$100.00 REWARD

Will be paid to anyone giving information which will lead to the capture of the thief or thieves that have entered Dortha's Style Shop. The reward will be paid by the Plains Chamber of Commerce and Olan Heath, Yoakum County deputy sheriff.

Anyone having any knowledge of the burglaries are urged to contact the local sheriff's office or anyone finding any of the missing merchandise should contact Mr. Heath.

Your cooperation, as a citizen of Plains, is needed.

PLAINS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
OLAN HEATH, deputy sheriff

CAN YOU HELP?

When a hungry man is starving and steals bread—this can be understood but when thieves steal for the malicious thrill of stealing—this is unreasonable.

For the second time in a month Dortha's Style Shop has been entered and property valued in the hundreds of dollars has been taken. Goods from the first robbery were found scattered in a local pasture and cemetery—ruined due to rain. Apparently the thief or thieves had no desire to keep the property for use or resale—but just for the thrill of stealing.

Something must be done to stop these wanton acts.

The Plains Chamber of Commerce in their last meeting discussed the possibility of taking on a nightwatchman to help the local officials in guarding property. It was also brought out that the street lights would help eliminate crimes.

But the Chamber of Commerce cannot be expected to carry out these plans by themselves. The problem confronts everyone living in Plains—and everyone should take an active interest in this.

To help with your part in making Plains a safer, better place to live we ask you to do your part in erecting the much needed street lights. Any amount of donation will be accepted so don't wait for others to do your share but call it in now.

Secondly you can do your share in joining and supporting your local Chamber of Commerce and other civic groups. Why leave these problems up to a small group of energetic men and women? If you live in Plains and are in business you can do much to help in making Plains grow.

These and other problems will be confronting Plains as it grows into a larger town, and the help of everyone is needed in overcoming these problems.

Take a front seat in the progress of Plains and put your support behind the Chamber of Commerce and other civic groups.

Let this be your invitation to join the Chamber of Commerce. They need your help to make your town a better, safer place.

New street light to be installed

The first city street light has arrived and will be installed soon at the goal sign next to the Romain Telephone office. According to Roger Curry, chairman of the lighting committee, the new light will be installed to show the citizens the type which will be used if sufficient money can be raised.

Curry said that those donating money to the project had been contacted and ten new lights had been ordered. The donors gave the Chamber permission to start purchasing the lights.

Cowboys slide by Merkel, 8-7

Plains to meet Wink on Thanksgiving Day there

A mighty happy town was Plains Friday as the Cowboys, after a nip and tuck game, slid by Merkel by a one point margin. For the second and third quarters Plains fans were kept on the edge of the seat as the Badgers held the Cowboys scoreless. In the fourth quarter Ronney Hendricks put on the speed for the lone touchdown. A pass from Hendricks to Jerry Warren put the Cowboys ahead for the extra points to win the game. Merkel, a hard-hitting, team kept the Cowboys at bay most of the game. Joe Don Morrow showed his skill as he plunged out 109 yards for the Cowboys. Backing up Morrow was the hard hitting line who kept Merkel pinned down as the Badgers threaten to get into scoring position several times.

The winning play was no stranger to Cowboys fans. Mike Culwell quarterback, handed the ball to Hendricks, who handed off to Dick Cooke, who pitched back to Culwell and Culwell passed to Hendricks who raced into the end zone for the score. A breathless crowd watched the play for extra points as Warren went over.

A hard try by Merkel to regain the lead was stopped by the Cowboys on the 9 yard line. A measurement showed Merkel lacked 6 inches for a first and the Cowboys took over for the remaining 40 seconds.

The Merkel score was made in the first quarter by Reeger, powerhouse backfielder, as he drove in from the 8 yard line. Reeger kicked for the extra point.

Plains will meet Wink on Thanksgiving Day there.

Thieves enter Dortha's; take merchandise again

Lightning has struck twice—thieves again entered Dortha's Style Shop late Wednesday night or early Thursday morning and made off with an undisclosed amount of merchandise. This makes the second time within the month that the shop has been robbed.

According to Olan Heath, deputy sheriff, the acts appear to be malicious stealing as the stolen goods have been thrown away. Heath said that all the apparel of the first robbery have been found and several articles of the second robbery have been found.

The thief or thieves entered the front door by breaking the door window with a hatchet. The hatchet along with part of the broken glass was found at the back of the store where the culprits apparently stacked them.

Taken in the latest burglary were coats, skirts and sweaters, lingerie, robes, scarfs, and blouses, and all the jewelry. Local and state officials have ask that anyone finding the articles to please get in touch with local authorities.

Part of the scarfs and a coat have been found scattered around Plains. Articles from the first robbery were found in a local pasture and cemetery.

Mrs. Gray, owner of the shop, said the thieves took time again to pick out the merchandise. A manquin seated in the show window was taken down and part of the clothing removed.

Black scuff marks were found in the store along with numerous finger prints. The finger prints have been sent to Austin.

Working on the case with local officials are the Texas Rangers. A reward of $100 has been offered by the Plains Chamber of Commerce and Olan Heath, deputy sheriff. The money will be paid to anyone giving information for the capture of the thief or thieves entering the Increase in farm value shown in '59 farm census

Total land in farms in Yoakum County in 1959 was 458,745 acres according to the 1959 Census of Agriculture conducted in the county last fall. In the preliminary report just issued by the Bureau of Census of the U. S. Department of Commerce Yoakum County was credited with 274 farms with the average farm 1,674.3 acres. The average value of farms which include lands and buildings was $115,899.

Of the county's farm operators, 66 owned their farms, 100 owned part of the land and rented additional acreage, and 107 were tenant farmers.

The average age of farm operators in the county was 44.1 years with 17 of the farm operators 65 or more years old.

There was a decline of 38 farms in the county but the farm sizes increased by 120.8 acres from the 1954 census. There was also a big increase in value from 1954's $56,487 to 1959's $115,899.

There were more farms in irrigation and improved pastures in this tally than in the earlier tally. An increase was also seen in cotton production, wheat, and smaller grains.

A decrease was noted in the amount of livestock on farms in 1959 compared to 1954. A decline of sheep, lambs, cows and calves were shown to be down nearly a half over the 1954 census.

Farm spending was also on the increase with more money being spent on gasoline, commercial fertilizers and labor. It was also shown that farm owners have sold more with 66 of the farms reporting sales of $40,000 or more.

AUSTIN, Tex.—Added to the list of lively topics for the next Legislature is the carving out of a new Congressional district.

Final figures in the national census show Texas entitled to a 23rd congressional district. State's population rose 24.2 per cent—to 9,579,677—making it the sixth most populous state in the nation.

Even through population increase accounts for Texas' getting another representative to Congress, population will not be the sole consideration when lawmakers decide where to put the new district.

Population of Texas districts ranges widely, from about 227,000 to 614,000. It is highly unlikely that the legislature will undertake to rearrange too many incumbent congressmen, taking from their districts counties where they are popular and adding counties where they are unknown.

Nor is it expected that Dallas County, the state's most populous district, with 614,000, will get the extra congressman. Dallas now sends Texas' only Republican to Washington, and a Democratic legislature likely will not want to create an opportunity for another GOPer to be elected.

Texas' biggest congressional district—and the nation's biggest—area-wise, is the 16th, stretching all the way from Ozona to El Paso. But if El Paso, the only metropolitan area, were taken out, what was left would be short on population for a district.

After the 1950 census, the Legislature ducked for awhile the question of what to do with the extra congressman by having him serve "at large" (the whole state). Later Harris County (Houston) was given the extra congressman.

OIL FLOW UPPEP—Texas Railroad Commission has set the December oil allowable at 2,819,379 barrels a day on a nine-day producing pattern.

For the past seven months the state has been limited to eight producing days. Independent producers, most of whom have been strong for part of the responsibilities for care of the aged and mentally ill, between state and local government, may be proposed in the next Legislature.

It would take a constitutional amendment approved by the people to put the plan into effect.

Legislative Budget Board has tentatively approved a recommendation whereby the state would split with a city, county or district the cost of such programs as out-patient care for mental patients and nursing home care for elderly patients.

Nearly-recovered mental patients, for example, could be released from bed space at expensive state institutions and get treatment as needed from a nearby clinic.

PERJURY RULING REAFFIRMED—Court of Criminal Appeals refused to reconsider its 2-to-1 decision that former Insurance Commissioner J. Byron Saunders could not be convicted for perjury as a result of testimony before a legislative committee.

But it did not make the opinion final. Travis County District Attorney Lee Procter is filing a second motion for re-hearing in hopes of keeping the issue alive until after the first of the year.

At that time one of the members holding in Saunders' favor, Judge Lloyd Davidson, goes out of office. If incoming Judge W. T. McDonald took the other side, the scales would be tilted and Saunders' conviction upheld.

OUT-OF-STATE TAX DENIED—Texas cannot collect a tax on the premiums of an insurance policy sold to a company in Texas by an out-of-state firm not licensed to do business in Texas.

Third Court of Civil Appeals ruled that this would conflict with U. S. Supreme Court decision now in effect. A Texas law requires purchasers of insurance from companies not licensed in Texas to pay a tax equal to 5 per cent of the premiums. This is higher than the tax on companies licensed in the state.

Appeals Court suggested hopefully that the Supreme Court might reconsider its position so that the Texas law would become valid.

SHORT SNORTS—Secretary of State Zollie Steakley has issued a charter for Houston Baptist College to be built by Texas Baptist on a 200-acre site in Harris County. College is to open its doors by September, 1962. It already has a $3,000,000 endowment for building. . . . Department of Public Safety reports a 7 per cent decrease in Texas traffic fatalities this year as compared with the same period last year. Number of death-causing accidents dropped 9 per cent. . . . Some parts of Texas had the wettest October on record, and all parts of the state except the southwest portion received above-average rainfall last month.

State Board of Water Engineers reported that Corpus Christi and Victoria had the wettest October ever. Amarillo had rainfall 16.42 inches above normal by the first of October. . . . Unusually heavy moisture is blamed by Texas A&M experts for the state's generally poor pecan crop this year.

Horticulture Professor Dr. Benton J. Store says why wet weather makes bad pecan is not fully understood. Most growers just call it "blight" . . . For ranchers, however, the rainy weather is mostly good news. U. S. Department of Agriculture says Texas range are going into the winter in "above average" condition.

The worst-tempered people I've ever met were people who knew they were wrong.

host for the monthly workers conference of G.A.Y. Association and served a delicious meal to a large crowd.

Rev. C. J. Coffman spoke on "Mission in the Church" following the song service and scripture reading led by Jack Stringer. The evening program consisted of the showing of slides of the Holy Land and Switzerland taken by Rev. Carl Grisson of First Baptist Church, Andrews on his trip there in 1958.

Shower honors Miss Linda Salyer

A bridal shower was held in honor of Linda Salyer, Saturday, November 19, in the clubroom. Linda is the bride-elect of Merle Lee Todd. The centerpiece was a red and white heart with a miniature bride and groom, having red streamers with the names—Linda and Merle. Cake, punch, mints and nuts were served to all guests. Corsages for the honoree's mother and the groom's mother were red and white with small kitchen utilities.

Mrs. Tom Box host to State Line Club

Mrs. Tom Box was hostess to State Line Home Demonstration Club Monday, November 21 at 2:30 p.m. and president Mrs. Alton Billings presided.

Each member brought a homemade gift and showed how it was made, the expense involved and so forth. The next meeting will be December 1 instead of December 8 and will convene in the home of Mrs. Hayden Box. All women are invited to attend. Club pals will be revealed and new names drawn at this meeting.

The club's family Christmas party will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Box and all members are urged to come.

Refreshments of dainty cheese-filled crackers, pumpkin pie with whipped cream and punch were served by Mrs. Box to Mesdames Loren Gayle, P. G. Hartman, T. B. Farquhar, Lee Roy Box, Ira Tidwell and Alton Billings.

Guess the "virus-bug" has struck in almost every household in the area. Even hit our football team so hard they were weakened in Friday's game at Big Springs. Everyone turned out for the game and it would be much easier to enumerate those who remained at home than who attended.

County cotton crop 68% harvested

The 1960 cotton harvest in Yoakum County began to move in high gear during the past week, according to the weekly Farm Labor report issued by the Texas Employment Commission.

Latest information from TEC revealed that there has been 16,909 bales of cotton ginned in the county to date this year. This figure compared quite favorably with only 9,653 bales ginned through Tuesday, Nov. 15.

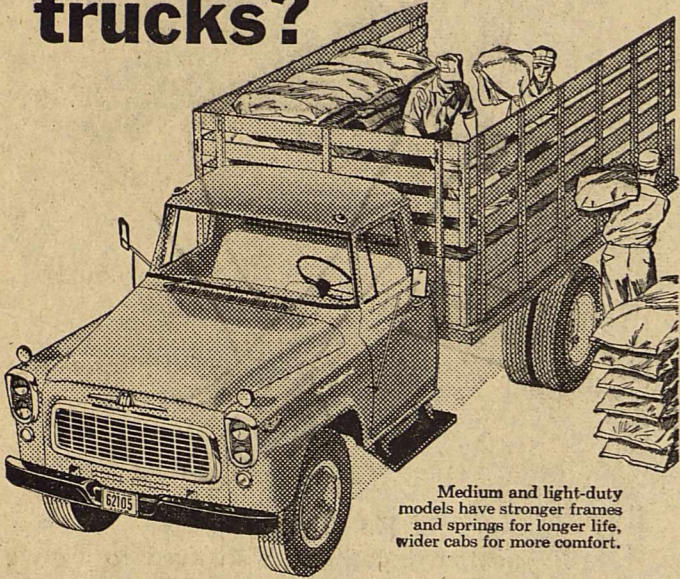

According to the report the county's crop is now 70 per cent open and 68 per cent harvested. These figures compare with 65 per cent open and only 39 per cent harvested last week.

Last year, prior to November 16, there were 25,983 bales ginned in Yoakum County thus showing the lateness of the 1960 harvest. Estimated total production from the county this year is 25,000 bales, compared with total production of over 30,000 bales in 1959. County crop is still described in "good" condition by TEC.

I am now back BUYING HOGS and CATTLE. Also have bred sows and young gilts for sale. See me for shoats and feeder-type pigs.

'Giant Eye' Symbolizing Research Hope Is Visited by Small Birth Defects Victim

The lights dim, and in the darkened high-ceilinged room a somber-faced little boy stares at the pilot light of a towering microscope.

This is the electron microscope at Ohio State University Hospital, Columbus, Ohio, a giant, inquiring eye nine feet tall, capable of magnifying the human cell 100,000 times.

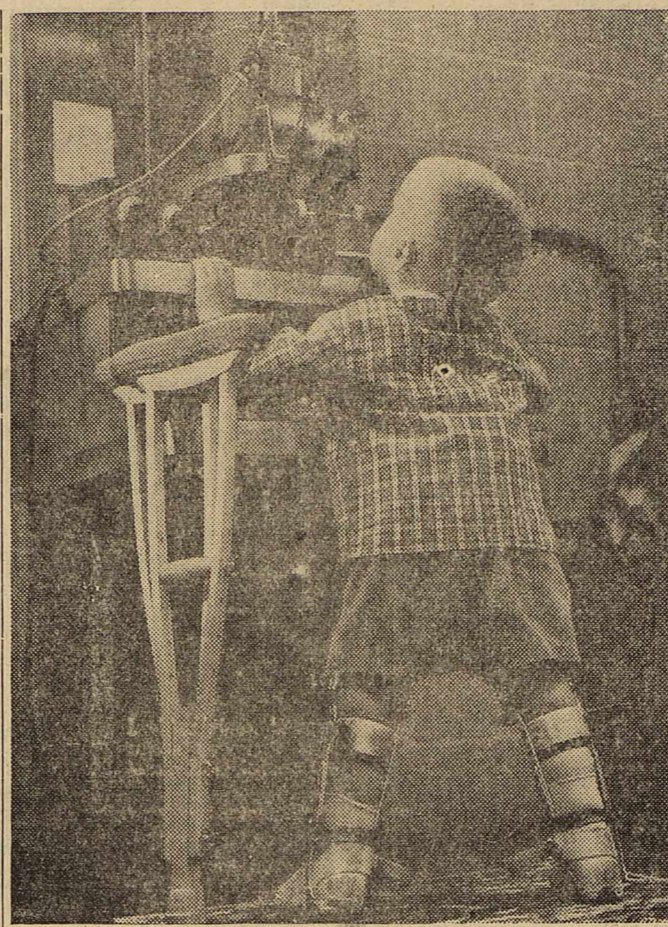

The small boy with the rather sad little face is Kevin Sharp, 3½ years, of Grove City, Ohio, who wanted to see a jumbo-sized version of the toy microscope given him on his last birthday by his doctor. Kevin has to see his doctor regularly because he is a victim of spina bifida, or open spine. He is paralyzed from the waist down and cannot play ball—or indeed play much at anything.

Such mobility as he has is made possible by his crutches and leg braces.

Kevin's is one of the significant birth defects the cause of which is being pursued today by The National Foundation with New March of Dimes contributions. Congenital malformations afflict 250,000 infants annually in the United States and are responsible for the deaths of 34,000 babies each year who are stillborn or die within four weeks of birth. The health organization's expanded program also includes arthritis and continued work in polio.

In his excitement while reaching for the eyepiece of the vast instrument, Kevin probably didn't know that in the ultra-powerful lens of such electron microscopes, scientists hope some day to pinpoint the cause of the savage embryonic mishap that crippled him before he was born. By comparing normal and abnormal cells under tremendous magnification, researchers hope to discover, for example, why Kevin's spine never fused during his mother's pregnancy, or why some other little boy or girl is born with excess fluid on the brain—another baffling birth defect which The National Foundation is studying.

"At his birth, doctors gave Kevin only a few hours to live," says Mrs. Gerald Sharp, his mother. "In addition to his open spine, he had two clubfeet which are now much improved due to surgery and physical therapy. He is a brave and happy little fellow even if he smiles so rarely. My husband and I thank God that today wider research is being done into birth defects."

She adds somewhat wistfully: "My husband Gerald and I met in an orphanage in Xenia, Ohio. We became childhood sweethearts. Like other young people, we longed to raise a family, and a healthy one.

"Why should this unaccountable accident have happened to us? But we count our blessings. Perhaps fewer Kevins will be born to the next generation. We certainly pray so."

The lights return and, supported by his crutches and braces, solemn little Kevin struggles back from the microscope. But at that moment, looking up at his mother, there's the suggestion of a smile around the corners of his mouth.

Drilling count drops in Yoakum

Rotary drilling activity in Yoakum County declined slightly last week although a slight increase in drilling was noted in the Permian Basin. This information is contained in the weekly survey of rotaries in the area, made by Reed Roller Bit Co. of Midland.

Ten working units were counted in the county last Friday by the Midland firm, compared with 11 during the survey taken on the previous Friday. The 11 rigs was a new high for the county for 1960.

Seven more units were counted in the Basin, however, with 235 being listed in the latest report compared with 228 in the

Chairmen named by Turner HD Club

Mrs. William Worsham was hostess to Turner Home Demonstration Club in her home Wednesday afternoon, November 16.

Club president Mrs. I. L. Smith conducted the business session and presented the demonstration on "Sofa Pillows, Round and Square".

The club christmas party was planned for December 17 at 7:30 P. M. in Tokio Community Center.

Mrs. Smith appointed 1961 chairmen of standing committees as follows: Mrs. Jesse Snodgrass, reporter, was named to head the Safety, Health and Civil Defense Committee; Finance, Mrs. William Worsham; EEE and Recreation, Mrs. Howard Mak and Mrs. Allen Rollins; 4-H Committee, Mrs. O. A. Pipreport issued by the firm one week earlier.

Lea County, N. M., maintained first place with 32 rigs working. Andrews County counted 22 units to hold second place, followed closely by Eddy County, N. M., with 19. Crane County totalled 15 rigs in the latest count and Pecos and Winkler counties each had 12 to tie for fifth place.

At the same approximate time last year there were 344 rotary rigs drilling in the Basin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hughlett and daughters of Brownfield were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Slim Randall. Mr. Hughlett and sons, Gene and Virgil, are commuting from there to Lubbock to do carpenter work.

Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, at Wink. Earlier in the season the Cowboys downed Wink 30 to 13. Plying Wink Friday was Sonora who lost 14 to 12.
