OUR 34th YEAR

NUMBER 5

MOORE or Less

Several suggestions have been heard and received by us this week in regard to the editorial we ran on page one in last week's issue concerning the problem of the lack of supervision at our School Crosswalks, in one of which last week a Plains third-grader was struck by a vehicle.

After hearing the explanation of the City officials that the City just doesn't have adequate money to employ a full-time policeman, a part of whose duties would include watching those crosswalks, a great many alternative plans have been thought of by various interested individuals.

Odus Walsler last week reported to us that the State Highway Department had suggested that a large white "S" be painted on the pavement to better demark the school zone. This plan, he reported has been turned over to Mr. G. D. Kennedy, Superintendent of Plains Schools for possible utilization.

Other and more elaborate suggestions have come from others. They include such things as using Junior high students, with hand stop signs to escort children across the highway during the busy periods of use each day.

Others suggested plans that are being used in other cities, such as a volunteer-mothers crosswalkguard, which is used even in some relatively large towns.

These suggestions all have merit, and it seems to us that the thing needed now is for some concerned group here to get behind this project and see it to an equitable solution so that a maximum of protection is assured our children when they have to cross our highway, which according to our local law enforcement officials is becoming busier every day.

If we wait until a child is killed or seriously injured before we do something about it we have waited much too long.....

NAME STOCK SHOW DIVISION SUPERINTENDENTS

It was revealed today that the local chapter of Young Farmers in their regular meeting this week elected to assist the directors of Yoakum County Livestock Association in producing the Annual Junior Fat Stock Show to be held here next month on the 21st and 22nd.

To be of assistance the group chose a slate of men as superintendents, weighing in men, animal taggers, and bookkeepers, and some to assist the directors.

Superintendents selected included Bob Rucker, General; Roy McGeehee, Hogs; Charles Rosenberry, Sheep; Melton Capps, Calf; and Secretaries, Alfred Pippen and Jim Barron.

SAVINGS BOND

SALES REPORT

December E and H Savings Bonds sales in Yoakum Co. totaled $2,830 according to Mr. D. P. Moorhead, Chairman of the Yoakum County Savings Bonds Committee.

Savings Bonds sales in Texas for 1963 totaled $145,334,910 which represents 96.5 percent of the state goal of $150,600,000. This is an increase of 1.5 percent over 1962.

"I was happy to note the sales increase during 1963 over sales in 1962 and feel confident it was a direct result of the wonderful support given by bond volunteers, newspapers, radio & TV stations, organizations and others. The Texas Savings Bonds Committee salutes these groups for their patriotic support of the Bond program," Chairman Moorhead said.

Approve County Salary Schedule

Formal approval was given last week to the salary schedule for 1964 for Yoakum Co. employees and elected officials.

Few changes were made as compared to the 1963 wage scale but some small changes were granted in a few instances. Those allowed were a monthly increase of $25 in the salary of the secretary to the county attorney, an increase of $51.25 per month to one employee of precinct 4, and a salary of $40 per month was set for Cecil Brice who recently was appointed as special deputy sheriff.

The county judge still will receive a salary of $6,750 per year plus a monthly car allowance of $75. In addition to this he will receive an amount that is determined by the two school districts in the county as county school superintendent.

Group Gives Go-Ahead Water District Meeting Held

On Monday evening of this week a group of Yoakum Co. men, for the most part members of the local water conservation association, met in the District Courtroom here to discuss the possible advantages and disadvantages of forming a County or area water conservation district that would be similar to the well known High Plains District.

Lubbock attorney, George McCleskey, who is currently retained by High Plains and who was recently the counsel for the Yoakum County Association in obtaining an order to prohibit open pit disposal of oil field brine in the county.

McCleskey was introduced to the group by Bob Loe, vice-president of the association. The attorney in his opening remarks, reiterated some of what transpired in the hearing in Austin under scoring the fact that the area oil companies have been most cooperative in this matter. He also said that anyone who knows of a pit anywhere in the county the use of which has not been discontinued should be reported at once to a member of the board of directors of the local association. Those members are Gene Bennett, Russell Faulkenberry, J. S. Herrington, J. B. Ashburn, Bob Loe, G. W. Cleveland and Henry May.

After these remarks, McCleskey introduced Tom McFarland who is manager of the High Plains District. McFarland pointed out some of the benefits of having a water conservation district in the area. He stated, "Without any reservation, I firmly believe that were it not for the existence of the various water districts across Texas, our water would already have been declared to be the property of the State and its use and the amount used would be completely regulated by a State agency much like the Railroad Commission and the influence it exerts over the production of oil."

He said that a constant and continuing job of any water district was to attempt to alert people about bad legislation so that the actual will of the people can be made known to our elected representatives.

He pointed that just last year a bill was brought before the State Legislature that proposed the taxation of underground water as it was pumped from the ground. He said this bill was defeated but that others of a like nature will be forthcoming. In fact, he said, a bill to regulate the withdrawal of underground water by any and all users, including land owners, is expected to be attempted next year.

His point was that banded together in districts we have a much better chance of being able to govern ourselves in the area of water regulation than we would as interested but isolated individuals.

Several other responsibilities that can be assigned to a water district were discussed. One point however, was made quite clear in regard to the exact functions that any district will carry out. That is that the district itself comes into being in only one way, that being by a majority vote of the people in the proposed area or county. Further, that the function of the district, after its creation will be determined by a board of directors, also elected by the people under the general election laws of Texas on a precinct basis.

McCleskey pointed out that in order to get the necessary action started toward the direction of obtaining permission to create a district, the first step is to obtain fifty signatures on a petition which in turn should be presented to the Texas Water Commission, asking them to delineate the actual water basin boundaries of this area. After that has taken place, an election would be called to see if it is the will of the people that a district be formed. If a majority of the people in the delineated area vote favoring its creation the district will encompass the entire area, or even if only one county in the area votes favorably, then that county would become a water district.

A vote was called of the members of the Association present and the vote was 16 for and 2 against the present organization proceeding to get the necessary 50 signatures. An election of officers was held and the previous year's slate was re-elected with the exception that J. B. Ashburn was elected to replace Rod Duff as representative of precinct 3.

SCOUT COURSE FOR ADULTS STARTS TUESDAY

Word was received today from officials of the Quannah Parker Scout District, of which Plains is a part concerning a series of adult leadership training courses that will be offered to all adults who are active or who are interested in the advancement of scouting in this area.

The courses, four in all, are being given at the Chamber of Commerce building in Brownfield on each of the four Tuesday evenings in February starting with next Tuesday, February 4.

Anyone attending and completing all four courses will be eligible to receive the Scouters Key, a nationally recognized award of scouting. These medals will be given in March at the annual District Recognition Banquet.

The course is being taught by three Plains scouters, Gene Young, Odus Walsler and Johnnie Moore.

LICENSE PLATES GO ON SALE

Yoakum County Tax Collector, Elvis W. Craig said today his office would begin Monday issuing 1964 automobile registration plates.

He said his office also has a supply of pamphlets issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety that explain in brief recent changes in the Safety Responsibility Law that went into effect the first of the year.

Each motorist will be given one of the pamphlets when he purchases his car plates, said Craig.

Numerous changes have been made in the law, and to help the motoring public become familiar with the new provisions, the tax office is making the pamphlet available to the drivers of the county.

Political Filing Deadline Mon

With the political filing deadline for candidates who want their names entered in the May 2 Democratic Primary election coming up this Monday, most races are rapidly taking shape.

This week the Record was authorized to announce two more candidates. They are incumbent, Vernon Townes in the County Attorney race and H. I. (Doc) Blanchard who announced for re-election to the post of State Senator from the 15th Senatorial District.

The races at present shape up with Blanchard running as yet unopposed. Townes has two opponents, Don Hancock of Plains and Claude Freeman of Denver City.

Locally, so far, the only other office being sought by more than one candidate is that of County Sheriff in which incumbent Vester Sanders is being opposed by Denver City Police Chief Woody Sullivan.

The other county races are as of today being sought only by incumbents. They are E. W. Craig, Tax Assessor-Collector; Vance Brown, Precinct 1 commissioner and Raymond Bookout Precinct 3 commissioner.

In the race for State Representative, District 90, four candidates have announced locally. They are Alf Carpenter of Plains, W. A. Bynum of Brownfield, Roy R. Edwards of Denver City, and Howard Ragland of Levelland.

NURSING HOME SEEKS HELP

Mr. Melvin Smith, builder of the local Plains Nursing and Convalescent Center, announced this week that applications will be taken on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week for workers that will be needed in the operation of the local establishment which he stated should be open for business around March 1.

The applications will be taken by Mrs. Mary Morrison, who also will be the local administrator of the home in

Mothers March Friday Night

The Mothers' March, a portion of the local March of Dime Crusade under the auspices of the National Foundation is to be held here on Friday night of this week, which is January 31.

Local residents are asked to leave on their porch lights that evening so the ladies who are going to be out seeking the contributions will know to stop at that particular house.

This particular part of the Plains campaign is being undertaken by the Tsa Mo Ga and Iota Pi Clubs of Plains, and Mrs. Oma McCargo is the Chairman of the local drive.

Another phase of the local campaign will be handled by the Plains Chamber of Commerce, who, in the near future is planning to operate a road-block on the highway going through Plains at which they will stop cars and solicit contributions from the occupants.

For further information on the exact functions and services of the National Foundation see page two of this issue of The Record.

DR. TO MEET WITH COMM

Word was received earlier this week that Dr. John Gillette, well-known Lovington, New Mexico, physician was expected to be in Plains today (Thursday) for the purpose of meeting with the Yoakum County Commissioners to the end of reaching an agreement between the county and the Doctor on his leasing the local clinic, after which he would move to Plains to establish a resident medical practice. Local residents are anxiously awaiting developments on the meeting as Plains is at the present without a Doctor.

Cowboys Take Two Games

The Plains Cowboys had a real fine week this past one as they took two straight conference games.

Last Friday night they took on the Tahoka Bulldogs in Tahoka, in both A and B games, and won them both.

In the varsity game, half time saw the Cowboys leading the Bulldogs by a score of 27 to 14, and the final score wound up at 49-41 in favor of the Cowboys. In the final period of play, Tahoka slid up to within three points of the Cowboys, but were unable to ever get the lead during the entire game.

In the B game, the Cowboys were never seriously contested and the second string B team played the entire second quarter. Final score in that game was 47 for Plains and 15 for Tahoka.

High point men for the varsity at Tahoka were Danny Smith with 17 and Mike Field with 14.

Then on Tuesday night of this week, the Cowboys played to the home-folks against the Roughnecks of Sundown.

Again the Cowboys took both games without too much trouble.

In the varsity tilt score at halftime for both teams left a great deal to be desired as it stood at 21 for Plains and 17 for Sundown. But, in the second half the Cowboys were able to find the basket and were able to down the Roughnecks by a score of 54-35.

In the B game J. E. Todd led the Cowboys to a big victory of 46-26, making 10 big points.

This brings the B team's tally to eight wins and two losses for the season.

High point men for Plains were Jack Lowe with 14 and Bruce Long with 10.

Friday night of this week, the Cowboys meet league-leading Seagraves here in a return bout. Then on Tuesday night of next week they make a long trek to take on Wink in Wink.

NEW LICENSE PLATES---Plains office deputies are shown holding samples of the new Texas Vehicle License Tags that go on sale officially on February 1. Passenger car numbers in Plains will begin at CD 9075 and CE 10; Truck numbers start at IM 300; and Farm Trucks at 8F 8500.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: $3 per year in Yoakum and Terry Counties; $4 per year elsewhere.

Surely this must be a sign of prosperity—the other day we passed near a railroad track and saw a hobo smoking an almost full length cigar. . . . If some member of Hobo's International reads this please advise if this could be a good sign for 1964 prosperity. . . .

Mrs. Paul Davis of Milnesand New Mexico, saw our mention about the book from this column. Not catching the price she ordered one on credit. . . . By return mail she remitted, not for one copy, but for a whole dozen. . . . One can't lose faith with folks like this around. . . .

Here's my next problem. . . . For several weeks all one could hear was something about our ZIP code. . . . Lately, we seldom hear it mentioned. Not more than one letter out of four which we receive carries the sender's zipper. . . . And now here's our suggestion: Why not have each town's ZIP code set into the post office cancellation machine. . . . This would thereby help to preserve it for included. . . . Even if this could be done for only a few months, most folks would get their address books up to zip. If the whole idea is as important as we have been told this might make it work. Rep. Walter Rogers please note; also, Senators John Tower and Ralph Yarborough. . . . If the idea is worth anything, I will accept payment in uncanceled stamps. . . .

Some statistician has figured it out that after 70 years of active life, a human brain contains 15 trillion separate bits of information. . . . And now, how could anyone deny that univac isn't the invention of the century? . . . Just think, if only one egghead could sell these ideas for 15 cents apiece they could pay off the U.S. debt.

The following article, written by Waldemar W. Argow, would be a good blueprint for any life. It is entitled:

Youth's Credo

I believe in the greatness of myself, and that I am in this world for a purpose, that purpose being to put back into life more than I have taken out.

I believe in the integrity of other people, assured that they try as hard to follow the gleam as I do.

I believe in the gallantry of older people whose seasoned experience and steadfast devotion as preserved for me the precious heritage of the past.

I believe in the magnificence of the past, knowing that without its stored wealth I would possess nothing.

I believe in the challenge of the future, fully realizing there will be no future except it become alive through me.

I believe in the sacredness of duty, through which I must conserve what was given me, and thereby help to preserve it for all comers after me.

I believe in the contagion of health, and that I can spread it through cheerfulness, wholesome habits, sensible expenditure of energies and wise use of food.

I believe in the nobility of work as the creative expression of the best within me, and as my share in easing the common load of all.

I believe in the enrichment of play and laughter as the means of cleansing my body of staleness and my soul of bitterness.

I believe in the holiness of friendship, knowing that my life is a tapestry woven from the silken threads of many beautiful lives.

Because I believe this, I therefore believe in God, who justifies all my beliefs: He is the still small voice within, ever urging me toward the unattained. Since He cares for these things, I believe that even death cannot steal these precious possessions from me.

And whatever more I believe is entwined in those precious feelings that lie too deep for words.

March of Dimes Mothers To Deliver Health Leaflet

Mothers who will be marching for the March of Dimes throughout the nation this January will distribute millions of copies of a leaflet entitled "One Minute Warning," which gives the latest facts about birth defects and arthritis.

According to local March of Dimes volunteer leaders, these two disease areas are of concern to millions of people in this country. About 250,000 of our children are born each year with a serious birth defect. Arthritis and the rheumatic diseases afflict upward of 11,000,000 Americans.

The National Foundation-March of Dimes is fighting these diseases with the same three-pronged attack which helped conquer polio as a public health problem. Using the experience gained in spearheading the development of the Salk and Sabin polio vaccines, March of Dimes funds currently finance:

- a nationwide scientific research program aimed at finding causes and cures for birth defects and arthritis,

- a nationwide network of treatment centers which help bring top-quality medical care to victims of these crippling,

- a nationwide professional education program which channels latest scientific findings to scientists, physicians and their associates, and

- a nationwide public education program.

Latest addition to this public education program, according to Dr. William S. Clark, director of the medical department of The National Foundation, is the "One Minute Warning" leaflet.

"Our purpose is to reassure the public that much is being done in the fight against these two great crippling," Dr. Clark says. "The American people are financing the fight with their contributions to the March of Dimes, and they have a right to receive periodic reports of what is being accomplished."

In reassuring, non-technical language, the pamphlet, which takes only a minute to read, suggests these precautions for a pregnant woman:

- See your doctor early. Be sure to tell any other doctor you may consult, for treatment of other conditions, that you are pregnant.

- Take no drugs on your own initiative. Tell your doctor about any you have been taking. Especially, stay away from "tranquilizers," "mood adjusters," and "happy pills."

- Learn your Rh factor, blood type, and your husband's. Inform your obstetrician.

- Follow the diet your doctor prescribes.

- Avoid excessive smoking and drinking.
- If pregnant, don't knowingly expose yourself to infectious diseases—particularly German measles.

For the person who suffers from arthritis, the leaflet stresses: "Follow ONLY the advice of your doctor." Several other points of advice are given, among them, "Remember, there are no quick cures, no short cuts. Good results from treatment require time and patience."

If your home has been missed in the distribution of this pamphlet, you can obtain one free of charge from the local March of Dimes headquarters.

TEXANS AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Senator Yarborough of Texas and President Johnson exchange congratulations on enactment of the vocational education bill by the 88th Congress, in a White House bill signing ceremony. Others in the photograph immediately behind Senator Yarborough and the President are, left to right, Senators Javits, Randolph and Morse. This bill expanded vocational education; extended the National Defense Education Act three years, increasing funds for student loans in colleges and universities; and extended the law for aid to school districts in impacted areas. Senator Yarborough, a member of the Labor and Public Welfare Committee, was invited to the White House ceremony as one who had a key role in enactment of this bill.

1963 State Traffic Deaths

The Texas Department of Public Safety reported today that a preliminary count of traffic deaths in the state for 1963 shows that 2,703 persons were killed—by far the greatest toll in history.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., DPS director, noted that this means 282 more persons died in traffic last year than in 1962, or an increase of approximately 12 per cent. He also pointed out that the 1963 toll of lives was 92 greater than the previous all-time high of 2,611 in 1966.

DPS Statistical Services said it is estimated that when all reports are received for the year 1963, the death figure from traffic accidents in Texas will be 2,725.

"To attempt to place the blame for this great tragedy on one single factor would be pure speculation," Garrison said. "The records indicate consistently that speed too fast for conditions is the most prevalent law violation involved in fatal accidents. The second most frequent factor involved in fatal accidents is driving while drinking, and the third is driving on the wrong side of the road. A combination of these things often is involved. And we do know that in almost every fatal accident there is at least one violation of some traffic law involved.

"Therefore, it would seem that the best explanation for the upward spiral in traffic fatalities, both in Texas and in the nation, would be a combination of general carelessness and disregard for the law.

"As for the matter of speed we cannot over-emphasize that the Texas law clearly states that no vehicle shall be driven at a speed greater than that which is reasonable and prudent for existing conditions. This holds true regardless of what the posted limits may be.

"In other words, the law clearly places the responsibility for not exceeding safe driving speeds upon the driver himself.

"With these things in mind we wish to appeal to all Texans to recognize the seriousness of the traffic situation with which we are faced, examine the facts, and determine to resolve the matter in the true tradition of responsible Texas citizens.

LOCAL NEWS

Jerry Hale came home on Sunday after a lengthy stay in the hospital.

Many young people who are attending college have been seen around town this week, as this is the break between terms.

State Senator H. J. "Doc" Blanchard, of Lubbock of the 28th Senatorial District, has announced that he will seek re-election to the post of State Senator from the 28th District. Blanchard, because of Senatorial reorganization in 1962 has served only two years, the regulation term being four years.

He has filed for a place on the ballot in the May 2nd Democratic Primary. Blanchard's announcement had been expected.

In his freshman term, Blanchard was named to thirteen committees the, ost any Senator has ever served on, and was also named chairman of one.

It was the first time in the history of the Texas Senate that a first term Senator had served as a committee chairman.

The 28th District is comprised of Andrews, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Gaines, Hockley, Lynn, Lubbock, Martin, Terry and Yoakum Counties.

"This dry weather may be bad but it sure gives each farmer an opportunity to show what he can do in the way of conservation farming. Soil and water conservation are always important and this may be the year we get a chance to show just how important we think it is by what we do about saving our soil and water. ## People Of America

Facts from Comptons

America boasts about 250,000 Indians, most of whom live on reservations where they elect their own governing councils. Under federal law, all Indians born in the U. S. since 1924 have full rights of citizenship and can come and go from reservations as they please.

In peace and war, Indians have contributed greatly to America's heritage. Comptons Encyclopedia notes the accomplishments of Jim Thorpe, voted best all-round athlete of the 20th Century. In World War II, Navajo marines confused the enemy by radioing messages in their Indian tongue.

Stores on Indian reservations are still known as trading posts although most transactions are made with cash. The name goes back to the days when goods were swapped for food and tools. Today, trading posts also operate as banks, licensed by the Indian Service.

CITE FARM BUREAU WEEK

"Farm Bureau Week" in Texas will mark the beginning of an intensive campaign to boost membership in the states largest farm organization, according to Wayne Little, director of organization for the Texas Farm Bureau. Three areawide membership rallies will be held February 3 in Lubbock, Dallas, and San Antonio to kick off the organization's 1964 enrollment drive.

Gov. John Connally has designated the week of Feb. 3-8 as "Farm Bureau Week" to point up the importance of agriculture to the over-all economy and the necessity of having "an improved, prosperous, and organized agriculture in our state."

Little said that drive plans are aimed at hitting a new high membership record this year which will make the 12th consecutive year for the organization to gain members. Another goal, he said, is to regain the standing of being the largest state Farm Bureau in the South and fourth largest in the nation, a position that was lost to Alabama last year when that organization edged ahead of Texas in membership.

Purpose of the three rallies is to provide the inspiration and information to accomplish the goals, he said. All county
