

MOORE Or Less

by Johnnie Moore

The five week's series beginning this week in the Record is worth reading. It's high time we all realized, complacent as we try to be, that we, individually and as a nation, are engaged in a mortal conflict with this very ominous foe called Communism. This week's article is introductory in nature to the other articles, but it has a lot of real pertinent thought.

Read it and think about it. This battle against Communism belongs to all of us whether we want it or not.

From the Bennettsville (S.C.) Marlboro Herald-Advocate. "Our freedom was not given to us because of any virtue of ours. We live under no divine exemption from the lessons of history. But rather, we have inherited freedom because of the character and efforts of our fore-fathers and, above all, because of the goodness of God. The conditions under which freedom is granted by God include vigilance, fervor, faith, courage, hard work, and respect for the human family and for the rights of others.

Here is a truth which applies to governments as well as to individuals: Once a moral principle is weakened, once a vice is condoned or winked at, there is a tendency to condone or wink at all vices.

The softness, the indifference to responsibility, and the complacency of the American people today invites disaster. Our founding fathers did not want nor did they receive Federal aid when they built this country. They used their own savings, they respected work and they used taxes collected at the local level to build this country, its roads, its schools, its homes and its hospitals. In brief, they worked hard for self-respect.

Patriotism has to be bigger than government, and as freedom-loving men and women, we must keep a close and careful watch on government lest it buy away our freedom with our own money!

Patriotism should and must grow out of the reality of what our country is and what our country means and not from the government. Government is a blessing but only so long as it is the servant rather than the master of the people.

Rear End Collision

A rear-end collision accident occurred on highway 214, south of Plains, near Denver City last Saturday evening.

The accident occurred at approximately 6 p.m. just as the sun was setting and darkness was approaching.

A pickup truck driven by a Latin American rammed the back end of a truck driven by O. A. Pippin of the Tokio Community.

Deputy, Olan Heath, reported that the four occupants of the pickup were taken to the Yoakum County Hospital in Denver City where they received first aid treatment, but their conditions were not serious in the least.

Pippin received no personal injury and there was thought to be little or no damage to his truck. The pickup, however, was pretty well damaged and repairs will have to be extensive.

The Plains Record

Combined With The Yoakum County Review March 1, 1961

VOLUME 31

PLAINS, TEXAS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1961

NUMBER 42

Yoakum County Taxable Valuation Set At $57 Million

Valuation Up About 20 Percent

Rate for state taxes has remained at the customary 42 cents, which when added to the county rates of $1.10 and $1.35, will mean that the state and county rate for the year is $1.52 for Yoakum County residents who live outside Road District 1-A, and $1.77 for those who live within it.

Without regard to the road district, the additional revenue to the county from the increased valuation, that is one the $1.10 rate derived from the county base of 80 cents and the FML rate of 30 cents, should be an additional $119,722 for the county till.

Craig pointed out that on state taxes only there is a system of discounts for persons who pay them before certain deadlines. State taxes paid during the month of October are entitled to a 3 per cent discount, during November a 2 per cent discount and during December a 1 per cent discount. It was stressed that in the past some taxpayers, who mail their payments in, have taken the discount on both state and county taxes. It should be noted that this applies to state taxes only.

A new series begins this week in The Record and will run for five consecutive weeks. These articles are very timely and should be read by every individual concerned about the Communist threat to our system of free society.

These articles were written by James E. Turner, Minister of The Federated Church of Sherborn, Mass.

The Rev. Turner spent an entire summer in the Soviet Union, where he studied the Russian people, their customs, their ambitions and their beliefs. He even spent a little time in one of their prisons for taking pictures.

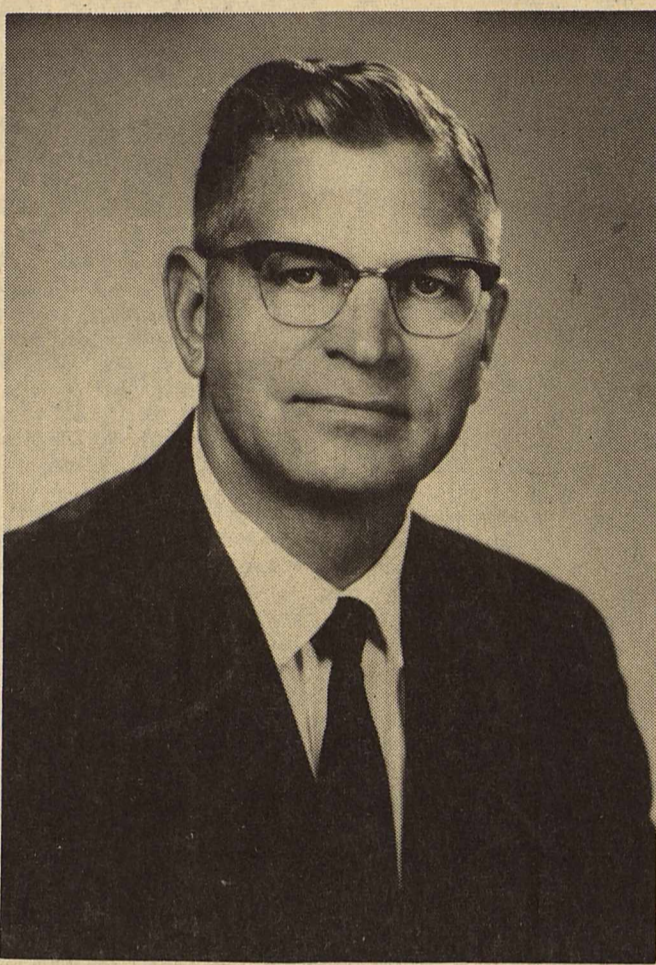

James Edward Turner was born June 16, 1929, in Mission Texas. He was awarded his B. A. Degree from the University of Texas, his B. D. from Vanderbilt University and has completed two years of graduate study at Harvard and Boston Universities.

His church affiliation is with the Southwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church as Deacon and he is ordained in the United Church of Christ. His church is a union of all Protestants in that community.

Rev. Turner has spent a great deal of time and study in the field of the Communist doctrines. He has studied their documents and writings to great length.

He has a message for modern-day Americans, and one which we sincerely hope you will read.

We earnestly solicit your comments and suggestions as to this group of articles.

Ghana Missionary To Speak In Plains

"A fanatic desire for education marks the new nations of Africa," according to missionary Homer T. Goodwin.

"Education and Christian literature are the biggest advantages missionaries have in reaching Africans today. Africans will read anything that is given to them, they are so eager for literature," relates the missionary.

The Rev. and Mrs. Goodwin have returned recently from northern Ghana, formerly called Gold Coast, where they have spent a total of eleven years. With them in Africa this past term were two of their four children, a fifteen-year-old daughter, Nova, and a son, John, who is ten.

The Rev. Goodwin will be the featured speaker at a special missions rally on Oct. 22 at the Plains Assemblies of God Church, and on Oct. 23 at 2:30 p. m. he will speak to the student body of Plains High School, the Rev. E. L. Witt announced today.

While pastoring a number of Assemblies of God churches in West Texas, including churches at Lubbock, Plainview, Hereford, and El Paso, Rev. Goodwin also served as District Missionary Secretary for the West Texas District of the Assemblies of God for five years.

During this past missionary term, the Goodwins have been working in the Northern Region (Continued on page 2.)

The flower show will be open to the public from 3 to 5 p.m. Saturday October 21. The club extends a cordial invitation to everyone to come by and view the show.

CL. Kay Sets Series

Dr. C. L. Kay of Lubbock Christian College, who spoke recently in Plains under the auspices of the Tsa Mo Ga Club and who also has earned for himself a very high regard as a speaker on the threat of Communism and on basic Americanism has scheduled and has begun a series of lectures on these issues.

The series is being presented in the Carroll Thompson Junior High cafeteria in Lubbock, which is located at Ave. T and 14th streets.

Starting time for the lecture each week is set at 8 p.m. Oct. 19, Dr. Kay's subject will be, "The Structure of the American Way of Life"; Oct. 26, "Socialism Unveiled"; Nov. 2, "The Responsibility of Citizenship."

School Names Honor Students

The honor for the first six weeks has been released by the principals of the high school and junior high.

On the honor roll released by Neil Taylor for the high school are Mary Johnson, Gayla Kerrick, Roberta Snodgrass, Sarah Fields and Sylvia McGinty.

For the Junior high, the honor students are Paula Duff, Sherry Miller, Neva Gillian, Myron Goehry, Patsy Tipton, Russell Jones, Robert Field, Ricky Chambers, Juana Beach, Jeanie Stroud, Charlene Upton and Linda Harbour.

It is noteworthy that in the case of high school honor students the requirement is five or six straight A's, and in the junior high these students are straight A students.

Cowboys To Host O'Donnell

With a one win, one loss record on their home field, the Plains Cowboys face their second district rival Friday night in the third home game of the season.

Plains will host the O'Donnell Eagles here with game time set at 7:30 p.m. on Cowboy Field.

The Eagles come into this tilt, as does Plains, with one district game played and one district game lost. They bowed in a 12-0 defeat at the hands of Sundown last week. As for other district statistics from last week, Seagraves was beaten in a close won by Eunice, New Mexico, by a score of 18-16. This week, Sundown plays Seagraves at Seagraves, Friendship is open.

O'Donnell's starting lineup as follows:

LE	Taylor	150
LT	Aldridge	220
LG	Gardenhire	140
C	Pearce	150
RG	Mahurin	150
RT	Richardson	205
RE	White	175
QB	Snellgrove	160
LH	Jordan	175
RH	Lopez	135
WB	Bessire	150

Scouting reports have it that the Eagles use a passing attack very little, but that they have one end, White and their wing-back, Bessire, who can do very well in the pass receiving field. Two O'Donnell backs are pretty fleet of foot, the halfbacks, Lopez and Jordan.

Their offensive is worked from something of an unusual pattern. It is set up as an unbalanced line with a split end and a flanker back. This is something of a modified T formation and is somewhat similar to one that Plains fans have seen this year at Portales.

The Cowboy's enter this contest with quite a bit of handicap. Injuries have definitely played a large part in the not too profitable season experienced so far by the team. This week five players will be sidelined because of injuries. They are Kenneth McGinty, Norman Huddleston, Jerry Jones, Dennis Hickman and Butch Simms.

Coach Jack Pierce says that definitely Kenneth will not be able to play any more this season and that Norman won't play much, except possibly in the last game of the season against Sundown. He went on to

Cowboys Edged Out By Tigers

Plains Cowboys went down to a heartbreaking four point defeat at the hands of the Frenship Tigers last Friday night at Frenship. Final score of the game was 18-14 favor of Frenship.

A great many Plains football fans were on hand to see the first district tilt for the season. Most of us got there a little early, as the game time had been announced as 7:30 and was changed, evidently at the last minute, by Frenship, because of their homecoming activities. It has been pointed out, though, that the balance of the season's games will definitely begin at the 7:30 time.

Fans and rooters from either side Friday night saw actually very few real spectacular plays or long runs. As a case in point, in the second half, the Tigers were held to a very slim 19 yards gained in their total offensive campaign, both passing and rushing. Their total yards gained passing and rushing for the entire game was 153 yards, which netted them five first downs and three TDs.

In the offensive drives staged by the Cowboys, on the other hand, there was a total of 221 yards gained passing and rushing, and a total net of 11 first downs, with only two TDs and two extra points.

In the defensive department, impressive showings were made by Steve McGinty and Butch Hawkins who got 10 and 9 tackles respectively.

Scoring situations for the Frenship eleven came about in the second and third quarters of play. Two came about in the second period and one in the third period.

Tigers' first TD came about in the second period of play on a fourth down, four yards to go situation, from their own 35 yard line. Stapleton, their newly reinstated tail back, ran with the ball instead of punting, and was hit behind the line of scrimmage by the Plains defense. He turned and lateraled the ball to the Tiger left end man who in turn raced 48 yards down the field. Plains on the same play was penalized for piling on and this placed the ball almost in pay-dirt on the Cowboys six. On the next play Blakeman charged over for the six yards and the first TD. Try for the extra points failed.

With a little less than two minutes to go in the first half, Blakeman raced down the sidelines with a returned punt for 80 yards and the second score. Again the try for points failed. In the third period, Steve McGinty bulldozed over from the 11 and racked up the first Cowboy tally. Steve was also responsible for the two extra points, making the score at this point of the game, 12-8.

Sometime later in the third quarter, Blakeman again scored for the Tigers on a four yard run. They did no better this time on the try for extra points, leaving the score at the end of three periods of play at 18 for the Tigers and 8 for the Cowboys.

In the fourth period, Steve again ran over a Plains TD, this time from the six yard line. Try for extra point failed, and the final score was 18-14 with the Frenship Tigers on the heavy end.

Beware Of Salty Cars

Purchasers of automobiles have been warned to be on the lookout for vehicles with salt water damage from Hurricane Carla.

H. C. Pittman, executive vice president of the Texas Automobile Dealers Association, said, "According to reports received in our office, scores of persons throughout Texas are being victimized by unscrupulous bargain promoters who have purchased automobiles in the Gulf area, after they have been totaled by insurance companies, and are reselling them in other parts of the state to purchasers who are unaware of the salt water damage."

TADA is a state-wide organization of franchised automobile dealers, with headquarters in Austin.

"We have received reports of persons who have made special trips to purchase quantities of these new cars," Pittman continued. "After cleaning them up and removing the factory stickers, they are selling them without advising the purchasers of the certainty of quick deterioration from salt rust. The public in the Gulf area is educated to this type of damage and therefore most of these cars are being sold in Central, North and West Texas."

"To protect themselves from such losses, automobile purchasers should beware of suspicious bargains, and should buy their automobiles only from well-known, established dealers in their own communities," Pittman stressed. "No legitimate dealer would handle such a sale. This same type of unscrupulous activity cost many hard working families their life savings when they purchased automobiles brought in from Louisiana after Hurricane Audrey," he added.

The very small boy came home dejectedly from his first day at school.

"I'm not goin' tomorrow, he sputtered.

"Why not, dear?" his mother asked.

"Well, I can't read, and I can't write, and teacher won't let me talk, so what's the use?"

Dr. Lynn Gets Some Reprieve

Dr. Clyde A. Lynn, local Plains physician, who was recently given notice by the U. S. Army that he was being transferred from his reserve officer status to active duty with the 49th Armored Division, has received at least temporary deferment from this active duty.

Dr. Lynn stated that he has no idea about the length of the reprieve, but he still feels the chances of a permanent deferment are very slim.

The 49th was activated recently under the government's program aimed toward a much higher degree of military preparedness. About 14,000 men were activated on the day Dr. Lynn was to have reported. The 49th, which has been headquartered at Fort Worth, has received its orders to report to Fort Polk, La., and it did so beginning last Sunday, Oct. 15.

Several letters and telegrams have been sent to the powers that be concerning this community's needs for Dr. Lynn remaining, but as he points out, it remains to be seen the effect these requests will have on his military status.

Lubbock Invites Local Physicians

Local physicians are invited to send cerebral palsied children to the regular monthly clinic at the Lubbock Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center, 3502 Avenue N, on Thursday morning, November 2, 1961. Dr. Esther E. Snell, Director of the Center, points out that nearly 50% of the children now being referred to the Center are less than two years old. Starting treatment at an early age aids greatly in the child's habilitation. In 1960, 87% of the children of school age who were under care at the Center were able to attend regular school.

The Center is supported by contributions from interested individuals and organizations, and is able to offer treatment without charge to all cerebral palsied children referred by their own physicians.

GHANA

Bible School in Ghana. Mrs. Goodwin taught English to the male students in the three-year school. No women attend the school, but the students' wives are taught to read and write, as well as the fundamentals of hygiene, child care, and sanitation.

Average cost for a student at the Assemblies of God Bible School is $12.00 a month. Students are accepted only on a scholarship basis and with the recommendation of the missionary in their area. After they enter school they are expected to spend two hours a day working on the school farm.

In addition to the Bible School, the Assemblies of God operates the maternity and outpatient clinics in Ghana. Several thousand lepers have undergone treatment, and to date there have been approximately two thousand definite cures.

"The central Ghana government has done everything possible to uphold freedom of religion," states the Rev. Goodwin. The country encourages churches to enter the public schools with religious instruction. Because the Assemblies of God was originally the only Protestant group in northern Ghana, the missions find much of their time spent in public schools - but they are still unable to reach every school once a day. Many times they are able to visit the school only once a week.

"Ghana won't go communistic," contends the missionary, notwithstanding recent reports of the African nation receiving financial aid from Russia. There is too much nationalistic spirit in the new nations for the country to fall under Russian domination, Goodwin feels. (Ghana became an independent nation in March, 1957).

Most of Ghana's leaders are well-educated men, although the majority of the population is not. President Nkyumah was educated in the United States.

A missionary's life is a rewarding life, according to Rev. and Mrs. Goodwin. Abarika Narumba is just one of the many examples of the transformation Christianity makes in an African life that they have seen on the mission field.

When Abarika first came to the Bible School he had only one purpose--education.

Each of the 41 students that enter the Bible School are carefully selected. There was no missionary working in the area where Abarika lived, so when he applied for permission to enter the school, saying that he was a Christian, the school authorities decided to accept him even though he did not have a missionary or native pastor to recommend him. The school board was conscious that perhaps he would become the native pastor who could start a work in his unreached area.

Abarika had been in the school only a short time when one of the national pastors came to hold a revival--and the student immediately decided to leave.

The Rev. Goodwin was puzzled by Abarika's sudden decision to quit school when he was doing so well. So the missionary made a bargain with him--the young African would stay three more days, then if

First Annual Lubbock Amateur Track And Field Meet

First Annual Lubbock amateur invitational indoor track and field meet.

The First Annual Lubbock Amateur Invitational Indoor Track and Field Meet will be held at the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum, Saturday, January 27, 1962. The meet will feature three classes: University, Open (Freshmen, Jr. College, A.A.U. Clubs, or unattached individuals), and High School Divisions. The meet is sponsored by the Lubbock Amateur Athletic Association, and will feature amateur athletes only.

This meet is one in a series of meets which will form the first indoor circuit in the Southwest. Prior to the Lubbock meet, there will be one held in Houston and San Antonio. University teams featured in the meet will be the University of Texas, Baylor, ACC., Texas A. & M., S.M.U., T.C.U., Rice, Texas Tech, Arkansas, University of Houston, and the University of New Mexico. The he still wanted to leave he was free to go. But during those three days, Abarika's life was changed. As the African became truly converted to Christianity and related that he had come to the school only for the education they offered, not to learn about the Bible, he had another confession to make.

Going quickly into his room, Abarika amazed the missionaries and his classmates by returning with pagan fetishes. Tied by centuries of superstition, the young man had been afraid to leave his fetishes behind when he came to the Christian school. A fetish burning was held on the school compound that day.

When Abarika returned to his area to witness of Christ's power, his father became enraged and drove him from his home. On another occasion he tried to kill the young convert.

Abarika, however, has remained true to the Light of the World, who is able to drive away the darkness of fear and superstition. He is now in his last year of Bible School preparing for a ministry of telling others of Christ.

Local Lake Gets Fish

This week saw the first fish from a U.S. Government hatchery ever used in Yoakum County delivered to H. W. (Curley) Taunton.

Charlie Malloy hatchery manager of the Federal Fish Hatchery (a branch of the department of the Interior) located 18 miles south of Roswell, N.M. in the Pecos Valley, at Dexter, N.M. delivered 250 bass, 250 channel cat and 500 Georgia redear brim to Taunton.

Taunton plans to stock and fertilize the two and one-half surface acre lake for private use.

C. Murrell Thompson, local S.C.S. director, stated that anyone who has as much as one quarter of an acre surface area pond can secure fish through the government at no cost.

Dirt Gardeners Receive Show Instructions

Plains Dirt Gardeners met Oct. 12, 1961, in the old court room. Mrs. Hubert Thompson of Brownfield, was guest speaker. She discussed the grooming of plants for the flower show.

She explained that plants have more sugar content in the evening, thus it is best to cut flowers late, cut stems at an angle and place in a pail of water. Cut only a few flowers at a time to avoid damage. She went on to say cut bark of roses at the end of stem, so rose may absorb more water. Remove all leaves that are to go in water, have stem length in proportion to size of flower, up to eighteen inches. Gather straight stemmed flowers for horticulture and disbud. Grow flowers for show where only one flower is allowed. Use no oily substance to make plants shine. To polish, rub gently with nylon hose. Remove damaged leaves. Only two petals can be removed from roses without showing signs of removal. Sear cutstems of dahlias to prevent loss of juices. Place flowers in a cool room, not in the refrigerator if show room is expected to be warm. It's best to cut roses 1/2 to 3/4 open to show beauty. Break base of chrysanthemums for it to take water. Hammer base of a pyrocanthia bush to make it absorb water. Use lots of buds in flower arrangements. Accessories should be in proportion to the arrangement. When using a bird or animal as an accessory be sure he is walking into the arrangement instead of away from it. An accessory should match arrangement in texture, and repeat some of the color of the flowers. If accessory does not match you should paint it to match.

Mrs. Thompson invited the Plains Dirt Gardeners to attend the Brownfield flower show Oct. 20 from 3 to 5 p. m. in the party house at the park. Mrs. Bacon read the judges comments about our first flower show. The size and proportion of niches were discussed by Redell Cogburn. The hostesses, Mrs. E. H. Goehry, Allen Rollins, Haden Box and Miss D'Lois McGinty served delicious chocolate cake cocoa and coffee to the twenty six members present.

SOIL Conservation NEWS

C. MURRELL THOMPSON New Great Plains Conservation Programs, Revision of old Conservation plans and writing of new ones are continuing each week. Johnny Grace who farms several places and owns a track of land North-West of Denver City, has completed the writing of a conservation plan for his farm. Olen Cox signed a Conservation plan and Great Plains Contract on his place last Friday. Earl Bryson received assistance in revising his Conservation program last week.

Work with land owners on the amount of crop residue on the land and plans to handle it for maximum protection for the land is being done also. Several land owners are planning to use Cotton burrs on Cotton land as a mulch, and to protect the land from erosion.

Ray Bearden and several of his neighbors are already busy hauling burrs. Curley Taunton has some rye planted and plans to plant more. Cover crops are up to a good stand but need that long over due fall rain.

D.C. Massey who lives near O'Donnell, but farms 160 acres East of Plains, says his grain sorghum was too late to make grain this year but he has a good cover and plans to leave it until about April 1, for soil protection. D. C. says the stubble would afford some grazing but it is worth more as a cover on the land.

One Accident Reported

The Highway Patrol investigated one accident on rural highways in Yoakum County during the month of September, according to Sgt. D. S. Lawson, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for a property damage of $650.00. The rural traffic accident summary for Yoakum County from January through September of 1961 shows a total of 8 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were 5 persons killed and 3 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $14,250.00.

"Shorter days and longer nights spell disaster on the streets and highways," Sgt. Lawson said. Next time you turn on your headlights, glance at your watch and see how much earlier you are using lights than you did only a week or two ago. And, as time moves on during the next three months, carlights will be needed earlier day by day.

No matter what anyone may tell you how good a driver he is after dark, you had better take it with a grain of salt, because no human sees as clearly or as well after dark as he does in the daylight. Some people may see better than others, and some may not be bothered too much by bright lights in traffic; but, if they will be honest with you, they will admit that they do not consistently employ the same driving tactics after dark as they do in the daylight. The veteran Highway Patrol Supervisor added that night driving is different; therefore, it calls for a driving technique very different from that used during the daytime.

Area Doctors Honored

Members of the Dawson-Lynn - Terry - Gaines - Yoakum County Medical Society have received state and national recognition for their efforts in attaining 100 per cent participation in the American Medical Education Foundation fund raising campaign last year. The Texas Medical Association, through its Committee on AMEF, has sent a special citation to Dr. Keller P. Greenfield of Denver City, president of the local county medical society.

The American Medical Education Foundation was established by the American Medical Association 10 years ago. It is a non-profit corporation which solicits and distributes funds to the nation's 85 medical schools. These funds act as a supplement to limited operating budgets and help keep the schools free from the need of federal aid.

Texas physicians and their wives gave $50,654 to AMEF last year and an additional $45,725 was given by alumni as direct gifts. Since its formation, AMEF has raised $10,247,153. The American Medical Association and state and county medical societies throughout the country assume all operating costs of the Foundation, and every dollar contributed is given to the schools. During the last five years, $221,626 in AMEF grants have gone to Texas' three medical schools.
