been at the expense of surrounding rural areas, either by annexation or by the moving of country dwellers to the nearby city.

Fast-growing Abilene is an example. Abilene population has grown by 96 per cent since 1950, from 45,570 to 89,248. Taylor County, in which Abilene is located, gained from 63,370 to 100,216. Net result: Taylor County's non-Abilene population dropped from 17,800 to 10,788.

A similar situation exists in the Panhandle where Amárillo's 84 per cent increase outstripped that of Potter County.

Texarkana moved up in population, but the counties in which it is located (in Texas and Arkansas) lost ground.

WATER STORAGE DOWN Despite the usual conversation punctuated with "now that the drought's over," reports show much of Texas short on rainfall neers reports that water in Texas reservoirs dropped from 9,622,230 acre feet in March to 9,481,265 acre feet in April. This is about a 1.5 per cent decrease.

"Dirty Pool"

In a pool game when one member edges the ball or tries to take unfair advantage over his opponent such a person is said to be playing "dirty pool." We say someone in the "hospital group" is playing "dirty pool."

An editorial

The plans for the new improvements in the Plains clinic were discussed recently with the hospital board and others from Denver City, and with the understanding that the two groups would meet again to work out some agreeable plan

Well — the local City Council was presented plans last week for additions and improvements to our clinic — plans drawn up vithout even notifying Plains, or asking about our needs herd. The plans also included plans and improvements for the Denver City hospital. There was no discussion, no suggestion, heeded, no form of communication between the group in Denver City and the local group working on our

Now Jenver City and Plains have had their squabbles hospital plans. and at times one or the other have both been at fault but this deal was under-the-table tactics, and this play can be laid on a small minority at Denver City. We don't like it.

Hospitals are not things to be given or taken away by the whim of a few people and the need of a hospital or the plans cannot be judged solely by a few "in the know."

The people know — the people pay the taxes — so let the people decide . . . and let the people have a say in what they are getting.

Now, here are the facts concerning hospital improvements in Yoakum County:

On December 5, 1957, the medical staff of the Yoakum County Hospital in Denver City unanimously favored expansion of the hospital and clinical facilities of the institution.

On the same day the Board of Managers of the hospital met and heard a recommendation from the medical staff favoring expansion. It was suggested at this meeting that Mr. Ty Field name a building committee to plan for expansion.

Early in 1958 a group from Plains met with the Board of Managers of Yoakum County Hospital to request consideration for clinic facilities in Plains. Hospital Board guaranteed full cooperation in trying to fulfill the needs of Plains at that time.

On June 5, 1958, representation attended a Board of Manager's meeting from two Lubbock architectural firms. No commitment was made at this time.

On October 9, 1958, correspondence was received from Ross Garrett, nationally known hospital consultant, that he would work with Leonard F. Crockett if the latter would receive the contract as architect on proposed expansion. It was brought to the attention of the board at this time that the program should be delayed for several years on a recommendation of the County Planning Board.

On November 6, 1958, the Board of Managers in vited a representative of the Leonard F. Crockett architect firm to attend the next meeting of the Board. On December II, 1958, there was representation at a Board of Manager's meeting of two architectural firms. It was moved and seconded that the Board of Managers recommend to the County Commissioners the hiring of the Leonard F. Crockett firm as architects for the proposed hospital improvements to survey and plan the new addition and remodel the old addition.

On January 8, 1959, Leonard F. Crockett requested a meeting with the County Commissioners to discuss plans for the proposed hospital improvements.

On March 19, 1959, at a special meeting of the Board of Managers, Crockett presented preliminary plans for the proposed hospital improvements to the Board of Managers. On motion of E. D. Campbell, seconded by Paul Cobb, the Managers decided upon acceptance of Solution No. I with an estimated cost of $600,000.

On April 9, 1959, a joint meeting of the Board of Managers was held with the medical staff of the hospital and the medical staff of the hospital approved the plans as submitted by the architect. A further meeting of the Managers was held with the County Commissioners on April 13, 1959, to discuss the plans for the hospital improvements. A meeting was held with tax representatives of major oil companies on May 7, 1959, and they also gave approval and promised support of the proposed hospital improvements.

On July 25, 1959, voters of Yoakum County defeated by 428 to 244 a proposal to issue $600,000 in bonds for hospital improvements.

On November 5, 1959, Ross Garrett, meeting with the Board of Managers, said that a survey would be beneficial in determining what is needed and desirable in relationship to the hospital expansion program for 1960. Garrett was requested to proceed with a survey, without charge to the Board of Managers of the Yoakum County Hospital. Garrett said he would make a report on his survey within 30 days, and that he would make the survey as a favor to the architect.

On March 10, 1960, representatives from the Plains Chamber of Commerce; W. R. Curry, D. N. Taylor, Rod Duff, Roy Edwards, B. E. Loyd and Johnnie Fitzgerald, Drs. Clyde A. Lynn, Keller P. Greenfield and Joseph E. Sharp and Bruce Boyd, D. C., met with the Board of Managers.

The group from Plains, Texas, asked the Board of Managers to consider a 15 bed addition to the clinic at Plains in their planning for hospital expansion in Yoakum County. The group from Plains was advised that a survey was being conducted by a Nationally known Hospital Consultant, Ross Garrett, to determine the needs of this area. Pending results of the survey, Mr. Field speaking for the Board of Managers, said that no commitment would be made at this time. As soon as the survey is made available the Board will meet with the Plains Chamber of Commerce and Commissioner's Court and any other interested group at the Courthouse in Plains, Texas.

On April 7, 1960, a sketch of the proposed Health & Hospital Improvement Program to Meet The Needs of The People Of Yoakum County was received from Ross Garrett. It recommended an 8-bed addition at Plains and increasing facilities at Denver City to 43 beds and A-I Ancillary facilities. Findings and evaluation of Mr. Garrett's survey did not accompany the proposed sketch. After a discussion concerning this project the Board delayed further action until a meeting could be held with Mr. Garrett, at which time he will explain his recommendations. Mr. Field carried this sketch to Plains after the Hospital Board meeting and displayed it to the City Council of Plains.

Summary:

We don't feel that these facts justify the accusations made in the editorial of the Yoakum County Review on May 12, 1960!

These facts show that a later meeting will be held with the consultant, Garrett, to discuss his recommendations with the group in Plains at the Courthouse in Plains.

These facts do not justify an accusation that a "small minority" has committed an "under-the-table" act, but rather that a nationally-known consultant has made a survey and will make a report on his survey.

These facts show that only a "proposed floor plan" has been received from the consultant, with no report and that there is nothing binding upon any group in reference to proposed hospital expansion.

The Board of Managers of Yoakum County Hospital has tried, in every way possible, to find the reasonable and fair way of determining Yoakum County's needs for hospital improvements. We have had no intentions of acting like a few "in the know," but rather have talled upon someone who is capable of planning institutions worth millions of dollars to assist us in planning for the betterment of Yoakum County health and hospital facilities.

Red Cross drive opens final push to go "over top"

The final "big push" for the 1960 Red Cross Drive in Yoakum County will be staged during the coming week, according to County Chairman Claude Freeman.

Freeman explained that if the county goes over the goal all money over that point will be divided on a 50-50 basis, with all monies in the county to be used for disaster relief and other needy projects which require Red Cross aid.

Approximately $450 has been raised in the county to date, Freeman said. The sum up to the goal set for the county is divided on a 25-75 basis, with the larger portion going to the National Red Cross for disaster relief throughout the country.
