Dallas Powell wins Chamber to sponsor Xmas lighting

Dallas Powell, senior animal husbandry major at Texas Tech, was one of three awarded an all-expense trip to the International Livestock Show in Chicago next week, November 22.

Powell, a 1957 graduate of Plains High School, will represent Tech's Block and Bridle Club, of which he is president, and the animal husbandry department of the college at the American Society of Animal Production meetings during the show.

Accompanying Powell, and two other students, will be Dr. Ralph M. Durham, head of Tech's animal husbandry department, and Professor John Baumgardner, Animal Nutritionist at the college. The group will tour many gigantic feeding operations enroute to and from Chicago.

The go ahead was given Monday noon by the members of the Plains Chamber of Commerce to again sponsor the Christmas lighting contest. Plans call for a $25 first prize, $15 second prize, and $10 third prize to be awarded. Final plans for the contest will be announced later.

It was brought up for discussion to start purchasing lights and light poles as the money was received. At present there have been no new names added to the list of firms donating money towards the project. It was decided to contact those donating money and ask permission to start buying the fixtures.

Three new chairmen were named to work on the lighting project. Anyone wishing to donate money to the lights are urged to call P. W. St. Roman or Roger Curry.

Triple completion requested

The Oil & Gas Division of the Railroad Commission of Texas has set November 22 to hear Skelly Oil Company's application for permission to triple complete its No. 6 T. R. Rhodes, already an upper and lower Clear Fork producer in the Wasson field of Yoakum County, 3/4 mile west of Denver City, from the Glorieta.

The re-entry is 1/4-mile west of the Glorieta discovery. It will be the first triple completion in the field.

It spots 660 feet from east and 450 feet from north lines of the laese in section 37, block AX, PSL survey.

The pay opener, Shell Oil Company's No. 8-A E. C. Brand, finished Oct. 4, pumping 186 barrels of 30.1-gravity oil, plus .7 per cent water, from perforations at 5,650-5,667 feet.

Honolulu Oil Corporation of Midland staked No. 22-A Wilder, an 8,500-foot Wolfcamp wildcat, four miles northeast of Denver City in Yoakum County.

It is surrounded by shallow production in the Wasson field

Hi-way accident fatal to father of local woman

An accident early Saturday morning claimed the life of a Brownfield service station employee when he was struck by a pickup truck west of Tokio.

Samuel E. McCutcheon was pronounced dead around 12:30 after he was hit by the pickup driven by Deroy Anderson of Tokio.

According to the investigating officers the accident was unavoidable as the man was walking apparently too far toward the middle of the highway.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Many a deer may survive the Texas hunting season because the hunter died first.

According to the State Health Department, there were 181 accidental deaths in Texas, attributed to firearms, in 1958. Last year the number increased to 198.

November is the month when hunting starts in earnest. Normally sane men will start blasting away at one another, on deer leases, or contrive intricate methods of suicide such as climbing over barbed-wire fences with their rifles off safety.

Firearms are not the only threat. Health officials point out that a good many hunters slip and fall over precipices, while gazing off into the distance. Others never get to the lease because they combine a few warming drinks with a fast drive through the pre-dawn chill.

Texas Game and Fish Commission offers these rules for hunting safety:

1. Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun.
2. Always unload and take down guns carried into home or camp.
3. Keep guns clean and be sure to have the right size ammunition.
4. Carry gun so you can control the muzzle, even if you fall.
5. Be sure of your target before you fire.
6. Avoid all horseplay.
7. Keep guns out of reach of children.
8. Never climb a tree or jump a ditch while carrying a gun.
9. Never shoot at a flat surface.
10. Take no alcoholic drinks before or during shooting.

INSURANCE HIKE ASKED — A 2.6 per cent increase in workmen's compensation insurance rates has been recommended to the State Board of Insurance.

State Insurance Department statisticians said that the rate increase was needed because of the increased cost of individual claims, rather than an increase in the number of claims.

It would up by $3,000,000 a year the $112,000,000 a year paid by Texas employers for on-the-job insurance of workers.

CROP DUSTING DAMAGE UPHELD — A landowner is liable for damages caused to neighboring farms by crop dusting activities, the State Supreme Court ruled. Defendant in the case was the Pitchfork Land and Cattle Company which was sued by a group of King County landowners. Suit also was brought against the aerial spraying firm hired by the land company.

Pitchfork Company contended that the spraying firm was solely responsible for any damages, but the high court held the land company responsible too.

WATER POLLUTION RULING — In another case involving landowners rights, the Austin Court of Civil Appeals upheld a lower court decision awarding damages from salt water pollution.

A Runnels County woman, owner of a 150-acre farm, claimed her freshwater supply had been polluted by salt water discarded by a drilling firm during oil exploration efforts.

District court found the drilling firm negligent in not having sealed the pits in which it discarded the salt water. It awarded the landowner $9,000 in damages.

PICKLE NAMED TO TEC — J. J. (Jake) Pickle, Austin public relations man, has been appointed by Gov. Price Daniel to succeed Maurice Acers as employer representative on the Texas Employment Commission.

Acers' term expires Nov. 21, but he will remain in office, at the governor's request, until Jan. 9.

Pickle has had a significant background role in many of Texas' major political events in the past decade. He was director of the State Democratic Executive Committee for four years and has worked at one time or another in the political campaigns of Governor Daniel, former Gov. Allan Shivers and Sen Lyndon Johnson.

Acers, an attorney and former FBI agent, was appointed to TEC by Governor Shivers. He served as Shivers' executive assistant in the governor's office.

CLUB RULES DUE NOV. 21 — After listening to a round of protests at a hearing on proposed new regulations of private clubs, the State Liquor Control Board plans to re-study the rules and possibly make some changes.

Administrator Coke R. Stevenson Jr. indicated, however, that the rules would probably be basically the same.

Primarily, says Stevenson, the rules are designed to give the Board a means of preventing the operation of open saloons under the guise of private clubs. They would provide for the licensing of clubs and forbid liquor dealers to sell liquor to clubs that did not meet licensing standards.

Representatives of private clubs called some phases of the rules unreasonable, such as requiring a club to be in existence three years before receiving a liquor selling permit. They declared they would welcome some workable guidelines for operation.

SHORT SHORTS — Austin Court of Civil Appeals ruled that state hospitals have the right to retain social security payments made for the benefit of patients.

State Securities Board announced that state permits for 56 firms to offer $21,621,541 in securities were issued in September. This is an increase of more than $8,000,000 over securities approved in August and nearly six times the $3,835,490 in securities approved for September, 1959.

Court of Criminal Appeals reversed a decision in which the defendant was fined $300 for sale of liquor in a dry area because in the trial of the case the state had neglected to prove that Morris County — scene of the event — was a dry county.

Deficit in the state's general revenue fund jumped $6,500,000 in two weeks, making the latest in-the-red figure $58,416,716, according to State Treasurer Jesse James. State Highway Department will open sealed bids Nov. 9 and 10 on 143 miles of construction work on state roadways. Low bids are expected to total about $12,300,000.

Rusty McGinty is feeling much better this week after receiving painful bruises and sprains in a fall at his home Tuesday of last week.

The following is a letter like we enjoy receiving:

Dear Yoakum County Review: Just a few informal lines to express our appreciation for your courtesy and service. My husband and I truly enjoy a "bit of home away from home" and wish to extend to the entire staff our best regards and due praise for a wonderful job being performed by all concerned.

At the same time we want to serve notice of our change of address. We would appreciate you arranging to have the Review sent here.

May I say that it certainly means a lot to homesick people, such as we, to read about people we know and miss. Keep up the good work, and as they say, keep the home fires burning.

Sincerely,
Carol and Dwain Rowland
August, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Randolph and daughters, Tonya and Pamela, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Ratliff of Brownfield, attended dedication ceremonies for three new dormitories at South Plains Junior College, Levelland, Sunday. The Randolph's daughter, Karen, is a freshman student there.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

EVIDENCE

Before our modern idea of evidence in science, in daily affairs, and in our courtrooms, men did strange things to "test" truth in a court trial. Our notion of evidence in law courts is actually only a few centuries old. It entered court procedure at about the same time that Galileo and Newton used scientific evidence to upset older theories of nature.

Before then, men talked to prophets, fortune tellers and augurs before they acted. These men would look into the sky and find out how many and what kind of birds flew in from what quarter. Sometimes they looked at the charred entrails of sacrificial animals.

Court tests for truth in the Middle Ages were many, but somewhat drastic.

You might dispute with your neighbor over land. If so, the court might order a test by ordeal. The contestants would walk through fire. They might be tied and cast into water or you might meet your opponent with sword and shield. You or your agent might fight it out with your neighbor on the theory that Providence would not let the unjust win; or, after due rites, the court might toss you both into the water. If you did not drown, you won. Or perhaps you both grasped a red hot iron or walked barefoot through hot coals. If you came out without blisters, they believed your story.

As you can see, few people went to court of their own will. The risks were many, not the kind you'd choose.

Later in England, where we got most of our law, men had other ways to reach decisions. For example, take the "oath-helpers." Suppose your case was to be tried. You'd not go into court with facts, as today. No, you took with you a fixed number of men called "oath-helpers." Oath-helpers would swear by all that's holy that you were a man of your word. After that, you would swear that your neighbor had wronged you. In turn he would bring his oath helpers and do the same.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

all club members invited.

The next meeting will be Monday, October 21 instead of the 24th due to Thanksgiving and will be in the home of Mrs. Tom Box. Each member is to bring a gift suggestion or the instructions for making a gift.

Mrs. Box was named T. H. D. A. chairman at the last Council meeting. She was recently named a member of the State Health and Safety Committee for two years in the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS
by Vern Sanford
When we look at some of the TV westerns we get the idea that most of our grandfathers were gun slingers. However, today there are perhaps more gun slingers than there were in the Eighties. And the guns are faster.

have come out with frontier models especially adapted to the quick-draw trade. There are numerous quick draw clubs scattered over the country. San Antonio has a big one. It is composed primarily of business men who practice before an electric timer. But that isn't the unusual thing. Their wives have formed a similar organization.

San Antonio now has a bunch of quick draw girls who can pull a single action from its holster and fan off a shot in about 1/30th of a second. That's fast work. They shoot twice a month in the basement of the Tiner Sporting Goods Store, at a cut-out known as Pistol Pete. Some are working girls. Others are housewives and mothers. All of them are as serious about their shooting as the men, if not more so.

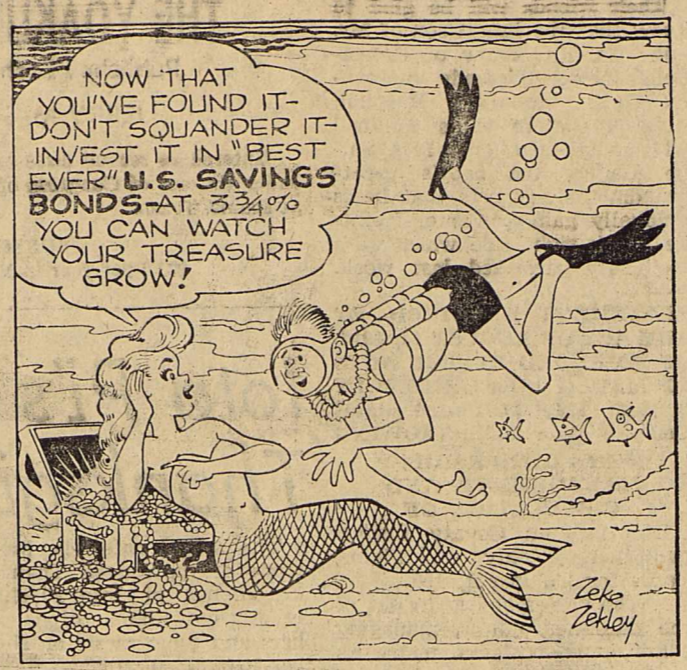

Sure, there have been accidents. Some of these fast draw people have been careless. Accidents are decreasing, however, because most of the fans are using more care. Generally the practice shooting is done with .22 ammunition. Many of the guns now on the market are for .22 caliber. These include all the top brands.

There are many conversions. You can get inserts for the cylinder or a new cylinder for the .22 caliber to be used with the .38 special or the .45. These, however, are only good where you practice the quick draw and want to hear the reports. If you actually shoot at a mark, you need a barrel with the proper caliber. Most of the quick draw work is done with the tied-down buca-dero-type belt.

Philip Y. Hahn, president of the Crosman Arms Co. has produced a gas-operated single action revolver, especially for the quick-draw enthusiasts. This CO2 pistol is made exactly like the old .45 single action. In fact, it is so good it is being used on some of the TV westerns. If you are watching one of these pictures, and you see a cowboy knock off 18 Indians in a row with a six gun, chances are it will be one of the Hahn BB guns. They fire 18 shots with BB pellets.

Hahn also did another piece of clever merchandising. He made a buscadero quick draw scabbard and belt to accompany the gun. Now you can buy a fast draw combination at your favorite gun store without being in violation of the law. And it is a precision gun, plenty good for target practice. If you've never tried BB or pellet gun shooting you've missed something. In the first place it is a great deal more economical than shooting a firearm. The guns themselves are precision made. You can get them in various types. Some are the pump-ups, others are lever action, and still others are gas powered.

They are wonderful for target practice and basement shooting. I like to shoot tin cans with them. Frequently I'll take a spree at saving small cans until I get a box full. I punch a hole in the end of these cans, then run a wire through the hole and suspend them from a tree limb

County's cotton harvest lagging far behind 1959

Yoakum County's cotton harvest is far behind the harvest of one year ago, according to figures compiled by the Texas Employment Commission regarding the amount of cotton picked and the condition of the crop. The latest report of the TEC shows that the county's 1960 crop is now 65 per cent open but only 39 per cent harvested. The report was issued on Wednesday and shows that only 9,653 bales of an estimated crop of 25,000 bales have been ginned to date. Last year, in a report issued on November 18, the county's crop was 86 per cent harvested with 25,893 bales of an estimated total production of 30,000 bales already ginned.

County's crop is still regarded as "good" by the TEC. Gins in the county are reported to be working 12 hours a day. There are eight immigrant crews in the county and a need for approximately 100 more workers. Wage scale in the county, according to the TEC report, is 25 cents per hundredweight for weighing and hauling.

— where there is a hill for a backstop. Then I back off 30 or 40 feet and start to work on the cans.

It is more interesting if the wind is blowing. Then the cans begin to swing and they are harder to hit. With a little practice you can hit them almost every shot. The real fun is to start one swinging and then plink it with one of these BB guns. Gas powered guns, like the Crosman, are real effective. Once in awhile they'll cut small limbs off the trees. When they hit a can at a side glance they sound like a .22 bullet on a flat surface. Don't underestimate the power of these guns, however, and be careful where you shoot them. They are excellent to take on camping trips. The gas powered gun is ample for killing small game animals and birds. They also are excellent for popping snakes. Keep in mind though, that you are not to shoot song birds or game birds out of season. This is rather costly. Game wardens frown on it. Judges assess fines. It's a lot better to stick to tin cans. And it's real fun, too!

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

by C. Murrell Thompson

The new applications for assistance in soil and water conservation were received this week. They are W. E. Sansing and Homer T. Sudderth. Conservation plans were worked out with Homer T. Sudderth and C. S. Wilkerson, on their farms.

T. J. Murphy is in process of drilling a water well and plans to start work on under ground pipe as soon as his well is completed. He plans to connect his wells with pipe for more efficient water use.

Gene Payne has a lot of "hay in the barn" so to speak on the range land he has taken good care of. This, Gene says is leaving a lot more grass on the land than when he took over.

W. F. Upton of Tokio says he and his son are planning on laying some under ground pipe to do a better job of watering their crops.

Deep breaking as a means of wind erosion control, continues to be popular with a large number of operators. Johnnie Fitzgerald plans breaking 175 acres, Bob Long, Darwin Hobbs and several others are in the process of breaking land.

Yoakum A. S. C. office has funds available for assistance in deep breaking at this time. This program is cost shared on a 50-50 basis.

11 rotary rigs counted in latest Reed survey

Rotary drilling in Yoakum County reached the highest peak in the past eight months last week, according to the weekly survey of active rigs taken by Reed Roller Bit Co., Midland.

The latest survey, taken on Friday, Nov. 12, showed a total of 11 active units in the county. This amount represented a gain of two over the count taken one week earlier.

Gain in Yoakum County was recorded despite an overall decrease of three rigs in the Permian Basin. Last week there were 228 units working in the basin, compared with 231 in the survey of one week earlier.

Lea County, N. M., continued to be the most active area in the Basin with 31 active rotar-ies counted. Andrews County maintained its hold on second place with 22 units, followed closely by Eddy County, N. M., with 18 rotaries actually making hole.

Other counties high in the count included Crane County with 15 units and Winkler County with 14. Gaines County, which for a long time led Yoakum in the total count, reported only eight units last week.

Survey taken by the Midland firm counts only those rigs which are actually making hole at the time of the count.

Miss JoAnn Bailey, sophomore Music major at Hardin-Simmons University, visited at home last weekend.

Mrs. Gene Payne can attest that Review classifieds do get results for Norvel Edwards, an employee of the State Highway Department, found the chaps mentioned in her ad last week. Too, that attests for the fact that there are lots of folks left who are happy to return goods to the rightful owner.

Their friends will be glad to know that the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snow of Brownfield is making steady improvement in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, where he is confined with spinal meningitis. Mrs. Sallie Hague, the baby's great-grandmother, reports that he is gradually gaining use of facilities of his right side which were seemingly paralyzed last week.
